

JAPS CAPTURE CHINESE STRONGHOLD IN NORTH

U.S. Fleet To Remain In War Zone

Warships Will Stay To Protect Nationals At All Points

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—The United States navy served formal notice today that its Asiatic fleet will remain in Chinese waters "as long as the present controversy between China and Japan exists."

Supported by State Dept. This statement, was issued by the navy department as a formal announcement of Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic squadrons.

It was made public after a meeting of the navy general board, the highest policy making body of the navy department. Presumably it had the full support of the state department.

The Admiral's announcement said that the navy's policy of maintaining warships at ports, where needed for the protection of American nationals "will continue in full force even after our nationals have been warned to leave China and after an opportunity to leave has been given."

"Most American citizens now in China," the statement said, "are engaged in business or professions which are their only means of livelihood. These persons are unwilling to leave until their businesses have been destroyed, or they are forced to leave due to actual physical danger."

China Pleads for Aid

"Until such time comes our naval forces can not be withdrawn without failure in our duty and without bridging great discredit on the United States navy."

The navy made its announcement of policy while officials studied, without public comment, the utterances today of the Chinese generalissimo, Chiang Kai-Shek.

The Chinese leader asserted this country was under treaty obligations to assist his nation in its unending struggle against the Japanese phase of the conflict, the question of America's attitude toward any new Japanese territorial claims in China interested informed observers here keenly.

The generally accepted belief was that the United States would not recognize any new claims if it adheres to its established foreign policies.

The observers recalled that the government has withheld formal diplomatic recognition of both the Japanese dominated state of Manchoukuo and Italian-annexed Ethiopia because they were acquired by force.

PUPILS GET IDEA ABOUT BOMBING

GOLDTHWAITE, Tex., Sept. 24 (AP)—Children in the fourth grade of the public school here had learned an illustrated history lesson today.

While their teacher told about an air raid and bombing at Nanking, there was an explosion and a large rock smashed through two sashes of an open window.

The explosion came from blasting on the school's new athletic field nearby. No one was injured.

MISHAP IS FATAL

KAUFMAN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Emerson Allen, 22, of Maydelle was killed early today in a highway accident on the Dallas highway four miles west of Kaufman, J. A. Bengel, also of Maydelle, riding with Allen, escaped injury.

The accident occurred when Allen came suddenly upon a cotton wagon, swerved his car to miss the vehicle and overturned.

Lad Of 12 Tries Gangster Role, Turns Gun On His Teacher

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 24 (AP)—Police saw today in the shooting of Miss June Mapes, 59, Arlington school principal, by Robert Snyder, 12-year-old pupil, the picture of a boy temporarily dazed by hallucinations of "toughness as a gangster."

"I feel sorry for the boy and his parents," the principal, lying in Toledo hospital with a bullet wound through her groin, told Police Sgt. A. W. Bernhagen. Her condition was reported as favorable.

The boy was in a serious condition with a bullet wound through his head which Bernhagen said was self-inflicted.

Detective Lieut. Ralph Murphy said he was told by James Foltz, friend of the Snyder boy, that Robert recently had been listening to radio programs based on crime, and reading bandit stories.

Murphy said his investigation led him to believe the boy, armed with his father's automatic pistol, wanted to demonstrate his "toughness" in the face of authority, to his pre-teen little classmate, Gloria Moore, 12.

REPUBLICANS LOOK TO NEXT ELECTION

Most Good For The Greatest Number His Goal, FD Says

Is Not Going To Coast Through Remainder Of Term, Chief Executive Tells Crowd At Cheyenne, Wyoming

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt told a crowd of thousands here today he was going to continue in his second term the way he had in his first, trying to do the "most good for the greatest number."

After being welcomed by a group including Senator O'Mahoney, democratic foe of the supreme court increase proposal, the president said he had told a friend recently who advised him to "coast" from now on, that he would not take such advice.

Cattle Baron Succumbs

Illness Fatal To Col. Ike Pryor, Wealthy Rancher

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Col. Ike Thomas Pryor, one of the last of the southwest cattle barons, died in a hospital here early today after a lingering illness. He was 85 years old.

He made San Antonio his home for many years. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon from St. Mark's church, and burial will be in Mission burial park.

Colonel Pryor be a ranch owner and cattleman at the early age of 24 years and literally grew up in Zavalla county with the cattle business. First taking the trail when 19 years old, he was an active rancher until his death.

Once a homeless orphan, tossed and buffeted about Tennessee and Ohio in his early youth, the colonel came to be long before his death one of the foremost cattle barons for whom Texas was noted. His wealth was estimated at far more than a million dollars.

As one of the early trail drivers, taking great herds of longhorns up to the north, and later as a prominent cattlemen, Colonel Pryor was held in high esteem by other livestock men of the state and nation. He was twice president of the American National Livestock association and three times president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association.

Captain of Detectives George Timiney said he was informed Robert Snyder nursed a grievance against the principal since she slapped his face a year ago because of errors he had made in arithmetic problems.

Robert had not been punished nor threatened with punishment since the fall semester opened, school officials said.

Sergeant Bernhagen said, Miss Mapes told him the following story:

"I was about to leave my office when I saw Robert at the door. He told me he wanted to see me and we went back into the office. I want to see Gloria Moore," the boy said.

"I can't call her from class now," I told him. He pointed the pistol and said, you can step over to that buzzer and call her. I thought the gun was a toy and started to walk past him when he fired, the first shot striking me. Robert turned and ran toward the door, falling to one knee, and fired four more times, but missed. He then ran from the building."

SUCCUMBS

"I don't want to coast and the nation doesn't want me to coast either," he said.

People are thinking in national terms, he asserted, adding the administration projects up to date have had the national point of view in mind.

"Don't let anybody deceive you, the government of the United States is not going broke," he said.

O'Mahoney Boards Train
Senator O'Mahoney was in the welcoming committee with Gov. Miller, Senator Schwartz, of Casper, a court bill proponent, and Rep. Greener, of Cody.

O'Mahoney, although he was not formally invited to board the president's special, boarded the chief executive's private car as the train pulled out. During the president's talk he had stood at the rear of the train in the crowd, as did Senator Schwartz and Congressman Greener.

"I had thought it was part of the duty of the president to keep in personal touch with the nation. And so this year, since January, I have already made one trip through some southern states and I'm going out to the coast for the third time since I have been president, not counting campaign trips; going out to get a look-see, to try to tie together in my mind the problems of the nation," the president said.

He said the greater part of the emergency was over, but a lot of problems remained.

He said the government had spent a great deal of money putting people to work and at the same time the administration had tried its utmost to accomplish useful things.

Commenting on an editorial holding the government had wasted money on a certain project the president said, engineers were human and "could not make a home run every time they come to bat."

One misdemeanor complaint resulted from the jury's study of a theft case against Jesse Cooper, negro. He was charged Thursday afternoon as it finished its work for the September term.

The fourth and final week of court opens here Monday with prospects of only an average amount of activity. Several pleas of guilty are expected.

NEGRO SENTENCED

On a plea of guilty, Clarence Williams, negro, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $25 and costs for theft. County Judge Charles Sullivan passed the sentence on the black who had been charged with theft of a watch from a local jewelry store.

DIES IN FLUNGE

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—E. F. James, 35, of Tulsa, Okla., died today after plunging five stories from a hospital window. Hospital authorities said after a preliminary examination they believed he had suffered only bruises but later attributed his death to the fall.

Garrison At Key City Is Annihilated

Tokyo Victory Broad Step Toward Conquest Of Area

PEIPING, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Japanese army announced tonight that Paotingfu, Chinese stronghold 80 miles southwest of here, had been captured and its Chinese garrison annihilated.

No Resistance
Mopping up operations at Paotingfu were completed at 1:30 p. m., the Japanese announced. All resistance in the city, capital of Hopeh province and key point of the Chinese defense system in central Hopeh, was declared at an end.

Early today the Japanese had completely enveloped the walled city, containing a population of 100,000. While the attack was pushed from the north and west, strong Japanese forces waited at the south gate.

As the Chinese troops attempted to flee southward they were slain, said Japanese dispatches.

No figures of casualties were given, but it was strongly indicated there were no survivors of the Chinese garrison.

The Japanese community of Peiping celebrated Paotingfu's fall ecstatically, hailing it as a great step forward in the conquest of all north China.

Troops Fleeing

Other Chinese troops were reported fleeing to the southwest along the railway from Peiping to Hankow.

The Japanese were bringing up tanks and heavy artillery to support the infantry attack. The American Presbyterian mission is just outside the north wall where the battle raged.

No word had been received as to whether the American workers had withdrawn before the battle swept all around the city's walls.

The fall of Paotingfu, the capital of Hopeh province, was considered by observers as likely to mean that Chinese resistance in north China was broken and be the probable signal for a Japanese-controlled administration for the whole region.

Nine Japanese planes meanwhile bombed Hankow, the great port of the middle Yangtze river valley, killing approximately 100 persons and wounding twice as many.

The raiders, apparently trying to destroy the big army arsenal in Hanyang, dropped large bombs on crowded city districts. About 100 buildings were damaged.

In Shanghai, the worst cholera epidemic in the city's history was reported spreading through Japanese army units attacking Chinese defense lines to the northwest.

HEAVY RAINFALL IN PARTS OF COUNTY

Heavy rains fell across the northeastern part of Howard county Thursday evening and night and extended as far east as Sweetwater to bring vertible cloudbursts in some sections.

