Farewell Dinner To Be Given Major R. N. Flaa

The Rockport Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a farewell dinner for Major and Mrs. Richard N. Flaa, of the 813th AC&W Squadron, Rockport Air Force Base at the Big Tree Restaurant at Lamar on Tuesday, Oct. 3, as they leave Rockport, bound for duty overseas.

The dinner will also serve as a welcome for Major Flaa's successor in command of the local base. Reservations and tickets are available from Mrs. Mary Juergens, manager of the Chamber of Commerce and, in order that satisfactory arrangements may be made with the caterer, O. S. Brumley, it is necessary that a deadline of 5 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, be set for the making of reservations and the purchasing of tickets.

Reading Program Introduced Here

As a part of the continuing effort to provide the public school students with the latest methods and materials for learning the Aransas County Schools have introduced the SRA (Science Research Associates) reading program this year. This program is among the latest as most highly rated reading programs to be offered to schools.

During the spring of last year the junior high school carried on an experimental program in reading which was so successful that the program has been adopted by the local school. Careful testing carried on with the experiment showed that pupils progressed faster with the SRA material than with the material previously taught.

The SRA program is designed for each individual to progress at his own speed without necessarily staying with his classmates. Therefore the good reader can progress to more difficult material while the poor reader continues for a longer period with simple material, which he can handle adequately. Grades are not emphasized in the SRA reading since each child is competing with himself for progress rather than being compared to the classes progress.

The SRA program will be used during the fall semester in all Junior High School reading classes, in the 6th grade of Mr. Rice and Mrs. Tom Griffith at Rockport Elementary School, the 5th grade classes of Miss Katie Lee Clarke and Mrs. Charles Hooker, and the 4th grade class of Miss Matie Beth Gilley at the George Fulton Elementary School. Other 5th and 6th grade classes will have the program during the spring semester.

The public is invited to make an appointment with the school principal and visit one of their classes to see the latest thing in the teaching of reading.

LOCAL RED CROSS CHAIRMAN SAYS DONATIONS NEEDED

Local chairman of the Red Cross, Albert R. Griffith, said this morning that donations were needed by the Red Cross to aid in storm relief, and that Aransas County's quota had been set at $324.

Donations may be made to Mrs. Mary Juergens, treasurer of the local chapter, at the Chamber of Commerce building, or by mail addressed to her.

B & PW Clubs To Hold District Convention Here

District 13, Texas Federation of Business and Professional Clubs, Inc., will hold its annual conference at the Big Tree Lodge at Rockport on Oct. 8, 1961. By conference vote of 1960, the business session of the conference was limited to one day.

Because of enthusiasm created by visits to the Big Tree by various members of the clubs, some members will be arriving as early as Oct. 6. Entertainment will be provided in the form of a Laau by the poolside scheduled to begin at 7:30 on Saturday night, Oct. 7, at which appropriate dress is grass skirts muu muu, etc. Capt. Jim Furlong has agreed to roast a pig for the occasion.

Surrounding towns included in District 13 are Aransas Pass, Sinton, Woodsboro, Beeville, George West, Mathis, Corpus Club, Downtown Corpus Christi Club, Robstown, Alice, Kingsville, and Rockport. The district director for 1961-62 is Mrs. Carrie Estes of the Kingsville club.

Among the state officers scheduled to attend are Miss Elizabeth Tandy, Texas Federation president of Fort Worth, Mrs. Willie Meyer, president-elect, of San Antonio, and Mrs. Lorine Kennedy, standing committee chairman of Public Affairs.

For the District 13 Conference, the first of its kind to be held at Rockport, Big Tree and Restaurant will be closed to the public.

Chamber Urges Mailing Hurricane Carla Facts To Business Contacts

The Chamber of Commerce has prepared illustrated fact sheets and colorful Hurricane Carla postcards reflecting the relatively light hurricane damage here.

They are available to members of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Every business should send copies to their customers and suppliers outside the city at once," Mrs. Mary Juergens said. "Local citizens should send them to relatives and friends, as well," Mrs. Juergens added.

The sheet says these are the facts:

The major damage to the Rockport, Fulton, Lamar and Copano area was to public installations such as roads, harbors, etc.

The full force of Hurricane Carla did not strike this area. The highest winds clocked in Rockport were 90 miles per hour.

