It is the first competition

Northcutt, who has been elected to the Precinct 3 office for years, announced last Saturday that he would be seeking another term.

Both Henderson and Northcutt are candidates in the Democratic Primary.

HENDERSON STATEMENT

Here is the formal statement in which Henderson authorized The Record to publish his candidacy after thorough, careful consideration of the responsibilities for the office of County Commissioner.

"It is my sincere belief that I can serve the citizens of Precinct 3 as an efficient, capable commissioner."

"My pledge to the citizens of Precinct 3 is that I will conduct my campaign on my own merits and qualifications. I earnestly ask for your support and promise that I will serve all the citizens of Precinct 3 honestly, fairly and effectively."

Henderson, who lives in Dorn Community, on west side of Lake Colorado City, is a native of Mitchell County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Jack) Henderson.

Ex-Mayor Dies In Dallas Home

Hyman L. Berman, 68, retired Colorado City business man and former mayor here, died unexpectedly Tuesday morning in Dallas where he and his wife were living.

Mr. and Mrs. Berman had returned Monday from a holiday visit in California with their sons, Dr. Stanley Berman and Dr. Irwin Berman. Apparently recovered from recent heart surgery in Houston, Mr. Berman was fatally stricken shortly after breakfast at his home.

Funeral services were conducted in Wieland-Meritt Funeral Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m. Burial was in the Dallas Temple Emanuel cemetery.

Born in old Lithuania March 15, 1899, Mr. Berman was married to the former Miss Alice Shapiro in Dallas in 1925. The couple moved to Colorado City, where they owned and operated the Berman Variety Store which was closed in 1963 after 33 years.

He retired from the retail business in May 1958 when he sold Berman Variety, Inc., to a group of investors, including his sons, Stanley and Irwin.

Berman was continued to own downtown business property in Colorado City and agriculture land within the county, served two terms as city councilman from 1960 to 1964 and for two years was mayor.

In 1966 he was Chamber of Commerce president and was elected as the 1967 Chamber banquet for outstanding citizens.

He was formerly president of Colorado City Kiwanis and was elected lieutenant and governor of Kiwanis Division 22, comprised of Kiwanis organizations from the Colorado City area to New Mexico border.

Active in various civic organizations, he was an officer for years in Mitchell County Kiwanis Club, when the organization was at its peak and in 1960 directed the

Leader Named For Red Cross Drive

Red Cross Chairman Jack Walker of Loraine Wednesday announced the selection of L. B. Elliott, Colorado City civic leader and businessman, as chairman for the 1968 drive for Red Cross funds.

Plans are, Walker said, to begin this year's drive January 17.

Walker pointed out that Red Cross had made no drive in '67.

