U.S. Backs Return Of Trieste To Italy

Lubbock Host For 4-H, FFA Club Youths

FIRST entries were in their places Saturday for the South Plains Junior Fat Stock show at the Fairgrounds here Monday through Wednesday which holds every promise of being one of the most successful in the 15 years history of the event.

The first delegation to arrive was comprised of 12 members of the Ralls Future Farmers of America chapter, who brought one calf and 20 pigs to compete in the show.

Boys in the group were Dean, C. L. and G. N. Davis, W. D. Harrell, Bobby Williams, C. H. Verette, Bill Gilbreath, Boyce Bryan, Jim Noble, Bill Evatt, Ronald Anderson and Bob Wideman. John Mitchell, Ralls vocational agriculture teacher, is in charge of the group.

Before the show opens at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, approximately 600 calves, pigs and lambs are expected to be on the scene. Entries have been received from most of the 29 South Plains and New Mexico counties in the area served by the show.

Vernice Ford, general chairman of the event, said the quality of the livestock is the best ever entered in a show here.

All the animals have been raised by boy or girl members of 4-H clubs or FFA chapters.

They will compete for approximately $800 in posted prize money. In additon, a pool of about $3,000 has been subscribed by Lubbock business men to guarantee premiums above market prices when the exhibited stock is sold at auction at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

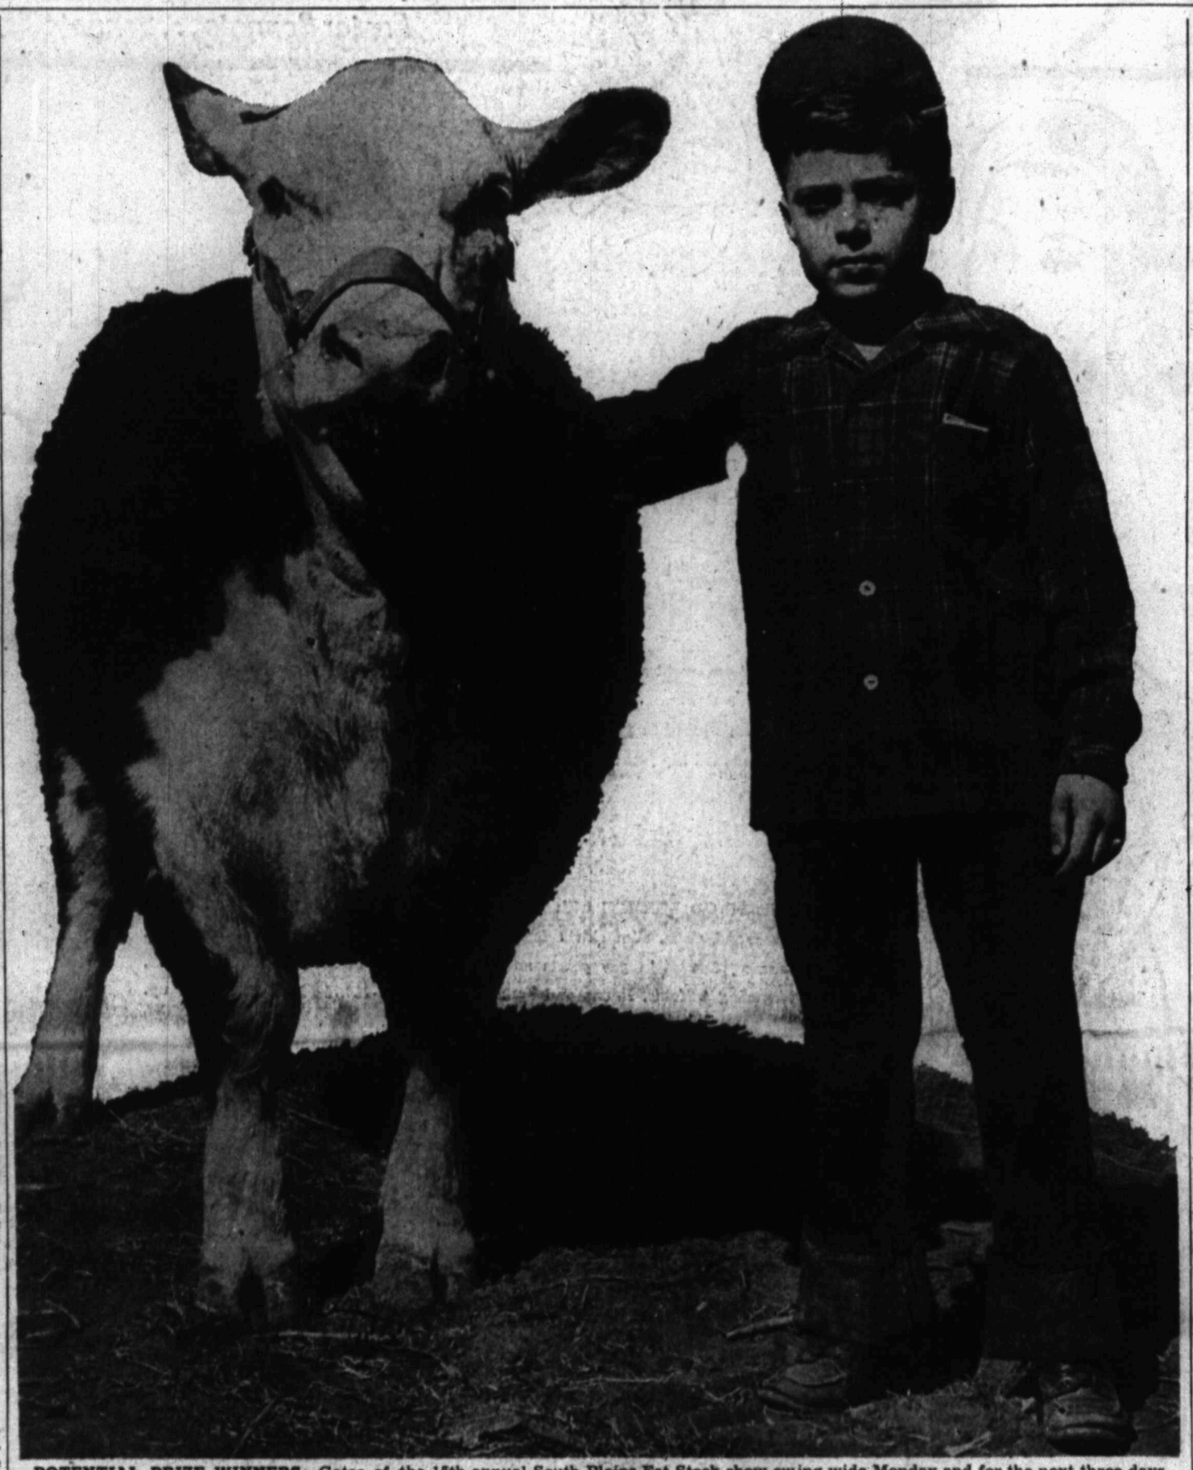

Show Open To Public

The public will be admitted to the fairgrounds without charge at all times during the show. Seats have been erected in the judging arena, which also will be the scene of the auction sale.

Steers are to be judged at 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. Monday, lambs at 3 p. m. Monday and pigs at 9 a. m. Tuesday.

Entertainment features for boys competing in the show will be visits to downtown theaters Mon-

Floods Follow Midwest Storms

CHICAGO, March 20 (AP)—Dazed survivors salvaged their possessions today from the wreckage of destructive tornadoes and winds that hit nine states and nearly wiped two Illinois towns off the map.

The death toll was reported at 42. Of the victims, 39 are known dead and 38 identified. The hunt for more bodies continued.

In Michigan, meanwhile, floods took up where yesterday's gales and heavy rains left off. Hundreds were forced from their homes in the southern part of the state.

States Count Victims

The tornadoes and gales, which moved out across eastern Canada during the night, left a path of destruction from Texas to New York.

Of the 39 known dead, 25 were in Illinois, four each in Ohio and Missouri, two each in Kentucky and Pennsylvania and one each in Michigan and New York.

A state police count at East St. Louis based on reports from officers at the scene, listed 28 Illinois dead. State police headquarters at Springfield, the capital, said they had reports of 36 Illinois dead, but added their information was based on early reports. The Red Cross scaled down its earlier reports, listing only 24 Illinois dead. The Red Cross added, however, its figures still may not be complete.

Bunker Hill's death toll ranges from 14 known dead to 19 estimated. Property damage was estimated at $500,000. One hundred and fifty of the community's residents were injured.

The nearby small community of Fosterburg fared no better than Bunker Hill. At least six died there. Another town in the area, Gillespie, counted three dead and $250,000 property damage.

UN Faces New Test On Trieste Proposal

LAKE SUCCESS, March 20 (AP)—The unexpected western power demand for the return of Trieste to Italy put a new strain on the United Nations tonight.

The general feeling here is that the Trieste development, plus the surprising American back-down on the partition of Palestine and the east-west clash over Czechoslovakia, have put the severest tests upon the UN since the Security Council opened shop in America two years ago.

Recognition that the UN is going through a time of travail came from Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australian foreign minister, who played a prominent role in creating the UN.

Evatt warned against power politics operating outside UN machinery and declared that only the UN can "arrest the drift toward war."

'Extreme Liberals' May Seek State Control

Jester Claims Demos Face Leftist Threat

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, March 20. Strategy to fight what Gov. Beauford H. Jester called a leftist threat to seize control of the party in Texas includes a fund-raising drive by middle-road Democrats.

Gov. Jester revealed this additional detail of Thursday's secret session of an inner-party council here today. Yesterday, he had said the meeting proposed a dinner to raise a war chest with which Texas Democrats would fight the national party's domestic program in the state.

Jester said he thought other southern states would follow the Texas pattern in withholding funds from the national party organization as long as it stood pat on the civil rights issue.

Those attending the meeting included officials of the state executive committee, one voting member, and others who were closely associated with Jester's gubernatorial campaign two years ago.

The meeting was called partly to meet the left wing threat—which Jester said was serious in some heavily-populated areas—to gain control of precinct meetings May 1. Party leaders had told him there was a growing leftist campaign to gain control of the Democratic organization in Texas.

Strategy Is Mapped

The precinct and county conventions name delegates to the state presidential convention on May 25 and their make-up largely determines its attitudes.

The strategy meeting here discussed means of keeping the present organization in the saddle. Jester put it this way: It was to assure a full turn-out of middle-of-the-road Democrats or "real Democrats" as those who believe the rights of the states are inviolate and that this is a part of the Democratic doctrine. Leftists he defined as "those of the extremely liberal group which migh like Wallace."

"Who do the leftists in Texas represent as to candidates and

ACCORDING TO INDIAN LEGEND:

Direction Wind Blows Monday To Decide South Plains Crops

COMES Monday and the fate of South Plains crops hangs on the direction of the wind!

So says an old Indian legend, observed by the late J. W. Wilson of Post on each March 22 and passed onto the late W. O. Stevens of Post and Lubbock.

The Indian legend says:

"If the wind at sunrise is from the East or Northeast, the area will have bumper crops.

"Should the wind be out of the North or Northwest, crops will be only average.

"Wind from the West, Southwest or South will be bad and crops will be burned up. A Southwest wind at Sunrise on March 22 means a poor crop year."

The Avalanche - Journal has been recording the observations of various individuals on the wind direction reading for nearly 20 years. Of late years, former district judge, Clark M. Mullican, made the observations. Having moved to Wichita Falls, the task must go to other hands.

Late Saturday night, Avalanche-Journal reporters had failed to find anyone who would even get up at sunrise, much less observe from which direction the wind was glowing. But regardless, our readers may rest assured that there will be a report on the crop prospects come Monday.

Young And Colman Win Movie Awards

HOLLYWOOD, March 20 (AP)—Loretta Young and Ronald Colman tonight collected Academy awards and began a one-year reign as the queen and king of Hollywood.

"Gentleman's Agreement," an outspoken denunciation of anti-semitism, was named the best film of 1947. The film won two other major awards, direction for Elia Kazan, and supporting actress for Celeste Holm. Edmund Gwenn, the cheerful Santa Claus of "Miracle on 34th Street,55 was selected best supporting actor.

Miss Young upset the dopesters who had tabbed Rosalind Russell as the winner, and walked away with an Oscar for her role as the Swedish rarm girl who ran for office in "The Farmer's Daughter." The award was one of the biggest surprises in Academy history.

The British Colman, the only film personality to be a star for 25 years, was named for his role as the murderous ham in "A Double Life."

Seven Killed In Plane Crash On Mountain In Pennsylvania

SOMERSET, Pa., March 20 (AP)—At least seven persons were killed today in the crash of a single-seated airplane on a nearby mountain top.

State police said the toll might be nine—the number of persons believed to be aboard the former Vultee Navy plane when it slammed into the side of Laurel Hill mountain, about one-half mile from the Pennsylvania turnpike, in a heavy fog.

Officials said one victim had been identified as George N. Armitage of Providence, R. I. He was believed to be the ships pilot. The women were identified as Mrs. Marvin Preston of Bethel, Conn., and Ruth Caroline Burlingame of Wilmington, O.

Lewis Agrees To Parley On Mine Dispute

(By The Associated Press)

JOHN L. LEWIS agreed to a meeting with coal operators in Washington Monday at the Invitation of Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching.

The meeting was called in an effort to iron out differences over the miners' pension fund which have resulted in a nationwide walkout of Lewis' United Mine workers.

Another move toward halting the walkout was made Saturday by the operators when they asked the federal district court in Washington to name an umpire in the dispute.

Injunction May Be Asked

Lewis, however, held out little hope that Monday's session will end the work stoppage.

The nation's other big work stoppage—that of the CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America—may be ended by injunction under the Taft-Hartley law, in the opinion of Minnesota's Republican Senator Joseph Ball.

Ball said Friday night that if a presidential fact-finding board fails to settle the strike issues, the government would seek such an injunction.

More Than 460,000 Idle

He declared that injunction action would serve to keep the plants operating for at least 80 days during deliberation of a mediation board. The union is seeking a wage increase and offered to arbitrate its differences with the packers. The packers said no. The packers have indicated willingness to pay a nine-cent increase, but the workers want 20 cents an hour more.

With the soft coal miners' walkout and the packinghouse workers strike accounting for most of the number, there were more than 460,000 workers idle in labor disputes across the nation today.

The coal miners stoppage began Monday. Saturday, the operators court petition sought appointment of a neutral member of a three-man board which administers a $30,000,0000 pension trust fund. The former neutral member, Thomas E. Murray of New York, resigned Jan. 16.

Need For Draft; UMT Doubted

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—A majority of senators remain to be convinced that Congress should write into law President Truman's proposals for universal military training and revival of the draft.

This was shown by an Associated Press poll of 91 of the 96 senators. Five were not reached.

The survey disclosed that some form of selective service has relatively a better chance of Senate passage than UMT. The training proposal got more support—but more opposition — among those willing to give their views publicly.

The results:

UMT—32 favorable, 12 opposed, 47 undecided or noncommittal.

Draft—31 favorable, 3 opposed, 57 undecided or noncommittal.

Twenty Republicans and 11 Democrats were willing to say publicly that they favor some kind of draft law, if it is found to be necessary. Two Republicans and one Democrat announced their opposition.

On UMT the Democrats willing to come out in the open in support outnumbered the Republicans 17 to 15. Seven Republicans and five Democrats said publicly they are opposed.

Damage Is Heavy As Raging Winds Hit Oklahoma City Area

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 21 (Sunday)—Seven persons were reported injured and damage estimated at more than $5,000,000 was caused when raging winds that reached 98 miles an hour struck just southeast of Oklahoma City tonight.

An early report that 18 persons had been killed in the terrific windstorm proved erroneous.

The winds first struck the small community of Cordell, moved over the Oklahoma City Municipal airport, then raked Tinker Field, huge air force base, which apparently bore the brunt of the storm. The field is five miles southeast of Oklahoma City.

Five persons, three of them Army enlisted men, were reported injured there, none seriously. Two other persons were reported to have received minor injuries as the winds then lifted. No further reports of casualties or damage was reported early today.

TWO PROPOSALS QUESTIONED

Interest In Mayor's Race Lags Here; Amendments Are Studied

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

LITTLE more than a ripple of interest was apparent Saturday in the contest for mayor between C. A. Bestwick, incumbent, and W. H. Rodgers, former city manager, to be decided in the city election April 6.

The position is the only one to be filled for which a contest is shown on the printed ballot. Clarence Whiteside, laundry operator, and E. K. Hufstedler, jr., farm implement dealer, have no opposition in their candidacies for the city commission places now held by Fred Childress and J. Ray Dickey, who are retiring voluntarily.

However, voters will be asked to vote "yes" or "no" on five proposed amendments to the city charter, and there has been more apparent interest in some of these than in the mayoralty race.

But friends of Rodgers said there is more interest in the mayor's contest than appears on the surface. A good deal of work already is being done in his behalf, they said, and these efforts will become more vigorous as the election date draws nearer. Rodgers

Big Three Put Heat On Reds On Territory

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 20—The United States, in a surprise move, proposed jointly with France and Britain today that the free territory of Trieste be returned to Italy. They thereby put both the Italian Communists and their Yugoslav and Russian backers on the spot.

The proposal would require a surgical operation on the six-month old Italian peace treaty. That treaty set up the 430-square-mile area between Italy and Yugoslavia as an independent state under the United Nations.

Trieste, long a storm center, has been coveted by both the Italians and by the Yugoslavs under the Soviet-backed Marshal Tito.

Proposal Shrewd Move

Diplomatic authorities said that the proposal was among the shrewdest moves yet made to try to help the anti-Communist forces in Italy win the April 18 national election. It was not the first such move and officials said it would not be the last.

The proposal also was interpreted as the second action within 24 hours to bring American diplomacy into line with the "stop Russia" program which now dominates Washington's foreign policy.

American officials have given up hope of operating Trieste as a truly independent area under the protection of the UN and are anxious now to settle this issue.

Solons Surprised

The Trieste move was compared by officials here to the dramatic abandonment by the United States yesterday of its support for partition of Palestine. The contention on partition was that it did not afford a peaceful and workable solution for one of the great problems in which both America and Russia are primarily concerned.

To have insisted on partition at this time, in the American view, would have been out of line with policy toward Russia. It would have increased the chance of having to send UN armed forces, including Soviet troops, to the Holy

Move Adds Fuel To Hot Dispute

By JOHN P. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME, March 20—Fuel was thrown on the biggest battle of the East-West cold war today by the western powers' proposal to return Trieste to Italy.

The first reaction was that this play had given effective ammunition to Italy's anti-Communist forces which are battling to fight off the leftist challenge in the critical April 18 elections.

Russia, most likely will have trouble in convincing Communist Yugoslavia she ought to string along with the America-British-French proposal on the Trieste free state.

Blow At Communists

Heretofore Communist propaganda here has told the voters: "Elect us and we shall be able to work out something with Marshal Tito about Trieste."

That line was stricken from their arsenal today.

The possibility was seen, that the new development might spark new disorders, if it does not increase the possibility of a leftist pre-election resort to violence.

And Italy's nerves already are jumpy enough.

Italy is somewhat short tempered under the millions of eyes staring as she gets ready to choose the new republic's first parliament and her future way of life.

Against the will of most Italians Italy has become the battleground where the capitalist Democracy of the United States and the Com-

IN EVENT OF ENEMY BLOW

Gen. Ramey Says Nation Needs To Build Stronger Air Force

FORT WORTH, March 20. (AP)—Brig Gen. Roger M. Ramey, leader of the Eighth Air Force, said here today the U. S. lacks the air power to threaten an aggressor "with a strong retaliatory blow."

Ramey, trim, moustached commander of what is called the atomic bomb air force, said in an interview that "the United States needs enough planes and crews to make a strong retaliatory blow a certainty."

He added:

"We need enough air power to make an aggressor realize that we will strike back powerfully in event of attack. At the present time, we cannot make any such serious threat. Our men are well-trained, our planes are good, but we have far too little."

General Ramey disclosed that Monday the Eighth Air Force will get its first B36 bomber from Consolidated Vultee. Twenty-one of these six-engined craft, biggest land-based bombers in the world, are on order and Ramey said he understood several were almost ready for delivery. The B36 is designed to carry a bomb load 10,000 miles. Its 3,000 horsepower pusher-type engines can lift the air giant to 40,000 feet and shove it on at better than 300 miles per hour.

"But any war in the near future," said Ramey, "would be fought with B29's. Using our forward bases, we could make a determined effort to cripple an aggressor."

For months, the B29's of the Eighth Air Force have been flying over the world in what General Ramey called a tough training schedule. One month, a B29 crew can expect to find itself in Japan. Thirty days later it may be based in Alaska, fanning out over the polar caps. In another month it may be flying daily from bases in Germany.

"We are in good shape with what we have," Ramey, holder of both the Distinguished Service Cross and Distinguished Flying Cross as a result of his work in the Pacific in the last war, said.

"I am glad to note a trend in this country toward fuller recognition of the needs of adequate air power."

Ramey, a Texan from Denton, said that "problems always present in the construction of new aircraft" have delayed delivery of B36 bombers to Carswell field here.

Boyle's Ideal Home Includes Plenty Of Bedroom Comforts

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK — The cost of new homes today is higher than the wages of sin.

Higher than my sin fetches anyway.

But there are many other things wrong with modern houses besides the price. One is that they are designed by architects rather than by poets and other artists in human understanding.

Architects are fine for building cathedrals, skyscrapers, ticket boots, and glorified hot dog stands. But for a place to live in—let's consult somebody like Shakespeare:

Likes Beds

"I was in love with my bed."

Or Guy de Maupassant, who wrote with true French insight:

"The bed comprehends our whole life, for we were born in it, we live in it, and we shall die in it."

People have run big businesses from beds. They have been graduated from college in bed. Mark Twain spent most of his later years dictating in bed while puffing on a big cigar. Madame Du Barry used to receive the French court while lying abed. In old New England young couples conducted highly moral and intellectual courtships while bundled in bed. It was the only way they could keep warm. They had a fuel shortage in those days too.

Chair Called Compromise

Only custom and hypocrisy have made the living room more important than the bedroom. Why do men flee to night clubs and bars? Because there is nothing duller than sitting at home in a chair. A chair is only a compromise for people who pretend they are too ambitious to lie down but are still too lazy to stand on their own feet.

If I were designing a home the bedroom would be a huge central chamber between the kitchen and the bathroom. The largest bed—mine—would be by the window and high enough to look out. It would be made like a hospital bed so that you could crank yourself up and eat comfortably. Why a dining table at all? There would be a huge self-feeding fireplace operated by a button in a panel at the head of the bed.

Dart Game Included

This panel switchboard would also operate all lights. Within arm reach would be a small refrigerator, food and utensil cupboard and an electric hot plate. This would make it unnecessary to get up for breakfast.

All mail would be put in a box by the postman and swung in the window on a mtal movable arm. It could be answered in bed. There then would be no poiht in going to the office until theafternoon. Books and a radio-phonograph would be at hand. There would be a telephone at the bedside, but it wouldn't ring. It would only turn on a light. If I didn't want to answer it, I'd turn off the light.

On one wall I'd hang a dart board. The darts would have silk threads on them. I could pull them back and throw them without eyer leaving bed.

Bodies Of Soldiers From Area Arrive

Four South Plains servicemen, three Marines and one Navy veteran, are among the 3,295 bodies of war dead aboard the Army transport Walter W. Schwenk, scheduled to dock Monday at San Francisco, according to an announcement from the Army.

The ship, the third to arrive from the Pacific with war dead, has 3,864 persons from the temporary cemetery at Tanapag, Saipan, and 31 placed aboard at Honolulu.

It is expected, the Army said, that from 10 days to three weeks will elapse between the arrival of the Schwenk and final interment of the war dead.

Among the dead from the South Plains area are:

Sgt. Theo M. Lane of the Marines, listing next of kin as Olin P. Lane, Amherst.

Cpl. Clinton W. Mitchell, Marine, listing next of kin as Elmer W. Mitchell, Petersburg.

Cpl. Sigel Royer Swain, Marine, listing Mrs. Sigel R. Swain of Plainview as next of kin.

Seaman 1st Class Tommy Winters, listing next of kin as Pirron Winters, Littlefield.

Also aboard the transport ship are the bodies of Pvt. Sam L. Brock of Amarillo and Pvt. Joe De Grace of Pampa, both Marines.

VALVE-IN-HEAD is far ahead!

in performance and economy... in ruggedness and reliability!

Here's why "Valve-in-Head Is Far Ahead" in all-round efficiency

1 In the world's champion Chevrolet engine, the valves are located in the head of the cylinder, directly over the pistons . . . hence the name, Valve-in-Head.

2 Valve-in-Head design provides faster intake of fuel mixture . . and quicker and more complete exhaust of burned gases . . all of which contributes to better performance and economy.

3 Valve-in-Head design also permits a more compact combustion chamber; and this, together with Chevrolet's "Blue Flame" combustion, means more driving power for the pistons—less heat loss—and maximum economy.

4 Valve-in-Head engines are inherently easier to cool; and Chevrolet's individual cooling of cylinders prevents waste of power—promotes efficient operation—prolongs engine life.

Moreover, with all of the valve mechanism on top of the engine—and therefore readily accessible—service, though seldom needed, is extraordinarily easy and economical.

CHEVROLET Automotive experts and millions of motorists agree: Valve-in-Head is far ahead because it gives an outstanding combination of performance, endurance, dependability and economy. . . . Chevrolet—master builder of this master motor—has proved this by producing more than 20 million Valve-in-Head engines during the past thirty-seven years—engines which hold the distinction of having delivered more billions of miles of satisfaction, to more owners, over a longer period, than any other power-plant built today! Chevrolet's World's Champion Valve-in-Head engine is another powerful reason why CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST . . . another convincing proof that only Chevrolet gives BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

BIG-CAR STYLING AND BEAUTY OF BODY BY FISHER
BIG-CAR COMFORT OF THE UNITIZED KNEE-ACTION RIDE
BIG-CAR SAFETY OF FISHER UNISTEEL CONSTRUCTION AND POSITIVE-ACTION HYDRAULIC BRAKES

Jews Are Expected To Proclaim New Hebrew State In Palestine

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

JERUSALEM, March 20—Jewish leaders are expected to proclaim at once a Hebrew state in Palestine following abandonment of the partition plan by the United States, informants said tonight.

Jewish fighting forces made it clear they would try to hold the boundaries of such a state by force of arms. The Arabs were confused as to whether they would keep on shooting.

But bitter fighting continued in the Holy Land despite the moves at Lake Success. In at least a dozen places Jewish and Arab warriors clashed as Christians prepared for tomorrow's Palm Sunday worship. Two unidentified planes were reported involved in one action.

Major Attack Threatened

In Beirut, Lebanon, an official of the Palestine Arab higher executive said Arab forces in Palestine would hold their positions and await the ultimate result of the change in American policy.

However, Fawi Bey al Kaukji, commander of the Arab people's army threatened to launch a major field operation against the Jews in the next few days.

At his headquarters in Palestine's Samarian mountains, Kaukji told a reporter:

Blow At UN Charged

"We did not come here to fight partition but to fight Zionism. Whether America supports partition or opposes it makes no difference in our plans."

Jewish leaders are meeting at Tel Aviv. There the high command of Haganah, the Jewish militia, said:

"The attempt of the United States to make invalid the United Nations (partition) decision on Palestine is a blow to the United Nations more than to the Jewish state. . . . We build Jewish Palestine with sweat and will defend it with blood."

Both Jewish and Arab informants suggested that the importance of the Middle East's vast oil resources influenced the United States' decision to abandon partition.

Remodeling Planned For City Dog Pound

Lubbock's dog pound won't be moved from its isolated location in southeast Lubbock, but at least it will get a thorough remodeling job.

That was the announcement Saturday by W. B. Yeager, unofficial chairman of a citizens committee to improve the dog pound.

Yeager said the old pens would be reconstructed so that dogs would be in separate and sanitary pens. The north end of the pound will be completely closed, giving dogs protection from the north wind and the entire building will be stuccoed and re-roofed.

New pens will be provided for 14 dogs and a pathway for patrons, so that no one will have to enter a pen to view the dog inside. The pound will also have a quarantine pen for diseased animals, it was said.

Yeager said ample materials had been donated by individuals and lumber yards for remodeling of the pound. He said he and Bob Gee met with Gerald Jarvis, city laboratory technician; and V. A. Cross, director of typhus control, conferred on the remodeling job Friday.

In addition, the city has promised to grade the road leading to the pound, Yeager said.

Ball Expects Meat Plants To Reopen By Week From Monday

ALBERT LEA, Minn., March 20 (AP)—Senator Ball (R-Minn) forecasts the reopening of the nation's meat packing plants not later than a week from Monday.

Address 800 at the annual Swine institute here last night, Ball said if the President's fact-finding board failed to settle the strike issues, the government would seek an injunction under the Taft-Hartley law.

Answering a question from Alfred Berglund, former Minnesota Senator, Ball declared the injunction action would serve to keep the plants operating for at least 80 days during deliberations of a mediation board.

Why are more people achieving

MORE SECURITY

EQUITABLE POLICIES

than ever before?

SECURITY for our families and for ourselves is a goal all of us are striving to attain.

If these were normal times, this one fact might fully account for the record volume of Equitable life insurance purchased last year.

