COUNTY SCHOOL FAIR OPENS IN FLOYDADA TOMORROW

Sixth Annual Fair Promises to be Largely Attended and Full of Spirit.

Floyd County's Sixth Annual School Fair and Interscholastic Meet opens tomorrow in Floydada. The day will be given over to elimination contests in the athletic division and all the literary events with one or two exceptions will be completed.

Saturday will see the finals in all athletic events, including track and field events, baseball and rural basket ball.

Heretofore big interest has been manifested in the school fair. Floydada business interests are financing the affair in the belief that it will redound to the educational and social welfare of the entire county. Practically every school district in the county will be represented and two or three thousand school boys and girls and their parents will be here either to take part in or witness the various events. Through hard work on the part of enthusiastic teachers and unselfish support by the taxpayers of the county our school system has been built up to a degree a few years ago thought impossible in so short a period. Excellent school buildings and good roads leading to them from every direction is the rule with few exceptions. A fine school spirit and unqualified backing for anything to better school conditions prevail over the entire county. And the leaders in this system are to spend tomorrow and Saturday in Floydada, so that it may well be said that one of the biggest crowds of the year will be here-those two days.

Local preparations for the meet are all complete. Events announced last week to be held at the District Court Room will be held at the Methodist Church instead, because of the fact that district court is now in progress. All other events will be staged at the places indicated and the time for all events will be as stated in the program.

FLOYDADA CONCERT BAND PLAYS FOR LARGE CROWDS

Saturday's crowds in Floydada were larger than for a number of months, the streets being jammed and crowded from an early hour until late at night.

The Floydada Concert Band, which had chosen that day as their first initial appearance in a concert on the streets, could not have purposely picked a day on which a larger crowd would have heard them.

Their playing was good and they were warmly applauded. Their organization is engaged in practice twice weekly, fourteen pieces being represented in the Saturday afternoon concert. They are financing their own organization.

STACK OF FEED DESTROYED BY FIRE MONDAY NIGHT

J. S. Lathem had a heavy loss from fire last Monday night on his farm northwest of Floydada, when a large rick of maize heads comprising practically all his feed supply for the year, was burned up. The fire apparently caught from the inside of the stack and all the feed was practically consumed when the fire was discovered by a neighboring family.

TWO LOCAL ELECTIONS TO BE HELD IN APRIL

Two elections of considerable local interest are to be held in Floydada the earlier part of April. School trustees for Floydada Independent School District, to succeed W. M. Colville, W. I. Allen and E. C. Nelson are to be named on Saturday, April 2nd, an official notice from the board states.

On Tuesday, April 5th, citizens residing within the corporate limits of Floydada, will choose a mayor, five aldermen, city marshal and city assessor and collector.

BOY SCOUTS ENGAGE IN STREET WATER FIGHT

To make the day a full one Saturday, election day crowds were treated to the fun of watching a water fight between two teams of the larger Boy Scouts of Floydada. The hose were laid and the fight staged on the northwest corner of the square. The boys had just finished a thorough cleaning of the pavement surrounding the square in the forenoon.

IMPROVEMENTS AT PARK STARTED; TREES PLANTED

Wading Pool, Rose Garden, Tennis Courts and Play Ground Equipment to be Added

The first move in the improvements to be made at Napoleon Park this spring was begun this week by the City Council, when 150 trees were set out at the park, elms and sycamores being planted at the outer edges and other trees replacing dead black locusts being planted forest-wise in the inside plot. The City Council is using the advice and assistance proffered by the Mothers' Club in the plans for the park improvement.

Other things to follow in the program for beautifying the grounds will be the laying of gravel walks, tennis courts, installing playground equipment and a wading pool for the juniors of the town, setting out a rose garden, erection of a band stand with lattice work for climbing roses, and setting out a plot to blue grass. The pavilion and other improvements will be re-painted and the entire grounds given a very inviting appearance.

The only hitch in the program to-date has been the inability to get the kind of roses desired. These have been re-ordered however, and the improvements will be completed this spring. The fund being used is the 5 cent park fund which can be used legally for no other purpose.

The city is this week setting out trees on the water works site, too.

BOYS SHOULD BE MAKING CLUB PREPARATIONS

Boys of Floyd County who are planning to enter any of the boys' clubs now being formed, should begin right now to make their preparations, County Agent T. Scott Wilson states.

In the Pig Clubs boys should choose either a February or March pig, he suggests and where a boy plans to enter a Crop Club he should have all preparations made not later than April 1st.

Mr. Wilson is planning a tour of the county at an early date to call on the boys and start the different organizations off.

R.H. ASHTON DIES AT HAMILTON

R. H. Ashton, father of Mrs. S. E. Stiles, Mrs. W. T. Stiles and R. H. Ashton, Jr., died last Friday morning at his home in Hamilton, following an illness of several weeks.

The children who reside here were at their father's bedside at the time of his death, returning home the first of this week.

Funeral and burial services were held at Hamilton.

Mr. Ashton lived in Floyd county a number of years and had made this his home during the summer for the past two or three years.

COTTON FIRE

Tuesday night cotton in the Floydada cotton yard was found afire and the fire alarm sounded. Three bales were destroyed and a fourth damaged.

The cotton was a part of Tuesday's turnout from the gins and the fire is supposed to have caught at one of the gins when the cotton was ginned.

CLEAN UP WEEK MOVE GETS HEARTY RESPONSE

Thorough Laundering Being Given Private and Public Premises in Floydada this Week

The response to the proclamation of the City Council setting this week aside as Clean Up Week and designating Tuesday as Clean Up Day, has been most hearty from every section of the town. City officials, committeemen from the mayor's clean up committee and members of the Mothers' Club have expressed themselves as delighted with the activity shown and the results todate. Two trucks were added to the sanitary force during the first three days of the week and practically all non-combustible rubbish has been disposed of.

Mayor Fry says it is possible that some premises in the town may have been overlooked by the sanitary squad and in this case asks the property owner whose cans and rubbish has not been hauled away to telephone his office—273—and the matter will have attention.

Unusual interest has been manifested in every section of the city not only in cleaning up but in brightening up the residence portion of town. New blue brass, trees, and shrubbery are being planted and a mile of walks is being laid with others to build during the summer.

