MODERN FIFTY FT. FRONT ON MAIN STREET

Material Has Been Purchased From Local Business Firms To Erect Fine Building

Will Use Home Labor

Many People Will Be Given Employment In Construction Of 50x140 Store

Actual construction work will start Monday morning on the new 50x140 home of the Ideal Food Store, so states Shelby Blakemore, vice president of the Blakemore Brothers Grocery Co., owners and operators of the Ideal Food Stores of the Southwest.

The big, fine, modern grocery store will be built at the corner of Main Street and Second Avenue on the site of the old frame Perryton Hotel. Mr. Blakemore states that he has already contracted for the purchase of a large portion of the brick, cement, lumber and other materials from local building supply dealers. Mr. Blakemore plans to remain in Perryton much of the time during the construction of the building, giving his personal supervision to the work. Frank Higgins, Liberal, Kansas, builder, will superintend the construction. Local building mechanics and laborers will be used in the erection of the building. No contract will be let.

The entire 50x140 space will be covered with the beautiful brick structure. Two small rooms, approximately 25x30 feet, facing south will be cut off in the rear of the building for rental purposes. The main retail grocery store will occupy fifty foot frontage with a depth of 90 feet, and a warehouse, approximately 20x50, in the northeast part of the building.

There will be two entrances, one in front on Main Street and another on the south side. Check and cashier's stands will be located at each entrance. At the rear of the store will be a mezzanine floor with rest rooms and lounge for customers. New fixtures will be installed throughout the store which will have a 12 ft. ceiling.

The plans call for walls to be constructed of brick, the exterior being of a light texture face. The front will be highly ornamental with structural glass and cut stone facings.

Carrollton is located midway between Louisville and Cincinnati on the south bank of the Ohio River. It is in the heart of the raging flood area, but due to breakdown in communications, the telegram was several days reaching Perryton.

Mr. LaMaster states that they have received no additional information regarding Mr. Tandy's death but he feels that his end was not caused from the flood as he has been in poor health and confined to the house since Christmas. Mr. LaMaster also stated that, from information received over radio broadcasts, he did not think the flood waters had engulfed the Tandy home in Carrollton.

RAISING FLOOD RELIEF FUNDS

OCHILTREE COUNTY RED CROSS CHAPTER IN DRIVE FOR DISTRESSED IN FLOOD STRICKEN AREA

With an original quota of $40.00, later doubled and then "taking the lid off" and asking for every dollar possible, Sam Hergert, chairman of the Ochiltree County Red Cross Chapter, has been directing a campaign for funds to be sent to the National Red Cross to be used for the relief of the suffering thousands in the flooded areas of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas and other states.

The tabulation of the Ochiltree county fund stood at $252.25, at noon Wednesday. This was five times greater than the county's first quota. A large part of this amount was given voluntarily without any solicitation. As radio, wire and press reports come in, the need for an ever-increasing relief program is readily apparent.

Chairman Hergert has issued a county-wide appeal to every man, woman and child to do their "bit" in this great crisis. Subscriptions in any amount, large or small, are being received by Mr. Hergert at the Plainview Hardware & Furniture Co., First National Bank, and the Stewart Printing Co.

Following is a complete list of the donors included in the $252.25. List of additional subscribers will be published next week.

G. R. Wilson $10, Van W. Stewart $5, C. F. Jones $1, Sam Hergert $2, E. L. George $1, T. W. Fuller $1, Wm. VanGuilder $1.50, A. J. (continued on back page)

MUST HAVE POLL TAX RECEIPT BEFORE FEBRUARY 1

Sheriff J. S. Talley states that parties who do not have a poll tax receipt will not be allowed to vote in any election, city, school or county. This ruling does not apply to persons over age or to young men and women who have just become of age.

Poll tax receipts must be obtained on or before January 31. While this is an "off" year in state and county elections, there will be the usual school and city elections. It is also almost certain that there will be an important constitutional amendment election in November. Pay your poll tax or be disfranchised for 12 months.

Sheriff Talley also states that delinquent poll taxes become a lien on any real or personal property now owned or to be acquired in the future.

HOG FEEDING FILM AT ELLIS

"MARCH OF TIME" TO BE ADDED FEATURE AT MATINEE AND EVENING SHOW NEXT SATURDAY

Stovall, county agent, a thirty minute film entitled "March of Time" will be shown at both matinee and evening shows at the Ellis Theatre Saturday. This will be an added feature to the regular program but no extra admission will be charged.

"March of Time" shows experiments of Fred Hale, of the Hog Breeding Division of the Texas Experiment Station and should prove very interesting to farmers. Mr. Hale's experiments in feeding and breeding hogs has attracted attention of the medical profession, it is said, and brought many inquiries.

Russ Hanna motored to Liberal, Kans., Sunday to meet Mrs. Hanna and baby. They are at home 1121 Southwest Third street. Mr. Hanna is the new owner of the City Drug company, just recently purchasing the interest of R. H. Holland.

SCOTT AMEND, SOILS EXPERT TO MEET WITH FARMERS OF COUNTY; AT TWICHELL FRIDAY NIGHT

Arrangements have been made by J. T. Stovall, county agent, for Scott Amend, soil conservationist, to meet with the various Agricultural Associations in the county and explain the new program. Mr. Amend was sent to Perryton by the Soil Conservation Service to work in conjunction with the County Wind Erosion Control district.

The first of the meetings which will be attended by Mr. Amend is at Lone Tree, Friday evening, January 29. Other engagements are, Black and McMillen, at Black, February 5; Parnsworth and Waka, at Parnsworth, February 9; Twichell, February 26. Other communities will be visited as soon as arrangements can be made.

The first contracts in connection with the program were signed by Ochiltree county farmers Tuesday, according to Mr. Amend. Work of rebuilding damaged land, which will include leveling hummocks and fence drifts, etc. will begin as soon as the ground thaws sufficiently.

AVERAGE TO BE PAID FARMERS $7.80 AN ACRE

All Applications Now in Washington Believe Ninety Eight Per Cent Will Be Accepted

Pay On 15% Of Acreage

All Land in County is Measured to Determine Amount Cultivated; Total is 359,000 Acres

Ochiltree County farmers are due to receive approximately $404,336 the latter part of February in the form of compliance checks from the government according to information furnished at the county agent's office. The figure represents payment on 949 applications. J. T. Stovall, county agent, says in his opinion ninety eight per cent of the total applicants will qualify for full payment.

Measuring of the farmer's land has been completed, resulting in the information that 359,000 acres are actually being cultivated in the county. This is the fourth time land in the county has been measured, says Mr. Stovall, but the first time all cultivated acreage has been taken into consideration. In making preliminary applications Ochiltree county farmers had estimated their cultivated acreage, showing an approximate total of 371,300 acres, while the government estimate was 345,592 acres. The latter figures will be taken as a base from which to work.

The estimated production of land in Ochiltree county, as determined by the Federal Government is $7.80 per acre which will be paid farmers and this is the average which will be paid farmers per acre who have complied with the government program. Compliance requirements are that fifteen per cent of cultivated land be taken out of production, and a specified soil conservation practice be used on that acreage. Payment of $7.80 per acre, or the amount determined according to the productivity of the individual piece of land, will be on fifteen per cent of the base acreage.

PENSIONS FOR AGED $1,189

SIXTY FIVE OLD PEOPLE IN OCHILTREE COUNTY ARE BENEFITTED DURING DECEMBER

Sixty five old people living in Ochiltree county received old age pension checks, totaling $1,189, in December. This is according to information available at the office of the district and county clerk, a record of checks being sent there each month.

Two checks, representing payment from the Federal government and the State of Texas, are received by the old folk each month. Amounts shown on the record in the clerk's office is one-half of each pension payment, except in cases where as much as $29 or $30 is received. In such instances only one check is issued recipient. No one in Ochiltree county is receiving the maximum, which is $30. The greatest amount received by any one individual is $25, and the lowest is $5.00.

It is understood that several names of local people have been dropped from the pension rolls since the December issuance of checks and it is thought that the next payment will total less than formerly.

FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL
TEAMS ARE ENTERTAINED
BY LIONS CLUB LAST
TUESDAY EVENING

The Lions Club entertained the Rangerette basketball team, and the Ranger football and basketball teams Tuesday evening, January 19, at a banquet given at the Masonic Hall.

When all the guests had arrived, numbers were drawn and matched to get partners for the evening. The Lions had a Rangerette for a partner and the football and basketball boys had a Lioness for a partner.

Songs were given out to each one, and before the guests were seated "Old McDonald" and a Fellowship song were sung. Everyone not singing had to pay the large fine of 5c. Beside each plate a noise-maker, paper hat, and serpent were placed. Eventually there was serpent in the desert, in the coffee, and everywhere.

Short talks were given by E. D. Kelley, Miss McCandless, Otis Burk, Ralph Duke, and the captains of the football and basketball teams. Addison Cutter sang "Water Boy" accompanied by Miss Ruby Neufeld. Herbert Shindler added to the program by playing a trumpet solo.

The main guest and speaker of the evening was Coach Blair Cherry of the Amarillo Golden Sandies team. He made a very interesting talk, mostly about football, and he carried out the idea, "Don't wait to be a great man; be a great boy." After Mr. Cherry's talk the official "lion roar," which was the last number, was given by everyone led by Mr. Bush, and everyone departed from the scene of merrymaking.

Rangers Defeat Lynx

Perryton Wins From Spearman Last Friday with 19 to 15 Score, Making 17 Games Won

Last Friday night the Perryton Rangers took a rough and tumble game from the Spearman Lynx. The final score was 19 to 15 in favor of Perryton. During the course of the game 11 fouls were called on Perryton and 15 on Spearman. George Morris and Granville Lilly fouled out for Perryton and Slaughter and Robinson fouled out for Spearman.

The game was a typical Ranger-Lynx meeting, with each team "out for blood." At the half the score was 8 to 11 in favor of the Rangers. Guy Stewart was absent from the game and Lee Kent took his place. The starting line-up was Pittman and Lilly, guards; Kent and Schollenger, forwards; and George Morris, center. Ray McWilliams and Harold Hudson also saw service during the game.

This win made the nineteenth game played, out of which two were lost, making seventeen won and two lost; thus far this season. This is not a bad percentage.

The Perryton Juniors went to Spearman Wednesday afternoon and played two games. The Spearman Juniors defeated the Perryton Juniors 18-16. The small Perryton boys defeated the Spearman small boys 14-2 in a rough and tumble game.

EDITORIAL

By IMOGENE HOWLETT

First, I want to thank the student body for the honor they have just given me. I do sincerely consider it an honor to have the opportunity of accepting this position, and I realize and appreciate the confidence you have placed in me. With your cooperation I am sure we can make each issue better and more interesting.

Virginia Correll has made an excellent editor, and I regret that she could not accept the duties of assistant editor. There is no need for me to tell you what kind of an assistant Virginia would make, because her efficiency and tireless efforts have been proven, when she was editor and also assistant editor of the "El Sombrero." My only wish is that I may edit a paper that will come up to the high standard to which the "El Sombrero" has always aspired.

If there are any laurels to be reaped I think Mr. Stewart deserves all of them for the kindness and consideration he has shown us.

Again, I thank all of you scholars for the cooperation I have received and feel sure I shall continue to receive the entire semester. If I become a grey haired, decrepit old maid I shall be proud to say I did it for "Dear Old P. H. S." Seriously, I do thank you.

CONTINENTAL PERFECTS GAS RECOVERY PROCESS

From Ponca City, Okla. headquarters of the Continental Oil Company, whose gasoline stations are a familiar sight in this vicinity, comes word of a new development in the conservation of American oil and natural gas resources which is expected within a reasonable length of time to result in annual savings to the petroleum industry of approximately $100,000,000 through recovery of by-products now lost in evaporation while the crude oil is being handled in the field.

First installation of the new type of equipment, which recovers in the form of gasoline about sixty percent of what were formerly regarded as inevitable evaporation losses, was made recently at Conoco's famed Tepetate field in Basile, Louisiana, and special repressuring equipment soon to be installed in the pioneer Tepetate plant will permit the return of residue gases into the well for future use.

IN TRUCK LEGISLATION

Any change in existing Texas truck laws which will increase the present 7,000-pound load limit will affect adversely all communities in the state, both rural and urban. This statement is proved best by identifying the causes and effects upon Texas communities.

These are:

1. Increasing truck loads mean correspondingly increasing the distance which the truck can profitably carry its load.

2. Increasing the distance of profitable truck haul means bringing the small town wholesale houses and industrial plants, such as wholesale grocers, bottling plants, feed mills, oil mills, grain elevators, cotton compresses and retail lumber yards, into direct competition with similar establishments in large cities.

3. Such competition will inevitably result in further drying up the small country towns by taking from them the payrolls, taxes and local purchases represented by their present establishments. Property values, both residential and commercial, will decline; volume of retail sales will grow smaller and former employees will migrate to the cities to reinforce the ranks of the unemployed and the bread lines.

4. Large cities, at first stimulated by increased trade territories, bought at the expense of the country towns, will be ultimately affected adversely because of the resulting unhealthy condition of the rural communities forming these trade territories.

5. Because of the consequent shrinkage of the state's tax revenues from country towns, taxes from the cities will have to be increased correspondingly.

6. The lower truck load limit of Texas now has the effect of acting as a barrier at Texas borders to the movement of the larger truck loads carrying merchandise from the metropolitan and producing centers of other states. Any increase in Texas truck load limits will break down that barrier and permit the free truck movement into the state of many commodities which unquestionably would be sold directly to the retailers, thus destroying, in a large measure, the business of wholesalers and jobbers now located in Texas cities.

Conditions which affect adversely the well-being of Texas communities also affect Texas railroads in identical manner and degree.

A Statement From The Publishers of The Herald

El Sombrero staff members and pupils of the school may find articles missing from the school paper this week that have been prepared and submitted to us for publication. We are making this public statement so that you will not censor the El Sombrero editors for this omission.

A number of very fine stories have been omitted, stories that were real news; stories that has reader interest. Due to mounting costs of production and overhead expense in every department, we have decided to place a limit on the size of the space that we can give to your school publication each week. This maximum space will be 70 column inches including the head. Check El Sombrero this week and you will find that it is considerably over this maximum size, even after many column inches had been "cut back."

We sometimes wonder if the pupils and patrons of the Perryton school realize the hours and hours of work the staff of El Sombrero put in each week gathering, editing and "whipping" into shape your school news. Give credit where it is due. We wish to voice our appreciation to the past and present staffs for the relationship that has existed.

Now just a word from the publishers viewpoint. We ask you to check newspapers anywhere as to school page volume and terms of printing. We feel sure that you will find few, if any, that devote as much space to school interests as the Herald. We do know that in many instances, schools pay for this service, even though same is run as a part of the regular paper. We also know that it is the policy of most newspapers to charge for publicity of all entertainments and contests where an admission charge is made, unless same be for charity. No one can truthfully say that the Herald has failed to give plenty of free publicity to school entertainments and other paid admission affairs, even though not one cent was received by the Herald for paid advertising and posters advertising same were not printed in our plant.

Have you ever stopped to think about the contribution in terms of dollars and cents, that the Herald makes each week to El Sombrero? At a minimum figure, the cost of publication is at least 12 1/2 cents per single column inch. At the 70 inch maximum that we have set, it will amount to $10.50 each week. Last weeks El Sombrero occupied 110 inches, at a cost to the Herald of $13.75.

In the matter of "cut-back" copy, the Herald will be governed by a number of considerations. Copy submitted by the El Sombrero staff on Monday or earlier will be set first and is almost certain to be published. All copy will be checked as to repetition of stories that we are running in other departments of the Herald. Regardless as to opinion, criticism, or "what-you-call-it," we will be the final judge as to publication of any and all copy submitted. We feel that our years of experience and observation have qualified us to judge copy for "reader interest" and fitness for publication.