But the conditions under which we now live provide additional reasons why so many thinking Americans are investing more of their dollars in life insurance. Think for a moment in terms of yourself:

You are living in a period of inflation—of high prices and high taxes. Never has the purchasing power of your dollar been less for most of the things you buy. What would happen if you put more of your spendable dollars in life insurance?

With your very first premium you receive immediate protection—a guarantee of security that can't be obtained in any other way. It would take years of self-denial and saving to accumulate the amount of security that is provided at once through a life insurance policy.

Moreover, the benefits which you or your family will receive from your policy will come, in all likelihood, at a time when the dollar has regained a more normal purchasing power. In this respect, life insurance paid for today is bargain protection for the future.

EQUITABLE FAMILY GROWS

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States—a non-profit institution operated solely in the interests of its policyholders and their beneficiaries—has been helping families build security since 1859.

More people purchased more protection through Equitable policies last year than ever before. New insurance issued amounted to $1,170,000,000. A total of $11,944,000,000 of insurance in force now safeguards the Equitable family of policyholders.

In line with this increase in protection, the resources of The Equitable Society increased $322,400,000 to $4,505,000,000, a new high. Benefit payments last year from policies that were called upon to fulfill the purposes for which they were purchased, amounted to $280,685,000.

FIGHTING INFLATION

Money used to purchase life insurance is non-inflationary, since premium payments represent funds diverted from consumption into channels of investment, where they help to increase the nation's industrial productivity.

Inflation is the enemy of everyone.

The primary source of inflation in this country is the excessive supply of money and credit in our commercial banking system, reflecting unsound national monetary policies.

If we are to solve the inflation problem, we must first of all deal with this excessive supply of money in our banking system.

It is useless to try to control prices through rationing, or through increased production, when the creation of money in the form of bank credit goes on uncontrolled. It is like fighting fire with one hand while the other hand pours on additional fuel.

Inflation can be restrained at its primary source if enough citizens, motivated by self-interest and recognition of the need for preserving the economic strength of the nation, make their demand for sound monetary policies known to those who represent them in Congress.

See results of new, 2-way washer tests at your Bendix Dealer's

Shown now for the first time . . . information that reveals the startling difference in washers.

Now you can clearly see, before you buy, the washing results you can expect from the washer you choose. Conclusive tests by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory prove the Bendix does 10 times as good a job of germ removal as three leading non-automatic washers tested.

BENDIX WASHER EXCELS IN NEW, UNBIASED TESTS—These exhaustive tests show that the Bendix not only removes more bacteria, but 23.3% more soil than the "next-best" washer tested. What's more, the Bendix is way ahead when it comes to saving soap and water, thriftily using 40% less soap and 10 gallons less water on a single load of clothes.

AND SEE HOW MUCH WORK IT SAVES—See the Bendix in action and you'll learn how easy washing can be. Just set the dial and add soap. The Bendix does all of the work. Automatically it washes, rinses three times and damp-drys your clothes. Out they come brighter and cleaner than you've ever believed possible.

BENDIX automatic Washer

BENDIX DE LUXE $269.50 (illustrated) with normal installation

BENDIX STANDARD $249.50 with normal installation

UP TO $90 LESS THAN OTHER AUTOMATIC WASHERS

How the Tests were Made

The soil removal tests were made in accordance with the Test Manual of the American Washer and Ironer Manufacturers Association, with water temperatures of 160° for the automatic machine and 125° for non-automatic type machines as specified by the Manual.

For the germ removal tests the washing procedure as above was supplemented by a pre-determined rinse procedure established from contact with authorities in the field of home laundering including the manufacturers of the machines used. The Bendix was used in accordance with the manufacturer's published instructions. Staphylococcus aureus bacteria (bacteria commonly used for test purposes) were used to measure efficiency of germ removal.

The four washers used, three non-automatic and a Bendix automatic Washer, were purchased in the open market by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory.

Tech Groups Plan Field Tours To Supplement College Study

By OLETA STEWART
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

As a supplement to regular college classes, field trips and annual tours are being made by groups of Texas Tech students in the departments of textile engineering, journalism, foreign language, business administration, music and chemistry.

Textile engineering students from the college will spend the week of March 22-28 touring textile mills and other enterprises related to the textile industry over the state. The annual trip is sponsored by the Textile Engineering society and is financed by the students through the sale of fabrics woven by them at Tech.

Many Industries Included

Among the industries included in the itinerary are cotton mills, a woolen worsted mill, a hat factory, a cutting industry, hosiery mills and a tire and rubber company. Cities to be visited are Sherman, Bonham, Greenville, Dallas, Fort Worth, Itasca, Waco, Houston, New Braunfels Eldorado and Garland.

L. E. Parsons, professor and head of the department of textile engineering and Stuart F. Shafter, assistant professor of textile engineering, will accompany the group to be composed of: A. H. Ahrens, Harry Arthur, C. J. Arnold, M. L. Barkley, Joe Cannon, R. A. Collins, Donald Duggan, Lloyd Greenwood, Robert Henderson, W. J. Hervey, Bobby Knowles, E. B. Moore, Guillermo Perea, Isik Pinhas, R. C. Robertson, Jack Ross, R. C. Siewert, G. J. Sligh, Robert Stanford, R. R. Walker, Thomas Welch and C. M. Gillespie.

Advanced students in German will make a field trip March 26-29 to German-American settlements at Fredericksburg, Giddings, New Braunfels and San Antonio.

Members of Tech Beta Upsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, international commerce and business administration fraternity, will be in Dallas April 3-5, where they will inspect an automobile assembly plant, a federal reserve bank and a leather manufacturing establishment. Later in April the group will visit an oil field near Plainview.

Twenty-three Texas Tech journalism students attended the annual Southwestern Journalism congress held Friday and Saturday on the University of Texas campus in Austin. Teachers and students from 13 colleges and universities were represented.

To Palo Duro

Cecil Horne, professor and head of the journalism department, and Miss Jane Watson, photography instructor accompanied the group composed of: Clint Formby, Jerry Hall, Charles Shaffer, Sue Holmes, Aubrey Shouse, Bill Sayres, Ray Cook, Jayne Thompson, Anita Oliver, Mary Ellen Duffy, Mary King, Bob Giles, Elayne Head, Franklin Grant, Aubrey Thompson, John Anderson, Lois Jean Weekes, Mary Jane Mersfelder, Paula Sittel, C. E. Wehdt, Nelva Joyce Halbert, Orlin Brewer, and Maradee Foster.

A field trip to Palo Duro canyon will be made by Kappa Alpha Mu, national photography fraternity, April 9-11. About 18 students will do work in landscape photography while there, and Miss Jane Watson, sponsor, will make movies during the trip.

A study course of Spanish history, art, language and literature will be conducted in Mexico this summer by a group of advanced Spanish students from the college.

Mexico Trip Scheduled

To leave Lubbock on July 1, the group will spend the first night in the Gunter hotel in San Antonio, second night in the Regina hotel in Monterrey, third night in El Hotel Valles in Ciudad Valles and the fourth night will reach Mexico City where their headquarters will be at Hotel Monte Carlo, next door to the national library of Mexico.

Various places in Mexico to be visited are Amecameca and the neighboring volcanoes, Teotihuacan and the pyramids near by, Cholula, which is called the city with more churches than days of the year; Puebla, Cuerhavaca and Taxco.

Dr. Earle Hamilton, associate professor Spanish, who will accompany the group explains that the course, "Spanish Civilization in Mexico," 4310-11, will be conducted the same as courses on Tech campus, except students will have the added advantage of hearing natural spoken Spanish, of using the national library and museum of Mexico, and of visiting the sights about which they study, themselves.

Smith, Nancy Wilson, Jane Parsons, Margie McAdams, Mrs. Lucy Miller, Joyce Byrom, Socorro Rangel, Mrs. E. Y. Gibbs, Robert Bissell and about five other students will be allowed to go.

Texas Tech band returned Thursday from a successful concert and clinic tour of several East Texas towns. T. C. Root assistant to the president at Tech, and Prof D. O. Wiley, band director, accompanied the group of 62 on its tenth annual tour.

Earlier this year Tech chapter of the American Institute of Chemical engineers made a plant inspection trip and attended the regional meeting of the national organization in New Orleans.

50 POUNDS LOST WITH BARCENTRATE

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Here is what Mrs. C. M. Earsh, 903 N. 12th St., McAllen, Texas, says about Barcentrate: "I want to tell you that I have lost 50 pounds since taking Barcentrate. I still want to lose 20 more pounds as I now weigh 167, a reduction from 217 pounds."

To lose weight the grapefruit juice way, get Barcentrate from your favorite druggist today.

Tech Band Will Present Concert

The Texas Technological college concert band, of which D. O. Wiley is conductor, will give its first concert in the 1948 spring series in Lubbock at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the college gymnasium.

The public is invited and there will be no admission chalge, it was announced from the college.

Have Been On Tour

The program will be almost the same as that played by the band in its concert tour in the eastern part of Texas Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Large crowds attended the concerts, which were presented in Paris, Gladewater and Nacogdoches. At Gladewater, approximately 200 persons could not gain admission because the high school auditorium was crowded and the approximately 1,500 who did hear the concert gave the band a big ovation. In Paris and Nacogdoches, also, the band was well received and several encores were added to the printed program. Directors of the bands in East Texas complimented the Tech band, some saying they had never heard a college band play so well.

Following is the program: "Texas Tech on Parade," march by Ed Chenette; first movement from "Symphony No. 5" (New World), by Dvorak; cornet solo, "Estrellita," by Ponce, played by Ted Crager; "Dance of the Hours," from La Gioconda, by Ponchielli; flute solo, "Carneval Russe," played by Norma Hammer; overture, "Miniature and Marche," from the Nutcracker Suite, by Tschaikowsky; "Pastel Moods," by Ted Crager, directed by Crager; "Tearing of the Green," paraphrase on "Wearing of the Green," by Douglas; "Anniversary March," by Edwin Franko Goldman. Joe Haddon, assistant director, will direct Wearing of the Green and Anniversary March.

Men, Regain Youthful Vigor

Here Is a Vital Message to Men of 40, 60 or Older Men Who Feel That The Years Have Let Them Down

If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 50 or more. Why not try to regain the pleasures of living you once enjoyed; why be discouraged? Regain the verve and zest of a much younger man. Just ask your druggist for Caltron stimulating tablets. Take as directed on label. There is nothing harmful in Caltron tablets. Take as long as you feel you need them. Added years may no longer deprive you of desired enjoyments. Why be the victim of the "older" years?

Don't Be Discouraged

Goethe finished Faust at 82; Connie Mack is still managing the Athletics at 85; Titian painted masterpieces between 80 and 90; Clara Barton was an active president of the Red Cross at 88; Verdi was composing, Victor Hugo was writing, Corot was painting long after 80.

So don't let the added years get you down. Why not try Caltron tablets today? Available at all druggists.

Contract Signed On New Building

Contract was signed Friday for construction of a new Masonic building in Lubbock on property owned by the lodge at Main and Ave. K. The building will cost approximately $200,000.

Construction is expected to be started within a week or ten days and completion by early fall is probable, Tom G. McAbee, contractor said.

Construction of the building was made possible through the issuance of $125,000 in interest-bearing debentures, issued by the three Masonic bodies. The Lubbock National bank is trustee under such trust indentures, and as trustee, has registered the $125,000 in bonds and is now prepared to deliver these bonds to the subscribers who had fully paid for them.

Plan Is Explained

Under the trust agreement, all rents and revenues derived from the first story of the two-story building are to be paid to the trust department of the Lubbock National Bank, and such rental funds are to be disbursed in accordance with the trust agreement, which provides that insurance premium shall first be paid from such funds to fully protect the first floor of the building by adequate insurance. Three-fifths of the taxes assessed against the building shall also be paid from the trust fund.

After payment of taxes and insurance, as above mentioned, the rentals deposited in the trust fund shall be applied, firstly, to the payment of accrued interest, and secondly, to the payment of indebtedness represented by the $125,000 debentures until the entire amount is paid.

Present Quarters Sold

Under the trust agreement, the bank, on Jan. 15 each year and beginning after the construction of the building and not earlier than Jan. 15, 1949, will apply the net balance in such rental funds pro rata to the payment of interest and principal on such debentures, provided that principal payments shall be made in multiples only of $5 in order to avoid excessive bookkeeping costs.

The trust department of the bank has been made trustee for the purpose of disbursing the construction funds, and in addition to the $125,000 cash representing the proceeds of such debentures, there has been deposited with the bank the following funds: U. S. government bonds of the cash value of $25,178.50; First Federal Savings & Loan association certificates, $5,000; cash from the three Masonic bodies, $24,821.50, making a total of $180,000 in cash and readily marketable securities now held by the bank for the construction of the new building.

The Lodge, which formerly owned the third floor of the Citizens National Bank building, recently sold it to the bank for $20,000. The deed to the present lodge room has been prepared and executed and as soon as the building is completed will be turned over to the bank.

C. E. Maedgen, president of the Lubbock National bank, was chairman of the lodge building committee, which has been working faithfully for the past 18 months in an effort to secure the new building. Other members of the committee included: Burton S. Burks, Blue lodge trustee; Durwood H. Bradley, Parker F. Prouty, H. L. Allen, H. B. Bryan, and Neil H. Wright, sr.

The entire second floor of the building will be used by the various bodies of the lodge.

HOUSTON, March 20 (U.P.)—Development of oil fields in the Middle East at the expense of domestic fields today was termed "extremely dangerous and short sighted" by H. J. Porter president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners association.

Porter said he objected to statements made by Dr. E. Degolyer, the noted Dallas geologist, before the oil subcommittee of the House of Representatives.

"None of the advocates of using badly needed oil for the development of foreign fields has yet explained how we are going to use that oil and have it available in the event of a war with Russia," Porter said.

"The Russians can occupy Middle Eastern oil fields in a matter of days or hours in the event of war," he declared.

Three Held In Extortion Try

PHILADELPHIA, March 20 (U.P.) The son of a wealthy manufacturer and three Chattanooga, Tenn., men were held under $5,000 bail each today, charged with attempting to extort money from the father's secretary.

The son, Joseph A. Martocello, jr., 18, also was held on a warrant accusing him of stealing "between $60,000 and $75,000" from his father a year ago.

Mother Also Charged

The other defendants, Edwin Leatherwood, 27; Fred Wilkey, 24, and Leland Green, 22, all of Chattanooga, allegedly were provided with guns and hired as bodyguards by the son.

The quartet, arrested in Trenton, N. J., two weeks ago, were charged with breaking into the home of the father's secretary, Marie Sacculo, 22, last March 3rd. Detectives quoted the younger Martocello as saying he tried to compel her to surrender a power of attorney given her by the father, described as in ill health.

It was also disclosed at a hearing yesterday that a warrant had been sworn out for the son's mother, Mrs. Nellie D. Martocello, 46, accusing her of accepting money stolen by him from the father.

A. H. Ormsby of Waco was elected vice president. L. T. Murray of Waco and Roy Barzak of Waco were reelected executive vice president-treasurer and secretary respectively.

New directors elected were A. E. Kucera of Dallas, Jack J. Stoneham of Dallas and W. P. Rabb of El Paso.

W. J. Reckling of Houston, retiring president, automatically became a member of the board of directors.

Reelected as directors were G. O. Daugherty of Kenedy, C. E. Cassling of Houston, S. M. McAshan, jr., of Houston and H. M. Sharpe of Lubbock.

Two U. S. Dollars Are Worth A Million On Chinese Market

SHANGHAI, March 20. (AP) — You could become a millionaire in China today for less than two U. S. dollars. Chinese national currency fell to a rate of more than 500,000 to $1 on the black market.

The price had remained steady for more than a week at about 450,000 to one.

Most black market traders said the sudden change was because President Truman's speeches Wednesday did not include "one word" about China.

Tech Faculty, Student Group Take Top Honors At Meeting

AUSTIN, March 20 (Special)—The Texas Technological college delegation to the Southwestern Journalism congress, held Friday and today at the University of Texas, received more than its share of honors at the election of officers this afternoon.

When the next congress convenes at Lubbock in the spring of 1949, the hand that holds the gavel in both the faculty and student divisions will be that of representatives of Texas Tech.

Horne To Head Group

Cecil Horne, head of the Tech journalism department, was elected president of the faculty division, and Ray Cook, junior journalism major from Childress, was named president of the student division by the 13 colleges and universities from three states represented at the election.

Other officers elected by the faculty division were: Vice president, Marvin G. Osborne, Southern Methodist university; secretary-treasurer, R. W. Chambers of Texas State College for Women at Denton. Other students elected were: Vice president, Charles Murphy of Southern Methodist university; secretary - treasurer, Maurine Preston, Oklahoma A & M.

Speakers On Program

Several prominent speakers, representing various phases of the journalistic field, were presented on the two-day program. They included: Margaret Bourke-White, photographer for Life magazine, who recently returned from assignments in India; Rueben H. Markham, staff writer for The Christian Science Monitor; Dr. Frank Luther Mott, dean of the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri; Felix McKnight, assistant editor of The Dallas Morning News; Lewis T. Nordyke of The Amarillo Globe-News; and Chas A. Guy, editor and publisher of The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Texas Tech, with 23 students in the group, had the second largest number of delegates at the congress. They were instrumental in the formulation and adoption of the first constitution of the student division of the congress. The division was officially named the Southwestern Students Press club.

Time for the congress to meet in Lubbock next year has not been definitely set, but it is expected to take place sometime in April 1949.

Masonic Program Is Set At Brownfield

Annual Maundy Thursday observance of the South Plains Scottish Rite club is to be held Friday night at the American Legion hall at Brownfield, it was announced yesterday by B. E. Adair, of this city, president of the club.

The meeting is to start at 8 o'clock with a banquet, followed by the ritualistic observance in charge of Temple H. Morrow, 33rd degree Mason, of Lubbock.

At a concluding business session officers for the year are to be elected, Adair said. All Scottish Rite Masons of the 18th degree or above in the area are invited to attend.

The meeting was scheduled at Brownfield this year in recognition of the large number of Masons from there who attend the annual function, Adair said, adding that about 300 are expected this year.

He asked that those planning to attend notify Clovis Kendrick, at First National Bank at Brownfield, or Adair, at Adair Music company here, or Ed Parker at West Texas Gas company general offices here.

Athens Man Is Beaten, Robbed

ATHENS, Tex., March 20 (U.P.)—Melvin Dodd, operator of a private airfield five miles west of Athens, and a woman companion were robbed of an undetermined amount of money and jewelry last night by three masked men who threatened Dodd's life, then left him badly injured after several prolonged beatings.

Henderson county Sheriff Dean Holiman said that Dodd, who was known to carry sizeable sums of money on his person, was accosted by the three men as he drove into his garage, near the airport about 9:15 p. m.

They threatened him and slugged him, Holiman said, before carrying Dodd into the house.

Woman Robbed

Inside, the sheriff said, they tied up a woman identified as Mrs. Eleanor Wade of Dallas and took her jewelry before turning to Dodd again.

The sheriff said they slugged Dodd repeatedly apparently in an effort to force him to disclose whereabouts of other valuables in the house.

About 9:15 p. m., the sheriff said, C. E. Van Horn of Athens came to the house to see Dodd on business and was permitted to enter only to be slugged unconscious. He was not robbed.

The men left about midnight, Holiman said Van Horn told him, after they apparently found what they had been looking for in systematically ransacking the house.

Unable To Talk

They took Dodd's and Mrs. Wade's cars a short distance away from the house and jimmied the distributor on Van Horn's auto to delay possible pursuit.

Holiman said Van Horn finally freed himself and held a severed telephone wire together while the victims called for aid.

Dodd was under a doctor's care today and still was unable to talk to officers.

McDonald Observatory Gives Texans Chance To See Nearly Billion Miles Into Space

McDONALD OBSERVATORY, FORT DAVIS, Feb. 20 (AP)—The travel bargain of the day in Texas is a 900-million mile journey by eye to the spectacular planet Saturn.

The look, via McDonald Observatory's 82-inch telescope, is free. All you have to do is make advance arrangements to visit the observatory the last Wednesday of any month between 8:30 and 10 p. m. You write the observatory at Fort Davis, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, for a return admission card.

Saturn Steals Show

Saturn stole the show at the recent Mars party staged by the Observatory. There was a good deal of talk about recent progress in the study of whether or not there is some form of life on Mars, but most of the looking was at Saturn and its glowing ring system.

First we saw the planet high in the eastern sky through the 18-foot slit in the observatory's dome To the unaided eye, it was just another fairly-bright "star."

Then Dr. Gerard P. Kiuper began to bring the telescope's full light-gathering power to bear upon Saturn. This power is about 150,000 times greater than that of the average eye. It is directed entirely by push-button and it took the McDonald director and an assistant less than five minutes to complete the job. Electric motors swung the telescope's spider-web tube. The railed observation platform was lowered flush with the floor under the dome. The focus was sharpened.

Bridges Billion Miles

This was 60 tons of glass and metal and an incalculable portion of know-how in a smooth operation to bridge nearly a billion miles of space.

It pulled Saturn in so that it swung in the center of the eyepiece, bright and round as a new dime against a tiny black patch of universe. The surrounding egg-shaped rings tilted to the foreground and gave the Saturn set-up a rakish touch.

Likewise, through McDonald's big eye, Mars and the moon were pulled down until they seemed almost within reach. The moon loomed so large that it far overflowed the eye piece, and Mars seemed nearly too close for comfort. Its polar cap was easy to see as well as its mottled green and brown surface.

Research Project

If you really want a close-up, go to McDonald in 1956 when Mars edges in to the 30-million-mile point. On Feb. 18, it was 63-million miles away.

Casual, direct, star-gazing is not the real work of McDonald Observatory. It is a research institution operated jointly by the University of Chicago and the University of Texas. The plant is owned by the Texas school, staffed by the University of Chicago. Most of the observation is by photography. This accurately reveals the chemical composition, the motions, temperatures and pressures of the planets and stars.

Dr. Paul Jose, resident astronomer, says almost any intelligent person with a flair for mechanics can learn to operate the observatory's telescope and appliances. Interpreting the results of the observations is another matter and that's what makes an astronomer.

Saturn is pretty but its atmosphere is poison.

A glance through a telescope shows the beauty but the fatal methane and ammonia could not have been discovered without additional aids. Recent developments in electronics, says Dr. Kiuper, make possible now things which were once "undreamed of" in astronomy.

The astronomers are not only seeking to describe nature, but to explain it.

One staff member at McDonald was asked what practical purpose would be served if it were determined that life exists on Mars. There might not be any immediate dollar value, he replied, but it is worth something just to satisfy man's curiosity.

Seminole Solves Problem Of Chair For Abilene's Judge

Justice of the Peace W. A. (Bill) Ward of Abilene has been sitting in the chair at Abilene's court No. 1 for five years now, but not too comfortably.

The reasons are obvious to anyone who has ever seen the judge. Ward, who weighs 465 pounds and measures over three feet in width, just couldn't find a chair large enough to fit his frame.

A press association story this week brought the judge's plight to the attention of the Seminole chamber of commerce, which immediately wired Ward that his troubles were over.

A Seminole cabinet maker and an upholstery company are joining forces to produce a chair sufficiently large to accommodate Judge Ward's 465 pounds, so that the "biggest JP in the country" can sit at the bar of justice in a manner befitting his dignified office.

Burglar Goes To Unnecessary Trouble In Stealing Money

NEW ORLEANS, March 20 (U.P.)—A burglar tried vainly to pry the lock off the door to Arthur Lutz' apartment here yesterday, then spent hours whittling a hole in the frame so he could reach through and turn the know from the inside to get in and steal $136.

Despite the loss, Lutz could still chuckle today The door wasn't locked in the first place.

preacher for Holy week services at the First Methodist church. He was to arrive late Saturday from New York. He spoke here recently to a conference of Methodists on conditions in India. He and Mrs. Smith spent several months the latter part of 1946 and in 1947 in India. He was scheduled to be here last Easter season, but because of delay in transportation did not arrive from India in time.

Bishop Smith will preach twice daily, at 10 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., today through Thursday. On Friday, the sixth annual Good Friday service will be conducted from noon to 3 p. m. Bishop Smith will be the preacher at the service and Bill Lord, tenor soloist of the First Methodist church, will sing selections bearing on each of the "Seven Last Words." The ministers at the First Methodist church, Dr. H. L. Robinson and Rev. E. H. Crandall, will read the scriptures and lead the prayers. Bishop Smith will be here through next Sunday.

Program Open To Public

Other Holy week observance at the First Methodist church will include that Thursday night, when the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. Previous to that service, supper will be served in Fellowship hall for those uniting with the church during the week.

Today, Palm Sunday, at 4 p. m. Dr. Robinson will conduct the annual service for dedication of infants and children.

Other than the supper meeting Thursday night, all of the First Methodist services are open to the public. Some business firms, according to Dr. Robinson, already have made arrangements with clerks and other workmen to attend portions of the Good Friday services.

The college department of the First Methodist church is to present an Easter play at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the church.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, Holy week services will begin with the "blessing of the palms" at the 8 o'clock service this morning. Distribution of palm crosses will follow the early service, and also the church school and the 11 o'clock service. The later morning service will be highlighted by DeBois' "All Ye People," with Miss Anne Crenshaw singing the soprano solo. Elton Plowman will direct the choir in singing of "All Glory, Laud and Honor" (Teschner), "There Is a Green Hill" (Gower) and "Ride On! Ride on in Majesty" (Dykes). Mrs. Gladys Plowman, organist, will present Faure's "The Palms" and Dubois' "God My Father" as a prelude, and postlude.

Family Program Planned

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, celebrations of Holy Communion will be conducted at 10 o'clock each morning in the Episcopal church. On Maundy Thursday morning, celebrations will be conducted at both 7 a. m., and 10 a. m. That being the traditional date when the church celebrates the institution of the "Last Supper," a celebration also will be conducted at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. The family as a unit is honored and all families of the church are urged to attend together, said Rev. Claude E. Canterbury, rector.

Good Friday will be observed with two services. The Pro-anaphora and Litany will be read at 10 a. m., and the traditional three-hour service will be conducted from noon until 3 p. m.

Saturday or Easter Eve is the customary time for baptism of children and that service will be held for several in St. Paul's Episcopal parish.

Candlelight Service Set

First Christian church is planning its annual candle light communion service, to be conducted at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night in the Church sanctuary. Friday at 1 p. m., in the sanctuary, the Woman's council will sponsor a Good Friday prayer service. A special Easter sunrise service is being planned for 6:30 a. m. next Sunday in the sanctuary. Dr. H. G. Gantz is pastor.

The three-story fire proof educational building of Asbury Methodist church will be occupied for the first time today. The building which has been in use has been remodeled to care for the college group and the adult division. Both buildings will provide for a church school with attendance of about 1,000 said Dr. C. A. Bickley, pastor. The rapid growth of both the church school and church has necessitated enlargement of both the church school buildings and the sanctuary. In the past few years the sanctuary has been enlarged twice. The church school has been organized according to most modern plans, he said.

Today's Palm Sunday services and next Sunday's Easter services at the Asbury church will include two identical morning services, at 8:50 a. m. and 10:50 a. m. Church school will be conducted at 9:50 a. m., between the services. The evening service will be conducted at 7:30 p. m. On Good Friday, a communion service will be conducted at 7:30 p. m.

Prior to the cantata, Jane McCoy will present a violin solo, "Intermezzo," by Mascagni. Soloists in the cantata will be Charlene Jordan, sorprano; Bert McGinnis, tenor; and J. M. Hall, baritone. Mrs. Carl Scoggin is director and Bob Scoggin, organist. Rev. Alsie H. Carleton is pastor.

St. Elizabeth's Catholic church will observe Holy week with services at different times during the week. Masses will be conducted at 8 a. m., 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. today. munism of Russia may engage.

Increasing her irritation is her feeling that the election gives her only this difficult choice:

If the Communist-dominated popular front wins many Italians think this country in time will become another Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary or Czechoslovakia. If Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Christian Democrats and their anti-Communist allies win civil war will be hard to avoid.

Italy thrusts far down into the Mediterranean, and so bulwarks Greece, Turkey and the vital Near East. She faces Communist Yugoslavia across the narrow Adriatic. She abuts Trieste. She connects through the Brenner pass with occupied Austria. She flanks Switzerland and France.

If Italy goes Communist, many here believe France and all Western Europe will follow. Then Russia would stand on the shores of the Atlantic.

Land. Also, it possibly would have increased American military commitments and jeopardized American oil sources in the Middle East.

Most lawmakers appeared surprised at the Trieste announcement and said they wanted to study the proposal before commenting.

But Rep. Bloom (D-NY), of the House Foreign Affairs committee, said: "It's stupid to restore Trieste to Italy under present world conditions. It would mean trouble the way things are now in Europe."

Reps. Kee (D-WVa) and Mansfield (D-Mont) called it "a very fine thing" and "a good suggestion," respectively.

Senator George (D-Ga) called it "a bit of international politics." Senator Wiley (R-Wis) commented: "It just shows how deep we are now in the international poker game."

The Yugoslav ambassador here, Sava N. Kasanovic, issued a statement saying "I was deeply shocked . . . at both the substance and form of the State department's proposal."

"I do not know if it is intended to provoke Yugoslavia into a step which might provide the excuse for direct action by other nations in this situation," the envoy continued.

"I do know that this action is certain to create an atmosphere of nervousness and tension in which prejudice flourishes and in which the employment of reason and calmness and justice is made more difficult."

The Italian ambassador here, Alberto Tarchiani, expressed gratitude "for what the United States has done."

