Small Victory Is Claimed By French Troops

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — The French High Command claimed victory today in a midget siege battle of the Dien Bien Phu type at Nam Tha, in northern Laos.

The French - Laotian garrison vanquished an attacking force of about 400 of the Communist-led Vietminh after being harassed for six days by continual mortar, machine gun and light arms fire, a spokesman said. The rebels, outnumbering the defenders 3-2, were reported to have lost 55 men, while the garrison's casualties were "very light."

Nam Tha lies on an eastern tributary of the Mekong River 100 miles west of Dien Bien Phu, the French Union fortress which was overwhelmed May 7. It is 18 miles south of the frontier of Red China's Yunnan Province and barely 50 east of Burma's border.

Five more men of the Dien Bien Phu garrison, all Thais, were disclosed to have escaped and reached the safety of a French defense post in Laos yesterday after a long, danagerous trek through jungle and swampland. Five other Thais, natives of mountainous northwest Indochina, had stumbled into friendly camps May 19.

Three of the wiry little men were from the central section where Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries had his command post. All the others were from Isabelle, a supporting strong point to the south where most of De Castries' artillery was concentrated.

On the political front in Indochina, the various religious groups, including the Cao Dai, the Hoa Hao and the Binh Xuyen, announced they will hold a national Congress beginning Wednesday. The Congress is expected to protest any partition of Viet Nam, an idea which it ascribes to "the colonialists and imperialists" at Geneva.

American diplomats here say Viet Nam's political situation has deteriorated rapidly since the fall of Dien Bien Phu. They contend only bold steps can save the government.

This became known today as a French study of steps necessary to bolster Indochina's defenses reached near-completion. Washington reports have said this study is expected to open a new phase in French-American talks on possible U.S. intervention in the Indochinese war.

American diplomats are worried, however, lest the French-sponsored Vietnamese government of former Emperor Bao Dai collapse before outside help can be brought to keep it on its feet.

In overwhelming French Union forces at Dien Bien Phu, the Vietminh dealt a heavy blow at the morale of the Vietnamese backing Bao Dai's administration.

As a first measure to bolster it, the United States will recommend soon that Bao Dai hurry home from Europe to take over active leadership again. The Viet Nam chief has been on the French Riviera for more than a month awaiting the outcome of the Geneva conference on Asia and negotiations for complete independence which his officials are carrying on with the French at Paris.

Although the period is extremely critical, most of his Cabinet ministers also are at Geneva, Paris or elsewhere outside the country. Several important decisions have not been carried out.

Before Bao Dai left for France, he signed decrees creating a war cabinet with wide powers and assigned Premier Prince Buu Loc to draw up plans for a provisional national assembly. The cabinet, at its first meeting, ordered total mobilization of all men between 21 and 25 for military service.

Due largely to sharp differences between government officials, no steps have been taken yet to put these measures into effect.

The French military study is being made by Gen. Paul Ely, chief of staff of the French Army. He is to return to Paris soon to report to a French-American conference, scheduled to open early in June.

Two Killed In Air Crash At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—At least two men died in a crash of an Air Force C46 whose wreckage was found at mid-morning today between Center Point and Comfort.

Searchers phoned Kelly AFB that two bodies have been recovered and that the three other crew members were injured.

Kelly immediately dispatched helicopters and ambulances to the scene.

The site is about 50 miles north of San Antonio and some 15 miles east of Kerrville. It's in rugged, hilly country.

The plane was from the Indiana Air National Guard at Columbus, Ind.

The plane, a C46 flying from El Paso to San Antonio, disappeared last night.

A resident at Medina, 23 miles south of Kerrville, reported he heard the plane over Medina with its engine cutting out. Residents of Kerrville reported they heard a low-flying plane about 11 p.m.

Low clouds early today delayed the start of the search.

The pilot of the missing plane had reported last night he was flying through rainy weather and a low ceiling.

The Civil Air Patrol set up headquarters at the Kerrville Airport to direct the search.

Col. George A. Brewer Jr., commanding officer of the Texas Wing of the CAP, said 20 planes were expected to participate. Only two had arrived here early today, but the others were expected as soon as the clouds cleared.

Negroes Plan Drive To End Segregation At Quick Rate

ATLANTA (AP) —Negro leaders throughout the South will petition local boards of education to eliminate school segregation immediately in the first mass follow-up of the U. S. Supreme Court ruling on segregation.

That strategy was discloses yesterday after a conference here of leaders of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People from 18 states.

Issuing an "Atlanta declaration," the NAACP officials called for integration at all school levels and advocated Negro teacher assignments and federal aid for education.

Thurgood Marshall, special legal counsel for the NAACP, and Walter White, executive secretary, were the chief spokesmen in a news conference after the closed meetings.

Marshall, who represented the organization in the Supreme Court arguments, said there would not be "time for imaginary problems" in ending school segregation. He did not estimate how long it would take, however.

He warned against juggling school districts to evade the court ruling, although he said he recognizes the right of school boards to set up district lines.

The NAACP will take up the subject of segregation in other fields when it meets in Dallas next month, Marshall said.

White assailed three critics of the Supreme Court—Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina and Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga).

He described Talmadge and Byrnes as "the most pathetic figures in American life today . . . in their frustration and bitterness." Both governors are shaping plans to evade the court ruling.

White made this comment in speaking of Russell: "Frightened by the possibility that Herman Talmadge might run against him for the United States Senate, Sen. Russell made one of the most intemperate speeches of recent years on the floor of the United States Senate, denouncing the United States Supreme Court."

The NAACP leader added that this scotched Russell's "burning ambition to be president of the United States" and at the same time supplied the Kremlin with propaganda material.

Russell said in Washington that he had no comment.

In the statement issued here the NAACP officials noted that "school officials will have certain administrative problems in transferring from a segregated to a nonsegregated system," but added: "We will resist the use of any tactics contrived for the sole purpose of delaying desegregation."

Talmadge did not comment afterwards on the NAACP's plan for approaching local school boards. He did say, however: "The people of Georgia well know my views. As long as I'm governor of Georgia there will be no mixed schools. I am not interested in pleasing Communists at home or abroad."

Talmadge said on a CBS program yesterday that the state will not comply with the Supreme Court decision.

"It would take several divisions of troops to police every school building in Georgia and then they wouldn't be able to enforce it," he said.

Another defiant note came from Sea Island, Ga., where Leander Perez of Baton Rouge, La., declared that interracial marriages are the "ultimate objective" of the NAACP.

Perez, national director of the States Rights Committee, appeared with Georgia's Lt. Gov. Marvin Griffin on an MBS program. Both said the South will not accept the decision passively.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary Stevens assumed full responsibility today for the Army's charges against Sen. McCarthy and, in a sharp exchange with the senator, denied this was a "cover up" for higher officials in the Eisenhower administration.

The Army secretary was back in the witness chair of the resumed McCarthy-Army hearings and tussled with the senator repeatedly.

McCarthy hammered hard to develop his contention the charges were really "instigated" by White House aides, and the two men repeatedly swapped sharp words.

Sarcastically, McCarthy suggested at one point that Stevens had had a long rest and should now be able "to tell the truth."

Stevens, his voice rising, leaned forward in the witness chair and said: "I resent that remark. I tell the truth. I don't think the chairman ought to allow that kind of statement to be made."

McCarthy asserted that Stevens had given "completely contradictory" testimony about the inception of the charges against the senator and his aides.

He asked that the official reporter type up this morning's testimony so he could point out differences from statements Stevens had made earlier in the hearings.

McCarthy was still pounding away at Stevens when the hearing was recessed for lunch.

The secretary acknowledged he had consulted with high administration figures about the Army's difficulties with McCarthy's investigations subcommittee but insisted the Army alone was responsible for bringing the charges.

"You can't cover up for anyone by accepting the responsibility," McCarthy stormed.

"I'm not trying to cover up" Stevens retorted. "There isn't anybody to cover up."

Stevens objected each time McCarthy referred to the Army charges as "smear charges." The secretary said he didn't make "smear charges" and insisted he always tells the truth.

"I stand squarely on that," Stevens told McCarthy when asked whether he stood on his statement today that "decisions and acts" in the McCarthy-Army controversy were the Army's alone.

McCarthy said he was "getting awfully weary" trying to "get answers to some simple questions." It was, McCarthy said, "like pulling teeth."

At one point, Stevens told McCarthy "everybody in the Pentagon" agreed the Army should file its charges against the senator.

McCarthy said Stevens knew "a long time ago" that the charges were prepared with the assitance and advice of White House aides.

"No, I don't know it," replied Stevens.

Were they prepared on his own orders? McCarthy asked.

"Yes," said Stevens, saying he gave the order some time after he arrived back from the Far East early in February. The charges were sent to members of Congress March 10.

McCarthy sought to develop that the executive department primed Sen. Potter (R-Mich) to get the charges from the Pentagon.

BRITISH SEND EDEN TO MEET WITH NEW ORDERS

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden flew back to the Geneva conference on Indochina today with secret new instructions.

Eden got his orders in a 50-minute Cabinet meeting this morning at No. 10 Downing St., Prime Minister Churchill's official residence.

The foreign secretary told airport reporters:

"I shall continue to do my best to reach an acceptable and peaceful settlement in the Far East. I think it likely that our discussions during the next week or two will be decisive."

Eden flew to London Saturday as the feeling grew that the Geneva talks might be near a breakdown and a new British policy would have to be worked out to meet that contingency.

