Courthouse lighting, parade successful

The Mitchell County Courthouse took on a Christmas look this past Saturday as the new Christmas lights were turned on for the first time following the parade through downtown Colorado City.

The county commissioners purchased over 8,000 feet of lights and the display is expected to be expanded even more next year.

The parade was termed a success by parade chairman Sue Lowrance as Cap Rock Electric captured first place and a $100 first prize. In the spirit of the season, Cap Rock donated the money to the Tumbleweed Lioness Club for their Toys for Tots program. The Lioness Club came in second while third place went to the First Baptist Church of Westbrook.

Kent Womack won a trophy in the antique car division of the parade. Don't forget the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a county-wide Christmas lighting contest for all residents.

It is open to all residents of the county and it includes the rural areas as well. Please call the Chamber at 728-3403 to enter your home in the contest.

First place is worth $100 while second is worth $75. Third place prize is $50 plus a trophy will be given for honorable mention. Entries must be in by December 15.

Three counts attempted murder C-City resident jailed

Ray Dean Vanderslice, 31, of Colorado City remains in Nolan County Jail under bonds totalling $200,000 as a result of an attempted armed robbery in Sweetwater early Saturday, Nov. 28.

Bond was set at $50,000 for attempted aggravated robbery and $50,000 each on three counts of attempted murder of a police officer.

The attempted robbery took place at the Skinny's convenience store at I-20 and Lamar Street in Sweetwater.

The Sweetwater Police Department received a 911 call at 2:34 a.m. and upon answering, they could not get anyone on the calling end to respond but according to the dispatcher on duty at the time, a voice could be heard demanding money and threatening store personnel. The store clerk could also be heard responding to the robber's demands.

Officers were dispatched to the scene and all this time the phone line was open and the dispatcher heard a voice, supposedly that of the robber, saying, "if the cops show up, I'll shoot them." The dispatcher informed the police who were enroute and they took up positions outside the store.

Upon leaving the store, the suspect saw the officers and dropped much of the merchandise he had taken and took off running. When officers shouted at him to halt, he reportedly fired at them with a 9mm handgun.

Sweetwater police officers then returned fire, wounding the suspect in the shoulder and the left leg. The suspect then dropped his weapon and the police made the arrest.

He was taken to Rolling Plains Memorial Hospital where he was treated for his injuries and then jailed.

Vanderslice had attempted to take money and several cartons of cigarettes from the store.

One round was fired from his gun inside the store slightly nicking the store clerk in the foot.

"Toy Drive" still needs donations

The "Toy Drive" for Mitchell County is already underway and this year it is being sponsored by the Tumbleweed Lioness Club.

This drive benefits over a hundred children each year in the county and is a very worthwhile yet major undertaking.

The Lioness Club is asking other organizations, businesses and individuals to pitch in and help this year by either donating new or used toys or cash to use in purchasing toys. And the used toys need to be clean and in good enough shape to be given as gifts.

Members of the Club stated that over the past years, some children would not have received a Christmas gift if it had not been for the Toy Drive. They want everyone to have a Christmas toy this year.

Members have designated several local businesses as drop off points or you are invited to contact a member of the Club for them to pick up your donation.

Drop off points include City Discount Drug, City Hall, Lone Star Gas, Free's or Corky's True-Value Hardware. If you would like to mail your donation, please make the check to the Tumbleweed Lioness Club and mail it to Shirley Grimes, Route 1, Box 95 or Connie Simpson, Route 2, Box 315-G, Colorado City. Or call Shirley at 728-2215, Connie at 728-8610 and Inez Howell, 728-3653.

FIRST PLACE IN CHRISTMAS PARADE: Caprock Electric Co-Op won first place in the annual Christmas Parade Saturday in Colorado City. Caprock donated their $100 first place money to the Tumbleweed Lioness Club to be used in their "Toys for Tots" program. Second place was won by the Tumbleweed Lioness Club and First Baptist Church of Westbrook captured third place.

FIRST BUCK: Josh Franco, 15 and a sophomore at Colorado High School, brought down this 9-point buck early Friday morning south of Colorado City. It field dressed at 110 pounds.