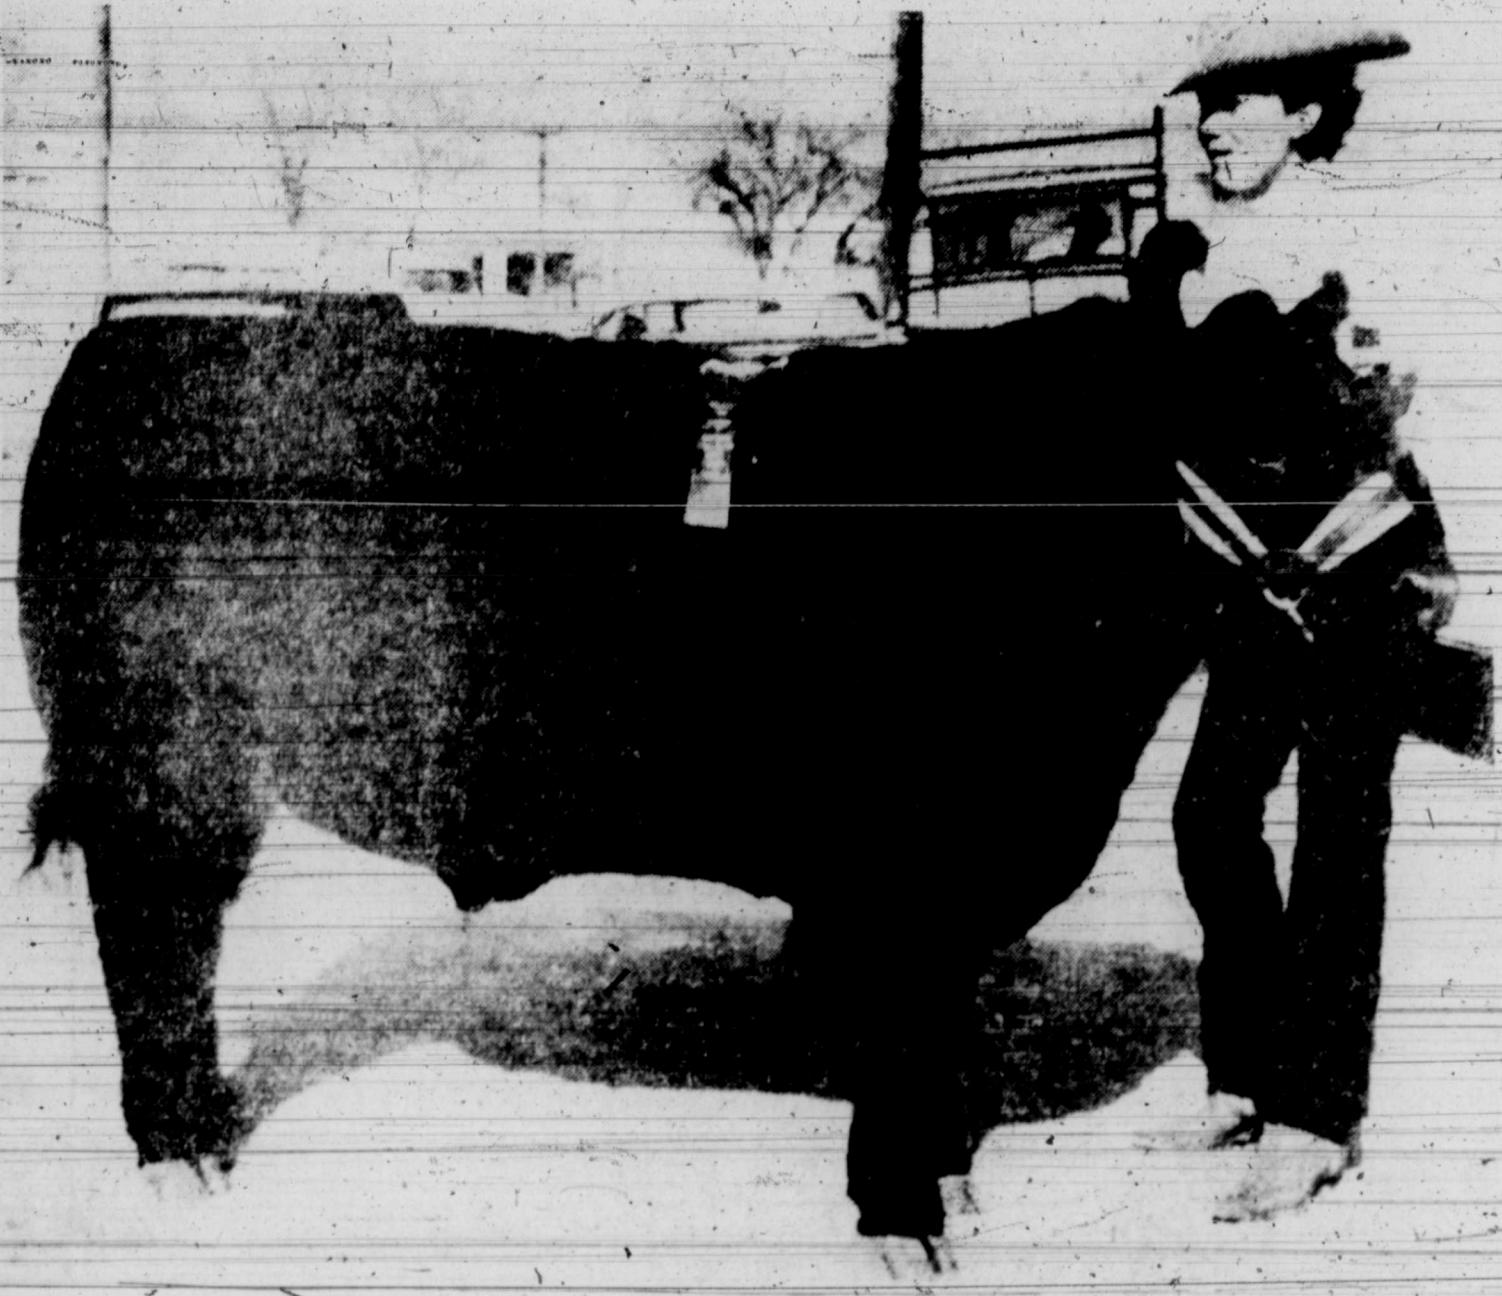

"We had hoped that the United Fund would make its drive last fall and we planned to be a part of that," he said, "and when we found out there would be no United Fund drive, we were slow in getting organized for our campaign."

"We feel that we are fortunate in obtaining Mr. Elliott for our drive chairman," Walker said, "since we think that this is a very important time for the Red Cross in Mitchell County."

"We have about 60 servicemen in Viet Nam and in time of trouble, the Red Cross is about our only contact with them. The Red Cross sends 700 messages a day on behalf of U. S. Servicemen in Viet Nam, and our own chapter averages a dozen or so a month."

Elliott said that his first preliminary meeting with workers would be Jan. 10.

"We hope to have part of our workers by then, and we will make final plans and look at the budget at that time," he said.

Becky And Her Champion Angus

Becky Merket, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Merket, stands her heavyweight Angus bull, after winning the grand championship of the Loraine FFA & 4-H Livestock Show Friday. She also claimed the reserve championship with a medium weight Hereford. It was the fourth time in five years the eighth grade student exhibited the grand champion at Loraine.

7:10 p.m.

Assistant Police Chief Bill Henderson investigated the accident and arrested De La Cruz.

Two cars, occupied and parked about 75 feet south of Walnut's intersection with Eighth St., were severely damaged in the collisions.

Damage to a 1965 Mercury owned by Earl Cook Jr. was estimated at about $1,200 by police and about $1,800 to a 1966 Chevrolet 2-door sedan owned by Brice Webb.

SO... it's back to the salt mines... time to pay the piper... the party's over... the holidays done.

This is the week everybody should write a few letters while people can still enjoy the luxury of mailing a missive for a nickel. Next week it's gonna cost six cents.