"... that was November, 1902"

Over 34 Years Ago!...

LOOK back into the past is a good thing. That goes for newspapers as well as men. Let's pause every so often and just see how far we've come.

The first newspaper in Ochiltree county was printed down at Old Ochiltree just a little over 34 years ago. That was in the latter part of the month of November, 1902. It was printed on a small foot power job press, one page at a time. Copy for that first issue was written in pencil and set by hand from the few cases of type in the office. There wasn't a typewriter, a telephone or a linotype machine in the office. It took many hours of hard work to edit, set up and print the paper in those days. W. H. Mead and O. D. Mead were publisher and editor of that first paper, "The Ochiltree Star".

No one thought when that first paper was printed that 17 years later, the town of Ochiltree would be but a memory. At that time, those hardy pioneers who were prime movers in "The Free State of Ochiltree" had visions of the bands of steel that were going to be laid into that little city, making it the metropolis of the North Plains. Then came the roseate days of 1908 and 1909 when it seemed almost certain that the Enid, Ochiltree & Western railroad was going to make those dreams come true.

But in the meantime, the Star had passed out of existence and "The Ochiltree Eagle" was the village paper. Then with the rail prospects, the paper was enlarged into "The Eagle-Investigator". The town was moved a few hundred yards closer to the proposed railroad survey. New homes and business houses were builded, even a grain elevator "down by the railroad tracks."

But hopes of the coming of the rails were soon blasted. The company went broke. Then "The Ochiltree News" succeeded "The Eagle-Investigator." The thriving and bustling little inland city of Ochiltree had two newspapers after the "Ochiltree County Herald" was founded in the early days of 1917.

Then came the building of the Santa Fe through the north part of the county, the founding of Perryton in 1919, and the almost over-night move of man and building to the new townsite. And today, Old Ochiltree is but a city of memories, memories that grow richer, and then sadder as the Herald of today records one by one the passing of those friends of yesterday that have for their greatest monument the development of this great county.

'Tis a far cry from that newspaper plant of 1902 to the one that is at your service today. In the plant of the "Ochiltree County Herald" you will find every facility for the publishing of a modern country newspaper. Telephones, electric lights, natural gas, linotypes, typewriters, automatic presses, folding machines, stereotyping equipment. As the "Ochiltree County Herald" enters into the 35th year of Ochiltree county newspaper history, we feel that these are good times to live in. We look forward confidently to a greater Perryton and a greater Ochiltree county and to a future that will offer us opportunities for public service as yet unsuspected.

FESTIVE LAMB ROAST FOR WINTER DINNER

A leg of lamb, served with minted halves, is an ideal choice for the very special dinner at any time.

The leg of lamb shown above is known as the American style, which merely means that the end of the bone has been removed, so that the roast may be cooked in a shorter roasting pan.

To roast a leg of lamb, place it, cut side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan and allow it to roast at a low temperature (300 to 350 degrees F.) until done. Do not cover and do not add water. Allow thirty to thirty-five minutes per pound for roasting at the low temperature.

The peaches are minted by being simmered in a mint flavored syrup. These are garnished with mint leaves.

WAKA CLUB

Mrs. R. G. Burger, Reporter

The Waka Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Burger, Tuesday, January 19. At the business meeting, the ladies inspected a mattress pad for our edroom demonstrator, Mrs. J. R. tump. A soft wool blanket covered with bleached feed sacks and tied with a very durable and inexpensive mattress pad.

A short social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. Present at this meeting were Mesdames J. R. tump, Marvin Groves, R. D. Glassey, William Newingham, Maud Miller, Ernestine Hohmann, H. N. Ellgre, Miss Wilma Coleman, and the osters.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, February 2 at the home of Mrs. A. A. Burger. Visitors have a special invitation to attend this meeting.

OCHILTREE CLUB

Mrs. Jack Dodson, Reporter

"The mattress on a bed should be turned twice a week and put in sunshine often," stated Miss Wertha Tarter, home demonstration agent at the meeting of Ochiltree Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. Jack Dodson Wednesday, January 20, 1937 at two o'clock.

"The mattress can be kept clean by making a cover of feed sacks or huslin. When this is soiled it may be removed and washed. A mattress pad, large enough to cover the top of the mattress should be used. The most important point to consider, is the comfort about a mattress" further remarked Miss Tarter.

The club members have made plans for bed-room improvement. The club voted that each member pay fifty cents to council instead of sponsoring the project suggested by council.

The social hour was enjoyed by the members. Mrs. C. H. McCartney drew the "mysterious package".

Those present were Mesdames Claude Crouch, C. H. McCartney, Kirt Williams, E. E. Venis, Ray Jennings, George Yates, Miss Wertha Tarter, and hostess.

NEW HOPE CLUB

Mrs. A. M. Koehn, Reporter

At the meeting of the New Hope home demonstration club, in the home of Mrs. A. M. Koehn on January 20, each member answered roll call by naming improvements they had made on their bedrooms last month. Bedding that had been added: ten blankets, ten pair of pillow cases and six comforters. There had been two floors refinished and one member had made all of her sheets three yards long.

The meeting was called to order at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Cudd was elected bedroom demonstrator. After the business meeting, a mattress pad was tacked.

Refreshments were then served to

Mesdames Hugh Riley, J. Frantz, Jim Yaden, W. L. Lovett, Ivan Lovett, Charlie Cudd, Jess Cudd and the hostess.

McMILLEN 4H CLUB

Rachel Finney, Reporter

One essential for a good bed is protectors and pads, stated Miss Wertha Tarter, County Home Demonstration Agent, at the regular meeting of the McMullen 4-H Club, Friday, January 22, at 1:30 p. m., in the home of Rachel Finney.

After the business meeting, members worked on the mattress pad. Pads can be quilted or tacked, and a good filling is cotton or old blankets.

Refreshments were served to Ruth Ann Urban, Paye Hardy, Carlene Taylor, Elaine Hardy, Clara Louise Davis, Rachel Finney and our sponsor, Mrs. Byron Perry.

WOLF CREEK CLUB

Mrs. Sam Handly, Reporter

"Let the bedroom present a restful atmosphere," stated Miss Wertha Tarter, County Home Demonstration Agent, to the Wolf Creek Club in the home of Mrs. Sam Handly, Thursday January 21.

Colors and patterns of wall paper used on the walls have much to do in creating restfulness. Light colors tend to enlarge the room. That pattern that causes the eye to look up and down tends to add height. By the use of the drop ceiling and that pattern of paper that causes the eye to look around the walls and not up and down apparently takes height from the walls. The bedroom reached by much sunshine needs a cool color from the light blues, light green or gray. If a bedroom gets little or no sunshine, shades of yellow or pink-orchid may be used.

The next meeting of the Wolf Creek Club will be held in the home of Mrs. J. H. Callham on Thursday afternoon, February 4, at 1:30.

Members are urged to be present. Visitors are always welcome.

HUNTOON CLUB

The Jolly Neighbor Club and the Study Club at Huntoon met with Mrs. Walter Stolling on Thursday, January 21. The theme was "Family Safety," and Mrs. Chas. Nowlin discussed "Safety and How High School Students Respond to the Safety Regulations." Mrs. C. H. Black read an essay written by Ruth Day on "Safety."

What does safety mean? When you hear someone say to you when you are going to a strange country, "Now be careful," have you ever stopped to think what that means. Many pedestrians are killed by carelessness. Always walk on the left side of the road. Danger lurks around busses and street cars.—Reported.

Ice Queen In Pictures

Beautiful Sonja Henie is Star in "One In A Million" Showing At Ellis Sunday

Star-radiant, laugh-lavish and melody-laden with romance and drama in stunning snow-silvered settings, "One In A Million," the spectacular musical smash that thrillingly glorifies the girl in a million, lovely Sonja Henie, opens Sunday at the Ellis Theatre.