"We must maintain this clean up spirit," Mayor Fry said this morning, "If we expect to get the rating we want when the Board of Health visitor inspects Floydada. We will not be satisfied with anything less than an A-1 rating."

Final inspections and suggestions will be made tomorrow or Saturday. The Boy Scuts organization was used the first of the week in calling attention to the clean up and will possibly be used the latter part of this week, too, it has been suggested.

SIDE WALK BUILDING GROWING IN POPULARITY

Side walk building in Floydada this spring has become epidemic, a mile or more of new walk now being under contract for laying.

Where property owners are tieing up their property the city is laying crossings and ten to twenty new crossings will be laid during the season. West Missouri, West California and north First Streets are the scenes of the greatest activity in this line just at present.

LOCAL LOAN ASS'N BUSY PREPARING FOR BUSINESS

The Floydada National Farm Loan Association, activities of which have been suspended for more than a year pending the outcome of a trial case before the Supreme Court to determine the constitutionality of the law creating the Land Bank System, is preparing to resume activities. Monday a meeting of the directors was held here. More than $30,000 in approved loans in this county have been awainting the outcome of the suit.

A. A. Beedy, president of the F. N. F. L. A., believes that the local organization will be ready in 30 days possibly to take applications for new business.

PLAINS DELEGATION MEETS WITH W. T. C. OF C. DIRECTORS

Asking for a change in the time for the annual meeting of the members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from February to sometime in the late spring or early summer, a delegation of South Plains representatives spent Monday in Abilene and laid their ideas before the directors of that organization at their meeting there.

N. W. McCleskey and O. P. Rutledge represented Floydada in the conference. Plainview and Ralls were among the other towns which had representatives at Abilene. The matter has been referred to a committee comprised of C. B. Jones, president, Porter A. Whaley, general manager and Col. R. P. Smythe, of Plainview.

PARSONAGE FOR CIRCUIT PASTOR IS COMPLETED

The parsonage for the pastor of Floydada Circuit, M. E. Church, was finished the first of this week and Rev. J. J. McNeely and wife Wednesday moved into the dwelling.

The new home for the circuit pastor is located on South Main street and was built by contributions from members of the churches on the circuit, assisted by business people of Floydada .

SCHOOL BONDS CARRY 277 TO 98 SATURDAY

Overwhelming Majority for Issue Recorded in Vote.—Many do Not Poll Votes

Floydada Independent School District's proposed $90,000 bond issue for the construction of a new school building is to become a reality, the first step in this direction being taken Saturday when the voters of the district gave it an overwhelming majority. 277 votes were cast for the bonds and the tax and 98 against.

The bonds will be 40 year 5 per cent and the tax to pay for them will be slightly less than 17 cents on the hundred dollar taxable valuation on the present basis of school tax valuations for the first year.

The vote inthe election was lighter than was expected, considering the big interest taken in it. Less than 400 of the estimated 600 eligible voters in the district polled a vote.

FAT HOGS MARKETED

W. C. and A. C. Hanna, Gule Snodgrass and S. Q. Waddill, of Harmony, delivered 70 head of top fat hogs to N. A. Armstrong in Floydada yesterday.

Some of the hogs delivered weighed out 225 pounds at seven months of age.

GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS AGAINST 22

The Floyd County Grand Jury at the time of their adjournment Saturday afternoon of last week returned 22 bills of indictment into court, 13 of which were on felony charges and 9 for misdemeanors.

The W. C. Boren case was heard beginning Monday of this week. The jury was completed late Monday afternoon from a special venire of 60 men and the taking of evidence begun. The court's charge and the attorneys' arguments were given Wednesday morning and the case turned over to the jury at noon.

The case resulted in a mistrial with the jury disagreeing on a verdict.

Geo. P. Galloway, a soldier, who was charged with the disposal of mortgaged property, pled guilty before a jury chosen Wednesday afternoon and asked for a suspended sentence.

The jury gave him a 3-year suspended sentence. Raymond Keller an 18-year-old boy, pled guilty to forgery yesterday afternoon, and was also given a three-year suspended sentence.

Indications at present are that the criminal docket will likely be completed sometime in next week.

F. G. HUDSON DIED AT LUBBOCK SUNDAY MORNING

F. G. Hudson, for the past four years a resident of Floydada and who has resided the past few months on the H. L. Puryear place two miles west of Floydada, died last Sunday morning at 7:30 at Lubbock, where he was being treated. He had been ill sometime.

The remains were shipped to Floydada Monday afternoon and were kept overnight at the Hudson home, funeral services being held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. B. Meador, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment was made in Floydada Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

FLOYDADA C. OF C. NOW HAS 201 MEMBERS

Largest Organization of its Kind on South Plains.—Butler Resigns Presidency

Floydada Chamber of Commerce now has the largest membership of any similar organization on the South Plains, the announcement being made at Friday night's meeting that the membership figures had passed the 200-mark.

At this meeting several matters of importance were discussed. Plans were made for co-operating with the Mothers' Club in cleaning up and beautifying the Floydada Cemetery and a committee composed of Glad Snodgrass, Maury Hopkins and G. A. Lider chosen to go fully into the matter of making improvements looking toward a permanent parking space, re-staking the grounds and getting cooperation from the citizenship in general in a clean up of the grounds.

The Boy Scouts of Floydada will enter a rat-killing contest with the same organizations at Plainview, Lockney and Lubbock, following a challenge issued from Plainview last week, $100 in prize money being made up by the commercial organizations of the four cities to be paid the boys at the close of the contest: First prize will be $50, second $25, third $15 and fourth $10. The contest will run for sixty days beginning in this month. The C. of C. will donate $25 for the prize money from Floydada. The cost of rats to the agricultural interests of the Co. is mounting rapidly and the extermination of these rodents is recognized as highly necessary. Floydada Chamber of Commerce, in order to give the movement more wide prominence in this county also voted to offer a $25 reward to the boys of the school district in Floydada trade territory who killed the most rats, the money to be paid to the school district. T. S. Wilson, J. I. Hammonds and J. H. Reagan have the details of the matter to work out.

The matter of an agricultural exhibit to be maintained here at all times was discussed. It is the hope to begin this collection as soon as suitable permanent place for its display can be found.

