MAYOR ISSUES PLEA FOR COMMUNITY WIDE RED CROSS ROLL CALL SUPPORT

Mayor J. R. Lowrie, one of the first residents of Dawson county to enroll this year as a member of the American Red Cross, today issued a proclamation, in which he appealed to the local citizenship to support the national organization in the annual Roll Call which opens November 11.

"As mayor of the city of Lamesa I deem it my duty and privilege and duty to call public attention to the annual membership campaign of the American Red Cross which is to be conducted here between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11 to 30.

"The Red Cross, universally recognized as 'the greatest mother', is solely dependent upon individual backing. Lacking this support the organization would be unable to carry on its noble work during disasters among War Veterans, in the health field, first aid, life saving, and its numerous other tasks.

"Every local citizen can answer the Roll Call appeal—a community's challenge—in full confidence that every dollar contributed to this cause will be multiplied in usefulness."

J. R. LOWRIE,

Mayor of Lamesa, Texas.

Campaign Chairman Predicts Success During Roll Call

Success in the forthcoming membership campaign of the American Red Cross was predicted today by J. E. (Ed) Haynes who recently was appointed Roll Call Chairman for Dawson county.

"Although the dates from November 11 to 30 have been set aside for the Roll Call this year," the campaign leader said, "I am convinced Dawson county's membership goal can be reached or exceeded in a much briefer period. For many years, and particularly during the economic depression, the outstanding performance of this humanitarian organization has become common knowledge. Any results other than a swift, successful campaign are inconceivable when we realize how much the existence of the Red Cross means to this community, state and nation."

The Roll Call chairman added that local campaign machinery is being rapidly perfected with an aim of carrying the organizations message to every adult in the county between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving; and will greatly appreciate the cooperation of each and every citizen of the county in making this drive a success.

Public Library Begins Drive

Campfire Girls First To Respond

The Library Drive began successfully this month, and much enthusiasm is being shown by everyone who has been asked to help during this campaign.

The Camp Fire Girls under the direction of Miss Asalie Key, councillor, was the first organization asked for support to respond with a pledge to raise ten dollars for the Library fund. These girls are raising their pledge from the sale of candy, cookies and popcorn, and have already paid $2.82 of the pledged amount. The young ladies who are actively engaged in this project are: Marjorie Roberts, Frances Lindsey, Helen Ruth Allen, Eleanor Simpson, Joe Ervin Bailey, Mary Milroy Kelly, Genelle Randle, Christelle Marr, and Lillian Mitchell.

Five other organizations have been asked to pledge themselves to raise definite amounts during the drive and several committees have been appointed by the Library Board to arrange various money raising projects. Several containers have been placed in various business houses where people may drop their spare pennies for the Library.

A good response has been made to the appeal for books. Twenty friends of the library are soliciting five books each from their friends. These books are coming in rapidly and the following are already on the shelves and ready for use:

"Black Beauty", Sewell; "Billy Whiskers", Wheeler; "Emmy Lou's Road to Grace", Martin; "Religion of the Newspaper Man", "Silent Reader", "Miss Minerva and William Greenhill"; "New Arabian Nights"; all collected and donated by Jack Keisling.
"The Hunchback of Notre Dame", Hugo; donated by Okylene Bullard.
"The Outlaw Years", Coates; "A Note in Music", Lehman; collected and donated by Mrs. Tom Wood.

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM TO BE STAGED FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10

The local American Legion Post and the Auxiliary are making plans for a very interesting program commemorating Armistice Day, the program to be given on Friday, November 10th, instead of the 11th which comes on Saturday.

The parade will start at 10:30 A. M. at the high school building, under the direction of Judge Philip Yonge, and will end on the west side of the square. A patriotic program will follow on the court house lawn.

Invocation will be given by Rev. A. L. Dennis, and the main address by Rev. Eugene Surface. Several other readings and patriotic musical numbers will follow including a duet played by Richard Crawley and Conway King.

