FLOYDADA—Grand champion honors were given to Whitney Williams, Stacey Lloyd and Todd Hinsley during the annual Floydada Livestock Show, January 20.

Reserve Grand Champion awards were given to Cody Stovall, Amber Womack and Tyrel Fuller.

Showmanship belt buckles were presented to Senior Showmen, Michael Mercado, sheep, Leigh Dawdy, swine, and Todd Hinsley, steers. Named Junior Showmanship winners were: Whitney Williams, sheep, Kelsey Pierce, swine, and Dustin Covington, steers.

One hundred and fifty three animals were shown Saturday.

Only six lambs competed in the lamb show and Whitney William's 122 lb. Hampshire earned the grand prize honors. The heavyweight 129 lb. Hampshire, shown by Cody Stovall, won Reserve Grand Champion.

One hundred and twenty-six swine were shown by youth and Stacey Lloyd's 252 lb. heavyweight York won the Grand Champion honors. Reserve Grand was won by the 225 lb. medium-weight Cross shown by Tyrel Fuller.

There was an increase in the number of steers in the Floydada show this year. Twenty-one steers were shown and Todd Hinsley's lightweight cross was named the grand prize winner.

Amber Womack's medium-weight cross steer was declared the Reserve Grand Prize winner.

FLOYDADA JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

County stock show dedicated to Elvin Lyon

The 52nd Floyd County Junior Livestock Show, this weekend, will be dedicated to the memory of Elvin Raymond Lyon.

Lyon, 73, of Lockney, died January 15. He served as the Agriculture teacher at Lockney High School for 22 years and as football coach for 10 years.

The Livestock Show will kick off Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m. with the Sheep Show. Seventy-two lambs are scheduled to be judged by Tommy Clevenger.

Buddy Logsdon will serve as sheep classifier and the sheep superintendent will be Debbie Shatley.

The swine show will begin at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. Over 250 swine are registered for the show. The judge will be John Chumbley, and Franklin Harris will serve as swine superintendent.

Heifers will be shown Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:00 p.m. Steer judging will follow the heifers. Tracy Haymes will judge the heifers and steers and David Gibson will classify. Steer superintendent will be Nathan Johnson.

All lambs and swine must be in place by 6:00 p.m. Friday, January 26, and all steers must be in place by 8:00 a.m., Saturday, January 27. Non-sale take-home animals must be taken home Sunday after the show.

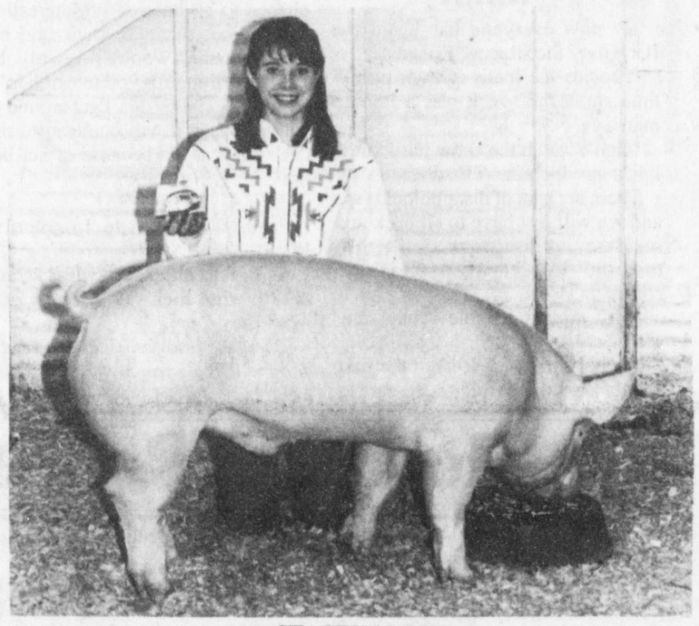

Monday, January 29, buyers will be treated to a luncheon at Duncan Elementary, beginning at 11: 15 a.m. The livestock sale will follow at 1:00 p.m.

The stock show awards banquet will be held Monday night, January 29, at 6:30 p.m. The annual banquet is sponsored by Floyd County Farm Bureau. It will be held in the Lockney Elementary Cafeteria.

The Stock Show Association will be selling memberships to the Stock Show Association during the show on Saturday and Sunday. The memberships will be sold in the form of raffle tickets.

The purchase of one $5.00 raffle ticket will give you a chance at $1,000 in cash, $400 in cash or $100 cash. The drawing will take place at the premium sale on Monday.

Entries into the livestock show will be accepted from any regularly enrolled 4-H member who is 9 years old and/or in the 3rd grade or older, or FFA or FHA member under the supervision of the Floyd County Extension Agent or Lockney/Floydada Vocational Agriculture Instructor and attends public school in Floyd County.

Thornberry on move to spread news of legislation in Congress

On a pass through Floydada, Wednesday, January 17, Congressman Mac Thornberry told The Hesperian-Beacon he believed one of the best changes that have come about in Congress in the past year was the move toward making Congress live under the same rules as the rest of the country.

"I was disappointed that we did not have more legislation reversed", said Thornberry.

Thornberry was on a three day, 10 city tour across the 13th District, speaking at Town Hall meetings and making his comprehensive "Report To The People" available to his constituents and the media.

"A little more than a year ago, the people of the 13th District hired me to represent them in Washington. During my first years in congress, I cast about 881 recorded votes on the floor of the House and many more votes in the committees and subcommittee on which I serve," said Thornberry.

In the area of making Congress live by the same laws it mandates, Thornberry said the Congressional Accountability Act requires Congress to comply with the labor protection and civil rights laws it imposes on everyone else. "Committee and subcommittee chairmen are now limited to three terms and the Speaker of the house is limited to four terms", said Thornberry. "Proxy ('ghost') voting is banned in committee, making Members accountable to their constituents on every vote cast. All committee meetings and hearings are open to the public and media."

Thornberry said he believes congressmen will be reaching across party lines to balance the budget. "Congress spent the first 11 months of 1995 crafting legislation that will balance the budget in seven years and begin returning government power back to the states and local communities. In November, the House and the Senate passed this legislation—the first time in over a generation that Congress has passed a balanced budget. In December, the President vetoed it.

"The President has put forward five plans in the past year which he claims balance the budget. With the exception of the last one, none of them do. The last one retains the big government, big spending philosophy which I and many others believe Americans want to bring to an end."

Thornberry said the final status of many things in Congress depends on what happens with the budget. "Right now, it looks less likely that there will be an agreement with the President and more likely that conservative Democrats and Republicans will work together to get it done without the President.

"Saying you want to balance the budget these days is like saying you are for education or for the environment. Everyone is for it—it's how you go about doing something about it that is tricky.

"The big difference is deciding whether Washington will continue to call all the shots or will we let the States develop their own systems." Thornberry said there are two different views of government in Washington and the debate is strong over "who will control what".

The 1995 Farm Bill, according to Thornberry, has become mired in the budget debate. "Unless action is taken soon," said Thornberry, "farmers face the prospect of entering the 1996 crop year without knowing what the rules of the game will be."

Thornberry said keeping the farm bill part of the big package has protected it, but it has also bogged it down.

"If we take the farm bill out by itself, said Thornberry, "it would be subjected to a lot of amendments by people who don't know anything about farming. We are working on

Hundreds of cranes killed by cold front

The extreme drop in temperatures caused by the severe cold front which moved through Floyd County Wednesday night, January 24, caused the death of several hundred Sandhill Cranes nesting in the South Plains area.

According to Game Warden Mark Collins, the "death of the cranes just goes to show you how brutal that front was. The weather fooled the cranes. It was 71 degrees Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night it was 9 degrees," said Collins.

Collins found the birds after receiving a call from a South Plains farmer, Thursday morning, January 18th, reporting the dead and dying birds.

"The playa lake was located about 2 1/2 miles N.E. of the South Plains community. It was a shallow lake, which may explain why the birds froze in the water so fast.

"When I got to the lake I saw at least 200 birds in varying stages of freezing to death. There was a lot of frozen water and there were thousands of Sandhill Cranes in the area. Hundreds had their wings, legs or beaks stuck in the ice. Many of them couldn't move but they were still alive.

"I saw many birds flying with only one leg or with big ice balls attached to their legs. For every bird I saw I know there was one or two more that I couldn't get to.

"It was a gruesome sight."

Collins said he checked other area lakes for the same occurrence and could find no cranes nesting anywhere else. "I don't know why they all came to this shallow lake. There were thousands of them in this same location."

Collins said it was ironic that the birds froze to death here. "These cranes spend their summers in the far north regions of Canada and Alaska and then they come to Texas and freeze to death."

City receives grant for Communicare

Extended calling due in March

By Juanita Stepp

FLOYDADA — City Manager Gary Brown reported that Floydada residents can look forward to some changes during the next few months. The extended calling area voted on last fall by local telephone customers has passed all the reviews and will be available for use on March 6, 1996. This will allow Floydada telephone users to call Lockney, Plainview, and Lubbock exchanges with no long distance charges on each call.

Telephone customers will notice the change on their monthly bill. Each residential line will be billed a flat charge of $3.50 per month for the extended calling service. Each business line will pay $7.00 per month for the extended area calling ability. Most should see a drop in their overall billing if they regularly make calls to Lockney, Plainview, and Lubbock.

Brown also stated that the expanded channel lineup for viewers who are served by Floydada Cable TV is due to go on line February 1, 1996. A variety of channels are on the menu including a cartoon channel, legislative news channels, a science fiction channel, UPN Channel 22, another sports channel and a Spanish channel.