Floydada is definitely a candidate for the location of the West Texas A. & M. College, and the Chamber of Commerce has a committee to work out the details of the campaign for its location here. The bill establishing the institution was passed finally Saturday and now awaits the governor's signature. O. P. Rutledge, W. M. Massie and Glad Snodgrass are the committee from the C. of C. to plan the campaign for Floydada.

F. M. Butler's resignation as president of the Chamber of Commerce was presented and accepted with regrets by a standing vote of the Chamber. Mr. Butler's last official act was to call attention to the need for wook in Floydada Cemetery and appoint the committee named above to work on it. A resolution expressing the regrets of the Chamber of Commerce as a body and the citizenship of Floydada in general in losing Mr. Butler was presented by O. P. Rutledge and adopted enthusiastically. This resolution is a follows:

"Whereas: Our good friend and president Mr. Butler has seen fit to sever his business connection with Floydada and is moving to Plainview, and,

"Whereas: he has always put forth his best efforts in the interest of the town and this Chamber of Commerce, and

"Whereas: we all realize that we are losing not only a good friend, but an enthusiastic and efficient worker.

"Be it resolved that we here in this meeting publicly express our regret at losing Mr. Butler and extend to him our sincere wishes for his continued success in his new work.

"And be it further resolved that this Chamber of Commerce extend to Mr. Butler a permanent honorary membership in this body as a mark of our good will and esteem.

"Resolved further that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of Floydada Chamber of Commerce; a copy be furnished the press and a copy be sent to First National Bank of Plainview, with which institution Mr. Butler will be connected."

The establishment of an ice plant here and the matter of better roads to other counties ,the promotion of better trade relations with other communities all came in for attention at this meeting.

The choice of a president to succeed F. M. Butler resigned, was discussed and deferred temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown and daughter spent Sunday in Plainview.

Mrs. H. S. Bolin of Lockney was shopping here Monday.

ELIMINATION TRYOUTS FOR COUNTY MEET HELD FRIDAY

"The Tatler", High School newspaper issued under the auspices of the Junior Class, carried the following story in its Tuesday edition giving the results of Friday night's elimination contests in both Floydada Schools for places on the teams to represent these schools at the County School Fair and Interscholastic meet Friday and Saturday:

Friday evening, March 11, the final tryout for the Interscholastic League representatives to represent Floydada in the county meet, was held in the high school auditorium. At seven o'clock, the time set for the opening, the auditorium was packed to the doors. The walls and aisles were decorated with class colors. Practically the entire high school student-body was present, as well as many from the grammar grades and the North Side School. A large part of the audience was made up of the parents of the students.

The contestants from the North Side School spoke first, and then the judges were allowed an interval in which to make a decision. The audience remained quiet as the high school students took their places on the stage. As usual the junior girls spoke first; then the senior girls, and last the senior boys.

While the judges were making their decision the audience was entertained by three songs by the High School Quartette, and a talk about the school bonds, by Professor Parks.

The following is a list of the entries, subjects, and winners from both schools:

HIGH SCHOOL

Junior Girls: Evelyn Kizzair; "If", by Kipling, first place. Hester West; "The Day Is Done," second place.

Senior Girls: Edith Bagwell; "America's Mission," first place. Joice Hopkins; "A Message to Garcia" second place. Mae Rawlings; "United We Stand," third place.

16 TEAMS TO ENTER BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT

Austin, Texas, March 12.—Interest is running high in the matter of the state high school championship in basket ball, to be finally determined as a result of the tournament being held at the University of Texas in Austin under the direction of Interscholastic League officials.

The sixteen teams establishing their eligibility to enter the tournament were: Eagle Pass, Celina, Mount Pleasant, Shiner, Carbon, Houston (Central High,) Gatesville, El Paso, Ozona, Edinburg, Higgins, San Antonio (Brackenridge High), Tyler, Archer City, Nacogdoches, and Kirbyville. These teams first won the championship of their respective districts, then defeated the champions of an adjoining district in a bi-district game. Hitherto, on account of the expense of bringing teams from distant points of the state to Austin, nohing in the nature of such a state tournament has been attempted by the Interscholastic League, but with the working out of the elimination plan used this year, it is hoped that the tournament may become an annual feature.

It is noted that the majority of the teams entering the tournament his year are from the smaller high schools of the state, and that they come from all sections of the state. Two extremes are represented by the teams from Higgins and El Paso, the former being located at the northern extreme of the Panhandle, and the latter on the western boundary, both about 700 miles from Austin.

TWIN HEIFER CALVES

Twin calves are rare enough that they are always a curiosity, but when twin heifer calves are born to an almost full-blood Jersey cow, and their sire is registered Jersey bull, the interest is heightened considerably. A Jersey bull calf usually is consigned to the butcher's block shortly after he's weaned at a very reasonable figure but a Jersey heifer of good breeding usually develops into a $150 animal in a year or so.

J. F. Ruddick is the man whose good fortune it is to own the Jersey cow with the twin heifer calves, which were born a few days ago. Both calves are good individuals.

Mesdames W. L. Campbell of McLean and L. H. McClarty of Lubbock spent the week-end with Mrs. E. E. Johnson.

J. D. Christian, who has been at Rosston, Texas, for several weeks, arrived back at home Thursday afternoon of last week.

Miss Gladys Johnson of Portales New Mexico arrived here Friday to begin work with the Martin Dry Goods Company.

J. B. Elder, who is now making his home in Hale County, was here the first of this week, a witness in district court.

H. W. Atkinson left last week for his former home at Florence to spend a short time on business. He will return by way of Dallas.

The lumberman's slogan, "Paint up, brighten up" is quite an applicable one in Floydada following the clean up campaign which closes Saturday night. A little money spent in brightening up your premises will add a great deal to your satisfaction and to the good looks of your town.

F. M. Butler, retiring president of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, as one of his last official acts appointed a committee to plan with the Mothers' Club a clean up and straightening out of the affairs of the Floydada Cemetery. "Disgraceful" was his summing up of the manner in which people of Floydada are neglecting the cemetery, the sin of omission having been committed against our city of the dead until further neglect almost amounts to wilful failure to do a plain duty. Nobody in particular and almost everybody in general is to blame. The committee from the Chamber of Commerce and the Mothers' Club in making their plans for the clean up of the cemetery are making it plain that their plans contemplate actual work on the part of everybody who is interested. "Bring your hoes, spades and wear your work clothes," they say; and bring a dinner that will be sustaining for a hard day of work. And don't wait for your neighbor to go. "They" ought to spend a day working in Floydada Cemetery; but you belong there, too, if you are interested in seeing it cleaned up. Tuesday, March 22, is the day.

