Skyrockets and Bobcats Battle On Powell Field Friday, Sept. 23

The traditional rivalry of the Wellington Skyrockets and Childress Bobcats comes to Powell field Friday, Sept. 23, and two good football teams will give it everything they

A.G. Tyler, Longtime Area Farmer, Dies

A.G. Tyler, 89, a farmer in the county 69 years, died in Collingsworth General Hospital at 5:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, after a short illness. He was living alone at the family home east of Wellington when he was stricken.

Despite his advanced age, he remained active and have.

Game time is 8:00 p.m. The Bobcats already have their eye on a third consecutive try for the state AA championship. Wellington goes into the game with a 3-0 record. Childress is 2-1--a loss to Memphis but Rocket head coach James Williams believes that doesn't mean anything when it comes to ability. He thinks the Bobcats were just caught off guard.

These two trips to the state playoffs have given Childress enough post season games to total 30--the equivalent of three full years of regularly scheduled play. There will be Bobcats on Powell Field who have had the full experience of these additional games.

Childress won its opening game against Paducah, then suffered the loss in Memphis.

At one point, the Bobcats were down 26-6. They turned it around and when the game ended they were down only 26-20.

Last week they came back and beat Shamrock by a substantial margin. Any way they were assessed, the Bobcats are strong.

"They have one of the finest young passing quarterbacks around, Perry Morren, a 178 pound sophomore," says Coach Williams. "He has the best delivery I've seen in quite awhile in a young kid."

Outstanding too, is Kenny Dan, 165 pound senior who started as a defensive halfback until this season when he was moved to offensive running back.

Experience wise, there are 12 Bobcats who are veterans of the state playoffs.

In addition to Morren and Dean, Bobcats on the offense

Twenty-first Annual Soil Tour will be Held Sept. 29

The Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program comes of age in Collingsworth County with the annual soil and crops tour Thursday, Sept. 29.

There will be six stops during the three hour tour, which begins at the south side of the courthouse at 9:00 a.m. and ends at the noon barbecue in Ellison Park. Wellington Schools are furnishing buses to carry those going on the tour.

Sponsors again this year are the Agricultural Extension Service and Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District and ASCS.

The research plots to be visited will include cotton and grain sorghum variety tests, demonstrating the same varieties on two plots with different soil types; a waterway to eliminate erosion; and a forage graze program to be used in conjunction with wheat.

Farms to be visited are those of Jerry Nix, Troy Thomason, J.L. Souder, J.B. Wade, Fred Cox and Earl L. Bartlett.

Two specialists from the Extension Service will assist, Dr. Dale Loveless, area agronomist from the Vernon-Chillicothe research Extension Center; and Emory Boring area entomologist, Chillicothe.

County Agent Don Reeves and Ray Null, farm demonstration assistant, are in charge of the tour for the Extension Service, with the Soil Conservation Service staff, headed by Tommy Powell, district conservationist for the Wellington field office.

The first stop will be at the Jerry Nix farm on Highway 83 north of Wellington, for a grain sorghum variety demonstration. There are 14 varieties, most of them of the greenbug resistant type. All varieties are already on the market.

"Other qualities we are looking for are yield and standability. All varieties have semi-open to open heads," said Reeves.

At the Troy Thomason farm immediately north of town, tour visitors will see a cotton variety demonstration featuring 14 varieties. "We are looking for yield and quality in this plot. Of course, we are also looking for varieties that mature and grow out--in other words, varieties that are adapted to this part of the country.

There will be three or four new varieties. Again, researchers are hunting quality, micronaire, staple--whatever is needed in cotton here. This demonstration is on last year's guar land.

Another cotton variety demonstration is on the J.L. Souder farm west of Wellington. Basically, these are the same varieties but grown on different soil types. They follow last year's cotton crop and fertilizer was used in varying amounts.

At the J.B. Wade farm northwest of the Souder place, visitors will look at a completed waterway, engineered by Soil Conservation Service. The dirt construction was finished about 1970, and the system is well sodded with bermuda grass and is furnishing pasture, as well as

Hail Damages North Part of County

Damaging hail, along with heavy rain, struck in a number of areas spotted through the north part of the county Tuesday, Sept. 20. The hail started falling about 7:00 p.m. from clouds that developed around McLean.

Sheriff John Rainey and several deputies were in the area through the storm.

Sheriff Rainey said after a return trip to the area Wednesday morning there was heavy damage to cotton and grain sorghum from the Dozier area, east through a section north of Samnorwood, across Highway 83, and on to the Oklahoma State line.

North of Norwood, rain measured 1.5 to 2 inches, and from Lutie east about an inch.

In areas heaviest hit by the hail, the sheriff believes damage to crops could be as high as 75 percent, although it was hard to determine this early. At his farm east of Lutie, he found damage to Haygrazer.

He estimated the width of the area receiving hail damage in varying amounts as not more than 10 miles, but in length, it extended across the county.

The heaviest part of the hail appeared to be in a radius of a mile and a half from Dozier. Rain measured from 2.7 to 3 inches with "lots of hail." Although damage to crops is known to be heavy, in a limited area the extent had not been determined Wednesday morning. Water was over the road about two miles north of Dozier, and water was running under bridges higher than it has in a considerable period of time.

The Highway Department Maintenance crews were called to remove debris that had washed on the FM highway.

Hail 8 to 12 inches deep covered the road for a short distance.

Approximately an hour after the hail had stopped, Special Deputy Kenneth Martindale of Samnorwood picked up golf-ball size hailstones.

Approximately four miles west of Abra, FM 3143 was the dividing line. On the north side, crops appeared to be hailed out. On the south side they were undamaged.

Samnorwood area received an inch to an inch and a half of rain and hail.

Heavy hail was reported at Lutie and .75 inch of moisture was reported, with "lots of hail." Again, the extent of damage had not been determined at press time Wednesday morning.

Sheriff Rainey was unable to get into the Aberdeen community that night, on FM 1439, due to water on the highway in low places. While in the Lutie area, his car was damaged by large hail.

A man traveling through the county stopped at Lutie and showed Deputy Richard Keller a hole in the roof of his car he said was made by the hail, described as "big enough to put your fist through."

Wednesday morning, Marvin Knoll who lives east of Lutie said there was hail at his farm, but he had not been able to determine the damage. He estimated rain at about an inch.

Rain was reported north to the county line.

Working this storm with Sheriff Rainey were Deputies Keller, Julian Torrez, Jerry Settle, and Special Deputy Martindale.

