Beer Election Petitions Are Sought Here

A request for a petition asking for a beer election in Snyder has been submitted to the Scurry County Clerk's office.

The request was filed Thursday afternoon by Bill Wright who submitted a formal document signed by himself and nine other individuals. Such a request requires the signatures of 10 qualified voters residing within the area involved in the election proposal.

Others signing the request were Billy C. Dennis, Jack Contella, Frank Reff, Mrs. Bill Wright, Loyes R. Cox, Mrs. Dorothy R. Cox, Pat Underwood, Carlos Mijares and Mrs. Carlos Mijares.

The 10 have requested specifiied petition forms to seek signatures on a petition calling for an election to legalize the sale of beer for off-premises consumption within the city limits of Snyder.

County Clerk Dan Cotton, upon receipt of the request, advised that the petition forms would be ordered immediately and that they should be ready for delivery early next week.

Although no definite calculation had been made, Cotton estimated that about 750 signatures would be required on the petition for an election on the proposal.

Those who sign the petition must be qualified to vote in 1966 elections, since the requirded procedure for calling such an election could not be completed before the end of this month. Thus, new poll tax receipts or exemptions will be required.

Wright indicated that signatures would be sought as soon as the petition forms become available.

Dead Infant Is Found

Law enforcement authorities his morning launched an investigation following the discovery by a city sanitation department crew of a dead-newborn female infant.

The child, believed to have been born prematurely, was found as the sanitation department crew was making a regular pickup route in the east part of town.

"It is a miracle that it was discovered," said Police Chief Chester Simons. Two of the crew members just happened to look down into the truck as the load of refuse was being compressed by the mechanical packer. They might go through the same operation with the packer dozens of times without ever taking a look, the police chief said.

It was estimated that the child had been dead for several hours.

Cone Merritt, justice of the peace, was called to the scene, and District Attorney Wayland G. Holt launched an investigation along with peace officers.

Simons said the sanitation department crew had no idea where the child was picked up, since they did not know how long the body had been in the truck when it was discovered, and they cover an extensive route.

New Type Rig Tested

BELFAST, Ireland (AP)—A new drilling rig to hunt for oil and gas under the North Sea was launched today using a technique never tried before.

The 9,500-ton Sea Quest was built for the British Petroleum Co. It will replace the Sea Gem, which sank in the North Sea last month. It is expected to go into service this summer.

The triangular Sea Quest was launched by lowering its three legs into the water at the same time. A computer was used to help organize the engineering statistics.

If the legs had not been lowered simultaneously, the rig would have toppled over. A Japanese technical magazine had warned that the method was impossible. Usually such rigs are launched in sections.

The shipyard's 10,000 workers were given an hour off to watch the launching, and they set up a huge cheer when it was finished. The 320-foot rig is the first of its kind built in Europe. Two similar rigs have been built in the United States.

Japan Joins Peace Drive

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government today joined the drive to bring the North Vietnamese to the peace table.

Prime Minister Eisaku Sato told roving U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman that Japan will do its best to persuade the Communists to agree to talks to end the war in Viet Nam, officials said.

Sources close to Sato said he was "greatly encouraged" by his discussion with Harriman of the many-pronged American peace offensive and its chances of success.

The sources said the prime minister believes that in the light of the suspension of American bombing of North Viet Nam, the time is ripe for concrete Japanese overtures for peace.

Meanwhile, the Soviet delegation to North Viet Nam headed by top party official Alexander N. Shelepin arrived in Hanoi after a one-hour lunch stop in Peking. The Soviet group lunched with Deputy Premier Li Hsien-nien, a member of the Chinese Communist party Politburo, but sources in Moscow said there was no suggestion of policy talks during the brief stop in the Chinese capital.

The Russians may try to convince President Ho Chi Minh's regime to agree to peace negotiations. But the presence of experts on military production and rockets in the delegation indicates that Shelepin will try to outbid the Red Chinese influence in Hanoi with a boost in military and economic aid which the Chinese can't supply.

It was not clear following Harriman's meeting of one hour and 40 minutes with Sato what specific steps Japan might take to get the Communists to negotiate for peace in Viet Nam.

But the visit to Moscow on Jan. 16 of Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina is almost certain to be the occasion for a first step. Shiina is going to sign an air agreement, but he presumably will have Viet Nam high on the agenda for his talks.

Japanese overtures to Hanoi are also likely to be made through Japan's embassies in Laos, Cambodia and other countries where the North Vietnamese also have diplomatic establishments.

GOVERNMENT INTACT

Crisis Eases In Santo Domingo

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The Dominican Republic's provisional government appeared today to have weathered the threat of a new explosion but the capital was in a state of confusion.

A new crisis reached its climax Thursday night with a proposal by provisional President Hector Garcia-Godoy to send key military figures, including some who had been rebel leaders, out of the country on diplomatic assignments.

The armed forces in this revolution-ridden country moved to block the maneuver, but it remained unclear whether the military had planned to overthrow the provisional government painfully installed through the efforts of the Organization of American States (OAS.)

President Garcia-Godoy stressed his intention to remain in office as long as he had the support of the OAS.

Armed Forces Minister Francisco Rivera Caminero, one of those whom the president wanted to send out of the country, denied that the military leaders had rebelled against the government or that the National Palace had been occupied. He said the guard there merely had been reinforced.

Earlier it appeared the palace and government radio station had been occupied. Troops had sealed off major highways into Santo Domingo.

Rivera Caminero said the government radio, which had been ordered shut down by the president last October, had merely been "taken into custody" for a while. It remained on the air.

The armed forces minister said Thursday night's army actions had been just demonstrations of disagreement, and that the army had acted spontaneously.

The new crisis erupted after the provisional president listed controversial military figures, including some rebel leaders, who were to be assigned out of the country in an effort to bring calm.

Within hours troops moved on the palace and some armed forces informants reported military uprisings in unspecified cities of the interior.

Carr Asks Delay In Gas Price Order

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said today a Federal Power Commission order setting gas prices in the Permian Basin would cost producers $20 million a year, and would mean $1.4 million less for his state in taxes on this revenue.

He also told a federal appeals court that Texas would lose "untold thousands of dollars" on reduced royalties.

Carr asked the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals to delay the effect of the order, which sets prices at 16.5 cents per thousand cubic feet for new well gas and 14.5 cents for old well gas.

Currently the gas is priced at about 19 cents.

"The state of Texas is before this court in its governmental capacity undertaking to prevent a major retardation of economic growth within the Permian Basin and to prevent severe financial loss to the whole state, the threat of which has been brought about by inadequate prices, arbitrarily set by the Federal Power Commission for gas sold in the permian basin area," Carr said.

He said Texas' 7 per cent natural gas tax has brought in $500 million over the past 10 years. This tax alone in 1963 paid for over 12 per cent of the state government's cost of public education and over 25 per cent of the cost of teacher retirement, old age assistance, and aid to the disabled, blind and dependent children, the Texas official said.

Carr added that reduction of the gas prices "would result in a drastic, unexpected, and equally forced reduction in royalty income to the state of Texas from state lands and interests therein, and would immediately result in curtailment of funds for public education in Texas in the face of a present need for educational expansion in this state."

"If a stay is granted," Carr said, "and later if the commission order is sustained, then refunds with interest can be made to the pipelines of any amounts collected by the producers above the finally determined just and reasonable rates and the proper tax credit and royalty credit can be given by the state of Texas."

