82 Persons Perish In Bogota Store Fire

NORMAL COURT DECORUM—ALMOST—It was so drafty in Louisville, Ky., Criminal Court that Judge L. R. Curtis presided wearing his brown felt hat to keep his head warm. The chilly breeze, from 10-degree weather outside, came through a ventilator unsealed since summer. (AP Wirephoto)

Norstad Pleads For Missile Rearmament

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

PARIS (AP)—NATO's supreme commander in Europe, U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad, pleaded with the Atlantic Pact countries today to move quickly into missile rearmament.

In a strong presentation to the foreign ministers of the 15-nation alliance, Norstad outlined present strength and future needs in the face of Soviet military swaggering, primarily over Berlin.

Informed sources said Norstad told the secret gathering his military command needs intermediate-range American guided missiles as soon as they can be placed on the European bases from which they could reach the Soviet Union.

Only Britain has thus far accepted these missiles. The Italians are close to signing a similar agreement. French delay on acceptance is the big stumbling block to getting what Norstad considers an adequate force of missiles in Europe.

Norstad's speech was described as sober and serious. A NATO spokesman, asked if the commander expressed satisfaction with Allied military progress, replied:

"It would be wrong to conclude that there was any optimism or pessimism. Realism would be a better word."

Before Norstad spoke, many of the delegates displayed little or no sense of urgency toward the strengthening of land forces or equipping them with missiles. For one thing, U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had told them Tuesday with the statement that "our military advisers are absolutely confident that the Soviet Union will not risk war over Berlin."

Soviet warnings of nuclear war if the West insists on continued access to West Berlin were termed by Dulles "empty threats which ought not frighten anyone."

Norstad also appealed for speedy fulfillment of NATO plans for 30 full-strength, combat-ready divisions in Europe, plus 100 battalions armed with short-range, tactical missiles by 1963. So far the NATO force lacks half of the divisions, due chiefly to the lag in West German armament and the diversion of most French strength from Europe to fight Algerian rebels.

A military report to the NATO ministers warned that the Russians could launch a massive attack without resorting to weapons of mass destruction.

Informants said the Russians could throw one million men into a central European attack. The Soviet military power was estimated at 170 line divisions of 2,500,000 men, 20,000 planes and 500 submarines.

Norstad's appeals were backed by the other top NATO commanders at the conference.

The naval men have been urging more antisubmarine forces—planes, destroyers and escort vessels. They feel their forces now are adequate only for the most limited defense, with no extras in case of war.

Red Soldiers 'Mutilated'

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONG KONG (AP)—A recent arrival from Red China reports 1,000 wounded and "badly mutilated" Chinese Communist soldiers were flown from the Tibetan capital of Lhasa to Peiping last October.

The information tended to confirm recent reports of fresh anti-Communist uprising in Tibet, the semi-independent territory in southwestern China which the Communists invaded in 1950.

Li Yung-shin, chairman of the Chinese Nationalist regime's Mongolian and Tibetan Affairs Commission, told Parliament in Formosa last week that resistance against Communist rule is spreading in Tibet. He said rebel forces had captured the town of Tantang, in southeastern Tibet, in mid-October after a pitched battle in which several hundred Communist troops were killed.

Recurring reports of unrest and uprisings in Tibet have been reaching the outside world since the first major revolt there in the spring of 1956.

United Fund To Extend Campaign

This year's campaign of the Scurry County United Fund will probably be extended to last through January.

The United Fund, which has a budget goal of $42,050 for funds for nine youth and welfare agencies, so far has raised only slightly more than $31,000.

In a meeting this morning, the UF executive committee, which includes the organization's officers, committee chairmen, and campaign leaders, made a formal recommendation to the UF board of directors that the campaign be extended.

The executive committee also took action to get all prospect cards either worked and turned in or turned in blank by Christmas.

After that time the campaign committee will study the cards and make preparations for the extended drive.

Many persons have not been contacted, many who previously gave have not given this year, and some have cut their donations below last year. All of these factors have contributed to the drive's lagging.

In this morning's meeting, Stanley Noah, UF president, noted that by this time last year the United Fund had completed its drive and had exceeded its goal.

Renal B. Rosson, general campaign chairman, made the motion that the executive committee recommend to the board the extension of the drive.

Reports in this morning's meeting showed that the advance gifts division so far has raised $13,173.64, general business $4,628.87, business employes $3,040.72, branch house $2,990, industrial employes $2,733, rural division $1,913.90, and schools $2,300.63. The rural division is the only one which so far has equalled or exceeded what the division raised last year.

12 Nominated For Chamber Board Posts

Twelve men have been named nominees for the election this month of six new Chamber of Commerce directors.

The new directors will be elected in balloting late this month. Ballots will be mailed out to chamber members by Monday and will be due in by Jan. 1.

The six elected will serve two-year terms. Following the election the new directors will meet with the holdover directors to organize, electing officers.

The nominees are H. G. Burchett, Ike Dolan, Harry Reed, Bob Clinton, Rex Miller, Ralph Geisenhoner, Clyde Hall, Herman Doak, Gene Dulaney, Bill Eiland, Dillard Pope, and M. L. Broman.

The six outgoing directors are Dr. Carl Dillaha, Dr. Robert Hargrove, R. C. Patton, Bob McCormick, Fred Auforth, and Gene Thompson.

Holdover directors are Russell Yorgesen, Dr. John Blum, J. W. Phillips, Max Dyer, Bill Brown, and Malven Stevenson. Patton is president, Dillaha vice-president, and Yorgesen treasurer.

Two other directors will also leave the board early next year. They are R. T. Roberts, president of the Jaycees, and Mrs. J. B. Hewitt of the Business and Professional Women's Club. Those two organizations will select a director each for the board.

The officers and directors will be installed at the chamber's annual membership banquet, which will probably be held late in January.

Beat Bounces Late In Queen's Palace

LONDON (AP) — Buckingham Palace bounced to the beat until 2 a. m. today and Queen Elizabeth II joined the hired help in the cha cha.

It was the annual party for the palace household staff.

The Queen, Prince Philip, Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth danced almost nonstop for three hours.

Just before she left at 12:15 a. m., the Queen requested the cha cha.

Panic Grips Huge Crowd

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Fire bred panic in a Bogota department store crowded with Christmas shoppers Tuesday night and sent scores of panic-stricken men, women and children to death.

Officials said 82 persons were killed and 50 injured. Most of them made a fatal wild scramble for a rear stairway that led only to a mezzanine.

Some died with toys in their arms. Others knelt as if in prayer.

"The panic spread very quickly," said Alberto Mazuera, the manager.

Explosion of holiday lights had fired the clothing of salesgirls and sent a curtain of flame across the center of the long, narrow store, named Vida, on Septima Carrera avenue near the Capitol.

Mazuera said customers started bolting when they saw the salesgirls' clothing afire.

Those in front of the store had easy access to the street.

About half of the dead were employes of the store. The remainder were mostly women shoppers. It was estimated 10 children died in the fire, which raged for two hours before being brought under control.

A 16-year-old girl was found alive beneath a mass of bodies on the stairway. Her condition was critical.

The store is located in the central part of Bogota, and the crowds of Christmas shoppers both inside and out added to the chaos.

The panic was heightened by the crowd's difficulty in getting out of the store, which was quite long but only 23 feet wide.

The fire broke out in the middle of the store. Those in front escaped to the street. Those in the back of the store were cut off by a sheet of flames.