Approval of a grant funding the proposed Communicare System for automatically contacting the elderly and shut-ins in Floydada was recently received. Brown reported that the grant is sufficient to provide 100 percent of the funds for the community service. He added that after the extended calling service is implemented, it may be possible to provide the service in Lockney as well.

Brown also told the council that some problems developed due to the severe cold and wind the week before. He said a few electric lines went down and some water meters froze. These were characterized as minor problems by Brown. He also said that citizens affected were patient and understanding with only one exception.

The water distribution valves on lines at Lockney froze causing the water towers in Floydada to run over before the controls could be thawed and shut down. This created an icy mess around the towers.

The final informational item Brown had for the council was that the Floyd County Central Appraisal District has scheduled an annual meeting with the taxing entities it serves on February 1, 1996 at 9:30 a.m. in the board room at 104 E. California. He urged council members to attend the session and asked that each inform others interested in operation of the local office and state regulated property tax appraisals. The meeting is open to the public and anyone may attend.

Requests for variances on city ordinances concerning livestock were two of the agenda items acted

Contract extended for LISD superintendent

LOCKNEY--The Lockney Independent School District Board members met in regular session on January 18. They voted to extend Superintendent Raymond Lusk's contract through 1999.

Other item on the agenda included opening bids on school busses, progress reports on needs assessments and priority rankings, and upgrading the computer system for the business office.

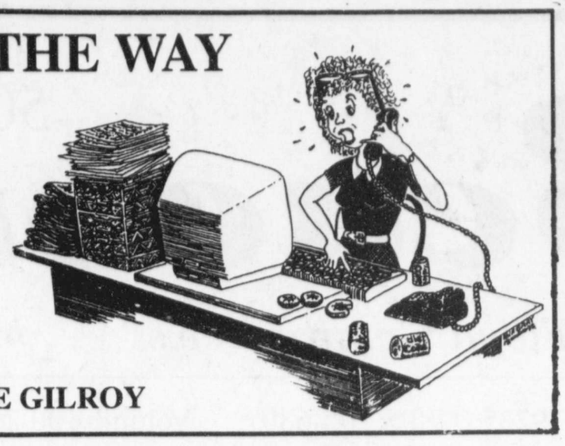

Lusk reported that 77 percent of the 1995 property taxes have been collected. He stated that he expects a large percent of the unpaid taxes to come in before the end of January.

Bids were opened from Longhorn Bus Sales ($40,031), Texas School Bus Center, Inc. ($38,042), Statewide Bus Sales ($39,237), Hemphill Bus Sales ($42,780).

Lusk explained that the district is a little behind in bus purchases and needs to buy one bus this year and two next year or two this year and one

I hope everyone notices the new crossword puzzle appearing in this week's paper. It is sponsored by Joe's Mowers and More, in Floydada. It is a great way to get his name out there every week and also give people some enjoyment.

We have recently subscribed to a service that provides the puzzle and other tidbits. Joe's sponsorship pays for the service.

If there is another business out there who would like to sponsor any of the other features we would be more than willing to help you out.

There are a lot of games that kids would enjoy, such as: vision teasers (where they find differences in pictures), magic mazes, and cartoons.

We can also sell you sponsorships to sports quiz, golf tips, tennis tips, trivia tests, bridge, and This Week in History.

There are only a few days left to get you Valentine picture in to the paper. Floydada is way ahead of Lockney!!

You Lockney folks don't want that to happen do you????

Feb. 1 is the deadline!

By now everyone has heard the flack over the sitcom "Friends".

It seems the focus of their prime-time show this week was a lesbian marriage.

I don't watch the show but I know it is a very popular TV series.

There are a lot of disappointed fans and we will just have to sit back and see if they are disappointed enough to turn the TV off when "Friends" comes on.

NBC took a gamble—they may win.

I'm not surprised. It's not the first popular sitcom that felt it necessary to make political statements.

They don't usually start making the statements until they have a huge following. It is very calculated. The reason the statement was made on "Friends" and not some other NBC show is because Friends is such a popular show.

The lesbian marriage is just another example of how far removed Hollywood is from mainstream America. On the other hand—they get away with it because they have an audience.

One other tidbit about the show.

For anyone who was keeping up on this you probably already know that Newt Gingrich's sister, Candace, appeared in the segment. She has come out of the closet and told the world that she is lesbian.

In a news story I saw in the Avalanche Journal Gingrich congratulated Candace for her chance to be in the sitcom. However, he also wondered why Hollywood hadn't called his other sister who belongs to the Christian Coalition. He said, "She hasn't been approached about doing a situation comedy, has not been glorified by Hollywood and has not had a chance to go out and do interesting things like that." Gingrich said his sister, Susan, would probably be equally willing for you to call her."

I'm sure if they don't get around to calling Susan it will be because she can't act and not because of her beliefs!

A view from The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

We see by the papers, and on t.v., that our First Lady is being hauled before a Washington Grand Jury to give testimony, under oath, concerning the sudden appearance of missing Rose Law Firm records.

The records turned up on a table in the First Family's reading room, outside Hillary's office. The Independent Council's office, investigating the Whitewater matter, issued subpoenas for the records two years ago, but they were nowhere to be found. Now they are found.

Well, we think the Grand Jury is wasting a lot of tax-payer money, trying to find out who did it. We have given a lot of thought to this matter. We have figured out who the culprit is. We're now prepared to tell the Grand Jury who put the records there, and why.

The butler did it. Pure and simple. When you think about it, it couldn't have been anyone else.

The government employee who looks after Hillary's hair, clothes, lipstick and such, would have had no reason to do it. Hillary's former associates at Rose Law firm, several of whom are now ensconced in the White House, wouldn't have done it. One or two of them might have had a reason, but surely they did not have access to the First Family's book room adjoining Hillary's "work" station.

Neither the President or First Lady could have done it. Both have said they didn't do it. If they said they didn't do it, they didn't do it. The American people have no reason to be skeptical of his or her truthfulness, and if they say they didn't do it, that should end the matter, as far as they are concerned.

So that leaves the butler. Besides, everybody knows it is always the butler who did it. It is always he who has reasons, however obscure they may be.

The Independent Prosecutor thought the files might be important, that they might indicate how much time Hillary billed for while working on the Madison thing, which is involved, shall we say, in the Whitewater thing. She has said publicly that she was not really involved, that she did practically nothing, that she was not a securities lawyer and that all the work was done by a young associate who, she claims, brought Mr. McDougal into the firm as a client. (He denied, under oath, that he was responsible for bringing McDougal in.)

As we understand the matter, a number of government investigating bodies, including the special prosecutor assigned to the case, and the Senate investigating committee, have sought the records for some two years. They were nowhere to be found. Then, suddenly, some two days after the statute of limitations had run on certain crimes that might have been committed, the records turn up in plain view on a table in the First Family's book room.

And since no one has come up with a better explanation, we'll offer our own scenario of how and why these seemingly strange events occurred. It is our hope that our effort will help get Hillary and Bill off the hook. There's no reason for either of them to have to take the fall for the real culprit.

We hate to sound suspicious, but it kinda looks like the records might have been "taken into protective custody" by Hillary's good friend Vince Foster back during the 1992 presidential campaign, when candidate Jerry Brown and the press were asking questions about this.

After Foster killed himself, the butler, in a purely innocent effort to do his job, was tidying up the office, noticed the files, and took them away for safekeeping.

He had no idea the files were important, or that they might become the object of court subpoenas in the future. Since he was merely a butler, he was "not into" all that legal stuff, and took no notice when the files became the object of so much interest.

It was only later, much later, when he overheard a discussion among the hired help down in the kitchen, that his memory was jogged. Someone noted that the statute of limitations was about to run on certain files. He asked: Files? What files?" Then he remembered, and thought "maybe they mean those files I picked up in Vince's office." And he went to look, and sure enough it was the missing files. So he merely took them to the book room, which he thought, for some reason, was the proper place. He did not tell the President, nor the co-President. Then somebody else found them and kept them a while and turned them over to the investigators.

At any rate, it was all entirely innocent, and Congressman Waxman, (D-Calif.) was right when he rhetorically asked "So what?"

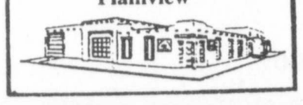

Why didn't Nixon think of that, when someone on his campaign staff broke into the Democratic campaign headquarters in the Watergate? Why did he try to use government workers to cover-up the nefarious deed. He simply should have said, according to the current ethic, "So what?"

We think it had to be the butler, whoever he is.

Besides, that explanation is as plausible as any advanced by the White House, so far.

Floydada Police Report

FLOYDADA—A combined effort of the Floydada Police Department and the Sheriff's Department resulted in clearing up several burglaries.

According to Police Chief James Hale, a report was taken on January 17 from a home that was burglarized. A Jam Box and VCR were taken during the burglary.

The police then received information where the stolen property might be located. When the police checked the residence they did not find the property stolen in the city burglary but they did recover several items that were stolen in two Dougherty burglaries, which occurred between Dec. 15 and January 1st.

The investigation is continuing in these burglaries. Warrants have been issued and charges are pending. The Sheriff's Department recovered a 25" T.V., a Jam Box, a home stereo system, one VCR, one 22 semi-automatic rifle, a Craftsman Socket set, two mirrors, a vanity table and various knick knacks.

The Floydada Police Department was also able to recover the items stolen from the city burglary.

January 19 at 3:13 p.m. police were called to the aid of Juvenile Probation Officer Bruce Ballou.