On the other hand, he said, there is no authority under existing law to compel interstate pipelines, gas distributors, or the consumers to refund to the producers, who would, in turn, reimburse the state for the difference between the reduced rates as imposed by the commission and the rates as finally determined if the commission's orders are found invalid.

Carr said the order should be stayed "as to all producers affected by the commission order and not just the ones before this court.., until the validity of such order is finally adjudicated by the courts."

Outlook Dim For Talks In Tashkent

By CONRAD FINK

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri of India and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan met today for the first time in two days at the deadlocked Tashkent summit conference.

Shastri and Ayub talked for 50 minutes and made tentative plans to meet again tonight.

A well-informed source said that despite active mediation by Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, "Prospects are not too bright."

Kosygin spent much of Thursday shuttling between Shastri and Ayub. The two Asian leaders communicated with each other exclusively through him.

Kosygin apparently was in for more of the same. He was scheduled to meet Shastri early in the afternoon and probably would confer with Ayub later.

Kosygin's difficult task is to find some approach acceptable to both sides for handling their dispute over the Himalayan state of Kashmir, the stumbling block of the conference.

Despite the trouble he obviously was having, Kosygin appeared to be scoring a considerable personal success with both delegations.

Officials of both nations publicly and privately praised the Soviet premier for his efforts here.

Pakistani Information Minister Altaf Gjuhar said his delegation is "deeply impressed by the sympathy and understandin displayed by Premier Kosygin."

Indian Foreign Secretary C. S. Jha said Kosygin is spending a "great deal of time and is helping in every way to make these talks successful."

Saigon Fears More Terror

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Police smashed a Viet Cong plot today to blow up a U.S. billet in downtown Saigon with the biggest plastic bomb ever used in the capital.

Intelligence agents of the national police seized six terrorists two and a half miles north of Saigon as they were bringing a 265-pound plastic bomb in a large water tank into the city. Two of the terrorists were armed with 45-caliber automatics.

Officials had already warned the capital to expect a new onslaught of terrorism in the next two weeks before the Vietnamese New Year — Tet — on Jan. 21. Thursday night they arrested five Vietnamese, aged 16 to 37, in an investigation of two explosions an hour apart at the military entrance to the Saigon airport and across town at a police substation.

The blasts killed one Vietnamese and injured 16 persons, including four American servicemen.

In the field, a U.S. Marine patrol sweeping a road for mines ran into a Viet Cong ambush 6 miles south of Da Nang and reportedly suffered moderate casualties.

A Marine officer said 20 or 30 Reds opened up from both sides of the road with automatic weapons and hand grenades. The Leathernecks returned the fire, killing two Viet Cong on the spot and another in a chase.

U.S. military commanders announced that the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade would continue operations in the marshy Plain of Reeds west of Saigon where the paratroopers have been slogging through mud and water after the Viet Cong for the past week. It is the first big American invasion of the northern fringe of the Mekong Delta, a Communist stronghold.

Although the Viet Cong fell back before the brigade's push, officials said the paratroopers would be kept in the area to destroy Communist supplies. The Vietnamese troops will be withdrawn.

Since the U.S., Vietnamese, Australian and New Zealand soldiers began the operation near Bao Trai, 35 miles west of Saigon, on New Year's Day, they have turned up nearly three tons of fertilizer, nine tons of rice, about 5,000 documents, nine grenade launchers, five machine guns, ammunition, booby traps, radio equipment and medical supplies, officials reported.

Houston To Vote On Bond Issues

HOUSTON (AP) — Improvement bonds totaling $136.8 million will be voted on by Houston residents Jan. 29.

A special election on proposals totaling $8 million was set by Harris County commissioners to coincide with voting on a $52.8 million issue.

The Houston city council also has scheduled a Jan. 29 vote on $76 million in bonds.

Houston's proposals would provide additional funds for road projects and finance general city improvements. County issues would include funds to finance road construction near the Manned Spacecraft Center and a new international airport.

Boys' Club Board Discusses Needs

Money is desperately needed to replace athletic equipment destroyed in a recent fire at the Boys' Club.

This need was pointed up in a meeting of Boys' Club directors, held Thursday night at Snyder National Bank. They approved unanimously a plan to raise the money by conducting a "radio marathon."

The purpose of the marathon is to raise money only for immediate needs—for replacing lost athletic equipment so that the winter basketball program can get underway as originally planned.

"This is a drive for emergency funds so that the Boys' Club can continue its present operations," stated Bill Butler, president.

Although no definite goal for the marathon was set, Boys' Club officials estimate it will take about $7,000 to replace destroyed athletic equipment and put the program back on a sound basis. The fire destroyed 200 helmets, uniforms, tumbling mats, boxing equipment, basketballs, playground balls and lockers.

The marathon will begin at 7 p.m. Saturday with radio broadcasts from the square in the M&M Electronics Company building. Plans call for loudspeakers to be set up on the square, and the program will feature "live" entertainment.

Appeals will be made for cash contributions to the Boys' Club equipment replacement fund. Persons with money to donate will call in and Volunteer Firemen will pick up the money. The Jaycees plan to operate a refreshment booth. All of the cash they take in will be turned over to the Boys' Club.

The marathon will continue at least until 6 a.m. Sunday. The telephone company will set up sufficient telephones to handle all the incoming calls. Jay Thompson outlined plans for the marathon to the directors.

Virtually everyone present participated in a discussion of future plans of the Boys Club. "This fire virtually wiped us out and we have to plan to the future in addition to raising money for present commitments," said one director.

The fire also damaged shop and craft equipment, the photo lab, library and game room. Money will be required to replace this lost equipment. The total replacement cost for athletic equipment and other equipment was estimated at $15,000.

Those present also discussed the possibility of using various buildings as a temporary meeting place until repairs can be completed to the old building.

J. D. Hinton, local architect, estimated it would take about $25,000 to rebuild the old structure with new metal windows and a new roof. A new building of plain design would cost about $40,000 with 5,000 to 6,000 feet of floor space.

After considerable discussion of various alternatives, those present tentatively agreed that the old building must be repaired so that the Boys Club can continue its operations.

"Right now, the immediate concern is for replacement of lost athletic equipment," said Butler. "And we all unanimously support the marathon. So let's hitch up and tie onto the wagon."

Wirtz To Report On Strike Talks

By JERRY BUCK

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz returns to Washington today after a joint effort with Mayor John V. Lindsay brought reports of movement to New York's stalled transit crisis negotiations.

Wirtz, who had conferred with Lindsay and the strike mediators into the early morning hours, will brief President Johnson on the strike situation, approaching the end of its first week.

Lindsay returned to city hall at 7:30 a.m. and renewed his effort to end the walkout of bus and subway workers. The negotiations were described as having reached the intense stage.

City traffic built up early and heavy, but Traffic Commissioner Henry A. Barnes said he did not look for a repeat of Thursday's rain-complicated jam.

One immediate result of the conference between Lindsay and Wirtz — coupled with an appeal from New York's labor leaders — could be the release from custody of Michael J. Quill and other officials of the striking transit unions.

Lindsay hinted that such a move is under consideration by the Transit Authority. The authority had them jailed Tuesday when they refused to end the strike.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am moving to another city soon. Several friends here have said, "You MUST look up So and So. Here is his name and number. Just call and say you are a friend of mine."