After the main address the audience will be dismissed by the blowing of "Taps" by Mr. King. All ex-service men and their families will then go to the Legion hall where a basket lunch will be served by the ladies auxiliary. All ex-service men are especially urged to attend this and to bring the wellfilled basket.

The program will end in time for all to attend the Slaton-Lamesa football game.

School Warrants May Be Used To Pay Part of School Taxes

The Lamesa School Board has again passed the resolution that deficiency warrants paid school employees may be used to pay the local maintenance part of a tax-payers taxes if such have been obtained without discount. This resolution was passed after a statement was received from state superintendent, Dr. L. A. Woods, that such practice is not a violation of the recently enacted warrant law.

The resolution applies to 1933 taxes and the warrants on the current school year may be used as above stated.

Mrs. Lucille Olson Is New Librarian

Friends of the public library will be pleased to know that another day has been added to the time of "open days" with the coming of a new librarian.

Mrs. Lucille Olson has been elected as librarian and the board of trustees feel that she will be an added asset to the service.

Mrs. Olson received her college training in T. W. C. at Fort Worth and Texas Tech. While in T. W. C. she was assistant editor of the college paper and spent much time in library work also.

She taught in the public schools of Sweetwater during her residence there.

The library will be open from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, hereafter.

Miss Eula Wilson of Sulphur Springs, arrived Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Truman Campbell.

LAMESA GETS LEGION CONVENTION IN 1934

Lamesa and Allen Houston Post No. 330 of the American Legion are to have the honor of entertaining the 5th Division Legion Convention in June 1934.

The 5th Division comprises three congressional districts, the 16th, 17th and 18 and has in its borders more than 125 Legion Posts and 3,750 members.

This will be the largest convention to ever come to Lamesa. There will be some 500 or more ex-service men here for two days the date to be decided by the Division Commander at a later date.

The following members of the Allen Houston Post attended the 18th District convention at Snyder the past week end: Judge Philip Yonge, Joe Spikes, Henry Faulkenberry, Clyde Backenstoss, J. F. Smith and Sam Richardson.

It was at this convention that it was voted to have the division convention at Lamesa.

Judge Yonge spoke to the convention Sunday afternoon and he made such an impression on the convention that when the time came to vote on the 5th Division convention city and Mr. Yonge made an appeal and invited them to come to Lamesa, they voted unanimously selecting Lamesa.

The American Legion Program in brief for the coming year is as follows:

1. Concentration of Legion activities on the fundamentals of our organization.
 2. Development of our Child Welfare Program.
 3. To take care of our disabled veterans their widows and orphans.
- The American Legion was the first national organization to endorse the NRA and to pledge their support to President Roosevelt.

Buddle join the American Legion now. Big things are planned for Allen Houston Post during the year 1934.

No Fee Necessary For Reimbursement

It is not necessary for any farmer in the pink bull worm area to pay any sort of fee to anyone in order to get his share of the $500,000 reimbursement fund.

That was the announcement Saturday by State Representative Fritz Englehard, chairman of the committee which approves the claims. He said that he had received reports that people were going through the pink bollworm belt offering to collect the claims for a fee.

A claims committee is soon to be appointed by the governor, and Rep. Englehard said it would not be necessary to pay a fee to get the claims presented or heard.

It is to be hoped that the governor loses no time in setting up this claims commission. The farmers have waited a long time for their money, and most of them need it badly at this time.

TORNADES SNOW UNDER TAHOKA BY SCORE OF 55-0

In a game that was featured by the absolute inability of the Tahoka team to make any headway the Tornadoes defeated the Tahoka team by a score of 55 to 0.

Tahoka made only two first downs both being made possible by completed passes and as both were in mid-field no harm was done. Tahoka never threatened to score and were past the fifty yard line only on two occasions and then promptly lost the ball. The Lamesa first and second teams took time about playing and one team scored as well as the other.