Western diplomats expect the British to carry on at Geneva with their policy of trying by every means to get a satisfactory negotiated settlement of the Indochina War. These British tactics have produced a rift between Washington and London because they have delayed action on proposals for a united front against communism in Southeast Asia.

However, the Cabinet may have agreed on a time limit for the Geneva talks. The aim would be to block the Reds from stalling while Ho Chi Minh's divisions make new gains in the Indochina fighting. The British presumably would be ready to line up with the united front if there was no negotiated settlement.

Britain's top service chiefs do not attend the Cabinet session. This made it seem unlikely that any detailed plans for military intervention in Indochina were discussed.

Until now Britain's policy has been to give the Geneva talks every chance to produce an Indochina solution before turning to other ways to halt the Red sweep in Indochina. Churchill told Commons last week this country would undertake "no new commitments before results at Geneva are known."

As the Geneva talks are prolonged, however, the British face the question of whether they should set a time limit on their "wait and see" policy. The longer the conference lasts, the greater advantages accrue to the Communists.

Most British newspapers predicted there would be no immediate change in the government's policy. Diplomatic writers also generally agreed Churchill and the Cabinet would leave it up to Eden to determine how long he will continue to take part in the talks if they seem likely to prove fruitless.

The United States already has made it clear to Britain and France she is ready to end the talks at any time. The American delegation reportedly feel the Communists are stalling for time while they push preparations for a new offensive in the vital Red River delta area of north Indochina.

422 Wounded Brought Out Of Fallen Fort

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — French army headquarters announced today 422 French wounded have been evacuated thus far from the fallen fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

One hundred and thirty casualties — a record number for one day — arrived in Hanoi last night. They had been airlifted by helicopters and light planes to Luang Prabang, the royal Laotian capital, and flown the rest of the way in transport planes.

The French command also announced the Communist-led Vietminh had agreed to release a grand total of 858 wounded, including all nationalities represented in Dien Bien Phu's defense contingent. The rebels previously had said they would release 753.

A message from the Vietminh high command, received at French headquarters last night, promised to repair the main airstrip at Dien Bien Phu to make it usable for transport planes. The message asked the French to send army engineers and mine detectors to help remove mines from the field.

The message apparently replied to a French offer May 17 of aid in repairing the strip to speed the evacuation. French officers said the command had agreed to the rebel request.

Recognition In Italy Sought

ROME (AP)—A long fight by The Assembly of God religious congregation for juridical recognition in Italy reaches the State Council, the nation's highest magistracy, tomorrow.

A petition for recognition was submitted two years ago after months of efforts had failed to obtain such recognition from the Italian Interior Ministry, which controls religious cults in Italy. Premier Mario Scelba was interior minister two years ago and today still holds that portfolio, but now is premier as well.

The outcome is being carefully watched by evangelical and other protestant sects in Italy, especially The Church of Christ. Like the Assembly of God, The Church of Christ has been unable to obtain juridical recognition in Italy.

Such recognition enables a religious congregation to function freely. Otherwise, it may be subjected to police regulation, including the necessity of obtaining police permission to hold services.

Nurse Released In Indochina

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — Lt. Genevieve de Galard Terraube, the heroic nurse of Dien Bien Phu, arrived by plane today and said she was in good health.

She flew into beleaguered Dien Bien Phu March 27 to aid the wounded and was unable to leave because of rebel advances. She remained, tending her hundreds of charges, until the fortress was overrun May 7, the only woman in the post.

Although a prisoner, she was permitted to remain at Dien Bien Phu to do her work until freed today. More than 400 of the wounded men in the fort have been flown out ahead of her.

She told newsmen at Bachmai Airport here she was taken by helicopter from Dien Bien Phu today to Luang Prabang, the Laotian capital, and then brought here by plane.

The attractive young French air force nurse posed for press and television photographers.

"I have nothing to say and I've made up my mind about that," she told reporters.

Opinion Still Favors Joe As TV Hearings Start Again

By The Associated Press

This is the day that Americans once again cluster around TV screens to watch the Army-McCarthy hearings.

"The most dramatic thing ever lensed," said one fan in a letter to the ABC network.

One thing seems certain: the hearings have stirred up a tremendous reaction among newspaper readers, TV viewers and radio listeners.

As many as 4,000 protests have descended on a TV station that dropped live telecasts.

Thousands of letters have piled into newspaper offices to commend or condemn Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis).

"If McCarthy, Cohn and Schine are protecting us from Communists, who will protect us from McCarthy, Cohn and Schine?" a reader wrote the New York Post.

"Sen. Joe McCarthy . . . carries the cross, not that he has to carry it, but because his country comes first with him, regardless of party lines or beliefs," said a letter in the St. Paul Dispatch - Pioneer Press.

The Associated Press checked 61 representative newspapers from coast to coast and North to South to see how sentiment was running in letters to the editors.

Twenty-five of the newspapers said the majority of the letters they received on the topic favored McCarthy; 19 said the majority was anti-McCarthy; and 17 said there was about an even split.

Here is the breakdown regarding McCarthy by sections:

	S	Pro	Anti	Even
East	8	6	5
South	0	3	3
Midwest	9	7	6
West, Southwest	8	3	3

Nineteen editors said the letters showed an increasing anti-McCarthy trend since the hearings began and four said there was an upswing for the senator. Little or no change in sentiment was quoted by 39.

The Providence (R.I.) Sunday Journal polled its readers and said results indicated:

1. Neutrality about the senator has all but disappeared.

2. While McCarthy has increased his supporters slightly, the number who now disapprove of him has greatly increased.

The Journal said its replies broke down this way:

	Before Hearing	Now
Approve McCarthy	2,670	2,923
Disapprove	2,969	4,416
Indifferent	1,726	24

The Boston Post said it has noted little shift in sentiment since the hearings began.

The Post circulated in 20 towns and cities of Greater Boston a questionnaire asking, "Do you consider McCarthy has performed a valuable service for the United States?" The results were listed as follows:

	Yes	No
Democrats	596	192
Republicans	324	108
Unenrolled persons	164	384
Totals	1,084	684

Here are some of the pro and con arguments when the readers write:

"Guy named Joe came to exterminate some rats in my house. I got rid of him. Didn't like his methods. Hired a 'New Deal' intellectual instead. Rats have now taken over." — Letter in New York Daily News.

"The tactics used by McCarthy are those of a man with something to hide. In McCarthy and those of similar ilk, we have American fascism at its worst." — Letter in Richmond (Va) News-Leader.

"When the shouting dies down, then will the senator from Wisconsin be known for his exhaustive efforts in weeding out Communists. Then we may well say: 'Sen. McCarthy, you are truly a great American.'" — Letter in Detroit Free Press.

"For years I have been a great admirer of Sen. McCarthy, but thanks to the TV hearings I have discovered that he is just a jumping jack, a publicity hound." — Letter in Chicago Tribune.

Callers to the TV stations seldom express opinions on the hearings or personalities as such, but usually are vehement in declaring the proceedings should be telecast.

ABC and Du Mont are the only networks carrying the hearings "live."

ABC says it has received "an unprecedented volume of letters from all sections of the country, lauding the continued and complete coverage of the sessions."

WOKY, only Milwaukee TV station carrying the hearings "live," reports it received 15,000 phone calls, letters and telegrams the first week, most of them complimenting the coverage.

The NBC station in Los Angeles, KNBH, said it received about 4,000 calls, most of them protesting, in the four days after NBC dropped its live coverage.

State Has Stormy Weather In Night

By The Associated Press

A weak cold front edged down Texas Monday, setting off scattered rain showers.

Ahead of it Sunday, hail slashed at wheat fields east of Plainview and turned the ground white at Hereford in the Panhandle.

Rains up to seven inches flooded highways and roads in West Texas, washed out some bridges and stalled automobiles.

An Air Force C46 carrying five persons from El Paso to San Antonio disappeared in the vicinity of Kerrville, 66 miles northwest of San Antonio Sunday night. The pilot had radioed that he was flying through rainy weather and a low ceiling. Residents of Kerrville reported they heard a low-flying plane about 11 p.m.

Early Monday, light rain fell at Dalhart in the Panhandle, at Amarillo, Abilene and Wichita Falls.

Rainfall totals in the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a.m. included 1.46 inches at Abilene, 1.30 at Lubbock, 1.24 at Cotulla south of San Antonio, 1.21 at Laredo and lesser amounts at Dalhart, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells, San Antonio, Victoria, Del Rio and Junction.

The Weather Bureau warned of tornado conditions Sunday but no twisters were reported.

In the tiny community of Dumond near the Panhandle, seven inches of rain fell Sunday. Guthrie, nearby, got five inches.

Other rainfall reports up to midnight Sunday included:

Up to five inches east of Plainview, one to five inches in Wheeler County, Lubbock 1 inch in an hour, Olton two inches, Dawn in Deaf Smith County three inches, Amarillo scattered showers, more than two inches in some of the ranch area around San Angelo and southward, including Christoval 1.5 inches, Ozona .75, Mason 1, Menard 1.75, Junction 1.15, north of Winters 2.25, Carlsbad 1.5, Orient 2.08, Wall 1, Ballinger .87, Llano 1.10 and Cherokee 2.

The flash downpour at Lubbock turned streets into tiny creeks and stalled cars.

In Wheeler County, six bridges on county roads were washed out. Water ran over two highways at Olton.

Severe damage to wheat from the heavy rain was reported east of Plainview. Hail turned the ground white at Hereford and some farmers said their hay was ruined. Some hail was reported between San Angelo and Sterling City.

