Mrs. M. Donnell, Aged Wellington Woman, Dies Mon.

Mrs. Maggie Donnell, a Wellington resident for the past 43 years, died at her home here Monday morning, March 6, at 8:45 a.m., following a lengthy illness. She was 89 years of age.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, March 17, at the Ellis Funeral Home, with Minister C. M. Walkup officiating. Pall bearers were Will Crawley, Andrew Honeycutt, Bob Stephenson, Sidney Elmore, Pat Bouchelle and Barney Glenn. Flower girls were Mable Crawley, Mrs. Harold Elbert, Louise Rogers, Anna Lee Graham, Mrs. Pat Bouchelle and Mrs. Bob Stephenson. Archie Ketchersid was song leader.

Burial was in the West Wellington cemetery under the direction of the Ellis Funeral Home.

A native Texan, Margaret Virginia Poff was born at Whitesboro in Grayson County October 26, 1863, the daughter of Michael and Lou Emma Poff, who came to Texas from Virginia. She grew up at Whitesboro, and was married there to Mr. Donnell. Later they lived in Clay county, before coming here 43 years ago.

Mrs. Donnell is survived by a daughter and son, Mrs. Jess Hunsaker and Charlie Donnell, both of Wellington. There are three grandchildren, E. L. Hunsaker of Toyahvale, J. C. Hunsaker of Lubbock, and Mrs. Eldean Jeffers of San Antonio. Other survivors are three great grandchildren, one great great grandchild and a brother, C. C. Poff of Tulia.

Four Escape as Car Overturns

Four young people narrowly escaped serious injury when the car in which they were riding overturned twice at the Kelly corner about 8:30 p.m. Thursday, March 12.

Billy Eugene Taylor of Fort Worth, driver of the car, was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital for treatment of a back injury, and Miss Inez Holt was treated for minor injuries. Other occupants of the car were Charlene Phipps and Roy Herndon.

The accident occurred when the car hit the posts at the corner, skidded and overturned twice.

Bill Durfey Wins Sears Pig Award

Bill Durfey, Loco 4-H Club boy, for the second consecutive time won first prize and the $50 award in the Sears-Extension Service Pig Program, sponsored by Sears Roebuck Co.

From the two litters raised for the contests, last spring and this winter, Durfey raised 20 of 23 pigs, which weighed a total of 1036 pounds at 56 days.

The second contest ended January 15, but the award was announced only last week.

In his second litter, for the contest just ended, Durfey raised 11 of 13 pigs which weighed 510 pounds at two months of age.

Durfey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Durfey of Loco.

Mrs. Jones To College Board

Mrs. John T. Jones Jr., wife of the president of the Houston Chronicle Publishing Company, Houston, has been appointed by Governor Allan Shivers to the governing boards of three state institutions of higher learning.

Mrs. Jones is the former Miss Winifred Small, the daughter of Senator and Mrs. C. C. Small, who moved from here to Amarillo and later to Austin. She is a niece of Mrs. Cleo Templeton.

Her appointment was to the board of the Texas State College for Women at Denton.

To Eliminate Fire Hazards

Clean-Up Campaign Set For Wellington April 6 to 9

Wellington's Clean Up Campaign set for April 6, 7, 8, 9, is one in which every individual can and should take an active part. The purpose of this drive is to make Wellington a cleaner and healthier place in which to live, Mayor L. B. Bratten announced this week.

"One important phase of this Clean Up Campaign is the removal of fire hazards in residential and business areas. Basements and attics should be cleared of all waste paper, rubbish and rags. All combustible materials should be burned and other rubbish such as brush, tree trimmings and dead grass should be hauled to the dump grounds if impractical to burn on the premises. Vacant lots, always a problem in clean up drives because of non-resident ownership, could be cleaned by neighbors organizing and giving a hand, as fires starting on vacant lots have caused serious damage to nearby property in many cases," according to W. R. Ritter, city sanitarian.

Owners of business houses are urged to be responsible for the clean up of alleys bordering their places of business, and everyone is asked to clean up tin cans, old tires, and all rubbish that afford breeding places for mosquitoes and flies.

Track Takes Spotlight In Scholastic Sports

By JAMES GLASSCOCK
Spring is just around the corner and so is the spring sports schedule. Most of the county schools have already started work-outs in baseball, track, and volleyball, according to the coaches.

The Wellington Rockets will have only the track to worry about, according to coach Maxey McKnight. "We have about 18 boys coming out for track and only one of this group is experienced in running track. Clyde Ingram is the only returning regular of our second place all-state relay team. We don't look for anything right off but as the season progresses we should improve with each meet. Our first meet will open in Panhandle, March 28, and then we will probably line-up some more meets," he concluded.

Coach Ralph Word of Dodson is conditioning his boys for the rugged schedule that is to come up. Workouts began Monday on both baseball and track.

"The baseball team has about 15 boys in it and our first game will be with Arnett at Arnett, next Tuesday afternoon, March 24. We hope to have the squad in good condition, he reported. Our track team will enter the meet at Samnorwood sometime this month. We don't know what we are going to have the boys run yet," he stated.

"The girls will get to play Arnett at the same time our baseball team plays. Enthusiasm is running high — and we hope to have a good season record, he concluded.

Quail's spring sports is in the beginning stage, reports Coaches Bill Phillips and W. F. Howard. "We are just getting started and we don't know just who is going to play what. We have at least one boy who is going to come out for track and maybe another. Our first track meet is scheduled for March 23 at Panhandle," they concluded.

Headquarters at Memphis

Roy Young New Area Boy Scout Executive

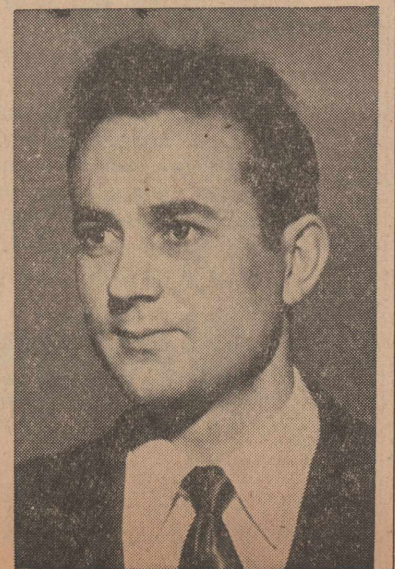

Ray Young as been named district executive of the Southern District of the Adobe Walls Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Duard Scott, district chairman, announced this week.

Mr. Young, who will have his headquarters at Memphis, works with the southern district of the council, including Wheeler, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall counties. He was in Wellington, Tuesday, March 17, to meet Boy Scout, Explorer and Cub workers.

He is a graduate of the National Boy Scout Training School at Mendham, N. J.

Mr. Young assumed his duties at Memphis two weeks ago. He will be in Wellington at least once a week, but added that his schedule will be announced later.

The district has been without a Boy Scout executive since John Pound was transferred to Temple September 1.

Mrs. Minnie Gibbs, Long-Time County Resident, Dies

Mrs. Minnie Gibbs, who came with her family to this area 57 years ago, died Wednesday morning, March 11, in St. Joseph's Hospital, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Gibbs was born September 25, 1880, at Lampasas, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown Bachelor. She grew up there, then came here at the age of 16.

For many years the family lived in the Shinnery area, helping with the development of that section, and Mrs. Gibbs joined other pioneer young people in the activities of the area.

She was married to J. H. Gibbs, and for many years they farmed east of Wellington. He passed away about 10 years ago.

Mrs. Gibbs had long been a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

Funeral services were held at that church Thursday, March 12 with the Rev. Sam L. Sparks officiating. Pall bearers were Oral Bishop, Frank Faulk, Farris Cornelius, Buster Bounds, Earl Yarbrough and L. A. Gilmore. Honorarium pall bearers were E. H. Dodson, Roy Bounds, Tom Caldwell, Charley Caldwell, C. S. Bearden, Robert Posey, Frank Fuson, E. U. B. Lockhart, and Bob Bowen. Flower bearers were Mrs. Earl Yarbrough, Mrs. Robert Posey, Mrs. Oral Bishop, Mrs. Weldon Cleveland, Mrs. Tom Caldwell, and Mrs. George Scott.

Music included a solo, "Under His Wing," by Mrs. Orville Vaughan, and "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms," "We'll Understand It Better By and By," and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," by the choir.

Burial was in the West Wellington Cemetery, directed by the Ellis Funeral Home.

Mrs. Gibbs is survived by eight children, Robert Gibbs of San Jon, N. M., Earl Gibbs of Quail, Mrs. D. D. Peters of Lubbock, Urban Gibbs of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. H. S. Fales of Bethany, Oklahoma; Milburn Gibbs and Mrs. Rodell Byers of Wellington; and Miss Letha Mae Gibbs of Dallas. Other survivors are 13 grandchildren, one great grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Betty Windham of San Angelo.

Hometown Papers Important to Men in Korea

A Collingsworth County soldier serving in Korea, Pvt. Cleve Marchbanks, recently wrote home that one of the things the men there are most anxious to have are their home town newspapers.

That was what Pvt. Marchbanks wanted, too, and he asked his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Marchbanks, to get him a subscription to The Wellington Leader, which Mr. Marchbanks did on Tuesday.

The young soldier, serving on the front lines, wrote that he was well and doing all right. He is a former student of the Samnorwood schools.

Cornelia Stabler Here in Dramatic Impersonations

Cornelia Stabler, monologist, will present a program of her Original Character Sketcher in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 24, under the sponsorship of Wellington Concert Association. She calls her sketches "Personality Portraits" for they are veritable word-pictures of the people one meets every day. Her repertoire of twenty sketches includes a busy secretary, a lady lecturer, the mother of a family of radio fans, an elderly actress who is giving a party, and a modern teen-ager coming home from a date.

Miss Stabler, who is the author as well as the interpreter of her monologues, has presented them from coast to coast in this country, and has also toured Europe for U. S. O. Camp Shows. She has been heard on the major radio networks, has appeared on television, and had the honor of entertaining at the White House for the late President and Mrs. Roosevelt. During the summer months she directs a Community Theatre in the Pocono resort area of Pennsylvania.

This is the final number to be presented by the concert association this year.

Soil Judging Contest to Draw Area Participants

A soil judging contest here Monday, March 23, will put the spotlight on the fertility of Collingsworth county land, as well as its deficiencies and its needs. This is the top event of Land Fertility

Day, sponsored jointly by the Extension Service and the Wellington Chamber of Commerce. County Agent J. W. Thomas and Fred Squyres are in charge of plans.

Paul Haines, soil conservationist with the extension service, will be the guest speaker at the program which begins at 1:30 p.m. at the court house. He will speak on soils and explain the contest. Later those entering will go to some field near town for the contest itself.