Fire extinguishers along the walls were ignored.

Alberto Mazuera, manager of the store, said that when the Christmas lights exploded "The fire went up to the ceiling in a burst of smoke."

"The store was full of people," he said. "I called the people to be quiet and calm and asked for the fire extinguishers and immediately called the firemen.

"Unfortunately panic spread very quickly, which was the principal cause of the deaths. There were so many people in the store that when those in the rear saw they could not get out immediately they turned to the back, crashing into the wall and jamming the stairway."

A fireman, Pedro Rodriguez Ramirez, said when he worked his way through the store with a hose, he found the stairway in the rear covered by bodies. In one rear storeroom on the first floor he found four charred bodies, in another "I found 9 or 10 young women kneeling with their arms outstretched."

President Alberto Lleras Camargo declared national mourning. The government announced it would pay for the funerals.

Family Loses Possessions In Home Fire

A family near Dunn was completely burned out last night, the house in which they lived, all their clothing and even the money they had made pulling bolls this fall.

The Torres family lived in a tenant house on the Hugh F. Billingsley place one-half mile east of Dunn.

Firemen who went to the scene said that apparently the fire, which was reported about 10 o'clock last night, spread so rapidly that the family did not have an opportunity to carry out anything.

Mrs. Hugh Billingsley said this morning that the fire started in the attic of the house and the entire roof of the building was aflame before the occupants knew it was on fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Torres have eight children of their own, and are raising two grand children.

"Some other relatives were also staying with the Torres family during the cotton harvest season," Mrs. Billingsley said.

The family has been plagued by bad luck for the past several years.

Two years ago one daughter had polio, and last year another was injured by fire.

Fire Ravages Lush Valley

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP)—Tragedy and sorrow lie today in the wake of a four-day brush fire that has flared over more than 50,000 acres of Southern California hills and canyons and is still out of control on nearly half its 75-mile perimeter.

While more than 2,000 men fight the stubborn flames, residents pick their way over the blackened earth to the ruins of their homes and summer cabins. Eighteen structures have been destroyed. More than 200 are still in peril.

In picturesque San Juan Canyon, scenic beauty is turned to rubble and ashes.

The canyon people who have returned share the common sadness of loss.

There is Joe Paseri. He came to the canyon to make his home in 1942. Beside the house was a great oak tree. Joe, 77, spent many a day relaxing beneath its branches.

Driven out by the fire, Joe came back to the ruins of his cabin, the black skeleton of the oak and the charred table beneath it.

"I don't know what to do," he said. "I feel like crying."

He reached into the ashes and picked up half of a figurine.

"St. Anthony," he said. "My wife's patron saint."

He sat down beside a blackened metal box, once his refrigerator. He cried.

There is Henry Emberg, who evacuated his home on the sheriff's orders and returned hopefully after the fire had passed. "There was nothing left," he said in shocked disbelief.

John and Romelia Lampo trudged through the charred remains of their cabin.

"We had a nice cabin," said Romelia. "All of the cabins here in the San Juan cost $8,000 or more to build and furnish. Mostly old people lived in them.

"Rebuild? No," said John. "It takes money for that and ours is gone."

"I wonder what the little animals will do for a drink?" Romelia asked.

"We had three little foxes — Limpy, Eater and Bobtail—and we used to feed them every day."

"Yes," added John. "Every day at half past four exactly."

High winds and low humidity have made the fire fighters' job a tough one. They don't expect to have even tentative control over the flames before Thursday.

The fire is believed to have been started by a tracer bullet ripping into the dry brush, either from a hunter's rifle or a military plane.

The fire's northern edge is within five miles of the El Toro Marine Air Base. About 11 miles to the south another front is only a mile-and-a-half from the Marine Crops' sprawling Camp Pendleton. No structures at the camp are threatened. At its westernmost point it is five miles from the mission village of San Juan Capistrano.

Thor Missile In Role Of Pioneer

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Out in the vast Pacific lies a symbol of America's growing space age might—the nose cone of the first ballistic missile launched at this West Coast base.

Neither the Air Force nor the Navy will make any attempt to recover the cone, hurled 1,500 miles across the Pacific missile range Tuesday. Yet it deserves a place in some museum of scientific endeavor.

For the cone of the medium range Thor missile, capable of carrying a nuclear warhead, marks America's first firing of a ballistics missile under combat conditions. It shows the Thor is moving from the development stage to the operational.

Another Thor was fired Tuesday night from Cape Canaveral, Fla., giving the United States its first double-barreled rocket shoot from both coasts. The weapon appeared to perform perfectly. It was fired as part of the close-out phase of the Air Force IRBM research and development program.

Here at Vandenberg, a regular Air Force crew pushed some buttons and the 50-ton weapon soared some 300 miles up to the fringes of space. The blastoff came only 11 minutes after the 11-man crew raised the Thor upright and began filling it with liquid fuel.

Unlike firings at Cape Canaveral, this was no test of an experimental rocket. No civilian experts hovered over their instruments watching for performance flaws that could be corrected in later models.

This was entirely a military operation, demonstrating that the Air Force has now developed combat crews to fire missiles.

Two-and-one-half minutes after the first sign of fire in its tail, the missile was racing targetward at a speed of 9,000 miles an hour. Seconds later the fuel tank section of the missile fell away and was burned up by friction as it reentered the earth's atmosphere.

The nose cone sped on, reaching its maximum speed of 10,000 miles an hour before plunging back through the atmosphere to its impact area 1,500 miles away.

Maj. Gen. David Wade, commander of the 1st Missile Division, said the shot was a great success, despite a 3-hour, 28-minute delay in the final half-hour of the countdown caused by minor technical adjustments. Several additional minutes were lost waiting for three trains to rumble across the base, which lies on the state's main north-south rail route.

Mao Steps Out As President, But Still Bosses Red Party

By NATE POLOWETZKY

TOKYO (AP)—Mao Tze-tung is stepping down as President of Red China, Peiping confirmed today, but it insisted he is still boss.

After keeping it secret a week, Peiping radio let China's 600 millions in on the news. The shift was reported last weekend on Formosa, and Warsaw diplomats got confirmation Tuesday.

Despite Peiping's disclaimer, there was a feeling in Hong Kong, Seoul and Nationalist Formosa that Mao is being downgraded by the Communist apparatus and will eventually be stripped of power.

This opinion is based largely on reports of popular resentment in China over the commune system, which deprives the Chinese of their individuality and puts them to live in communities where their every action is subject to strict orders from above.

Peiping's broadcast today gave no clue on Mao's successor but speculation has centered around Marshal Chu Teh, now vice chairman of the government. Chu, at 72, is seven years older than Mao. They have long been comrades in arms.

Fearful of undermining the Red China regime or even planting the seeds for a possible revolt, the Communist party Central Committee emphasized that Mao was stepping down voluntarily.

Mao's four-year term as head of government expires in January. But he will remain in the powerful post as chairman of the Communist party. The People's Congress meets in Peiping next month to elect the chief of government.

Foreign diplomats drew varying impressions from Mao's retirement.

U.S. and British foreign officials took the view that Mao remained as powerful as ever. Some diplomats in Communist Poland felt that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had a hand in the maneuver—or at least welcomed it.

Mao stands as a potential rival to Khrushchev as the high apostle of world communism.

The Chinese Communist party's communique sought to set at rest reports that grumbling over the communes was a factor in Mao's decision.