The territory around Vincent came in for soaking and blinding showers fell as far east as Colorado. At Sweetwater, according to travellers, traffic had to be halted temporarily Thursday evening because of the intensity of the rain.

BOBBIE TAYLOR TO BE DUCHESS AT ABILENE FAIR

Bobbie Taylor, winner in a contest in the spring to determine Miss Big Spring, will represent this city as a duchess to the West Texas fair at Abilene when a Texas cotton queen will be crowned the night of Oct. 6.

The chamber of commerce announced Miss Taylor's appointment Friday. She has represented this city at the Frontier Fiesta in Fort Worth and at the legion contest at Sweetwater.

JAPS PREPARE REPLY TO U.S. PROTEST

TOKYO, Sept. 24 (AP)—A Japanese foreign office spokesman announced today that an official reply to the United States protest against aerial bombardment of Nanking was in preparation.

An unofficial source said "fresh precautionary orders" had been issued to Japanese airmen this week and that the Tokyo government was "absolutely certain that bombers were exerting every care to limit their bombardments to military establishments in Nanking."

These precautionary moves, it was said, however, would not "necessarily" form the basis of Japan's reply to the protest.

About the same time, Foreign Minister Koki Hirota told the Japanese cabinet the government would not send delegates to the League of Nations advisory committee which is seeking a way to curb or end the Sino-Japanese conflict.

Steers Clash With Eastland Tonight In First Home Tilt

Clash Is Conference Opener For Murphy's Boys

By HANK HART
A quick change, necessitated when it became apparent that Charles Ray Settles could not play, moved Raymond Lee Williams into the right halfback slot and the Big Spring high school Steer grid machine will roll out tonight in its 1937 debut before the home folk with a second DeLoe recruit in the driver's seat and untried material in one of the other backfield posts.

Eastland's Mavericks, also handicapped by injuries, will form the opposition and Coach E. B. Grady's charges hit town with everything to gain and nothing to lose.

Starts At 8 o'Clock

The two teams take the field at Steer stadium at 8 p. m. in the locals' first conference game of the season. The Mavs, a week ago were trounced soundly by the Brownwood Lions, falling 13-0.

With eight conference games to go, the invaders already appear to be out of the running but they can still do a lot of upsetting.

It's first down and nine hurdles to jump for Pat Murphy and his men, unless they can make a credible showing against the Mavericks, they also appear doomed for the role of an also-ran.

Settles will ride the bench tonight due to an injury received in practice early this week. He stepped in a hole while scrambling and turned his ankle.

Womack To Call 'Em

His absence will move Williams into his halfback slot. Raymond Lee in turn, will give way to "Little Red" Womack, 125 pound flash at backing signals. Womack did not see action in the Wink game until Williams had had his try but his work gave indication that he knew what it was all about.

Malnstay of the Longhorn secondary will be Co-Captain Weldon Bigony, a Gibraltar on the defense and offensive robot who got little chance to show his ability in the opener against Wink a week ago.

Running mate of that threesome and the boy that is sure to lead the ground maneuvers against the opposition is expected to be the sophomore sensation, Lefty Harold Bethel, a triple threat southpaw. The Longhorns will not be lacking in backfield material despite the fact that Alton Bostick has also been on the hospital list. "Big Red" Cunningham, who was stopped cold in the Wildcat affair but who has come out of the shadows in practice this week, will be under wraps until he gets the wave from one of the mentors. Local fans may get a look-see at something new when the 190-pounder trots out on the field.

Murphy and his assistant, Carmen Brandon, have been drilling the Herd throughout the week and spent an hour or more last night under the area tutoring the squad on pass defense. There is but one reason for that.

He Can Pass

Grady has one little man, only 10 pounds heavier than Womack, who gave the entire Oil Belt trouble.

Farley Joining Pierce-Arrow?

Expected To Resign Cabinet Post, But Date Indefinite

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—James A. Farley's resignation as postmaster general and his acceptance of the presidency of the Pierce-Arrow Motor corporation, it was understood in informed circles today, has been delayed by the current decline in securities and the preparation of an SEC registration statement for a new issue of Pierce-Arrow stock.

After considering numerous other offers of executive positions, Farley agreed several weeks ago to become head of the reorganized Pierce-Arrow company. Following his acceptance of this offer, the company's stockholders approved plans for a new issue of stock, aggregating $10,700,000, which will be used principally to place a low-priced automobile on the market in competition with the cheaper priced Packard and Cadillac cars. Production of the higher priced Pierce-Arrow will also continue.

In addition to his salary, which has not been disclosed, but which is believed to be above $50,000 a year, the postmaster general will receive 5,000 shares of the new stock outright and 5,000 more during the first year.

So far as can be learned, no definite time has been set for either the filing of the registration statement or the cabinet resignation.

While leaving the cabinet, Farley will retain his chairmanships of the democratic national and state committees.

Farmers Face Labor Marketing Troubles

Pickers Reported Demanding More In Dawson Co.

Harvesting and marketing of the current, bumper cotton crop had reached a peculiar, if not crucial situation today.

With prices to their lowest level since 1932 "five cent" days, farmers were having trouble marketing their short staple and faced a troublesome labor situation.

Reports of a general exodus of cotton pickers from the Lamesa territory could not be confirmed, however several truck loads of pickers were reported to have turned back to Big Spring Friday in protest to rates of 60 and 65 cents a hundred pounds for gathering.

Basis of the reported "strike" by pickers appeared to be a meeting held Thursday night at Lamesa when producers standing agreed to peg the price of picking at 65 cents a hundred.

Meeting Here

A similar meeting is scheduled here for 3:30 p. m. Saturday with a number of the larger producers assertedly favoring a 65-cent rate instead of the now prevalent 75-cent rate.

If reports of a vexing situation concerning cotton pickers are not true at Lamesa, it is none the less true that a marketing crisis exists in Dawson, the largest cotton producing county in this area.

Because Dawson county is first of all a half-and-half cotton haven, bulk of the harvest there is of the short staple variety. The compress at Lamesa has refused to receive the cotton since to do so would in effect be a guarantee of its grade and staple.

Five To Six Cents

Best offers on the average cotton runs from five to six cents. Most of the farmers are being forced to hold their lint in the face of this price, but some are compelled to sell in order to raise picking money. This, it was generally agreed, precipitated the meeting Thursday to peg the picking price.

A. G. Bearden, chamber of commerce manager at Lamesa, said that body had been devoting all its efforts to securing a government classing agent for the city in order to break the arbitrary price deadlock. He indicated that until such a move is made, there is little hope of the compress accepting any of the half and half cotton.

In Howard county the situation was not so acute, although not a few producers have turned homeward with their short staple bales still aboard their trucks because six-cent prices did not appeal to them. It is generally conceded that the staple in this county averages better than in Dawson.

FD GETS CHILLY RECEPTION

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt found ample excuse for his "heavies" on his arrival in Cheyenne.

Secret service men, newspapermen, photographers and spectators shivered under a biting wind which sent the mercury down to 44 degrees above zero.

Before leaving the east, the president—wisely—cautioned reporters to bring along their "heavies" and indicated he was likewise preparing for a chilly spell during his trip through the west.

West Baptist Church Invites Public To Playground Social

READING AND WRITING By JOHN SELBY

Products of the hard-working fiction writers— Those who sell fiction to the public have been responsible for more of the fall book flood than anybody—of course. But their quality is perhaps not quite up to the biographical contingent's standard.

The news of the week probably is Fannie Hurst's "We Are Ten" (Harpers; $2.50), since Mrs. Hurst is one of those successful authors whose product sells to the movies at $100,000 a throw. But "We Are Ten" is a book of short stories, and the stories are only average Hurst, certainly not the Hurst of "Lumox" and other novels. So we shall turn to Edgar Lee Masters—

Mr. Masters has had a sudden spurt in production. He has published three books in the last year, and now publishes the longest of the lot, a novel of nearly 700 pages called "The Tide of Time" (Farrar & Rinehart; $3). This is a Civil War story in which the implications are very wide—the effect of war upon a given community is the object of study, and the portraits painted in the course of the book are many, and detailed. Incidentally, the book is printed on very thin paper, and looks like a novelette, in place of the junior "Anthony Adverse" it is.

Negro fiction is given a lift by Waters Edward Turpin, whose dark and often ugly story of several generations of negroes is called "These Low Grounds" (Harpers; $2.50). Studies of small town life are already numerous; it is Elizabeth Corbett's turn now, and her "The Langworthy Family" (Appleton-Century; $2.50) is always competent, and often more.

The British have not been idle. Margaret Lanch's "At Last the Island" (Harpers; $2.50) comes loaded with British eccentricities, including the usual one from Hugh Walpole. This is about a novelist who tries to create his own paradise in the Mediterranean, and the odd things which befall him and his curious household. And Liam O'Flaherty has not only written a good novel about the Irish famine of 1845, but has drawn in a lot of background which helps one understand the last 90 years of Irish-English disagreement. Most Irish literature must be taken on its own excessively Celtic terms, and "Famine" (Random; $2.50) is no exception. But at least it is mostly literature.

The Mollie Hart Phillips playground will be the scene of a general get-together tonight when the West Side Baptist Church will have charge of a social, to which the entire public is extended an invitation.

An interesting program has been planned, it was announced by Mrs. G. B. Richburg, and directed play for the children, will be a feature of the affair.

