AT 37, HE'S NOT TOO OLD TO WRITE SANTA LETTERS

Dear Santa:

It took me a long time to get around to it (37 years), but I want to thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for all the toys, candy, and all the other lovely things you have given me, over the years. You are a wonderful guy, the most to say the least. So many, many fellows, myself included, have impersonated you, but you never seem to mind. I guess the years have taught you that impersonation is the finest compliment, and speaking just for myself I want to think I am like you and I want to be like you. Also, I am selfish enough to be glad you cannot get to all those kiddoes who are looking for you, for that gives me a chance to get in on the fun. As Jimmy Durante says, "Everybody wants to get into da' act." I'm glad I now know why your eyes have such a twinkle in them and why your laugh is so deep. As much joy as you give the kids, they give you more.

So thanks again and if you need any help just call on me and I'll see what I can do.

DON LINDLEY.

Mrs. Mary E. Horton, Oldest Resident, Buried Here Last Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Eugenia Horton, 96, Hico's oldest resident, were held Friday afternoon at First Baptist Church. Rev. L. H. Davis of Fort Worth and Rev. D. L. Barnes officiated. Burial was in Hico Cemetery under the direction of Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home.

Mrs. Horton passed away last Wednesday in Hico Hospital after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Horton was born in Cherokee County and moved to Walnut Springs when she was six weeks old. She was the first white child who ever lived in Walnut Springs. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Autrey.

Her father fought in the Civil War, leaving her mother with three small children. The family became so terrified from Indian raids they returned to East Texas.

Following the war the family returned to Hill County. She was a member of the old Towash Church, which has become a landmark near Whitney. When she was 15 she was married to B. W. Horton. He died in 1934. She was the mother of 15 children, and had lived in Hico since 1925.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Annie Shaw of Rising Star, Mrs. Lillian Riddle of Brownwood and Miss Rena Horton of Hico; three sons, A. D. Horton of Killen, Bill Horton of Midland, and E. G. Horton of Angleton; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Farrow of Houston and Mrs. Joe Hancock of Clifton; three brothers, William J.

Climax of the huge free giveaway will be Wednesday, Dec. 24, when cash in the amount of $150 will be distributed to lucky winners.

The 3:30 p.m. drawing will offer two awards of $50.00 each, a $20.00 prize, and three awards of $10.00 each.

One of the largest crowds in history was in Hico Saturday for the third drawing of the four-day program. Winners Saturday were J. A. Hendricks, W. E. Cunningham and Mrs. R. L. Gannaway, all receiving $10.00 each; Charlie Padack, who received $25.00; and W. A. (Andy) Hutton, who drew the top award of $50.00.

Group Returns From New York Trip

Mrs. R. L. Lewis of Fort Worth, Mrs. Zula Strother of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mosser of Irving, made a recent trip to Jamaica, New York. They attended religious ceremonies at the Convent of Little Sisters where Sister Gertrude Immaculee, the former Gertrude Lewis, received the Blessings of the Habit.

They enjoyed sightseeing in Williamsburg, Norfolk, Va., Washington, D. C., New York City, and returned home by New Jersey and Pennsylvania and through the Allegheny Mountains.

Autrey and Lee Autrey of Hico, and Claude Autrey of Dallas; also 37 grandchildren, 73 great-grandchildren, 33 great-great-grandchildren, and seven adopted great-grandchildren. Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Review Club Has Christmas Party

The gracious home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lane was the scene of a lovely party Thursday, Dec. 18, when Mrs. Lane and other associate members of the Hico Review Club entertained members and guests with a Christmas party.

In the living room an arrangement of red carnations was reflected in the large mantel mirror; groupings of greenery were used on the piano and tables to complete the true Christmas color scheme of red and green. In the dining room the refreshment table was laid with an exquisite cut-work linen cloth over blue. A large arrangement of giant white mums, and the elegant silver service made a complete and beautiful picture. Strawberry punch, Special Christmas Wreath Cakes, toasted nuts, olives, and mints were served as guests arrived.

Mrs. H. E. McCullough presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. C. H. Boyd served the cakes.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Lane were her sister, Mrs. Newsum of Austin, Mrs. Chandler and her daughter, Miss Susan, nieces of Mrs. Lane, and Mrs. Colwick, all of Stephenville, and Mrs. Ham, Ilton Sellers of Hico. The out of town visitors were house guests of Mrs. Lane, here to enjoy the festive occasion. Members and guests registered in "The Book of Club History," that is being compiled by Mrs. Lane and committee.

Mrs. E. H. Randalls Jr. called the meeting to order, and members answered roll call with "What I want most for Christmas," these ranged humorously from new teeth to electronic ovens, new rooms and automobiles.

Miss Mettie Rodgers introduced Miss Susan Chandler, charming, attractive and outstanding senior in Stephenville High School. Miss Chandler told the story of "Christmas at Mt. Vernon," written by Helen Topping Miller.

