The Reebok Company slogan 'Life Is Short, Play Hard,' is the theme which the Colorado High School seniors have chosen for this year's Project Celebration. The company has been contacted about the possibility of being a sponsor of this year's event.

Several fund raising events are scheduled including handling concession stand duties at the local track meets, working for tips at the Sonic Drive-In's 'Senior Days' which are scheduled for Saturday, March 21 and Saturday, May 9, and selling 5-quart containers of ice cream on a joint fund raising project of the committee and Schwann's.

The main fund raising project which is scheduled by the committee is for the entire community to be invited to a dance to be held in the Mitchell County Ag Barn on May 30, the night after Project Celebration. This will allow everyone to see the decorations and enjoy a night of family fun and dancing.

Adult committee chairmen for the drug/alcohol-free event will be chosen at Tuesday's meeting. Those persons willing to help with a Project Celebration committee should call 728-5453, 8-2984, 8-5749 or 8-3259, if unable to attend the organizational meeting.

1992-93 budget will be topic at meeting

The citizens of Colorado City are invited to attend a 'town meeting' which has been called by the City Councilmen of the City of Colorado City to discuss the budget for the 1992-1993 fiscal year.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 24, at the Colorado City Civic Center, located at 157 West Second Street.

Mayor Jim Baum said that, "The city is facing increasing expenses and a decreased revenue, which is going to require that extraordinary steps be taken by the council. We don't want the citizens to be surprised by the big expenses which we are facing -- we want the citizens to have input in the process and be involved with the situation."

One of the biggest expenses that is facing the City of Colorado City is mandated by changes in the Solid Waste Disposal requirements.

City Manager Buddy Foster told the city councilmen at the March regular monthly meeting that projected expenses for the city in the coming fiscal year will exceed revenue by approximately $115,000.

GRAND FINALE: Twyla Foreman of Abilene, top, right, was joined by Colorado ISD students in the grand finale song at Thursday nights 'It's A Jungle Out There, So Dare To Care,' program.

Highway
clean-up
April 4th

On April 4, more than 20,000 Adopt-a-Highway volunteers will spend their Saturday picking up roadside litter during the seventh annual Great Texas Trash-Off, the nation's largest cleanup effort, sponsored by the Texas Department of Transportation.

In Mitchell County, 4 groups will join in the effort to help get the bottles out of the wildflowers. Organizations such as Employees of T.U. Electric, Joy S.S. Class, Tumbleweed Lioness Club and United Methodist Church Men will participate in the event.

"When you drive around on the day of the Great Texas Trash-Off and see thousands of volunteers clean up after the litterers, you can't help but get behind the program. Texans have tremendous pride in their state and they want to keep it beautiful," said Ray J. Green, District Adopt-a-Highway Coordinator.

An estimated 2,000 gallons of trash will be picked up in Mitchell County. Coca-Cola, sponsors of the Texas cleanup, will be providing the 33-gallon bags for all volunteers.

The Great Texas Trash-Off is part of TxDOT's aggressive "Don't Mess with Texas" program, which is credited with a 72 percent reduction in litter since 1985.

County to receive ISTEAE money

Texas will receive an additional $385 Million per year under the recently approved Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act (ISTEA). Overall, the Lone Star state will receive approximately $1.2 billion per year from the Federal government for the next 6 years. For the first time ever, Texas will receive an average return of about 94 cents of each federal gasoline tax dollar collected in the state, an increase of about 8 cents over previous years.

Although it is too early to tell what the 13 county Abilene District will receive from ISTEA, the district has already received an additional $2.5 million increase in available highway funds due to the state gasoline tax increase to 20 cent per gallon passed by the 72nd Legislature. The increase is in addition to the district's normal allocation of $16.8 million. Over the past year, $20.5 million has been let to construction, reconstruction and pavement preservation activities in the Abilene District.

Projects scheduled for letting in Mitchell County during the next year total $2.95 million and include:

1. US 84 - Rehabilitation of North lane from 1 mile North of

Roscoe to Scurry County line

2. IH 20 - Sealing (layer of asphalt and aggregate) of main lanes East and West of Colorado City.

3. IH 20 - Replacement of existing guide signs.

Another project which may receive funding over the next year is FM 1229 from IH-20 North to FM 670 which will involve the rehabilitation of the main lanes and the addition of shoulders.

He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Nettles has preached in revivals in 46 states as well as in India, Germany and Hong Kong. He led in the state of Illinois in ratio of baptisms in 1965 and was fifth in the state of California in number of baptisms in 1965.

The Newberrys have ministered to over 600 churches throughout the United States, singing in revivals, concerts and youth camps. They also have participated in mission crusades to Brazil and Canada.

