'Not Too Hopeful' Talk Opens In Geneva Today

Scurry County United Fund Report Given

The Scurry County United Fund campaign was nearing the $5,000 mark today in its drive for a budget of $29,500.

As the advance gift drive got into its third day, the general business drive, headed by Bob Taylor, kicked off this morning at a breakfast.

At this morning's breakfast, where Taylor presided and explained the working of the drive, Stanley Noah, general campaign chairman, told of the different phases of the campaign. Hicks Allen, a United Fund officer, explained the idea behind the United Fund, while president Lyle Deffebach also discussed the reasons for such an organization here. Harold Bennett, last year's general business chairman, outlined some of the problems some workers might have and told of progress of that drive last year.

Each of the drive's 12 captains was given about 25 prospect cards and each was to get about five workers to aid in the drive. The workers are to report in to the United Fund office at 4 p.m. each day.

Noah said the next drive to kick off will be the school drive, headed by Tim Dennis, which has scheduled its kickoff meeting for 5 p.m. Monday at the Hilander. A tentative time of Tuesday morning has been set for the kickoff of the business employe drive, headed by Steve Birdwell.

Icelandic Novelist Awarded Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The 1955 Nobel prize for literature was won today by an Icelandic novelist, Halldor Kiljan Laxness.

A leftist, he is active in the Communist-sponsored international peace movement, which previously awarde him a literary prize. He has called the North Atlantic Treaty Organization "a society of war lunatics."

Laxness, 53, has been a candidate several years for the prize. Apparently the Royal Swedish Academy this year overcame the dislike of his political leanings that at least some of its members had felt. He will receive $36,720 at the presentation of Nobel awards Dec. 10.

Woman Killed Near Snyder

The body of Mrs. Molly Florence Goodwin, 79, who died of injuries received in a traffic mishap east of Snyder last night, was carried to Atoka, Okla., this morning.

Mrs. Goodwin was pronounced dead on arrival at Battenfield-Jones hospital after the car in which she was riding overturned 16 miles east of Snyder on the Camp Springs road.

The mishap occurred at about 7 p.m.

Mrs. Lester Boggs of Roswell, N.M., daughter of Mrs. Goodwin and driver of the car, was admitted to the hospital for treatment of shock and an arm injury. Mrs. Boggs and Mrs. Goodwin were en route from Roswell to visit another daughter of Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. G. C. Baker, who lives on the Weldon Johnson ranch.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident said Mrs. Boggs lost control of the car while making a turn at the intersection of a farm road and the Snyder-Camp Springs road. The car overturned and stopped in a field adjacent to the intersection.

The body was carried overland to Atoka this morning in a Bolger Funeral Home coach.

In addition to Mrs. Boggs and Mrs. Baker, two other daughters and one son survive Mrs. Goodwin. They are Mrs. Gladys McKinney and Mrs. B. T. Lewis, both of Farris, Okla., and Earl Goodwin of San Diego, Calif.

Funeral arrangements were to be made in Antlers, Okla.

Veronica Lake Collapses In Hotel Lobby

DETROIT (AP)— Veronica Lake, stage and screen actress, collapsed in the lobby of a Detroit hotel today and was rushed to a hospital.

At first it was feared she had suffered a heart attack, but a cardiogram taken at Receiving Hospital did not confirm the original diagnoses of possible coronary occlusion.

Dr. Norman Goldston described her condition as "good" several hours after her collapse, and the 35-year-old actress was taken to Henry Ford Hospital for additional tests.

Miss Lake, who made the "peekaboo" hair-do famous in the 1940s, has been appearing in the stage play, "The Little Hut," at Detroit's Shubert Theater. The company manager said he would not know until later today whether she would be able to appear in the play tonight.

She was stricken at 2:30 a.m., having stopped at a restaurant for dinner after last night's performance. As she entered the lobby of the Barlum Hotel, where she was staying, she fainted.

Carried to a sofa, she recovered conciousness quickly, but complained of severe chest pains. Police drove her to receiving hospital.

Deputies Here Take Three To Penitentiary

Three men were taken this morning from the county jail here to the state penitentiary at Huntsville by sheriff's deputies Bill Love and Howard Gibbons.

The three were James Troy Braswell, 30, convicted here for armed robbery; Eddie E. Scott, 23 convicted here for car theft; and James Floyd, convicted here for felony theft.

Braswell was given a 10-year prison sentence when he pleaded guilty to an indictment of armed robbery of the B&B Parkway Grocery on the Lubbock highway. He already had two 10-year sentences and one for five years from other courts on various charges. All these sentences, however, will run concurrently, amounting to 10 years.

Scott was sentenced to three years in the pen for car theft here after pleading guilty. When he was indicted here, he was on parole from the penitentiary. He lacked 13 months completing a two-year sentence he received in Ector County.

Floyd pleaded guilty to two counts of felony theft and was given three year sentences in each, to run concurrently. He had been serving a six-month county jail sentence on another conviction when he entered his guilty plea.

District Attorney Renal Rosson was prosecutor in the cases, and District Judge Sterling Williams presided.

Two Couples Are Rescued

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The Air Force finished the 100-mile wedding "march" of two Bethel couples yesterday, rescuing them and two other persons from the stormy beach upon which they have been marooned for a week.

The two couples were identified in meager dispatches from Bethel, 450 miles west of here, as Owen Beaver, David O. David, Patti Snow and Marguerite Strauss. They started out Oct. 19 in boats for Kwillingok, a village 100 miles upstream from Bethel at the mouth of the Kuskokwim River, to be married.

Sixty miles northwest of Bethel, wind-whipped snow and rain forced them ashore on the ice-locked rivermouth bank. Two other persons also were forced ashore at the same point and it is believed they were in the wedding party.

Since going on the beach, the six have huddled about fires built from an ample stock of driftwood. Food and sleeping bags were air-dropped to them but the rescue had to await repair of a disabled helicopter which finally reached them on the eighth day.

Tax Officials Are Examining Several Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service is examining "at least the more controversial" cases among more than 32,000 organizations it lists as tax-free.

This was learned today from an informed source in contact with revenue service headquarters.

Revenue service officials and their Treasury superiors said they could not discuss the matter at this time.

However, it was learned tax officials are giving increasing consideration to the question of what yardstick to apply to an organization with possible political interests when it asks for tax-exempt status.

Whether this will result in wholesale review of all past exemptions is not yet decided, according to available information.

Meanwhile, it also was reported that the Justice Department has told the Treasury it should get authority from Congress before carrying out a long-rumored plan to open to public inspection documents filed by organizations to which revenue service grants tax exemption.

The federal government accords tax-free status to religious, educational and charitable organizations.

A person familiar with the plan said removing the secrecy curtain from tax exemption applications and tax returns of such organizations would show their aims, backers and details of their finances.

The Internal Revenue Service recently revoked tax-free privileges involving two controversial organizations—the American Institute of Pacific Relations and For America.

The IPR was investigated by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee in 1951-1952. Afterward, the Senate group said in a report the IPR had been infiltrated by Communists and that its activities had adversely affected the interests of the United States.

This was denied by officials of the IPR, who describe their organization as a nonpartisan institution for scholarly research and discussion of Far Eastern problems.

The service also recently denied contributors to For America the right to deduct such contributions for income tax purposes. For America describes itself as nonprofit, nonpolitical and nonpartisan organization dedicated to alerting public opinion to what it considers dangers this country faces. It is headed by Clarence Manion, former dean of the Notre Dame Law School, and by Gen. Robert E. Wood of Chicago.

'Oust Benson' Plan Disclosed

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Some members of President Eisenhower's Cabinet tried to oust Secretary of Agriculture Benson after the President was stricken with a heart attack, Farm Journal said today.

The monthly farm magazine, in its November issue, reported that Atty. Gen. Brownell, Postmaster General Summerfield and Harold E. Stassen, the President's special assistant on disarmament, with full Cabinet rank, were behind the alleged ouster move. The magazine said the three wanted to abandon the Benson farm policies and outpromise the Democrats.

Treasury Secretary Humphrey, Defense Secretary Wilson, Secretary of State Dulles and the rest of the Cabinet backed Benson, the magazine added.

The article said Vice President Nixon stayed on the fence.

The article also reported that since the meeting — the date was not disclosed — "The tide among GOP leaders in Washington has begun to flow Benson's way again. Nixon is now having Benson in for chummy luncheons. And Milton Eisenhower, the President's most trusted adviser on the farm front, has come out again for Benson."

The magazine also said that Benson has had some offers of "very solid financial backing" if he wants to "make a bid for the 1956 nomination as president or vice president."

Record Crowd Expected For Snyder Game

Snyder school officials were girding forces today to take care of a record crowd of football fans tomorrow night at Tiger stadium when the Tigers meet the Sweetwater Mustangs.

"If the weather is good, we may have over seven thousand people at the game," said A. T. Nicholas, director of business services for the school system.

Nicholas said arrangements had been made to provide seating for at least 6,500 fans, and that standing room zones would accommodate 2,000 more if necessary.

However, he reminded that full cooperation of the fans would be needed to put the facilities to best use during the game. Traffic undoubtedly will be a problem. Nicholas called attention to various approaches to the stadium, urging fans who plan to use parking facilities south of the stadium to come in via Forty-second Street. El Paso Street, which connects Thirty-seventh Street with the Lamesa highway will be the logical approach for many fans who plan to park north and west of the stadium.

Nicholas also called attention to parking areas on the north side of Thirty-seventh Street, near the school administration building, and new facilities east of the High School building on Austin Street. The street has been widened adjacent to the Little League baseball field to accommodate head-in parking. Fans who park there may enter the stadium from the southeast gate. Gates will be open on the northwest, northeast, southwest and southeast corners of the stadium at 7 p.m.

Motorists are being urged to cooperate fully with members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, who will be directing traffic during the game.

Temporary bleachers will provide 1,000 extra seats. Three hundred will be located at the south end of the field on either side, while 400 more will be located immediately north of the permanent stands on the west side. The 300 extra bleachers on the south end of the east stands will be the only general admission seats available on the Sweetwater side of the field. Consequently, Snyder general admission ticket holders are being urged to use the general admission sections on the west side.

