Child, 2, Killed Instantly by Car

Owner and driver of a car involved in a fatal accident here Wednesday under went lie detector tests Thursday in Midland.

And the tests backed up the couple's version of the accident that took the life of two-year-old Luis Lujon.

The child was killed almost instantly when hit and run over by the car driven by Mrs. Billie Lunceford, 36, as she and Charley Witherspoon, 35, prepared to leave the home of Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Lujon, parents of the child, at 1413 Plum.

Mrs. Lunceford reported that she had felt a "bump" just after the car started to move. The baby was discovered fatally injured behind the car.

Although rushed immediately to Root Memorial Hospital in the Witherspoon car, the baby was dead on arrival at the hospital shortly before 6 p.m.

Witherspoon and Lunceford accompanied County Attorney Frank Ginzel, Police Chief Leon Yeager and Deputy Sheriff Lewis Claxton to Midland for the lie detector tests after conflicting reports as to the driver of the automobile.

Mrs. Lunceford was driving the car when she and Witherspoon said they stopped there to visit the Lujan's new baby. And Mrs. Lunceford said she was driving when the accident happened.

But a relative of the baby's parents told police he believed Witherspoon was driving the car as it started to leave the Lujan house.

The accident happened after Witherspoon had visited for several minutes in the Lujan home, located in the "Sands" area of northwest Colorado City.

Mrs. Lunceford said she had waited in the car during Witherspoon's visit. And the child was not noticed when Witherspoon returned to the car.

Police said measurements revealed the auto had traveled only about three lengths before stopping.

Pete Lujan, brother of the dead child's father, saw the child in the dirt street as the car stopped. And rushed to pick up the child.

Driving the Witherspoon car to the hospital was the child's father, police reported.

Police did not learn of the fatal accident until notified 30 minutes later by the Record.

Investigating Wednesday night with police were District Attorney Eldon Mahon and Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory.

It was Mahon who revealed Thursday results of the lie detector tests. He was notified by County Attorney Ginzel by phone immediately after Mrs. Lunceford had completed her test.

Final rites for the boy will be conducted Friday by Father Thomas Quinlivan at St. Ann's Catholic Church. Burial will be in Mitchell County Cemetery.

Survivors include the parents, four brothers and two sisters.

Civic House Buffet Will End Sunday

The Civic House's smorgasbord will be discontinued following Sunday's buffet dinner.

Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the smorgasbord here since February, took the action at the meeting last week.

The Sunday buffet dinners were undertaken to raise funds for repair of the Civic House roof.

Bob Williams, Jaycee president, said the dinners had accomplished the desired goal with approximately $400 net profit made during the four-month period.

Between 120 and 180 plates were served each Sunday with $25.00 to $30 net profit each week.

Preparing and serving of the food is under the direction of Mrs. Dee Bynum, and her Civic House staff.

BUYING AT HOME

Practice Is Vital as Preaching

"Buying at home is much like The Golden Rule . . . everybody recommends it for everybody else!"

That's the "thought of the week" theme of the buy-at-home feature on Page 5 of section 2 in this issue of the Record, a feature sponsored by 30 local businesses inviting your patronage in the interest of a "greater" Colorado City.

However, the sad fact that some folks who preach buying at home don't practice it much, doesn't keep it from being a wise habit. There will always be people who regularly stand in their own light, even when they know better.

Unlike the Golden Rule, the principle of buying at home has few moral aspects. It's just good hard dollars and cents . . . and fuller living.

Because somebody else does . . . or doesn't . . . is no good reason to give away what is ours. Yet that is just what we're doing when we spend our money off somewhere else, with the excuse that some of our neighbors are doing it.

Remember, it's no soup in our pot, no schools for our kids, no churches for our souls, no increase for our property — when we spend money to support another town!

TOPS FOR THE ENTIRE STATE

Lone Star Honors Porter As Outstanding Texas Manager

Roy J. Porter will be honored Friday night as Lone Star Gas Company's outstanding district manager in cites between 3,000 and 7,500 population.

Top management achievement awards — a watch and plaque — will be presented to the Colorado City district manager at an awards dinner in Paradise Room of Sands Motel.