Several long runs were made by Wilkes, Johnson, Gable, Berry and in fact all the backfield men of the Lamesa squad. Both teams were penalized frequently slowing up the game considerably.

Just before the end of the first half with the score standing 37 to 0 for the Tornadoes the Tahoka team threatened to quit, and in fact four of their players started to walk off the field. However their coach prevailed upon them to continue, and at the half must have given them a real lecture for they came back into the game and played a whole lot better football the second half.

Attendance at this game was rather light on account of the cold and threatening weather.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO BE RUN FROM SLATON

In one of the most important games of the season, the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes will meet the Slaton Tigers on the local field at 3:30 Friday afternoon in what is scheduled to be the best game of this season.

We understand that the Slaton bunch will be here practically 100 per cent, including their pep squad and band. A special train will be run from Slaton here with more than 500 fans on board. Two hundred have already signed up so that the above estimate is conceded to be about correct. The special will arrive here about 2:00 o'clock.

It is urged that the Lamesa people be extra courteous and nice to this bunch from Slaton. Treat them as they treated the Lamesa fans last year. They will be the guests of Lamesa so let's treat them as guests should be treated. Meet them at the train and carry them to the ball park and then regardless of who wins take them back to the train.

Both teams are on edge for this game and although Slaton was beaten last week by the Brownfield team by a score of 19 to 7 and Lamesa having previously won over the Cubs by a score of 25 to 0 the local boys are not expecting a set-up and are looking for a hard battle. The Tigers are after revenge for their defeat of last week and their claws have been sharpened and resharpener for this contest and they are expecting to go into the game fighting to the last whistle.

We are not making any predictions as to the outcome of this game, except to say that whoever wins will have to concede that they had a hard time doing so.

Let's all go to this game, support the team you want to win and have a big time doing so. Let's go fans.

Lamesa Has Largest Trades Day

First Monday, November 6 was Lamesa's biggest Trades Day. Merchants had to put on extra clerks to take care of the crowds and the large number of buyers who flooded the town.

More than 2,000 people, estimated, were present at the usual merchants program at four o'clock on the Court House Lawn.

Already big plans are being made for next First Monday, December 4, with the expectations of even a larger crowd than last First Monday.

Besides being able to obtain the real bargains that the merchants of Lamesa have to offer on these Trades Days, the merchants fun program at four o'clock gives a lot of entertainment and joy to all those who attend.

Be sure and keep in mind next Trades Day. Big things are going to happen. Ask Lamesa merchants all through the month for tickets to the big show at 4:00 o'clock on the court house lawn.

Local Stores To Close Friday At Noon

Lamesa merchants will close their places of business at noon Friday the 10th, in recognition of Armistice Day programs. The American Legion program, the Lamesa High School Homecoming, and the Slaton-Lamesa football game, all have been set up from Saturday, November 11, when they were scheduled to Friday, November 10th. Merchants have agreed to cooperate in closing their stores on the afternoon of the 10th instead of closing them on Saturday. They will remain open all day Saturday according to plans.

Work on Highway No. 9 To Start Monday

The work of grading and drainage on the south part of Highway No. 9, will begin on Monday morning of next week according to contractors, Olan Spear and James Spencer of Alvord.

The work will be started three miles from Lamesa to be worked back this way, the other part to be worked when this is finished.

Local labor will be used as much as possible.

The local schools have the hitching rack they needed so badly. It is north of the elementary school.

The drinking fountains have been erected on the school grounds. The elementary school football team paid for them, by playing against neighboring teams.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Trench Silos are cheap to build, cheap to fill, save all the feed and are easy to get feed out of, says the county agent of Jim Wells county in calling attention to the 51 silos in use in this county, of which 25 are trench.

Killing chickens the A & M way (sticking) is just as easy as the old way and gives much better quality, says Mrs. Clyde Mosely, Hopkins county farm woman who cans chickens, ground, cubed, and as tamales. "I'll wring a chicken's head no more," she declares.