It is expected that four and possibly five surrounding counties will send soil judging teams, Mr. Thomas said.

The contest is open to anyone wishing to enter, and there will be two divisions, adult and student. A complete explanation of all factors of the judging will be given.

The land judging itself will deal with surface texture, subsoil permeability, depth of surface of soil and subsoil, land slope, wind and water erosion, drainage and land capability classification.

Clark Anderson, immediate past president of the Wellington Chamber of Commerce, is giving a $5.00 award to the school youth with the top judging record.

The land fertility day and soil judging are being held to push education in soil management and bring about an awareness of the needs of soil in this area, the sponsors point out.

FIREMAN SOOTH MY CHILD—This might well have been the plea from the mother of two-year-old Dennis Dauper of Cleveland, O., to fireman Edward Kelley who answered her distress call. Dennis was screaming in fright after a convulsive attack. His mother was helpless but Fireman Kelley wrapped the shrieking boy in a soft blanket and rocked him until he stopped yelling.

Dr. J. M. Orr Called to Active Duty in Air Force

Dr. J. M. Orr has received orders for active service in the United States Army Air Force, and will report for duty at Gunter Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama, on April 20, he said this week.

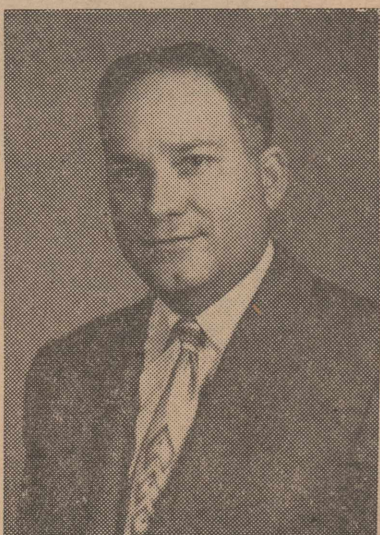

Dr. Orr has been commissioned a major, and will attend the five weeks indoctrination course for officers of the U. S. Air Force Medical Service, according to Col. Jay F. Gamel, chief of the Medical Staff Control Division, Office of the Surgeon General.

He will be notified later when to leave for Gunter Air Force Base. His period of enlistment, so far as he knows at present, is for two years.

"It has been a real pleasure to serve the people of the Wellington trade area and the surrounding counties," Dr. Orr said. "I certainly intend to come back here when my period of enlistment is over."

Dr. Orr said he plans to close his dental office here during the time he is in service.

Moving here seven years ago, he took over the practice established by his uncle, Dr. W. R. Orr, veteran Panhandle dentist. Prior to coming to Wellington, he taught in the University of Texas School of Dentistry in Houston.

Dr. Orr has been active in work, having recently come to a term as director of the Wellington Chamber of Commerce. He is also a former officer of the Kiwanis Club.

Library Club to Hold House Tour

The Library Club of Wellington High School will sponsor a House Tour on April 12 from 2 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and give the citizens of Wellington a chance to see some of the newest and finest homes of the town.

This tour for adults and high school students will include visits to the following homes: Messrs. and Mmes. Ervin Kersten, John Holton, Henry Sullivan, Sandy Parsons, Misch Dukeminier, L. C. Hill, John Sherman, Walter Starr, Rufus Sweat and others.

Tickets will be sold by the high school students.

News Letter

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS

"PAST IS PROLOGUE": There is a story in Washington about a visitor who was on his first trip to Washington. He was in a taxicab and was viewing with great pride and admiration the many beautiful government buildings. As they passed the imposing edifice that houses the National Archives he noticed the following inscription carved over the entrance: "Past is Prologue." He asked the cab driver what this inscription meant. The cab driver thought a minute and then replied, "It means 'You ain't seen nothing yet.'"

The exchange between the cab driver and the passenger is supposed to have occurred shortly after the building was opened in 1935. It seems to me that history has proven that the driver was somewhat of a philosopher. The story often comes to my mind when new and untired legislative proposals appear before the Congress. As all of you know, some of these pass and some fail, but there is always the possibility so well expressed by the cab driver, "You ain't seen nothing yet." It is a sound prediction of the future expressed in plain understandable, although questionable, English. Let us all hope that the things we have not seen yet will be of great benefit to mankind and produce the everlasting peace for which we continually search. It is so easy to predict and so difficult to be correct. This is because God en-speech but in His wisdom did not endow us with the power to see into the future. I often think that a man would have a very small grocery bill if he could live on the words he has to eat.

THE TIDELANDS: I was somewhat amazed at the position taken by Attorney General Brownell before the House Judiciary Committee concerning the tidelands. The proposal that Mr. Brownell offered to settle this controversy is probably one of the worst that has come forward yet. What his proposal does is simply to make the coastal states tenants at sufferance of the Federal Government. It actually underwrites and supports the decision of the Supreme Court though which Texas and the other states lost basic titles. The Supreme Court decision did not say that the states did not have title to these offshore lands, but it did say that the sovereign power of the Federal Government was of such stature that it included all rights concerning these lands. Boiled down, this simply meant that if the coastal states ever had any title, the Federal Government had the power to prevent them from using it or enjoying it. Mr. Brownell seemed to take the position that Texas and the other states were not interested in the principle involved, but were merely looking for some money. His proposal was in the nature of a compromise to permit the coastal states to take some of the oil out from under the submerged lands without settling the title question. Such a procedure would mean that if this Congress passed such a bill, the next Congress could come along and repeal that law and leave the states with nothing. Of course, if there oil under the submerged lands, Texas and the other coastal states are entitled to it for the reason that they own it, and always have owned it. The entire question in the tidelands dispute is a question of dollars and cents, but is a question of principle. A settlement of the controversy by the states' accepting a few dollars "would mean compromise of principle. Texas has never compromised its principles, and I hope the day will never come when such a policy is adopted. As I have said before, Texas will not stop until this battle is won. It will not compromise principles and it will not soft-pedal the discussion of the wrong to which we have been subjected. The question will be settled right only when title is again fided in Texas to these tidelands. Mr. Brownell's proposal does not do that, and I suggest that he resurvey his position and come forward with the proper solution to the problem.

TEXAS AND OKLAHOMA DELEGATIONS: Several members of the Texas and the Oklahoma Delegations had lunch recently in one of the Senate dining rooms with Gene Autry. The meeting was most enjoyable, and Gene gave all of the members who have children autographed pictures of himself on his beautiful palomino. Needless to say, when I took these home to the children, I was welcomed with open arms. There is one outstanding thing that I think should be said about Gene Autry in view of the many radio, television, and picture show programs that are questionable. He is a clean fellow and his programs are always clean. This is something that should be appreciated by all of the mothers and fathers in this country and is certainly a tribute to Gene.

VISITORS: One fellow from the Panhandle who has been doing a tremendous amount of work in Washington on farm and cattle situations is none other than Jay Taylor, of Amarillo. He pops in and out, and it is always good to see him. The highest officials in this Government listen with great respect to what Jay has to say on these problems because they know that he is thoroughly familiar with the subject. He certainly is in wonderful standing in the Capital City.

We had dinner the other night with Lew Fields and George Broome, of Amarillo, who were up for the American Legion National Rehabilitation meeting. We went to a little Greek restaurant which is just off Connecticut Avenue on K Street. Frank Ikard, the Wichita Falls Congressman, was with us, and we all had shishkebab. Incidentally, this is a lot easier to eat than it is to pronounce. We asked the waiter whether it was made with beef or mutton. Realizing that we were from Texas, he thought a moment and then said, "I believe it is half mutton and half beef." Lew and George were having a good time renewing old acquaintances and working for the benefit of the veterans. It was certainly nice to a visit with them, and I hope they will be back before long.

A Report To Our Stockholders -

Mr. A. J. Peters & P. C. Cummings, Wellington, Texas, Vice President & Director of the Wellington National Farm Loan Association have recently returned from Houston. They were the official representative of this association to the Eighth Annual Stockholders' Meeting of The Federal Land Bank of Houston held on February 19 and 20, 1953.

They reported that the bank made the largest volume of farm mortgage loans to Texas farmers and ranchers in 1952 than any year since its organization in 1917, with one exception. This exception was in 1934 during the depression period.

Officers of the bank stated during the meeting that the 1953 volume of loans promises to exceed that of 1952 if the first six weeks of this year can be used as a guide. It is also anticipated that many loans will be made during the year for the purpose of financing the restocking of ranches and stock farms with livestock.

The increased demand for loans has been brought about, according to Mr. Peters, for several reasons. The primary reason apparently is the fact that the average net cost of Land Bank loans is probably lower than that of any other mortgage lender in the State. Also many short-term loans, created by reason of the drought throughout much of Texas, are now being refinanced on a long-term basis on account of the opportunity of reducing the rate of interest on these loans which can be repaid at any time without penalty.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston is completely owned by the 141 Texas national farm loan associations. The associations, which are owned by local farmers and ranchers, in turn own all of the capital stock of the bank. Mr. Peters feels that inasmuch as the loan services of the bank are handled in the field by these associations, it is having a marked influence on this increase in volume of business. Under such a plan, local people do business with homefolks who understand local conditions and personally know the people with whom they are doing business.

The local association owns its own building, which is located at 905 West Ave.

The officers and directors of the association are as follows: P. E. Starr President; A. J. Peters, Vice President; W. S. White, Director; P. C. Cummings, Director; W. M. Seale, Director; A. Y. Bell, Secretary-Treasurer; Ann Yates, Office Assistant.

Funeral Service For A. B. Smith Held March 10

Funeral services for A. B. Smith, veteran county surveyor who was brutally beaten to death at Canadian March 8, were held at the First Methodist Church in Wellington Tuesday, March 10. Officiating were the Rev. Noel Bryant, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Borger and former pastor here, the Rev. Oran B. Smith, pastor of the church at Sanford, and the Rev. J. F. Michael, pastor here.

Pall bearers for the service were J. B. Stevenson, Bill Miller, Ernest Lewis, John Bevers, Austin O'Neil and Harry Gilbert.

Burial was in the West Wellington cemetery under the direction of the Ellis Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith, who with his family maintained their home here, but spent much of their time at Sanford, where Mrs. Smith taught, was elected county surveyor of Collingsworth County and had served continuously since then.

Surveyor of many large Panhandle ranches, he also surveyed the Oklahoma Strip territory after the settlement of the 100th meridian dispute.

Mr. Smith was born April 16, 1894, at Honey Grove, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Smith, long-time residents of this area.

He was married to Miss Faye Porter of Wellington January 1, 1917.

