FIRE PREVENTION . . .

With the loss in life and property, when measured in dollars, at an all-time high, an aroused nation this month intensifies its campaigns to carry out in communities all over the land a more rigid Fire Prevention program during Fire Prevention Week—October 5-11. Spearheading the movement are fire department officials, assisted by civic, educational, school, and church units. All these agencies are participating through their respective fire departments which have assumed duties for the week-long campaign. Our Volunteer Fire Department, headed by Fire Chief Homer McCrary and eighteen members of the volunteer group, has charge of the observance here. To bring about a better understanding of fire prevention the Post group is sponsoring a county-wide poster contest. All school children in Post, the rural area, and the colored school may compete for prizes. Inspection blanks will be distributed through school children to their parents so that homes may be checked for safety. When it is learned that three-fourths of all fires are residences, occupants should welcome the inspection blanks. Fire drills in schools and club programs will help to place emphasis on Fire Prevention measures. Fires have increased 12.3 per cent over last year. Major causes are careless use of matches, smoking, misuse of electricity, overheated or defective chimneys, spontaneous combustion, and explosions. Let us all pledge ourselves to follow the lead of our fire boys in studying and executing more rigid fire prevention measures this year.

TO EACH HIS OWN . . .

Week in and week out this newspaper is promoting somebody's special week or mentioning it. So we feel it entirely fitting that we mention our own week—NATIONAL NEWS-PAPER WEEK—October 1-8. But actually it isn't our week, it is yours. News about people you know and love, news of a son or daughter coming home to spend a few days with mother and dad, trivial news of all members of your family go to make up an interesting paper. To us these "bits of news" are the very heart throb of a country weekly. They add a personal feeling to the routine accounts of church, school and civic affairs. They distinguish the weekly from the larger dailies—make it a paper you look forward to getting each week even though you know a lot of the news before it is printed.

Newspapers, and by that we mean the newspaper as an institution, are perhaps the most widely used medium for gaining knowledge in this world, despite radio, TV and periodicals. No where in the world is the press so free as in America. It isn't important that you agree with the editorial stand of the paper or that you like the reporters or the editor, but it is essential that this group report the news as they find it and that they write it with all the force at their command. It is important that they have this freedom. The newspaper by that very character is your servant. It means so much to all of us that the world would be dark without it. It is one of the most cherished possessions. Let us keep it that way.

Texans In WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY,
Associated Press Washington Service

WASHINGTON, A Texan named James McInnes Henderson was recently made Director of the Office of Rent Stabilization.

His own small northeast Texas hometown of Dingerfield happens to be one of the 20 cities and towns which have been designated as critical defense housing areas and thus automatically placed under controls. None of the Texas cities with 70,000 or more population has rent controls. Some did have, but voted them out.

"We're not so unpopular elsewhere over the country," he said, smiling. "In fact, virtually every city of any size in the East has controls."

A graduate of the University of Texas, Henderson served in various responsible federal positions before taking over the rent control directorship on Aug. 27.

"I stepped in just in time for the revising and extension program called for by Congress," he observed.

Trents expire Sept. 30, in all except critical defense areas unless the governing bodies of the cities affected specifically request that they be retained.

He estimated, on the basis of requests now in, that between 60 per cent and 75 per cent of all such non-critical defense area towns voluntarily will remain under controls. Practically all of the large cities in the East will continue them, he added.

Politics plays only a minor part in the rent control picture, Henderson says. "Notwithstanding the fact that a lot of critics want to shout and cry that it's New Deal or Fair Deal bureaucracy."

He declared that regardless of who wins the November Election, or who controls Congress after Jan. 3, rent controls will be continued.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK

Threats Of Third World War Are Greater Than Ever, But People Are Forgetting The Dangers

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Two years ago almost everyone was worried about World War III. Newspapers told of the defense plans being made by the government; magazines printed gory descriptions of the probable destruction of American cities; while families were buying small "hide-away" farms or building bomb-proof cellars. Today we hear very little talk along these lines, except by those families who have boys in Korea. General sentiment now is that World War III will not come for ten or twenty years—"so why worry?"

What the Experts Tell Me
Strange to say, this "City of Brotherly Love" is one of the chief centers for producing war materials. This gives me an opportunity to get some inside information. Experts here tell me that the prospects for World War III during the next year or two are greater than ever. They claim that Russia is now putting us to sleep and may jump upon us at any time. It is hard to believe this because it seems to me that Russia would have attacked us during the past six months if she wanted to start World War III. Experts, however, insist that Russia is waiting only to build up a greater supply of atomic bombs and super-sonic airplanes; they are especially disturbed by the Russian-Chinese Conference now being held in Moscow.

Obviously, the present Korean situation cannot last indefinitely; one side or the other must quit. If we should quit, this would certainly result in bringing more trouble somewhere else; while if the Chinese should quit, it could result in Russia losing all her Asiatic gains. Therefore, the fear is that Russia, through the Chinese, may issue an ultimatum to the United States giving us a certain time limit in which to get out of Korea—"or else." This could cause a severe break in the stock market and business. This ultimatum could come directly after elections in November, especially if Eisenhower should be elected.

What World War III Would Mean
Of course, Russia may suddenly adopt the "Pearl Harbor" program by dropping atomic bombs on one or more of our large cities without a prior ultimatum. Although we are building a marvelous radar system, yet experts tell me that some Russian planes could get through during the first twenty-four hours, and kill millions of American people. In either case, Congress would immediately be called into session, and very stringent controls would be applied to all kinds of business. Profits would largely be taken away by 90 per cent taxation; and in thirty days we would be living in a new world.

World War III would result in much further deflation of the dollar, its value perhaps falling to twenty-five cents. Hence, some people believe that the stock market—after the first big drop—would recover and go to greater heights than ever. So long as our country remains immune from damage, this might be true; but if some of our big cities were bombed and a few million Americans—including women and children—were killed, the stock exchange would be closed and panic would reign. Let no reader fool himself that in the next World War he will have an opportunity to "make money."

What Shall We Do?
The above does not mean we should get panicky today. It, nevertheless, does mean that we should not forget the possibility of World War III coming at any time. Even an ultimatum by Russia would give our markets a great scare, even though Russia might try this only as a bluff. If Russia should decide to strike, without notice, as did the Japanese, then World War III will have started in all its fury.

In view of the above, I appeal to readers to take time to figure out what they would be obliged to do and how they would be affected if World War III should come—no gasoline, standing lines for foods, and all our boys gone to war. Think back to what happened to you during World War II, and multiply those inconveniences by several times. If you now live in a large vulnerable city, get a small place in the country before it is too late.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Sometimes an open mind is one that is too porous to hold a conviction.

The Dallas Morning News may be expected to resume publishing the daily pollen count for hay fever sufferers, which was omitted last week, now that the Nixon story turned out to be not too much to be sneezed at.

