FARM PLAN TO BE OFFERED

ROOSEVELT PREPARES SPECIAL MESSAGE FOR CONGRESS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15.—A special message to congress recommending quick action on an emergency farm relief program was in preparation at the White House today with expectation that it would be submitted either late today or tomorrow.

Its basis will be proposals agreed to by farm organization leaders who saw in the prospective message realization of 12 years of effort to obtain unity on a plan of relief by legislation.

New Draft Ready

Secretary Wallace had ready for President Roosevelt's consideration a new draft of the proposal. The first draft, approved by farm leaders, contained some provisions which Wallace said the chief executive wished to have changed or deleted although he approved the proposal "in principle."

The theory of the bill remains unchanged. It proposes to delegate broad, flexible powers to the president and Wallace to prescribe relief plans to apply to specific commodities for which curtailment of production and better prices are sought.

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

WALL STREET ACTIVE AS MARKETS OPEN AFTER HOLIDAY

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Back from the banking wars, security markets received an enthusiastic welcome in Wall Street today.

Stocks whirled $1 to $7 higher in a strong, active opening and clung tenaciously to their top prices as trading wore on, although volume slackened appreciably.

Others Open Thursday

Bonds made a bid for prominence, but their advance was relatively subdued. Most of the leading commodity markets, notably the New York cotton exchange and the Chicago board of trade's grain pit, will not resume until tomorrow. Sugar and silver futures here made fair gains and wheat at Winnipeg pointed upward.

Reopening of the New York stock exchange to unrestricted business for the first time since March 3 found traders in an optimistic mood. What proportion of the early buying orders came from shorts who were anxious to cover could not be ascertained, but presumably it was rather large.

Favorites Boosted

Old line favorites of the market, such as United States Steel, American Telephone, American, Du Pont, General Motors, Standard of New Jersey, Pennsylvania Railroad, Atchison Railroad and American Can, opened $2 to $3 above the previous closing quotations. Transactions of 1,000 to 6,000 shares were numerous.

Passage of the beer bill by the house afforded opportunity for a bullish display in the so-called wet stocks. Owens Illinois Glass, fortified by news that it had already received a large order for bottles, bubbled up $7 to $41 a share. Crown Cork & Seal gained $4.50 to a quotation of $20.50; National Distillers Products rose $3.75 to $23.37; and U. S. Industrial Alcohol's shares jumped to $18.75, up $3.25. Corn Products refining was also strong, up $6.37 to $56.

Dill Would Abolish Government Groups

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15. (AP)—Abolition of such independent governmental agencies as the interstate commerce, federal trade, power and radio commissions for economy's sake was proposed today by Chairman Dill of the senate interstate commerce committee.

Secretary Roper and others close to President Roosevelt are still at work on the task of ferreting out ways of reorganizing and cutting expenses, and Mr. Roosevelt's aides have indicated he is giving serious consideration to economies in the independent establishments.

Testimony Starts In Hamilton Case

HILLSBORO, March 15 (AP)—Presentation of testimony began in district court today at the trial of Raymond Hamilton for the slaying of John Bucher, filling station operator, here almost a year ago.

After a Hillsboro architect took the stand to present a drawing of the place where Bucher was killed, Mrs. Bucher described Hamilton as one of two men who called her husband to wait on them at his store in the filling station.

TWO ARE CHARGED

Charges of possession and transportation of whisky were filed against Ike Winford, 25, and Luke Cornett, 37, both of Shallowater, before United States Commissioner Victor H. Lindsey this morning, police said. Winford and Cornett were arrested here by police at 6 p. m. Tuesday. The commissioner set the pair's bonds at $500 each.

SENATE GROUP APPROVES BEER BILL

COMMITTEE VOTES TO INCLUDE WINE IN HOUSE MEASURE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 15—The house beer bill neared final congressional approval today with a favorable report from the senate finance committee.

The only change made in the house bill was an amendment to legalize wine and fruit juices of 3.2 per cent alcoholic content, which is the same limitation as will apply to beer.

Swift Action Taken

Heeding President Roosevelt's request for swift action on the beer legislation, the committee approved the bill without a record vote.

Chairman Harrison said the beer measure would be called up in the senate immediately after the pending economy bill, which he predicted would be passed today.

This would permit the senate to begin debate tomorrow on the beer measure under a schedule which congressional leaders predicted would send the measure to the White House by the end of the week.

The measure would become effective 15 days after President Roosevelt's signature.

Would Raise Taxes

The house measure, which would legalize the sale and manufacture of fermented liquors such as beer, ale and porter containing 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight, is expected to raise $125,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year in taxes.

There was absent in senate plans on the beer bill this time the thing that pigeon-holed a similar measure there in the last congress. Leaders expected to dispense with action by the senate judiciary committee since its new chairman, Sen-

PERMANENT BANK SOLUTION SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Two grim and determined government officials—Franklin D. Roosevelt and William H. Woodin—are preparing to see that the nation's banks operate hereafter as they are supposed to.

Besides striving to put closed banks on a working basis, they are driving at those they believe responsible for the banking difficulties. As Secretary Woodin remarked, standing on the White House steps:

"We must bring them to justice. I could bite the head off a ten penny nail, thinking of the person who put their life savings, maybe $800 or $1,000, in institutions that were not properly run."

Agreement Sought To Cut Down Wheat

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—The Roosevelt administration is seeking a world-wide agreement to limit production of wheat so as to bring it down to the consumption level, wiping out the heavy surplus which for the past several years has been beating down prices.

The proposition already has been taken up in unofficial manner but it is expected to be made the subject of diplomatic conversations, culminating if possible in an agreement at the world economic conference in London this summer.

Parliament Raided By Austrian Police

VIENNA, Mar. 15. (AP)—State police raided the Austrian parliament this afternoon and forcibly interrupted an attempt by the political opposition to hold a rump session in defiance of Chancellor Dollfuss and President Miklas.

Parliament was dissolved more than a week ago when its three ranking officers resigned following a dispute over wages paid by the state railways. The chancellor thereupon assumed dictatorial powers but opposition leaders announced parliament would meet this afternoon.

QUICK ACTION IS PROMISED IN SENATE

SEEN AND HEARD AROUND THE BANKS

Bankers were all smiles this morning as they opened for "business as usual." Most of the employes were down earlier than necessary, in spite of the fact that the opening was scheduled for 8 a. m. instead of the customary 9 o'clock. With faces shaved a little closer and with a new necktie, the men tellers were stepping high as two-year-olds. This in spite of the fact that most of them had burned midnight electric lights and even later, cleaning up from the day's business of Tuesday.

Clerks worked until nearly midnight last night clearing checks and preparing for the rush—which came only during perhaps the first hour of opening. Banks customarily open at 9 o'clock, but to aid patrons who have been without banking facilities 13 days, the doors were opened at 8 o'clock. During the first hour lines formed in front of cages, but by 10 o'clock the crowds had thinned to routine number. "There is no greater rush now than on any other day, much less following a holiday," one man pointed out.