With a hundred gorgeous girls in sensational ice-revels amid a dazzling winter wonderland of breath-taking beauty, it's the wonder show of 1937 with a cast in a million that includes, in addition to Sonja Henie the Queen of the Silvery Skates, Adolphe Menjou, Jean Hersholt, Ned Sparks, Don Ameche, the Ritz Brothers, Arline Judge, Borrah Minevitch and his gang, Dixie Dunbar, Leah Ray and Shirley Deanne.

The daughter of a Swiss innkeeper, Sonja Henie is being trained by her father, Jean Hersholt, to capture the Olympic figure skating championship.

Sonja attracts the attention of Don Ameche, young American newspaperman investigating a neighborhood mystery, who sees in her unusual material for a human interest story for his paper.

Sonja also interests, professionally, the fumbling, but glib tongued manager of a vaudeville troupe, Adolphe Menjou stranded in Hersholt's hotel. In Menjou's group are the Ritz Brothers, Arline Judge, Borrah Minevitch and his gang, Dixie Dunbar, Leah Ray, Shirley Deanne and twelve beautiful girls.

Menjo induces Sonja to join his troupe and arranges a contract in St. Moritz for the dazzling ice ballet he has envisioned. Realizing that such an appearance will disqualify her for the Olympic title so close to her father's heart, Don Ameche flies to St. Moritz arriving in the middle of the ballet, which he disrupts by abducting its star.

Sonja wins the Olympic title, but when Hersholt hears that she has skated professionally, he returns the medals to the committee. Don Ameche, with the assistance of his dead-pan assistant, Ned Sparks, is able to prove that Sonja is guiltless. The resourceful young reporter further proves to Sonja's satisfaction that they were meant for each other.

SCOUTS TO SEE ORIGINAL U. S. CONSTITUTION

While the observance of the 150th anniversary year of the signing of the Constitution does not start until next Sept. 17, the thousands of Boy Scouts who attend the National Scout Jamboree at Washington, D. C. next June 30 to July 9 will make pilgrimages to see the original Constitution and the Declaration of Independence.

These priceless documents are preserved in the Library of Congress at Washington and are seen daily by thousands of Americans.

As a memento of their visit to the "Shrine of the Constitution," the Jamboree Scouts will receive hand-somely engraved certificates bearing their names. These will be the gifts of the United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission which has been created by Congress to celebrate the formation of the Constitution.

At the head of this certificate is a fine presentation of the Capitol, while at the bottom are pictures of Carpenter's Hall, where the first Continental Congress assembled, and Independence Hall, where the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence were signed, together with a picture showing the signing of the Constitution with the figure of George Washington in the foreground.

This is a reproduction of the famous painting by Howard Chandler Christy, entitled "The Signing of the Constitution." Artistically grouped around the borders of the certificates are the portraits of the signers of the Constitution.

MRS. WILLIAMS HOSTESS FOR NEXT MEETING

The Ochiltree Home Demonstration Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Kirt Williams Wednesday, February 3, 1937 at ten o'clock. Bring quilt patterns to exchange. Visitors are always welcome.

"Camille" At Ellis

Exciting Romantic Combination of Greta Garbo and Robert Taylor In New Picture

If anyone can witness the love scenes between the inimitably glamorous Garbo and the dynamic and handsome Robert Taylor in "Camille," at the Ellis Theatre today and Friday, without considerable palpitation of the heart, he must be a callous observer indeed.

For even beyond its magnificent production details, its strikingly beautiful settings, costumes and scenic backgrounds—even beyond the superb direction of George Cukor and the flawless acting of its stellar group of supporting players—"Camille" stands out as the most poignant and stirring portrayal of the love of a beautiful and fascinating woman for the man of her heart that the magic of the screen has ever given its followers.

Of all the glamorous roles that are so inextricably associated with the famous Swedish star none has ever attained the heights of her Marguerite in "Camille." She gives it life and emotional intensity. She sings, dances, laughs, even plays the piano. It is without a doubt her outstanding triumph.

Robert Taylor as Armand, the lover, likewise gives a performance that definitely places him high among the really distinguished actors of the screen. It is a smooth, compelling and highly romantic portrayal and one that perfectly balances the emotional intensity of the Garbo part.

"Camille" is a picture not to be missed. It is a picture upon which congratulations may be showered upon its producer, director, its stars and supporting players. Its scenic and costume designers and on everyone who had a hand in making it the triumphant photograph that it is.

Some folks become poor because they spend so much time dreaming what they are going to do when they get rich.

Pasture Furrowing Pays

Actual Tests Show 154 Per Cent Increase On Pastures That Were Contoured

Tests show 154 per cent increase in grass growth due to pasture contour furrowing on the Amarillo Soil Conservation Service Demonstration Area.

Contour furrowing was done last spring on ranch land which varies from 2 per cent to 8 per cent in slope. At one foot vertical intervals a furrow was thrown up with one through of a grader blade set at a sharp angle. Between alternate furrows one through was made with a two row lister. Additional furrows are to be added as the disturbed area resods itself.

Ten plots were selected this fall on the treated and adjacent untreated areas. The furrowed plots yielded 1696 pounds of grass per acre while the unfurrowed plots yielded only 665 pounds per acre.

The grasses consisted mainly of side-oat grama and blue grama grasses. The furrowed range land also produced more fertile seed than the unfurrowed. The increase in seed production is expected to add to the stand of grass over the furrowed areas.

I. Proverbs on Intemperance

The wisest man of the Old Testament was Solomon. Gifted from heaven with great wisdom he spoke out of a lifetime of experiences, many of them bitter and heart-breaking. Blessed with a peaceful reign and great riches, this wise man saw the tendency of excesses incident to inactivity and ease. Wine, oil and pleasure were (and are) bad mixtures. He who seeks pleasure for its own sake will find it only a skeleton. He who pursues the phantom of self-gratification will learn amid the marshes that he has followed a Jack-o-lantern which only mocks him. Whisky, beer, and other beverages are a curse to any nation. They will redden the nose and blacken the heart and character. They will make the heart fat and the pocketbook lean. They will bring the body to the grave and the soul to hell. The deadly fangs in the cup will strike to kill. Beer, whisky wine joints must be shunned as we would shun an adder in the path. No doubt Solomon had seen the horrible consequences of the intemperate eating and drinking scourge. He raised his voice and pen against it. Let us beware! Can we drink our way to health and prosperity? Can we lift ourselves by our bootstraps? Nay verily! Behold the fatherless children, crying for bread! See that mournful procession of heartbroken wives, sisters, mothers, daughters weeping their way to premature graves! What answer do the advocates of booze dare make to such a spectacle?

II. Jesus On Intemperance

In the Book of Matthew Jesus pictures an unfaithful servant. With the delay of the Master's coming this servant began to join company with those who drank and indulged in sin's excesses. Of course drunkenness dulls the senses and stupefies the mind. But this does not prevent the swift approach of calamity. The drunken Belshazzar was awakened out of his revel by the writing on the wall. So the Master coming at an unexpected time will surprise and condemn even his servants who have become intemperate and neglectful of their duties as watchmen. Life is more than meat and drink. But how humanity follows in droves if preference there "beasts and fishes" are to be had. Forgetful of the great soul-satisfying truths which Jesus preached, men and women followed him to have their bodies filled with temporal, material food (Jno. 6:26). How he rebuked them. And should not our lives seek satisfaction in spiritual rather than in temporal food?

NUTS AND DOLTS

"Yes! We'll All Be A-Flyin' Soon"

Attention, drivers! Let's talk about inattention. High on the list of traffic sinners is the man whose eyes wander all over the landscape when they should be on the road ahead and whose mind, if any, is always on vacation from the business of driving. Not only does he risk his own life, and the lives of his wife and kiddies, but he is also a menace to every other driver on the road. Travelers Insurance Company statistics show that 3,400 persons were killed last year when motorists drove off the roadway. Another 4,000 met death when they got over on the wrong side of the road. Most accidents of that type wouldn't happen to alert drivers. Enlist today in the ranks of Safe Drivers. Eyes Front! Attention!

How valuable is a program of soil and water conservation?