I spent the greater part of last week trying to get upset over Mr. Nixon's hip-pocket slush fund, which was supposed to keep the boy in stamps and stationery. From all the hue and cry you'd think he had committed the great train robbery . . . but it's all over now with exception to last minute shouting . . . a few kind words from the offender smoothed the matter over.

If the criticism had gotten too caustic, I might have consoled myself by casting my left eye down on little old Happy Harry's record. He has owed more favors to more people than anyone I have known in all my years. The payoff on those favors have resulted in the dirtiest political regime ever registered for the records. Even Harry's trusted friends turned out to be brazen influence peddlers and shell-game operators. His doctor speculated in grain, Vaughn specialized in serving the five percenters. Seven of Harry's income tax appointees are in jail.

What if a few well-meaning Californians wanted to chip in a few hundred here and there to keep Nixon solvent while he went about the expensive business of representing their state and slandering Communists on the side? He is less guilty of crime than of practicality. If he wanted to make big money I doubt very much if the 18 grand would have been sufficient for his time and talent. He should take lessons from the Truman boys . . . they make bigger hauls.

THE WOMEN. God Love 'Em—Woman driver to companion after parking the car. "That's close enough . . . we can walk to the curb."

Pharmacy week, fire prevention week, wine week, posture week, save the horse week, macaroni week, donut week, United Nations week, cleaner air week, apple week, hat week, girl scout week and honey week are to be observed over each other during the month of October. And here I am a full day into my own week before I realized it. Yes, sir, Newspaper Week!

For my money, Newspaper Week means a lot of men and women who know news, running about getting it together and wondering why they ever got into the business. It means a lot of other folk taking the news that comes in and putting it together and wondering why they ever got into the business. And printers and pressmen working together into the night and wondering why they ever got into it. And advertising salesmen on their long rounds doing the same wondering. And me, the boss, watching the payroll and newspaper and other productions costs going sky high and wondering why I ever got into the business.

We read in one of our neighboring newspapers the other day where the editor's father had eight sons, all but one of whom became editors. The exception became a doctor who is now treating all his brothers for ulcers.

I swiped this "10 Seconds To Live" gem from one of our exchanges, and now that we are in the midst of trying to get Post folk interested in public safety and behind a movement to line up a Citizens' Traffic Commission, we thought it would be timely to print:

He pushed his sleeve back, held his wrist close to the lighted speedometer, squinted to read the time. A little after nine. Five, ten minutes after. Ought to be home in half an hour.

If he'd known he had only ten seconds to live, He might have checked the time more closely. He might have done several things differently.

Ten seconds to live. He massaged his eyes with thumb and middle finger, trying to rub out some of the sand.

Nine seconds to live. He'd driven almost eight hours since lunch, and was beginning to feel it.

Eight seconds to live. Lousy driving in the rain. Light from your headlights just seems to soak in along with the water.

Seven seconds to live. Probably need a new windshield wiper blade. Old one just spreads the water around instead of wiping clean. Get one tomorrow, or next time it rains.

Six seconds to live. Somebody threw a cigarette out of an oncoming car. The red glow dissolved almost before it hit the pavement.

Five seconds to live. He planted his heels on the floorboard,

Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Let Him Stay In England

All this front page space being given to Charlie Chaplin and the possibility of his being barred from returning to this country calls to mind an idea I always have had along this line. Why don't we have a law which says that an immigrant must become a naturalized citizen within ten years or such failure becomes just cause for deportation? That Chaplin guy has been in this country for 40 years and all during that time he hasn't been sufficiently impressed with what this country has to offer to become a citizen. Let him stay in England. — The Stamford American.

Weathers Sells Out

Sheriff "Slick" Clem as bought out the interest of John W. (Jackie) Weathers in the Clem-Weathers Furniture and Appliance store. The deal became effective last Saturday. In the future, the store will be known as Clem Furniture and Appliance. J. E. Sherrill is in active charge of the store until Mr. Clem retires as sheriff of Lynn county. "Jackie" has not announced his plans for the future.—The Lynn County News.

Reminds Us Of Joke

At the first of each football season we are always reminded of the joke about little Willie, who had been taken to see his first football game. All the noise, cheering and general excitement had impressed him. That night as mother entered his room to hear his prayers, she saw him standing in bed, swinging his arm from side to side and crying: "God bless papa! God bless mama! God bless sister! Rah! Rah! Rah!"—The Hamlin Herald.

A Revealing Set-Up

There's a beaucoups of cater-wauling about Sen. Nixon's $18,000 kitty contributed by "friends" to help him make the country safe for Nixon, McCarthy, McCormick and MacArthur. Our own surprise is that the senator sold out for such peanuts. It usually takes more than that to buy such an able politician. For over a hundred years aspirants to state and national office have been milking "friends" out of millions to further their election. The theory is that once elected, said politician will find ways and means of paying back such funds in a manner satisfactory to all concerned. There's nothing, like Nixon said, wrong about accepting campaign money. Everybody knows it takes from $2 million to $5 million to elect a man squirmed back in the seat, trying for comfort.

Four seconds to live. At 60 miles an hour, a car covers 88 feet of pavement every second. Four seconds, 352 feet.

Three seconds to live. Something looked wrong through the blurring windshield. A tentative dab at the brake stiffened into desperate, unlighted, slow-moving truck ahead.

Two seconds to live. Panic moved in. Turn to the left. No, car coming. Headlights too close. Can't make it. Turn to the right.

One second to live. Horror numbed everything into slow motion. He was floating right into the rear corner of the truck bed. He opened his mouth to scream.

NO SECONDS TO LIVE

It's happened to lots of people; maybe not just that way, but similarly. Drive too long, eyes get tired, reactions slow down. Rain, darkness, a windshield that's hard to see through. Driving too fast. A car or truck ahead that you can't see. It's happened to lots of folks.

Movies Of The Week

Movies have sung the praise of old time cowpokes from the beginning of the old silent films to the present day fast moving and talking pictures. What about the modern cowpoke? The men performing in the rodeos across the nation, how about them? Friday and Saturday's movie, "THE LUSTY MEN", is a picture honoring these cowpokes from Texas and New Mexico, who ride the "Big Time" rodeo circuit.

Movie patrons of Post are privileged to view this picture weeks before its national release. "THE LUSTY MEN" will be in Post this weekend on its Region Wide World Premiere.

The film is considered definitely "Texan". Some of the character players are from Big Spring and the Rodeo scenes, shown during the movie, were made in Amarillo, Fort Worth and San Angelo.

The plot of the picture revolves around the men that ride the glory road of the "Big Time Rodeos". Robert Mitchum enacts an ex-rodeo champion, who undertakes the task of making Arthur Kennedy into the champion performer of all times. Love interest and feminine beauty are added to the film by lovely, autumn haired Susan Hayward. Miss Hayward has the misfortune of falling for Mitchum, while she is married to Kennedy. This difficult situation is straightened out smoothly in this picture of the rodeo game from the small shows of Texas to the championship event in Madison Square Garden in New York.

