Yanks Stop Cards Friday's Game By Score of 20-10

By LON JONES

The Cardinals win steak was stopped at four on Friday when the Yankees pounded three Cardinal hurlers for 17 hits and 20 runs, beating them 20 to 10. Johnny Mack Brown was the batting star, getting two doubles and a single and batting in four runs.

Holleman and Via also got three hits to help in the slaughter, as 13 errors by the Cardinals helped the Yankees along. The winning pitcher was Bill Brown and the loser was Virgil Jones. Rodney Russell was the only Card pitcher to keep the Yanks from scoring, setting them down in the fifth inning without a hit. Brown pitched better ball than the score indicates, as his mates committed 11 errors behind him.

Green Sox Maul Talco Cubs 17-2 Thursday's Play

By LON JONES

The Bogata Green Sox mauled the Talco Cubs 17 to 2 in League play Thursday as little Donnie Screws completely baffled the hard hitting Cubs with his blazing fast ball. The Cubs could only garner two hits while the Green Sox were getting nine. Screws walked four men and struck out eleven as his team broke a four game losing streak. Screws was the hitting leader, along with J. Eudy with both men getting two hits in four times at bat, although Cruce, the centerfielder, came up with three hits. The win brought the Green Sox record to four wins and four losses and put them in a tie for second with the Cubs who also boast a .500 won lost record.

Bank Deposits, Loans, Resources Show Increases

A comparison of the Talco State Bank's financial statement, published in The Talco Times last week, with that of a year ago, shows deposits, loans and resources have all increased.

Deposits are up $39,157.88, the figures being $612,087.23 now, against $572,930.35 a year ago.

Loans are now $279,781.67, against $257,154.52 a year ago, an increase of $22,627.15.

Resources also climbed $39,996.30 during the year, being $779,183.97, compared to $739,187.67 a year ago.

Cotton Acreage in Texas Estimated At 8,000,000

Washington. — Texas farmers had 3,000,000 acres of cotton in cultivation on July 1, down 16 per cent from last year, the Agriculture Department estimated.

The July 1 estimate compared with 9,568,000 acres planted in cotton last year at this time and a 10-year average of 8,708,000 acres.

"In contrast to conditions during the last several seasons," the department's crop reporting board commented, "soil moisture was adequate for planting the intended acreage in Texas" this year.

"Stands are generally satisfactory, and growth and recovery from a late start were particularly good in northern and western districts," the board added.

It warned, however, that drouth conditions are again developing in a "wide belt of Texas, covering most of the eastern and southeastern parts of the state, the central and southern blacklands and extending to other counties."

Under the new cotton acreage allotment law, Texas farmers could have planted 8,819,178 acres this year.

Texas produced 4,350,000 bales of cotton from 9,000,000 acres last year.

The department is forbidden by law to make a cotton production estimate for this year's crop until August.

Wheat Growers to Vote on Restricted Acreage in 1955

July 23, 1954 is the date when wheat growers throughout the nation will vote to determine whether or not the wheat marketing quota program will continue in operation for the 1955 crop of wheat.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has proclaimed marketing quotas for the 1955 wheat crop. The marketing quota program will be in effect if it is approved by two-thirds of the wheat growers voting in the July 23 referendum. If the quota program is approved, growers who plant within their 1955 acreage allotment will be eligible to market their 1955 wheat free of a marketing penalty.

In the referendum conducted a year ago, for the crop now being harvested, the vote was 390,221 to 57,536. By special act of Congress the acreage allotment for the 1954 crop was set at 62 million acres. The allotment for the 1955 crop is 55 million, the minimum acreage permitted under the law.

Baptists Consider Merits Newspaper Advertising

Southern Baptist Convention executive committee is studying a resolution passed at Saint Louis last week, recommending that Baptist church use newspaper advertising in promoting work of the church.

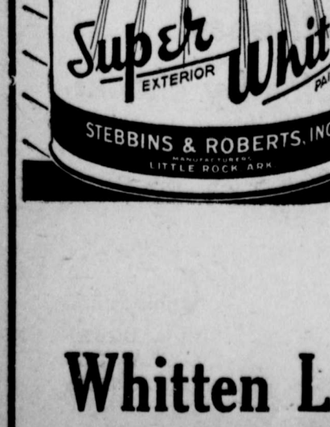

The resolution recognized "newspaper advertising is one of the most effective available means of disseminating information to the public." The resolution pointed out that "some other religious groups are using newspapers with apparent effectiveness." The resolution suggested such advertising would be helpful "in the older sections of our convention and in the new areas into which we are expanding."