Weevils targeted by satellite

This fall, pilots in the High Plains are relying on a satellite system to tell them where to target insecticide applications in their battle against boll weevils.

The SATLOC Inc. technology, based on a Global Positioning System, helps pilots align their spraying to maximize coverage in cotton fields and minimize boll weevil migration into the High Plains. A computer on board each of the program's four airplanes also allow officials to keep records on fields being sprayed.

The technology is being used by the Texas High Plains Boll Weevil Disapause Control Program. The program, administered by Plains Cotton Growers Inc., was established in 1964 as a 15-county area around Lubbock to prevent boll weevils from migrating westward from the Rolling Plains into the High Plains.

"This is an excellent example of agriculture embracing technology to make sure pesticide applications are precise and accurate," Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said. "And this type of technology could be a useful tool once a statewide boll weevil eradication program is in place."

From late September until the first frost, about 150,000 cotton acres are treated out of the 500,000 cotton acres scattered throughout the program's 8,500-square-mile area.

Before using the SATLOC system, the program's pilots relied on ground crews with flags and a radio system to help them line up in 150-footwide spray swaths in cotton fields. Correct alignment ensures that a field is not treated too much or too little, which can occur if a pilot lines up too close or too far from the last swatch treated. Cotton fields are not treated individually, but instead, planes fly in a straight line, turning the sprayer on and off, to treat as many as six to seven different fields in one pass.

Seventy percent of the $1.4 million High Plains Boll Weevil Disapause Control program is funded by growers, with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service and Plant Protection and Quarantine shouldering the remaining 30 percent of the costs. For the 1992 year, the Texas Department of Agriculture awarded the program a $27,295 grant.

COLORADO CONVERSATIONS

BY BARBIE LELEK

Well, I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving! It was different for my family this year, instead of sharing funny stories and stuffing our faces together, part of us helped at the Community Thanksgiving Dinner. We actually served 77 people and delivered to almost that many. We did have food left over of which several people packed up and took door to door, serving approximately another 50, except for the green beans spilled in the van, that went over good too. Rest assured Calvary and First Baptist, it was Christian Temple's vehicle that was "baptized!" Thanks for the loan of your vans for the shut-in delivery.

Lloyd Johnson, pastor of St. Luke Methodist Church, and his wife Glenda brought the "dinner music" for the Community Dinner. They did a great job!

Special thanks to several people who just showed up to help. Connie Ponko was a delivery girl and a "to go" plate assembly person! Dawn Butler was also a "to go" plate assembly person as well as doing many odd jobs. Jay and Charlie McCollum were delivery persons and misc. workers. Madge Shepherd was a wonderful dessert cutter and server. Kenneth and Shirley Rogers donated several things and were also on hand all day to help with whatever needed to be done. Mat and Edith Matlock also proved to be very needed. Martin and Kay Rocha along with their daughter Sarah, came from Houston to help with the dinner. Kay is the sister of Patti Savage of Christian Temple. Todd McNeal came from San Angelo to help deliver meals with his father Bob. Ernie Lelek made himself useful with his pick-up for hauling canned goods to and from the Mission. Tim Lelek was a jack of all trades doing a little bit of everything to help. Dee Sanders helped with the canned good collecting. While I'm naming let me not forget those who were a part from the start. Pat and Patti Savage, pastor of Christian Temple. Bob and Cheryl McNeal, Community Mission director, Shirley Stafford, Turkey Coordinator (in more ways than one!), Lou Golden and Lonie Pruitt, the sweets lady! Please please forgive me if I've forgotten anyone. I like to blame the Nutra Sweet in my diet cokes!!

BEWARE, all bottled coke drinkers, of possible explosion upon opening! Rayanna McGaha thought she had to have the bottle in the middle of the display at Fullers, thus causing the entire stack of cokes to come tumbling down! Way to go Rayanna!

Several of us were discussing the other day, what a baby turkey is called. This is what we decided, a gobblet, a turklet, a giblet, or a gobbie, which is it really?