According to the police report, Ballou had gone to a home to execute a judge's order to place a 16 year old boy in the Lubbock County Youth Center. The boy had not been going to school and had also been charged with theft.

The report stated that after Ballou entered the youth's home he was shoved against a wall and down to the floor by the boy. The boy fled outside and when Ballou tried to stop him the boy pushed and kicked the probation officer. The boy's 17 year old brother and father also joined the scuffle in an attempt to keep Ballou from taking the boy.

Police were called and assault charges are now pending.

January 10th police received a call that a child was possibly in danger in a house where people were inhaling paint.

According to the police report when the first officer arrived at the house he was met at the door by a teenager who had paint marks on his face. The report stated the officer could smell a strong odor of inhalant and entered the home to look for a baby.

According to the report five people were in the home and all exhibited evidence of inhaling paint. A baby was found in a room and the report stated the odor was also very strong in the baby's room.

According to Chief Hale, "When the officers first found the baby it was awake but motionless. When they picked it up the baby was limp and unresponsive. After it was removed from the house and had been away for over an hour it changed into an active playful baby."

Five individuals were placed under arrest: a 19 year old man, a 17 year old man, a 16 year old girl (and mother to the baby), a 15 year old girl and a 15 year old boy.

The case has been turned over to the District Attorney's office for possible filing of charges.

According to Hale, "the baby was turned over to Protective Services who immediately released it to the grandmother."

January 12, at 8:30 a.m. in the 200 block of E. Jackson, police noticed two young boys (12 & 13) walking away from the school. The officer attempted to stop them and the boys ran away and hid. They were found, taken into custody and turned over to the Juvenile Probation Office.

January 13, at 8:30 p.m., police arrested Kathy Davis, 35, for outstanding traffic warrants.

January 16, police received a report from the Floydada High School of two teenagers fighting in the hall. They were taken before the city judge and fined.

January 18, at 10:56 p.m., at U.S. 62 and W. Crockett, police stop a vehicle driving in the center of the roadway. Johnny Irwin Priest, 48, of Amarillo, was subsequently arrested and charged with DWI.

January 19, at 8:29 a.m., in the 100 block of E. Marivena, police arrested Lloyd Craig Boyd, 31, of Floydada, for outstanding warrants in Moore County.

January 21, at 12:10 a.m., in the 100 block of E. Virginia, police arrested Manuel Arredondo, 19, of Floydada, for Public Intoxication.

January 22, at 4:20 p.m., police arrested Christina Burks Marmolejo, 21, for outstanding traffic warrants.

Business Of The Week

FLOYDADA—Sue's Gifts has been a part of the Floydada business community for twenty-one years.

Owned and managed by Sue Moore, this store is the place to go for a large variety of gift and home needs.

Sue Moore opened her first store in the fall of 1975, under the name of Cozy Corner. It was located in the corner of Chez Pats Beauty Salon, across the street from Energas, in Floydada.

"When I first started," said Sue, "I was selling toll painting and crafts that I was making at home. I just rented a corner, but I kept selling out. Then I decided to open my own store."

In the Spring of 1976, Sue decided to branch out into full gift lines and bridal registry.

She soon grew out of her "Cozy Corner" and moved to a new location at 126 W. California.

In June 1983 she purchased Lovell-Collins Jewelry—formerly Solomon Jewelry and kept on adding new merchandise. Soon she was needing more space and a better location. In October 1985, Sue moved to her current location, the former Arwine Drug building, at 100 E. California.

Glenna Ross has been employed at Sue's Gifts for 12 years, and according to Sue she is her "right hand".

"I don't know what I would do without her," said Sue.

SUE MOORE AND GLENNA ROSS

A brand new employee, Barbara Covington, now works part time.

Sue's Gifts offers a bridal registry complete with invitations, printed napkins, etc. You can also find a large selection of china, crystal, stainless and Precious Moments figurines.

Sue is also an expert in flower arrangements and sells all types of home decor. Paper goods, candles, kitchen accessories, baby gifts, and many other items can be found in the store.

"We consider our customers our personal friends," said Sue. "We appreciate them very much. Without them we would not have been able to grow and progress as we have. We will always be here for you as you have always been there for us."

Sue is married to Doyle Moore. They have three grown children: Carolyn, of Lubbock, Vernie, of Earth, and Randall, of Florida.

VFW POST 5616 CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY—Floyd County veterans of foreign wars met for a golden anniversary celebration of the VFW Post 5616, at Nielson's Restaurant, January 20. The Post was fifty years old January 18, 1996. A citation was issued to the Post by Paul A. Spera, Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. Spera congratulated the members of Post 5616 for the outstanding record they have achieved of service to the community, the veterans and the nation over the past fifty years. Lockney Police Report

LOCKNEY--On January 10 the Lockney Police Department took a report of the theft of an inspection sticker from an automobile. Also on this date a report of the theft of a girls bicycle from inside a yard was taken.

Jesus Valles, 53 of Ralls was arrested and charged with a Felony Grade DWI on January 13.

On March 14 the police department received a report on the theft of a habitation. Taken were three guns and a can full of change. The theft occurred sometime in December.

Also on the 14th a glass in a back door of a residence was broken out and a pack of cigarettes was taken.

On January 20th a local citizen complained of harassment by telephone.

Also on the 20th a minor accident was reported in the parking lot at Allsups.

Investigation on the thefts continue. Anyone with any information is asked to contact the Lockney Police Department.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

On January 13, 1996, I celebrated my ninetieth birthday.

I came to Floydada in August, 1939, to teach vocational agriculture in the high school and retired in June, 1969.

This weekend I received many birthday cards and letters from former students, Sunday school classes, Rotary Club, Masonic Lodge, and fellow teachers. I wish to express my appreciation in this manner.

Yours Sincerely,
H.G. Barber

P.S. Mgr. Jim Huggins - you are a 30 year man also- I remember you well. Congratulations!

getting a clean farm bill—separate with no amendments.

"This controversy aside," said Thornberry, "there were positive developments in 1995 which will benefit Texas farmers, including: the Private Property Protection Act which would require the government to compensate property owners when a federal regulatory action reduces the fair market value of their property by 30 percent or more;

"The Clean Water Act would end federal determinations of what constitutes a wetland by requiring that wetlands be classified into one of three categories, with state and local officials regulating low level wetlands.

Thornberry said he was getting a lot of support from his constituents encouraging Congress to stick with the balanced budget and welfare reform.

The "Report to The People" covers legislation in Congress concerning tax relief, Medicare and giving states funds and flexibility in areas of health care and welfare reform."

DAVID RAY YOUNG and JEANNIE ELAINE JACKSON

Jackson and Young

Harvey and Winona Allen of Floydada wish to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jeannie, to David Young, son of Walter and Sue Jo Young of Topeka, Kansas. Jeannie is also the daughter of the late Doyle F. Jackson.

Miss Jackson is a graduate of Floydada High School and South Plains College and is employed by Randall Wolcott, M.D. in Lubbock.

Young is a graduate of Canyon High School and West Texas State University and is employed by the Texas Department of Public Safety in Lubbock.

The couple plan a March 2, 1996 wedding in the First United Methodist Church of Floydada.

CLUB NEWS

By Leora Younger

FLOYDADA - "Windows One - The New Year", was the theme to the 1956 Study Club's first meeting of 1996. The meeting was held in the lovely home of Melissa Long with Shawnda Greer and Susan Simpson serving as co-hostesses.

Atha Sue, vice president, called the meeting to order and roll call was answered with "the view from my kitchen window." Our program was brought by Virginia McMahan, of Plainview, on "No-Sew Draperies Window Treatment". We had hands on experience and made some great looking window treatments. All expressed a desire to utilize our new found knowledge.

Delicious refreshments of finger sandwiches, club crackers wrapped with bacon strips, veggies and dip, banana pudding, Snickerdoodles, tea, coffee and punch were served to members and guest.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Teresa Minnix, secretary, and Susan Simpson gave the treasure's report.

The club voted to donate $100 to the Junior High Accelerated Reading Program and $200 to Duncan Elementary for the PTA Playground Fund.

Jan Hunter was voted in as a new member.

January birthdays were Vickie Christian and Atha Sue.

Our Feb. 13 meeting will be in the home of Darlynn Hambright with husbands as our guests. Remember to bring a $5 gift for a valentine.

Members present were Darlynn Hambright, Sheree Cannon, Linda Harbin, Melissa Long, Shawnda Greer, La Tresa Miller, Patti Miller, De Chance, Judy Schacht, Susan Simpson, Atha Sue, Penny Taylor, Jan Thompson, Vickie Vandiver, Jan Willson, Vickie Christian, Sharon Rainwater, Teresa Minnix, and Leora Younger.

Look Who's New!

FLOYDADA - The Center is open daily at 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. If you plan to eat lunch please call 983-2032 by 10 a.m.

Mary Ruth Fewell of Lockney was at the center Friday, Jan. 19, with her daughter Vivian and her husband, Harold Snell, and Harold's mother, Elizabeth Armstrong.

Elizabeth Armstrong had friends from Ft. Worth to visit her recently. They were Ruth and Scotty Scott.

I talked with Dorothy Holland last Friday and she told me that her husband T.L. was doing better and feeling much better.

We are having very good meals at the center. If you are 60 years or older this center is a good place for you to get a good hot meal for a donation of $2.25. We would love for you to eat with us each day. Please call if you plan to eat so they will have enough food for all of us. This is a good place to see your friends and meet new people.

Our yearly donations of dues of $6.00 are due now. We would appreciate your support. The center's address is P.O. Box 573, if you wish to mail it in, or you may pay it at the center.