Don't miss "THE LUSTY MEN", a picture that will be enjoyed and long remembered by Postites. "SHE'S WORKING HER WAY THROUGH COLLEGE" is on Sunday and Monday's menu for gaiety and amusement. This is a fun filled story of an ex-burlesque doll, who aspires a writing career. She decides to go to college for preparation of her chosen career. Needless to add, she was a big success with the male members of the college (professors and students alike), but the coeds had a different opinion of her. Things started to popping when "Gay Gertie" (her professional name) suggested a musical show instead of the regular school play. Virginia Mayo, Ronald Reagan, Gene Nelson, Phyllis Thaxter, and Patrice Wymore head the cast for this rollicking story of campus life. We'll leave you now and let you see the picture for the rest of the details.

BLAMES SON'S DEATH ON POLITICS—Jake Floyd, sr., of Alice, has blamed the death of his son on an assassination attempt which, he said, was designed to kill him. Floyd is an advisor to political leaders in South Texas, who oppose the rule of what Floyd calls the "New Party." Two men have been charged in the death of his son who was killed when he fell into a trap laid for his father.

"The bravest hero of all the seven seas" makes his appearance at the Tower, Tuesday. This hero is "CAPTAIN PIRATE", portrayed by Louis Hayward. This is an action filled epic filmed in Technicolor based on Rafael Sabatini's famous novel, "Return of Captain Blood". John Sutton and Patricia Medina are the featured players in this thrill packed picture. If you like action, color, and swashbuckling entertainment, be sure to see "CAPTAIN PIRATE".

Latest news from Hollywood: Lana Turner has a new boy friend. She and the "lucky dog", Fernando Lamas, are the stars of the picture of the week, "THE MERRY WIDOW". The picture is photographed in vibrant and opulent Technicolor and will be at the Tower, Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Turner plays the role of the beautiful American widow of a multi-millionaire. The story takes place in the mythical kingdom of Marshovia, which is in the state of bankruptcy; Lamas as Count Danilo, plans to marry the widow to save his country from disaster. First, he mistakes Miss Turner's dour secretary as the wealthy lady and begins to declare undying love for her. The true widow learns of the scheme and flees to Paris, where she poses as a chorus girl. The count journeys to "Gay Paree" and falls for the American chorus girl. He is so struck by her beauty, he says he will renounce the rich widow for the poor little chorus girl. Featured in the cast are Una Merkel, Richard Hayden and Thomas Gomez. See "THE MERRY WIDOW" for something different in musical comedies.

Since we have chosen "THE MERRY WIDOW" as the picture of the week, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Strange might enjoy it, also. If they feel they would, two tickets are waiting for them at the box-office for any performance.

"PREACHER" STEPHENS

Rev. J. E. Stephens, Methodist minister in the Northwest Conference for 52 years, will observe his 50th birthday Tuesday. Mrs. Stephens will entertain with open house to all their friends to call on their home between 10 o'clock in the morning and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. Mr. Stephens, a native of Texas, was born in Erath County, October 8, 1872. He entered the ministry in 1893, at the age of 21. During his long ministry he has pastored 24 churches, in Garza, Borden, and Garza counties, and has been a member of the Texas Conference of the Methodist Church since 1900.

He was superannuated by the conference after 47 years service while working with the church eight years ago. His retirement he has led in Garza, New Home and other churches.

Preacher or Brother Stephens as he is affectionately known by his many friends, told a reporter that he could estimate the number of marriages and funerals that he had performed during his career by the number of "marrying" people almost all his life. He revealed that in the and Mrs. Stephens enjoyed for Garza County couples that he had performed wedding ceremonies for and that 16 couples attended.

He stated that his total of marriages read was upped somewhat during the time that he served as county judge for three years in Canadian, in Hemphill County. "That was during the illness of my first wife; I went back to pastoring in 1924," he revealed.

Preacher Stephens remembers many amusing experiences during his 52 years work. He related "you know everybody gets excited at a wedding and the preacher is no exception. Once during my early days I was reading the double ring vows for a couple and I asked both if they took each other to be their 'lawful wedding wife.' I guess that's the only wedding I ever officiated for where both the man and woman got a wife in the deal."

The Rev. Mr. Stephens was presiding elder of the Big Spring district, consisting of 10 South Plains counties, for several years. He traveled over the territory in a buggy, and had headquarters in Big Spring. "One time while I was presiding elder, I had started from Plains to Big Spring, a distance of around 100 miles, and it was a couple of days before Christmas and I had to hurry to get back to spend the holidays with my family. The weather was almost zero and it was getting late so I started looking for a farmhouse where I could spend the night and get feed for my team. Getting feed for a team was a big item then as it was in 1910, the year we had one of the worst droughts in history. I finally spotted a house and drove up and asked the family if I might spend the night there. The man apologized and explained that all of his kids were home for Christmas and that he would be unable to care for me unless I could sleep in the bunkhouse out in the back yard. His wife brought me a fine supper but that was the only fine thing about the arrangement, as I had to sleep on the hardest plank bed I've ever seen and almost froze to death. I just lay there and thought 'this is really something for a presiding elder!'" the minister laughingly said.

"About the strangest wedding I was ever called on to perform was while we lived in Quitaque. A couple came to our home to get married and both wore men's clothing, had their hair cut like men and were about the same size. After looking them over I finally said whichever one of you is the bride stand over here. Now, it isn't anything unusual to see women wearing slacks, shirts and manish haircuts, but that was in 1925 and it was rather unusual then," the reverend said.

Brother Stephens recalls conducting worship services in Post when there wasn't a church building here. The congregation met in the old rock courthouse, which stood at the present corner of Main and Broadway, site of the Gulf Service station, he said.

The preacher remembers that while he lived in Canyon he preached at three different churches and rode a bicycle 32 miles for the services each Sunday. He pedaled to Tulla where he spoke in the morning, returned to Halfway for an afternoon service and preached in Canyon in the evening. "That was one time the people didn't have to feed the preacher. I had to leave immediately after each service to be on time for the next one so I not only missed out on going home with my church members but I only had two meals a day, breakfast and supper, and both at home. I thought of that the other day when I drove 55 miles to Jayton and preached and then came home for lunch," he said.

The following churches have been privileged to have the Rev. Mr. Stephens as their pastor: Desdemona, Brookhaven, Coppas Cove, Claude, Canyon, Hillco, Floydada, Big Spring, Hamlin, Snyder, Stamford, Canadian, Turkey, Lockney, Sweetwater, Post, Abilene, Olton, White Deer, Idalou, Cooper, Grassland, New Home and Wilson.