Making sorghum for sale proved profitable for Ben Hubbert who ran the only syrup mill in Shackelford county this year. From three irrigated acres he made 625 gallons which sold readily for 60 cents per gallon. It was his first year and the overhead was high but in the long run it will be a good proposition, the county agent says.

Proper storage space is one of the big secrets in dressing well and making clothes last a long time. This simple point is one of the features of the clothing work of home demonstration agents. It is so simple it's apt to be overlooked, they say. The cost of a good clothes closet is negligible. A Parker county woman has just reported a good one 4 by 12 feet fixed up for 12 cents.

Cotton made $3 more per acre on terraced land planted on the two-row and sown one plan than in solid cotton.

ton on terraced land, B. N. Jackson of Limestone county says. Because of this demonstration he plans to terrace all his land this winter, the county agent reports.

Thirty Menard county 4-H club calves averaged 2.6 pounds gain a piece per day for the first 90 days on feed. The ration at the end of the period was 50 per cent corn, 17 1/2 per cent barley or milo, 20 per cent oats and 12 1/2 per cent cottonseed cake. Calves nursed their mothers.

Hall Of States Attracts Worlds Fair Visitors

Chicago, October 12.—With a total of more than 17,000,000 visitors to A Century of Progress—the Chicago World's Fair—checked through the turnstiles, approximately 60,000,000 persons have seen the state exhibits, in their assembly in the Hall of States.

The multiple of more visitors to the state exhibits occurs because each person going to the Hall of States visits not only one but several and sometimes all of the state showings.

A total check, on the grounds for a sufficient number of days to give a normal shows that on any given day any exhibit will attract one person in seven of the total that enter the grounds. On this basis, taken as a whole, to date 2,700,000 persons have visited each state exhibit. This gives a total for all state exhibits of approximately 60,000,000 visitors.

Check by the individual state exhibits shows that a number slightly greater than the normal visits there. It runs closer to a sixth than one seventh. On the basis of one seventh, however, most of the states will, by the end of the Fair, have had an attendance ranging from their own complete population up to three times their complete population.

A few of the more populous states like Illinois, New York and Ohio will hardly reach their own attendance. The small population states will vastly exceed it. California and Florida, two resort states, in which interest is high will each have an attendance in excess of their population.

The states exhibiting are Wisconsin, Illinois, New York, Iowa, Washington, Ohio, North Dakota, Georgia, California, Indiana, Minnesota, Texas, Missouri, South Dakota, Mississippi, Michigan, Colorado, Florida, Alaska and Arkansas.

Theodore Hardee, executive officer of the California exhibit is authority for the statement that the current Fair has given the states a greater opportunity for their own promotion than any other ever given. He has attended fairs and other events for the past thirty years.

REGISTRATION OF TEXAS BIRTHS WILL BE MADE

Dr. W. A. Davis, registrar of vital statistics on the State Bureau of Health, has received notification from the Federal Bureau of the Census that Texas has been admitted into the registration area for births, according to notices received at this office Monday. A short time ago the State was admitted to the death registration area.

This means that more than 90 per cent of the births and deaths occurring in Texas are registered with the bureau at Austin, the exact percentage not having been announced. Texas now can compare its health and birth rate with those of other states.

C. of C. Doing Lots Of Good Work

Some people think a chamber of commerce is just one of those things—perhaps an unnecessary evil. But an organization such as ours, one that is getting things done—we can afford to boast of a bit. Our highway program, drought measures, relief grants, feeding projects, pink boll worm claim bill, Trades Days, Goodwill Tours, Liquidating loans, as major projects, our county and community is being well taken care of by a well set up and live wire chamber of commerce.

Mrs. Clyde Backenstoss was a Lubbock visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Waldrip spent Sunday in Sweetwater. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Waldrip's mother, Mrs. J. T. Nichols who will visit here for several weeks.