There will be one or more speakers for the occasion and refreshments will be served in an unique manner. All plans are to be a surprise and the public is invited and urged to attend.

ONE WAY TO END A STRIKE; SELL OUT TO THE STRIKERS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24 (AP)—One Los Angeles manufacturer experimented today with a new "solution" for strikes—sell the factory to the strikers.

L. G. Griffith, of the Beverly Knitting mill, said he expects to receive incorporation papers from Sacramento today by which his 55 striking employes can own his $20,000 plant and buy the equipment from him on the installment plan.

"I'm through with being the owner if it's will help the men and women in my plant to go back to work. They'll be their own boss. They'll set their own wages and working hours. I'll just sell what they produce," Griffith said.

In setting up the employee-owned corporation, Griffith claimed he had the support of a plant foreman, J. D. Tate, who would urge the strikers, members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers, to join.

Mrs. A. M. Runyan, who underwent minor operation in Bivings hospital Thursday, is reported doing nicely.

The German language contains about 300,000 words.

BETTER LIGHT + BETTER SIGHT = BETTER GRADES. Help your children with their school work—provide them with proper lighting for their studying. When you have Better Light you have Better Sight and Better Sight for students means Better Grades for it is a fact where children study under GOOD lighting of proper intensity (say thirty or forty foot candles) grades average far higher and failures far fewer than where POOR lighting is used. All Better Sight lamps... floor, lounge or table models... bring you Eye-laxation. They make seeing easier, prevent eye strain, improve students' grades and make homes more comfortable and attractive. TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY C. S. BLOOMSHIELD, Manager

Big Export Of Wheat Seen

Economists Think US Will Ship 95 Million Bushels

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—A confident forecast the United States will play a major role in world wheat exports this season came from government economists today.

Market experts, after a complicated survey of supplies, new crops, and demands, predicted 95,000,000 bushels of United States wheat will be sold to importing nations that need 185,000,000 bushels.

Exports since July 1 have been small, the government experts admitted.

This delay was attributed to a tendency by European nations to "shop around," watching the prices of grain from Soviet Russia and the indicated crops in Argentina and Australia.

These European wheat buyers will soon increase purchases, the bureau of agricultural economics said, because their supplies are now near a record low-level.

The bureau estimated Europe would require 400,000,000 bushels of wheat exports this season with England buying 202,000,000, Belgium, 40,000,000, Germany, 28,000,000, France, 26,000,000 and the Netherlands, 24,000,000.

Its tentative estimate of sources for the 485,000,000 bushels of world wheat exports gave Argentina 100,000,000, the United States and Australia, 95,000,000 each, Canada and the Danube basin, 65,000,000 each, Russia, 30,000,000, French North Africa, 20,000,000 and other producers, 15,000,000.

Rat Catchers Retire
PASADENA, Calif. (UP)—Pasadena has—or, rather had—an eight-man team of rat catchers. The squad resigned after turning in a record of 10,086 rats, squirrels and weasels. The retirement was not due to lack of more rats, but to a lack of salary allowances in the city fund.

GUN WOUNDS FATAL

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Ray Pryor, 40, former Donna, Tex., cafe operator who had been charged with the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Frank Ackerman, died suddenly in the county hospital last night as result of wounds he received in the gun battle with Ackerman. Dr. T. N. Goodson, county health officer, performed an autopsy and reported to justice of the Peace Otis West that Pryor died of anginal pectoris, which resulted, apparently, from a blood clot which entered the blood stream at one of the two bullet wounds.

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

There's almost ten days left of this old baseball season and then comes the World series which isn't exactly baseball but a classic, but the national pastime has been side-tracked for homecoming of the Big Spring Steers here and the fever has suddenly gripped everyone.

A giant pep rally tonight should cap everything. The Steers are ready. There is little doubt about that. If the Eastland bunch beats them tonight it won't be anyone's fault. The Longhorns surely won't beat themselves.

A third casualty hit the Herd yesterday as "Little Red" Womack came up with a bad boil on his elbow but he'll probably play. Big-ony, Bethell and Cunningham will have to lead the offensive drive the Herd makes, however, because Charles Ray Settles will not play and Alton Bostick will ride the bench due to an arm injury. Pat Murphy is fortunate in that some of his line hasn't been waylaid with hurts and bruises.

Eastland's attack against the Longhorns tonight may remind one of a bit of Colgate's razor-dazzle of a bit of Tommy Samuels' work from a short punt with plenty of variations, according to scout reports. Sometimes they work out on double wing which is always dangerous. The Maverick ends are big and heavy which may give the invaders a big advantage. The Steer secondary, however, appears to be the more versatile, which rings the bell in the locals favor. Let's hope so.

Before the weekend games we are going to rate, by guess more than anything else, the Oil Belt teams.

1. Stephenville.
2. Breckenridge.
3. Abilene.
4. San Angelo.
5. Big Spring.
6. Brownwood.
7. Sweetwater.
8. Eastland.
9. Ranger.
10. Cisco.

Stephenville was placed first for several reasons, one of which was a rumor swirling out of the city concerning the fact that Mobley and his bunch had finally come through with a world benter, had intended to trump in with this world of material and then drop back to Class B football after it was over. He must have the goods.

Breckenridge must have runner-up spot despite the fact that they lost their opener to Paschal a week ago. Eck Curtis' boys are big and

By FELIX H. MCKNIGHT
DALLAS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Tailored almost to the waterboys by circumstances gathered over a decade, the Texas Christian invasion of Ohio State's fair Saturday gives the Southwest Conference the chicest schedule opener the league has ever known.

One of five conference teams showing off for the season, Texas Christian hops into the national grid picture on its first out, being one-half of what critics and fans agree to be the nation's super attraction of the day.

Slightly less glamorous but of major importance is the return to the league of D. X. Bible as head coach of a University of Texas team that must spend the better part of the afternoon trying to beat a dangerous Texas Tech team at Austin.

Three other games find Southern Methodist in their annual opener against North Texas Teachers at Dallas; Baylor playing a moonlight engagement with Southwestern at Waco and Arkansas Razorbacks, defending champions, warming up against Central Oklahoma Teachers at Fayetteville.

Coach Leo, (Dutch) Meyer, the mellow type, has worked for weeks to key his no-foe-experienced Texas Christian youngsters for the clash against Francis Schmidt, the barking, driving type, and his Ohio State.

Several seasons Schmidt drove the Christians himself, leaving three years ago for his Ohio State position. Buried on the coaching staff at T.C.U. when Schmidt was at the helm, Meyer turned out one good frosh team after another and when Schmidt chose to enter the Big Ten, Meyer was stepped up to the varsity.

In three seasons Meyer has turned in 29 wins and only seven defeats; victories in the Sugar Bowl and developed "Slingin' Sam" Baugh. It's not exactly a "pupil vs. master" turn events will take Saturday; its more of a "master vs. master" situation now.

Notoriously slow starters—witness their feeble beginning of last year—the Christians have been awakened early this fall and have put everything into "two-a-day" drills to blossom out in the opener against Schmidt and his Buckeyes.

Schmidt, who took the Southwestern "hipper-dipper" style of football into the Big Ten, has discarded most of his open play for power, reports say. Christian football again will see the Horned Frogs depend on aerial play with Davey O'Brien, Baugh's successor, the trigger man.

Rate the Christian—Buckeye game a tossup with TCU holding an edge if question mark ends, Mabry and Henach, come through. Held to a 6-0 victory by a scrappy North Texas team last year on a muddy field, the Methodists should increase that margin by four touchdowns this year, what with Johnny Stovall, the old teacher threat, gone.

Coach Bible will lose his array of fleet backs—Atchison, Haas, Bryan, Wolff and Forney—on Coach Pete Cawthon's Red Raiders at Austin, and probably come away with a comfortable margin, despite Tech's rugged play. Of the past, Mittermayer, right half and signal called, may be kept out of the Texas lineup with a sprained ankle, but Bible is almost in the strange position of having backs to spare.

Arkansas, still stunned by the sudden death of Lundy Corbett, a regular tackle, should, nevertheless, steamroller the Oklahoma Teachers while Baylor, with Billy Patterson flipping his passes, rates considerably ahead of a big Southwestern eleven.

CHAMPIONS' LEADER

Very contented business man is Joe McCarthy who has just led his New York Yankees to another American League pennant. Ironically, a former Yank clinched the pennant for the Gothamites. Ben Chapman clouted a homer for Boston to defeat and eliminate Detroit from the pennant race.

Buxton Will Attempt To Even Count With Panthers Tonight

By FELIX H. MCKNIGHT
FORT WORTH, Sept. 24 (AP)—One down to a Fort Worth team hardly in their class over the regular season route, Oklahoma City's Indians looked about today for a remedy that will shake the jitters and even up their Shaughnessy finale.

Manager Jim Keesey, who sprouted grey hairs even when his Indians squeezed out a 5-3 victory last night, decided to trust Ralph Buxton, big righthander, with the job of evening the series tonight.

Buxton, who twice licked the Panthers and also took two beatings from them this season, will face Clyde Smoll, a left hander. Manager Homer Peel named from a crippled hurling corps. Smoll isn't so much his choice as his necessity, having been beaten in the only four starts he made against the Tribe.

Fort Worth, without a pennant winner since the days of Clarence (Big Boy) Kraft and his playmates, wants a Dixie series again and gave an example of how much they want it by almost exiling a five-run deficit in the ninth frame on last night's wild melee.