The announcement was made by the State department here an hour after the formal proposal reached the Russian and Italian embassies. The United States, Britain and France had decided to act after ten days of consultation undertaken at an American suggestion.

Trieste was for more than a year the main stumbling block between the great powers in their efforts to write an Italian peace treaty. The treaty, effective September 15, created the free territory with its port city of Trieste, and its 330,000 people of both Italian and Slavic descent.

News Briefs

Condition of E. S. Lam, railroad company employe of 2810 North Sixth, appeared slightly improved Saturday, it was reported from San Angelo clinic-hospital where he was taken Feb 22.

Members of the board of directors of Lubbock Public Library association are to elect officers at a meeting at 7:45 o'clock Monday night in the music room at Senior High school, said Mrs. H. F. Godeke, president.

Official Easter holidays for Lubbock public schools will begin at the closing of the school day Thursday, and end at school time Tuesday morning, March 30, according to Supt. R. W. Matthews.

Rev. Clarence Stevens, pastor of Cooper Methddist church, has announced a revival starting this morning at 10:30 o'clock and continuing through Easter Sunday. Services will be held each morning at 10:30 a. m. and every night at 7:30 p. m. A team of four persons from McMurry college, Abilene, will assist Rev. Stevens during the revival. Kathryn Sensabaugh will conduct Sunday morning and all week night services, and Grady McCullough will be in charge of all weekday morning services. Quincy Mills will direct singing and work with young people, while Edena Bray will be pianist.

Firemen of both No. 1 and No. 2 stations answered Saturday alarms. Cars were reported burning at Thirty-second and Ave. X and Sixteenth and Ave. N. Damage was negligible in each instance.

Woodrow Porter, 30, a Lubbock negro, was being held in county jail last night on a charge of aggravated assault, according to records at the sheriff's office. He was arrested in Brownfield Friday.

A negro woman, Jackie Carroll, 34, of 1820 East Ave. B, was given emergency treatment at West Texas hospital about midnight following an argument and 'other trouble' in Queen City, negro section of Lubbock. She was wounded between the shoulder blades, the hospital reported. A negro man was arrested on the sheriff's department in connection with the trouble, and was being held on a charge of aggravated assault, officials said.

City Election

was removed as city manager in 1942 after having held the position 11 years as result of policy differences with the city commission and friction within the city hall.

No organized efforts apparently have been made in behalf of Mayor Bestwick, who is seeking a second term. He has made clear that he does not intend to conduct a personal campaign under any conditions. The efforts supporters may make for him probably will depend upon their estimate of how the contest shapes up in the next two weeks.

As to the charter amendments, no opposition at all has been evident to two of the propositions, questions are being asked about a third and some hostility has developed to the remaining pair.

One of those which appears to have general support would eliminate the requirement that anyone employed as Lubbock city manager must have resided in Texas at least a year. The other would relieve the mayor of the necessity of signing individual city payroll checks.

Questions are being asked about the amendment which would allow the city commission to extend the city limits "with or without the concent of the territory and inhabitants annexed." Officials explain this proposition is designed to put the city commission in position to cope with the situation which arises when owners of property adjoining the city limits attempt to block further expansion of the city. They are described as the type who seek all the benefits of residence in the city without the payment of city taxes.

The two other amendments provide in extensive detail the procedure required of those who may seek redress for personal injuries or property damages from the city. Critics charge that the amendments would put the city in a preferred position above all others, regardless of the justice of the claim and the city's reasonable liability.

Particular criticism has been leveled at the proposed amendment which appears as No. ? on the ballot. This reads: "The city shall not be liable to any person for damages caused from streets, ways, crossings, bridges, culverts or sidewalks being out of repair from negligence of said city unless the same shall have remained so for 10 days after special notice in writing given to the city secretary or city manager."

Opposition has developed to this proposal on two counts. One is that the city demands, in effect, the privilege of maintaining a dangerous condition due to its own negligence for a minimum of 10 days without liability for any accidents which might result.

The other count arises from the question as to how the victim of such an accident could be presumed to have known about the negligent condition in order to give the city advance written notice of its existence. The presumption is that any person knowing of a hazardous condition would avoid an accident there. Several attorneys already have expressed the opinion that this proposal clearly would be invalid.

issues?" he was asked. His reply was:

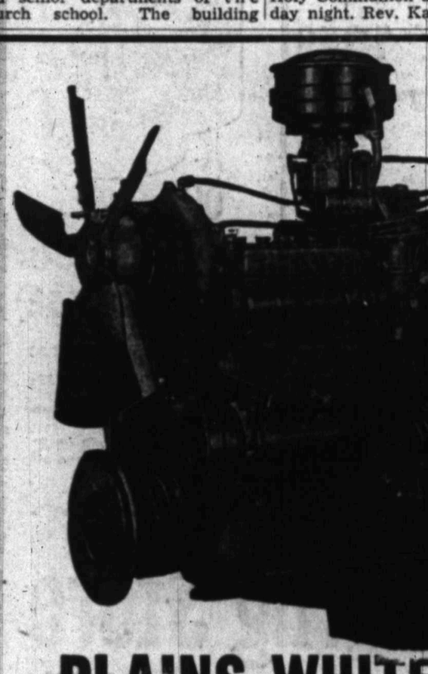

"I don't know whether they are Wallace people or people who favor the national party's civil rights program. I have been told the people who were opposed to me two years ago are awfully busy."

Asked if those who opposed him (in the race with Homer P. Rainey for governor) two years ago were leftists, Jester said some who opposed him were.

"The party has to be careful to see that the extremely liberal element does not get control of the party in Texas," the governor said, adding that the "real Democrats" should stay in control.

Jewish, Arab Armies Get Ready For Heavy Battle In Palestine

(EDITOR'S NOTE: As international diplomats debate the political future of Palestine, the opposing claimants are on the move with military forces in the Holy Land. In the following article two Associated Press correspondents assess and analyze the two Jewish forces and the Arab army which are in the field).

By JAMES M. LONG AND JOSEPH C. GOODWIN

JERUSALEM, March 20. (AP)—The Jews have started their fight for a state with two armies, one on the borderline of legality, one still outlawed, but both in battle stations side by side against the Arabs.

Haganah (it means defense) is the official militia of the Jewish agency, and potentially the future army of a Jewish state. Technically it has not been recognized by the British mandate government. But it exists and operates as a uniformed, armed fighting force, openly, unchallenged.

Irgun Zvai Leumi (it means national military organization) exists and operates just as tangibly—but as a still undercover force, illegal because of its repeated blows at the British.

Differences Noted

Despite the unanimity of the two fighting forces in the battle against the Arabs, there are so-far unreconcilable differences between them on their policy of action toward the British, and lesser differences on the future expansionism of the Jewish state.

Once, at the end of February, they clashed briefly in downtown Tel Aviv in a "fight within the family" in which 50 persons were hurt. But on the sniper and mortar fire no-mans-land line between Jewish Tel Aviv and Arab Jaffa their gunposts are side by side.

Haganah has a fulltime, paid, regular army basis striking force called Palmach, now up to something more than 10,000 fighting strength. It is backed by a trained, partly armed militia of many thousands more.

Civilians Are Trained

Recruits, some taken from the militia an dothers hand picked from newly arriving immigrants, are trained into Palmach at regular bases comparable to American citizen military training camp courses, but briefed down into 180 hours. Uniforms, manual of arms and drill are basically those of the British army.

Irgun is much smaller, tougher, highly organized, trained for special operations. It has perhaps only slightly more than 1,000 men as an armed force—and this is an estimate only as its spokesman decline to give any figures. It has no camps, but trains in the shell-hit sidestreets near its frontline posts. Gunnery is practiced on live targets a few hundred yards away in the Arab sandbag outposts.

Ten thousand trained Arab soldiers, many with wartime experience in foreign armies, are billeted in hill villages of ancient Samaria.

Arab Strength Increased

Flanking this army of Yarmuk are other thousands of irregulars who harrass Jewish communications and supply lines, and keep the war cauldron boiling in the bloody borderland between Jaffa and Tel Aviv.

Arab strength is being increased daily by new contingents of trainees from the big Katana camp in Syria and by riflemen trained by tribal leaders in their own camps.

The Yarmuk army, commanded by Fawzi Bey El Kaukji, obviously is an efficient fighting machine of men picked from thousands of volunteers from all over Arab world. Its men are mostly young, educated, strongly convinced of the right of their cause — and thoroughly trained in use of weapons best adapted to the type warfare they anticipate.

Well Supplied

They are well supplied with rifles, pistols, grenades, tommy-guns and ammunition. They have small tanks, armored cars, some field artillery, mortars, automatic weapons and plenty of transport for the small mobile units into which they organized.

They are uniformed in American army surplus and well fed. Morale is high.

Politically conscious and convinced by leaders they are fighting a war to prevent occupation their homeland and "enslavement" by Jewish capital, they are spoiling for a fight.

Arabs Find Weaknesses

How and when that fight may develop canny leaders are not saying, but many observers express belief Yarmuk may strike as soon as the British leave, spearing down from the Samarian hills on to the narrow plains of Sharon in an attempt to cut the coast highway and throw a double loop about the Jewish-held crescent along the Mediterranean.

Arab strategists assess Jaffa and the Arab section of Haifa as "weak points" and are pouring commando units into those areas to work with irregular forces already active.

Explosive irregulars of Sheik Hassan Salameh in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv borderland and Abdul Kader Husseini in the jewusalem area are expected to tie up large Jewish defense forces and attempt hold the line in metropolitan areas.

Plainview Plans Easter Pageant

PLAINVIEW, March 20 (Special)—The third annual Easter pageant will be presented at 5:30 a. m. next Sunday, Easter, in Plainview High school football stadium by the Plainview Association of Christian Youth.

The first year's pageant drew attendance of about 4,000 persons and last year's attendance was estimated to be over 5,000.

This year's pageant will be more complete than that last year and Plainview sponsors have anticipated an overflow attendance, it was estimated.

Program Is Given

The Christ again will be portrayed by Royce Peterson, a McMurry student, and the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Peterson of Plainview. He has received wide praise and recognition for his portrayal of the role.

Scenes to be portrayed in this year's production are "The Nativity," "The Boy Jesus in the Temple," "The Sermon on the Mount," "Christ Teaching His Disciples," "Christ Blesses the Little Children," "The Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem," "Christ in the Temple," "The Last Supper," "Christ's Farewell Sermon," "The Crucifixion" and "The Resurrection."

All scenery is made by the youth of Plainview and all characters are portrayed by young persons. The parts of the pageant depicting the death and resurrection will be under direction of Mrs. Louis F. Caddell. Herbert Byars is general chairman.

FALL PROVES LUCKY

NEW YORK (AP)—Wrestling in Van Cortlandt Park last fall, Richard Dundon, 15, fell against something sharp. It turned out to be a cut diamond worth $300. He has received it back from the police property clerk as unclaimed and gave it to his mother.

Clothing Distributed To School Children

Theta Rho girls club, sponsored by the Lubbock lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows, has distributed more than 750 articles of clothing to needy children in the public schools of the city thus far, Mrs. G. W. Blair, club advisor, announced last night.

Although the club has gotten off to a good start, Mrs. Blair said, there is still a great need for additional articles of clothing to take care of the needs of children in other schools of the city which have not been visited as yet.

Persons who have wearable clothing which they wish to contribute to the project are asked to bring the clothing to Mrs. Blair's home, 2407 Tenth street, or call and have them picked up. Shoes and underwear are particularly needed, she said, but other articles can be used advantageously. Minor repairs and alterations can be made by Mrs. Blair and Theta Rho club members, she said.

The need for clothing in some of the schools of Lubbock came to the club's attention a few weeks ago when Mrs. Marjorie Brasher, school nurse, revealed the facts through "The Woman's Angle," column in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

The Theta Rho girls club is now undertaking another project, Mrs. Blair said, to provide hot lunches for certain children in the East Broadway school. About 150 lunches would be served daily, she estimated, and monetary contributions are needed to help finance the project. Interested persons may send donations to Mrs. Blair.

The club hopes to get the hot-lunch program started sometime next week, she stated.

American Legion To Show Atom Movie At Monday Night Meet

Allen Brothers post of the American Legion will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Legion hall, 910 Texas avenue, at 8 o'clock Monday night.

This meeting will climax a week of active campaigning for membership in the local post.

A preview of a motion picture is to feature the program. This picture is entitled "Atomism hits Bikini," the only authentic pictures of the atom bomb demonstrations on Bikini atoll, during the summer of 1946. Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans have been invited to attend the meeting.

This presentation will be made by members of the active Air Corps reserve component here in Lubbock.

A "true to form" army meal will be served to those attending at the close of the business session. H. J. McCabe, commander of the local post will preside.

Veterans and members of the three organizations are expected from all over West Texas. Any veteran not a member of the American Legion and desirous of membership, should attend this meeting, and get his dues in at that time, officials said.

Bears To Seek National Title

KANSAS CITY, March 20 (AP)—Baylor's Bears upset Kansas state tonight to win the Western NCAA Basketball playoffs 60-52.

The Bears put on a blistering second period drive to overcome the Kansans' halftime advantage and win the right to play Kentucky for the championship next Tuesday in New York. They also qualified for a berth in the Olympic trials which begin March 27.

Kentucky assumed the lead early and led almost all the way.

Holy Cross, the defending NCAA kings, went down to their first defeat after 21 straight conquests. They finished the campaign with a 26-4 record.

Sweepstakes Winner Says She Plans To Take Long Vacation

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 20 (AP)—"I can't believe it," was the reaction of Mrs. Janet Stark Powers, 46, when informed she had won $100,000 in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes today.

Mrs. Powers, who held a ticket on "Sheila's Cottage" which won the Grand National at Aintree, England, said her son would share in the money and that she planned a long vacation.

Mrs. Powers said she purchased the winning ticket for $3.00 while working in a pastry shop in San Francisco.

NEW YORK ACCOUNTANT ALSO IS VERY HAPPY

NEW YORK, March 20 (AP)—A $70-a-week public accountant did a little figuring on 1948 income tax today and happily announced he would owe the United States government about $67,000.

Bernard Lesser, 26 and unmarried, said he expected to receive $100,000 from a sweepstakes ticket on "Sheila's Cottage," winner of the Grand National.

He said he bought the ticket two months ago on a "very strong" hunch and that he turned down $10,000 for the ticket last week.

50-1 SHOT WINNER OF GRAND NATIONAL RACE

AINTREE, England, March 20 (AP)—"Sheila's Cottage" won the 102nd running of the Grand National Steeplechase by a length today. Less than five months ago she was purchased at a bargain by the owner of a fishing fleet because of tender feet.

The nine-year-old hand-me-down Irish mare, the first of her sex to triumph in the world's greatest hedge-hopping race since 1902, was a 50 to 1 betting choice.

Only 14 of the 43 starters completed the 30-jump, four and a half mile trip of torture which brings fortunes to lucky ticket holders in the Irish Sweepstakes.

Among those that fell were Caddie II, only American-owned starter, and Silver Fame, the 8 to 1 favorite.

Pinnell Paces Raider Squad With High Hurdle Victory

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

FORT WORTH, March 20—Nine records fell, another was tied and Texas A. & M. repeated with the championship of the university division in the Southwestern Recreation track and field meet today.

It was the greatest cinder path carnival in Texas history and it was one of the mightiest record-smashing afternoons in the 25 years of this track extravaganza.

Charley Parker, the University of Texas bullet, ripped 100 yards in 9.5 seconds. Sturdy Paul Faulkner, Fort Worth school boy, outdid anything in the books—high school, college, or university—to vault 13 feet, 1¾ inches. Giant George Kadera of the Texas Aggies, whipped the discus 160 feet, 7 inches. The Texas A&M mile relay team turned in a time of 3:21.3. These were the new meet records. The other new marks were division standards.

Aggies Amass 73 Points

Texas A. and M. rolled to 73 points to finish far ahead of arch rival Texas, which had 47 5/6 points and a flock of hard luck. Oklahoma A&M was third with 11; Texas Tech was fourth with 10½, and Arkansas was fifth with 10¼.

North Texas state again won the college class title, scoring 38 points to 32 for runner-up southwest Texas state.

Texas A&M's freshmen captured the junior college - college freshman division with 46 2/3 points to 29 for Southern Methodist's freshmen.

Austin took the high school division cup, beating out defending champion Corpus Christi by eight points. The Maroons made 25 points, Corpus Christi had 17, Highland Park of Dallas finished a close third with 16.

The mighty Kadera was high man of the university class with first in the discus and shot and third in the javelin throw for 12 points. Parker copped the 100 and 220, and ran on the winning sprint relay team to get 11½ points.

Little Jerry Thompson of Texas finished 30 yards ahead in the mile run and eased up without trying for a record. In the half mile, he was mixed up with teammate Don Sparks and Harold Tarrant of Oklahoma A&M in a spill at the first turn. Sparks and Thompson got up and continued the race, but Tarrant, who was bruised and cut from the plunge into the cinders, did not. Thompson finished a close second and Sparks was third. E. B. Atkins of Texas A. and M. won the race in 2:02.0, much slower than Thompson and Sparks are accustomed to running.

Here were the records set today:
University Division — Parker, 9.5 in 100-yard dash, bettering record of 9.8, set by Cy. Leland of Texas Christian in 1936, and tied by Peyton Glass of Oklahoma A and M in 1931. Harold Hall of Rice in 1942, and Bill Martineson of Baylor in 1947; Texas A & M 3:21.3, in the mile relay by team of S. C. Ludwig, Ervin Bilderback, Roy Holbrook and Art Harnden bettering record of 3:24.4, set by Oklahoma A and M in 1939; Kadera, 160 feet 1 inches in discus, surpassing record of 158 feet 7½ inches set by Jack Hughes of Texas in 1941.
High School Division—Paul Faulkner, Paschal (Fort Worth), 13 feet, 1¾ inches in pole vault, bettering record of 12 feet, 4 inches set by Jim Baxter of Nacogdoches in 1930; Darrow Hooper, North Side (Fort Worth), 54 feet, 3 inches in shot put, bettering record of 53 feet, 11/4 inches set by Dewitt Coulter of Masconic Home (Fort Worth), in 1942; Bobby Dean, Corpus Christi, 22.8 in 200-yard low hurdles, bettering record of 23 feet flat set by Hubert Ray of Cushing, Okla., and Tom Watt of Breckenridge (San Antonio) in 1945; Charles Holding, Waco, 6 feet, 3 inches in high jump, tying record set by Byron Townsend of Odessa in 1947.

WESTERNER TEAM WAS NOT READY FOR MEET

FORT WORTH, March 20 (Special)—Charles Pinnell of Andrews, a freshman in Texas Tech, romped to the Lubbock team's only first place here today.

Pinnell, former district and regional high hurdles record-holder while in high school, outran the field in the good time of 15.2 seconds for the outstanding performance by a Red Raider.

Reynolds Places Third

The Andrews first-year man returned to grab third place in the special high hurdle event.

Charley Reynolds of Odessa raced to third place in the 220-yard dash, finishing behind Charles Parker of the University of Texas and Bill Napier of Texas Aggies. Parker won the race in 21.2 seconds.

Ed Clepper of Mobeetie gained a tie for second place in the high jump. Clepper scaled the bar at six feet two inches, tying with Walter of Texas. The winning height was six feet four inches by Haws of Texas Aggies.

Relay Team Fourth

The Raider mile relay team finished fourth, as the Texas Aggies smashed the existing record, covering the mile in 3:21.3 seconds.

Running on the mile relay team were Reynolds, Joe Wilson of Claude, Costin Bufkin of Hobbs, N. M., and Ernest Hawkins of Lamesa.

The Lubbock Westerner squad fell by the wayside in today's competition. Coach Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst said that poor conditioning, due to bad weather, caused the boys to run themselves out Friday.

Lubbock Miler Richard Johnson and Half-Miler Clayton Ross failed to reach their expected peak. Quarter-Miler Jim Johnson turned in his poorest time of the year. The mile relay four made a brief bid, but failed to last.

NTS Takes Golf Tourney Crown

FORT WORTH, March 20 (AP)—Little James Bell of TWC walked off with medal honors in the Southwestern Exposition Golf meet over the wind-swept Meadowbrook Golf course here today.

Bell shot three successive bogeys, then settled down to fire a three-under par 68 with the aid of an eagle and four birdies.

NTS Win Trophy

Palmer Lee Lawrence of North Texas state had a 72 and his teammate, Buster Reed, fired a 73.

The North Texas team easily won the team trophy with a low total of 295 strokes. TWC was second, TCU third, East Texas state fourth and Hardin college and North Texas state's second team tying for fifth.

Texas Tech Netters Win Match Easily

Texas Tech's powerful tennis team swamped the visiting net squad from Eastern New Mexico Teachers college of Portales, N. M., Saturday afternoon at the Tech courts by sweeping the six singles matches and three doubles matches of the card.

Jake Broyles of the Raiders defeated Fred Wells, New Mexico ace, in two straight sets, 6-1, 6-0, in the feature singles tussle; while Tech's second-ranking netter — Glenn Ivy—racked up Morris Wilson of the visitors, 6-2, 6-0.

Smooth-stroking Shaff DeGaish chalked up an easy 6-3, 6-2, victory over Afton Verner in the number three singles, with Techsan Joe Wheatley trouncing Mickey Hill of the New Mexico delegation, 6-2, 6-1.

Eddie Scudday routed Mickey McGuire, 6-0, 6-1, and David Hester gained a 6-2, 6-1 win over "Blossom" Dunning for the final Texas Tech singles triumphs.

Broyles and Ivy paced the Raider doubles teams with a 6-0, 6-0 blanking of Wells and Verner, with DeGaish and Wheatley thumping Dunning and Hill, 6-1, 6-1. Hester and Jack Prentiss edged McGuire and Wilson in the last setto, 6-4, 6-2.

The Raider netters will go to Fort Worth and Dallas this weekend for a series of matches with Southern Methodist and Texas Christian university squads, officials announced.

AAU Mitt Show Starts Monday

AMARILLO, March 21 (Special)—Heavyweight Gene James of Lubbock drew Heavyweight Dickie Brown of this city in the opening round of the Amarillo A.A.U. Boxing tournament to be held here Monday and Tuesday. This bout will be the feature of the opening day's card.

An outstanding field has been entered in the AAU bouts here, with several 1948 Golden Gloves winners on hand for the fighting. James is the only district winner from Lubbock with an application blank in the pot, but Amarillo is supplying Brown, Gene Cooper from Pampa, Leon Palacio from Amarillo and others.

Winners To Nationals

The Amarillo News-Grobe, which is sponsoring the tourney, will send the winners directly to Kansas City, Mo., for the National A. A. U. Boxing championships. The national tourney is due to start next week.

Prizes for winners in the Amarillo district tourney will be gold-filled belt buckles. Losers will receive silver-filled belt buckles and third-place winners will be given bronze-filled belt buckles.

There will be two fights in each division each night, with the winners in each division Monday night meeting for the title Tuesday night. Monday night losers will battle it out Tuesday night for third place.

Possible Foes Named

If James gets by Brown, whom he defeated here in the inter-city bouts following the Lubbock district Golden Gloves, he will meet the winner of the Clint Williams-Jackie McPherson bout. Williams is a West Texas State Teachers college student and McPherson comes from Wellington.

Randall Hinkle of Wayland college, the "Punching Parson from Tahoka," currently has a bye in the middleweight division Monday night, but will fight the winner of the Willis Hawkins-Ken Hodges battle on Tuesday. Hawkins, also from West Texas, is favored to win in a close bout.

Gene Cooper of Pampa, state Golden Gloves welterweight champion, will face Robert Martinez of Amarillo Monday night. Martinez was runnerup to Cooper this year. The other bout will pair Jim Wortham of Amarillo and Jack London of West Texas.

Former Champ Enters

One of the outstanding entrants is Don Livingston of Borger, a 28-year-old amateur and former state Golden Gloves featherweight champion in 1940. So far Livingston has no opponent Monday night.

The Borger Battler won the Amarillo district in 1940 and went to the state tourney in Fort Worth. In an early bout there he broke a collarbone, but concealed it from the officials. He continued his bouts and went on to win the title, only to be barred from the trip to Chicago when officials discovered his condition.

All bouts will be held in the City Auditorium, with 16 fights each night. There will be additional tickets available both nights for persons coming to see the fights from out of town.

Jack Lohrke hit a homer for the Giants in the third.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 20 (AP)—With Terry Moore slamming out a home run the St. Louis Cardinals nosed out the Philadelphia Phillies 2 to 1 in a spring training game today. Moore's blow came in the first inning with no one on base.

Freeman And Gray To Settle Mat Dispute

Hair pulling, body slams and roughhouse tactics are sure to be used Wednesday night at Sled Allen's wrestling arena when Ace Freeman of New York is rematched with Karl Gray of Milwaukee, Wisc.

The two grapplers met last week and Freeman beefed about the defeat by Gray, so they were thrown together on this week's card. They will meet in the main go, with a semi-final that features Eddie Gideon of Montgomery, Ala., and Gorilla Poggi, the mat veteran.

Unpopular Amarillo Referee-wrestler Omar Boynton will meet the rugged Johnny Carlin of Tampa, Fla., in a 20-minute preliminary that should be good.

Tickets will be sold from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Wednesday at Wylie's Drug store.

ABILENE GOLFER SCORES

FORT WORTH, March 20 (AP)—Gervis McGraw, Abilene, turned in a one under par 70 to win medalist honors yesterday in the high school division of the Southwestern Exposition golf meet. He also placed first in long driving and approach - putt contests. Sunset High school (Dallas) won the team championship. Arlington was second and Abilene third.

Between The Lines . . .

By Joe Kelly

This week will be one of the most important of the season for Manager Jackie Sullivan of the Lubbock Hubbers. This is the week when the Dallas Rebels, the parent club, will begin to kiss the promising but unready rookies goodbye. The flowers that began to bloom in the spring already are beginning to wilt by Double A comparisons and many of these blossoms will be farmed out to the fertile soil of farm clubs.

So Jackie will be right on hand to claim the men he needs to make another championship club for Lubbock and, before the end of the week arrives, he should have a pretty fair idea of how the Hubber roster will read. Possibly a few familiar faces will be on the list cut off by Dallas. If so, Jackie probably will be more than happy to have them back.

For instance, Sports Editor George White of the Dallas News intimates that possibly Moody will beat out Virgil Richardson of Lubbock for first base. Rich would look awful good on the initial sack for the Hubbers again this year. White also looks for Clem Cola to eliminate Mike Dooley as second string catcher and Dooley is another ex-Hubber that would help Sullivan's nine. Bill Serena may not stick at third base, but the Rebels will try him in the outfield if he fails on the inner garden. If Bill doesn't make the Dallas grade, he already has said he wants to come back here.

Eulis Rosson and Paul Hinrichs probably will be on the Rebel mound staff, off present showing, but Jackie has Cotton Russell and Frank Cobo coming along to replace them. Frank Boothe looks like a sure bet for an outfield spot and Frank McAlexander probably will be over at the hot corner for another season. Jackie will hold down second base and rookie shortstop Seiler may be a starter. Pitcher Royce Mills, probably won't be around this year, but the Hubbers will pick up other good men from the Rebels and the team is bound to be as strong as last year.

American Legion officials have started their campaign to organize their Junior League baseball program and not enough praise can be given to this well worthwhile project. The fact that many of the top Major league players received their start in Junior League ball is beside the point. More important is it that American boys, through the national game, are given fundamental training in democracy in action, as well as good, clean, well organized physical exercise.

We have said before that competitive athletics is, in our opinion, the greatest individual training for men. To learn to play together, to respect judgement, to gain confidence in one's self, to learn to think, to gain coordination; all of these things are obtained in athletics more than in any other phase of human existence. The boy that is well grounded in athletics 99 times out of 100 will be the leader in his community. The boy who receives an opportunity to join in organized athletics will not, at some later time, be a public ward, such as a mental hospital patient or prison inmate.

The resignation of Sid Gillman as head football coach at Ohio's Miami university was received with interest at Texas Tech and in Lubbock. Gillman has gone to Army as line coach under Coach Earl "Red" Blaik, a Miami grad. Blaik hand-picked Gillman and considers the young coach one of the ablest tutors in the nation.

LOCKNEY, March 20 (Special)—Leather-slingers from Floydada and Lockney High schools will tangle here Monday night, officials have announced, with some of the top schoolboy sluggers of the South Plains slated on the 15-bout card.

The Floydada delegation will be headed by Calvin Pyle, a hard-punching middleweight who wins his fights by the knockout route. Lockney will counter with a well-balanced squad that will include Ronald and Donald Reecer, Harold Hall, Bill Bybee and Cherokee Livesay.

The Floydada squad is coached by L. F. Gresham and Curtis Kelley holds the post as mentor of the Lockney fighters.

Hurdle Mark Lowered In Chicago Relays

CHICAGO, March 20 (AP)—Harrison Dillard of Baldwin-Wallace lowered the American indoor 60-yard high hurdles records by a tenth of a second tonight in the Chicago relays. He was clocked in :07.1, shading Northwestern's Bill Porter by inches.

Michigan State's Jack Dianetti romped to an easy triump in the Gill 1,000-yard run, running National A.A.U. Champion Phil Thigpen into the boards.

Dianetti was clocked over Chicago stadium boards in the comparatively slow time of 2:13.5.

The university two-mile relay was won by Ohio State.