Heading the list of executives of Lone Star Gas Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Lone Star Producing Company, on hand to pay tribute to Porter will be Les Potter, president of Lone Star companies; Joe C. Darrow, vice president in charge of distribution, and Lacy Bird, vice president of the general division, all of Dallas.

One other West Texas manager, W. M. Braymer, district manager of Abilene, will also receive top management awards at the 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Porter won first place in the Lone Star companies' Class C District, composed of 13 towns with 3,000 to 7,500 population in West Texas, East Texas, South Texas and Oklahoma divisions.

Porter compiled one of the highest ratings among all Lone Star companies managers — regardless of population — under a special point system for measuring managerial and operational programs within the respective districts. He and Braymer are the only West Texans in the select awards group.

The Colorado City manager last October joined the Lone Star "Ruby" Club when he received his pin for 25 years of continuous service.

He began work for Lone Star as a laborer in Wichita Falls in 1932 and was promoted, successively, to billing clerk, shop clerk and plant engineer.

In 1940 Porter was transferred from Wichita Falls to Snyder, where he was a subdistrict manager. Six years later, he was appointed district manager in Colorado City.

Porter has served as director and president of Colorado City Chamber of Commerce as well as having been a member of the chamber's industrial committee. He is a member of Masonic Lodge, the Baptist Church, Lions and secretary of Colorado City's Volunteer Fire Department, a position he has held for five years.

E. L. Buelow, regional manager from Lone Star's West Texas Region, in the general division of distribution with headquarters in Abilene, will be master of ceremonies for the dinner. Speakers will include Potter, Darrow and Bird.

LOW RENT HOUSING

$10,000 Loan For Planning

Preliminary loan of $10,000 has been authorized for Colorado City to finance preliminary planning for public low-rent housing.

Leonard Henderson, president of Colorado City Housing Authority and former mayor, received notification of the loan authorization Wednesday afternoon from Cong. George Mahon and Sen. Ralph Yarborough in Washington, D. C.

Previously, the local housing authority had been notified that the Public Housing Administration in Washington had reserved 50 low-rent dwelling untis for Colorado City.

The Colorado City Housing Authority was reactivated last year by City Council to plan a limited number of public low-rent dwelling units as a companion project with an urban Renewal program in Colorado City.

City officials have pointed out that the housing will be necessary to provide residential units for low income, hardship families that might be displaced by Urban Renewal slum clearance.

The PHA loan okayed for Colorado City preliminary financing to pay for site planning, drawing of plans that might be necessary to initiate a housing project here.

There are no outright federal grants in public housing program and the preliminary loan — like funds that might be allotted for construction of dwelling units — must be paid back by the local housing authority out of income from the rentals to low income families.

Henderson said conference and studies with PHA officials from Fort Worth are planned within a few weeks to study plans for a possible program here and to determine how such a program could best be tied in with clearance and redevelopment of slum or blighted areas.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS...
MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s

Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

Mrs. Gordon Speaks To Beta Sigma Phi

"The Printed Word and Your Life" was the program topic discussed by Mrs. Gerald Gordon at the regular meeting of the Mu Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi last Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Kelley.

"A Play is a series of events possessing dramatic unity and interest," Mrs. Gordon explained. "All stories are drama, a playwright tells his story through actors."

In presenting the definition of poetry Mrs. Gordon said, "The art of expressing in melodius words and metre, the creations of feeling and imagination."

"A fine thought to become poetry must be seasoned in the upper warm garrets of the mind. Then it must be brought down and carved into words, shaped into emotion and polished with love," Mrs. Gordon added.

During the business members made plans to attend the convention which will be May 30 in Corpus Christi.

Guests attending the evening meeting were Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Nancy Dorn, Miss Ruth Hightower and Mrs. Ernest Larmer.

Members present were Mrs. W. D. McClure, Miss Sallie Tharp, Miss Jane Merrill, Mrs. J. W. Bradham, Miss Elinor Harvey, Mrs. Jack Merket, Mrs. R. E. (Dick) Gregory Jr., Miss Mary D. Hickman and Mrs. Kelley.

Farmer Can Make Best Of Weather

There isn't much the cotton farmer can do to change the weather, but there is quite a bit he can do to make the best out of the weather he has.