Lefty Jack Brillheart had allowed only two Cats to stand on third base until the ninth and was apparently ready to sack up a shut-out, however. He walked a start-hitter Krole and Greenberg to start the minor riot. Jere Moore bit and three of his curves but McDowell pumped a single into right and Krole came home on Stebbins' one baser.

Sidewater Clay Touchstone came in at this point just in time to feed Manager Peel a fat one he parked in centerfield for a single that scored Greenberg and McDowell. Shelley popped to temporarily halt the uprising but Mallon walked and packed the sacks again.

Jim McLeod, a tried emergency hitter, waited until the 3-2 count before missing Touchstone's last curve by a half foot with the tying, winning and double winning tallies on their way in.

Two sharp pops off Manager Keesey's stick accounted for three Indian tallies. He singled across Stoneham, who singled and then put on the double steal. In the fifth, Friar punched across his boss with a sharp single that ended the Indian scoring.

Sasterling's walk, advance on a forced out and score on a wild heavy by Ed Selway, starting Cat hurler, accounted for the other run in the fourth.

Dick Whitworth, who replaced Selway, found the Indians easy, giving up one hit in four and one-third innings.

BREWERS WIN ONE
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 24 (AP)—The American association final playoff series scene moved to Milwaukee today with the count Columbus 2, Milwaukee 1.

After dropping the first two games here, the Brewers rallied last night for a 3 to 0 decision over the Red Birds with Ralph Winegarner narrowly missing a no-hit achievement.

Goose Strangely Drowned

PIGGLY WIGGLY

TCU Frosh Hail From 6 States

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24—From six states, more than 40 of them, the candidates for freshmen football at Texas Christian university are getting lined up with Coach Walter Rugh (last year's Frog captain) these days.

From Flushing, N. Y.; Waukegan, Ill.; and Milwaukee and Grand Rapids, Mich., came four boys, drawn by the nationwide fame of the Horned Frogs of recent seasons.

The Frosh weigh all the way from 135 to well over 200, with a fairly liberal sprinkling of the lads of 180 and better.

In the outfit are 10 former all-district high school stars, and two all-state. Seven were captains of their eleven in '36 or '35.

Coach Rugh has just a little more than two weeks in which to find out what this bunch of raw material can do, and to whip it into shape for the first go-around—with Weatherford junior college October 7.

There are five new from the great '36 eleven of North Side, Fort Worth, headed by Fred Shook, all-state center. The others include Leonard Pugh, Ebbly Sherrod, John Pressley and Ennis Kerlee.

A flock of good backfield material looked in the '37 Pollwogs. Among the boys who came with impressive high school records are Connie Sparks, who scored more than 200 points for Panhandle last year; Jack Ode, who tore up and down the field for McKinney, to earn all-district rating; M. E. Short of Dallas, all-state in both '35 and '36; Paul Smith of Masonic Home, Fort Worth, who played in the '35 all-star game; and who was not his school last year; Owen Cobb of Sunset High, Dallas, who played in the all-star go this year; Jack Herring, Hillsboro, who did the same—just to mention a few.

Several of the first-year boys belong to the Horned Frog family by inheritance. R. S. Vaught, guard of Olney, is a brother of T.C.U.'s famous captain of '32, Johnny Vaught. Robert Grosche, end from Breckenridge, is a nephew of Wilson Grosche, "Iron Man" tackle of '33-'35, Warren Collins, back of Waurika, Okla., is a cousin of Tillie Manton, goal-kicking full-back star of '35.

The feature match saw Alice Marble battling against chubby Dorothy Bundy.

Miss Marble was out to avenge a defeat handed her by Dorothy in the recent national.

The other match brought together the defending champion Gracyn Wheeler and Mrs. John (Midge) Van Ryn, whose official home is Austin, Tex., but who was raised in Santa Monica.

Mrs. Van Ryn yesterday meted out an artistic lacing to Senorita Anita Lizana, pride of Chile and recent winner of the U. S. women's singles title, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1.

Miss Marble entered the semifinals by defeating Miss Bonnie Blank, Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-3, and Miss Wheeler ousted a pre-tournament favorite, Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. Miss Bundy won from Helen Germaine, New York, 6-1, 10-8.

Tomorrow J. Donald Budge and Bagon Gottfried Von Gram of Germany went into another of their series.

Budge's main work today was in a doubles match with his partner, Gene Mako, against George Patrick Hughes and Charles Hare of England, while the other men's doubles semi-final was between Joe Hunt and John Van Ryn and Francis X. Shields of Hollywood and Jacques Brugnon of France.

Grodzicki Fails To Last But Jax Win
JACKSONVILLE, Tex., Sept. 24 (AP)—Jacksonville was primed for a victory here tonight to end the series with Opelousa, Evangeline baseball league champions.

The East Texas pennant winners last night defeated the visitors 5 to 2 for a three-to-one advantage in the series. Steady hitting by the Jax and fast fielding by both clubs marked the game last night.

John Grodzicki, Houston Buff hurler, allowed five hits and two runs during the four frames he was on the mound for Jacksonville. Red Lynn, who relieved him, pitched shutout ball.

Coahoma Plays Loraine Today
COAHOMA, Sept. 24—Coahoma's Bulldogs will make their second start of the season and their first one before the home folk here this afternoon when they meet the heavy Loraine Lions on the Coahoma grassy ground.

Coach Lloyd Devan will send a team out on the field averaging 145 pounds with experienced men at the key positions and hopes to show to a better advantage than his charges did a week ago when they opened against Lamesa and lost, 25-0.

The Loraine eleven initiated their season with a smashing 39-0 victory over Fluvanna and will be the favorites when they take the field against the Bulldogs.

Probably starting lineup for the Coahomans is expected to be: Fowler and Phinney, end; Brown and Hale, tackles; Engle and Echols, guards; Logsdon, center; Fowler, quarterback; Dunn and Hunter, halfbacks, and Marshall, fullback.

Harry Jeffra New Champion Of Bantams

Whips Escobar In Bout At Polo Grounds

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Three championship prizefights in one night, seems to be at least one championship prizefight too many. Especially if each of them goes the limit of 15 rounds without a knock-down and the feature event curls up and plays dead.

Thirty-two thousand, six hundred patrons sat through last night's extravaganza at the Polo grounds, and when they finally stumbled out some time this morning they were wondering if the new flistic czar, Mike Jacobs, hadn't perhaps been guilty of choking them with cream.

Barney Ross, welterweight champion, saved an otherwise unimpressive spectacle with a close and gory victory over Ceferino Garcia, challenger from the Philippines. It would have been a great fight had it stood alone.

Harry Jeffra, Baltimore, added a final fillip when it was badly needed by winning the bantamweight championship of the world from sad-faced little Sixto Escobar of Puerto Rico, on points.

The bout between Lou Ambers, lightweight champion, and Pedro Montanez, a rashly over-exploited young man who owns a bar in Harlem, was the one that curled up. Ambers gave him an awful going-over in close, and it was a dreary thing to watch. Montanez, who had clouted the champion down in a previous over-weight affair, looked muscle-bound and weary at 135 pounds.

Marcel Thi, the bald Frenchman, made a considerable hit in the night's final turn before he suffered a serious cut on his right eyelid and was declared the loser to Fred Apostol of San Francisco early in the tenth round. The burly Marcel had a clear lead on points as the time Apostol stabbed him and the blood began to spurt.

Program Of Recreation Widening

Malone Intends To Begin Football Leagues Soon

Widening his recreational program to extend his cooperation to all the city's schools, Director H. F. Malone hopes soon to have a majority of the Big Spring students acquainted with supervised and directed playgrounds.

Not only are Malone and his staff of assistants going to initiate football practice among the smaller boys in the grade schools but they are attempting to branch out in organizing clubs in dramatics, arts, crafts, music and aquatics as well.

At the present time Malone is working with the grade schools, handcraft and group games in general and soon hopes to begin a football league among the city's boys.

Malone devotes three and one-half hours each afternoon to teaching the boys and girls as well as Saturday mornings.

All three playgrounds have been brought into use and an average of 620 students weekly are taking part in the activities. Malone said he hoped to increase the fields so that everyone in the city can take part in the program.

Bulldogs Meet Hubs Sunday

COAHOMA, Sept. 24—Using his hard luck pitcher in an attempt to stop the favored Lubbock Hubs, Manager Berle Cramer will strike out into Panhandle country once again—and probably for the last time this season—in an attempt to succeed where other Howard county teams have failed.

The ambitious moundman is Lefty Maxie Beard, who twice has failed to conquer the Hubs, and the mission in view is to topple Manager Jim Thompson's men and finish the season successfully.

Cramer will borrow J. Loper, heavy hitting Continental outfielder, to take along and will probably use Tommy Hutto, free swinging ex-Cosden ace, at the keystone but will depend on the rest of his regular lineup to carry the east Howard county team to victory.

Earl Rose will be behind the plate, Wallace Fuglar at first, A. Rose at third, Aubrey Harlow at third and Cramer and Bud Mathey in the gardens with Loper.

Thompson will probably pin the Lubbock hopes for victory on the same southpaw pitching ace that has three times beaten the best this part of the country can offer. He is Lefty Jerry Blanchard who a week ago blanked the Conoco Foran Oilers, 2-0.

Chapman Blow Sounds Finis For Tigers

Hubbell Earns No. 21 As Terrymen Best Bruins, 8-7

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York's diamond embroidery society got down today to the serious business of winding up its second straight pennant stitching monopoly.