Abby, is it proper for a newcomer in town to call a resident there and put him on the spot that way? I can't just call a stranger and say, "Hello, I'm Millie McGillicuddy. I am 34 years old, divorced, have two children and am selfsupporting. My measurements are 36-25-37, and Sam Strangelove told me to call you."

I'm afraid if I don't call I might miss meeting some interesting people, and if I do call, I'll appear presumptuous. How should this be handled?

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: Ask all your bighearted friends to write So and So a note and suggest that he call YOU. That way, the go-between can clue his friend in on all the vital statistics, and leave it to him to call you if he so chooses.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married in February. My first choice for matron of honor is my sister, but she's in a family way and says if she's able to stand up she'll do it. My next choice is my husband's sister. But she's in a family way, too, and although she says she isn't due until March, she looks like she's going to deliver before my sister. In case neither one can do it, would it be proper to ask my grandmother to be my matron of honor?

JEN IN SEASIDE

DEAR JEN: Your grandmother sounds like the safest bet to me. Ask her.

DEAR ABBY: I am considering marrying a man who has been married before. (I have not.) We are both in our middle thirties and have gone together for four years. We love each other very much. My question: How much should I know about his former marriage? When we first met he told me that he was a divorced man, and he has never made reference to that subject again. I've held off asking him any questions, hoping he would bring it up again. I don't want to know anything that is none of my business, but I want to know as much as I should. Can you give me an honest answer?

CURIOUS IN MEMPHIS

DEAR CURIOUS: Inquire only about that which may concern your lives together should you marry. Has he children? Is his former wife still his financial responsibility? What were the grounds for divorce? Are they on friendly terms? This information is indeed your business and you have a right to know.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WONDERING WHY" IN PAULS VALLEY: Quit wondering and enjoy your success. "Behind every successful man stands an astonished mother - in - law." (Walter W. Heller)

Righters Told To Avoid The Draft

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A Negro leader, encouraging civil rights workers to seek legal means of avoiding military service, says the fight against racial injustice in the United States is more important than the war in Viet Nam.

"I think we are involved in a war here and it will have more importance and perhaps much more significance in the generations to come than the Viet Nam war," said John R. Lewis, national chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Lewis, 25, elaborated on his views in an interview Thursday after issuing a SNCC statement opposing U.S. involvement in Viet Nam and encouraging civil rights workers to seek an alternative to the draft.

There are legal means of avoiding military service, Lewis said. He is a conscientious objector. "The work that the people in the civil rights movement are doing is in the national interest," he said.

"My feeling is that what they are doing is so vital, so basic to the development — economically, socially and politically — of this country, that they should be exempt."

Lewis, a short, stocky Negro, is titular head of the loosely organized SNCC, composed of about 230 staff members with considerable following on college campuses.

He said the SNCC staff discussed Viet Nam and the draft in an Atlanta meeting last Thanksgiving and drafted a policy statement which was circulated, revised and then completed by a 23-member executive committee.

The SNCC statement charged deception by the U.S. government "in its claim for concern for the freedom of the Vietnamese people." It said the government never has guaranteed "the freedom of oppressed citizens" in this country.

"Vietnamese are murdered because the United States is pursuing an aggressive policy in violation of international law," SNCC's statement said. It also said that most elections in this country are not free and recent civil rights legislation has not been fully implemented.

"We question then the ability and even the desire of the United States government to guarantee free elections abroad."

Lewis said SNCC opposed the war on the ground that "people must have a right to decide their own destiny." The Vietnamese should be allowed to fight it out for themselves, he said.

Barges Head To Viet Nam Ports

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A fleet of large barges, towed by seagoing tugs, is on the way to help relieve the port congestion which has jammed up the flow of supplies to U.S. forces in South Viet Nam.

Military authorities also are sending a number of floating piers across the ocean, to be put in place where permanent docks are few and inadequate.

Each of the 350-foot floating piers can handle three or four ships.

Officials cited these and other emergency steps being taken to crack a bottleneck which has resulted in cargo ships waiting as long as 11 days to be unloaded.

Defense transportation authorities predict a "decided improvement" in the next 30 days, when the barges — called lighters — and tugs get to work in Viet Nam.

The stopgap measures are intended to tide U.S. forces over until completion of permanent port and base construction costing about $500 million — hopefully by midyear.

The Defense Department contends that "all supplies which are vital are moving on schedule," despite an acknowledged lack of enough docks and warehouse facilities, rail and road systems.

Ships with high-priority cargoes, such as ammunition, are being unloaded without serious delays, officials claimed.

Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor, in answer to questions from newsmen Thursday in Honolulu, said a problem of logistics exists in getting men and material ashore in South Viet Nam. But he said all Army combat supplies are getting ashore where needed. Resor was returning from an inspection trip to Viet Nam.

It was estimated that the lighters, which will ferry cargo from ships offshore, can handle 150,000 tons of equipment and supplies a month. About 700,000 tons of cargo arrive monthly.

The floating piers will take longer to get to Southeast Asia. One such pier already installed at Cam Ranh Bay made the trip from the United States in three months, Army Engineer officials said.

"The next few months will see a tremendous improvement in our logistics situation out there," said one authority.

Gas Prices Are Fixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine producers in Texas counties in the Permian Basin must keep their natural gas sales at initial prices not to exceed levels fixed in its Aug. 5 Permian Basin area decision, the Federal Power Commission ruled Thursday.

These levels are 16.5 cents per thousand cubic feet for "new" gas and 14.5 cents for "old" gas, with quality adjustments. The dividing line between "new" and "old" gas in the Permian decision is Jan. 1, 1961.

The producers said their sales to El Paso Natural Gas Co. offered special premium qualities and therefore they should receive 16.7 cents.

Socony Mobil Oil Co., one of the nine, has been selling gas to El Paso at 16.5 cents. Under the ruling, it must reduce the price to 14.5 cents because the sale contract was dated before Jan. 1, 1961.

The ruling gave El Paso permanent authority to operate pipeline facilities that had been authorized on a temporary basis. These facilities cost $9.8 million.

Life Term Is Upheld

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A life sentence assessed a Texan for killing a sheriff more than eight years ago was upheld Thursday by the Alabama Supreme Court.

Cecil Tiner, who listed Dallas as his home, first drew the death sentence for the fatal shooting of Geneva County Sheriff James Woodham in 1957. That conviction was reversed by the supreme court and Tiner was sentenced to life on his second trial.

William Hable, a companion who also identified himself as from Dallas, is serving a life term for the slaying.

The sheriff was shot after he stopped Tiner and Hable for questioning about the theft of narcotics from a hospital.

City Sets Hunt For Missing Manholes

WALLKILL, N.Y. (AP)—This Orange County community has a new $1.1-million sewer system.

But the construction company inadvertently paved over the 30 manholes.

So the town board voted Thursday night to pay town engineer Arthur Eustance $200 to survey maps of the project, find where the manholes are and have them uncovered.

GENTLY TAILORED—The fabulous texture of cashmere is the perfect foil for the gently tailored lines of these handsome coats. The cashmere coat is a born traveler, a natural everyday on-the-go coat, because the fiber is almost weightless, yet the warmest one known in the world. Left, two back pleats give motion to double-breasted coat with welt seamed pockets and a low, side-buttoned back belt. Right, the softly fitted silhouette is shaped by curved front seams, in a single-breasted coat.