Our sympathy to the family of John Key West. Saturday, January 20, was his funeral service. It has been a long time since I've attended a funeral where the church was over-flowing with friends. The sanctuary, the balcony and extra rooms, where there was a speaker was full of people. This says a lot about the West family.

Gertrude Carr fell last Saturday and broke her right hip. She had surgery on Sunday, January 21 at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

We want to remember these families who have lost loved ones recently. Also pray for those having surgery, for those who are recovering from strokes and other illnesses and for the lonely.

Our building fund is growing. We plan to put in more lighting in two corners in the dining area. Those contributing recently are John and Lee Moss in memory of Mamie Duren; Button and Judy Beedy in memory of Gladys Lawson; and Jim and Margarette Word in memory of John Key West.

"Thought for the Week" - No one is useless to God, no one.

American Heart Association schedules bridge tournament

The Floyd County Division of the American Heart Association will once again host it's annual "Bridge for Heart" tournament according to President Jack Robertson. Area bridge players are invited to Floydada on Monday February 12, at 10:30 a.m., for the charity's fund-raising event to be held at the Massie Activity Center located at 513 West Georgia Street.

"For almost thirty years this tournament has been conducted by the Board of Directors from Floyd County", said Sandra Schwertner, "And among bridge players, it is greatly anticipated. Heart disease and strokes are this nation's leading cause of death, and by having various charity events throughout the year, we raise funds for research and education."

Barbara Fyffe is chairing the event, while Carolyn Hale will be in charge of the tournament play, and other board members will prepare the luncheon. This year advance purchased tickets are priced at $10.00, while tickets sold at the door the day of the tournament will be $12.00. Your tax-deductible tickets can be obtained from the American Heart Association, c/o First National Bank, P.O. Box 550, Floydada, Texas, or from board members. In order to save extra expense and postage, your advance purchased tickets will be held for you at the door. For further information contact Barbara Fyffe at 983-3300 after 5:00 p.m., or Polly Cardinal at 983-2903.

The volunteers that serve the Floyd County Division remind everyone that February has been designated "Heart Month", so please help the American Heart Association fight heart disease.

1934 Study Club News

By Margarette Word

FLOYDADA - The 1934 Study Club met Tuesday, January 16, in the home of Frieda Simpson.

Frieda Simpson, president, called the meeting to order. In the absence of our recording secretary, Bill Ferguson, our corresponding secretary, Betsy Dempsey read the minutes of our last meeting which were approved by the members. Mrs. Dempsey called the roll call with members answering by giving a current event.

Mrs. Simpson extended our sympathy to one of our members, Queen Annie Lawson, on the loss of her sister-in-law, Gladys Lawson.

The nominating committee, Eva Parker, Frances Weathersbee, and Mamie Bunch presented to members the roster of new officers for the next two years starting June 1996. The new officers will be: President- Lorene Newberry; Vice President - Nell McClung; Second Vice President - Wanda Turner; Recording Secretary - Bill Ferguson; Corresponding Secretary - Queen Annie Lawson; Treasurer - Effie Foster; Reporter - Margarette Word; Parliamentarian - Frieda Simpson.

Nell McClung, 2nd Vice President, introduced the speaker for our program, Roxann Cummings. Roxann and her mother, Evelyn Branch are owners of Floydada Historical Lamplighter Inn.

Roxann told us they had bought the Inn in 1991. They have spent many hours in restoring the hotel into a Bed & Breakfast Inn. She gave us a lot of history about the hotel. It was built in 1912 and called the Commerce Hotel. Many famous and important people have passed through Floydada and have been guest in the hotel.

There are 20 rooms ready for guests. Many of the rooms are decorated with a theme such as "On the Road Again", "A Gentleman's Room", "A Ladies Room", "A Rancher's Room", A Farmer's Room", and "Back to School Room". These ladies are working daily toward returning the hotel to it's original decor. They want this to be a place where guests can enjoy a good nights rest, plus good food and a lot of history with a very friendly atmosphere.

Lunch is served Monday through Friday. They will cater a meal for a group of 20 or more. They have worked with political meetings, reunion groups, wedding parties, anniversary groups, birthday get-togethers, and many other groups. They love to work with local and out-of-town groups and weekend guests.

It was a very interesting program.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members, Jean Appling, Mamie Bunch, Jo Davis, Betsy Dempsey, Effie Foster, Queen Annie Lawson, Nell McClung, Flora McNeill, Lorene Newberry, Eva Parker, Frieda Simpson, Marie Warren, and Margarette Word.

Our next meeting will be "Guest-Night" Tuesday, February 20, at Lighthouse Electric meeting room. Karen Houchin, an attorney, will discuss Living Trust and Wills.

LOCKNEY SENIOR CITIZENS

By Gladys Ragle

The weather was so cold Thursday, January 18 that we did not have but 35 people in attendance at our meeting, but we had plenty of good food, visiting, and many played games after eating.

The hostesses for February will be Gene Newton, Theta Brotherton, and Geneva Barclay.

Our sympathy goes out to the families of James Steele, Albert Hayes, and Elvin Lyons on the loss of their loved ones. Elvin Lyons was coach and agriculture teacher in the Lockney school system for many years and was well liked by the whole community.

Friends of the Library

Friends of the Floyd County Library met at 5 p.m. in the Lighthouse Electric community room on Monday, Jan. 22, 1996. President Joyce Lipham called the meeting to order.

Amy Hollums read the minutes of the October meeting and they were approved. The treasurer's report was also given.

Joyce Lipham reported that the executive committee had agreed to ask Amy Hollums, president of the Floyd County Library Board, to serve on the executive committee of the Friends of the Library.

Ginger Warren was introduced as the new projects chairman. Her committee consists of Doris McLain, Jerry Crawford, and Judy Dunlap.

Discussion of possible fund raising projects included possibly holding a book fair, a booth at a grocery store, and a brunch.

Ideas presented for increasing membership in Friends of the Library included sending a membership application in 1996 homecoming mailings and having current members enrolling 5 to 10 members each.

Membership chairman Janice Lloyd reported the present membership at 73 members.

A contest will be held to develop a logo and bookmark design for Friends of the Library. The contest will be at the Junior High level for the fall of 1996.

Amy Hollums announced that names of life memberships will be published in the Floyd County Hesperian in February.

Jane Bean suggested an honor board for life members names to be housed in the library.

President Joyce Lipham announced that the next scheduled meeting will be Monday, April 15, 1996 at 5 p.m. in the Lighthouse Community Room. Floyd County Librarian, Sandra Crawford will present the program on the functions of the library.

There will also be a called meeting on Monday, February 12, 1996, at 5 p.m. at the Lighthouse Electric community room.

Residents celebrate birthdays

NEVA CALAHAN

By Lorilla Bradley

January is a cold, cold month...
Some way to start a New Year...
But celebrating we will do
For birthdays, we have two here!
Mrs. Calahan we honor...
She's always "spic and span"
Her years never get her down
Her motto is "I can"!
We're greeting Mrs. Holcomb...
She counts from 1909...
Is one we like to talk with
Right now, or anytime!
Lets do the birthday "ditty"
And make the rafters ring...
So everybody join us
As happiness we bring!

Thursday, January 18 was partytime at the rest home with members of the City Park Church of Christ hosting.

The Hesperian photographer came for the picture-taking followed by everyone being ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table.

We are sorry Mrs. Holcomb was unable to attend the festivities. The ladies wore lovely corsages, in blue, compliments of Williams Florist and Card Shop. The table was laid with a green cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in shades of blue.

Special cards marked places for the honorees. The poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song. Seated with Mrs. Calahan were Geraldine Calloway, Nancy Bishop, Lula Teague and Marjorie Holcomb. Visiting with Mrs. Holcomb, in her room were Mel and Marjorie Holcomb and Ray Holcomb.

A refreshment plate of delicious birthday cake or angel food cake complimented with a delightful fruit punch was served to the honorees, guests and home residents. The next party will be Thursday, February 15, at 2:30 p.m. You are invited to be with us.

We Salute in Floydada

TSTA holds meeting

By Joyce Williams

Floydada local Texas State Teachers Association met Wednesday afternoon, January 17, at 4:15 in the Family Living Center at R.C. Andrews Elementary. President Joyce Williams presented a refund check to the treasurer, Mrs. Sally Lyles, from regional headquarters. The refund was awarded for the prompt work of membership chairman, Penny Giesecke, who turned in all the dues in September.

During new business, members were asked who could attend the state TSTA meeting in April. At this time no one feels for sure they could attend so this was tabled.

The program consisted of viewing a video film sent from Teachers Retirement Service on the different plans for retirement. These covered buying teaching time from jobs in other states, disability and early retirement, as well as regular retirement. An informal discussion brought out advantages of the different plans as teachers have observed among former teachers. An informal discussion brought out advantages of the different plans as teachers have observed among former teachers.

An article from the "Advocate", official TSTA magazine, was read about Social Security benefits not available to teachers even though many hold after-school and summer jobs in the business world as well as being self-employed. Social Security is paid into their accounts from these jobs, but teachers are not allowed to benefit from the taxes paid. A few schools in Texas do allow Social Security benefits.

The next meeting will be held in Floydada High School.

Recipe of the Week

The following recipe was used by Tanner Battey of Floydada in the Floyd County 4-H Food Show. It would make a great Superbowl party recipe!

