Government Is Attempting To Avert Walkout

White House Said Ready To Act If Conference Fails

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19—Philip Murray declared today that "the only hope of averting a strike" of 1,000,000 CIO steelworkers is through settlement of their pensions dispute at government-arranged conciliation sessions.

Murray, president of the CIO, made his statement to Cyrus S. Ching, conciliation director, and 70 steel industry representatives summoned to peace talks by Ching.

Wage Hike Excluded

Murray said the only chance of sidestepping a strike scheduled for next Sunday "is to conclude a settlement here and now on the basis of the board's recommendations."

He referred to the recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board. The board recommended no fourth round wage increase but proposed a "package" of company-financed pensions and social insurance to cost up to 10 cents per hour per worker.

Murray said:

"We are ready and we will proceed now to negotiate with any and all companies and to conclude a prompt settlement on the basis of the board's recommendations."

Union Receptive

"It is in the national interest that all parties do so if the strike in the steel industry is to be averted."

The union has declared it is willing to accept the board's recommendations. Generally, the industry's attitude is that it is willing to negotiate over the board's proposals. But some major companies have taken a stand that any pension system ought to call for contributions from the workers as well as from the industry.

Murray said the union had accepted the board's proposals with regret, but that the companies thus far had rejected those recommendations as a basis for settlement.

The union, Murray declared, "does not propose to permit the companies to ignore" the bard's report.

Thirty-seven companies were represented by the 70 industry officials at the meeting. The U. S. Steel delegation was led by Benjamin F. Fairless, its president.

Henry J. Kaiser, president of Kaiser Steel corporation, was not there. He sent the conciliation

Fog Cuts City Airline Stops

Fog crept in over Lubbock at 6:30 o'clock this morning, lowering visibility to one-eighth of a mile and ceiling to zero for a brief period and interrupting scheduled airline stops.

At 8:30 o'clock the visibility had increased to one-half mile and the ceiling to 200 feet, still too low for airplanes to land.

Light Drizzle Falls

A light drizzle had been recorded at noon, but the weather bureau station at Municipal airport expected no further precipitation today.

A maximum temperature in the upper 70's is expected to follow a minimum of 63 degrees early this morning.

Skies will be cloudy to partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. The Weather station said a little cold front which moved through this area early Sunday morning brought only mild temperatures.

The early morning minimum Sunday was 62 degrees, and the maximum Sunday afternoon was 80 degrees.

THUNDERSHOWERS COVER WIDE PART OF TEXAS

(By The Associated Press)

Thunderstorms and rain covered much of Texas overnight and today.

Accompanied by gusty winds and spectacular lightning, the storms dumped rain varying from 1.55 inches at Smithville in Central Texas, to traces at most points.

Corpus Christi had 1.45 inches

50 Injured As Train Jumps Tracks In North Carolina

(By The Associated Press)

NEWTON, N. C., Sept. 19—Six cars and the locomotive of a Southern railway passenger train jumped the track and spilled down an embankment here today injuring about 50 persons, some seriously.

Railroad sources said two negro cooks were trapped in their diner and probably were dead. An emergency call for steel cutting equipment was sent out by police in efforts to rescue them and any others possibly trapped in the mass of wreckage.

"About 50" Admitted

Newton is a town of 6,000 about 40 miles northwest of Charlotte.

Screaming ambulances raced the injured to the Catawba general hospital where Dr Frank Jones said "about 50" patients had been admitted.

The accident occurred about 5:10 a. m., as the westbound train, No. 15, approached the Newton station where it had been due at 4:48 a. m. It was inside the city limits.

The two-unit diesel locomotive flipped off the rails and rolled down the embankment. Following it off here the diner, a passenger coach, a combination passenger-baggage car and three mail and express cars.

The train was made up at Salisbury, N. C., picking up there pullman cars from Washington and points north, and taking them to the mountain resort city of Asheville, N. C.

Fair Booster Trip Scheduled Tuesday

About 75 reservations have been made for the trip Tuesday to boost the Panhandle-South Plains fair here next week, Co-Chairmen Jerry Brooks and Randolph Rampy reported today.

The chartered buses will leave the city hall at 7 a. m. laden with balloons, rulers and free tickets for the children and with fair literature.

The itinerary, with arrival and departure times at each stop, follows: Abernathy, 7:25 to 7:30 a. m.; Hale Center, 8 to 8:15; Plainview, 8:40 to 9:05; Lockney, 9:30 to 9:50; Floydada, 10:10 to 10:30; Matador for lunch, 11:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.; Roaring Springs, 1:15 to 1:35; Dickens, 2:05 to 2:25; Spur, 2:40 to 3; Crosbyton, 4 to 4:15; Ralls, 4:30 to 4:45; Lorenzo, 5 to 5:15; Idalou, 5:30 to 5:45; return to Lubbock, 6 p. m.

The fourth and final trip Thursday will visit Hobbs and intermediate points.

Weather Forces Change In Planned Route

Alaska-To-Norway Flight Is Made By Air Force Officers

(By The Associated Press)

OSLO, Norway, Sept. 19—Col. Bernt Balchen, pioneer Arctic airman, landed a U. S. air force transport plane at Oslo yesterday after a 3,700-mile non-stop flight from Anchorage, Alaska, in 22.5 hours.

Brig. Gen. Frank A. Armstrong, commander of the U. S. air force in Alaska, accompanied Balchen on the hop.

Balchen had planned to fly over the north pole but weather forecasts were bad so he set his course over north Greenland.

Others on the flight included Col. Eugene Strouse, Maj. Gene Douglas, Capt. W. Lennart, Capt. R. Shearer and Lt. N. M. Gudzenthe.

Balchen had planned to attend a Norwegian air show in Oslo yesterday but had to land at Gardermoen airport, north of the capital, because of radio trouble and bad weather.

When he did arrive at Oslo, 50,000 persons were on hand at Fornebu airport to greet him.

The American fliers will be given a reception tonight at the American embassy here. Later this week they plan to leave for Alaska, via Washington.

GEN. BRADLEY IS KEY FIGURE

Atlantic Defenses Will Be Organized

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 — Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the American joint chiefs of staff, appears certain to become the key figure in the Atlantic pact military organization.

The military organization, consisting of a series of defense planning committees, is to be created here Oct. 5. It is expected to come up with a set of unified defense plans for the whole western European - North American - Atlantic ocean area in about six months.

Proposal In Senate

Speed in laying out at least the general plans of a unified strategy is considered essential now by the State and Defense departments. One reason is Congress may make full-scale American arms aid to Europe at least partly dependent on the existence of such plans. That is one of the major new points in the bill now before the Senate.

While the American member of the 12-nation military organization has yet to be designated by the President, defense and diplomatic officials said there seemed to be no doubt that he would be Bradley. The 56-year-old general is noted for getting along with people and getting things done.

He is already regarded highly by Europeans as the leader of that school of military planners who contend western Europe can and must be held against any aggression by Russia. In Public statements Bradley has declared it to be this government's policy that security, instead of abandonment and later liberation, is the keystone for western European military planning.

U. S. Given Lead

To that end Bradley nas urged Congress to authorize and finance a program of American arms aid to Europe.

"The essence of our overall strategy is this," he told Congress July 30. "There is formidable strength and an obvious economy of effort, resources and manpower in this

Dog Show Is Opened Here

In special buses, on station wagons, by train, in automobiles and on airplanes, dogs were being brought into Lubbock Sunday night and this morning for showing at the second annual Cocker Spaniel Specialty show this afternoon and early tonight and at the first annual All-Breed Dog show to be held Tuesday.

The athletic building at Lubbock Municipal Air field is site of both shows.

Some of the dogs had won new ribbons in competition at a dog show in Amarillo Sunday.

Hourse Are Suggested

Members of the public wishing to visit either show may go any time within show hours, but officials of the two shows have suggested hours which will enable visitor sto see most of the winning dogs.

After 5 p. m. today, spectators will be able to see winners in the various groups and judging for best in show at the Cocker show.

Members of the public at that time also will see an outstanding feature in the amateur women's handling class. Women who never have shown a dog before in an American Kennel club show ring will show dogs and be judged on ability in handling. Quality of the dogs will not be considered in that class, but the dogs entered will come from regular classes of the show. Judging in the women's handling class is scheduled at 6 p. m. A comedy feature will be offered by a profgessional dog handler dressed as a woman.

Dinner To Be Held

The Cocker show, which opened at 1 p. m., will end probably about 7 p. m., after which a dinner will be held at Mexican Inn for handlers and exhibitors.

Eighty-two Cocker Spaniels have been entered in today's show,

Fire Insurance Rate Hikes In Texas Seen

CHICAGO, Sept. 19. (AP)—Fire insurance rates in seven Texas cities may soon be boosted.

Workers Quit Over Halt Of Welfare Fund

Lewis, Operators Are Deadlocked On New Contract Talks

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19—Coal mines shut down across the nation today as John L. Lewis' diggers struck again on their own—this time crying "no pension no work."

Production of anthracite (hard coal) and bituminous (soft coal) is being choked off by anger of the United Mine workers over President Lewis' suspension of pension and welfare fund payments.

Most of the UMW's 480,0000 members in 20 states are expected to be idle by nightfall.

Lewis said the welfare pay stop is due to the fund running low on cash. Most of the soft coal operators had stopped the welfare royalties. But it's all part of the UMW fight for a new contract. He's deadlocked with operators after prolonged talks.

Walkouts started last midnight and gained headway over the coal fields today as come-to-work whistles blew in vain. UMW leaders insisted the union's rank and file is acting on its own initiative, that Lewis has issued no strike call. He never does.

West Virginia, biggest soft coal producing state, reported its 120,000 miners joining the stoppage.

Steel Miners Idle

Only a few of eastern Pennsylvania's 80,000 hard coal miners showed up for work. They sat around and talked for a while and then went home. The great majority never reached the mines. Many industry leaders had expected the hard coal mines to continue working since the operators have continued royalty payments. The anthracite pension fund is administered separately from the bituminous fund.

The United States Steel corporation said all its coal mining operations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky were closed with 16,000 men idle. The steel corporation's mines have a daily production of 90,000 tons.

In Illinois, 145 UMW diggers at Glenridge did not change

Stock Market Makes Gradual Recovery

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (AP)—The stock market's first response today to British devaluation was a quick opening decline followed by a labored recovery move.

In a few minutes of rapid-fire selling at the start of business, prices dropped a few cents to $1 or more a share. Losses were later trimmed or even wiped out.

Gold issues struck out on their own with gains running to $1 a share.

QUAKE IS FELT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19. (AP)—A slight earthquake shook downtown Los Angeles and neighboring communities last night.

There was no damage, although numerous burglar alarms were touched off.

STRIKE DEADLINE SET

DETROIT, Sept. 19. (U.P.)—The CIO United Auto Workers today set a strike deadline of Thursday, Sept. 29, against the Ford Motor company unless fourth-round economic demands are met.

Engagement Of Film Actress Is Broken

WARRENTON, Va., Sept. 19. (AP)—William D. Pawley, jr., son of the former ambassador to Brazil, said today he and Elizabeth Taylor of the movies have "mutually agreed" to call off their engagement.

Asked if the picture commitments of Miss Taylor in Hollywood had anything to do with the decision, Pawley said:

"Yes, that had something to do with it."

First Disaster Estimates Believed High

Three Bodies Found On Ship To Hike Death Total To 121

(By The Associated Press)

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 19. — The known dead pulled from the flame-swept S. S. Noronic stood at 121 today as divers groped below the sunken decks of the charred cruise ship in search of 84 passengers still reported missing.

Red Cross officials expressed the belief that many of those unaccounted for after the panic-spreading blaze Saturday had gone to their homes without reporting their survival. Canadian authorities had feared the death toll might reach 205.

Hope that first estimates might have been high rose when divers reported yesterday they had not found the "50 or 60" bodies firemen said they believed were trapped in the burned-out cabins. The ship settled to the bottom of her dock slip after the early morning blaze.

Three charred forms were taken out of the submerged cabins last night, bringing the known dead in an emergency morgue to 121.

Daily Shots Of Insulin Are No Longer Necessary For Nearly All People Suffering Diabetes

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 19—Daily shots of insulin are no longer necessary for nearly all people with diabetes.

This good news for diabetes sufferers was announced last night in a report released by the American Chemical Society and signed by Dr. Michal Somogyi, biochemist of the Jewish hospital of St. Louis. Dr. Somogyi said 99 per cent of adults can live normal healthy lives with a new treatment based on diet.

The society opens its 116th national meeting here today.

The one per cent of diabetics who still need insulin may require only a small amount daily, he said.

Describing the freedom from insulin program found during a 14-year study of 4,000 diabetics, Dr. Somogyi said the main basis is a diet that keeps body weight at the ideal level for a person's age and build.

The diet allows enough starches, sugars and proteins, but cuts down on fats.

People with diabetes get too much sugar in their blood and their bodies don't produce enough insulin, a hormone that regulates the body's use of sugar. Extra insulin has been the main method of controlling the trouble, but too much of the drug can be dangerous. This is because the insulin eventually poisons the diabetic and keeps him constantly tired, depressed and irritable through a chemical tug-of-war in his body, Dr. Somogyi said.

Diet alone can solve the problem if the disease hasn't progressed too far, he said. If it has, small injections of insulin still may be needed for awhile.

Almost all diabetic children still must be treated with insulin, Dr. Somogyi added, but now most will require less than 20 units daily.

During the St. Louis program, he said, scores of patients who have been getting 100 to 150 units of insulin every day have been treated until most were able to get along with only a small amount daily.

PANHANDLE CHILD IS KILLED

Texas Death Toll Is Hiked To Eight

(By The Associated Press)

At least eight persons died violently in Texas over the weekend.

Mike Pierce, seven, was dragged to death Sunday by a horse at Spring creek. He died in a Borger hospital.

An air Naional Guard pilot, James Lewis Turner, 27, of Irving, and Navy Lt. (jg) Leroy Bates, 25, of Pasadena, Tex., died Saturday when their planes collided near Dallas.

Injuries Are Fatal

John Leonard Deleon, 29, of Fort Worth, was injured fatally Sunday when his motorcycle crashed into a motorboat being towed by an automobile.

J. E. Shipman, 61, of San Saba received fatal injuries in Fort Worth Saturday night when his pickup truck hit a utilities pole.

Linda Sue Butts, 2, was crushed to death Saturday night between the family car and home in Nocona. Her brother stepped on the starter and the car which was in gear, pumped forward catching Linda. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butts of Nocona.

Child Is Killed

Maria Cano, 7, was killed by a car as she ran across main street in Robstown Sunday.

A truck struck Willis Jedde Dry's automobile from behind Saturday, knocking it into a ditch. Dry, 66, a Laredo building contractor, died in a Laredo hospital.

Protest To Nazis, German Is Told

BERLIN, Sept. 19. (AP)—In the confusion that reigned in the closing days of the war, Frau Schwarzenauer got a higher family allowance for her soldier husband than she was entitled to.

Recently, she received a letter from the bank through which the government payments were made. It said she had to pay the money back. Her husband, Paul, protested to the bank. But the officials were stubborn.

"Take it up with the German army command," they said. The army command ceased to exist in 1945.

Army Officers Die In Crash

FORT RILEY, Kan., Sept. 19. (U.P.)—An unsuccessful attempt by an Army pilot to land a L-17 liaison plane was blamed today for a crash which killed three 10th infantry division officers.

Air Force officials last night identified the dead as 1st Lt. Walter F. Stone, jr., 29, Scurry, Tex.; 1st Lt. Dale R. Brenneman, jr., Junction City, Kan., and 1st Lt. Clark W. Burton, Potomac, Ill.

The bodies were found in the wreckage of the plane about eight miles east of Mattfield Green, Kan., yesterday.

On Routine Flight

Fort Riley authorities said the plane left Marshall field here Friday night on a routine training flight to Wichita, Kan., Kansas City, and return.

Maj. Louis D. Lippincott, Fort Riley public information officer, said the ship was headed toward Wichita when it landed. Wreckage was tossed over an area of 150 yards.

The motor had been torn loose from the plane and was several yards away, Lippincott said. All the bodies were thrown clear.

"The body of the pilot still was strapped to his bucket seat, indicating that he was attempting a forced landing," he said.

Otherwise, Lippincott explained, the pilot would not have strapped himself in.

"There was no gasoline found at the scene," he added, "so it may have been that the plane ran out of fuel. However, it's possible that the supply of gas could have leaked out before the wreckage was found."

Reds Agree To Talks On Austrian Treaty

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—The State department announced today Soviet Russia has agreed to resume four-power negotiations on a treaty with Austria.

The negotiations, interrupted at London on Sept. 1, will be renewed Thursday in New York.

The state department said that Andrei Gromyko, acting Soviet foreign minister, consented to the new talks at a conference yesterday in Moscow with the American, French and British ambassadors.

Search For Missing Fliers Is Abandoned

18 Believed Killed In Crash Of Plane

BRAZZAVILLE, French West Africa, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—A French military plane carrying 18 persons was reported to have crashed today at the Pointe Noire airport some 300 miles west of here on the Atlantic coast. First reports said all aboard were killed.

The plane, a Halifax, crashed while trying to land and burst into flames, early reports said.

Inspection Tour Set In Cochran County

MORTON, Sept. 19 (Special)—A field inspection tour for Cochran county farmers and business men will take place Wednesday, September 21.

The tour will gather at the Morton court house square at 1 p. m. and will end at 5 p. m., according to Cochran county agriculture agent Homer E. Thompson.

Included on the inspection trip will be:

Conservation practices, wind breaks, grass seeding on dry and irrigated land, bench leveling, weed control, results of cotton insect control, terracing and contour cultivation. Routing of the tour can be obtained from Thompson if late starters want to join at some point on the route.

Action Causes Turmoil Over Entire World

England Gambling On Move To Meet Bankruptcy Threat

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Sept. 19 — A 30.5 per cent cut in the dollar value of the pound steling hits the British public today like a blow in the face. There was financial turmoil the world over.

The labor government, in a desperate gamble to save the nation from threatened bankruptcy, hunger and misery, slashed the worth of the pound last night from $4.03 to $2.80.

Banks were closed. The London stock exchange and those in France, Holland, Greece, South Africa and many other countries were shut down. Foreign exchange trading was forbidden in much of Europe and the sterling area. In London, harried brokers traded stocks and bonds on the sidewalk.

Business At Standstill

Business was at a virtual standstill in this great city which once was the financial and economic heart of the world.

Eleven nations of Europe and Asia quickly cheapened their money to match the British move. Cabinets in other woruld capitals held emergency sessions to decide what to do.

It was the biggest financial turmoil the world has seen since Britain went off the gold standard on another September Sunday night almost 18 years ago to the day.

Devaluation of the pound was intended to solve Britain's grave financial crisis by selling more and cheaper goods to America.

To Americans, devaluation of the pound can mean cheaper Scotch whisky, English tweeds, Staffordshire china and scores of other British-made products.

Only Permanent Solution

The British, Economic Boss Sir Stafford Cripps said last night in a nation-wide radio address, are banking on a big boost in dollar earnings—enough for Britain to become self-supporting by the time the European recovery program ends in 1952.

"That is the only permanent solution for our difficulties — earn more dollars," Cripps declared.

He warned that if Britain's gold reserves continue to drain away as fast as they have in recent months, Britons will suffer "lower standards (of living) and widespread unemployment."

The same problem faces most of the other countries of the world outside the Soviet orbit, where

Missing Youth Located Here

Linnie Lee Creacy, 17, for whom a four-state search had been instituted, is living at a downtown hotel here and is employed at a furniture store, the youth told the sheriff's department and Texas rangers.

He has lived here the last two weeks, since returning from following the wheat harvest, "which took me as far away as the Dakotas," he said after Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank had followed directions of an anonymous telephone call to locate him.

Sheriff Grady Harrist informed the youth's father, M. L. Creacy of Phillips. Creacy said he would be here today to talk with his son. Mrs. Creacy had come to Lubbock Sunday with a Borger newspaperman to pursue their search, after Mrs. N. D. Morrison of 1608½ Broadway had reported seeing the youth here Spet. 10, at a theater. Mrs. Morrison formerly lived at Phillips and was a schoolmate of the youth.

Creacy's father had expressed the fear his son's body might be found in "shallow grave."

The youth merely told officials that his father had accused him of having damaged the family truck and had asked him if he couldn't better express his responsibility.

"I just decided to show him I

Farmers' Meeting At Morton Tuesday

MORTON, Sept. 19. (Special)—State Representative Preston Smith will be the principal speaker at a farmers meeting in Veteran's Hall here Tuesday night at 8 p. m.