The Church of Christ years ago, recognized effectiveness of newspaper advertising and is using it liberally.

About all the newspaper advertising most churches do is when they begin a revival meeting. They pass up such days as Christmas, anniversary of Christ's birth, and Easter, anniversary of His resurrection.

What an opportunity both dates are to proclaim basis of the Christian faith!

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

Most of the divorces in Hollywood seem to emphasize the divorcement of money.

Don't depend too much on dimples, Bud. A few years can change them into wrinkles.

Only a wizard at figures can feel like a million dollars when he has only fifty cents in his pocket.

The lower animals can take care of themselves very well, but 40,000 laws can't make man behave himself.

We want to remind our thermometer that just because everything else is high is no reason for it to make the sky the limit.

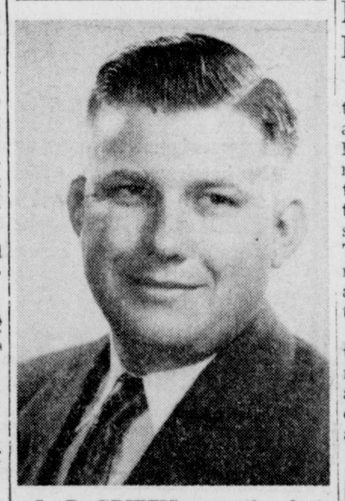

A Pittsburger who took a three-day vacation recently says it took him exactly four days to get over it. Evidently he worked too hard at the job of resting.

A few weeks ago we were yearning for hot weather. We've got it and now we are begging for a cool wave, cracked ice and a soft spot in an air-conditioned room. Aren't we humans hard to please?

Politicians who are relying on their New Deal records for another term in office might find it to their advantage to reshuffle their cards. We'll be hundreds of years paying off for New Deal follies.

Remember way back when Pittsburg individuals could quench their thirst with cool water from a well in front of a Main street drug store and get firewater at the other end of the block?

Gov. Shivers' opponents are making capital of the report that he made a large sum of money in a real estate deal. If the governor had lost in the deal, his opponents might have said that he was too poor a business man to manage the state's business. There are people inside and outside of politics who are always ready to penalize success.

THE GIANT—AND THE PYGMIES!

UNITED, WE GO FORWARD!

It is easy to imagine the jubilation in Moscow over what the Red rulers are calling our "jitters." Hearing the voice of a prophet of gloom and doom on radio and TV, the Kremlin's U. S. correspondents gleefully cable home a description of an America disunited, fearful, falling apart at the seams.

We know better, of course, and the Reds ought to, by now. Sure, we've had some spotty unemployment, some lay-offs here and there. But we are coming out of it, and economists agree that the feared "recession" will be over and forgotten by next fall or sooner.

The number of people working today, as a matter of fact, is close to an all-time high. Wages are high, too—average hourly earnings of factory workers are at record levels. This year may well be the second most prosperous in our history.

We got where we are as a nation on unity of purpose, confidence in ourselves, faith in our future. United we will go forward.

Martin Equipped For Cinemascope

Shelton Gerhard, manager of the Martin Theatre in Mt. Pleasant, has announced that new type lens have been received that will make it possible for the theatre to present special type films in the future, including Cinemascope, Panoramic or VistaView. The new equipment, with only a minor adjustment, can be used, also, for the projection of regular type movies.

The theatre installed the new-type curved screen for the more modern type film several months ago, and the new lens have been on order since that time. They arrived last week.

THAT IS SERIOUS

"Doctor," said the patient, rushing into the physician's office, "you've just got to do something about this insomnia of mine. It's driving me crazy."

"Now, now," soothed the medic, "surely it can't be as bad as all that."

"It can't, eh? Why, I can't sleep even when it's time to get up!"

The cause of the glaring headlight probably is that there are too many light heads back of the headlights.

As if we didn't have enough troubles already, along comes rumblings from Guatamala that sound like echoes from Russia.

TO THE VOTERS OF TITUS COUNTY

Because I have been tied up with the duties of the office of constable, it has been impossible for me to see each of you personally to ask your support in my race for Sheriff in the first Democratic primary July 24.

I want to take this method, therefore, to ask you to vote for me. Most of you know me, but to those of you who don't, let me say that I am serving my second term as Constable and have tried to serve you to the very best of my ability.

I know that I am fully qualified to make you a good sheriff, and I believe that my experience as constable during the past three and a half years will bear me out. I feel, too, that most of you believe that when a man has earned a promotion, because of diligence and faithful service, that it is only right that that promotion be given him.