The Yankees, who use bats for needles and runners for thimbles, had the American League flag all sewed up. The Giants, somewhat slower on the fancy work, but apparently heading for the same results, were rapidly completing their hemstitching on the National League flag.

And the embroidery society's very good friends, the Bronx baseball cheering and chowder club, was all set to whoop it up in another exclusive civil war of the diamond for little old New York, come world series time, Oct. 6.

The Giants were a 1-2 games ahead as a result of their wild and woolly win over the Cubs yesterday, and were riding along back to the comparative quiet of the past. With the Atlantic seaboard's usual soft touches—the Dodgers and Phillies—ahead, Bill Terry's terriers shouldn't have much trouble keeping some kind of an edge down to the tape, although a four-game series with the Boston Bees and their pitching stingers may do a lot of damage.

Uses Four Pitchers
The Giants victory by an 8 to 7 margin yesterday in the rubber match of the crucial three-game set with the Cubs produced the latest battle of the lot. Despite a 17-hit New York attack, Terry had to trot out all four of his starting pitchers before the Chicago clouters surrendered. Finally, long, lean and lanky Cliff Melton, the southpaw rookie who applied a sash coat of whitewashing in Wednesday's game, was called on to save the day. And he did—by retiring the final two Cub batters in the ninth, with one run in, tying and winning runs on base.

Although he lasted less than two innings, Carl Hubbell was given official credit for the victory, his 21st of the year.

The Yankees' meanness, although taking a 9-5 beating themselves at the hands of the St. Louis Browns, had the pleasure of watching an old ex-Yankee, Ben Chapman, clinch the American League pennant for them. Chapman, who loses no love for the Yankees, hit a homer with two on in the ninth inning, which gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 decision over the Detroit Tigers, and eliminated the second-place Detroiters from the pennant chase. The Tigers are now 1 1/2 games behind and have only ten to play.

The win boosted the Red Sox back into fourth place in the American League. The Cleveland Indians, finding Washington's rookies too much for them, were beaten, 3-2, and sank to fifth.

Jim Turner hurled No. 19 as the Boston Bees nosed out the Pirates, 2-1. Don Padgett hit a homer and two triples and led the Cardinals to an 8-4 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Dolph Camilli's homer with the bases loaded gave the Phillies a 9-5 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds, who used 22 players for a new National League record.

Johnny Whitehead won his own game for the White Sox by driving in the only run for a 1-0 edge over the Athletics.

BIERMAN HAS 28 LETTERMEN AT MINNESOTA

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 24 (AP)—A blasting backfield charge will be the main weapon for Minnesota's Golden Gophers in their drive for national gridiron honors—with three fullbacks stampeding in the lineup at the same time.

Dazzling speed from triple threat Andy Uram, left half, and one of the finest passing combinations in Minnesota history—Uram to Ray King, captain and right end—will prove a headache for Gopher foes who get set to resist the power charges.

"Chief mourner" Bernie Bierman, however, refuses to concede the Gophers any "championship possibilities" even in the face of this combination operating behind one of the best lines in Minnesota grid history.

Bierman has 28 lettermen available and a flock of reserves to help offset the loss of all-America Ed Wildeth at tackle; Bud Wilkinson at quarter; Julius Alfonso at right half; Bud Swendsen at center and Ray Antil at end.

ANOTHER SMART USED CAR BUYER

Motorists who are in the market for a good, dependable used car at a low price will certainly be interested in the experience of Carl Russ, window trimmer. "The first thing I did when I made up my mind to invest in a used car," says Mr. Russ, "was to turn to the Dodge dealers' classified ads in the newspaper. I knew that Dodge dealers were taking in an unusual number of used cars in trade and that they'd naturally have a wide selection to choose from.

"Then by buying under the Dodge dealers' 'Dependability Seal' plan I would be absolutely sure of getting a reliable car. As I discovered, every 'Dependability Seal' car carries a 'Triple-Checked Tag' that gives all the facts about the condition of the car right down in black and white. Well, I got just the car I wanted and I've been driving it every day and it runs like a top!"

Students Must Pay At Gate

Due to conference rules, student tickets to all Oil Right games cannot be placed on sale before a game. Students who intend to witness the Eastland-Big Spring game here tonight must buy their tickets at the gate, it has been announced.

The booth in the south part of the stadium will handle the student tickets, exclusively. No duets, other than general admission or those for reserve seats can be bought at the main gate.

For tonight's game sections one and four in the west grandstand will be thrown open to those having admission sales. Only sections two and three will be reserved.

All students buying tickets have been asked to sit on the east side of the stadium.

Edmund Notestine, director of ticket sales, issued a last warning for persons wishing to buy season tickets to make their purchases. The booth in the Settles hotel will be open until 7 p. m. The pasteborders, which cost $3.75 and are good for five home games, are also on sale at the high school.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES
Room 1, Settles Hotel

"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, September 28.

The Golden Text is: "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven" (Psalms 119:89).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last, and beside me there is no God" (Isaiah 44:6).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas" (page 331).

SMU HAS GOOD TEAM RECORD

DALLAS, Sept. 24—S.M.U.'s record in intercollegiate football during the last 21 years is startling to those who are reminded only of four conference championships and one national intercollegiate championship. In a total of 213 games, the Mustangs have won 117, lost 66, and tied 30.

The Pones garnered their first title in 1918 by winning the Texas Intercollegiate association championship. Later victories resulted in Southwest Athletic conference trophies for the years 1923, 1926, 1931, and 1935. The latter year being the one that gave S.M.U. the distinction of being the first southwest team to receive an invitation to California's Rose Bowl, also netted the national championship.

In the 213 games played by the Mustangs, a total of 3,163 points were scored as compared to 1,855 chalked up by opponents. Of these grid battles 104 were played against Southwest conference teams. Proving that this circuit is about as tough as they come is the Mustang record in the conference: 46 wins, 40 losses, and 17 ties.

Rival games furnish the annals of S.M.U. tradition with much close competition. First on the list is T.C.U. In 19 meetings the Methodist teams have seven wins, eight losses, and four ties. Texas dims S.M.U. lights with a record of 16 games—all close. S.M.U. has taken the Longhorns in seven games, lost six, and tied three. Against Texas A. and M. the Pones have nine victories, seven defeats, and three tie games.

Triumph For Beer

LONDON (UP)—In a series of unfortunate public signs being quoted by an English newspaper appears the following example: Outside a church at Barnstable is a big sign reading "Love thine enemies." In the window of an adjacent house is a placard reading: "Beer is man's worst enemy."

Argentina recently has put migration on a selective basis in place of the former "open door" policy.

With 4-H Clubs In This Area

Activities of 4-H club boys in Borden county have been progressing steadily in beef calf projects. Proof that the boys do not have to look elsewhere for feeder calves is best illustrated by the fact that the winner and grand champion of the Plains show at Lubbock the past spring was a Borden county calf from the Clayton herd.

Here are a few of the boys and their calf feeding plans:

Weldon Street—a 4-H boy who has selected four choice calves as his 1937 project. One of the calves, taken from the Clayton herd, was purchased out of profits from a previous feeding test.

Clarence Simpson—in the Mesquite community, Clarence bought his calf from the R-R ranch, Nathan Reynolds, owner of the R-R ranch, is a strong booster for 4-H clubs and has assisted several boys in getting choice calves from his herd.

Casner Dulin and Kenneth Mull—both are feeding from the R-R Hereford herd.

Boyd Freeman—Fluvanna, is feeding a calf from the L. E. Long herd, which heretofore has not been represented in the club shows of this area. Long, another club enthusiast, owns a fine bred Hereford herd.

That interest is growing in the work in Borden county is shown by the large enrollment, five times larger than in any previous year in Borden county. E. B. McLeary, county agent, says.

Dawson county has a club set-up slightly different from that in a few other counties of this area. Boys there meet in one big central club. The idea has worked out well for working together, the boys have put over a fair which has the support and praise of civic leaders in Lamesa and Dawson county. Last year the fair made $500.

The fair date this year is October 19, and will be a three-day affair with bulk of the 4-H club staff on exhibit. If their second fair turns out well, the boys hope to buy a pure bred, quality here. If revenues are not quite up to expectations, it is possible that bonds may be sold to complete the purchase.

Somehow Dawson county has a reputation for turning out boys with the happy knack of winning contests, particularly state contests. Last year's feed judging team composed of Gene Seals, R. B. Wilkerson, and C. L. Bankhead, Jr., won second in the state competition. Remember years back when Dawson county furnished some material for a team that went abroad?

Membership in Dawson county, too, is on the upgrade, the central club boasts about 200 boys. R. B. Wilkerson, winner of the five-acre cotton demonstration $200 prize, and a club demonstrator in pigs, maize, and poultry, is president of the big club.

V. G. Young, Glascock county agent, says that his boys are going to get constructive results in their calf and sheep feeding tests. Because the county is the largest producer of sheep of any in the area, the 4-H boys of that county will carry on vastly more sheep feeding.

George Bond, Martin county agent, advises that his boys are going in a little more heavily for pig feeding and breeding. Some of his boys have purchased high bred boars. But calf feeding is still a popular project with the Martin county clubbers.

At latest reports, the 40 calves on feed by 4-H club boys in Howard county were doing very well. Most of the animals have become accustomed to being penned and have learned to eat grain. One boy, having fed at the outset of the feed, turned his steer in the stubble pasture, and everybody, especially the calf, is happy.