Jim Baum brought a good program at the Rotary Thanksgiving "get together" the other evening. He spoke about several well known men whose bright ideas and ingenuity made their names a household word, like Sears and Walgreen! He also proved that bald men can't draw turkeys on top of their heads! (of course on paper!)

Wasn't the parade fun?! I really enjoyed it although I didn't get to see it as well as you did. Why? I was riding the Rotary float with lots of children singing Christmas carols. I have to confess though I was really getting tired of Jingle Bells after singing it about 9 times! I nominate the same group of parade committee people for next year, any seconds?

The Robert and Helen Chambers family held a reunion last weekend. Over 50 kin folks were in attendance. Everyone enjoyed watching old home movies while others played a good game of volleyball or basketball.

Will the Thanksgiving miracles never cease? I actually SUCCESSFULLY made Divinity and cooked a Turkey! Yea the last time I made Divinity, I decided that was how the candy bar Big Hunk was invented!

Janet McCright

This week we will feature Janet McCright. She was born in Snyder where she lived until she was two years old. Her family moved to Lubbock and it was there Janet grew up. She graduated from Coronado High School before attending Texas Tech University. While working at a bank in Lubbock, a certain young man always came in to make deposits for his father's store. Monte and Janet dated for 4 years while he finished college, before getting married December 14, 1985. Colorado City residents received their chance to get to know then when CJ's was for sale and knowing the business, Monte purchased it. He paid his way through school working at his father's liquor store in Lubbock. They lived here two years when his father's store became available to buy. Monte and Janet now also own Mac's in Lubbock of which he travels to on Mondays and Tuesdays. Janet is a full time busy Mom who also refers to herself as the store gopher!

She says she never has time for hobbies now but she used to enjoy crossstitch. They belong to the First United Methodist Church. They, being business owners, also serve as Volunteers for the Chamber of Commerce.

Janet learned, like most of us, to cook from her Mother while she was growing up. She enjoys cooking when she has the time.

They have two precious children: Nathan 17 months and Colton 1 month.

Janet's helpful hint: When cooking noodles, add butter to the water. It will keep the pot from boiling over.

PUBLIC NOTICE

GTE Southwest Incorporated (GTE-SW) and Contel of Texas Inc. (Contel) have filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to seek approval to provide two new private line services and to change rates for existing services. GTE's intraexchange DS1 Service will be offered pursuant to the rates proposed with this filing and will no longer be available through concurrence with GTE's interLATA access tariff rates which are lower. Contel's intraexchange DS1/DDS Service will be offered pursuant to the rates proposed with this filing and will no longer be available through Contel's current private line tariff rates. Existing customers with DS1/DDS Services will not be affected by these rate changes. DS1 1.544 Megabits per second (Mbps) Service and Digital Data Service (DDS) will normally be used for the transmission of data communications or large volumes of voice communications between two locations. These services are optional and will not affect the existing rates of customers who do not order these services. The estimated annual effect on GTE-SW's revenues in the first year is $1,080,567. The estimated annual effect on Contel's revenues in the first year are $42,383.

DS1 Service

DS1 Service is an intraLATA Private Line Service which provides a dedicated, high capacity channel which may be used for simultaneous two-way transmission of voice data or other digitally encoded customer information signals. DS1 Service provides a transmission speed of 1.544 Mbps and is designed to provide an average performance of at least 95 percent error-free seconds of transmission over a continuous 24-hour period.

DS1 Service is available in and between all exchanges of GTE-SW and Contel where digital facilities exist. DS1 Service is available on a point-to-point intraLATA basis between two Customer Designated Locations (CDL), between a Serving Wire Center (SWC) and a CDL, between a CDL and a point of connection with another service provider or between two SWCs.

IntraLATA DS1 Private Line Service is comprised of three rate elements: DS1 Local Loop, DS1 Transport and DS1 Transport Termination. Each element is described below.

DS1 Local Loop

This rate element is for the cable facilities from the CDL to the SWC. The customer has two payment options for the purchase of DS1 Local Loops. There is a month-to-month plan or term contract Optional Payment Plan (OPP).