Sec. 7 and Sec. 12 in the west side permanent stands are for general admission ticket holders. These, along with the 700 temporary bleachers, will be available for Snyder fans.

Concession stands will be open under the stands on each side of the field. These are "wall-through" type, with entrances and exits clearly marked. Fans are urged to follow directions so that confusion can be held to a minimum. In addition, "hawkers" will be working in the stands during the game and at various points under the stands during the half-time intermission.

The high school track will be roped off immediately in front of permanent stands on either side of the filed. However, a passageway between the barriers and the stands, plus other space near both ends of the field, will take care of an estimated 2,000 persons.

U.N. Contest Is Deadlocked

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Assembly failed to break its deadlock over a hotly contested Security Council seat today as it resumed voting after a week's recess.

Today's initial ballot was the 10th since the Assembly first tagled two weeks ago over the seat which formerly had been held by eastern European countries. The candidates for the seat are United States, and Yugoslavia, supported by Russia and the British Commonwealth countries.

To be elected a candidate must receive two-thirds of all the votes cast.

On the 12th ballot the Philippines received 32 votes, Yugoslavia 24 and India 2.

Britain's Sir Pierson Dixon proposed that the Assembly postpone further voting for 10 days. U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. opposed this and suggested that at least two more ballots be taken today.

Princess Margaret Calls On Archbishop

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret called today on Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the archbishop of Canterbury.

The princess paid the surprise visit to Lambeth Palace, residence of the archbishop, as a decision appeared near in her romance with Group Capt. Peter Townsend, divorced air hero.

Ministers To Seek Formula For Peace

GENEVA (AP)—Russia and the Western powers opened another historic, and not too hopeful, conference here today to see whether they can agree upon a formula for unifying Germany and securing permanent peace in Europe.

Foreign ministers of the big four nations settled down to work in the council room of the palace of nations at 4:15 p.m.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan of Britain and erench Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay had agreed beforehand to press Russia's V. M. Molotov to accept German unity on Western terms.

They were prepared to confront the Soviet diplomatic chief with a two-part program, offering to guarantee Russia against German aggression in future if Russia will agree to merge East and West Germany through nationwide free elections. The Western ministers are convinced a free German vote would be overwhelmingly anti-Communist.

Barring a reversal of established Soviet policy, Molotov was expected to insist that before Germany can be unified new conditions must be created in Europe by abolishing the North Atlantic Alliance and building up a new Eruopean wide security system.

But looming before the foreign ministers—although not taken into account in preconference planning—was the fear that Middle East tensions would flare into full-scale shooting war.

New frontier clashes between Israel and Egypt have heightened these fears, as did recent shipments of Communist arms to Egypt from Czechoslovakia.

Officials in Washington today described the Middle East as the most critical theater in the cold war. State Department spokesmen said they had new information that Soviet bloc sources have made several approaches to Israel about supplying arms to Israeli forces.

Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay were expected to protest to Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov about the arms being sent to Egypt since they deem the Russian government responsible.

Israeli Premier Moshe Sharett headed here from Paris to make his own protest to Molotov and to press for Western arms and protection for Israel. He conferred in Paris yesterday with Dulles ad Macmillan.

These two and Pinay were reported to have decided against rushing arms to Israel or formally guaranteeing its security at this time. They evidently hoped to redress the situation by other means.

Israel Claims Her Territory Is Penetrated

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli military spokesmen claimed today that Egyptian and Syrian military units had penetrated Israeli territory in two different demilitarized zones and said one Syrian soldier was believed killed.

The Egyptians were reported to have crossed into the El Auja-Nizana zone near the Sinai border and entrenched themselves. This position, the Israeli spokesman said, is in addition to the one near the El Sabha checkpost held by the Egyptians for some time. It is about a half mile inside Israeli territory, south of Beerotayim.

Another spokesman earlier said a Syrian military unit entered the demilitarized zone near Dan in northeastern Galilee and clashed with an Israeli police patrol, then withdrew. He said the Syrians took the body of one man back with them across the border. The Dan demilitarized zone is near the site of biblical Dan and close to the Jordan River sources.

The Egyptian intrusion near El Sabha, according to the Israelis, is at a point 200 yards inside Israeli territory in the southeastern corner of the El Auga-Nizana zone which was held by the Egyptians even before yesterday's clash at the nearby Beerotayim checkpost in which Israel reported one of its policemen killed.

A U.N. spokesman confirmed that Egyptian forces still were inside a small section of the Israeli-controlled demilitarized zone. He said orders from U.N. observers to withdraw had not yet been met, but there had been no more shooting on either side.

Each side blamed the other for yesterday's violence.

An Israeli army spokesman said the clash occurred at Beerotayim, about 2½ miles inside Israeli territory. He said Egyptian soldiers entered the area and attacked an Israeli police post, killing the policeman, wounding three and kidnaping two otheres.

The Egyptians said their forces occupied the post after an Israeli attack was launched inside Egyptian territory. A government communique said four Israelis were wounded and one was captured. It said one Egyptian was wounded.

Safe Driving Day Scheduled Here Dec. 1

Cooperation of all local citizens in a special event scheduled for December has been urged here by Homer Whisnand, county sheriff.

Whisnand is a member of a special committee in a 13 county district of the Texas Safety Association which is promoting Safe Driving Day on Dec. 1.

Whisnand said that Safe Driving Day is observed to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be greatly reduced when motorists and pedestrians fulfill their moral and civic responsibility for safety.

The special day, observed nationally, is sponsored by the president's committee for traffic safety. The goal is for each community to not have a traffic accident during the 24-hour period. Thirty days of public educational activity will precede the day. Whisnand is enlisting the cooperation of Travis Steele, chief of police, and other local officers in urging safe driving during that day. Ross Kemp, district safety officer for the department of Public Safety, will assist by coming here for talks before any local groups interested, Whisnand said.

Whisnand asked every civic group to help by giving emphasis between now and Dec. 1.

Oklahoma Printers Will Publish Paper

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoman and Times printers, who assert they are locked out, said today they will publish a daily 16-page tabloid newspaper.

A spokesman for the AFL International Typographical Union said the newspaper will start in a few days.

The printers claim they were locked out Oct. 12. They have been picketing the Oklahoma Publishing Co. The company termed the printers' action a strike.

The company is continuing to publish and is hiring replacements.

Union officials said the paper is expected to have a circulation of 25,000.

Elmer Brown, an official with Unitype Corp. was reported enroute from Florida to manage the paper. Unitype Corp. publishes more than a dozen "strike papers" throughout the country were printers are involved in labor disputes.

Dean Acheson Blasts Dulles For Policies

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson has emerged from a long self-imposed political silence to tab his party superior to the Republicans in foreign policy leadership. He blasted GOP Secretary of State Dulles.

Acheson declared that Dulles has displayed "almost a classic illustration of the way a leader among free nations should not proceed."

Acheson's attack came almost simultaneously with a warning from another former Democratic secretary of state, James F. Byrnes, that the time has come to halt political attacks on the nation's diplomats. The views of both were set forth in magazine articles Acheson writing in Harper's and Byrnes in Collier's.

Said Byrnes:

"If the men and women of our diplomatic establishment continue to be the objects of political attacks, of ridicule, neglect and mismanagement, if public confidence is not reinvested in the quality and dedication of their service, the result could be national disaster."

Acheson wrote that the Democratic party has "shown the superior capacity" to lead the country to an intelligent, vigorous foreign policy.

Acheson, secretary under former President Truman, lauded Truman in praising the record of Democratic leadership in foreign policy after World War II.

"The sweep, coherence and energy of all that was done is hard to grasp from a mere catalogue of measures, he said. "It lies, I think, in the boldness, the imaginativeness, the creativeness of the thinking, and perhaps most of all in the sustained will which those in charge maintained and communicated to the country.

"This stemmed straight from President Truman himself."

Divorce Final For Marilyn

NEW YORK (AP)—Marilyn Monroe's divorce from Joe DiMaggio became final today.

There was no sign of reconciliation, though the actress and the former baseball player had seen one another at various times since she obtained the California decree.

Columnist Earl Wilson, in the New York Post, quoted the blonde star as saying "marrying again is the farthest thing from my mind."

He said he asked her whether she had seen DiMaggio since he gave a party for her on her 29th birthday June 1.

"No, at least I haven't made any appointments to see him," Wilson quoted her as saying.

"You mean you've run into him accidentally?"

"I'd rather say 'No comment.'"

"What about your frequent statements that you want marriage and a lot of children?"

"I do, but it's not as simple as that and I don't see any time for that now."

"Do you have anybody you're serious about now."

"No — nobody."

The actress, attending an acting school here, said she intended to live in New York permanently, "and when and if I make any more pictures, I'll just be going back to Hollywood for that period."

Kefauver Backing Denied By Shivers

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Shivers said today the Democratic party has many good presidential possibilities moderate in their political views, including Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio and Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey.

Shivers spoke out at a news conference at which he labelled as "untrue" a story in Reporter magazine asserting he had offered to swing the Texas vote to Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) at the 1952 convention if Kefauver would favor Texas claims to offshore oil lands.

The governor said William Roberts, a Washington attorney and Kefauver backer quoted in the magazine story was either a willing and unmitigated liar or a deliberate and intentional one.

"It just didn't happen," said Shivers of the reported deal at Chicago.

Asked if Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) also fitted the pattern of being the type of moderate he thought the Democrats ought to nominate, Shivers replied:

"He is more moderate than extreme."

Johnson, recovering from a heart attack at his ranch home near Johnson City, has often been mentioned as a "favorite son" presidential possibility or as possible candidate who might win southern support.

Shivers emphasized he was not backing "by name" any pre-convention presidential possibility.

He said he plans a nationwide swing early next spring for a series of talks with Democratic leaders, underlining his statement that his main objective will be to press for nomination of a candidate who is not at either extreme in Democratic thinking.