The communique declared the commune program to speed up production will be carried on.

The Chinese leaders used caution in their communique to avoid creating even the slightest implication that Mao was forced out because of any errors.

LATE BULLETIN

WASHINGTON AP — A special House committee reportedly decided today to recommend that the House refuse to seat Dr. Dale Alford, segrationist who beat Rep. Brooks Hays D-Ark.

An informant said the vote was 3-2.

A House committee investigating campaign expenditures has been considering charges that there were irregularities in the election.

Alford defeated Hays in a write-in in campaign that pivoted around the school integration issue.

Islands To Remain Territory Of France

ST. PIERRE, St. Pierre et Miquelon (AP) — These tiny windswept islands off the south coast of Newfoundland have decided to remain a territory of France.

France's overseas territories are given the option under the new constitution of retaining their status, becoming self-governing within a new French community or fully integrating with France.

New Tax Bill Required, Says Daniel

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas taxpayers will have to be branded with a permanent new tax of at least 60 to 65 million dollars a year to finance state government beginning in 1960, Gov. Price Daniel said yesterday.

In addition a single shot bill, either a temporary tax or a transfer from a special fund, will be needed to clear up what the state comptroller has estimated will be a 55 million dollar deficit by the end of the current fiscal year, Aug. 31.

"We have had no tax bill in four years. With the increased cost of government and the decrease in oil production, it is significant that we have been able to go this long without a tax bill," Daniel told newsmen at a press conference.

He repeated his earlier statements that Texas could raise sufficient funds by lifting current taxes to the levels used in neighboring states or imposing taxes already in operation there. This can be done without a sales tax or income tax and will still leave Texas "in a competitive position."

He said he would present a tax program to the Legislature after receiving the comptroller's official estimate of the state's financial woes just before the Legislature meets. He said the tax problem "is not going to be as difficult as some people think" and the governor said he felt it could be solved in the regular session.

His budget, which called for about a 10 per cent increase over the 1958-59 period, did not include any of the Hale-Aikin School Study Committee recommendations, the state welfare payments under the recent constitutional amendment paying medical expenses for the old aged, or any increase for state employes. The Texas Employment Commission has completed a job classification study of the 30,000 state workers and will make its report to the Legislature. Daniel estimated it would cost about two million dollars a year to raise the state employes salaries to the level of private business.

"The best we can do on the Hale-Aikin report is to adopt the standards the Legislature is willing to do. We will have to finance them whenever we can do it. I don't know if we can begin much of the program this biennium or not," he said.

The Hale-Aikin committee has recommended a longer school year with $600 a year increases for teachers. The over-all program would drain another 80 millions a year from the general revenue fund.

While the job placement study holds the key to salaries for the state employes, the top department and college heads were recommended for sizeable increases. The salaries were raised up to 50 per cent.

Daniel said a "minimum of essential improvements" above present operating levels would include: $455,000 increase for the biennium to boost the adult parole system; $646,000 to meet increased costs for maintaining the state judicial and office buildings now under construction; $1,044,000 for a new building for part of the State Health Department; $5,850,000 biennium increase to increase prison guard salaries, add more guards and build new additions; $1,657,000 increase for the State Board of Water Engineers, including $400,000 for topographic mapping;

An increase of $918,000 to the comptroller to collect more due taxes; $2,479,000 from special funds to add 50 new state highway patrolmen each of the next two years; about one million dollars from special funds to strengthen the insurance regulation program; $1,151,000 increase in expansion of bed space in state hospitals;

A total of $4,758,000 increase to set up a juvenile parole system, including $2,052,000 for a new school for delinquent boys and $775,000 for a home for dependent Negro children; $3,419,000 for additional teachers in state colleges; and an average annual increase of $650 for each member of a state university or college faculty for the second year of the biennium.

Vocational Nurse Training Planned

Efforts are now underway in Snyder to put a vocational nursing training program in force.

Such a school is under consideration as a joint program of Cogdell Memorial Hospital, the Snyder schools, and the Texas Education Agency.

This program would turn out women in a year's time who would be eligible to take state examinations to become licensed vocational nurses. It would not be a regular graduate nurse program, which required about three years of extensive training.

The program, which would be for adults, would involve training in theory and hospital participation. In the early stages of the program, women taking the course would have about six hours of classroom instruction and two hours a day on the hospital floor. As time passed there would be less time in the classroom and more at the hospital. At the end of about nine months, the nurse trainee would be spending about 40 hours a week on the hospital floor and four hours a week in the classroom.

Committees are now almost sure such a program will begin by early in February here. Some of the workers helping to formulate policies for the program have hopes of starting the program with about 25 trainees, according to Bill Newsom, superintendent at the hospital.

Hospitals at Big Spring and Sweetwater now have such programs, and there have been a number of Snyder residents taking the training at those hospitals in the past.

Work toward establishing the program here has now progressed to setting up requirements for entrance exams, aptitude, educational, physical, and mental requirements of prospective trainees.

Rountree In Quiet Exit

BAGHDAD (AP) — William M. Rountree, assistant U.S. secretary of state, left Iraq quietly, almost furtively, today. His Iraqi Airways plane took off for Beirut, Lebanon, where he will change planes en route to Athens.

The envoy's departure contrasted with the hostile demonstrations which marked his arrival. There were no crowds on the streets. The exact time of his departure had been kept secret.

The Iraqi government nonetheless took no chances. Soldiers stood every 30 or 50 yards along his route from the U.S. Embassy to the airfield.

The American charge d'affaires, A. David Fritzland, other embassy officials and a representative of the Iraqi protocol office saw him off. Rountree declined to make a statement.

Organized mobs shouted "Go home" and hurled mud, eggs and stones at the flag-flying limousine of the U.S. Embassy when Rountree arrived Monday on a fact-finding tour of the Middle East.

The visitor traveled in an embassy station wagon without a flag Tuesday and was virtually unnoticed as he was driven to a midday conference with Premier Abdul Karim Kassem.

He talked for more than an hour with the Premier. The government and the U.S. Embassy refused to give any information about what was discussed.

Storm Sweeps France

PARIS (AP)—A rare hurricane swept most of France Tuesday night, leaving at least nine dead and thousands of dollars of damage.

Myers Rites Are Pending

Emanuel Myers, 54, of Pittsburg, Cal., died at about 4:20 a.m. today in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

He had been here for the past six weeks visiting a daughter, Mrs. J. M. Brewer, 1010 Twenty-eighth Street.

In ill health for some time, he retired in 1956 from the Columbia Steel Plant at Pittsburg because of his health. He was born July 5, 1904, at Cleburne.

Funeral services are pending at Bolger Funeral Home but are expected to be held at Corsicana.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Mamie Myers of Oakland, Cal.; two other daughters, Mrs. Lorene Bright of Houston and Geneva Myers of Oakland; three sons, Ernest Ray Myers of Oakland, Bog Myers, who is in the Air Force and stationed at Lake Charles, La., and Davie Earl Myers of Oakland; and one brother James Myers of Pittsburg.

Man Injured When Pickup Overturns

Wayne York, 510 Thirtieth Street, was injured early this morning when the pickup he was driving overturned about three miles east of the traffic pattern on U. S. Highway 84 here.

York, about 30, apparently went to sleep, according to Sheriff Earl Abercrombie, who investigated the accident. Abercrombie said York, who was returning to Snyder from Bronte, had been driving for a number of hours without sleep before returning here.