It is estimated that one dust storm in the western part of the United States in 1934 swept three hundred million tons of topsoil off the wheat plains.

Four hundred million tons of soil are washed into the Gulf of Mexico each year by the Mississippi River. Each year water and wind erosion together remove beyond use three billion tons of soil.

The present annual money loss to owners of the land is estimated at four hundred million dollars.

We are losing value in dollars which dollars cannot replace, once the precious basis of our national wealth is gone. Of course we cannot rearrange nature, but we can do our best to prevent the waste for which man has been largely responsible.

It is important to remember that conservation of soil and conservation of water must be considered together as essential features of any program which seeks to maintain a productive land. Economizing the rainfall and using the water supply in our section in the best possible way is an all-important parallel to the work now being done in soil conservation.

Last fall when the President's Drought Committee visited the Panchfide, I suggested the following lines of action:

1. Building dams and creating small lakes.
2. Small irrigation projects where possible.
3. Simplifying the farm program with a large share of the responsibility in local hands.
4. Low interest rates for farm credit.
5. Provision to encourage ownership of farm homes.
6. An adequate range program.

Our plains country has numerous draws and small streams that could be adapted very well to water conservation by the building of earthen dams to impound the water. Small streams which are often dry could be made more valuable in this way. Some experimental work has already been done. I hope such work can go forward on a large enough scale to reach every county.

This additional water supply would be invaluable in times of

WESTERN UNION TO SEND BIRTHDAY GREETINGS FREE

An announcement has just been made by the Western Union that their 21,000 offices in the United States will cooperate 100 percent in the President Birthday Greeting Plan. Individual birthday greetings from local citizens to President Roosevelt on the occasion of his birthday on January 30, will be received by the Perryton office of the Western Union in the Hotel Perryton. A flat rate of 25c will be collected for transmitting the message but every cent of the charge will go to the National Committee, who in turn will transmit 70 percent back to the local Child Welfare fund, the remaining 30 percent going to the President for presentation to the Warm Springs Foundation for infantile paralysis research work.

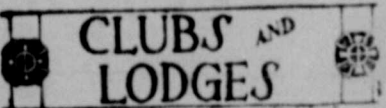

drought such as our section has experienced during the last several years.

Trees can be planted around the ponds and lakes, and the countryside will be made more beautiful. The water can be stocked with fish, and game sanctuaries can be promoted. Picnic grounds, swimming pools and other facilities for recreation can be included.

The Drought Committee is expected to make its report soon. I hope it will suggest a broad and constructive program on a long-time basis that will be beneficial to the Great Plains region of the Southwest.

ON WITH THE PARTY

Several million Americans will join with the President and his family in a happy celebration of his fifty-fifth birthday. At the same time they will give perhaps as much as a million dollars toward the alleviation of suffering and the attack of science on infantile paralysis. This year Colonel Henry L. Doherty, chairman of the national committee for the President's Birthday for the fourth time, estimates that no fewer than five thousand parties will be given throughout the nation.

Americans in tall coats, Sunday suits, wind-breakers, pierrot costumes, sweaters and overalls; beardless boys, men in the prime of life, war veterans, bewhiskered granddads, the high school basketball team; Fifth Avenue sophisticate and mid-western farm hand alike will twirl elegantly through a Virginia reel.

American women, dowagers, sub-debs, school teachers, the girls from the five and ten cent store where you meet the million dollar princesses, the Junior Leaguers, artists' models, the ladies of the Browning Club and the girls from across the railway tracks, they will be "among those present" at the President's Parties. Whatever their costumes whether Chanel's dernier cri or a "take me home for $10.95", they will be in themselves sufficient reason for a celebration.

But this year when the industrialist and the cotton picker agree times are better, things are going ahead, this year when there is once again a chance for everyone to earn a good living and look forward to a future for himself and his own people, there is the more cause for festivity. It is a time for thanksgiving and a time for further strengthening and consolidating the national well-being. That is why the national committee is not surprised at the early and enthusiastic response for the 1937 parties.

Thirty per cent of the funds obtained will be used to forward the work of the men of science who are courageously and persistently seeking methods to strike at the heart of poliomyelitis, to stamp out this enemy of children, and to help those who have been its victims. But seventy per cent of the net proceeds, will be spent locally for the relief of children. The celebrations will thus represent the spirit of the good neighbor and good American, first benefiting friends and acquaintances and afterward contributing toward the general good.

The President's Birthday Parties, as in past years, will be an American gesture, national in scope, altruistic in purpose and gay with the spirit of a young and generous people.

Show Safety Picture

American Legion Safety Film is Exhibited to Many Groups and Organizations Here

A safety sound picture, prepared by the National Americanism Committee of the American Legion with the cooperation of the automotive industry and insurance underwriters has been exhibited to hundreds of people in Ochiltree county during the past week. It is being displayed here under the sponsorship of the Pierce Johnson Post with the following committee in charge: P. L. Garrett, H. Shindler and A. R. Hogland.

Practically the entire day, Monday, was required to show the program to various groups in the upper grades of the Perryton schools. It is estimated that over 300 school pupils were given the safety message of better automobile driving. Tuesday dates were: Lions Club, noon; CCC enrollees and city council, city employees and fire boys in evening.

It will be exhibited at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon and at Waka school on Thursday evening. On Friday evening, it is planned to display the picture at Hantoon.

Groups or organizations desiring to see the program can make arrangements with any of the committee or with Post Commander Sibley Jines. It will be available for showing the remainder of this week only. Commander Jines requests that as many Legionnaires and Auxiliary members as possible go to Waka and Hantoon.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, January 31.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing" (Zephaniah 3:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth" (Job 19:25).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The wintry blasts of earth may uproot the flowers of affection, and scatter them to the winds; but this severance of fleshly ties serves to unite thought more closely to God, for Love supports the struggling heart until it ceases to sigh over the world and begins to unfold its wings for heaven" (page 57).

Dr. Powell, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist, will be at Drs. Brewer and Kengle office Tuesday, February 2. Glasses fitted. Tonsils and adenoids removed. 4-11-c

Former Perryton Woman Resides at Paducah, Ky.; Last Word Written Friday

Mrs. S. J. Allen and members of the Allen family here in Perryton are anxiously awaiting word from their daughter and sister, Mrs. I. W. Rogers, who resides at Paducah, Ky. Mrs. Rogers is the former Miss Lottie Allen. She was married in the early days of Perryton to Rev. I. W. Rogers, who at that time was pastor of the Baptist church in this city.

The last word received from Mrs. Rogers was a letter started last Thursday and finished Friday. At that time the water was within two blocks of the Rogers' home. Rev. and Mrs. Rogers are evidently in no danger, judging from the following telegram received at noon Wednesday from Rev. Rogers' brother, Allan Rogers, Murray, Ky.: "I. W. Rogers and family okay. No danger." Jack R. Allen had wired him seeking information.

JUST GOLF! THAT'S ALL!

Garland Redfern, chief "pusher" of the mechanical department of the Perryton Motor Co., has been going around all this week with the "smile that won't wipe off" on his face. And all because of a golf game. It seems that W. I. Byron and W. F. Haggard of the high school faculty are really some "pumpkins" down about the Perryton Golf Club. In fact they know they're good, so they issued a challenge to play 18 holes with any other four golfers in town, matching their score against the low two of the four-man team. And then for three matches in a row, Haggard and Byron trimmed the four, namely: aforesaid Redfern, Charlie Harstaves, Bill Foglesong and Otis Burk. But then came the battle royal the other day when Redfern, shooting a 79, Burk with a 77, and Foglesong with 79 strokes, laid the two man team in the dust by the narrow margin of only one point. And that's that.

Just Before The Flood Evacuated Paducah, Ky.

The following letter was written by Mrs. I. W. Rogers, Paducah, Ky., resident, to her brother, Rupert C. Allen and family, just before the swirling waters of the ever-rising Ohio caused all the residents of Paducah to flee to higher ground.

Paducah, Kentucky, Jan. 21, 1937.