There were no fatalities or serious injuries in or near our area. All highways into Rockport are open.

Estimated damage from the winds and tide water that reached this area was 2 million dollars. Much less than expected. Water has been tested and is safe. There is not, and never has been, any food shortage.

Biggest damage to private property was from tide water in the south end of Rockport and the business district. Business houses are all back to normal and operating.

Motels are all open and operating with the majority of them suffering only the loss of their fishing piers and having some cleaning up to do. Fishing is good and bait is available. Piers are being rebuilt as fast as possible.

Some homes suffered water damage, some trees lost limbs. Goose Island State Park is open as usual. Some phones were out of order for a few days, but 90% of all utility service was unbroken or restored in a matter of hours.

There are no hazards at this time to prevent visitors from enjoying swimming, fishing, boating or shopping in Aransas County.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND BANQUET

Six local men attended the Gulf Coast Council banquet in Sinton on Wednesday, Sept. 20. This meeting was held at the junior high cafeteria to instruct workers in the 1961 Fund raising drive for the Boy Scouts of America.

The Rockport group, led by Chester Johnson, received a prize, a year's supply of eggs, in the form of one live hen, for having the most workers attend from a given area.

Others attending were Dr. H. F. Elliot, Seth Steele, Ron Schultz, Don Banning and Rudy Nava.

Mrs. Emma Reese has returned to her home after a visit with her son and daughter and grandchildren in Brownsville.

Sanders Request Engineers Permit On New Marina

Hurricane Carla made some changes in the plans made by L. E. Sanders and son, Jack, for a marina north of Fulton, between that community and Nine Mile Point, but it didn't dampen their enthusiasm.

On file with the U. S. Engineers' office at Galveston is a request for a permit to construct a forty-five slip boat basin with attendant fishing pier to extend almost 1,000 feet into Aransas Bay. The pier will replace one wrecked by Carla.

The Sanders' request permission to dredge an entrance and boat basin, using the dredged material for fill along the south side of the boat basin, and to construct wharves, bulkheads, boat stalls and a launching ramp.

The entrance channel and an irregularly shaped boat basin measuring from 200 to 240 feet in mean low water, and will extend for approximately 500 feet offshore, with some of the dredged material also being used to fill the inshore end of the facility.

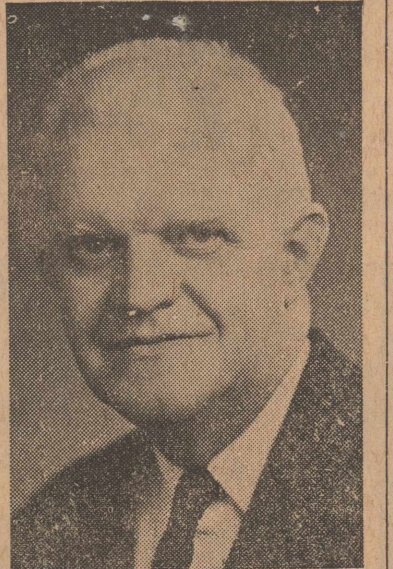

In addition to this, a walkway and bulkhead are to be constructed along the north side of the basin, serving as a connection to shore for nine evenly spaced wharves, 19 boat stalls and the pier, which will extend for another 500 feet.

Sanders is a former San Antonio heavy contractor and his son formerly managed the Padre Island Causeway in Nueces County. They recently constructed a 20-unit motel on property adjacent to the projected marina, and are now building a number of duplex tourist apartments.

According to Sanders, Jr., approximately 9,000 cubic yards of material will be dredged from the projected basin. Other facilities will include a fuel dock, boat hoist and a marine sales and service.

DISTRICT GOVERNOR TO MAKE OFFICIAL VISIT TO ROTARY CLUB

Howard F. Duffy, governor of Rotary district 593, will make his official visit to the Rockport Rotary Club Oct. 3 and 4, with his Howard F. Duffy address set for the noon luncheon Oct. 4.

The district governor will confer with President Cecil Lang and Secretary George Dickey at 5 p.m. Oct. 3 and at 7:30 p.m. that day will meet with the club assembly.

Duffy is past president of the McAllen Rotary club and has also served as secretary and bulletin editor. He is manager of Jones Moving and Storage Co. of McAllen. As McAllen is a leading gateway to Mexico, being only a 15 minute drive to Reynosa, Duffy devotes much of his speeches to international affairs.