When you go to the polls Saturday, July 24, I would appreciate it greatly if you would weigh my candidacy carefully, and if you find me worthy, your vote would also be greatly appreciated.

Gratefully yours,

C. M. (Clyde) HOWARD

Winter Legume Harvest in Red River County Now About Completed

The winter legume harvest in Red River County is just about complete. Cooperators harvesting vetch or vetch and small grain mixtures recently include Seneca Cowan, Paul Hill, Carl B. Smith, Raymond Dugger, Mrs. Maclin Atkinson, Maurice Wooley, E. L. Ridens, Maxie Melton, E. R. Stiles, Jim Francis, W. R. Terrell, Dewey Butts, Milton Wakefield and Bob Benningfield. A good part of the seed combined on most of the farms will be planted back this fall.

B. Ponder of Whiteman Chapel combined eight acres of madrid clover on his farm last week. The deep rooted biennial crop turned out 3239 pounds of recleaned seed. It was planted in the spring of 1953, cut twice for hay last year and then produced the seed crop. Mr. Ponder had planned to get another hay crop before harvesting the seed this spring but the excessive rains during May prevented it. He says the hay is in the same class as alfalfa if cut and cured properly. It also provides good grazing under proper management.

Bryan Grayson, manager of the Prichard and Ray Cattle Company land on Red River, has recently set up a portable sprinkler irrigation system to water alfalfa. He also plans to irrigate several hundred acres of pasture land. They have obtained a special permit from the state of Oklahoma for use of water out of Red River for irrigation.

More and more landowners have mowed their pastures during the past week or so. Those observed during the past five days were Brose Medford, Ruby Mae Keeling, Robert Wardell, W. R. Terrell, Dorcus Emory, Omer Coffman, Audie Boze, Alvin Meals, Mrs. Carlton Pressley, Dr. R. W. Payne, Elbert Norris, Vaughn Richardson, Ira Sturch, A. D. Drew, Chester Whiteman, June Brewer, Lee Jackson, Bentsen Development Company, W. P. Jones, Seneca Cowan, W. D. Robertson, Luther Hulen, Paul Coleman, Mrs. Maclin Atkinson, R. L. Jones, Dr. H. W. Parchman and Clyde Mitchell.

Mowing of fall weeds, eliminates competition for much needed moisture and plant food used by the better grasses and legumes in the pastures. To obtain the greatest benefit they should be cut before they get too large and mature seed.

Letters and cards have been received from some 35 absentee landowners since the material was mailed to them some two weeks ago. About fifty per cent of these express a desire to set out pine trees on their land. Most of the absentee owners indicate a desire to carry out other conservation practices such as improvement of cropland and the establishment of improved pasture land.

Several farms were visited last week checking on a suitable block of timber for a stand improvement demonstration, including the use of chemicals and a mechanical tree girdler for hardwood control, and thinning of pine stands to get maximum growth. Foresters with the Texas Forest Service, SCS and the International Paper Company are ready to help conduct the demonstrations as soon as the other details are completed.

Timber is one of the major crops in the county along with pastures and cultivated acreages. Tests have shown that properly handled stands of timber pay excellent dividends for the investment in labor and management.

Nine forestry meetings have been scheduled by the forestry committee working through the district during the next three weeks. The first three meets will be at Dimple, Manchester and Bogata on July 20, 21 and 22. All the programs will start at 8:00 p. m. Colored films and other displays will be carried to the various communities adapted to timber production in an effort to stimulate more interest in the cash crop.

U. S. Sells Milk at Penny and Butter At 15c Pound

Washington.—The government last week sold for 1c a pound, 30,000,000 pounds of surplus dried milk it bought at 16c a pound.

The milk went at that nominal price to the United States International Children's Emergency Fund, which will use it for world wide relief feeding programs. A large part is expected to go to Far Eastern countries, including Korea and Japan.

The Agriculture Department bought the milk under the dairy price support program.

The department also announced the sale of 1,000,000 pounds of butter to the U. S. Army at 15c a pound compared with its buying price under a support program of 65c.

Also it confirmed previous congressional reports that it has agreed to sell butter at 15c a pound to the Veterans Administration for hospitals. No quantities were specified in this agreement.

The depatrment now holds surplus stocks of 262,000,000 pounds of butter and about 424,000,000 pounds of dried milk.

FINISHING TOUCH

A fellow was pretty sick and the doctor ordered him to take a long vacation in Arizona. He went there and at the end of two months he died. They brought the corpse back to Los Angeles and his wife and her brother were viewing the remains.