Clean-up Drive Begins At Dodson Saturday

An all-out clean-up campaign that will eventually cover the entire town of Dodson will start Saturday, Sept. 24, Mayor Lonnie Roberson announced.

He is asking every able-bodied person in town to join in the work, which will begin at 9:00 a.m. Plans for this intensive clean-up drive have grown out of a series of four town meetings, in which members of the City Council and townspeople have studied their own needs. They agreed that cleaning up the town was the most urgent.

Two streets were picked for Work Saturday. One is the main street, FM Highway 338 through town, and the other is FM 1642, from FM 338 to the south edge of town. This is the street in front of the old high school site, Mayor Roberson said. These were agreed to in the fourth town meeting Monday, Sept. 19, attended by the City Council and townspeople.

Resident along these streets are asked to clean their premises and everyone will work on vacant lots.

Everything to be hauled away is to be placed at the edge of the street and will be picked up and hauled to a dump ground. Councilman Tommy Hightower and Ronny Ford have volunteered trucks for this work. Councilman Bobby Tabor volunteered to mow vacant lots.

After lots along the two designated streets are cleaned, the trucks will make a trip over town and pick up the junk that has been set in front of houses also, according to

Mr. Roberson. It is hoped a front end loader can be secured to handle heavy items.

Before the clean-up drive ends, not only will the vacant lots be cleaned, but an effort is being made to demolish several old buildings in the business section that cannot be repaired. Verbal permission has been given by the owner for one tile building that is no longer usable to be demolished.

Written permission to demolish these buildings is being sought from their owners.

Those who have farm machinery parked on lots in the downtown area will be asked to move it to a less conspicuous place.

"Mowing the vacant lots will be no problem after we get the junk off," said the mayor.

It was brought out that several streets need to be opened again, as they have been impassable since heavy rains several months ago.

It was also called to the group's attention that a large hole exists where the elevator and depot formerly stood, and this will be filled.

Another town meeting will be called in the near future, with the date to be announced.

A city council meeting followed the Monday night session.

D.D. Miller, who began work recently in charge of the Dodson Water Works, gave a progress report, and the

Kiwanis Club Holds Pancake Supper Before Football Game

Wellington Kiwanians will hold their annual Pancake Supper Friday, Sept. 23, just before the Skyrocket-Childress Bobcat football game.

This will be in the school cafeteria, and serving hours will be 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.

"We welcome everyone to come and eat with us, and we would like to have Childress people who are here for the game," declared C.T. Hubbard, general chairman.

All members of the club are assisting him. Sausage, syrup, coffee and milk will be served with the pancakes, and club members point out that servings are generous.

In charge of cooking the pancakes will be John Holton, Mack Saied, Jr., and Rev. Mickey Fugitt. Wayne McClendon, John Brown and Don Reeves will cook the sausage, and Charles Floyd and Lyman Daniel will prepare the pancake mix.

Millard Brown and Elmer Hiatt will brew the coffee, while Tom Anderson and Bill Spillman are in charge of the table service.

Rev. Jim Boswell and

George Shadid are in charge of ticket sales.

Those who will see that the tables are cleaned up will be Larry Barton, Bill Beall, James Carroll, Don Hendrix, Dr. Reynaldo Perez, Henry Wells, Grady Cochran and Jack Sanford.

Designated as "electrical engineers in charge of the dishwasher" are Larry Adams, Dennis Lasiter, Glen Mize, Joe Fickling and Benny Ford. All proceeds from the pancake supper will go into the Kiwanis youth program fund.

BIG FIND

Daryl Duke, 10, and Johnny Branch, 9, found this big turtle beside a vacant building in downtown Wellington Saturday and thought his size was something special. Daryl, a fifth grader, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Duke and Johnny, a fourth grade student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Branch.

Firecrackers Win 22-20 Over Clarendon

Wellington 8th Grade Firecrackers posted a 2-0 record when they defeated a fine Clarendon 8th Grade team 22-20 Thursday, Sept. 15. The game played at Powell Field, was probably one of the most exciting the Firecrackers will play this season.

The first half was a defensive battle, but the Firecrackers got down to the one yard with 10 seconds left before the half. They couldn't get the ball over and the score was 0-0 at the half.

Early in the third, Halfback Kenneth Warren threw a pass to Raymond Mackey, who scored. Then Mackey ran the ball over for two extra points.

Near the end of the period, the Warren-Mackey team repeated this play and added 6 more points. It was Warren who ran for the extra points.

The final Firecracker score came midway in the fourth period on Mackey's long run. The try for extra points failed.

All of Clarendon's scoring was in the last period on long runs by Bobby Weatherston, one of the fastest junior high players so far.

"They have a real fine team, and we played exceptionally well, also," said Coach Bruce Dollar. "Our boys wanted to win a little more than their boys did."

"Our lineman did a real good job blocking. One was Jeff Barnett, left guard. We ran a lot of reverses and he has to pull out and read the block and he got his man on every play. He did an outstanding job for a junior high football player."

"Raymond Mackey was carrying the ball on the reverses and did a good job running. He intercepted a pass that set up one of our touchdowns and Bruce Alexander intercepted a pass that set up another touchdown."

"Kenneth Warren did a real good job and picked up some key first downs."

"Tim Harris plays fullback and doesn't get to carry the ball very much, but he does a real good job blocking for the other backs."

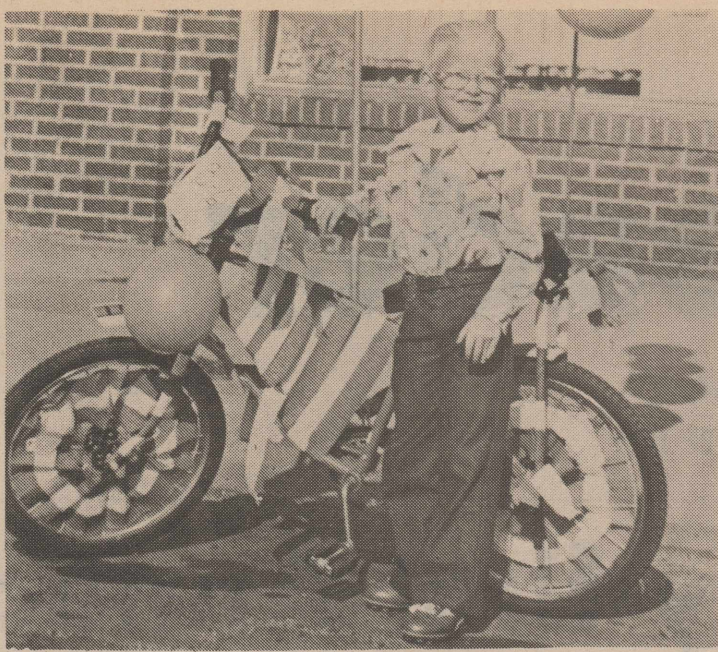

"I thought our boys did a real outstanding job. Last year, as seventh graders, Clarendon beat them twice, it's hard to overcome a memory like that."