The Rev. and Mrs. Stephens were married in 1924. They first lived here when he began a four year local pastorate in 1932. After his retirement in 1944 they returned to Post and maintain their home here although he still preaches over the area. Both sing in the Methodist choir and he teaches a Sunday School class.

The minister has one daughter, Mrs. Mable Waldman, of Los Angeles, Calif.; a granddaughter, Mrs. Louise Silva, of Centerville, Calif.; a grandson, Charles Stephens, U.S. Navy; two great-grandsons; a step-son, Phil Trammell, and three step-grandchildren.

Preacher Stephens summed up his life's story with the following remarks: "I have had a good time in my life, of course I've had my ups and downs just like the next fellow, but I have enjoyed my 80 years and I want to keep on having a good time. I don't want to get old and I strive to prevent it by trying to smile and stay pleasant."

The Lubbock Associational Worker's conference will meet Tuesday at the Pleasant Valley church. A program will be given from 10 until 12 o'clock in the morning and lunch will be served at the church at noon.

A called session of the Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist church will meet in the First Methodist Church in Lubbock Tuesday to outline the program of Stewardship for the next four years.

The Pleasant Valley Baptist Church met the "challenge of the west" by giving $285 to the State Mission offering last Sunday. "This was well above our goal according to membership," the pastor, Rev. Bryan Ross, said.

The Rev. F. M. Wiley and his son, Audya Wiley, attended the associational meeting at the Atton Baptist Church last Friday.

The attendance at the regular worship services at the Methodist Church is increasing according to the pastor, the Rev. Joe E. Boyd. One of the objectives of the Stewardship program of the church is to increase the Sunday School attendance by 50 per cent, and the Rev. Mr. Boyd said that he believes that the church will go far beyond this goal. Sunday morning's worship theme will be "World Wide Communion." The pastor will speak on "Am I Worth Dying For" at the evening hour. The public is invited to attend.

The Pleasant Valley WMU women sent four large boxes of clothing to Round Rock Orphans home last week.

Six Revised Standard Version Bibles were presented to local church workers in a special service at the Methodist Church Tuesday evening. Dr. Hubert Bratcher was guest speaker. Bibles were presented to Jim Hays, Calvary Baptist Sunday School superintendent; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick, Christian parents in the First Christian Church; Gil's McCrary, chairman of the building program at the Presbyterian Church; Ellis Mills, Sunday School superintendent at the Methodist Church and Christian educator; Kenneth Rogers, president of the young people's society at the Nazarene Church; and to the church library at the First Baptist Church.

"World Wide Communion Sunday" will be observed at the Presbyterian Church Sunday, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Gerald N. Blackburn.

The children of the First Christian Church will present a special program of singing Sunday at the morning worship, in observance of Sunday School Promotion Day.

Texas State Fair In Dallas Will Open October 4, With New Features Added

The State Fair of Texas, America's greatest and grandest fair, will open its glorified 1952 exposition Saturday, Oct. 4, newest in the glittering parade of spectacles.

Opening day festivities will include the world's biggest picnic, steak sandwiches for an expected 100,000 farm and ranch kids on hand for Rural Youth Day; and a preview of the fair by some 2,000 newspaper, radio and television representatives.

One of the big surprises of the fair for many visitors probably will be "Tex," towering 50-foot cowboy figure, who'll stand near the Hall of State wearing the biggest pair of blue jeans ever sewed (a checked shirt of comparable size, a 75-gallon hat and a four-foot-wide smile). In addition, the fairground has been dolled up to such an extent that the 187-acre, $35,000,000 park looks like a new place.

An important intercollegiate football game in the Cotton Bowl at 8 p.m. Saturday night will pit the rambunctious Southern Methodist University Mustangs against the powerful Ramblin' Wrecks from Georgia Tech.

Sunday at 2:30 p.m., professional football makes its debut at the fair with the new Dallas Texans playing the San Francisco 49ers and Monday at 8 p.m. Austin College will play the National University of Mexico.

Daily attractions for the fair include the Martin & Lewis Auditorium Revue, nightly with matinees Saturdays, Sundays, and Thursdays; Joe Cycles of 1953, nightly with matinees Saturdays, Sundays and Oct. 8; the Aut Swenson Thrillride, 24 performances; "Show Boat" three to five performances daily on the Midway; the Variety Club three-ring circus, matinee and night performances daily; and, of course, the million-dollar Midway with its dozens of rides and shows, including the "Sky Wheel" and the sensational new "Rotor."

There are more than 4,000 head of beef and dairy cattle, horses, sheep, swine and goats, 27 breeds in all, entered in the livestock exposition.

About 3,500 entries have been received for the Women's Show.

Levelland, previous winners: Miss Ritchie; Mrs. Mary Helen Knox of Whiteface, another winner; Mrs. Lloyd Johnson of Seminole, treasurer of the scholarship fund, and Miss Margaret Weeks, dean of the home economics division at Tech.

IH Dealer Wins Prizes In Big Sales Contest

The sales record of Dowe H. Mayfield, Inc., local International Harvester dealer, in selling IH refrigerators and freezers during the recent national sales contest has resulted in their placing fourth among the top-five dealers in the Sweetwater territory.

In winning fourth place in the International Harvester refrigeration sales contest the local dealership missed out by only a small margin in being one of the two IH dealers who, with their wives, received all-expense 8-day cruises on the "Queen of Bermuda" from this IH sales area. More than 500 dealers and their wives are sailing on a Bermuda Nassau cruise, starting October 11 as the result of being the district leaders in the sale of refrigerators and freezers by International Harvester during the 75 day selling event.

Valuable merchandise prizes were awarded to third, fourth, and fifth place winners in all IH sales districts.

The number of nerve cells in the brain does not increase after birth.

which also will feature numerous contests and free shows by the Burne Performing Birds.

Other features of the fair include the new Electric Show, Science-Engineering Show, Automobile Show, General Exhibits Bldg., Natural Gas Bldg., Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Natural History, Aquarium, Hall of State, Cotton Bowl football on eight days, farm implements, numerous free shows and hundreds of special days and events.

HAPPY ONE HUNDRED—Mrs. Ioma Wylie, of Wichita Falls, observes her 100th birthday with a three-tiered cake presented by friends. Born in Tennessee during the reign of Queen Victoria, the celebrant vividly remembers the Civil War, but she'd much rather talk about current politics (her creed: "Once a Democrat, always a Democrat.") She has lived in Wichita Falls 30 years.

Garza County Boy Accepts Position

Raymond L. Robinson of Waco, formerly of Post, has assumed duties as minister of music and education at North Waco Baptist Church, according to his mother, Mrs. J. E. Robinson.

Robinson attended high school in Post and Texas Tech College in Lubbock. He is a graduate of Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, with degrees in music and religious education. He is a veteran of World War II, with one year service overseas.