GOLD TRICKLES IN

Although a mere trickle compared to the eastern sections, a small stream of gold was flowing into the Lubbock banks today. By noon approximately $1,400 in gold coin and between $4,000 and $5,000 in gold certificates had been brought into the banks for deposit. A thousand dollars in twenty-dollar gold pieces were received at one bank from the postoffice, another reported $250 in coins turned in by 10 o'clock while the third was also receiving pieces of the precious metal. Most of the certificates or "yellow backs" were of the oldtime "blanket" size.

The gold and certificates will be shipped to the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas as per regulations of the emergency banking act calling for the return of all such money to the treasury.

Cashier John D. Mitchell of the Lubbock National bank received the shock of his banking experience late Tuesday when he handled a deposit from the postoffice. Included in the more than $1,000 in currency handled were bills of the old "blanket" size amounting to $883. There was a $100 bill, two $50 bills, a number of $20 bills, several hundred dollars in $10's and $5's and about 25 or 30 $1 bills. There were several hundred dollars in gold certificates. From the appearance of the large bills it was evident the money had been hidden for several years, as the dollar bills were nearly all new and clean. Several of the larger bills showed evidence of having been buried in a tomato can as there was tomato juice on some.

Money came into Lubbock banks so fast that receiving tellers could not keep their desks cleared. Bales of currency were stacked on the counters, and drawers were overflowing.

With many of the larger deposits made Tuesday night after bankers were informed of the opening today, there was every indication at noon today that deposits in the three national banks would total a half million dollars by night. One banker said more than $137,000 was received by his institution last night.

"I feel sure that confidence has been restored," S. C. Arnett, president of the Citizens National bank, declared. "We have been doing a land-office business in deposits and the only withdrawls have been minor ones to meet current expenses.

Deposits came in stout canvas bags, in checks, in bank pass books, and in pockets of customers. A peek over one patron's shoulder showed a deposit slip for $2,019.78. To the inquiry of a teller, another merchant replied, "Our business was

ELEMENTS ARE ON ANOTHER RAMPAGE

FLOODS, HEAVY SNOWS AND MORE QUAKES SWEEP COUNTRY

(By The Associated Press)

Mother nature, a harridan again, had several sections of America quailing before her vixen fury today.

A tornado, floods, heavy snows, and the after-grumble of an earthquake, were the things with which she whipped the land.

The tornado tore late yesterday from the Mississippi river to the Cumberland mountains, along the Tennessee-Kentucky border. At least 30 persons died, more than 200 were injured. Property damage was estimated conservatively at over $1,000,000.

Shocks Continue

Shocks continued in southern California, but no serious damage was apparent. Recurrent tremors made no difference to the stricken people of Long Beach, hardest hit community in the quake area, as they pressed plans for quick rehabilitation. They were seeking aid from the R. F. C. to help rebuild dwellings, damaged to an extent estimated at $25,000,000.

The Monongahela and Allegheny rivers, swollen by rain, swept 3.7 feet above the flood level at Pittsburgh, causing an estimated damage of $300,000. A steamer sank yesterday, other vessels ripped from their moorings, water commerce was disrupted. Damage spread along the shores.

Snow was nature's portion for northern New Hampshire, plenty of it. Eight inches fell in a blizzard yesterday, but citizens managed to get to town meeting just the same.

WIDE SECTION IS LASHED BY STORM

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 15 (AP)—A tornado lashed the Tennessee-Kentucky border from the Mississippi to the Cumberlands last night and left behind it 30 known dead more than 200 injured and property damage estimated above $1,000,000.

The twister struck after preliminary blows at the Arkansas and Missouri side of the Mississippi and mowed a path of destruction from

RUNOFF PRIMARY IS HELD TODAY

BROWNSVILLE, Mar. 15. (AP)—All through the 23 counties of the fifteenth congressional district, in the Texas-Mexico border country, Democrats went to the polls today to pick a man to succeed John N. Garner, who represented the district in congress for 30 years.

The election was a run-off primary contest between Gordon Griffin of McAllen and Milton West of Brownsville, to Brownsville, to determine the nominee who will oppose Carlos G. Watson of Brownsville, Republican, in the general district election, April 22. Griffin and West led a field of nine Democratic aspirants for the office in the first primary, February 25.

HERE'S WHAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS ACHIEVED IN FIRST TEN DAYS

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—In his ten days as president, Franklin D. Roosevelt has achieved this record:

March 5—Proclaimed a national bank holiday, assuming war power, and called congress into session March 9.

March 9—Asked congress for emergency bank legislation. His message was read at noon, the bill was passed by both branches and signed into law ten hours later.

March 10—Asked congress for power to cut half a billion off federal expenditures.

March 11—The house passed his economy bill unchanged.

March 13—The senate began to consider the measure. The president asked congress for immediate legalization of beer.

March 14—The house passed the requested beer bill. The senate pushed the economy measure towards passage.

Looked for next is a farm relief proposal to get aid to the farmer in time for this year's crops. Held in abeyance also is his plan for a $500,000,000 bond issue for employment.

Banks Are Near Normalcy Again

REPEAL UP IN LEGISLATURE

THREE PLANS BEFORE SOLONS PROPOSING VARIED METHODS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 15.—Three bills proposing varying methods by which the Texas electorate would express its will on the question of ratification of repeal of the Eighteenth amendment were before the legislature today.

Two of the bills were reported last night by the house committee on privileges, suffrage and elections. The third was reported favorably several days ago by the house state affairs committee. In voting out two bills on the same subject committee members evidenced a desire to give the house a choice.

Would Hold Conventions

One of the bills, by Representative Sarah Hughes of Dallas, would provide for statewide conventions of wets and drys 60 days before the general election in 1934 to select a list of 23 candidates for delegates to a state convention to pass on the question. The candidates would be voted on by the entire state at the election and the successful group then would hold a convention to cast the state's vote in accord with the majority vote.

The other bill was by Representative J. S. Magee of Tyler and would provide for selection of delegates to the state conventon by legislative representative districts. There would be 150 delegates. The election of delegates would be the first Tuesday in November, 1933, and the convention would be held the first Tuesday in December.

Forces Divided

Both the wets and drys were divided among themselves as to the most practical time to hold the election and convention. Those favoring an early vote asserted the proposal should be submitted when there were no other issues to divert the attention of the electorate. Others argued that it would be better to wait until the 1934 general election so as to enable thousands of persons who had not paid their poll

NEW TIE-UP BETWEEN SPOTS ON SUN AND STORMS ON EARTH DISCOVERED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 15—Discovery of a new tie-up between storms on earth and spots on the sun, suggesting a new basis for long range forecasting, was announced today by the Smithsonian institution.

The tracks of storms across the the United States fluctuate periodically in frequency from north to south, it has been found, and this fluctuation has a definite though complicated relation to the well-known eleven-year cycle of waxing and waning sunspots.

This hint of some common influence behind solar and earthly weather results form a laborious study of how storm tracks have been routed over the United States from 1883 to 1930. It was made by Dr. C. J. Kullmer of Syracuse university, who reported to the Smithsonian institution.

The study showed that when sunspots are most plentiful, storms are most frequent in the United States in a region reaching downward from the northern border to the midwest.

Movements of storms on earth and spots on the sun, Dr. Kullmer found, seem to follow the same general laws. When better understood they may make it possible to calculate several years in advance the "storms expectancy" of various regions several years ahead.