The meeting is part of the Cochran County Farm Bureau drive to obtain membership for the organization. The goal has been set at 90 per cent of the farmers of Cochran county, Charles M. Cravy, president of the Bureau, said. The actual drive will begin Thursday morning with ten teams taking to the fields.

All farmers and their wives are invited to attend the special meeting.

Seed House Is Being Erected

One of the least-known construction projects in Lubbock is being rushed to completion neck-and-neck with the advent of the bumper cotton harvest.

It is a huge seed house being erected at a cost of $40,000 by the Lubbock Cotton Oil company at the east end of Seventeenth street.

It is probably the "best-hidden" major construction project in Lubbock, because it has been impossible to see any evidence of its construction either from the entrance to the cotton oil mill or from adjoining streets.

Third For Company

This seedhouse, the third to be built by the company, will measure 100 to 190 feet, containing 19,000 square feet of floor space.

Like all other seedhouses, it is shaped in the form a pile of cotton seed naturally takes, when dropped from a certain height, thus eliminating most of the pressure on the walls.

The structure, to be 80 feet high, is being constructed of sheet metal on steel frame. It is designed to hold 7,500 tons of cottonseed.

It contains a fan room on one end, a machinery room on the other. Cottonseed is blown in from unloading dumps through the top.

"We have to accumulate enough cottonseed during the harvesting season to keep the mill operating throughout the rest of the year," it was explained by George A. Simmons, manager of the company. "We expect to have the building completed in about two weeks."

H. R. Bundock of Lubbock was in charge of constructing the concrete floors and foundations for the structure. The steel was fabricated by Austin Bros. Manufacturing company of Dallas and erection is being done by H. D. and T. J. Crigger of Dallas.

Two large mobile cranes are being employed in the erection of the steel framework.

SEEDHOUSE BEING ERECTED—This steel framework is being erected so rapidly that within two weeks it is expected to be a completed $40,000 seedhouse for Lubbock Cotton Oil company at the plant site, east end of Seventeenth street. The building, 100 by 190 feet, and 80 feet high, will be the third seedhouse of the company here. Like the others, it will be shaped just as a pile of cotton seed falls, in order to eliminate pressure on walls of the building. (Staff Photo).

Best Place When A-Bomb Goes Off Is Somewhere Else

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19 (AP)—The best defense against an atom bomb, according to Sumner Pike of the Atomic Energy commission, is "to be on a visit to some place else when it goes off."

Here last night for a television broadcast (WMAR-TV), Pike reported the commission is having a hard time determining how good a job it's doing.

Information Leaking

He said that's because "the guy that's competing with us has the curtain rung down and all we can hear are a few clinks and clanks from the chains."

"We've no idea how well he's doing," the commissioner declared in reference to Russia's atomic research.

Anyway, said Pike, atomic energy is here to stay and we're going to have to learn to live with it "just as we had to learn to live with the automobile and the airplane."

Man Sits In Hotel Without His Pants

ADELAIDE, Australia, Sept. 19 (AP)—Police found a suit of clothes, shirt, collar and tie on Glenelg Beach, and were baffled. It was 4 a. m.

The police started to look for the body of a drowned man. They couldn't find one. But they did find the owner of the discarded clothes.

He was sitting in his underpants in the lounge of a nearby hotel. Well no, he didn't quite know why he was sitting in his underpants or why he had shed the rest of his clothes. The police got him dressed again and sent him home in a taxi.

Sulphur Held Best For Plant Fungus

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 19 (U.P.)—In California alone, growers use some 50,000,000 pounds of sulphur every year as the chemical continues to be the standby in the control of fungus diseases of plants.

Dr. C. E. Yarwood, professor of plant pathology, discussed the merits of sulphur as a fungicide and said it is the most powerful, dependable weapon against the diseases of plants, even though new chemicals, better methods of application, and better timing are being advanced all the time.

Significant in the new methods of control, according to Yarwood, were:

1. The new fungicides like dithane and parzate. They're used to control downy mildew in spinach and may replace Bordeaux mixture as a control for potato blight.

2. The discovery that a more efficient control can be had by treating the plant after infection sets in, rather than before.

3. Application of fungicides by means of overhead irrigation systems.

Miniature Bank Vault Helps Smokers To Ration Cigarets

BARBERTON, Ohio, Sept. 15 (AP)—Ward D. Leatherman, an ingenious Barberton crane operator, currently is engaged in bolstering the will power of cigaret smokers who want to cut down.

The Leatherman system, now in search of a manufacturer, is simple:

Reach for a cigaret ahead of time and you don't get one.

They are locked up in your "watchdog" case that rations smokes with impartial sternness. The case is really a miniature bank vault with a device that locks it until a selected time up to six hours.

It works like this: Suppose you want to smoke no oftener than 30 minutes apart. By setting a small dial on the timing mechanism, the owner of the case locks it until exactly 30 minutes later.

"I found I was smoking far too much," said Leatherman. "So I began concentrating back in 1945 on a way to break myself of the smoking habit. Like most confirmed smokers, I lacked the will power to voluntarily cut down my cigaret consumption. But, now, with my case I have cut down to less than one pack a day."

Leatherman said a mail order house would market the gadget after he signs with a manufacturer.

The designer says his brainchild has another virtue.

"Gotta cigaret?" a moocher asks.

"Sorry," replies Leatherman. "This case doesn't open again until exactly 6:19 p. m."

WILL POWER gadget and its designer, W. D. Leatherman.

Collector Of Cactus Has 5,000 Specimens

WACO, Tex., Sept. 19 (U.P.)—Hobbies run from stamps to old coins and oddshaped bottles, but a Waco man is a collector of cactus plants.

L. A. Riddle has 5,000 cactus plants growing on his premises. It has taken him 10 years and some 100,000 miles of travel to make the collection.

Riddle is a watchmaker by trade. He and his wife are members of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America.

Among the rare cactus in his garden is the barrel type. It weighs around 400 pounds and is known to grow three years without water.

Nevada Town Tough Back In Old Days

PIOCHE, Nev., Sept. 19 (U.P.)—Seventy-five early residents of this tiny western town, 150 miles north of Las Vegas, died of gunshot wounds before a single death occurred from natural causes.

Tom Wilson, Nevada historian, believes Pioche easily outdistances such places as Tombstone, Ariz., and other widely-publicized dangerous western towns.

"For sheer disregard of life, limb and property," Wilson wrote recently, "Pioche had it all over the rest."

Body Of Air Cadet Is Found On Coast

GALVESTON, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—The body of one of two air cadets whose plane crashed in the bay Sept. 2 was washed ashore here early Sunday.

The Coast Guard recovered the body of Herbert Billings Reid, South Burlington, Vt. The body of his companion, James Vaughn, has not been found.

The airmen were stunting over the water when their rented plane suddenly nose-dived in view of thousands of horrified vacationers.

Italy-Mexico Trade Is Hard To Arrange

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 19 (AP)—Mexico would be glad to trade more goods with Italy. She might even take small complete industries from Italy, machinery, materials and workers with the know-how. One of these barter deals—Mexican sugar for Italian rayon yarn—has been successfully concluded. It was for a value of "several million dollars." Both sides were satisfied but the deal will not be renewed. Mexico now produces all the rayon she needs and Italy has found a cheaper place to buy sugar.

Barter deals are not as easy to arrange as they seem. Two countries must first find products they can export and which the other needs. Then they have to agree on the value of these goods for trading purposes.

States Curb Use Of Television In Cars

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—If you want to stay out of trouble, don't look at a television show while you drive your car.

It shouldn't be necessary to pass this warning along to anybody who can count without using his fingers. But 15 states are taking no chances. They adopted laws this year that either (1) prohibit operation of a motor vehicle equipped with a TV set in view of the driver, or (2) forbid installation of a set in a place where a driver can see it.

The American Public Works Association says the states with such laws are Colorado, Connecticut, Indana, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Irishman Lately Arrived Is Squiring Girl Who Is Embarrassed At His Crude Ways

DEAR Mary Haworth: For the last month I have been going with a man, around 38 or 40, who comes from Ireland. He has been here since the middle of May, working for a wealthy family, and before that he lived in Canada for two years.

Joe smokes, but uses no bad language, at least not in my presence, and he is quite a good conversationalist, although I don't think he has had much schooling. I am just an ordinary working girl, my parents are working people still earning their living, and I've worked for everything I've had, except my schooling.

Now for the problem: I really do enjoy Joe's company, except for certain crudities of manner on his part which embarrass me. In entering or leaving a restaurant or movie, he opens the door and passes through first, letting me follow and manage the door for myself. After the movies, he doesn't even wait for me to reach the aisle before he goes out. He never opens a car door for me, but unlocks the car, gets in and I follow.

SHOULD SHE VENTURE REPROVING COMMENT?

I DON'T expect a boy friend to wait on me hand and foot when we are together, but I do like little courtesies shown me in public, and what woman doesn't? After all, American women are brought up to expect them; and as Joe is more or less new in this country, why can't he see how others do?

Worst of all, when we eat out, he fails for some reason to use the napkin for its intended purpose, and instead uses his handkerchief, which sometimes is slightly soiled. To me this is most embarrassing, but having known him only a month I hesitate to make corrective suggestions.

Somehow I feel that in Ireland the people don't make a practice of letting the ladies go first; but the matter of the napkin I don't understand; and I don't know whether Joe would take offense or be glad if I mentioned these things. Your advice will be much appreciated.

Signed: L. B.

HE SEEMS NEGLIGENT RATHER THAN IGNORANT

DEAR L. B.: Certainly Joe has traveled enough to be aware of the social amenities you admire, the more especially if he is intelligent (as his clever tongue suggests) and employed by a wealthy household, where he has a certain amount of "gentlemanly" and "ladylike" behavior under observation, we may presume.

Then why his persistence in those crudities you deplore? Probably because he was reared in a somewhat primitive mold, has had very little consecutive "woman-influence" in his life in grown-up years, and has always "got by" well enough, he feels, without making any special effort to refine his manners, since voyaging into the larger world.

In other words, his semi-savage neglect of the customary niceties of squiring a dame, American style, is probably due to negligence rather than ignorance nowadays. Doubtless the trend was started by early conditioning, and he became perennially more entrenched as a result of leading a "lone wolf" private life.

GIRL'S ENTITLED TO AIR GRIEVANCE

IN GENERAL both men and women need to be continually associated in close relationship, in an intimate atmosphere of loving-kindness, in order to assimilate (as second nature) the spirit and practive of courteous gestures. The person of either sex who lives alone tends to plunge ahead without indicating deference to another's pace or comfort; and tends also to develop lax table manners—and I reckon Joe is a case in point.

For advice: Since you enjoy Joe's company but are distressed by his boners, it seems good common sense to be frank with him about your feelings, pro and con. In dealing with any beau whose actions offend, it is your business to indicate the brand of behavior more pleasing to you; and if the man is basically cooperative, friendly and respectful, a "hint to the wise" should bring improvement, even though he may feel some passing chagrin at being corrected.

Signed: M. H.

Dresses And Trays To Be Exhibited At Tech

Lubbock county home demonstration club women will sponsor an exhibit of dresses and trays at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Tech Aggie Memorial auditorium. The dresses were made following demonstrations on clothing construction and the aluminum and copper trays were made in clubs during July.

The exhibit committee is made up of Mesdames H. K. Hicks, Ralph Robinson and J. A. Williams.

47er Club Meeting To Be In Clover Home

Members of the 47er club, an organization made up of Tech college women faculty members and wives of faculty members who came to Lubbock in 1947, will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Vernon T. Clover, 2515 Thirty-first.

Those who have not been contacted are invited to attend, it was said this morning.

PICNIC PLANNED

St. John's Methodist Wesleyan Service Guild is planning a picnic for Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the Mackenzie State Park Party house. The social will be for members and their families. Mrs. R. P. Miller is in charge of arrangements.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Eads have returned to their home in Ennis after spending ten days here visiting friends.

FOR WOMEN'S painful functional monthly distress, young and middle-aged women, for 67 years, have used Cardui. Irritable, nervous conditions due to irregular action of one of woman's primary organs can be soothed and calmed by taking Cardui as directed.

SPECIAL laboratory control of Cardui assures efficient antispasmodic action. Cardui acts two ways: (1) Help to lessen functional periodic pains; allay sympathetic nervousness and irritableness; (2) Aid in building resistance when taken regular. Buy Cardui to help thwart the monthly PROBLEM. Always buy Cardui, by name.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING DAY—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hazel of 215 E. Stanford observed their Golden Wedding day Sunday at a reception attended by many relatives and friends. The couple had a double wedding with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ghormley of Rising Star Sept. 13, 1899, the brides being sisters. Mr. Ghormley died three weeks ago. Mr. Hazel, born in Fannin county March 2, 1874, moved to Eastland county in 1879 fourteen years before his future wife was to move there from Alabama, where she was born Jan. 27, 1883. The Hazels came to Lubbock county in 1922, settling near Idalou. They are parents of seven living children: Mrs. C. L. Brashear, Mrs. Sallie Hazel Owen, Homer Hazel and Henry Hazel, all of Lubbock; Mrs. Flim Dunn, Abernathy; Rev. Willie Hazel, El Paso and Glen Hazel, Idalou.

Tight Fit Makes Walking A Problem

Knee-Length, Hobble-Skirted Dress Is Latest Paris Vogue

By BARBARA BUNDSCHU
United Press Fashion Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. '9 — It'll take either a perfect figure or a button hook to even get into a Paris dress this season, it looks today.

Walking is another problem. A little boudoir practice in getting one foot ahead of the other with a tight girdle around the knees may be some help.

Paris costumes shown here last week by Bonwit Teller, which is prepared to copy them for customers, feature a generally top-heavy look with loosely fitted, sometimes bloused, tops over skirts so short and tapered that some hike to the knee at ever step.

Even when they're wide enough to stay down for a lady-like step, the skirts are hemmed at lengths which will look awfully "World War II" to most of the women who so recently have relaxed into the modified "new look" hemlines.

Blouses Fit Loosely

Some appear to be just two inches below the bottom of the knee. One costume, which the store assured was not just too short for the model, showed her entire calf, just like back in 1945.

The hobbled look is minimized in a number of costumes with extra flanges of material which whirl out from mid-thigh when the wearer walks and have so much movement of their own that they at least take the eye away from the hiking skirt.

Tops of dresses and suits looks as if they'd be a boon to the home sewer who hasn't learned to fit herself yet. Jackets appear to be cut straight (or flaring or crooked, for all anyone could tell) and then cinched into snug belts any which way.

Button-Hook Dress

A lot of designers have given up the plunging neckline, but not Christian Dior. When he puts a plunge into that careslessly fitted bodice and then hems a hobble just barely below the knee, it ought to be enough to give any man a touch of shizophrenia.

For practicality in a season when many dresses look too narrow around the hem to go over shoulder, Jacque Fath's button-hook dress gets the honors, however.

The slim, gray wool dress is built like an hour glass from the waist down and has a button closing that spirals from one side of the front waistline to the center back hem. Unbuttoned to run from a fire, it may not be modest, but it should make a girl feel safe.

SIMPLY GREAT to relieve 'PERIODIC' FEMALE PAINS

Also nervous distress several days 'before'

Do you suffer from monthly cramps, headache, backache — or do you, like so many women, start to suffer a few days just before your period from strange, nervous, restless, weak, dragging feelings—due to this functional cause?

Then start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's Compound has such a comforting antispasmodic action on one of woman's most important organs. Pinkham's Compound not only relieves this monthly pain but also annoying pre-period nervous, tense emotions of this nature. Regular use helps build up resistance against such female distress. Women by the thousands have reported amazing benefits. Truly the woman's friend!

LINCOLN, Neb. (U.P.) — C. A. Sweet applied for papers authorizing a notary public commission for another six years. "This one will last me till I'm 100," he said. Sweet, 94, has been a notary for more than 65 years.

Jaycees Planning Barbecue And Dance

Music was the main dish at the Jaycee luncheon in the Hilton hotel today.

Jaycees, their wives and guests ate to the tunes of Ted Crager and his seven-piece band.

Then, Mrs. Stuart Shafter, a Juliard School of Music graduate, sang "Smiling Through" and "Romance" to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. James Atcheson.

The Notables, a quartet composed of Jim Black, I. L. (Tiny) Jones, Dick Richards and Ray Dickey, concluded the program with four barber shop harmonies.

Jack Blankenship was program chairman.

Norman Igo, chairman of the membership committee, announced a barbecue dance will be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at the South Plains Army Air Field gym. Price is $3 a couple.

R. S. Wilkinson presided.

OIL TANKS BURN

EUNICE, La., Sept. 19 (AP)—Six oil storage tanks with a capacity of 5,500 barrels were destroyed in a six hour fire caused by lightning near here yesterday. Damage was estimated at more than $15,000.

PIN-WORM Mystery Ended

For centuries, millions of Pin-Worm victims have desperately sought a way to deal with these pests that live in the human body.

A new, scientific treatment, Jayne's P-W Vermifuge, now offers real relief. P-W's vital ingredient is a medically-approved drug that attacks Pin-Worms in the intestines and removes them from the body.

So watch for warning signs, especially the tormenting rectal itch. Then ask your druggist for P-W, the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by the famous Jayne Co., specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

ZANY SEASON GOES OUT WITH A ZING—The silly season is gone, but the echoes are with us yet. For instance, in Chicago a man designed a mink tail-tipped umbrella—just the thing for pelting rains. The board of directors of a Beloit, Wis., power and light company convened deep down inside a five-story-high steam generating boiler now under construction. Nobody was bored; on the other hand, nobody got steamed up. In Hollywood, where anything can happen, "Lassie," the dog star, was crowned "King for a Week"—National Dog Week—by actress Amanda Blake. And over in Taunton, England, "Heather," the donkey, stopped off at a tavern for her daily brew. She just can't say "neigh."

Two Men Facing Charges After Beating Of Non-Union Worker

WARRENEBURG, Mo., Sept. 19 (U.P.)—A labor dispute on a Panhandle Eastern Pipeline co., project flared into violence today with one man injured and two others in jail here.

The fight took place near Holden, Mo., 16 miles west of here, in Johnson county.

Union welders on the pipeline have been on strike for two weeks, and a non-union crew was imported.

Man Is Beaten

As work started this morning, four men believed to be members of the striking union fought with Earl N. Franklin, head of the non-union welders. Franklin was brought to Warrensburg hospital and clinic suffering from bruises and cuts on the head and possible internal injuries.

Charles Balch, 41, and James Carullo, 29, were jailed here pending filing charges of assault with a deadly weapon. Franklin, who signed the complaint, said he was struck with a blackjack.

Both Balch and Carullo gave their address as the Pickwick hotel, Kansas City. The address of Balch's wife was given as Tulsa, Okla. Balch carried a card identifying him as international organizer of the United Assn. of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipefitting Industry of the United States and Canada, AFL.

Sheriff Alex Nichols said the other two men drove away after the fight and have not been apprehended. He was unable to identify them.

Roy A. Jones, Johnson county prosecuting attorney, said he expected to file the assault charges against Balch and Carullo later today.

By an ancient superstitution for testing a lover's faithfulness, girls used to pierce a lighted candle with a pin, then let the flame burn down around it. If the pin remained in the charred wick, the boy friend was faithful. If the pin fell from the burned wick, he was a two-timer.

Funeral Tuesday For Roscoe Webster, 56

Services will be conducted at 10 a. m. Tuesday at Rix Funeral home chapel for Roscoe Webster, 56, of 2515 Twenty-third, who die dearly this morning at his residence after an illness of six weeks.

Burial will take place in Tech Memorial park.

He was a railway postal clerk for the Fort Worth and Denver railway and had lived here since 1934.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Rex; and a daughter, Imogene.

Missing War Vet May Be Amnesia Victim

TYLER, Sept. 19. (AP)—Northeast Texas police were alerted today in a search for Charles A. Mase, 36-year-old Tyler World war two veteran. He is believed to be an amnesia victim.

He disappeared from his home here early yesterday. Later his wife received a telephone call from him. He said he could see "lots and lots of buses" but did not know where he was.

Czech Pilots Escape Into U. S.-Held Zone

FRANKFURT, Germany, Sept. 19 (AP)—Two Czech air force pilots have fled by plane from Communist-ruled Prague to a U. S. air base in Germany.

The pair, a lieutenant and an officer-candidate, landed a jet training plane at Erding field in Bavaria last weekend. They requested the American Air Force to withhold their names and where-abouts.

Secretary To Czech Churchman Sentenced

PRAGUE, Sept. 19. (AP) — The secretary of Czechslovakia's No. 2 Roman Catholic archbishop has been sentenced to prison for ten years for high treason. The official Czech news agency made the announcement today.