Advance knowledge of temperature, humidity, wind velocity and rainfall is helpful in planning such weather-dependent operations as insect control, fertilization, chemical weed control, irrigation, and defoliation. For this information, the farmer may rely on weather forecasts.

But incorrect interpretation of the forecast can be as bad as not having it in the first place. Knowing just what the forecast means can be the difference between success and failure of any of the complex practices.

The National Cotton Council, the Wether Bureau, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the federal and state extension services are cooperating to bring about a better understanding of the terms the Weather Bureau uses when it issues forecasts.

AS SEASON GETS UNDERWAY HERE

Yanks, Pirates Mark Up First Little League Wins

Yankees and Pirates took the first victories of the 1958 Little League season Monday.

It was a run in the bottom of the sixth inning that enabled the Yankees to edge the Indians, 8-7.

Pirates racked up a 5-1 victory over the Giants to win their initial game of the campaign.

Yankees and Pirates, tied for the league lead with 1-0 records, were scheduled to meet Thursday night to determine which team is to take top spot in the Little League.

The Yank-Indian game was a close affair all the way. Indians took a 3-0 lead in the first inning.

Cupp started the fireworks for the Indians by using a Yank error to reach base. Charles Watlington and Jesse Burton followed with singles.

The Yanks forged ahead in the second inning on four runs. Freddie Fox, Mike Munday, Ronnie Hillhouse and Irovry Christian crossed the plate with the runs.

Two more runs by the Yanks in the third — with Joe Anderson and Munday scoring — pushed them ahead 6-3.

Indians tied the game at 6-6 in top of the fourth with three runs but the Yanks came right back to jump ahead 7-6 on Ronnie Rothwell's run in bottom of the fourth.

* * *

Pirates scored runs in the first, second and third innings to beat the Giants, 5-1.

Pirates marked up their initial run in the first inning by virtue of a home run from the bat of Dale Walker.

David McKay tied the count for the Giants at 1-1 in the bottom of the first when he singled and scored on Eddie Campbell's single.

Danney Kennemur pushed the Pirates ahead in the second when he singled and scored with the aid of singles from Wayland Moore and Leon Sweatt.

Frank Biggers went all the way for the Pirates, allowing only four hits, two coming in the first inning.

Denzil Pendergrass, Giant starter, gave up nine hits before retiring, with Skipper Warren taking over in the fourth. Warren held the Pirates to three hits during his three-inning stint.

Campbell was tops for the Giants with one for one.

HILLHOUSE SHINES

Sox, Braves Win First Pony Tilts

Colorado City's Pony League got underway Tuesday night with the White Sox showing the most power among four teams.

The Sox's Steve Hillhouse lived up to advance billing by downing the Athletics, 9-1, on a four-hit pitching performance.

Hillhouse, rated the No. 2 pitcher in New Mexico last year, fanned 17 of the 21 batters to face him.

Athletic's Curtis Scott was able to touch Hillhouse for two of the four hits with Charles Houston and Bobby Stewart getting the other two.

The Sox, behind the effective hitting and base running of Kenneth Beasley, Danny Latimer and others, raced to a big lead with two runs in the first, one in the second and The Athletics scored their only run in the third frame to make the count 6-1.

Sox added two more tallies in the fifth and one in the sixth.

In all, the Sox got 12 hits off Athletic hurler Houston.

The Braves took a 11-3 lopsided win over the Cardinals in the other Pony League tilt.

It was 10 errors that spelled defeat for the Cards who outhit the Braves, 9-7. Daniel Garcia handled the first five innings for the Cards and then gave way to Willie Joe Smith the final two frames.

Barney Barnett was top hitter for the Cards with two hits in three trips while the victorious Braves had Felix Salmeron as their top hitter with two for three.

It was the big fourth inning when the Braves spurted ahead on six runs.

Nabors Edge Windham, 5-3

The game was tied 3-3 at the end of regulation play. But in the eighth inning, Nabors pushed across two runs on a single and three Windham errors to win the game.

The Pipeliners took an early lead in the first inning on two runs. Singles by Gene Parham and Yank Robinson plus two Nabors' errors accounted for the runs.