Starting players were Rand Johnson, a new boy from Pampa, and David Moore, ends; Brent Long and Willie Pennon, tackles; Jeff Barnett and Johnny Mote, guards; Tito Nevarez, center; Bruce Alexander, quarterback; and Kenneth Warren, Tim Harris and Raymond Mackey, running backs.

although he no longer worked his crop land, he still raised cattle.

Mr. Tyler came here in 1908 and did farm work at Dodson for a few years before beginning to farm for himself. He moved his family to the place at Wellington in 1929.

Born at Lewisville, Dec. 30, 1887, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Milton Tyler. He lived in that town until he moved to Dodson.

Mr. Tyler was a member of First United Methodist Church and the Odd Fellows Lodge, of which was a past noble grand. He was married to Miss Mildred Allen who lived near Hollis on March 25, 1908. She preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church Saturday, Sept. 17, at 1:00 p.m. Officiating were the Rev. James Boswell, pastor of First United Methodist Church and Dr. Roy Collins pastor of First Baptist Church, Dalhart.

Burial was in Memorial Gardens under the direction of Kelso-McCoy Funeral Home. Pall bearers were Vance Hunt, Howard Hunt, Jimmy Bowen, Hubert Mauldin, J.W. Seitz, and Cecil Masten.

Survivors are two sons, Bill Tyler of Wilmington, Calif., and Hurshel Tyler of Olney; two daughters, Mrs. J.B. Faulkner of Wichita Falls and Miss Dorma Lee Tyler of Stamford; one brother, Roy Tyler of Oklahoma City; 7 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

eliminating erosion on that part of his farm. This was installed under the Great Plains Conservation Program, according to Mr. Powell.

The fifth stop, at the Fred Cox farm west of Wellington, will be to see Ermelo weeping love grass and forage sorghum, used in combination with irrigated wheat on Cox Loco farm. This is all part of his effective grazing program.

Either Mr. Cox or one of the SCS staff will discuss his operation.

At the last stop, the Earl Lynn Bartlett farm in Cross Roads community, another grain sorghum variety demonstration test will be examined.

I Saw... by Virginia Robey

Just in case you're interested in the names of the tropical storms-hurricanes for the remainder of this year, the next one coming up is Clara. Then come Dorothy, Evelyn, Frieda, Grace, Hanna, Ida, Jodie, Kristina, Lois, Mary, Nora, Odell, Penny, Raquel, Sophia, Trudy, Virginia and Wilene.

In cleaning out some files of The Wellington Leader, Publisher Henry Wells found this request from children of the Kelly School. It is undated.

"To the People of Kelly District.

"Please vote for us. We want to go to school in Wellington.

(Signed) Barbara Galyean, Kathryn Lenora Galyean, Troy Gene Thomason, Sondra Kay White, Thomas Kutch, Hugh Kutch, Jody Kutch, Phillip Lee Cobb, Wanda June Reynolds, Virginia White, Taddy Pound, Naneen Hughes, Georgia Nell Galyean and Teddy R. Lewis."

They did come to school in Wellington.

Troy Gene, Wanda June and Virginia have continued to live here. I was told last week that Phillip and his family are moving back. The others have scattered, as far as Australia.

Recently Brent Long, son of Bill and Ann, recently completed three years of perfect attendance at First United Methodist Sunday School.

Lonnie Hollingsworth of Lubbock subscribed for The Wellington Leader a few days ago and asked the date of the 1978 Wellington High School Ex-Students Reunion. For him and others who may have missed this, the date is Saturday, July 22, 1978. The July date was chosen hoping more exes who are now teachers can attend.

Lonnie added: "My brother, Sam, has moved back to Lubbock and is managing the L&H Drug Stores so big brother can run around and do other things. We both are in the same office so we'll welcome the Paper."

Lonnie is secretary-treasurer of the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association and unless his term has expired, is president of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association. He is Sam Hollingsworth's son and flies into Wellington much more frequently than most realize. Besides his drug stores, he has banking and other interest in Lubbock and served on the Lubbock City Council.

Mrs. Bob (Mary) Gilbert, who lived at Dodson as a young girl, recently won a first place on her crocheted afghan at the Rocky Mountain Craft Show in Denver, a nationwide event. She is an instructor at the Hobby and Craft Supplies Store in Montrose.

The Rocky Mountain Arts and Crafts Show is sponsored by the wholesalers all over the U.S., who invite retail shops dealing in art and craft items to attend and enter work from their area to be judged in the national contest.

This year's show had entries from every state. "The afghan I entered was Aran Crochet and won in a division covering all categories--crochet, knitting, crewel, etc.," she said.

Mary is the daughter of Mrs. Ima White of Pueblo, Colo., a niece of Mrs. B.T.

include Ricky Anderson, 164 pound junior who played wingback last year and is at left half this time. David West, 133, is in his old slot at wingback.

Todd Bradley, 166, is at center, and guards are Ricky Husband, 153, and Marvin Leary, 179. Tackles are Bubba Wilhite, 216, and Carl Moran, 156. Nicky Hardison, 137, has one end position. Brett Stone, 188, the other.

"They've been throwing the ball well," said Coach Williams. "We didn't have a good pass defense against Phillips. We're worked, because Childress can also run the football. We're going to have to make everything count to come out a winner."

Turning to the Rockets, he declared:

"I'm real, real proud of our kids. They've really improved. I didn't dream we'd put 40 points on the board against Phillips. If we can continue, and if we can get secondary coverage and good pass rushing, I think we can play Childress this week."