DEPOSITS ARE POURING IN RAPIDLY

BUSINESS MAY REACH STAGGERING TOTAL OF HALF MILLION

Pumping new life into business channels clogged temporarily by a 13-day state and national bank holiday, Lubbock's three national banks were functioning "as usual" today with evidence of confidence fully restored.

Deposits by the thousands of dollars were pouring into the three institutions this morning and indications were at noon that the day's business would reach the staggering total of a half million dollars, the largest ever recorded in a single day here.

The banks opened at 8 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual, in order to allow deposits from downtown customers. Closing time will be observed at 3 o'clock as usual.

Confidence Pledged

Receiving cages were flooded with checks and stacks of currency as tellers labored to satisfy customers and long lines of people were in front of each window waiting to make deposits. Lobbies of all three banks were crowded and officials were busy holding conferences and receiving congratulations and pledges of confidence from business men, citizens and farmers.

Heavy accumulation of checks during the moratorium was taxing clerical forces but officials expressed a hope that normal business would be experienced by Thursday. Checks were piled "in bales" in the bookkeeping departments.

No display of fear was evident at any of the institutions and no reports were made on withdrawals only in small amounts. President Roosevelt's proclamation providing penalties for hoarding of currency and gold still maintained, however, and bankers said any requests for large withdrawals would have to be made by affidavit as required under the emergency banking act passed last week. No requests had been made here thus far, it was said. No other restrictions were placed on deposits.

Gold Deposited

Included in the deposits made at the banks was evidence of hoarding.

BANKING ACTIVITIES EXTENDED TO ALL PARTS OF NATION

(By The Associated Press)

The nation's banking system began functioning on an almost normal scale again today as the third day of President Roosevelt's progressive plan for the reopening of financial institutions found activities extended to virtually every section of the country.

Hundreds of smaller institutions joined the throng of larger banks reopened during the past two days in the twelve Federal Reserve district cities and in the 250 clearing house centers.

Stocks Advance

The New York stock exchange also reopened for the first time in 12 days and an initial wave of buying swept the prices of many leaders one to seven points up.

Other exchanges also resumed trading and on the Chicago exchange brewery stock made a quick advance of three points on the strength of confidence in the monetary system and the prospect of the early legalization of beer.

Reopenings Deferred

The Chicago board of trade and the cotton market deferred reopening until some communities in outlying sections of the nation returned to full banking activities.

Clearing of checks started on a nation-wide scale.

Foreign markets continued firm.

Every state in the union had banking facilities. Michigan, the "veteran" bank holiday state, reopened no less than 149 commercial institutions.

Deposits continued to exceed withdrawals and in many instances some restrictions were lifted of withdrawals from savings banks. Massachusetts raised its withdrawal restrictions from these banks from $10 to $100 for individuals.

Tax Date Extended

One effect of the national bank holiday for which many thousands expressed gratitude was a postponement of the time when income

Winnie Ruth Judd Tells Of Slaying

STATE PRISON, Florence, Ariz., March 15 (AP)—Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, expressing sorrow for her slaying of Agnes Anne Leroi and Hedvig Samuelson, is telling her story again in what may be her final appeal from the noose.

When the Arizona board of pardons and paroles—final tribunal for her except a jury that might be asked to pass on her sanity—adjourned late yesterday until today, the blond figure in the sensational Phoenix "trunk killings" had recounted almost exactly, but more lucidly, the story she used on the witness stand at Phoenix last January in one of her appeals.

Theater Panic Toll Is Increased To 49

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, Mar. 13. (AP)—Late reports raised the casualty toll in the Ahualulco theater panic to 49 persons killed and 125 injured and disclosed today that there actually was no fire and no evidence of electrocutions.

Authorities declared a short circuit of a wire on a balcony hand rail caused sparks but that the shock was not strong enough to cause the death of anyone except possibly a person with a weak heart.

DEBATE LIMITED ON ECONOMY BILL

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—The senate held its third day of discussion of the administration economy bill today with debate sharply limited and passage predicted by leaders before adjournment.

Already approved by the house, it had been amended considerably during a ten hour session that carried well into last night, but its sponsors said the changes involved only slight cuts in the estimated half billion dollars proposed to be saved by executive slashes in veterans' benefits and federal salaries.

SWISHER BOYS TO ENTER SHOW HERE

TULIA, March 15 (Special)—Swisher county 4-H club boys will show their baby beeves and fat pigs at the Lubbock Fat Stock show, March 23, 24 and 25.

Melton Sharp, Junior Sharp, Joe Keim, G. W. Rouser and Boyd Dawson, jr., are busy fitting their calves this week for this show, and they are expecting to win special honors for Swisher county, as they have always been "guilty" of doing in the past.

Expect To Win

Roy Burroughs and the Adams boys will be there with a nice display of fat pigs, and they are also expected to win honors for themselves and Swisher county.

Most of the club boys sold their baby beeves and fat pigs in Amarillo at the auction sale last week. The sale of these fat pigs and calves proved to be very profitable to every club boy that took part in this show.

Five years ago, through the efforts of County Agent C. B. Martin, the 4-H club work was started in Swisher county, by organizing baby beef and pig club work. During that time, they have been successful in organizing an Annual Fat Stock show for Swisher county. Aside from the show put on in Swisher county, these club boys have contributed a major part of the stock that went to make up the Amarillo Fat Stock show.

Mrs. Jimmy Weaver has returned to her home in Mexia after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stafford, 2011 Broadway.

TECH DEFENSE PRESENTED

TESTIMONY IS GIVEN BEFORE COMMITTEE OF LEGISLATURE

AUSTIN, March 15—(Special)—Texas Technological college's part in presentation of defense testimony before a house committee considering the Metcalfe-Anderson-Hughes bill virtually has ended.

While Tech's position may be again referred to as the committee hearing plunges on in night sessions, any such reference is likely to be minor in nature. Tech's case was presented Monday night by its president, Dr. Bradford Knapp, and, although Knapp continues to remain in the hearings in case he is called again, it is not expected that he will again speak at any great length.

Laird Is Chairman

With Representative J. W. Laird, Angelina county, as chairman, the house hearing tonight largely dealt with teachers colleges, although Dr. C. H. Hubbard, of C. I. A. was heard along with Dr. C. E. Evans, of Southwest Texas State Teachers college, San Marcos; Dr. S. H. Whitley, of East Texas State Teachers college, Commerce, and Dr. H. F Estell, Sam Houston Teachers college, Huntsville.

In addition to the dozen committee members approximately 125 legislators and friends of the colleges heard the explanations and cross-questioning in the balmy chamber of the lower house. Senator Arthur P. Duggan, Littlefield, sat throughout the hearing, as did Representative John Thomas, Tahoka, and another Tech stalwart, Representative A. B. Tarwater, Plainview.

Woodruff Prosecutor

Senator Grady Woodruff, Decatur, swank in a natty gray suit and with a diamond gleaming prominently from his cravat, acted as prosecutor, firing questions at the college presidents with smug complacence. For the house committee members, Penrose Metcalfe, San Angelo, and R. W. Anderson, Cleburne, two of the bill's authors, asked most of the questions. Both are youngsters on the sunny side of thirty and Metcalfe further amused himself by wise-cracking with nearby solons as the educators talked behind a microphone.