Nabors rallied for one run in the bottom of the first on a double by Byers and single by Miller.

Nabors shot ahead 3-2 in the fourth on two runs. Singles by Miller, Mize, Burchett and Fortenberry provided the power for the pair of tallies.

The Pipeliners tied it up in bottom of the sixth on a home run by Marvin Healy to send the game into extra innings.

Parham and Healy gave up six hits from the Windham Q mound.

Salvation Army On The Local Level

There is in Texas a militant, but peace-loving army; an army that never fought a war — that does not even have a sword.

This is The Salvation Army, founded on the principle of the brotherhood of man, and dedicated to the mission of serving humanity. "Wherever there is a need, there is The Salvation Army," Sir Winston Churchill, war-time British Premier, once said of this world-wide service organization.

"Heart to God and Hand to Man," a slogan coined for The Salvation Army years ago, continues to be the guidepost that directs the lives and services of all true Salvationists.

Founded in England in 1865 by William Booth, a Protestant minister who refused to be bound by the rules and conventionalities of his church, The Salvation Army now operates in 87 countries. Booth was a crusader who saw a greater need for religious ministry in the slums of London than in the fashionable churches. But little did he realize that he was launching a world-wide movement that would grow into an organized Salvation Army dedicated to the waging of an eternal fight against sin and despair and to the serving of mankind by ministering to Man's needs whatever they might be.

The Salvation Army migrated to the United States in 1880 and to Texas in 1888. Today there are well over 5,000 uniformed officers of The Salvation Army in the United States, with an Army of nearly 100,000 soldiers and a religious denomination of nearly one half million members. Every man and woman in this group has dedicated his or her life to the service of others.

We have seen The Salvation Army in Action in time of disaster — feeding the hungry, tending the injured, clothing the naked and providing shelter for the homeless. But most of all, here in Colorado City, we have seen The Salvation Army, in the average routine of a day's work, through its local citizen's committee, provide food and lodging for the needy wayfarer; furnish a full bag of groceries to a needy family; fit a pair of shoes on the cold bare feet of a school child, buy medicine for the destitute sick, provide transportation homeward for a youth or family jobless and far from home folk.

Every Salvation Army officer, before he dons the uniform and insignia of his office and rank, takes this pledge: "To care for the poor, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, love the unlovable and befriend those who have no friends."

To make these services to mankind available here in Mitchell County and in every city, town and community in Texas, the citizens of the Lone Star State donate to a fund or to funds, all or a part of which go to The Salvation Army. For these gifts that are returned to the donors in multiplied services, The Salvation Army this Thursday is expressing its appreciation in state-wide observance of "Salvation Army Appreciation Day."

But it seems there should be a turnaround . . . with the public saying "thanks" and posting a reminder for renewed support this fall for our Mitchell County United Fund, the agency which provides our local funds for Salvation Army.

Need some weights for your throw lines or trot lines?

If you'd like to have some extra weights, for free — even an anchor or two, maybe — then here's a tip.

Next time you see a new home going up, bricks being laid, or concrete being poured — drop in for a visit. Ask the boys to let you have the left-over "mud".

Then, here's what you do with it.

Get some old syrup buckets, or what have you — anything from gallon size on down, that will hold concrete.

Next, find some old metal clothes hangers and cut them into strips of varying lengths — depending on your needs. Bend the wire in the middle to make a loop. Take the two loose ends and twist the wires around each other a few times, about two or three inches below the loop. Then fan out the loose ends at right angles to the loop. This should give you a piece of wire shaped like a "T" with a loop in the top end.

Now, stick the cross-bar part of the inverted "T" into an empty can and pour in the cement. Adjust the "loop" to a sufficient height above the concrete so that there will be ample room in "the eye" for whatever size rope you plan to use.

Let the "mud" sit overnight. In the morning you'll have a homemade weight — or anchor, depending on its size — made of solid concrete, and at the cost of but a little time.

Using smaller cans you can make whatever size weight you'd like for your throwline, or trot line. Larger cans make excellent weights for anchoring the boat while fishing or beaching.

If the can is so large that a coat hanger may be too light to withstand the weight of the concrete, use an abandoned piece of heavy, galvanized clothes line, or a small chain.