He said he would talk with Gov. Jim Folsom of Alabama and other Democratic leaders in South, East, Midwest and West in the spring "as the political atmosphere jells a little more."

"The trip will not be to discuss any 'coalition,'" the governor said.

Shivers, who left the party in 1952 to support Dwight Eisenhower after rejecting Adlai Stevenson as the Democratic nominee, hopes to lead what he calls a "moderate" delegation to the national convention next summer.

Asked for comment on a recent statement by Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga) that Lausche would be a "formidable" candidate because of his middle of the road viewpoint, Shivers said:

"I have commented favorably on Gov. Lausche on many occasions. He has an outstanding record as governor.

"If the Democratic party is wise enough to nominate someone of his views, it would be showing great intelligence," Shivers added.

He said he was not singling out any one possibility "by name" for pre-convention support, but seeking only to find a good man with a moderate viewpoint. He then brought in the name of Gov. Meyner as one who fits that description.

"The Democrats have a lot of good men. So do the Republicans." Shivers said. "Both parties owe it to the nation to name the best man, a man without extreme views."

Faure Will Face Third Risky Vote

PARIS, (AP) — Premier Edgar Faure, recent victor in two crucial tests in the National Assembly, today demanded a third and even riskier vote of confidence.

The result could throw him and Foreign Minister Antione Pinay out of office at the very start of the Big Four foreign ministers meeting in Geneva.

Backed into a corner by defeat on two procedural questions, Faure shut off further debate until tomorrow by demanding a vote of confidence. Until the vote tomorrow, the Premier, a master of political maneuvering, had an opportunity to cast about for additional support.

Had a decisive vote been taken this morning, he probably would have been beaten.

The point that the Big Four foreign ministers were starting their meeting in Geneva today seemed to have caused no hesitancy among deputies who want to throw the government out.

It was the same way last week when the Premier asked for a vote of confidence on Algerian policy. He won that one easily 308-254 after the deputies had a weekend for reflection, though on a preliminary procedural question they had defeated him 305-274.

Faure asked for a vote of confidence this time after the deputies voted 289-286 to take up a Socialist resolution refusing their confidence.

Earlier, the Assembly refused 303-275 to give priority to a mild government formula "taking note" of government declarations on its general policies.

Technically, the vote tomorrow will be on this government resolution.

But actually it pits opponents of Faure's plan for a general election in December, at least under present electoral laws, against those in favor.

Faure has proposed to cut short the life of the present Parliament, which normally would continue until next June, in order to eliminate some politics from decisions that have to be made on North Africa.

During the debate orators showered criticism on the government for a series of French misfortunes. These included: the anti-Europeanization vote in the Saar plebiscite; chief of state Bao Dai; the possibility that Mohammed Ben Youssef, anti-French Sultan of Morocco, may soon be back on his throne.

The debate started over a demand for information on what measures the government plans to take to meet the heavy expenses of military operations in North Africa. Finance Minister Pierre Pflimlin, however, painted a rosy picture of French finances and said the deputies need have no fears about tax increases.

More Acres Added To Aransas Refuge

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas got 4,640 more acres for the protection of the nearly extinct whooping crane.

Secretary of Interior McKay said the area includes acreage used by the depleting flock of rare birds during their winter stay. A total of 21 adults were counted during the whooping crane's annual migration south from Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nicholos, 1810 Thirty-ninth Street, are the parents of a daughter, weighing six pounds, four ounces, born 10:51 p.m. yesterday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

One Tavern Piano Still Plunks Away

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—The piano plunked until last midnight in the only tavern whose owner bowed his neck against the sheriff's ban on mixing beer and "live music."

But owner Louie Horaney said ruefully that he was still a shade short on customers since Sheriff Weldon Bailey's deputies started giving him a bad time.

"They run off business," Horaney said.

The sheriff admits there's no law against pianos in taverns but said they attract dope addicts and "jam sessions and live music pose an increased enforcement problem." He told his deputies to do a little close "inspecting" of such places.

The pianos soon were moved out of all places except Louie's Texas

"It isn't the piano I'm fighting for. It doesn't mean that much. The thing is, does a guy have any constitutional rights? What do you think?"

Horaney said he would "sweat it out a little longer and if necessary take legal action" to try to get the sheriff to call off his deputies.

He said last night was the first one in two weeks that they didn't visit him.

"He's been giving me trouble every night," Horaney said.

"When I told him I wouldn't take out the piano, he said, 'Well, I'm going to have four or five deputies out here every night and run off all your customers.'

"Maybe it's because I'm from Oklahoma. Used to run a place at Midwest City, near Oklahoma City, until about a year and a half ago.

"The sheriff told me he didn't like Oakies.

"They ought to get an ordinance passed against it and I'd take my piano out right away."

Horaney said the sheriff also said he was having to crack down on palm readers and fortune tellers.

"We don't want any of them around either," he quoted the sheriff as saying.

Texas Draft Call Is Issued Today

AUSTIN (AP)—A draft call for 873 Texans for the Army and Navy came today from Lt. Col. Morris Schwartz, state selective service director.

That is Texas' share of a national quota of 18,000 men, 10,000 for the Navy and 8,000 for the Army. It compares with a Texas call of 1,006 for November and this month's quota of 534.

Except for delinquents and volunteers, men 21 or older on Dec. 1 will fill the quota.

Local board quotas will be mailed about Nov. 1. There will be no state quota for pre-induction physical-mental examinations in December.

Delivery of men for the December call will be made Dec. 1-10.

Jewell Custer Fined On Driving Charge

Jewell R. Custer was fined $50 plus costs in county court this morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Arthur Blanchard, local attorney, presided as temporary judge, elected by members of the bar, in the absence of County Judge Edgar Taylor.

Police Get Jackpot

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Police will hit the jackpot twice — once when they break up 666 confiscated slot machines and again when the scrap is sold to a metal dealer. Judge Joseph P. Godenough of Kenton Circuit said after court costs are paid, money from the salvage would be placed in the police and firemen's pension fund.

Hope Growing Dim For Missing Group

ANAHUAC (AP)—Hope was virtually abandoned today for four members of a Dayton family lost in East Galveston bay since Sunday. The body of one was recovered.

The body was believed to be that of Alfred Smith Jr., 11. Other members of the oyster hunting party were the father, Alfred Smith Sr., 45, and two brothers, Dorsey, 10, and Ictor 9.

The four had been missing since their hommade, 8-foot skiff capsized. The skiff was found Tuesday.

Hazard Is Created By Well Blow Out

KAPLAN, La. (AP)—An oil well drilled to 11,188 feet blew out yesterday, burst into flames and created a hazard to a nearby large tank filled with butane gas.

The well, about 10 miles southeast of here, was near completion only a few hours of work remained. Drillers said tests indicated it had a large showing of oil.

The derrick and other equipment were destroyed by the blaze.

Fire-fighting experts were called to put out the fire.

Ike To Meet With Two Of Aides Today

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower called two aides to his hospital room today for a start on the January State of the Union message outlining his legislative program to Congress.

The recuperating President quite likely won't be back at his White House desk on a real working basis until about the time the annual message goes to the lawmakers.

But associates say he is eager to get the ball rolling on a preliminary draft.

For his first conference looking toward that draft, he called in retired Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons, who is in charge of White House liaison with members of Congress, and Kevin McKann his chief speech writer.

They will get his ideas on the legislative program at a brief meeting, then return to Washington to begin actual writing of the message.

Aides said it still is too early to tell whether Eisenhower will be able to deliver the lengthy message in person.

The President's recovery has progressed to a point where he now is doing more and more unassisted walking from his bed to an easy chair and back again in his room at Fitzsimons Army Hospital.

It wasn't until last night that anyone really close to the President ventured to discuss in public the possibility that he may not be a candidate next year.

Addressing a Republican rally in his home New Jersey county of Somerset, Benrard M. Shanley, Eisenhower's appointment secretary and former special counsel, said the President "knows he will get well."

MADAME PATRAS
. . . here for visit

French Mother of Snyder Woman Is Here For Visit

In September, Dr. and Mrs. John Y. Battenfield, drove to New York to meet the U. S. S. Constitution, which brought Madame Emilie Patras, Mrs. Battenfield's mother, from her home in Cannes, France, for her first visit to the United States.

Before returning to Snyder, the Battenfields took Madame Patras to see Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland, where Dr. Battenfield took his medical training, and to Washington, D. C. and Williamsburg, Virginia.

Since September 28, Madame Patras has veen visiting with the Battenfields here in Snyder, where she plans to stay until spring.

Although Madame Patras speaks no English, and her three grandchildren speak little French, they manage to understand each other by means of gestures and intuition. It won't be long, however, until the children will be able to sing several French songs which their grandmother is teaching them.

Madame Patras' husband, who died in April of this year, was a well known sculptor. Mrs. Battenfield has several of his smaller works with her in Snyder. One of his best known pieces of scripture is large statue of the Virgin Mary, called "Notre Dame de la Paix" which is on a hill overlooking Cannes, the surrounding country and the Mediterranean sea coast. Monsieur Patras, who was a graduate of the school of "Arts et Techniques de Fance" in Paris, was also noted for his talents as an architect. At the time of his death he was working on the plans of a synagogue to be erected in Cannes.

Management Problem

Two factors that played a major part in Southern Democratic defections in 1952 and cost Adlai Stevenson the votes of four states and narrowed normal Democratic margins in the others were the tidelands issue and compulsory fair employment practices.

In Texas and Louisiana at least Stevenson's sponsorship of federal ownership of the tidelands probably was the determining cause of his defeat. Sponsorship of a compulsory federal fair employment practices act was a close second. Both touched a very sore spot with Southerners—state's rights.

Leaders of the NAACP are already beating the 1956 drums for an FEPC, a federal anti-lynch law and a federal anti-polltax law, what time they aren't touring the country as self-appointed assistants of the Supreme Court in enforcing the anti-segregation decision.