THE SAIL-LIKE SHELLS that form the roof of Sydney, Australia's massive Opera House take shape, dwarfing a ferry cruising in Sydney Cove, an arm of Sydney Harbor. The shell at left will rise to 179 feet above floor level and will be the highest.

Sydney's Opera House Begins To Take Shape

By GORDON TAIT
Associated Press Writer

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The concrete sails to form the Sydney Opera House roof are unfurling, but it likely will be another four or five years before the massive building on the edge of Sydney Harbor is finished.

As the building rises on a magnificent site near the Harbor Bridge, so do the costs. The Sydney Sun said the latest unofficial estimate is 25 million Australian pounds ($56 million).

The last official estimate given by designer, Danish architect Joern Utzon in June 1964, was 17.4 million pounds ($39 million). The best estimate by government sources of completion date is the end of 1969.

In August 1962, the estimated cost was 12.5 million pounds ($28 million), and it was then expected it would be finished by the end of 1965.

The original estimate of Utzon in April, 1957, was 3.5 million Australian pounds ($7,840,000).

Lovers of the project say it will be one of the great buildings of our time; that it will be one of the most talked about and most beautiful cultural buildings in the world; that its plan and architecture is the major achievement in building in the world this century.

Others have said that the money could be better spent on schools and roads.

The Opera House has been abuilding six years, about 7 million pounds ($15,680,000) have been spent on it so far, and there are plenty more millions where they came from.

With a roof of ten soaring concrete shells that look like sails, it is being financed by the Opera House lotteries run by the New South Wales state government.

Twenty-five or so of these lotteries are drawn every year, and each makes a profit of 100,000 pounds ($224,000). This goes into the Opera House Fund which finances construction. The fund today is 5 million pounds ($11,200,000) in credit.

People eagely buy tickets in the Opera House lotteries, not to help the building along, but in hope of taking out the first prize of 100,000 pounds ($224,000) or one of the smaller prizes. There are 100,000 tickets at 3 pounds ($6.72) in each lottery.

Although the financing is done by this method of painless extraction, there remain critics of the great expenditure, and the ever-rising estimate.

Utzon these days says nothing. However, he has said the Opera House is like building the early cathedrals; that nothing like it has been attempted before, that new methods of construction are being used, all of which makes it very difficult to say how much it will cost and when it will be finished.

The roof shells are being built of 2,413 concrete segments each 5 to 14 long tons, and cast on the site. A million 5-inch-square ceramic tiles will cover the roof.

The largest shell will rise 179 feet above the floor of the building, which covers an area of 4½ acres.

Actually, it is not going to be just an opera house. It will be a complex of performing halls, rehearsal rooms, a restaurant for 250 and bar lounges. The four halls will have seating for 2,800, 1,100, 400 and 300, and are planned so that all may be used at one time. Modern stage equipment and lighting is to be installed.

There are 19 rehearsal rooms, one big enough for a full symphony orchestra. This also could double as a fifth performing hall with seating for 200.

It almost certainly also will be used as a center for conventions, seminars and other meetings.

Fickle Feminine Fashions

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — What's in and what's out in fickle feminine fashion was made clear Thursday to the more than 200 newswomen attending a four-day program of style previews called the American Designer Series.

Pale lips are out and rouged ones are in. They are covered by a luminous finishing coat, the Coty beauty people said.

Fish scale eyelids are definitely in for the charity ball, and sooty ones with splashes of chalky white are acceptable for the daytime, provided the woman has the self confidence to wear them. That was the opinion offered by Charles Loew, noted for his pop art makeup.

It is in to be rich as long as you are very democratic about it. The chicest woman this spring will wear poor girl sweaters along with her sleek leather workingman's jacket and rancher's pants. Along with these slick costumes, shown by Anne Klein for Mallory were leather levis and leather bell-bottoms.

These also are definitely in.

Glittering, floor-sweeping ball gowns are out, but glamorous party pajamas this spring are for any place but at home. Christian Dior of New York ended a collection of chic French-inspired clothes with vividly patterned pants with huge legs like those worn by the movie queens in the '30s.

Among the colors that are in are grass green, shocking pink, butter yellow, and as always red, white, and blue. Two-tone combinations of navy and white which never seem to go out are still in. But shades of lavender and purple — hues that had prestige last year — are strictly for grandmothers now.

Going In Circles Best Way To Mop

If a homemaker is going around in circles with her many cleaning chores, she can be saving time and energy.

Time and motion studies indicate that continuous circular movements are easier and faster than jerking, back - and - forth strokes. The housekeeping chores' analysis, which is intended to benefit maintenance men and professional housekeepers, applies to all mopping and wiping tasks.

Expending the least energy and doing the maximum amount of work in the least possible time is best accomplished with sweeping S-shaped motions. An important element, however, is the material to be cleaned.

A ceramic tiled floor has long been popular with owners of commercial buildings because of its easy cleanability, imperviousness to dirt, stains and moisture. Because it sheds dirt so readily, ceramic tile's surface is not patterned or designed to mask grime, stains or black scrape marks from shoes. Nor will it dent under the pressure of high heel shoes.

Waxing, too, is an unnecessary procedure on a ceramic tiled floor. A once - over with a mop will suffice.

Once mopping is begun, don't stop. The scientific studies of cleaning motions show that momentum (keeping the mop going after the initial push) takes less energy than one new stroke after another.

ISN'T THERE SOME WAY HE CAN RECIPROCATE?

New Year Should Bring Few Labor-Industry Woes

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, pressing peace efforts to end the war in Viet Nam, faces a welcome lull in the home front battle against economic strife and the threat of inflation.

With the Big Steel price flap settled, the prospects during the rest of 1966 are for a minimum of major labor-industry squabbles threatening big strikes or widespread wage-price escalation.

Johnson, who didn't hesitate to remind both unions and management that U.S. fighting men were dying in Viet Nam, had to step into a number of big disputes last year, including steel negotiations and shipping strikes.

But this year will see the fewest major labor contract negotiations in recent years, reducing the chances of White House intervention in the name of the national interest.

However, there are some exceptions that could force Johnson back into the labor-management arena at the national level.

An estimated record $8 billion a year in deferred wage increases go to some 4 million workers in 1966 and may bear watching for potential upward pressure on prices.

But government economists generally believe these wage increases — negotiated previously in long-term contracts — will cause little inflationary squeeze because businessmen have had plenty of time to figure them into pricing policies.

Perhaps the biggest potential threat to labor peace is a renewal of economic warfare in the railroad industry, which enjoyed its first relatively peaceful year in 1965 since 1960.

Five train operating unions plan to demand wage increases, and a flareup is expected in the locomotive firemen's case.

The firemen, who have lost some 17,000 jobs under a federal arbitration ruling, already have demanded a 25 per cent wage hike and insist the railroads fill all the abolished jobs when the two-year arbitration law expires March 31.

"Frivolous," snapped chief railroad negotiator J. E. Wolfe in indicating stiff industry resistance.

Railroad talks, always a headache under the complicated Railway Labor Act, could turn into " can of worms," one federal official said.

In the past, railroad negotiations have frequently wound up in the White House.

Machinists' wage demands in joint talks with seven major airlines could also cause trouble requiring some government action.

