Cook of Week

COOK OF THE WEEK--Mrs. George (Gloria) Harkins is shown in the office of Western Ag Ventures, where she does part-time work in the evenings. Gloria and George have nine children and one grandchild. Gloria was raised in Clayton.

Native of Clayton

Our cook for this week is a part-time working mother and a native of Clayton, N.M.

Mrs. George (Gloria) Harkins does janitorial work in the evenings for Stratford of Texas, J. Cattle Co. and Southern Union Gas Co. She was raised and went to school in Clayton, later moving to Dalhart, where her parents still reside.

Gloria and George have nine children and they are Ricky, 21; Eddie, 19; Vicky Lynn, 18; John, 18; Randy, 17; David, 15; Rodney, 15, Pat, 14 and Rhonda Kay 13.

They also have one grandson, Stormy, who is now 1 1/2 years old.

George is employed by Southern Union Gas Co.

Gloria is a member of the Stratford Fire Department Ladies' Auxiliary.

Our cook loves to read, does beautiful embroidery work, and enjoys sewing and crocheting.

Gloria's recipes include an unusual Pork Chop dish that sounds delicious and is combined with apples; a dessert called Coconut Peanut Butter Bars and a good Barbequed Short Rib recipe. Hope you enjoy using them.

PORK CHOPS AND APPLES

6 pork chops
3 or 4 unpeeled apples, cored and sliced
1/4 c. brown sugar
1/2 t. cinnamon
2 T. butter

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Brown chops on both sides in hot grease. Place apple slices in greased baking dish and sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon. Dot with butter. Top with pork chops. Cover and bake 1 1/2 hours. Makes 6 servings.

COCONUT PEANUT BUTTER BARS

1/3 c. shortening
1/2 c. peanut butter

2 eggs
1 c. sugar
1 t. vanilla
1/4 c. brown sugar
1 c. flour
1 t. baking powder
1/4 t. salt
1 can coconut

Cream shortening, baking powder and sugars. Add eggs and vanilla. Add other ingredients. Bake at 350 degrees in greased baking dish for 25 minutes.

BARBEQUED SHORT RIBS

3 lbs. beef short ribs
1/2 c. water
1/2 c. catsup
1/4 c. finely chopped onion
2 T. vinegar
2 T. worcestershire sauce
1 T. honey
2 t. prepared mustard

Add water to meat and cook covered slowly for 2 1/2 hours or until tender. Combine catsup, onion, vinegar, worcestershire sauce, honey and mustard to make barbeque sauce. When ribs are cooked, place on rack in broiler pan and brush with sauce. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of the meat is 3-4 inches from heat. Broil about 5 minutes; turn and brush other side with sauce and continue broiling for 2-3 minutes.

Fred Pronger, Vice-President, is in charge of the program and everyone is urged to attend.

TOWN TALK

Mrs. Jim Burleson of Galveston arrived last week to visit with her mother, Mrs. Maurine Plunk, and other relatives and friends in Stratford.

Merle Norman Studio Opens In Stratford

A new business has opened its doors this week and will offer a complete line of Merle Norman Cosmetics as well as a wide selection of linens.

Mrs. Sue Hudson, owner and operator of the new shop, Something Special, has just completed an intensive three-week training course at the home office of Merle Norman Cosmetics in Los Angeles.

Included in the special training she received were classes in up-to-the minute cosmetic and makeup techniques and basic complexion care, as well as advance information on new looks in cosmetics and fashions for the months ahead.

"When a customer first visits my Studio", Mrs. Hudson explains, "she is given a free demonstration in the Merle Norman method of cosmetic application and skin care. Then I create a special makeup for her, tailored to her specific needs."

"Developing every woman's maximum potential for beauty is part of the Merle Norman

SCOT EXECUTIVE MEETING ON SLATE AUGUST 14

Sherman County Older Texans will hold an executive committee meeting on August 14 at 8 p.m. in the Board Room of the First State Bank.

On the agenda is the replacement of Rev. Frank Peery, chairman, who will be moving in the near future. The August meeting will also be discussed.

TOWN TALK

Fanny Crabtree and many other friends enjoyed visiting with Dersa (Pete) Hudson of Collinsville, Okla. last week while she was a guest of the Gene Hudsons.

Philosophy," she says. "For the customer, that means learning how to look her very best. For me, it means helping her do so."

Something Special is located at 218 N. Main, in the building that formerly housed Bill's Men and Boys Store.