The Newberrys were married in 1978 while students at Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, where Paul received a Bachelor of Music degree. HOME ECONOMICS HAPPENINGS

...BY DANA TARTER

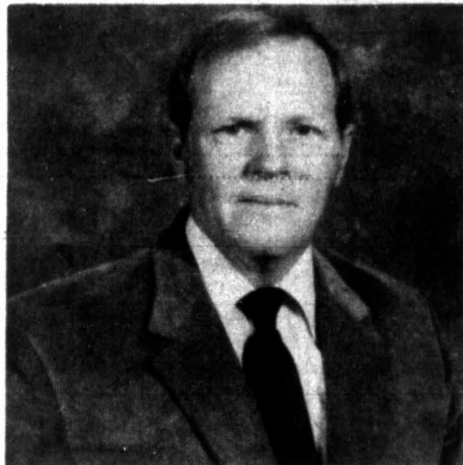

Nutritionists have suggested a varied diet for decades but it is not clear that people know what variety means. "Eat a variety of foods" is the first of the seven "Dietary Guidelines for Americans" published by the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Health and Human Services. The guideline explains that more than 40 nutrients are needed for good health. A variety of foods, not a few highly fortified foods or supplements is the recommended way to get these nutrients. No single food can supply all of these nutrients in amounts needed. For example, milk supplies calcium but very little iron, meat supplies iron but little calcium.

The Guideline addressing variety summarizes what's needed daily from the 5 major food groups:

- * vegetables - 3 to 5 servings
- * fruits - 2 to 4 servings
- * breads, cereals, grains - 6 to 11 servings
- * milk and dairy products - 2 to 3 servings
- * meat, poultry, fish, dry beans, eggs and nuts - 2 to 3 servings

The number of servings you need depends on your age, body and activity level. Almost everyone should have at least the lower number of servings suggested from each group to get recommended amounts of nutrients. Follow the other guidelines when selecting a varied diet, making choices low in fat, saturated fatty acids and cholesterol and moderate in sugars and salt. Variety and moderation are the keys to eating right.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

THURSDAY, MARCH 26th
MITCHELL COUNTY HOSPITAL
1543 CHESTNUT
COLORADO CITY, TEXAS

CALL 728-3431 Ext. 222 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97 percent five year survival rate and a 90 percent 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.

II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.

III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.

IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. Asymptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

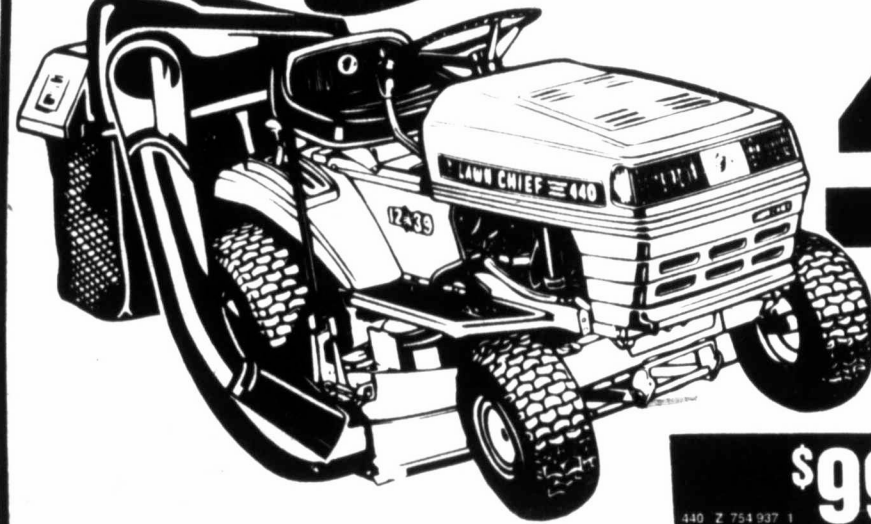

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

Wages must be reported

Anyone who receives Social Security benefits and who continues to work must report his or her earnings to two government agencies -- the Social Security Administration and the Internal Revenue Service. Earnings must be reported to IRS for tax purposes and to SSA because they may affect the amount of benefits payable.

Sometimes, Social Security beneficiaries think filing an income tax return takes care of the Social Security earnings report requirements. This is not correct - a separate report must be filed with Social Security. Also, requesting an extension on filing an income tax return does not apply to filing a work report with Social Security.

If a Social Security beneficiary age 65 or older earned more than $9,720 in 1991 or if under age 62 earned more than $7,080 they must report these earnings to Social Security on or before April 15, 1992. Failure to report earnings can result in overpayments of benefits plus penalties for late filing.

To report earnings to Social Security or for more information, call Social Security's toll free number at 1-800-772-1213 or the local Social Security office at 915-267-5227.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

LOWER YOUR HOME'S PROPERTY TAXES

A homestead exemption lowers the property taxes on your home by lowering its taxable value. For example, if your home is valued at $50,000 and you receive a $5,000 homestead exemption, your home will be taxed as if it is worth only $45,000.

You qualify for a homestead exemption if you owned your home on January 1 and used it as your primary residence on January 1. It doesn't matter whether your home is a house, a condominium, or a mobile home.

Exemptions are available to all homeowners to lower their school taxes. Additional exemptions are available to homeowners who are disabled or age 65 and over. Other exemptions may be offered to homeowners by school districts, counties, cities, and special districts.