Harry Bridges, West Coast longshoremen's chief, plans to go after major wage increases that could ruffle five years of labor peace on the Pacific waterfront.

But East Coast shipping, torn by labor strife throughout 1965, should be calm.

Seven AFL-CIO unions will make a major drive for bigger contract gains from two major firms — General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Electric Corp. — but observers see no trouble for the administration there.

The communications workers conceivably could tangle with the national interest in expected tough negotiations with 19 major divisions of the Bell Telephone System.

The United Mineworkers Union — which won its first wage increase in six years in 1964 — will seek more for coal miners this year. But indications are for a peaceful settlement.

Besides these major contract talks on the horizon, there are the usual host of smaller negotiations.

Strike activity — a six-year high in 1965—is expected to be down substantially in 1966.

A Junior Editors Quiz About SATURN'S RING

QUESTION: Why does Saturn have a ring around it?

* * *

ANSWER: Astronomers have tried to answer this question ever since Galileo, in 1610, noticed something peculiar about the big planet Saturn. His telescope was not strong enough to see the ring clearly, but in 1656 it was observed to be a ring by the Dutch astronomer Huygens. Saturn's ring is certainly one of the most spectacular and wonderful sights visible to man. In all the universe, as Revealed by our telescopes, there is nothing resembling it. Astronomers say the ring is made of solid particles, perhaps ice or snow, which look bright because they reflect the light of the sun. The ring is transparent, for other stars may be seen through it at times, showing there is space between the particles. There are really three rings, although they all lie in the same plane, being about 10 miles thick. These rings may be material left from the breakup of a former moon of Saturn when it got too close to the planet. Or, when the planet itself was formed, there may have been leftover material which settled into the rings. Saturn is very light. If placed in some huge imaginary ocean it would float, a fact that we have suggested in our imaginary picture at the lower left. Little Titan is one of Saturn's moons.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Ask yourself, is there life on Saturn? Consider that the temperature there is always around 250 degrees below zero. Think this over, then answer the question for yourself. 1-7

SOLUTION OF YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

How Much Of A Snob Are You?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you a snob?

The world is full of snobs, but few of them realize it or admit it. Most snobs are hypocrites. They don't want to be recognized as snobs. It is the rare snob indeed who faces up to the fact of his snobbery — and enjoys it.

Snobbery is a very human attribute, but just how much of snob are you?

Well, you are probably just about 100 per cent snobbish if most of the following things are true about you:

You'd try to romance a waitress or hatcheck girl but never think of marrying one.

You'd date the boss's daughter but never marry her either, for fear someone would think you were a social climber.

When talking about your ancestors, you always mention the one who came over on the Mayflower — and never mention the one who was hanged as a horse thief.

You never read a book that makes the best-seller list.

When you are alone in an elevator and hear footsteps approaching, you quickly push the up button so you won't have to ride with a stranger.

You fawn on those you think are your superiors and frown on those you think are your inferiors.

You never order corned beef and cabbage for lunch because it is supposed to be a vulgar dish.

When a friend confides to you that his son has just been thrown out of a public school, you brag that your son has just been thrown out of a private one.

You are proud of having won a Phi Beta Kappa key in college but you never wear it in public because you are afraid it will make you look ostentatious.

At a cocktail party you talk knowingly about international affairs when what you'd rather talk about is blondes, brunettes and baseball.

Should a friend buy a more expensive house than you believe he can afford, you mutter sourly, "Some people don't know their place in life. Thank heavens, I do."

You believe anybody younger than yourself is still wet behind the ears and couldn't possibly know as much about life as you do.

You sometimes say to yourself: "Well, at least I know one thing: Whatever else I may be, at least I'm not a snob."

But are you sure? As the old saying goes, it takes one to tell one.

Experts Feel Year May See Upswing In Wildcatting

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wildcatting for oil—that is, drilling test wells in unproved areas—may be in for an upswing this year. Such operations, along with drilling in general, have been on the decline in recent years.

A combination of factors in 1965 stopped an eight-year downward trend in crude oil prices. There was less and less exploration as the prices dropped.

Should the price level hold steady or gain ground, the new year could bring an increase in drilling activity, in the view of industry representatives in Washington.

These figures were cited:

—The number of wildcat wells completed in 1965 was 8,256. This compared with 9,258 in 1964 and 13,034 a decade ago (1956).

—The price of crude oil averaged $2.84 in 1956, went up to $3.16 in 1957 with the Suez Canal crisis when Middle East supplies were cut off from Europe. Since then prices have dropped gradually, stopping at $2.96 early in 1965. They have held at that level since except in the tri-state area of Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, where a 10 cent a barrel increase has been posted.

The possibility of more drilling activity this year is linked to maintenance of the present price level, coupled with a trend toward increased domestic production. A strengthening of the price level would be an added spur.

Domestic production averaged 7,664,000 barrels daily in 1964 (the last year for which full figures are available), compared with 7,170,000 barrels in 1957. Yet, the value of all the crude produced in 1964 was $62 million less than in 1957.

Meanwhile the industry's over-all operating costs have increased. In the first nine months of 1965 the average hourly wage was 18 per cent above that in the 1957-1959 period; the cost of machinery was up 4.7 per cent, and the cost of casing 7.8 per cent.

While no recent or precise figures are available on wildcat drilling costs, the average cost of all oil and gas wells drilled last year is estimated at $60,000. They averaged about 4,300 feet in depth.

Wildcat tests on the average over the last several years have hit oil or gas in only one of nine holes and are the more costly. Even in known producing areas only one of four wells strikes oil or gas.

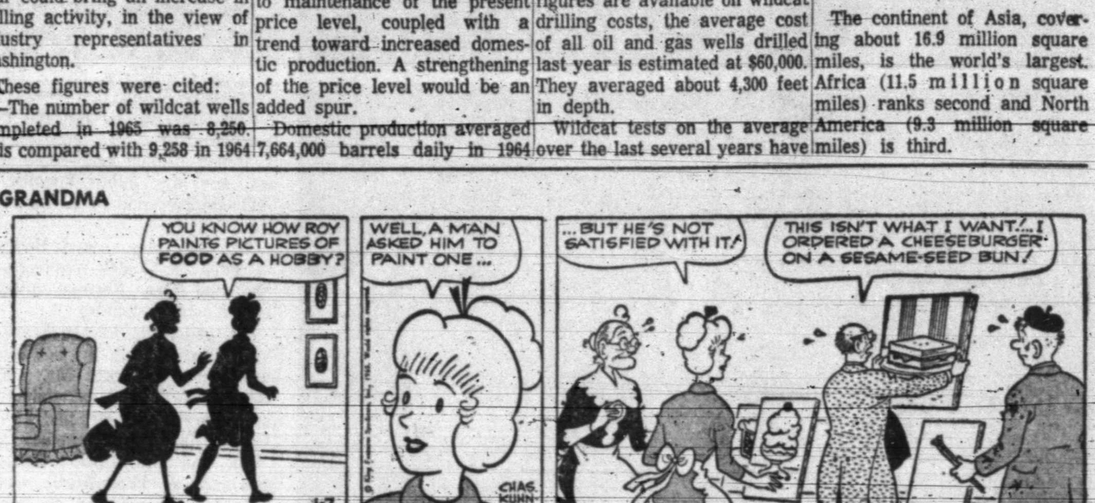

How drilling operations have declined:

In 1965 the number of oil and gas wells drilled in the United States was 41,300. This compared with 45,236 in 1964 and 58,160 in 1956.