The convicted churchman is Theodor Funk, a vicar and councilor to Archbishop Josef Matacha of Olomouc in Moravia. The archbishop is second to Archbishp Joseph Beran in the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

Charges Dropped On Boys Who Threw Dye

HOUSTON, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—Oilman Glenn McCarthy decided today he would not see red in the case of the orange dye in his green swimming pool.

Charges of malicious michief were dropped against two teenagers, who admittedly tossed two packages of dye into the Shamrock hotel pool last Aug. 22.

George Lindholm, Shamrock general manager, informed the district attorney's office that the boys would attempt to pay for the damage incurred, including more than $150 it cost McCarthy to drain the big pool dry.

Former Petersburg Woman Polio Victim

Funeral services for Mrs. Truett Hughes, Houston, formerly of Petersburg, will be conducted at the Petersburg First Baptist church at 3 p. m. Tuesday, friends in Lubbock have been advised. She died Thursday night in a Houston hospital of polio, eight days after being stricken by the disease.

A daughter, Sylvia, 13, is reported in serious condition there, suffering from polio. Mrs. Hughes was the former Miss Billie Eaves of Petersburg. Her husband was a resident of Levelland until 1932 when he moved to Houston.

Burial will be in Petersburg cemetery.

Survivors besides the husband and the stricken child, include another daughter, Susie, and a son, Philip.

Ralls Slaying Case To Jury

SILVERTON, Sept. 19 (Special)—A 110th jury early this afternoon held the fate of George Holland, a negro accused of murder with malice in connection with the Aug. 2, 1947, slaying at Ralls of Crosby Sheriff J. J. Pierce.

Holland was convicted in a former trial of the case, in the 72nd district court of Lubbock county, and a recommendation of death was made by the jury. The Court of Criminal appeals reversed the judgment and remanded the case for a new trial.

Venue recently was changed to the court of Judge Alton Chapman upon motion of Judge Dan Blair of the 72nd district.

Defense Offers No Evidence

The court of criminal appeals held that Holland had been deprived of his right to file his bills of exception.

In today's trial, just as in that at Lubbock, the defense did not offer any evidence. It had sworn witnesses, but did not call them. No motions were filed, newsmen were informed.

The state was represented by 110th District Attorney John Stapleton, Crosby County Attorney Lloyd Wicks, jr., 72nd District Attorney Lloyd Croslin and assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr.

The defense was conducted by A. C. Cooke and Bryan B. Dillard, of the Lubbock law firm of Dillard, Cooke and Dillard.

It required approximately one hour to complete the jury. The state completed its evidence before noon. After the noon recess, the defense announced it would close without offering evidence.

Presenting Each Week News About Live, Progressive Firms and Individuals of Lubbock

EXPERT REPAIRS OFFERED

Finest In Musical Instruments Featured By Adair Music Co.

Proof that the B. E. Adair Music Co. is keeping pace with the growth of Lubbock and the South Plains was manifested when the firm moved into its new modern home at 1207-1209 Main, in the new Masonic building, last May.

In the new location, Adair Music Co. has been able to expand greatly its stocks of pianos, radios, band instruments, sheet music and records. Increased space in the new building has enabled the firm to offer the most efficient sales and repair services possible.

And, since it has always been the aim of B. E. Adair Music Co to provide the best possible services and facilities for its friends and customers, several rooms in the new store are available to club groups for meetings. A mezzanine auditorium with a seating capacity of 150 is provided for recitals and small concerts. Also maintained in the new store are facilities for the study of voice and piano.

B. E. Adair Music Co. was opened in November, 1942. Before that time, B. E. Adair, owner of the firm, had been associated with South Plains Music Co., as owner of the piano department there.

The music company is dealer for Wurlitzer and Jesse French pianos, Selmar and Le Blanc woodwind instruments, Conn, Holton and Olds band instruments, RCA Victor radios, Baldwin organs, and W.F.L. drum equipment.

All the above lines have been added within the past five years. The company is constantly adding new lines of merchandise to take care of expanding trade.

The company is exclusive Lubbock agent for Baldwin pianos and Solovox attachments.

B. E. Adair Music Co. maintains three piano trucks which travel the entire area. There are approximately 25 employes of the company, each of whom is specially trained for work in his particular department.

Specialties of the company include the piano and band instrument departments. "We maintain excellent repair facilities for the above mentioned instruments in our own shop," W. D. McCarty, manager, said.

The company pays special attention to all mail orders, and fills such orders as promptly as possible.

SPACIOUS INTERIOR — With more than 12,000 square feet of floor space in the new home of B. E. Adair Music Co., 1205-1209 Main, ample sales and display space is provided for each department. Not shown is the spacious piano department. A recital hall is located on the mezzanine.

Many Large Installation Jobs Done By Brick And Tile Co.

Since the opening of the Brick and Tile Co., Fourth at Ave. R, in 1940, millions of square feet of asphalt tile flooring have been installed by company workmen in structures throughout the Southwest.

Important installation jobs include buildings of the Atomic Energy commission at Los Alamos, N. M.; the Guided Missiles project at White Sands, N. M.; at Fort Bliss, and many others.

R. J. Cheatham is owner of the company.

Singer Co. Offers Sewing Lessons

With the fall calendar of activities rapidly filling for Miss and Mrs. Lubbock, thoughts naturally turn to new fall clothes.

And what better and more economical way to have plenty of clothes for the new season than to make them under the guidance of Singer's staff of skilled sewing instructors?

The Singer Sewing Machine Co., 1313 Texas Ave., offers sewing lessons to those who prefer individually made, expertly-fitted garments at a price lower than most factory-produced clothes. Lessons in making slip covers and draperies also are given by the Singer instructors.

For the convenience of their customers, Singer company keeps a complete stock of buttons, thread, and other sewing notions. At the local Singer sewing center, expert button-hole making service is maintained.

The Singer company also stocks the famous Singer sewing machines and vacuum cleaners, in addition to other appliances. Factory-trained mechanics are on hand to make expert repairs on Singer equipment.

Further information on the nationally-famous Singer sewing courses, and on sales and maintenance of Singer machines and vacuum sweepers may be obtained by visiting the local Singer company or by calling telephone number 2-2881.

One-third of America's surfaced highways now have stripes running down the middle.

Farmers Supply Serves Wide Area

Farmers Supply Co., 2608 Ave. H, maintains a staff of expert mechanics who have been carefully trained in the repair of Massey-Harris farm machinery and Le Roi cotton gin and irrigation machinery.

The company believes that in order to keep farm equipment and irrigation and gin machinery working at top efficiency, only expertly-trained mechanics should service it. Such skilled repair and maintenance service is a special feature of Farmers Supply.

The firm is the retail dealer for the Massey-Harris line of farm machinery in this area. It is also warehouse and transfer dealer for the Massey-Harris Co. The warehouse and transfer dealership involves distribution of Massey-Harris machinery to dealers throughout a large section of Texas and New Mexico.

The Massey-Harris Co. maintains a large stock of Massey-Harris parts and machinery at the Farmers Supply warehouse here.

Farmers Supply also is dealer in this area for nationally-known LeRoi cotton gin and irrigation engines, offering both sales and service on this line.

Kenneth Cox, owner of Farmers Supply, says that it is the aim of his company to offer high-quality equipment and render expert field service on the equipment by trained and dependable service men to insure maximum efficiency of all machinery sold by the firm and its representatives.

The firm was established in Lubbock in November, 1938, and has been in business continuously since that time.

Allies Considering Japanese Peace Treaty Without Russia

By DeWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The urgency of concluding a Japanese treaty has developed the startling possibility that the democracies may get ahead with the job without Russia, unless a quick solution of the disagreement with Moscow can be found.

Should this happen it would of course mean two distinct treaties—another stone added to the wall dividing the totalitarian states and the democracies.

The stalemate hinges on Russia's insistence that the treaty be concluded by the Big Four foreign ministers council (America, Britain, Russia and France), whereas the United States and Britain insist that it be handled by the Far Eastern commission. This commission comprises the eleven countries that fought against Japan—the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China, the Philippines, the Netherlands, Canada, Australia, India and New Zealand.

Early Action Needed

The Russian attitude may be explained largely by the fact that the veto is permitted in council proceedings, whereas it is not used in the commission.

On one thing there appears to be unanimity—the need of getting ahead with the job.

The necessity of early action was emphasized recently by General Douglas MacArthur for the second time.

On top of that the conversations in Washington last week between British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Secretary of State Acheson reached the conclusion that a Japanese treaty is long overdue.

And Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, who is heading the Russian delegation to the new United Nations meeting opening tomorrow at Lake Success, is expected to press for a Japanese treaty—to be made by the foreign ministers council.

Separate Treaties Studied

Secretary Acheson has indicated that Britain and the United States may try again to end the two-year-old deadlock over who should draft the treaty, And what if this effort fails?

As the signs now read, the question then will arise whether the Allies represented on the Far Eastern commission, headed by America and Britain, shall go ahead and make a treaty with Japan without Russia. Certainly Washington and London can't be expected to agree that far eastern countries like Australia and the Philippines, which had more to do with the Japanese war than did Russia, shall be left out of the treaty making.

This advisability of making a separate treaty has been given careful consideration and thus far there is no evidence that insuperable obstacles have been found to such a procedure. Naturally the ideal solution is a pact made jointly by all the Allied powers, but separate treaties would work.

Forms Useful Precendent

It should be easy for the Far Eastern commission (minus Russia) to agree on peace terms, since no strongly controversial issues have appeared among the other ten. With that out of the way it's difficult to see how Russia could force an unacceptable treaty on Japan by peaceful means.

As a matter of fact there is a growing feeling among close observers that in the long run separate treaties might prove to be better than a joint instrument signed by Allies who are at logger-heads on most points. And such an innovation might establish a useful precedent for breaking similar stalemates which have existed since the war.

Americans Greatly Puzzled By Distorted Jap Sense Of Humor

By EARNEST HOBERECHET
United Press Staff Writer

TOKYO, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—A great many Americans here are impressed by an apparent lack of Japanese humor., Sometimes they comment on the fact that people seem to laugh when they should be crying.

Maybe Americans just don't understand Japanese humor, Somebody once said Japanese and British laugh at the same things, while Americans and Chinese share their jokes.

The difference between American and Japanese humor often puts occupation personnel in embarrassing positions. Sometimes it can make a person right uncomfortable.

I remember one such incident. Three or four of us Americans were sitting in a tea house with some Japanese acquaintances. The conversation had drifted around to: How did you spend the war?

Shows His Burns

The first Japanese said he lived in the mountains during the war and managed to save all his personal belongings by moving them away from the areas being bombed by the B-29s.

"However," he said with a grin and a snicker, "I did get caught in Tokyo during one raid and got my arm badly burned."

He pulled up his shirt sleeve and displayed the scar. He still was grinning.

The second Japanese burst out laughing and said his house had been burned to the ground.

"I lost everything I had," he bellowed. "I was wiped out and nearly lost my life as well."

By this time, we Americans were getting a little uncomfortable. I ran my finger around my collar and then quickly turned to the third Japanese in an effort to ease the tension.

"How did you spend the war?" I asked, hoping to get on a new subject.

Lucky Until Last

"Working right here in Tokyo," he said. "I was lucky right up until the last. Then my house burned down." He paused and started laughing. He nearly went into convulsions.

Finally he caught his breath and added: "And my father and mother were burned up directly in front of my eyes while I was helpless to save them."

Obviously, this was so "funny" that the other two Japanese had to join him in his guffawing.

The Americans were silent—and completely baffled.

After a couple of extra long minutes, I started laughing too. I gave out with a real American belly laugh.

"I know just how you felt," I told the Japanese. "I felt the same way when I arrived in Hawaii in 1942 and saw our fleet on the bottom of Pearl Harbor."

HUMORIST DIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP)—Will Cuppy, 65, humorist and critic, died today. He was the author of eight books and had conducted his "mystery and adventure" department for the New York Herald-Tribune weekly book review since 1926.

Two Are Hurt In Car Wreck

LEVELLAND, Sept. 19 (Special)—Mrs. Ethel Davis, 37, of 2620 North Fifth, Lubbock, and a son, Alton, 16, today were reported recovering satisfactorily at Phillips-Dupre hospital here, where they were taken shortly after 6 p. m. Sunday when two cars overturned near Levelland.

Attendants said Mrs. Davis suffered lacerations and possible fractures of the jawbone and right ankle. Her son suffered bruises and injury to his right foot. Full extent of their injuries will not be known until x-rays are completed.

Youths Are Uninjured

The occupants of the other car, Dwayne Young, 16, of Shallowater, and Bobby Vardeman, 16, of near Shallowater, were not injured. Aubrey Lee Davis, 12, second son of Mrs. Davis, also was not injured.

Sheriff Charlie Bullock said the accident happened on the highway five miles east of town, when a car driven by Vardeman, attempted to pass the Davis car on the right side.

He said Vardeman's car, a 1946 Ford sedan, swerved back into the right side of the 1942 Chevrolet being driven by Mrs. Davis apparently after hitting soft mud on the shoulder while passing.

Alton Davis said both cars rolled over "two or three" times before ending up on the north side of the highway. Both vehicles were badly damaged, especially the tops, said Sheriff Bullock.

Mrs. Davis was rushed to the hospital in Levelland by Daniel Boone, bonded patrolman, who was near the scene of the accident.

Alton Davis said they were returning home after having visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Davis, of Levelland.

AFTER a decade of research to discover effective anti-decay formula

Amm-i-dent's scientists studied the human mouth, learned that the acid-producing bacteria (Lactobacillus acidophilus) always present in cases of decay, could be reduced by Carbamide and Dibasic Ammonium Phosphate.

AFTER years of experiments with patients using exclusive Amm-i-dent formula

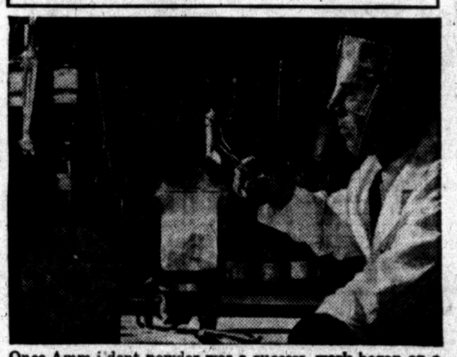

Mrs. Rose Kovel and family
8310-12 35th Avenue
Jackson Heights, L. I., N. Y.

A large group of patients, like the Kovels, tested new formula for 3 years. Results: 87% reduction in decay for Mrs. Kovell 64% for daughter! No cavities yet for boys. Average for group tested: 43.5% reduction.

AFTER months of testing with anti-decay ingredients in toothpaste form

Once Amm-i-dent powder was a success, work began on a toothpaste. Tests proved that Amm-i-dent Toothpaste could stand extreme heat, cold, moisture—without hurting anti-decay content. Now, it's here—safe and effective!

Genuine Amm-i-dent
Ammoniated Toothpaste
IS HERE TO REDUCE TOOTH DECAY!

FIGHTS TOOTH DECAY AND CLEANS SUPERBLY

You'll be delighted with the sparkling smile Amm-i-dent gives you. It cuts through film and food deposits—leaves your teeth bright and clean! Your mouth will feel cleaner—look cleaner—with Amm-i-dent!

FIGHTS TOOTH DECAY AND CHECKS BAD BREATH

Kiss with confidence, when you've brushed your teeth with Amm-i-dent. Amm-i-dent's powerful cleansing action strikes at important causes of bad breath—keeps you "nice-to-be-near"!

FIGHTS TOOTH DECAY AND TASTES DELIGHTFUL

People who have tried it say, "My mouth never felt so clean!" It's a grand "wake-up" toothpaste; refreshing, invigorating, delightful to taste—and you can rinse after using without destroying anti-decay ingredients.

At Last—A Reliable Ammoniated Toothpaste To Help Prevent Cavities!

It's great news for those who are waiting for a toothpaste to help reduce tooth decay!

Here it is—Amm-i-dent Toothpaste, the first genuine ammoniated toothpaste made from the famous Amm-i-dent Tooth Powder formula. Now, you and your children can fight tooth decay every time you brush your teeth—with this delightful anti-decay toothpaste.

Two ingredients in Amm-i-dent help prevent cavities—Carbamide (Synthetic Urea) and Dibasic Ammonium Phosphate. They eliminate great numbers of the acid-producing bacteria (Lactobacillus acidophilus) always present in cases of decay.

Remember—this fine toothpaste is backed by the makers of Amm-i-dent Tooth Powder, one of the world's largest selling tooth powders. No other toothpaste manufacturer has Amm-i-dent's experience with anti-decay research. That's why Amm-i-dent was able to bring you the first ammoniated tooth powder and now, the first genuine ammoniated toothpaste from that formula.

Maybe you're among those who want protection against decay for your family, but have been waiting for an ammoniated toothpaste. Maybe you're now using ammoniated tooth powder, but prefer paste. Either way, there's no reason to delay. Get genuine Amm-i-dent ammoniated toothpaste, today, for the whole family!

Remember—Amm-i-dent Toothpaste cannot help cavities already formed. Nor does it mean you will never have a cavity again. However, it is a simple and effective way to help reduce occurrence of new cavities.

Dukes Shade Gold Sox, 7-6

Teams Move To Amarillo Park

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 19. (Special)—The Albuquerque Dukes, two games up on the Amarillo Gold Sox in the final Shaughnessy playoff series, today move to the Texas city for the next three—and possibly final—games of the set.

The Dukes made sure of a wide margin by taking a thrilling 13-inning victory over the Sox here last night, 7 to 6. It was a dog-cat-dog game all the way, with 12 errors—eight of them by Albuquerque—marring the contest.

Butler Gets Single

Southpaw Virgil Butler, who went the route, finally gained the victory by smashing a line single to center that scored Catcher Jim Fiscalini easily from second base. The base knock enabled the Duke lefthander to outpoint Ray Faust, who allowed the winners only eight hits, compared to 13 that Butler yielded.

Tonight another southpaw, Tom Breisinger, will take the mound for the Dukes, with Manager Buck Fausett sending Steve Lagomarsino to the hill for the Sox.

Faust Is Loser

In the 13th, Albuquerque scored the winning run with one out. Fiscalini singled through the box, advanced to second on Len Attyd's attempted sacrifice, the third baseman beating the throw for a single, and both runners went up a notch on Ray Hamrick's sacrifice. Butler proceeded to lash out his hit to win the game.

It was a tough one for Faust to lose. He had fanned 11 men, walked only five and allowed only four hits until the bottom of the 12th.

Junior College Loop Slates Title Games

(By The Associated Press)

The boys start playing for keeps in the Southwestern junior college conference this week.

Two games counting in the championship race are scheduled Thursday night.

Lamar of Beaumont, a title favorate, plays Schreiner at Kerrville. Last week Lamar strapped Wharton, champion of the Texas junior college conference 33-13 while Schreiner was losing to Victoria of the South Texas junior college conference 21-13.

Tyler and Tarleton State get together at Tyler in one of the season features. Tyler now looks like the best team in the league. The Apaches last week whammed McNeese of Lake Charles, La., always a strong outfit and the only team able to beat Wharton last year, 27-7.

Tarleton State tramped Clifton of the Texas junior college conference 34-13.

In other games this week-end Kilgore entertains the Cameron Aggies and Paris is host to Henderson county Thursday night. Friday night Arlington State meets East Texas State freshmen at Arlington and Saturday night San Angelo goes to Odessa.

Kilgore, Tarleton State, Lamar and Tyler are undefeated and untied for the season. San Angelo has been tied.

HURRICANES CHAMPS

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 19. (AP)—Stephen (Laddie) Sanford's Hurricanes are the U. S. open polo champions for a second straight year. Sparked by 10-goal Cecil Smith, the Hurricanes administered a crushing 10-4 setback yesterday to the El Trebol team of Argentina at the Meadowbrook club.

Wake Forest Will Test SMU's Eleven

(By The Associated Press)

Everybody gets into the act this week in Southwest conference football and for four of the seven teams its opening night.

Texas and Texas Christian rate raves for a first performance, but the critics had a unanimous opinion of Texas A. and M. It flopped.

Blair Cherry's Longhorns of Texas walloped Texas Tech, 43-0, but meet a tougher foe in Temple this week at Philadelphia.

Texas Christian came through with a 28-0 victory over Kansas and the size of the score was the only surprise. The Frogs play Oklahoma A. and M. at Fort Worth this week.

Texas Aggies Lose

Texas A. and M. hoped to end its long string of defeats, ended in taking one of the worst in the school's history, a 35-0 affair at the hands of Villanova. The Aggies meet Texas Tech Saturday at San Antonio.

Southern Methodist, Rice, Baylor and Arkansas open play Saturday and some of the opposition is pretty tough.