He will quote figures to Rockport Rotarians showing there are now 511,500 men members of 11,016 Rotary Clubs in 123 countries.

CHILDREN PARTICIPATE IN TRAFFIC WEEK

The children of the Rockport Elementary School are participating in Texas School Traffic Safety Week, Sept. 18-22, 1961. The purpose of this is to remind the children in the schools of Texas of the urgent need for personnel caution in traffic. This program will be continued throughout the remainder of the 1961-1962 school year.

Aransas and Mesquite Bays Will Open To Oystering Oct. 1

The Texas Game and Fish Commission has re-opened Aransas Bay oystering on Oct. 1. Aransas bay was closed to oystering in December, 1959, as a conservation measure after the oysters suffered heavy mortalities attributed to parasitic fungus.

Mesquite Bay will open Oct. 1 also and is expected to produce a good early harvest. Dredging restrictions for both Aransas and Mesquite Bays have been removed allowing the shallow reefs in less than six feet of water to be worked by commercial dredgers. The three and one-half inch commercial size limit on oysters will remain in effect and be enforced by the Commission. Commercial oystermen are reminded that the dredge license, commercial fishing license and the commercial fish boat license are required if oysters are harvested by dredge and sold.

All reefs in Aransas Bay are opened to oystering with the exception of Pintail Reef, the artificial reef constructed near Allen's Bight. This reef is marked with a large crescent piling and will have a sign attached giving the name of the reef.

Many of the popular sport fishing reefs in Aransas and Copano Bays have been marked with orange and white buoys inscribed with TG & FC near the top. Some of these buoys were lost during the siege of Hurricane Carla and of any are found on the beaches please notify the Marine Laboratory. These buoys are expensive and it may be some time before replacements can be obtained.

The large buoy marking the artificial fishing reef off Port Aransas was broken loose during the hurricane and if anyone has any knowledge of its present location the Marine Laboratory should be notified as soon as possible.

MRS. H. J. TEMPLETON JOINS PERCH CLUB IN DOUBLE HEADER

Residents of Palm Village report that Mrs. H. J. Templeton joined the Perch Club in a big way last Sunday when she played a double header for an appreciative audience. Mrs. Templeton, attempting to reach Fradlog Island, lost her footing on the bridge and went overboard, wading the last few feet. Then, when she attempted to return, did the same thing all over again.

Judge John D. Wendell and Mayor Johnson Say That Application Has Been Made and Some Work Is Under Way To Repair Hurricane Damage

Application has been made by Aransas County and the City of Rockport for disaster relief from the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, Aransas County Judge John D. Wendell said Wednesday, and some of the work is already under way.

A contract for clearing debris and other storm damage has been awarded by the U. S. Engineers to the Laguna Construction Company of Rockport, headed by Jack Sanders, former manager of the Nueces County Causeway to Padre Island, and this work has been going on for the past several days.

Sanders' company also has the contract for repair of roads and streets damaged by Hurricane Carla, and crews are at work on the beach roads between Rockport and Nine Mile Point.

"We also have applied for help in mosquito control," Judge Wendell said, "and this will be done by county crews, although paid for by the Federal government."

"Also, we applied for aid in repairing storm damage to Navigation District installations and roads throughout the county, but no contract has been let on this as yet."

Mayor Herman Johnson said the City of Rockport has asked for aid from OCMD to repair sewers and damage to the streets in the city.

"We had a good deal of damage," Johnson said. "Some of the sewer lines were broken; many were filled with sand, and the levee around the sewer plant broke."

The contract on this has been approved and the city expected to award this to Slovak Brothers of Corpus Christi, with crews due to move in almost immediately.

Besides the roads, streets, mosquito control and sewer projects, one of the biggest jobs left after Hurricane Carla was repair of the Navigation facilities.

Docks and wharves were washed away in all the District's harbors, and the waves ate away portions of the beach at Rockport, depositing it elsewhere and damaging the roads along the waterfront.

Private repairs in the area are proceeding as rapidly as workmen are available and individual resources will permit. However, these are more extensive than was believed at first, most of the damage being from water in the downtown and South Beach areas.