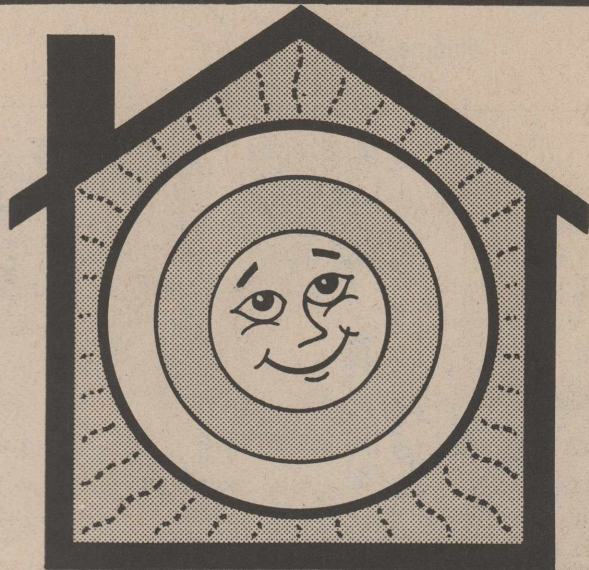

"Last week against Phillips, we had more young kids come through. James Thomas, our 170 pound halfback, did a fine job rushing and can take the pressure off Ricky Jones. David Baumgardner came in and did a good job at quarterback."

Webb and Olan Farris of Dodson and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert.

Welcome to the Agricultural Tour

We invite all students, men and women with an interest in agriculture to attend the annual farm tour Thursday, September 29. And we remind you that we all have a direct interest in agricultural production.

You can see tests of various varieties of cotton and grain sorghums, forage grass and a grass waterway system that conserves water and soil.

A free barbecue sponsored by the Salt Fork Soil Conservation Service follows.

Congratulations to the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service who are responsible for the tour, and to each of the people who participated in the experiments on display this year.

Singley Mill & Elevator

Welcome, to the Farm Tour

The farmers and ranchers friends at Wellington State Bank recognize the dollars and cents importance of grain sorghums, grasses and cotton to the economy of the county. It is necessary that we continue to search for better yielding varieties and hardier strains, and better ways to conserve the land.

That's why we urge our customers and friends, students, farmers and business men and women, to attend the annual agricultural tour Thursday, September 29. We believe that what you see on the tour will help farmers in their own operations, and will help the general public understand local farming operations.

We urge you to attend the

Mrs. Dennis Cudd Chosen for Outstanding Young Women Volume

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America Awards Program has announced that Mrs. Dennis Cudd, 1109 Bowie St., has been selected for inclusion in the 1977 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

The program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young women between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, in their professions, and in their communities.

"Accomplishments such as these are the result of dedication, service and leadership—qualities which deserved to be recognized and remembered," said Mrs. Dexter Orix Arnold, chairman of the advisory board and honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Cudd, the former Judy Crawford is involved in a variety of civic and church activities here, but there was an even more active period while her husband was on duty with the army.

Her major project since returning to Wellington in February 1972 is the large older house which she and her husband bought and restored.

"We did almost everything, except when we'd get in over our heads with something like plumbing," she says.

For some people, the summer of '76, was the year of the Bicentennial. For Judy Cudd, it was the summer she hung all the wall paper in the house, alone. "And it was before we got the cooling system in. It was ghastly," she remembers.

Selected pieces of antique furniture compliment the tall-ceilinged rooms. "I love old things, it's a passion of mine," Judy adds.

One piece is the kitchen cabinet with which her grandparents began house-keeping. "It was just a bucket of boards before Dennis began restoring it," she continued. She did the painting. Another family piece they cherish is a dresser which belonged to Dennis Cudd's grand uncle and aunt, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Yarbrough of Dodson. Other antiques have been picked up from time to time.

This year, Mrs. Cudd is president of Wellington Young Homemakers, last year she was secretary. She is leader of the 4-H Club. She is a member of First Methodist Church and has taught in its Bible School two years.

Hobbies include sewing and doing crewel embroidery. (She received a reserve champion's rosette on a crewel entry in the county fair last week.)

She helped organize a bridge club among the younger women, until then an unmet need, and she belongs to the Piddlers, a group of young women who do crafts or sew at their weekly meetings. "It's purely social but we exchange ideas," she added.

"While Dennis was in service, I did Red Cross Volunteer work at every post. This included the Well Baby Clinic, Orthopedic Clinic, Bloodmobile, and the Hospital Ward Bookmobile," she explained. She was always active in the Officers Wives Club, and was president of the Army Flight School Class Wives Club at Mineral Wells and in Savanna, Ga.

Their last tour of duty before returning to Wellington was in Panama Canal Zone. She is keenly interested in the current political developments concerning the Panama Canal treaty. When she watches a newscast, she knows the buildings and streets where the action is taking place.

Mrs. Cudd has high praise for the military life, the only unpleasant part being her husband's two tours in Vietnam. It was an opportu-

Retired Teachers Open New Year With A Look at the Future

Mrs. Cal Sugg and Mrs. Lowell Wells were the hostesses and program speakers Tuesday, Sept. 13, as the county chapter of National Retired Teachers Association opened its 1977-78 year.

"Facts, Frauds and Fallacies" by Mrs. Sugg was based on articles from Consumer's Guide, a monthly magazine of the Consumers' Union.

The contents were compiled by several medical doctors who are on the American Board of Internal Medicine, and their study concerned both prescription and over the counter medicines.

In discussing "Future Facts," Mrs. Wells told of "New York to Los Angeles in 21 minutes by subway." The vehicle would ride on and be driven by electromagnetic waves, carrying 100 passengers. The craft would float in the middle of a tube. The route would include brief stopovers in Chicago and Amarillo. The overall trip would take 37 minutes and the system cost is projected at $80 billion. The fare, however, would be only $50.

The "People Washer Egg" will be just that, with the individuals' head sticking out the top.

"In five minutes, one emerges, cleaned by warm bubbles showered by ultrasonic sound waves, followed by hot water with small rubber balls which massage the body, then a dry cycle circulating through the chamber, and you emerge very, very, very clean," said the speaker.

Artificial teeth can now be permanently implanted with no surgical procedure necessary, she continued. The patient can insert it into the root socket and bite down on the carbon vitreous tooth.

Other future facts mentioned by the speaker were fresh water from icebergs towed from the Antarctic, synthetic blood, plastic cars, and chemical transfer of learning. The meeting was held in the directors room of Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc.

Present were John Coleman, Mrs. Dee Coleman, Mrs. R.R. Crawley, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. G.L. Jones, Mrs. Jack Lowry, Miss Hattie D. Wells.

Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. Les White, Miss Bonnie Willis, Mrs. Sugg, Mrs. Monty Mitchell, Mrs. Edna Bradley, Mrs. C.R. Dearmond, Mrs. Ben Ratliff, Mrs. Rowena Thigpen, and Mrs. Ernest Harwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marks and girls of Wichita Falls and Bob Sanford of Dallas spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanford.

Pathfinders Open Year

The Pathfinders of First United Methodist Church met Monday, September 19, at 7:00 p.m. Hostesses were Mrs. Jerry Lewis and Mrs. Larry Henard.

Mrs. Sandy Covey, president, conducted the business meeting in which the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Chairwoman, Mrs. Glenn Thomas; vice chairwoman, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., and Mrs. Bill Spillman; secretary, Mrs. Lynn Emmert; treasurer, Mrs. Rodney Kane; reporter, Miss Jean Chandler; telephone committee, Mrs. Gary Killian, Mrs. John Henard III and Mrs. Jerry Lewis.

Mrs. Killian read the scripture and Mrs. Spillman reviewed the first half of "Torment to Triumph in Southern Africa."

Those present were Mrs. Larry Henard, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Killian, Mrs. Covey, Mrs. Spillman, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Andy Henard, Mrs. Emmert, Mrs. John Henard, III, Mrs. Robert Owens, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Mrs. Jim Boswell and Miss Jean Chandler.

Scott Reunion In Amarillo

Mrs. W.M. Scott of 1111 Dalhart and members of her family met Saturday and Sunday, September 3 and 4 for a two day reunion in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott of Austin flew in Friday night for the event and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott of Wichita Falls came by Wellington for Mrs. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Mid Scott and Tommie of Amarillo were hosts to the group Saturday, and Sunday the group continued visiting and reminiscing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Scott and Russell.

Mrs. Scott's grandson and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, Sandra and Steve, of Memphis joined the group. All of Mrs. Scott's children were present except one daughter, Ruth, who lives in California.

Demonstration Club Members Attend Annual State Meeting

Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. Bill Hill and Mrs. T.C. Fike, members of home demonstration clubs in Collingsworth County, are attending the annual Texas Home Demonstration Association (THDA) conference September 20-23 in Galveston.

Among highlights of the meeting are keynote addresses, educational workshops and social events.

Educational workshops during the meet will include sessions in health, safety, family life, citizenship, cultural arts and 4-H.

From those workshops, members will bring background, teaching methods and actual subject matter for developing local programs in Collingsworth County.

Organized home demonstration and Extension Homemakers Education (EHE) clubs now have 22,000 members in Texas. A 1973 national survey reported national membership at 600,000—to total a larger membership than any other women's organization in the United States.

According to home demonstration guidelines, members are organized to improve family and community life through the study of health, food, clothing, housing and furnishings, money management and family life.

In 1973, they shared that information with 100 million youth and 200 million adults nationwide by serving as volunteer instructors of individuals and community groups in their own counties.

In Texas, they also donated time and services to 50 different projects. Most of these projects were in health and safety and community improvement—along with programs for 4-H and other youth and older adults.

In addition, they contributed more than $10,000 to improve community centers—and they provided $8,700 in scholarship funds for youth.

Reddy's helpful tips for your HOME LAUNDRY

PLAN AHEAD
Sort clothes according to type of fabric, color-fastness, degree of soil and garment construction.
You'll save both hot water and electricity by doing similar items together.
Accumulate a full load before running your washer.

BE SELECTIVE

Choose the cycle that is precisely appropriate for the clothes you are washing. Is a "hot" temperature setting really necessary? Except for heavily soiled items, most loads will come clean in either a cold or warm wash. Look into cold wash detergents.

Too much detergent can clog machine and drains... always measure, don't guess!

Follow the manufacturer's recommendations for your type equipment.

Mixing brands of detergents can cause graying of clothes.

FOR SAFETY SAKE

Be sure control is "off" before reaching into your washer.

If one is necessary, use only a heavy duty extension cord.

Be sure your washer is grounded.

Keep dry cleaning agents, color remover and Fibreglas out of your washer. It's a good idea not to wash clothes containing cleaning fluids in your washer.

You can Bank on It!

By BILLY MOSELEY
President
CITY STATE BANK

Almost every person every day uses money — nickels, dimes, quarters, dollar bills. Obtaining even life's simplest necessities once was far more complicated. The settlers of America used commodities like corn, tobacco, and rum as money. Items were priced according to how much of the basic commodity they would buy; and the value of the basic commodity in the barter system was fixed by colonial legislatures. But the system was cumbersome. Colonial governments began to mint coins and print paper money. The main purpose of America's first banks was to issue currency. Living became less complicated. Today the bank still plays an important role in meeting the public's need for a medium of exchange. But payment has changed again. Today checks are used more than currency. About 90% of all payments now are made by check. Buying and selling is further simplified. We are proud to be a part of a system which continues to make the business of living easier.

From Gadget to Tool

Remember when the lazer beam was discovered and all manner of super powers were attributed to it? Interest in the discovery soon dwindled when these powers weren't harnessed immediately.

Now, after development, the laser has been put to work in industry where it is used in welding, in aligning pipe to carry telephone messages, in punching holes in nipples of baby bottles and in transmitting images from one place to another.

The laser is a beam of light in which all the waves are the same length. For this reason, it remains a coherent beam over long distances. Lasers generate enough heat to weld underbodies of automobiles and sides of ships. The Pentagon is working on lasers to destroy enemy satellites and missiles and other types of lasers that generate light rather than heat are scanning the bar codes on packaged goods and inspecting manufactured items as they travel along conveyors. Soon, high energy lasers may solve the problem of initiating fusion reactions in safe nuclear power.

With such developments of American inventors and engineers as examples, it's easy to forecast continued technological dominance for the U.S., a dominance that remains the envy of the rest of the world.

The Family Farm

The latest thing about the family farm comes from Washington where Cecil Andrus, the Secretary of the Interior, has a plan to invoke a 1902 law which was supposed to limit individually owned farms in reclamation areas of the west to 160 acres. He would break up larger farms into 160 acre family units by law. There was a time when a family could live on a quarter section of land. The Oklahoma strip was homesteaded mostly by farmers who filed on a quarter section and lived on it. In order to live on a quarter section of land, a family had to produce what they ate and much of what they wore. This romantic notion of the homespun farmer with his pitchfork and straw hat exists only in the movies or in the minds of politicians. Certainly any farm family today trying to make a living on a quarter section would have to have outside income from somewhere.