The month-to-month payment basis allows the customer to establish and disconnect DS1 Services, without penalty, other than to meet the minimum service interval of one month's service, as needed. Under the month-to-month service, the additional DS1 Local Loop rate applies only when the additional DS1 Local Loop (s) is (are) ordered at the same time and between the same two CDLs as the first DS1 Local Loop.

The OPP plan allows the customer to select a term of service (1 YR, 3 YR and 5 YR) with lower monthly rates associated with longer term contracts. If the customer selects an OPP, additional DS1 Local Loops may be ordered and installed at the Additional DS1 Local Loop rate between any SWC and CDL covered by the OPP, at any time during the term of that OPP.

DS1 Transport

This rate element is for the mileage sensitive charges for transporting a DS1 signal between Serving Wire Centers. Transport occurs only when the two CDLs being connected are served by two different SWCs.

DS1 Transport Termination

This rate element is for the equipment to terminate DS1 Transport at the SWCs. This charge applies only when DS1 Transport is required for the service configuration of the customer. One transport termination charge applies at each end of the DS1 Transport.

Proposed Rates and Charges for DS1 Service are as follows:

	Nonrecurring Charge	Monthly Rates
DS1 Local Loop
Month-to-Month
First System	$ 1,000.00	$ 298.00
12-month term

Digital Data Service

Digital Data Service (DDS) is an intraLATA Private Line service which supports synchronous, full-duplex transmission between the CDL and the SWC or the point of connection with another telephone company at transmission speeds of 2.4, 4.8, 9.6, 19.2 and 56 kilobits per second (Kbps). DDS provides a transmission path for digital data signals within the same LATA.

DDS Service is available in and between all exchanges of GTE-SW and Contel where digital facilities exist. DDS Service is available on a point-to-point intraLATA basis between two CDLs or between a CDL and a point of connection with another service provider.

IntraLATA DDS Private Line Service is comprised of three rate elements: DDS Local Loop, DDS Transport and DDS Transport Termination. Each element is described below.

DDS Local Loop

This rate element is for the cable facilities from the CDL to the SWC. The customer may establish and disconnect DDS Local Loops without penalty other than the minimum service interval of one month's service, as his/her needs demand.

DDS Transport

This rate element is for the mileage sensitive charges for transporting a DDS signal between SWCs. Transport occurs only when the two CDLs being connected are served by two different SWCs.

DDS Transport Termination

This rate element is for the equipment to terminate DDS Transport at the SWCs. This charge applies only when DDS Transport is required for the service configuration of the customer. One transport termination charge applies at each end of the service.

Proposed rates and charges for DDS are as follows:

In the jv game, Jeanette Ceballos hit 16 points while Bonnie Boone had 8. Others scoring in the victory were Tarsha Scott-6, Jennifer Ornelas-3, Misty Sullivan-2 and Christina Mendoza and Tracy Scott two each.

CHS team members honored

The District 6-AAA all-academic football team was recently announced and twelve members of the 1992 CHS team were honored.

Those on the team according to coach Mark Howeth includes Doug Conner, Scott Payne, Brandon Oden, Billy Joe Robinette, James Rivera and Mark Contreras.

Others include Frank Brisenio, Mike Dossey, Ron West, Jim Lemons, James Franco and Brian Ritchey.

In order to be included on this team, students had to maintain a 90+ average for the first two six-weeks of the school year.

Games scheduled

It's tournament time for all the basketball teams this week as Colorado City will participate in the Coahoma tournament Thursday through Saturday.

Westbrook and Loraine will both participate in the Ira tourney with their boys' and girls' varsity teams.

Colorado City's jv girls and boys will be in the Sweetwater Tournament over the weekend.