Mrs. J. R. Brock was ill for a few days this week.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

The world crowns success; God crowns faithfulness.

It is better that we know "The Rock of Ages" than "the age of rocks."

He that will be angry, and not sin, must not be angry but for sin.—John Trapp.

In spite of what God knows about us, and that is more than we know about ourselves, he loves us.—Revelation.

Though I am always in haste, I am never in a hurry.—John Wesley.

"Religion does not consist in being good; that is only a result, religion is knowing God."

"Revival would break out if we Christians got rid of sin in our lives."—Bishop Linton.

We praise God at intervals with our words, but our whole life should be a ceaseless song of praise to him.—Augustine.

SOME STARTLING EXAMPLES

In the post war adjustment of veterans' claims, startling examples of spelling and grammar came to light in many of the letters sent to the veteran's bureau. Some of the more laughable examples are published in the Iowa Publisher just for fun. But the Publisher warns before one laughs too heartily, to be sure one is not capable of making as ludicrous blunders as those cited. On the serious side, in practically all of them there is reflected a deep earnestness, and in many cases a desperation born of dire need.

Here are a few of the examples:

I am a widow and all I have is on the front.

We have your letter and reply to yours truly, he was born and brung up in this house according to your instruction. I am his grandfather and grandmother.

I have got no pay from my husband and will soon be forced to lead an imortal life.

Please let me know if John has in an application for a wife and child. My son is in the 158 Invancery. Please let me know if he is living or dead and if so what is his address.

I have not heard from John since he was sent to a constipation camp in Germany.

I received my insurance polish and have since moved my post office.

I am wife and only air.

You asked for allotment number. I have our boys and two girls.

Please correct my name as I could not go under a consumed one.

I am writing in the Y. M. C. A. with the piano playing in my uniform.

I am a lone woman and parsley dependent.

Both sides of our parents are old and poor.

ARMISTICE TODAY We Celebrate PEACE

We have discovered the Waste and Futility and Horror of War. Our eyes have pierced the veil of hypocrisy and seen the too-long-hidden Greed of nations.

But what of the sacrifice made by our war heroes? What of their idealism? All reverence! They were beautifully brave men. They loved their country. They gave themselves to a Cause.

And we pray that their Cause was not an illusion, that the "War to End War" will prove more than a catch-phrase. It will . . . if the world has learned to honor its Warriors as the givers of Peace.

On Saturday of this week the nations of the civilized world will celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice, that truce which brought to a halt the bloodiest conflict of all times.

Who among us can ever forget the wild thrill which swept over our own country when that glorious news was sent over cables, telegraph, and telephone wires? Who can ever forget the surge of thanksgiving and hope, thanksgiving for the safety of loved ones, hope that others might be found safe after months of agonizing silence and uncertainty? And the signing of the Armistice itself was one of the most dramatic events in the history of mankind.

As early as October 4 emissaries had been sent through the Swiss government to President Wilson, requesting an armistice. In many quarters it was believed that German reasons for applying to Wilson was that they believed that he would be more lenient than the other Allied leaders.

On November 8 German representatives met General Foch and other Allied leaders in a railway car at Reims. At five o'clock on the morning of November 11th, an Armistice was finally signed, to go into effect at eleven o'clock of that same day.

In the rear everyone knew that the war was to be ended at 11 o'clock, but in the front lines no one knew it except the officers. Doughboys knew nothing except that their orders were to attack. At Stenay they had fought their way across the flooded river and delivered the town at the very moment the fighting ended. They fought to the last minute. At 10:40, at 10:50, at 10:55 they were still fighting. But as the hour struck everywhere on the line in France was the same sudden and profound silence as the guns ceased for the first time that terrible chorus from the North Sea to Switzerland.