Dear Rupert, Flora and Winona:

"The sun shines bright in my old Kentucky home" seems to be a thing of the past. I think it has rained every day since Christmas. I don't recall but one day of sunshine in about four weeks. Suppose you saw the clipping about the "ice storm" we had. We had hardly recovered from that when we seem to be facing one of the most serious floods in years.

The river is about two or three feet higher than it reached last year. Many streets are under water and several roads leading out of Paducah are closed because of water. Several stores have had to close, down in town—and are moving to "higher ground." Calls have been coming over the radio all day for men to come to help people who were in the lower lands. Only a few minutes ago a call was issued by Chief of Police for Boy Scouts, 15 and above, to come to the Pool road, just south of the city, where the people were in grave danger, to move them to higher places. Most houses in town have already been filled with people.

The river rose one foot in six hours this morning and the rain is still pouring down at 3:00 p. m., and the prediction is that it will continue to rain the remainder of the day and tonight. About noon the river stood at fifty feet. I think forty-five is flood stage or perhaps forty-three. The prediction is that it will reach fifty-four feet by Sunday and fifty-six by Tuesday. If it continued to rain it will not stop there.

We are in the west part of town, it is higher than the east side. Of course, we are hoping it will not reach us. Some families at 21st street are having to move out but it is several feet lower than it is here. However, by way of preparedness, I. W. has laid in a supply of groceries and a good supply of coal. They are now making calls for small motor boats to be used in rescue work.

Kentucky Utilities said that telephone and light service will not be interfered with until the water reaches 57 or 58 feet.

Will try to get this letter mailed this evening. The water may interfere with mail service. If you don't hear from us for awhile, don't worry about us.

4:30 p. m.

The evening paper states that the

Burl Callaway to Manage Plant at Dodge City, Kansas; Is Former Perryton Boy

Burl Callaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Callaway, has always contended 13 is his lucky number. He was born on Friday, the thirteenth.

Wednesday of last week, which was January 13, he was informed by the United Sash and Door Company, which has employed him at Amarillo for a little over three years that he will be placed in charge of the company's office at Dodge City, Kans., as manager, effective February 1.

When Burl went to work for the United Sash and Door Company at Amarillo, his first job, his father says, was cutting weeds about the yard of the Amarillo plant. He has gradually been promoted until now he is given the management of the plant at Dodge City.—The Canadian Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bryan and Joan visited friends in Spearman, Sunday.

water would have to reach 57 feet to flood at 26th and Broadway. We are higher here so don't suppose there will be any danger of water even getting up in our yard.

We are all well. Have escaped the flu so far. I hope all of you are well.

With love, Lottie.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

DEEP OHIO VALLEY
Ohio.—Excessive rains in the worst floods in the Ohio River basin. The Ohio River basin is entirely cut off from the rest of the world and to the horror of risk has added a disastrous flood. COLD CAUSES HUGE FRUIT DAMAGE
Los Angeles, Calif.—Despite the mudge arising from hundreds of thousands of pots scattered among Southern California orchards, it is estimated that the unprecedented cold weather will cause a loss of $60,000,000 to the citrus fruit industry. The pall of smoke was so dense here, although 30 miles from the threatened areas, that two street cars crashed, injuring nine persons.

TWO PROMINENT VISITORS
New York City.—Although it is vigorously denied that their presence has anything to do with Britain's debt settlement, financiers lay great importance to the fact that Sir Otto Niemeyer, vice-governor of the Bank of England, and Walter Runciman, president of the British Board of Trade, arrived in this country within a few days of each other. Both declare they are here on private affairs only.

LAZY STUDENTS PENALIZED
Norman, Okla.—Figuring that it would require the service of fifteen full-time instructors to coach the failures during the last semester, William B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, worked out a plan under which backward students would pay $3 per hour for each hour failed. The alternative is dropping from University rolls. For last semester's failures 450 students will receive bills this week.

STRIKE UNSETTLED
Detroit.—Last week's efforts to settle the General Motors strike in failure, and a stiff rebuke to John L. Lewis of the United Automobile Workers Organization, from the President to do a little more. General Motors have declined all further negotiations until "sit-down" strikers leave their plants.

PARIS AVOIDS WEEK-END UPSETS
Paris, France.—The unsettling habit of Chancellor Hitler in throwing week-end verbal bombshells has determined the Paris Stock Exchange to close during the next six Saturdays.

COUGHLIN BACK ON AIR
Detroit, Mich.—Coincident almost with the death last week of his superior the Most Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, Roman Catholic Bishop of Detroit, the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, "Radio Priest" of the Shrine of the Little Flower, resumed his interrupted Sunday broadcasts. Both Bishop Gallagher and Father Coughlin denied that pressure from Rome had anything to do with the temporary suspension of the latter's radio program.

BUILDING BOOMING
Washington, D. C.—The Department of Labor announced that building permits during 1936 in cities with 10,000 population and over amounted to $1,328,714,000, an increase of 61 per cent over 1935. Residential building increased 114 per cent.

PREPARING FOR CORONATION
London, Eng.—Westminster Abbey has been officially turned over to Government workmen who will make the necessary alterations to accommodate the 8,000 spectators expected to witness the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth on May 12th. Amid the noise of hammers, 60 bishops gathered in the adjoining Jerusalem Chapel and heard the fustle plea of the Bishop of Ely to deny the sacrament of Holy Communion to divorced persons who remarry. Only one other bishop supported the measure.

COMMISSION 50 YEARS OLD
Washington, D. C.—On February 4, the Interstate Commerce Commission celebrates its 50th anniversary. Its 2,000 employees occupy a new $5,000,000 structure, in contrast to the ramshackle four-story building in which it began operations.

CIGARETTE PRICE INCREASED
New York City.—Cigarette smokers this week pay 1 cent more per package for the four principal brands at the leading chain stores—14 cents against the old price of 13 cents, and two packages for 27 cents against two packages for a quarter. The raise means $60,000,000 for the manufacturers, who last year sold 150 billion cigarettes, divided, according to estimates, as follows: Camel 43 billion, Lucky Strike 38 billion, Chesterfield 36 billion, Old Gold 7 billion, and all other brands 9 billion.

Silo Conserves Feed
Panhandle Farmers Learn That Feed Can Be Conserved As Well As Farming Lands

Farmers of Northwest Texas have learned to conserve feed as well as soil according to reports from county agricultural agents in that section. Last year A. L. Parks of Hutchinson county lost between 15,000 and 17,000 bundles of stacked feed, but this year he dug and filled a 70-ton trench silo, and has his feed free from rain, storm dust, fire, and rodent damage. "After going to the expense of growing, harvesting, and stacking last year's feed, it is almost

COUNTY AGENT IS READY TO RUN CONTOUR LINES
Any farmer whose land has not been marked for contouring is requested to get in touch with George W. Brockman, assistant county agent, so that permanent marking may be done, says J. T. Stovall, county agent. Mr. Stovall is anxious that the lines be run at once so that farmers will be ready for erosion control, should the land start blowing.

worthless," Parks said. "Not having a trench silo last year must have cost me $500." A total of 16 trench silos were filled in Collingsworth county during November; of these, 15 were dug and filled for the first time. Feed placed in the silos ranges from corn to sweet potato vines. Only one of the trenches was filled with feed run through a silage cutter, and the remainder filled with bundle feed. "I wish I had known about trench silos back in 1931 and 1932 when I had lots of cheap feed," John R. Armstrong of Farwell community in Parmer county told his county agricultural agent as he finished filling two trench silos holding approximately 225 tons of feed. "I could have stored enough feed in those years for my cattle in 1933 and 1934, and I would still have my 50 head of Herefords," Armstrong continued.

Governor Allred Maps Program For His Second Term

Austin, Jan. 27.—As Governor James V. Allred took oath of office Tuesday, January 19th, for the second term to which he was overwhelmingly reelected, legislative halls still echoed praise of the clear cut and constructive message delivered by the Governor a week before.