KANSAS CITY MARKET

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 14. —Liberal receipts of cattle at all the principal markets today turned prices down. However, there was active demand for beef in the east and the weakness in live cattle is thought to be only temporary. Here prices were off 15 to 25 cents. Hog prices steady. Fifty thousand arrived in Chicago, and fairly liberal supplies elsewhere. Sheep and lambs were quoted weak to 25 cents lower. Demand was fairly active at the decline.

Receipts today were 14,000 cattle 14,500 hogs, and 8,500 sheep, comparer with 13,500 cattle, 12,500 hogs, and 12,500 sheep last week and 16,800 cattle, 19,750 hogs and 13,900 sheep a year ago.

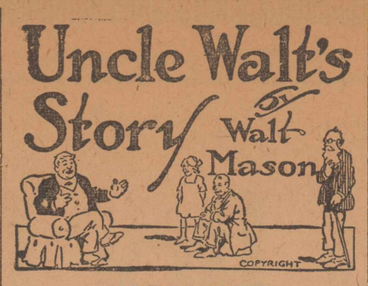

Liberal receipts together with a rather unsettled labor outlook caused a weaker tone in the cattle market. In most cases, prices were down 15 to 25 cents. Indications are that packing house labor will accept a wage reduction without a strike. The Lenten season will end with the Easter Sunday, and this is expected to increase demand for beef. Yearlings and weighty steers sold up to $10,00 and the bulk of the fat steers sold at $9.00 to $9.75. Cows and heifers were steady, and rough weighty kinds showed the decline. Veal calves were quoted steady.

Some common to plain stockers and feeders were quoted weak to 25 cents lower. There was an active demand for the better classes, at fully steady prices. Demand for fleshy feeders was active.

Opening bids for hogs were 15 to 25 cents lower, but buyers were anxious for supplies, and before many sales were made the market rallied to last week's closing level. Actual sales showed the market averaged steady. The top price was $10.90, and bulk $10.00 to $10.80. Pigs were fully steady and in active demand. The top price was $11.50. Prices for pork in the East were advanced $2.00 to $3.00 a hundred pounds so that the hog market is in a position to stand liberal supplies.

Sheep and lamb prices were weak to 25 cents lower. After the decline was established trade became fairly active. Best handy weight lambs sold at $10.00 to $10.25, and ewes $5.50 to $6.00. Yearlings and wethers were lacking, trade in feeding lambs and breeding ewes was quiet.

Demand for the better class of horses and mules improved moderately, but the ordinary and common kinds sold slowly. Prices were not quotably changed.

BALED MUSIC

"THERE'S going to be a great concert at the opera house tonight," said the retired merchant, "and if you'll go along with me, I'll pay your way and buy you five cents' worth of peanuts. I'm sure nothing could be more liberal than that."

"You'll break yourself up in business if you go around wasting your substance in that fashion," replied the hotel keeper. But you will have to hunt up another victim. Since I bought a phonograph and a bunch of records I have quit going to concerts. There's nothing but vanity and vexation of spirit about an entertainment of that kind. It's advertised to start at a certain hour, say eight o'clock, and you are credulous enough to think that the specifications will be lived up to. You break a hame strap to get there in time, and when you arrive, at ten minutes to eight, you find you're the first one there. You sit around, waiting for an hour or two, and people walk on your feet and sit down on your hat and make things unpleasant as possible.

"By the time the curtain goes up, you are wishing you had possessed sense enough to stay at home. But, being there, and having paid for the privilege, you determine to hold her nozzle agin the bank, as it were.

"The entertainment usually is opened by a talksmith. The man who makes a few remarks always looms up at such entertainments, and should be taken to jail for obtaining money under false pretenses. When he has said all that he can think of, the artists begin to dish up the music. It may be elegant music—it usually is. But you can't enjoy it in comfort, for the gentleman with the large splay foot, in the seat directly behind you, persists in beating time with that organ until he drives you frantic. If you turn around and dot him in the eye, you will be ejected from the building.

"Then you will find that the woman with a shrill, carrying voice, who has heard better singers, sits right in front of you, and she keeps on talking in a maddening way. The last concert I attended had a fine contralto who sang some stem-winding songs of the kind we all like. But the woman with the shrill voice was right in front of me, and I could hear her saying: 'Really, you should hear Margaret Keyes or Christine Miller sing that selection; this woman is impossible as a vocalist.'

"Then a man with a hectic voice and a name that he imported without paying duty on it, stood up and whinnied like a doggone zebra, and we were expected to believe that he was singing a Neapolitan song. I never heard anything that filed my nerves the way that voice did. It recalled the halcyon days when my father used to sharpen a bucksaw with a rasp. Well, when he finished his first number, the applause was frantic, and he reared up and did it all over again. Then the applause was louder than ever, and he whinnied something else. They kept that blamed pirate there for half an hour, and I don't know when I suffered so much.

"The hall was overheated, and I was jammed in the middle of a row of seats so I couldn't get out without climbing over a number of ladies and gentlemen. We were kept there for three hours, and when I got out I swore by my Sunday hat I'd never go to another public concert.

"Next day I bought a phonograph and a lot of records of the kind I like, and now I enjoy my music. I start it when I get ready, and quit when I am tired. No punk singers are encored. No Windy Jims introduce the singers with a few pertinent remarks. If a singer displeases me, I stop the machine and throw the record into the alley. You'd better tear up your concert ticket and come and hear my music mill."

Hard Hit.

"What's wrong, old man? You look blue."

"Had a scrap with my wife this morning."

"Oh, don't let a little thing like that worry you. A thunderstorm clears the atmosphere, you know."

"Yes, but that doesn't help a man who's been struck by lightning." —Boston Transcript.

Of Course.

"You made a big howl that you were out for civic betterment."

"We did."

"Yet your program consists solely of getting your crowd into office."

"Well, ain't that civic betterment?"

New Rich.

"Well, what's on the tapis today?" asked the social secretary breezing in.

"I hadn't noticed," answered Maw Hoptoad. "Maria, did you spill anything on the tapis?"