Who should apply? If you received a homestead exemption on your home in 1991, you won't need to re-apply unless your chief appraiser requires it.

If you became 65 or disabled before January 1, file a new application to receive the additional exemptions.

If you haven't received an exemption on your present home, or if you've moved to a new home, make a new application for 1992.

File your homestead exemption with your local appraisal office at the address shown below.

The deadline for applications is April 1, 1992. Contact your appraisal district before then if you need more time to file.

For more information, get a free copy of the pamphlet, Taxpayers' Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities, at your appraisal district office or from the State Property Tax Board in Austin.

PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS --

RENDER YOUR PROPERTY

A rendition is a report to the appraisal district that lists all the taxable property you own or control on January 1, 1992. The form is available at your local appraisal district or you may draft a similar form.

You must file a rendition if you own tangible personal property used to produce income--such as the machinery and equipment used by a business. The appraisal district may require any taxpayer to file a rendition by sending the taxpayer a written notice and a rendition form.

The advantages of filing a rendition:

- You give your opinion of your property's value. If the appraisal district places a higher value on your property, it must notify you in writing of the higher value and explain how you can protest that value to the appraisal review board.

- You record your correct mailing address so your tax bills will go to the right address. If your bill is mailed to the wrong address, the law still holds you responsible for paying your taxes on time or paying extra charges for late payments.

You can also file a report of decreased value, to notify the appraisal district of significant depreciation to your property in 1991. The district will look at your property before assigning a value in 1992.

The deadline for 1992 renditions is March 31. You can get an extra 30 days if you ask for it in writing before the March 31 deadline.

File renditions with your local appraisal district at the address shown below.

LAND PRODUCTIVITY VALUATION

MAY LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR FARM, RANCH OR TIMBERLAND

Texas law provides farmers and ranchers with a way to lower their property taxes, known as productivity valuation.

If you qualify, your agricultural land will be taxed on its capacity to produce crops, livestock, or timber, instead of its value on the real estate market. Productivity valuation can lower the taxable value of your land, and lower your property taxes as a result.

If your land has never received productivity valuation, you must apply to the appraisal district by April 1 to get tax benefits for 1992. You can choose from two types of productivity valuation.

If your land already receives open-space or timber (1-d-1) valuation, you don't need to reapply unless the chief appraiser requires you to. But remember, you must apply every year for ag-use (1-d) valuation.

For more information and application forms, contact the appraisal district office at the address shown below:

Madrid named National Award Winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that David Madrid has been named a United States National Award Winner in Business Education.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

David Madrid, who attends Loraine High School was nominated for this National Award by Instructor Harrell, a Business Teacher at the school. David will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

David is the son of Adon and Bea Madrid. The grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. Juan Rivera, Jr. of Colorado City, and Mr. & Mrs. Marciano Madrid of Loraine, Texas.

Madrid named National Award Winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that David Madrid has been named a United States National Award Winner in Business Education.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

David Madrid, who attends Loraine High School was nominated for this National Award by Instructor Harrell, a Business Teacher at the school. David will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

David is the son of Adon and Bea Madrid. The grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. Juan Rivera, Jr. of Colorado City, and Mr. & Mrs. Marciano Madrid of Loraine, Texas.

Poison Prevention Week observed

An estimated five million poisonings occur in children under the age of 5. Last year, 44 children under age 6 died of poisoning.

Linda McClead, R.N., director of the Emergency Center at Methodist Hospital, said the most common problems occur with medication that is in the reach of children.

"We receive two to three calls per day dealing with children who have come into contact with various household products or medicines," said McClead.

If a child should come into contact with any type of poison, a physician should be contacted immediately. This should be done before anything else, but here are some beneficial steps in the prevention of child poisonings.

1. Be sure all poisons are stored out of reach and sight of children. Locked cabinets are an extra measure of security.

2. To a child, pills often look like candy and liquid products appear as beverages, so be sure child-resistant closures on medicines and household products are in working condition.

3. Ipecac is a medicine which induces vomiting and is recommended to keep on hand in case a physician recommends it for treatment.

4. Be sure to keep the number to the Methodist Hospital Poison Control Center (793-4366) close to your phone so if a situation arises a physician can be reached quickly.

March 15-21 is National Poison Prevention Week. The theme is "Out of reach...out of danger." This is a good time for everyone to check the products in their household that could create a hazardous situation.

Rogers to missionary in Tennessee

Staci Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rogers of Colorado City, will be a 1992 Baptist Student Union summer missionary in Tennessee.

Rogers, a student at Howard College, Big Spring, is one of 127 Texas college students who will share their Christian faith this summer through church and mission-related ministries in 17 states and six foreign countries, said Jack Greever of Dallas, director of the Texas Baptist Division of Student Work.

Fellow BSUsers at 136 campuses across the state are raising $130,000 to support the ministries of the 116 summer missionaries.

Baptist Student Unions are sponsored by the churches of the 2.5-million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas and are supported through the Cooperative Program gifts of about 5,400 churches and missions and through the Baptist associations and individual churches.