The pickup struck a culvert and overturned at about 12:30 a.m. today. Gene Bolding, who was driving on the highway and happened upon the wreck, took York to Cogdell Memorial Hospital, where he was being treated for cuts and bruises.

Second Frost Hits Valley

By The Associated Press

Frost was reported again early Wednesday in the Lower Rio Grande Valley where tender vegetables were nipped Tuesday by a freeze.

The frost Wednesday was light and spotty and did not add greatly to the damage done by Tuesday's heavy frost and freezing temperatures.

Monte Alto, east of Edinburg, reported 32 degrees, the only freezing mark in the valley early Wednesday. Temperatures generally were in the middle 30s. Brownsville had a low reading of 39 degrees.

Freezing weather was reported again in the Panhandle and in Central and West Texas as minimum temperatures ranged from 20 degrees at Dalhart to 47 at Galveston.

Skies were clear and the Weather Bureau said temperatures would warm up during the day.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dale Blythe, Old Post Road, are parents of a seven-pound, one-ounce daughter, born at 6:03 p.m. yesterday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

A seven-pound, four-ounce son was born at 6:26 p.m. yesterday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital to Rev. and Mrs. R. Charles Spivey, 3100 Avenue T.

STUDIOUS PUPIL GETS AN ANSWER

Studious pupils in the Snyder schools apparently get their information from every source, but one this week got a letter misdirected.

His request for information, sent to Air France's office in Dallas, was reported in part in the Dallas News: "I am a student of Latin in Snyder High School. Would you please send me, at the below address, information on Greek gods, especially Minerva"

Air France didn't have the information, but it had a reply: "Our information in this office primarily concerns air travel and its related aspects (and we haven't transported a Greek god in years.) We are, however, enclosing two brochures on Greece, which we hope may be of interest to you."

Marc Connelly, the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright of "The Green Pastures," is now and then an actor. He plays a role in the new comedy, "Tall Story," headed for Broadway. A Pulitzer Prize playwright, Connelly has acted a few times before — completely in the ham school.

GOP Rift Spreading

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—A split in Republican ranks widened today over Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's candidacy for party floor leader in the new Senate.

The Illinois senator's assertion he is definitely a candidate and expects to win stiffened the attitude of senators rebelling against their Republican leadership.

The insurgents' spokesman, Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, said in an interview: "We have everything to gain and nothing to lose by making our fight for a forward-looking leadership. I think we have a good chance to win. If we are defeated, the party can look forward to further reversals in the 1960 elections."

Dirksen, Senate GOP whip in the last session, told reporters he expects to be elected floor leader at the Republican caucus Jan. 7.

He said he does not believe the other group could block his election. He is supported by Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

The insurgent group has a hard core of 10 members, but claims support among the other 24 Republican senators in the coming Congress.

All of the insurgents rate themselves as faithful backers of President Eisenhower's foreign policies, and some call themselves liberals.

"I do not know on what grounds I am being opposed," Dirksen said. "I have gone down the line for key administration legislation, including foreign aid, reciprocal trade, defense reorganization, the U. S. Information Agency appropriations and other controversial measures.

"I have carried the flag for the President and the White House when the going was rough."

The opposition group has said it will announce at a Dec. 30 meeting its candidates for floor leader, whip, Bridges' policy committee post, and for chairman and secretary of the Conference of All Republican Senators.

Aiken said he would seek the post of floor leader himself only as a last resort. Some of his associates want him to make the fight. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California is the choice of most of them for whip.

More Funds For Colleges Urged

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP)—Two of the state's leading educators warned here yesterday that "budgetary stinginess" would result in making Texas' higher educational institutions second - rate.

Speaking at a luncheon attended by civic leaders and education administrators, Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, and Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of Texas A&M, both appealed for more financial aid for the state's 18 state - supported colleges and universities.

Citing specific needs of the 18 state schools, Harrington said that they need approximately 51 million dollars, approximately 13 million dollars more than the general revenue fund next year.

Wilson told the San Angelo meeting that the United States will not be able to meet the challenge of Russia if Texas, as one of the largest states in the nation, does not contribute its part. He said that in the competitive world, the greatest national resource is brainpower.

Both Wilson and Harrington said that one of the biggest problems facing higher educational institutions is the loss of teachers to industry.

Harrington, citing the loss of seven A&M instructors who left teaching for $7,000 a year pay raises in industry, said "If they were worth that much to industry, you may well imagine what these seven were worth to education in Texas and how impossible it will be to replace them satisfactorilly."

"Certainly we can hire second, third and fourth class minds for these (present) salaries but that's the kind of education and training you get," Wilson said.

"Do yo want the malleable minds of your sons and daughters trained by this class of people?" He asked.

Yesterday's luncheon was one of a series of 12 held throughout the state to enlist public support for more money for the 18 state-supported colleges and universities. Texas and Texas A&M ex-students associations sponsored the luncheon.

Italian Has Touchy Gift For President

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Italian tailor is in town with expensive gifts for President Eisenhower — a vicuna overcoat and a cashmere golfing jacket.

But, after learning how the word vicuna still causes government officials to wince, he hasn't tried to go near the White House to present them personally to the President.

Instead, Angelo Litrico of Rome said he would turn over his two hand-made creations to the Italian Embassy. Ambassador Manlio Brosio, he said, has assured him they will be delivered to the White House.

When asked, the Italian Embassy said Litrico must be mistaken. Brosio has offered to send along the cashmere golfing jacket to the White House, the embassy said, but the ambassador said nothing about the vicuna coat.

The White House kept a strict silence about Eisenhower's attitude toward the intended gifts. Associate press secretary Anne Wheaton said Litrico has "no appointment — none whatsoever."

The 30-year-old Litrico, operator of a fashionable shop in Rome, said he knows nothing about the furor created last summer by the disclosure that a vicuna overcoat was given to former presidential aide Sherman Adams by Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

"I'm not a politician," he said. "I'm a tailor. It's not my fault that vicuna has suddenly become a bad word. It's a beautiful material — the very best."

He displayed the coat — a hand-sewn navy blue model — to a reporter in his hotel room.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek have shown no reluctance in accepting his gifts when he visited their countries, Litrico said.

"I would never visit a foreign country without giving a present to the boss. I give it out of my heart," he said.

Starvation Victim Had Plenty Funds

CUSHING, Okla. (AP)—A 90-year-old man who apparently died of starvation had $10,101 in cash on his body, officers disclosed.

Asst. County Atty. D. O. Cubbage said it appeared there had been no food for more than a week in the home of George W. Williams, 90. Williams was found dead Monday night.

The recluse, who once had been active in civic affairs at nearby Yale, lived alone in a scantily furnished house.

Junior Editors Quiz on Christmas

QUESTION: What guided the wise men to the manger?

• • •

ANSWER: The people of the ancient world were forever looking to the skies for signs of great events. So when the wise men saw a star of great brilliance appear in the heavens they knew it was a sign that Jesus, who was to be King of the Jews, had been born.

St. Matthew tells it:

"There came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

"Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. . .

"And, lo, the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

"When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

"And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him. . ."

Several attempts have been made to explain the Star of Bethlehem scientifically, notably that it was a "supernova," a star that suddenly explodes into brilliant light and then fades away into darkness.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a picture of the three wise men on their camels following the Star of Bethlehem to Jesus. Cut it out and paste it on cardboard and color it. It can be added to your collection of Bible stories.