U.S. Highway 83 between Ballinger and Winters was closed by high water, as was U.S. 82 northwest of San Angelo for about three hours. Farm roads around Ballinger were flooded.

Forecasts were for cooler weather Monday over the northern part of the state with scattered thundershowers for all areas except west of the Pecos River and in Southwest Texas. The Southeast area forecast called for the showers to reach that section Tuesday.

Extradition Is Ruled Out In 8-Year-Old Triple Slaying

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Legal roadblocks stalled action today in the 1946 ax-arson slaying of three American Army officers in Germany.

U.S. Chief Prosecutor Thomas Lancian announced the present evidence was not legally sufficient to ask the extradition of James M. Leech of Lima, Ohio, a former Army captain.

Leech was accused last Friday by Lancian's deputy of the savage murder of the three officers, Jan. 7, 1946, at Passau, Germany.

Leech has denied the killings. Informed in Lima of Lancian's announcement, the Ohioan told a newsman:

"All I know about this is what has been supplied me by the newspapers. I have nothing official on this latest move. When the final decision is reached, I'll still be here."

Leech faces three charges of murder, three of intentional manslaughter and one of arson in the deaths of Maj. Everett S. Comfran of Washington, D.C.; Capt. Adrian L. Wessler, of New Rochelle, N.Y.; and 1st Lt. Stanley M. Rosewater of Omaha, Neb. The charges were filed by Deputy U.S. Prosecutor William Canfield, of Hampden, Mass., after the Army had turned over the files of the case to U.S. High Commission legal authorities a few weeks ago.

Canfield had indicated he intended to go ahead with a request for extradition of Leech but Lancian stepped into the case and stopped him.

In a statement last night, Lancian declared the evidence "is not in its present form legally sufficient" for such a request. The chief prosecutor said his office apparently would not be able to forward the case to the U.S. high commissioner for at least three weeks.

He said gathering evidence required for extradition, "its evaluation and preparations to meet legal requisites will take that long.

"For example, all statements of pertinent witnesses must have been made under oath before they are acceptable in an extradition hearing in U.S. federal courts," Lancian said.

"In studying the case over the weekend, I discovered most of the statements were not taken under oath," the chief prosecutor continued. "The witnesses are now in many parts of the world."

An Army spokesman said files on the case had been turned over to Lancian's office in order to get legal advice "on a case that was never closed and had been under constant review by Army agents."

In announcing the filing of charges against Leech, Canfield said he felt there was a "very strong circumstantial case" against the Ohioan, deputy to Cofran when the latter was town commander of Passau.

Canfield said Cofran fired a German girl secretary of whom Leech was fond and cancelled projected funds for her father's business.

Wessler and Rosewater were guests of Cofran the night of the killings. All three officers were killed with an ax. Shortly after the slayings, gasoline-fed flames billowed from the top floors of the house.

Canfield said last night a German woman told investigators she saw a man leave the house when the fire started. The woman reported the man stopped for a moment and threw an object into the Danube River before continuing on to an adjoining house.

The deputy prosecutor told newsmen investigators later recovered an ax from the river at the spot pointed out by the woman. He said Leech slept in the adjoining house the night of the killings.

Food Distribution Set Here Wednesday

Issuance of government-purchased surplus commodities to needy families will begin here Wednesday under the direction of Mrs. Leamon Land, county welfare officer. An office for this purpose has been set up on the basement floor of the courthouse.

Mrs. Land said that about 15 heads of needy families had made application already to share in the distribution of the surplus foods.

Applications are being received now by Mrs. Land, who said she expected most applicants to apply Wednesday. She has already begun a file system for records of those to whom foods will be given.

Only applicants who are actually in need are to be helped, she said. These include families in which no members are physically able to provide for their welfare and families unable to obtain employment.

The county government, through the commissioners court and under the direction of Mrs. Land, has been supplying foodstuffs and clothing for many needy families prior to the surplus commodity setup of the federal government.

For these families, the new distribution will supplement the county's aid program, lightening the county's expense.

About two months ago, the number of persons in the county benefiting from the county aid program was about 260. This number includes all members of families. The number has greatly decreased, however, since the drouth was broken a few weeks ago, Mrs. Land said, making it possible for several families to obtain employment.

A federal representative of the district office at Lubbock will be here Wednesday to assist Mrs. Land in starting the flood distribution.

Commodities to be distributed include canned beef and gravy, butter, process cheese, shortening, non fat dry milk, beans, and potatoes. Distribution varies according to sizes of families and according to frequency, some commodities to be issued monthly, others weekly.

Nikolai Khokhlov, a Russian secret agent who recently balked at carrying out an assassination assignment, is on the witness stand in Washington before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. Deadlock Could Put Flexible Props In Under Present Law

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) said today there is a "possibility" that Congress will deadlock over farm legislation and thus let flexible price supports go into effect under existing law.

Knowland, the Senate's Republican leader, said in an interview he doesn't know what is going to happen in the controversy which has found many Democrats and some Republicans lined up behind proposals to continue price props on major field crops at 90 per cent of parity.

But he said "It certainly is a possibility" that the two houses of Congress will fail to agree on a farm bill.

President Eisenhower has urged abandonment of the present system of mandatory price supports on basic field crops at 90 per cent of parity and its replacement by a system of flexible props ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices said by law to give farmers a fair return in relation to prices they pay for things they buy.

Congress in 1948 and 1949 put on the books a flexible support system, although not in the form the Eisenhower administration has recommended. But is has postponed its effective date from year to year, continuing the rigid 90 per cent props first provided in wartime to stimulate production.

The 90 per cent supports now are slated to expire at the end of the 1954 crop year, and failure of Congress to pass new legislation would permit the flexible plan now on the books to go into effect.

Chairman Aiken (R-Vt) of the Senate Agriculture Committee said over the weekend he agrees "there's a possibility we might not do anything." But Rep. Hope (R-Kan), chairman of the companion House committee, said he "can't conceive that the Congress won't do something."

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has said he would recommend a presidential veto if Congress votes for rigid supports. Knowland said:

"If there is a deadlock in Congress or a bill passed that the President doesn't approve, the flexible supports will still go into effect."

Despite the uncertainty over the farm issue, Knowland said he believes Congress will come up with a program of accomplishments that will convince the voters they ought to keep the GOP in control of Congress.

He blamed Democrats for defeat of two of Eisenhower's proposals: revision of the Taft-Hartley Act and a proposed constitutional amendment to give the vote to 18-year-olds. Both died in the Senate.

Knowland predicted that the GOP will go to the voters with a program that includes tax reductions, social security expansion, a year's extension of reciprocal trade with some customs simplification, revision of the Atomic Energy Act, highway construction, continuation of the housing program and approval of the St. Lawrence seaway.

He said any such program will demonstrate that the Republicans mean to carry out their promises, and he continued:

"I don't think President Eisenhower was ever under the illusion that he would get 100 per cent of his recommendations through Congress in the first two years of his presidential term."

Complaints Received About Door-To-Door Drive By Sect Here

Police said that dozens of persons called the police department yesterday to complain about the door-to-door campaign made here by persons inviting attendance at the convention of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Marvin Brister, desk sergeant, said that a city ordinance prohibiting soliciting does not prohibit door-to-door campaigns like the one made by the Jehovah's Witnesses. He said no attempt was made by the police department to prevent or stop the campaign.

More than 500 delegates from 20 West Texas and New Mexico cities were here for the convention and assembly held in a tent in the 2300 block of Avenue R.

MARKET ALREADY BLOATED

Texas Senator Would Keep Tin Plant In Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Texas City, Tex., tin smelter is in the midst of a tug of war. The RFC wants to close it. Texas congressmen want it to be kept operating. Congress must decide.

The RFC operates the smelter. The gigantic lending agency is scheduled to go out of business June 30. RFC Administrator Lawrence B. Robbins recommended last week to the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House that the smelter be closed immediately.

Sen. Johnson (D-Tex) objected. He countered with a resolution asking that Congress direct the government to keep the smelter operating until June 30, 1955, and study the desirability of keeping it in permanent operation.

Johnson charged that the smelt already had been closed.

Not so, says the RFC, but a spokesman said, "We are operating at a very much reduced rate because we have practically no ore on hand we have no plan to buy any ore—unless something is done by Congress, the smelter will go completely out of business."

He said the smelter would remain "open" until Congress decides what should be done with it. It might be open and doing nothing or virtually nothing, or, if Congress so directs, more ore will be bought and it will be put back in operation.

It is the biggest tin smelter in the world and the only one able to handle any and all types of tin ore from lowest to highest grade. It is the only tin smelter in the United States.

The RFC spokesman reported that about 8,000 tons of tin from Indonesia, authorized for stockpiling under contract two years ago, will be delivered in the next year. The smelter's previous average rate was 30,000 to 40,000 tons of tin a year.

The RFC spokesman said the smelter now has about 700 employes. At peak production it had 900. He said he could not estimate employment if the smelter remains open but virtually inoperative.

Here are the reasons given at the RFC for wanting to close the installation.

1. The U.S. has no major tin deposits and is dependent on foreign sources for most of its new tin, whether smelted here or abroad.

2. A five to six-year supply of tin is in stockpile and the U.S. does not want more.

3. Foreign smelters have contracted for all of Bolivia's ore, and closing the Texas City plant would not harm Bolivia's economy.

14 Persons Die From Violence

By The Associated Press

Violent death came to at least 14 persons in Texas during the weekend with the traffic toll, as usual, the major cause.

At least nine persons were killed in traffic. Three persons drowned, one was shot to death and another was stabbed.