Now is the time for all good citizens to register at the courthouse in order to vote in this important National Election year.

Now is the hour to start looking forward instead of backward. Today was tomorrow yesterday and will be yesterday tomorrow.

Time travels by jet.

WHAT would you put on your own look-forward-to list?

Do you look forward to new books to read... new records to play... new friends to greet... another birthday on the calendar?

Is this the year you plan a trip... hope for romance... look forward to a change for the better?

New Year's are for looking-forward-to.

While we're at it, wonder if it's being unreasonable to look forward to fewer articles about Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burton? New McCall's quotes Mrs. Burton, or Liz Taylor, as saying to him, "If you get killed or die or anything, I'll never speak to you again."

First, time lines such as those came to light was in the little book "Freakies," by Gene Stratton Porter.

IS IT asking too much to look forward to less publicity (unsought) for President Johnson's daughters? How they must weary of it, too.

Fewer fugitives from the barbershop and bathtub calling themselves mod musicians? Fewer miniskirts on the muscle bound?

While we're at it, let's not neglect the mores. Isn't it fun to look forward to more candidates in the race for Governor?

More late movies... more cook it with soup recipes... more little magazine tests to measure your sentiments, sensibility, style and sex appeal... more vacation plans.

More strawberry shortcake... more pancakes on Sunday... more flowers for the living.

Always when a year is new
I catch me looking forward to.
And yet when all is said and done
Surprises are the mostest fun.

SPEAKING of surprises, found one in the little blue Falcon, just before Christmas.