Farming has changed, like everything else. It has become an industry of specialization. Wheat farmers, the successful ones, have to farm 1,000 or 2,000 or even more acres of land. The machinery they use costs a lot of money. Tractors that cost $20,000 are not a good investment to plow up 160 acres of land, unless some crop can be grown that is worth a whole lot more than anything seen in these parts. Today's farmers have to have volume to make ends meet, and even then, they have to have quite a bit of luck and they have to have a decent price for what they raise.

Out here, the wheat farmers till vast acreages with expensive tractors and plows and combines. Down south of us the cotton farmers plant everything to cotton. Further south the rice farmers concentrate on that crop. All of these farmers, or most of them, no longer have a cow and a sow and a chicken house. They come to town often and their wives buy the family groceries at the supermarket just like city dwellers. The average farm of today is large and efficient and requires skilled management. Actually, most of the food we consume comes from large farming units that are actually food factories. Any law designed to break these larger farmers into small "family farms" is impractical. The oft quoted fear about huge corporations dominating the farming industry has been thus far unfounded. Farming is not that attractive. Big corporations with big money to invest are not that fond of such a risky venture as farming where success depends upon so many variables, including weather and markets and legislation.

There are some family farms where the owners market a few crops and live a simple life. But these farms are not what stocks the supermarket shelves and allows the average American to spend a smaller percentage of his income for food than any other nation in the world. Food prices are this way because of farming efficiency which calls for large units, not small ones. The family farm, like the mom and pop grocery store has a place in American life, but represents a bygone era. The Perryton Herald

AUSTIN—Gov. Dolph Briscoe now has two announced challengers in the Democratic primary governor's race. Atty. Gen. John Hill made official his long-expected candidacy at news conferences in Austin, Houston, Dallas and San Antonio this week.

A few days earlier, former Gov. Preston Smith (1969-72) revealed his comeback effort in mailings to newspapers all over the state.

Both candidates predictably slammed Briscoe for not exerting stronger leadership and zeroed in on the fact that the incumbent will serve 10 years in office if re-elected.

They also pointed to steep increases in state government spending during the last six years.

Hill and Smith immediately began initial campaign swings through the state.

Briscoe continued to shrug off the attacks and predicted he will win a third term without a runoff.

"I view the future with great optimism," said Briscoe at a news conference. "My record speaks for itself. I am proud to run on it."

Meanwhile, U.S. Rep. Robert Krueger of New Braunfels and former Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie of El Paso focused statewide interest on the race to unseat U.S. Sen. John Tower. Christie is still not an announced candidate, but a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner to bank-roll start of his expected campaign is set here October 18.

Federal, State Courts Speak

A federal court held 40 children of illegal aliens should be allowed to attend Tyler schools free. The Tyler school board voted to appeal the decision by U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice that it could no longer charge the children of non-citizens $1,000 tuition.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals stayed the first scheduled execution by drug injection. Kenneth Granviel had been sentenced to die September 16 for murder of three women and two children. His attorneys challenge constitutionality of the injection law because it does not specify the lethal substance to be used.

A district court jury in San Antonio ordered Southwestern Bell Telephone Company to pay $3 million for slandering two former executives in an internal investigation. The company is appealing.

State Textbooks Approved

The State Textbooks Committee unanimously ordered publishers to eliminate the generic use of "he" from future schoolbooks.

The committee adopted 90 new books, after voting to strike the generalized masculine pronoun.

The State Board of Education will vote on final adoption of the $31 million in new books here November 12.

Porn Booming

A legislative committee studying child pornography was advised to recommend tough state laws to deal with the problem.

A Los Angeles author told the committee, producers, distributors and shippers of pornographic films and photographs of children should be prosecuted vigorously.

The writer described Los Angeles as main production point for the films and Houston as a leading distribution center. He said most of the child performers are runaways but "there is a higher degree of parental knowledge and participation than we would like to think about."

license, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

Hill also said an audit report on purchase of wiretapping equipment in the Jefferson, Orange and Hardin county areas is available for public scrutiny.

In another opinion on the open records act, however, the attorney general concluded a University of Texas committee report on possible reduction in personnel at UT Permian Basin is not subject to required disclosure.

In other recent opinions, Hill found:

—Identity of persons who complain about child care standards violations at state-licensed day care centers is confidential.

—The Board of Pardons and Paroles can require a parole commissioner to accept a new duty station.

—Bidders' proposals for administration of a portion of Texas Medicaid submitted to the Department of Human Resources generally are exempt from public inspection as "trade secrets."

—A county can levy a road and bridge tax though it has no road bond indebtedness.

Record Cotton Crop Seen

Largest Texas cotton crop in four years—about 4.5 million bales—is now being harvested.

Yield per acre has been set at 366 pounds, up a little over the 1976 average, but Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said estimates dropped 200,000 bales since August 1, due mainly to lack of moisture for dryland cotton in the High Plains.

Patricia Cherry, Johnie Wright Wed in Rites

Miss Patricia Raye Cherry and Johnie Ray Wright were married in First Baptist Church of Big Spring Friday, August 26, at eight in the evening, with Dr. Kenneth Patrick officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Zonetta Moore Dorland of Big Spring, formerly of Wellington, and of Ed F. Cherry, also of Big Spring, formerly of Quail. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Moore and the late Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Cherry, Sr., two pioneer families of the county.

At the altar was a background of seven Wood-wardie trees and Emerald fern with a foreground of seven-branch candelabras flanked by arrangements of white gladiolus, mums, carnations and baby's breath. Dwarf Wood-wardia and Emerald fern offsetting fifteen-branch candelabras aided the effect of a back-drop for the choir loft. The choir rail was draped with green garland and atop two marble columns were large arrangements of white gladiolus, mums and baby's breath.

The kneeling bench was entwined with white carnations and baby's breath.

Van Johnson of Big Spring provided organ music and accompanied the vocalist, Jon Elrod.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown fashioned of white chiffon veiled over peau de soie. It featured angel sleeves of sunburst pleating, high beaded neck and a pyramid skirt. Unpressed pleats swept to a wide chapel train. The chapel length mantilla was edged by re-embroidered aleon lace. She carried a nosegay of white carnations with pink rose buds in scattered baby's breath arranged on a small white Bible which belonged to the bride's late sister.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Perry Gamble of Big Spring and maid of honor was Kim Dorland, niece of the bride. Other attendants were bridesmaids, Miss Hoylene Nix and Miss Robin Nix, both stepsisters of the bride, and Miss Denette Wright, sister of the groom, Mrs. R.D. Barron of Amarillo, cousin of the bride and Miss Candy Middleton of Big Spring.