FEPC particularly is likely to be pressed for adoption by the Northern wing of the Democratic Party next year, and if a serious attempt is made to ram FEPC, anti-polltax and anti-lynch legislation down Southern throuts at the national convention, there will be the dickens to pay, and another North-South split may develop.

The Republicans are playing it smart. There assembled in Washington yesterday 65 pominent business leaders under the chairmanship of Vice President Nixon. It was sponsored by President Eisenhower's Committee on Government Contracts. Listed as speakers were Secretary of Labor Mitchell, Secretary of Commerce Weeks, and Deputy Secretary of Defense Reuben B. Robertson Jr. Subject: Racial and religious discrimination in employment.

Secretary Mitchell set what might have been the keynote. He declared "it is up . . . to the business men of the nation to solve" the problem of racial and religious discrimination in employment. He said. "if we do not find a solution, somebody else is going to do it for us." He called it a "management problem," which is what industry in general contends. And that holds no comfort for the FEPC advocates.

Preserve The Muscle

A contemporary, discussing what it says is a tendency to hold the defense dollar sacrosanct, speaks of the "defense mechanism psychology" which, it says, would exempt such funds from the general program to economize.

Well, this newspaper pleads guilty to having opposed any crippling raids on the nation's defense setup, and it expects to go on doing so. It agrees that a good deal of fat could be cut out of the military budget without doing any harm, and this should be done ruthlessly, for we need all the defense we can get and every dollar should be made to count.

But we are unalterably opposed to going beyond the fat and cutting muscle. The trouble is, as history proves, that our military budget has always been the first port of call for economizers. It starts with removing the "fat," and soon progresses to the muscle. There is a disposition to emphasize the "waste" involved in maintaining a strong military establishment, and "waste" becomes a sort of stalking-horse catchword to make muscle-cutting more palatable.

A strong defense, as George Washington pointed out 162 years ago, is the best insurance of peace. That is ten times more true in this high-speed age than when Washington said it.

The safety and liberty of our people is not a bargain-counter item.

We keep harping on the danger of reducing our armed strength, in the interest of false economy, because throughout our national history it has been customary to ignore George Washington's warning. That has cost us the needless loss of thousands of lives and untold billions of dollars in the past. If it ever happens again it will cost us our national existence and our boasted American way of life.

We had rather let some fat pass unnoticed than run the risk of cutting muscle, for the muscle involved is our 165,000,000 throats, and everything we hold to be worthwhile.

Sure, ride close herd on the fat, but in the name of God let's not commit the error of pinching necessary defense dollars. That would be fatal.

As far as we are concerned, the dollar that is necessary to give us a reasonable "posture of defense" is sacrosanct. Hands off.

A Little Game From The North Woods

Big Four Ministers Now Making Another Test Of So-Called 'Spirit Of Geneva'

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Pres News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—When the Big Four foreign ministers open their three-week meeting in Geneva Thursday, they will be making another test of the so-called "spirit of Geneva."

But it will not be the final test. It will be just one more test. And it probably will not be very successful although at the end of it the diplomats can be expected to issue some pleasant bulletins about progress of some kind.

If they make any progress it will be an achievement since the three main problems they will discuss at Geneva have been big problems a long time and are not likely of settlement this soon.

The air of optimism could be breathed in easily for a short time after President Eisenhower met at Geneva last July with Premier Bulganin of Russia and the heads of the British and French governments.

The world was astonished that Russia and the West at Geneva could not only get along so pleasantly but that they could get along at all. At Geneva all sides expressed pious hopes and peaceful intentions.

But, when it was boiled down, all that happened at Geneva was talk. Any concrete results of the meeting there had to be shown by deeds later. The Eisenhower administration, as it faced tests of the Geneva spirit, began to put a damper on optimism.

The first test came early in the fall at the United Nations when the United States and Russia had their first chance, since Geneva, to discuss publicly the President's sensational aerial inspection proposal made at Geneva.

In the U. N. the United States and Russia got nowhere. Now comes the second test when Secretary of State Dulles meets this week at Geneva with Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov and the foreign ministers of Britain and France.

Eisenhower and the other three members of the Big Four had agreed their foreign ministers would meet at this time to discuss these three main problems:

(1) German unification and European security; (2) disarmament; (3) improving relations between the West and Russia in trade and exchange of visitors.

Almost since the end of World War II the West and Russia have not been able to agree on the unification of Germany. Russia is expected again to balk at Western unification proposals, for various reasons.

For example: it doesn't want a united Germany in a military alliance with the West but West Germany is already in such an alliance. If the West Germans and Communist-run. East Germans voted now on unification and choosing a single government the victory almost surely would go to a non-Communist government which would be allied with the West.

From the Russian viewpoint there seems no reason to hurry on this one. On the contrary, by holding out the bait of a united Germany if the Germans agree to break loose from the West, the Russians can hope at least to damage, if not break up, the Western Allies now united in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

It seems impossible that the West and Russia in the short time since the Big Four meeting in Geneva could agree on a European security organization that would satisfy the Russians, if they want to be satisfied.

At Geneva, Eisenhower suggested this country and Rusia exchange blueprints on their military establishments and permit each other to check on those establishments from the air.

The Eisenhower administration says this is a plan that should be preliminary to any agreements on disarmament. The Rusians want to talk about general disarmament. This whole business is up in the air, unlikely to be solved at Geneva.

As for improving relations between the West and Russia, perhaps some minor agreements can be made if the foreign ministers ever have time to discuss this problem. The other two problems may take all their time.

Bare Spots Keep Appearing In Crusade For Clothing

By INEZ ROBB

This nation is blessed with a lot of high - minded political columnists, including Miss Doris Fleeson and the Messrs. Joe Alsop, Marquis Childs, Roscoe Drummond and Walter Lippmann, who devote their lives to trying to straighten out national and international affairs, nail down the world peace and make us all happy as kings.

Compared with my program for world betterment, theirs is a leadpipe cinch. My friends are dedicated to improving the dignity of man; I to improvement of the dignity of women by getting the creatures out of slacks, on the provable theory that women in slacks look like the back-end of hacks.

And now slacks have been whacked off into what are known as "Bermuda shorts," so that the view of knobby knees from the front are a match for the hack in the back! Well! This situation, I presume, is best defined by the legal phrase, "compounding the felony".

It's a tough fight, Mom, and I am happy to have some support from the University of Syracuse at Syracuse, N.Y. There the Women's Student Government Standards Council has just proscribed Bermuda shorts "in classrooms, public vehicles, administration and faculty offices, university buildings, and in downtown Syracuse."

When you are fighting a battle royal, any help is welcome. And the decision of the Women's Council is a victory, all right. But, If I am forced to tell the truth, It is at best a Phyrric victory.

This does not mean that I am going to toss in the sponge. I doubt very much that old King Canute threw in the towel merely because he had a little trouble making the sea stand still. He probably went on commanding the waves to recede just to save face, but he must have known that he was licked.

There probably will come a day when I look back upon the time women wore Bermuda shorts as the good old days, for it is only a matter of time — and it is far later than we think — when the whole Western world will be nudist.

The bikini bathing suit, that clout no bigger than the hand of a man (and not a very big man, either), at the time of its introduction should have been recognized for what it was: a clear omen of man's future on the half shell. (Man had long before discarded the top two-thirds of his bathing suit.)

Even though the human form divine is no great shakes in many instances, men and women tend to wear less and less with every passing year. Even though I am an old-fashioned woman who sticks to skirts on the theory that women are architecturally unsuited to exterior pants, I am the first to realize that I only wear one-fourth the clothing my grandmothers adorned themselves with and only half as much as encased my mother.

Like it or lump it, we are rapidly moving into an era of nudism in warm weather. Before long, wardrobes will consist solely of winter wear, and as little of that as possible.

The Women's Council at Syracuse University and I are fighting a lost cause. The only consolation is that lost causes are always romantic and that historical novelists, a long-winded lot, love us.

U. S. Court Of Claims, With Texan At Its Head, Celebrating Its 100th Anniversary

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Court of Claims, with a Texan at its helm, is marking its 100th anniversary this year.

Chief Judge Marvin Jones, 69, once representative from the Panhandle, presided at ceremonies just held observing the centennial of the court. Chief Justice Earl Warren was among those taking part.

The quiet-speaking former Amarillo lawyer, who served as wartime flood administrator (He took leave of his court position at President Roosevelt's request), summed up the history of the judicial group over which he presides.

When created in 1855, the court consisted of only three judges, and they acted only in an advisory capacity to Congress. The lawmakers then would have to make the final decision whether to pay claimants. Later two judges were added and the court was given the power to determine how much should be paid.

It was estimated that during the past century almost a billion dollars in claims have been paid out to those suing the government. There have been a total of 108,000 cases. Payments during the past 30 years have amounted to $273,629,788.

There is great variety in the claims filed, said Jones. He once handed down a decision involving millions of dollars in freight charges for hauling jeeps on the railroads. What rate was to be charged? The outcome hinged on whether a jeep was a passenger vehicle or a truck. He caled it a passenger vehicle.

Before the court come claims of contractors wanting payments for unexpected costs in construction projects, of individual civil service employes contending the government has illegally held back some of their salary, and a thousand other kinds of complaints.

Around the capital:

Two other old time Texans here, who once served in the House with Jones, are on the U. S. tax court.

Judge Eugene, Black, 76, who hailed from East Texas near Clarksville, was eligible for retirement at full pay more than a year ago. He likes the job so he goes down to his office daily and the taxpayers are that much ahead. He does not get a cent of retired pay as long as he is on the active pay roll.

Land Bought To Protect Mount Vernon's Beauty

By MARGARET KERNODLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R.-Ohio) has purchased nearly 500 acres of land along the Potomac to protect the beauty of Mount Vernon.

She bought the land independently of the Mount Vernon Ladies Assn., of which she is vice regent for Ohio. "It was another of her patriotic gestures," said some of the other vice regents.

And not a bit too soon did she buy it, said some observers of the ever-growing tourist business and spread of homes in and about the George Washington plantation.

The tract bought by Mrs. Bolton includes 485 acres in Princes Georges and Charles counties, Maryland, directly opposite the 475 acres of Mt. Vernon.