It was a gift-wrapped work of art, handmade by Jennie Wright (Mrs. Davis) of TESCO Village. Have you seen the miniature furniture she makes as pin-cushions or what-not? Mine is an exquisite little slipper chair with crimson velvet seat.

And if you've never eaten homemade bread, warm from the kitchen of Alice (Mrs. Roy Davis) Coles, you haven't really eaten properly.

Card from Long Beach, California, was signed by our Bonnie Jackson La Rue and her husband Police Captain Al La Rue, plus their sons... Another came from Fran, signed Orval and Evelyn Coles... and a lovely one from Plainview signed Irene and Ralph Graham.

SEEN LATELYS included Erna Lou Merrill Burt, wife of Mike and mother of Jane Ann.

Erna Lou was saying that Margie Cadell Bay, her husband Charles Ray, their son Terry and daughter Nancy live in Ft. Worth. Margie teaches classes at Texas Wesleyan College (TWC) and works toward her doctorate. Charles is registrar at the new Tarrant County Junior College.

Saw Ruth and Billy Cooper... Inez Heck... Frank Derogibus, too. Office visitors were Dick Wistrand... Wallace Price... Max Caswell.

FAMILIAR FACES various places belonged to Pat Barber and his wife, here for the holidays from the University at Austin... Mrs. Oscar Majors saying she had her "children and grandchildren" with her at Christmas.

Mabel Kelley (Mrs. Frank H.) on the shopping scene. Saw Doyle Kiker downtown... Bill Randle, too... and Viola (Mrs. Curtis) Ervin headed for Ft. Worth... Gilbert Leach, county clerk.

Caught glimpses of A. L. Holman... Jimmie Henderson... Elizabeth Elliott, wife of Lewis... Melanie Par-

Saw Rochelle (Mrs. Arnel) Smith in becoming slacks and blouse. Alford Pickens (Mrs. Sefton) in a cute checked dress.

T. J. Goss dropped by to plug the Red Cross drive, coming to Jan. 11.

Just found out the young Eddie Pilands brought the beautiful home built by the Vigil Mosers at 1441 Dallas St. and moved in several weeks ago.

Among the lucky 'Aggie fans sitting in the Cotton Bowl, Monday, were Raymond Fuller and his wife Virginia.

THIRTEEN of the week came Tuesday when I looked up to see a tall, smiling young man in "civies."

It was Robert Henderson, flown home from Japan where he was hospitalized from wounds suffered during combat in Vietnam.

He was with his daddy Truman Henderson and was purchasing a half gallon carton of Neopolitan ice cream.

Told me was looking "just great" young Robert grinned. "I am. Except for a few holes."

The holes don't show. The smile in his eyes did show and it looked pretty wonderful.

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever — she always fears the worst!

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to spiritual neglect than any of the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.

Yet it isn't a disease, at all! It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child . . . THIS church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: 1. For his own sake. 2. For his child's sake. 3. For the sake of his community and nation. 4. For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PROBABLY COMING DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

Agent Suggest Use Left-Over Turkey

No need to fret over left-over turkey from special holiday meals. Turkey already cooked offers an endless array of menu possibilities for several weeks, said Miss Janice Miller, Mitchell H.D. agent.

Slice the more "sliceable" portions and then dice or grind the remaining meat. Divide into portions just right for your family mealtime needs. Freeze immediately.

Try this tasty TURKEY RICE SOUP. For five servings, you'll need 4 cups turkey stock, 1/4 cup finely diced onion, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1/2 cup diced carrots, 1/2 cup rice, 3 tablespoons fat, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 cup diced turkey and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley.

Heat stock to boiling. Add vegetables and rice to stock and cook slowly. Melt fat, blend in flour. Add a little

YOU GOTTA REGISTER -

That's good news from the Court-house about voter registration is moving along for this 1968 election year.

I don't want Montie Hardegree and his Tax Office staff to be overworked, but more voters the better for all of us.

This is the first year everyone who votes — no matter his or her age — must register. And deadline date is Jan. 31.

I'm not drumming up business for either political party. I'm just reminding you that it is both a privilege and responsibility to vote — and we can't vote if we are not registered.