Bach-Beethoven Rift Develops

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—It was Beethoven's birthday, but it was also the Christmas season. And that's where the trouble started.

The University of North Carolina's Choral Club scheduled Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" Tuesday night. Some music department students took offense, hoisted placards and began picketing the performance.

Said the signs, "UNC Music Dept. is Unfair to Beethoven." "Go Home, Bach, Go Home." "Three Cheers for Beethoven."

Released On Bond

J. B. White, charged here with aggravated assault, was released last night on $1,000 bond, Sheriff Earl Abercrombie said.

His sureties were Harold Brown, and T. C. Goss.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

WEST TEXAS CONCEIVABLY could come up with four state football champions this season. This section of the state is represented in the finals of all classes, Wichita Falls in Class 4A, Breckenridge in 3A, Stamford in 2A and White Deer in 1A.

Of the four, Wichita Falls and Breckenridge are pretty well "in" but Stamford and Angleton in 2A and White Deer and Elgin in 2A are pretty much toss-ups.

Breckenridge is the only one of the four playing at home. The other three finals, in fact, are being played on neutral fields, Wichita Falls playing Pasadena at Austin, Stamford meeting Angleton at Waco and White Deer contesting Elgin at Sweetwater. All but the White Deer-Elgin game are being played Saturday afternoon. The WD-Elgin game will be unreeled Saturday night.

Two State Title Games Close By

Chamber of Commerce officials here made an all-out bid to land the White Deer-Elgin game but Snyder was just a bit too far west to get the bid.

Abilene, actually, was the center point between White Deer and Elgin but the Key City didn't go after the game so the game was awarded to Sweetwater which had representatives here for the meeting between officials from the two schools following the White Deer-Mason semi-final game last Saturday.

The "underground" bowl at Sweetwater was also attractive to the White Deer and Elgin officials. Cold wind is pretty bad at this time of the year and the underground field at Sweetwater helps to block off the chilling breezes.

Two state finals, thus, are being played within 120 miles of us and if a fan had a mind to, he could take in both games. One would have time to get from Breckenridge to Sweetwater Saturday to take in the 3A and 1A championship games and still stay within the speed limit. It's slightly under 100 miles from Breckenridge to Sweetwater.

White Deer Star Just Shy of 2,000-Mark

Herschel Powell, White Deer's star halfback, lacked 42 yards reaching the 2,000 mark for the season in last week's game with Mason here.

Powell rolled up 139 yards against Mason to bring his season total to 1,958. Barring injury, Powell should go well pass the 2,000 mark Saturday night.

Powell, however, wasn't the leading ground-gainer for the Bucks against Mason. Allen Harmon topped the Bucks in rushing attempts with 179 yards, passing the 1,000 mark in the process. Harmon's yardage for the season is now 1,150.

As is the usual case, rumors fly thick and fast when a coaching vacancy opens up at a school.

The Baylor vacancy which came about last week upon the resignation of Sam Boyd, already has has rumors flying high. There's one that is reported to have a lot of "teeth" in it.

That is the one that has Boyd taking over as athletic director and Abilene's Chuck Moser moving in as the football coach. If Chuck plans to stay in coaching, it would seem foolish for him to turn down the Baylor post if offered him.

Moser Has Security In Abilene

Moser, though, might elect to stay in Abilene for security reasons. He's already made an impression on Abilene fans that will stand for a long time to come and he's probably got a job there as long as he wishes to stay.

It would be a gamble for Chuck to take the Baylor job as two or three losing seasons would tear down the reputation Moser has built up.

Then you can look at it from this angle. Chuck doesn't have much to gain now by staying at Abilene. Already he's lost a little confidence in the fans because he hasn't won state in the last two years. But still he's won the district title both years and with five straight district winners, now's a pretty good time to move up the ladder.

At Baylor he wouldn't have anywhere to go but up since the Baylor situation is at its lowest ebb in several years what with two consecutive cellar seasons.

Another rumor has Baylor going after a "big name" coach. This being the case the Baptist institution probably would have to get a man to fill both the coaching position and athletic directorship because of financial reasons.

Baylor probably isn't able to offer enough to a big-name coach for the coaching position alone.

TCU coach Abe Martin missed his first "official" workout Monday since becoming head coach at Froggieland to speak at the football banquet here.

Abe canceled all other speaking engagements prior to the Cotton Bowl game, according to Jim Brock, sports publicity director at TCU.

AS TULSA BEATS OKLA. STATE

Little Brother Is Winner This Time

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

Henry (Hank) Iba is celebrating his 25th year as basketball coach at Oklahoma State University. His younger brother Clarence, Tulsa coach, already has spoiled Hank's silver anniversary season.

SEEKS 2nd WIN—Danne Beason, 162 pounds, of the Snyder Optimist-Boys Club boxing team, will be after win No. 2 Friday night when he is scheduled to fight George Carpenter of Abilene. Beason, who entered the ring for the first time here two weeks ago, defeated Don Hutchinson of Sweetwater in his only fight thus far. Snyder and Abilene will clash Friday night at Junior High Gym with 10-12 bouts on tap. (Lee Watson photograph)

Tulsa turned back Oklahoma State 71-50 Tuesday night in the 69th renewal of their series and enabled 49-year-old Clarence to gain a measure of revenge over 54-year-old Henry.

This was only the seventh time in 50 games that Tulsa has been able to defeat a Hank Iba-coached Oklahoma State team.

The Hurricane took the lead midway in the first half and remained in front the rest of the way. Roger Wendell topped the Tulsa scorers with 27 points.

West Virginia, ranked seventh nationally, was the only top 10 team to see action. he Mountaineers rebounded from their upset by Virginia Saturday and crushed Richmond 98-67.

Jerry West paced the winners with 29.

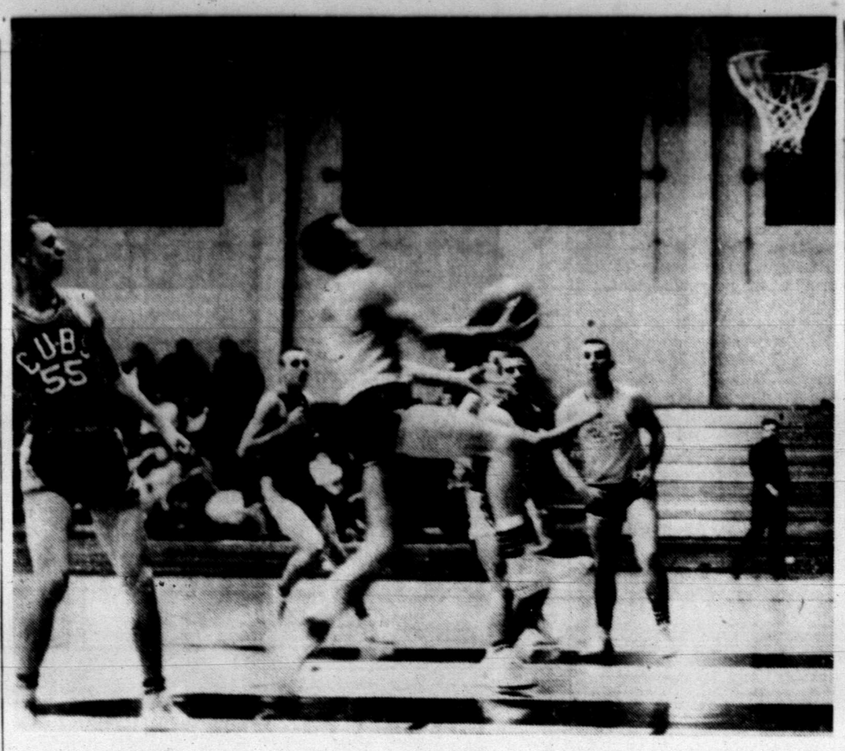
St. Joseph's (Pa.), No. 14, outclassed Elizabethtown 94-69 for the Hawks' fifth triumph in a row after a shaky start.