Big Nine Champion Dwight Eddleman of Illinois matched the Belays high jump record with a leap of 6 feet, 7 inches. The old mark was set by Mel Walker in 1941.

Northwestern shaded Marquette and Wisconsin in the matched university one-mile relay, winning in 3:25.4. The matched college one-mile relay went to the University of Chicago in 3:33.2.

The featured Banker's mile in the Chicago stadium show, witnessed by 16,741 persons was won by lightly-reckoned Don Gehrmann, bespectacled Wisconsin star, in 4:12.

Lloyd Mangrum's 66 Puts Him In Greensboro Golf Meet Lead

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 20 (AP)—Lloyd Mangrum seared the Sedgefield Golf course with a sizzling 66 today to take the lead at 36 holes in the $10,000 Greensboro Open Golf tournament.

Tied in second place for the second straight day were two North Carolina pros, Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, and Stewart (Skip) Alexander of Mid Pines. Each had par 70's today to go along with yesterday's 68's.

AGGIE MATMEN WIN

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 20 (AP)—Oklahoma A & M won the 18th Annual NCAA Wrestling tournament tonight with 31 points and two Aggie matmen copped individual titles. The Midwest dominated the tournament as it won seven of the eight individual crowns.

Lubbock Country Club Building Slated For Completion Aug. 1

Lubbock Country Club late this summer will be operating from one of the finest clubhouses in the Southwest.

Construction of the $203,000 building, with Robert Maxey as contractor, is moving along rapidly and completion of the project by Aug. 1 is contemplated.

Pool Being Remodeled

In addition to the magnificent clubhouse, the club's swimming pool is being remodeled and enlarged and other improvements are being made on the golf course.

Eventually Lubbock will have one of the finest all-round country club projects to be found anywhere, Cliff Dean, president for the past two years, predicted Saturday.

And a visit to the clubhouse grounds and scrutiny of the building plans bears out his prediction.

Space For Ballroom

The clubhouse proper will be 127 feet by 82 feet with two floors, one a half-basement. The manager's office, men's and women's locker rooms, 19th hole, boy's locker room, social room, card room, and heating and air-conditioning machinery room will be in the basement. Space will be provided for approximately 500 lockers.

Dominating the second floor will be a huge 77 by 40-foot ballroom and banquet hall. The second floor also will contain a formal dining room, kitchen, grill, party room, powder room, check room and men's lounge. In addition the ballroom will be encircled on the east and south by a 20-foot terrace.

At each end of the ballroom will be a large fireplace of Austin cut stone. The ballroom will also have a band shell. The entire east wall, from the ceiling to the floor, will be covered by steel casement windows. Floor will be strip maple.

Modernistic Design

Cold cathode indirect lighting will give the ballroom's beamed and accoustical tile ceiling an unusual effect. The smaller, formal dining room, will also have this type of lighting in addition to block maple floor.

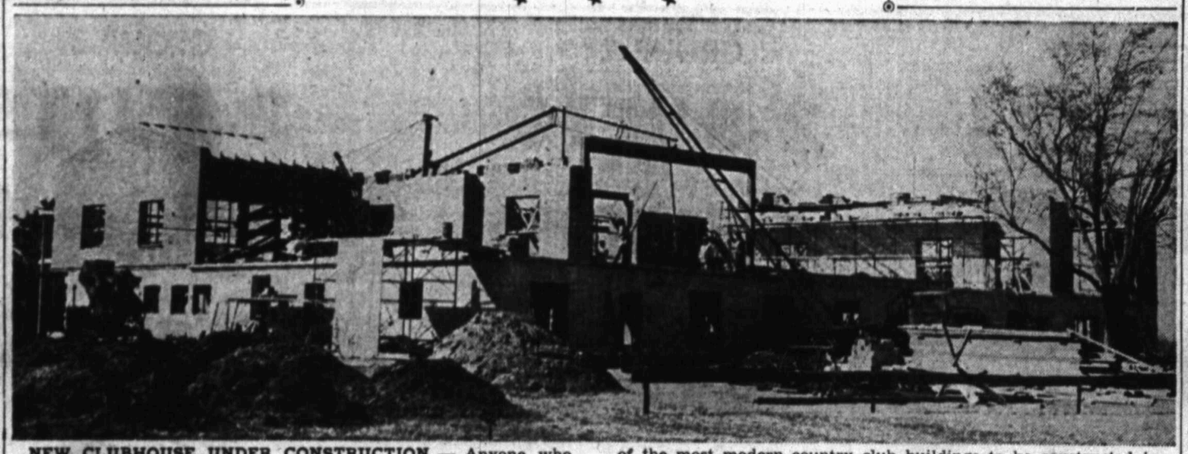

Entrance foyer, corridor and stairs of the clubhouse will be of terrazzo tile. Toilets and showers will have ceramic tile floors and walls.

The club swimming pool, just to the east of the clubhouse, will be enlarged 20 feet, making it a 40 by 110-foot pool and the top will be raised 14 inches, to provide for a scum gutter. In addition, infiltration pipes will also be installed.

Memberships Open

The architectural firm of Page, Southerland and Page of Austin, designed the clubhouse building, which is being constructed of colonial pink face brick and Austin cut stone. Lower half of the building is finished in the stone.

President Dean said the club's membership is still open to a limited number of associate members.

NEW CLUBHOUSE UNDER CONSTRUCTION — Anyone who hasn't been around Lubbock Country club the past several weeks will be a greatly surprised person when visiting there today. The old clubhouse has been razed and in its place is rising one of the most modern country club buildings to be constructed in the Southwest. Pictured above is a progress 'shot' of the 127 by 82-foot brick, concrete and steel clubhouse which is expected to be completed by Aug. 1. (Staff Photo).

BOWLING SCORES

The second-place Household Supply keglers moved closer to the top league position last week with a 3-0 win over West Texas Gas company at Plamor Lanes.

The Supply keglers were led by James Buckner's fine 259-656 series score. This was the highest individual series for the week at Plamore, and the second highest score for the current season. Buckner also scored highest individual single game for the season.

Blue Bonnet keglers held their first-place spot in the league in last week's games, taking two out of three from the Cunningham Service five. Glenn Hunnington scored high for Blue Bonnet with 193-544. High for the losers was Clayton Cunningham with 190-493.

Wootin's Grocery squad swept a three-game series from Forrest lumber pin topplers as Glenn Evans of the winning five turned in another fine performance with a 224-618 series. Al Reid scored high for the losers with his 187-481.

Sears Roebuck maple pushers moved up a little with two wins in three games against Sunbeam Laundry. Homer Wright led Sears with a 486 series. Don Mitchener was high for Sunbeam with a 183-488 total.

The standings:

Giant-Indian Exhibition Tilt Will Be Played Here April 9

Game Ducats Go On Sale Monday

Tickets for the New York Giants-Cleveland Indians baseball game at Rosenthal Field April 9 will go on sale tomorrow at the Hub Clothing store, Business Manager Larry Larsen announced Saturday.

This is the first time that a definite sale date has been announced and Hubber officials are looking for a flock of buyers swarming the store. All tickets will sell for the same price—$1 per seat—and will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

Few Reserved Ducats Left

Larsen said yesterday that box seat and reserved seat ticket holders could buy their tickets in advance also, saving the often long wait in line at the ball park. No reserved seats will be sold, other than to persons holding season reserved seat tickets, which still are being sold.

A few season reserved seat tickets remain to be sold, but Larsen advised persons interested in obtaining these seats to hurry to buy them before the remaining ones were sold.

The Giant-Indian game will be the only time this season that two Major league teams will appear in Lubbock. The National and American league clubs respectively are playing a series of games across the country and will come to the Hub City from Albuquerque, N. M., where they play April 8. According to the Indian schedule, the two teams visit Oklahoma City, Okla., after leaving Lubbock.

Bob Feller Due

With the Indians will be such outstanding stars as Bobby Feller, Al Gettel, Don Black, Ed Kleinman and Mob Muncrief, pitchers; Catcher Jim Hegan; Manager Lou Boudreau, Elbie Fletcher, Joe "Flash" Gordon, Ken Keltner, infielders; and Al Clark, Walt Judnich, Pat Seerey and Thurman Tucker, outfielders.

Feller, Boudreau, Kleinman, Hegan, Keltner and Seerey are all Indians of long standing, but the others have reached fame in other uniforms. Gettel, Gordon and Clark are all former Yankees; Muncrief and Judnich are former Brownies; Black came from the Athletics; Fletcher hit the top with the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National loop; and Tucker, who visited Lubbock only this spring, was with the White Sox.

Mize Will Appear

The Giants also are bringing a group of fabulous players with them, including such names as Manager Mel Ott, Clint Hartung, Johnny Mize, Dave Koslo, Larry Jansen, Walker Cooper, Willard Marshall, Sid Gordon, Johnny Rigney, Bobby Thompson and many others.

Manager Ott is one of the foremost pilots in the game, the Memphis, Tenn., outfielder breaking in under John McGraw when he was 16 years old. Hartung, of course, is the fabulous Texas product from the Army, who failed as an outfielder and then started over as a pitcher. Mize, and Kiner of the Pirates, topped the league in homers last year at 51. Walker Cooper, when he was with St. Louis' Cardinals, made up one of the most famous pitcher-catcher brother acts in organized baseball, while Jansen is a rookie hurler who won 30 games last year.

This will be the only opportunity for Lubbock fans to see Major league teams this year, unless they are able to go to Fort Worth, Dallas or Houston. But probably two better teams could not be brought here, from a spectator standpoint, and a capacity crowd is expected.

GIANT COACH DEMONSTRATES—Former Cardinal Frankie Frisch, now with the New York Giants' coaching staff, shows Second Sacker Bill Rigney how to steal. Frisch was a past-master when he was with the Gas House Gang in St. Louis. The Giant coach and Rigney will be among the squad that Manager Mel Ott brings here April 9 to play the Cleveland Indians at Rosenthal Field.

RICE NINE WINS

HOUSTON, March 20 (AP)—Catcher Bobby Willard drove in five runs today to lead the Rice Owls to a 10 to 5 baseball victory over Sam Houston state.

Lubbock, Big Spring Divide Golf Matches

BIG SPRING, March 20 (Spl.)—Lubbock High and Big Spring schoolboy golfers broke even in a six-match program held here this afternoon, with each team tallying nine points.

Bob Maxwell of Big Spring defeated Ross Mitchell, three and two, winning three points under the scoring setup. Clarence Schaeffer of Big Spring edged Bill Tatum of Lubbock, three and two, with a 2½ to ½ point margin; while Sam Thurman of Big Spring defeated George Canon of Lubbock one up.

Edward Bean of Lubbock chalked a one up victory over Bobby Hoertze of Big Spring and copped a two to one point edge. Clyde Mitchell of Lubbock defeated Paul Schaeffer, four and two, and Jack Whitehead of Lubbock defeated Dick Cloud, one up, in other matches.

REBELS BEAT OKLAHOMA

DALLAS, March 20 (AP) — The Dallas Rebels handed the Oklahoma City Indians a 3-2 licking here today in their first exhibition game of the season.

Oil Belt Loop To Meet Today

BROWNFIELD, March 20 (Special) — The Oil Belt Baseball League will hold another luncheon meeting here Sunday at 12:30, with league officials convening under the direction of Joe Holmes of Lubbock, president.

The meeting, to be held in the former Thompson Cafe, will center on discussion of the league schedule, which is due to be presented for approval; the election of umpires, including four plate, four base and four reserve umpires; and revision of the rules, including setting of a player deadline and a $50 bond from each club.

The league, composed this season of eight clubs, will commence play on April 19 and will continue each Sunday through Aug. 29, followed by Shaughnessy playoffs.

Gooden And Zeh Win Honors In Gun Meet

D. C. Zeh topped the trap shooters at the Lubbock Gun club shoot yesterday afternoon, hitting 61 of a possible 75 against a gloomy background that cut down on all high scores.

At the same time, Si Gooden walked off with top honors in the skeet shoot by splitting 47 out of a possible 50 birds. He was followed by Clyde Tatum, Dr. C. C. Mansell and H. B. Davis, who were tied with 46 out of 50.

Another big turnout is expected this afternoon at 2, when shooters will assemble at the Gun club for trap and skeet shooting. Manager Gooden said that registration of shoots was beginning and that all scores would be certified with the Amateur Trapshooting Association and with National Skeet Shooting Association.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

In any athletic contest luck, or the lack of it, plays a definite part in the final result. The bad bounce of a football near the goal line, the putt that rims the cup and rolls away and the desperation knockout punch by a defeated boxer are familiar to all sports fans. In track Lady Luck usually takes a back seat, however, since there are not so many variable factors and a 9.8 man is a sure bet over a 10.1 man in the 100-yard dash about 99 per cent of the time. But when you combine track with coin-flipping, then luck really plays a decisive part in the proceedings.

Evidently Coach Marlin Hayhurst did not take his rabbit's foot to Fort Worth for the Southwestern Exposition meet, for at least two of his Westerner speedsters failed to qualify in the preliminary events Firday afternoon by just that same margin of luck. Earl Hutcherson of Lubbock tied with youthful Jimmy Powell of Seminole for the final qualifying position in the 220-yard low hurdles, so officials flipped a coin. Hutcherson lost and Powell, one of the finest little athletes in West Texas, entered the finals. It was a fine break for Jimmy—but what a heart-breaker for Earl!

Earlier, in one of the 100-yard dash preliminaries, Flyin' Charley Williams of the Lubbock squad breezed to the tape in a near-dead heat with one of the highest-rated sprinters in the state. Several impartial observers stated that Williams actually broke the tape ahead of the contestant the judges named as the winner, but the judges didn't even give Charley a qualifying second spot! They placed him third and Westerner hopes for another place went flying out the stadium gates.

Coach Hayhurst is well-satisfied with the showing made by most members of the small squad he took to the meet. He knew that his charges had not been able to hold enough workouts to match the condition of the downstate teams, but he also knew that the experience gained in a major meet would prove invaluable later this season. Some of the Lubbock squadmen turned in excellent times—Don Decker just missed a qualifying spot in the 220-yard dash with a 23.5, Richard Johnson hit a five minute mile in the preliminaries and the mile relay quartet showed promise as a challenger for the state title—and as the generals used to say, "The action is being carried forward according to plan."

Golf will soon steal a part of the spotlight from track and tennis meets over the South Plains. Links fans will have an opportunity to see the best schoolboy golfers of West Texas in action here April 3 when Lubbock High school will be host to 10 Class AA golf teams. Invitations have been sent to Pampa, Borger, Amarillo, Lamesa, Plainview, Midland, Odessa, Big Spring, San Angelo and Abilene, and most of the schools are expected to accept the bids. There is a definite trend toward emphasis on the minor sports by state schools and the meet here will fit into the wider athletic goal.

Bad news for schoolboy grid fans has been announced by Lubbock High officials—the scheduled Westerner football game with the Childress Bobcats of District 2-AA has been called off. Childress authorities agreed to play the game, local officials report, then returned the contract for the tussle unsigned. Little hope is held that the Westerners will be able to find another opponent this late in the season and there is every indication that the schoolboys will have to play a nine-game schedule this fall. There are still five home games carded, however.

AGGIES WIN NET SERIES

COLLEGE STATION, March 20 (AP)—Texas A. and M. college's tennis team made a clean sweep of seven matches with the Sam Houston Bearkats here today, losing only 11 of the 95 games.

Tech Sports Hampered By Lack Of Gym Space

Swimming, boxing and wrestling will be among the sports which will be added to Texas Tech athletic program if and when a new gymnasium is erected on the campus.

This was learned in a recent interview with Dean W. L. Stangel, chairman of the Tech Athletic council.

Project Studied

Dean Stangel said the addition of the above-named sports has been under consideration for quite some time. Several other schools in the Border conference sponsor those sports.

One of the notable features of the proposed gymnasium would be a swimming pool. Arizona, a member of the Border conference, has a swimming pool which is available to the students during most of the year.

Although year-round swimming is not adaptable ot Plains weather, an indoor pool would serve most purposes. Arizona's swimming pool is an outdoor structure. Dean Stangel pointed out that Tech cannot now offer courses in swimming because of the lack of facilities at Tech and the crowded conditions of swimming pools in this area.

Gym Is Crowded

Little time now can be devoted to intramural boxing and wrestling at Tech, although students have evidenced an interest in both sports, Dean Stangel added. The present gymnasium is occupied a majority of the time by other athletic groups.

A tentative outline for a new Tech gym was presented recently to Tech President W. M. Whyburn, and the school's board of directors. The matter also was referred to the 50th Legislature at Austin. A legislation appropriation for the building is still pending.

Dean Stangel said that funds made available under a constitutional amendment, approved by Texas voters last summer, were to be used at Tech to complete the administration building, build a new gym, and to provide quarters for the Home Economics department. This amendment, however, is still being litigated, and the appropriation will not be available until a favorable court settlement is reached.

Jack Kramer Dominates Riggs In Cross-Country Tennis Tour

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche-Journal Sports Writer

Big Jake Kramer's merciless, smashing game and long victory streak have robbed Bobby Riggs of the two qualities that carried him to the professional championship of the world—boundless confidence and high competive spirit. That is the only conclusion that can be drawn from Riggs' poor showing and indifferent attitude at recent tour matches at San Antonio and Fort Worth.

Riggs, who once boasted, "I'm the greatest tennis player in the world," and lived up to his claim by defeating such famed netters as Don Budge for the pro crown, was actually booed in his latest matches with the newcomer from the amateur ranks—Kramer—as a result of his sluggish, error-riddled play.

Fort Worth Slump

The low point of the current tour was reached at Fort Worth's North Side coliseum last week when Riggs was defeated, 6-0, 6-0, by Kramer. During the entire two sets Riggs made only five placements, as compared with Kramer's 24, while erring on some shots that any college player should have made with ease.

More irritating to the 1,000 or more fans, who paid up to $4.80 apiece to view what was expected to be one of the best tennis cards ever staged in the state, was Riggs' calm acceptance of the fact that he was going to be defeated by Kramer. A "What's the use?" attitude was observed even from the top tier of seats and, much to the disgust of fans, the once-cocky little guy refused to even try for many of Kramer's shots.

Riggs In Comeback

It was apparent to the most inexpert observer that Kramer was every bit as good as national tennis authorities have proclaimed—his play could only be described as peerless—but even against the best player in the world Riggs could have shown a little interest in the proceedings, or so reasoned the irate fans. The crowd refused to believe that the world titleholder could appear so inept, except by deliberate refusal to try for a victory.

On the credit side of the ledger for the tarnished champion, Riggs staged a much better exhibition in the final doubles event and to a slight extent redeemed his earlier showing. But after the match Riggs was approached by a widely-known Texas amateur tennis ace, who asked:

"What's the matter, Bobby? I've seen you play lots of times but you never played like this."

Riggs mumbled something that sounded like, "Just one of those things," and "I was a little off tonight."

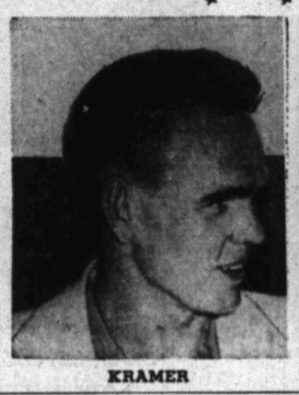

A sports writer innocently inquired if Riggs thought Kramer was as good as tennis officials had said. "What do you think?" Bobby replied almost angrily.

Big Jake, the straw-thatched Californian who has won 18 of his last 21 tour matches with Riggs, replied to interviewers with terse remarks of, "I think that I am getting adjusted to lighting systems used in most of the places we play. Yes, I think that I'll win the professional title.

Kramer, who obviously dislikes the handshaking and question-answering sessions after a match, was the first person out of the coliseum after the final event, but Riggs bravely waited at the edge of the court to sign programs for loyal fans. He made a defiant, yet pitiful, figure as he disregarded sarcastic remarks from a group of hecklers and talked with youngsters who had served as ball boys during the matches.

Most of the crowd pushed slowly toward the exits and frequent remarks of, "They ought to put Riggs off the program," and "Dinny Pails (one of the four 'name' stars in the matches) could have given Kramer a better battle," were heard.

The fans were unhappy — their champion had feet of clay.

Lubbock Golfers Go To Lamesa For Team Matches Today

A group of 28 to 35 golfers from the Meadowbrook Publinx club of Lubbock will travel to Lamesa today to engage the Lamesa Country club golfers in the first of a home-and-home match between the two clubs.

Paul Jones, Meadowbrook pro, said yesterday that at least seven foursomes from the Hub City would engage a similar number from Lamesa in an 18-hole match. Three points will be counted for each foursome that wins its match and the entire encounter will be decided on total points.

Jones said that he would accompany the golfers to Lamesa and might play Shanty Hogan, Lamesa Country club pro, through whom the matches were arranged.

None of the golfers will be given handicaps today, but all golfers on each team will be paired as evenly as possible on the basis of their scores on the last 18-hole play.

The Lubbock teams, which are in the process of being organized, will be captained today by Jack Jackson and H. B. Hutson, Jr.

The Lamesa team will come to Lubbock later in the season for a return engagement.

LANIER STAGES TOUR

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 20 (AP)—Max Lanier, former St. Louis Cardinal pitcher who jumped to the Mexican League in 1946, is planning to barnstorm the country this summer with a team of Mexican League stars from the United States.

Amarillo Elks To Sponsor Annual Bowling Tourney

AMARILLO, March 21 (Special)—The great indoor winter pastime, bowling, will reach a climax here with the week end beginning April 3, when masculine keglers will begin a four week end chase after a $1,000 first place award and second and third place prizes of $500 and $250 respectively.

The first week end of April marks the beginning of the Second Annual Elk's Diamond Sweepstakes and pin splitters from at least a five-state area are expected to be on hand.

Entry Fee Charged

An entry fee of $15 is being charged, but it will include bowling privileges. Bowlers interested in entering may receive application blanks by writing V. A. "Bade" Powell, Box 1432, Amarillo. There is no deadline on entries.

Amateurs and professional will mix in the tourney, which will feature regular shift rolling on week ends to accomodate Southwest and Western keglers traveling to the American Bowling Congress tourney in Detroit, Mich. Powell, Texas Elks association president and tourney chairman, said that special shifts will be arranged for five or more bowlers. An award of $15 will be paid for high game in each full shift.

Children Will Benefit

Ten per cent of the entry fee will go to the Texas Elks Crippled Children's hospital.

Tourney winner last year was Cecil Simpson of Tulsa, who hit a 2121. He was followed by Barney McCoy of Kansas City, Kans., and Don Alexander of Houston. A total of 278 keglers entered the tourney.

Also on the program in this city will be the Amarillo Junior Chamber of Commerce Ragtime Doubles tournament from April 3 through May 9, with an entry fee of $5. No deadline will be set on entries.

A first place award of $750 is guaranteed and each bowler may enter as many times as he chooses, but must change partners each time.

Roach Will Referee Bouts In Plainview Ring Meet

PLAINVIEW, March 20 (Special)—LaVern Roach of this city, one of the leading middleweight fighters in the nation, probably will be a guest referee at the Plainview Junior Chamber of Commerce boxing tournament here Friday and Saturday.

Bud Dean, director of the tournament, said yesterday that no definite word had been received from Roach yet, but he is expected back here this week. If he returns in time, he will referee several of the bouts.

Complete Sellout Seen

The advanced ticket sale indicates that City Auditorium, which holds 1,500, will be filled to capacity each night of the bouts. Jaycee members have been having little trouble selling tickets, assuring the club of a sellout.

The entry list, filled with outstanding amateur boxers, also has filled up rapidly, with over 60 boys registered in each of the two divisions, open and high school. Some of the classes in each division have so many entries that some boys may have to fight twice one night.

Finals Saturday Night

Dean said that if the entry list was so large the bouts could not all be run off in two night's, semi-final bouts would be held Saturday afternoon. In that case, finals would be run off Saturday night.

Among the entrants in the tournament are 1948 Golden Gloves winners from Lubbock and Amarillo. One of the leading candidates is Heavyweight Gene James of Lubbock, who will be joined by Middleweight Lonnie Balch.

Several high school teams have entered the boxing show, including groups from Lockney and Petersburg, which have entered full teams, and Crosbyton, Lubbock, Brownfield, Memphis and Plainview.

More Texans Qualified To Vote This Year Than Ever In History

AUSTIN, March 20 (AP)—More Texans are qualified to vote this year than ever before in history.

Comptroller George Sheppard today estimated the voting potential at 2,250,333.

This was based on an accurate count of 1,722,333 paid poll taxes and 528,000 persons exempt from payment of the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting.

Surpasses Other Years

In 1916, last gubernatorial election year, the estimated voting strength was 1,838,596. In 1944, the last presidential election year, it was 1,567,143. In 1940, it was 1,448,859.

Just how many of the qualified voters will exercise their privilege this year is questionable.

Probably the biggest factor will be how much interest is generated in the campaigns prior to the primary and general elections, and right now it looks as if it should be high.

In 1946, the percentage of qualified voters participating in the Democratic primary for governor was 74. The figure in 1938—when W. Lee O'Daniel was first elected governor—was 86 per cent. In 1946 interest was high in the Homer P. Rainey-Beauford H. Jester race for governor.

But in the general election in 1944, the last presidential election year, only 26 per cent of those qualified to vote cast their ballots.

Survey Was Made

The record-breaking number of poll tax payments over the state was indicated earlier in an Associated Press survey.

The comptroller's count was based on reports to him by assessor-collectors of actual paid poll taxes in most cases, although in some smaller counties this was an estimate. He did not estimate exemptions by counties.

Harris county (Houston) again led the state in the number of paid poll taxes, with 182,742. Dallas, as before, was second with 121,629; Bexar (San Antonio) third with 86,672; Tarrant, (Fort Worth), fourth with 72,813; Jefferson (Beaumont-Port Arthur) fifth with 52,398.

The next five of the big ten counties were Travis (Austin) 36,373; Nueces (Corpus Christi) 32,274; Galveston 28,739; McLennan (Waco) 28,454; El Paso, 25,892.

These figures indicate an increasing concentration of voters in industrialized areas.

Poll Taxes By Counties

Poll taxes paid, by counties include: Andrews, 1,428; Bailey, 2,227; Borden, 353; Cochran, 1,785; Crosby, 2,635; Dawson, 4,193; Dickens, 2,131; Fisher, 3,050; Floyd, 3,440; Gaines, 2,539; Garza, 1,605; Gray, 6,584; Hale, 6,215; Hockley, 4,846; Lamb, 4,939; Lubbock, 19,006; Lynn, 3,235; Midland, 5,679; Mitchell, 2,889; Motley, 1,322; Potter, 17,364; Scurry, 2,981; Swisher, 2,445; Terry, 3,606; Wichita, 19,152; Yoakum, 1,374;

Atom As Hunger Weapon Studied

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP) The Government set out today to see if the atom can be used as a weapon against hunger.

The atomic Energy commission and the Agriculture department announced that they will investigate the effect on plant growth of radioactive by-products of the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic plant.

The commission will pay for the experiments and provide special materials.

Nagasakhi Crops Good

Although the Agriculture department already is conducting some 200 different studies with radioactive materials, this will be the first check into their fertilizing powers.

Department officials said the studies might show farmers (1) how to boost their crop yields many times over and (2) how to develop varieties better able to fight off disease.

Reports of unusually good crops near Nagasaki—Japanese city hit by an atomic bomb—have "stimulated interest in the problem," the announcement said.

But, it added, investigations by qualified scientists "fail to reveal any basis for the claim that radiation from the atomic bomb benefited the crop."

House Labor Group Accuses Administration Of Encouraging Taft-Hartley Act Evasion

WASHINGTON, March 20 (U.P.)—A House labor subcommittee today accused the administration of encouraging procedures to "evade and bypass" the Taft-Hartley labor law "to indirectly aid Communist-controlled unions."

The charge was made in the subcommitte's report on a strike of cafeteria workers here in Washington. The dispute began early this year when the United Public Works union (CIO) walked off their jobs with Government Services, Inc.

Private Firm

The corporation is a private firm which operates cafeterias in most government buildings.

Rep. O. C. Fisher of Texas, sole Democrat on the three-member subcommittee, told reporters he agreed with part of the report and disagreed with other parts.

National leaders of the striking union have refused to sign anti-Communist affidavits, thus rendering the union ineligible for Taft-Hartley act protections.

Precedent Said Set

Government Services, Inc., at first refused to bargain with the union because its leaders had not signed the anti-Communist affidavits. But President Truman appointed George E. Strong, Washington attorney, as a mediator.

The subcommittee said the appointment set a precedent whereby "a union refusing to file anti-Communist affidavits may come to the White House for the appointment of a sympathetic conciliator and arbitrator."

GOP Candidate In Unusual Bid For Party Nomination

HOUSTON, March 20 (U.P.)—A Republican presidential candidate was in Houston today to try and get some public support to gain the nomination over the "big three" contenders.

The GOP hopeful is Carl C. Countryman, 74-year-old lecturer and author from New York. According to Countryman, the Dewey-Taft-Stassen combine might just as well give up now.

Unique Strategy Used

"My strategy is to let these other people spend all their money and use up all their energy now," he said. "Then I come in as a dark horse and cop the nomination."

His slogan is "Countryman for his Countrymen—are countrymen for Countryman?"

He's pinning his hope for the nomination on that slogan which he says "just can't miss."

However, he admitted he made five other races with no success. He ran for Congress in Illinois in 1912, for the Senate in the same state in 1914, and for governor of New York in 1928 and 1940.