MOTHERS' CLUB TAKING ACTIVE INTEREST IN WORK ON CITY PARK

Co-operating with City Council and Chamber of Commerce the Mothers' Club is taking an active interest in the improving and beautifying of the City Park.

Besides the border of Sycamore trees that have been set out, and the elms and ash that will take the place of the dead locusts, the Mothers' Club have ordered a large number of roses for the rose gardens and climbing roses to cover the lattice work that will inclose the south side of the pavilion. Gravel sidewalks will encircle the pavillion, except for the side south, and will lead from the three entrances to the center.

Arrangements have been made for the erecting of tennis and basketball courts, and a playground which will have the slicky slide, sand boxes and other amusements has been set aside for the smaller children.

The Mothers' Club has appointed eight captains, who, with their helpers will alternately care for the rose gardens and aid in the upkeep of the park.

The following have been appointed as a park committee by the Mothers' Club: Mesdames E. C. Henry, L. H. Liston, J. E. Parks, Jno. N. Farris and Miss Jessie Green.

Mrs. Gerald Massie left Saturday morning for a visit with a sister in San Antonio, Texas.

J. M. Massie returned last week from Weatherford, Fort Worth and Dallas, where he has been since the first of the year with his wife. Mrs. Massie is in a sanitarium and is showing marked improvement.

Wylie Boyles of Plainview was a business visitor here yesterday.

Messrs. and Mesdames John Hammonds and Oliver Allen visited in Lubbock Sunday.

Mesdames John Broyles and Watt Griffith of Lockney were shopping here Monday.

BAPTISTS REPORT WHERE MONEY GOES

GENERAL DIRECTOR 75-MILLION CAMPAIGN TELLS PURPOSES TO WHICH MILLIONS GIVEN.

EVERY CAUSE IS BENEFITED

State, Home and Foreign Missions, Christian Education, Hospitals, Orphanages and Ministerial Relief Share in Receipts.

DR. L. R. SCARBOROUGH,
Chairman Conservation Commission Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

Dr. L. R. Scarborough, who was general director of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and who was later elected chairman of the Conservation Commission that is seeking to conserve all the interests of that campaign, has issued a report from the Nashville headquarters showing the various interests that have profited from the $16,851,100.68 collected on campaign pledges up to Dec. 1, 1920.

With its receipts of $2,958,808.07 the Foreign Mission Board has added to its territory five new provinces in China and made the beginning for opening up work in the new fields of Spain, Hungary, Roumania, Jugo Slavia, and the Ukraine in Russia; strengthened its work in Syria and Palestine, made a beginning in Eastern Siberia, added 100 new workers to its force of American missionaries in foreign lands, provided new houses of worship, hospitals, schools, publishing plants and other institutions needed in the prosecution of missionary work. What is of even more importance, in the estimation of Secretary Love, is the completion of many institutions and undertakings that had been held up for lack of funds.

Home Missions Doubles Budget

By reason of the larger receipts from the campaign, the Home Mission Board has been enabled to practically double its annual budget for its work of evangelism, church building, work among the foreigners, Indians and negroes, mountain mission schools, enlistment, and general mission work in Cuba and Panama. The appropriations to evangelism have been practically doubled, those to church building increased between 500 and 600 per cent, those to the mountain schools, forty in number 100 per cent, and those to the work of enlisting undeveloped churches 300 per cent.

In the realm of state missions which embodies such work as providing missionaries and other special workers for needy fields within the states and aiding weak congregations in the building of houses of worship the advance made possible by the campaign ranges from 25 to 100 per cent in the eighteen states of the convention territory.

Returns to the Conservation Commission by forty-five of the Baptist institutions of learning which are sharing in the returns from the campaign, show that they have received $2,713,756 so far. Of this sum, $1,640,000 has been expended on improvements, $400,000 has gone to endowment, several hundred thousand dollars in old debts have been wiped out and other improvements are under way.

Ten New Hospitals Provided

Southern Baptists were operating fourteen hospitals when the campaign began, and as a result of the new interest in this work aroused by the campaign ten additional hospitals have been launched. These hospitals have received $1,111,439.45 from the campaign so far, while local communities in which the hospitals are located have subscribed approximately $2,000,000 additional. The hospitals have practically $1,000,000 in improvements under way. The seventeen Baptist orphanages have likewise come in for much larger support as a result of the campaign, their receipts from this source being $1,018,798.67. As a result of this income the orphanages have been enabled to make improvements valued at $325,000.

The work of aiding aged preachers is a new one among Southern Baptists as a whole, but as a result of the campaign the Relief and Annuity Board has received $408,148.82 from that source and $300,000 from Mr. Rockefeller, Sr.

WEST TEXAS TIME CHANGE ONE OF WILSON'S LAST ACTS

Jones and Shephard Get Bill Through Congress in Last Minute Effort

Washington, March 4.—One of the bills approved by President Wilson at the Capitol Building today was that by Representative Jones of Texas which transfers the Panhandle and plains section of Texas and Oklahoma from Mountain to Central time and places the whole of those States in the zone for Central time. The bill passed the House yesterday afternoon and the Senate early this morning. The bill provides for the new time zone division as follows:

"The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby authorized and directed to issue an order placing the western boundary line of the United States Standard Central time zone in so far as the same affects Texas and Oklahoma as follows: Beginning at a point where such western boundary line between Kansas and Oklahoma, thence westerly along said State boundary line to the northwest corner of the State of Oklahoma, thence in a southerly direction along the west State boundary line of Oklahoma and the west State boundary line of Texas to the southeastern corner of the State of New Mexico, thence in a westerly direction along the State boundary line between the States of Texas and New Mexico to the Rio Grande river as the boundary line between the United States and Mexico; provided that the Chicago, Rock Island & Gulf Railway Company and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company may use Tucumcari, N. M., as the point at which they change from Central to Mountain time and vice versa. The Colorado Southern and Fort Worth & Denver City Railway Companies may use Sixela, N. M., as such changing point. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company and other branches of the Santa Fe system may use Clovis, N. M., as such changing point, and those railways running into or through El Paso may use El Paso as such point. Provided further that this act shall not, except as herein provided, interfeere with the adjustment of time zones as established by the Interstate Commerce Commission."