All attendants wore formal length dresses of flame-red chiffon, with halter necks and sheer flame-red capes draping shoulders to the waist.

MRS. JOHNIE RAY WRIGHT

Jason Hicks and Jennifer Hicks of Odessa were the ring bearer and flower girl.

Best man was Doug Eppler of Hobbs, New Mexico, and groomsmen were Joe Wright and Jim Wright, brothers of the groom, Terry Shafer, Tony Shafer, Rickey Evans, all of Coahoma, and Joe Matthews of Big Spring. Ushers were Jay Moore and David Moore, cousins of the bride from Fort Worth, Mackey Vaughan of Big Spring and Ricky Don Logsdon of Coahoma. Candelights were Wynn Moore and Pamela Moore, both cousins of the bride from Lubbock. Mrs. Kent Shaw of McKinney registered guests at the church.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Dorland, 711 Belvedere Road, mother and step-father of the bride.

The bride's table was draped in white satin with a four-tier fountain cake adorned with fresh red and pink sweetheart roses. Other appointments were of crystal and silver with a large arrangement of white gladiolus, mums and baby's breath in a silver compote centering a buffet table.

The groom's table was placed in the garden room of the home with brass appointments. The table was draped with a burlap floor-length cloth which displayed an interlocking ring cake.

Guests were entertained on the outside terrace by organist, Van Johnson. Champagne fountains, hors d'oeuvres and small finger sandwiches were served overlooking a swimming pool filled with floating candles. The terrace grounds were decorated with hanging baskets and a large white wrought iron bird cage encased with white gladiolus, leather leaf and baby's breath. Other arrangements of fresh flowers and flaming torches were placed throughout the gardens, together with a fresh floral driftwood arrangement atop a rock waterfall.

Guests were registered at the reception by Courtney Moore, cousin of the bride from Fort Worth.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Tarleton State University and is presently enrolled at Howard College.

The groom is a graduate of Coahoma High School, attended Howard College and is presently employed by Sonny Tucker of Coahoma.

Immediately following the reception, the newlyweds boarded the Dorland's private jet for a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. The couple will live in Big Spring.

Mrs. Ray Richards of Amarillo visited her mother, Mrs. Doshia Dix, and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Karnes, last week.

24 Complete Emergency Attendant Course

A major step in the continued upgrading of this community's health care system came when 24 students completed the Emergency Care Attendant Course and were examined Thursday, Sept. 15.

Conducting the examination were four representatives of the Texas Department of Health Resources, Eric Kunish, Clint Vardeman and Glenda Powell of Canyon and Rodger Mitchell of Lubbock. Upon successfully passing the examination, they will be certified as Emergency Care Attendants by the Department of Health Resources.

The course was given through Frank Phillips College, Borger, and instructors were Marshall Peters and Tom Anderson. Both are certified as instructors by the Texas Department of Health Resources and the Texas Education Agency.

"This course was unusual in that there were so few dropouts, three, and two of these were due to illness," Mr. Peters said. "The Health Department people were pleased with this."

The 24-hour course, spread over 8 sessions in five weeks, became something more than that as students requested additional meetings for study and practice. Kunish and Vardeman came from Canyon for two review sessions at the end of the course.

Certificates for three hours in continuing education units were presented at the final meeting.

The course covered basic life support procedures and all medical and environmental emergencies, including accidents, trauma, heart attacks, strokes, diabetes, epilepsy, emergency child birth, burns, heat and cold exposure.

Mr. Peters pointed out that the ECA course covers the material taught in the Emergency Medical Technician Courses, but in less depth. EMT courses are now 128 clock hours.

Completing the ECA course were MaLourdes Bautista, Mrs. David Caison, Jack Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. N.E. Childers, Sharon Childers, Mrs. Jack Colson, Eva Enrile, Amy Godfrey and Michael Godfrey of Memphis, Danny Gray,

Mrs. Larry Hammons, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Jones, Brenda Jovero, Cecilia Lacza, James

DPS Assigns Herby Duncan To Wellington

A highway patrolman who grew up here, Herby Duncan, has been transferred to Wellington by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

He began work Friday, Sept. 16, as a partner of Patrolman John James, who has worked alone since coming to Wellington.

Duncan graduated from the Department of Public Safety Academy in Austin, Feb. 28, 1970, and has been assigned to Tahoka since then.

He has had additional training through inservice schools at the academy. These relate to new laws, weaponry training, and similar fields of study.

Duncan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Duncan, graduated from Wellington High School in 1963 and entered the Army, immediately. He later lived in Childress and entered the DPS School from Amarillo.

His wife is the former Barbara Tyler, who graduated from Quail High School. She attended an Amarillo business college and worked for SIC and a news agency there. In Tahoka, she was a dispatcher for the Lynn County Sheriff's Department. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Relatives attending the Panhandle and Shamrock services were Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, and her sisters who were visiting here, Mrs.

Thelma Brewer of Palmdale, Cal., and Miss Burnis Hicks of Cookeville, Tenn.

Crop Damage From Insects Now Lighter

Insect damage to cotton and grain sorghum in scattered parts of the county appears to be tapering off, County Agent Don Reeves reported.

A number of farmers have sprayed for boll worms and boll weevils.

"Throughout the summer, flea hoppers hurt us worse than the worms and weevils," Reeves believes. However, there have been more boll worms than in a number of years.

"Cotton is maturing now and weevil couldn't hurt us like they could have a month ago, the extension agent continued.

"We have had 100 percent weevil stings on squares in some fields, and in some isolated spots, up to 40 percent damage from worms."

Reeves warned farmers with grain sorghum maturing to watch for corn ear worms--the same thing as boll worms. "They can do economic damage," he added. "They have been in roasting ear patches the entire summer and now they are moving into the grain sorghum." They can do economic damage he believes.

There is also some infestation of lesser corn borers in commercial peas, but there have been few peanut insects this summer.

Clyde Alexanders Host Visitors

Fred Alexander and son, Joe, of Searcy, Ark., were recent visitors in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander of Dodson.

They helped on the Alexander Ranch by branding and vaccinating calves and also changed over the plumbing for the new rural water system the Alexanders recently were tied onto.

Other recent visitors in the Alexander home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garret of Midland. Mrs. Garret is Mrs. Alexander's niece. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swift and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hunt of Dodson.