Of all wells drilled last year 16,050 were dry, compared with 17,488 dry holes in 1964 and 21,838 in 1956.

The continent of Asia, covering about 16.9 million square miles, is the world's largest. Africa (11.5 million square miles) ranks second and North America (9.3 million square miles) is third.

BOUNCING BENGALS—The Snyder High School basketball team will attempt to bounce back onto the victory trail at the expense of defending champion Levelland tonight in a district 3-AAA game set for the Tiger gym. The tipoff will begin at 8 p.m. following a "B" game at 6:15 p.m. From left to right are Sandy Wellborn, Mickey Almond, Tom Duke, Eldon Woodward, M. C. Hula Has Top Runners

HONOLULU (AP)—All-America backs Jim Grabowski of Illinois and Mike Garrett of Southern California run for opposing football teams a second straight week tonight when the North battles the South in the 20th Hula Bowl game.

Last Friday, Garrett and the West beat Grabowski and the East 22-7 in the East-West game at San Francisco.

The South, with Garrett and five other All - America stalwarts, goes into this game favored over Grabowski & Co.

On the South squad, in addition to Heisman Trophy winner Garrett, are Tommy Nobis, Texas guard; Glen Ray Hines, Arkansas tackle; Walt Barnes, Nebraska tackle, and halfback Donny Anderson of Texas Tech, each an All-America.

In dividing the squads, the Mason - Dixon line was bent more than slightly. Barnes and his Nebraska teammate, end Freeman White, plus Iowa State center Dick Kasperek all are playing for the South, a team coached by Bob Devaney of Nebraska and J. T. King of Texas Tech.

Jim Owens of Washington and Jerry Bruns, former Iowa mentor, coach the North. In addition to Grabowski, the squad has All - Americas Steve Juday, Michigan State quarterback, and Aaron Brown, Minnesota end.

Ray Palm of Oregon and Tom Barrington of Illinois are slated to start in the backfield with Grabowski and Juday, giving the North plenty of power.

Bill Malinchak of Indiana and Karl Noonan of Iowa are expected to be on the receiving end of Juday's passes when the North takes to the air.

Texas Tech's Tommy Wilson starts at quarterback for the South with Anderson, Garrett and Ray Handley of Stanford in the backfield. Kurt Altenberg, a UCLA Rose Bowl star, goes at one end with Iowa State's White at the other.

Thirty-two schools are represented on the squads and a capacity throng of 24,500 is expected to watch the battle in Honolulu Stadium.

Senior Bowl Set Saturday

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Heroes of New Year's Day bowl games and a small-college passing standout who already has shown he can play with the big boys will meet in the 17th annual Senior Bowl game Saturday.

The game will be televised nationally by NBC, starting at 2 p.m. EST.

Heading the North's attack will be quarterback Gary Lane of Missouri, flanker back Tony Jeter of Nebraska, All-America end Howard Twilley of Tulsa, Tulsa quarterback Bill Anderson and tackles Butch Allison and Francis Peay of Missouri and Karl Singer of Purdue.

The South also is loaded with 1965 standouts, including All-America end Charles Casey of Florida, quarterback Steve Sloan of Alabama, fullback Steve Bowman of Alabama, and tackle Sam Ball of Kentucky.

Randy Johnson of Texas A&I, one of the few small-college players invited to the bowl, is expected to carry the burden of the quarterbacking chores for the South, just as he did two weeks ago when he led the South to a 23-19 victory over the North in the Blue-Gray game.

The 6-foot-4 sharpshooter hit on 20 of 33 passes for 308 yards and two touchdowns in that game, and has been running the South team this week in practice.

Sloan, who guided Alabama to the national college title, has been bothered by rib injuries.

Maris Signs Yankee Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, hoping to bounce back from a nightmarish 1965 season, is the first New York Yankee player to come to terms for 1966.

Maris, who played only 46 games because of injuries and batted a mere .239 last season, got a vote of confidence from Yankee General Manager Ralph Houk with no cut in his estimated $70,000 salary.

The 31-year-old slugger who set a major league record with 61 home runs in 1961, underwent surgery on Sept. 28 for a bone chip in his right hand. He injured the hand last June and, except for four pinch hitting appearances, was idle from June 28 until the end of the season.

"My hand feels good," Maris told reporters at the signing ceremony Thursday. "I haven't tried to swing a bat, but, I've been playing golf regularly and the hand hasn't given me any trouble. I don't anticipate any trouble ripping a bat this spring."

Don't Sell Schellhase Short

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Schellhase of Purdue, seeking to become the first player from a Big Ten school in 18 years to win a major-college basketball scoring title, holds a slim lead over North Carolina's Bob Lewis today.

Statistics compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau through last Saturday's games showed that Schellhase has a 32.0-point average on 288 points in nine games. Lewis' mark is 31.8, the result of 318 points in 10 games.

Murray Weir of Iowa was the last player from a Big Ten team to capture the individual scoring crown. That was in 1948.

Dave Bing of Syracuse is third this season with a 31.4 mark. He is followed by Jim Walker of Providence, 28.3, and Cazzie Russell of Michigan, 28.2.

Unknowns Lead Open Tourney

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bill Casper Jr. and Arnold Palmer found themselves slightly overshadowed by a pair of relatively unknown pro golfers today as the $70,000 Los Angeles Open went into the second round.

Pacing the pack of 143 players at the Rancho Municipal Golf Course were Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla., who admittedly has had two terrible years on the PGA tour, and—

Young Steve Oppermann of San Francisco, who is best known in his own neighborhood [illegible] beginning his second year on the tournament trail.

The 30-year-old Ragan and Oppermann, 23, posted identical four-under-par 36-31—67 rounds.

Two strokes back were Dave Marr, Gay Brewer and Chuck Courtney. Brewer and Courtney had first rounds of 35-34 and Marr 36-33.

Casper, with 38-32—70, was tied with eight others.

Palmer, who bogeyed three straight holes on the first nine when he missed three putts of four feet and less, was tied at 72 with a small army—not Arnie's—of 14 others.

For a long spell Thursday only five could break par. But as the afternoon wore on the 70 took a beating. When it ended at dusk, 29 pros had either broken or equaled the figure.

Included in this group were Doug Sanders in the 70 shooters, and at 71 were Paul Harney, seeking a third straight Los Angeles Open triumph, and a sentimental favorite, Ken Venturi, who held the U.S. Open championship in 1964.

Venturi, who was bothered last year by a circulatory ailment in the fingers, said he felt fine and played well.

BEARCATS NIP EAGLES

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Cincinnati Bearcats, who dominated college basketball in 1961 and 1962, are on the way back.

The national champions of those years who missed an unprecedented third straight national title by a mere three points in 1963, made it five in a row and 9-1 for the current season by defeating North Texas 69-75 at Denton, Tex., Thursday night.

A year ago the Bearcats posted a dismal season record for them of 14-12 which included a defeat at Denton by North Texas.

Don Rolfes, with 30 points, led the Bearcats, who staved off an Eagle rally that cut Cincinnati's lead to four points in the closing minutes.