Indications were at the closing of Tuesday night's sessions that at least one and possibly two to three more lengthy night sessions would be held by the house committee.

Fifty-Fifty Chance

Further indications were that the bill has a fifty-fifty chance of being favorably reported out of the committee. Tech's president was non-committal concerning the status of Tech under the Metcalfe-Anderson-Hughes bill. The bill in short, would make Tech a college of liberal arts with a four year course in agriculture, would eliminate entirely the school of engineering and graduate work, and would call for a department of home economics rather than a separate school.

"I am fairly hopeful for Tech," was Doctor Knapp's only statement.

AMBASSADOR FROM GERMANY RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—German facism's recent political victory had its repercussion today in the resignation of Doctor Frederich Wilhelm Von Prittwitz, ambassador to the United States for five years.

The German ambassador is not in sympathy with the program of the Hitler Nazis, who gained a majority in the reichstag election, early in March. His resignation has not yet been acted upon, but his recall is expected in the near future.

For many months the Washington ambassador has been subject to attacks from the Hitler press in Germany and his retirement is not unexpected.

Doctor Von Prittwitz is not a member of any political party, but is an avowed republican.

He was counsellor of the embassy at Rome when named ambassador to Washington.

FEEDER IS SUCCESSFUL

ABERNATHY, (Special)—A self-feeder for hogs has been built by vocational agriculture students here V. S. Payne, teacher, says. The feeder, in use on the Rogers and McCaskill farm south of town, is 12 feet long and can accommodate 60 pigs. It is of the double type, open on both sides.

Shipments of leather from the United States in 1932 went directly to 91 countries and indirectly to several others.

Double Crossed Hubby's 'Ghost'

Asserting that his ghost would enjoy haunting his home in Chicago, Lafayette Hopkins, wealthy Indian chief, prior to dying, made a last request of his wife not to sell the house. Mrs. Ella Hopkins didn't place much faith in ghosts and sold the house. Since then her husband's ghost has haunted her, she declares. After vainly attempting to repurchase the house from William Lambert, she tried to bomb a filling station owned by Lambert, according to police. Above is an artist's conception of what Mrs. Hopkins saw each time she passed her old home.

Condemnation Of Cherries Sought

Condemnation of 70 cases of Ray Brook brand cherries was sought in a suit filed in United States district court by the government.

The petition set out that the cherries, in gallon size cans, were below the U. S. department of agriculture standard and "misbranded." The cases, the petition said, were shipped Oct. 3, 1932, from Portland, Ore., by the Ray Mailing Co., Inc., of Hillsboro, Ore. The fruit at present is held by Davis & Humphries of Lubbock, the suit alleged.

PIRATES SEEN AS CLUB TO BEAT FOR THE PENNANT

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

It begins to look like another glittering galaxy of gridiron Goliaths for the Texas Tech coaching school. The other day Harry Kipke of Michigan was signed. Yesterday Tech coaches handed out the information that Bernie Bierman, Minnesota mentor, had put his name on the dotted line for a cut out of the tuition receipts this summer.

A year ago Bierman was one of the most talked-of men in the coaching profession. His Tulane university team had done wonders, and were acclaimed by many as the national champions. They lost the Rose Bowl tournament game to the University of Southern California, true enough, but it was the first defeat of the season and took away little glory. The names Don Zimmerman and Jerry Dalrymple went down in history as two of the greatest of the gridiron greats—and Bernie Bierman rode high as a mentor.

Agitation for Bierman to come here and assist in the Tech coaching school had its origin last summer when many coaches voted for him in the nation-wide poll. As a matter of fact, there were enough of these votes to give Bierman a place, but he was tied up with another school at that time. It wasn't as big a school as the one at Lubbock, however, which outstripped all others in point of attendance.

They called it an "all-American" coaching staff last year when Pop Warner and Hunk Anderson headed a scintillating cast of instructors. The 1933 school looms even bigger and better, with all respect to the Notre Dame and former Stanford mentors. There will be approximately 500 enrollment cards filled out this summer. Kipke rated in the championship flight of football coaches last year, and Bierman was successful in his first year at Minnesota. There will be others of great names. Howard Jones of Southern California probably will be with us this summer.

It is not general knowledge that a "movin' pitcher" man was on the sidelines last fall when the Texas Tech Matadors defeated the Baylor university Bears. But there was. Roderick M. Curry, chief engineer at the West Texas Gas company, was on the spot and he put the Bears on the spot with his grinding camera. The film has been developed and the West Texas Gas compnay is having it re-finished and touched up with complete scenario. When completed it may be given to Texas Tech. The film shows nearly every play, even the one where Matt Hitchcock muffed a pass on the goal line. (P. S.: Matthew made up for it, though, previously and later).

Now that the financial holiday is over, let's put the new cash to work and get this baseball business wound up and ready to go. Remember what President Roosevelt said, now, ". . . the only thing we have to fear is fear itself. . ."

Some of the smartest men in Lubbock and West Texas have considered this baseball proposition from every angle, and they are unable to see why it should fail. Based as it is on sound principles, without the fuss and muss of professional promoters and on the "home cooperative" plan, it is apparently impossible for it to flop.

Judging from his former enterprises and successes, it is rather foolish to believe that Wilbur C. Hawk would undertake to head an organization headed for the rocks. He's president of the West Texas-New Mexico league, serving without pay and under hardships never before faced by a minor league president. He's in it to see it go; he wouldn't have accepted the position under any other conditions.

There should be no doubt as to the ability of Del Pratt to manage a baseball club. He's confident that the move toward reorganizing baseball on a minor—very minor—league plan is the right way to go about it, and he believes it will prove successful. Local fans may rest assured that Pratt will place a hustling, winning ball club on the field, and if it is foolish to invest in a proposition like that, then we're off our nut again.

GIBSON HAPPY OVER LOOKS OF SQUAD

SURPRISE TEAM LAST YEAR OFFERS ADDED POWER IN 1933

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 15 (AP)—Pittsburgh's Pirates, "surprise" team of the National league last year, will open the 1933 season generally regarded as the squad to beat for the pennant.

Three young players, two comparatively inexperienced and the other strictly a rookie "find," came through last year to give Manager George Gibson a championship contending team for which only an ordinary showing had been predicted.

Offer Added Power

This season the runner-up of the 1932 race in the senior circuit will offer added strength in the outfield in the person of Freddie Lindstrom acquired from the Giants, while the youngsters of a year ago—Floyd Vaughn, shortstop; Tony Piet, second baseman, and Earl Grace catcher, have definitely established themselves.

Skipper Gibson sidesteps the matter of making a prediction but admits he is far more pleased with his present outlook than that in the spring of 1932.

His only concern is the pitching department where two charter members of other seasons occupy comeback roles. Ray Kremer, veteran of nine years campaigning, was of practically no value to the club last year. An attack of neuritis hit the husky right hander early in the season. He won four games. He had been a consistent 15-game or more winner in the past.