A number of tourist courts, while still in business, suffered a great deal of damage to beds, bedding, buildings, air conditioners and similar items, and on South Beach, some of the homes were practically destroyed.

Paul Sorenson Receives Award

Paul Clark Sorenson, Rockport weather man, was presented with a special service award for his work during Hurricane Carla at the Rotary luncheon Wednesday.

The presentation was made by Russell Mozeney, head of the weather station station at Corpus Christi.

Signed by the Washington Chief of weather service, the award read, in part:

"For the past several years of conscientious and devoted service in the operation of the storm warning display station at Rockport, Texas, the dissemination of warnings in the Rockport-Fulton area, which was accomplished under extreme difficulties of high water and hurricane winds."

After the presentation, Mozeney spoke to the club on technical details of the great hurricane, and discussed the way these storms form and what influences their movement.

Visitors were Fred Robbins and Pete Massato, of Aransas Pass; J. R. Clegg, Brownsville; C. R. Simpson, of Fulton; and Mrs. L. Sorenson, of Rockport.

It is known definitely that the marine laboratory at Seabrook was totally demolished, with loss of all laboratory and office equipment. J. W. Dorff, chief purchasing agent of the city of Dallas, took time out from a busy week to send the Pilot the newspaper equivalent of violets.

Taking cognizance of the fact that it was practically the only paper along the South Texas coast to come out on time, he wrote us a letter and said:

Gentlemen:
I wish to extend the sincerest appreciation of your going to press under such adverse conditions. This is the spirit of journalism in the trust sense. Well done!

SCIENCE CLASS PUBLISH FIRST CLUB NEWS

Mrs. Steele's fifth grade science class have just published their first "Science News" of the year. The stories in it cover a wide variety of subjects. Among them are the following:

The fifth grade Jet Age Science Club blasted off to a good start when it was organized Sept. 8. The following officers were elected:

John Jackson, president; Duke Eaton, vice president; and Susie West, secretary. The club members voted to publish the Jet Age News every six weeks, and expect to do many interesting experiments throughout the year. Right now, they are planning a space program.

The history class has completed a mural of their room which shows America's first people.

So far this year, Duke Eaton is our arithmetic champion.

We are developing body skills in Physical Education class by doing different exercises. In health class we are working on posters for a health corner. We hope to show how muscles are developed and the importance of developing them.

Our club president, John Jackson has sent a letter to Mr. Albert Heine at the Junior Museum in Corpus Christi to see if our club can become a member of the Junior Museum. We are looking forward to a trip over there this year.

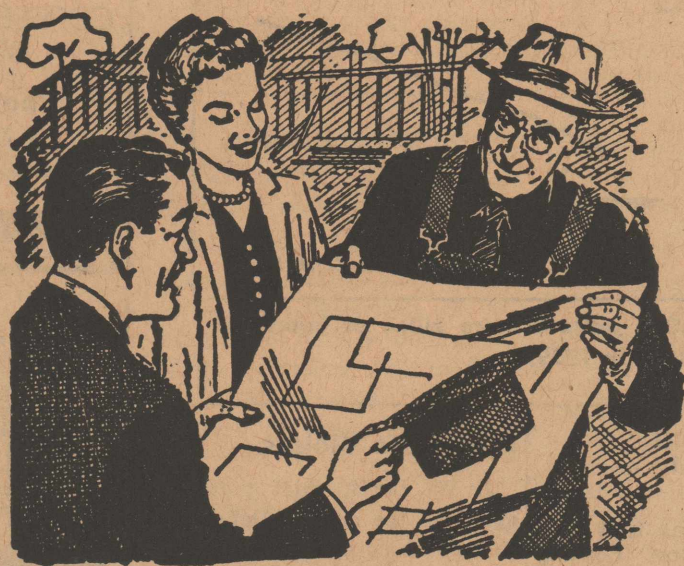

Rose Ann Elliot and her committee made a history poster titled "Where did the Indians Come From?" It was in charcoal and showed Indians crossing from Asia to Alaska.

Pirates Lose To Cobras, 30-0

The Aransas County High School Pirates journeyed to Vanderbilt last Friday night to take their worst beating of the year, winding up on the short end of 30-0 score.

The Cobras of Vanderbilt's Industrial were just too big, too tough, and too fast, with John Talbott, their 180-pound fullback cracking the Pirate line time after time between tackles, while their speedy Wiley Thedford ran wild around the ends.