Eventually the can will rust away. But you'll still have your anchor of poured concrete just as long as your wire "loop" remains intact. So, select as strong a wire for that purpose as you can find — and one that is rust-resistant as possible.

Do you throw away your dead minnows?

Most fishermen just toss out dead minnows that fail to survive in the old minnow bucket. However, we've encountered a few old-timers of late who report some mighty good catches of catfish, with dead minnows as their bait.

Their method is to use a leader, 24 inches or so long, with a shot where line and leader join. They use shot of just enough weight to enable them to cast a good distance into deep water and pull the line to the bottom fairly fast.

The procedure is to cast to a likely spot and just sit back and relax for a while. If they haven't had a strike for five or ten minutes they reel in slowly and take a look at the bait, just to see what's going on down there.

FOR RECORD ROAD PROGRAM

State Plans 45 Million Dollar Highway Building Program

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

State Capital NEWS

At least one segment of Texas economy — highway construction — is booming. One reason: the Texas Highway Department isn't letting grass grow under its feet in getting federal emergency projects under way.

Low bids tabulated at the Department's May letting totaled $19,187,933. State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer, in opening the May letting, said that about $25,000,000 in road projects would be up for bids next month.

A big chunk of this upsurge comes from Texas' $36,000,000 share of the federal Emergency Fund, authorized by Congress this year to get extra money into the economy fast and provide needed roads. All of this work must be put under contract by December.

Texas Highway officials hope to beat the deadline by several months. Greer announced that $8,000,000 of the May lettings represented the first of the extra federal projects. He noted with quiet "pride the speed with which the projects were made ready." Bids were taken just four weeks after the federal bill was signed. Department officials expect all the $36,000,000 to be under contract by the end of the summer—bringing record or near-record lettings for the next few months.

A short time back monthly highway lettings of $9,000,000 to $12,000,000 were about average. Time was, too, when the emphasis was mainly on the need for fine, new roads to accomodate the growing stream of fine, new cars. Today, there's also emphasis on the number of people who'll be put to work, the money they'll spend on groceries, cars, clothes.

* * *

HIGH TENSION — With millions involved, the highway lettings are scenes of high tension. Sunburned sport shirted contractors, plus materials men and insurers flock to the Department's hearing room where the sealed bids are opened and read, item by item.

Department personnel have an electronic computer to add up the item bids and determine the low bidder. Results are announced later in the day. But contractors or their representatives take down the bids on the spot and make rapid calculations.

It isn't hard to spot the man who's just realized he missed a million-dollar job by bidding a few hundred dollars high. Typcal muttered comment: "He can't do it for the money!"

* * *

BUMPY ROAD — Though the mammouth highway building program is moving forward, top seed, there are problems along the road.

Chief bone of contention, now in the courts, is whether cost of relocating utilities to make way for new constructon should be borne by the cities and utility companies or the state.

A law passed by the last Legislature authorizes the state, with 90 per cent federal aid, to pay for utility re-location on the federal projects.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has ruled that part of the law invalid in "donatng public moneys to corporations and individuals . . . for private and individual purposes." Wilson filed a test case in an Austin district court.

City officials, through the Texas League of Municipalities, take the opposite view. They contend that in other states cities get this money for utility moving and that Texans, through federal taxes, contribute to the cost. Besides, they add, it'll cost the cities.

HOSPITAL OFFICIALS—The Texas Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools has a flock of new names topping its roster of officials.

W. W. Heath of Austin was named chairman of the Board. He succeeds Dr. Raleigh Ross, also of Austin. Howard Tellepsen of Houston is the new vice chairman.

Raymond W. Vowell was appointed executive director of the hospital system. This post has been vacant nearly a year.

It was announced, also, that Dr. C. J. Ruilmann, now commissioner of mental health for Tennessee, will become director of Texas mental hospitals in June.

Heath, appointed to the Board by Gov. Price Daniel last fall, is prominent in business circles as an attorney, banker and rancher. He also is former county judge, secretary of state and assistant attorney general.

SHORT SNORT— A slight downward trend in joblessness was noted in the Texas Employment Commission's latest report. Number of persons receiving unemployment compensation checks dropped from 90,949 to 90,913.