Swetonic Injured

Steve Swetonic, also an experienced right hander, injured his arm in mid-season and was on the shelf for a month. More had been expected of him than the 11 games he won.

If Kremer and Swetonic return to form Gibson believes his worries will be over. If not he will gamble on the abilities of two recruits—Hal Smith, right hander purchased from Kansas City, and Ralph Birkofer heavy set southpaw, who did some fancy tossing for both Kansas City and Tulsa last season.

Smith won 17 games and lost 8. Birkofer was credited with 17 victories and 1 defeats. On their present form each is virtually certain to be carried this season.

Hoyt Seeks Comeback

Waite Hoyt, former world's series pitching star of the Yankees, is trying to make a comeback. Gibson hopes he will. He could find much use for Hoyt's experience.

The rest of the Pirates mound corps includes Larry French, leading pitcher on the club last season; Leon Chagnon, Heine Meine, Bill Harris and Bill Swift. Charles Wood, left hander farmed out to Tulsa last year, is recuperating from an appendicitis operation and his status is uncertain.

Manager Gibson feels his outfield will do until a better one comes along. The Waner brothers, Lloyd and Paul, will flank Lindstrom in center, Lloyd patrolling the left side. They make up as strong a fly chasing combination as any in the National league. Each is an established .300 hitter.

The infield leaves nothing to be desired with Gus Suhr at first, Piet at second, Vaughn at short and Pie Traynor at third.

Grace will handle first string catching duties. He hit .274 last season. Hal Finney and Tom Padden, the latter bought from Newark last mid-season but with New York Yankee experience, will do second and third string receiving chores.

Tommy Thevenow is the chief infield reservist with Adam Comorosky and "Woody" Jensen ready for calls as utility outfielders.

Bernie Bierman To Teach At Tech Coaching School

MINNESOTA FOOTBALL MENTOR SIGNED TO LECTURE HERE

The football coach who made Tulane university famous will be among those present at the third annual Texas Tech coaching school in the role of instructor.

Bernie Bierman, head coach at the University of Minnesota, formerly of Tulane, has been signed to conduct a series of football lectures here July 31 to August 13.

Announcement of Bierman's agreement was made late yesterday by Pete Cawthon, Tech head coach and manager of the school. Selection of Bierman, Cawthon said, came about as a result of a poll in which prospective "students" were asked to select their favorite football coaches.

Is The Third Man Signed

Bierman is the third man signed on the third annual coaching school staff. Harry Kipke of the University of Michigan has been secured as a football instructor and Ed Gallagher of Oklahoma A. & M. as a wrestling and physical education instructor.

The "Minnesota shift," single wing back formation and the six-man line defense will be featured in Bierman's lectures.

Recalled To Minnesota

A coach since 1916, Bierman is regarded as one of the peers of his profession. He accepted the Tulane post in 1923 for the first time, staying through 1924 and went to Mississippi A. & M. college as head football mentor. Tulane claimed him again in 1927, and he stayed through the 1931 season. Last year was his first at Minnesota, where he first learned about college football as a star player. He rated the all-American picture in 1915, as captain and halfback for Minnesota, after taking all-conference honors for two preceding years.

The Tulane team of 1931 was one of the outstanding elevens of the entire country. After playing an undefeated season and winning the championship in the Southern conference, the Green Wave was invited to play in the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena against the University of Southern California. The Wave lost, by a single touchdown. Tulane was the Southern conference champion in 1929, 1930 and 1931.

Last year at Minnesota, Bierman's outfit lost to no team by more than a touchdown.

HEADS TEXAS CAGERS

AUSTIN, March 15 (AP)—Ronald Fagan of Dallas Tuesday was elected captain of the 1934 University of Texas basketball team. Fagan played guard this season on the championship university basketball team.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS

TEXAS POSTPONES TILT WITH TIGERS

SAN ANTONIO, March 15 (AP)—At the request of the University of Texas officials, who said a Friday date would be more convenient, the Detroit Tigers' first exhibition game, scheduled today, has been postponed to Friday afternoon in Austin. The Tigers go to Beaumont Saturday and Sunday, then return here for the final week of practice. Games in Houston and a final clash with the New York Giants in San Antonio on the last day of camp, March 27, also face Bucky Harris' well-conditioned aggregation.

WHITE SOX TO MEET CUBS IN SERIES

OLD CEREMONY TO BE IN NEW SETTING; HURLERS NAMED

LOS ANGELES, March 15 (AP)—Chicago's Cubs and White Sox squared off today for the opening of an old ceremony—the city series—in a new setting.

Hitherto the series has been held at the end of the season, when one or the other failed to win the championship of its respective league. This year, with the White Sox, representative of the American league, training in California for the first time, the first installment has been scheduled for Los Angeles. The series will close in Chicago April 8 and 9, just before the opening of the major league season.

Cubs Little Changed

The Chicago Cubs, National league champions, faced the series not much changed from last year. The Sox, the number eight team in the 1932 American league race, encountered their first real competition of the training season, with what promises to be an immensely improved outfit.

It also was the initial get-together in combat of two sluggers starting their first year in Chicago livery, although well known to baseball. The Sox contribution was Al Simmons, late of Philadelphia. Floyd (Babe) Herman occupied the position for the Cubs.

Manager Charlie Grimm of the Cubs, planned to send Pat Malone and Lon Warneke, two of his top notch pitchers, into the contest. The nominees of Lew Fonseca, the Sox pilot, were Ed Durham, Paul Gregory and Johnny Wilson. The clubs will meet again tomorrow.

NEW BALL LEAGUE TO BE DISCUSSED

LONGVIEW, March 15 (AP)—Organization of a six or eight-club baseball league including teams from Mississippi, Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, will be discussed at a meeting called here for Sunday, March 26.

Invitations to attend the meeting have been mailed to interested persons in Tyler and Texarkana, Tex., Shreveport, Alexandria and Baton Rouge, La., El Dorado, Ark., Jackson, Miss., and other cities.

COUNTRY CLUB TO OPEN TOURNAMENT ROUND THIS WEEK

Lubbock Country club members may play the 27-hole qualifying round in the annual "ladder" or "gold, silver and bronze ball" tournament Friday, Saturday or Sunday of this week, club officials announced yesterday.

Club officials decided to allow three days for members to qualify, although the full 27-hole route must be travelled on the same day. Members are to signify a day early the date on which they are to play the qualifying round. Scores turned in on any other day than the one specified will not be honored as the qualifying score.

18 Prizes Offered

Gold golf ball trophies will be awarded the six low scorers. Silver balls will go to the next six and bronze golf balls will be awarded the third six. These eighteen players will constitute the championship flight. The next eighteen in order will make up the first flight and the third set of eighteen will be in the second flight. Tournaments will be played in flights when it is possible to do so.

As the season continues, golfers in the championship flight may challenge those immediately above on the "ladder" and if successful will replace the former "high" man and claim his trophy. At the end of the season, date to be specified later, players will retain as permanent trophies the prizes they hold.

All members of the club are requested to report to Professional Paul Denson and name the day on which the qualifying round will be played. Sunday is the deadline for the 27-hole medal play.