When Washington died in 1799 Mt. Vernon encompassed 8,000 acres of field and woods, including five smaller farms.

In 1858, when the Mount Vernon Ladies Assn. acquired the land from John Austine Washington, a great-great-grandnephew of George Washington, it signed a contract for 200 acres at $200,000. It costs more than that now to maintain the estate for a year. Income frm the estate totals about $375,000 annually.

It took Ann Pamela Cunningham of Laurens, S.C., five years to get enough funds from Americans throughout the country to save Mount Vernon from ruins.

Congress had refused to purchase what was left of the vast plantation to which Washingtons had held title since 1674 and which changed its name from Hunting Creek plantation to Mount Vernon when Lawrence, elder half-brother of George Washington, inherited it.

There is already talk of the possibility of the Bolton purchase becoming a park.

Other members of the Mount Vernon Ladies Assn. revealed that Mrs. Bolton has wanted to buy this land a long time.

"Certainly this land will never be used except for landscape," said Mrs. Horace Van Deventer who has been vice regent from Tennessee for 30 years.

Charles C. Wall, resident superintendent of Mount Vernon, said, "Mrs. Bolton's acquistion of the Bliss property opposite Mount Vernon is a 'holding operation to forstall adverse development of commercial or domestic interest on the land.' "

He hinted the land may be left just as it is with NO further development.

Big Market Still Open For Consumer Durables

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Consumer durables saturation—three big words that mean: How many more autos, TV sets, kitchen and laundry appliances can and will the American people buy?

The stock of durable goods they now own, is the largest in history. At present they are spending 35 billion dollars a year for more.

Some economists fear that the saturation point may be near. They argue that most folk who need these things have them by now. But economists at the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York point out that "The American consumer, when his income rises, seems to possess an almost limitless capacity to use it." In the bank's quarterly review of business they also observe that producers are equally resourceful in inventing new and improved appliances and other products with which to tempt the consumer.

Both the number of families already possessing these gadgets and the amount being spent a year for more is impressive.

About 70 per cent of all American families own an automobile, and 12 per cent of these own more than one. At the moment Americans are spending 16½ billion dollars a year in buying cars.

The housewife is now spending more than four billion dollars a year on kitchen and household appliances and two billion for furniture.

But the bank economists say this doesn't mean that the market for these goods is drying up. They note that in 1954 two thirds of all refrigerator sales were for replacement. And 83 per cent of new car buyers traded in an old car.

Economists at the First National City Bank of New York, estimate there are around six million prewar cars on the roads—candidates for scrapping.)

The Chase Manhattan men also point to new fields far from the saturation point: clothes dryers and airconditioners are owned by only four percent of our families, and dishwashers by three per cent.

The Vacuum Cleaner Manufacturers' Assn. notes today in Cleveland that factory sales of this product are braking records this fall. In September sales ran 29 per cent higher than the year before, and for the first nine months of this year sales topped the like period of 1954 by 23 per cent.

The Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Assn.'s president, H. Leslie Hoffman, predicts that eight million TV sets will be turned out this year for a new record.

Give Americans more spending money and offer them new or better gadgets—and you've got yourself a sale.

Things You Can Learn By Opening The Morning Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open the morning mail:

That more than 1,200,000 Americans are blind in one eye.

That, while the U. S. dollar may not be worth 100 cents, it has been worth a lot less many times in the past than it is now. In 1787, the year the American Constitution was drafted, national credit was down to zero and a dollar was worth just two cents.

That adults average three colds a year, but children have nearly twice that many. Don't let the little runny-nosed monsters near you. Carry an umbrella, if necessary, to fend them off.)

That, on the other hand, tests have shown you can kiss your sweetheart when she has a cold—and the odds are nine to one you won't catch a cold yourself.

That Japan's cement industry is now fifth largest in the world. Banzai!

That one way to help hold down your weight is to eat more slowly. This enables your blood sugar to rise and satisfy your hungry feeling before you finish your plate and start reaching for a second helping.

That a Scottish book firm which has published nearly 2,500,000 copies of the classics reports the all-time favorite is "David Copperfield," by Charles Dickens. Next in popularity is "Pride and Prejudice," by Jane Austen.

That while America needs more trees, the world itself still has more than enough timber to supply its present population. As a matter of fact, only a third of the earth's wooded areas are now being exploited.

That more than 100 American newspapers now run weekly fashion columns for men telling them how to dress well. Wonder who reads them most—wives or husbands?

That the West Coast film colony is serving as the guinea pig for the introduction of a new drink called "The Matador." The recipe: a jigger of tequila, two jiggers of pineapple, a squeeze of lime, and crushed ice. Stir like crazy, then serve, Chico.

That our revolutionary forebears liked a drink called "The Stone Fence"—made of cider and applejack.

Do-It-Yourself

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Drahn Jones, city public works director, and Henry Lewis, street superintendent, turned skin divers to inspect underwater sections of a pier. A professional diver would have charged $35 an hour and they said the city didn't have that kind of folding money to lay out.

RADIO-TV REPORT

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Let me sing you the ballad of "Highway Patrol." This is another of those film packages "based on actual experiences of highway patrol officers in 48 states" (it says here).

It's popping up at various times all over the country and a couple of nights ago it popped up on NBC-TV's New York outlet. Its tires screamed in at 7 p.m. just as several hundred thousand kids were finishing supper and clutching for the TV set.

See, there's this con who escapes from the pen with another con, but the other con is wounded so this con slugs him on the back of the head an' shakes him. He gets some clothes an' dough from his contact an' steals a car.

We cut to highway patrol headquarters an' there's Broderick Crawford, the chief, tellin' his guys what a smart tough cookie this con is an' settin' up roadblocks by radio an' stuff. This con sure is an' see he has a flat an' gets it an' see he has a flat an' get fixed an' slugs the guy who fixed it an' gets away.

This is one smart con because he knows the roads are blocked an' he stops his car by the road an' takes out the car jack an' goes about 50 feet into the bushes. Along comes a highway patrol car an' out gets this young trooper with his .38 drawn. Gee, these cops are dumb. He turns his back to where the con is an' the con throws the jack an' hits him in the back of the head an' maybe killed him. What a wing on that con.

See, the con puts on the trooper's uniform an' tears off in the police car with patrol headquarters tryin' to contact their man on the short wave an' the con is smart enough to know they'll in'ercept him so he does a smart thing. He stops a school bus with two little kids in it an' warns the driver he'll blow his brains out if he squeals.

So they come to a roadblock. A cop gets on the bus an' the kids an' the driver talk 'em through the block. Gee, these cops are dumb. See, they get down the road a way an' the con makes the driver turn off an' stop. He slugs the driver on the back of the head but he don't slug the li'l kids. See, he's really sort of kind-hearted, I guess, but everybody's against him an' everything.

Anyhow he puts on the driver's clothes an' drives the bus to this restaurant where he's arranged to meet his contact. All this time, see, you see Crawford figurin' what this guy's doin', but always one step behind him. Crawford is a smart cop, though maybe not as smart as the con.

Anyway Crawford tears up to the restaurant an' the con uses his contact for a shield. He's got the drop on Crawford with a .38 an' why he don't let him have it I dunno except maybe then there wouldn't be any more series. So you hear the sirens screamin' an' all of a sudden the con's contact turns chicken an' whirls away. Then Crawford lets the con have it with his .38—ka-pow, ka-pow, ka-pow—sightin' those slugs right into the con. An' the con's body twitches as he falls.

See, after the last commercial Crawford comes on for a second an' says, "Obey the law." Aw, sure. Gee, that was one smart con. Except for that one bad break that they had to put in there, because the cops always gotta win in these things, the con would've gotten away to the city.

I wonder what's gonna happen next week.

LITERARY GUIDEPOST

ANDERSONVILLE. By MacKinlay Kantor. World.

Ira Claffey, whose three sons have given their lives for the sake of the Confederacy, or at least for beloved Georgia, is out looking over his plantation in the fall of 1863 when he runs into surveyors hunting a place for a prison camp. They choose a site near Anderson; early in 1864 the government builds a double stockade; it is named Andersonville; and damnyakees begin arriving by the tatered thousands.

It is this tragic page of history which Kantor turns into a novel—800 pages of novel.

Henry Wirz is the immediate commander, under the Confederacy's prison supervisor, Gen. Winder. Both Winder and Wirz, who was executed for his inhumanities, wished their luckless prisoners ill. They were actually short on supplies, but the camp was laid out stupidly or criminally, says Kantor, brutally exposed to the elements; there was too little water, too much filth, too few medicines, too much callousness and cruelty.

All the southerners were not bad; there are Claffey, daughter Lucy, suitor Elkins, the minister. All the northerners are not good; Willie Collins is chief of the thugs who terrorize their fellow prisoners until vigilantes are organized. All the men aren't suffering and fighting and dying all the time, either—there's the romance of Lucy, and there's the busy widow Tebbs.

Of Kantor's 30 books, including some others about the Civil War, this is the biggest and best I have read. Andersonville ran on for horrible months and months, so "Andersonville" is long and grim and gory. Kantor gets the big things and the little—drenching a mule, or planting cucumers, taking a half-wit teen-ager by force, or hanging a cutthroat.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By PUCK FRANCIS

THERE'S NO IFS AND ANDS and buts about it, the Snyder Tiger defense will get its most severest test come Friday night when the Sweetwater Mustangs come to town.

The Tiger defense, as you know, hasn't allowed a point scored by the opposition since District 1-AAA play began.

In the Mustangs, though, the Nolan Countians have a high-geared offense that will be hard to stop and to say the Tigers' unscored on record will be in danger is only putting it mildly.

Sweetwater has a coupla fellers who have combined for more yardage than the Tigers' 1-2 punch in the ball carrying department, Joe Baxter and Jack Spikes.

Bobby Hartgraves and Harold Hobbs of the Mustangs have combined their efforts for 1,155 yards this season as compared to 1,054 gained by Baxter and Spikes.

Sweetwater, however, has played six games while the Tigers have played only five.

