NEW YORK, Jan. 18. (AP) — Shortly after police reported that Joseph Selly, president of the striking American Communications Association, and four other men were "beaten up" today, the policy committee of the Transport Workers Union of Greater New York called an emergency meeting to "arrange for a strike" of this city's 32,000 subway, trolley, bus and elevated workers "within a few days."

The presbytery of Mid Texas, which has jurisdiction over the Presbyterian churches of forty-eight West Texas counties, held its stated winter session in Cisco Tuesday.

Two others were injured and taken to Denison hospitals. Their conditions are not believed to be serious.

The two engines were demolished in the crash, and railroad traffic over the line is disrupted. Injured were engineer E. Scott and fireman R. P. Fike, both of Denison.

Cause of the collision is not known. The impact was so severe an oil tanker 15 cars from the engine buckled and spilled oil over the right-of-way.

PLANE RUNNING WILD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18. (AP) — A small, radio-controlled pilotless plane was running wild today off Cape May, N. J., and residents of Long Island were warned by police to expect it to crash somewhere on Long Island within a short time.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. — The United States Steel Corp. today rejected President Truman's formula for settling a wage dispute with its production employees.

As the result, a strike of 700,000 steel workers on Monday appeared probable and hope for a general settlement soon of management and labor wage disputes in major industries faded.

The United Steel Workers CIO had accepted the White House formula, which called for a wage increase of 18½ cents an hour.

Mr. Truman described the formula as "fair." He strongly urged the corporation to reconsider "on the grounds of the public interest as well as good business."

There was no immediate indication that it would do so.

White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said the president had no further plan in mind to avert a walkout.

He said government seizure of steel mills had not been considered so far.

Expressing "great regret" that "all our efforts to avoid this steel strike have up to now failed," Mr. Truman warned of the grim consequences.

It was the second time in a week that a major corporation had rejected and a union had accepted a White House proposal to settle an industry-wide wage dispute.

General Motors Corp. rejected the president's fact-finding board's recommendation of 19½ cents an hour wage increase for 175,000 striking members of the United Auto Workers. The union accepted.

High Court Ruling Quiets Title to Lots Property

AUSTIN, Jan. 18. — The Supreme court Wednesday made final a decision by the Austin court of civil appeals holding that it is not necessary to show that a posted notice of publication actually remained on the courthouse door during the entire ten days prescribed by statute.

It now becomes a landmark in Texas jurisprudence and quiets title to thousands of acres of land.

Finality was written when the high court refused writ of error in the case of unknown heirs and legal representatives of May Gunter, deceased, against J. W. Lagow, from Bell county. It overrules a decision by the Amarillo Court of Appeals in the case of Wagner vs. Urban, 170 SW 2d, 270, holding contrarily.

Under the latest declaration it will not be necessary for a sheriff to guard legal notices posted on the courthouse door for ten days but if one is deliberately torn down or disappears and is brought to the attention of the court it could be ordered restored.

It is sufficient to show that the sheriff posted the notice and made his return to the court that it had been duly posted as ordered and that it was entirely legal to make that certification at once and not wait until the end of the ten days.

In writing the court's opinion Associate Justice J. H. Baugh said to hold otherwise would cloud land titles generally over Texas. He said in Bell county alone, since 1935, more than 1,000 will cases had been similarly probated, and had been followed in many other counties, to be generally accepted as a proper course.

BAD PLANE WRECK.

CHESHIRE, Conn., Jan. 18. — A large plane, believed to have been a transport, crashed here today and an eye witness said he had counted 15 bodies. The big ship was still in flames when first witnesses reached the scene. The crash occurred on a farm about two and a half miles from the center of this town.

T. P. PRESIDENT CISCO VISITOR

The Daily Press was honored this afternoon by visits from five Texas & Pacific Railway company officials — W. G. Vollmer, president; L. C. Porter, assistant to the president; J. B. Shores, director of public relations; Walter L. McMurry and J. G. Brannon.

Upon request, President Vollmer submitted the following statement for publication:

General Conditions Good.

"In spite of the numerous strikes and threats of strikes which have retarded the country's return to a normal peacetime economy, there is every indication that business should be good throughout 1946.

"There is a backlog of purchasing power in the pockets of the American people that is estimated to exceed 125-billion dollars. It seems quite obvious that the American people are ready and anxious to spend much of this money for everything that has not been available during the war years.

"This condition, which appears to be general throughout the nation, should insure production at a high level for a long time, once the major labor problems are settled.

"One of the major economic problems of the nation today is that of housing. Government economists estimate 1,000,000 houses will have to be built each year for the next 10 years to make up for the loss of construction during the depression and war-time period. For each new home there will be a demand for furniture, radios, electrical appliances of various kinds, along with all the other things that go to make a home complete and comfortable.