He was active in American Legion, Kiwanis Club, Boy Scout and church work, both here and at Sanford.

In respect to his memory, the Sanford schools were closed on the day of the funeral.

Surviving Mr. Smith are his wife and three children, Miss Frances Smith and Kennard Smith of Borger and A. B. Smith Jr. of San Antonio.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral were Norman Smith, Marvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fetzner, Clyde Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Smith of Dallas; L. B. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith of Fort Worth; Mrs. R. H. Lacy, Miss Virginia Lacy, Mrs. Marvin Tibbets, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jordan of Lefors; Robin Tibbets of Pampa and Mr. and Mrs. Farrel Tibbets of San Antonio.

Out of town friends included Mr. and Mrs. Jack King of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bairfield of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Souther, Mrs. Tommy Palmer, Mrs. Arleta Cole, Mrs. June Robertson, Mrs. Preston Tate, all of Sanford; Miss Faye Ann Porter and Miss Amy Johnson of Pampa; Mrs. W. S. Etchieson, Mrs. W. W. Dillake, Mrs. V. J. McGee, Mrs. Ernest Kelly and Miss Flora Maggard of Borger.

UNBROKEN BUCKING TRUCK—Bucking like a bronco, front wheels turning in the air, this auto-filled trailer-truck is tilting dangerously after skidding on icy roads near Detroit. Tow-trucks uprighted the jack-knifed vehicle and the uninjured driver rode off with every car intact.

to help her, I told her yes, but to report the next day. They couldn't find a senior Spanish student who could read it. That same day the sophomore class found out about the offer. They asked for a chance at the letter and the $5.00. I O.K.'d their request giving them also a day to work on it. They also failed. Both classes claimed it wasn't Spanish writing. I told them to take the letter to A. F. Sr. and have him read it and tell them what the man wanted. If he could not read it, they could come and get the $5.00. I still have the $5.00. So much for the studying of the 3 "B's" instead of the 3 "R's". Incidentally A. F. Sr. and myself never had a chance at Spanish in school. We learned it the way you don't forget.

I would like to have the name of the drug store that gave my late brother Henry the drugs rather than to have to spell the name on a charge account. I need quite a few drugs myself now and then and would gladly give that drug store my trade. If necessary I could add a few more letters to the name of Wischkaemper to make it still harder to spell.

When the younger generation of Wischkaempers read this, they will remark, "Oh, he is just old and foggy" — and maybe they are right — for all I know.

Edgar Wischkaemper

Pioneer Vinson Woman, Mrs. J. R. Davidson, Dies

Mrs. J. R. Davidson, almost a life-long resident of the Vinson area, died February 24, after having been critically ill much of the time since November.

Funeral services for Mrs. Davidson were held at the Vinson Methodist Church February 26, with the Rev. C. W. Nelson officiating. Pall bearers were Kent Pence, Carl Reynolds, James Smith, Burl Mitchell, Michael Burnett, Bobby Brown. Flower bearers were members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

Burial was in the Cave Creek cemetery near Vinson.

Mrs. Davidson was born May Reynolds at Gainesville on April 2, 1895. A few months later, the family moved to Vinson, and there she grew up. She received her education at the Union School.

On December 1, 1912, she was married to Mr. Davidson.

Mrs. Davidson united with the Baptist Church when she was 13 years of age, but later she transferred her membership to the Methodist Church, in which she was active until she became ill. She had taught a Sunday School class for a number of years, and was active in the Women's Society of Christian Service. She was a member of the Eastern Star and had served as an officer.

Mrs. Davidson underwent an operation on November 5, and five days later she suffered a stroke.

Surviving are her husband and six children, Mrs. Lloyd Lovel and Billy Davidson of Hereford; Roland and Reno of Oklahoma City; Emory Davidson, Dwain Davidson and LaRue Davidson of Vinson. Also surviving are nine grandchildren; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. C. C. Hudson of Fullerton, Calif., Mrs. Lewis Reynolds of Plainview and Lon Reynolds of Oakland, Calif.

Sgt. and Mrs. J. G. Thomas are the parents of a new baby girl, Ruby Cara. She weighed 8 lbs. and 6 ozs. and was born on March 11 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coffee have a new baby boy, Samuel John. He was born on March 15 at St. Josephs Hospital and weighed 7 lbs. and 1 oz.

CARD OF THANKS
The relatives of Mrs. Vera Hester want to express a hearty "thank you" and our deepest appreciation to the many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us, the wonderful food the lovely homes opened to us, for every effort on your part to share our grief.

You will always have a tender spot in our hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hester and relatives of Mrs. Hester

CARD OF THANKS
We take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and at the death of our husband and father, Ed Warren.

The many things you did for us have been a consolation in our grief. We especially thank Dr. E. K. Jones, the Kelso Funeral Home and the Richardson Funeral Home for their care, as well as all who brought food and sent flowers.

May God bless each of you.
The family of Ed Warren

CARD OF THANKS
We are grateful for the thoughtfulness and sympathy shown us during the illness and at the death of our mother, Mrs. Minnie Gibbs. Your friendship with her during the many years she lived here meant much to her, and to us.

We especially thank all those who sent food or flowers or cards, or in other ways expressed their sympathy.

May God bless each of you.

Letters

From The

PEOPLE

Dear Editor:

In Deck's column of your last week's newspaper, I noticed your comments on the change of spelling of the Wischkaemper name by the younger generation of Wischkaempers. Thanks for your attitude; however your idea of the younger Wischkaemper generation changing the spelling to make it easier for the public to spell it is wrong. They are merely overcoming the handicap of not being able to spell it themselves. When this young generation went to school, they studied the 3 B's (baseball, football and basketball) rather than the 3 R's (reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic.) It appears that since the older generation of Wischkaempers went to school, somebody turned the last stroke of the pen on the letter "R" the wrong way and made a "B" out of it and therefore we now have the three "B's" as the main subject of study. (Incidentally at the taxpayers expense).

I will never forget an incident that happened in the late twenties, when about four of this younger Wischkaemper generation were attending high school at Shamrock, two as seniors and two as sophomores. One day toward the end of the term, one of them came to me asking for money to help elect a Senior Queen. It put me in a tight spot for my daughter was a sophomore and was rooting for the sophomore queen. I had just finished reading a letter from a Mexican at Santa Rosa who was asking for the job of shearing sheep when I was approached for the senior help. I was naturally looking for a way out without hurting either side. I asked the applicant whether or not she had studied Spanish in school. Her answer was, "Yessir, I have put in two years of Spanish." I said, "All right, read this letter to me, tell me what the man wants, and I will donate $5.00 for the queen race." She couldn't read it and finally asked me if it would be O.K. to get other senior students

QUAIL NEWS

By MRS. G. T. STEPHENS

We have been having some nice spring weather. Most of the fruit trees are in full bloom and are beautiful. The yellow blossoms of the forsythia, tulips and daffodils, as well as the early blooming shrubs, all tell us spring is at hand. Just hope we don't get a freeze that will kill the fruit.

A large crowd attended the Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. Gerald Squires preached at the morning service. Clifford Watson made a talk Sunday evening.

Minister J. C. Stepp of Childress preached at the morning and evening services at the Church of Christ. A large crowd attended both services.

Dodson Civic Club Meets March 11

Mmes. E. H. Ready and H. G. Estes were co-hostesses at the regular meeting of the Dodson Civic Club held at the Ready home Wednesday evening, March 11.

The meeting was opened with the club creed and Allegiance to the Flag given in unison by the club. Mmes. B. T. Webb, H. G. Estes, and E. H. Ready gave reports on various phases of the District Institute and Workshop, which they attended at Plainview on February 25. Mrs. Webb reported on the work outlined for the clubs by the district president for the coming year; Mrs. Estes told of a film shown on Americanism; and Mrs. Ready reported on the panel given on Civil Defense. One of the points most stressed at the Institute was for Federated clubs to fight Communism in their own home towns and schools. During the business session, Mrs. King was voted in as a new member.

Since the club was observing Friendship Day, officially declared by the legislature as March 7, members answered roll call with quotations on friendship. Betty Alexander Earle told the history of Friendship Day, how it came to be obeyed first by Aexas and then nationwide. She stressed the meaning of friendship and what it could do for us as an individual and as a group. A short pageant, lead by Mrs. Murry Dodson, depicted the six essential qualities of friendship. Each member in the pageant held a different flower that was representative of these qualities of friendship that she rescribed. Those participating in the pageant were Mmes. Ross Swift, E. C. Alexander, B. T. Webb, Floyd Roberts, H. G. Estes, and Jerry Martin.

Hostess prize was awarded to a guest, Mrs. Bolin Braswell. The meeting was brought to a close with The Lord's Prayer read in unison by the club.

Refreshments consisting of Pineapple Delight and spiced tea were served to Mmes. Jerry Martin, T. E. Lennon, B. T. Webb, J. C. Howell, E. C. Alexander, Murry Dodson, Betty Earle, Floyd Roberts, Ross Swift, Dolly Whisenant, H. G. Estes, E. H. Ready, and two guests, Mmes. J. Q. Tucker and Bolin Braswell.

Betty Brewster of Dodson had an appendectomy on March 17 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Sorghum B-Products Feeds May Become Important to Area

COLLEGE STATION — Grain sorghum by-product feeds — sorghum gluten feed and sorghum gluten meal — may become important in the rations of livestock grown in Texas. These feeds have been available for only three years.

Grain sorghum made up about 30 per cent of the total grain grown in Texas from 1941 to 1950. In 1950 it made up nearly 50 per cent of the total grain produced in the state.

One reason for the increasing importance of grain sorghum in Texas is its expanding industrial use. The grain now is being processed in a manner similar to corn.

Sorghum gluten feed and sorghum gluten meal are by-products obtained when sorghum grain is processed for starch, sugar and oil. These feeds are offered for sale as "milo gluten feed" and "milo gluten meal."

WITH THE 1ST CAVALRY DIV. IN JAPAN — Pvt. Glenn H. Weiss, whose wife, Laverne Maxine, lives on Route 3, Shamrock, Texas, is now serving in Japan with the 1st Cavalry Division.

Replacements from the U. S. are getting battle knowledge from veterans of the Korean conflict during rugged field maneuvers.

The 1st Cavalry spent 17 months in combat before being rotated out of the line in December 1951. It is now part of the security force for the Japanese Islands.

A rifleman in his unit, Weiss entered the Army last August and received basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala., where he was last stationed.

His father, F. D. Weiss, lives in Shamrock.

Marine Private Freddy J. Maxwell, 17, son of Mrs. Lela Maxwell of Quail, is now training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif., where in nine weeks recruits are made into Marines.