After finishing the course at the Seminary he did music-education work in churches of Greenville and Oakdale, La. He also held a minister of music-education position at the First Baptist churches in Yoakum and Cameron.

Robinson, his wife, and their two children, Nelda, 7, and James David, 10 months old, are residing at 3520 North Twenty-fourth Street, Waco.

Security Aid May Be Obtained for Reburial

When the body of a serviceman who died overseas after June 24, 1950, is brought to the United States for reburial, the Social Security Administration may repay part of the cost of the reburial in certain cases, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office.

Ordinarily, a claim for the social security lump sum for burial expenses must be filed within two years after death. Recent amendments to the social security law, however, provide an extension of the time limit in cases where the body of a serviceman who died after June 24, 1950, is returned to the United States for reburial. In these cases the reimbursement may be applied for within two years of the date of burial or reburial rather than within two years after the date of death.

Where the serviceman is survived by a widow this provision will not ordinarily apply, since in these cases the lump sum is paid to her regardless of who pays the burial expenses.

Those wishing to know more about this and other phases of social security should contact Gerald L. Schantz, field representative of the Lubbock Security office, who will Post on October 8. He will be at the Post Office at 11:30 a.m.

Texas' First English School Closed Doors

SAN FELIPE, (AP)—Ean Felipe, where the first English school in Texas was believed to have opened some 120 years ago, doesn't have a school this year.

The school simply did not have a high enough daily average attendance to keep operating under the new Glimer-Alkin Public School Laws.

So the San Felipe children are going this year to Sealy to school. Time was when San Felipe was one of the most important towns in Texas—the Texas of Indians and struggling colonists. Stephen F. Austin laid out San Felipe on the Brazos River, down in what is now Southeast Texas, as the Capital of his colony in the 1820's.

It is believed that Thomas J. Pilgrim founded the state's first English school there in 1829 or thereabouts.

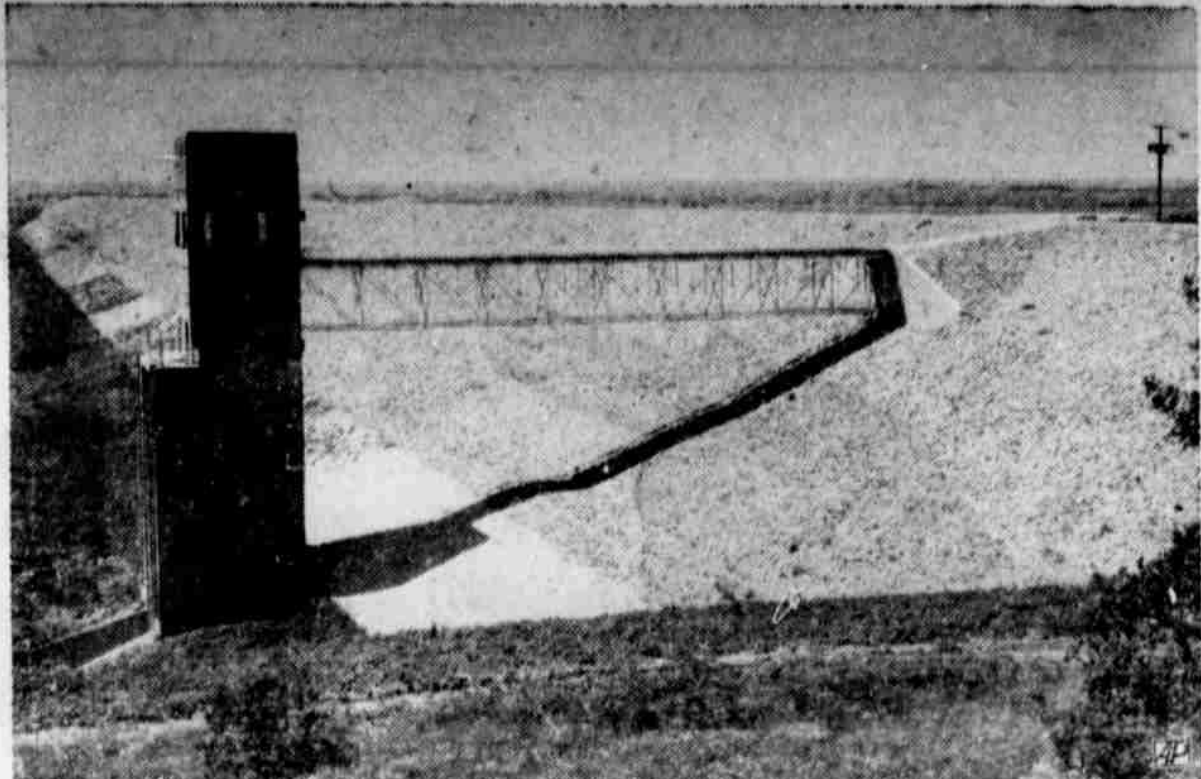

San Felipe has about 300 population now. Average daily attendance at school last year was 14.82. The Glimer-Alkin bill requires an average of 15.

But the San Felipe school district still exists. It's the understanding here that if the scholastic population increases enough within the next two years to meet requirements, San Felipe once again will have a school.

Army Chaplain Gets Back At Grippers

FORT HOOD, (AP)— They tell grippers in the Army: "See the chaplain and get your card punched." That's wry-type humor, son.

But Maj. A. J. Turner, Fort Hood Chaplain, gave the old saw new teeth and not only mollified disgruntled soldiers sometimes but also gets them to read the Bible.

Back in 1952, Maj. Turner says, "I got to thinking about the complaints of servicemen and the joking comeback their buddies would make of 'tell it to the Chaplain.'"

He listed 20 complaints common in the Army—like "No Furlough," "K. P. Duty," "Overworked," "Restricted" and "Outranked." He had these printed on pocket-size cards with matching Biblical references. Since then he has distributed more than 100,000 cards.

A soldier who's low on mail can check his card, turn to Proverbs 25:25, and read:

"As cold waters to a thirsty soul so is good news from a far country."

The answer to "Overworked" is in John 9:4:

"I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: The night cometh when no man can work."

And in case reading the scriptures isn't enough, Maj. Turner has this invitation printed in the center of the cards:

"This is to certify that you are entitled to consult with me for any, or all, of the complaints contained on this card."

CITIES HAVE UNEMPLOYMENT HONG KONG, (AP)—Communist China has three million unemployed in its major cities, says the Peiping Peoples Daily, organ of the Communist party.

STOP, THEN PASS HALTED SCHOOL BUS AT 10 MPH, LAW SAYS

School busses over the state have now begun the task of carrying thousands of children to and from their studies. Soon to be expected are the inevitable tragic reports of deaths and injuries occurring when impatient youngsters dash across busy highways to greet their waiting parents or to board the bus. Most of such accidents could be avoided if motorists would adhere strictly to the letter of the law pertaining to the passing of school busses.