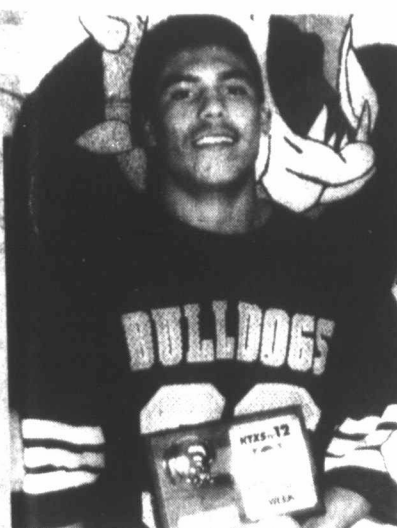

Danne McMillan
McMillan honored

Millicent Danne McMillan has earned honors in both band and choir this year. She was selected for the Southeastern Oklahoma All-District Honor Choir. Participants from eastern and central Oklahoma auditioned October 17, 1992 at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. Danne was selected to sing alto in the High School Honor Choir. A clinic was held November 9th and 10th, ending with a concert on November 10, 1992.

Danne plays flute in the Marietta High School Band and is a flute student of Dr. Pam Youngblood of Denton, Texas. Danne competed in two band competition this year. The All-District Honor Band and The South Central Oklahoma Band Directors Association (SCOBDA) Honor Band. She placed fifth chair Symphonic Band out of 90 flute participants. She placed seventh chair in the SCOBDA Honor Band out of over eighty flute participants. These Honor Bands will hold clinics and concerts in January. Danne performed at a recital sponsored by the Denton Music Teachers Association on November 21, 1992. The recital featured jazz and was held at North Texas University. Danne performed Irlandaise by Claude Bolling. Her piano accompanist was Dr. Youngblood.

Danne is a freshman at Marietta High School and enjoys performing special music for her church. She is the granddaughter of Weldon and Edna McMillan and Walter and Mildred Mitchell both of Colorado City. She lives in Marietta with her brother Allyn and her parents Kelvin and Ava McMillan.

Runningback Arthur Garcia of Loraine received the KTXS player of the week award during football season for his performance against Ira. According to coach Bob Loy, a player or players are nominated by their coaches for their play during a game and this is forwarded to their sports department where they have a panel of individuals who make the final selection of the awards. The coaches nominate but have no say at all in the final selection. Loy also expressed his thanks to Mrs. Lois Phillips for her help in getting the results to the Record each week.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

....BY JIM BAUM

(Editor's note: In 1926, Colorado (City) made a determined bid to land an A. & M. college. In light of our county's successful effort to get a state prison, it is interesting to note the similarities between 1926 and 1992. But there were also differences. For example, the thirty-eighth legislature stipulated the "locating board shall not be influenced to any degree in the determination of its selection of a location by offers and promises of gifts, directly or indirectly, to the State of Texas." In fact, the primary consideration "which shall outweigh all others, shall be to locate the college where it can...render the greatest service to the state..." come along in our "Texas Tech" series and see if you think the best site won.

Why were the Texas legislature, Governor Pat Neff and representatives of Texas A. & M. against locating a state college in west Texas?

This story begins on April 7, 1916, in Sweetwater. Residents of west Texas had been thwarted in their attempts to get a school of higher education. It was a classic case of taxation without representation. West Texas tax dollars went to Austin, but very few were coming back.

Not helping the west Texas plight was an overall feeling by many Texans that if a person didn't have good ol' common horse sense, he wouldn't get it through "book learnin'" either.

So, the west Texans decided to organize in an effort to get a college for their kids to attend. At the Sweetwater meeting, Dr. P.C. Coleman of Colorado City presided.

He related how a Texas woman who lived in Marfa had to attend college at New Mexico A. & M. and Dr. Coleman asked rhetorically, "Suppose the Kansas boys and girls had to go to the Missouri bottoms for their education. What do you think the result would be?"

From that meeting, Dr. Coleman emerged as chairman of the West Texas A. & M. College Campaign Committee. It was a post he would hold for seven frustrating years.

In September of 1916, the committee was successful in getting the proposal for a west Texas college included in the state Democratic party's platform. The rest was easy, or so it seemed. The legislature approved the bill and Governor James "Farmer Jim" Ferguson signed it into law on February 20, 1917. got it made, right? Wrong.