In addition to schooling in basic military subjects, he will receive training in the operation of the Marine Corps' latest weapons. He will fire the .30 caliber Garand and Browning Automatic rifles, light and heavy machine guns, and become familiar with the bazooka, mortars and flamethrower.

A former student at Quail High School, Private Maxwell enlisted in the Marine Corps recently at Amarillo for three years.

Poole Wheeler
County Attorney

Edward L. Poole, until January 1 county attorney of Collingsworth county, has been appointed to that post in Wheeler county. He fills the place left vacant by the resignation of Homer L. Moss, who was serving his eighth term.

Mr. and Mrs. Poole and their son, Scotty, moved to Shamrock shortly after his term expired here, and he opened his private law office. The family has now moved to Wheeler.

Mr. Poole graduated from Kelton high in 1942, served with the Navy in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters of operation during World War II, and received his law degree from Baylor School of Law in January 1950. He came to Wellington immediately and shortly afterward was appointed county attorney here.

Mrs. Poole is the former Helen Holder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holder.

DODSON

By MRS. KENNETH KING

Mrs. Annie Cunningham of White Deer is here visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Hamman of Dodson, and with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hamman, and a cousin, Mrs. W. B. Wyrick of Arlie.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reynolds were in Pampa during the week end to see the son-in-law of the latter, W. S. Berry, who has been hospitalized since he was critically injured in a car accident January 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Wyrick have as their guests their grandchildren, Paul and Ruthie Prime of Lubbock. They will be here about two weeks longer.

Pvt. Frankie P. Warren and Pvt. Edwin Bonneau, who entered the armed forces February 17, has been sent to Fort Hood for training with the First Armored Division. Bonneau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Bonneau of Dodson, while Warren is the son of Mrs. Z. D. Miller of Olton, formerly of Dodson.

Johnson Motor Co. Introduces New Hudson Jet at Opening Friday

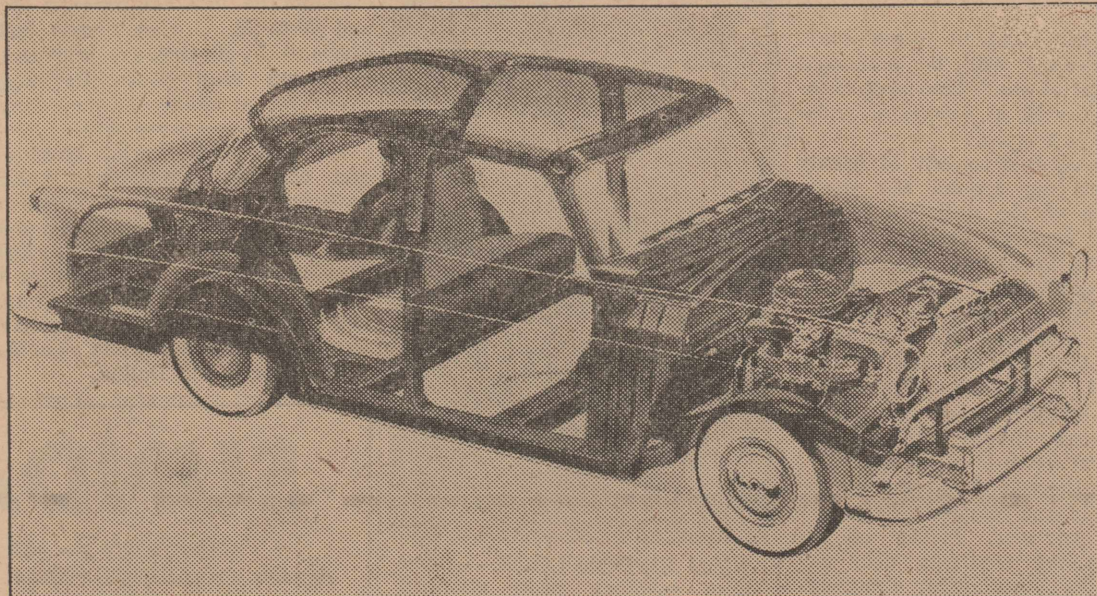

Hudson Motor Car Company today announced its new entry in the low-priced field — the Hudson Jet — a new kind of car made possible only by Hudson's exclusive "step-down" design and lower center of gravity, which permit the Jet to safely handle more power in relation to its weight than any other car in its price class.

The Jet is a compact car which offers an unusual combination of high-power performance, fine-car luxury, safety and durability at a low price. It is an economical car. The Jet's super-compression, six-cylinder engine is uncomplicated in design, inexpensive to maintain, and delivers unusual gas mileage. It has Hudson's rugged Monobilt body-and-frame construction.

List price for the Hudson Jet four-door sedan is $1,685.00; the Super Jet four-door sedan lists at $1,775.00.

The Jet has a very low center of gravity due to Hudson's exclusive "step-down" design, which recesses the floor down within the base frame, providing the lowest center of gravity among American cars while still preserving full road clearance. This gives the Jet better safety and roadability than has ever been possible before in a car in its class. It weighs only 2800 pounds, but has the solid "feel" and ride of a much larger car.

In the Jet, Hudson has achieved a compact car that is ideal for city driving and is equally at home on the highway at higher speeds. It is truly an "all-purpose" car, designed to fill every passenger car requirement. The Jet has ample room for six passengers, plus economy and safety that makes an ideal family car. Its

Jet Has Rugged, Monobilt Body-and-Frame

The Jet has Hudson's rugged Monobilt body-and-frame construction for the greatest safety and durability in the low-price field. This rigidly built, one-unit body-and-frame provides the strongest automobile construction in the industry. Passengers are protected on all sides by box-section steel girders which completely surround the passenger compartment.

ease of handling and dependability makes it the perfect car for use by women, and its powerful engine and "big car" riding qualities and large luggage compartment make it a fine car for the traveling man.

Hudson's exclusive Monobilt body-and-frame provides the Jet with safety advantages never before built into a car in its class. An all-steel-box section frame, which is built into the body and encircles the rear wheels, is welded into a single unit by more than 5,000 permanent welds, providing girder protection all around the passengers.

The Jet's styling is sleek and attractive, with free-flowing continental lines and smart "custom" look. Fender lines blend smoothly into door panels, giving body lines a clean, unobstructed sweep from front to rear.

Front ends are massive in appearance, adding to the Jet's solid, road-hugging look. A distinctive grille combines ruggedness and beauty. Grille louvers are gracefully streamlined stainless steel to reduce frontal surface and to give minimum wind resistance.

Swept-back rear fenders add to the Jet's long, low lines. Rear tail lights are dome-shaped and are clearly visible from side or rear. The gas tank cap, with spring cover, is conveniently located off-center below the trunk lid, making it possible to fill the tank without dragging the hose across the trunk lid. Wrap-around rear bumpers are sturdy and massive. Built-in back-up lights are optional.

The Jet has an exceptional amount of luggage space. Ingenious trunk design provides more usable space than many cars in a higher price class. The spare tire is placed in an upright position for easy removal without removing luggage.

The Hudson Jet's compactness and extremely high ratio of power to weight give outstanding fuel economy, oil economy and increased tire mileage.

The Jet's super-compression six cylinder engine is of uncomplicated, in-line, L-head design — easy to service and with fewer moving parts and wear points. It has the same type oversize bearings and rugged construction as the Hudson Hornet's famed H-145 engine. Compression ratio is 7.5 to 1 with cast iron cylinder head and 8 to 1 with optional aluminum head, the highest ratio of any American car using regular-grade fuel. Premium-priced fuel is not required. Bore is 3 inches and stroke 4 3/4 inches. Displacement is 202 cubic inches.

The Jet engine develops from 104 to 114 horsepower, depending on choice of equipment. For extra, high-output performance, Twin H-power, Hudson's revolutionary multiple fueling system, is available as optional equipment for either cast iron head or optional aluminum head.

Chrome-alloy cylinder blocks — the hardest in the industry — assures long motor life and cuts oil consumption to a minimum. All component engine parts are matched and individually balanced before assembly. After assembly, they are again balanced as a unit to insure perfect running operation.

Because of its low center of gravity, the Hudson Jet hugs the road and clings to curves in a manner unmatched by any car but the Hudson Hornet or Wasp.

In addition to the advantages of "step-down" design, the Jet has the finest, full-size suspension and springing system ever built into a car in its price class. Independent front-wheel coil springing of special alloy steel provides smooth, easy riding on the roughest roads. Dual-action front stabilizer bar and diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers, together with splay mounted rear springs, control sway and provide increased stability on the sharpest curves.

Like its higher-priced companion cars, the Hudson Jet has true Center-Point Steering, the most accurate steering system known. It acts directly and equally on both front wheels, thus eliminating "wheel fight" and road wander. Center-Point Steering provides easy, finger-tip control at all speeds.

It's a Good Thing To Know The Land You Walk On!

Attend The Soil Judging Contest Monday, March 23

You can live on the land a lifetime and never really know it. Know what makes its fertility . . . what it needs to make it more fertile. It is becoming increasingly important that we know what our land needs to increase its richness . . . to be sure that we put back into the soil what we take out in crops.

For this reason, the First National Bank urges you to attend the meeting on soil fertility and the soil judging contest Monday, March 23, at 1:30 p. m. We congratulate the extension service and the Chamber of Commerce, who are sponsoring soil fertility day . . . in behalf of our land and our future.

Program Sunday Highlights Camp Fire Observance

Camp Fire Girls in Wellington will join in the national celebration of Camp Fire's forty-third birthday, to be observed March 15-21, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. E. K. Jones, a local Camp Fire leader.

Climaxing the week will be the Camp Fire Birthday Council Fire, to be given Sunday, March 22, at 4:00 p.m. at the community building. The program is in line with the study for the year, "Down to Earth," and will include these numbers:

Lighting the Camp Fire, Creed Hill; Song of the Flame, Ko Shari Club; and the song, "America the Beautiful," by the audience and girls.

The seasons will be portrayed by these numbers by the entire group; "Sowing," a choral reading; an action song, "Oats, Peas, Beans"; the Teton-Sioux Sunrise Dance; Harvesting song; Thanksgiving Song; and Pueblo Corn Grinding Song and Pantomime. The Blue Birds will give the Rain Dance and song.

Mrs. Frank Pope, council chairman, will direct the graduation of Blue Birds to Camp Fire Girls, assisted by the leaders, Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. Frank Campbell and Mrs. Robert Belew. The Camp Fire Laws will be sung by the Camp Fire Girls as the new members receive their neckerchiefs, and the Blue Birds will give the benediction.

Refreshments will be served following the program, and the public is invited, Mrs. Jones said.

Other activities for the week include window displays in several business houses around the square relative to "Down to Earth" program of work, and wearing of their official uniforms to school throughout the week.