A former TEC attorney, Lee G. Williams, has filed suit in an Austin district court for reinstatement to the job from which he was fired last month. Williams contends that his position in Texas Merit System corrennponds to federal civil service status and he cannot be fired for the reasons given. A majority of the 3-man Commission said they had "no confidence" in Williams.

Twenty-two bus companies operating in Texas have asked the Railroad Commission for permission to hike intrastate (within the state only) fares by 10 per cent. They're being squeezed by increased operating costs, say the companies.

Fred Erisman of Longview has been named chairman of the new Texas Council on Administration of Justice. Council's purpose is to work with other group's in curbing crime.

NEW STATE PROGRAM

Hard of Hearing Child Given Aid

By Henry A. Halle, M. D.
Health Commissioner

She is five years old and pretty, full of childish zest. She is also almost deaf.

Three weeks ago specialists found this black-haired, blackeyed youngster's hearing loss might one day be restored to the point where she might hear without a hearing aid.

She is one of four children —all of whom might otherwise have faced lifelong handicaps — who have been accepted for help under a new program of the State Department of Health.

Operated by the department's division of maternal and child health, the new service is intended for deaf and hard of hearing children living in areas covered by local health departments whose parents have limited income. Eligibility and appointments for serivice under the program is determined by the local health department director.

The Dallas Society for Crippled Children, in cooperation with the State Health Deprtment is set up to do examinations and to fit children with hearing aids if necessary. Additional centers will soon be set up in other areas.

Prior for helping meet costs of doctors' fees, laboratory work, x-rays, hearing aids, and other expenses is being given to parents of handicapped children under six years of age. Youngsters of other ages may be accepted at the discretion of the department.

A thorough examination will be made by a child specialist. Seperate examinations are given by ear specialists, and by specialists in mental and emotional health. Exams include neccessary x-ray and laboratory work.

The extent and type of hearing loss is checked, and if a hearing aid is necessary the youngsters is given one of the type which will do him the most good.

The department is unable to pay for treatment—even if it is recommended — but is will provide the drugs necessary for treatment. Drugs are furnished directly to local health department directors for use in individual cases.

The department will also try to help hard of hearing children, particularly those who have never learned to talk because of their hearing loss, get special training.

In many instances, parents of hard of hearing children are unable to give special training to their children with assistance from the State Health Department.

Funds to support the program are limited, so it is necessary to get proper authorization before children can be accepted for the services.

Research Proves Newspaper Ads

By JOE ED BOATRIGHT
Record Advertising Mgr.

The typical small city retailer who tries consistent newspaper advertising soon begins to realize a sales increase.

The results ars usually enough to convince him that newspaper advertising is a good investment.

However, immediate results do not always show how thoroughly and inexpensively the newspaper carries an advertiser's message to a community. Readership research conducted by universities and private agencies may give a better picture of the total value of newspaper advertising.

These carefully controlled studies show that more than 60 per cent of all readers usually see a one-quarter page retail advertising in a weekly or small daily newspaper. Also, the studies show that each copy of a community paper is read by approximately four people.

This means that for each thousand papers circulated, 4,000 people read something in each issue of the paper. Sixty per cent, or 2,400 for each 1,000 circulation, could be expected to see a one-fourth page retail advertisement.

The same yardstick would mean more than 10,000 persons would read the same one-fourth page ad in the Colorado City Record.

It also means that most small newspapers deliver the large quarter-page newspaper message at a cost of less than one-half cent per actual reader.

This is less than the cost of addressing an envelope; it is less than one-fourth the cost of a blank postcard; it is less than the cost of operating a duplicating machine; it is two hundred times less expensive than a personal call; it is less than the wages sometimes paid to boys for stuffing circulars in sewers.

It is a cold economic fact which causes major retailers throughout the country to settle on the local newspaper as "the basic advertising medium."

BIBLE COMMENT

Last Supper Is Christian Heart

If the scene of the Last Supper lacked dramatic impact in the simple description which the New Testament gives, great artists would have dramatized it for us and made it unforgettable.

The greatest depiction of the scene is the famous painting by Leonardo da Vinci, though it is probably more emotional than historically accurate.