Another Campaign Lost

In 1944 he tried to crash big time politics in a contest for the Republican presidential nomination. Someone named Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York got the nod instead.

"I've always had a lifetime ambition to be president," Countryman said.

"I'm for all-out aid to save Europe from Communism," he said. "We're really at war with Russia now, and we ought to have reserve officer training corps units in every high school in the land."

Crew Reported Safe Following C-47 Crash In Newfoundland

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., March 20 (U.P.)—An American Army C-47 crash landed on coastal ice 30 miles from Corner Brook, Nfld., today and all five persons on board were reported safe at Rocky Harbor.

The U. S. army base at Fort Pepperell said the plane was on a routine flight. It left Torbay airfield near here and headed for Mingan, Que.

The plane's pilot, W. H. Lacey of San Antonio, Tex., was told the weather was bad over Mingan shortly after he took off, and was ordered to return. Later the Fort Pepperell station heard Lacey message that he was making a forced landing. The landing was successful except that one of the plane's engines crashed through the ice.

Other members of the crew of the plane included Staff Sgt. C. R. Campbell, Rogers, Tex.

Dedication And Formal Opening Of VA Building Set For Friday

Dedication and formal opening ceremonies of the new building for the regional office of the Veterans administration here next Friday will bring several high ranking VA officials here, including Omar W. Clark, executive assistant to the administrator of veterans affairs in national headquarters office at Washington.

Clark is to represent Carl W. Gray, jr., national administrator, and is to make the principal address at the dedication ceremonies to be held in front of the spacious new building in the 1600 block of Nineteenth street. Clark is scheduled to speak at 11 o'clock.

With Clark, who is to arrive here Thursday afternoon, will be H. W. Breining, assistant administrator for insurance in the Washington central office, an announcement by Robert W. Sisson, manager of the regional office here said.

Also expected for the ceremonies, and arriving with the Washington officials will be Thomas G. Lanphier, deputy administrator who is in charge of the Dallas Branch office of the VA, and D. A. Miller, assistant to Lanphier.

Here for the day also will be

OMAR W. CLARK

the director of each division of service in the Dallas office, and these will confer during the day with their counterparts in the regional office.

To Hold Open House

Sisson said the office here will hold "open house" all day Friday —from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.—and visitors will be conducted through the building in groups, with guides explaining the various types of work carried on in each department.

An invitation has been broadcast throughout West Texas for the general public to attend the opening ceremonies and see the new and commodious quarters designed and built specifically for use of the organization.

Special invitations have been extended to veterans and their families, to veterans service organizations, county Red Cross officials, federal, state, county and city officials, newspaper editors, radio station personnel, and college presidents throughout the area.

The regional office here serves 79 counties, embracing all of the Panhandle and Plains, and westward to include El Paso.

The building, erected at a cost approximating $1,000,000, was set up by the VA as a model for other regional offices throughout the nation, and "we want the people of West Texas to see the building, and to know that this regional office belongs to them," Sisson's announcement added.

Young 'Tarzan' Is Freed To Wander Into Border Wilds

MISSION, March 20 (AP)—A young "Tarzan"—armed with bow and arrows and knife—was set free here today to return to his "jungle."

The man was arrested in Mesquite about ten miles north of he last night after Latin-Americans told officers a wild man was roaming the dense brush of the lower Rio Grande valley.

But officers said he was not wild, except for his garb: He wore only a patched union suit. He was a perfect physical specimen.

Told Story To Officers

The captive, about 21 years old, was mute, but he wrote this story for the officers:

He had been living in the brush for "many days," sleeping in trees at night to avoid wild animals. With his bow and arrows, he had killed animals for food.

If the officers would turn him loose, he would go deeper into the jungle—where he would not bother the Latin-Americans and they would not bother him.

Officers said that could mean he would go into the Chapparral wilderness across the Mexican border.

He did not give his name; the officers did not ask.

Justice of the Peace T. M. Spillman said:

"Jail is no place for him. The man knows what he wants to do."

The officers told him to be on his way.

Interest In Highway 87 Project Reported

Genuine interest in Mexico in developing the travel potentialities of U. S. Highway 87, "the Broadway of the Americas," was reported here Saturday by two officials of the International Highway 87 association following a visit to the southern republic.

The officials are W. T. Mathis, of Pueblo, Colo., immediate past president of the highway association, and A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock chamber of commerce and United States manager for the highway organization.

The association was formed several years ago to promote Highway 87 as the United States connecting link in the Pan-American highway extending from Alaska to the southern tip of South America. Highway 87 extends from the Canadian border in Montana through Amarillo, Lubbock and San Antonio.

Both government and business officials in Mexico were enthusiastic over highway 87 possibilities, Davis said.

As one result of the visit, he added, Mexico probably will be represented by a large delegation and exhibits at the annual meeting of the association in Denver in June.

Davis and Mathis described the highway as being in "perfect condition" from Laredo to Mexico City. The paving is complete, there are no steep grades, curves are well banked and protecting walls have been built along mountainous stretches, they said.

They suggested that anyone driving to Mexico City from the Lubbock area should allow three days of leisurely driving for the trip.

Houston, Rio Grande Valley Are Linked By New Airline

HOUSTON, March 20 (AP) — Houston was linked to the lower Rio Grande valley with a new air service today.

Planes will leave at 7:15 a. m. and 3:10 p. m. daily from Houston and the three valley cities of McAllen, Harlingen and Mercedes.

Yates Stafford, vice-president in charge of operations of Val-Air lines, said his firm has operated a direct service from San Antonio to the Rio Grande valley during the past year.

Horse Population Is Lowest In 80 Years

CHICAGO, March 20. (AP)—Old Dobbin and family have fallen to the lowest national numbers in 80 years, but don't count the old boy out yet. There is a lot going on in the horse world still.

This year for the first time since before 1870 the nation's horse and mule population dropped below the 10,000,000 mark. The Department of Agriculture estimates them at 6,607,000 horses and 2,544,000 mules for a total of 9,151,000.

The total of horses was about nine per cent lower than a year ago. For mules it was eight per cent less.

In spite of the general drop in numbers, however, the use of horses is increasing in three directions. You'll find more of them on city bridle paths, on flat and harness racing circuits, and in use as factories of human and animal medicines.

Wayne Dinsmore, secretary of the Horse and Mule Association of America, declares:

"The horse has not disappeared from the American way of life, as many persons think."

Most of those which are left, he said, in an interview, still are working the fields, as always. Others are riding the ranges or are on police traffic duty in the cities. These are all on the decline. Tractors have long been taking over the fields. Airplanes are increasing for range use. Motorcycles are monopolizing city traffic work.

Easter Celebration Out At White House

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—This was a "no comment" day at the White House except about Easter doings, and there even was a "no" connected with that.

Right off the bat, assistant press secretary Eben Ayers gave the bad news to the kiddies. There will be no egg rolling on the White House grounds Easter Monday. This custom was dropped early in the war and hasn't been resumed because of food shortages.

With that out of the way, Ayers gave successive "no comment" replies to these questions by reporters:

Whether former Senator James Meade of New York will be nominated to a vacancy on the federal power commission;

Whether this country's abandonment of the plan for Palestine partition was done on direct orders of the White House;

Whether the White House has anything to say about the sharp veering in U. S. foreign policy—the proposal of England, France and America to restore the free city of Trieste to Italy.

Why former Judge Samuel Rosenman of New York, who used to help the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt on speeches and policy matters, has paid two calls to the White House on successive days.

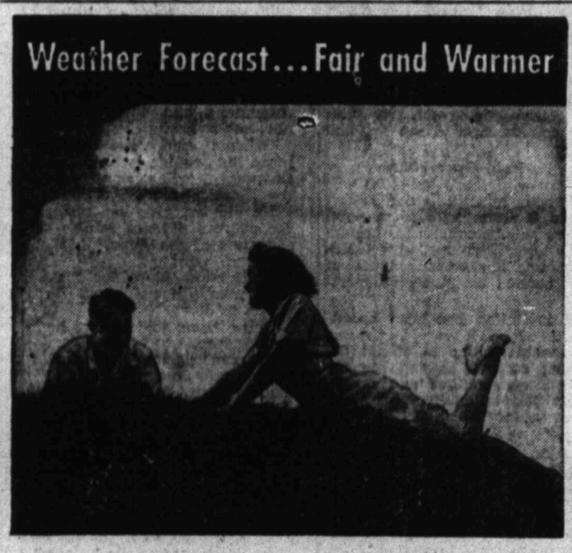

Finally Ayers came up with something positive. Yes, the White House will be open to visitors Easter Monday from 10 a. m. to 12 noon. There'll be a lot of people week-ending in the capital, he explained, and they may want to see the home of presidents.

COMBATS GAMBLING

NEW YORK—Dr William Jansen, superintendent of schools, has ordered all truant officers to check stores in the vicinity of schools for pinball machines. Any evidence of gambling uncovered will be turned over to the Police Department.

A QUESTION RAISED

NEWARK (U.P.)—Erwin B. Hock, state alcoholic beverage control commissioner, ruled that Easter eggnog must be sold straight in New Jersey and not in edible chocolate bunnies. "Is the tavern keeper's eggnog so unpalatable that it must be sugar coated?" he asked.

Charges Filed Against Youth For Speeding; Thefts Probed

A Lubbock man doubled his gamble in speeding away from city police about 5 oclock Saturday and lost. Therman E. Brown, 19, of 1944 Ave. H, was observed driving in a reckless manner in 25000 block Ave. H, police said. When signaled with the siren to stop, he pulled around the patrol car and speeded out the Tahoka highway.

That act doubled Brown's gamble in the police chase, because the highway patrol, notified by radio, joined police patrolmen Dickey and Johnson in the chase. About 30 miles and 30 minutes later, off and back on the highway, Brown was caught.

Four Charges Filed

At the city police station, he was fined $25 on each of two police charges: reckless driving and failure to stop for an emergency vehicle. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

Brown pleaded guilty to two charges filed by the highway patrol and was fined a total of $52.50. The charges were racing with a motor vehicle and running a stop sign. Brown was held last night pending payment of fines.

Two juvenile boys were arrested Saturday afternoon in connection with shoplifting two or three watch bands in a department store. They were later released but were to appear before the juvenile officer Monday, according to police.

Gambling Admitted

A caller, who refused to give his name, complained to police about 8 oclock last night that some negroes were gambling at 1604 Ave. B. Investigation proved the complaint true, and six men and a woman were brought to the station and fined $10 each on a gambling charge. Only two men were able to pay the fine immediately and the others were held in city jail.

A burglary and several thefts were under investigation of law enforcement officials here Saturday.

From Eat-A-Bite cafe at 1306-B Ave. Q, John D. Daniels reported $110 in money taken by burglars who entered the building through a northside window. The place was fully lighted when it was closed at 10 p. m. Friday, and lights still burned Saturday morning, police investigators were informed.

Theft From Cars Reported

A. A. Webb, of 1506-B Ave. T, said a brief case containing papers valued at $12.50, a first-aid kit valued at $2.50, a shaving kit valued at $6.50, had been stolen from his car. All contents except the shaving kit later were recovered, police said.

A $10 coat was reported stolen from the car of R. A. Billings, of Billings Transfer company. It had valuable papers in its pockets, the complainant said.

Theft of a starter and a generator from the well motor of S. J. Kitchen's irrigation project on Lubbock route 1 was reported. Both pieces of equipment were painted red, he said.

The sheriff's department was notified that $1,000 worth of lumber, an eight-ton hydraulic jack, and a Chevrolet wheel and tire had been stolen from D. T. Sisk, of route 1 Lorenzo. The lumber was described as two-by-four siding painted cream color.

Theft of three packages of penicillin and a blood-pressure tester from the car of Dr. C. C. Mansell of 2412 Sixteenth was reported, followed soon afterward by a report that the property had been abandoned at 1602 Ave. Y.

Theft of an electric motor valued at $42.50 from J. O. Garlington of 2318 Broadway was reported.

Hub caps valued at $15 were reported stolen from Gaston C. Blair of 2020 Fifth, and P. T. Glaznier of 2305 Ave. H reported hub caps taken from his car.

Boys were said to have shot out windows with air-guns at 2104 Main, and a plate glass window at 1602 Texas Ave.

The following judgments were filed by County Judge Walter Davies:

A fine of $100 and court costs were assessed against Morris Mathis, 40, a negro, charged with illegally carrying a pistol; $50 and costs against Maynard F. Sessums, 21, of Palm City, Calif.; $1 and costs against S. D. West, 41, of Idalou, check law violation; $50 and costs against Harvey Landers, in a drunk driving action filed Feb. 2; $1 and costs against J. W. Osbourn, violation of check law;

Bud Shankles, 25 of Lubbock, was required to post two bonds, of $500 and $1000, on misdemeanor check law violation charges, the sheriff's department said, adding that it also held a warrant charging felony swindling in Travis county. Bond in that case had not been announced.

JOHN STEELE

John Steele Formally Announces For County Attorney

County Attorney John Steele Saturday made formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election for a second term.

In his statement, Steele said: "I want to extend my sincere thanks to the voters of Lubbock county for electing me two years ago to the office of county attorney. I has been a pleasure to serve you, and I believe I have learned a great deal in this first term which will enable me to be a better public servant in a second term."

Steele is 33 and is married to the former Ray Jean Ely of Slaton. They have a daughter, two years old. They own their own home in the North Arnett Benson addition.

Steele is a graduate of the University of Texas Lew school, class of 1937. He is a veteran of World war 11, having served 21 months overseas in the European Theater of Operations with the 30th Infantry division. He is a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Methodist church, Horn Bible class and the American Business club.

Plumbers Hold Meeting Here

An indicated demand by journeymen plumbers for a general wage increase of 25 cents an hour occupied much of the attention of master plumbers in the Panhandle-Plains at a meeting at the Hilton hotel yesterday of the Panhandle league (Zone 2) of the Associated Master Plumbers of Texas, Inc.

Such a wage increase, a spokesman for the master plumbers said, would mean increased prices to the general public, and the group felt that prices should now begin to move downward instead of higher, according to Roy Gibson of Plainview, zone president.

New Law Explained

The group of several dozen master plumbers and their wives from all parts of the area heard Harry Hamilton, former plumbing inspector for the city of Lubbock, now chief examiner for the state, explain various phases of the new plumbing law that went into effect in Texas several months ago.

E. H. Timian, former state official, now head of the city sanitation department here, spoke to an afternoon session of the auxiliary, outlining details of the sanitation code and regulations here which, he said, have made Lubbock one of the cleanest cities in the state.

Another state official present was Walter Stewart of Waco, member of the public relations board of the state organization, who spoke briefly at the afternoon open meeting.

Improvements Are Seen

Hamilton spoke at an open meeting at 3 o'clock, following a meeting of the board of directors earlier in the afternoon. He said the major change in the plumbing law is that licenses are now issued on a state-wide basis, rather than purely local as under previous regulations, and felt that the change would in time lead to better standardization of the industry.

Gibson had explained that the plumbers organization had opposed that part of the new law which permitted issuance of licenses by the state for a period of three months without examination, believing that this allowed many incompetent workmen to be licensed as master plumbers. That phase of the program closed on Jan. 5, however, Gibson added, and he felt the situation would gradually rectify itself.

Members of the Lubbock ladies auxiliary were hostesses to visiting ladies at a tea at the hotel at 5 o'clock. Other social functions included a dinner for the entire group at 7 o'clock at the hotel, followed by a dance last night.

Wallace Given Top Red Press Display

MOSCOW, March 20 (AP)—President Truman's address to Congress Wednesday did not get prominent display in the Moscow press.

But the radio speech here last night of Henry A. Wallace, third party United State presidential aspirant, did.

The President's message was covered in about a hundred words.

Today Moscow's dailies devoted around 1,500 words to Wallace's reply to Mr. Truman.

Wallace replied to the President's statement at a St. Patrick's day dinner in New York that he would not accept support "of Henry Wallace and his Communists."

Wallace said the President was putting the Communist brand on all who oppose his policies of "militarism" and who "support our fight for peace."

Air Force Official To Talk At Meeting

Col. P. D. Glassford, A1 (personnel officer) of the Eighth Air Force at Carswell Field, Fort Worth, is to speak at a joint meeting of the American Legion and the Lubbock squadron of the Air Force association at the Legion home, Monday night at 8 o'clock, it was announced Saturday.

The meeting is open to all former Air Force personnel and members of all veterans organizations, Clay Thompson, commander of the local squadron, said.

In addition to his talk, Col. Glassford will bring with him the Air Forces film in sound and technicolor of the Bikini atomic bomb tests to be shown at the meeting.

Murder Trial Is Among Cases Docketed In Levelland Court

LEVELLAND, March 20 (Spesial)—The State will announce readiness to try all criminal cases on the docket, when 72nd District Judge Dan Blair cals them at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Only one capital case is included, that charging Cosme E. Sanchez, a Mexican, with murder of Santo Puentes, jr., another Mexican, on Dec. 7 at Anton.

He is charged with shooting Puentes dead and, in an assault with intent to murder indictment, with having wounded Santos Puentes, sr.

Three defendants are charged in another case with assault with intent to murder, a fourth in a separate case. There are two forgery indictments.

Choc Hutcheson Wins Honorable Mention In Annual Competition

Choc Hutcheson, senior journalism student at Texas Technological college from Lubbock, won honorable mention in the first annual competition for Pepsi-Cola three-year graduate fellowships, according to word received by Pres. W. M. Whyburn from John M. Stalnaker, scholarship board director.

Twenty-six fellowships were awarded to senior students in colleges over the nation and 52 persons were given honorable mention. Those students receiving honorable mention were described by the selections committee as "highly superior and promising students, ranking among the top three or four per cent of the able group of applicants."

Hutcheson was the only journalism student among all applicants to receive honorable mention, and no journalism students were among the winners.

Feels Like a Different Man Says Waco Citizen

Mr. M. A. Jackson, 801 S. 5th, Tried Many Medicines With Little Relief Until He Used Mertox

Mr. Jackson

"Since 1932 I have been suffering with a dull, aching pain in my back," says Mr. Jackson.

"I worked in a drug store for four years and while there I tried everything I could get my hands on, with little relief. I bought a bottle of Mertox Compound and before I had taken the first bottle, my back quit hurting and I began to feel like a different man. For the first time in years I am free of pain and I am glad to recommend this splendid medicine to anyone."

Mertox Works Fast

By removing poisonous wastes from the system, Mertox helps to overcome headache, pain in the back, shoulders and hips. Mertox acts as an aid in removing contaminating conditions which may have been in your system a long time, causing many days, weeks or months of untold misery.

Mertox relieves constipation in a few hours and helps to tone your bowels into a more rhythmic action. Helps to build rich, red blood.

Mertox Contains

Black Cohosh, Barberry, Burdock, Dandelion, Gentian, Licorice, Poke, Mandrake, Sarsaparilla roots, Cascara bark, Buchu leaves, Juniper berries, Senna leaves, Aloes, Magnesium Sulphate, Wild Cherry bark, Capsicum, Stillingia, Salicylic Acid, Glycerine, Oil Sassafras, Methyl Salicylate, 1/10 of 1% Sodium Benzoate.

Try This Splendid Medicine

If you need a splendid, all around medicine, why not go to your druggist today and get a bottle of Mertox Compound? Start taking it at once and you, too, should get quick relief if you are suffering from any of the ailments for which this great medicine is indicated.

It contains no opiates, narcotics or calomel and will not nauseate or gripe you in the slightest degree. It can be taken by every member of the family.

Be sure you get what you ask for—MERTOX COMPOUND. Don't be "switched."

"Give the guy the toe of your boot, who tries to sell you a substitute."

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UP)—Inflated living costs have not caused jumps in loans to students, West Virginia University officials announced. The demand for loans is on a par with other years. The emergency loan is popular because veteran students find it convenient when checks are late, Loan Director Harry E. Stone said.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, March 20, (AP)—In one of the strongest and fastest Saturday markets of the past several years, stocks today concluded a brisk recovery week with advances of 1 to 5 or more points.

In the final session the high speed ticker tape ran as much as 2 minutes late as trends climbed. There were subsequent slowdowns but another buying wave hit the list near the close and favorites generally finished at or around the tops of the day.

The comeback got under way Wednesday after Tuesday's sharp stumble and was credited mainly to the President's address to Congress. The difference was drawn that big rearmament plans and stock-piling would be forthcoming which would prop many industries.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up 1.4 points at 62.6 a high since Feb. 2 and the largest short-session jump since April 15, 1939. The week's gain of 2.1 points was a top since last June. Of 930 issues appearing, 821 rose and only 41 declined.

Volume for the two hours of 1,360,000 shares was a Saturday peak since Feb. 16, 1946. It compared with 350,000 a week ago. On the week the aggregate was 5,875,220 shares against 3,987,300 the week before and was a maximum since the period of Dec. 21 last.

On the day Allied Chemical added 5 3/8 points at 179⅞, Union Pacific 4 at 182⅞, Du Pont 3¼ at 170 and Caterpillar Tractor 3 at 59.

Up to 1 to 2 or so were U. S. Steel at 72¾, Bethlehem Steel 34 3/8, American Woolen 42 5/8, Pepsi-Cola (recently hitting new lows) 17 3/8, Standard Oil (NJ) 74 ⅝, Texas Co. 56¼ and Santa Fe 98¼. Railway bonds improved.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 20 (AP) — Cotton futures, following a narrow and irregular opening, turned lower today.

General selling was touched off by an easier undertone in grains. Hedging and commission house liquidation encountered only limited trade demand.

There seemed to be an inclination to lighten commitments, pending fresh developments at Washington on European relief plans which would give some clue to an expanding movement of U. S. cotton exports.

A moderate amount of today's business consisted of switching operations from nearby May to more deferred contracts.

Futures closed 60 cents to $1.35 a bale lower than the previous close.

NEW ORLEANS, March 20 (AP) — Cotton futures declined today under weekend long liquidation.

Closing prices were steady 75 cents to $1.30 a bale lower. Trading was active in the short Saturday session.

Weakness in the grain market and better weather over the belt were the main reason for the decline. Switching from the May position to distant months continued.

Middling 15-16 inch spot cotton dropped 75 cents a bale to 33.65 cents a pound. Local sales amounted to 155 bales.

Next Year's Legislature Faces Variety Of Financial Problems

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, March 20 — Money, where to get it and where to put it, looms now as the chief problem for the next legislature.

It's nearly a year until the 51st legislature meets in regular session. There isn't a chance in a hundred that Gov. Beauford H. Jester will call a special session. Meanwhile, the problems and potential problems are piling up. The governor thinks they can be disposed of in due time by a general session.

The school teachers were only mollified by concessions made during the 50th legislature. Their campaign for further salary increases is going full blast in all parts of the state, with the teachers asserting that increased living costs have already eaten up such gains as were made under the $2,000 minimum salary law.

Want Professional Pay

The teachers do not want just a living wage. They want compensation equivalent to that received by lawyers, doctors and other professional people. The Gilmer-Aikin committee is expected to have something to say on the subject, as well as to make recommendations for long-range financing. This was the interim committee named to make a study of all educational problems, and to bring a report back to the 51st legislature.

Rural aid schools are already faced with a financial crisis under which many teachers will not receive the state-set minimum pay. The last legislature simply failed to appropriate enough to carry these equalization aid schools through the year. Jester has said he would submit aid for rural schools as an emergency matter soon after the 51st session convenes next January.

Face Prison Problems

Problems of the prison system and the state training schools for boys and girls rank high on the list of headaches the lawmakers are going to try to cure.

What amounts to a brand new prison board thus far has backed the new general manager, O. B. Ellis, all the way in his recommendations. The board is expected to come before the legislature early with some frank, specific demands in line with Ellis' suggestions for improvements.

Building Funds Asked

One of these requests will be for more than four million dollars for building.

Ellis insists one thing the system needs most is more adequate building, especially some means of segregating the insane, the hardened criminals, and sex perverts, from other prisoners. He thinks the legislature should sanction the manufacture and sale of prison goods for other state institutions.

The state training school code commission is in the midst of an exhaustive study of this problem. It has made no report yet, but individuadl members have said their impression is that the correctional schools are merely detention places for juvenile delinquents, if not preparatory schools of crime, leading to "promotion" of the inmates to Huntsville, Harlem, etc.

This commission is expected to come up with a report recommending a complete re-writing of all the juvenile laws, plus greatly increased expenditures at the Gatesville, Gainesville and Brady schools to make them institutions of rehabilitation for juvenile offenders.

Another major problem will be dumped on the legislature by the cities of Texas.

In essence, they feel they have about reached the limit in taxing real estate—their chief source of revenue—for municipal operations. They want authority to levy new taxes, or perhaps a cut in state gasoline tax revenues. The specific demands will be worked out at the annual meeting of the League of Texas Municipalities in El Paso Oct. 4, 5 and 6.

Whether or not government revenues will be enough to meet these demands, the regular needs that always come, and others not here listed, is a question which can not be answered now. The rate of income is still exceeding the rate of expenditure. How long that will last, no one knows for sure.

The 50th legislature ran out of money and left a number of appropriations bills out in the cold. The chances are good the 51st will have to make some difficult choices in deciding where to get the money and where to spend it. And the chances are also good it will run out of cash in hand or in sight, just as the 50th did, unless it finds new tax sources.

Sam Houston Junior High school in Amarillo will receive a photographic reproduction of an original photograph of General Sam Houston Wednesday morning from Temple H. Morrow, of six miles west of Lubbock, grandson of the general.

The photographic reproduction, which is 20 by 27 inches, was taken by Fredericks of New York while General Houston was United States Senator from Texas about 1854. It is hand colored and suitably framed.

Morrow's mother was Nancy Elizabeth Houston before her marriage to Capt. J. C. S. Morrow. She was the oldest daughter of General Houston. She was born in Walker county, 14 miles from Huntsville, on the Raven Hill plantation. The Indians had called General Houston "Raven." Following their marriage, Captain and Mrs. Morrow lived at Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple H. Morrow moved to Lubbock from Dallas about two years ago and are living on an irrigated farm six miles west of Lubbock. The farm is located one-half mile north of the Carlisle school. Morrow is retired from presidency of the Traders and General Insurance Co. of Dallas.

SARASOTA, Fla., March 20 (U.P.)—Karl Bickel, former president of the United Press, disclosed today that he is a candidate for delegate to the national Democratic convention.

Bickel will run as an uninstructed delegate. He said he endorsed "100 per cent" the stand of Gov. Millard Caldwell who urged Florida Democrats to abandon the present party leadership of President Truman as being detrimental to the interests of the South.

A letter containing Bickel's qualification was airmailed to Secretary of State R. A. Gray in Tallahassee. Bickel lives at Sarasota.

Ceremony Read In Elk City For Miss Abrams, Mr. Alderson

The marriage of Miss Negella Jeanne Abrams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Abrams of Elk City, Okla., and Harry Orville Alderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Alderson of 2222 Seventeenth, was solemnized Saturday at the First Christian church of Elk City, Rev. A. E. Houser performed a double ring ceremony before an altar arranged with gladioli, fern and candelabra. At the ends of each pew were cathedral tapers tied with white satin ribbon and marking the bridal aisle was white satin rope.

Miss Helen Key, organist, played for Miss Margaret Newman as she sang "Because" and "At Dawning." The bride and bridegroom kneeled on a white satin prayer bench as "Miss Newman offered "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of duchess ivory satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, a yoke of illusion, accented with a deep scalloped bertha, and a long train. Her veil of white silk illusion, edged with rose point lace, fell from a tiara of seed pearls, orange blossoms and rose point lace. She carired a white orchid on a prayer book belonging to Mrs. Eugene Alderson of Lubbock.

Attendants To Bride

Mrs. Joe Boyd of Lubbock, matron of honor, wore a dress of blue marquisette fashioned with a yoke of illusion, similar to the bride's. Her colonial bouquet was of pink gladioli. Miss Pat Baldwin of Oklahoma City, maid of honor, wore a pink marquisette gown identical to Mrs. Boyd's and her flowers were Dutch iris.

Suzanne Alderson of Lubbock, niece of the bridegroom and flower girl, wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta with a blue bow in her hair. She scattered rose petals from an arm basket covered with flowers. Mrs. Virgil Hill, II, of Norman, Okla., and Mrs. Matt Hampton, II, of Shawnee, Okla., lighted candles.

Eugene Alderson of Lubbock, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Jack Alderson, another brother, Turner Kimmel an Joe Boyd, all of Lubbock, and Bill Garrison of Fort Worth were ushers.

Reception Follows Wedding

Wedding guests were entertained at a reception given in the Abrams home following the ceremoney. Parents of the bride and bridegroom and members of the wedding party assisted with hospitalities.

The bride's table was laid with a satin linen damask cloth centered with the wedding cake and decorated with four tall white tapers standing in a bow of satin, tulle and white roses. Mrs. Eugene Alderson served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Abrams and Mrs. Mayme Patterson, relatives of the bride.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home at 1919 Broadway. For travel, the bride wore a three-piece suit of platinum gray with a hat of the same color trimmed in sable mist flowers. Her accessories were sable mist, also.

Mrs. Alderson attended Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater and Mr. Alderson, is a civil engineer graduate from Texas Technological college where he was a member of Silver Key social club. He is employed as an engineer with the City of Lubbock.

Simmons and Harvey Simmons of Haskell.

Through the Coral Doors

Hi Folks,

As I passed through the "Coral Doors" this week Evelyn was busy displaying some mats that are lovely but have been placed for quick clearance to make room for other mats to arrive.