Defending champion Southern Methodist meets Wake Forest at Dallas and the word from North Carolina is the Deacons are determined and extremely capable.

Baylor, a real darkhorse in the Southwest circuit, entertains South Carolina at Waco; Rice is host to Clemson at Houston and Arkansas meets North Texas State at Little Rock.

You could say that Arkansas has the only "breather" on this schedule.

Texas Shows Speed

All of the games with the exception of Texas' are at night.

Texas flashed speed and what looks like a fine passing attack in smothering Texas Tech. But the victory didn't answer one important question.

Will Paul Campbell or Bobby Coy Lee call the signals in conference competition?

Both played about the same amount, and both looked good.

Texas' crop of sophomores, including Byron Townsend of Odessa, showed lots of promise.

Lindy Berry, as usual, sparked the Texas Christian attack, but he may get a little help this year. John Morton, big junior college transfer, played a fine game at fullback.

Kansas was bewildered by Dutch Meyer's triple wing and his single and double wing "fuzz" left the Jayhawks just as blank.

Villanova beat Texas A. and M. period. Aggie mistakes, especially fumbles, aided no end.

Glen Lippmann, the touted schoolboy ace, never had a chance to cut loose. He did give a hint he might if given a break.

Waco Pirates Loop Winners

(By The Associated Press)

Waco is champion of the Big State baseball league.

The Pirates, fourth place club in the regular season, beat Texarkana for the title, 5-4, yesterday in dramatic fashion.

Johnny McKeown homered with Bud Upright on base to tie the score in the ninth inning. Then, in the tenth, Upright singled to bring Clarence Pfeil all the way home from first with the winning run.

Pirates Cop Title

The Pirates won the final Shaughnessy playoff, four games to one.

A crowd of 3,392 watched Waco come from behind to win.

The Pirates had gone ahead in the first inning. Hal Haddican and Skip Baas singled and Gibbs got on through an error which allowed Haddigan to score.

Milan Vucelich's double and Bob Hyatt's single evened the score for Texarkana in the fourth.

Upright's home run in the seventh sent Waco out in front, but Texarkana broke loose for three runs in the eighth inning. Szekely and Bill Sinton walked. Frank Carswell sacrificed and Vucelich doubled Szekely and Sinton across the plate. Matthews' single scored Vucelich.

JERSEY CITY WINS

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 19. (AP)—Jersey City is still kicking in the International league playoffs today. The Little Giants, reeling under three straight beatings, responded gamely yesterday to nip Buffalo, 4-3, and extend their series at least one more day. Buffalo leads in games, 3-1.

A filly, Ruthless, won the first running of the Belmont Stakes in 1867.

Quarterback Club To Meet Tonight

The second regular 1949 meeting of the local Quarterback club will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in Hotel Lubbock.

President Paul Cates, in announcing the meeting, emphasized that all interested persons, whether Matador club members or not, are urged to attend.

Coaches Dell Morgan, of Texas Tech, and Pat Pattison, of the Lubbock Westerners, will speak at tonight's session, which also will feature movies of this year's Tech-ACC game.

Raiders Given Warm Welcome

Lubbock turned up the welcome mat for Texas Tech's football team yesterday when the Red Raiders rolled into the city from Austin, where Saturday they had absorbed a 43-0 defeat at the hands of Texas.

Two police cars, with sirens screaming, met the T. N. M. & O. bus carrying the Red Raider squad on the outskirts of Lubbock and conducted them through the city to Jones Stadium. Over 100 persons, including President D. M. Wiggins, Matador club members, exes and freshmen, welcomed the tired players.

Davis Is Injured

It was in contrast to the gloomy welcome expected and gave the players more determination than ever to gain revenge at the expense of Texas A & M this week in San Antonio.

End Jack Davis of Littlefield, a sophomore, was the only serious Red Raider casualty. Davis wrenched his right ankle badly late in the game, but it was not broken as originally feared. He was taken from the field during the third quarter and an ambulance carried him to Brackenridge hospital during the fourth quarter. X-rays revealed no break and there is a possibility that he will play Saturday.

Raider players were worn out by the heat and the bruising play Saturday and the trip home was relatively quiet. Several had face cuts and bruises, but the biggest worry was the number of players suffering from chest and head colds. Trainer Mason Gorby is attempting to relieve the condition before too much time has elapsed.

Today's practice session is expected to be light, with emphasis given to conditioning after the rough weekend and report on the Villanova-Texas Aggies game by Coaches Polk Robison and Tipp Mooney.

Howard Payne Meets A. And I. In Clash

(By The Associated Press)

Howard Payne and Texas A. & I. blast open Texas conference play this week in the feature game of a sparse, three tilt schedule.

It will be the first game of the season for A. & I., starting its first year as a member of the conference.

Howard Payne has won one and lost one, winning over Louisiana Tech, 22-19, last week.

McMurry, which lost a wild 26-27 decision to Tulsa last week, tackles West Texas State Saturday night while Southwestern, which battled Southwest Texas State to a scoreless draw, meets Sam Houston State.

Abilene Christian easily downed Oklahoma Tech, 34-7, and takes a week off.

Austin college lost its first game under new Coach Ray Morrison, 0-30, to Southwestern Louisiana Institute and is also idle this week.

The record for the final 18 holes of the U. S. Open golf championship is 66, made by Gene Sarazen in 1932.

Final Playoff Series Carded

It will be Denver City against Post in the Oil Belt baseball league finals.

The two teams yesterday won their first-round playoff series with Seagraves and Sundown, respectively, and will meet in the opener of the two-of-three game finals Sunday at Denver City. The final game, or games, if two are needed, will be played the following Sunday at Post.

Split Twin Bill

Denver City and Post, which a week ago had won the first game in their respective series, each split a doubleheader yesterday to clinch their berths in the finals.

Post fell before Sundown, 10-7, in the opener, but blasted across 11 runs in the first inning of the nightcap and waltzed on to a 13-8 before 500 fans at Post.

At Seagraves, Denver City dropped a 5-4 verdict in the first game, then came back with a 5-2 win in the finale to take the series.

District Games Slated

Crosbyton To Test Lockney

Conference competition highlights this week's South Plains schoolboy football program.

With the early-season, inter-district jousting now out of the way, area grid teams Friday night launch a full-scale conference docket. Seventeen of the 25 games on the week's schedule will be district engagements—nine in Class A and eight in Class B.

Pioneers At Meadow

One game, Lubbock Pioneers at Meadow, is set for Thursday night. All others are Friday night encounters.

Plainview, after losing to Fort Worth's Poly last Saturday, will try to spoil Lamesa's perfect 1949 record at Lamesa this week. Coach Dub Harris' Bulldogs from District 1-AA will be underdogs against the 3-AA Lamesans, who haven't yielded a score in two games against Class A opposition.

Two other area representatives in 3-AA are in action this week. Lubbock, after an impressive debut against Childress, plays host to North Side of Fort Worth. Brownfield, idle last week, journeys to Big Spring.

There will be a full docket of conference competition in District 3-A. The feature battle sends Crosbyton to Lockney for a game that may eventually help decide the district title. Crosbyton opened its season with a 2-1 penetrations triumph over Tulia in a scoreless deadlock last week, while Lockney barely squeezed through to a 20-19 decision over rebounding Sudan.

Other 3-A tilts find unbeaten, untied Floydada at Ralls, Tulia at Spur and Abernathy at Matador. Paducah, the ninth conference member, gets a rest.

Sundown is at Levelland in the only district encounter in 4-A North, and the winner of this one will be favored to scrap it out later with Littlefield and Sudan for conference honors. Littlefield, back in stride after an opening-game loss, is at O'Donnell this week, Sudan goes to Hereford, and Muleshoe is host to Slaton.

District 4-A South also lists one conference game, Seagraves at Post. Post, the defending bi-district champ, has yet to win a game this season, having tied Ralls and lost to Floydada. Seagraves has played only once, drubbing the Big Spring "B" squad, 24-0.

South Plains representatives in District 5-A draw tough assignments this week. Andrews, after losing by 26-13 to Pecos last week, takes on Wink at Andrews. Seminole journeys to Pecos, and Denver City goes to Crane. All these are conference affairs.

Snyder, in District 6-A, has an open date.

Five conference games round out a full slate in 3-B. The feature pits Dimmitt against Springlake at Springlake, with the victor automatically to become a top favorite for the district crown. Other games are Soade at Anton, Olton at Amherst, Friona at Hale Center and Whitharral at Farwell.

New Deal goes to Whiteface for an important 4-B engagement. Other conference tilts in this circuit are Cooper at Idalou and Petersburg at Plains. Meadow, as mentioned earlier, is host to the Lubbock Pioneers on Thursday night, while Ropesville and Frenship have open dates.

Last week's results:

Poly (Fort Worth) 18, Plainview 7; Lubbock 47, Childress 0; Lamesa 20, Seminole 0; Abernathy 13, Slaton 6; Matador 7, Silverton 0; Crosbyton 0, Tulia 0 (3-A conf.; Crosbyton won on penetrations, 2-1); Ralls 20, Tahoka 0; Lockney 20, Sudan 19; Floydada 13, Post 6; Crowell 12, Paducah 0; Hamlin 28, Spur 0; Sundown 20, O'Donnell 0; Portales, N. ONLY 36 TEAMS UNDEFEATED

Austin Hailed As Top Title Threat

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Texas schoolboy football race rolls through its third week with only one-third of the original field boasting undefeated, untied records.

Just 36 schools remain without blemishes, eight of them in the City conference and 28 in Class AA.

There will be further trimming this week, probably to well under 30.

Maroons Top-Rated

Austin's Maroons loom largest on the horizon today! They showed conclusively they are the top-runners of Class AA last week by beating defending champion Waco 21-7. It was the first loss Waco had suffered since 1947.

Amarillo's Golden Sandies started the campaign like a whirlwind, smashing Denton 56-13, and Wichita Falls indicated it would be a power to be reckoned with through a 32-6 victory over highly-regarded Denison.

The twin terrors of the west—Breckenridge and Abilene—dealt stinging blows to the City conference. Breck licked Paschal (Fort Worth) 27-6 and Abilene whipped Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) 27-12. But Class AA took a blow itself when Texarkana, which had been mentioned prominently as a contender for the state title, went down 6-0 before Lamar of Houston. Lamar is not even regarded as the top team in its City conference district.

Port Arthur Wins

Port Arthur beat the strong Fortier team of New Orleans to remain among the top-considered teams.

Baytown was another team that flashed to the fore. The Ganders massacred Conroe 47-6.

Conference play starts this week in one district of the City conference. It is District 4 where Alamo Heights (San Antonio) plays Lanier (San Antonio) in a game counting in the title standings.

Games Are Listed

Feature games of this week, however, will be Abilene at Amarillo and Breckenridge at Wichita Falls. Several undefeated, untied teams meet as Crozier Tech (Dallas) plays Lamar (Houston) in an intra-City conference struggle. Milby (Houston) tackles Port Arthur and Jeff Davis (Houston) plays Freeport in inter-division scraps in which the teams boast perfect records.

Unbeaten, untied Class AA teams playing each other are Pampa and El Paso High and Waxahachie and Corpus Christi.

Teams with perfect records to date are:

City conference — Crozier Tech and Sunset of Dallas, Poly of Fort Worth and Milby, Jeff Davis, John Reagan, Lamar and San Jacinto of Houston.

Big Spring Blasts San Angelo, 6 To 2

(By The Associated Press)

Big Spring needs just one more victory over San Angelo to move into the finals of the Longhorn league's championship playoff.

The Broncs yesterday beat San Angelo, 6-2, for their third straight win in the best four-out-of-seven game series.

Midland, which leads Vernon two games to one, and the Dusters were idle yesterday. They play again tonight at Vernon. Big Spring is at San Angelo.

Three hits, a walk and two errors gave Big Spring four runs in the third inning. Carlos Paschal's single scored two of them.

Felix Gomez hit a two-run homer for the Broncs in the seventh.

A walk, triple by Julio Moreno and a single by Red Cowley produced two runs for San Angelo in the ninth.

Gladewater To Seek Win Over Kilgore

(By The Associated Press)

Gladewater tries tonight for its third straight victory over Kilgore in the East Texas league's championship series.

The Bears yesterday beat the Drillers, 7-1, to take a two games to none lead in the best four-out-of-seven game series.

Five walks by Jake Christie helped Gladewater to an early lead and Vernon Washington's two-run homer sparked a four-run outburst in the eighth inning.

A single and Nick Gregory's double produced Kilgore's only tally, in the sixth inning.

CHANDLER TO APPEAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (AP)—Baseball's Commissioner, A. B. Chandler, appears today on federal subpoena to be asked the business secrets of the national game. He is summoned for an "examination on the complaint" preliminary to trial of Danny Gardella's $300,000 suit against baseball.

Red Sox Slam Chisox, 11-5

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The outstanding feature of the New York Yankee pennant drive, aside from Joe Page's sterling relief exploits, is the uncanny way that Manager Casey Stengel's substitutes have come through for the injured front-liners.

Although plagued with over 60 injuries, the Yanks have paced the American league since opening day. Many times the outlook was bleak but the Yanks huffe adnd puffed their way to calmer seas.

The Yankee man of the hour is Hank Bauer, speedy strong-armed outfielder.

Bauer Paces Win

Joe DiMaggio, who missed the first 65 games of the season, reported at game time yesterday with a high fever. The clipper, only regular hitting over .300, was scratched from the lineup and Bauer installed.

Bauer brought a hot bat into action and powered the Yanks to a 7-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. The triumph preserved the Yanks' two and one-half game lead over the Boston Red Sox, who mauled the Chicago White Sox, 11-5.

Bauer, in sick bay the past two weeks with a torn muscle, drove home three runs. He doubled Charley Keller home in the third to snap a 3-3 tie and then clinched the game with a two-run triple in the seventh.

Raschi Is Victim

Vic Raschi started for the Yanks and was the victim of one of the wierdest first innings in the memory of Yankee stadium patrons.

Ralph Buxton, Hugh Casey and Page followed 19-game winner Raschi. Casey gained credit for his first American league triumph but Page, Casey's 1947 World Series foe; was needed to save the game.

The Red Sox met no resistance from Chicago. The Boston wrecking crew, led by Ted Williams, rammed nine runs across the plate in the first two innings.

Williams blasted two homers, his 39th and 40th of the season, and drove home six runs to boost his pace-setting runs batted in total to 153. Vern Stephens chipped in with his 39th four-bagger. The heavy hitting allowed Ellis Kinder to coast to his 11th straight victory and 21st of the season.

Cards Beat Phils

Solid hitting also sparked the National league's front-running St. Louis Cardinals to a 15-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Home runs by Ron Northey, Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter featured an 18-hit onslaught.

The messacre of the Phils protected the Cards' two and one half game edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Dodgers tamed the Chicago Cubs, 7-1, but it was a squeaker until the eighth when the Dogders tallied four runs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants divided a double-header, the Giants taking the opener, 13-4, and the Pirates the nightcap, 7-2. Ralph Kiner of the Pirates failed to hit in either game.

The Cincinnati Reds edged the Boston Braves, 7-6 in the first game of a bargain bill. The second was called after nine innings because of darkness with the score deadlocked at 1-1.

Philadelphia and Detroit swept both games in the only American league twin bill. The A's dumped the St. Louis Browns, 7-5 and 7-4, and the Tigers brushed by Washington, 3-2, and 5-2.

Loop Winners Divide Pair

RALLS, Sept. 19 (Special) — Ralls and Wolfforth, representatives of the Cottonbelt and Cotton Belt leagues respectively, split a twin-bill here yesterday in a baseball exhibition.

Ralls won the first contest, a 13-inning battle, 4 to 3, and Wolfforth took the second game, 5 to 4, in five innings.

Wolfforth got off to an early start in the first contest, scoring two runs in the second frame before Ralls bounced back with two in the fifth. A one-run sixth inning put the Wolves ahead, but Ralls rallied with one in the seventh, and the next five innings were scoreless.

In the 13th frame W. Houchin, the winning pitcher, reached first on an error, went to second when Pitcher Jess Collard errored on a bunt, and scored when Collard threw into centerfield on pickoff play.

Collard struckout 12 batters, hit two and gave up no walks. Houchin struckout four and walked one.

The Wolves were the victims of questionable umpiring which caused conflict throughout the first game.

For the Wolves French made three hits, Bill Petree two, Collard two and Spear two.

Darkness cut short the second contest after five innings. French was the winner and struckout nine, issuing three walks, and Blagg was the loser, being relieved by Nicholas.

French tripled twice for the winners, and Walter Bumpass and Damper Weaver singled, with Spear tripling.

Jester had three for three for Ralls, a single and two doubles, and Blair homered in the third with one on base.

PUEBLO NINE WINS

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 19. (AP)—Superior clutch hitting powered Pueblo to a 9-4 win over Des Moines last night in the Western league final playoffs. The triumph gave Pueblo a 2-0 lead in their best of seven series for the Governor's cup.

RIEGEL IS FAVORITE

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Robert (Skee) Riegel was the natural favorite in the western amateur golf tournament today but at least a half dozen competitors stood a good chance of knocking him off. Riegel is the defending champion.

Walter Johnson struck out 3,497 batters in his 21 years with the Washington Senators—an average of better than 166 a season.

More than 600 harness racing tracks held meetings during 1948.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

AUSTIN—Sunday morning in Longhorn Lodge. When we finally get up enough courage to lift the roof a bare crack to look out of the storm cellar, we see the sun shining. That's funny. The sun was shining Saturday afternoon, too. It's incredible, a freak of nature. A storm of such immense proportions, yet the sun shines through it all. Changing bath towels and throwing the sweat-soaked one we were wearing away, we gingerly step forth, expecting to be scorned. We imagine mothers hustling their progeny into the safety of houses as we approach. We expect merchants to close their doors to us. Passing cars probably will try to run us down. And oh, that long, long trip back to Lubbock and explanations.

Explanations? What explanations? As Coach Dell Morgan said so bluntly and accurately . . . "We just got the H—— stomped out of us. They whipped us good." They, meaning the Texas university football team, did just that. They whipped Texas Tech to a fare-thee-well. In fact, we doubt if the Red Raiders return to Lubbock. They'll just call off the rest of the schedule and wait until another year. In fact, maybe we'll all join the Foreign Legion. That includes Red Stewart, TNM & O bus driver, who is cranking up the bus right now. Hey, Red, turn off that motor. We ain't going anywhere. What? Back to Lubbock? Let's wait until it's dark! Please don't slug me officer, I'll go peacefully. Strait jacket? Yes, please . . . please . . . please.

So much for the lightness in respect to the Texas Tech-Texas game here Saturday when the Longhorns handed the Raiders the worst defeat in their football history. Now for the game. The Raiders not only were beaten by Texas, they beat themselves. Against a good team you can't afford to make mistakes and Tech made a lot of them. And surprisingly enough it wasn't the sophomores, for the most part, making the most costly mistakes. There were a couple of bad passes from center that gave Texas nine points. There was a bad play as decision on a kickoff that cost the Raiders seven more. There was a costly slip that cost them seven more. There were two other fumbles, one of which cost the Raiders a touchdown and one which led to another Texas score.

Don't get the misunderstanding that we think Tech might have won the game. They wouldn't have, even if they hadn't made mistakes, but the mistakes cost them heavily. If the Raiders had held onto the ball in the third quarter drive, we're convinced that they would have scored. In fact, we think that the final score might have been 21-7, or 28-7. Certainly, Coach Blar Cherry left his first and second teams in much longer than he believed he would have to and it was interesting to note that on two or three occasions he was using his first string against Tech's second—with the Raiders able to penetrate the Longhorn line under those conditions.

The cold analysis of the game left the vivid impression in our mind that Texas wasn't as powerful as the score indicated. They looked sharp at times, but at other times they looked very bad. In short, they looked like a team that was building, that hadn't jelled, that gave indications of clicking later and of being mighty, mighty tough to beat. Byron Townsend didn't show to good advantage despite scoring two touchdowns, one of which was called back for clipping, and on a long kickoff return. Ray Borneman virtually was stopped on all but his four-yard touchdown plunge. Bubba Shands didn't look too good. Paul

PAPERS ARE REHIRING PRINTERS

ITU Accepts $10 Weekly Wage Hike To End 22-Month Strike

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—The 22-month printer strike against Chicago's five major daily newspapers came to an end yesterday with union acceptance of a $10 weekly wage boost.

The 1,500 members of the International Typographical Union's local ratified by a vote of 1,287 to 279 the terms reached last Wednesday by union and publisher representatives after 135 negotiating meetings.

"I am absolutely convinced beyond the shadow of a doubt that it is all we can get at this time," said local president John J. Pilch in urging acceptance of the agreement. "It would take months more of struggle to obtain more money."