When the location board met to decide where the West Texas A. & M. should be located, a tremendous controversy erupted. After visiting all the proposed sites, a secret ballot was taken by the board and three of the five ostensibly voted for Abilene. However, when participants started comparing notes (or votes) a little later, only two of the men would admit they voted for Abilene. Naturally, towns which had vied for the college cried foul.

Meanwhile, Governor Ferguson, who was a member of the locating board, was impeached by the legislature (on unrelated events) and was removed from office. His replacement, Lt. Governor William P. Hobby, who had also been on the locating board, said in the wake of the upheaval, it would be best if he repealed the college law. And he did. (Sorry, Abilene).

West Texas was back to ground zero. And that's where the matter would stay for seven long years.

It appeared the 1917 fiasco had been corrected in 1921. Dr. Coleman (and other west Texas leaders) were successful in getting legislation approved for a college, despite the fact the state Democratic party refused to include the A. & M. plank in its platform.

This time, Governor Pat Neff was the culprit. Citing tough economic times, coupled with the Democrats opposition, Neff vetoed the West Texas A. & M. legislation!!

The reaction in west Texas was predictable and hostile. There was actually a short-lived movement for west Texas to secede from the state. Ultimately west Texas leaders did all they could do; regroup and try again. Surely the third time would be the charm.

In 1922 governor Neff let it be known that west Texas would have to get a college plank in the Democrats platform, if it expected to get an A. & M. That support would be difficult to get.

First, there was opposition from friends of A. & M. at Bryan. Apparently they felt a West Texas A. & M. would either hurt their enrollment or it would diminish their schools stature, or both.

Secondly, the west Texans themselves had many differences of opinion. Such questions as would the school be co-educational, would it offer strictly an agricultural curriculum and would it be independent of Texas A. & M., resulted in internal divisions.

The first compromise on the controversy came at the state Democratic convention during September, in San Antonio. It was reluctantly agreed that the plank would be supported with the proposed college being governed by the trustees of Texas A. & M. Not all west Texans accepted that notion, however.

In the meantime, a rumor leaked out that some west Texans had agreed with A. & M. President W.B. Bizzell to settle for a junior college, such as John Tarleton State College.

Dr. Coleman was quick to put down that idea.

"I do not know who it was to agree with Dr. Bizzell," the Colorado physician said, "but I do know they never consulted me on the matter and I have been chairman of the West Texas A. & M. College Campaign since it was first inaugurated here at Sweetwater six years ago.

"You can call it a West Texas A. & M. College, or you can call it the West Texas State College," Dr. Coleman continued, "but we will never know what it is until we get it and we will know what to do with it, when we do get it."

But one thing was certain and Dr. Coleman hammered home his point. "The people in west Texas are entitled to a senior college in the first class and I believe they will never consent to anything short of that!"

(In the next column, west Texans take their case for a state college to other parts of the state).

Christmas Seal use urged for holiday mailing

Remember the Christmas Seal letter you received in October and stored in your desk drawer for attention when the holidays got closer? Well, the American Lung Association of Texas the Christmas Seal People-hopes you'll get that letter out again and return your Christmas Seal contribution during "Mail It Week," December 7-12.

"It's also a good time to mail holiday cards (with Christmas Seals attached, of course) to beat the post office rush," American Lung Association of Texas President Edward Carter suggested.

Carter said his association hopes that Texans will answer their Christmas Seal letter during the week, bringing the Association closer to its 1992 Christmas Seal goal of one million dollars. So far only about $429,600 has been raised, compared with $522,653 raised last year at this date.

"Christmas Seal income is down significantly this year," Carter said. "We hope people will respond generously during 'Mail It Week,' which commemorates the 85th anniversary of the first issue of Christmas Seals. Those very first Seals, created to fight tuberculosis, had a big job to do. They still do today."

Carter said that Christmas Seals now fight all lung diseases including lung cancer, emphysema, asthma and tuberculosis, which is becoming a problem again in Texas. They support lung disease research, stop-smoking programs, clean air advocacy, school health programs and public education programs.

The American Lung Association of Texas, founded in 1908, is dedicated to the fight against lung disease.