ANOTHER SMART USED CAR BUYER

● "My husband used to drive off to business in the family car every morning, leaving me and the children without a car all day," says Mrs. Edna Edwards, housewife. "I didn't like to fuss about it because I knew we couldn't afford another new car. Then one evening I happened to notice in the classified section of the paper bargains in used cars featured by a Dodge dealer. I called them to the attention of my husband and he checked up the very next day. "We got a perfectly grand used car at a very low price. I've driven it several thousand miles already without having the slightest trouble. My husband says he was sure of getting a dependable buy because the car was backed by the Dodge dealers' Seal of Dependability, and the Triple-Checked Tag gave him all the facts and information about the car before he bought it. "Any family needing a second car will do well to check the Dodge dealer's classified ads and get a used car carrying the Dependability Seal."

Weaning Has Begun

Decision of Secretary Ickes, concurred in by President Roosevelt, to deny applications of a number of projects for aid from the Public Works administration would indicate that unemployment is coming near to normal and that the business of the country is much better. The secretary stated that refusal of many projects was made because the applicants were able to finance the approved projects without federal assistance.

Whether this plan will be followed by the WPA has not been determined, but if employment is so greatly decreased as indicated by Secretary Ickes it probably will be. At any rate, WPA is sharply curtailing its activities.

Perhaps we have cause to be glad that we got our various PWA projects in county and city completed or underway before federal assistance was cut off. Big Spring and Howard county as governmental units, but to the unemployed of the area—was cut off. At that, this county and this city had to provide many thousands of dollars out of their own treasuries to make up for what the administration had approved but which it did not pay.

The time would seem near when we shall have to go back to the good old-fashioned method of looking after ourselves. It is the proper way, and except in cases of dire distress such as faced us a few years ago, there should be no looking to a state or federal authority to do what should be done by the people directly affected. Under that method, nothing is done that is not reasonably necessary and when it is done that can be some feeling of pride for having done it. There is factor of efficiency and long-run economy also to be considered. The city of Big Spring dropped federal-aid policies and launched its independent street paving, and that program seems to be coming along satisfactorily.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Jimmy, the legless swimmer, is around town looking for an angle on how to beat the sharks and barracudas on his proposed swim from Key West to Havana.

"It's like this," says Jimmy, "I can do it, see? What are sharks afraid of? Porpoises. What are barracudas afraid of? Porpoises. Well, I'll get me some porpoises and maybe a few sea lions and take 'em along with me."

Zimmy—his name is Charles Zimmy, and only a short time ago he spent 140 hours swimming from Albany to New York—is legless and full of ideas. He was thinking only today, he said, of swimming the Dardanelles, maybe, or knocking off the English Channel.

Zimmy always calls it that before a swim. "In a couple of days, maybe, I'll knock off Hell Gate. The last time I swam it was on a February day. Had to take 72 strokes a minute to keep warm. I did the Golden Gate in 56 minutes. Well, maybe I'll knock off Catalina channel before I go to Florida. Anyhow I got to get me some porpoises."

His idea on the porpoise thing is to build a big contraption out of net and keep the porpoises and sea lions imprisoned. They are to accompany him unwittingly as guards, all the way from Key West to Havana.

"If you feed a porpoise he'll go anywhere with you," says Zimmy. "He'll never forsake you. That's where he's different from people. He's very faithful. He's the very milk of human kindness. I should say sea lions are the same way."

Zimmy admitted one of the things that occurred to him as he was propelling himself down Broadway on his little wheeled platform was to offer himself to the European governments. He thinks he can find the pirate submarines in the Mediterranean.

"Just an idea," he said.

Harping back to his swim down the Hudson, Zimmy had much to cavil about—bad seaweed areas, the careless bargemen who nearly ran him down at night, losing his goggles, and sleeping conditions.

"It was the only swim I ever had to re-grease on," he complained. "Well, the seaweed was so tough. I just floated over it."

Then there is the matter of familiar faces bobbing up more frequently this week than in months. The celebrities and tycoons are coming back from business and pleasure trips. In a single evening I saw Gertrude Lawrence and Noel Coward, who came here via the Queen Mary; Sylvia Sydney, rehearsing for a new Guild show; Les Farrington, lanky vice president of Northwest air lines, who is six foot eight and taller than Primo Carnera; Tallulah (here comes the bride) Bankhead and her actor-husband; Clifford Odets, the author; and Sinclair Lewis, who is making his first effort at writing directly for the stage. His other drama efforts have been adaptations of his novels.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

WASHINGTON—Out of the murk of unrecognizable war in China has come one bright spot. The Japanese were trying to land a contingent of marines at Shanghai. To clear the way, their ships were pounding the Chinese defense lines unmercifully with light and heavy naval guns. In turn the Chinese artillery hidden back in city, was dropping their shells into the Whanspoo.

GROVER a desperate effort to prevent the landing. Came noon.

It was time to eat. As if by common consent, both sides stopped firing for an hour and a half. After lunch, the battle was resumed about where it left off.

Ground Rules

Now if wars are to be fought, that is the way to fight them. The idea might be extended. One of the horrors of the World war was the night attack, the raiding party onslaught when bands ranging from 20 to 500 men would slither across stinking no-man's land and dive into the enemy trenches, surprising their victims in all manner of uncomfortable positions.

As long as China and Japan are setting some new international fashions, they might as well establish a new code to prohibit night attacks. A man can fight a better fight after a night's sleep. Any reputable physician will testify to that.

There was a time—only a few years ago, during the early days of Chiang Kai-Shek, when the Chinese fought in a nice way. At that time they were fighting only the enemy, so by common consent could adopt certain sporting rules.

The Chinese didn't fight at night, nor too early in the morning. They often stopped for meals, and it was considered a foul to land a shell in the middle of a lunching group.

Then again, fighting stopped when it rained. That was a mighty concession to comfort in modern warfare. Rain means mud, and in mud everything goes wrong.

Death In The Afternoon

Moreover, the fighting was confined largely to those who wanted to fight and it was considered the thing to do for both sides to stop firing at each other to turn their guns on any foreign gunboats that chanced to be puffing up the Yangtze.

Gunboat commanders respected in kind, shelling the devil out of the Chinese along the shore during the afternoon and feeling free to go ashore at night to eat a 50-course dinner with the local notable.

The Japanese moved in on Shanghai in 1921, and war took on a different cast. The Japanese take war seriously and didn't hesitate to move in on the Chinese at night. In the recent fighting, moreover, they drove the Chinese out of the important pass leading into outer Mongolia, conducting almost the whole campaign in a sea of mud.

That sort of warfare is nasty for both men and mules. So it was with unfeigned delight that local table-warriors—the noon habit in the fighting around Shanghai and hoped it marked the recognition in warfare of something akin to the Marquis of Queensbury rules.

MEET MONAHANS

STANTON, Sept. 24—Although two members of the backfield, H. A. Hull and John F. Priddy, will be out of the game because of injuries, Stanton's Buffaloes hope to offset their initial defeat by Colorado last week with a victory over the Monahans eleven on the field here Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

The team is practicing "long and hard" for the fray, Coach B. C. Henderson reports.

Tackling dummies have been ordered and also additional suits, he said, Stanton this year forsakes the purple and gold which are favorites of West Texas towns for school colors and her players and pep squad will blossom out in the more distinctive red and gray recently chosen.

Bridge

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—Love, which in Hollywood is news when it isn't a movie is about, is becoming anathema in movie titles. A year ago a title like "Love Without Reason" would have been a bummer. Today Hal Roach is offering a prize to the studio worker who thinks up a substitute without "love" in it.

Love alone—just "Love" has been a title only twice. That's what they called "Anna Karenina" the first time they made it. But "love" in combination with other tricks has been a title 155 times—not counting the "Lovers" and "Lovings" and "Lovelles." And that is up to the last official count, not including this year's releases, where in titulary speaking love has been.

Two Much Love

News on Toast, under Fire, in a Basement, in a Bungalow, from a Stranger, Like That, etc., etc., to say nothing of Love in such combinations as "Danger-Love at Work," "Ladies in Love," and the forthcoming "Live, Love and Learn" and "Love and Hises."

It's a case of Too Much Love, which incidentally hasn't been used for a title—yet. But there's a very good opening for a few Hates. Hollywood hasn't had a mean title since 1922, when Metro made a picture called just "Hate."

The movies' opera stars (speaking of love) seem to be having a love feast these days. The Misses Pons, Moore, MacDonald and Swarthout were photographed together at the recent Basil Rathbone party, and it was supposed to be the first time in their mutual histories.

Lilies To Lily

As if that weren't enough, Miss Pons, her slim figure clad only in a handful of ostrich feathers and trinkets for her role of pseudo-jungle girl in her new film, was rehearsing bird trills from a prop on her studio set when a package arrived. After the scene, Lily, Lily's pres agent, convinces Edward Everett Horton, a trophyless big game hunter, that Lily is a wild bird-girl or girl-bird worthy of capture. Lily climbed down from her perch and went to her dressing room. Thence soon issued exclamations of delight, followed by Lily in person towing a box taller than herself.

"Grace sent them—Grace Moore!" she beamed. "How sweet of her—we should take a picture. Lilies—how sweet!"