In the first quarter, Ira Klaus whipped a pass to Thedford good for 27 yards, pass and run, and a touchdown. Gayle Williams, playing his second game at fullback for the Pirates, blocked the kick. The second score came in the same quarter, when Thedford skirted his own right end for another touchdown.

In the second quarter Talbott, who was the Cobra workhorse all evening, plowed through center for a yard and pay dirt.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but in the fourth Thedford went around his own left end for another touchdown and then later, Hal Koop, substitute quarter, flipped one for ten yards to Lonnie Myers, which made the score 30-0.

Lugo, Galindo, Iles, Ramsey and Jimmy Jackson all turned in good games, while tackle Rob Johnson and Gayle Williams made plenty of defensive tackles. Owens and McHugh were in there pitching, also, as were Wright, Dennis Mc-Cabe, Sanchez, Wright, and Steele, who made one very fine catch. This was the last non-district game. The game was marked by a number of fumbles and interceptions.

Mr. and Mrs. Orley Mikeal, of Sacramento, Calif., are visiting their nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mikeal, of Rockport.

Telephone Service Is Now Restored

HELPING HAND—More than 1,000 telephone men and women from other Southwestern Bell areas, including four other states, were rushed to South Texas to help restore service in the wake of the hurricane. Here a repairman puts on boots to go to work after leaving his special train.

MEN AND EQUIPMENT—Kansas City repairmen arrive in Houston by chartered plane; at right, telephone supervisors inspect huge reels of telephone cable enroute to damaged areas.

RELIEF OPERATORS—Operators from many distant points flew in to help handle deluge of calls, relieving telephone men and women who had manned switchboards around the clock. Operators from Lubbock are shown here.

SPECIAL TRAINS—Arkansas repair crews prepare to unload the special train that brought them to the disaster area. Other special trains brought men and vehicles from Kansas and Missouri.

We're glad to announce that telephone service here has now been restored. It was one of the biggest and most costly telephone restoration jobs ever undertaken.

And once again, we would like to thank you for your patience and understanding while many telephones were out of service. You helped make an almost impossible job possible.

When the hurricane began menacing the Coast, telephone people—true to tradition—met the emergency with skill and determination. Many, many hours before it was known where hurricane Carla would make her Coastal entry, hundreds of repair crews from North Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, and Missouri were mustered for emergency duty. And valuable telephone equipment by the tons was expressed to strategic South Texas locations.

Bills Are Being Adjusted For Phones Out of Service

If by chance we've missed your service during the emergency restoration work, however, please call us. Also, if your telephone was out of service 24 hours or more, you will not be billed for that period. From our records of telephones out of service, we will make automatic adjustments. You do not need to call to receive credit for the period your service was out. The adjustment may not be shown on your next bill but will be made as soon as possible.

However, if you have any questions about your service or your bill, please feel free to call us. We're doing our very best to continue providing prompt, efficient, and courteous telephone service.

Treasure Seekers Follow Hurricane For Spanish Gold

It an ill wind that blows no one good, and Fern Hamil and Don Goodrich of Tucson, Ariz., hit this coast as an aftermath of Hurricane Carla, hoping to uncover some of the treasure ships that have sunk offshore here since the Spaniards first started sending plate fleets across the Gulf of Mexico, carrying the wealth of the New World to adorn the courts of the old.

They are especially interested in following up the ancient galleon, one of a fleet of fifteen, that sunk on the shores of Padre Island after a hurricane in the sixteen hundreds, carrying gold from Mexico.

Fourteen of these were salvaged by the Spaniards the next year using pearl divers from what is now Venezuela, but the fifteenth was covered by sand and so they say, that portion of the treasure was never recovered.

The two men, who landed on the Texas coast last week, were also interested in the old ship hull uncovered by beachcombers about a week ago, only to be stripped by souvenir hunters.

Hamil and Goodrich have a detector they built themselves which they claim will not only detect iron but precious metals, diamonds and emeralds.

They claim to have located diamonds with their machine, which they will not allow anyone to inspect, because, they say it is so simple it can be copied easily.

For the same reason, they say, they have never patented it, wishing to keep it for themselves.