Veteran newspapermen and political observers labeled the Governor's message as "candid, courageous, and explicit" in its analysis of the state's financial situation and praised the program submitted by the Governor. While legislative wheels gathered momentum in the session's second week, its crew of 150 representatives and 31 senators studied intently the stern economic course recommended by the Governor. A spirit of optimism reflected from the Governor's message prevailed in marked contrast to recent sessions where discord jarred any possible harmony.

Highspots of the Governor's message were:

SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM

Old age assistance.—The Governor pointed out that the Constitutional amendment adopted by the people provided for "assistance," not "pensions" and that the Federal law authorized "assistance" to the aged needy only. He stated that he would not approve any bill liberalizing or extending benefits to those not in need until the present law had a just and fair trial.

Other features.—The Governor recommended the passage of legislation for the aid of the blind, the crippled, dependent children and others entitled to benefits under the national social security law; provided that the program would be financed by sufficient revenues.

UTILITY REGULATION

"We must pass an effective regulatory utility law, one giving adequate power and means to a State Commission. If we can secure a reasonable reduction in rates by the passage of an adequate utility regulation law, it will possibly result in a greater saving to the people than could come from any other form of legislation."

SAFETY PROGRAM

"I recommend the passage of a rigid uniform drivers license law; and of measures making more effective regulation of trucks and buses whether common carriers or privately owned. The time has come when personal convenience must, to a considerable extent, give way to public welfare and safety."

The Governor recommended the doubling of the present highway patrol force, the cost to be paid out of the state highway fund.

TAXATION ESTIMATES

The Governor estimated more than $13,000,000 would be required to assure the ultimate liquidation of the deficit, care for the new demands under the federal social security program, and put the finances of the state in order. $1,600,000 is needed this year for old age assistance and an additional $1,600,000 annually thereafter for that purpose.

Additional annual requirements: $2,500,000 to apply on and reduce the deficit; $1,375,000 for eleemosynary institutions; $2,500,000 to assure that income into general revenue fund will equal expenditures.

Governor Allred declared that the condition of the general fund was due, not to increased salaries in the executive and judicial departments, but to the three million dollar Centennial appropriation, increased appropriation for rural aid, payments on relief bonds, remission of taxes to counties and homestead exemptions.

REVENUE AND TAXATION

The Governor asserted he would approve no appropriations out of general revenue for any new purposes unless the Legislature provided matching revenue.

Tax legislation proposed by him included the passage of constitutional amendment to permit classification of property and the application of taxes, to collect delinquent taxes, prevent evasions, and in general bring about fairer rendition of property values.

The chief executive recommended substantial increases in the taxes on oil, gas and sulphur in line with the Democratic state platform advocating increased levies on natural resources. He further urged changes in the intangible assets tax laws and asserted that under the present law utilities, railroads and oil pipelines pay less than an ordinary business corporation.

"Representatives of oil pipeline companies oppose an increase in the franchise tax," he said, "and say we ought to have a general sales tax to make the average man tax-conscious and make him appreciate his government. I think they ought to show appreciation to the state which has contributed to their prosperity by agreeing to levy of a fair franchise tax. Untaxed millions of pipeline company profits constitute the most unequal taxation that can be found. I earnestly urge this legislature to correct promptly these defects in our franchise tax laws and provide the state with needed revenue."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Legislation to carry out the amendment placing the unrestrained power of clemency in a non-political board of pardons and paroles in addition to the regulation of procedure before the board and the enactment of parole laws.

Probation amendment.—To authorize courts of original jurisdiction to suspend imposition or execution of sentence, and to place a defendant on probation and to reimpose sentence.

Legislation for the enactment of the following constitutional amendments: legislative redistricting; salaries of certain constitutional officers, teachers retirement system, temporary confinement of mentally ill persons without jury trial, workmen's compensation insurance for state employees, child labor.

The Governor prefaced his recommendations on most of these amendments by urging that the legislation contain provisions for sufficient revenues.

AMERICANS NEED PERMIT TO HUNT IN OLD MEXICO

To prevent delays for Americans planning hunting expeditions to Mexico, the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture calls attention to recent Mexican hunting regulations requiring permits from proper authorities.

For the issuance of permits, Mexico has been divided into three zones. Hunters in that part of Mexico from and including the State of Chihuahua and west should make application for permits to Oficina Forestal y de Caza y Pesca, Chihuahua, Chihuahua. For hunting permits in northern Mexico east of Chihuahua, applications should be made to the office of the same name in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon. Applications for the central and southern district should be addressed to this office in Mexico City.

American hunters in Mexico also must be prepared to deposit an individual bond of 500 pesos, although exceptions are made in the case of members of two Mexican clubs. These are Club Deportivo de Norte, Chihuahua, Chihuahua; and Club Sierra Madre, Chihuahua.

The Survey calls further attention to the advisability of visiting the nearest Mexican Consulate and obtaining a proper immigration card, together with information on Mexican hunting regulations. Such preparations may save American sportsmen inconvenience at the border.

NEW TWIST FOR HISTORY

Dr. Dixon Ryan Fox, President of Union College (center) conferring with two fellow members of the "Cavalcade of America" planning board; Kenneth Webb, (left), prominent stage, screen and radio playwright, and Charles J. Bauck.

Early America Lives Again as Plain People Take Precedence over National Heroes

"AMERICA is catching up with herself!" This, according to the eminent authority on American History, Dr. Dixon Ryan Fox, president of Union College at Schenectady, New York, is another way of saying that the American people are taking time out from getting somewhere, catching their breath, and learning a perspective on their own growth and development.

Dr. Fox believes that interesting source material used for dramatic presentations of historic episodes on the screen and over the radio has been an important factor in this growing interest in our national history.

"We are accustomed to think of European history as more glamorous and closely knit than the history of the United States," he said in a recent interview in his study at Union College. "That is because our historians have placed too much emphasis on the central government in Washington, and not nearly enough on the different States and sections of the country."

"It is in the widely differing customs and attitudes of these sections that we can find the true hero and marrow of America. The best examples of our special brand of wisdom and virtue lie in the lives of unsung men and women whose struggles and fortitude are knitted into the backbone of our nation."

Dr. Fox describes some of the problems to be met in the preparation of the "Cavalcade of America" landmarks, a series of programs devoted to re-creating scenes from our national life that are rich in moral and scientific significance.

"Such a program as this," he says, "may well change the emphasis put on historic events. It shows the solid, constructive contributions made to civilization by both known men and women, at the expense of the homage we are accustomed to pay recognized names and renown."

For instance, one of the most interesting personalities we uncovered was John Judson Ames, who took the first printing press to California. Then there was the strange career of William Tudor, who developed an industry shipping ice to the West Indies. Or, on the feminine side of the ledger, I might mention Louisa Schuyler, a New York gentlewoman who founded the first home for nurses.

"These are the men and women who have shaped the course of our national destiny. The men and women who are the ancestors of every one of us. Our people. The people who make history alive to us today."

One of the principal difficulties confronting historians is the difficulty of preserving the idioms of speech that give an historical presentation authentic flavor. The language of a century ago was strong, simple—a language rooted in the King James version of the Bible. Much of our modern talk would be meaningless jargon to a pioneer of the 18th century. Even habits and conventions are different.

Thanks to the painstaking research of Dr. Fox and his colleague, Professor Arthur Schlesinger of Harvard University, we can relive history in the everyday hopes and fears, struggles and successes of our ancestors. We can hear them speak their own language. We can bid good-bye at last to the mild boredom with which most of us greet the trampled-up heroes who clutter across the pages of textbooks, and get acquainted with America herself!

Officials in charge of the Texas would be based on a "range-building

The practices for which payment will be made in connection with the been proved workable in government

FARMERS IN BEAVER AND TEXAS COUNTIES MAKE GOOD SHOWING IN PAYING RA FARM LOANS

Amarillo, Texas, Jan. 27.—Despite the light crops produced in 1936, and the continuation of the long drought, farmers in Texas and Beaver counties, Oklahoma, and in twelve Kansas counties, have made a creditable showing in the payment of loans under the administration of the Resettlement Administration, under the administration of L. H. Hauer, has been one of the most seriously affected areas of the nation. Loans were made only to farmers who would have been unable to continue operations without this assistance by the Federal agency.