"Down to Earth," a national project in which more than 370,000 other Camp Fire Girls throughout the country are participating, will give the girls an opportunity to make a first-hand study of the soil and the things that grow in it and on it.

Although "Down to Earth" will be carried out in many ways, Mrs. Jones declared that participation in the project will help Camp Fire girls to achieve several basic objectives, namely, to broaden their appreciation of the world in which they live, to increase their knowledge of nature lore and to develop their powers of observation.

As a summer project, the Wellington girls will plant and work flower and garden tools.

Pvt. and Mrs. Audrey Needham spent last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Needham and Mr. and Mrs. John Calcote, as they were en route back to El Paso from Savanna, Ga. They drove through in their car here from Savanna with some friends, Pvt. Frank Holec of Minnesota and Pvt. Delbert Gibbins of Nebraska. Pvt. Needham took his car to El Paso. They were all guests in the Needham home till Wednesday evening. All three of the soldiers were stationed at El Paso before going to Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Needham of Perryton and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton and Miss Peggy Lewis of Wellington visited Pvt. and Mrs. Needham while they were in the Needham home.

A large crowd attended prayer meeting and singing in the William Blasingame home last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Langford and Mr. and Mrs. Billie Langford were Sunday guests in the Henry Langford home.

Mrs. Myrtle Manuel of Childress is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. I. H. Manuel.

Junior Follies On March 30

The Junior Follies will be given by the Wellington high school junior class Monday night, March 30, at the high school auditorium, beginning at 7:45 p.m.

This is the first year that the juniors have given an entertainment of this type.

Six acts are slated, a song and dance, square dance, specialty number, the Esquire calendar, a one-act play, "The Invitation," and a dance, "The Sheik."

Directing the production are Alan Humphries, Miss Ainsworth, and Miss Leatrice West.

Tickets will go on sale this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. LeDerer visited in Vernon Sunday in the home of Mrs. LeDerer's sister, Mrs. A. B. Garland.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Brown and Rosetta of Bethany visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown in Hedley Sunday.

New tan colored International Harvester 1953 pickup with long wheelbase, stained glass windows and everything, now on the floor. Come take a look before you buy a new pickup — somebody's going to get this one on a good deal.

Emory Hunter had new disc-brakes put on his Farmall M last week and some other little tuning up done on it. Emory is easy to work for because he knows we're going to do a job right and he knows when it's done right. We have lots of customers like Emory, too; in fact, I don't think anybody else has half as fine a group of regular customers as we have.

Got a little shipment of drag planters in. These are working on many different kinds and makes of equipment and still do the best job of regular planting of any other type of planter made by International or anybody else.

John Robert Henard buying a 3-point hitch for the Super C Farmall he swiped at a sale last fall. Now he'll have all the convenience of quick tool changes and Farmall long life and dependability, too.

William Blasingame hauls out a new International cream separator arator with electric motor on it. Cream separators sort of went out of style here in the early 40's, but they may stage a comeback if things don't change pretty quick. Anybody else want a brand new 500-lb. separator with direct connected electric motor for $135 come in and see me. These generally sell for over $200.

R. R. Crawley has his Farmall M in the shop for a ring job and Loren Thompson brought his H to the shop for a valve job Monday. Getting their tractors ready before the busy season starts — before the time comes when a day's delay could make a big difference in the crop they make.

G. B. Reeves, Joe Birchfield, C. E. Roberts, Bob Hightower, Roy Thomason, John Jones, Tom Birchfield, Osa Black, Frank Fuson, John Lowrie, Cecil Elbert, Bill Oldham, John Wolf, Zook Thomas, Paul Wofford, Coy Cates, Henry Wolf, and many others buying parts to get their equipment up in shape for the 1953 crop. Most of them report prospects for a crop are better than they were at this time last year — and still not bragging.

Just unloaded a shipment of peg harrow sections.

Quail Seniors Present Comedy On March 26

The Quail senior class play, "Star Crazy," will be presented by a cast of nine Thursday evening, March 26, at 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The play is a comedy of family life centering around the young members of the Andrews family, Bill, an aspiring baseball player, portrayed by Jasper Peeples, and a charming older sister, Jerry, played by Jo White, who has been so busy studying stars with her father that she has had no time for stars in her eyes. Then there is the ambitious younger daughter, Donna, Loveta Kindrick, who wants to write love stories.

Then there is the absent minded professor and learned astronomer, Prof. Andrews, father of the three young Andrews, ably portrayed by Donald Ray Kennedy.

Altogether a different sort is Isabella, the maid, played by Nadine Kindrick, who could have been an actress, or an acrobat, or a worker in an airplane factory, but instead stood fast by her profession of housekeeping.

Other characters include Dick Mallon, Wallace Blasingame, the greatest big league player since Babe Ruth; Joan Mayberry, played by Elizabeth Wilson, who has lost fame and fortune and temper; Joe Alcott, Dewey DeBord, a Hollywood publicity man who is star crazy; and Beth Robinson, played by Fern Neely, a staunch friend, conspirator and admirer of the two young Andrews.

Pierce, slide rule; Alan Humphreys, number sense; Mrs. Calvin Adeock, typing and shorthand; Stan Brooks, declamation and extemporaneous speaking, and boys tennis.

The sports events will be played at a later date in Childress. Miss Leatrice West, girls volley ball and tennis; Clifford Niles, boys volley ball; Donald Briggs, baseball and the track team is under the direction of Maxey McKnight. The choral group will go to Canyon with Clive McClellan in charge.

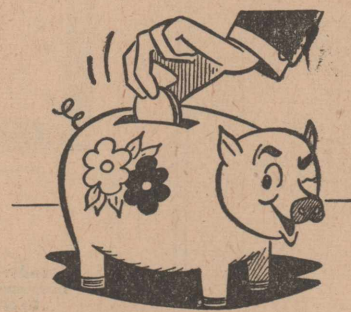

Supt. C. T. Roberts is the general director of the spring meet.

to the top by defeating three other boys. Two of his wins were by K. O.'s and the third was by a T. K. O. In his first fight of the tourney Jameson met Ernest Hughes of Graham and in the third round scored a T. K. O. John Bryant, a Fort Worth boys was his second victim. Bryant collapsed on the canvas in the third round by way of a clear-cut K. O. In the semi-final match Tommy Bishop, a Holiday mitsman fell in the second round of a savage battle. After this Jameson took the crown with ease and assurance.

Miss Georgia Nell Galyean Weds W. H. Fisher, III, February 21

In a single ring ceremony performed in the First Baptist parsonage, February 21, at 2:00 p. m., Miss Georgia Nell Galyean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Galyean, became the bride of W. H. Fisher, III, of Abilene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher of Houston.

The Rev. Chester O'Brien, Jr. performed the ceremony.

Miss Galyean was dressed in a blue suit with navy and white accessories. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by lilies.

Mrs. George Borland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blue suit with a white orchid corsage.

Bobby Fisher, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents.

The guest entered through an archway at the door and were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. Austin O'Neil. Miss Sidney Guley served the punch and Miss Betty Wood served the cake.

The bride is a graduate of the Wellington High School with the class of 1952. Mr. Fisher attended school at Houston and is now employed by The Five Oil Company in Abilene.

They will establish residence in Abilene.

Miss Jean Henry visited in Kellerville Sunday with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Henry. Max Jordan brought Miss Henry home Sunday night.

George Shadid, Miss Marie Shadid and Miss Rose Shadid visited in Memphis Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shadid.

Miss Floradel Chandler Weds Kenneth Maxwell March 15

In an impressive ceremony performed Sunday, March 15, in the home of Mrs. A. J. Fires, sister of the groom, Miss Floradel Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Chandler, became the bride of Kenneth Maxwell, son of Mrs. Lela Maxwell of Quail.

Minister William R. Tittle of Hollis, Oklahoma, read the double ring ceremony before an arch with baskets of yellow gladioli, white pear blossoms and yellow candles on either side. Recorded music was played during the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in white lace and tulle over taffeta. She wore a veiled lace hat trimmed with blue carnations, blue shoes and white lace mitts. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations tied with blue and white ribbon.

Miss Nelda Scott was maid of honor. She wore a blue net ballerina length dress with a head garland of blue tulle. Her corsage was of yellow jonquils.

Gerald Morris served as best man.

Mark Fires carried the candles. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held.

The table was centered with a white double ring wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Tuffy Barton served the wedding cake while Mrs. Alfred White poured the punch.

Mrs. Maxwell graduated from Wellington High School with the 1952 class and at the time of her marriage she was employed at the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Mr. Maxwell graduated from

KO SHARI AND THE BLUE BIRDS

Two groups that observe National Camp Fire Girl Birthday Week, March 15 to 21, along with the Camp Fire Members, are Ko Shari, or the Horizon Club, and the Blue Birds. Ko Shari is for those girls who have passed the age of active Camp Fire participation, but continue their interest in the work. The Wellington group, at top, includes, standing, Mary Ann Hunter, Mary Jane Johnson, Jeanne Drummond, and Elinor Drake. Seated are Sally Parsons, Nancy Elliott, Renee

DODSON NEWS

Neil Doolittle has returned home after undergoing a thyroidectomy in the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo. Mr. Doolittle has been a patient in the hospital there much of the time since Christmas, and was re-admitted March 4 for the surgery. After being dismissed Wednesday, Mar. 11, he and Mrs. Doolittle visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stone in Plainview. They returned here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Daugherty, Raymond and Dan, were in Matador Sunday to meet Mrs. Ruby Batts and return her to her home here. Mrs. Batts has been visiting her son, Arthur Batts, at New Home, south of Lubbock, who brought her to Matador on her return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bogle, who recently leased their farm and went to California, are now living at Long Beach. They left here due to Mrs. Bogle's health, which seems to be improving in their new location. They plan to be away at least a year.

A Dodson visitor last week was Mrs. William Tyler, a former resident, now living in Los Angeles. She is visiting in the A. G. Tyler, Herschel Tyler and J. B. Faulkner homes in Wellington.

Houston Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, has returned home after serving with the armed forces in Korea. He recently received his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howell were in Mangum, Okla., Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Al Walker and son, Bud. Bud, now serving as a radioman in the Navy, will ship out to Pearl Harbor within a short time. All three of the Walker's sons are in service. Jerry, the oldest, is with the Navy stationed in Maine, while the youngest, P. A., is now in Korea. Their daughter, Nora Belle Walker, is working in California. Mr. and Mrs. Howell reported wheat was looking fine over the entire route to Mangum, then back through the Duke and Hollis area.