Some of the latest reported deaths:

Three persons were killed Sunday outside Mason when their automobile hit a creek bridge. Dead were Mrs. and Mrs. Vernon Pierce and R. M. Cullins, all of Bans. The driver, Paul Beard of Coleman, was not seriously injured.

P. T. Brewer of Fort Worth drowned Sunday while wading in Lake Whitney in Central Texas. He apparently stepped into a deep hole. A woman wading with Brewer was rescued.

Dominic Scaramozi was killed Sunday in San Antonio when his light truck overturned.

Yvone Medlock, 3, suffered fatal injuries in Dallas Sunday when struck by a car.

Bugicide Committed

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A San Antonio man closed up all the windows in his car, ran a hose from the exhaust to the interior, and started the motor.

Then he strolled away.

He wasn't tired of living at all, he was just tired of those ornery bugs that kept eating the upholstery of his auto.

Lawyer Put On Stand In Income Tax Case

DALLAS (AP)—Amarillo atty. Arthur Glover was on the stand again today to face cross examination by lawyers representing Bernard B. Carter, Panhandle wheat farmer, who has charged he was "misled" into pleading guilty to income tax evasion in 1951.

Carter, in a motion being heard by U.S. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, asks the court to let him withdraw the plea and refund a fine of $10,000.

Glover has told the court that he reached the decision to plead Carter guilty only after long consideration and much study of the man's tax affairs.

The Amarillo lawyer maintained the advice was not given until he "decided in my own mind the government could obtain a conviction on income tax evasion and there was nothing I or anyone else could do."

BEEF BACON NOT MAKING BIG SPLASH IN SNYDER

Beef bacon has hit the local retail markets but isn't selling very well, according to grocers who handle the new product here.

Designed to undersell pork bacon, the new product is packaged by the half-pound which ranges in price from about 35 cents to 39 cents. This would place the pound price range at 70 to 78 cents, while the price range on pork bacon is from about 69 cents to 89 cents a pound.

Grocers here say there are three reasons the product has not yet been widely purchased: pork bacon is preferred for quality, the price ranges between the two products are too close, and the public has not generally learned of the new product yet.

Brands of beef bacon being marketed include Armour, Wilson, and Rath.

One grocer said he did not think beef bacon was as good as pork bacon. He said, also, it did not look as good, the fat being of a yellow tint rather than white. On the other hand, the beef bacon has more lean meat than the pork bacon, however.

The grocers agreed on their opinions as to the main reason for lack of sales in the new product—the average grocery buyer hasn't heard of it. Only about thalf the stores in Snyder are handling it.

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Three Snyderites and three Sweetwaterites who have a lot of talent, determination, and imagination between them have made a success of applying their talents at a line which is far removed from their regular occupations.

The six men are members of the Steve Birdwell Orchestra.

To look at a list of the occupations they use to make a living, one would never suspect that they could—and do—make good music.

One is a service station operator, another works in a steam laundry, another is telephone company serviceman, another a barber, one is a clerk in a men's store, and another is a farmer.

They forget their regular occupations at least twice each week to done dress clothes and string bow ties to harmonize their common hobby and make music for entertainment and dancing.

Leader of the orchestra is STEVE BIRDWELL, who operates a service station on the northeast corner of the Snyder square when not playing the trumpet as leader of the orchestra.

Of the two saxaphone players with the orchestra one is JACK DANLEY, an employe of the Snyder Steam Laundry in the daytime. Danley is the only member of the local combo who ever played with a "name" band. The native of Peoria, Ill., was a professional saxaphone player for four years during which time he played with the Clyde McCoy orchestra. He said he had to give up the life of one-night stands when he married, however.

The other saxaphone player is L. M. HUBBARD, a barber at Sweetwater.

Drummer for the orchestra is ED KUSS, a day-time employe of the Sweetwater telephone exchange.

MARSHAL CURRY, salesman for a men's store in Sweetwater is the bass player for the orchestra.

Probably the man most persons would least suspect would have a musical talent cultivated to the professional level is TED McMILLAN, a man who farms near Hermleigh for a living.

Birdwell says that although it is unusual for towns the size of Snyder and Sweetwater to have an orchestra, the two towns together provide a lucerative sideline for the six men.

They play an average of two engagements per week, and during the fall and winter seasons they play even more often, Birdwell said.

A steady twice-monthly engagement of the orchestra is a couple's club dance at the Bluebonnet Hotel in Sweetwater. Almost that steady are Country Club engagements here.

Most of the engagements played by the orchestra are in Snyder and Sweetwater, but they frequently travel to other West Texas towns.

In Snyder and Sweetwater the orchestra usually charges about $15 per member per night during the week, and a total of about $100 per engagement during week ends. For engagements in other towns travel expenses to and from the engagements are charged.

The children of Lt. and Mrs. RAYMOND WELLS, who visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. GREENE, have probably set some kind of new travel records.

The Wells' oldest daughter was born on Okinawa while her father was stationed there. By the time she was four months old she had traveled 8,000 miles. The other two children were born in the United States—one in Colorado and one in California—and their mileage records are just shy of their sister's. Lt. Wells is to be stationed in Germany for the next two years. Looks like more traveling for the entire family.

Asparagus with Hollandaise Sauce is a treat for any season. Fresh asparagus is a rare Spring vegetable in this area, but canned asparagus is second best.

For your Hollandaise Sauce, here is a new twist — lime juice for extra sharpness.

6 tablespoons margarine
1 tablespoon fresh lime juice
3 egg yolks

Cut the margarine into small pieces and put into the top of a small double boiler. Add the lime juice and egg yolks. Place over hot (not boiling) water, being sure that the water does not touch the bottom of the upper part of the double boiler. Cook and beat constantly with a rotary beater or wire whisk until thick as mayonnaise. Remove from the heat at once and spoon over the centers of four to six servings of hot, cooked asparagus.

To test the maturity of fresh pineapples, mash the center of the bottom. If it is a little soft, the fruit should be just right. However, if the sides are also soft it is probably a little overripe. Pineapple is a highly perishable fruit and should be prepared as quickly as possible when brought home from the store.

Mock chicken legs are a thrifty main dish meal, and one that the children especially are sure to enjoy. Here are the ingredients for seven servings:

1 pound ground veal
½ pound ground pork or pork sausage
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
cup flour
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 cup diced celery, if desired
1 green pepper, cut in rings
1 8-ounce package egg noodles
4 cups water
4 cups water
1½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Combine the ground meat, salt and pepper. Divide the meat into seven portions. Mold each portion firmly on a wood or metal skewer, shaping the meat like a drumstick. Dredge with flour, and brown on all sides in lard or drippings. Add the celery and green pepper.

Place the uncooked noodles on top of the meat and add two cups of water. Season. Cover tightly and allow to simmer about 30 minutes, then add the remaining water and continue cooking 30 minutes. Arrange the mock chicken legs and green pepper on top of the noodles on a hot platter.

Oscar Has Helped Donna Get More, Better Parts

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Donna Reed is living proof of the adage that as an actress you've got to be bad to be good.

It is now history that Miss Reed walked off with an Oscar for playing a shady lady in "From Here to Eternity." This was after playing nice girls for more Hollywood years (13) than she would like to recall.

I paid a lunch call on Donna to find out what the Oscar has done for her and to her. She is back at her home lot, MGM, where she apprenticed eight years in Andy Hardy, Thin Man, Dr. Gillespie and other films before reaching stardom. She came back to the studio as a free-lancer, appearing with Liz Taylor, Van Johnson and Walter Pidgeon in "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

"The role I play is not really a good girl," she remarked, "but she turns out to be all right in the end. No, it's nothing like 'From Here to Eternity.' That kind of a part comes along only once in an actor's lifetime—if he's lucky."

I asked how the Oscar has changed her professional life. She replied that more scripts are being submitted to her, and the roles are better. But she hasn't noticed any increase in films that would cast her as a bad woman.

"I guess people still can't get used to my playing such a role," she sighed.

Donna admitted that she fell into the "Eternity" role somewhat by chance. When she first became acquainted with the part, she played her as a brunette in a test with Aldo Ray, who was trying out for the role Montgomery Clift eventually did. She never thought much about actually getting the part.

Then she did another test with Ray, this time as a blonde. Now she began to get enthused and made a pitch for the role with Columbia boss Harry Cohn.

"Absolutely not," he replied. "We've signed Deborah Kerr for the other girl's part. That's one lady switching her type. We can't have another."

But a day later she was assigned to do another test, again as a brunette. She convinced the brass and won the role.

The picture did wonders for her career—"it was good for everybody connected with it." Oddly enough, she left her Columbia contract shortly before she won the Oscar.

She is now busy on the free-lance circuit. She was also set to play Jose Ferrer's wife in the Sigmund Romberg biography, but had to cancel when Liz Taylor's illness stalled the "Paris" pic. She said she'll never again sign a term contract at a studio, although she has had handsome offers. After 13 years at studios, she cherished her independence. She wants to devote more time to her family.

Old-Timers Take Over In Big League Contests Yesterday

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball may be a young man's game but you can't convince Bob Feller, Ted Williams, Mickey Vernon, Preacher Roe, Marv Grissom and some of those other greybeards.

Led by these veterans of 36 or thereabouts, and the 39-year-old Ellis Kinder, the "Old Guard" had quite a day yesterday. Even such yearlings as 33-year-old Andy Pafko and 31-year-old George Kell got ideas and joined in the fun.

Feller, who will be 36 in November, pitched his first victory of the season and the 250th of his career as the Cleveland Indians beat Baltimore in a double-header 14-3 and 3-1 to increase their American League lead to 2½ games over Chicago.