Hartgraves is the top gainer for the Mustangs with 638 yards on 58 carries for a 6.7 yards per carry. Hobbs has toted the mail 75 times for 527 yards, an average of 7.0 yards per carry.

Baxter is the Tigers' leading rusher with 608 yards on 58 carries for a 10.4 average with Spikes running second with 446 yards on 60 carries for a 7.4 average.

Tiger, Pony Backs Among Best In State

In the final analysis, the Tiger duo has a slightly better average-per carry than does the Mustang pair. Baxter and Spikes have gained 1,054 yards in 118 carries for an 8.9 average to the Hartgraves-Hobbs combine of 1,155 on 169 totes for 6.2 average.

Anyway you look at it, fans attending Friday night's District 1-AAA headliner here will be seeing four of the top running backs in the state.

With the zero hour nearing for the vital meeting Friday night of the Tigers and Mustangs, the pre-game hullabaloo will likely reach its peak tonight both here and at Sweetwater.

Bon-fires will be lit here and at Sweetwater tonight as the students and adult fans of the two communities hoop it up in getting ready for the Friday clash.

Recalling our experience in high school and college, bon fires can really boost one's enthusiasm for an upcoming football game. It isn't often that both competing schools hold a bon fire ceremony before the game such as is being done by Snyder and Sweetwater schools tonight.

With this in mind, the tension for tomorrow's game is sure to be at a very high pitch, to say the least.

Treat In Store For Local Sports Fans

Snyder football fans have a tremendous treat in store for them tonight. A doubleheader grid attraction is on tap at Tiger Stadium tonight with junior high teams of Snyder and Lamesa furnishing the action.

The bon fire deal won't come off until after the football twinbill so you fans can take in both attractions.

This is the last home appearance of the two junior high clubs this season and these fine group of boys certainly deserve a good attendance tonight.

They're the "Tigers of tomorrow" and if you haven't seen them in action this season, you'll be surprised of the caliber of football the boys play.

Tiger-Mustang Tilt Tops Triple-A Gard

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
The Associated Press

Important games dot the Texas schoolboy football schedule this this week. The field plunges into the battle for district championships.

Efforts of 55 schools to remain unbeaten are virtually pushed from the picture as the emphasis goes on conference play. Some districts have games that will practically decide titles although there is still a month to go.

Mighty Abilene, champion of Class AAAA and heavily favored to repeat, moves against Amarillo in a District 1 game. The Eagles are the only team undefeated in conference play.

Phillips, kingpin of Class AA, meets an unbeaten team in a District 1 clash but the Black Hawks are expected to wade through without trouble, as usual. The game is with Perryton, a team with no defeats but two ties.

Waco plays at Tyler in the headline game of AAAA. It may be the toughest test of the season for the high-flying undefeated, untied Tyler outfit.

Class AAA features two conference games—Sweetwater at Snyder in District 1, matching two of the leaders, and Beaumont French at Port Neches in District 6. This game also sends district leaders against each other.

Plenty of important conference contests are on in Class AA. The main ones are Colorado City at Stamford in District 4, Tahoka at Abernathy in 5, Winters at Brady in 7, Mineral Wells at Breckenridge in 8, Diamond Hill at Brewer in 9, Bonham at Commerce in 13, Daingerfield at Linden in 14, Belton at Georgetown in 21, Boling at Bay City in 25, Lamarque at Angleton in 27, Floresville at Kenedy in 30 and Edcouch at Weslaco in 32. All are crucial district battles.

Class A headlines Ranger at Cross Plains in District 7, Granbury at Clifton in 11, Rockwall at Richardson in 12, Quitman at Lindale in 15, Madisonville at Alto in 18, Hearne at Granger in 22, Bandera at Boerne in 28 and Rockport at Hebbronville in 31.

This board is composed of Bill Rives of the Dallas News, Clark Nealon of the Houston Post, Dave ampbell of the Waco News-Tribune, Lorin McMullen of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Mark Batterson of the Austin American.

Others on the All-America list are:

Backs—John Roach, SMU, Chuck Curtis, TC; George Walker, Arkansas; John Grow, A&M.

Bantam Title On Line

DALLAS (AP)—The vacant bantamweight championship of Texas is expected to be filled tonight in a 12-round bout between Henry Miramontes and Buddy Baggett.

Tigers Taper Off Drills

Only a light drill today stands between the Snyder Tigers and tomorrow night's all - important clash with the Sweetwater Mustangs at Tiger Stadium.

The Bengals held their final full-scale drill yesterday before tomorrow night's confab.

Tiger coach John Conley reported this morning that no further injuries showed up in yesterday's session and barring mishap between now and game time, the Bengals will be in near perfect physical condition.

Only Bud Morgan, reserve halfback, is devinitely out of tomorrow's game. Morgan has a broken hand and will be lost to the team for at least two or three weeks.

Alan Snead, starting halfback who missed last week's game at Plainview, with an injured shoulder took part in yesterday's drill and came through in good shape.

While still bothered with the injury, Snead is expected to be in in the starting lineup tomorrow night.

Tomorrow's game is one of the headline attractions n the school boy slate over the state. The District 1-AAA lead is at stake in the game.

The Tigers are currently setting the pace in 1-AAA with a 3-0 record while Sweetwater is a close second with three wins and a tie. A win for the Mustangs tomorrow would put them on top in the standings.

The only blemish on the Mustang district record is 14-14 tie with Levelland. That tie game is also the only blemish on Levelland's record.

Snyder and Sweetwater have met only two common opponents. By comparitive scores, the Mustangs hold the edge. Both the Tigers and Mustangs defeated Monterey of Lubbock by 27 points, Snyder defeating the Lubbock team by 27-0 and Sweetwater by 34-7.

But against the other common foe—Vernon—the Tigers won over the Lions by 22 points while Sweetwater clipped the Vernon club by 34 points. Snyder deafted Vernon, 22-0, and Sweetwater won by 41-7 over the Lions.

In today's drill, Coach Conley said ball handling would get plenty of attention.

Conley is hoping to avoid the fumbleitis attack that struck the Bengals against Plainview last week when the Tigers lost the ball six times via fumbles.

L-League Meeting Tonight Postponed

The Little League meeting orginally set tonight has been postponed, according to Speedy Moffett, Little League director.

The meeting has been re-set for next Monday at 7:30 at the high school shop building.

Cotton Bowl Ducats

DALLAS (AP) — Applications for tickets to the Cotton Bowl football game that arrive tomorrow will be accepted, Felix R. McKnight, president of the bowl, said today.

TEMPORARY BLEACHERS BEING ERECTED FOR GAME

Temporary bleachers will be erected at Tiger Stadium to take care of the overflow crowd that is expected for the Snyder Tiger-Sweetwater Mustang vital District 1-AAA meeting.

A heavy advance sale of tickets for tomorrow's game sent Snyder school officials scurrying to find temporary bleachers to handle the crowd.

Officials here had not planned early in the week to erect extra bleachers but yesterday school business manager, Art Nicholas, said some bleachers had been located and will be erected for the game.

All the reserve seat tickets for the game have long been gone with only general admission tickets remaining. The general admission tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce. They will remain on sale there until noon tomorrow.

The advantage of fans getting the general admission tickets is that they won't have to stand in line at the gate tomorrow night. Sections on each end of the West side stadium is available to general admission ticket holders. These sections will be filled by the first come, first served.

Nicholas said that gates will be opened at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Fans with general admission tickets bought in advance, of course, will get the jump in getting a good seat on those who will be buying tickets at the gate.

The general admission tickets are selling at $1 per ticket.

Bon-Fire Set Here Tonight

Snyder Tiger boosters will stage a bon-fire and pep rally tonight in preparation for the Tiger-Sweetwater game here tomorrow night.

The bon-fire will be held just east of the tennis courts in Towle Park.

The bon-fire ceremony will come off immediately following the Junior High football games between Snyder and Lamesa at Tiger Stadium. The estimated time of the bon-fire and pep rally is 9 p.m.

All Tiger fans are invited to attend.

Twinbill Ends Jr. Hi Home Slate Tonight

Snyder Junior High's two football teams will play their last game before the home folk tonight when they go against Lamesa at Tiger Stadium.

It will be the final home appearance for both the 7th and 8th grade teams. After tonight's action, each team has one more game on tap, it at Big Spring next week.

The 7th grade teams of Snyder and Lamesa will open tonight's doubleheader, starting at 6:30. The 8th grade teams will take the field immediately following the 7th grade encounter.

Coach Ace Amos of the 8th graders and Bill Hartsfield of the 7th graders put their charges through their final paces yesterday prior to tonight's home finale.

The 8th graders will be gunning for their seventh straight win this season against no defeats in tonight's tilt. The 7th graders have registered five wins in six starts.

Both Snyder teams hold a win already over tonight's foes. In the first round of the double round-robin, Snyder 8th defeated Lamesa, 19-0, and the local 7th graders won by 13-6.

But, as both coaches pointed out in their weekly address to the Quarterback Club Tuesday night, their games with Lamesa were hard fought and both teams were extended to win. The 7th graders, in fact, won their game from Lamesa in the last five seconds.

Bill Shoemake, regular 8th grade tackle, may not see action tonight due to an injury. Shoemake injured his back in a gymnasium accident yesterday and it's doubtful he'll be ready for duty tonight.

One of their six wins to date was a 19-0 decision over Lamesa in a game played here Sept. 29.

The Snyder Frosh eleven has rolled up 131 points in its six games to 39 for the opposition.

Oklahoma Schoolboy Gridder Dies In Game

MIDWEST CITY, Okla. (AP) — A heart attack was believed to have caused the death of a 14-year-old junior high school football player during a game here Tuesday night.

Monroe Garland, a 190-pound tackle on the Putnam City team, collapsed and died in a huddle after four minutes of play.

An examination disclosed no injuries.

"To the best of our knowledge he was in the best of health," said Joe Garrison, Putnam City coach.