The funniest item they have received at 1202 Ave. N in many a moon are some snack trays with cups that don't look like cups but are. You will have to see them; they don't resemble a thing that I have ever seen.

There was also a shipment of Winfield pottery that some customers like and some don't, so come in and help me make up my mind. I'm still undecided.

Heard a great commotion in the front part . . . thought Evelyn had either punched a customer or one was punching her so rushed in to see round one, but discovered was just one of those daily occurrences of a customer emoting over the lovely accessory pieces. These in particular causing the excitement were two of the ugliest green and cream trimmed pekinese dogs that I have ever laid eyes on. But I will say they look right smart sitting on the coffee table.

Across the room standing on a table were two ceramic horses with the most bashful look that I have seen in many a year but are a little above the grade of just common work horses.

For those of you hunting silver service let me tell you your problems are solved and needn't look further. It's a Royal Hickman silver service at Decorators Studio. Some don't like it because it is too modern but I think it is the smartest looking and most sophisticated service that I have ever seen. I would have bought it but have to wait to sell my cattle.

Well cut my legs off and call me "shorty," if they haven't gone and gotten in some more floor covering (carpeting to you educated folks)! It is Deser Rose color and comfortable enough for any king of the cowboys to set his boots on.

After drinking out of just plain ordinary cups and tin cups found that there is really such a thing as luxury in drinking cups. It is California Campo porcelain, and the cups in this are very outstanding I discovered after drinking from one. They are square and curves ever so lightly to fit your lips. Truly they are a delight to drink from. Next time you are in the Studio ask James to give you a drink. He's as sold on this new pottery as I am—the colors are smooth too!

In the picture room I found just the picture. It is a magnolia with rich full green leaves that will just finish off that vacant space in the living room. Would have gotten it for my adobe but Ma won't let me take down the picture of her Mother. Anything would look better than a picture of my Motner-in-law I think. So you guys with Mother-in-law-picture trouble come in and solve your problem. Even your wife will like the selection.

Along with the new look in skirts being longer (dog gone it) the Studio got in a new nest of tables (sounds like chicken language doesn't it?). They are 18th Century in beautiful dark mahogany. They aren't the kind you can prop your feet on but they do look very elegant with lamps or ash trays.

Well adios,
(my translation—be seeing you)
Grandpa Nosey.

Plans Announced By Dance Federation For Tuesday Night

Square dancers who have attended Jimmy Clossin's recent class at Tech will have another opportunity to "swing their taws" Tuesday night when the Lubbock Square Dance Federation holds its regular dance at the Playmor Dance hall on the Slaton highway. The Federation has exclusive use of the hall on that night and the dance is semi-private for members and guests, but all who enjoy old-time and square dancing are invited.

Dancing is from 8:30 to 11, a fee of 50 cents being charged.

Members of the Federation serve as callers. Other callers who have not yet made their talents known are also invited to do so, as one of the aims of the Federation is to make it possible for callers, dancers and fiddlers alike to have opportunity to participate in their own way.

It is also announced by the Federation that the next class at the American Legion hall will be held April 7, the first Wednesday of the month. The classes are the first and third Wednesday of each month.

Membership in the federation is open to everyone in Lubbock and surrounding territory with an interest in square dancing. Information may be had by calling the recreation department, 9348.

Several Federation members will go to Amarillo March 27 where the first district square dance festival will be held. Exhibition dances will be presented by groups from Houston, Wichita Falls, Dallas and other cities not yet announced. Guest callers will call for general square dancing, in which the Lubbockites will participate.

Paintings Being Shown At Tech

BY OLETA STEWART
Of The Woman's Staff

American and European original paintings currently are being shown on Texas Technological college campus at the West Texas museum by George Chapellier, art dealer and owner of a New York City art gallery. The showing is being sponsored by the Tech Art Institute and will remain in Lubbock about 10 days depending on the interest shown by collectors in this vicinity.

A group of American Indian pictures by such artists as Darley, Robert Wesley Amick, W. Whittredge, and Lone Wolf are of special interest to southwestern art enthusiasts, as are "Meetin' Up" (Clyde Forsythe) and "Mustangs on the Mesa" (Gilbert Gaul).

English, French, Dutch and German artists are represented in the European division. Senave's "The Street Musicians" is a rare painting because it is one of the few remaining portrayals of a general early life group. One of the outstanding pieces of the collection is an antique Russian Iknon with a silver and gold molded and cutout covering, which when fitted over the surface of the picture reveals only the faces of the subjects. Works of Vollmar and Chai Schreyvogel are included in the showing, and "The Crossing of the Ford" (N. Nicholas Berchem) represents the 17th century Dutch element.

Over 300 Years Old

"Flemish School" (Frans Franken D is a rare painting done on hand hammered copper. Because the colors were made from crushed precious stones, the tones have remained sharp and unfaded although the painting is about 300 years old. Representing the more recent era is "Souvenier of Edward Greig," an impressive still life by Harnett of Philadelphia.

According to Chapellier, the best picture on display is "Grand Canal of Venice," the work of Thomas Moran, who is called "the Turner of America," after William Turner, famed European painter of sunsets and golden tones.

Chapellier, who is a witty little man with greying hair, heavy eyebrows and a small black mustache, was born in Belgium and at one time had the second largest art gallery in that country. He has been in this line of work since 1916 which is "32 years too many" he said smiling, and went on with joking synicism "You buy paintings, clean them and sweat over them. Then pack and ship and insure them, and when you show them, people don't want to spend money on them, when they have millions."

In the opinion of the art dealer, the pictures in this display are of unusual merit and have been carefully selected. He can get "pretty paintings done by the square yard," but he detests them. "Perhaps I will sell that kind when I am 75, but now, no!" he added.

"I don't know what's wrong with my accent," he laughed. "Some people understand it and some just don't. In Tulsa I asked a waitress for apple pie and vanilla, and do you know what she brought me?—apple pie and vinegar!"

Chapellier has just closed a three week showing in Tulsa, Okla.

New Wildcat Explorations In Hockley, Cochran Counties Are Reported Ready To Drill; Terry Well May Go Deeper

LOCATIONS for new wildcat explorations in northwest Hockley county and in southwest Cochran county have been reported for immediate drilling.

A prospector in southwest Terry county, about three miles northeast of Seagraves, developed sulphur water, and no oil or gas, in a drillstem test in the San Andres-Permian, at 5,602-70 feet, and was shutdown for orders. There is a possibility that it may be carried deeper to test through the Clear fork zones of the lower Permian.

A southwest Castro county wildcat was drilling and coring ahead, below 9,692 feet in an unidentified dolomite and shale zone, and up to now it has not encountered any shows of oil or gas.

Albaugh Starts Well

Ray A. Albaugh of Midland is to start operations at once at his No. 1 Mrs. Nellie S. DeLoache, as a 5,000-foot wildcat in northwest Hockley county, one mile west of Pettit, and about three and one-half miles north of the nearest completed oil wells in the Levelland field.

It will be 440 feet from north and east lines of labor 16, league 77, Reeves county school land survey. Contract to drill the venture has been let to J. J. Cody of San Antonio. Rotary tools will be used.

The wildcat is on a block of 20½ labors which Albaugh recently acquired in that area. He leased 16½ labors of the spread from Mrs. DeLoache, and the remainder from scattered small ownerships.

New Prospector Set

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 1 Ford Hawkins, 12 miles southwest of Morton, is to be the new prospector for southwest Cochran county.

It is located 440 feet from south and east lines of tract 17, sub-division 2, out of league 131, Carson county school land survey. That puts it one and one half miles northwest of the same concern's No. 1 Minnie Slaughter Veal, discovery for some sort of production, which is due to take potential test and complete early in the week. The No. 1 Hawkins is slated to drill around 5,100 feet, using rotary tools. It is to start soon.

Cochran Well Drilling

Ralph Lowe No. 1 G. G. Wright, jr., et al, slated 5,500-foot wildcat in central Cochran county, one and one half miles northwest of the nearest producing oil wells, and 440 feet from south and west lines of labor 25, league 95, Mills county school land survey, had reached 2,380 feet, and was drilling ahead in anhydrite.

George P. Livermore, Inc., No. 1 David Parsons, slated 5,000-foot venture in central Hockley county, about four and one half miles southwest of Levelland, and 440 feet from north and west lines of labor 25, league 30, Baylor county school land survey, had drilled below 4,643 feet in lime, and was making more hole, at last report.

This development should determine during the next week whether or not it will make on oil well, and open a new area for production.

Hockley Well Deeper

Honolulu Oil Corporation and Signal Oil & Gas Company No. 1-24 Ellwood estate, slated 7,500-foot exploration in Southeast Hockley County, four miles north of Ropesville, and 660 feet from north and west lines of labor 24, league 5, Wilbarger county school land survey, had reached 1,640 feet, and was drilling ahead in redbeds.

Honolulu No. 1-13 Ellwood, in central-East Hockley county, three and one half miles north of Smyer, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 13, block A, R. M. Thompson survey, spudded to 285 feet, and set 13 3/8-inch surface pipe at that point, with 200 sacks of cement.

Operator will drill the plug and start making new hole, early in the week. This is also to be a 7,500-foot exploration to test into the lower Permian formation.

Wildcat Tested

Turner and Durham No. 1 Bohanon, southwest Terry county wildcat, three and one half miles northeast of Seagraves and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 74, block D, John H. Gibson survey, ran a drillstem test in the San Andres-Permian lime, at 5,602-70 feet. The tool was open for two hours.

Recovery was 570 feet of black sulphur water, with no shows of oil or gas. At the end of the week the project was shutdown for orders. There is a possibility that it might be drilled deeper, to about 7,500 feet, to test through the Clear Fork zone of the lower Permian. That matter should be decided within the next week.

Bottomed In Lime

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Birtie T. Brown, three miles southwest of Plains, in central Yoakum county, and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 446, block D, John H. Gibson survey, was bottomed at 5,192 feet in lime, and has 7-inch casing cemented at 5,143 feet.

Operator is rigging up a cable tool unit to drill the plug and drill ahead into the section which is expected to show for some sort of oil production.

Magnolia and The Atlantic No. 1-3 Havemyer and Jenny, three-eighths of one mile southwest of the nearest completed Devonian oil producers in the Jones ranch field of extreme northwest Gaines county, and 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 3, block A-6, psl survey, has been completed as one of the best wells so far drilled in that area.

It made a 24-hour flowing potential of 1,589.50 barrels of 38.3 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 293-1. The flow was through a one-half inch tubing choke. The production came from pay section at 11,241-372 feet, in the Devonian.

Contracted To 11,500 Feet

Amerada Petroleum corporation No. 1 I-E E. H. Jones, another step-out from the proven area in the Jones ranch field, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 3, block A-7, PSL survey, had reached 3,105 feet in salt and anhydrite and was going ahead. It is contracted to about 11,500 feet to explore into the Devonian.

Amerada No. 9-A Riley, scheduled 7,000-foot wildcat in the northwest side of the regular Seminole 5,100 field, and 1,980 feet from south and 1,820 feet from east lines of section 249, block G, WTRR survey, had reached 5,205 feet in lime and was fishing for junk. When that obstruction is removed the project will make more hole.

Reaches 4,740 Feet

The Texas company, Humble Oil & Refining company and Ralph Lowe No. 1 Jenkins, slated 12,000-foot wildcat in extreme southwest Gaines county, and 662 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 4, block A-25, PSL survey, had reached 4,740 feet in lime, and was drilling ahead. It ran a drillstem test in the upper section of the San Andres lime at 4,569-4,648 feet, but no sign of oil or gas were developed.

The Atlantic Refining company No. 1-B Maston, semi-wildcat in southwest Cochran county, 16 1-2 miles southwest of Morton, and one quarter of a mile west of a recently completed small pumping discovery, had reached 4,835 feet in dry lime, and was making more hole.

Castro Well Deep

Sun Oil company No. 1 Herring, five miles south of Dimmitt, in southwest Castro county, and 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 46, block T-4, PSL survey, had reached 9,692 feet in shale and dolomite, and was coring ahead. It has not logged any shows of oil or gas.

Some observers had thought that project had entered the Ellenburger—but a recent core recovered a section which was 80 per cent shale, and 20 per cent dolomite. That would indicate, so interested geologists think, that the project is not yet in the Ellenburger.

Operator intends to continue making hole until granite is reached or oil, gas or water is developed in the section now being cut.

Garza Wells Indefinite

No commercial production has been developed at any of the three wildcats in the east side of Garza County which have testing, are finding slight shows of petroleum.

The Ohio Oil company No. 1 Swenson Land & Cattle company, northeast Garza county development, 2,307 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 26, block 2, H & G survey, was reported by unofficial sources to be testing on the section at about 7,940-55 feet in the Ellenburger.

No official reports on results of the investigating have been released. However, it has been learned from sources which are believed to be informed, that up to now only small amounts of oil and some salt water, has been developed. It is likely that full information on the showings this venture has developed, will be officially reported in a few days.

Humble Swabbing

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1-G Humble fee, four miles east of Justiceburg, in southeast Garza county, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 136, block 5, H & GN survey, was swabbing to test on section at 7,760-90 in the Mississippian chert.

At the end of the week no free oil had been developed by that testing. There were some slight shows of petroleum in drillstem tests run on that zone while drilling was in progress.

All of the section from the current level of operations down to the total lepth at 7,870 feet in the Ellenburger, has been eliminated as a possible source of oil production in this exploration.

Testing Saturation

Proven Oil Company, L. M. Glasco, et al, No. 1 George W. Herd, trustee, three miles south of Justiceburg, and 2,310 feet from north and west lines of section 29, block 6, H & GN survey, was testing several streaks of slight oil saturation, above the plugged back total depth at 3,133 feet.

The swabbing is being done through perforations in the casing which was cemented at 3,167 feet. So far no possibilities of commercial production have been found in any of the horizons which have been tested.

Operators pla nto continue testing up to about 2,300 feet— by streaks.

Petroleum Industry Watches Steel Production As Coal Strikes Threaten Shortage Of Materials

BY MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOUSTON, March 20 — The nation's steel industry is casting pleading glances at the striking coal miners and the petroleum industry has similar glances focused on the steel manufacturers.

As steel plants were threatened last week by the coal miner walkout, the National Petroleum council sounded warning that further oil shortages are around the corner if sufficient steel is not made available for development and expleration.

The warning came at a time domestic and foreign crude oil stocks were reported decreasing nearly 1,000,000 barrels and the nation's daily crude production estimated at dropping 88,000 barrels.

Much Steel Needed

The council's steel requirements committee reports the industry will need 15,571,500 tons of steel during the next 18 months to precent shortages. The figure includes a 7,707,900 ton estimate of needs for oil and gas production, refining facilities and oil pipelines.

The Bureau of Mines says domestic and foreign crude petroleum stocks the week of March 6 decreased 932,000 barrels to 219,575,000, with domestic crude decreasing 820,000 barrels.

American Petroleum Institute estimates the nation's daily production for the week ending March 13 averaged 5,264,850 barrels, the decrease of 88,050 from the previous week being traced primarily to Kansas' production being off 92,150 barrels daily.

The Texas Railroad commission continued the state's production on a capacity basis by signing an April proration order designed to produce 2,450,858 barrels of crude daily, an increase of 15,708 over March.

The East Texas field, however, was reduced from 22 to 21 producing days because of a 2.96 pounds drop in average weighted bottomhole pressure in February.

The April order compares with a 2,450,000 demand estimate, 50,000 more than March, submitted by the Bureau of Mines. Company advance nominations for April purchases totaled 2,833,333, a hike of 46,505.

Reports Released

On the financial side.

Four companies have released financial reports on 1947.

Shell Union Oil corporation — net income $59,874,698, equal to $4.44 a share, as compared with $32,880,417 or $2.44 in 1946.

The Texas company — consolidated net profit of $106,312,617 or $7.90 per share, as compared with $71,089,267 or $6.32 in 1946.

Phillips Petroleum company — net income of $40,894,000 as compared with $22,625,000 in 1946. Equals $8.17 per share, as against $4.60 a year earlier.

Skelly Oil company — net income of $121,323,798, an increase of 54 percent over 1946 and the equivalent of $21.49 per share as compared to $10.30 in 1946.

Tidelands battle:

A Senate judiciary subcommittee on Thursday approved, by a vote of 2 to 1, proposed legislation designed to give the states outright ownership of submerged tidelands.

The vote followed nearly four weeks of hearings before a joint Senate-House subcommittee.

Similar legislaton was passed by the last Congress but was vetoed by President Truman.

Foot and mouth:

Col. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission, told the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association convention at El Paso that oil and gas development would be threatened should the foot and mouth disease cross the Rio Grande.

He said infected areas would have to be quarantined and that such action would halt movement of men, trucks and oil field equipment.

Internationally speaking:

Authoritative sources in Bucharest have reported that oil industry equipment worth $11,000,000 and destined for Romania's oil fields is being held in United States ports.

An official of Dresher Industries, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, (one of the companies reported as holding part of the equipment orders), said representatives were in Romania last fall but that no orders were take nbecause of the "attitude of our State department."

Meanwhile, the Commerce department has increased the crude oil export quota for the first quarter of 1948 to 1,100,00 0barrels 300,000 more than the limit set by the department February 20 when it imposed the first peacetime license controls on crude oil.

Atlantic Refining company's new $2,000,000 production laboratories in Dallas are expected to be completed and in operation this spring . . . The Texas company has acquired a 10-year lease, at $1 per acre, on 17,989 acres of virgin land in Hidalgo and Brooks counties but has announced no plans for drilling . . . A gas well, registering 18,000,000 cubic feet a day blew in last week at Petroleum, Richie county, West Virginia. . . . Dr. Paul Aebersold, chief of the Isotopes division of the Atomic Energy commission, will be among the speakers at the fortieth annual convention of the Southern Gas association this week in Galveston . . . Slick - Urschel Oil has asked the Railroad commission to continue its Alford No. 1 discovery well in the Benedum pool, Upton county, on a temporary allowable of 500 barrels daily, the petition maintaining such an allowable of 500 barrels daily, the petition maintaining such an allowable is the most efficient rate of production and is need to supply sufficient gas for additional drilling operations . . . Sun Oil is clearing a 40-acre site in Starr county for construction of a natural gasoline plant equipped to process 25,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily, the plant to be part of Sun's $12,000,000 natural gas conservation program . . . Sohio Petroleum deepened a Nolan county abandoned hole from 5,836 feet to the Ellenburger zone at 6,126-93 feet and brought in a well flowing 183.12 barrels of 43 gravity daily, the well being the No. 1 Irl Faver.

Don L. Jones To Speak During Week At Commerce, Texarkana

Don L. Jones superintendent of experiment- system substation here, who has probably done as much research on farm mechanization as any other individual in the Southwest, is to speak twice this week in Northeast Texas or problems surrounding mechanized production and harvest of cotton, it was announced yesterday.

Jones is to speak Thursday in a general meeting at Commerce, and Friday is to address the southwestern group of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers at Texarkana.

Washington Has Done About Everything But Pass Law In Effort To Get Rid Of Birds

BY HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Your Congress has done about everything to control the starling menace here and elsewhere—except pass a law. And it may do that.

It's a measure that would allow a man to up and shoot one of the black, feathery pests just for the heck of it. And good riddance.

Custodians of the various stone buildings around the capital have tried all means of fighting the bird. Small boys were hired to march, picket-like, holding up long poles. On top were stuffed owls and funny faces painted on squares of cardboard. It's hard to scare a starling.

Birds Like It

The birds seemed to like it and rested on the ears of the owls and leered down at the small boys.

Union station here even tried placing phony eagles atop their building—but the starlings seemed to like that too.

Dr. Lytle S. Adams of Irwin, Pa., a famous conservationist, appeared before the House committee on health, etc., with a revolutionary idea recently. Starling birth control. Shocking, but practical. Dr. Adams' plan was to place pans of grain, floating in oil, around nesting grounds at the breeding season.

No Results Seen

Mama starling, he reasoned, would catch oil on her feathers while bobbing for a kernel of corn —and even at these grain prices it would be worth the trouble. Then she'd go home to sit on her eggs, dripping goo on same. The oil, the doctor thought, would get into the pores of the eggs and the eggs wouldn't hatch. They tried it, and so far as can be determined there are just as many starlings as ever. More, maybe. The birds are still messing things up and making more noise than all of the Washington taxicab horns put together.

Well, sir, I'm here to report that maybe we have got the thing licked. Which ought to be good news for everybody, since the starling robs the farmers of millions of dollars worth of grain a year. But understand, I said "maybe."

If the trick works, we can then thank a man named Hays L. Berger. He has invented and patented a mechanical owl—a former stuffed owl. When he saw a stuffed one wouldn't work he took the stuffins' out and inserted electrical insides.

He places this critter on top of a building and plugs it in. The owl begins his motor - propelled act. His head turns and his glass eyes blink a warning. First time out, one of the bravest members of the starling family tried friend owl out. That was the wide-eyed one's time to do a little wing-flapping. Which it did.

The experiment was performed on the Treasury building where for years the starlings have made a home. Mr. Berger loaned his owl to the money people for three nights running. There hasn't been a starling around the place since. The inventor says that although the birds are smart when it comes to laying and hatching eggs, they are awful dumb in the memory department. They'll come back. But so will Mr. B's head-bobbing, wing-flapping owl.

This owl does everything but hoot. And if the starlings get too sassy, Mr. Berger had figured out a way to give his bird a hooter. Mechanically.

Mass Test Case Planned On Texas City Damage Claims

HOUSTON, March 20. (AP)—One mass test case will decide a multi-million dollar question: Is the government liable for individual damages?

The case will pool the numerous damage claims growing out of the Texas City disaster of last April, Federal District Judge T. M. Kennerly announced yesterday.

He said he planned a meeting of attorneys handling such suits probably within two months after April 15, deadline for filing damage suits based on the disaster.

The collective suits would be divided as to claims for death, property damages, or personal injury.

More than 500 persons were killed or missing in the disaster, which started when the SS Grandcamp blew up the morning of April 16.

So far, nearly 50 suits have been filed. The biggest is a claim of $8,000,000 damages by the Texas City Terminal Railway company.

Matrimonial Discord May Have Something To Do With Ulcers

LOS ANGELES, March 20 (AP)—Men, are you bothered with reptic ulcers?

Maybe the little woman is to blame, says Dr. Earl E. Congdon, of Lapeer, Mich., president of the American College of Osteopathic Internists.

"More men have reptic ulcers," Dr. Congdon declared in an interview, "because they can't get along with their wives."

Vegetable Crops Are Hardest Hit In Recent Texas Freezes

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Texas farmers, surveying their fields after the severe freezes and blizzards of a week ago, found crops wiped out in many instances and severely set back in others.

Wheat alone appeared to survive the blizzards unharmed, but that crop already has been retarded by the series of cold blasts this winter.

Cattle losses were negligible.

Early tomato plants in Texas were wiped out and growth of Rio Grande valley plants slowed down. Other vegetables were badly damaged.

The lower Rio Grande valley escaped major damage from the cold but severe winds last week did considerable harm to cotton and vegetables.

Tomatoes Killed

Early tomato plants in East Texas were wiped out by the freeze during the week ending March 13. Texas is the biggest tomato shipping state in the nation, annually supplying one-third of U. S. needs. Farmers were hurriedly replanting but the crop will be about two weeks late. Harvest will begin about June 10. An increased acreage was forecast and total supply for the season was expected to be plentiful.

The onion crop was not so hard hit. A. F. Muller, Laredo, onion grower, said that the bermuda crop of that area would not be about a week late, with harvesting beginning about April 20. Texas and Colorado are the leading onion producing states.

Canteloupes, cucumbers, beans and other tender spring vegetables were practically wiped out in the important commercial vegetable area around Laredo.

The U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics reported from Austin that winter oats in central and northcentral Texas were frozen down. Present indications are that the crop was badly damaged by the freeze.

Fruit trees and flaxseed were damaged to widely varying extents.

Wind Hurts Cotton

In the lower Rio Grande valley, early cotton may have to be replanted because of high wind this week. Permits for planting (required under the pink bollworm control program) in the valley indicate an increase of 100,000 acres in this crop there this year, making an acreage well above the 500,000 mark.

Cameron county Agent Frank C. Brunneman said at San Benito that approximately one-third of the county's growing cotton crop may be replanted after last week's high winds. With the deadline for planting set at April 1 under the bollworm program, growers were not waiting to see whether their cotton had withstood the wind. He said they were beginning to replant immediately.

When leaves of the plant are bruised, Brunneman pointed out, the plants' food source is cut off and it starves.

Bright spot in Texas crops this year is wheat.

Farmers expect only half last year's bonanza, but the crop, with a little help from the weatherman, could be the second highest ever.

David Rasco, farm expert for the Amarillo Globe-News, which is in the heart of the heavy wheat producing area of the state, says cautiously that indications point to approximately 50 per cent of last year's whopping 124,000,000 (million) bushel harvest.

Would Be Heavy

In this, Rasco is seconded by H. M. Bainer, head of the Santa Fe railroad's agricultural department, who also estimated a 50 per cent yield compared with last year.

This still would be a heavy harvest. Production in 1946 was 62,916,000 bushels, while the highest ever recorded in Texas before last year was 71,558,000 bushels in 1944.

The area around Wichita Falls on the Red river, including some Oklahoma territory, has excellent seasoning in the ground. Bob Crocker, government farm official for Wichita and Archer counties, says "subsurface and surface moisture following recent snows and rains are about to meet." The wheat stand, he said, is good, with the yield expected to vary little from last year's record crop.

A number of questions, all depending on the weather, will decide the yield in the Texas Panhandle. Acreage there is about the same as last year. Dry weather this fall prevented planting over much of the area and farmers are depending on volunteer stands. They make a good crop only about two or three years out of 10. Moisture there is sufficient for early spring, but more will be needed to make a crop.

The series of blizzards in the Panhandle, which produced 83,000,000 bushels last year, has left the seeds of erosion.

H. C. Winburn, head of the Amarillo weather bureau, said the top soil in wheat fields is in a condition, perfect for eroding "dusters." He hopes for a hard rain to repack the soil around the roots.

Throughout the wheat area, the cold weather has retarded growth.

In the South Plains, just below the Panhandle, only about 25 per cent of last year's harvest is expected this year. The dry fall discouraged planting. For example, of the 230,000 acres in wheat in were planted, the lowest seeded acreage in more than 20 years, farmers say.

The Plainview Herald said that county farm agents are standing by with a program of cover crops which can be planted this spring in case the wheat is a complete failure.

West Texas Petroleum Industry Active As Wells Push Deeper

Crosby county wildcat, had reached 8,510 feet, in an unidentified chert, and was making more hole.

Want Retest

General American Oil company of Dallas, has filed an application with the Railroad commission of Texas, requesting a permit to re-enter and test an old dry hole in southeast Hale county, which was drilled in 1941 by Humble Oil & Refining Company, and others, as their No. 1 A. F. Byrd.

This project is two miles northeast of Petersburg, and 660 feet from east and south lines of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 17, block K, T1&R survey.

It was drilled to a total depth of 8,756 feet, and ended in granite.

General American recently took a spread of leases out of a block of more than 3,500 acres which had been assembled around the old dry hole by M. B. Arick of Midland.

Company Secures Hole

In the deal General American secured the old hole. Arick kept a considerable acreage of leases out of the block.

General American plans to make extended tests on several sections in the No. 1 Bryd, where some signs of oil were logged. At the time the well was drilled those signs were not considerable of any great importance.

However, there is a possibility that a study of the samples from the project will provide new geological information — at least — which might be used in the near future, as the basis for more exploratory development in that region.

Two new wells were completed in the southwest Hale county section of the Anton-Frish field, and one new exploration for that district, was reported during the past week.

Producers Listed

The new producers are:

Anton Oil company No. 3H. Myatt, located 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 15, block DT, HE&WT survey, made a 24-hour potential of 284.12 barrels of 29 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 153-1. The pay at 5,520-6,075 feet, had been treated with a total of 10,000 gallons of acid.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 2-B J. T. Harral, 660 feet from south and west lines of section 13, block DT, HE&WT survey, made a daily initial production of 209.62 barrels of 29 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 156-1.

The pay at 5,517-6,050 feet, had been injected with 18,000 gallons of acid.

Stanolind No. 1 Edward Schoor, 660 feet from south and west lines of section 8, block DT, HE—WT survey, was officially reported as a new location for the Anton-Irish field during the week. It is slated to dig to about 6,200 feet.

Operations Started

This venture has already started operations, and at last report had reached 1,614 feet in anhydrite, and had set a string of 8⅝-inch casing at 1,601 feet, with 560 sacks of cement. The plug will be drilled, and digging will be resumed early in the week.

Stanolind No. 1 L. A. Harral had spudded to 1,611 feet, and it had also set surface pipe. More hole will be made in a few days.

Stanolind No. 1 Julia Arnold had reached 5,550 feet and was due to drill ahead after making a change in the drilling tools.

Stanolind No. 2 Arnold was bottomed at 6,112 feet and was installing a pump to test and complete.

Lamb Well Started

Stanolind No. 1 Rice was on a total depth of 6,102 feet in lime, and is swabbing to clean out and test. It has shown for some oil, but at last report was not fully cleaned of drilling water.

In the southeast Lamb county sector of the Anton-Irish field, Stanolind No. 1 I. L. Ellwood, has drilled to 1,641 feet and had set 8⅝-inch casing at 1,637 feet, with 600 sacks of cement. It will resume drilling early in the week.