The tribe had to go into extra innings in the nightcap to post their 11th victory in a row. Pitcher Art Houtteman won his own game with a 12-inning double that scored George Strickland. Al Rosen's homer in the ninth, his eighth in the last nine games, off Bob Turley, forced the game into overtime.

Williams banged two singles and drew three walks in six times at bat, drove in a run and scored three as the Boston Red Sox outslugged the New York Yankees 10-9. Kinder hurled the last three innings to receive credit for his second Boston triumph. The Red Sox tallied seven runs in the last three innings to knock New York into third place.

Kell, playing his last game for Boston, collected three hits, drove in three runs and scored twice. It was not until after the game that he learned he had been sold to the Chicago White Sox for undisclosed cash and infielder Grady Hatton.

Roe not only went the route for the first time this year but starred on offense as the Brooklyn Dodgers captured a double-header from Pittsburgh 5-4 and 6-2 to climb into a tie with Milwaukee for first place in the National League. The grizzled southpaw, a notoriously poor hitter, smacked a single and double and scored what proved to be the winning run in the opener. Duke Snider walloped two homers for the Brooks in the nightcap.

Pafko, playing in his 12th big league season, was the big gun in Milwaukee's double triumph over the Chicago Cubs. After driving in the tie-breaking run with a 10th-inning double in the Braves' 4-2 opening victory, he blasted two homers and a triple and drove in five runs in the 9-3 nightcap. Rookie Ray Crone and sophomore Chet Nichols were Milwaukee's route-going winners.

Grissom, third pitcher used by Manager Leo Durocher, held the Philadelphia Phillies scoreless in the final three innings, protecting New York's 6-4 lead. The Giants swept past the Phils into fourth place. Willie Mays batted in three runs with a triple and single off loser Curt Simmons.

Vernon, who joined Washington in 1940, clouted a home run and three doubles to lead the Nats to a 9-4 victory over Philadelphia's Athletics. Elmer Valo, 33-year-old outfielder, hit a three-run homer for the Athletics.

Eighth-inning home runs by Minnie Minoso, Cass Michaels and Sherman Lollar gave the White Sox all their runs as they came from behind to defeat Detroit 4-3. Relief pitcher Sandy Consuegra, 33-year-old right-hander, replaced 35-year-old Virgil Trucks in the seventh and received credit for his third victory without a defeat. Detroit's Steve Gromek, 34, had a shutout until he ran into the eighth-inning avalanche.

Outfielder Wally Post drove in five runs with a home run and double to lead the Cincinnati Redlegs to a 13-6 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The result boosted the Reds only two percentage points out of the first division and dropped the Cards from first to third place.

Tri-Service Moves Up In City League

Tri-Service is on top of the city league today with Magnolia after beating Hermleigh Saturday night in three extra innings 4-2.

Hermleigh is now tied with Sunray, right behind the two league leaders. The Hermleigh team will attempt to move back up the line at 8 o'clock tonight when it meets Magnolia, providing the field remains dry enough for play.

The Hermleigh team grabbed a two-run lead in the first inning of play Saturday night when Doug Chitsey got on base on an error and Leroy Leard walked. Chitsey stole around to third, and Leard made second on a passed ball. Bill Houston then got a single, and both runners came in. Tri-Service got one run in the second when J. M. Sterling made a base on an error and was later brought in by Joe Falls' single.

No more scoring was done until the sixth inning, when Falls was hit by the Hermleigh pitcher, Henry Grady Gafford, then Howard Sterling doubled to bring Falls home. That tied the game, and the two teams remained deadlocked until the tenth inning. In that frame, J. M. Sterling singled, D. Bruner singled to bring Sterling in on the winning run and Howard Sterling doubled to bring in Bruner. Hermleigh had three up and three down in its half of the inning.

Mutt Thompson was winning hurler, going the entire 10 innings. He gave up only five hits, walked only two, and struck out 14. Gafford, the loser, also went the whole game on the mound, allowing 11 hits, only one walk, and stricking out 13.

Howard Sterling and Bruner got the only extra base hits of the game. Sterling got two doubles, Bruner one triple.

Another Trade Gives Chisox Heavy Hitter

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP) — In a lavish, uncharacteristic gamble, the Chicago White Sox paid a reported $100,000 for hard-hitting George Kell and now are ready to acquire another famed slugger, Phil Cavarretta.

Frank Lane, the Sox general manager, got third baseman Kell from the Boston Red Sox for reserve infielder Grady Hatton and cash — so much that Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin "couldn't turn it down."

Lane didn't announce the amount involved but Manager Paul Richards when asked if it was $100,000, said: "I think that's pretty close."

In a further effort to shore up the Sox for a determined pennant drive, Lane appeared on the verge of taking on Cavarretta, the deposed Chicago Cubs manager, as a pinch hitter and coach.

Kell has hit over .300 the last seven seasons and Cavarretta has a lifetime .292 batting mark in 19 seasons at first base for the Cubs. With the Sox pitching staff manned by experts — Richards says it's the best in the American League — the weak-hitting Comiskey club needed a player of Kell's batting ability badly. Richards said only Saturday that the club had to find a dependable slugger to stay in the race. Sox pitchers were hurling five and six-hit games and losing.

If Cavarretta is obtained and can regain even a respectable fraction of his old form, another Sox problem would be near solution. Richards hasn't been able to call forth a reliable pinch hitter in clutch situations. He sent pinch batters to the plate 35 times this season before one of them — pitcher Bob Keegan — produced a hit.

The ex-Cub pilot, relieved during spring training and replaced by Stan Hack, was due in Chicago today for a talk with Lane. They were reported close to an agreement.

Little League Plays Tonight

The American Legion Yankees and Kiwanis Club Braves will determine who will keep the lead in the Little League when they meet tonight.

The Yanks and Braves, both without losses, will play in tonight's second game at 9 o'clock. Playing in the 7 o'clock game will be the Holder Indians, who are tied with the Rotary Cardinals for third place, and the Quarterback Club Giants, who are trailing the league.

The Yankees so far have won one game. They shut out the Indians 1-0 last week. The Braves have won two, one over the Giants 15-2 and one over the Lions Club Cubs 9-7.

The Indians now hold a 1-1 record. Before losing to the Yankees, they had shut out the Cardinals 7-0. The Giants have lost to the Braves 15-2 and the Cards 10-5.

Time Running Out On Slamming Sam

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Sam Snead will observe his 40th birthday Thursday, and so there comes the realization that time is beginning to run out on the wealthy ex-hillbilly. If he is ever to collar the will o' the wisp he has been chasing all these years, the National Open golf championship, it had better be soon.

Soon after 40, as any of the stars of other days will tell you, the legs begin gradually to go and those 36 holes on the final day of the Open become a terrible grind. The sing might be as good as ever, but when legs become tired it is difficult to maintain the degree of fierce concentration required to win championships.

Because of this, and because of the spectacular golf he has been shooting lately, it will not be surprising if Snead draws greater individual galleries even than Ben Hogan, the defending champion, in the Open beginning at Baltusrol June 17. Hogan, by the way, will be pushing 42 this time, but the Bantam already has won his four Opens and has proved long since that he comes under none of the recognized rules governing age and physical fitness.

Snead's army of admirers, who long have regarded his swing as the greatest in the world, will be pulling for him to crash through before it is too late. They will regard it as almost a personal tragedy if, once again, the balding West Virginian fails to win the biggest prize of them all.

The suggestion has been made, incidentally, that Snead and Hogan be placed in the same threesome for at least the first two rounds so that the crowd may see the two titans in hand-to-hand combat, but it's doubtful that tournament officials will go for the idea. One of them tells us that, while it would be great fun, the resultant gallery would be certain to foul up the course for all the other players.

Ironically enough, during the years that he has been building up his unique record of failure in the Open, Snead has seen it won by five or six players who do not begin to match his over-all list of successe and are, to put it bluntly, less talented. The fact remains, though, that on a certain day when all the chips were on the table, each of them rose to the occasion and wrote his name in the big book.

Fort Worth Is Back In First Division Again

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Fort Worth replaced Dallas in the first division of the Texas League Sunday as San Antonio and Oklahoma City held on to their one-two positions at the head of the circuit. Meanwhile, Tulsa dipped from fifth to sixth place.

Fort Worth defeated Dallas 6-1 to move ahead of the Eagles. League leading San Antonio beat Shreveport 9-3 and Oklahoma City took Tulsa 7-1. Beaumont and Houston split a doubleheader, Beaumont capturing the nightcap 7-4 after Houston won the opener by an identical score.

San Antonio's conquest of Shreveport was its second straight over the Sports. Charley Oertel batted in seven runs with two homers and a double. The outfielder hit a grand slam homer in the fifth inning and counted a two-run homer in the ninth. Vachel Perkins pitched all the way for San Antonio although shelled for a dozen hits, 10 of them in the first five innings.

Oklahoma City and Tulsa completed their game in the regulation nine innings—the first time they've not gone overtime this season against each other. A 10-hit attack gave the Indians the victory with a five-hit pitching chore by the Indians' Ernie Groth aiding.

An eighth-inning outburst for six runs by the Fort Worth Cats beat Dallas. Joe Kotranty of the Eagles had a one-hit shutout going until the eighth. After he walked two in the eighth, reliever Wayne McLeland made a wild throw that started the Cats on the road to victory. Mike Lemish picked up his fourth hurling victory for Fort Worth.