He told the strikers that "the fundamentals of the ITU are preserved in this contract, whereas they weren't in the March 10 proposal." The proposal of March 10 was the last submitted to the union prior to yesterday's terms.

When the printers struck on Nov. 24, 1947, they demanded a $14.50 weekly pay boost. They were also required to surrender some other demands which the publishers and a federal court held to be in violation of Taft-Hartley labor law provisions.

The newspapers which continued publication throughout the strike by means of a photo-engraving process, said they expected to make the shift back to type-set production within 21 days. They planned to start rehiring printers today. The papers are the Herald-American, Daily News, Sun-Times, Tribune, and Journal of Commerce.

All strikers who report within 15 days after notification will retain seniority privileges.

The new wage scale will be $95.50 for a 36¼ hour week of day work, $101.50 for 36¼ hours of night shift, and $101 for a 30-hour week on the midnight shift.

"We have done all in our power to bring you the best contract that is compatible with the laws of the ITU, the Taft-Hartley law, and the federal court injunction," Pilch told the union. "It's up to you whether to continue the strike for one, two, three or four more dollars." But, he added, "it is better to accept now than to drag the strike into the winter months."

One member of the union spoke up: "We don't like the lousy 10 dollars, but as good fighters we know when we're licked. We can take it as well as dish it out."

Pilch commented, however, that "I don't regard that we are licked."

Closed Shop Banned

During the long negotiations, the strike issues were in and out of the National Labor Relations board and federal district court.

Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert at Hammond, Ind., held that the union was in violation of the Taft-Hartley law in insisting upon a closed shop and granted an injunction against it.

The new contract includes neither closed shop nor union shop provisions. A union shop, which is legal under some conditions, provides that non-union members may be hired but that they must join the union within a specified time.

However, union spokesmen said the new contract is "as close as we could get" into a union shop. It sets up new regulations for hiring which will be administered by union foremen.

The settlement was described as "welcome news" by Elbert M. Antrim, president of the Chicago Newspaper Publishers' association, and business manager of the Tribune.

"Chicago newspaper publishers are satisfied with the contract," he said. "There is no double talk in it. We are assured it fully complies with the law. We hope and believe it will furnish the basis for a lasting, peaceful relationship between the printers and the Chicago newspapers."

Steel Dispute

service a telegram saying he would not attend the meeting because his contract with the union does not expire until Oct. 15.

In the meantime, Kaiser said, "it is our expectation that we will be able to negotiate a mutually satisfactory agreement."

Ching asked the industry and union leaders to come in for a talk as a result of their deadlocked attitudes toward a presidential fact-finding board's recommendations in the steel labor dispute.

Murray accepted the board's proposals even though there was no wage increase for steelworkers. U. S. Steel agreed only to meet with the union and talk about the board's proposals.

In advance of the board's report, there was an understanding that its recommendations would not be binding on management or the union.

Ching's efforts will be closely watched by President Truman. The White House was reported to be ready to intervene again if necessary after Ching's talks.

What the President would do beyond applying more pressure on Murray and U. S. Steel President Benjamin F. Fairless, remained a matter of speculation.

No Secret Formula

Those involved in the government's peace making efforts say they have no secret formula for settlement, nor does President Truman.

The fact finding board proposed a 10 cent package, consisting of about six cents an hour per man for pensions and four cents for social insurance.

Fairless said his company, which usually leads the way in the industry, would agree to up to four cents an hour for social insurance but balked at the company bearing the entire cost of pensions and insurance as suggested by the fact finding board.

Daily Market Report

Stock Market

MARKET CLOSES LOWER

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — The stock market closed a little lower today after accepting news of British devaluation with considerable calm.

A fast few minutes of selling immediately after the opening put prices down fractions to a point or more. The balance of the session was devoted to a pretty successful attempt to repair the damage.

Losses were either trimmed or wiped out, and a handful of leading shares wandered into the minus column.

Business was brisker than usual, with turnover at the rate of about 1,300,000 shares for the full session.

Gold stocks advanced, as they did on Canadian exchanges and in London.

The wholly unexpected news of devaluation created a favorable impression in Wall street. Most observers interpreted the move as a contribution to freer, and more realistic, international trading.

Devaluation, however, as well as the coal walk-out and the touchy stage of steel contract negotiations, inspired a large degree of caution among traders.

Down most of the time, but well above the lows for the day, were Santa Fe, Nickel Plate, Southern Railway, Standard Oil (NJ), United Air Lines, U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodyear, Douglas Aircraft, Schenley, American Telephone, Kennecott Copper, Philip Morris and International Paper.

Leaning ahead were Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, United Aircraft, International Telephone, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse Electric, Southern Pacific and Johns-Manville.

Foreign dollar issues tended a bit higher in the bond market. Railroad stocks moved irregularly. U. S. governments held firm in over-the-counter dealings.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — Cotton futures were easy today in slow trading. News of the devaluation of several foreign currencies brough in an early flurry of selling, but the market later rallied partially on mill buying and short covering. Most traders felt that the currency changes would not have much effect on the cotton situation since most of the cotton exports are being financed through ECA dollars and other government programs.

The Bureau of Census reported August cotton consumption at 884,125 bales which was slightly lower than trade expectations of 875,000 bales.

Late afternoon prices were 10 to 30 cents a bale lower than the previous close. Oct. 29.88, Dec. 29.69 and March 29.65.

Cotton futures weakened in late dealings on increased New Orleans and commission house selling which more than offset a good demand coming through mills.

Futures closed 50 to 70 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP) — British devaluation of the pound caused selling and considerable nervousness in grain futures today.

Prices dropped rather sharply. Wheat was off more than 2 cents at times, corn more than a cent and soybeans 4 cents.

Traders believed the British action might mean fewer U. S. grain exports. They also thought that lower prices for raw materials generally might result eventually in lower parity prices for grains.

Wheat closed ⅞ to 2¾ cents lower than the previous finish. September $2.08⅝, corn was down ⅝ to 1¼, September $1.26½, oats were off ½ to ⅞, September 67¾, rye was 3 to 4½ cents lower, September $1.42, soybeans were down 3½ to 4¼ cents, November $2.28-$2.27¾, and lard was 13 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $11.97.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Sept. 19 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 2.30¾-36¾.
Oats No. 2 white 85¼-86¼.
Corn No. 2 white 1.54-55½.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 2.21-26.

collective strategy, when each nation is capable of its own defense as part of a collective strategic plan."

The Atlantic defense setup, which was blueprinted here Saturday by the 12-nation council of foreign ministers, gives the United States a dominant role. State department officials said other countries insisted it should be that way—an evident recognition of predominant United States military power and its importance as a source of military assistance for the other alliance members.

Acheson First Chairman

The foreign ministers, in organizing themselves into a council, chose Secretary of State Acheson as their first chairman to serve a year. They then established a 12-nation defense committee, to be composed of defense ministers of the member countries. For the defense committee, which will meet here Oct. 5, the council laid out a blueprint of the military planning machinery under it.

The central piece of that machinery is to be a military committee, composed of the chiefs of staff of each of the 12 countries or their representatives. The United States has three chiefs of staff — army, navy and air—but Bradley is their chairman. He is therefore the only man qualified to speak official for all of them.

Dog Show

which is sponsored by the South Plains Cocker Spaniel Specialty club.

Both today's and Tuesday's shows are licensed by the American Kennel club and are attracting exhibitors from throughout the country.

Exceeding expectations, the shows are attracting so many persons from outside of Lubbock that waiting lists of reservations have been set up at both Hilton and Lubbock hotels and most of the tourist court rooms have been reserved.

390 Are Entered

Tuesday's first annual All-Breed Dog show, in which 390 dogs of many breeds have been entered, will be sponsored by the Heart of the Plains Kennel club. Judging will be conducted from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. The show will open at 8 a. m.

Members of the public going by 7 p. m. Tuesday will see the Children's Handling class and also will see the winning dogs of the various groups as they are judged for best in show.

In the Children's Handling class, children will show dogs entered in regular classes of the show. Quality of dogs will not be considered, judging being based on ability of the child as to handling and showing the dog.

A comedy feature also will be presented Tuesday night.

Admission price to the Cocker show will be 50 cents. Tickets to all-breed show will be 60 cents.

Member sof the American Business club have set up a ticket booth in the lobby of Hilton hotel to sell tickets today and Tuesday for the all-breed show. Tickets to both shows also may be purchased at the atletic building, which may be reached from Lubbock by going five miles north on Plainview highway and going eastward one mile from the highway. Signs will direct motorists to the show scenes.

Two show rings have been set up and bleachers have been moved into the athletic building.

WINNERS CHOSEN AT AMARILLO EXHIBITION

Several Lubbock dogs won ribbons Sunday in Amarillo at the all-breed dog show, which was the first of five shows in the West Texas Dog Show circuit.

Cramer's Duke of Paradise, a Brittany Pointing Spaniel owned by R. J. Cramer of 2426 Twenty-ninth, took all the honors for Brittany Spaniels. It won four ribbons.

Zada's Queen Vistoria, a black Cocker Spaniel owned by Mrs. G. C. Beard, was judged best black bitch among Cockers and won two points toward championship. The dog previously had won two points in another show.

Coleta's Dardanella, black female Cocker owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Paschall of 1520 Twenty-sixth, was reserve winner in the Cocker black bitch group.

Silver Flash, Weimaraner owned by W. C. Boyd of 2114 Twenty-seventh, won first place for best of variety and won second place in best of breed judging.

All three dogs are to be entered in the four other all-breed shows in the circuit this week. The next will be held in Lubbock Tuesday. Others are to held in Odessa, Thursday; San Angelo, Saturday, and Abilene, Sunday.

Deadline For Election Near

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—Last-minute filing of petitions today indicated there will be considerable competition among candidates for election to the state board of education Nov. 8.

One of the candidates will be Grover Sellers, former attorney general and aspirant to the office of governor in 1946.

With midnight tonight the deadline for candidates to file with the secretary of state for a place on the ballot, 16 of the 21 congressional districts had two or more persons entered.

Three of the latest applicants failed to submit loyalty affidavits, one of the requirements for approval of candidacies.

Seller's bid for election from congressional district No. 1 gives that area two candidates. The Sulphur Springs man will be opposed by Leon Coker of Naples.

Member Asks Reelection

Other new candidates include the following by districts:

District 2—A. D. Moore, Beaumont, and Millard Matkin, Center. No loyalty affidavit had been received from Matkin this morning.

District 4—Roy G. Baker, Sherman, no loyalty affidavit received. He is former president of the national Young Democratic clubs.

District 5—William C. Graves, Dallas.

District 6—Jack R. Hawkins, Groesbeck.

District 7—Mrs. T. G. Tilford, Nacogdoches.

District 8—Roy J. Beard and Jack Binion, both of Houston. Binion is a member of the present, appointive state board of education.

District 9—George Duncan, Alvin, and Mrs. Joe A. Wessenfort, Richmond.

Other Candidates Named

District 12—Dr. W. B. Garrison, Fort Worth.

District 14—Neal B. Marriott, Corpus Christi, and Miller Harwood, Taft.

District 15—Paul G. Greenwood, Harlingen.

District 16—Herman (Heinie) Rosch, El Paso.

District 18—John H. Harnly, Miami.

District 19—J. M. Rankins, Ralls, no loyalty affidavit received.

al commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross, expressed his personal belief that 90 per cent of the 84 passengers still unaccounted for would be found "safe at home in the United States. Most of the ship's 511 passengers were Americans.

Long lines of grief-stricken relatives sought, meanwhile, to make identificaions among the blackened corpses laid out in an improvised morgue, formerly used as an exhibition building.

By early today only 36 bodies had been identified.

There will be no mass funeral. A requiem mass was arranged today at St. Michael's cathedral, with James Cardinal McGuigan, Roman Catholic archbishop of Toranto, taking part. Next Sunday an interdemoninational service will be held in coliseum in Toronto under the supices of the ministerial association, led by Dr. Willard Brewing, moderator of the United Church of Canada.

Even as the divers searched last night flames flared up again in the charred hull of the $5,000,000 Noronic. Firemen with chemical extinguishers boarded the vessel and reported a few minutes later that the smouldering blaze had been put down.

The hunt for the missing was complicated by the fact that many bodies may be in the water around the ship where fear-crazed passengers jumped or fell in their panic to escape the roaring flame and smoke that billowed through staterooms and passageways.

Texas Weather

in the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. and the rain still was falling at mid-morning.

Temperatures Drop

Dropping temperatures accompanied the new cool front, which was strongest northwest of a line running through Dallas, San Angelo, Presidio and down into Mexico.

Dalhart in the upper Panhandle reported 48 degrees this morning, compared with a low reading of 80 in South Texas.

At 8:30 a. m. rain was falling at San Angelo, Abilene, Galveston, Palacios, Alice, Corpus, and Texarkana. There was scattered fog.

Thundershowers were predicted for the east and southeast portions of East Texas through tomorrow. Warmer weather was predicted for much of Texas tomorrow.

High Reading 101

Yesterday's high reading was 101 at Laredo and Alice. The rest of the state was in the 90's except in the Panhandle, where high readings were in the high 70's and low 80's.

Other rain included Beaumont .43 of an inch, Victoria .30, Texarkana .06, Palestine .03, Bonham .60, Dallas .12, and Houston .01.

British Money

economic policies are dictated by the Kremlin.

Within a few hours after Britain's announcement, similar cuts in the value of their currency were announced by Australia, South Africa, India, New Zealand, Ireland, Israel, Norway, Denmark, Burma, Malaya and Egypt.

Dealings Suspended

France, Italy, Sweden, Holland, Greece and Finland suspended dealings in foreign exchange. In Canada, linked with trade ties with Britain but whose money follows the U. S. dollar rules, Finance Minister Douglas Abbott promised a statement to parliament tonight.

Here's how the devaluation works — and how Britain and other countries are taking a calculated risk in cheapening their currency:

Until last night it took $4.03 to buy a pound's worth of British goods. Today the same goods can be bought for $2.80. Britons hope Americans and others with dollars will go on a buying spree that will boost their earnings.

But this financial mechanism also works in reverse. The average Briton eating American wheat, smoking American cigarets or buying American machinery will have to spend more pounds to get those goods.

Prices To Go Up

Crips announced that the first immediate effect to Britons would be to raise the price of a 28-ounce loaf of bread from four and a half pence to six pence (from eight to 10 cents).

Other prices will go up too. Goods that some from the United States — such as cotton, tobacco, oil, lead, zinc — will cost more.

Many rationed foods now are sold to Britons below cost because of government subsidies. But Cripps said the subsidies would not be raised to meet increased costs.

Financial experts pointed out that if cheaper prices on goods sold for dollars do not bring a sharp rise in sales then the devaluation would not solve Britain's dollar shortage.

World reaction to Britain's devaluation step generally was favorable. In Washington, U. S. Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder called it a "constructive economic step."

Shock Is Expressed

British financial writers expressed shock over the sharpness of the cut—30½ per cent. In speculation here for the last year no rate lower than $3 was suggested and most British experts thought it would range somewhere between $3.20 and $3.50.

Cripps' explanation was:

"It was essential to fix the new rate at a level we could hold; we can always let the rate go up if events prove that we have gone down a bit too far."

Cripps, whose post of chancellor of the exchequer corresponds to that of the U. S. secretary of the treasury, said the British cabinet had agreed on valuation before the recent Washington monetary talks.

Stolen Coat Recovered After Prowler Reported To Officers

Police said this morning the held a young Latin American for investigation into misdemeanor theft and of burglary, after they had run down a stolen coat belonging to a Lorenzo man.

Wilson Yardley of Lorenzo Star route, they said, called the police at 12:15 a. m. and said a blue suit had been stolen from his car parked in 300-block Ave. H at a cafe.

Name On Tag

He said the coat should have his name on a cleaner's tag.

At 12:24 o'clock,a call was received by police saying a prowler had been sighted in 200-block Ave. K and that someone had gone into a window of a residence there.

The police sent squad car patrolmen there, and Sgt. Blakney, seeing a window pane broken, called for whoever was in the place to come out. Hugh Hayes and R. A. Thompson stationed themselves at entrances. The suspect came out, and Blakney went in and found a blue coat draped across a chair.

It had Yardley's name in it, on a tailor's tag.

Thefts Reported

The suspect said the place belonged to his brother who, he claimed, had gone to New Mexico.

He denied having been out of the house all night, and said he had bought the coat at an Amarillo second-hand store.

Two cedar chests, four silver dollars, a wrist watch, a variety of keepsakes and an unannounced amount of "change" were reported stolen Sunday night from Mrs. W. E. Bledsoe of 703 Thirty-sixth, when her premises were burglarized.

Virgil Moen of 2703 Edna reported theft of two spotlights valued at $32.

J. A. Chism reported to officials that burglars had entered the Chism bakery at 1216 Ave. Q sometime between 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 5:40 a.m. Sunday. A cash register had been opened and $6.10 taken by the intruders, Chism said. Entry was gained by forcing a rear door, it was believed.

An empty office building in the 700 block Ave. F, was entered by prowlers sometime during the night Saturday, W. A. Wilkerson, of 515 Ave. F, notified police.

R. L. Taylor, of the Apartment Courts cabins on East Broadway, complained to police that two wing window attachments had been taken from his car parked in the 900 block Thirteenth Sunday night. The windows were valued at $15.

Son-In-Law Accused Of Making 'Advances'

ATLANTA, Sept. 19 (AP)—Judge Robert Carpenter's 62-year-old mother-in-law told a jury today she once threatened to kill him when he made improper advances toward her.

Mrs. Minnie Sullivan testified in the trial of the debonair 44-year-old judge charged with assault with intent to murder his one-time friend, Attorney John Lockwood.

She denied that anything improper took place on a trip to Florida made by Mrs. Carpenter, Lockwood and herself. Defense witnesses had testified that Mrs. Carpenter and Lockwood were seen on a tourist cabin bed with several bottles of liquor in evidence.

The state's rebuttal to defense testimony that Carpenter, Fulton county civil court judge, had fired at Lockwood in self defense, is expected to be completed by nightfall. The trial probably will go to the jury tonight or tomorrow.

ADMINISTRATION VICTORY EXPECTED

Sen. Connally To Lead Fight For Billion-Dollar Arms Plan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—The administration turned once again today to white-haired Tom Connally of Texas to lead a Senate fight on foreign policy—this time the $1,314,010,000 foreign arms program.

The veteran chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee was the lead-off man in the debate. He said he was confident of victory.

"We'll win this one by a very substantial majority," Connally said.

He predicted the chief issue will be an amendment by Senator George (D-Ga) to cut the arms aid for western Europe from $1,000,000,000 down to $300,000,000. Then he said he was sure the Senate will turn down this proposal.

As committee chairman, connally engineered Senate approval of the foreign economic recovery program and the North Atlantic pact—leading the floor fight on both of them.

He thinks four days of debate will be enough on the arms bill and he will fight any amendments that are offered.

One group of senators wants 10 to 25 per cent of the European money to be used in building up a North Atlantic police force. This force would be the fore-runner of an international police force operating under the United Nations.

"We can't take off all by ourselves on these things," Connally told a reporter. "Whatever is done must be done in cooperation with the 11 other nations in the North Atlantic pact."

Objections Explained

He noted that the Atlantic Defense council, organized Saturday, has named a committee to work out defense plans for the Atlantic area.

"To tie a police force onto this bill," Connally said, "would seriously interfere with the procedures of the council and the committee—and in my opinion it would wreck the program."

The aid-for-China dispute in the Senate appeared to be subsiding and Connally expects no trouble from this quarter. The bill contains $75,000,000 which may be spent in the China area by the President to aid non-communist forces.

The formation of a defense committee for the Atlantic area did not halt George in his move to cut the arms program for western Europe.

George says there is no need for haste in providing large-scale armaments before the alliance committee makes its defense recommandations.

"I don't want to make such a large down payment on a contract the amount of which is yet undetermined," George told reporters.

He would give the Atlantic pact nations only $300,000,000 in cash and no authority to make contracts until defense plans are approved. He argued this money would give arms to Europe while Congress held the reins on any future program.

In addition to arms for western Europe, the Senate bill would authorize $211,370,000 for Greece and Hurkey, $27,640,000 for Iran, Korea and the Philippines, and $75,000,000 for China aid.

The cash would have to be appropriated—but the Reconstruction Finance corporation would be authorized to advance $125,000,000 to get the program underway.

The House voted a total program of $869,505,000. This means that whatever the Senate does, a compromise must be worked out between the two houses.

Czech Press Claims Church's Opposition To Control Weakened

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Sept. 19 (AP) — The official press yesterday trumpeted claims the government has split the united front of Czech Roman Catholic opposition to the state's proposed new church control law.