Farmers who borrowed funds from the Resettlement Administration to operate their farms in 1936 are making substantial repayments, according to Raymond W. O'Hara, district supervisor for Kansas and Oklahoma. He reports that in the twelve Kansas counties under his jurisdiction 473 borrowers have repaid $46,319.85; while in the two Oklahoma counties 173 borrowers have repaid $10,903.64 to date.

The policy of the Resettlement Administration in making loans in the future will be to give preference to those farmers who have made the best repayment records. The effort the farmer and his family have made to carry out their farm and home plans and the cooperation shown will be carefully considered.

Farmers who have carefully used funds borrowed from the government, or who have disposed of mortgaged property without applying proceeds of the sale on their loans, or who have otherwise given evidence of good faith, have naturally been considered in the way of securing additional loans.

Pioneer Farmer Passes

J. C. Isley Dies Tuesday Afternoon at His Farm Near Balke; Burial This Afternoon

J. C. Isley, pioneer farmer-stockman and prominent citizen of this section of the Southwest, died Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at his farm 10 miles east of Balke, Oklahoma. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Perryton, with interment in the Blue Mound cemetery. The time of the funeral services may be delayed if relatives from distant points do not arrive in time for the hour set. The remains are now at the Wilson Funeral Home in this city.

J. C. Isley was born May 8, 1869 at Orrick, Mo., and died January 28, 1937. At the time the Grim Reaper called, he was over 67 years of age. When only a few years of age, his parents moved to Jackboro, Tenn. Here he resided until he was 21 years old when he returned to his native county of Ray in Missouri. On Feb. 18, 1891, he was married to Miss Alice Cox, who survives him.

Surviving children are Mrs. Sallie Crawford, Springfield, Colo.; Everett Isley, California; Clarence Isley, Fort Worth; Lorain Isley, Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. M. L. Clark, Cecil Isley, Jewell Isley and Lewis Isley, all of this vicinity; Mrs. Bertrand Mullins, Rayville, Mo.; and Mrs. Ross Venable, Statute, Okla. A daughter died in young womanhood and two children died in infancy.

The deceased and his family left Missouri about 37 years ago, first settling in Eastern Oklahoma, where they resided for three years before coming to Beaver county, Oklahoma where he filed on a claim southeast of Gray. For the past few years, he has been in poor health, living at a number of places in an attempt to recover his good health. About a week ago, Mr. Isley was stricken with pneumonia, but his condition was not considered serious until a short time before death called him.

J. C. Isley had been a member of the Baptist faith since boyhood. In his chosen occupation of farmer and stockman, he made a decided success and will be missed by his many relatives and friends.

NEWSPAPERS FEATURE
OCHILTREE STATE PARK

There's an old saying that goes its rounds with newspaper folk. "If a dog bites a man it's news. If a man bites a dog, it's news."

Newspaper editors, with a "keen nose for news" have recognized that in the case of Ochiltree State Park, it is as if "the man bit the dog." For truly, it's news that such a beauty spot as this may be found in the Panhandle of Texas, where the land is mostly unbroken and trees are few.

Recently the Wichita Beacon, Wichita, Kans. publication with a wide circulation over Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas as well as in other sections, carried a large lay-out, showing scenes of Ochiltree State Park, with an accompanying story "Trees Do Grow in the Texas Panhandle."

Only a few days before the Berger Herald, daily paper published in the oil city to the south of us, printed a similar article, with pictures.

Other newspapers publishing views of Ochiltree State Park and news stories regarding it recently are, Pampa Daily News, and the Dalhart Texan. The Dallas News also published a feature story on the park early this month. Last summer the Amarillo News and Ft. Worth Star Telegram gave much publicity to the park.

Ochiltree State Park is "news." People over this vast plains region are just now becoming conscious that such a free play ground as this exists at their door step.

SURVEYS SHOW 375,000 ACRES TYPE OF SOIL ADAPTABLE TO SMALL GRAIN; 573 FARM OPERATORS

Information presented at the various farm meetings held in Ochiltree county last week, proved instructive and interesting to the many farmers who attended. The series of meetings, held under the auspices of the County Farm Planning Board, began Monday night and continued through the week, the closing one being held at Twichell Saturday.

All meetings were attended by members of the board, County Agent J. T. Stovall, Miss Wertha Tarter, home demonstration agent, and George Turner, Coordinator for Texas of the Resettlement Administration. He is connected with the Land Use Division.

At each meeting maps, showing information compiled by the Soil Conservation Service and by the Resettlement Administration were shown to the audience. These included maps showing various types of soils in the county; how land is actually used at the present time; houses in county occupied and houses in county unoccupied.

Surveys made by government agencies were said to reveal that 66% of the land in Ochiltree County is crop land, while the remaining 34 percent is pasture land. Of the types of soil, silt loams, clay loams and silt clay loams predominate; 375,000 acres being represented in these groups which are recognized as adaptable to small grain.

Information set forth, showed that Ochiltree County has 573 operators of land, with 325 of this number being resident operators, or farmers who live on the land. Non-resident owners or owners who live in town total 221; of this number eighty-nine do not live in the county. Renters number 240 and control approximately 180,000 acres in the county; owners, 163, controlling 118,000. Operators, who both own and rent land, were found to be 170, controlling 267,000 acres.

Something over one-half of the land in Ochiltree county is home-owned, according to the information supplied at the meetings. Ochiltree county comprises 565,000 acres of this 312,000 acres are owned by residents of the county, 105,000 by people who live in Texas, but outside of this county and 144,000 acres by residents out of the state.

Almost 80 percent of the farm houses in the county are occupied. Information compiled disclosed that the county has 497 farm homes, 383 being used for family residences and 104, unoccupied.

A rainfall chart, depicting rainfall over a period of twenty-four years, beginning in 1907 and including 1936 attracted attention. The average rainfall in Ochiltree county for these years was 19.01 inches. No record was kept, however, of the years 1918-1923 inclusive. Eleven of the twenty-four years in which a rainfall record was kept, were below the average in precipitation, while the other eleven were above.

F. F. Dodson Resumes Operation of Station Recently Under Russell Management

F. F. Dodson, owner of the Magnolia filling station located at 401 South Main, has recently resumed the operation of his station. It has been under the management of J. A. Russell for the past five years.

This service station was erected by Mr. Dodson in 1922, being known at that time as the D. & S., and it was operated by the owner for about six years. Then for about three years it was under the management of T. A. Roper.

Mr. Dodson, who is Ochiltree county jobber for Magnolia products, plans an extensive program of improvements at the station. A new hot water pressure car washing system is now being installed.

Among the standard products that will be featured are Mobiloil oils and gas, Magnolia products, United States tires and Certified Mobiloil lubrication. Mr. Dodson states that they will offer service for everything for the motorist including tube vulcanizing, battery charging, washing and cleaning, lubricating, and car accessories of all kinds.

Attendants at the station will be Beth Lewis, Lonnie Sultor and M. P. Hethcock.

Hobbs Motor Improves

Install New Power Lubricating Lift and Stromberg-Carlson Motor Checking Machine

C. V. Hobbs, manager of L. S. Hobbs Inc., Perryton dealers for Chrysler-Plymouth motor cars, announces a number of improvements that will better enable them to serve the motorists of this vicinity.

Among the recent installations is a Parr power hoist for the proper lubrication of motor cars. This is a new style of lift with four corner posts, so that the operator can easily get to all under-parts of the car. Another improvement is a new Stromberg-Carlson Motor Analyzer. With this delicate machine, the mechanic can give a thorough and accurate check-up of the engine, and all of its working and auxiliary parts. Mr. Hobbs is making a special offer to introduce this new equipment. See it elsewhere in the Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Balzer and Jone and Mrs. Balzer's mother, Mrs. J. C. Stanley, were Sunday visitors with the Wm. Youngblood family at Pritch.