In other leading games, Virginia Tech downed Furman 95-80 as Earl Gilbert hit for 32 points, San Francisco edged Wichita 47-46 to break a four-game losing streak, Gerry Glynn collected 33 points to spark Yale to a 76-73 Ivy League contest over Brown, Loyola of Chicago posted its fifth consecutive triumph by shading Drake 74-71 and Oklahoma City rallied in the second half to whip North Texas State 70-56.

Baylor Races Past ACC Quint, 65-58

By The Associated Press

Baylor kept the Southwest Conference's colors flying intersectional play Tuesday night by downing Abilene Christian College, 65-58.



HULEN DRIVES—Stan Hulen Tiger guard, drives in for a shot in last night's tilt with Brownfield here. The ball rolled in and then out of the goal but it didn't matter as the Tigers won easily, 61-42. Tigers Roar To 61-42 Victory Over Cub 5

The Tiger basketeers broke a close game wide open early in the second quarter and then breezed to a smashing 61-42 victory over the Brownfield Cubs in a non-district game last night at Tiger Gym.

It was the fourth win of the young season in seven starts for Coach J. P. Ward's inexperienced Tiger squad.

Brownfield led twice in the first quarter last night, the last time being 8-7 with two minutes left in the initial period. Then Kenny Drake, who came off the bench to lead the Tigers in scoring, pumped in a jump shot to regain the lead for the Tigers at 9-8 with 1:20 left. The Tigers were never to be headed thereafter.

Drake hit again from the floor to push the Tiger margin to 11-8 at the first quarter mark. The Tigers then pulled away in the second quarter, going to rest at the intermission with a commanding 30-16 lead. The Tigers pushed their margin to 27 points after three quarters, 50-23.

Brownfield outscored the Tigers in the final quarter, 19-11, but the damage had been done. The Tigers who hit 12 of 18 free shot attempts in the first three quarters, grew cold at the charity line in the fourth period, hitting only 5 of 13.

The Bengals had a "red hot" second quarter, hitting 7 of 8 attempts from the floor for 88 percent. The Wardmen wound up with a shooting average of 44 percent for the night, hitting 22 out of 50 attempts.

Brownfield found the range only 13 times in 54 attempts for 24 percent.

Drake led the Tiger scoring attack with 17 points. Two other Tigers hit in double figures, Tim Roberts and Bill Dubose with 15 points apiece.

Dimmunitive Eldon Jones led the Brownfield attack with 14 points, 10 of 'em coming in the last quarter. Jones was the only Cub in double figures.

The Tigers also won the B game, Coach V. V. Shearburns lads making a gallant comeback in the fourth quarter for a 46-44 victory.

Brownfield B led 38-31 in the early portion of the final quarter before the locals staged their rally.

Larry Patterson led the Tiger B scoring with 11 points, followed by Mike Moffett with nine. Johnny Murphy and Ray Jones shared scoring honors for Brownfield B with 10 points each.

Next on tap for the Tigers is the Vernon Invitational Tournament Friday and Saturday. The Tigers will meet Mineral Wells at 5:30 p.m. Friday in their opening game at Vernon.

Blue Devils Dump Lamesa In Twinbill

Snyder Junior High swept to a double triumph over Lamesa here yesterday, the Blue Devil 7th graders winning by 30-13 and the 8th graders by 26-21.

The twin victories left both Snyder teams with 3-0 season records.

Pat LaFountain led the Blue Devil 8th graders to victory with nine points. He was followed by Jimmy Taylor with six, Darrell Aldridge with four, Stuart Long with three and Luke Nigliazzo and Kenny Wellborn with two each. Woods was high for Lamesa with six.

Lamesa led 3-2 at the first quarter mark and it was 13-13 at halftime before the Blue Devils pulled into a 21-20 lead at the third quarter stage and then held on.

Benny Minor led the Blue Devil 7th graders with 12 points. Others hitting the scoring column were Ed Schulz with eight, Roy Rice and Jackie Stewart with four each and Jimmy Wilson with two. Robertson was Lamesa's top scorer with 11.

Snyder 7th led quarterly by 6-1, 14-5 and 18-13, Lamesa drawing a blank in the final period.

Stewart drew praise for his rebound work for Snyder 7th.

Both Snyder teams will host Post tomorrow, the 7th graders meeting at 4 to be followed immediately by the 8th graders.

Ira Drops 4 To Jayton

Jayton swept all four games from Ira in a basketball "quadrupleheader" last night at Ira.

The visiting Jayton teams were extended in both girls games, the Jayton B gals nipping Ira B by 24-23 and their varsity girls shading the Ira varsity, 42-41.

Jayton won the boys games handily, 31-20 in the B game and 52-35 in the boys tilt.

Ira missed a golden opportunity to win the girls game when she missed a free shot on a 1-and-1 situation with two second left in the game. All told, Ira made good on only nine of 33 attempts from the free throw lane.

Anita Patterson with 17 points and Lena Farmer with 15 led the Ira varsity girls in scoring. Till was high for Jayton and the game with 22.

Weeks led the Jayton boys with 20 points while Bill Murphy was high for Ira with six.

Next on tap for the Ira teams will be Friday night when Aspermont invades the Ira gym.

Doak Most Colorful In SWC History

DALLAS (AP)—Doak Walker, the three-time All-America player from Southern Methodist University, yesterday was picked as the most colorful football player in Southwest Conference history.

The poll was conducted among 15 "old - timers" in Southwest Athletic circles by Lester Jordan, SMU sports publicity director.

The former SMU star amassed 140½ votes to rank far ahead of second place Sammy Baugh, the former Texas Christian University passing whiz, who received 93 points.

Walker was the only player to be named on all 15 ballots.

Davey O'Brien, another TCU star, and Jack Crain, halfback at the University of Texas, tied for the third position with 64 points.

One current player made the top ten—SMU's Don Meredith. The pony passer collected 49 points to rank seventh on the all-time list.

Joel Hunt of Texas A&M pulled in 54½ points to nudge All-America Aggie fullback John Kimbrough's 53 for the No. 5 position.

Jim Swink of TCU (46) ranked eighth. The only lineman to make the top ten—center Ki Aldrich of TCU—earned the No. 9 spot with 28.

Dicky Moegle of Rice and Bohn Hillard of Texas tied for the No. 10 position with 20 points each.

Other stars who received votes and their schools:

SMU—Gerald Mann, Bobby Wilson, Gil Johnson, Fred Benners, Kyle Rote, Redman Hume and Scrapiron Hammon.

Arkansas — Jim Benton, Clyde Scott and Wear Schoonover.

Texas — Hubert Bechtol and Bobby Layne.

Texas A&M — Joe Routt, Dick Todd, Bob Smith and John Crow.

Rice—Bill Wallace and Froggie Williams.

Baylor — Larry Isbell, Billy Patterson, Bochey Koch and Del Shofner.