The split doubleheader left Beaumont seventh and Houston eighth in league standings. Beaumont blew a four-run lead in the opener to take the 7-4 loss despite sending six hurlers to duty in an attempt to stop the late Buff rally. The Exporters took the second game on home runs by Buzz Clarkson, Everett Hall and Jim Fanning.

Monday night, Oklahoma City is at Tulsa, Houston at Beaumont and San Antonio at Shreveport. Fort Worth and Dallas are idle.

Bob Toski Is Top Winner In Golf Circuits

BALTIMORE (AP) —Bob Toski headed for his next golf tournament today as the sport's leading money winner and a confident candidate to succeed Ben Hogan as the little giant of the fairways.

The 127-pound belter from Livingston, N.J., shot to the top of the heap yesterday with a smashing seven-stroke victory over the rest of the field in the $20,000 Eastern Open.

Besides pocketing the $4,000 first-place check, which raised his earnings this year to $10,988.74, Toski also became the first campaigner of the tournament trail to rack up his third major triumph of 1954.

All three—he had won the Baton Rouge and Azalea opens earlier—came within nine weeks, recalling the days when Hogan was a regular on the circuit and top paydays were few and far between for fellow members of the fairways fraternity.

Only five years ago Toski, then a 22-year-old upstart from Northhampton, Mass., was a rookie trying to make expenses on the tour. Open that year, finishing far down He didn't quite do it at the Eastern the list of prize winners.

"But I have confidence now, and that makes all the difference in the world," he said before leaving Baltimore for the Colonial National Invitation at Fort Worth, Tex.

Toski's par 72 in the final round gave him 277 for the tournament and was his first failure to break regulation figures over the tough Mt. Pleasant course. He set them on their ear with a 66 in a wretched rain on opening day, then added a 69 and 70 to coast to his victory over runner-up Jack Burke Jr. of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.

Burke needed a 70 in the windup to slip ahead of Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N.Y., by one stroke for the $2,200 second-place money with a total 284.

Tied for fourth at 286 were Ed Oliver, Lemont, Ill., who closed with a 71, Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N.Y., 72; and Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill., 73. Julius Boros, Mid-Pines, N.C., who was displaced by Toski at the top of the money list, finished 13th with 75—290, worth $500. He now has won $9,602.50.

Pitchers Have Better Chance

By The Associated Press

The Longhorn League, once known as a place in which pitchers dwelt only through custom, features sharp hurling this season.

Sunday night was a good example as two of the New Mexico members clouted Texas teams. Sam Fowlkes pitched a 3-hitter when the league-leading Roswell Rockets whipped Odessa 11-3. Second-place Artesia beat Midland 5-1 behind the 2-hit twirling of Jim Tugerson.

The third member from New Mexico, Carlsbad, also won and moved within two games of third-place Midland. Carlsbad clipped San Angelo 11-8.

Roswell pounded 10 hits, got seven walks and cashed in on six Oiler errors in beating Odessa. Fowlkes shot down the first 13 Oilers to face him before Tony DiPrimio singled in the fifth.

Tugerson had gone through 44 innings without giving up a run before Midland got to him for an unearned tally in the fourth. But he never was in danger.

San Angelo committed nine errors in its contest with Carlsbad. The Colts pounded 15 hits while Carlsbad got 14. San Angelo was leading 6-4 going into the last of the sixth when Carlsbad slammed six runs across to sew it up.

Sweetwater and Big Spring split a doubleheader. Big Spring took the first 4-3 with Al Mendoza giving up only four hits. Sweetwater won the nightcap 10-2 with Jay Mattson not only pitching a 6-hitter but scoring two runs and driving in two more.

Two Teams In Close Race At Top Of League

By The Associated Press

Waco and Tyler continued their breakneck race in the Big State League Sunday with only 8 percentage points and less than a half game separating the rivals.

Waco kept its percentage supremacy by beating Austin 1-0 in a thriller that went 11 innings. Tyler kept pace with a tamer victory, taking Temple 9-6.

In the other games, Corpus Christi stayed close behind the leaders with a 7-3 win over Bryan, and Harlingen beat Galveston 7-4.

Pitcher Ronnie Sheetz won his own game in the Austin-Waco contest by scoring the winning run. He led off with an infield hit, was sacrificed to second and scored on George Matile's single to center. Sheetz gave up six hits to Austin, while Leroy Jones of the Pioneers was being touched for five.

Home runs accounted for nine scores in the 9-6 Tyler-Temple game. Bob Cullins and Moe Santamauro hit homers for Tyler and Earl Hamman had one and Bob Moyer two for Temple. Tyler scored two unearned runs in the fourth inning and never was headed.

Flawless fielding helped Corpus Christi beat Bryan. Ray Sims of the clippers gave up 10 hits and issued eight walks, but he spaced the hits and was well backed up. Bryan left nine men stranded on base. A four-run outburst in the sixth inning was enough to give the Clippers the margin.

Earl Caldwell picked up his fifth victory against one loss as he pitched the Harlingen Capitols to a win over Galveston. He scattered 10 hits. Ed Konick of the White Caps had a two-run lead until the sixth inning when the Captiols drove him from the mound with four hits, coupled with an infield Juan Perez hit a three-run homer and Bob Skelton followed with a homer with one aboard.

Monday's schedule: Tyler at Temple, Bryan at Corpus Christi, Galveston at Harlingen and Waco at Austin.

Amarillo Takes Over In Third

By The Associated Press

The Amarillo Gold Sox moved ahead of the Plainview ponies into third place in the West Texas-New Mexico League Sunday night with a 3-2, 11th-inning decision over the Ponies.

Clovis at Pampa and Borger at Lubbock were postponed by rain, and Albuquerque at Abilene was postponed because of Abilene's Sunday blue laws. Doubleheaders were set for those teams at the same places Monday night.

The weather and single Sunday game left Clovis at the top with 18 wins against 10 losses and Albuquerque second with 16 victories and 11 defeats. Amarillo has 15 wins and 12 losses and Plainview 15 victories and 13 losses.

It was in the top of the 11th that Amarillo racked up an unearned run and the victory. The last five innings were played in a drizzle and the last 1⅓ innings under lights.

Managers of both teams announced as the run came home that they were playing under protest. Plainview Manager Jackie Sullivan was ejected.

The hassle began when Bob Blevens crossed the plate with the tie-breaker. Plate Umpire Fred Blondell called him out. Base Umpire Charlie Butler said third baseman Tom Curley had interfered with Blevens. The two umps went into a huddle, ruled Curley had interfered and allowed Blevens' score to stand. Sullivan's ejection ended 20 minutes of argument.

Hitters' Night In Sooner Loop

By The Associated Press

Sooner State League batters brought their heavy artillery into play Sunday to climax a weekend of baseball action that saw nochante in the standings.

It was a big night for the hitters. The winning teams averaged 13 runs each.

The McAlester Rockets blasted the Pauls Valley Raiders, now safely tucked in the loop cellar nine games out of first, 17-3. The Raiders refused to lift their starting hurler, Tom Stanford, throughout the punishing afternoon. Stanford allowed 14 hits, walked 12, hit two, and made five wild pitches.

Seminole, in first place, used three pitchers but couldn't stop Gainesville as the Owls grabbed a 14-4 victory and retook the loop lead which they had lost Saturday night. Every Gainesville player got at least one hit.

The Lawton Braves swept their two-game series with Ardmore, using an 11-hit attack to down the Cardinals 10-6. Wendell Doss registered his fifth victory against three defeats.

The Ada Herefords pummeled Shawnee's second place Hawks, 11-1.

British Amateur Meet Gets Underway Today

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — The six-day British Amateur Golf Championship got under way today and players cast anxious eyes toward the unpredictable Scottish weather. They all agreed that the 59th title would go to the longer driving player with ability to sink putts on soaked greens.

The weather here has a habit of reversing quickly, but a relentless rain the past few days has softened up the testing 6,086-yard, par-72 links considerably.

Players from 15 nations are entered and the experts have tabbed big Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., and defending champion Joe Carr of Ireland the two players to beat. They're the longest hitters in the field.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo has been installed as co-favorite with Carr by the professional oddsmakers, but he has been far off from in practice rounds.

American League umpire John Flaherty served with the Marine Corps in the South Pacific during World War II and won a battle field commission.

Two Bouts On Video Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Baksi, back for "just one more chance," kicks off the boxing program tonight at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway (ABC-TV) against Big Bob Baker, a Pittsburgh giant who also fumbled away his big chances.

When Baksi, now 32, came down from the farm at East Nassau, N.Y., around the first of the year he weighed a bulging 261 pounds. After weeks of training and one "tuneup" knockout victory he's down to "about 233."

Baker's bright hopes were dimmed by chronic bad hands. Every time he started to make his move, the hands went back on him. He got up around 223 but weighed only 209 when he was stopped by Archie Moore March 9 at Miami Beach.

The rival TV show at St. Nicholas Arena tonight (Du Mont) features Ralph (Tiger) Jones and Pedro Gonzales in a middleweight 10-rounder. Jones disappointed badly as a 5-1 favorite May 14, losing to Jacques Royer at Madison Square Garden.

Gonzales, a youngster from Rankin, Pa. has won 11 of 18 pro starts, losing to Piene Langlois and Rocky Castellani in his two 1954 scraps.

SELLING HOUSES FROM PLANS

L. A. McClanahan, owner of Jack & Jack Realty located across from city hall, is shown with a set of house plans from his large file available for customers. (Lee Watson photograph)

Buyers Market In Housing, But Business Is Good Here

Speculative building of houses in Snyder has just about ended, and the market has turned to one in which most customers purchase their new homes from plans rather than buying a ready-built house, L. A. McClanahan, owner of Jack & Jack Realty Co., across from the city hall, said.