SCHMELING TO FIGHT BAER IN GOTHAM

APPROVAL ALSO GIVEN SHARKEY-CARNERA TITLE BATTLE

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Jack Dempsey has drawn first blood in the intricate battle of wits he is waging with Jimmy Johnston of Madison Square Garden.

Dempsey received formal sanction from the New York State Athletic commission yesterday for his Max Schmeling-Max Baer bout here on Thursday, June 1, either in the Yankee stadium or the Polo grounds, despite the fact that Johnston, sponsoring a heavyweight title bout between Jack Sharkey and Primo Carnera, had asked the commission for prior rights to all Thursday dates during the outdoor season.

Match Approved

Johnston won a major victory, however, when the commission reconsidered a previous stand and gave formal consent to the Carnera-Sharkey match. The commission had ruled, after the death of Ernie Schaaf, that Carnera must restrict his competitive activities to the "dreadnaught class", consisting of heavyweights weighing 220 pounds or more.

Johnston probably will go before the commission Friday and apply for a specific date for the title match, possibly as early as May 18. That would represent an extreme gamble with the weather but there is little doubt that both Johnston and Dempsey are jockeying for the first crack at Mr. John H. Fan's none-too-fat pocketbook.

TENNIS PLAYERS FACE COMPETITION

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—The national indoor tennis championships showed signs of bringing forth some serious competition for the outstanding singles players today.

Two of the seeded stars, Frank X. Shields of New York, third on the list, and George Martin Lott., Jr., of Chicago, No. 5, stepped out a round ahead of the rest yesterday and were prepared to meet today in the first quarter-final struggle.

Lott defeated Herbert L. Bowman in two 6-4 sets while Shields was pounding out an 8-6, 6-1 victory over John Pittman of New York.

If the favorites win in the third round, other quarter-final matches will bring Gregory Mangin of Newark, the defending champion, against Dr. Eugene McCauliff, eighth seeded player, and Sidney B. Wood of New York against J. Gilbert Hall of Orange, N. J., in the top half of the draw, in addition to the Shields-Lott encounter, the lower half should pit Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, seeded second against Berkeley Bell of New York, No. 6.

PRORATION IS CRITICIZED

RAILWAY COMMISSION ACTIVITY IN EAST TEXAS SCORED

AUSTIN, Mar. 15. (AP)—Criticism of the Texas railroad commission's administration of oil proration in the east Texas field was expressed last night by a legislative committee which directed a lengthy investigation into the commission's activities.

The investigation steering committee of five members filed its report with the house committee on oil, gas and mining in the Texas legislature. The main committee did not act imediately on the steering committee's report.

Industry "Demoralized"

"Your committee can not understand," the report said, "why the railroad commission continues to allow five per cent of the operators in the East Texas field to completely demoralize the oil industry in the entire state and the nation.

"Your committee is of the opinion that the commission could have come nearer to solving the problem if it had placed more competent and experienced men in that field; and if it had so organized that district as to secure better cooperation among the various departments of that field."

The steering committee added that the commission would have approached closer to a solution of its problem if it had "diligently and rigidly enforced its own orders; if it had caused meters to be put in; if it had written valid orders so as not to be enjoined and while enjoined the well to be run wide open; and finally, such rules and orders to be stricken down by the federal courts—losing the penalties incurred—causing those who were trying to live up to proration to lose confidence in the commission—affording a wide avenue for those desiring to violate."

HOW NEW MONEY GETS INTO CIRCULATION

New money printed in Washington is shipped to Federal Reserve Banks throughout United States.

Business man makes loan at his bank, posting security eligible for re-discount by Federal Reserve.

Banks deposit commercial paper and other "sound assets" with Federal Reserve Banks and receive paper money.

New money thus acquired by banks is paid out by making loans and by cashing checks of depositors.

Business firms make purchases, employers meet payrolls and thus new money gets into circulation.

As expanded currency is re-deposited, it can be withdrawn from circulation, thus controlling inflation.

JUDGE MULLICAN ADDRESSES LUBBOCK SERVICE CLUBS; QUOTES FROM BRIEF

Quoting from a brief presented in opposition to proposed elimination of a district court here, Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court addressed Lubbock's four service clubs Tuesday in the Hilton hotel. The Lions club was host at the joint meeting, at which Ben Condray, Lions president, presided. About 225 men attended.

"Selling You To West Texas"

Declaring that, "I'm selling you to West Texas and I'm going to let her speak for herself," Judge Mullican talked and read at length from the prepared brief concerning population, voting strength, schools, industries, distributing and marketing, farming, cotton production, poultry and livestock, farm development, freight tonnage and legal business of the "Lubbock area" which comprises thirteen counties.

"It is a well known fact, disclosed by the 1930 federal census, that no other section of Texas has had the phenominal growth in population during the last ten years as Lubbock county and its surrounding territory," the judge said. And he read the following figures to prove it:

"Lubbock county, 1920 federal census, 11,096; Lubbock county, 1930 federal census, 39,104; Lubbock county, 1933, approximately 41,500.

"Lubbock county shows enormous population increase for 1920 to 1930, of 251 per cent.

Lubbock city, 1920 federal census 4,051; Lubbock city, 1930 federal census 20,520; Lubbock city, 1933, approximated 21,320.

"Lubbock city shows enormous population increase from 1920 to 1930, of 408.8 per cent. This is the largest percentage of growth of any town of around 20,000 population in the United States.

Comparisons Made

"The following comparisons bring out more clearly the tremendous influx of people to this section:

"Increase of population per square mile of the Lubbock area, to-wit: Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum, compared with an area of similar size in Central Texas, to-wit: Bell, Collin, Dallas, Ellis, Falls, Hill, Hunt, Kaufman, Limestone, McLennan, Milan, Navarro Williamson, during the last 10 years show:

"The Lubbock area had 4.45 people per square mile 1920 and 11.20 people per square mile in 1930.

"The Central Texas area had 50.17 people per square mile in 1920 and only 51.30 people per square mile in 1930.

Increased 151 Per Cent

"The Lubbock area increased nearly 151 per cent in density of population.

"The Central Texas area increased only 2 per cent in density of population.

"The Lubbock area taking same ratio, will have 25 people per square mile in the next 10 years, and 50 people per square mile in the second 10 years, equaling the density of population of the Central Texas area.

Quoting further from the brief Judge Mullican said:

"The more than 58 towns built in the 13 surrounding counties of this section are modern in every respect. A majority have paved streets, electric lights, natural gas, sewage disposal plants, good hotels, good churches, fine schools and many other modern advantages and conveniences.

Ranks 9th In Manufacturing

"Lubbock ranks 9th in Texas in the number of manufacturing plants, being ranked only by such cities as Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Waco, Beaumont and Wichita Falls.

"Lubbock ranks such cities as Amarillo, Abilene, Austin, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Galveston, Port Arthur, San Angelo, Sherman, Texarkana, Tyler and all others.

"The above statements may seem incredible to those whose travels and investigations have never carried them to the great Panhandle, South Plains country of Texas, but we quote the July 15, 1932 "Directory of Texas Manufactures" published in the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

"Listing all plants, large and small, the 'U. S. Census' shows Lubbock has 151 manufacturing plants.