TCU — Cy Leland and Rags Matthews.

Bill Corum, Famed Scribe, Succumbs

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Corum, a small town boy who found fame in New York and contentment in the blue grass of Kentucky, died Tuesday night at the age of 63.

Cancer of the lung, complicated by pneumonia, ended his dual career of nationally syndicated sports columnist for the New York Journal American and president of Churchill Downs race track in Louisville, Ky.

He died in New York's St. Luke's Hospital, but as always he did not miss a deadline. He became critically ill over the weekend, and ironically the newspaper for which he worked will not carry his obituary today. Along with eight other metropolitan dailies, it has suspended publication because of a deliverers' strike.

Max Kase, sports editor of the Journal American, said today, "This comes as a great personal shock to me. There is nothing I can add to the wonderful record he has made as a man."

Sports writers and sportsmen across the nation echoed Kase's feelings.

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the famous 84-year-old horse racing trainer, said Corum's death was a great loss to racing. "There's nothing you can say about him that isn't real good. He was a writer."

Born at Speed, Mo., July 20, 1895, Corum began building that reputation in 1925 when he joined the Journal American as a baseball writer. That was the same year he saw his first Kentucky Derby, and he loved and praised the classic race for 3-year-olds so much that in 1949, when Col. Matt Winn died, he was the logical choice for the presidency of the tradition-steeped race track.

Colum continued in his sports writing job, but for two months each spring he went to the blue grass country to conduct the spring meeting of which the Derby is the premier attraction.

William H. Veeneman, chairman of the board of Churchill Downs, said no thought has been given to a successor.

"We're going to go slow on picking the man to take over Bill's job," Veeneman said. "It may not be until May (the Derby is traditionally run the first Saturday in May) before we reach a decision, but when we do we'll all be in accord as we were when Col. Winn died."

Lincoln Pins S'wter Twice

Lincoln swept two games from Sweetwater in a basketball doubleheader here last night. The Lincoln boys won 76-42 while the local girls triumphed by 46-38.

The victories gave the Lincoln boys a 5-3 season record and the girls a 5-2 mark.

Joe Phillips led the Lincoln boys in scoring with 23 points. Three other Trojans scored in double figures. Randolph Williams and Charlie Archie each tallied 11 points and Mack Taylor 10.

Lloyd Hood, the Trojans' leading scorer for the season, fouled out in the first half and he wound up with only six points. Gene Taylor also scored six for the Trojans. Rounding out the Trojan scoring was John Choyce with four, Ronnie Green with three and A. C. Thompson with two. M. Johnson led Sweetwater with 13 points.

Karen Gift and Maxine Cobb with 14 points each led the Lincoln girls to victory. Louise Archie scored 12 and Annette Harrison six to round out the Trojanette scoring. Jo Ann Todd led Sweetwater with 20 points.

Last night's games wound up the pre-Christmas schedule for the Lincoln teams.

OUR VIEW

Case Of Simple Justice

Recent increases in automobile insurance rates are likely to focus attention on efforts to develop a flexible rate plan during the next session of the legislature.

The National Association of Independent Insurers advises that a bill probably will be introduced adopting the flexible rate system which is now in use in several other states. That organization claims that such a system would result in a saving of 10 per cent to 35 per cent for most Texas drivers on their car insurance bill. In dollars and cents, they say it would reduce premiums by $15 to $47.15 per year for careful drivers who own "average" automobiles in Snyder.

Some insurance companies reportedly are anxious to put flexible rates into force, but under existing statutes in Texas they must assess the "standard" rates. That means an elimination of competition, which the insurance firms are said to favor.

In our opinion, the ideal system would provide some concrete economic benefit for safe drivers, and presumably the flexible rate system would do that.

Few people would be reluctant to save $15 to $47.15 per annum on their insurance bills. On the other hand, those who insist on ignoring safety precautions when they get under the steering wheel might appropriately expect to pay through the nose. That is nothing more than simple justice.

Soaring Market Is Cause For Worry

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—With the stock market moving into the newspaper front pages, more and more persons are becoming anxious today lest its exuberance be leading us into trouble.

Bull markets and large daily turnover of stocks reflect the public interest. The Federal Reserve Board has indicated its concern lest speculative psychology based on expectations of future inflation may be fed by the Wall Street story.

The bulls kept going strong early in the year when the recession was at its worst. They kept going during the first weeks and months of rapid recovery. They have scarcely slackened their pace in recent weeks when the recovery momentum slowed down.

They express confidence that after the present backing and filling while stock portfolios are readjusted for tax purposes at yearend, the market will be lively and tending higher.

Is the stock market — which started upward long before recovery—setting the pace for the economy? Is it going too fast and getting too far ahead?

The president of the New York Stock Exchange, Keith Funston, says no.

"The market is not setting the pace for the economy, but merely reflects what is occurring elsewhere," he tells the Minneapolis Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He admits that the stock market's activity has indicated a deep concern over the prospect of continued inflation. But he points out: "Whether or not such fear is unreasonable, as some government experts and economists would have us believe, is beside the point. Such fear does exist and it will take more than words to alleviate it."

Instead of accusing the stock market of fostering inflation by pumping up inflation psychology, he urges that the roots of the evil be attacked.

He says: "The only answer to inflation is fiscal responsibility. We must impress on government authorities at all levels our sense of shock at higher and higher spending. And we must recognize that more efficient production is the only sound means of raising wages."

Market analysts have pointed out that the bull market has other elements than just fear of more inflation. One often cited is the thinness of the market. By this they mean that while by the end of this year some five billion shares will be listed on the exchange—a record number — the vast majority aren't up for trading. The comparatively small amounts that are available help their owners to ask and get higher prices.

The reason usually cited for the reluctance of many shareholders to sell is that the capital gains tax levy leads investors to lock up billions of dollars worth of stock rather than pay the tax levied on successful investments.

Corporations have been slow in issuing new stock, turning instead to raising money by various forms of borrowing. The interest they pay on this debt can be deducted from earnings before taxes.

Also since earnings are taxed, and then dividends paid out of profits are taxed to a large extent as individual income, corporations feel that debt financing costs its stockholders less than new stock issues would.

Funston says the devils are inflation fears and taxes—not his exchange.

Young Burglars Finally Caught

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Marvin Phillips reported 15 break-ins at his home during the past month.

Each time only food was taken. Valuables were ignored.

Sheriff's deputies have nabbed the culprits.

Two sisters, aged 5 and 8, rocks clenched in their tiny hands, were caught just as they prepared to smash a window and enter the house.

They told officers: "We're hungry. Daddy is in jail. Mother doesn't have a job."

The deputies released the youngsters to their mother and made this notation on their report: "We'll leave final judgment to the juvenile officers."

Demos Take Look At Latin-America

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are moving in to push the Eisenhower administration toward a broadened and perhaps more generous policy in dealing with Latin America, or to break the whole subject wide open for public discussion.

The shocking treatment given Vice President Richard M. Nixon last spring on his Latin-American good will trip forced this country into painful realization that this country's relations with its southern neighbors are far from happy.

The problem is complex. Mainly, so far, the administration has been talking of studying the problem.

This week Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts, one of the leading possibilities for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960, made a speech in Puerto Rico. In it, he offered a 10-point program for strengthening U. S.-Latin-American relations. While not giving Latin America a clean bill of health, he was critical of this country's performance.

That speech cannot help but win him friends in Central and South America. It can't do him any harm either among Latin Americans in this country if he should run for president.