The Czech news agency, mouthpiece of the Communist-run government, declared Msgr. Frantisek Onderek, apostolic administrator of a Catholic church district along the Polish border, had issued a statement supporting the bill and ordering priests of the district to do likewise.

Last Monday church sources here made public a memorandum bearing Msgr. Onderek's signature, which condemned the new state control measure and called it one-sided and unacceptable.

Efforts to reach Msgr. Onderek by telephone for an explanation of his reported change of heart, met with the response he was too busy to talk.

Signed Protests Sent

The latest statement attributed to Msgr. Onderek received enthusiastic play in the controlled press and over the radio.

The church bill would make state civil servants of clergymen and other functionaries of all churches in Czechoslovakia.

The state would assume responsibility for payments of their salaries and for church expenses. In return it would gain a tight hold on all church appointments, finances and administration.

The measure is slated for parliament action this fall.

The government has been striving for months to win control of the church and break its influential position in the country, five-sixths of whose 2,000,000 people are Catholics.

Catholic sources claim more than 70 per cent of the nation's some 7,000 priests have sent the government signed protests against the bill.

TO START TOUR

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — Margaret Truman will leave soon on a two-week concert tour, starting in Atlanta Oct. 13.

Ooh-La-La Plentiful As French Beauties Invade Film Capital

By PATRICIA CLARY
United Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19—An influx of mademoiselles to Hollywood is paying back this country's lend-lease with interest.

The French girls are coming, and this town hasn't seen so much ooh-la-la since the days of Simone Simon and Danielle Darrieux.

The only girl in a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer super-production, "Battleground," is Denise Darcel, a former salesgirl in the Paris equivalent of a five-and-dime store.

Miss Darcel worked behind a perfume counter until she won a Pygmalion contest, gathered in the titles of most beautiful girl in France and most photographed girl in France, sang in night clubs and finally reached her goal in Hollywood.

Now she's had parts in three pictures and is set to swing through the trees with Tarzan.

Another mademoiselle from Paree, Cecile Aubry, is reaching Hollywood. The 17-year-old beauty had appeared in just one French picture when Darryl Zanuck spotted her and signed her to play opposite Tyronne Power in "The Black Rose."

Another French actress, Micheline Prelle, won the European film critics' award for her work in "Le Diable au Corps" and was signed, also by Zanuck, to appear with James Cagney in "The Big Fall."

Corinne Calvet, after two years here polishing her English, has starred in one movie with Burt Lancaster and another with Dan Dailey.

An older French actress, Francoise Rosay, nabbed a Hollywood contract. She arrives in November to appear with Joan Fontaine in "September." That's right.

Gaby Andre was the star of dozens of pre-war French films. Now the bride of an American officer and on her way to becoming a citizen, she will make her American debut in "Please Believe Me" with Deborah Kerr, Peter Lawford and Robert Walker.

National Kids Day Will Aid Juveniles

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (U.P.) — A national "Kids' Day" to aid underprivileged children and stimulate solution of youth problems will be observed Nov. 19.

The Kiwanis International and the National Kids' Day Foundation will sponsor the venture jointly.

More than 3,000 Kiwanis clubs in the U. S. and Canada will participate.

Kiwanis president J. Hugh Jackson, Stanford, Cal., said Kids' Day will not be celebrated as a holiday or as a gift-giving occasion.

"It is our intention," he said, "to use the observance of this day as a means of rallying the forces of each community toward solving local juvenile problems."

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulgy person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulges" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Texas druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Nearly one and a half million bottles of this preparation, called Barcentrate has been sold in Texas in the past four years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Barcentrate from any Texas druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonsful twice a day.

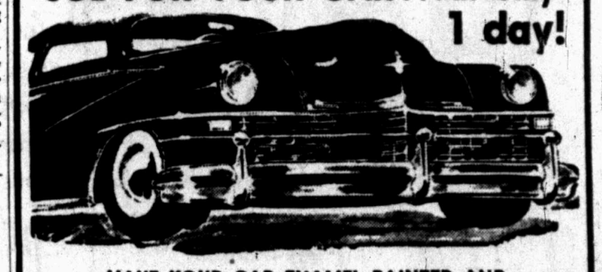

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Many Countries Follow British Example And Cut Value Of Currencies; Banks, Exchanges Closed

(By The Associated Press)

This is how Britain's devaluation of the pound affected other countries of the world.

France—The finance ministry closed the stock exchange, and suspended trade on the gold and free currency markets until further notice. The French franc was devalued drastically last year, virtually drying up the black market.

Holland—The government announced some step similar to Britain's would be taken. All exchange rates in effect since 1945 were withdrawn and trading in foreign currency was forbidden. Stock exchanges will be closed today and tomorrow.

Others Halt Trading

Sweden—Prime Minister Tage Erlander called a meeting of the cabinet for today to consider devaluation. The Bank of Sweden suspended all payments with other countries pending a decision on the new rate.

Italy—The cabinet announced all dealings in foreign currencies would be suspended today and Tuesday. A cabinet communique said government "has no reason to alter its policy for defense of buying power of the lira." An earlier government statement predicted there would be no substantial repercussions on the lira exchange rate.

Greece — The stock exchange and all banks were ordered closed today. Premier Alexander Diomedes said the government must take "required action" and promised a further announcement later.

Switzerland — Swiss currency has been as much in demand in Europe as American dollars. Financial circles feared the Swiss franc might have to be devalued to meet competition for the tourist trade.

Russia Breaks News

Finland — an informed source said the bank of Finland will discontinue all foreign trade transactions temporarily.

Belgium—Official say no special measures are necessary.

Poland—businessmen predicted Poland will raise prices on bacon and eggs sent to Britain. Increased demand for British-made machinery was expected.

Czechslovakia—The British announcement was reported without comment on the government-controlled radio.

Russia—The morning press announced the devaluation news without comment in a 25-word dispatch. Anticipating devaluation, the government paper Izvestia said yesterday: "Devaluation and convertibility of the pound in practice will mean the liquidation of the sterling bloc and subjagation of the pound to the dollar."

Canada — Finance Minister Douglas Abbott promised a statement to parliament tonight. While financial circles speculated that Canada might devalue the Canadian dollar, executives of the Toronto and Montreal stock exchanges decided to continue trading today. The Canadian dollar is officially valued at par with the U. S. dollar but is discounted six to 10 cents in day-to-day trading.

More Cuts Made

South Africa—Prime Minister D. F. Malan announced devaluation in line with Britain. Banks and the stock exchange were ordered closed today. Johannesburg financial circles said gold sales to the United Kingdom would bring in an additional, 32,000,000 pounds sterling a year to South Africa.

India—The rupee was devalued to the level of the pound. Today's Tuesday and Wednesday were declared public holidays to curb speculation. Banks were ordered closed.

Egypt—The value of the Egyptian pound was cut in line with the British devaluation. Banks were ordered closed today.

Australia—While cutting her pound 30½ per cent in relation to the dollar, Australia will retain the present ratio of the pound of 125 to 100. This means it takes 125 Australian pounds to buy 100 British pounds.

Spain—Importers were hopeful they can bring in more and cheaper British goods. Exporters were gloomy over expected drop in British demand.

Austria and western Germany—Officials were considering possible devaluation.

Singapore—Boosts were forseen in sales of rubber and tin and a marked increase in trade with the dollar area.

Argentina — While officials sources were silent, private bankers foresaw devaluation of the Argentine peso. The present rate is 4.800 pesos to the dollar. Some traders expressed belief the government would fix a rate of six pesos to the dollar in line with Britain's change.

Mexico—Treasury Undersecretary D. Rafael Mancera said British devaluation would have little immediate effect on the Mexican peso. Trade with the sterling area was expected to jump.

Burma — The government announced the rupee would be devalued in line with Britain. A government communique said Burma's trade with the sterling area is unlikely to be affected.

China Reds Prepare Central Government

SHANGHAI, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Chinese Communists were setting up machinery for a central government today.

The official Red news agency said a preliminary meeting of the Political Consultative conference at Peiping has "approved in principle" organic law for the central government and the PCC.

A plenary session of the PCC will be held soon, the agency said. It will have 661 representatives from 45 political units, including the Communists and other anti-Nationalist organizations.

The announcement of the Peiping preliminary meeting indicated major decisions on the new government already have been made and the plenary session will be a rubber stamp.

Rifle-Toter Loses Wager Over Stroll Along Manhattan

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — A 40-year-old grocer, Thomas Jordan, took an unloaded souvenir German army rifle along when he dropped into a Manhattan bar yesterday.

Jordan, an ex-GI, stood on his rights. The constitution says "the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

The argument led to a $1 bet whether the grocer could carry the rifle on the street without being arrested.

He was—after a dozen excited citizens telephoned police.

Jordan quoted the constitution at a station house. Lieut. Henry Waters told him he was quite correct, but still was going to lose his bet because—

"You have caused consternation and alarm and a crowd to collect, which constitutes a breach of the peace."

Jordan pleaded guilty to a disorderly conduct charge in night court and received a suspended sentence.

WING-FLAPPING PLANE

An "ornithopter" is a plane which flaps its wings as a means of attempting flight. This type of plane has made many successful gliding flights, but has failed in numerous trials for sustained flight.

Pound Devaluation May Cut Dollar Prices

BLUE RIBBON WINNER—Sheriff Newt Burns took a lot of ribbing when his bloodhound turned out to be deaf and flunked a course in following escaped convicts. But things are different now. The hound, Dan, won a blue ribbon at a dog show in Oklahoma City for being best of his breed. The sheriff is happy, but silent. He isn't mentioning the fact that Dan was the only bloodhound entered. ## Fall In Woolen Costs Expected

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (AP)—Lower dollar prices around the world are looked for today as an early major result of the week-end devaluation of foreign currencies.

Still more countries may have to follow the devaluation parade which began last night with Britain's cut in the pound from $4.03 to $2.80, a slash amounting to a surprise 30½ per cent.

The devaluation means the dollar prices of goods produced in these countries could fall a maximum of 30½ per cent if the reduction is caused solely by devaluation. But prices probably will not fall that far. Some may come down only a few cents.

U. S. Goods Affected

How long these lower prices may prevail is unpredictable.

American businessmen in their first reaction agreed prices will be lower on foreign goods priced in devalued currencies and sold in America for dollars.

No one knows yet, however, how far prices will go down on individual commodities or manufactured goods over the next few weeks or months.

An important secondary effect is the impact of devaluation on the prices of goods produced in America for sale abroad.

The announced purpose of British devaluation is to lower prices on British goods sold in America. Britain hopes to get more dollars through increased sales at cut rates. Other countries cutting their currencies in Britain's train hope for the same result.

1931 Situation Cited

Historically, lower prices have followed devaluation. The British devalued their pound in September, 1931, by cutting it loose from gold and letting it drift lower in foreign exchange markets.

Rubber immediately went down and continued its fall. Wool broke sharply but recovered a good portion of its loss. American cotton was hard hit initially but a year later had climbed back to an even higher price than before devaluation. American wheat shot up but fell back later.

Will that same pattern occur now? American businessmen are inclined to think it won't. That's because things are different today than they were 18 years ago.

We don't depend entirely on tural rubber today. Synthetic rubber is a major factor in determing the price of natural rubber through straight competition for the American market.

Cotton Not So Vulnerable

British woolens sold here and American woolen goods made from foreign wool are expected to come down. One importer estimated the drop somewhere be-

Bishop Will Speak At Lamesa Meeting

LAMESA, Sept. 19 (Special) — The Right Rev. John E. Hines, Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas, and one of the leading public speakers in the Southwest, will be guest speaker at the annual membership meeting of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce tonight.

The affair is expected to draw a capacity crowd. It will be held in the cafeteria of the new Lamesa High school building.

Rev. Hines will speak on "Keeping the Republic."

On College Board

The church official, who is 39 years old, was born in Saneca, South Carolina. He attended the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., and Virginia Theological seminary, Alexandria, Va.

He served as assistant rector of Episcopal churches in St. Louis, Hannibal, Mo., and Augusta, Ga., before becoming Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas in October, 1948.

Rev. Hines is a member of the board of regents of the University of the South and is chairman of the board of trustees of St. Stephens Episcopal school.

To Fly From Austin

He currently is a member of the newly-created Texas Board for Hospitals and Special Schools.

His wife is the former Miss Helen Louise Owig of St. Louis. The couple has three sons and one daughter.

Rev. Hines will fly from Austin to Big Spring today. He will visit a delegation of Lamesans who will escort him here.

Special Music Planned

The invocation will be offered by Rev. Julian Atwood, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lamesa. Guests will include Chamber officials from a large number of neighboring West Texas towns.

Special music will be presented by a group of young Lamesa women under direction of Richard Crawley. Members of the chorus include Mesdames Tom Conner, Bob Millikan, Noble Price, Richard Crawley, Frank Smith, Weldon Lindsey, Hugh Ashlock, Clem Sorley, Bob Crawley, D. B. Black, and R. A. Noret.

The dinner will be served by the high school cafeteria staff, assisted by members of the homemaking classes of the high school.

Air Field Named In Honor Of Dead Pilot

CHICAGO, Sept. 19. (AP)—A little Gold Star mother yesterday dedicated Chicago's huge new airport as "a symbol of thousands" who died like her son—Lt. Comdr. Edward H. (Butch) O'Hare.

She was Mrs. Selma O'Hare, of St. Louis, who named the field "O'Hare Airport." Eventually the new field will become Chicago's passenger airline terminal. The present municipal airport will be turned over to freight.

O'Hare, a Congressional Medal of Honor winner, was lost off Tarawa in November, 1943. His single-handed defense of the carrier Lexington on Feb. 20, 1942, in which he shot down five Japanese planes, brought him the Confressional Medal of Honor.

McGrath Not Running For Vice Presidency

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 19. (AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath was boomed for vice president yesterday but he promptly disclaimed any such ambition.

Gov. John O. Pastore told a gathering of 1,500 Rhode Island Democrats that McGrath is his candidate to be the next vice president of the United States.

McGrath had addressed the group earlier so had no chance to comment at the gathering but later he told a newsman:

"To allay the fears of the genial 'Veep' (Vice President Barkley), let me assure him I am not a challenger."

Extension For Field Complete

Thomas W. Doswell of Dallas, Henry Ford, II, of Detroit, and others, No. 1 C. W. Addison has been completed for a three-quarters of a mile west extension to the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field in southwest Scurry county.

Flowing through a 20-64th-inch tubing choke, it made a calculated daily potential of 504 barrels of 42.7-gravity oil. The flow was natural. It also made one and five-tenths per cent water. Gas-oil ratio of the new oil was 629-1.

The production from the Canyon lime was from open hole between the 7-inch oil string cemented at 6,648 feet and the total depth at 6,677 feet.

The new oil well is 660 feet from north and east lines of the north half of the southeast quarter of section 122, block 25, H&TC survey and just northwest of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field.

Well Is Completed

Sinclair Oil & Gas company has completed its No. 8-154 University from the Ellenburger in the Shafter Lake field of north-central county.

It rated a daily potential of 2,739.66 barrels of 41.4 gravity oil, flowing through open tubing from the Ellenburger. Gas-oil ratio of the new oil was 222-1. There was no formation water. Flowing tubing pressure was 175 pounds.

The production was from open hole between the 7-inch casing cemented at 11,793 feet and the total depth at 11,805 feet. That zone had been treated with 3,000 gallons of acid.

Ennis Banker's Last Rites Are Set Today

ENNIS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Last rites were to be held today for William Weatherford, 77, former banker and cotton broker. He died yesterday of a cerebral hemmorrhage.

Weatherford in 1922 organized the Farmers State bank. It later became the Ennis State bank.

THE QUESTION

(Children answering that question are sixth grade students at McWhorter school).

THE ANSWERS

JOY BUTLER, 3015 N. Third, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Butler: "I think we can avoid accidents by walking on sidewalks and not running down streets. We should also mind the patrols. Some children obey them around the school, but don't when they get away from the school."

WENDELL HOWARD, 2717 Ruby, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Howard: "They can watch when they cross streets. Always stop at blind corners. Don't play in the streets. Don't dash out in the street after the ball has been hit without looking first."

VIRGINIA MEEK, 2611 First, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Meek: "We can look both ways before crossing the street to avoid traffic. Even if the school patrol motions us to go in a certain direction, we should look ourselves in the other direction, too."

ROBERT GRIFFIN, 2814 N. Third, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Griffin: "I think they can avoid accidents by walking on the sidewalk, if there is one, and if not, by walking facing the traffic in the street. Watch before crossing a street, and don't cut across corners."

TROY BROGDEN, 2503 N. Third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Brogden: "I think they should watch out for drivers and see what they are going to do next. Sometimes drivers will turn corners so fast that the child won't know he's going to turn, and there will be an accident."

JOE WELDON COX, 2714 Walnut, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox: "Look both ways before crossing the street. Don't run along beside a bicycle in the street. Don't hang onto a truck when on your bicycle, because if the truck should stop, you might run into it and get hurt or ruin your bicycle."

Victims Of Accident Reported Recovering

Several persons who were injured in a two-car collision on the southeast outskirts of Lubbock at 1 a. m. Saturday were reported recovering satisfactorily today in two local hospitals.

Mrs. Salome Garibay, 50, a widow of Lubbock route 1, and her daughter, Aline, 16, were reported "doing fine" by an attendant at St. Mary's hospital. A son, Alfred Garibay, 18, driver of the car in which the Garibay family was riding, was dismissed Sunday from the hospital.

Wilburn H. Legate, 54, of Slaton, driver of the other automobile involved in the two-car collision, was reported to be in satisfactory condition in Lubbock Memorial hospital. He received a fractured left knee and a six-inch laceration on his forehead. He underwent surgery Saturday morning for the head injury.

Two other members of the Garibay family, Stella, 12, and Sally, 17, were dismissed from St. Mary's hospital Saturday after treatment of facial lacerations.

The automobile mishap occurred near the cemetery curve of the Slaton highway, about two miles southeast of Lubbock.

$25,000-A-YEAR CONTRACT SIGNED

Public Relations Man To Sell Chinese Nationalists In U. S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—An American public relations man has a $25,000-a-year contract to "sell" Nationalist China to the United States.

William J. Goodwin of Roslyn, N. Y., said yesterday that he is working to get more American money and support for Chiang Kai-Shek's government in its fight against the Communists.

Goodwin said however, he was "lucky to break even" on his retainer since he had to pay all the expenses—including dinners and gifts of flowers for congressmen—out of the $25,000.

Now 53, he said he dedicated himself to fighting Communism when he was a high school boy.

More Money Expected

"I hate to say it," he declared, "but some of our highest leaders have an almost abysmal ignorance of true conditions in China.

"They say the Chinese Nationalists are licked and are all through. Why, right now the Nationalists hold more territory and are in better shape than they were at the high tide of the Japanese invasion."

He predicted China will get far more than the $75,000,000 earmarked for the Far East in a foreign arms aid bill which the Senate begins debating today.

Goodwin described his arrangement with the Chinese in an interview published by the Washington Post.

Embassy Denies Deal

A spokesman at the Chinese embassy said the embassy has "no arrangement with Mr. Goodwin, nor do we have any record or any such undertaking. He said the embassy has no connections with the other Chinese government agencies with which Goodwin has been working.

Goodwin's attorney, Paull Marshall of Washington, said Goodwin has given "at least" 20 dinners for congressmen; that he has sent gifts of two dozen roses to congressmen after "special victories," and has done some campaigning for at least two senators while registered as a foreign agent for the Chinese.

These senators—Chapman Revercomb of West Virginia and Edward V. Robertson of Wyoming, bith Republicans—were defeated for re-election last year.

"GENERAL PRICE LEVEL" POLICY

Farmer Criticism Of New Hog Price Support Plan Expected

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. — How far is the government obligated to go in carrying out farm price guarantees?

Do laws setting up mandatory price support programs require the government to see to it that every farmer gets at least the minimum guarantee for every bushel of his grain, every pound of his livestock and every dozen of his eggs?

This question bobbed up again this week after the Agriculture department announced a material change in its program for supporting hog prices.

Price Not Assured

The department said in effect that from now on it will not attempt to assure any farmer the minimum price for any of his hogs. All it will do will be to try to keep the average of prices received by all farmers for all hogs from dropping below the support level.

Prior to this change the department had committed itself to maintain prices at all local markets at the price support level. Under this commitment individual farmers had fair assurance that they would get the guaranteed minimum.

Now about all the individual farmer can count on is a price in the neighborhood of the support level. It is not likely, officials said, that individual prices at the height of the winter marketing season will drop more than $1 below the prospective national support average of possibly $14.50 per 100 pounds.