Texas Trash

1 1/2 sticks margarine
2 cups rice chex
2 cups wheat chex
2 cups cheerios
2 cups pretzel sticks
2 cups mixed nuts
1 tsp. garlic salt
1 tsp. onion salt
1 tsp. celery salt
1 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 Tbsp. Tobasco sauce

Melt butter and add salts and sauces until dissolved. Mix remaining ingredients in a roasting pan. Stir in butter mixture until well coated. Cook in 250 degree oven for 1 hour stirring every 15 minutes to coat.

Hobby Club elects officers

By Mildred Cates

FLOYDADA - January 16th was the first meeting of the This 'n That Hobby Club for the year 1996, with president, Dorothy Reeves presiding. The club met in the home of T.L. and Dorothy Holland.

Minutes of the last meeting in 1995 were read and the treasurers report was given by Margie Sue.

An election of new officers were as following: President - Queen Annie Lawson; Vice President - Betty Baker; Secretary/Treasurer - Margie Sue; Reporter - Mildred Cates; Sunshine Committee - Dorothy Holland and Ila White; Scrapbook - Jonelle Fawver.

With the new president in charge we planned our annual Valentine party on February 12 at 6:30 p.m. with a menu of sandwiches, chips and dips, pies and drinks at the Lighthouse meeting room. We also planned our March meeting with hat decorating to be March 19 starting at 10 a.m. This also in the meeting room at Lighthouse.

All members were present, those being Betty Baker, Thelma Crawford, Mildred Cates, Jonelle Fawver, Faye Jackson, Queen Annie Lawson, Jo Lyles, Pauline Nash, Dorothy Reeves, Margie Sue, Ila White, and hostess Dorothy Holland.

Lockney Boy Scouts receive badges & patches

By Jim Huggins

LOCKNEY - Lockney Boy Scouts received recognition during a court of honor Thursday, January 18, at the Scout Hut. Fourteen Scouts from Troop 259 accepted merit badges and rank patches from Dr. Kevin Stewart, assistant Scoutmaster and advancement chairman for the troop.

Tenderfoot Scout rank patches went to Brandon Hennagan, Roy Molina, Jeremy Stapp and Tyrell Stap. Jeffrey Hunter and Wade Miller got their Second-Class Scout patches. Honored for attaining the rank of Star Scout were Kevin Aufill, Danny Huggins, David Martinez and Chad Stapp.

Wesley Hunter, Tyson McDonald and Brett McQhae were recognized as Life Scouts, just one rank below the highest in Scouting, the Eagle Scout rank.

Troop 259 Scouts were awarded a total of 36 merit badges for first aid, cooking, archery, leathercraft, pioneering, environmental science, and citizenship in the community and nation. The Scouts earned the merit badges during summer camp at Camp Tres Ritos, New Mexico last July.

Scoutmaster Bill Hunter assisted the Scouts with reports and demonstrations about camping, white-water rafting, rappeling and other troop activities. Special recognition went to Don Aufill for his support of Scouting in Lockney.

Scouts' family and friends were special guests at the court of honor.

Businesses join in supporting reading at FJHS

FLOYDADA—Local businesses are combining efforts to help support the Floydada Junior High Reading Program.

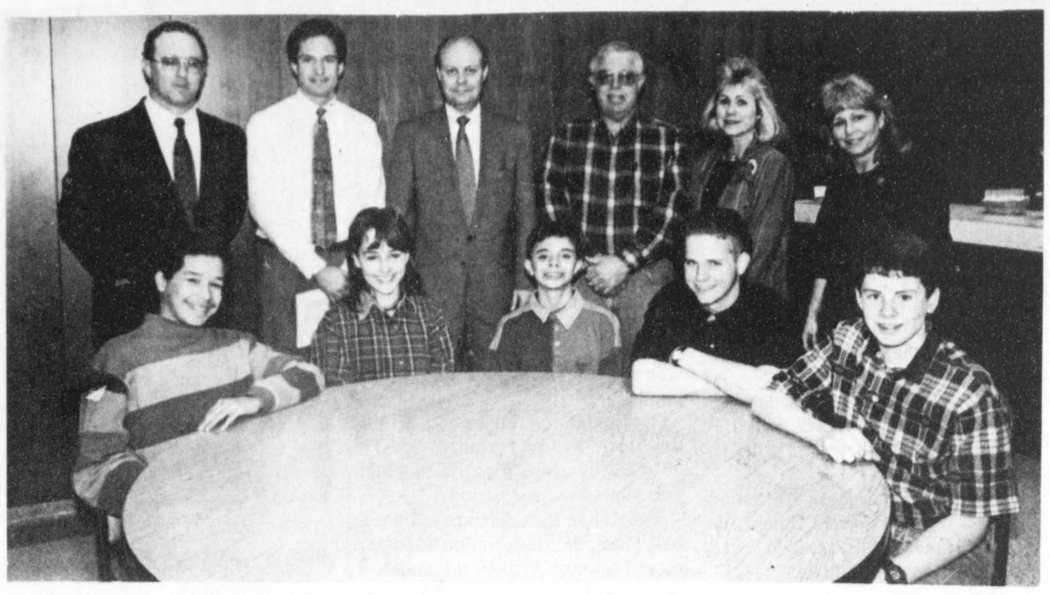

This program encourages the Junior High students to simply read more books by offering incentives through their reading store. Students who read can take tests on the various books they read and earn accelerated reading points using a nationally used computerized program. They then can purchase awards at the accelerated reading store—depending on their number of points.

These concerned businesses who have already donated either money or prizes are: First National Bank of Floydada, West Texas National Bank, Script Printing, Oden-Chevrolet, Floydada Ford House, City Auto and Payne's Pharmacy.

Various organizations within the junior high school, such as the students in the Gifted/Talented Class, and also the Floydada P.T.A. are making special efforts to gather support from the community.

The students and faculty really appreciate these businesses supporting these needed programs, which we hope will benefit and encourage students to truly enjoy reading and learning.

Anyone wishing to contribute prizes or money to this program should contact Junior High Principal Monty Hysinger.

LOCAL BUSINESSES AND STUDENTS SUPPORT READING—Several businesses in Floydada have contributed prizes to the new Junior High Accelerated Reading program (see related story). The Gifted/Talented students at Floydada Junior High School will also be helping with the program and entering their work into a state contest for community problem solving. This program will be one part of a main project to encourage everyone to read. (back row, l-r) The businesses contributing to the project are: (l-r) Principal Monty Hysinger, Paul Sharp of West Texas Bank, Tom Farris of First National Bank of Floydada, Bobby Gilliland of Script, Denice Payne of Payne Pharmacy and Barbara Fyffe of Oden Chevrolet; (front row, l-r) GT students helping with the program are: Erick Arellano, Kember Everett, J.D. Chaparro, David Lightfoot and Shane Lloyd. Staff Photo

PTA presenting Texas Tomorrow

LOCKNEY--A new program has been designed to help Texas families with the cost of providing their children with a college education.

A representative will speak to the Lockney PTA on the tuition program and answer questions. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting at the Lockney Elementary School on Thursday, January 25 at 7:00 p.m.

More information can also be received from Mrs. Ulmer at Lockney High School or Mrs. Mitchell at Lockney Elementary.

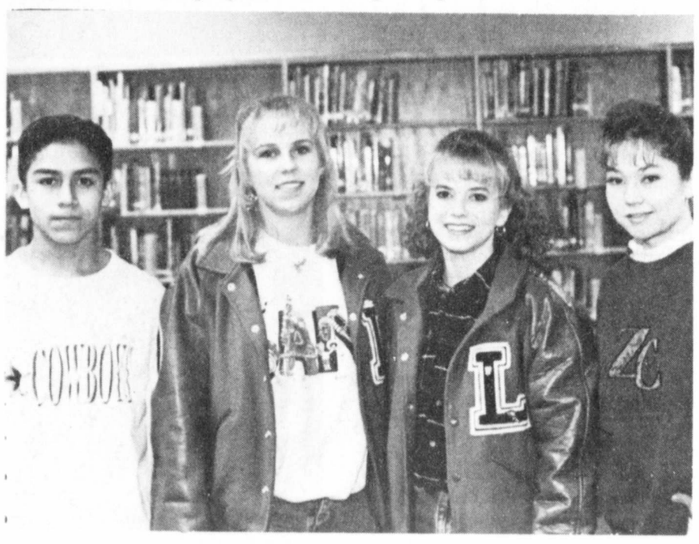

During the last few months, the Texas Prepaid Higher Education Tuition Board and the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts have been working to put the finishing touches on the program Texas Tomorrow Fund.

The Texas Tomorrow Fund, created through legislation this past session, is administered by the Texas Prepaid Higher Education Tuition Board within the office of the State Comptroller. The program offers parents, grandparents, and other a way to purchase college credits now for their children to use at Texas colleges and universities in the future. With the program participants lock in a price today to pay for tomorrow's tuition and required fees.There is a limited enrollment period for the program each year, during which individuals may purchase prepaid tuition contracts under a lump sum option or an installment option. Initial enrollment in the program runs from January 2 through March 31, 1996. Purchasers will have until May 1, 1996 to make the first payment under the contract. It is anticipated that there will be a similar enrollment period each year.

For more information call the toll-free number, 1-800-445-GRAD (4723).

GRAB-A-BAG FUN -- The FJHS PTO sponsored a fund raiser for the school's Accelerated Reading Program during last Friday's basketball game intermission. Martin named as finalist for scholar-athlete

LOCKNEY—Cynthia Kay Martin has been chosen a finalist for the 1996 FINA/Dallas Morning News, All-State Scholar/Athlete Team.

Miss Martin is a senior at Lockney High School and a member of the varsity basketball team. She is the daughter of Jim Bob and Kay Martin.