Like Cincinnati, Tulsa opened its Missouri Valley Conference schedule with a victory Thursday. Playing at home, the Hurricane came from behind in the last three minutes to defeat Louisville 84-79. Eldridge Webb, a 6-foot sophomore, led the Hurricane rally with 28 points after Louisville had taken a 77-74 lead.

Texas Western, ninth-ranked in The Associated Press poll and one of the two major unbeaten teams in the country, made it 12 straight by defeating Seattle 76-64 at Seattle. Willie Cager, a 6-5 soph, came off the bench in the second half and led the Miners with 16 points.

Bradley, No. 5 in The AP poll, overpowered Wichita State at Peoria 91-86 and the sixth-ranked Providence Friars whipped Massachusetts 87-73 at Amherst, Mass. Alex McNutt, with 25 points, and Eddie Jackson, with 22, led the Braves over Wichita. Mike Riordan, with 26 points, and Jim Walker, with 25, paced the Friars. Bradley's record now is 13-1; Providence's 10-1.

Soph Phil Wagner tossed in 33 points to lead Georgia Tech to a 87-72 victory over Clemson at Atlanta. St. Louis staved off a late Drake rally to score a 60-54 home-court triumph over the Bulldogs.

Jerry Wells and Gary Gray combined for 63 points to lead Oklahoma City over Loyola of the South 105-88 at New Orleans. Wells hit for 33 points, Gray for 30.

NYU whipped West Virginia 104-91 and Duquesne [illegible] Iona 74-57 in a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden. Army easily beat Lehigh 64-52 at West Point, Wyoming scored a 90-88 road victory over Denver and Virginia Tech, playing at home, took Richmond 88-73.

Bengals Host Lobos In District Contest

Levelland's tough Lobos, undefeated in district play, invade Tiger gym tonight to defend their crown against the Snyder High School quintet, two - time losers in the loop race.

On their home court, the Bengals will be doubly tough themselves and could pull an upset although the defending champs will be favored.

Coach Gano Tubb, veteran Lobo mentor, brings another talented crew to the cage wars, including returners Obezonia (Little Boy) Garrett and Clay Krueger. Garrett, a left hander, is good at driving in. Krueger, 6-7 center, is terrific on rebounds. Other starters are Tubb 5-8 guard, who is a good faker and shooter; Parmer, 6-1 forward, and Goodpasture, 5-10 forward. Parmer and Goodpasture are consistently adept performers.

A sixth starter is Reed, 6-1, who is a good team man. He can hit the long shot and is one of the beiter defensive performers in the district. All of the Lobos are fair rebounders.

Coach Ned Underwood of the Bengals says spirit remains high in the Snyder camp. The boys played an exceptionally competent game at Lake View Tuesday night, losing by only 66-63 to a team generally considered to be a contender for the title.

Sandy Wellborn, 5-8 Junior, continues to favor a sore hip, but all other hands seem ready for action. Probable Tiger starters are guards Tommy Bullard (5-7) and Bill Blum (5-10), center Ronnie Laster (6-3), and forwards Langston Powell (6-0) and M. C. Powell (6-3).

The Tigers worked long and hard on ball handling prior to the Chief tilt and they made fewer mistakes in that game than at any time during the year. Underwood said the boys rebounded well and turned in their best game since the opener against Andrews. He particularly praised the work of little Tommy Bullard.

The Coach could call on Vernon Clay and Tom Duke, both 5-11 Juniors or Eldon Woodward (6-1) Junior and Mickey Almond, 5-11 Sophomore. Duke is one of the better shooters on the team although he has an unorthodox style. Unfortunately, he is not as adept at ball handling as some of the other boys. Woodward and Clay both are real hustlers and Almond has given a good account of himself since his recent promotion from the "B" team.

Levelland will take a slightly better record into the contest. The Lobos have a 5-6 record and currently are leading the loop with a 2-0 mark in district play. Snyder is 5-8 for the year and 0-2 in the district. Elsewhere tonight, Lamesa hosts Lake View while Littlefield invades Sweetwater.

The contest here tonight will begin following the "B" game at 6:15 p.m.

Junior Cage Tourney Set

A 7th grade basketball tournament will be held in Snyder today and Saturday with four local teams and three out of town teams entered in the competition.

Local teams are the Lamar Red, coached by Eddie Logan, and the Lamar Grey, coached by Charles Anderson. Travis entries are the Blue team, coached by Gene Williams and the White team, coached by Jim Chastain. Tournament director is John Gary.

Out-of-town teams entered in the tourney are Lamesa, Fluvanna and Stamford. Trophies will be awarded to the first, second and Consolation teams, and an All-Tournament team of five boys will be chosen.

Today's schedule called for the Travis Blue to meet Fluvanna at 3:45 p.m. All games will be held in the Lamar gym.

The second contest pitted the Lamar Grey against the White team of Travis in a 5:10 p.m. tussle. The final game of the first round featured the Lamar Red and Lamesa in a 6:35 p.m. clash. Stamford drew a first round bye.

Losers in the first two games will meet at 9 a.m. Saturday in a Consolation battle. At 10:25 a.m., the winner of the Lamar Red-Lamesa game will meet Stamford. Winners of the Travis Blue-Fluvanna and Lamar Grey-Travis White contests will collide at 11:45 a.m. Saturday. The Consolation finals is on tap for 5 p.m. with the third place battle set for 6:30 p.m. and the finals at 7:40 p.m.

School officials urged everyone to attend the tournament and "back the team of your choice."

Team Gives Bob Hayes Incentive

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — It's a great thrill to win an Olympic gold medal and see the Stars and Stripes go up on a flag pole, says Bob Hayes, but there's a different kind of kick in grabbing a long pass and running for a touchdown.

"I don't think I'll ever get tired of it," the world's fastest runner said today. "As a sprinter in the Olympics, I felt alone — all by myself. In football, you get the feeling you're doing it for the team."

The world sprint champion from Florida A&M gets another chance to do it for the team Sunday when he and the Dallas Cowboys tackle the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League's Playoff Bowl.

The rookie end, who caught 46 passes for 1,003 yards and 12 touchdowns, will be a feature performer in the nationally televised game between the conference runners-up of the league.

The contest will be played in the Orange Bowl with a 1:45 p.m. EST, kickoff. It will be televised by CBS.

"I was worried when I first went with the Cowboys," Hayes said. "I had a reputation as an Olympic runner. I didn't know how the other players would accept me. I was concerned about the attitude of the fans.

"Then I found out that everybody — the fans and players — were with me. It was a wonderful feeling."

Hayes has run the 100 meters in 10 seconds flat and the 100-yard dash in 9.1. He is the fastest man to play football.

The Colts are favored despite loss of ace quarterback Johnny Unitas and sub Gary Cuozzo. They will have Tom Matte, a converted halfback, at the signal-calling post.

Fight Show Will Go On

NEW YORK (AP) — Harold Johnson, the former light-heavyweight champion, hasn't had a fight in 21 months. He'll sort of sneak into town tonight to take on contender Johnny Persol in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden whether the transit strike is still on or not.

The Garden says the fight show will go on even if the subways aren't running. If the cars don't roll, the Garden will be a studio without television.

Even at best, Johnson is not much of a gate attraction. The 37-year-old Philadelphian is a safety-first craftsman and rates as the 3-1 choice over the seventh-ranked, 25-year-old New Yorker.