An eyewitness describes the scene in unforgettable words:

"Over hills in the east which had been the scene of bloody warfare almost constantly since the conflict began, and the scene of perhaps the world's most bitter battle where the Crown Prince had so long tried to take Verdun, there fell an almost unearthly calm. Where the roar of a million shells had of ten torn the air, one could have heard a sparrow twitter there. Torn, twisted, and tortured was the land. Of all the woods no tree was left whole; of pretty villages only blackened and stark bits of moss covered and shattered stone; of roads there was not a trace. Somber shadow and silence were over all and would have seemed ominous had one not known it was harmless now. Soon the landscape was filled with cheering men. No Fourth of July in the United States ever saw such fireworks as threw red, green, and blue streaks across that foggy sky. Far away was poor, torn, suffering Verdun, now suddenly turned into a place of victory. Gathering darkness that night hid its wounds and one saw the French tricolor and the Stars and Stripes flying from housetops and parapets made visible by searchlights. On top of the grizzled fortress walls a band half French and half Yankee, played all the tunes it knew. Through the streets marched rejoicing Yankees and their Allies."

Fifteen years have passed since that memorable day, and the causes and events of the World War have grown vague and indefinable. It remains for those far wiser than we to say whether or not the sacrifice was rewarded, whose the victory. But the emotion, the surging pride, in those gallant lads from the north, south, east and west is still an integral part of our national consciousness. This pride burns with a white flame in our lives today; in its light we find the answer to mankind's eternal question—and that is "Greater love hath no man than he lay down his life for his friend."

All honor to those blithe youngsters and all glory to their hallowed memory. May their sleep be sweet and peaceful.

out the nation between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11 to 30.

The Red Cross is no stranger in Texas. In the last year its sympathetic hand has reached into the homes of thousands of our citizens, lessening distress among those in need, assisting service and ex-service men and their dependents, reducing accidental deaths, and promoting good citizenship among youths of the world through its Junior Red Cross. These are among the services to which this humanitarian agency has dedicated itself.

Although the first skirmishes against the war on depression already have been won, there can be no truce for the Red Cross. Disasters in this country will continue, and health education tomorrow will be more vitally necessary than ever as a result of reduced family budgets of today. The Red Cross is an indispensable part of our community life.

Following the disastrous hurricane which struck the southern part of our state on last Labor day, the Red Cross came promptly to the assistance of the stricken citizens, contributing generously and working harmoniously with other authorized agencies in providing relief. During the Roll Call period from November 11 to 30, this organization has its only opportunity to replenish its funds, a large part of which is used in the relief of suffering caused by many disasters each year. In humanity's name I urge the citizenship of Texas to respond wholeheartedly to the approaching membership campaign of the Red Cross.

I, therefore, Miriam A. Ferguson, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the Week of November 11 to 30 as Red Cross Week.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin this 18 day of October, A. D. 1933.

Miriam A. Ferguson,
Governor of Texas.

TEXAS BAPTISTS CELEBRATE CENTURY OF PROGRESS

The Baptist General Convention of Texas will hold its 87th annual session at Fort Worth beginning November 7th, will this year celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Baptist work in Texas. The Convention program will give large space to "Our Century of Progress," and will present the story of the first Baptist organization in Texas. This church was organized in Illinois and moved to Texas as a unit crossing the Sabine River in November, 1833.

When the first group of Baptists came to Texas one hundred years ago there were less than fifty Baptists in the State. At this time there are more than five hundred thousand white Baptists and a total of more than a million of all races.

Centennial Put Before Legislature

Austin, Oct. 6.—The Texas Legislature was asked today to make an appropriation for a suitable one hundredth birthday anniversary celebration for the Lone Star State.

Plans for holding a Texas centennial in 1936 have been under way for several years. Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today sent a message to the Legislature submitting the centennial proposal.

Before a joint session of the two houses Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas said the Legislature could "well afford" to appropriate $2,500,000 toward defraying expenses of the celebration, which it was hoped would be such as to attract attention of all nations.

He said it would be a "historic tragedy" for Texans to let the state's one hundredth anniversary pass without taking fitting cognizance of it.