The sponsors of this scholarship seek to recognize and reward the outstanding achievements and contributions of scholar-athletes in the hope that others might emulate them.

From 44 finalists, 12 student-athletes will be named in mid-March to the 1996 All-State Scholar-Athlete team. Each team member will receive a $4,000.00 scholarship and all 28 finalists not named to the team will receive a $500 scholarship.

Approximately 2,500 students from high schools throughout Texas submitted aoolications and were considered by our judges. Each candidate had a grade average of 90 or above and ranked in the top 10 percent of his or her class. Each was judged on scholastic achievement combined with participation and leadership in school and community activities.

Whirlwind Basketball Report

By Bill Gray

Shallowater 77, Floydada 43

FLOYDADA - Shallowater's All South Plains guard Jay Lusk's 20 points led the Mustangs to a 77-43 romp over the Whirlwinds in basketball action at Shallowater on January 16. The Mustangs remained undefeated in District 2-3A play with a 4-0 mark (16-5 overall) as the Whirlwinds dropped to 1-3 in district action (11-13 for the season).

Floydada's Zack Abshier led all scorers on the floor with 23 points, but was the only Whirlwind able to score in double figures against the tough Mustang defense. Chad Hinkle had one of his better offensive outings in district action with 7 points. Vernon Cooper also scored 7 points as the Mustang defenders kept him in check most of the evening. Also scoring for Floydada were Mario Nunez (4) and Omar Eguia (2). Abshier, Nunez, Hinkle and Cooper each hit one 3-pointer in the lop-sided loss.

The Mustangs forged ahead 22-8 at the end of the first quarter and held a commanding 33-18 lead at intermission. Shallowater turned away any Floydada thoughts of a comeback by outscoring the 'Winds 24-12 in the third quarter. The Mustangs capped the runaway with 20 more big points in the final period as the Whirlwinds were never able to make a dent in Shallowater's double-digit lead throughout most of the game.

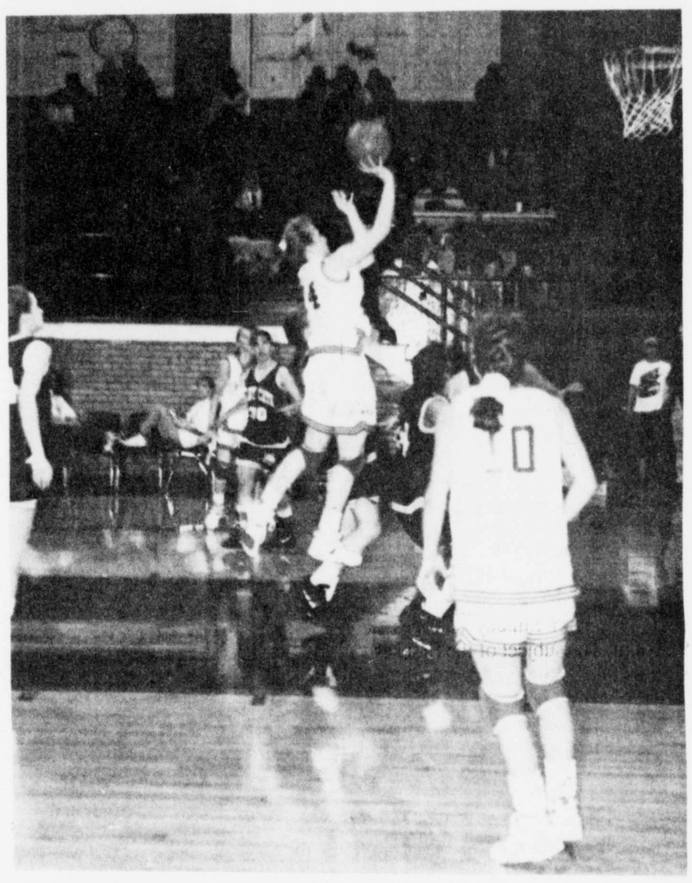

Littlefield 76, Floydada 59

The Littlefield Wildcats outscored Floydada 24-14 in the opening period and held on to defeat the Whirlwinds 76 - 59 in District 2-3A action at Graves Gymnasium on January 19. With the victory, the Wildcats improved to 12-11 for the year (3-2 in District 2-3A). Floydada dropped to 11-14 overall and 1-4 in loop play.

The Whirlwinds kept close for most of the game, in spite of the visitors' height advantage, but it was the Wildcats' little man, "low guard" Cody Favor, who had the big offensive outing. Favor's 19 points tied him with the Whirlwinds' Zack Abshier and Vernon Cooper for total output.

Also scoring for Floydada included Mario Nunez (4), Michael Black (4), Omar Eguia (4).

In summing up the Littlefield loss, Coach Jim Knight said, "This was about the hardest we played all year, as far as the whole game was concerned. They (Littlefield) had good size and experience (four seniors), and they were able to take advantage of our mistakes. We're still so young and inexperienced, which contributed to our turnovers and bad decisions. However, I am still very proud of our kids - they played with intensity, and matched up well at times against a much bigger opponent."

JUMP FOR TWO--Lacy Golightly #10, hopes for the best as Lady Wind Amanda Green #14, goes for two points during Friday nights game against the Littlefield Lady Cats. The game ended Cats 64 and Winds 58.

Lady 'Winds Basketball Report

By Ed Henderson Jr.

Games played from January 16, 1996 through January 22, 1996.

VARSITY

Shallowater 43 Floydada 42

The Floydada Lady Winds continued their string of bad luck as they lost a heart breaker to Shallowater by a score of 43 to 42. The game was closely contested throughout with neither team able to create more than a five point lead at any time during the game. Floydada rebounded from a 15-10 deficit in the first quarter to tie the game at 21-21 at the half behind the balanced scoring of Victoria Cummings, Marty Herrera and Jamie McGuire.

Both teams battled evenly in third quarter as Shallowater took a 33-31 lead into the final period. The final quarter became a free throw shooting contest as the Lady Winds converted five of eight from the charity stripe while Shallowater made six of ten. The Lady Winds had a chance to pick up their first district victory with two minutes to play in the game as they had possession of the ball and the score tied 42-42.

The Lady Winds ran the clock down to 30 seconds and called a timeout to set up their final shot. Floydada worked the ball around the perimeter for the last shot but could not convert with ten seconds left and then were called for a very questionable foul on the attempted offensive rebound. Shallowater went to the free throw line with ten seconds left in the game and two chances to win the game.

The first shot bounced off the back of the rim and gave the Lady Winds a slim glimmer of hope; however, the second shot was good giving the Shallowater Fillies a one point lead. With no time outs remaining, the Lady Winds brought the ball down the court in a hurry and got off a good shot at the basket while being hammered at by the Shallowater defense.

No foul was called and the Lady Winds wound up losing their fourth district game. Floydada scoring was very balanced as Christy Hale and Marty Herrera led with 8 points each, Victoria Cummings and Amanda Green had 6 points each, Lacy Golightly and Jamie McGuire had 5 points each, and Neisha Simpson had 4 points. The loss drops the Lady Winds season record to 8-14 and 0-4 in district play.

Littlefield 64 Floydada 58

The Floydada Lady Winds played an up and down game as they were held to 8 and 9 points respectively in the first and third quarters as they were defeated 64-58 by the Lady Cats from Littlefield. The high scoring game was a definite disadvantage to the Lady Winds as the inside scoring tandem of Trissi Walden and Emily Hutchins combined to score 29 points. Floydada trailed at the end of the first quarter 14-8 as neither team did much offensively.

The second quarter was a different story for the Lady Winds as they outscored the Lady Cats 18-9 behind the shooting of Victoria Cummings, Christy Hale and Amanda Green to take a 26-23 halftime lead. Cold shooting plagued the Lady Winds in the third quarter as Christy Hale scored all 9 points while Littlefield scored 20 points to take a 43-35 lead going into the final stanza.

The final period became a free throw shooting contest as Floydada converted from the line while Littlefield made 13 of 26 from the charity stripe to take the six point victory. Christy Hale led all scorers with 24 points followed by Victoria Cummings with 15 points.

The loss drops the Lady Winds season record to 8-15 and 0-5 in district play. The Lady Winds will start the second round of district competition on Friday, January 26, 1996, on the road against the Dimmitt Bobbies.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Shallowater 68 Floydada 35

The Shallowater Fillies used their height advantage and bench depth all night long as they defeated Floydada by a score of 68 to 35. The Lady Winds could get only single digit scoring in each of the first two quarters and found themselves trailing 34-12 at halftime.

The Lady Wind scoring picked up in the second half as they scored 23 points , but Littlefield put up 34 second half points to take the victory. Leading scorer for the Lady Winds was Tara McCandless with 15 points while Ashleigh Williams and Tamisha Burks had 8 points each.

Littlefield 46 Floydada 32

The Floydada Lady Winds played one of their best games of the year before finally bowing to Littlefield by a score of 46 to 32. The Lady Winds matched the Lady Cats almost point for point during the first half and trailed 21-20 at intermission.

But Floydada could only muster 12 second half points as Littlefield scored 25 points and held on for the 14 point victory. Tamisha Burks led the Lady Winds in scoring with 13 points and Carissa Coursey also contributed 7 points.

8th GRADE

Floydada 31 Tulia 14

The Lady Breezers used convert numerous Tulia turnovers into easy baskets in defeating the Lady Dobbers by a score of 31 to 14. Floydada never allowed more than 4 points defensively in any quarter and scored in double digits themselves in the first and fourth quarters to take the 17 point victory.