Local Variations Seen

While hog prices tend to hold a general level, local supply conditions as well as local and nearby demands for pork often vary. This variation could reflect itself in hog prices above support levels in some markets and below in others.

But as long as the average of the prices of the various markets is equal to or above the support level, the government will do nothing about it.

This change in the hog support program greatly reduces the possibility of extensive government buying of pork this fall and winter to carry out the price guarantee.

Criticism Is Probable

The new setup may bring criticism from farmers and their congressmen. Many farm leaders contend that it is the intent of price support laws that the government use every possible means to assure every farmer the guaranteed price for all his products.

In making the change at this time, the department opens the door to the contention that it is changing rules in the middle of the game. The argument can be made that the change should have been made before farmers bred and raised the hogs to be sold under the new rules.

Goodwin.

He said he had been told that "a Mr. Goodwin" had campaigned for the Republican ticket in northern West Virginia last fall, but that he had nothing to do with it.

Marshall said Goodwin's first contract with Nationalist China was in March, 1948. He was hired than by the National Resources Commission of China at $40,000 a year. His present contract, which runs until July 1, 1950, calls for $25,000 a year through the Chinese News service. Both these organizations are owned by the Nationalist government.

Goodwin once was in the stock brokerage business on Wall street, retiring in 1933. He then turned to politics and was a leader for a time of the Democratic Tammany hall organization in Queens, N. Y. He began public relations work in 1942.

Man Jailed After 200th Visit To Judge In 20 Years

DES MOINES, Sept. 19 (INS)—A wiry, little 57-year-old Des Moines man was back in jail today after paying his 200th visit to a judge in 20 years.

James Francis Keenan was sentenced to 30 days in jail by municipal Judge Harry B. Grund yesterday after he pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny growing out of the theft of a blanket.

Police records show that Keenan has served a total of 1,100 days in jail—either for larceny or intoxication—since his first arrest in 1929.

Police said Keenan has never stolen anything of great value — usually some small item which he can sell for enough to buy a drink or two.

He was arrested Friday night when patrolmen caught him removing a blanket from a parked car in downtown Des Moines. He had been out of jail only 10 days after serving a 30-day term for the theft of a $2 strand of pearls from a department store.

When he appeared before Judge Grund, the judge mused:

"Your face is as familiar as the court fixtures. Have you no other place to go?"

"Yes," Keenan answered, "to jail."

"You're on your way — 30 days," Judge Grund replied.

Discovery Of New Oil Field Revealed

HOUSTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Glenn McCarthy said he had found a new major oil field and termed it the "most important discovery of my career."

McCarthy said the new field is in the Collins lake area of Brazoria county, 40 miles southeast of Houston.

The new producer is the No. 1 J. P. Jamieson. Yesterday it reportedly flowed at the rate of 664 barrels of oil through a quarter-inch choke. Working pressure was 1000 pounds.

The well was drilled to 10,500 feet. McCarthy said nine oil sands were found between 9,000 and 10,200 feet.

Devaluation

tween 10 and 20 per cent.

American cotton prices aren't as vulnerable today as they once were because of U. S. government price support policies. Wheat also is supported.

Business maintain that trying to guess prices a week or month or a year from now is futile. Historical precedent is not too great a help because of government controls today on every major product both here and abroad.

Competition is the big factor. It also is the biggest imponderable. Take Britain's biggest recent dollar-maker—Scotch whisky. Only a small amount of the American retail sales price is accounted for by the British producer's selling prices. If the British allow their prices to reflect the full force of the 30 per cent devaluation—and if all other costs such as shipping and taxes and American profits remain unchanged—then Scotch whisky might come down as much as eight per cent, or about 45 cents a bottle.

Other products whose prices at retail in America have a bigger percentage of British cost in them would fall more.

Some American businessmen fear British producers and others will raise their prices to take a windfall profit. That would defeat the British government's intention of increasing sales through lower prices.

Competition with British goods from other nations with devalued currencies may force everyone to pass along the devaluation saving.

American goods themselves will face that competition. Devaluation makes our goods higher to people trying to buy with their cheap currencies. If our export prices are too high, they won't buy. That means American goods now will have to be priced low enough to encourage sales.

How long can American export prices be cut? Nobody knows that answer yet. If we pay less for important raw materials, then we can pass that reduction along. If we raise worker output, we can pass that along, too.

And just to show how complicated the whole procedure can be, there is a strong belief that there now may be liberal offerings of raw materials that have long been in the hard-to-get category. The offers to sell are expected to come from people who have hoarded products to protect themselves in the event of devaluation. Now that it has come, the time is ripe to sell and cash in on the profits.

But in any event, adjustment of world prices to devaluation is not expected within a matter of days. Some may adjust quickly. Others may run on for a year or more.

And in the long run, stability is the goal—stability of both prices and currencies around the world so that international trade can flow freely.

Socialist Dream Of Everyone On One Level Seen In Britain

(EDITOR'S NOTE: L. R. Blanchard is general executive editor of the 21 metropolitan papers—mostly in the East—in the Gannett chain. As one of the nation's most widely known and respected editors, Mr. Blanchard has often traveled the world for his papers, informing himself, first-hand, on what is going on. Recently he went to England to look at Socialism and the series of articles he wrote while on the trip are highly revealing. Because some politicians urge that the U. S. follow England in experimenting with Socialism, The Journal asked—and received—permission of the Gannett papers and Mr. Blanchard to present the series in Texas. We consider Mr. Blanchard's articles to be most significant, especially since Britain, largely supported by American tax dollars will seek from us next month more aid to be used in carrying on socialistic aims.)

By L. R. BLANCHARD
Executive Editor, Gannett Newspapers

LONDON—Britain is ill fed, ill clad and even ill housed. Everyone has been led toward one level. That is the Socialist dream, of course, although the hope is that the level eventually will be raised.

This is the tenth year of austerity imposed first by war, now by a government working hard to insure full employment, higher living standards for the so called lower classes.

It is a harsh sort of life. Yet the people are loyal. Business men strive to increase production, knowing full well that after a point quickly reached there will be no profit for them. The extra money goes back to a hungry government in taxes.

The people are loyal, but one detects a certain amount of frustration. Men work hard on a diet which most admit is not sufficient. They keep a small amount of money for themselves. They can buy little because their products are shipped out for sale abroad; or they find prices are ruinously high.

They cannot travel far by auto; there's little gas. A vacation abroad must be accomplished on no more than $200, recently raised to that figure from $140.

No Comfort On Little Money

"You can't feel comfortable on that little money," an Englishman says. "You can't hold your end up, and if you accept hospitality you feel it is a charity."

Business men can have as much as $40 a day abroad if they can prove the trip is a genuine business trip that may benefit the country.

Electric power has been short. Hotel elevators will take you up, generally not down. Streets are meagerly lighted. One of the great sights in London this Spring was the return of lights to store windows and advertising signs. Girls and boys in their teens had never seen such gaiety.

Homes and hotels are badly heated because fuel is tightly rationed. One doesn't sit around hotel rooms unless burdened with garments or unless he has wangled an electric heater. If he gets the latter he probably will drop a shilling into a slot for a few hours of cheerful glow.

THE diet features fish and fowl. Sometimes mutton gets a brief play. Actually there is less meat now than Britons enjoyed during the war. Guests in private homes may feed generously, but always with the feeling they are consuming at one meal a family's meat ration for two weeks.

Meat is short because England can't raise enough of it and does not like to spend dollars for importations. Beyond that, critics of the government complain, the practice is to purchase only in bulk from abroad. That is due to the Socialist refusal to bring in small lots. Such a practice would mean a few people could get meat, not everyone. The code calls for even distribution.

Most people get a little extra food by dining out occasionally, taking advantage of the inn's better stocks. They also manage to get rabbits and good shots can bring in a pigeon occasionally.

Transportation comes high. Railroads seem to keep their schedules and there are more trains than are needed. Patronage has slumped badly.

Taxes are higher than ever before. Even Socialists who grimly cling to their program for the nation are dipping into capital to put their children through school. Owners of big houses close off a portion of them, or abandon them. They can't keep them going without eating up whatever capital is untouched.

It is a cold, hungry uncomfortable life. Two things keep the wheels turning. First is the hope that the austere program really will get results. Coupled with that, of course, is the hope that a more moderate regime will develop. The other is the loyal British spirit which keeps men plugging away without any immediate hope of reward or betterment.

The offhand answer is "No."

That answer is buttressed by an observation of one of England's keenest editorial minds, A. T. Wadsworth of the famed old Manchester Guardian.

"You Americans will never have to go through all this," he said. "You couldn't. You have what amounts to three different countries and you'd never get them to agree on anything like this."

Other reasons occur automatically. America did not take the wartime beating that left Britain so impoverished.

America does not have that compactness of Britain, a compactness that makes controls reasonably easy to apply.

America never had the great extremes of abject poverty and a class of idle rich. The great gap between those classes over here was a main factor in the great drive for social benefits.

America always has meant opportunity. Men did not believe, as so many do over here, that one must stick to a certain way of life. Alger stories are rare in Britain.

Americans Not "Trained"

The American is not trained to accept so completely an unwanted regime. One cannot think offhand of anyone in the United States who could impose such rigid restrictions and remain long in office.

But the prime reason the program could not succeed in the United States lies in American resources. She is close to being self-sufficient with no need to worry over imports of food. Even if she were to elect an extremist government she would not be pressed at the same time by a need to gather provisions from the outside.

OPPONENTS of the government here say the real weakness is the Labor Party's determination to do everything at once.

Labor says its social benefits are paid for at home, that no Marshall Plan money is involved. That does not ring entirely true. Obviously there would be less need for aid if more British money were applied in that direction.

Many Englishmen opposed the Marshall Plan loans. They say it is dishonest to accept money when there is no assurance it can be repaid. And there is no doubt that a great many persons over here believe the loans will not be repaid.

But here is England, ill clad, ill fed, spending millions in social reforms which surely have their merit, but spending money in seemingly extravagant and wasteful ways at times.

The money is spent on behalf of the working classes and those are the people with the most votes. There is little prospect of a change in life over here until that class also begins to feel a pinch. That pinch surely will come, because old wealth is being taxed away, old properties that paid taxes are being taxed out of existence. Before long the "easy" sources of revenue should be disappearing.

When the little fellow realizes that taxes hit him, too, there may be a change.

Cinema Horse Operas Full Of Errors

Phil Harris Supposed To Be Star In Family From Now On

By HOWARD C. HEYN
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19.—Alice Faye, as fetchingly blonde as ever and as slim as a model, says Phil Harris will be the movie star in their family from now on.

"I'm happy to be doing just exactly what I've been doing for four years," she said at the Fibber McGee and Molly cocktail party the other night. What she's been doing since the fall of 1945, when she completed "Fallen Angel," is being Mrs. Harris, housewife and mother. And for the Faye-Harris radio season, she is Mrs. Harris on the air also.

Western Errors Cited

"I owe the studio one picture, but I'm never going to make it—or, I think now, any other picture", she said. "Harris is going to me the family's star. He has just finished 'Wabash Avenue', and he's wonderful. No, I haven't seen it, but I know he's wonderful. It's in color and, boy, does that wavy hair look good in color!"

Western movies take a lot of liberties with their props, says Frank Gruber, who bats out mystery and western fiction when he isn't busy building scene plays like "the Cariboo trail." He cites these as some of the most common errors in cinema horse operas:

Metal cartridges for revolvers in stories of the 1860s or earlier (the most frequent mistake of all). Metal cartridges weren't invented until 1874, says Gruber.

Indians All Alike

Ten-gallon hats. These, Gruber reports, came in about 1900—no earlier.

Double armament. Jesse James was the only real two-gun man Gruber knows about.

Use of chaps. Leather leg coverings were worn only in brusy country—or when the cowpoke dressed up to go to town (to see a western-).

Indians. Nearly all tribes differ markedly in build and complexion. Yet in movies an Indian is an Indian (and sometimes a Hollywood Indian who has never seen a reservation).

Johnny Weissmuller's contract stipulates he can't weigh over 200 pounds for his Jungle Pim pictures. He forfeits $1,000 for every pound over 200. Checking in for "Mark Of The Gorilla," he tipped the scales to a shaky 199½. Johnny was a hefty 238 when he dropped out of the Tarzan role.

OFFICER IS WOUNDED

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 19 (AP)—Special Police Officer Joe O. Aleman was wounded seriously last night while trying to stop a fight. Police said the man who shot him escaped.

Knowing the ropes isn't nearly so important in Washington as knowing how and where to cut the red tape.

GEORGE DUPREE, the self-styled country lawyer, is an old and valued friend of ours. Therefore, we had to refuse a request of another old and valued friend—another country lawyer—name of J. E. Vickers.

Mr. Vickers wanted us to do a very unfair thing to Mr. Dupree. He wanted us to print, under a heading "How Times Change," a 40-years-ago today item which recently appeared in the Stephenville Empire-Tribune, reading as follows:

"George Dupree, of Clariette, will attend the State university this Fall. He is a Tarleton boy, and an honorable, upright, moral, manly young man."

We hated very much to refuse Mr. Vickers' request, but we did so because we were afraid that if we granted it Mr. Dupree might be subjected to too much kidding!

"Well, sir—er, ah, no. Not exactly," stammered the enamoured one. "But if I marry your daughter, I don't see how I can avoid it!"

ALL of us have heard, over and over again, that rumor is a remarkable thing. But few of us ever realize just how strange rumor is until we get connected with one.

It is amazing how rumor spreads, how it pops up here, there and everywhere and how it keeps going, sort of like a prairie fire. But even more amazing is how groundless rumor is born—rumor without one shred of fact to support it.

Recently, we have been connected with a rumor which, while certainly not derogatory, has astounded us. It has astounded us not only because of its rapid spread over Texas, but also—and mainly—because there isn't one bit of foundation for it.

Here's the story, chronologically:

Several weeks ago we stopped to chat in the office with one of the young ladies in the advertising department.

"I hear," we said, "that you're going to marry an El Paso boy and move to the Border City. Have you learned to speak Spanish?"

"That's right," she said, "I am. Have you learned to speak Spanish?"

"Nope," we returned, "but you're the one who needs to learn it—moving to El Paso."

"Well," said the young lady, "my boyfriend in El Paso heard the other day that you're going down there with either the Times or the Herald-Post."

We laughed. "He has the wrong information," we said. "There's not an iota of truth in the report."

Then, without giving the matter another thought, we went about what we laughingly call our work.

A WEEK or so later, Trent Root, former asistant to the president of Texas Tech and now an executive at SMU, in Dallas, was visiting out here. He went in to see Dr. D. M. Wiggins, the Tech president, and during the conversation remarked that we had bought stock in an El Paso paper and soon would be moving to Doctor Wiggins' old home town.

The Tech prexy was flabbergasted, since we'd been together the night before, and had talked about mutual friends in El Paso, but had made no mention of any move.

"Where did you hear that?" Doctor Wiggins asked Mr. Root.

"Why, a Dallas newspaperman told me," said the latter.

A few days later, a former student of Texas Tech, now a reporter in Houston, was in town on a vacation and went to call on Mrs. James G. Allen, her former journalism teacher. She told Mrs. Allen about the "move," explaining that the story was being talked around in the news rooms of both the Houston Chonicle and the Houston Post.

A week or so after that, as George Mahon was en route to Lubbock from Washington by train, he ran into an old friend—a Lubbock lady on the way home from a trip to the Midwest and she told the congressman the same story.

To cap the climax, the yarn now is going the rounds of the bridge, tea and reception leagues in Lubbock and, as a result, numerous people have been kind enough to express regrets over our forthcoming change of residence!

WE ARE flattered, of course, that anyone would suggest that we might be considered useful to another newspaper. But the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth is that there has been no offer come to us from El Paso, or anywhere else in recent years; nor have we ever, since moving to Lubbock in 1924, applied for any sort of job, or connection, on any other newspaper.

For 25 years and more, we have liked Lubbock better than any other spot on earth. We have liked the people here and over these Plains. Our associates on the paper are the best in the world and we have had a very satisfactory experience in helping others "raise up" The Avalanche-Journal from an obscure beginning to its present status. We simply don't want to live anywhere else, or work on any other paper.

We've been eating regularly all along and, in years past when we've had opportunity to move—as anyone does in this business—we've never given a proposition a second thought.

We do have stock in the El Paso Times and have been an officer and a director of that corporation for over 15 years. There never has been any secret about that in Lubbock, El Paso, or in the newspaper shops of the state. Since the Times is a very fine newspaper, run by fine, able men, we are naturally proud to be a part of its official family—even as a sort of "second cousin."

But with Dorrance Roderick, Bill Hooten and Ed Pooley riding high, wide and handsome on the quarter decks of the Times and Herald-Post in El Paso, they need us about as much as they need a hole in the head. Mr. Roderick has made an outstanding success as a publisher; as principal owner of the Times and as president of the printing corporation which publishes the morning Times and the evening Herald-Post. Bill Hooten, editor of the Times, and Ed Pooley, editor of the Herald-Post, are among the ablest editors in the Southwest. Furthermore, the Herald-Post is owned by the Scripps-Howard chain. We have no connection with it and never have had.

Aside from the fact that the Messrs. Roderick, Hooten and Pooley are among our warmest personal friends, we can't imagine how anybody, anywhere, got the idea that we might be joining them in their daily endeavors.

IT MAY be, of course, that we should move on somewhere. We are well aware that if we did there'd be little, if any, weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth; that there'd be a lot more cheering—and perhaps even some dancing in the streets.

But we're not packed up—yet. In fact, we haven't even thought about packing up.

So if the explosion of the El Paso myth brings some sorrow in Lubbock and around here, let's not overlook that it may have brought equal joy to the good people of the Border City!

BY DREW PEARSON: DEFENSE DEPARTMENT CLAMPS CENSORSHIP ON NEWS OF JOY RIDES

Army Plane Flew Bank Officials To West Coast

WASHINGTON—More information has leaked out of the national defense department which makes it as plain as the nose on your face as to why usually forthright Secretary Louie Johnson backtracked so suddenly on banning those private airplane junkets at the taxpayers' expense.

PEARSON

For Johnson's face would have been a lot redder than those of senators and congressmen if all the facts about airplane rides by bigwigs were aired to the public.

In late July, for instance, the Dewdrop, built by the Air Force for "President" Dewey, made a special trip to the annual jubilee at Bohemian Grove, California, with a cargo of special friends of Secretary of Defense Johnson and Undersecretary Steve Early. Johnson's friends were New York business men, while Early's friends were officials of the Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing company, of which Early was once vice-president.

The passengers included Champ Carry, president of Pullman-Standard; Robert Lea, president of Johns-Manville; and James A. Jackson, 120 Broadway, New York. Steve Early and Undersecretary of State John Peurifoy were the only government passengers aboard.

Upon reaching San Francisco, the plane flew back to Washington—at a cost of $130 an hour. Then it took Johnson and Secretary of State Acheson on a separate and special trip to the jamboree at Bohemian Grove—again at a cost of $130 an hour.

If the above passengers had secured free passes on the railroads with the exception of the Pullman officials—it would have been against the law. For long ago the railroad pass scandal got so bad that Congress passed legislation forbidding it. Meanwhile the free airplane ride scandal has become worse.

Airplane Run-Around

Believing the public in entitled to know who uses up their ttax money on these free rides, this columnist queried the official Air Force spokesman, Steve Leo. He replied that all flights of "executive planes" were handled direct by Secretary Johnson's office and referred the query to Col. Kenneth Kreps in Johnson's office.

Col. Kreps, polite but jittery, admitted he knew something about these flights, but referred the query to his chief, Gen. Leven C. Allen. Gen. Allen, in turn, referred the query to an official Defense department spokesman who squirmed, hedged, blushed and said absolutely nothing.

Careful notes were taken, and here is the transcript of the conversation:

Spokesman: "I don't think you are going to get any information from us. Secretary of Defense Johnson would like to consider the incident closed, as to who is going to ride in military aircraft, and he doesn't want to furnish a list of names to anyone. A decision has been reached as to who can ride and under what circumstances, and this will be rigidly adhered to."

Columnist: "Is the information we want available?"

Spokesman: "I should think so."

Spokesman: "There couldn't be any military secret about it . . . It is no more a military secret than a jack rabbit running across the street."

Columnits: "As I understand it, your office is supposed to furnish information to the public. Are you also supposed to censor information?"

SPOKESMAN: "We are not set up to censor information. The only censorship is that which involves military security."

Columnist: "Does a trip to a musical show at Bohemian Grove involve military security?"

Spokesman: "No."

Columnist: "In that case if the information is available, if it is not a military secret, and if you are not supposed to censor anything except military secrets, why can't you tell the public what it's entitled to know?"