It is unlikely that the disciples ate at a long table of Leonardo's arrangement. More likely they were grouped together at tables in the form of hollow squares, and were reclining instead of sitting, as such was the custom of the time.

But the physical details are unimportant. Jesus and His followers were Jews and they were engaged in the holiest of all Jewish observances—the celebration of the Passover.

This specific celebration in the upper room has a new and added significance as the origin of the Christian sacrament, the essence of Christian faith.

All that makes Christianity worthwhile is portrayed in the glorification of the Christian service.

Though one of the Twelve was a traitor, these disciples had been called to a high honor. It was not to exercise power like kings, but that of serving the King of Kings who is beyond all others.

He stooped to conquer and give Himself completely to the service of His Father and His fellowmen. By joining in that spirit of the Last Supper in the upper room.

WESTBROOK BACCALAUREATE

Follow Christ to Life's High Road, Coach Advises Seniors

By MRS ALTIS CLEMMER
Record Correspondent

WESTBROOK — An athlete and minister here Sunday told Westbrook High graduating seniors to follow three roads better living.

Tremaine told the seniors that Jesus Christ "calls you" to the road to personal salvation, the road to personal purity and the road to personal power.

"To every man and woman there is a way — the high way and the low way," the speaker said. "The high road is the path to Jesus.

"And the low road is to sin and destruction.

"My advice to you is to take the high road and follow Jesus' teachings."

Tremaine said high road is the road to personal salvation.

He challenged the seniors to follow the road to personal power by attaching their lives to the principles of Christ.

"And not be a Ford when you could be a Cadillac," he said, "and not be a canoe when you could be a ship, not be a popgun when you could be a cannon of strength in your community.

"You can be a leader to greater heights if you attach yourself to the higher power which Jesus gives."

Buying at Home

is much like The Golden Rule

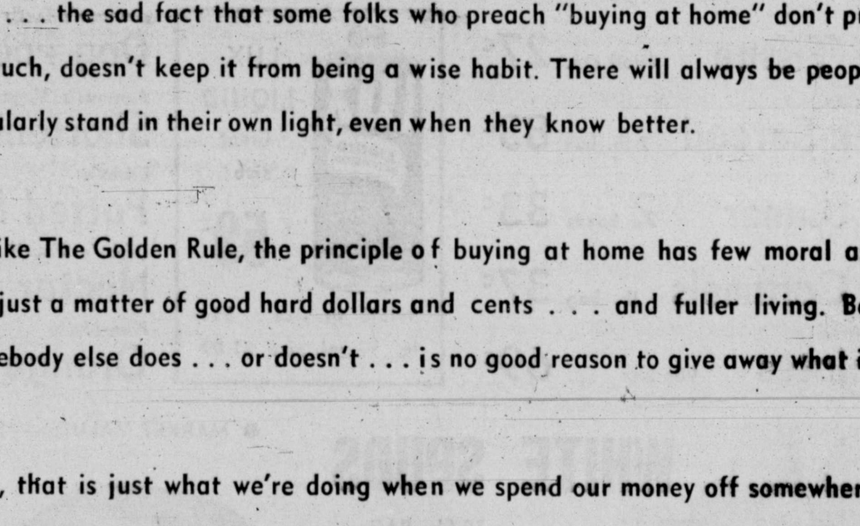

Everybody Recommends It for Everybody Else

★ But . . . the sad fact that some folks who preach "buying at home" don't practice it much, doesn't keep it from being a wise habit. There will always be people who regularly stand in their own light, even when they know better.

★ Unlike The Golden Rule, the principle of buying at home has few moral aspects. It's just a matter of good hard dollars and cents . . . and fuller living. Because somebody else does . . . or doesn't . . . is no good reason to give away what is ours.

★ Yet, that is just what we're doing when we spend our money off somewhere else, with the excuse that some of our neighbors are doing it. Let's quit watching them, and examine our own habits, reminding ourselves selfishly that of each dollar we spend, nearly one-third goes to pay for community progress and upkeep.

★ But it's no soup in our pot, no schools for our kids, no churches for our souls, nor increment for our property, if it is some other community.

Make your dollars build your community . . . not somebody else's