The Lady Winds got balanced scoring throughout the game as nine different Floydada players appeared in the scoring column. Leading scorers for Floydada were Mandy Emert, Amanda Williams and Tiffany Henderson with 6 points each. The win improves the Lady Breezer season record to 8-4. The Lady Breezers will play their final district contest on Monday, January 29, 1996, on the road against the Shallowater Fillies.

8th GRADE WHITE TEAM

Motley County Tournament

Floydada 30 Valley 22

Petersburg 35 Floydada 34

The Lady Breezer White team captured third place the one day Motley County Tournament. Veronica Galvan led the Lady Breezers in scoring for the tournament with 17 points and Laci Martinez was the leader defensively and on the boards.

FLOYDADA — The City Park Church of Christ in Floydada will be hosting a series of leadership lectures by speaker Truitt Adair from January 28 through January 31.

Pastor Gene McCarty invites everyone to attend any or all of the series beginning with Sunday services at 9:30 a.m. The subject of the first session will be Values and Leadership.

The Worship service topic at 10:30 a.m. will be Leaders Are Made Not Born and will be followed by a pot luck meal at noon. The 2:00 p.m. Evening Worship topic will be A Noble Ambition.

Monday, January 29, the topic of the 7:30 p.m. session will be Spiritually Qualified Life. Tuesday's topic is Leadership Relationships. The series will end with the 7:30 p.m. session on Wednesday, January 31, titled Primary Work of Leaders.

CORRECTION

Photos of three of the young ladies participating in the St. Mary Magdalen Valentine Fund Raiser were incorrectly identified in the January 18 issue of the Hesperian-Beacon. The newspaper regrets the error and wishes to apologize to Shelby Romero, Roxanne Soliz, and Linda Vargas.

Dr. Dobson Answers Your Questions

DR. DOBSON

QUESTION: We live in what you can describe as "routine panic" in our home. I have three children under 6, and I never get caught up with my work. How can I slow down when it takes every minute of the day (and night) to care for my children.?

DR. DOBSON: There may be a helpful answer in the way you spend your money.

Most Americans maintain a "priority list" of things to purchase when enough money has been saved for that purpose. It is my conviction that domestic help for the mother of small children should appear on that priority list. Without it, she is sentenced to the same responsibility day in and day out, seven days a week.

For several years, she is unable to escape the unending burden of dirty diapers, runny noses and unwashed dishes. She will do a more efficient job in those tasks and be a better mom if she can share the load with someone else occasionally. This seems more important to the happiness of the home than buying new drapes or a power saw for Dad. But how can middle-class families afford house cleaning and baby-sitting services in these inflationary days? It might be accomplished by using competent high school students instead of older adults. I suggest that a call be placed to the counseling office of the nearest senior high school. Tell the counselor that you need a mature third- or fourth-year student to do some cleaning. Do not reveal that you are looking for a regular employee.

When the referred person arrives, try him or her out for a day and see how the responsibility is handled. If the student is very efficient, offer him or her a weekly job. If the student is slow and flighty, thank him or her for coming and call for another student the following week. There is a remarkable difference in maturity level between high school students, and you'll eventually find one who works like an adult.

Here are some further suggestions to help you tolerate the pressures of your life:

1. Reserve some time for yourself. At least once a week, go bowling or shopping or simply "waste" an occasional afternoon. In addition, a husband and wife should have a date every week or two, leaving the children at home, and even forgetting them for an evening.

2. Don't struggle with things you can't change. Concentrate on the good things in your life. Men and women should recognize that discontent can become nothing more than a bad habit—a costly attitude that can rob them of the pleasure of living.

3. Don't deal with any big problems late at night. All problems seem more unsolvable in the evenings, and the decisions that are reached then may be more emotional than rational.

4. Try making a list. The advantages of writing down one's responsibilities are threefold. 1.) You know you aren't going to forget anything. 2.) You can guarantee that the most important jobs will get done first. 3.) The tasks are crossed off the list as they are completed, leaving a record of what has been accomplished.

Floydada City Council...

upon by the council at the meeting. Glenn Bertrand and his daughter Kelli submitted requests for an extension of a permit to keep show pigs in a building located on South 12th Street. This was approved by unanimous vote of the council as no complaints have been received from residents within 500 feet of the building. Motion was made by Leroy Burns and seconded by Eric Cornelius.

The second permit was granted to Louis Pyle allowing a holding pen on the grounds of Pyle Grain Company in Floydada. Pyle asked the council to authorize a temporary pen for working cattle after purchase and before moving to pasture. Pyle told the council he anticipated holding cattle at Pyle Grain no more than 12 hours unless weather prevented moving them. He asked the council to allow holding them up to 48 hours in that event.

Motion was made by Burns to authorize the permit with the stipulation that it would be terminated if complaints were made by adjoining property owners. Clar Schacht made the second and all voted in favor.

Both Livestock permits will have to be renewed annually in January, and may be revoked if problems develop.

Edd Henderson Jr., from Edd V. Henderson and Company, CPA's, Presented the audit for the fiscal year from October 1, 1994 to September 30, 1995. Henderson highly praised the city for their meticulous record keeping and the sound financial condition of the city. According to Henderson, the cash flow of the city has improved steadily over the past several years and shows signs of continuing to do so.

"Experts say that a city should have about six to nine months operating cash in reserves," said Henderson. "The City of Floydada has maintained available cash resources equal to approximately that portion of their budget for many years. This along with the aggressive capital improvements program undertaken during recent serves to make our city an exemplary one in the handling of local government and finance."

The balance sheet for the audited year shows $257,186.00 in cash on hand and certificates of deposit with only $90,404.00 in total liabilities for the city at the end of the last fiscal year.

Revenues for the year totaled $420,102.00 from taxes, interest, fines, fees, and miscellaneous sources. Income derived from city operated utilities and services totaled $505,659.00. Henderson told the council that reopening the landfill had been a boost to the city, making about $20,000.00 above the expenses. He then said that the City of Floydada maintains one of the lowest electric rates in the state. The city also benefitted from $190,843.00 in grant funds during the year which were used in a variety of capital improvement projects.

Expenditures for the year totaled $1,007,926.00. Administrative expenses were $126,754.00 and expenses for the Mayor and Council totaled $17,903.00. Municipal Court expenses were $13,893.00. Street department expenses were placed at $229,588.00 and disbursements for parks totaled $85,189.00. Building inspection cost the city $6,496.00 and airport expenses were $4,962.00. Police department operation utilized $201,410.00, fire department expenses were $63,555.00 and civil defense cost $874.00.

Henderson pointed out that the actual audit was 12 pages, but the complete report is 76 pages, including seven required letters of explanation. The excellent financial condition and records of the city have made them eligible to apply for the GFOA award for the fourth straight year. Three awards for excellence in city operation and financial record keeping have already been presented to the city.

The audit report was accepted by the council on a motion by Hill, seconded by Cornelius and approved by unanimous vote.

The council approved a recommendation from the Floydada Municipal Airport Board concerning the prospective employment of an engineering firm for the proposed airport expansion project. The airport board had recommended Oller Engineering of Lubbock. Second and third choices were Parkhill, Smith, and Cooper of Lubbock and OJD of Wellington. The approval was needed in order for the project to proceed at the state level.

A report concerning the city handling of Sheriff Sale Property for the various taxing entities was presented by City Secretary Sharon Quisenberry. She told the council that the money accumulated in the fund had been divided and returned to the taxing entities on the current pro rata basis. Funds were divided after all costs of administration and caretaking were deducted.

Resolution #214 authorizing the use of regular license plates and stickers on unmarked police vehicles was approved by a unanimous vote of the council. Motion was made by Tipton and seconded by Hill. All voted in favor after determining that the tags would still be exempt status and there would be no cost to the city.

During the public forum section of the meeting, city employee Jimmy Owens gave a short presentation concerning the increasingly productive Coronado archaeological dig in Blanco Canyon. He told the group present that the dig is to be named in his honor and that the future looks bright for more intensive activity at the site. A video provided by public television's Prospective program was also shown.

Mayor Hulon Carthel stated that this could mean good things for Floydada in the future. "If it can be undeniably proven to the scientific community that the Spanish explorer Coronado camped in Blanco Canyon and traveled in this specific area," said Carthel, "it would put Floydada in line for a lot of tourists interested in history." The archaeological community has tried to see that any artifacts discovered remain in the local museum according to Owens and Carthel, creating a haven for history buffs.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved on a motion by Tipton with a second by Hill. Payment of monthly bills was also approved. Motion for this was made by Hill, seconded by Lawson and approved with Hill, Lawson and Schacht voting in favor. Tipton, Burns and Cornelius abstained since each had a bill in those to be paid.

Attending the evening meeting were Mayor Hulon Carthel, council members Leroy Burns, Wayne Tipton, Eric Cornelius, Clar Schacht, Dale Lawson, and Albert Hill. Others present included Gary Brown, Sharon Quisenberry, Karen Houchin, Louis Pyle, Tony Ricketts, Pamela Ricketts, Joe Stepp, James Hale, Jimmy Owens, Arnulfo Cervera, Gabriella Cervera, Rance Barnett, and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

next year.

After discussing the various busses. Lusk told the board that Boyd Lee had reported that the Genesis bus is been on the road every day and has been a good bus.

The motion was made by Jesse Garza and the second by Dan Smith to purchase two fifty-three passenger busses from Texas School Bus Center, Inc. at a cost of $38,455 each. All voted for.

Lisa Mosley came during the time set aside for the public forum and explained to the board why she has withdrawn as director of the yearbook. She reported that Donna McCarter has taken over the yearbook and she will support her in any way she can.