Stanolind No. 1 Twilly, also in Lamb County, had progress below 4,650 feet in lime, and was continuing.

Hale Well's Successful

Gulf Oil corporation No. 1 Hufstedler, in the Hale County side of the field, was coring ahead below 5,903 feet in lime. It has already shown on preliminary tests that it will be finished as an oil well.

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Garrett, also in southwest Hale county, was rigging up cable tools to drill ahead into the expected pay section below 5,820 feet.

ALL-BREED DOG SHOW PLANNED—The three dogs pictured above are typical of fine pooches to be exhibited in the first all-breed show to be held in Lubbock, Sunday, April 18. The show, approved by the American Kennel club, will be sponsored by the Heart 'o the Plains Kennel club and will be staged in the stock judging pavilion at Texas Tech with the public invited to attend. The bulldog, left, Tiger Boy Bon, AKC-N5141, owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Moss, 606 Thirty-first, is an example of the dogs to be shown with champion blood lines. The seven-month-old setter, pictured center, Tony's Peerless Boyd, will be shown by W. C. Boyd, 2114 Twenty-seventh. The cocker spaniel, right, Lancaster First Love, is owned by Cecil Paschall, 1520 Twenty-sixth and won the reserve championship at a show Thursday in Corpus Christi. He is entered in a show in San Antonio today.

Through Freight Billing For U. S. And Mexico Is Planned

LAREDO, March 20. (AP)—After a lapse of 40 years, through freight billing between the United States and Mexico is to be re-established May 1 as the result of a conference of American and Mexico railway officials here.

Representatives of American Railways attending the conference were from the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Texas-Mexico, Missouri Pacific, Texas & Pacific railways.

The National Lines of Railways of Mexico was represented by Benjamin Mendez, freight traffic manager of the National Railways of Mexico, and other prominent Mexican railway officials.

The establishment of through bills of lading will restore to railways the control of less than carlot shipments between the United States and Mexico.

About the year 1010, the Vikings established a lumber camp on the coast of North America, probably in Labrador and maintained it for three years.

Average life of transit vehicles is eight to ten years for buses, 12 to 15 years for electric trackless trollies, and 20 years for streetcars.

Streamliner Train Is Derailed Between Chicago, St. Louis

CHICAGO, March 20 (U.P.)—Railroad investigators today sought the cause of a derailment of a Gulf, Mobile and Ohio streamliner in which two crewmen were injured slightly.

The train, the Abraham Lincoln, was travelling at a slow speed when it left the track yesterday. All 13 cars were derailed but remained upright. The diesel locomotive remained on the tracks.

Passengers on the train, which was going to Chicago from St. Louis, were transferred to another train and brought here.

U. S. Engineers Building Fence In Mexico To Fight Disease

WASHINGTON, March 20 (U.P.) —The Agriculture department reported today that U. S. Engineers have started work on a 90-mile fence to bolster the eastern section of the foot-and-mouth disease quarantine line in Mexico.

This is in the area where the quarantine line comes closest to the Texas border. On the eastern end, the line is about 250 miles south of Brownsville, Tex. The nearest point of infection is about 50 miles south of the line.

Covers Wide Area

The entire quarantine line runs for about 700 miles across central Mexico. It is designed to check spread of diseased cattle into northern Mexico, where they might slip across the border into the United States and infect Texas herds.

Dr. B. T. Simms, chief of the departments Bureau of Animal Industry, said engineers working with bulldozers have completed a clearing for construction of a fence through 30 miles of jungle and swamp country. Wire fences also will be built along other sections of the line where natural terrain is not an adequate barrier, he said.

Simms also disclosed that a 100-mile section of the quarantine line in central Mexico had been moved southward as much as 50 miles in some places. This section had comprised a hump in the line jutting northward to within about 250 miles of Texas. Simms said this did not mark an advance against the disease because it merely involved shifting this area of about 2500 square miles from the "buffer zone" to the "free zone."

Before straightening the line out, Simms said, officials double-checked to make sure there was no infection in that part of the buffer zone. The area involved was in the state of San Luis Potosi.

He also said that several areas of infection nearest the quarantine line in the state of Vera Cruz had been freed of the disease. A program of vaccination is getting under way in the buffer zone, he said, but supplies of vaccines still are limited.

Negro Convicts Are Recaptured Four Hours After Prison Break

HUNTSVILLE, March 20 (U.P.) — Grover Dixon, 30, and Archie O'Bannon, 30, the two convicts who escaped from a plow squad at Ramsey state prison farm No. 2, were recaptured four hours after their break yesterday.

Officers used bloodhounds in the search for the negroes who had escaped by crossing a creek after running from the work detail.

J. Shipp Announces His Candidacy For County Treasurer

J. R. Shipp, candidate for county treasurer of Lubbock, Saturday issued formal announcement of his candidacy for the office, subject to the action of voters in the Democratic primaries.

"I am making this race on my own merits and I invite a close check on my character as a citizen of this state," Shipp's statement said. "I earnestly solicit the vote and influence of each and every voter in the county.

"I was born and reared on a farm in Bowie county, Texas and moved to Jones county where I farmed 11 years before moving to Lubbock county, buying a farm four miles east of Monroe. I lived there until four years ago.

"Having several children in school, I served several years as trustee of the Liberty school district. After the grouping of schools, I served six or seven years in the same capacity in the Idalou district.

"I am a church man and believe in church work," the statement continued." I have done some work for the government and also for the county."

Shipp resides at 1303 Arnett.

MAN IS ELECTROCUTED

DALLAS, March 20 (AP)—Raymond W. Lang, 30, was killed yesterday when he contacted a high voltage line as he was digging a waterwell at his home at Union Bower, near here.

Racket Seen In Marriage Deals

CLEVELAND, March 20 (U.P.) — The U. S. Immigration Service here agrees that the course of true love doesn't always run smooth, but the bureau chief, Floyd Ault, says he views suspiciously some of the international affairs of the heart that wind up in his domain.

Ault said he believes some of them may have been "engineered". Most of such cases arise out of the law which permits a veteran to bring a foreign girl here to marry her. The boy puts up a $500 bond to guarantee he'll walk down a church aisle with her, and then the government gives them 90 days to make arrangements.

According to Ault's theory concerning some of the cases, the law is just being used to get marriageable girls from the "old country" into the United States.

Syrian Girl Jilted

For example, he said, recently a 17-year-old Syrian girl arrived from Lebanon to marry a Cleveland veteran. Immediately they got a license and set the date. Then the boy's American girl friend saw the announcement in the paper.

The bridegroom-to-be talked it over and made a decision. The day before his scheduled wedding to the Syrian girl they eloped.

Rather than see the girl deported, his brother married her. But the brother wasn't a veteran.

U. S. Takes Bond

Ault found a law permitting the girl to stay, but the $500 bond went into the government's coffers.

Ault said he was a little suspicious of that one but an international "romance" involving an Italian girl recently left no doubt in his mind.

In this case, he said, "friends" persuaded a veteran here to exchange letters with an Italian girl. An "engagement" followed and family put up the bond and paid her plane fare.

The girl stepped from the plane at the Cleveland Airport, took one look at her fiance and declared nothing on earth would convince her to marry him. She went right back to Italy—at her own expense.

Governor Calls For Unselfish Support Of Safety At Session

DALLAS, March 20 (AP)—Delegates of two safety organizations in session here moved into a series of panel discussions tolay, ranging from drunk driving to safety regulations for school buses.

Gov. Beauford Jester, in a second speech to the governor's Highway Safety conference and Texas Safety association, last night praised those groups which have sought to reduce accidents in Texas.

But he said "the stark, plain facts indicate that one out of six persons in Texas will be killed or injured in a traffic accident within the next 10 years."

He said there is a need now for unselfish support of safety which "all too frequently in the past has been applied to the other fellow."

A. F. Allen, Dallas, out-going president of the Texas Safety association, said there were 170,000 industrial accidents and 2,000 highway deaths in Texas last year.

Forty-six awards for industrial safety records were presented at a banquet last night by the Texas association.

Winners over the state, included:

Divisions of the Shell Oil company of Midland, Kilgore and Pampa, Cabot Carbon company of Pampa, Southwestern Public Service company of Dolhart, Cabot Shops of Pampa, Humble Oil and Refining company's Baytown Rubber plant, Southwestern Gas and Electric company of Shreveport, La., Hawk and Buck, Inc., of Waco, Monsanto Chemical company at Texas City, Ralston Purina company of Fort Worth, Stanolinl Oil and Gas company of Houston, Levingston Shipbuilding company of Orange, Nueces Transportation company of Corpus Christi.

American Zinc company of Dumas, Neches Butane Products company of Port Neches, B. F. Goodrich company at Port Neches, Humble's Baytown refinery, Consolidated Steel company of Orange, Southland Paper Mills, Inc., at Lufkin, Dow Chemical company at Shreveport, Pennsylvania shipyards at Beaumont, Ford, Bacon and Davis of Texas City, the Container Corporation of America at Fort Worth, Emesco Derrick company, Arkansas Fuel and Oil company of Longview and Smithland, and United Gas Pipeline company of Beaumont.

Robert Porter, Lubbock Attorney, Enters Race For County Judge; Statement Given

Robert Porter, Lubbock attorney and World War 2 veteran, has authorized The Avalanche-Journal to announce his candidacy for county judge of Lubbock county, subject to the Democratic primaries.

ROBERT PORTER

Porter began the practice of law in Lubbock county in 1939 after receiving his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law. This law practice was interrupted by more than four and a half years of Army service in World War 2.

Resumed Law Practice

Porter volunteered May 23, 1941, and served with the U. S. Army in England, France, Belgium and Germany. Upon his discharge, he resumed practice of law in Lubbock.

He is a former scoutmaster of the Lubbock Salvation Army Boy Scout troop, is a member of the Baptist church, Knights of Pythias lodge, and the Lions club.

In announcing his candidacy, Porter said:

"I am ever mindful of the fact that your county judge must be trained and well versed in the law in handling the legal business of the commissioners court, where your 'tax dollar' is spent, and must be proficient in the law to preside at the trial of civil, criminal, probate and juvenile cases.

Pledge Is Given

"I have successfully tried numerous cases in the courts of this state, including appellate practice in the courts of civil appeals and the Supreme Court of Texas.

"I pledge to every citizen that as your county judge I will fairly, legally, economically and without special favor to any individual or group perform the duties of that office.

"I believe in strict law enforcement and punishment commensurate with the type of crime, age and criminal record of the offender, but at all times displaying a spirit of fairness and reasonableness.

"I submit my candidacy solely on the basis of fairness, integrity, judicial temperament and legal ability."

Danger Ended As Harris County Spouting Oil Well Is Capped

HOUSTON, March 20 (U.P.) — Danger from a spouting oil well apparently was over today.

The well in northern Harris county spouted oil and gas over a wide area for three days. Last night, emergency oil workers succeeded in recapping the well.

Highways, made hazardous by a thick film of slippery oil, were being sanded and were to be reopened to motorists. Precautions were taken against possible fire or explosion which might have turned out to be disastrous.

"Oldtimers" (Over 35) In Maryland Now Finding That Jobs Are Growing Scarcer

BALTIMORE, March 20. (AP)—Looking for a job? It may be tough to find one in Maryland if you're over 35.

Grafton Lee Brown, state veterans employment representative, says "dozens of veterans" have been turned down by some of Maryland's "biggest concerns" because they are too old at 35.

Brown says he has gone to top management for a group of lawyer veterans ranging in age from 38 to 41 and "in some instances the firms have relaxed their rules so far as veterans are concerned."

But plenty of other ex-army colonels and captains have been jobless for six months or more simply because they are over 35.

"That's a pretty bad picture," says Brown. "The veterans feel pretty sour about it."

The head of the state veterans employment service wants to know what will become of the middle-aged veterans now studying under the GI bill.

"What's going to happen to these men coming out of college in June who are over 35?" Brown asks. "If that's going to be the precedent, what chance have they?"

Tito's Army Readied For "Liberation" Of Italy As Crucial Elections Near

By BOGDAN RADITSA
Ex-Yugoslav Press Information Chief
Written for NEA Service

Marshal Tito has an army of 300,000 men ready to back up the Soviet rocket bomb bases on Yugoslavia's western borders and to make use of the Balkan arsenal being built in Yugoslavia's busy war plants.

As the crucial April 18 elections in Italy approach, these troops are being readied for a "liberation" mission, according to the same reliable sources which have managed to give me a steady flow of military facts from inside Yugoslavia.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of a three-part bombshell report written for NEA Service by Bogdan Raditsa, a brilliant Yugoslav who became a diplomat in the pre-war Yugoslav government, was lulled into believing in Tito's new "freedom," and then fled to America when he found the bitter truth of Communist "liberation."

Like a military intelligence report which these dispatches resemble, they are based on hard facts from eye-witness sources — trustworthy friends of Raditsa who have fled Tito's borders as he did before them. Week by week, these letters reach Raditsa via neutral Switzerland. This week, as the facts added up to the over-all picture of a Balkan springboard for the westward march of Communism, he sat down with NEA News Editor Sumner P. Ahlbum to tell the story to America and the world.

Before he got a realistic taste of Communism in action, Raditsa had been Tito's chief propaganda officer in the U. S. Now he has devoted himself to a new informal(on task: to tell the real truth about "Titoslavia." He has written for magazines, is at work on a book, and with his wife, hopes for U. S. citizenship.

These sources—trustworthy friends who one-by-one are slipping out of Tito's domain as I did in 1946—add weight to the threat publicly voiced last week by Italian pro-Communist Pietro Nenni that the Po Valley may become a battlefield unless the Reds win the vote next month.

Six Armies

The Tito army commands the eastern flank of the Po Valley. And the Communist orders for the army, my sources report, are to "free" Northern Italy from the non-Communists if such a move is necessary.

Coached by Russian officers and commissars, Yugoslavia's forces are divided into six armies, and an armored army is being formed. There are 31 infantry divisions. The facts which filter out of Yugoslavia to me do not contain figures on the air force, but they identify an entire aviation division—the Sixth—as having been formed and trained in Russia.

In the forces facing northern Italy is the Proletarian Division, commanded by Col. Gen. Gajo Vojvodic. It includes the 1st Serbian Proletarian Brigade, the 3rd Krajiska Proletarian Brigade, the 13th Croatian Proletarian Brigade, and an artillery brigade.

In the Trieste Army is the 7th Banijakaoffensive Division — mostly Serbian mountain troops rated as Tito's most savage—under Col. Gen. Gruber; the 26th Dalmation Offensive Division; the 27th Slavonian Shock Division; the 23rd Krajiska Shock Division, and the First Tank Division.

Has Reserves

Besides the 300,000 men in the army, Tito has more than 100,000 others under arms — the Home Guard, all staunch Communists; the elite KNOJ, counterpart of the Nazi S.S. troops, and the UDB, or secret police.

In elaborate maneuvers last October, along the Danube north of Sombor, Yugoslav troops engaged in an operation called "forced transit of the Danube." Russian airplanes, plus two regiments of the Soviet motorized army sent down from Hungary and a Soviet heavy artillery regiment (conveniently located at Sombor) also took part in the maneuvers.

The Russians count on Tito's army as an effective force if they are needed to help the Italian Communists "free" Northern Italy. With the average Yugoslav soldier, no matter what his inhibited feelings about the Russians, it would be a popular mission because of an anti - Italian spirit. And the average Yugoslav soldier—the new youth mobilized after World War II—would welcome a chance to fatten up in the Po Valley after the meager rations enforced upon them by the Communists.

Would Be Expendable

But there is another and more critical mission the Russians have in mind for the Yugoslav troops.

That role is an expendable first-line of defense if Communism meets a stone wall in Italy and democracy starts pushing back against Yugoslavia from the west, with force.

By expendable, I mean that the Russians fully expect the Yugoslav army would be wiped out in any such move from the west. The facts I have pieced together from my friends show that the equipment being turned out by the new Yugoslav arsenal is not going to Tito's soldiers, but is being held in reserve.

The Yugoslav forces might be able to hold for as long as 24 days. That is as long as Russia would need them as a buffer. By then the Reds would have their own forces in position.

I do not need the letters from my friends to know the full scope of what the Russians have in mind.

Officers Brag

As early as the Spring of 1945, when I was still in Belgrade, I listened to Soviet officers in responsible positions openly brag how they could have the whole of Europe in four or five weeks' time.

"After that," they said bluntly, "America will be close."

That was while America was talking friendship with the Russians as they closed in on Germany together.

"We will move across Northern Italy and France" said the Soviet officers in Belgrade. "And then we will strike against Spain. A popular war against Franco—and how can the west defend him—will bring us to the Atlantic."

The atom bombs that burst over Japan silenced such bare-faced bravado, but only for a matter of weeks.

Before I fled in 1946, they were talking of world upheaval again. And the letters that reach me now tell that the Communists have convinced the Yugoslav people of the inevitability of war.

In their public speeches, the Communists speak of such war as the "defense of liberation." But in cafes and in government offices, the war they talk about is a real one.

And the military facts from inside Tito's domain look as if Yugoslavia will be the springboard.

West Texas Air Bases Could Be Used At Once, Survey Reveals

ABILENE, March 20 (AP)—West Texas Army air bases are largely intact and could be used to start rebuilding a share of United States armed might quickly, a survey reveals.

Thousands of fliers were trained in West Texas for World war II.

A survey by the Abilene Reporter-News showed this week that the air fileds are substantially in the same condition as when the training programs were completed.

Most of them would require new barracks for these were removed to provide housing and school buildings after the war.

Stamford Field Ready

Arledge field at Stamford would be made immediately available, Mayor A. C. Humphrey said. The field is substantially in as good condition as when evacuated by the Army with exception of the barracks, mess hall, hospital and one hangar. The flight building, three hangars and administration building still are on the field, which is owned by the city of Stamford.

Avenger field at Sweetwater is approximately 70 per cent intact. It was turned over to the city after the war.

The Big Spring field, which trained bombardiers by the hundreds, still is intact except for barracks and housing units, City Manager H. W. Whitney said. In good condition and still in use are the landing strips, lighting system, hangars, shop buildings, roads, water and sewer systems Most of the field is owned by the city.

Coleman Nearly Intact

City officials said the Coleman flying school, a primary training base during World war II, could be reactivated at once. The field installations are 75 per cent intact.

The world's largest bombardier college, located at Midland during the war, could be put into use immediately, Delbert Downing, chamber of commerce manager, reports. The same is true of Midland airport No. 2, used by the ferry command during the war to service planes. Many of the facilities at the main field have been leased b ythe city and 200 families live there.

Bruce airport, four miles south of Ballinger, is still intact and could be activated on about a half day's notice, chamber of commerce Manager Roger Wheeler said. It was used for primary training during the war and now is owned by the city. Proceedings to make Bruce field a component of recently activated Goodfellow field at San Angelo were started several weeks ago. Barracks, hangars, runways and other installations are in good repair, except for some damage from a recent storm.

Air Force Offers New Method To Ease Dentist's Treatments

SAN ANTONIO, March 20. (AP)—The faster the burr the less the Brrrr.

That's what they say at Randolph Air Force base where studies are being made to cut down the shivers, pain and irritation caused by the dentist's drill—or burr.

Lt. Col. Carlos F. Schuessler, in charge of the project, said dental burrs hurt more because they go too slow.

Standard dental equipment rotates the burr at 4,000 revolutions per minute.

He said he found that the pain-causing heat generated by the burr is highest at 4,000 r. p. m., then begins to drop off. At 10,000 r. p. m. the drill generates less heat than it did at 1,000 r. p.m.

When wood cellulose is separated and chemically treated, the resulting product looks like cotton and contains the same ingredients.

First B-36 Bomber To Be Received Monday

FORT WORTH, March 20. (AP)—The first B36 bomber, largest land based bomber in the world, will be delivered Monday to the Eighth Air force.

Brig. Gen. Roger R. Ramey, Eighth Air force leader, disclosed that several others of the giant craft are almost ready for delivery. Twenty-one are on order, he said.

Designed to carry a bomb load ...,000 miles, the B36 is powered with six 3,000-horsepower pusher-type engines. They are designed to lift it to 40,000 feet and shove it along at better than 300 miles per hour.

Ramey, holder of the Distinguished Service cross and native of Denton, said in an interview yesterday that the U. S. lacks the air power to threaten an aggressor "with a strong retaliatory blow."

Tipsy Gunman Declares Bargain Day As He Robs Liquor Store

BOSTON, March 20 (AP)—A tipsy gunman offered bargain prices during the course of a holdup at the Charles liquor mart last night.

While an accomplice held the owner and a clerk in a back room, the tipsy one waited on several customers—practically giving the stuff away.

Tiring of the job, he called the owner to wait on four customers and made him refuse payment for four quarts.

The pair fled with $300 after spending half an hour in the store.

Army Finds That Scientists Are Essential To Country's Defense

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 20 — The Army says scientists are as essential to the national security as soldiers, sailors and airmen.

In a talk prepared for delivery to commanding officers to troops all over the world, entitled "Why Research and Development?", the Army listed the great advances of science in World War II.

They were: the atomic bomb, radar, pencillin, DDT, the proximity fuse and submarine detection devices.

"In the war of the future the decision may go well to that nation whose research, development and industrial efforts produce new and better offensive weapons as well as counter-measures against the offensive weapons of enemies," the Army said.

Importance Increased

"Should the United States ever be forced to fight another world war, it is certain that the scientist will play an even more important role than in World War II."

The Army said the United States now faces the task of maintaining its enviable position in research against the challenge of other powers.

It warned that the task is not only a military responsibility but a "national responsibility."

"An adequate program of research and development in time of peace must be the joint effect of our educational institutions, our industry and our government," the Army said.

It said the primary need is in basic research. That formerly has been done mostly in France, Germany, Italy, Denmark and England. War-time dislocations and destruction have cut their capacity, the Army reported.

Shortage Deplored

The Army deplored a shortage of scientists, estimated at 90,000 bachelors and 5,000 doctors of science. It said 15,000 additional science doctors are needed.

The Army contended that the government, individuals and industry must provide more opportunities for scientists to work.

The armed forces' 1947 appropriation for research and development amounts to four-fifths of the total spent by the government exclusively of atomic energy, the Army estimated.

The Army listed key research programs as improved aircraft, long and short range guided missiles, anti-submarine devices, improved aircraft carriers, better radar and radio, and new drugs to fight disease.

Tired, "All-In"— Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get up in the mornings still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wears down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Texan Pays Waldorf Bill For Veteran

NEW YORK, March 20 (AP)—Ex-GI Richard Earl Cox and his family no longer are "squatters" at the swank Waldorf-Astoria. The Coxes' hotel bill is paid up and, what's more, they have a swell credit balance.

A Texan sent the hotel $100 to be applied to the account of the former serviceman who moved his family into a Waldorf-Astoria suite last week and said they would remain there until a home in a veterans' project is found for them.

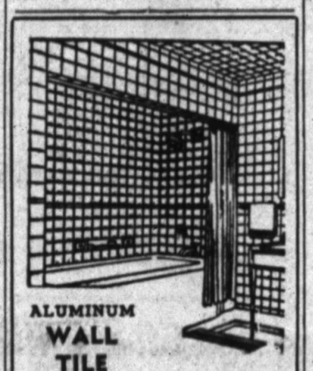

Cox announced then that he'd pay the hotel $40 a month and let Mayor William O'Dwyer foot the rest of the bill.

The big-hearted Texan is Mike Jarman, an oil operator from San Antonio and a frequent Waldorf guest.

Cox expressed himself as "sincerely grateful" to the oilman, but said that the matter was strictly between the hotel and Jarman.

The Coxes' plans haven't changed at all, he said, adding that they wouldn't budge from their fashionable suite until suitable living quarters are found at a price he can afford to pay.

In 1940 only half the Americans between 18 and 19 years old were in school.

Academy Award Ceremonies Bring Back Memories Of Past Winners

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, March 20 (AP)—"Yes, sir," said the oldtimer, "tonight's will be the 20th Academy awards, and I've seen 'em all.

"I can remember when Doug and Mary and D. W. were in on the start of the academy a couple of decades ago. The first actor to get an awald was Emil Jannings for 'The Way of All Flesh.' I bet that's one Oscar the academy would like to get back."

He chewed off the end of his 50-cent cigar and reminisced some more.

"Then there was the night that Vice President Curtis came from Washington to give the award address. He talked for a couple of hours. Roscoe Ates had most of the crowd out in the lobby watching him put on an act while Curtis talked. Will Hays used to talk at those early ones, and that was something, too.

Drama Is Seen

"There's been enough drama at the awards for a number of pictures. Like when J. L. Warner and Hal Wallis had almost a running race to see which would receive the 'Casablanca' award. J. L. won, and Wallis left Warners soon afterward. And when Sam Goldwyn and Willie Wyler exchanged compliments over 'Best Years'—and then went back to their feud.

"And when Olivia DeHavilland and Joan Fontaine tossed unsisterly words backstage last year.

"There have been nice moments, too. Like Bob Hope's giving an Oscar to his pal Bing for 'Going My Way'—and then clowning while Bing made his speech . . . Jimmy Stewart in his Army uniform, getting his for 'Philadelphia Story.' When he got home, Burgess Meredith looked at the Oscar and said, 'Where did you get that—Ocean Park pier?'

Events Remembered

"Then there was the night Joan Crawford got her 'Mildred Pierce' award at home in a sickbed . . . when 'It Happened One Night' swept nearly every Oscar in the book . . . when Jimmy Dunn heard he was getting one and let out a "whoop!" that echoed through Grauman's Chinese . . .

"Unforgettable faces: Luise Rainer, who won two years in a row, then faded from the Hollywood scene . . . Harold Russell, who proudly held an Oscar in each artificial hand . . .

"Yes, the Academy awards are sentimental and pompus and overglamorized. But I'm darned if I don't get a kick out of them."

Ralph Cocanougher Is Awarded Decoration For Pacific Rescue

Notification he has been awarded the Navy and Marine Corps medal for rescuing his division leader from a burning plane on Yontan airfield, Okinawa, on April 4, 1945, was received from the navy department Saturday by Ralph K. Cocanougher, 2308 Broadway, former navy fighter pilot.

The citation recites that "when his division leader's plane was hit during an attack on an enemy objective, Lieutenant Cocanougher followed the injured pilot to the base and, although a dangerous explosion was imminent, rescued him from his burning plane.

Cocanougher also was cited for four air medals and for the Distinguished Flying Cross twice during his four years of service which terminated on Oct. 5, 1946. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cocanougher, 1711-B Fourteenth street.

Mysterious Death Of Man At Wichita Falls Being Probed

WICHITA FALLS, March 20. (AP)—Sheriff Hammett Vance today was expected to continue his investigation into the death of John Edward Pender, 50, New Castle feed store operator.

Pender died in a hospital here last night of injuries received in an unknown manner about noon yesterday.

Vance said Pender was found sprawled in the driveway of a filling station by Jim Stonecipher, the station attendant. Vance said Pender had a fractured skull and spinal injuries.

The sheriff quoted Stonecipher as saying Pender came into the station and asked to use the telephone, then walked out. The attendant said he was busy and did not notice whether Pender was injured. A few minutes later he said he saw the man in the driveway and notified officers.

Mme. Joliot-Curie's Detention Is Explained By "Double Fence"

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie got caught on a government fence. She got off it, after some hours.

Mme. Joliot-Curie, famous French scientist, came here as a visitor on a brief lecture trip. She flew from Paris to New York, arriving Thursday.

Instead of letting her right in, as with most visitors, U. S. Immigration officials held her overnight.

On Friday she was ordered released by Tom Clark, Attorney General. She is in now, for a couple of weeks or so.

Procedure Explained

Two departments of the U. S. government have control over people coming here:

The State department—through its U. S. consuls in foreign countries; and the Justice department—through its U. S. Immigration service here.

Both check on anyone wanting to come in. The consuls are supposed to do it abroad, the Immigration officers here. Government officials call this a double fence to keep out undesirables.

A would-be visitor first must get a visa from the U. S. consul in the country he is leaving. It's a stamp of approval by the consul, saying he sees no reason to keep the visitor out.

No airline or ship can bring in a visitor without a visa. But the visa itself is no guarantee that the visitor can enter when he arrives.

Set Up By Law

Immigration inspectors meet him when he lands. Then they start the second check.

Why the two fences? Why can't the full check be made by the American consul who issues the visa abroad?

To this the State department officials here say:

1. The double fence is set up by law. It gives this country the benefit of checks aboard and here.

2. The system works pretty well. Less than one per cent of last year's 350,000 visitors were turned back by Immigration inspectors.

A consul overseas has four main grounds on which to refuse a would-be visitor a visa:

Four Grounds Given

1. That he's not really a visitor but is trying to come to stay.

2. That he had once been deported from the United States.

3. That this government, at U. S. expense, had to send him home once at his own request because he was penniless.

4. That his presence here would be against this country's interest or safety.

Mme. Joliot-Curie got her visa from the American consul in Paris, but Immigration officers stopped her here.

Neither State department nor Immigration officials will say exactly why. But Watson Miller, head of the Immigration service, says:

"After she landed, Immigration officers got hold of some background information they thought sufficient to hold her awhile."

Whatever that information was, Attorney General Clark apparently didn't think it enough to keep her any longer. So he let her in.