OU Partly Guilty For Baylor's Reprimand

WACO (AP)—An NCAA investigation of Oklahoma's athletic recruiting practices was the indirect cause of Baylor being reprimanded for its recruiting practices, Sports Editor Dave Campbell of the Waco News-Tribune says.

The NCAA placed Oklahoma on probation. Its recruiting of Jerry Tubbs of Breckenridge was one of the cases investigated by the NCAA, Campbell said.

Tubbs signed a letter of intent in 1953 to go to Baylor but later went to Oklahoma.

West Va. Player Lineman Of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bruce Bosley, West Virginia tackle once described by his coach, Art Lewis, as "the man I'd most hate to meet in a dark alley" was selected as The Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

Bosley, a 225-pound senior from Greenbank, W.Va. earned the award for his superlative play last Saturday that helped the seventh-ranked Mountaineers overpower an inspired Penn State aggregation 21-7.

Big Bruce played a tremendous game in the second half as the Mountaineers came from behind to beat the Nittany Lions. He was constantly breaking through and dumping State's backs for losses.

John Linnemanstons of Marquette made 17 tackles and 2 assists as the Warriors held Boston College to a 13-13 tie. He blocked the conversion attempt that would have given BC a victory.

Tom Powell of Colgate led the line play that gave Colgate a 7-0 upset victory over Yale. Charlie Gibbons did the same for Rhode Island as the Rhodies surprised Brown 19-7. Fred Robinson of Washington played a big game in a 7-7 tie with Stanford and Bob Pollock of Pitt was equally effective as the Pathers upset Duke 26-7.

Ousted Baylor Stars Deny Charge By Coach Sauer

HOUSTON (AP)—Two more expelled Baylor football players joined guard Dan Miller in protesting the discipline move by Coach George Sauer which dropped them from squad and school.

Jimmy Davenport, quarterback from Ballinger, and Jimmy Taylor, center from Clyde, told the Houston Chronicle today they agreed with Miller's comment that "We got a dirty, rotten deal."

Miller was quoted as saying "Coach Sauer couldn't prove a thing on us. I am not bitter and I speak only for myself. Some people want to get me a lawyer and prove my innocence, but I just don't want to go into that."

Davenport denied he had been out until 2:30 a.m. or that he had been in a night club as the charges read.

"I was out until about 11 p.m.," he said, "and I sure wasn't in any night club. This thing is not half as bad as they say."

Sauer told the Chronicle he wished the issue could die without so much publicity, but that "I do have the proof. We checked it out and I have the evidence. I am afraid the boys are mistaken in their statements."

Davenport backed Miller in protesting the method by which the dismissal was announced. He said: "I was standing in the hall outside Coach Sauer's office. A student came by and said he was sorry I had been kicked off the team. I didn't know what he was talking about. Then this student said he had heard it on the radio."

Miller had previously said he did not know of the move until he read it in the paper.

All three players said they admitted being out. Although they did not admit being in a night club as previously reported in some of the newspapers."

"The boys were notified of the action. Our sports publicity director was attending the conference and after the decision had been reached, and only after, did he call the papers and radio stations."

The other two expelled players, Dugan Pearce and Paul Caver were not available for comment.

Miller said that the coach had accused the players of being in a night club at 2:30 a.m. on the morning of the Aggie game.

"There is no Texas night club open at 2:30 a.m.," Miller said. "Coach Sauer couldn't prove a thing on us. I wish he would do so, if he can. The coach said that a freshman had called him to report that we were there. The coach would not reveal the name of the freshman."

At Waco, Sauer could not be reached immediately for comment.

Miller said he wished to enter a public denial that he earlier had admitted guilt.

"I had been sick with the flu and had taken penicillin shots. That's why I got sick and couldn't play the last half. The Aggies did better in the last half than they did in the first half," he continued.

Miller said he was not notified of the expulsion action until the announcement was made to the newspapers.

"Coach Sauer knew I had the flu. He could have asked any of the other other coaches," Miller said.

It's Definite Now; Austin In Texas Loop

AUSTIN (AP)—Austin was back in the Texas League today after a 41-year absence, replacing long-ailing Beaumont.

The faltering Beaumont franchise was moved last night. League President Dick Butler said all details had been worked out to permit the transfer.

Allen Russell, owner of the Beaumont franchise, brought the club here when an Austin group headed by Mayor Tom Miller guaranteed an attendance of 175,000. Beaumont drew only 60,000.

The Texas League also paid the Big State League $5,000 damages for taking one of its members and agreed to obtain working agreements for the Class B Big State League clubs.

This was not a legal obligation, Butler said, but the Texas League is doing it as a moral obligation to insure operation of the Big State loop next year.

"The help of the Big State League made it easy for us to obtain territorial rights to Austin," Butler said.

One such agreement already has been obtained, Butler said, but he would not name the club. He did say it was not a major league club.

Russell said he had 24 players and his manager will be Connie Ryan, former big league player who managed Corpus Christi last season.

Miller, who headed a group of more than 40 wanting the franchise here, said Austin people would support a Texas League club.

Austin's club in the Big State League was operated by E. P. Knebel, who sold the franchise to Russell for a token $1 and the park for $50,000. Knebel lost heavily on the club last season when it finished last.

Russell said his son, Gene, would become his assistant when he leaves military service soon.

The Texas League was organized at Austin by John McCloskey in 1888. Austin was a charter member and was in the league off and on until 1914. In the 1914 season Austin set the all-time record for consecutive losses, dropping 31 games.

Harvest Of Foods Is Served To Those Large Fall Crowds

Whether the occasion is grandfather Jones' birthday or the annual church supper, fall seems to bring extra large crowds together at meal time. Many times the same recipes used year after year grow tiring.

Our food page today is made up entirely of recipes for approximately 50 and 100 servings.

Revenue Post To Be Filled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russell Chase Harrington, a New Englander who rose from truck driver to accounting executive, is expected to become federal internal revenue commissioner about Dec. 1.

The treasury announced that Secretary Humphrey is recommending Harrington's appointment to President Eisenhower. At Denver, presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said the recommendation would be acted on in "a short time."

Humphrey, whose department includes the International Revenue Service, said he anticipates Harrington will take office as the government's top tax collector about Dec. 1.

Harrington, of Province, R. I., will succeed T. Coleman Andrews of Richmond, Va. Andrews is leaving the post the end of this month to return to private business.

In the interim, O. Gordon Delk, deputy revenue commissioner, is to head the service on an acting basis.

She's Wondering

LAKEWOOD, N. J. (AP)—Bouquet or brickbat? A letter from the Lakewood board of education thanking Mrs. Eugene Axelrod for a cake has her wondering. Seems Mrs. Axelrod recently gave the cake to board members for a post-meeting snack. The thank-you letter commends her cooperative spirit—"of which your cake was concrete evidence."

Texas Children Get Bicycles Through Faith

HUMBLE, Tex. (AP) — Two little boys and their sister are getting shiny new bicycles and their baby sister a tricycle because one of them has faith in policemen.

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown — Jerry Wayne, 9; Charles, 12; Janet, 13; and Janie, 3.

Jerry Wayne read that the Roanoke, Va., police warehouse was stacked with unclaimed bikes. He wrote Detective Capt. Kermit E. Allman couldn't he please have one so big brother Charles could carry newspapers and add to the family income. He also told Allman about his sisters.

Illness prevents the father, a disabled veteran, from driving a truck more than part time. Mrs. Brown can't work. They live in a rural community near this south Texas town.

Mrs. Brown has been entering contests for years trying to win money for a bicycle. Jerry Wayne and Charles picked up bottles along the highway to get money for the postage.

Allman wrote Jerry Wayne that he was shipping not one unclaimed bicycle but three new ones and a tricycle for baby Janie this week. They are gifts of the Roanoke Fraternal Order of Police and others.

Allman said he still remembers how badly he wanted a bicycle that his parents were too poor to buy when he was a boy. He finally paid for one at 14 out of a $4-a-week newspaper route.

The night after the letter came, Mrs. Brown said her boy woke her several times to ask if he had been dreaming about it. She's having trouble getting him to go to school because he wants to be home when the bicycles arrive.

Jerry Wayne said he never had any doubts about hearing from Allman "because he's a policeman."

That's what he wrote Allman he wants to be when he grows up.

Protest On Alcohol

HOUSTON (AP)—The Texas Baptist Brotherhood asked Christians everywhere to join in protesting the serving of intoxicants on commercial airliners. It resolved that "this is an evil and offensive practice which endangers the lives of those who travel by air and makes barmaids out of airline stewardesses."

Building Probe Will Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peter A. Strobel, manager of the government's billion-dollar public buildings operation, has strongly denied to House investigators that his New York engineering consultant firm ever profited from his influential official position.

Strobel was recalled for further testimony tomorrow, however, by a House judiciary subcommittee investigating possible conflict of interest between his public role and his 90 per cent partnership in the firm of Strobel & Salzman.

The subcommittee also summoned Joseph B. Moody, counsel for the Public Buildings Service which Strobel heads as $14,800-a-year commissioner in General Services Administration, the government's housekeeping agency.

Hot Dog Standards

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Purchasing officials of 36 states have agreed on standard specifications for the hot dog, as well as for hundreds of other meat products. They adopted the standards at the opening meeting of the National Assn. of State Purchasing officials. All 48 states are expected to follow suit. Standards for the lowly hot dog are set forth in four single-spaced typewritten pages.

Warning Given Against State Budget Experts

AUSTIN — Possible pitfalls in doing business with debt adjustment agencies by persons who think they are "hopelessly" in debt were outlined this week by Charles T. Lux of Austin, executive vice-president of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas.

Lux said such agencies, sometimes called pro-raters or budget plan houses, were numerous in the East and California, but had only recently penetrated into Texas, thus far only in the largest cities.

These firms, operated by persons who pose as "professional budgeting experts," offer to "rehabilitate" people who have found their earnings cannot meet payments for the debts they have incurred, Lux said.

They propose to do this by setting up payment schedules for each debt, budgeting earnings and arranging with creditors to carry the account until the debt is paid off in full.