Mrs. E. H. Dodson has returned from Fort Worth, where she spent a week with her daughters, Mrs. X. R. Hyde and Mrs. George McCullough. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Murry Dodson, accompanied her to Nocona, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Stilwell.

Ed Crowder and Pete Nipper were business visitors in Altus recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crowder have had as their guests their granddaughters, Linda and Shelia Ford.

Ed Bennett, whose cattle were among the herds in the county that contracted hyperkeratosis, sold 23 head on the Fort Worth market last week. He reported that he talked with officials of the oil mill manufacturing the pellets which caused the disease, and that he was well pleased with the settlement they propose.

Mr. Bennett plans to rebuy cattle as soon as he finds the animals he likes.

A high point of the school year from the standpoint of the teachers and school board members of the Dodson school was the county teachers banquet held in Wellington Thursday night, March 12. "We everyone enjoyed it and sincerely appreciate being honored," J. C. Howell, a board member, said.

Attending from Dodson were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Fillpot, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Teutsch, Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nipper, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lennon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Word, Mr. and Mrs. Homa Yarbrough, Mrs. Floyd Roberts Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles King.

Mrs. Jack Stewart returned Sunday from Hot Springs, Ark., where she and Mr. Stewart have been attending the races. A horse which Mr. Stewart had there, belonging to his brother, has won twice in 10 days.

Mrs. Z. McKinney was honored at a birthday dinner Sunday, March 15, at the school cafeteria, when approximately 40 friends gathered to honor her. Gifts were presented and the covered dish dinner served. The dinner came as a complete surprise to the honor guest.

Mrs. Maurine Whitehead of Amarillo returned home Monday after visiting in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Painter.

Tolbert Painter of Littlefield spent the week end in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Painter.

As a merchandising plan which will help the various churches of the area alike and impartially, the Dodson Dry Goods, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds recently announced a new plan to their customers.

Coupons for the value of the purchase will be given each customer on all purchases of $1.00 or more. At any time the buyer can turn his coupons over to the secretary-treasurer of the church of his choice, and when at least $100 worth has been collected, these will be redeemed by Dodson Dry Goods at 10 per cent of their face value.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds point out that there is no obligation on the part of anyone. They inaugurated the plan out of appreciation for the work the churches of the community are doing, and they add that their customers also appreciate the gesture, which is proving profitable to the churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Dale Hunt of Dallas spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hunt.

Duggie Jamerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jamerson, and one of the Wellington Skyrocket boxing stars, was champion of the 112 pound weight in the high school division of the Red River Valley Boxing Tournament in Wichita Falls last week.

Jamerson fought four boys and won three on technical knock-outs and the fourth by a decision.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wynn were in Altus Sunday to attend a special meeting of the IOOF Lodge. They, as well as a number of other Dodson families, are members of the Hollis Lodge. They will return to Altus for a school of instruction which begins March 23.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wadley had as their dinner guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Ben Seigford of Hollis.

Pip Holloman was a Dodson visitor Monday. Although he and his family continue to make their home at Wellington, he is wheat farming at LaJunta, Colorado. He reports that area has received over 40 inches of snow and wheat is looking fine. He will be here two or three days before returning to La Junta.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Worrell of Arlie have moved their station and grocery to a new location and building, just west of their home. Although they are open for business, they have not completed work, and will install two more pumps and an awning and driveway will be added. The business will be operated as the Arlie Grocery. Mr. and Mrs. Worrell have operated the business for the past year.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Worrell of Arlie Sunday were her sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. George Atchison of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knoll of Samnorwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lawrence of Arlie have returned home after a few days visiting in Amarillo.

Dirt work is nearing completion on the new farm-to-market highway which will extend from Arlie west to join the present pavement running out from Loco. Laying the base coat was due to begin Tuesday and people of the Arlie section have been assured the work will go forward as fast as possible.

Two trustees will be elected in the school election to be held Saturday, April 4. Members whose terms expire are Truitt Holland and John E. Forbis, both of whom have been nominated for re-election. There are no other candidates so far. Gilbert Hunt will be election judge and Homa Yarbrough and Mrs. Marvin Wynn clerks. The election will be held at the school.

The contract for building the new Dodson gymnasium will be let Monday night, March 23, when the school board meets for that purpose, according to Buster Fillpot. The board has announced that all persons interested in submitting bids should do so by Monday, taking their bids to J. C. Howell, secretary of the board. Blueprints may be seen at the office of T. E. Lennon, superintendent.

The Dodson basketball team played its first indoor game in the history of the school Wednesday, March 11, against the Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes. Although the Dodson teams were defeated, they consider this a high point in the school year. An attempt is being made to match other games by the coach, Ralph Word.

Caretakers For Court House

The commissioners court, in session Monday, March 9, employed Mrs. N. L. Ray and her son, W. L., as caretakers of the county court house. They replace the late N. L. Ray, who died recently.

W. L. Ray has been doing the work since his father became ill, and at the same time continuing his work in Wellington high school.

SALT FORK

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL

This county has been blessed again. Those storm clouds, missed us and we're thankful. Guess spring is here, see lots of trees in bloom. Surely hope we don't have any more weather cold enough to freeze the fruit.

Sunday school was well attended Sunday. We were glad to have Mrs. Dee Harris with us again.

We also have a little visitor from down near Wellington. Anita Moody, she was visiting her cousins, Jimmy and Linda Peters, and came to Sunday school.

We were glad Mrs. J. P. Cummings was able to be back in Sunday school. Her cold is some better.

Mrs. Ray Maxwell's little boys are sick with the measles. Their Grandma Maxwell is helping care for them. Mr. Maxwell is working away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cummings and son were visitors at the J. P. Cummings home last week.

The Rex Joyner family visited the J. P. Cummings Saturday. They were feeling better from their seige of bad colds. Seems like these colds people are having this year are hard to get rid of.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters and family drove down to visit her sister and family after church Sunday, the Waymond Moodys.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Depauw of Amarillo were week end visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pierce. The Depauws attended church at Quail. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce came to Salt Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hallmark and boys visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings last Friday night.

Mrs. Ross Gladney and family of Amarillo visited awhile Friday afternoon with Mrs. John Gollighugh and children in Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barefield and son, Mr. and Mrs. Duard Harris and children of Amarillo visited the ladies parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders last Sunday. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brewer. Mrs. Dee Harris returned to her home here with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Cummings. She had visited with the Duard Harris's the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell attended the funerals in Wellington last week of Mr. Warren and Mrs. Minnie Gibbs. This community wants to express sympathy to the relatives of Mr. Warren and also to the Gibbs family.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bolton, Nell and Richard were visitors in the Wright and Isbell home last Wednesday night.

Mrs. May Gillespie of Roaring Springs, Texas, is back in the Wellington Hospital. Mrs. Gillespie is suffering with her foot which has been in a bad shape for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh and family and Mrs. Harris visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brewer awhile last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Isbell and son visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell and his grandmother Wright Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings visited awhile Saturday night in their son's home, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Isbell. They attended church at the Assembly of God church.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bolton and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright and family visited Mrs. G. C. Wright awhile Sunday night.

Dinner guests Sunday in the C. A. Wright home were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings, Mrs. Dee Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh and family. Mrs. Bill Clifton visited last Monday in the Wright and Isbell home.

Collingsworth Motor Introduces New Ford Trucks in County

Collingsworth Motor Co. introduced the broadest line of trucks in Ford Motor Company's 50-year history when Ford's 1953, all-new trucks were shown for the first time by dealers throughout the United States, March 13.

Covering a wide range of ratings and designed for increased economy and driver comfort, the trucks are offered in four distinct lines, in 20 new series and in more than 190 models.

"Our 1953 truck line represents an investment of more than 50 million dollars in research, development, engineering, testing and dies as well as more than four years of hard work," L. D. Crusoe, vice president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of Ford Division, said.

"We have placed all the experience and know-how gained by Ford as the builder of more than 17 million commercial vehicles for the American road into these trucks."

The 1953 Ford trucks range from 4,000 to 27,000 pounds GVW and up to 53,000 pounds GCW ratings in the new F-900 series, the largest truck ever built by Ford and a 1953 addition to the company's truck line.

The trucks, according to Kelly Pigg, owner of Collingsworth Motor Co., include elimination of double-clutching through use of new synchro-silent transmissions on all models. Shorter wheel-bases, wider front treads and repositioning of springs also makes all 1953 Ford trucks easier to handle and steer, and more maneuverable with shorter turning radius.

Other important features, Pigg said, are new wider seats with five feet of hip room comfortably seating three men; exclusive Ford counter-shock seat snubbers which absorb road shocks for a softer smoother ride; greater ease of servicing all models and Ford's exclusive offering of either three V-8 or two 6-cylinder modern, high compression engines, noted for their economical operation.

Four basic lines of 1953 Ford trucks are: Conventional F-series; cab-forward C-series; parcel delivery P-series for multi-stop delivery; and school bus B-series. There also is a Courier sedan delivery available.

WTU Will Hold Cooking School Here March 26

All the housewives in Wellington and the surrounding area are invited to be guests of the West Texas Utilities Company at an all electric cooking school to be conducted here next Thursday the 26th.

The demonstration, which will present the most recent and modern developments of cooking, will be held at the Community Building at 2:00 p.m. Mr. N. C. Beam, West Texas Utilities Company's local manager, in announcing the school, said, "As a result of numerous requests to repeat the cooking school, which we presented last fall, this school was planned."

Mrs. Jennie V. Wynne, a senior home economist for Frigidaire Sales Corporation, will present the newest developments and new recipes and ideas. She will be assisted by Doris Moore of West Texas Utilities Company's district staff. Mrs. Wynne is a graduate Home Economist with years of practical experience. She has had special training in food preparation, preservation, and quick-freezing techniques at the nationally famous Frigidaire Home Economics Department at Dayton, Ohio.

Recipes and gifts will be given to homemakers who attend the demonstration. All the food used in demonstrating the modern electric way of food preparation will be presented to women attending the school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robinson spent the first part of last week in Amarillo visiting their children and other relatives. Mrs. R. C. Owen and daughter, Tonya, returned home with them for the week end. Sunday dinner guests in the A. L. Robinson home were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boyett of Wellington.

Twenty-one guns comprise the national salute to The Flag.

Thanks Friends

Upon the occasion of the Grand Opening of our newly remodeled department store, we are holding a Three Day Sale of NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE.

It is an Appreciation Event for the wonderful business, co-operation and friendship the people of the area have accorded us through the years, which has enabled us to build this truly modern store. We are deeply grateful for the confidence and support that has made this possible, and we believe we have a store of which the entire community can be proud and one that by its very nature and service will help attract business.

Remember that this is a sale of new spring merchandise that has recently arrived.