Most Texans are aware of the law which requires a driver to come to a complete stop when overtaking a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children. After stopping immediately behind the bus, he is then allowed by law to proceed past same at a speed "which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

What many persons do not realize is that the very same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus. While everyone is interested in protecting our children, unthinking violators of this simple safety rule greatly outnumber those who comply. Failure to follow the law in this case can lead to fines up to $200 even when no accident occurs. Following an accident in which some child is injured or killed, the penalties are naturally much more serious.

Although the above rule does not apply when passing a stopped school bus in a business or residential district of a town, the necessity for extreme caution even in those locations is obvious.

When it comes to overtaking and passing moving vehicles, exercise of ordinary common sense will generally keep a driver within the law. For instance, when passing a car it is only common sense to proceed on past it a safe distance before cutting back to the right side of the highway. Also, any driver would realize the danger of increasing his speed while another is attempting to pass him.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions. Of course, you may legally pass on the right in a few specific instances, such as when the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn, or upon a one-way street with two or more lanes, or upon a four-lane highway.

However, our traffic laws state that even when passing on the right is allowed, it shall be done only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. And in no event should such passing be accomplished by driving off the pavement or main-traveled portion of the roadway.

Even when not engaged in passing another vehicle, a driver is prohibited from driving to the left of the center of the roadway in many instances. Familiar to all are the no passing zones designated by dash lines placed to one side of the center stripe on our highways.

Not so well known are the restrictions against crossing the center line when approaching within 100 feet of any bridge, viaduct or tunnel. The prohibition also applies when approaching within 100 feet of or when traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing. A driver should never cross the center line of a highway when the left side of the road is not clearly visible and road is not clearly visible and free of oncoming traffic.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

OIL BUSINESS

The demand for oil increases every year.

Americans need more oil for more automobiles, for more airplanes, more ships, more high speed locomotives and more of many things besides.

And just as one merchant competes with another for your business, oil companies compete for it, too—for the gallons of gasoline and quarts of companies vie with each other to develop low cost transportation. Refineries compete to supply more and better oil products. Salesmen compete on the basis of quality products and the service rendered.

It's a good thing, this competition, a healthy thing. It is the life of the oil business; it keeps the industry vigorous, progressive, enterprising.

But its chief benefit is to you and other Americans. Competition within the oil industry discovers and develops a natural resource necessary not only to modern living but to national defense. It supplies you and the country with continuously improved petroleum products; today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three in 1925, but the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

Lions' Costume Party Is Big Success Tuesday Night

Impersonations from "Diamond Jim Brady" to "Chief Sitting Bull" were seen at the Lions' club ladies night costume party, Tuesday night in the school cafeteria. Approximately 15 couples were present in costumes representing clowns, pioneers, gypsies, hobos, hillbillies, and other miscellaneous groups. A short business meeting was held after the meal and Christmas cards to be sold by the Lions members were shown to the guests. The proceeds from these cards will go to the Lions' Crippled Children's Home at Kerrville. Another business item discussed was the serving of coffee to the school teachers; it was decided that the Lions club will serve the teachers of Post high and grade school coffee all during the day. "If, during a conference or off period, a teacher wants a cup of coffee, there will be some for them at the school cafeteria," E. E. Pierce stated. After the business meeting, old time songs were sung and games were played. "I had more fun than I have had in years," Mrs. Victor Hudson stated. Mrs. Hudson's costume was a "Gibson Girl" outfit. Antelopes Edge Past Sundown In Non-Conference Tilt 7 To 6

The Post Antelopes were victorious over the Sundown Roughnecks by a score of 7 to 6, Friday night, in a hard fought and close battle in Antelope Stadium. This was the second win for the Antelopes and the third defeat for the Roughnecks.

L. W. Evans, of the Antelopes, and Don Waygood, of the Roughnecks, were the men carrying the ball over for the touchdowns. Evans kicked the winning extra point for Post and the attempt by the visiting team failed.

The game started when Post kicked to the Roughnecks and recovered the ball after a fumble on the first play from the line of scrimmage. The Antelopes fumbled on the second play and Sundown recovered. No yardage gain was made by the Roughnecks and another fumble was made and Post recovered again.

Evans and Tommy Malouf took the ball for small gains on the next three plays and then Evans kicked a punt for 25 yards. The Roughnecks took the ball for considerable gain on two plays, and then made a 15 yard run. This driving offense was stopped when Sundown fumbled again and the Antelopes recovered.

Post's offensive team went to work and drove to the one yard line and Sundown took the ball from that position on downs. Waygood kicked a 25 yard punt and Darrell Norman caught the ball and carried it for a five yard return. Evans drove to the 14 yard line and then another fumble by Post gave the ball back to Sundown. The first quarter ended with a punt kicked by Waygood and Post took the ball on their own 38 yard line.

On the first play from the line of scrimmage in the second quarter, Evans drove for 10 yards and a first down. A penalty set the Antelopes back and Evans punted again. Sundown's fullback, carried the ball from the line of scrimmage for two long runs and then was stopped by the powerful Antelope line. Waygood punted again. Stone caught the ball and carried it to Post's own 48 yard stripe. Randall Lawrence, fiery 126 pound Antelope halfback, carried the ball for an 18 yard gain on the next two plays, then the defensive Roughneck team became a solid wall and the ball went back to Sundown on downs. Sundown failed to make any yardage gain and Post took the ball on their end of the field.

Evans took a handoff from Stone and drove six yards goalward. Tommy Malouf took the ball on the next play and plunged over for a first down. After penalties against the Roughnecks for a personal foul and unsportsmanlike conduct, Stone passed to Evans and the first touchdown of the game was marked up. Evans added the winning point with a kick from the seven yard line after a five yard penalty for offside.

The remainder of the first half consisted of outstanding defensive work by the Antelopes and struggling attempts by the Roughnecks for yardage.

Stone received the ball after the kick-off starting the second half and carried to the 30 yard marker. After no gain plays by Post, Sundown took the ball on their own 30 yard stripe, but they failed to make the necessary yards for a first down, and the Antelopes took the ball on downs again. This "see-saw" situation continued until late in this quarter, then Waygood took a handoff from Quarterback John Jones and made a 31 yard run to mark up Sundown's lone tally. The extra point attempt by Jones failed.

Highlights of the fourth quarter were the driving power shown by the Roughnecks and the offensive work done by Norman and Hays for the Antelopes. The Roughnecks drove to the one yard line and a fumble gave the ball to the Antelopes. Evans made some of the best runs of the game late in the last quarter, and Don Moore, Antelope guard, Hays, and Norman were outstanding on defensive. Post failed to make any gain and Evans punted 48 yards. Waygood picked up the ball and was touchdown bound when Moody Graham, safety man, stopped him and the final whistle blew.