Mt. Vernon, cherished as part of our American Heritage, rose vividly in the minds of listeners as the talented young reviewer pictured authentic scenes; related spirited conversations between George and Martha Washington; told of their great joy in being at home once again with their family, relatives and friends, after the long terrible years of war, and of the sincere hospitality they offered their many guests; the Christmas dinner climaxed by the flaming English Plum Pudding; then came the handing out of gifts for everyone, including the colored people of the Plantation; among gifts provided for them were bolts of Calico, which led General Washington to query if he would know one black boy from another when all of them would be wearing red shirts. All of these homey, happy Christmas scenes were made to live again as the warm, human, tender story was so beautifully told.

Miss Chandler's offering is truly an added joy to the holiday pleasures of the club group.

A second pleasure was provided by Mr. Terry Randolph, band instructor in Hico schools, teacher of piano and organ, who gave a most satisfying rendition of the Negro spiritual, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," with Mrs. Rutledge accompanying. Hico counts itself fortunate to have Mr. Randolph as a member of the school faculty and resident of the town. Young men such as Mr. Randolph, in their chosen fields as teachers and leaders of our young people, have much to give to the cultural and civic life of any community.

With Miss Chandler and Mrs. Wood in charge as Santa's official helpers, the group enjoyed the exchange of gifts. The program closed with the group singing "Silent Night," directed by Mrs. O. C. Cook, Mrs. Rutledge at the piano.

This enjoyable and successful party truly entitles Mrs. Lane to be named "The Hostess with the Mostest."

The club votes the associate members, Mmes. Lane, McCullough, Wolfe, Boyd, Fairley and Aycock, the real party givers of the group.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year to all. Hico Review Club. Reporter.

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—

The Beginning of Christmas

By E. E. DAWSON

What are our most important dates? Well, there are our American dates that are important for us Americans, as Independence Day, Thanksgiving Day and still others of like character of real importance. But in this bit of writing we are going to be concerned with the dates of immortal importance. And there are two that rank above all others: Christmas Day and Easter Day. Since the season is what it is, we shall deal mainly with Christmas Day, even though Easter is of equal rank. The fact that Resurrection Day is called by the name "Easter" is unfortunate for it is a name that comes from heathenism. It is too late no doubt for us to do anything about the name, so let's just accept it as is.

I have just read the story of the beginning of Christmas as it is told in the Gospels. Mark says nothing about the birth of Jesus, but begins with the active ministry of our Lord. But Matthew and Luke give us perfectly clear pictures of the event that accounts for Christmas. John goes back in to the beginning in eternity and cites some all-important facts about the birth of our Saviour. Thus each tells important facts of the world's greatest event except the resurrection.

Miracle after miracle occurs in connection with that birth. First, the virgin who was chosen to be the mother of the Christ, Gabriel came to the young woman of Nazareth and greeted her as one of the most favored women of all time. It is easy to understand the consternation of that splendid young woman as she heard the long-looked for announcement. Most impressive is the response of Mary: "Behold, the handmaiden of the Lord." No doubt her mind quickly estimated the cost to her thus to be the mother of the Lord. How could she explain it? She was unmarried. Human nature has always been the same, eagerly seizing on the unusual as something to tell and speculate about. But in spite of all that Mary realized it meant, she submitted to the course the Heavenly Father had chosen for her. Thus at Christmas time we have afresh the marvellous example of this dedicated young woman and it moves other young women to dedicate themselves to God in a similar fashion.

We face again at Christmas time the vast condescension of our Lord to be born in the lowliest possible fashion, in a cavern with horses and donkeys and sheep and oxen. As Paul puts it, "He made Himself of no reputation." Vast humiliation for the Son of God. How we feel ashamed as we consider our own anger when anything happens to humiliate us. We swell up and spit out words of cutting sarcasm and scorching epithets of denunciation. But not He. Worthy to be worshipped of angels, He is at the lowest level of human beings in His birth. Later His humiliation takes Him to the cross, where even the sun refuses to look upon such lowly estate to which He has fallen. But He endured it all without any word of complaint. Let Christmas teach us again to try to be like Him as we walk life's way.

And now let's look at Christmas as we know it. The greatest multitude in all the world is this Christmas observing the birthday of One. No other personality in human history today enjoys the honor that is bestowed on Christ Jesus at Christmas. The religion of Jesus is on the way to triumph.

The mails carry their biggest load at Christmas time. Why? Because men and women and young people and children are sending greetings and gifts and help to friends and the needy and not many are missed in this unparalleled manifestation of friendliness and well-wishing. Ah, what can approximate our Christian Christmas in significance? How we welcome the season.

KEEPING CHRISTMAS

Are you willing to forget what you have done for other people and remember what other people have done for you; to ignore what the world owes you and to think what you owe the world; . . . to see that your fellowmen are just as real as you are, and try to look beyond their faces to their hearts hungry for joy? . . .

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; . . . to bear in mind the things other people have to bear in their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke; and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you . . .

Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world . . . stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death . . . and that the blessed life that began in Bethlehem 1900 years ago is the image and brightness of Eternal Love?

Are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas. And if you can keep it for a day, why not for always? But you cannot keep it alone.

—HENRY VAN DYKE.