Miss Pons' picture, whether appropriately to the incident or not, is called "It Never Happened Before." At least, it never happened before that Lee-Joe and Gracie had the same pres agent, which is the case now.

Local Stores Have Full Stocks As They Join In Observance Of National Furniture Week

National furniture week, Sept. 24-Oct. 2, will find Big Spring furniture concerns stocked as never before since the flush days of 1929.

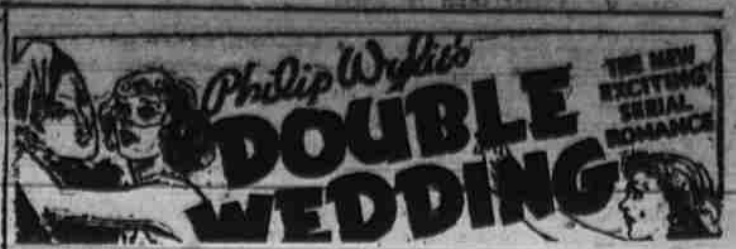

All concerns are carrying vastly more complete lines and better lines, and right now they are not worrying so much about customers as storage space.

Their floors are packed with colorful designs, higher quality nites, a broad offering of differing items, and pieces abreast of the modernistic trend.

Furniture dealers, perhaps more than other merchants, have felt a growing demand for not only more goods, but better quality goods. Their summer business has been better than they anticipated and they note indications that the public is to be furniture conscious this autumn.

Recognizing that people are thinking about new furniture to add to or replace their old, Governor James V. Alfred has proclaimed national furniture week in Texas, saying that "governors and mayors of several states and cities have proclaimed one week of each year as national furniture week. The retail furniture association of Texas this year joins the national organization in this celebration, and endeavors to show that national life are beneficial to all. Now, therefore, I, James V. Alfred, governor of the state of Texas, do hereby set aside and proclaim the week of Sept. 24-Oct. 2 national furniture week in Texas."

MOSCOW (UP)—Production of the first serial of the new film, "Peter I," has been completed. It was produced by Director V. M. Petrov, and is based on the novel by the same title by Tolstoy.

CHAPTER XXVI

Waldo waited nervously in the lobby of the Hotel Ritz-Plaza. Charlie had told him to meet him there at one for lunch. It was now one-fifteen. He hoped Charlie would appear—but he was faintly frightened. Charlie always frightened him. And he was not especially anxious to enter the dining room of the Ritz-Plaza with Charlie. Waldo would undoubtedly see people whom he knew at the hotel. Smart people. And Charlie would wear outrageous clothes. Things made of buckskin, even. Furthermore, at Waldo's elbow, chatting busily, were half a dozen debutantes who were waiting to go into luncheon until more of their sort had arrived. What they would think of a man in a flannel shirt, Waldo could not imagine.

Somebody—Charlie—you could never miss the voice—called, "Hello!"

Waldo jumped—and turned. For a moment he did not recognize the trailer adduct. In a tailored grey flannel suit, with a dark blue shirt and a dark tie, Charlie succeeded in appearing not only better dressed than most of the men in the room, but also individual and artistic.

Waldo stared and flushed with relief and said, "Hello." He stood, "I shall we go in?"

"Not yet," Charlie said down. The debutantes were looking at him with unabashed interest. "Cigarette?"

"Thank you, no."

Charlie studied Waldo silently. He had arranged the meeting for a good and subtle reason. He was in love with Margit—bursting with love for her. The news would soon be around. He, himself, in fact, was busy spreading it. But the acknowledgment of his love left him with a problem. Irene, superficially, he was still her beau, and ideal. Something had to be done about Irene at once hence his date with Waldo.

Finally Charlie spoke. "I've asked Irene to join us here at two."

"Irene? Oh, good."

"I suppose you still love her?"

Waldo nodded resignedly. "I always shall. Till the sands of the desert are mud."

"Yes, I know," Charlie wondered how to go on. Presently he had an inspiration. "You realize, of course, that—although I've spent a good deal of time in Irene's company—our relations have been purely—shall we say, platonic?"

"You have been admirable, Charlie."

The young artist put on, suddenly, a very stern face. He shocked his companion by saying forcefully, "But not you, Beaver! Not you, I'm bitterly disappointed in you."

"In me? Disappointed? But—Charlie—I never interfered. I recognized your superiority the moment I saw it. I stepped aside. I urged Irene—"

"Exactly," Charlie was fairly fierce, and the debutantes quieted down to listen. "See here, Beaver! Do I look like a woman thief to you?"

"Well—when you put it that way—no—And furthermore—"

"Furthermore, fiddlesticks! Remember when I psychoanalyzed you?"

"Vividly."

"What did I say?"

"You said I was a bit on the easy-going side."

"Easy-going! A bit! I said you trailed apron strings. I said you were a slazy. Right?"

"Quite correct."

"I told you to stand up on your hind legs and fight! Did I—or did I not?"

"Well—yes—though my boxing days are somewhat past. You said, I believe—"

Waldo glanced apprehensively at the interested debutantes. He wondered what Charlie was going to make him fight.

His friend brushed his words aside. "What did I do next? Ask yourself that!" Charlie gazed menacingly. "What? I'll tell you, I stole your girl!"

"An ineluctable great love—"

"I stole your girl, I repeat. Why? Two strong and beautiful natures—"

"Two strong and beautiful natures—my eyes. I stole your girl to make you fight! Do you think I run around the world thieving women—"

Charlie threw a sop to his conscience—"all the time? I do not! Do you think I—"

He paused dramatically. "Waldo—it hurt me to see you believe that. You were my friend. It hurt me more to see you fail me. Fail to fight me, that is."

Waldo did not know what to do or to say next. He tried several things in rapid succession. Meantime, the debutantes leaned closer, and a couple of men and women stopped to watch. Waldo said, "Well, well, this is quite a situation, isn't it? Dear me, I'm glad that you remained my friend through all this. No—I wouldn't dream of fighting a friend."

"You're going to!"

"What?" Waldo flinched and blinked. "Me?"

"Listen, Beaver. You don't deserve any more help from me."

Waldo tried to agree to that. It seemed like a way out. "That's right! Don't waste any more time on me—"

"But I'm going to help you just this once. Irene loves you. She was dazzled by me. Why?"

Charlie wondered why for a moment—and then caught the spirit of the thing again. "I'll tell you why. I've got zingo! That's what you need—zingo."

"I'm sure I do—"

Waldo murmured, looking for an exit.

"O. K. Listen. Irene comes in here at two. To meet me. What happens? Don't interrupt. I'll tell you. I'm not here. You are. You are stern and silent. You take her in to lunch. Let her order what she pleases—but you knock off raw oysters, rare roast beef, and a pint of lager."

"I see. A pint of lager. Does this diet help you to—"

"Help you—nonsense! It impresses her. What's your favorite food?"

Waldo pondered. "Well—I'm pretty fond of chicken—a la king—"

"Terrible. Look. Tell her your favorite food is raw buffalo meat. But you can't get it here. Understand? Swell. Tell her you love her. Tell her you're sick and tired of the way she has been fooling around with me. Tell her you're sick of the sight of me. Then I come in—"

"I get it! You come in and corroborate the fact that I like raw buffalo meat."

"Nonsense!" Charlie drew a despairing breath, but he persevered. "You are saying that she's going to quit seeing me—"

"Suppose she brings up the matter of Felice. I held her hand there—after all—for several hundred miles. After all—ever Steven—"

"If she mentions Felice—swell. Curse. Ask her what business it is of her's. Tell her about a countess you took to Egypt—or a Polynesian dancer—"

"I've never been east of Pennsylvania—"

"Don't interrupt! Where were we? Oh, I come in. I walk over-smiling. I hold out my hand. 'Well, Waldo—I say.'"

"And I say, 'Have some buffalo chops—'"

"You stand. You look at my hand. You don't touch it. You say, 'I'm glad you came in here, Jones. I have something for you. On guard!' Then you nod me. I fall unconscious. Irene sees you zingo. She loves you once again. And my part of helping you is ended."

Waldo was staring, bug-eyed. "Oh," he finally murmured. "Supposing I hurt you?"

"You better. I'll take that chance, anyhow—for a friend."

The audience, which, by that time, was quite large, fittered. But not Waldo. He slowly smiled gathered itself upon his innocent countenance. He had at last caught the spirit of the thing. Somewhere in his brain it dawned upon him that there had been times in the past month when he really would have enjoyed taking one good swing at the self-assured and exuberant Mr. Jones. Just one. Waldo was in the same state as Margit had been when she found herself really enjoying kissing Charlie. It was astonishing, and against apparent fact and belief, but it was true. She had realized that she wanted the kiss. Now Waldo perceived that he wanted that haymaker.

"Have you got it?" Charlie was asking with eagerness.

"You'll see," Waldo answered beatifically, "when you get it."

Charlie stared quickly. Maybe, he thought, there were wheels within wheels in the nature of Waldo Beaver, Jr. Anyhow, it didn't matter. Some disposition had to be made of Irene immediately in order to clear the field.

When Irene arrived and found Waldo sitting alone, she was visibly disappointed.

Her disappointment, however, soon changed to surprise. Waldo's first response to her was amazing. "Charlie? I don't know where the rat is! You're eating with me—since you're here. Come on!"

For table conversation he had further novelties. "I don't know if I ever told you," he began, "but I was in Burma a few years ago."

"Burma? Really, Waldo?"

"Really! Dreadful place. Had to leave in a hurry. Killed a man there. Six, in fact."