Statistics on Friday's tilt:

Post Antelopes Only Victorious Team In District 6-AA In Last Friday's Play

The Post Antelopes were the sole survivors of football games last week of the District 6-AA schools. The three other teams of the district found the road rocky.

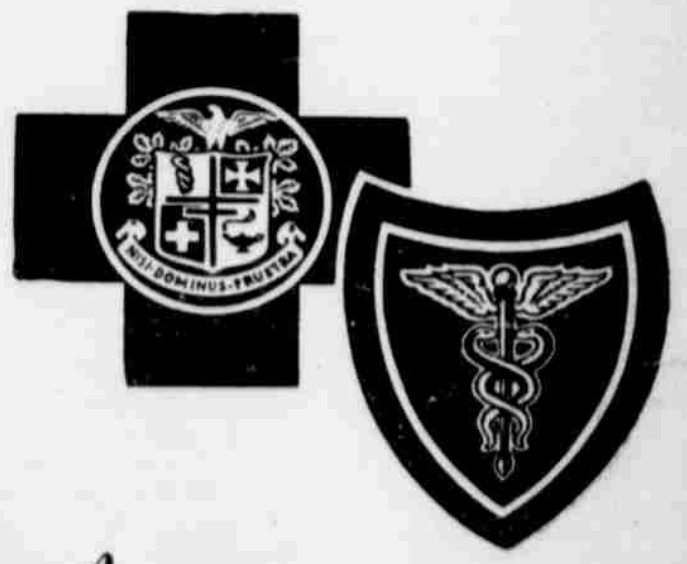

Post trimmed Sundown 7-6; Spur was defeated by Tulia 13-0; Seminole handed Tahoka a 27-0 loss; and Littlefield laid the wood to Slaton 38-7.

At present Spur continues to hold the lead in the district with the best offense and defense, despite last week's loss. Slaton has scored the same number of points as Spur, that is 51; but Spur has held their foes to 26 points while Slaton has yielded 101 points.

Season's standings for 1952 in District 6-AA is:

Teams	W	L	T	Pct.	Pts.	Opp.
Spur	2	1	0	.667	51	26
Post	2	1	0	.667	27	45
Slaton	2	2	0	.500	51	101
Tahoka	1	2	0	.333	14	92

Announcing

THE GARZA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

POST, TEXAS

Is A Blue Cross Member Hospital

You are invited to talk with the special representative of BLUE CROSS AND BLUE SHIELD who for the week of September 29 through October 4, hours 9-5, will be located at TOM POWER, INC., FORD AGENCY, POST, TEXAS.

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: L. W. Evans, left and Fred Long have been named outstanding players of the Sundown game, by the Antelope Booster Club. Bill Edwards, president of the Booster club, stated that Long, tackle, played good offensive ball all during the game and extra-ordinary defensive work during the fourth quarter. Evans, a co-captain for the Antelopes, was a fine offensive man with the driving runs made during the game and catching a pass from the quarterback for the touchdown, then kicking the winning point.

Stone, Lawrence and Malouf received their injuries in last Friday's game, while the others were injured in workouts. All these boys are starters.

Bingham stated that he has been working this week, getting replacements for these players, in shape for Friday's tilt.

"It is not definite that all these boys will be out of the Ralls game, but if no improvement of their condition is made before game time, they can not possibly start," he added.

The Jackrabbits were defeated last week by the Flodada Whirlwinds, 32 to 0. The Rabbits lost only a few men from the powerful team they had last year, so they are experienced as well as heavy in weight.

Bingham was unable to give a probable starter for the Antelopes, because of the injuries, but he reported that Ralls' probable starters will be: Tommy Pearson, 165 pound man, at center; Buddy Payne, 180 pounds, and Wayne Rainwater, 146, guards; A. J. Landon, 190, and Tommy Scroggins, 180, tackles; Max Dyess, 140, and Charles James, 175, ends; David Fowler, 145, will be in the quarterback slot; Roland Purser, 165, and Wendell Kimbrough, 155, halfbacks; and Don Bennett, 170, fullback.

SMU And Texas Are Predicted Tops In Southwest Conference

Associated Press Sports Editor By Harold V. Ratliff

Who will win the Southwest Conference Football Championship? The coaches, who don't know either, won't guess at it, leaving to the Sport Writers whose reputations can't be damaged no matter how they pick it.

Last year we took Texas A&M which proceeded to finish in a tie for next to last. There have been other years when our choice did better—wound up third maybe. Getting that close is considered a moral victory in this screwy conference.

Most everybody has picked

Texas Christian. A few took Texas; there was a scattering for both Arkansas and Rice. We'll at least be different. Here's how we pick them to finish:

1. Southern Methodist.
2. Texas.
3. Texas Christian.
4. Rice.
5. Arkansas.
6. Baylor.
7. Texas A&M.

Southern Methodist has the material—the men—to take the championship. The Methodists should be almost as good as last season with their passing and 1,000 per cent better in running. SMU also has a greatly improved line. The Methodists weren't anywhere nearly as bad as their 1951 record indicated—one victory, four losses and one tie. Most of the games the SMUs could have won. With a much better team it is reasonable to think they will win the games they lost last season.

Texas has a solid team that could take it all and cause no surprise. The Longhorns are playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, although not much tougher than Southern Methodist, but it never has been the inter-sectional schedule that gave either of these schools the trouble. They each have a great inter-sectional record over the years.

6th-7th Team Win Over Tahoka 20-6

With Bobby Cowley leading the way, Post's Little Antelopes raced to a 20 to 6 victory over the Tahoka sixth and seventh graders, Thursday night in Tahoka.

This was the second win for the Post team, after beating the Slaton team, 19-0 last week. Tonight they will journey to O'Donnell to meet the sixth and seventh graders of that school.

The most spectacular play of the game was a 55 yard run by Cowley for the first touchdown. The extra point try failed. There were several long runs made by the Post boys for yardage gains. Cowley ran the other touchdowns over on around right end plays. The extra point conversions were carried over by Jackie Odom and Lester Seaton.

Cowley, the quarterback for the Little Antelopes, was the outstanding player of the game. He made the touchdowns and did fine defensive work. Other players that sparked the team to victory were Wayne Runkles, right end, and Larry Hays, halfback. These boys were in on the tackles, throwing the opposing team for a loss on almost every play.

Herman, Raphael, coach, stated that the offensive team looked a lot sharper than they did last week in Slaton and better defensive work was done by the squad.

The Little Antelopes have a game scheduled for each game played by the eighth grade team during the junior conference. Tonight they will match skill and wits against the Eagles' sixth and seventh graders in O'Donnell, at 7:30.

Texas Golf Writers have been asked to pick the top linksters for the amateur team that will meet the professionals in October in the Texas Cup Matches. The writers are selecting 25 but truth of the matter is that 25 won't cover the field of great golfers in Texas.