"This sounds very attractive to a person who is so far in debt he cannot see how he will ever get out," Lux said.

"But what he doesn't realize is that for this advice and service he is charged a fee," he explained. "The fee sometimes ranges as high as 40 per cent of his total indebtedness, and usually no less than 15 per cent," he explained.

"For a debt of say $300, the fee will increase the debt to anywhere from $345 to $420."

What happens then is the "professional budgeting expert" not only takes a large slice of the money that would go toward retirement of the debts, but also piles on a new debt, he said. Thus, instead of keeping a debtor from bankruptcy, he is plunged closer to it.

Experiences in other states show, Lux said, that the debt adjustment agency usually takes out its fee before making any effort to retire a person's debt.

Lux said a few states have laws regulating the operation of debt adjustment companies, among them Minnesota, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Maine and Colorado.

There are no laws in Texas that control their operations, he said.

Lux said the best way a debtor, who is pinched to meet his payments, can meet his bills is to call upon his creditors and explain the situation frankly.

"Before you sign up with anyone or pay a fee, it is wise to contact your creditors and seek their advice," Lux said.

"It will be found that the merchants of Texas as a general rule are an understanding group," he said. They are just as interested as the debtor in seeing that the slate is wiped clean, and usually can make some adjustments that will bring about financial stability.

"The results you get by seeing your creditors are the same as those promised by a profesional pro-rater — and there is no extra charge or fee attached."

Life Sentence Meted Out In Texas Slaying

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Jimmie Lee Baker was convicted of murdering a minister's wife and sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday after the sister of the dead woman told the court, "Two wrongs never made a right."

Mrs. Clyde Forster asked that Baker be spared from the electric chair.

The slain woman was Mrs. Lucille Quarles, 50, beaten to death in her home Feb. 14.

Witnesses quoted Baker as saying he and a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Watson, had planned to kidnap Mrs. Quarles for money but later decided to rob her. Baker led officers to the spot where he had buried the small loot he obtained.

Both Baker and his sister were charged but only the brother indicted.

The defendant was described by his own attorneys as a moron and by prosecutors as a man of low intelligence.

Mrs. Forster, of Signal Mountain, Tenn., told the court:

"My sister was shown no mercy but two wrongs never made a right. I've faced many tragedies in my life but this was my greatest tragedy.

"As a mother and as a sister who re.ed this sister of mine who was killed in cold-blooded murder, I ask you to give this man life imprisonment and may God have mercy on his soul."

After the sentencing, B. F. Baker, Houston retired minister and father of Jimmie Lee, grabbed Mrs. Forster's arm and said, with tears in his eyes, "Thank you, thank you."

"This is 100 per cent better," he told reporters. "I've never believed he was guilty— I still don't believe it. But this is better than death."

Baker originally entered a plea of innocent but changed the plea to guilty yesterday.

Probe Started On Ship Data

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)—A U.S. Navy chief petty officer and a Chinese laundryman were held today in an investigation of the leakage of confidential warship movements to an enterprising laundry.

Several other Navy men were under investigation but are not held, the Navy said.

Charles W. Barlow, Navy chief quartermaster from Charleston, W.VA., "is being held for investigation by Navy authorities for alleged violation of security regulations," the Navy announced.

"The investigation has to do with suspicion of passing classified information concerning ship arrivals to two Chinese laundrymen, who used the information to gain an advantage over their competitors in the ship-to-shore laundry business," it added.

Japanese authorities in Yokohama indicted laundryman Ku Yuan-pin on charges of spying at the huge U.S. Navy base here.

The other laundryman was not identified.

The Yokohama prosecutor's office said Ku had collected information from Navy personnel about operation of the base and movement of U.S. warships.

Japanese authorities said Ku would not be charged with spying but might be cited for failure to register as an alien. They said the two "scores of times" entertained Navy men from the Yokosuka.

Westinghouse Denies Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Westinghouse company has disputed statements that failure of jet engines it manufactured was to blame for accidents which cost the lives of four men testing the Navy's Demon interceptor.

Speaking for the firm, W. W. Smith told a House government operations subcommittee yesterday Westinghouse records "show no instance in which a crash resulting in injury or death of a pilot could be directly attributed to the failure of a J40 engine."

Smith is manager of the Westinghouse Electric Corp.'s aviation gas turbine division at Kansas City.

The subcommittee, hoping to wind up today its inquiry into the Navy's purchase of McDonnell Aircraft Co., F3H Demons powered with Westinghouse J40 engines, recalled Navy and McDonnell officials for questioning at an open hearing.

Subcommittee members have criticized the program as one which cost an estimated 200 million dolars and four pilots' lives without producing a combat-worthy plane. The Navy says it was a calculated risk taken under Korean War pressures which did not work out, but that some valuable knowledge was gained.

DENNIS THE MENACE

"HE'S TIRED, TOO! HE'S BEEN DIGGIN' FOR GOPHERS ALL DAY!"

Gov. Lausche Is Planning To Run Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio said he will run for elective office in 1956, but that he hasn't decided on which one.

He declined again to comment on boosts he has had for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Boarding a plane for Columbus, he told newsmen:

"There are at this time two courses open to me. These are either running for re-election as governor of Ohio or for the United States Senate."

He said "I am going to run for elective office in 1956, but I have not made up my mind as to which one."

Sen. Russell (D—Ga) said yesterday Lausche would be a formidable presidential candidate "because he represents a middle of the road viewpoint in the Democratic party."

Sen. McClellan (D—Ark) said Lausche might easily attract Southern support if a deadlock develops at next August's Democratic convention.

Apparently in reference to these remarks, Lausche said:

"It is a dream of many persons who seem to have a friendly disposition toward me."

Lausche, who had spent three days visiting New York, mentioned other possibilities for the nomination.

He listed Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee; Gov. Averell Harriman of New York; Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan; and Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey.

Lausche said all are "men of impeccable character, and in the past have all given great service in the public offices they have held."

The Ohioan expressed belief Williams will be "very much in the limelight as time goes on" and described Meyner as a "forceful and fine statesman."

Lausche said he had "not spoken to anyone either directly or indirectly politically while in New York City."

He said he had made no commitments to any possible Democratic presidential nominee.

The governor reiterated at LaGuardia airport a statement he made before the Ohio Society in New York Monday night that President Eisenhower "is a great military leader and an even greater civic leader, and the country needs him."

Alimony Is Ruled As Tax Deductible

NEW YORK (AP) — The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, overruling a Tax Court decision, has declared that alimony is deductible on income tax returns even if such payments are not required by terms of the divorce.

The court made the ruling in the case of Harold Holt and Margaret K. Holt, of Albany, whose alimony arrangements were contained in a separation agreement reached before their divorce in Florida in January, 1948.

The separation agreement was not written into the divorce but Holt kept up payments anyway.

The court declared it is "immaterial whether the husband and the wife or either of them intend that the agreement shall be 'incident to the divorce.' She must pay the taxes. He is entitled to deduction claims."

Florida Man Needs Lessons From Bible

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Police held Joe R. Jenkins, charging he bought a Bible with a bad check.

A clerk told police Jenkins bought the Bible for $7 with a check for $20 drawn on an Orlando bank. The clerk said inquiry at the bank showed he had no account there.

Jenkins denied the charge but police said they found the Bible in his room.

Dairy Industry Showing Good Improvement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government holders of butter, cheese and dried milk have been sharply reduced since the price support level was cut from 90 to 75 per cent of parity April 1, 1954.

The current rate of purchases by by the government of new supplies is also on the downgrade while public consumption of dairy products is on the increase.

An Agriculture Department spokesman said, the support levels, plus major efforts by the dairy industry to promote use of its products, is responsible for the improvement.

The spokesman said the actual cash loss to the government from its price support operations on butter, cheese and dried milk from 1949 until July 31, 1955 was about 850 million dollars and this will be increased when bookkeeping and inventory figures are brought up to date.

On Oct. 19, 1955 government holdings of butter were 109 million pounds, cheese 275 million pounds and dried milk 18 million pounds. This is a sharp reduction from the 402 million pounds of butter, 412 million pounds of cheese and 235 million pounds of dried milk on Oct. 20, 1954.

Peak government holdings were recorded just about the time Secretary of Agriculture Benson cut the support level from 90 to 75 per cent of parity.

Stored in government warehouses at about that time were 466 million pounds of butter, 483 million pounds of cheese and 598 million pounds of dried milk.

Since the latter part of 1952 the government has disposed of 738 million pounds of butter, 515 million pounds of cheese and 1,750,000,000 pounds of dried milk.

New Efforts Are Made To End Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp., its third-quarter sales and earnings hurt by work stoppages at its plants, today renewed efforts to end strikes by two big production workers' unions.

Determined stands by both unions and the company appeared to offer little hope of early settlement, however.

Westinghouse slated negotiations today with the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, and tentatively arranged a meeting with representatives of the independent United Electrical Workers tomorrow.

The CIO-IUE has been on strike since Oct. 1. It is demanding a 15-cent hourly pay boost, limitations on company time studies, and a one-year contract.

The independent United Electrical Workers called out the remainder of its members yesterday. Some 7,500 UE members have been on strike in suburban Philadelphia and Jersey City, N.J., since Oct. 14, making demands similar to those of the CIO-IUE.

The CIO-IUE has 44,000 members. The UE claims 17,000 but Westinghouse says its figure is closer to 10,500. The strike also has idled an added 10,000 supervisory employes.

Both unions rejected a proposal for a five-year agreement which the company said provided for 23½ cents an hour in raises over that period. Production workers average about $2.10 an hour.

The Federation of Westinghouse Independent Salaried Unions and the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers also have rejected the proposal, but have not called a strike.

Westinghouse, in a third-quarter earnings report, said net income for the three months ended Sept. 30 was $14,422,000 or 84 cents a share, compared to $17,285,000 or $1.04 a share in the same period last year.

Gwilym A. Price, president and chairman of the board, said a six-week walkout at the East Pittsburgh plant, a three-day strike at 29 plants, and a decline in defense orders caused the drop in income.