After World War II and during the boom years a builder could sell his houses here as fast as he built them, but now most house purchasers prefer to make their houses reflect their personalities by choosing the design and details before the house is built," he said.

Although the house building and selling policies here are changing, McClanahan says that he thinks 1954 will be one of Snyder's biggest home building years.

"There is still a big demand for new houses—but on a buyer's market rather than a seller's market," he said.

"We have sold more houses the first five months of this year than we sold during the last half of last year," he said.

Actually McClanahan is a real estate dealer, not a builder, but he says that he would just as soon sell a house from plans as one that is already constructed.

"The customer is always happier to live in a house that he watched grow from the ground up," McClanahan said.

McClanahan says that he believes the demand for new housing in Snyder will continue for some time, because the demand for rental housing here now exceeds the supply of good rental units.

"Its possible to rent a house here now, but it is difficult to choose the kind of house you would like to live in when hunting a rent house," he said.

McClanahan said that all the rental units his firm manages for the owners are rented now.

"We usually have a number of rental units vacant, but all our units are full now," he said. He added that his rental units were only about 50 per cent rented much of the last half of last year.

In the changing technique of house buying, McClanahan is fully equipped to give a complete service to the purchaser. He has a wide selection of house plans available from which the customer can choose just the design, size, and price house he wants.

The firm can help with the selection and purchase of lots which are available in all parts of town. All arrangements for the FHA, GI or conventional home loan can be made at Jack & Jack Realty.

Even details of contracting building of the house can be handled by the firm, because McClanahan is the sales representative of one of Snyder's leading house builders.

"Its just as simple to buy a house under this plan as to buy one that is already built or under construction—and it is usually almost as quick because government lending agencies place a time limit on how long it takes to construct the house," he said.

The time limit is 90 days from the contract is signed until the customer moves in the house, he said.

Reds Will Take Nothing Short Of Surrender From The West

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

GENEVA, May 24 (AP)—There is not the slightest indication at the Geneva conference that the Communists will accept anything but surrender of the West in Asia.

Apparently, they are sure communism is on a victorious march, with the decisive battle for Viet Nam all but behind them. The Russians are calling the tune here, even preparing the speeches of the Communist Vietminh representatives in the Russian language.

After a month of talk, there seems no prospect of anything but obstruction and deadlock. The Russians exude confidence that they hold the trump cards.

Communism is relying heavily on a drive to turn Asian nationalism and Asian fears into potent weapons against the West in a long-term struggle for domination of a continent.

The United States has been losing battles in this propaganda war, though it has not yet, by any means, lost the war. Asian distrust of the West, after a century of colonial domination, is being twisted and turned against the United States in a political-psychological offensive designed to win cheap victories.

The communists are not concerned with masses now. This war is for the intellectuals, the educated layer of Asians from whose ranks come the raw materials for government and leadership.

In those ranks, America has been losing friends. They are not going over to the Communist side, but in frustration are retiring into a neutral shell. And that serves the Communist cause.

For one who has just returned from Asia there is an atmosphere almost of fantasy here in Geneva. Talk of "united action" in Asia seems removed from reality.

At the moment, prospects seem dim for any Southeast Asia defense system under United States inspiration or protection. That may yet change as the Communists breath gets hotter on Southeast Asian necks. If so, the United States hopes to have the framework of an alliance which those nations can join if they choose.

But in an extensive tour of that vast, underdeveloped, poverty-ridden area I found that, with few exceptions, Asian leaders cling to the view that any involvement in a bloc—however defensive it may be—will make Asia the cockpit for World War III.

With the understanding they would not be quoted by name, Asian leaders spoke frankly of their fears and frustrations in trying to build new nations in an area whose unplumbed riches and geographical position make it a tempting target for Red expansion.

"Those who want to be friends of the United States are falling silent now, .. an elderly pro-American statesman told me sadly. "It is becoming just as politically unwise in this part of the world to take the side of the United States as it is for you in the states to take the part of Red China."

Asian leaders are alive to the internal Communist threat and have been fighting it consistently. They fear communism. But first of all they fear a new general war.

Because of this, however mistakenly, they fear the United States. They do not believe Americans have any aggressive designs on them. But they have a dread that actions of the United States in a head-on clash with the Soviet Union might plunge Asia into the most dreadful of all wars.

They insist they have won substantial victories over their domestic Communists and can keep them in check, short of invasion from China.

But many of these anti-Communist leaders themselves help Communist propaganda along. Anti-colonialism is the cement holding these new nations together. Many a leader is not averse to transferring the former fear of Britain, France or Holland over to the United States. Several frankly admitted this to me.

Certainly the two largest nations, India and Indonesia, would have to be counted out of a Southeast Asian alliance as matters stand now. And Burma likely would cast a cautious look northward. That leaves Pakistan, Tahiland and Malaya, short of a defense line pushed all the way back to the Pacific Island chain.

Low Power Radio Systems Saving Factories Big Sums

By SAM DAWSON

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The two-way radio is moving indoors. It saves factories a lot of money — but makes it hard for a workman to disappear behind a stack of boxes for a restful smoke.

Nine months ago, low-power, two way communication jobs were freed from government restrictions. Now they're increasingly becoming part of the factory scene.

General Electric engineers here say that putting two-way systems on indoor trucks and other factory transportation systems has resulted in making four trucks do the work of five. Trucks carrying materials or finished goods can be quickly directed in vast modern factories.

Savings in the cost of buying and maintaining trucks is sizable. Perhaps even greater is the saving on the cost of the labor to operate them.

And then there's the matter of the fork-truck operator who used to become lost around the factory somewhere—for about the time it takes for a smoke. In the old days he "didn't know where they wanted" him. Today, he either answers when the superintendent buzzes him on the two-way system —or thinks up a reason why he was away from his truck.

Together, sales of the older high-power and the newer low-power systems total around 40 million dollars a year, GE engineers estimate.

The industry got its big boost in wartime, supplying military needs. First big civilian users of the high-power systems were police departments. Then came taxi-cab fleets.

Industry moved in next. Oil companies speed traffic of oil field trucks and direct the relatively few workers around the great spaces of oil refineries.

Utilities have become top users. Repair and maintenance crew efficienty is increased and costs cut when central supervisors direct workers to emergency spots.

Communication engineers say the construction industry will soon be their biggest customers. Highway builders need fewer trucks if those in use can be directed by two-way radio where the need arises.

Baby of the industry is the low-power system for factories. First to try them were their own electronic factories, for quick distribution of parts to assembly lines. Steel, rubber and auto companies are putting them in.

Charley The Killer Nabbed In Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A frightened Los Angeles housewife sent police in California's two largest cities hunting Charley the Killer yesterday.

They found their man in a hotel here—but let him go after he admitted he was a killer.

"A man just phoned. He said, 'I'm Charley the Killer,' and hung up," Ruth Grossman of Los Angeles reported to police there at 4 a.m. yesterday.

The call was traced to the hotel room of Charley Kays of Eureka, Calif., here.

"I was trying to get Ruth Grossman in Beverly Hills and they gave me some other Ruth Grossman," he told Inspector William Stanton. "So I hung up".

"Killer? Oh, yes. In Eureka, everybody calls me 'Charley the Killer.'"

"I run the Eureka Termite Exterminating Co!"

Man Starts Out Alone In Ketch Around World

LOS ANGELES (AP)—As a boy and later as a quartermaster in the Navy during World War II, Rolph Thorvaldson dreamed of sailing solo around the world.

Today he's on his way in a 28-foot ketch and figures it will take a year to make the 12,000-mile voyage.

Thorvaldson, 30, of nearby West Covina, left yesterday. His craft, the Tahea, carries 210 feet of canvas and a 14-horsepower auxiliary engine. It cruises at about four knots.

Los Angeles Editor Dies Of Heart Ailment

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Sunday editor of the Los Angeles Times, Edwin J. Strong, 59, died yesterday of a heart ailment.

Strong was president of the American Assn. of Sunday and feature Editors in 1951. He joined the times as copyreader in 1924 and became Sunday editor in 1946.

A University of Wisconsin journalism graduate, he worked on the Colorado Springs Gazette, Pueblo (Colo) Chieftain and the Milwaukee Sentinel and Milwaukee Journal.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters.

ANGELS CAMP, Calif. (AP)—Lucky Lager, with three prodigious leaps totaling 16 feet 10 inches, set a new frog jumping record and won owner Roy Weimer $1,000 yesterday in the 27th annual contest based on Mark Twain's famous story.

Lucky Lager bettered by 8 inches the mark set in 1944 by Maggie.

In Twain's story "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County," a villain loaded the favorite with buckshot and it never got off the ground.

White And Young, NYC Proxy Fight Principals, Meet On Air

NEW YORK (AP) — William White and Robert R. Young met face to face last night for the first time since they joined battle last February for control of the New York Central Railroad.

With a showdown stockholders vote on the dispute scheduled for this Wednesday, the meeting in a television studio was hardly cordial.

Both men smiled tightly when they shook hands before start of the program, Meet the Press, on CBS. Asked to repeat the handshake for benefit of photographers, White, who is now president of the railroad, refused.

"This is serious. I'm not going to make a pink tea of this," he said.

For the remainder of the half-hour program, in which the two railroad titans answered newsmen's questions, they avoided any further direct contact.