Spokesman: (fumbling for words): "There you get into a very personal thing. In government you should get an honest answer while it will not embarrass . . ." (his voice trailed off.)

Too Embarrassing

Columnist: "That is an important point. The question is whether government officials, who are paid by the taxpayers, should be allowed to suppress information—just because it may be embarrassing to them."

Spokesman: "I didn't say this would be embarrassing to them. But it might embarrass other people."

Columnist: "Now, let's not be naive. Whoever was invited to ride in an Air Force plane might be embarrassed if his name were published, but his embarrassment wouldn't be as great as the official who invited him—Secretary of Defense Johnson, in this case.' "

Columnist (continuing): "Does the Defense department consider that the taxpayers are entitled to know how their money is spent—as long as military security is not involved?"

The spokesman refused to answer.

When an attempt was made to querry Johnson personally, it was found he had flown to Clarksburg, W. Va., in a special government plane to play golf. Steve Early, also queried, was out of town.

Republican Party May Name Woman For Vice Presidency

A VIP, MRS. V. P.—The Republican high command plans to give the voters, who have not yielded to its persuasions since 1928, something different in 1952—a woman candidate for Vice-President. And that woman is to be Senator Margaret Chase Smith, of Maine, first of her sex ever elected to full term and first of her party ever in the Senate. This was determined at a meeting held in utter secrecy, in New York. Among those who attended, were, I am told, Rep. Joe Martin, Sen. Taft, G. O. P. National Chairman Gabrielson, Edgar Queeny, of St. Louis, and the lady, in person. If she was not in the room, the plan had her knowledge and nod.

No decision was made as to the Presidential choice. That is subject to vicissitudes which cannot yet be safely anticipated. But, no matter who he is, his running-mate is to be Sen. Smith, my informant assures me, to put a new fillip into national campaigning and to attempt to stampede the feminine votes.

Information comes to me from incontrovertible sources that not all the Puerto Ricans, so-called, are from that island. Natives of other Caribbean ports have been sneaked into New York after procuring birth-certificates for purposes of falsification in San Juan. My informant is a resident of East Harlem (Little Spain) who is familiar with the unmistakably varied dialects. Since immigrants from Puerto Rico need no passports, therefore no photographic identification, the transaction is simple. A Cuban or Santo Domingan, let us say, applies for a certificate in the name of someone—anyone—of about his age, in Puerto Rico, with usually a name common to the region, like Gomez, Rodriguez, etc., and probably doesn't even have to show that. Any person may apply for a certified copy of anyone's birth record and get it without question for 50 cents. For relief purposes these foreigners use the names they chose for the deception. In fact, some even get papers bearing their own names, with the data of Puerto Ricans who have the same names.

IN CONNECTION with reliefers, it has been called to my attention that not all our New York gypsies are parasites. I do not retract a word I wrote about these slothful, thieving intruders. But I want to add a note: there are numerous musicians of Hungarian gypsy origin who live useful lives and have nothing to do with the colony which has descended on the once-mansioned Pitt Street, which is so foreign to even this cosmopolitan metropolis that the school authorities, by some unexplained tacit consent, do not enforce truancy rules or any compulsory education on these native-born aliens.

They live 15 and 16 to a room, vacant store or cellar. They have weird ceremonies for weddings, births, and funerals, though all these are frequent enough. Rejoicing and lamentation and drunken disturbances are ignored by the police. These gypsies pay no taxes but they collect all they can in doles. They seem to enjoy life in a feudal duchy within borders of their own choosing, in a swarming sector of the older portion of the city—almost as immune against authority as they are against soap.

LOU WALTERS, Broadway showman, and E. M. Loew, of New England, his partner, are in Hollywood, negotiating for a possible purchase of the Earl Carroll Theatre and its adjoining expansion project. The associates and heirs of Carroll, who died in a plane crash, want out and want a lot of money. The Earl made it a great enterprise, but without his personality, inventiveness and gambling proclivities, they are not as confident of its potentialities as they were while its creator was there to guide it. Besides, the estate must come up with $250,000 in cash, to pay for the cemetery monument Carroll ordered in his will—a memento as extravagant and as conspicuous as were all his ventures.

Walters, who operates the Latin Quarter, is a spectacular and daring entrepreneur. He opened the Boston Latin Quarter with a $2,500 investment and sold it to Mickey Redstone for $350,000. He has flourished with a type of entertainment (girl shows) at huge expense in New York, where virtully all competitors had to retrench or retire. He can parallel anything Carroll ever achieved, except the troubles into which Carroll hurled himself head-on.

In some cases a soft answer turneth away wrath, but in many a case it gives the tough hearer the impression that he can make a doormat of the soft answerer with impunity.

'It's Okay, John, But Can You Afford 'Em?'

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

MOST penetrating observation in this week's mail from my readers:

"I think there is much to much advice to teen-agers on how to handle their parents and not enough to parents on how to stand up to their children and not just let themselves become standbys; footing the bills, keeping them fed and clothed, etc."

MILLETT

Sure, there is. In just the last few years the teen-ager has been made to think the world revolves around him.

Teen-age columns and teen-age forums and teen-age magazines are forever telling the teen-ager how to "handle his parents."

What was once the "awkward age" has become the age America bows down to.

We play up the teen-agesr slang and the more idiotic it is the more publicity it gets.

We have magazines exclusively devoted to teen-age fashions.

We get groups of teen-agers together to tell us what is wrong with parents.

GET AWAY WITH MURDER

We've built then canteens where they can get completely away from us dull, stupid adults.

We treat them like special persons with special rights—and don't demand anything of them around the house, not even respect.

And we've made them think all this is very cute, indeed.

How all this came about in such a short time, I'm not certain. But it's a cinch it hasn't made life with a teen-ager any easier for his parents.

Nobody wants to go back to the time when we regarded teen-agers as being at the "awkward age."

But haven't we carried this campaign to glamorize the tenn-ager just a trifle too far?

After all, their parents have to live with them. They have to foot the bills and take the blame when the teen-agers handle their parent so well, they get completely out of hand.

So maybe it's time we started treating teen-agers just like any other member of the family—rather than the star boarder.

'Try And Stop Me"

OVER IN England, two cockneys were riding up to London on the morning train when they spied a dignified old party on the bench opposite immersed in his morning Times. "Bli' me," said one in awe, "it's the Archbishop of York."

"Ye're cuckoo," scoffed the other. After heated discussion, they bet a quid on it. "Only one way to find out," said the first. "I'll ask 'im!"

He poked the old party vigorously in the back and said, "Beg pardon, mate, but, to settle a bet, are you not Archbishop of York?"

The old man put down his paper angrily and said very distinctly, "What the blank blank do you mean by bothering me this way? Buzz off, you blank blank blank, before I pull the bell cord."

The cockney resumed his seat with a puzzled air and admitted, "I still dunno whether it's the archbishop or not. 'E wouldn't tell me!"

Death Halted Plans Of Noted Author For New Novel, Play

ATLANTA, Sept. 19.—Margaret Mitchell had tentatively planned a new book, a play, and several articles, her husband, John R. Marsh, told me today, in the modest apartment that is a vivid reminder of the late author of "Gone With The Wind."

RUARK

However, Mr. Marsh said, she had not written one word prior to the traffic accident which caused her death on Aug. 16.

"She had planned to write more since 1936," Mr. Marsh said, "but this whirlwind that swept her up, ever since, never allowed any time for writing. A certain amount of tranquility is necessary for any creative work, and the flood of responsibilities to "Gone With The Wind" never lessened for a day. She was hoping that some day the strain would ease, but it never did."

Mr. Marsh said that his wife had contemplated another novel of the Civil war, but from a different approach. She had often discussed doing a play, which was to be based on her own experiences in the tremndous backwash of success that has never dwindled since "Gone" appeared in 1936. It was to be a play about the chaos that can come to any normal couple, trying to live normal lives, in a home that has suddenly become the property of the world. "It could have been based on any one day in this house," Mr. Marsh said.

Series Was Planned

Peggy Mitchell had, more immediately in mind, a series of articles, the first dealing with her experiences with Communism. She had been a target for attack almost from the first day of publication of her vast book in 1936, until, as Mr. Marsh says, she had finally become a stock portion of the Communist line.

"What the New York Daily Worker said followed right along with the London Daily Worker and the reaction of the Jugaslav press," Mr. Marsh said. "You remember that the premiere of the picture here was picketed, and that Howard Rushmore was fired from the Worker because his reviews weren't nasty enough. My wife was considering an article about Communism when the accident happened."

MR. MARSH'S flat statement should kill the reports that Atlanta's fabulously successful daughter had another opus on the fire—or even that it had been completed. Mr. Marsh repeated: "She never put a word on paper."

Although the Marsh apartment's bookshelves are packed with some 30 foreign editions of Miss Mitchell's book, she neve saw the last translation to come in. That was the Hebrew version for Palestine. It arrived, in four small volumes, the day she was struck down.

It was to Miss Mitchell's credit that never, during the years following publication of "Gone" had she ever accepted an offer to cash in on the immense potency of her name. Instead, she devoted her time to keeping up with the vastly complicated aftermath of business, of maintaining old personal friendships, of avoiding as much outside intrusion as possible, and of fighting fiercely the noperators attempted to muscle in on her publication rights. She fought and won several suits, one of which ran 10 years.

Mourned By Citizens

"She won a reputation for toughness," her husband said. "The word got out that you couldn't push Mitchell around. She was an Irisher."

Peggy Mitchell's huge devotion to charitable doings and constant, small, unpublicized kindnesses have caused her to be mourned almost as a saint in Atlanta. One of her friends had said, simply: "Without her our lives will never be the same." I meantioned this near-saintliness to Mr. Marsh, who shook his head.

"I would rather remember her in another way," he said. "It is in the thing Rhett said when Melanie died. To me, she was a very great lady."

NEW CITY LIGHTING

The street lighting extensions and improvements authorized by the Lubbock City commission a few days ago are likely to pay dividends of several kinds other than the mere improvement of illumination. The program calls for mercury vapor lamps on such key thoroughfares as Nineteenth, College and Avenues A, H and Q, and for 150 additional lights of standard types in residential areas.

Wichita Falls recently installed mercury vapor lights in its business district and a decline was noted immediately in burglaries and holdups. Police there said the lighting had much to do with the improvement. Also, there were fewer night-time traffic accidents—likewise credited to the better illumination.

It is to be hoped, and reasonably expected, that similar improvements in Lubbock may have similar results—especially when our residential areas are lighted as well as they should be. The 150 new lights ordered for those areas at least scratch the surface of this particular need, shown by surveys four years ago to total more than 1,000 new fixtures—and needs since then have grown by several hundred.

Big Spring Boy Held For Assault On Girl

BIG SPRING, Sept. 19. (AP) — Norman King, 18, was charged with the rape of a 16-year-old girl. Four other youths were taken into custody.

County Attorney Elton Gilliland said the charge was filed with Justice of the Peace W. O. Leonard. The girl said she was raped several times near here early yesterday.

Three Make Swimming History By Crossing Channel Same Day

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPE
Associated Press Staff Writer

DOVER, England, Sept. 19 (AP)—Two Egyptians and a Greek made swimming history yesterday, conquering the English channel within the same 24 hours.

A fourth swimmer, 58-year-old Dr. Basil Brewster of Britain, failed yesterday on his 13th try.

The successful trio was Greek army major Zason A. Ziganos, 40, and Egyptians Hassan Abdel Rehim, 41, an army lieutenant, and Sgt. Marie Hassan Hamad, 30.

Ziganos and Hamad made the swim from France to England. Rehim crossed from England to France, becoming the third man to swim the channel both ways. He crossed from France to England last year.

Encounter Calm Sea

Rehim swam from Dover to Cap Gris Nez in 15 hours and 38 minutes.

Hamad took 15 hours and 22 minutes to make the crossing from France to England.

The trio defied unfavorable weather forecasts to make their bids and their luck held. There was a calm sea most of the time and only a slight breeze rippled the waters that have been known to batter swimmers into semi-consciousness.

Ziganos arrived in England naked. About a third of the way across he complained that his trunks bothered him and kicked them off.

Rehim had loud praise for Allah, the Moslem god.

"Allah did it," he said, "Allah and the body he gave me."

Elephant Has Cake At Birthday Party

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 19. (AP)—An elephant and an estimated 12,000 persons ate cake together yesterday.

The throng showed up at the Little Rock zoo to give Ruth, the elephant, a birthday party.

Ruth was permitted to go off her strict diet to taste the first piece of a cake eight by seven feet square, five feet tall and weighing about 800 pounds. The youngsters and adults alike filed by for their pieces.

Ruth—who had been given a special bath, pedicure (polished toe-nails) and singe for the occassion—provided the entertainment. She went through a routine of tricks she learned in a circus years ago.

Ruth is 36 years old.

Film Actor Richard Dix Seriously Sick

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19. (AP)—Richard Dix, 54-year-old movie star famed for his virile roles, remains critically ill from a heart attack, Hollywood Presbyterian hospital reported today.

He has been gravely ill since the attack Aug. 10. He has had several similar seizures in recent years.

U. S. IS SILENT ON SITUATION

China War Case Headed For UN Soon, Delegates Believe

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — The Chinese war today appeared headed for the United Nations in the near future.

The Chinese delegation to the U. N. maintained silence on reports from Canton that the Nationalist government is considering putting its struggle against communism up to the U. N., either the general assembly which meets tomorrow or the security council.

But key U. N. delegates arriving for the assembly speculated privately that it is only a question of time before the Chinese war will bob up in the U. N.

U. S. Policy Indicated

If the Canton government does lodge charges, these sources speculated, they may involve Russia. This would receive the quick and personal attention of Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vinshinsky, fiery Soviet diplomat leading the Russian delegation again.

The United States delegation also kept silence on the Chinese situation. But U. N. circles pointed directly to a speech yesterday by Ambassador Philip C. Jessup as an indication of the U. S. course if a case is made by China.

Jessup spoke at a meeting of the American Association for the United Nations starting the annual observance of the founding of the U. N.

Jessup, who has been directing State department study of the Chinese situation, pledged American support through the U. N. to free peoples fighting Communism in Asia and Europe.

"It is the policy of our government," he said, "to use the full measure of its influence to support the attainment of freedom by all peoples who, by their acts, show themselves worthy of it and ready for it.

"We shall strive unremittingly through the United Nations and in association with free peoples, whether they be in Europe or in Asia, to see to it that freedom is preserved."

Jessup said the United States will back in the assembly a U. N. program for aid to underdeveloped areas and continuation of the Balkans and Korean commissions and the little assembly, all boycotted by the Soviet group.

Debates Scheduled

The American delegate said also that the U. S. favors early independence for all of Libia, division of Eritrea between Ethiopia and Angelo-Egyptian Sudan, and Italian trusteeship for Italian Somaliland.

The assembly is scheduled to convene at 10 a. m. E.S.T. tomorrow. The first business will be the election of a president. Brig Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, the Philippine delegate, is generally conceded to be the assembly choice.

General debate — in which the top delegates of each country states his nation's plans and policies for the assembly — will begin Wednesday.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson has asked for a spot early in the debate and his address may come Wednesday or Thursday. There is no hint when Vishinsky will speak for the Russians.

After the policy statements are ended, the assembly will break up in committees and work at Lake Success for several weeks on 72 items on its business sheet.

The session is expected to run into December.

Fasting Fatal To Minister

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 19 (AP)—A 70-year-old negro minister is dead of the effects of 30 days of almost continuous fasting.

The Rev. Taylor L. Lee, pastor of the God in Christ church, died in Portsmouth hospital yesterday. His wife said he had abstained from food to emulate Christ's 40 days of fasting in the wilderness.

Dr. S. Gerard Griffin said it was "a plain case of starvation."

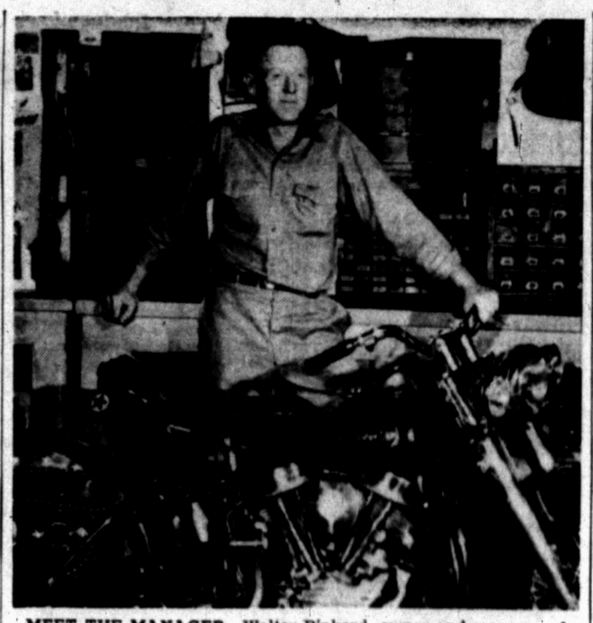

Mrs. Lee said fasting was practiced by members of the sect and that her husband abstained from food "when he felt the hands of the Lord in his heart."

Fed Through Veins

In the last days of his fast which ended Sept. 4, the clergyman was so weak, Mrs. Lee said, that parishers had to hold up his head to permit him to drink water.

The minister, who formerly served as pastor of the Church of God in Christ in New Haven, Conn., was fed through the veins for several days after his admittance to the hospital Sept. 9. Later he was able to take fluid nourishment.

Surviving besides the widow are three children, Taylor, jr., 13, Eva May, 9, and Marion, 7.

MEET THE MANAGER—Walter Pinkard, owner and manager of Lubbock Motorcycle company, was born at West Plains, Mo., May 27, 1909. His family moved when he was small and his childhood was spent in various places in Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. Most of his schooling was at LaJunta, Colo. After his schooling was over, he drove trucks and did many other types of work, and he farmed in Colorado for eight years. He then worked with his brother in Albuquerque, N. M., for two years in the brother's Harley Davidson motorcycle dealership. He came to Lubbock and purchased the Harley Davidson agency here Sept. 8, 1947. On Feb. 11, 1949, he completed a new building at 1702 Ave. F and moved there from the former location, 1940 Texas avenue. His hobby is riding motorcycles, but not in races. Mr. and Mrs. Pinkard and two children, Robert, 12, and Ann, 9, live at 2507 Ave. K. (Staff Photo).

Ice Box Trap For Small Boy

FRESNO, Calif., Sept. 19. (AP)—An old fashioned ice box, junked in the backyard where Edward Ryder was playing with a couple of puppies, proved a death trap for the 3½ year old boy.

He apparently put the pups in the larger compartment, then crawled into a smaller one. The icebox was aslant and the door swung shut, latching the boy in the cramped space. Se soon suffocated.

Puppies Saved

That is the way the tragedy was reconstructed by Detective Sergeant L. M. Morris after the body was found yesterday, many hours after search was started for him.

During the search, the boy's grandmother, Mrs. Golda Peck, had opened the door to the large compartment and out tumbled the puppies, alive.

Because she thought the other compartment were too small, she didn't open them. However, Coroner A. M. Yost said the boy probably was dead by that time.

India hopes to have a National Sports Club to encourage games of all sorts.

Film And Radio Comedian Dies

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19 (AP) — Actor Frank Morgan—he of the harried manner and embarrassed laugh—is dead.

The veteran stage, movie and radio comic, who in real life took events so calmly he once slept through the victory of his own yacht in a hotly contested race to Honolulu, died yesterday during his sleep. He was 59 years old.

His wife of 34 years, Alma, noticed he had stopped breathing and called an inhalator squad. An hour's effort was futile.

Morgan had just finished a picture, "Keys To The City," with Clark Gable and Loretta Young, on Thursday, but he did not seem unduly tired. It was his 68th film.

Latest Movie Released

His latest-released movie was "The Stratton Story," in which he portrayed a baseball scout. Among his top films were "The Great Ziegfeld, "Naughty Marietta," and "Green Dolphin Street." He also had his own radio show for a time.

Morgan, born Wupperman, in New York City June 1. 1890, was a son of the late George Wupperman, manufacturer of Angostura bitters.

One of his greatest interests was yachting. Despite this, Morgan had to be awakened when his Dolphin II won the California to Honolulu yacht race in 1947.

When he returned to the mainland amid much studio-prompted fanfare, Morgan took his plaudits with aplomb. "When applause is coming your way," he told a friend then, take it. Take it all, so that in your old age you'll still be hearing the faint echoes of it."

Survivors include the widow; a son, George Morgan, 32; his brother, Ralph, also an actor; and two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Langdon, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and Mrs. Zoyla Cook, Santa Barbara, Calif.