Is Market Center

"Lubbock serves as the distributing, marketing and trading point for the entire South Plains section.

"Lubbock is one of the largest inland cotton markets in the south, handling 500,000 bales of cotton annually, and Lubbock is the largest packed poultry shipping point, the largest turkey shipping point in Texas. Lubbock has 186 wholesale distributing houses serving this territory.

"Lubbock has approximately 350 retail stores, of all sizes.

"A tonnage survey shows that in 23 different lines of business with a total of 137 firms, 63 of them (or 46 per cent), reported 16,354 cars of inbound merchandise are received in Lubbock annually, totalling 794,161,812 pounds.

"This survey shows that warehouses, compresses, cotton oil mills grain dealers, and poultry and egg plants reported an annual outbound movement of 12,716 1-2 cars, totalling 662,753,502 pounds.

Handles Much Freight

Lubbock thus handles annually a total tonnage of 29,070 1-2 cars or 1,416,914,314 pounds of merchandise This does not include livestock.

"To handle the above tonnage, Lubbock has 8 railroad outlets serving the South Plains section with 28 daily trains. The Panhandle Santa Fe Railway company, and the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains Railway company render this service.

"Lubbock has 7 designated state highway outlets augmenting the railway service, 5 of which are now paved and 2 others being graded and prepared for paving.

"The South Plains is a proven farming country and, without doubt, will in the next few years, produce more cotton and grain sorghums cattle, poultry and dairy products than will any other area of similar size in the United States.

"Within a hundred mile radius of Lubbock, Texas, will some day be grown as much cotton as the state of Texas now produces." — W. D. Hunter, Etomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture.

"Lubbock county was the second largest producing cotton county in Texas in 1932, with 90,569 bales, and the fourth largest in America.

Acreage Yield Is .49 Bales

"It is interesting to note that, in 1910 there was one gin on the South Plains. In 1933 there were 162.

"Lubbock county average yield per acre is .49 bales of cotton. Three leading Central Texas cotton counties, (McLennan, Collin and Williamson), yield .23 to .29 bales per acre.

"Another contributing factor is that government rainfall records for a period of 35 years shows the average annual precipitation is slightly over 20 inches, concerning which Mr. R. E. Karper, director of the College Station Experiment farm at A. and M. college says:

Falls In Crop Season

"'Seventy-five per cent of yearly total rainfall is within the six months of crop growing season, April to November, inclusive, and this distribution has a very vital connection with the plant growth and is a distinct advantage.'

"Comparisons show that with the 4 months, June to September, the annual and seasonal rainfall in the College Station area is 9.99 inches; the Chillicothe station area, 12.34 inches; the Spur station area, 10.28 inches; the Lubbock station area 10.26 inches.

Cost Is Lower

"In cost of production of cotton, Lubbock county leads the field. Figures compiled by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, over the 8 big cotton states of the south, show that costs per pound of lint ranges from 10c in Lubbock county to 57 cents in Lee county, Arkansas.

"Speaking of the South Plains area it is said:

"There is no other cotton section in the whole of the United States of America which can compete with so low an average price of production, except the irrigated cotton in the Messila valley." Arno. S. Pearce general secretary, International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers association Manchester, England."

Judge Mullican also spoke concerning the Tech situation and decried the fairness in the location of schools in the state.

Judge Mullican was introduced by E. L. Pitts of the Lions club. Presidents of the various clubs and members were presented at the beginning of the program.

VETERAN VICTIM

BOSTON—Paul Bogasian, store owner, has become so used to being held up that he no longer fears bandits. Bandits came into Bogasian's store and robbed him of $10. He explained to the men that business was bad enough anyway and asked them not to take the cigarets. They didn't.

Says Japan Not To Extend Operations

TOKYO, Mar. 15. (AP)—Minister of War General Sadao Araki, Japan's nationalist leader and dominant figure in the cabinet, said today he did not think Japan would extend its military operations into North China proper.

But the general, whose power rests on the current supremacy of military elements in government councils, would make no assurances of what course would be taken.

Concerning all the various projects which reports have said Japan may take up, now that its armies are poised on the northern frontier of undisputed Chinese territory, he had the same laconic reply:

"I do not think so."

Cigarettes, like Foods need Seasoning

That's the part Turkish Tobaccos play in making Chesterfields Taste Better

SMOKERS notice a certain "touch" in Chesterfields that comes from having just enough Turkish tobacco in them . . . a spicy, aromatic flavor that's much the same to a cigarette as seasoning is to food.

Thought For Today

The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.—Psalms 14:2.

There are no tricks in plain simple faith.—Shakespeare.

What About Navy?

Secretary of the Navy Swanson announces that he is going to try to have the American navy brought up to full treaty strength. Naval experts predict that by 1936 the navy will be 135 vessels shy of that strength, if present trends continue; Secretary Swanson believes that this is no time to let naval strength fall off, and wants much new construction begun as soon as possible.

This problem has been more or less lost sight of in the press of weightier matters. Sooner or later, though, it will have to get some thoughtful consideration from Congress. Can we afford, world conditions being what they are, to keep our navy below par? Can we, on the other hand, government finances being what they are, afford to build it up to strength? There are good reasons for answering "no" to each question, and it isn't going to be easy to decide which "no" should be the louder.

Value of Advertising

Henry C. Lytton, veteran Chicago merchant, remarks that 1933 is of all years a year in which business men should make full use of advertising.

Forty-six years ago Mr. Lytton launched his business. He had, as he points out, just $12,000 capital but he did not hesitate to spend between $3500 and $4000 of it on newspaper advertising before he evened opened his doors.

His business recently was valued at approximately $7,000,000.

As a testimonial to the work that a wise advertising program can do for a business, his experience speaks volumes. Skimping on the advertising appropriation can be false economy of the most expensive kind.

Impartiality may be an attribute among bootleggers, but it got 60-day sentences for the New York trio who included a federal judge's mail box for their liquor price list.

Vice President Garner says he's going to cut out press conferences for fear he might be interpreted as speaking for the president. Evidently Garner, who's reputed to be quite a poker player, doesn't intend to bet 'em unless he has 'em.

How Not to Get Out of a Hole

"King Caucus" Clears Path For Roosevelt In Congress; Democrats Bind Themselves To Rush Action On Measures

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

(Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Dictatorship finally has arrived in the form of King Caucus.

Power for meeting the national financial emergency and the subsequent huge tasks of rehabilitation will rest with President Roosevelt, but Congress is independent of the executive and so it has established King Caucus to dictate to itself.

Dutcher

For some years Caucus has been a Democrat rather than a Republican monarch. Democratic party conferences in Congress are binding on members when the leaders seek to make them so. The Democratic majority in the Senate has voted overwhelmingly to bind all Democratic senators to support legislation proposed by Roosevelt whenever a majority votes in caucus to uphold it. That represents the first appearance of King Caucus in the upper house since before the war, although the House Democrats employed it to swing their strength into line during the last Congress.

Now that the majority leaders in both houses have decided to apply the binding caucus, all Roosevelt need to do is send his instructions to those leaders in order to obtain prompt action on whatever he thinks is good for the country.