Johnson, because of his idleness, no longer is ranked. Not too many contenders want any part of the skilled, counter-punching veteran who rarely opens up.

"I'd like to get another shot at the title," said Johnson, who lost the 175-pound division crown to Willie Pastrano on a disputed decision 2½ years ago.

His record is 72-9, including 32 knockouts.

Persol's record is 13-3-1.

Mayfield Top Coach

DALLAS (AP) — Gene Mayfield, who in his first season as coach directed Odessa Permian to its first Class AAAA football title, has been named Texas high school coach of the year.

The selection was made by the Texas Sports Writers Association, which will present a plaque to Mayfield at an awards dinner here next month.

Burrell On AFL Squad

HOUSTON (AP)—Ode Burrell, Houston Oiler running back, has been named to the American Football League All-Star squad.

The All-Stars will meet the AFL champion Buffalo Bills in a game here Jan. 15.

All-Star Coach Sid Gillman, who is also the San Diego Charger head coach, said Thursday he had requested and received permission from Commissioner Joe Foss for Burrell to play. The All-Star team now totals 39 players.

Gillman also announced that San Diego tackle Ron Mix would not be able to play because of injuries and would be replaced by teammate Ernie Wright.

Boston To Ban Road Shows?

By The Associated Press

None of the teams represented the cities where the games were played, and the results most likely caused some uneasiness in Boston.

This riddle is the result of Wednesday night's edition of the National Basketball Association's roadshow.

The Cincinnati Royals defeated the Detroit Pistons 109-97 at Toledo, Ohio, and the Philadelphia 76ers beat the Baltimore Bullets 133-127 at Syracuse, N.Y., in the league's only games.

The victories boosted the Royals to within one-half game and the 76ers to within 1½ games of the Eastern Division-leading Boston Celtics.

Computers Ready To Aid Shoppers

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The customer may always be right but in about one out of every four trips to the department store she leaves empty-handed because it was out of what she wanted to buy.

Coming to her rescue is that all-around handyman of the Soaring Sixties — the machine.

Computer makers say this modern helper of industry is all set and eager to help the customer. And if this streamlining of the retailing business works as planned, the shopper eventually should be able to dictate, through her purchases, the merchandise her favorite store will carry — and be sure to have in stock.

The new program is based on a study of more than 30,000 shoppers in typical department stores. This showed that what the retail trade calls "never outs" — such staples as men's socks and women's lingerie — were actually out of stock in specific styles, size or color some 22 per cent of the time. In some stores the "never outs" were actually out as much as 35 per cent of the time.

"Most often this out-of-stock problem is not the retailer's fault," A.J. McGill, manager of distribution industry marketing for International Business Machines, said in an interview. "The average department store carries about one million stock-keeping units — that is, individual sizes, colors and styles of every item. The time lag in manually keeping track of this enormous stock means that many items will not be reordered in time."

So the computer makers saw a big opening. And now IBM will offer a set of 40 computer programs to help the retailer manage his inventory. It will also let computers balance stocks to the projected needs of customers, and also react quickly to the unexpected twists in consumer buying trends.

The new approach is called inventory management program and control technique, and McGill says it is as complicated as its name. But the machine handles the complictions.

"An extremely complex set of mathematical techniques," says McGill, "will let retailers predict future trends of merchandise in stock, based on past sales history. They can tell more accurately and quickly with fashion items, such as women's dresses, are selling and which are not. Then they can reorder the one and reduce the other for early clearance."

For the customer it will mean being able to keep in step, fast with the latest craze in her set, or to get her hands on a bargain faster. And also she would be sure that the trek to the store wouldn't be in vain.

Funds To Remain In Antipoverty

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson reportedly has decided against shifting the community action part of his antipoverty program to the new Department of Housing and Urban Development.

But he still has not made up his mind when to appoint a secretary to head the new urban agency.

A high administration source reported Thursday that Johnson had rejected a recommendation to shift the community action program made two weeks ago by his special task force which studied the functions and organization of the department which came into being Nov. 8.

The source said Johnson backed the position of Sargent Shriver, director of the antipoverty program, that this was a bad time to consider such a switch, although it might be feasible later.

There was no indication whether Johnson would name a secretary and announce specific decisions relating to the new Cabinet-level agency before Monday's opening of the new congressional session.

In the meantime, housing administrator Robert C. Weaver, a Negro, continues to run the department. Officials say privately it is stalled on dead center, and there are morale problems and delays in starting programs.

The new secretary will have to make a case before Congress early in the new session for funds to begin the new rent supplement program. Congress decided to delay funding it last October as confusion over the program's administration arose after Weaver was questioned about it by a Senate appropriations subcommittee.

Life is a fever pens Shakespeare and Poe;
To others: a jest, a joy, or a woe,
Or an isle with circling waters quite deep
Where life is allegedly circled by sleep;
Or perhaps it's a tale—if so, not how long
But how good is the story—how faithful and strong!

Wright To Reveal Plans

FORT WORTH (AP) — Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., says he'll disclose his political plans at a news conference set for 2 p.m. Saturday.

In a statewide television talk last month, the Fort Worth congressman asked voters for a mandate to guide him in deciding whether to run for U.S. senator.

Wright said the response by mail was good. He has given no indication whether he will seek the Senate seat.

If he decides to run, he will oppose Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in the Democratic primary. The incumbent, Republican John Tower, has said he will formally announce Feb. 1 for re-election.

Nazarenes Log Gains During '65

Gains in stewardship and membership and the construction of a general hospital in New Guinea were highlights recorded in 1965 by the Church of the Nazarene with world offices in Kansas City, Mo.

Per capita giving was a record $168—an increase of $7.62 over the previous high mark in 1964. Giving for all purposes reached $59,600,000—an increase of $4,138,000 over the preceding year.

The church had a net gain of 6,554 members last year to bring the national membership to 355,824. Nazarenes in churches overseas increased to a total of 68,694 to bring the world membership to 424,518.

The annual statistical report by Dr. B. Edgar Johnson, general secretary, also showed that Nazarenes opened one new church a week in 1965. The 52 new churches organized brought the total number of churches to 4,887.

The stewardship gain apparently assures the Nazarene church of remaining in first place in the nation in per capita giving among all major denominations with 100,000 or more members.

In the "march to a million" Sunday school enrollment campaign launched in the fall of 1964, the church has reached a total of 899,000 persons. In the U.S., churches last year gained 46,381 in Sunday school enrollment to reach a national total of 776,992. Overseas Sunday schools added about 122,000 more persons.

Dr. Johnson termed the denominational gains as "sound and substantial." He pointed out that the church has more than doubled its membership in 20 years. It stood at about 210,000 in 1945.

The new Nazarene hospital, to be opened early in 1966 near Banz, New Guinea, will be the fourth operated by the church. The others are in India, Swaziland and the Republic of South Africa. The Church of the Nazarene maintains about 600 missionaries in 46 countries.

It's short-lived — but it grows old gracefully. Today's paper won't be dead tomorrow or even the day after that. So much that's in it is timeless as well as timely. Things like expert financial and medical advice, recipes, do-it-yourself hints, special features and stories, pictures — these are just a few of the ageless extras your daily paper gives you.

In this era of mass communications, your newspaper stands out as a tangible document. It's yours to read, put down, pick up and read again, clip and save.