Most of the questions covered issues that had been repeated and answered over and over again in the tense contest for stockholders' proxies. The proxies are to be voted at the railroad's annual meeting in Albany Wednesday unless a court decision postpones it for another month.

Both White and Young claimed they were sure of victory, although when asked for figures on proxy strength, White replied:

"In a battle such as this, I don't think contending sides disclose their real strength. I don't propose to."

Young said he was sure of winning even if 800,000 shares bought by two Texas friends of his are not voted. White has challenged the transfer of this stock from the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, which Young formerly headed, to Texas millionaires Clint W. Murchison and Sid W. Richardson.

The television show focused on the proxy campaign, taking its cues largely made by the other side.

White was asked, "If you're running the railroad so efficiently, why is there any fight among the stockholders on whether you're going to stay in the saddle?"

He answered, "There wasn't a fight . . . until someone started one . . . (with) pie-in-the-sky promises."

White was asked whether, if he were victorious, he would name Young to the board in view of Young's large holdings of Central stock.

"My heavens, I rather doubt that," he replied.

Young, questioned about claims that he was a "smart promoter" who knew nothing about railroads, replied:

"I rehabilitated five sick railroads . . . I took control of the Nickel Plate at $7 a share and in 16 years got it up to $240 a share. It was a streak of rust when I took hold of it. So was the Pere Marquette. I'm an expert on sick railroads."

Asked if the Central's passenger service was operated at much less cost than the C&O's, Young said:

"Yes, it's a lot easier to take a passenger to Chicago and back than to take him up a creek in West Virginia."

Woman, 106, Ate Well But No Vegetables

Vacancies High At West Point

WASHINGPON (AP) —When this year's class graduates, West Point is going to have the greatest number of vacancies in the 152-year history of the U.S. Military Academy.

The famous Army school for officers, with a maximum capacity of 2,496, will have an estimated 1,016 vacancies after graduation. But the Army seems neither worried nor surprised.

Army officials questioned today said they do not believe the current trend toward a smaller regular Army nor reaction to congressional investigations of the Army are responsible.

They said the large vacancy list at this time stems from several factors, including:

1. Postwar letdown. Enrollment usually slumps for a time after each war because of a letdown in national interest in military matters. This time the slump seems to have been a little larger.

2. Delay in nominations to the academy made by senators and congressmen. This, too, may be following a normal pattern. In congressional election years, the Army has found that Congress members often hold off on nominations of students until after election. The legislators are alloted 85 per cent of appointments to the academy; the others are filled on competitive basis.

West Point officials say that even though they probably could find qualified candidates to fill all vacancies, they would not want to do it. The practice is to admit between 750 and 775 each year. A greater number imposes an overload on the teaching staff of the school.

About 2,000 men took examinations last March for admission, with results of these tests to be determined soon. Other tests for admission will be held in June.

A graduating class usually number. about 450, with the difference between that and an entering class accounted for by such things as academic failure, resignations, illness and death.

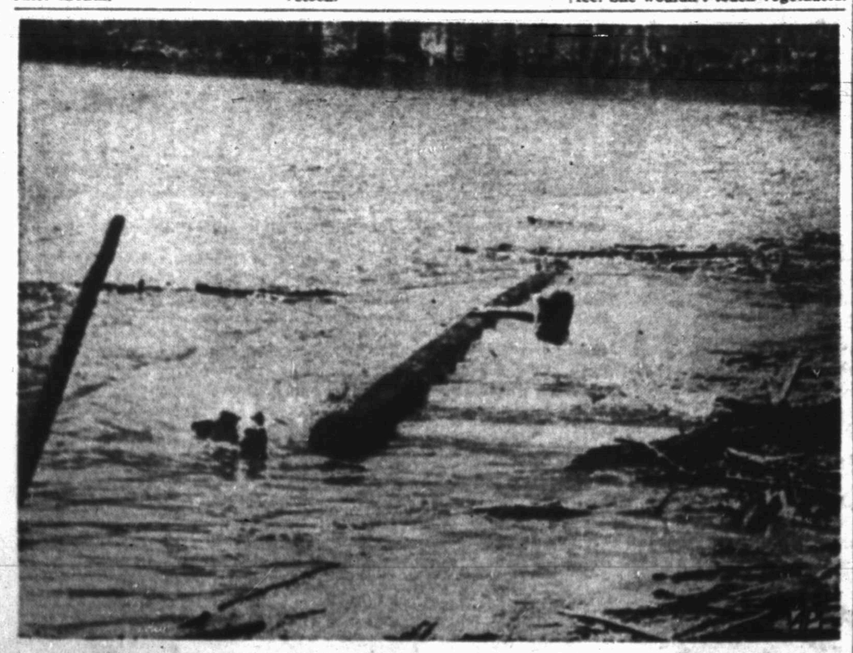
Stiff academic standards account for the most dropouts. The biggest single loss for any other reason came in 1951 from charges of "cribbing" made against cadets. About 90 students dropped from the rolls, most of them football players.

Baby Bird Is Born

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Bruce Kawin, persistent for a 9-year-old, has a baby bird today because he insisted that his baby sitter rig up an incubator for an egg he found two weeks ago.

Mary Ann Varga, 27, put the egg and a small electric light globe in a cookie tin.

The other day there was a chirp in the cookie tin. Miss Varga thinks the bird is a meadowlark. She feeds it egg yolk and mashed potatoes —every eight minutes.



COW SAVED IN FLOOD

Young Phillip Clark uses a log as a guide to reach the family cow after the raging Kootenai River broke through a dike on the Clark farm at Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Phillip jumped in with his clothes on, led the cow to safety. Photographer Ed Stephenson took this picture from high ground. More than 5,000 acres were flooded by the river but the town of 1,800 was still dry.

Arthur Godfrey Not To Be Operated On Again For Three Months

BOSTON (AP) — After studying Arthur Godfrey's year-old operation on his right hip, specialists have decided against further surgery for at least three months.

The TV-radio star flew here yesterday in his own plane for a detailed examination by Dr. Otto Aufranc, his surgeon, and Dr. Joseph Barr, chief of the orthopedic service at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Dr. Aufranc reported afterward there is "an almost normal range of motion in the operated hip." He advised more time should be given for corrective exercises and training in walking with crutches.

Attorney To Attend Services For Himself

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Thursday will be a day for Elmer T. Walter to remember — he plans to attend memorial services for St. Louis attorneys who died last year. His name was erroneously listed among the deceased.

Everett Hullverson, president of the Lawyers Assn. of St. Louis, which sponsors the services, said the list had been checked and double-checked before invitations were printed. But through some error Walter's name was included on the invitations, which also carried the names of 42 dead lawyers.

Walter remarked:

"I don't know how it happened," but I'm glad to report it is erroneous."

Boy Scouts Do Good Turn For Scoutmaster

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Boy Scouts of Troop 666 did their good turn yesterday — for their scoutmaster.

First they had to get him out of town. They contacted Jim Stevens' sister in Fresno and arranged for her to invite him up there for a visit.

Then they set to work, with parental supervision, and painted his house — a job they knew he had been planning but had postponed to work with them. It helped that a painting contractor was chairman of the parents' committee for the troop.

"We figured that since he'd given so much of his time to us, we owed him a little in return," said 15-year-old Scout Warren Smith.

NO NEED TO MARRY HERE

Famous Bachelor Finds He Admires American Women

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Peppi Paunzen, one of the Orient's most celebrated bachelors, is now touring America—and has decided this is the place for any sensible man to spend his life.

Lest any single girl think this is heart-warming news for her, however, let me quote Peppi on the advantages of living here.

"A man has such a wonderful feeling of freedom. The little pies come in cellophane bags. The bread is already sliced. You can get your laundry done by electricity.

"What possible need is there for a man to get married? It is no longer necessary. He already has paradise."

Peppi, a methodical bachelor who requires prospective fiancees to fill out a printed questionnaire, has been overwhelmed by the beauty of American womanhood.

"The girls here are the most chic in the world," he said. "Also the most independent. But I have great curiosity to see one at 7 o'clock in the morning. How do they look without makeup? Has this ever been found out?"

Who is the brash man who seeks to know about the real face behind the great American female facade?

Well, Peppi is a kind of human question mark himself, one of those rare people whom thousands hail as a friend but who spend their lives trying to discover themselves.

Peppi is a career refugee. He fled his native Austria to get away from Hitler. He spent several years in Shanghai as an involuntary guest of the Japanese Army. He was squeezed out of China by the Communists.

For the last four years he has been manager of the Press Club in Hong Kong. There, as a friend wrote, his hospitality, skill at the piano, and sense of humor "endeared him to man and beast alike throughout the Orient." The gentle smile and wryly hopeful outlook of this greying Viennese—his byword is "be happy, like Peppi"—have made him something of a living legend in the Far East, where many a lonesome stranger has been made to feel at home by his kindness.

When he finally left Hong Kong, his friends threw so many farewell parties for him that Peppi says for safety's sake he had to write on his forehead: "This side up—handle with care."

Coming to America, where he wants to be a citizen, has been the big adventure of his life. He was held back for years by the small Austria quota.

"I was told I could get in quicker if I married an American girl first," he said, "but the feeling of real freedom was what I wanted—and how can a man ever reach a land of freedom, if he gives up his freedom before he gets there."

"It is odd about the United States. Everybody seems to like it except the Americans who are away from it.

"In Hong Kong the Americans I met said, 'better don't go, Peppi, stay here.' But I like it over here much better, even though I went to Times Square and did not find it square.

"Now I would like to travel about this country and write a column explaining America to the Americans."