"In addition to these things, industry itself will spend billions of dollars for new plants, for re-tooling, for new machinery and equipment.

"The heavy movement of traffic during the war period resulted

Cutler Gave PTA Boxes Now Placed 16 Reasons For Child Delinquency Conveniently For Clothing Drive

Cisco Parent-Teacher association met at the west ward building Wednesday for its regular monthly meeting. Some thirty people were present. Mrs. Fred Scott, president, presided and Mrs. Sutton Crofts, program chairman, introduced the speakers.

The general topic was "Child Delinquency" and speakers included Mrs. B. S. Huey, M. L. Perdue, B. A. Butler and Nolan Cutler of the Boss Glove Mfg. Co.

All of the talks were good and to the point, but that of Mr. Cutler, who gave 16 reasons for child delinquency, was probably the most enlightening and thought-provoking.

Heading Mr. Cutler's list was broken homes, such as homes broken by death, separation, divorce or desertion. Then came lack of consistent guidance and supervision by thoughtless or untrained parents; difficulties, conflicts and demands of present-day society; after-school idleness; lack of religious training.

A business meeting followed the program and in the room count Mrs. T. C. Williams' room won for the lower grades and that of Mrs. Grady Laws for the higher grades.

SON REDEEMS FATHER.

When Bruno Richard Hauptmann was executed for the kidnapping and death of the Lindbergh baby, he left an infant son of his own. Many pitied this youngster because of the cloud under which he must always live. On this account he lately received a cash bequest from a woman of means, to make his path in the world easier.

Mannfried Hauptmann, in considering the handicap which only kindly oblivion can remove, may take heart from the example of an eminent man whose father's name was synonymous with infamy, yet who overcame the handicap and died widely known and universally admired.

The late Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo of the Supreme Court came to the bench after many years of distinguished service on New York's highest court. Philosophic and learned, he adorned the court. Not in 30 years has a presidential appointment to the Supreme Court been so applauded.

Yet Justice Cardozo's father, Albert, was a judicial handyman of New York's Boss Tweed, the most notorious corruptionist of American history. Judge Albert Cardozo sold judicial writs and decisions to the highest bidder. In 1871 he gave his nephew more than 800 receiverships, the fees from which later appeared in Cardozo's own bank account. After Tweed's overthrow Cardozo resigned to avoid impeachment, and through some miscarriage of justice escaped jail. The disgrace in which he left the family name has been wiped away by the eminent virtues of his son.

Some one should tell Mannfried Hauptmann about Benjamin N. Cardozo.

CONTRACTS.

Yes, Americans have a traditional and legal right to leave their work and strike, individually or collectively, if they choose to do so. Such a right is one of the heritages of American freedom.

That is, as long as they do not throw up their jobs before the expiration of contracts. In this respect it seems that while some labor groups have been loyal to contracts, many have not.

Surely in a free country which prides itself on its patriotism and sportsmanship, citizens singly or in groups should be loyal to pledges, and not put their own whims

When the people of the Southwest go Shopping

The Southwest is eager to go "shopping!" In its market basket will go a sleek new '46' model to replace the well-worn family car. It is anxious for the time when tires will be available at the moment of need. For the home—smart new furnishings and all of the conveniences which "went to war"—modern refrigerators, washing machines, and ranges are early "musts." Linens, bedding, clothing—in fact, hundreds of articles—are on the marketing list. . . . The Texas and Pacific is ready to bring all of these things, and hundreds of other products, in carload quantities or small shipments, to the buyers of the Southwest.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause aching backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

A "Look at the Books" OR "A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things—or run things?

These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis for bargaining:

1. The Full Facts are Published

How much General Motors takes in each year—how much it pays employees—how much it pays to stockholders—how much it pays in taxes—how much net profit we make—and many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.

These are broadcast to 425,000 stockholders from coast to coast—sent to newspapers and libraries. Additional copies are free for the asking.

2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked

Every General Motors annual statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Does the UAW-CIO honestly believe that General Motors would or could deceive these experts?

3. Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined

The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining. These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.

No mention is made of earnings, prices, sales volume, taxes and the like. These are recognized as the problems of management.

4. Something New has been Added

The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law—and is reaching not for information but for new power—not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the future.

A "look at the books" is a clever catch phrase intended as an opening wedge whereby Unions hope to pry their way into the whole field of management.

It leads surely to the day when Union bosses, under threat of strike, will demand the right to tell what we can make, when we can make it, where we can make it, and how much we must charge you—all with an eye on what labor can take out of the business, rather than on the value that goes into the product.

5. This Threatens All Business

If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books" not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM: to all business, and to you, the public.