A list of 25 will leave out some of the best players in the country. But here's our 25:

Those cup matches should be something to see. The pros, already have Byron Nelson ready to play and hope to get Jack Burke, Jimmy Demaret, Henry Ransom and maybe the great one himself—Ben Hogan, but the amateurs will do all right no

Enrollment At Tech Well Over 4,000 Mark

Fall enrollment at Texas Tech pushed well over the 4,000 mark at the close of the first three weeks of the 1952-53 year. According to Tech Registrar W. P. Clement, the present figure was slightly higher than at the same period last year. Tech officials remained firm in their belief that final registration figures will top the 5,000 mark. Evening course enrollment is expected to push the figure over the 5,000 mark. These classes usually enroll from six to seven hundred.

Arts and sciences leads in divisional enrollment with the engineering division in second place. Business administration placed third and agriculture, fourth, followed closely by home economics in fifth place.

Chamber Of Commerce Notes

By Mable Lawrence

Most of you have noticed occasionally articles connected with the name of Michael Ambrose, of Pittsfield, Mass. He wrote the Postmaster, Harold Voss, about a year ago seeking information on Post. The letter was placed with the Chamber of Commerce office to be answered and a brief history of Post was included. He then subscribed to the Post Dispatch. From that has come a strong corresponding friendship between Mr. Ambrose and Dr. B. E. Young. When Mr. Ambrose saw Dr. Young's directory advertisement in the paper, he undoubtedly must be one of the smartest "little" men in the U. S. cause his letters to Dr. Young sound as if he could supply anyone with a "false set," except Mr. Ambrose refers to them with the more dignified medical term.

We have found out through Dr. Young that Mr. Ambrose has a family, is associated with General Electric Corporation, and may come to Post for one of the rodeos next year.

A few days back, the Postmaster received another such letter from Irving E. Rollins of Rosindale, Mass., wanting a brief history of Post to include in a book he is compiling to be called "Touring the U.S.A."

At the Chamber of Commerce

Board of Directors meeting Monday afternoon, it was agreed that the Chamber would purchase 100 of the POST CITY, POST, publications for future sale to interested people who have not applied for one of the releases. The rough manuscript is on hand for inspection at the Chamber office. The books will be ready to ship October 17 from the printers, R. R. Donnelly & Son of Chicago. It will be an excellent Xmas gift and is also a book that is needed in each home library.

NEWSPAPER BOY'S DAY—is slated for the fourth day of National Newspaper Week, which is being observed October 1st to 8th, and it is only fitting that the Post Dispatch carry the above picture of part of its carrier boys. Of course, it was impossible to get all the boys assembled at one time for the picture, now that football, cotton picking, and a few other activities occupy a part of their time. The crew averages from six to ten boys, who each Thursday afternoon pick up newspapers and sell them on the streets and in the residential sections of Post. Each boy averages selling from 25 to 50 Post Dispatches. Two boys, Herbie and Jerry Hays, with Herbie pictured second from left, and Jerry missing out on having his picture made so that he could participate in a junior football game, have been selling Dispatches for about four years. The brothers sell 90 or more newspapers each week over their routes in South Post. Others pictured are Johnny Montgomery, Hays, Cecil and Kenneth Bullard. Standing behind the four boys is Wendell Huddleston, a Dispatch reporter.

Scout Meeting In Lubbock Planned

A South Plains Boy Scout Council meeting will be held tonight, at Camp Post at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the South Plains Council. Jesse Ward, scoutmaster of troop 16, announced Tuesday.

A council-wide meeting will be held in Lubbock on Saturday, October 11, for all Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorer Scouts and their leaders. This meeting will be held in the Arnett-Benson Theater on College Avenue. The time for the meeting is 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Ward reported that a large number of Scouts from Post are planning to attend this meeting. Mrs. Phil Trammell, assistant den mother of the Cub Scouts, stated that they planned to carry a large representation from the Cub Pack in Post. Mrs. Trammell asked that all boys wear their uniforms.

The showing of a movie, "Room For One More," and the distribution of the "Liberty Bell Get Out the Vote Reminders" booklet are on the schedule for the activities of the afternoon. The South Plains scouts will cooperate with other Scouts of the nation in distribution of these booklets on reminding citizens to vote. The Liberty Bell get out the vote doorknob hangers are to be placed on every home in America on Saturday, November 1, to remind the voters that election day is near at hand. Scouting is non-political, but this project gives the boys an opportunity of reminding other people of one of the duties of the citizen, that is to vote. Dr. C. C. Schmidt, Chairman of the Council's camping and activities committee, announced.

The afternoon program will terminate about four o'clock and the various groups will have the opportunity to make industrial tours and visits within the city of Lubbock. Each of the Packs and Troops will have to make its own arrangement for the Saturday evening meal. Dr. Schmidt stated that many are planning to bring sack-lunches and hold picnics in the parks of Lubbock.

The Texas Tech and Texas Western football game is on the schedule for the evening program. All the boys and leaders are to gather in the gym on the Tech campus at 7 p.m. and go to the game in a body. Dr. Schmidt said.

A council round-up of all Scouts and Explorers is to be held at Camp Post in November to further promote the program of scouting on the South Plains. Ward reported.

Plainsman Suggests that George Samson Be Placed On Exhibit at Next Year's Fair

George Samson, who for the past 26 years, has in some way been an important figure around the agricultural building of the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock, the first of the week was back at his judging post.

For many years Samson was considered "the competition to beat" by agricultural men of the area who would appear at the Fair with their county exhibits. Samson's Garza exhibit was always in the prize money and not only did it take top honors at the Lubbock Fair, it rated among the top counties at the State Fair, and one or more occasions the popular exhibitor came back from Dallas with first place winnings.

After years and years of successful exhibiting of agricultural products, Samson was named superintendent of this department of the Panhandle South Plains, in which capacity he has served the past four years. At the close of each fair he vows, to his friends here in Post, that he is through judging, but the next fall finds him back "looking the stuff over," and at the same time adding up a point here and a point there until he has every item of each county's exhibit carefully checked.

And, will he judge next year's Panhandle South Plains agricultural exhibits? Maybe not, the Plainsman of the Lubbock Journal has a better idea... here is what we picked up from his Tuesday's column:

"GEORGE (SCOTTY) SAMSON, of Post, is back again at the same old stand, helping in the Agriculture building. He never misses being here and always contributes a lot to the Fair.

"Fact is, when we ran into Scotty for about the umpteenth time throughout our 26 fairs, it occurred to us that next year they ought to exhibit him!

"Nobody in all this country has attended more, or helped more, than Scotty and the people ought to get a chance to look at him. Next year, Fair Manager A. B. Davis ought to put George Samson on some kind of a throne in the Agriculture building, slap a crown on his head, put a couple of fellows to fanning him and then let the folks crowd in!"