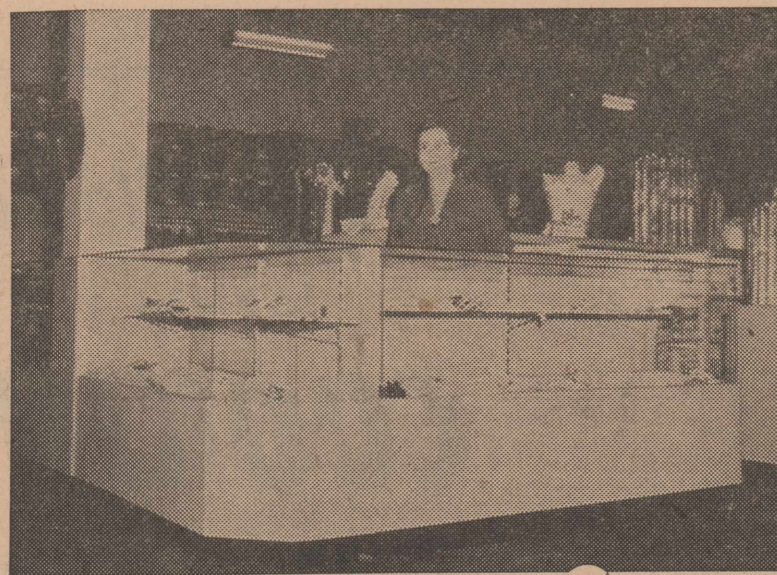

Lovely spring dresses, toppers and hats will be sold for three days at reduced prices, as well as shoes, lingerie, childrens clothing and fabrics. It gives you a chance to save on new styles, and new merchandise. It is our way of saying Thank You. And we mean a GREAT BIG THANK YOU to ALL OF YOU. Come Early. You will be most welcome.

Dowell's Dolls Appear

KIRKLAND INDEPENDENTS EDGE THROUGH TO WIN QUAIL TOURNEY

By JAMES GLASSCOCK
Red-hot action climaxed the first annual independent basketball tournament which was held at Quail last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night, March 12, 13, and 14. Most of the sessions were played before good crowds and the action was fast-moving.

In the championship flight two top-notch teams clashed in what turned into quite a scrap. The home-standing Quail "A" tangled with the powerful Kirkland five. Kirkland won by a close 74 to 72.

The Quails scored first in the ball game with Jack Morgan laying-in two important points. From there on in things got hotter and hotter. Points flew in faster as the ex-high school and college stars begin to find their shooting ability. The first quarter score showed Kirkland leading by a small 16 to 14. At the half Kirkland had a semi-commanding lead. It was 40 to 33. The three-quarters mark found the "landers" ahead 57 to 51. In the fourth and final quarter the Quails displayed one of the finest comebacks of the season, only to have it nipped short of victory. They were just two points shy of tying this razzle, dazzle ball game. Jack Morgan, Calvin Tow, Jack O'Neil, Bill Phillips, and Boots Graham played good ball during the game but at times they had trouble finding their range. As the game ended the Quails had been slipped for first place by the Kirkland squad by a tight 74 to 72 score.

The top scorer for the evening was former West Texas star, Bill Phillips. He scored 26 important points. Calvin Tow was second with 11.

Bruch of Kirkland scored 23 points before retiring because of fouls.

Household Supply of Clarendon and the green-shirted Shamrock squad battled for the consolation crown in a close ball game. It is interesting to note that the scores of these two championship games are identical. The green-clad Irish won by a tight 74 to 72.

In the first quarter the teams played tight defensive ball and kept each other on the leash most of the way. The first quarter score was 20 to 19 in the Irishmen's favor. The half-time score was 37 to 31 in Shamrock's favor. The Irish continued to build on to their lead in the third and fourth quarter. Then with about two minutes to go in the final stanza Clarendon got fired-up and began to put a scare into the Irish. However, the lead was too much and they fell by two points. It is rather ironic that these two points that beat Clarendon was made by two of their own players. By mistake they dumped a goal into the "Greens" basket. Had they not have done this the game would have gone over the regulation time limit.

Bill White of the losers scored 21 points, while Whippley of Shamrock dumped in 30 points far and evening's work.

Clarendon's main player, Don Loyd, was absent from the lineup.

The first game of the Saturday's evening card matched Bob Dowell's Dolls against some local talent in an exhibition game. The Dolls ran at will to chalk-up a 50 to 15 win. The Dolls led throughout the entire ball game. At the half they led 18 to 11.

Quail's own Jo Helen White scored the most for the Dolls with a 21 point production. She made 9 field goals and 3 free shots. Reeves for the Independents scored 8 points.

The two Quail teams placed a member each on the all-tournament squad. Bill Phillips was named from the "A" team and Jasper Peoples sacked-up the honor on the "B" squad. Golden basketballs were presented to the mythical team members.

The results of all the games are as follows:

Quail "A" 73, Clarendon 66; Plainview 57, Clarendon 51; Plainview, Okla. 48, Hedley 63; Kirkland 79, Hedley 57; Shamrock 65, Clarendon 60; Shamrock 73, Quail "B" 66; Quail "A" 71, Wellington 52; Wellington 56, Clarendon 55.

LOCO

By MRS. GEORGE ADKINS

Work on the farm-to-market highway to Arlie is going along very well. Several new concrete bridges are being built. A lot of trees have been moved from along the road site in order to make the road bed wide enough.

There is also a new culvert being constructed on the county line just west of the E. S. Copeland home. It is one that has been needing repairs for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Newman of Dennison visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Durfee and family over the week end. Mr. Newman is a brother of Mrs. Durfee.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Boggs of Oklahoma City are the parents of a new daughter, born there March 7. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Adkinson of Amarillo. A great uncle and aunt are Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adkins.

Jack Brewer of Wellington was a business visitor in Loco Monday.

The W. M. Durfeys and Mrs. W. D. Durfee have started a yard beautification program at their homes. They are drilling a water well, planting shade trees and flowering shrubs. They also have prepared flower beds for later planting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sachse are still in the process of spring remodeling at their home. Last week several new windows were put in. The entire house is getting a new coat of paint. Bill Wolf is helping them.

Mrs. Sachse has also installed a lot of baby chickens in that new brooder house they completed a few weeks back.

The drizzle and fog slowed down farming operations here this week, but every little bit of moisture is sincerely appreciated.

Bob Copeland had some of his terrace lines re-run this week.

Mrs. W. D. Durfee spent most of the week with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Durfee, Walter and Deanna, at Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adkins spent Thursday and Friday visiting relatives in Amarillo. They visited Mrs. Cecil Cayton, Jr. in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Osburn. Mrs. Cayton was taken from Northwest Texas Hospital last week. She will return to the hospital in eight weeks to have the cast on her broken hip changed.

Mr. and Mrs. Adkins also visited Aubra Coursey and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Adkins and family.

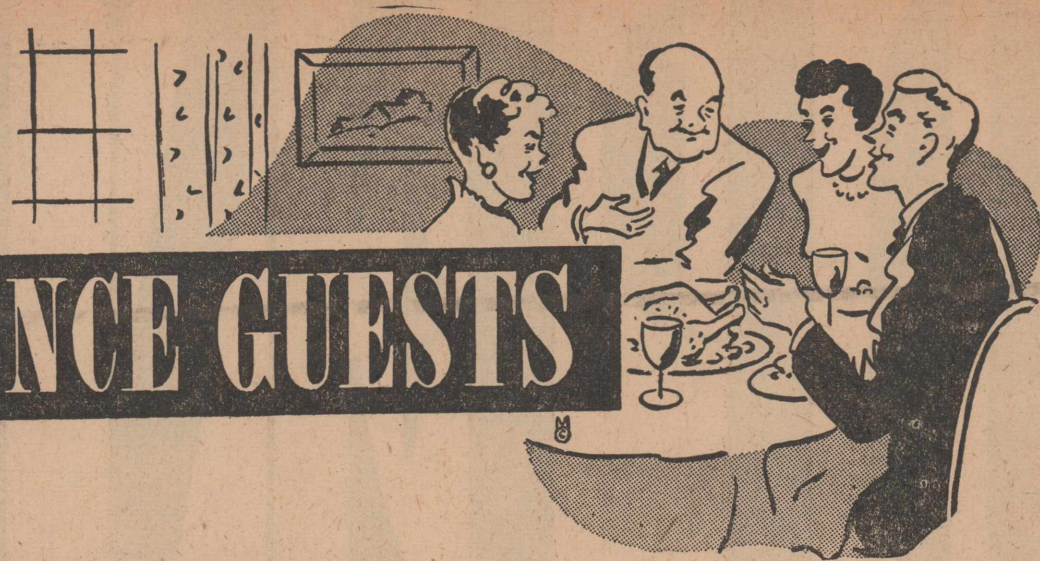

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Martin of Quitaque and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Devenport, of House, New Mexico, were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Devenport and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crawley. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Killian of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crawley, Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Cleveland and Bessie and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wolf and Jimmy of Wellington visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adkins Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf and Jimmy were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wolf.

Signs of spring here. The lilacs and irises are budding.

EDITORIAL COMMENT — THE WELLINGTON LEADER

Let's Look at Camp Fire Girls

Forty-three years of service to America's girlhood.

More than four decades during which time its members have taken their places in the community as wives, mothers, grandmothers, business and professional women and civic leaders.

This is the record of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., which celebrates its forty-third birthday during the week March 15-21. Camp Fire Girls in Wellington, who will join with more than 370,000 other members throughout the nation in commemorating the event, may well be proud of their organization and what it represents.

Camp Fire is a typical American organization - the kind that has helped make this the great country it is. Its program of leisure-time activities, available to girls of every race, religion and economic status, is one that emphasizes the individual in relation to herself, her community and the world in which she lives.

The need of young people today is self-assurance and we can think of no better place for girls to gain it than in organizations like the Camp Fire Girls. Through a health and character-building program America's girls gain a greater realization of their capacities for happy living. This is accomplished in Camp Fire through small groups where the members learn, by friendly association with others, to be well-adjusted members of society.

During Birthday Week Camp Fire Girls in more than 2,700 communities will highlight their annual birthday project, "Down to Earth." This is a fitting one, for someone it seems to sum up the entire philosophy of the Camp Fire program which seeks to promote a happy home life and good citizenship through participation in realistic, everyday activities. As Camp Fire Girls carry out their "Down to Earth" project, they will gain a greater awareness of the soil's productivity. With the searching minds of youth, they will discover how man's progress - from improved living comforts to advancements in the fields of medical research - can be traced back, step by step, to the land and what grows on and in it. It is a challenging project but out that Camp Fire Girls are equal to.