Needs and priorities for the school district from 1993 to the present were listed and those that have been completed were checked off. Lusk asked the board to go over the lists and at a future meeting they would discuss each item and rate them as to importance.

Lusk reported that the computer system in the business office is full and as been upgraded once. He explained that the Sytem 36 was installed in 1985 and is very slow.

"Next year the state will introduce a new accounting system for the schools and we will be nearly forced to replace the system. I checked into the next step up which is an Advanced 36 and it will fit our needs. The cost is $15,400," he stated.

He was asked about the cost of the computer just above the Advanced 36 and stated that he had not looked into it but that if the board wanted to compare the two that he would get the information. The item was tabled until the next meeting.

Lusk told the board that work on the track was nearly complete. He reported that the Morton school had extra stands that were not being used and they would donate them to Lockney. Malcom Moerbe stated that he and Ted Young were making arrangements to go after them.

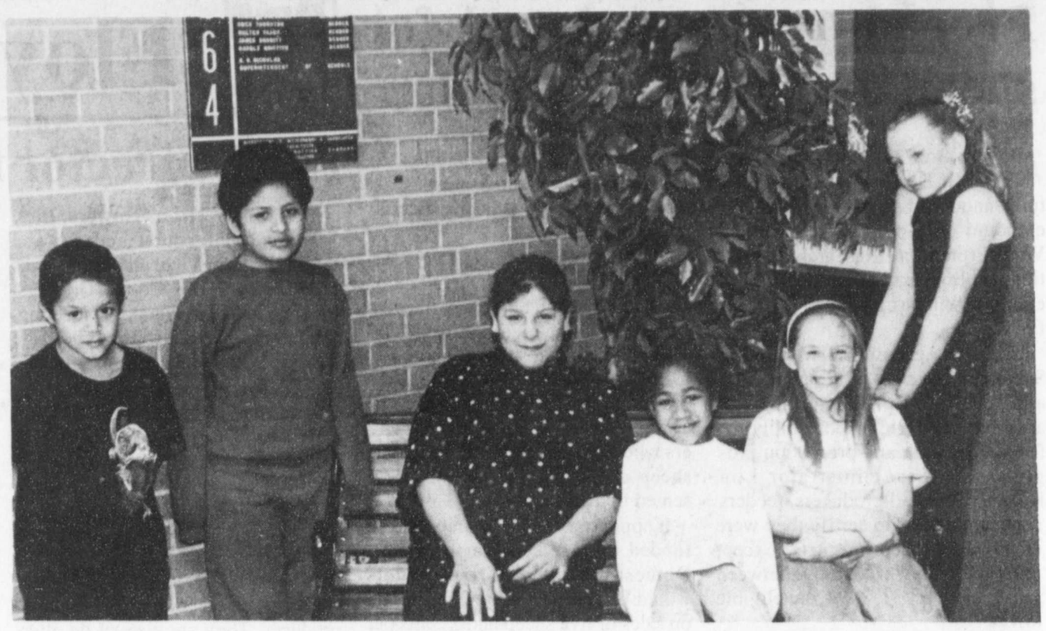

In regular business before the board the minutes of the December meeting were read and approved, bills were reviewed and approved for payment and the financial report reviewed.

Present at the meeting were board members Jim Bob Martin, Carlton Johnson, Mike Mathis, Jesse Garza, Dan Smith, and Bernie Ford; Superintendent Raymond Lusk, Principals, James Poole, Terry Ellison and Phil Cotham; Athletic Director Malcom Moerbe; Lisa Mosley, Ricky Mosley, Lindan Morris and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

We want to thank all the people who have helped us with our loss of Yvonne. Assistance was offered or given in innumerable ways. Food, thoughts, and prayers were freely offered to us all. The flowers and plants given as a tribute to Yvonne and tokens of care for us were beautiful.

Thank you to all the folks at W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital, the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department, and Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home for your care. You all helped us tremendously.

With Yvonne gone, there is a gaping hole in our lives. She was many things to many people. She was a favorite among the children because of her fun-loving ways, her kindness and understanding. She was a rock we leaned on. She brought laughter to our lives. Our pain is deep but with time we will one day heal. Thank you all so much.

Procedures announced for sheep and wool referendum

By Jim Bob Reynolds, CEA-Ag.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced procedures for a referendum on a proposed Sheep and Wool Promotion, Research, Education and Information Order. The referendum will be conducted February 6, 1996.

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, an agency in the marketing and regulatory programs mission area, has oversight responsibility for federal research and promotion programs. AMS administrator Lon Hatamiya said all producers, feeders and importers who certify they were engaged in sheep products (except importers of raw wool only) between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 1994, are eligible to vote.

Voters may register and vote in person or request absentee ballots at Floyd County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Absentee ballots must be requested from the county Extension office serving the county of voter residence, for individuals, or the county where the business headquarters is located, for corporations. Absentee ballot requests, filed in person or by mail, may be made between Jan. 16 and Jan. 26, 1996. Absentee ballots must be received in county Extension offices by close of business Feb. 2.

The Farm Service Agency, formerly the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, will count ballots, determine eligibility of voters and tabulate results.

For the order to go into effect, the proposal must be approved either by a simple majority of voters or by voters who account for two-thirds of the sheep and wool production represented in the referendum.

If approved, the program would be funded by mandatory assessments. Domestic producers and feeders would be assessed 1 cent per pound on sales of live sheep and 2 cents per pound on sales of greasy wool. Importers would be assessed 1 cent per pound or the equivalent on imported degreased wool and wool products.

Details of the voting procedures are published in the Dec. 15 Federal Register. Copies of the final referendum rules, the proposed order and additional information will be available at Floyd County Office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

PCG Director for county to be elected at breakfast meeting

By Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Floyd County cotton producers and agribusinessmen will elect a Business Director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. at a 7:00 a.m. breakfast meeting, Wednesday, January 31, 1996. The meeting will be held at Nielson's Cafe in Floydada.

Announcement of the election comes from Dan B. Smith of Lockney, Floyd County Producer Director to the 25-county cotton organization, and Steve Lloyd of Floydada, current Business Director.

Each of the counties in PCG territory has two directors, one a business representative and the other a cotton producer. They are elected on alternate years for two-year terms. Each is eligible for re-election every second year.

All producers and businessmen are invited to the meeting. However, under PCG By-Laws, only current dues-paying members of PCG will be eligible to be elected a director or to vote in the election. This provision of the by-laws will be fully explained at the meeting.

A PCG representative will conduct the election, review and answer questions about recent and planned PCG activities.

COTTON NEWS

By Shawn Wade

Cotton conferences across the High Plains during the past week have provided cotton producers the chance to learn about the latest advances in production technology and get reports on the status of cotton's market outlook and legislative issues such as the development of the 1995 Farm Bill.

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) the conferences have also allowed producers to learn more about what they can do to minimize the impact of the cotton boll weevil in their fields.

The primary source for boll weevil management information during the 1996 crop year will be the recently revised pamphlet developed by the Texas High Plains Boll Weevil Task Force entitled "Boll Weevil Management in the Texas High Plains - 1996". Producers can obtain the pamphlet either through their county extension office, PCG's office at 4510 Englewood in Lubbock, or by contacting the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock.

"The cotton boll weevil is really a very new threat," notes PCG Boll Weevil Program Coordinator Roger Haldenby. "Only in the past two or three years has the boll weevil been able to adversely impact the economics of cotton production here on the High Plains."

Haldenby says the main reason that boll weevils have not been a problem before now has been the vigilance of area cotton producers and the foresight they exhibited in pulling together the PCG-operated High Plains Boll Weevil Diapause Control Program back in 1963.

He notes that five successive mild winters have allowed the boll weevil to get further established in the area despite the best efforts of PCG's fall diapause program. The diapause program is designed to reduce the number of boll weevils able to enter overwintering habitat, thereby enhancing the effect of winter mortality the following Spring.

Inside the Program's operational area boll weevil populations are typically reduced by 80 percent or more, significantly reducing the number having a chance to survive the winter months and infest newly planted cotton the next year.

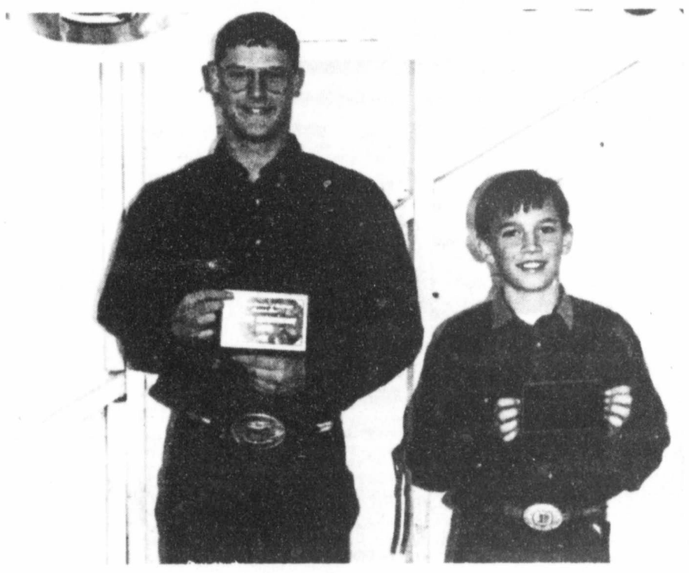

In order to help producers tackle potential boll weevil problems the Boll Weevil Task Force first developed the management guidelines in 1995. The newly released 1996 revision contains a variety of helpful suggestions producers can use to minimize the impact of the boll weevil.