Irene's amazement was flattering. Waldo ordered the raw oysters and the beef. But—as the meal progressed, he felt his brief grasp of zingo slipping. After all—suppose Charlie got mad?

It was with a sinking sensation that he actually saw Charlie barging through the tables. "Zingo!" he whispered to himself.

"What?" said the somewhat uneasy Irene.

Charlie came up. He beamed down on them. "Well, Waldo—"

He held out his hand.

Waldo dragged himself tottering to his feet. He felt too weak to knock a fly off a marshmallow. He avoided Charlie's eyes. He murmured his lines. "I'm glad you came here, Jones! I have something for you. On guard!"

"Why, Waldo," Irene exclaimed, "you don't have to address Charlie by his last name! He's an old friend."

Charlie stuck out his jaw so that it couldn't be missed.

But Waldo's last drop of zingo had coozed. He gazed at Irene. "You're right—as usual, dear. Sit down, Charlie. Have some chicken a la king, or something, with us."

Waldo has clearly fallen down on Charlie and the latter is now in a predicament. How can he woo Margit while he still has Irene on his hands? Don't miss tomorrow's thrilling installment.

Suits Are Filed For Collection On Jobless Fund

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Auditors for the Texas Unemployment Compensation commission today continued their field checkups in a campaign against delinquent contributors to the state's "jobless" fund.

The commission yesterday filed suits against Noel Dairy Products, Inc., of Houston for $2,969 and W. H. Merrill of Greenville for $830 in Austin district courts to collect alleged delinquent payments and penalties.

Officials said additional suits would be filed unless payments were forthcoming.

The Texas fund to pay "subsistence" wages to workers losing jobs through no fault of their own has passed $14,000,000.

DELAY DECISION ON GOP CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Strong opposition within the republican national committee has forced postponement until November of a showdown on the proposal by former President Hoover and others for an unofficial national convention next year.

Despite evidence of majority sentiment for the plan, the party's executive committee voted unanimously yesterday to refer the suggestion to the entire national committee.

with his aerial show a season ago and who seems to have bounded back bigger and better than ever. He's Tommy Samuels, a flash with his right pay, who works in admirably with that quick breaking Eastland offense.

He will be joined in the May secondary by Jim Taylor, 160 pounds of driving back and Jack Daniels, fullback, who also tips in at 160 pounds.

Grady's chances of victory were handicapped when two of his halfbacks were put on the sidelines due to injuries. He will probably start either Bobbie Furse or Jim Brock.

In The Line

The two lines should shape up evenly both averaging around 160 pounds. The Eastland crew is going to have the advantage at the wings, boasting 170 pound men at each of the terminal posts but the locals will be heavier at tackles.

Howard Hart will be outweighed at the pivot berth by about 25 pounds while guards of the two teams should shape up even-steppin.

A year ago the Mavs come to Ford to hold the highly touted Herd to a scoreless deadlock despite the fact that they were doped to lose by three touchdowns. The entire game was played during a driving rain.

Tonight the situation is reversed. Indications are that the Eastland bunch will take the field the favorites and will have a dry field to present their classiest aerial show. The showing they made in losing to Brownwood a week ago proved better in the "expert's books" than the dismal display the Longhorns put on in losing to Class B Wink.

TRUCKER MISSING

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Police were asked this morning to aid in a search for Lester Millhouse, Albuquerque, N. M., trucker who disappeared here Thursday after selling a truck load of produce brought here from New Mexico.

Ernest Kenyon, uncle of the missing man, told officers he and his nephew were supposed to meet Thursday afternoon to return to New Mexico together, but Millhouse failed to keep the engagement.

Kenyon said Millhouse had a large sum of money with him.

CHILD IS INJURED

GOOSE CREEK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Bessie Dunning, 3, was near death in a hospital today with a head injury suffered when a boat landing windlass crank struck her four times.

Her father, J. T. Dunning, an engineer, said the child was playing near the windlass and evidently loosened the brake lever on the cable drum, causing the cable to unwind. The crank handle struck the child on the head and arm.

RACE WAGERING IS OFFICIALLY 'DEAD'

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Horse racing where you could back up your lunch with a wager died "officially" in Texas today.

Actually it faded from the scene months ago because the legislature failed to appropriate funds for race officials and the racing commission turned down applications by the major tracks for "farwell" meets.

Today was the effective date of repeal of legalized wagering voted by a special session of the legislature. It was a "90-day" bill since it failed to obtain sufficient votes to become immediately effective.

SOCIAL SECURITY FUNDS GO BEGGING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—About $400,000 of social security funds due wage earners or their heirs is going begging, officials estimated today.

The total is made up of small sums available for thousands of individuals who became 65 years old during the last year and for the estates of persons who died after paying some social security taxes.

Actuaries had estimated there would be 300,000 social security accounts closed out this year. Yet in the first nine months of the year only about 30,000 accounts were closed.

In any case, officials said, the situation will take care of itself in future years. The average lump sum payment will be larger, providing more incentive to claim it.

FIRE DAMAGE
The second fire, originating from a gas leak, in as many days caused slight damage to a house at 710 Bell street Friday morning. Firemen believed that the fire resulted from a leak in a rubber hose connection to a cooking stove.

APPEALS SENTENCE

HOUSTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Attorneys for Carl Maddux, 19, today planned to appeal the 10-year sentence given him last night in the slaying of James W. Turner, 19.

Turner was stabbed to death at a North Side sandwich stand after he assertedly had given Maddux the "Bronx cheer" and the two had engaged in a fight.

Dictators In Important Confab Next Tuesday

MUNICH, Germany, Sept. 24 (AP)—Informed sources disclosed today that Premier Mussolini and Chancellor Hitler have agreed to make a joint, world appeal for peace when they speak Tuesday at the close of a huge demonstration in Berlin.

Mussolini en route to Munich today by special train for what is regarded in diplomatic circles as a highly-important meeting with Germany's fuesher, was said to have already completed his speech on the subject.

Italians in position to know said Il Duce's speech and Hitler's would constitute a mutual message of peace which might form the basis for lasting understanding in Europe.

Hitler, who already has arrived in Munich to greet Mussolini at the railroad station tomorrow morning, and the Italian leader were represented as having in mind the attainment of peace through some arrangement with Great Britain and France, according to information available in diplomatic circles here.

DUCE FRIENDLY

LONDON, Sept. 24 (AP)—An authoritative source asserted today Premier Mussolini had promised Britain and France he would send no more "volunteers" to Spain, making possible Italian entrance in the Anglo-French diplomatic front and a new balance of power for Europe.

While Britain and France were keenly anxious to accept Italy's advances at face value they could not help but look for a possible snag. A definite feeling of optimism prevailed in foreign office circles but it was tempered by a slight suspicion of Il Duce's motives in presenting such a startling assurance regarding Spain.

His sudden willingness to promise that no further troops should be sent to aid the Spanish insurgents—coming on the eve of his departure for an important conference with Chancellor Hitler of Germany—caused many observers to wonder whether Italy was preparing some new and surprising move.

Some British observers—and Rome dispatches bore this out—were frankly considering Mussolini's gestures of cooperation with France and England as a method of strengthening his position to drive a harder bargain with Hitler.

PRISON WARDEN DIES OF STAB WOUNDS

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 24 (AP)—Stabbed 12 times by convicts, Warden C. A. Larkin of Folsom prison died today, the fourth victim of Sunday's riot in the penitentiary yard.

Death followed by a few hours a sixth blood transfusion in a desperate attempt to save Larkin's life. Dr. Proctor Day, prison physician, said infection caused the warden's death.

Rifle bullets killed two of seven convicts after they had killed a guard and wounded Larkin and Captain of the Yard W. J. Ryan in a bold attempt to escape Sunday. Five surviving convicts were indicted for murder Wednesday by a grand jury.

CLASS WILL HOLD HOMECOMING

Bluebonnet class of the First Christian church, cooperating in the church loyalty day program Sunday, will hold its annual homecoming Sunday, officials of the unit announced Friday. All members and former members of the class have been invited to attend.

E. L. Brown, 516 Johnson, who has been confined to his bed on account of a heart attack, was somewhat improved Friday. Mr. Brown is with the Cosden Petroleum corporation.

Church Will Observe Its Loyalty Day

Annual Pledge Day, Fellowship Meeting At First Christian

The congregation of First Christian church will observe Loyalty Day next Sunday in an all-day gathering at the church. The report of the past year will be given and pledges for the coming year will be received. Every member is urged to bring a basket lunch and all will partake of a fellowship dinner at 12:30.

"The past year has been the best the church has experienced in a very long time, both from the standpoint of membership increase and the amount of money raised for all purposes," the pastor, Rev. C. C. Schurman, said Friday.

ANOTHER SMART USED CAR BUYER

As Gordon Sewell, plasterer, points out, it is no longer necessary to be an expert on cars in order to get a good, dependable used car at a low price.

"I admit I know but little about automobiles," says Mr. Sewell. "I got just the kind of a used car I wanted—and at my own figure, too. You see, I made it a point to get a 'Dependability Seal' car from a Dodge dealer. As a matter of fact, I noticed the car advertised in the classified columns of the paper. When I found out that it was one of the Dodge dealer's 'Dependability Seal' cars and turned to the classified section of this paper for today's money-saving specials at your Dodge dealer's, you'll find a car or truck to fit your pocketbook! And you can buy on easy terms to fit your budget!"