Come to the Ag Tour

The annual crop tour is an opportunity for those of us who aren't farmers to learn a little about the county's chief source of income--agriculture.

And its an opportunity for those involved in agriculture to hear the comments of area researchers.

There will be demonstrations of grain sorghum varieties, cotton varieties, and soil conservation techniques that make the land more productive.

A free barbecue follows.

Rockets Outscore Phillips Blackhawks 40-20 Friday

Wellington's Skyrockets scored every time they got their hands on the ball in the first half and added two more touchdowns after halftime to beat Phillips 40-20 at Powell Field Friday, Sept. 16.

The win left Wellington with a 3-0 mark for the season.

The Rockets unleashed a new offensive threat in the form of James Thomas whose sprints around right end for 58 yards and 38 yards set up two Rocket TD's. Thomas carried 20 times for 170 yards, and took some defensive pressure off Ricky Jones who carried 27 times for 119 yards.

Wellington was forced to punt only once and on that play Arnie Ingram sailed the ball out of bounds on Phillips 5 yard line.

Phillips jumped to a 7-0 lead with a score on their first possession, but the Rockets bounced back and took a dozen plays to move from their own 27 to a score when quarterback Carl Taylor kept from the 2 yard line. An extra point pass failed.

On Phillips next possession Craig Needham found himself the only man between the ball carrier and the goal line, and put the stops on the Phillips rush singlehandedly. He repeated the job when Phillips tried the same play later in the game.

The Rockets handled the ball only three downs on the next possession before Taylor followed good blocks in one of the prettiest plays of the season to travel 45 yards for the Rockets second score. Phillips was penalized on the Rockets first extra-point attempt, but the Rockets failed again on a run.

Phillips moved the ball 50 yard in two passing plays to put the score at 12-13 and it looked like a horse race.

But the Rockets came back with a running attack employing George Darton, Robert Chambers, Arnie Ingram and Ricky Jones that kept Phillips guessing. Jones took the ball in from the 6 to make it 18-13, Rockets. An extra-point keeper by David Baumgardner failed.

Phillips handled the ball twice before Ricky Jones picked off a Blackhawk pass and took it 25 yards to score with a minute and a half remaining in the first half. Joe Thomas should be given half and scoring credit for his perfect downfield block that cleared the way for Jones. Taylor found Santos Guajardo open in the end zone for the extra-point pass to make the score 26-13.

(A word about the halftime show--while the football team was in the dressing room Jamie Larson's Skyrocket Band brought fans to their feet with an exciting display of marching and music that seems to improve every week.)

On the first play after the half James Thomas took off with a pitch-out around right end for a 58 yard gain that stunned Phillips.

The Rockets came back from the half with a bang. James Thomas took a pitch-out around right end on the first play of the half and ran like the wind for 58 yards. A couple of plays later Craig Needham was heading for the end zone corner from the 25 yard line when he hauled in Carl Taylor's pass over the shoulder in a play that left Rocket fans roaring and Phillips wondering how he did it.

Richard Garcia made a big third down play behind scrimmage to stop Phillips next drive and set the Rockets up on their own 42. On the first play from scrimmage James Thomas dashed 38 yards. A couple of plays later Thomas took a pitch-out left in from the 6 for the Rockets last score of the night. The extra point kick was blocked, leaving the score 40-13.

On Phillips next possession Garcia picked up Phillips 160 pound fullback Mike Cyphers like a sack of potatoes and tossed him for a 2 yard loss. Erminio Nevarez put in another good defensive play to force a Phillips punt.

Phillips put together its final scoring drive at the beginning of the 4th quarter when a 15 yard penalty set them up on the Rocket 36. Jeff Yarbrough tossed a 20 yard pass to Tim Hedrick for a score, and the extra point kick made it 40-20 for the night.

Seventh Grade Downs Clarendon

Wellington's youngest football team, the 7th graders, took their first victory Thursday, Sept. 15, 14-0 over Clarendon.

Gaining possession on the opening kickoff, Wellington took the ball from its own 30 yard line to the Clarendon 35, then fumbled and their opponents recovered. Neither team could score in the first quarter.

During the second, Wellington boys had the wind behind their back, and Johnny Garcia, halfback, swept around left end from the Clarendon 35 to put his team on the scoreboard. Wingback Billy Chandler was wide open and took the ball over for the extra points, and the score was 8-0 at halftime.

The third period was again a standoff, but in the fourth, the wind again at Wellington's back, Garcia scored again, with a minute of playing time left. This time he went around right end.

"We worked on blocking all week long after our loss to Shamrock," said Coach Ronnie Glenn. "This time we were playing people our own size. We buckled down and got after them and did a real fine job."

"Our two cornerbacks, Wade Williams and Billy Chandler, didn't let them get outside. They played a very good game. A pass from Williams to Darren Hall gave us some good gain."

"It seemed like the boys knew what they were doing more than last week."

Members of the 7th grade team are Nicky Anglin, Loyd Bland, Scott Cochran, Martin Granados, Lerory Hudson, Brent Jones, Drew Lacy, Otis Lewis, Ricky Martinez, Darren Moore, Rodney Nash, Ben White, Eddie Trimble, Shelton Duncan, Wade Williams, Four touchdowns that showed off some of the Skyrocket Junior Varsity versatility gave them a 28-0 victory over Clarendon JV in the home opener, Thursday, Sept. 15.

And while they roamed over the Wellington 30 once during the first half. For the remainder of the game, they never got beyond the 50-yard marker.

Wellington grabbed the initiative early. Winning the toss, the Rockets elected to receive and took the ball on their 30. In 11 plays, they drove for a touchdown, with Tim Anderson carrying the

Farm Booth in Tri-State Fair

A Collingsworth County Booth is publicizing its farm products at the Tri State Fair, Amarillo, this week.

These booths are not judged, but are to give each county an opportunity to show those products that make it strong agriculturally.

Featured in the booth are corn, grain sorghum, forage sorghums, sudangrass, hegar, pearl millet, and pasture grasses. Seeds include alfalfa and clover, switch grass, buffescue and love grass.

Also in the Collingsworth County Booth will be found vegetables such as cucumbers, peppers, watermelons, pumpkins, several varieties of squash and cucumbers. Late maturing peaches are there also.

"These products came from every part of the county," said Reeves.

He urged county people going to the Fair to visit it in the building just south of the coliseum.

Reeves put up the booth Saturday, assisted by his sons, Bill and Wes, and Mark Fourmountin.