Discrimination Is Claimed Eliminated

AUSTIN, March 20 (U.P.)—A plan advanced recently to eliminate Latin-American discrimination has "worked like a charm" in its first test, the Good Neighbor commission reported today.

The plan was set up by Jay C. Stilley, executive secretary of the Texas Cotton Ginners' association, and will be presented at the Good Neighbor commission meeting at Austin March 26.

The Stilley plan was the result of a report to Stilley by a San Antonio attorney of a sign in a highway cafe at a West Texas town excluding Latin-American trade.

Stilley, the Good Neighbor commission said, contacted cotton ginners. They asked the aid of the chamber of commerce. As a result of the action all such signs in the town have been removed.

Stilley has sent a questionnaire to all members of the Cotton Ginners' association. His plan provided for checking towns listed as localities in which discrimination against Mexicans is practiced, and the organization of local groups to fight it.

Under the plan, farmers at local meetings also will decide the number of migratory workers needed for the current season, what facilities will be made available and agree on a wage scale.

RECRUITING TEAM TO VISIT LUBBOCK — A Regular Army recruiting team composed of members of the famous 2nd Infantry division will visit Lubbock Monday and Tuesday from Fort Lewis, Wash., it was announced by Maj. Harold Fulghum, recruiting officer for the Lubbock Army and Air Forces Recruiting station in the Federal building. The team, shown above, will speak Monday noon to the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon, will make addresses over radio stations here Monday night, and will appear in Brownfield, Levelland and Littlefield, where members will speak to social and civic organizations Monday and Tuesday. Under command of First Lt. Joseph A. Kopin, members of the group will be: 1st Sgt. Jim B. Keith, Sgt. Larnce/T.. Smith, T/Sgt. Thomas C. Glosson, T/Sgt. Howard E. Weaver, 1st Sgt. Louis Perme, M/Sgt. Earl B. Turney, M/Sgt. Jennings D. Lowman, T/Sgt. William C. Sodon, Sgt. Alvin G. Davis, T/4 William D. Wheatley, S/Sgt. Junior R. McDowell, S/Sgt. Harold F. Lazore, S/Sgt. James G. Roope, M/Sgt. Noel R. Gainey, T/Sgt. S. G. Phillips. The group will be glad to interview any possible recruits.

Mexicans Seek Title To Part Of King Ranch In Court Suit

EDINBURG, March 20 (U.P.) — Eighty-two Mexicans claimed today that part of the huge King ranch belongs to them.

They filed a $1,880,000 title suit against King ranch and Humble Oil Co. The Mexicans, descendants of Don Gil Zarate Ballerena of Tamaulipas, claim a 21/48 interest in the Santo Tomas de la Blanca grant located on the Hidalgo-Brooks county line.

The plaintiffs, who say they suffered $1,000,000 damages through loss of the land and its minerals, claim their ancestor was given the grant by the state of Tamaulipas and showed five pages of geneological data to back it up.

Date System Of Actress Handy

By PATRICIA CLARY
United Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, March 20. — Audrey Totter disclosed that there's a master-mind behind her date book.

The man who tells her whom to go out with—and whom to drop, fast—is Robert Montgomery, who after 20 years in Hollywood knows almost everything about everybody.

"Every day," Miss Totter said, "I tell him who was out with me last night. Then he tells me all about him, how to get him, if I want him, and how to get rid of him, if I want to."

Some of them Montgomery says she'd better grab fast.

"But I just never can grab them," Miss Trotter giggled.

She doesn't have any trouble getting rid of them without any help.

"I think that when you don't want to marry a fellow, you subconsciously find a reason for breaking up with him," she said.

Miss Totter, one of the sexiest girls on the screen, hasn't been married yet. She doesn't intend to be for a couple of years.

"Of course, I want to mary some day—who doesn't?" she said. "Every girl wants a home, babies, and everything. I want to keep on with my career—but I don't know. I don't believe in divorce.

"I just can't see myself reading that 'Audrey Totter doesn't believe in divorce,'" she added laughing, "as I head for Reno for the fifth time."

Miss Totter co-starred with Montgomery in "The Lady in the Lake" and is working with him now in Universal-International's "The Saxon Charm."

Another of her co-stars, Robert Taylor, also took a brotherly interest in her spinsterhood," she said. "You'd better not wait around much longer to get married," he told her one day. "The older you get, the harder you're going to be to get along with."

Famous Ballerina To Appear In Program Here Monday Night

Mia Slavenska, internationally famous ballerina who came to America as the prima ballerina of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and recently starred in the motion picture "Ballerina", will appear at the Lubbock High school auditorium at 8 p. m. Monday under auspices of the Texas Tech Artist Course, according to R. A. Mills, chairman of the committee.

Miss Slavenska and her own ballet company, "Slavenska Ballet Variante," will present a program of Balkan folk dances, Russian ballets and American folk dances. The company, which also features George Zoritch, principal dancer of the Ballet Russe, will introduce a number of new dance personalities as well as present Slavenska in some of her outstanding dance creations.

Born in Serbia, she is the first star ballerina to come from that country. She received her training at the Royal Academy of Music in Zagreb, Yugoslavia and under Preobrapinska in Paris. In Zagreb she became "Ballerina Assoluta" of the National Opera at the age of 16 and a few years later was called to the front ranks of the Ballet Russe with which she came to America.

Admission to the program will be $1.50 for students and children and $1.80 for adults.

SOUND STAGE STADIUM

A $30,000 section of Yankee Stadium, including the infield, has been built on a sound stage for "The Babe Ruth Story." Bill Bendix, who plays the swat king, goes to the makeup department this week to have his nose flattened out so he'll look more like the Babe than like Bill Bendix.

A big studio deliberately is delaying the announcement of a divorce for one of Hollywood's biggest stars. He recently became a papa and the studio is afraid the separation would wreck his career because the baby is so young.

A BENNY EXCLUSIVE

RONALD COLEMAN is turning down all radio guest shots with the explanation, "Jack Benney gets me exclusive." . . . Joel McCrea is selling most of his cattle because of the California drought. Too expensive to feed. Joel's western for Harry Sherman gets a new title, from "They Passed This Way" to "Four Faces West".

David O. Selznick is still cutting "The Paradine Case." Ethel Barrymore's role is now down to four minutes. How Ethel was nominated for an Oscar for this one is a major Hollywood mystery.

Spikes Jones is the only band leader in the country not screaming about bad business. He's grossing $69,000 every week on a nation wide tour. . . . Lawrence Oliver has the inside track on the plum title role in producer P. J. Wolfson's proposed biography of William Shakespeare.

Hollywood quotes: "Anyone who can't laugh, who hasn't a sense of humor, should not be in the film . . . "From the age of seven, a woman should know that men are fickle and spend the rest of her life learning how to hang on to the man she wants."—Sylvia Sidney.

Mrs. Errol Flynn Leaves Sam Goldwyn Speechless For Once

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, March 20 (AP)—Following an extended illness, Errol Flynn is back at work and as dashing as ever in his maroon tights.

Errol has four weeks of fencing and action scenes to do for "Don Juan" and then he'll take off for the West Indies again. He describes the picture as "twice as hard as any I've ever done before," but seems to be enjoying himself. I saw him kidding with some fellow actors, who have nicknamed him "P-38." It seems a recent magazine article referred to him as a paunchy 38. (Actually, he looks pretty trim.)

The actor told me a story about his wife, Nora, whose sense of humor he admires. She was observed by Sam Goldwyn while playing tennis at Palm Springs. Hastily introduced, the producer didn't catch her name but asked her if she had thought about going into the movies.

Goldwyn Speechless

"Come now, Mr. Goldwyn," Nora answered, "that's the same line my husband handed me five years ago."

Observers report that when Goldwyn was told her name he was speechless for the first time in his long career.

Lon Chaney will appear as two monsters in "Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein." Glenn Strange, playing Frankenstein's monster, broke his foot while trying to throw an actress through a window. So Lon, who is the wolf man, slipped on Strange's mask and completed the scene. You won't know the difference on the screen . . .

Deanna Durbin yearns for a songless movie. She'd like to do a straight dramatic role, but adds, "I'm afraid neither U-I nor the fans would permit it." She thinks her next after "Washington girl" will be a lavish color musical ("Bloomer Girl"?) which the studio shelved when the British tax was levied . . .

The British tax settlement is easing many tight conditions here. Actors expect their situation to be much better, and several stars are trying for new and better contracts from their studios. Yep, it looks as though the panic is over . . .

Palm Sunday Again Brings Hope To World; Benes' Speech Explained

HAVE COURAGE!

History Is Repeated

THREE historic events of almost simultaneous occurrence last week have brightened prospects for the survival of freedom among nations and men, and have provided added reasons for special thanksgiving on this Palm Sunday.

The events were: 1—The conclusion of the 50-year defense alliance among Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg; 2—President Truman's special message to Congress and the favorable national and world reaction to it; and; 3—The decision of the United Nations Security council to investigate Russia's virtual annexation of Czechoslovakia as another Soviet satellite.

So closely are these episodes related to each other they must be considered together to grasp their significance. The defense alliance probably would not have been formed if the nations involved had not been supremely confident of United States support. They would have been justified in the fear Russia would have used it as the excuse for an attack they could not repel.

It was more than coincidence, surely, that President Truman delivered his message, as he mentioned, at the very moment the treaty was being signed. It was more than coincidence that the Security council was emboldened that same afternoon to order the Czechoslovakian investigation over the violent opposition of Russia.

THE THREE events were born of the same cause—fear of Russia. They have the same basic purpose—security from Russia. They provide the most eloquent evidence that the democracies have reached the turning point in their dealings with the Soviet, and that they do not intend to repeat with Joe Stalin the mistake of appeasement they made with Adolf Hitler.

They provide an apparent guarantee that the Soviet, which has been unrestrained heretofore as it has gulped helpless neighbors one by one in the Hitler manner, will now encounter a united democracy in opposition to its expansion by threat of force.

They encourage hope that the United Nations will function more efficiently than it has before as an instrument for world peace and security—the purpose for which it was created. It is unlikely the UN will be as submissive to Russia's bullying and domineering tactics as in the past. Genuine progress appears to have been made toward placing curbs upon the veto which the Soviet has used so often and so effectively to nullify the efforts of the world organization.

BECAUSE of the three events, the prospects of continuing peace are brighter than they were seven days ago. War appears less likely because of the logical supposition that Russia will be cautious about provoking a clash with any force as strong as a united and aroused democracy.

But if the episodes fail to restrain the Soviet, they are an added guarantee the democracies, through their closer unity, will triumph over any challenge to the survival of everything freedom-loving men consider worthwhile.

Nearly 2,000 years ago on the first Palm Sunday, the Savior's Triumphal Entry of Jerusalem brought a message of courage, hope and peace to distressed and stricken humanity of that day and of all posterity. The message was intensified in brilliant assurance by subsequent events — the Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension.

Another triology of events within the past week renews hope and courage that men and nations have drawn nearer the attainment, and are more secure in the possession, of those things for which the Savior lived, died and lived again—peace and good will. They were ideals which reached their most perfect exemplification on the first Palm Sunday.

Or, if these blessings are not yet to be realized, men and nations have been given new strength and new courage on this Palm Sunday to continue their struggle for them, with confident assurance all will be achieved in God's own time.

A paragrapher refers to "a faint odor of politics." Some one should tell him that politics never has a faint odor. The mildest odor it comes in is rank.

OUR PLEDGE

We pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

He Just Keeps Rollin' Along

AN ENGLISHMAN TAKES A LOOK AT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE . . .

Gorer's "The American People"--Penetrating Study

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE: A STUDY IN NATIONAL CHARACTER." by Geoffrey Gorer; (Norton).

JUST as our learned anthropologists survey the lives and customs of Tibetans or Fiji islanders, this English author has investigated and explained us. He does not complain, he merely points. He didn't write this because he doesn't like us, for in fact he does. But how many of us are going to like him?

To be sure, he grants us national character. We are Americans all, birds of a feather, not distortions of our European ancestors. Nevertheless we are not the birds we traditionally think we are, and the character has flaws.

Few Basic Relationships

Gorer establishes a few basic relationships. As colonizers we consciously rejected Europe. In the same way our sons consciously reject us, the fathers, as to a degree we reject them when we hope they'll achieve a higher life than we managed for ourselves. This opens the way for the rule of the mother . . . "A man is known by his wife's fur coat." Her untested moral principles exact a preponderant influence on the child, but they are abandoned when he engages in business. He wants other people to like him, but he has yet to learn that a grin and a clap on the back are not a substitute for responsible action. He feels sorry personally for the Chinese, so that sways his judgment of China.

All this has led us into a lot of absurdities, inevitably. It may have led Gorer into some, too; some of his animadversions are applicable to people besides Americans. When he says we overvalue oratory, and cites Roosevelt, we can cite Churchill. There is no more national, reprehensible significance in our fondness for steak than in the taste which has caused the British to be called beef-eaters.

But these are little matters in this very penetrating study. Gorer is like an old-fashioned father spanking his child; it hurts him more than it hurts us, and it will do us a world of good.

"Miss Ulysses"

"MISS ULYSSES FROM PUKA-PUKA: THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A SEA TRADER'S DAUGHTER." by Florence (Johnny) Frisbie, edited and translated from Marquesan and Puka-Puka by her father, Robert Dean Frisbie; (Macmillan).

THE dramatic crossing of a new way of life with an old, and the sharp contrast of the exotic and primitive with the sophisticated and civilized are described here by an author who in her person is the fruit of this crossing and who in her experiences is the contrast herself.

"Johnny" is the daughter of an American writer making a living at copra trading in the romantic Pacific isles, and granddaughter of a native missionary. This book is the diary she began at 12, only four or five years ago. It is innocent and wise, childlike and mature in delightful combination.

"There are some very thrilling passages, such as the frightful battle among sharks, and the terrific hurricane which nearly washes an atoll out from under the marooned Frisbie family. But mostly it's a frank tale, told with refreshing charm, of a wide-eyed girl lifted all at once out of youth into maturity, driven from an idyllic existence into a modern world at war, forced to judge between her father's people and her mother's.

"Cross Section"

"CROSS SECTION: A COLLECTION OF NEW AMERICAN WRITING," edited by Edwin Seaver; (Simon & Schuster).

ONE satire, two novelettes, 15 short stories, an excerpt from a novel and two essays, all in 460 pages, make up this year's welcome packet from Seaver.

This fourth annual selection contains, it must be admitted, a few fourth-rate pieces. Isidor Schneider comes strangely to the defense of mediocrity. Teo Savory's fine prose is wasted on slim material; Arthur Mills Stratton's story is just an adventure piece; H. H. Riddleberger's idea is hoary. Even Jessamyn West, I regret to say, in satirizing the puerility of standardized civilization, works with an excellent notion which however gives no opportunity for the kind of writing which she does better than any living American.

But on the other hand, I gladly praise Robert M. Adams' criticism of Philip Wylie . . . and it was about time. For fiction, Robert Lowry's novelette, "The Wolf That Fed Us," is a first-rate account of GI's in Rome, outranking his "Casualty" and comparable to Burns' "The Gallery." There is fine reading, too, in the contributions of Wendell Wilcox, George P. Elliott, J. Edgar Grove, Bernice A. Evans, Ralph Gustavson,

Looking At Life ------ By Erich Brandeis

STUCK away in one of those "Questions and Answers" columns in today's newspaper appears this little item:

"Q. How many human emotions are there?

"A. There are three basic human emotions—fear, anger, and love. All others are linguistic modifications."

Not having any competent psychologist handy at the moment, let us take the information given above as correct.

Fear, anger and love.

Notice the order in which they are given.

Perhaps there we have the answer to the many questions that now confront us.

Fear comes first.

You, who read this column regularly, may remember that I have written about fear several times.

Russia fears us. We fear Russia.

The Arabs fear the Jews. The Jews fear the Arabs.

Next comes anger.

Anger may well be a result of fear.

You are scared of someone if you think that he has evil designs on you but you are not strong enough—or think you are not strong enough—to convince him that he had better forget his evil designs—or else.

The other fellow knows about your fear of him and he keeps on goading you. The more afraid you become of him, the more arrogant he becomes, because fear shows itself as plainly as the spots on the face of a kid with the measles.

Finally the fellow becomes so overbearing, so nasty that angry that you start a fight, and eventually you get so angry that you strat a fight.

That is the way family brawls start, and neighborhood quarrels.

And fear and anger are the stuff of which wars are made.

HOW does the third emotion, love, fit in the picture?

Love cannot come until fear and anger are overcome.

Love is confidence, faith, understanding.

This will never be a world fit to live in, until LOVE takes the place of fear and anger.

When will that be?

When the Golden Rule, as set down in the twelfth verse of the seventh chapter of Matthew, becomes not only a quotation, but a living and universal law:

"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

And not until then.

REDS PULLED TRICK

Marshall Has Appeal

By DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—It never got by the Czech censors, but those speeches of President Benes, supposedly backing up the new Communist government, weren't exactly made by him at all. They were transcribed records put together by the Communists. Here is the uncensored story of what happened.

PEARSON

As soon as the Communists started their putsch, 120 Red policemen surrounded Benes' palace, remaining there day and night. Knowing trouble was imminent, Benes had previously arranged with anti-Communist Czech Army officers to protect the country. However, all phone calls from the presidential palace were cut off. Benes could talk to no one.

After the putsch, Communist Premier Gottwald asked Benes to speak on the radio and give his blessing to the new government. Benes agreed to speak, but not to bless the government.

The Communists countered by telling Benes that the streets were unsafe; that he could not go to the radio station to deliver his speech in person. So a record was made in the presidential palace. Gottwald wanted to hear the speech before it was given to the public.

When he played over the record, he refused to let it go on the air, asked Benes to rewrite it. Benes made a few changes, then recorded his speech again.

Whereupon the Communist took a dozen or so sentences from the record, and used this to broadcast to the Czech people.

Note—Premier Gottwald is so afraid British agents may spirit Benes out of the country that the sickly President is still being watched day and night.

Marshall And Senators' Wives

Secretary of State Marshall made a direct appeal the other day to the wives of senators and congressmen to help quiet war hysteria and calm Washington's jittery nerves.

At an off-the-record meeting of the Women's Congressional club, the soldier-diplomat rumbled: "A lot of people in the past have been emotional over the prospects of war, but they have gone beyond that now. They have become passionate."

Admitting that these are "trying times," Marshall urged the wives to "keep cool" and used "common sense."

"Of course," he added with a flicker of a smile, "you cant divorce emotion entirely, because we are not made that way."

The women were warned in advance that they could not bring guests. For the first time in the club's history, the meeting was kept strictly off-the-record.

Marshall recalled that Russia had vowed to fight the Marshall plan after it was first announced.

"They will do everything they can to fight it," he added.

On the other hand, he pointed out that some rough sailing had to be expected. Recalling his visit to the governors' conference in Salt Lake City last year, Marshall described the governors' clash over the tax question.

"I asked them," said the secretary, "if the governors of the United States couldn't agree, how they expected 16 nations to get together."

IT all ended in a cozy press conference, with everybody forgiving everybody else. But feelings were decidedly otherwise when members of the House foreign affairs committee met behind closed doors to consider the Republican "one package" bill for both military and economic aid to all nations fighting Communism.

What aroused the Democrats was the fact that the Republicans were holding secret meetings without the Democrats — a highly unusual procedure.

"Well, I'm glad you gentlemen have finally seen fit to tell us what's going on around here," protested Democratic John Kee of West Virginia. "We had to learn about this bill from the newspapers. That's no way to conduct a congressional committee. It's customary to do business with the minority as well as the majority represented."

"That's how I feel, also," broke in Democratic Mike Mansfield of Montana. "It's one of the most inconsiderate things that has happened to me since I came to Congress. Ever since last Thursday, when you cancelled a full committee meeting, we Democrats have been kept in the dark about this legislation, except what we picked up from reading the papers."

"Well, I guess you've got an explanation coming," sheepishly grinned Ohio's Vorys, Republican. "There's a human element involved here. We've had some problems to iron out with our own party members and with our leaders before we could bring this new bill up in committee. We weren't trying to slight the Democrats. Very frankly, we were trying to get our own house in order."

Republicans Privately Split

Vorys didn't say so, but two committee Republicans, Lawrence Smith of Wisconsin and Bartel Jonkman of Michigan, are privately opposed to the "one package" bill, but had been kept in line by Speaker Joe Martin.

"We have talked this over with Mr. Martin and Mr. Halleck (House majority leader) and they feel the best way to expedite action is to put all this aid into one bundle," continues Vorys. "Some of our Republican members, the leaders feel, will vote quicker for legislation in this form, because they know then that we won't be coming back and asking for more later.

"The leaders feel that to tackle this problem piecemeal will only invite dangerous delays in helping countries that need our help."

"Well, I still think the quickest way to get action is to bring up the Marshall plan bill already passed by the Senate," contended Kee. "It's already through one House and won't meet with delays and controversies that this measure is certain to invite in both Houses. Military and economic aid don't mix, in my opinion."

However, Kee and his Democratic colleagues lacked the votes to clinch their position. When Vorys moved that the "one package" bill be considered in committee, the boys voted on strict party lines, 12 Republicans for and 7 Democrats against.

The late Wilson Mizner once said, "A good listener is not only popular everywhere, but after a while he learns something." Well, maybe he does, but it's a slow process, as those who do most of the talking invariably know very little.

SURVEY SHOWS LATEST TRENDS

French, Italians Oppose Reds

By GEORGE GALLUP, Director American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., March 20.—With the entire world anxiously watching the progress of Communism the attitudes of voters in two key European countries today assume great significance.

Evidence furnished by public opinion polls just completed in France and Italy indicates that in those two nations the anti-Communist forces still hold the support of a majority of voters.

GALLUP

The polls were conducted by the French Institute of Public Opinion, and the Italian Institute of Public Opinion, DOXA, two of the eleven foreign affiliates of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

OLDER VOTERS OPPOSE REDS

In Italy, where the threat of Communist domination is serious and immediate, the latest poll of political sentiment indicates that the Communist Party and its affiliates probably would not become the majority party if the elections were held today. Moreover, if the older voters, who are overwhelmingly opposed to Communism, can be induced to go to the polls in large numbers on April 18, the possibility that the Communist Party can obtain a majority is remote.

In France, General Charles de Gaulle receives the largest single number of votes to succeed Robert Schuman as President of the Council, should the present government be overthrown. In this popularity test the combined strength of two Communist Party officials, Maurice Thorez and Jacques Duclos, amounts to about two-thirds of General de Gaulle's. Total votes received by personalities of the centrist parties outweight the support given either de Gaulle or the two Communists.

FURTHER evidence in both nations of strong opposition to the spread of communism comes from another poll. The vast majority of Italian and French people, according to this survey, approve the Marshall Plan, which is, of course, directly contrary to the international Communist propaganda line. In both countries the approval vote was roughly five to one.

Strong evidence exists in a previous survey that the people in France and Italy do not believe Russian charges that the United States is motivated by imperialistic designs. Quite to the contrary, sizable majorities are inclined to label Russia itself an aggressor nation and to believe the United States would fight only in self-defense.

Indication that the French people are convinced their destiny is closely tied to the United States rather than to Russia is given in a poll showing that even out of ten voters feel we will do more than any other nation to promote economic recovery in France.

Moreover, there is firm conviction on the part of French voters that an economic union of Western European countries must be organized as a bulwark against the strength of the eastern bloc of nations Russia has built. Two out of three votes approve such a union composed of France, England, the Benelux countries and Western Germany.

SURVEY SHOWS OPPOSITION

In Italy:

"In Italy's interest which party or group should become stronger?"

It must be emphasized that this question asks only what party the respondent thinks should be stronger and does not ask which way he is going to vote. For that reason the results in no sense constitute a prediction of the election but indicate current sentiment.

The Christian-Democrat Party is headed by Alcide de Gasperi, the present premier, and is the leading anti-Communist party.

Aid To Veterans Is Said To Be Unequal

WASHINGTON, March 20 (U.P.)—Direct government expenditures for veterans' activities in the last fiscal year were the equivalent of $366 per veteran, a study of Veterans' Administration records shows.

Excluding transfers of funds or expenditures made from revolving funds, the government made direct appropriation expenditures of $6,678,000,000 during the fiscal year ending last June 30 for an estimated veteran population then of 18,237,000.

Each veteran did not receive anywhere near his proportionate share, the records show. That is because somewhat fewer than 7,000,000 of the 14,300,000 World war II veterans did not participate in any type of veteran program or benefit under the veterans' administration.

Tuition Adds Up

Others receiving up to $500 a year for tuition in educational institutions and at the same time received up to $90 a month for living allowances.

Still hundreds of thousands of others were drawing $20 a week for up to 52 weeks for unemployment compensation, and others required expensive hospitalization and medical care.

Expenditures by states shows that the amount spent per veteran was higher generally in southern states and some northeastern and western states than in the middle west and northern states.

All of the middle western states had a higher percentage of veteran population than the veterans in those states received proportionately from the federal government.

Illinois, for instance, had 6.07 per cent of the total veteran population, but only 5 per cent of the total spent went to Illinois veterans. If Illinois had received a per quota share based on population, veterans in that state would have received approximately $405,354,000 last year instead of $339,900,000.

Other Side of Picture

Veterans in New York State would have received an additional $60,000,000 on that basis.

On the other side of the picture, veterans in Alabama would have received somewhere around $119,800,000 instead of $152,500,000.

The District of Columbia, with less than three-fourths of one per cent of the total western population, received 2.8 per cent of the money spent. That was because the nation's capital is charged in the break-down with the full expense of operating the Veterans' Administration central office.

Southern states receiving a higher percentage of money spent than they have in veteran population are Texas, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Arkansas.

Rhode Island and Massachusetts in the east, and Colorado, Arizona, Oklahoma and New Mexico in the west, fall into that category.

Clever Satire?

THE reader will have to decide for himself whether Prematurely Gay (Morrow) is clever satire or just plain burlesque. He will, however, have no trouble making up his mind to the fact that Jack Iams is a funny man with an eye to amusing situations.

Something had gone wrong with the sales of Heigh-Ho Silver, Thaddeus Hollister's marvelous hair tonic that turned men's hair gray and made them look more distinguished .So Thaddeus called in Whitman Blake, demon publicity man, to put te ailing tonic back on the map. Dallas Woman Turns Out Huge Volume Of Court Records Every Day In Typing Job

BY BOB WEDDLE
United Press Staff Writer

The physical efficiency experts who say as much energy can be expended in a day's typing as in a day of ditch-digging may be right — if the typing is done like Mrs. Naomi Strong does it.

According to her boss, federal court reporter Tom C. Irby of Dallas, Mrs. Strong is the fastest typist in Texas — which, of course, also makes her the fastest typist in the world.

As proof of his boast Irby cites one day recently when she typed about 42,000 words in one day — a total of 168 double-spaced pages, each running about 250 words.

Took Ten Hours

Mrs. Strong, who describes herself as a "timid soul" and says "I don't really care for all this publicity," modestly points out that she didn't actually type the 42,000 words in eight hours.

"We start typing soon after court opens at 9:15 or 9:30 a. m.," she says. "In that particular case, we finished about 8:15 that night."

Allowing for time out for meals, you can figure that Mrs. Strong actually spent some 10 hours at her typewriter during the day. And she accounted for each minute of that 10 hours with 70 typewritten words.

"Our job is to type up all the testimony in a case the same day it is given so it will be ready the next morning," she explains. An ordinary day of 150 pages is the usual thing.

Mrs. Strong doesn't use an electromatic typewriter. She uses an ordinary manual type but insists on a certain make. She also has her favorite repair man to keep it in adjustment for her extra light touch.

She doesn't know just what her working speed is, but on her most recent speed test she typed 126 words per minute.

Irby and his partner, Denis Dineen, take testimony in court in shorthand relays. While one writes, the other dictates into a recording machine and Mrs. Strong and another typist transcribe from the recording.

When she gets home at night, the machine still squawks in her ears and she continues to hear the clickety-clack of the typewriter keys.

After Mrs. Strong's daughter married, she decided she wanted another child. Her second daughter is now three. She now has a grandson two years old, and the two children are growing up together.

The lubricating value of oil is due to its chemical structure and composition, not to its viscocity.

NEUROSIS AND FAINTING SPELLS

Case History No. 1900; Young girl; Age 7; Symptoms: Severe nervousness; Fainting spells; Loss of weight and appetite; Arms and legs goes to sleep occasionally; Uncomfortable sensation at the base of Brain. Has great deal of neck trouble.

HISTORY OF ACCIDENTS

CAME TO STEPHENS CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC

The mother of this girl brought her to the Stephens Chiropractic Clinic for an examination of her spine. X-Ray spinal pictures were made which revealed bad distortions of vertebrae of the spinal column. The Neurocalometer (nerve test) determined the severity of nerve interference between her brain at one place and the affected regions of her body at the other place

RESULTS FROM SPECIFIC CHIROPRACTIC SERVICE

This girl began a course of scientific chiropractic service. In a few weeks time all the above symptoms began to improve and when she had completed her course of specific chiropractic health service she looked as tho she were a different person. Now her nervousness is entirely gone with no more fainting spells; she has gained in weight; her arms and legs do not go to sleep; no more pain at base of brain; and, no more neck trouble. Her mother is so pleased with her improvement that she has also become a patient of this clinic and is very pleased over her results so far.

With the arrival of the NEUROCALOGRAPH, a product of General Electric, a greater accuracy of nerve analyses can be determined and now we can take cases who are worse and restore them to health quicker