STEADY HEAT AND FRESH AIR ESSENTIAL TO INCUBATION

Incubators are operated successfully in a great variety of places. Small machines generally are set in a room or the cellar of the house. A special cellar or incubator house should be provided where the incubator equipment is extensive or where mammoth machines are used. The chief points are to have a room which is not subject to great variations in temperature and which is well ventilated, so that the air is fresh and pure, according to Farmers' Bulletin 1106, Incubation of Hens' Eggs, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

If built above ground the walls of the incubator house should be double and the entire building well insulated. Incubators may be operated in buildings with single walls, especially in mild climates, but a well-insulated room is preferable. Good results in hatching are secured in incubator cellars and in incubator rooms which are entirely above the ground level.

The incubator room or cellar should be large enough to allow the attendant to work around the machines conveniently. Many incubator cellars are provided with some system of ventilation in addition to the windows, while in others the ventilation is controlled entirely by the latter method. Muslin screens on the windows provide good ventilation without draft and at the same time keep the direct rays of the sun from the machines. Many incubator cellars have cement floors, which are easier than dirt floors to keep clean and neat.

DOES ANYONE WANT A BISON? UNCLE SAM GIVES THEM AWAY

The Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture has more than 20 male buffalo of various sizes and ages, which it desires to give away or loan to park or zoological associations, or responsible individuals who will take good care of them and use them for breeding or exhibition purposes.

The buffalo herd, established on the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve, Oklahoma, some 15 years ago with a nucelus of 15 animals, has prospered mightily. They now number nearly 150 head, including the 28-year-old "gray gander" of the herd as well as the smallest and friskiest bull calf born last spring. As the herd has grown the number of bulls has increased more rapidly than the cows, until now there are too many of the former.

Under the regulations the Forest Service can give or lend only one male buffalo to an individual or institution. Several applications have already been received and approved, and plans are on foot to cut out from the herd the animals selected, and crate and haul them to the railroad.

Although Uncle Sam is willing to make a present of these animals, the recipient must pay all expenses incident to the gift, including the cost of crating, hauling, and freight charges from Cache, Okla., to the point of delivery.

Here is an excellent opportunity to get a real, live buffalo—not as gentle, perhaps, as a kitten, but, nevertheless, a nice pet if you have plenty of room to keep him, surrounded by a 12 foot double-ply, woven-wire fence, and the price of two tons of hay a year.

Mesdames John Hollums, J. E. Pitts, and John Hammonds spent Thursday of last week in Plainview.

E. H. Reid, architect of Waco, was here the latter part of last week.

OLD MAN GLOOM

There's a sulking guy with a blood-shot eye
Deep set in a wrinkled face
Of sinister hue, 'twixt green and blue,
And he walks with a halting pace,
In matters of mind he's as far behind
As an anthropoidian ape,
And the principal job of his mournful slob
Is the business of hanging crepe.

His bed is laid in the dimsal shade,
And he loves the moonless night,
And his breath destroys life's little joys
Like a pestilential blight.
This god of bile wears never a smile:
He's sad as an ivied tomb;
And this sombre pest, as perhaps you've guessed,
Is the fellow called Old Man Gloom.

He's at your back when trade is slack
To whisper a doleful note;
Or to shake his fist at an optimist
In the hope of getting his goat.
Ah, these are the days he croons his lays
And voices his false alarm,
To make you think you're at ruin's brink
And bound for the county farm.

But his feet are cold as greveyard mold
And his courage is water-weak,
And he cannot stand for a good, strong hand
Or a wallop on the beak.
When he comes your way be blithe and gay
And shrivel him with a laugh;
For there is no room for Old Man Gloom
Except in an epitaph.

—Murice Switzer.

The Height of Musical Joy

YOU get the height of musical joy when you hear a great living artist. But you get equal joy when you hear the same artist on the New Edison.

The proof of this is convincing, conclusive and concrete.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Convincing—for Mr. Edison himself said in a recent interview: "The emotional effects and consequent benefits of music are well known. Through the agency of my new phonograph, I can produce the same effects as would result from the original music."

Conclusive—for you can score, on a Mood Change Chart, the effects of the New Edison's realism on you. Come in and listen to this test of realism.

Concrete—for we will show a big book of proof, that there is no difference between RE-CREATED music and the original music. This proof would be good in any court of law.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE COTTON CROP

For every bale of cotton grown this season there will be a bale carried over from last year"s crop, if the South produces an average cotton crop this year, says the Texas Industrial Congress. The effect of this will be to cut the price at least half in two next fall.

Based upon reports of the United States Bureau of Markets, the world's carry-over July 31, 1921, will amount to more than 12 million bales.

5 million 846 thousand bales of the 1919-20 crop were on hand on July 31, 1920; the world's total production for the crop season of 1920-21, was 19 million 778 thousand bales; making a total available supply for the present season of 25 million 624 thousand bales.

The world's consumption is estimated by the Bureau of Markets at 13 million 166 thousand bales, as compared with 17 million 555 thousand bales in 1919-20. At the present rate of consumption, therefore, the world's supply of cotton remaining on hand July 31, 1921, will be 12 million 457 thousand bales. If to this is added a new crop of ten or twelve million bales, it is plainly to be seen that the price next fall will be 50 per cent less than it is now.

The American consumption of cotton so far this season is 25 per cent less than in 1919-20, and exports are 21 per cent less. It is said that Germany, Poland and Czecho-Slovakia are already supplied with cotton. The foreign market is dead because of a lack of credit and the high rate of exchange.

American mills and European spinners are fully aware of these facts and the exchanges of New Orleans and New York, as well as the New England mills, are not convinced that the South will materially cut the cotton acreage for next season.

In view of these facts, can the farmer, averaging one-third of a bale per acre, and costing from fifteen to twenty-five cents per pound to produce, hope to make living wages for his work this year and a profit on his cotton crop at the end of the season? Can he undertake to produce a crop on credit furnished by his local merchant or banker with any reasonable expectation of being able to discharge his indebtedness at the end of the year?

This is the problem that every farmer is now called upon to decide for himself before planting this year's crops.

TELEPHONE SERVICE GETTING MORE NEARLY NORMAL

594,820 Telephones were Added to the Bell System in 1920, Report Shows

The addition of 594,820 telephones to the Bell System in 1920, bringing the grand total of Bell owned stations in the United States up to 8,333,979 on January 1st, this year, did not entirely meet the demand for service, according to the annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, released today. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company is the parent Company of the various associated Bell Companies in this country comprising the Bell System.