Others who addressed the Legislature, urging it to make an appropriation for the centennial, included Lowry Martin of Corsicana, Tom Etheridge of San Antonio and Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls.

School District To Collect Taxes

The school board of Lamesa Independent School District at their regular meeting on last Monday night had up as a matter for consideration the advisability of taking steps to collect delinquent taxes due the district. The final decision on the tax matter was that the board would meet in adjourned session on next Monday night, November 13, for the purpose of considering a contract with an attorney on the proposition of collecting such delinquent taxes.

The board authorized the following statement regarding their position. The local board has delayed the matter of enforcing school tax collection as long as it seems possible. There are some taxes which would soon be out-dated and on which no suits could be filed. The delinquent taxes have impaired the finances of the district to the extent that the semi-annual payments due on bonds cannot be met and proper amounts are needed to keep the sinking funds up to requirements, and no funds are available to meet current expenses for services which are most essential to the maintenance of the school such as lights, power, fuel, water, sewer, janitor and teaching services and for the purchase and in-charge of buildings, libraries and laboratories. The accumulation of warrants is becoming too heavy for the district's credit structure to bear.

The board expresses regret that the tax situation is such that the standing of the schools seem to be involved and the bonded debt is in critical condition and it seems that the board cannot do otherwise than to choose between closing the schools, thus stopping the local expense, or collecting the taxes due the district through legal procedure. More than 65 per cent of the taxes for 1932 were paid by more than 60 per cent of the tax payers whose payments have been handicapped in effect by the non-payment of the remaining 40 per cent. The board believes that the citizens of this community want a good school and want to preserve the district's credit on school-house bonds which were voted by large majorities and with the business firms which furnish the many items necessary for school maintenance.

The amount of delinquent taxes due the district has reached a sum more than the school board can carry longer, the total being slightly more than $35,000, nearly half of which belongs in the sinking fund and interest accounts and will be so placed when collected.

The bond matter is of utmost importance at this time. The board has reduced the principal and paid all the interest due as long as funds in the respective funds were available. The bonded debt has been reduced exactly $21,000 in the last eight years. The bond holders have indicated a willingness to co-operate with the local board in refunding of the school house debts of the district through the co-operation with the State Board of Education which would mean a saving of $20,000 or more in principal and save interest on that amount for 30 years at 5 1/2 per cent and save one-half of one per cent on the remainder which, for the thirty year period, would mean a big saving to the district. The present tax situation is such that the State Board of Education cannot look with favor on assisting this district in effecting this economy. The local board has been working with all possible diligence on the refunding matter ever since the refunding law was enacted but finds itself check-mated by being in default and sinking funds being not in the depository but in the shape of delinquent taxes.

There is no desire on the part of the board or any member thereof to add additional hardships on the property owners. However, there is present, a strong desire to represent the school district in a business-like way protect those who have paid their taxes, to effect economies wherever possible and to provide the children of this community with unimpaired educational advantages at reasonable expense.

The board does not believe in nor does it follow the policy of collecting school taxes from those who will pay and who do pay their assessments, raising their evaluations to meet current obligations and letting the remainder await a convenient season for making school tax payments. The Board policy is to have evaluations as uniformly equalized as a competent independent and representative board of equalization can do the job, and let all property bear its proportionate part of the school taxes.

Mrs. Glen Smith of New Mexico is here visiting her mother Mrs. J. S. Bailey.

They Cannot Be Forgotten

ARMISTICE DAY NOVEMBER 11th

Fifteen years have gone by since the signing of the Armistice which ended a four years' struggle for world freedom and peace. These passing years have seen many changes in our civilization, post-war changes and readjustments and the furthering of civilization to a higher plane. In our ceaseless efforts at progressing we must not forget those who have made this progress possible. We must remember that they laid down their plows, their shovels, their books and their drawing boards, to fight for their country, and they never took them up again. We have taken them up and pushed on... in peace.