She said, "Oh Joe, doesn't he look nice?" and Joe replied, "He sure does. Those two months in Arizona did him a lot of good."

FOR GOOD MEASURE

He ordered two dozen roses to be sent to his beloved on her twenty-fourth birthday.

"A rose for every precious year of your life," the card read. Then, because the young fellow was one of his best customers, the florist threw in an extra dozen.

At Deport the official government rain gauge showed. 83 inches of rain fell during the period. Other sections showed lesser amounts.

Game Wardens Get Fish Poisoner

Broken Bow, Ok.—Game Rangers Ervin Ginn, Idabel, and Sam Jones, Broken Bow, recently used the game ranger's time-favored tactic of just hiding out and waiting to nab an Idabel man who was feeding dough balls poisoned with Indian berries to the buffalo and carp in a McCurtain County stream.

The game rangers got information that a deep hole of water in Little River had been baited with chops and that poisoned dough balls would be used Monday. So Ginn and Jones got to the scene before daylight and holed up beneath the roots of a big tree.

At about 8:05 a. m., a man walked up and began throwing dough balls into the baited hole. Then he walked away. At 8:30 a. m., two buffalo fish floated past the hidden game rangers. One half hour later a large buffalo came up drunk or dazed by the poison. A boy appeared and began dipping up the fish. The rangers confiscated the fish and went after the man involved. They found him lying in the front seat of his pickup. In court he pleaded guilty and was fined $100 plus court costs.

TO THE VOTERS OF TITUS COUNTY

During these last few weeks I have been working hard trying to see each of you personally, but because of limited time I'm sure I've missed some of you, so I'm taking this method to solicit your vote for the office of Sheriff on July 24th.

As I've visited throughout the County your hospitality and encouragement have been most gratifyiug. I appreciate more than I am able to express in words every kindness and consideration shown me. If you see fit to re-elect me to this office I shall continue to conduct the affairs of this office in the same impartial manner that has always been my policy.

As I've often stated before I'm running on my own merits and the record that I have made in the past and as we still have about a week left before election day I will be trying to see those of you whom I have missed. Again let me solicit your vote on July 24th.

Yours truly,

HOW DO THEY STAND ON SEGREGATION?

ALLAN SHIVERS

Immediately upon the announcement of the United States Supreme Court Decision in May 1954 outlawing segregation in all Public Schools Allan Shivers issued a statement condemning and deploring the ruling.

Since then over TV, Radio and through the newspapers he has publicly announced he was going to use all legal means at his command to fight for segregation in our public schools and public places.

Has publicly condemned the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) for advocating and working to end segregation in Texas.

RALPH YARBOROUGH

Immediately upon the announcement of the United States Supreme Court Decision in May 1954 outlawing segregation in all public schools Ralph Yarborough was asked by the press for a statement concerning the ruling. He replied he would have to study the ruling first.

Although more than two months have passed he has not made the statement.

Since then he has only denied that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was giving him financial aid and support.

Has not publicly condemned the NAACP for advocating and working to end segregation in Texas.

Has not publicly stated if he favors or deplores the ruling.

Has not stated what he will do about it if elected Governor.

Why has Yarborough failed to take a definite stand on segregation and inform the people of Texas what he proposes to do about the question if elected? Is it because he is bidding for and soliciting the vote and support of those in Texas who advocate non-segregation? What would those who so valiantly fought and died in the Civil War in fighting for the cause of the Confederacy say to a candidate for Governor who failed to make a clear, full and complete announcement of his position on the segregation question as it is confronting Texas and the Southland today?

Esau sold his heritage to Jacob for a bowl of pottage. Are you going to jeopardize your heritage and that of your children by supporting and voting for a candidate for Governor of this great State who will not take a stand and make a full commitment on such a vital and important issue?

We know that Allan Shivers will fight for what he thinks is right. He has made his position clear on segregation and can be depended on to use all means at his command to fight for continued segregation. Let us help him.

Alcorn Explains Why People Are Not Listening to Candidates As Heretofore

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, tries to explain the lack of interest in politics this week. Don't know whether he succeeds or not.

Dear Editar: Some of my neighbors and me were talking the other afternoon about politics, or I better put it the lack of politics.

Nobody, it seems, has gotten very steamed up over politics this year, and here the election is right on us. It used to be, along about this time, all you could hear was politics, and when four or five people got together, a hot argument always developed, with maybe a little fist-fighting on the side. But nowadays not only can you fail to get up any arguments, you can't even get out a crowd at a political speakin, and the few that do turn up just sit there and eye the speaker without much show of response, and there ain't nothin more discouragin than a candidate flailin his arms and meltin down his collar, with nobody listening.