In saying Happy Birthday to Camp Fire we add our congratulations on its past achievements and good wishes for its future.

OTHER EDITORS SAY:—

Is American Civilization Declining in Terms Of Value Placed on Life?

Someone has said that the keenest test of any civilization is the value placed on human life.

What value is placed on human life by communism? We know of the slave camps of Siberia, we have proof of murder on a mass scale of those behind the Iron Curtain who do not acquiesce to communist theories, and we know of the wanton sacrifice of Chinese soldiers in Korean war by the Russian overlords.

Contrast the cheapness of human life behind the Iron Curtain with the value placed on human life by the United States. Our country has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in the rescue of one airman at sea. Every man in the armed services of our nation has the quieting assurance that the total power of this country will be mobilized to rescue him or save his life, if it is humanly possible to do so.

This country was founded on the premise that life is more valuable than things. Life is worth more than property or material things. Our founding fathers wrote into our documents of government and into the early pages of our national life the paramount importance of the individual and the worth of the human soul.

But aren't we slowly joning forces with the crass materialism of communism? Of course it is slow and almost imperceptible and we don't think of it as materialism or communism, but the trend is nevertheless apparent on every hand.

We in America are placing too much emphasis on property and material things. In many instances we are prone to overlook and excuse actions and attitudes on the part of wealthy people, just because they are wealthy. We glamorized, Hollywood fashion, and make our appraisal of persons on the basis of how fine an automobile they drive, how expensive a home they have or what their bank account is.

Time was in America when individuals, were judged on the basis of their integrity, their character, and their moral and spiritual attributes.

We in America should polish up some of the old ideals on which this country was founded and not be duped into the path of materialism and communism, which seek to destroy all that is valuable in our American way of life.

Time Out for Intermission

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek is talking about something he probably doesn't have any personal knowledge of this week.

Dear editor:

I was stretched out in the sun out here the other afternoon reading a newspaper when I ran across an item that made me sit up so fast I bumped my head on a low-hangin limb.

Accordin to this item, an official in the Agriculture Department in Washington, strugglin with the fall in cattle and farm prices generally, said there isn't too much worry about yet, that the country is fundamentally sound and prosperity is still around and wages are high, and I guess he's right, but what brought me up was his next statement.

He went on to say that the farmer is gonna have to forget about high prices and return to earnin his livin in the sweat of his brow, and while most farmers I know never have given up that method, I personally was hopin some other method would be found.

Earnin your livin in the sweat of your brow is an honorable pastime, but looks like he could have thrown in the suggestion it would be all right also to have more umbrellas on tractors. Looks to me like if a farmer can earn his livin in the shade of a tractor umbrella, he ought to suit Washington just as much as the sweat of the brow. At any rate, we don't have to go bareheaded, do we? And I reckon it'll be all right to plow on a cloudy day, won't it?

Now just the mere fact that some parts of farmin require a lot of hard work never did increase the honor of the job, so far as I'm concerned. Any man who can figure out a way to take some of the hard work out of farmin, he's the man I tip my hat to, provided I'm in the shade at the time. I guess more farmers earned their livin in the sweat of their brows when we had walkin plows and mules than they do now ridin rubber-tired tractors with hydraulic lifts, but I just don't believe the country ever would have gotten fed without the increased production those tractors brought on, regardless of the condition of the farmer's brow.

Brow-moppin no doubt is an honorable gesture brought on by an honorable expenditure of energy, but any time anybody comes out with an air-conditioned tractor on easy credit terms, you'll find me on the waitin list.

I could go on, but a man can work up a sweat writin the same as he can plowin and I hope Washington takes notice while I mop my brow.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

BIBLE COMMENT FOR MARCH 22

Jesus Inspired Followers to Do More

If we were to disregard the things about Jesus which make Him the unusual figure that He is, we would still find that He stood as a remarkable figure in the pageant of history.

Other men have become famous for the books they have written, power they have founded, or codes and laws which they have created.

But Jesus wrote nothing, organized only teachers and evangelists, and established no codes. He did not even organize His teachings in codified form.

There was something casual about His life, yet this apparent casualness seems to have been part of God's purpose. The Christian religion, like the Master Himself, was not to become a circumscribed thing, but was to take a free course.

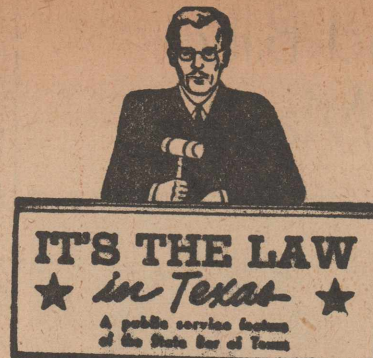

Perhaps it was essential to the future well-being of Christianity that such an attitude as this remained with the early church. The problems to come were many. If there had been no room to adjust to changing conditions, the church would have lacked much of its early vitality.

In this way we see the general pattern of His effective influence. The Master, who did not write a book, inspired what was to become. Though He had no formal organization of His own, He so inspired the disciples that they carried on after Him and became Christian leaders.

Their church became so well organized it spread out across the world, finding bases for operation in many countries. Later it went still further to reach every part of the globe.

These things are being done today. With the strength and inspiration found in the New Testament, Jesus' twentieth century disciples are still working and building the structure based on His teaching.

It is our privilege, as friends of Jesus, to carry on.

START SIMPLE TAX RECORDS NOW, SAVE FUTURE HEADACHES

There is no time like the present, while the great battle of Form 1040 is still upon us, to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's income tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records — at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and for the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a partner who each year is claiming a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires that you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you'll want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted, it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered, it probably will reduce your income tax.

You may have made certain capital improvements on the house while you lived in it, but unless you can show what out-of-pocket expense you incurred while making them, you may not get credit for them in your cost basis so as to prove that you had no capital gain or that you had a loss.

Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the time Dad gave it to you.

It may be that you are receiving annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that you may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you've purchased is a receipted bill or canceled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "pardner" may some day ask to see it.

Looking Ahead With George S. Benson

INDUSTRY HAS A HEART

In an experience of many years which has been spread across the nation, I've become intimately acquainted with many leading American industrialists; and have been delighted to find that the large percentage of them are men of strong Christian character. The Communists and their fellow-travelers, in their frenzied efforts to antagonize employees against employers, constantly berate our industrialists as men without social consciousness, and without regard for the welfare of the workers. This is done for the evident purpose of helping Stalin by lowering American production.

During Freedom Forum XIII at Harding College, F. Gano Chance, President of the A. B. Chance Company and a vocal, influential member of the National Association of Manufacturers, shared the platform with the president of the Centralia plant's IUE-CIO local. The 104 conferees of the forum, representing a national cross-section of business, organized labor, the church and education, liked what they heard from both the industrialist and the labor leader. The thinking and attitude of Mr. Chance are, I think, fairly typical of the thinking and attitude of most American industrialists today.

A MAN'S WANTS

"Perhaps the best place for me to start," he told the forum, "is with myself — to tell you something about my thinking, my wants, my ideals, and my ambitions. I want a good home for my wife and two boys. I want them to enjoy the feeling of security that is woven about a secure home. I want my family to have good health and a sound education backed by a firm belief in Almighty God. Most of all, I guess, I want freedom for them, an opportunity to work, to worship, to study, to listen, to speak, to grow, to develop, to own, to receive, and to leave a heritage.

"Naturally I want to be a success. By success I mean the accomplishment of my objective. My over-all objective is to leave this world better than I found it. I believe this requires rendering service to others. This, of course, leads to a number of outside activities besides company business. I feel that each of us has an obligation to the community, state, country, and world.

Our obligations and our responsibilities must grow as we grow. The president or manager of a business these days is standing on a four-legged stool, the legs represented by customers, employees, stockholders, and the public. For our customers I want to produce a better product than our competitors, or one as good at a lower price.

"For employees, I want the same things that I want for myself and my family. For them, I want our company to progress and grow, so those who want to put forth extra effort may have more opportunities for better jobs and building of their personal security. This is one of the deepest satisfactions I can have. I want to provide an atmosphere in which people will learn to grow, thereby achieving better things for themselves and the company.

THE "ENTERPRISERS"

"For the stockholders who invest their money so that we may have tools with which to produce, I want us to earn enough to pay them adequate dividends for the use of their money. They are the enterprisers. I want our company always to be in good sound condition and a safe firm in which to invest. In the community, I want our company, and the people who work for the company, to be leaders and carry their share of the load in building a better town. I want us to be good neighbors and a positive force in setting an example of a typical American business in a free competitive society.

"In human relations, my ideal would be to have our over-all relationship and our incentives constructed that every employee would feel that he was working for himself, just as though he were in business for himself. . . . At Chance, Company we have made some progress in that direction."

If this be the viewpoint and attitude of American businessmen — and I think that it is for the vast majority — then employees and employers surely can harmonize their desires and thus make the American system produce vastly more for the benefit of all. Write Harding College for the full text of the Chance Company management-labor presentation on teamwork, available at 10 cents.

Miss Flora Foreman Guest Speaker At Meeting of WSCS, March 16

Miss Flora Foreman, who for 31 years was a missionary nurse in Belgium Congo, was guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting and luncheon of the three circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service Monday, March 16.

Miss Foreman, now retired, is making her home with her sister, Miss Grace Foreman in Amarillo. She began her work in Africa in 1920.

The area in which she lived was a section where for 12 million people there are only two high schools, and most education ends at the seventh grade.

Miss Foreman spoke of the status of the people and of women in particular and how it is being raised by the educational facilities, hospital and churches established there by Christian missionaries. Tribal customs of courtship and marriage have proved amazingly resistant to the notions of civilized peoples, she explained, and although the dowry seems like slavery by Western standards, it is the women of the Belgium Congo who want to keep it. It is a mark of respect in feminine eyes, and is the top subject of conversation among women.

They are proud of how much their husbands are willing to pay for them, however they sometimes are not happy when on the death of their husband they become the property of his male relatives. Now the government allows them to redeem themselves by paying the amount of their dowry back to their husband's people. They do this many times, but insist on paying the whole amount since they don't want to feel that their value has decreased.

The Belgian government has finally evolved an effective way for regulating multiple marriages. They made a law that the first wife is tax free, the second is taxed, the third taxed higher, and the fourth taxed exorbitantly. Only in 1951 was bigamy made unlawful altogether.

Miss Foreman now lives in Amarillo. She speaks to church groups who are interested in her work and in seeing the colored slides that she made in Africa.

The regular monthly meeting of all three circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service was held and Mrs. John Henard, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Sam Gholson, who was in charge of the program, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Flora Foreman of Amarillo.

Lunch was served to approximately twenty-five women.