Another Democrat, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, also in the running for his party's presidential nomination, indicated last week he plans a major speech on Latin America.

Sen. George Smathers, a Florida Democrat who is known as a friend of Latin America, has said he expects to introduce in the new Congress a bill to create the post of undersecretary of state for hemisphere affairs.

On top of this, a Senate subcommittee — headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon Democrat —was given the task of looking into U. S.-Latin-American relations. It now is making a study and may hold hearings early next year.

The bipartisanship of Democrats and Republicans has been pretty sturdy in areas of the world where communism is a menace, especially where it is or might become a military menace.

There's no present military danger from communism in Latin America. But there is the possibility of future danger, and maybe not too far off, if Communists gain a dominant role in one or more Latin-American countries.

The Democrats may feel less inclined to go along with the Eisenhower administration on problems involving Latin America than on those affecting Europe, Asia or Africa.

When Nixon returned from Latin America last May he made a few public proposals—mostly in generalities—for bettering this country's relations with its southern neighbors. And he conferred privately on the matter with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. But Nixon has never come up with any detailed proposals in public.

After Nixon's return, Eisenhower sent his brother Dr. Milton Eisenhower to Latin America. He, too, made few public proposals when he got back here in August.

Milton Eisenhower said he would make more detailed recommendations later but explained this might take time because of his duties as president of Johns Hopkins University. So far as this writer can learn he has never made those further recommendations.

Recently representatives of this country met with representatives of 20 Latin-American countries to study what needs to be done to provide more U. S. help for Central and South America.

Pet Can Serve As Measure For Time

NEW YORK (AP)—In our house we have entered the era of the third cat.

When you have a child in a house you often measure time by the pets.

Rather fondly I look back now at the time our daughter Tracy had her very first live pet—a period known as the Era of the First Turtle.

It was a tiny inoffensive grave-eyed turtle with a thoughtful mien, and its watery reign in our kitchen was of a remarkably brief duration.

It was a nice turtle. But, as turtles go, it went.

"I want a kitty or a dog," said Tracy.

"Or," she added, "a birdie."

Frankly, I wanted to get her a dog, but man's best friend is verboten in the apartment development in which we live.

So we entered the Era of the First Cat. I forget her name but she was a Siamese, and Tracy was very young and tried to hug her to death. To save the cat we had to find her another home.

After a time we got another cat, another Siamese. It—and I speak advisedly—was a magnificent animal named Ralph Beauty Marble Candy, and roughly the size of a Shetland pony.

The Era of the Second Cat was pretty short. We have no mice in our house, and I got a little tired of watching Ralph Beauty stalk Tracy instead, pounce on her and carry her to the top of the bookcase. If there is anything I can't stand, it's clawmarks on a freshly painted bookcase.

Ralph Beauty, with the help of a retired lion tamer, was coaxed into a cage and granted to an adventurous family in the hinterland. Actually he didn't fit into New York City. He was too big.

Well, months and months had passed, and again Tracy set up the cry, "I want a cat." A friend went to a humane shelter and found an orphan kitty, and now we are in the Era of the Third Cat.

She is black with white paws and white throat and looks like Adolf Hitler, if you can imagine Hitler wearing his moustache under his mouth instead of under his nose. She has a tiny black dot on the very tip of her nose, and therefore is known as Lady Dotty.

She is batty and independent, fights her image in the hall mirror. Reaches up to try to turn the knob on the television set if she doesn't like the program.

She has eyes like light shining through the slits in yellow buttons, she has clawed up about $1,500 worth of furniture and two neighbor children. My shower is her chosen powder room.

But for some wild incomprehensible reason everybody in the family knows the Era of the Third Cat is going to go on for a long while.

Nativity Scene Cause Of Argument

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP)—The question of whether a Nativity scene should be displayed on public school property has been answered differently for two suburban communities.

State Supreme Court Justice Elbert T. Gallagher ruled Tuesday that the School Board in Ossining, N. Y., could display again a community-sponsored creche on the lawn of a junior-senior high school.

In Levittown, N. Y., the School Board voted 5-1 to uphold a decision by the administration of Wisdom Lane School not to display a Nativity scene inside the school.

A group of Ossining citizens who had protested the creche display there announced they would appeal Gallagher's ruling.

Some 28 members of Protestant and Jewish faiths had argued that the religious motif of the Nativity scene violated traditional separation of church and state and would have a harmful effect on non-Christian pupils.

The case went to trial last September.

Gallagher, noting the Nativity scene is on display during the Christmas holidays when school is not in session, said: ". . . The court is of the opinion that the influence, if any, of religious symbolism is inescapable during the Christmas season. It would be difficult to say that, as a practical matter, any greater influence exists by virtue of the fact that the symbol is permitted on public, as well as private property."

In New York City, the American Jewish Congress, which was not among the complainants, said it would file a friend of the court brief in support of the appeal.

Isaac Toubin, AJC executive director, said: "The basic question at issue is whether a scene depicting the birth of Jesus—a symbol of one religion — may be placed on public property that belongs to people of all religions. Implicit are basic questions affecting religious freedom and separation of church and state as guaranteed by the Constitution."

In the Levittown case, a School Board member, Salvatore Gangi, asked the board to reverse the Wisdom Lane School's decision not to display the Nativity inside the school as it had done last year and in previous years.

Gangi suggested that Christmas be observed in the schools as an historical event. He added that he did not advocate teaching sectarianism of dogma in public schools.

Freight Rate High Enough

WASHINGTON (AP)—Contrary to a complaint by 23 Texas railroads, an Interstate Commerce Commission examiner says intrastate rates on some heavy freight items are not unreasonably low.

Richard Ries, the ICC examiner, filed this report yesterday.

He said he agreed with the Texas Railroad Commission in its refusal to allow higher rates within the state on sand, gravel, crushed stone and related materials.

The railroads sought increases in 1957 to match two interstate boosts of 5 and 6 per cent approved by the ICC the year before. They argued that the situation resulted in discrimination against interstate commerce.

The state commission said that successive rail rate boosts in recent years already had resulted in diversion of a great volume of construction materials. Further increases would lead to more diversion of traffic from the railroads, it said.

First Interstate Marker Erected

AUSTIN (AP)—The state highway engineer announced yesterday that the first official interstate highway marker had been erected between Greenville and Rockwall on what is now known as U.S. 69.

The route marker—in brilliant red, white and blue—designated the 33-mile strip from now on as Interstate 30.

By 1970, the predicted time of completion of the entire nationwide system, Texas will have more than 3,000 miles of these superhighways, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said.

Schools Set For Holidays

Schools in the Snyder area will turn out after classes Friday for Christmas holidays.

Some will take a week, while others will have a two-week holiday. Many of the schools, after classes Friday morning, will have Christmas programs or parties after lunch until school is turned out.

The Snyder, Hermleigh and Gail schools, turning out Friday afternoon, will not return to classes until the morning of Jan. 5.

Those at Ira and Hobbs are to be dismissed after Friday classes and return Dec. 29.

At Fluvanna, the holidays will begin after school, Friday, and classes will start again on the morning of Dec. 31.

Payments To Unemployed Dip

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Employment Commission reported yesterday that a total of $996,889 was paid out in unemployment benefits during the past week, compared to $1,278,867 for the previous week. A total of 59,035 persons made claims for unemployment compensation compared to 58,495 for the previous week.