My neighbors were offering all kinds of explanations for this luke-warm interest in politics, one of em said it was the fault of the voters, they just was fallin down on their job of makin democracy work; another said it was the fault of radio and television, they offered too much competition.

I do not agree with any of these. The fault lies mostly with the candidates, and it's not that the candidates aren't as good as they ever was, it's just that they've used up all the adjectives against each other. There ain't nothin original left to call an opponent.

Time was when, if a candidate promised to take the skin off his opponent, a big crowd would turn out to hear him pour it on, and some really colorful speakin resulted, but after a few years of it, after candidates have called each other about all there is to call a man, the novelty wears off. When candidates have succeeded in describing each other down to a certain point, there ain't nothin left to say, there ain't no more skin left to take off, and consequently people lose interest.

Where the candidates made their mistake years ago was in bein too generous in the use of adjectives. If everybody calls everybody a loose-jointed liar, and a horse thief, there just ain't no shock value left, and voters switch on "I Love Lucy." They should have rationed em, usin up just a few words each year, so the supply would have lasted at least through the 20th century. But here the century is only a little past half gone and they're at the bottom of the barrel. Seems like a great lack of foresight, to me. When is the election this year anyway?

Yours faithfully, A. A.

I'M SURE OF IT NOW

Two little brothers were having such a strenuous fight that their mother felt it was her duty to intervene.

"Bobby," she protested, "don't be so selfish. Let your little brother play with your marbles a while."

"But, mother," said the youngster tearfully, "he's going to keep them all the time."

"I don't think so, dear," replied the mother.

"But I know he's going to," insisted the boy. "He's swallowed two of them already."

Statement Bogata Bank Shows Less Money Borrowed

Statement of the First National Bank in Bogata, published in The Bogata News last week, show deposits down slightly, loans down considerable and resources down slightly.

The bank lacks only $16,234.53 having as much money on deposit now as there was a year ago, but th epeople owe it $69,950.00 less now than they did a year ago, so the Bogata area is $48,715.47 better off financially than it was a year ago.

We quote figures as of now and those of a year ago:

Deposits on June 30, 1954—$748,849.79. A year ago $765,-084.32.

Loans on June 30, 1954—$385,-831.61. A year ago $451,781.61.

Resources on June 30, 1954—$868,266.06. A year ago $877,-303.92.

BIG DEAL

A visitor with "advanced" ideas once chided Andrew Carnegie for having so much money, and proposed that he divide it up.

Calling his secretary, Carnegie asked for a statement of his holdings and the population of the world. Receiving the facts, he figured for a moment, then instructed the secretary, "Give this man 16 cents. That's his share of my wealth!"

MORE MONEY for SCHOOLS

During Governor Allan Shivers' administration more money has been spent for schools than ever before.

The result? — better schools, more and higher paid teachers, and better guidance for your children.

Since Allan Shivers became your governor, school funds have increased from 145 million to 211 million dollars per year. Teachers get $1000 a year more. Your child receives individual attention from 15,000 more teachers.

This education climb is your child's guarantee of a profitable and happy future. For you it means assurance about his growing-up years. It means a better Texas for everyone.

IN TITUS COUNTY

$600,392.25 was spent for your child's education during the last fiscal year. He got better teachers with higher salaries and an administration that had more money to spend for its needs. Texas veterans received more educational aid.

The money went for other—but mighty important—things, too, like school buses and cafeterias with hot noontime lunches. It meant more vocational help for your child. It went for many things, all necessary for a better education for him.

FOR CONGRESS

Says:

TO THE VOTERS:

I do not have the money nor do I believe it right to spend large sums or to accept large donations for campaigning by radio, television, large advertisements in newspapers, stop-by-stop helicopter, or any other expensive method. If you are going to elect a Congressman on qualifications, personal intergrity, and ability to serve you, I would appreciate being considered. If this office is to be had for a lifetime or bought, I cannot bid. To date of July 3, 1954, here are facts and figures taken from sworn statements of amounts spent by and things of value loaned to each candidate:

Name	Debts	Donations	Loans	Total Spent
1. Wright Patman	None	None	None	$996.95
2. Douglas E. Wright	None	None	None	$1934.69
3. Kenneth W. Simmons	$888.65	$5862.89	$800.00	$10,554.08

I have photostatic copies of above records available for anyone to see. These records were obtained by sending $3.00 to the Secretary of State, Austin, Texas. Anyone may obtain same.

I respectfully submit this information for the thoughtful voters of the First Congressional District.