"In Texas" said Manager C. D. Long of the local Exchange, "more than 12,400 telephones were added by the Bell Company last year. Withal there are still people who want telephones and cannot get them because of lack of facilities .

"There are 10,500 separate telephone companies in the United States" Manager Long continued, "and 29 of them are associated Bell Companies. Only 1,200 independent companies do not connect with the Bell System. The total number of Bell-owned and Bell connecting company telephones increased 806,188 in 1920, reaching a combined total of 12,601,737. It is possible for any local subscriber to call any one of these more than 12,600,000 subscribers through the toll lines that span the country."

To add 594,820 telephones the Bell Company made net additions last year amounting in money to $147,822,100, representing an increase of $74,436,100 over the additions made during 1919. This naturally had its effect on service. The report says it is grati fying to be able to announce that the service throughout the United States, both local and toll, has been brought up to substantially normal conditions, as was predicted a year ago.

This year's Annual Report shows that the Bell System is owned by 139,000 individuals, not counting 23,000 employees who are buying stock on an easy time payment plan. Including the employee stockholders there are more than 1,200 individuals residing in Texas who own stock in the American Company.

For the whole Bell System, with all duplications excluded, the total gross income for the year was $85,264,976, from which over $37,000,000 was paid in interest, rent and miscellaneous deductions from income, and approximately $40,000,000 in dividends. The surplus earnings for the year were $7,785,486.

The capital stock, bonds and notes payable of the Bell System outstanding in the hands of the public at the close of the year 1920 were $1,107,417,623, while the book cost of the net assets devoted to earning a return on these outstanding securities amounted to over $1,551,000,000. Actual appraisals of the telephone plant in the Bell System made by regularly bodies for rate fixing purposes show that the true value of Bell System property greatly exceeds this book cost.

TEXAS MARKETING LAW NOTABLE ONE

Dallas, Texas, March 1.—The Co-operative Marketing Bill, known as House Bill No. 227, written by Aaron Sapiro, California marketing expert, and signed by Governor Neff today, is the most comprehensive marketing law ever passed in the Southern States, according to Walton Peteet, Director of Marketing Organizations in the Texas Farm Bureau, who was in Austin last week in the interest of the Bill. This Bill makes possible the co-operative marketing of farm products under the California plan and was written by Mr. Sapiro for the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

"This law represents the last word in rural co-operative laws in the United States and leading members of the Legislature told me that they regard it as the most important law passed by the present Legislature," Mr. Peteet said.

AN EFFECTIVE BUT SIMPLE RAT CATCHER

N. C. Tennison reports that he made a trap last week and caught eighteen rats the first night, and others later. The trap is simple and anyone can make it. Take a tub and fill with water to the first ring, then take cotton seed and cover the water with them, then put sacks or something of the kind and build up on the outside of the tub so the rats can climb to the top of the tub, when they will jump into the cotton seed which will let them into the water where they will drown.—Wellington Leader.

Fellows use me to make dates with girls, and girls use me to break said dates. Husbands call up their wives over me. I never go out anywhere but sometimes the company takes me out, it all depends whether you pay your bill or not. I am not a bee, but I often buzz in your ear. I am the bell of the town, and while I do not wear jewelry I often get rings. Whether I do things or not, a lot of people nail me to the wall; and I like music, but the only music I hear is chin music. I get all the popular airs, and the most popular one is hot air.—Swiped.

Hereford Brand:

Several efforts were made to raise cotton in this vicinity this year. The best showing yet made that The Brand has heard of is that of M. C. Bell of Summerfield. Mr. Bell started for a Lockney gin last Tuesday with 15,000 pounds of seed cotton on five wagons and barges. Mr. Bell estimates that 3,000 pounds of seed cotton still remains in his field and that he will get about six bales of good and three bales of low grade cotton from fifteen acres of land.

BEAUTY IN BACKGROUND

Decorating walls is an easy matter providing one keeps a few simple rules in mind. These may be stated in a few words:

1. Walls which serve as background should be free from pattern and neutral in color.
2. Walls intended to be decorative may be boldly figured but plain fabrics should then be used for draperies and upholstery.
3. The scale of the pattern should be in proportion to that of the room. Never use extremely large figures in a small room.
4. Use medium colors in a light room and light colors in a dark room.
5. As a rule the smaller the room the lighter and more neutral should be its walls.
6. Broad, horizontal panels, and the horizontal divisions formed by wainscots and dadoes make a small room appear larger.
2. Narrow vertical pannels and striped wallpapers tend to make a low ceiliig appear higher,—March Good Housekeeping.

Mr. Hendrix has resided here the past four years and has had experience during the past 8 or 10 years in the work he would have to do if elected. He has been night watchman here since last October.

SCHOOLS AMENDMENT PASSED

Limit for Bonds and Maintenance Tax $1.—School Matters are Discussed

The Hesperian is in receipt of the following letter from County Judge W. B. Clark, dated March 15th:

Mr. Editor:

Please state to the people of Floyd County through your paper, that pursuant to the amendment of Art. 7, Sec. 3, State Constitution, voted at last November election, the Legislature passed an enabling act on Feb. 22nd, 1921, signed by the Governor Mar. 5th, 1921, whereby Independent School Districts and Common School Districts may vote a tax of not exceeding $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation of property in the several Districts for school purposes.

The amount of taxes for bonds and for Maintenance, combined, can not exceed $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation in any one year. If no bonds are voted, or are not outstanding against the District voting, it may vote a maintainance tax not exceeding $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation: if bonds are outstanding against the District, it can vote such a maintenance tax as added to the bond tax, as will make a total tax of $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation.

Petitions should be gotten out as heretofore for such elections, and presented to the County Judge for elections in Common School Districts, and to School Boards in the Independent Districts, asking for elections to be ordered for the specific purposes desired, as early as possible so the tax if voted, may be levied, assessed and collected for the current year.

The payment of the school money this year has been unusually slow, on account of the general financial condition of the whole country. The State Board of Education has made apportionments as fast as they have received the funds; the tax collector has paid in local taxes as fast as he could collect same; and the entire business has been handled as fairly and as promptly as possible. The teachers have been very patient; the banks have been exceedingly accomodating; and all phases of the schools are looking brighter.