When they were in Port Lavaca, they became much interested in the venture of Sammy Collins, Collins Construction Company, now prospecting under water for diamonds off the African coast.

Goodrich says he found the answer to the detector problem in the Bible, but that after he had found out how to detect the various metals, it took him nearly four years more to solve how to read the detector's indications of treasure or other buried materials.

They use Scuba diving equipment, and are seeking information on old ship hulls in the bays and Gulf of Mexico.

Young Whoopers Are Seen

At least four young whooping cranes—hatched this year—have been sighted in Canada, the Interior Department reported Wednesday.

The department added that a total of 26 young and adult whoopers have been counted in the Sass River area of the northwest territories, according to latest word from the Canadian Fish and Wildlife Service. Fourteen of the rare birds, including three young, had been counted there a month earlier. The newest count was made during a helicopter flight Sept. 18. It included seven pairs without young and four pairs with one young bird each. At that time the southward migration of the whoopers did not appear imminent as resident birds were still in the area.

The whoopers winter on and near the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas. Generally the first of the birds arrive there during the last half of October, but they have been spotted at Aransas as early as Oct. 4.

Fall is an interesting season of the year. The world series, football games, school activities and many other things we enjoy. Fall, also has some things we don't enjoy, such as wet streets, fogged windshields, hurricanes, longer periods of darkness and other things that make driving hazardous. Lets prepare physically and mentally for these extra hazards and not cause anyone to become a traffic statistic and miss this interesting season of the year.

STATE DRAFT CALLS FOR 911 TEXANS

Austin, Texas, Sept. 5.—The state draft quota for October calls for 911 men, 201 less than for September, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

The September call, previously announced, was 1,112, while the August quota was 561.

The October quota of 911 for Texas is the state's share of a national call of 20,000, all for the Army. The September national quota was 25,000, which also was for the Army.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that 6,002 men would be given preinduction examinations in October, compared to 5,004 scheduled in September.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in October are scheduled to be mailed by state Selective Service headquarters Friday.

The October quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on October 1, with the exception of volunteers, or those whom the law terms delinquent, who may be younger.

Monthly draft calls in Texas this year have ranged from 292 down to zero prior to August. Monthly examination quotas prior to August ranged from none to 2,255.

600 MEN FILE EARLY CLAIMS

Over 600 men between the ages of 62 and 65 have filed claims for reduced retirement benefits with the Corpus Christi Social Security office since June 30, according to Arthur L. Finck, Jr., assistant district manager.

Legislation signed by President Kennedy on June 30 reduced from 65 to 62 the age at which men may claim retirement benefits. Women workers have been able to draw benefits from age 62 since 1956. However, benefits for both men and women workers are reduced up to 20 percent if applied for before age 65.

Most of the men filing for reduced benefits are out of work for reasons beyond their control, Finck said. However, 40 percent of those filing are continuing to work, but have earnings low enough to permit payment of some or all benefits.

Claims for retirement, survivors, or disability benefits may be filed at the Social Security Office, 530 South Water, Corpus Christi, or with field representatives who regularly visit the larger area towns.

The representative will be in Rockport on Thursday, Oct. 12.

Radar Station Opens
'61 Football Season

The Rockport Air Force Station Rattlers open the 1961 football season, playing at Sweetwater last Sunday. Their first home game will be played at Aransas County High School on Oct. 8. The Rattlers will be host to Ozona and game time will be at 2 p.m.

Head Coach Ed Enderby says the ball club is in top condition and ready for a tough season. There are a lot of new faces out this year and seven players that saw plenty of action last year. There is a fine running back field, and a heavy, hard hitting line; they have had a little trouble with passing game and some problems on defense. However, they have been working these things out and will be ready for Sweetwater.

Dallas Ford will be handling most of the quarterback chores this year, along with Tom Eller, a new prospect. Willie Daniel will be back playing right end. Other returning players are Ed Balniss at guard, Dan Pugh at end, William Lucky, center; Jim Mackey, playing left half back; Gary Andrew will be playing at end, Orange Perry will be playing end, also.

Outstanding new players are Bourque at half back, Tognacci, guard; Belt, halfback, Garrett, halfback; and Klotkowski, end. The Rattlers line averages 200 pounds and the team average is 173 pounds.

They have the heaviest and fastest team in the conference this year and hope to win quite a few games this season.