Teachers should bear inmind the importance of making all necessary reports before the time expires, and especially term reports before they present their last vouchers for approval.

The attention of all is called to the eletcion of Trustees the first Saturday in next April, in all Common School Districts to elect trustees for said Districts; and to elect one County School Trusee in Commissioners' Precinct No. 1 (Floydada) and one County School Trustee in Commissioners' Precinct No. 2 (Lockney.) All these places are vitally important to the welfare of the schools of the county, and should be filled with the very best possible persons for the places.

THE UNIVERSITY INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

Acontestant or a contesting team must have won in the county, to enter the district meet and in the district to enter the state contest.

The names of all contestants must be in the hands of the director in whose division they wish to compete by April 13, together with all fees which are twenty-five cents for each contestant who enters one event and five cents for each additional event. Each event in track will require a separate fee also each player in tennis, and baseball must pay the fee.

Respectfully,
M. M. DUPRE, Director General.

NICE ROOMS IN CONNECTION

A BATHROOM FOR THE FARM

In no way is electricity serving the farm family better than in making possible a modern up-to-date bath room.

When water had to be pumped and carried by hand, when it had to be heated on the kitchen stove, and when tubs had to be gotten out especially, then getting ready for and taking a bath meant a lot of disturbance and muss. But electricity has done away with all this. The small electric light and power plants now in use on so many farms all over the country furnish plenty of power for the operation of electric pumping systems. These systems have been developed to such a great extent in the last few years, that they are now almost entirely automatic. Once installed, the pump, driven by an electric motor and controlled by a pressure switch, keeps water under pressure at faucets all over the house. The water service thus obtained is in result the same as that enjoyed in the city. There are very efficient heaters, too, which will heat plenty of water for a bath in a half hour or less, or which will keep the water hot all the time if desired. All this means that any member of the farm family can now have a hot bath in a real tub at the mere turn of the hot water faucet.

FLOYD COUNTY 33 YEARS AGO AND FLOYD CO. IN 1921

Some 33 years ago I made a tour of the South Plains country and on my return home I came through Floyd County. At that time there were but few people in the county, mostly stockmen and a few settlers. My friend and I, who accompanied me on this trip, travelled for miles without seeing anyone except now and then a cowboy. The country around Della Plains, a little place not far from where the town of Floydada now is, was a beautiful open country covered with luxuriant grass and the longhorn steer held full possession of the country. We went down in the canyon and spent a few days turkey hunting and I must say that I never saw as many wild turkeys in all my life. After our hunt was over we turned our faces homeward and I forgot all about Floyd County.

But I had occasion to visit Floyd County again. After I had raised my family to be grown one of my sons went to Floyd County, so in February I paid him a visit and must say I was surprised when I landed at Floydada. I found the place a little city situated in the heart of a fine farming country, a prosperous little town with everything pointing to something big in the future.

The stranger must see this beautiful open country before he feels the wonder and admiration of the plains country, he must breathe its pure air and drink deep draughts of its pure water and meet its hospitable inhabitants before he realizes there is a spirit abroad in its land that has moved the people to develop the country around Floydada. Itook a trip out in the country. I saw fine farms, well-built houses, good barns and graded cattle and, the best of all, good roads that you could travel. I found the soil to be productive, producing wheat, oats, corn and maize and cotton equal to the black lands of Texas

When I looked at the school houses and churches of Floyd County I said to myself, the man with the hoe has come to stay.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

We are looking forward to our revival meeting that will begin April 17th as previously announced from the pulpit. Rev. A. C. Fisher, with his wife as soloist, pianist and young people's worker and Mr. McCleskey choir leader and personal worker, compose the leaders of the work. These in their lines are equal to the very best. Mr. Fisher has a national reputation, having conducted meetings over the entire south and north, east and west. He is one of the ablest gospel preachers I ever heard. He does not engage in levity but is sound in preaching and methods. We want to make this a town meeting and every denomination is urged to cooperate for a general revival. We urge every person interested in Floydada's religious welfare to throw in with us and we will have a real town meeting, and all churches will be built up.

Go to church and Sunday school next Sunday. We will be glad to see you at our church at all services.

C. B. MEADOR, Pastor..

MOTHERS' CLUB NOTES

Clean up day at the cemetery was the main subject of discussion at the Mothers' Club last Friday afternoon and Tuesday the 22nd was appointed as the day for the work. They, with the Chamber of Commerce, will spend the day at the cemetery in cleaning and repairing. Every one who can and will is asked to co-operate in this movement and meet with these committees on this date.

The Mothers' Club further discussed the plan of forming a permanent organization for beautifying the cemetery and looking after its upkeep. Also, among one of the first needs that will be considered will be the placing of a well on the cemetery grounds, and the appointing of a sexton, in order the trees and flowers planted there may receive the required attention. Arrangements for enlarging the cemetery plot now alloted will also be looked after.

The following committee were appointed to see to these needs: Mesdames M. F.Husky, John Hammonds, Lee Montague, Tom B. Triplett, E. C. Henry.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the talk made by Miss Allie May Taylor of Nashville, Tenn., to the mothers and teachers.

The Club will meet Friday, March 25th, at the High School building.

Mesdames Porterfield, McCleskey, Curry, Williams and Gilmore entertained the ladies of the Home Mission Society Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Methodist church. The pastor and the officers of the society were in the receiving line.

The entertainment consisted among other things, of a very interetsing and amusing singing contest participated in by all present.

Mrs. W. L. Boerner and N. W. McCleskey were accorded special mention by the master of ceremonies for the splendid manner in which they rendered a duet.

A very beautiful pantomime by the little Misses Louise Gound and Mary Ann Ross was given as a reminder of the approaching Easter.

COATS HAVE AMPLE LINES

The styles in spring coats may be summed up broadly in the words—"soft fabrics" and "ample lines." Even in utility coats there is a suggestion of the cape and mantle, and pile fabrics, light in weight, but thick and soft are used.

IN BLACK AND WHITE

Sports clothes appear to be practicing a certain reticence in the matter of color and for this reason have taken on additional dignity. For skirts nothing is more in demand than black and white in bold checks and stripes and these are worn with black coats and sweater-coats in black, often brightened by white trimming.