Congress, suffering under popular criticism and open to the charge of being unable to act quickly and intelligently in emergencies, thus in effect becomes an agent at times rather than a directing force. No one anticipates that the leaders will fail to support any major Roosevelt proposal.

Chairman of the Democratic caucus in the House is Representative Clarence Lea of California, while other powerful leaders in this respect are Speaker Henry T. Rainey and Representatives Joe Byrns of Tennessee and Edward W. Pou of North Carolina. Byrns is the Democratic floor leader.

In the Senate, the Democratic caucus chairman is Senator Joe Robinson of Arkansas while other important leaders are Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, vice chairman, and Senators Kendrick of Wyoming and Byrnes of South Carolina.

During the World War there was no need of a binding caucus because Republicans and Democrats alike were out to win the conflict. Pre-war caucuses were frequent in the first Wilson administration, but after the Republicans came back to power little more was heard of them until late in the last House, with the Democrats again in control.

It was last used when the Democratic leaders successfully sought to defeat the Republican tariff bill which provided higher duties to compensate for depreciation in foreign currencies. Speaker Rainey doesn't believe there will be need of binding caucuses at present while a national emergency exists. He says the present situation is like that presented by the World War and that patriotism will banish partisanship for the present. Afterward, he predicts, the caucus will often be used to speed the general Democratic program.

"The purposes of a caucus," he explains, "is to be sure of putting a measure over."

Senate Democrats have gone much farther than those of the House, as they voted to bind all their senators to Roosevelt legislation whenever it was approved by a majority of the caucus, the caucus to be composed of at least two-thirds of the full Democratic strength of 58 or 59. That means that 21 Democrats theoretically could make the Senate pass all legislation asked by the administration.

House caucuses are not binding unless two-thirds of a Democratic caucus has subscribed to a measure.

Caucus ties have been broken before more than once and some members refused to be bound by them in any event, but not many men care to brave the dangers of losing their committee posts, their patronage and all chances for their own legislation. Insurgents from caucus instructions are subject to such discipline.

Party leadership and control such as the Democrats will exert has been lacking ever since the caucus went out of style. Leaders have been unable to tell how many votes they would have on a given measure or when an insurgent movement might break out such as ruined the Democratic sales tax bill.

The caucus is a protection to the congressman who fears reprisals from organized minorities, who feels compelled to vote from sectional or local viewpoint—or who doesn't want to follow his own conscience.

Without the binding caucus there seems no hope that Congress can ever be induced to reduce the annual billion-dollar load of veteran expenditures, no matter how strongly Roosevelt might urge it. The last Democratic House probably would never have passed a bonus bill had the leaders called a caucus.

Progressives usually have opposed the caucus, as did Senator Costigan of Colorado in the recent Senate caucus vote, on the ground that they shouldn't surrender their conscientious judgment to a machine.

In times past they have held that an agreement not to retain open minds while pro and con arguments were being made would be violation of their oaths. They objected also to drawing the veil of secrecy over important public deliberations—as a caucus does—and held that legislation backed by a binding caucus was likely to be precipitate as well as effecting a suppression of minorities. If the majority in a legislative body has 60 men out of 100, a mere 31 of its members can control the entire body, passing bills or defeating them at will.

Republican caucuses ended when Republicans began to be divided as between conservatives and progressives. The elder Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin led the fight against them and they degenerated into "party conferences," which are not binding.

Around the RADIO Clock

BY C. B. BUTTERFIELD

Time Is Central Standard

NEW YORK, Mar. 15. (AP)—Replies to a questionnaire on children's radio programs as received from 90 mothers of 71 boys and 63 girls lead the Child Study association of America to advise that "there appears much fair-minded criticism" as well as "a desire to utilize radio for the enrichment of home living."

The association makes these statements among numerous others:

"Only 18 parents declared for unqualified disapproval" of radio; "a small number feel radio is simply negative," while "a good many seemed to desire both to laud and to condemn. Several say they do not object to radio in itself as much as in the crowding out of 'achievements' and 'creative interests'."

FLASHES OF LIFE FROM EVERYWHERE

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

He's Through

LONG BEACH, Calif.—Three hours was the time estimated by the manufacturers for the solving of a jig-saw puzzle purchased by H. V. J. Swain. But then came the earthquake. Says Swain:

"I started working one about 5 o'clock Friday only to have my partially completed mosaic fall apart before me. I've had it nearly solved several times since but it shakes to pieces again. Now I've been at it three days and I'm through."

Birthday Gift

ST. JOSEPH, Mo.—Dr. William M. Campbell will give—not receive—on his sixtieth birthday Friday. The gifts will be the cancellation of $9,000 owed him by patients.

Senses Valued

ERIE, Pa.—The senses of taste and smell are worth $2,500 in the minds of an Erie jury.

That amount was awarded Margaret Neibauer, 24, for loss of these senses in an automobile accident. She sued for $25,000.

Doubly Sure

CLARKSBURG, W. Va.—The firemen of Clarksburg are doubly sure now of civil service protection. After working five years for it, they were gratified by the legislature's passage of a bill placing the department under civil service regulations. Then in the hurry of cleaning up a legislative jam, the assembly passed another bill giving the same authority to Clarksburg and other cities.

Steal The Sap

RACINE, Wis.—The latest kind of "public enemies" to come to the attention of the authorities are "tree burglars," who Louis Wilczynski complained, had been stealing the sap from the maple trees on his property.

Considering advanced trends in education, colleges now inaugurating courses in matrimony probably will extend their curricula to include alimony in a year or two.

Police were on guard duty in all banks. It was an easy assignment for them. They lounged in comfortable chairs, while deposits were made without disturbances.

There seemed to be new life downtown, with more people and more automobiles apparently here. Activity of razing the Temple Ellis shell at Broadway and Texas added to the stir.

L. C. Ellis, vice-president of the Lubbock National took a turn at the window, receiving deposits. "Might as well work a little" he remarked. "Not much money will be loaned today, so I will work in the cage."

"Just like it used to be several years ago when cotton came in during the early fall," O. L. Slaton, president of the First National, remarked as he looked over the lobby full of milling customers and the lines of depositors. "It looks good to see so many people here. I feel sure that the people of this section have confidence in the nation and the president."

L. R. Rampy, police desk sergeant, made two trips to the bank this morning with police receipts. The first time he carried cash and local checks; on the second he brought out-of-town checks.

The crowd, made up of merchants, professional men and women, laborers, clerks, and a few negroes, was in good spirits.

"We had just about as many depositors early as we usually have when we have a two day holiday," F. R. Friend, vice-president of the First National bank, said. "I suppose because we opened an hour early we did not have as big a rush as we might have had."

Meeting of the Lubbock chapter, national bank supporter's association, a subsidiary of the "Spittenargy" club, met as usual this morning on the bank corners. Business was transacted as usual, after a 13 day holiday caused by the moratorium. The Citizens chapel was larger, due to the fact that some construction work is going on across the street and that affords an opportunity for discussing how to do and not to do the job. Regular sessions are now scheduled for the remainder of the season.

One firm which deposited over $1,600 late Tuesday this morning reported that only $7.39 in checks returned. "That's a pretty good average," the manager declared after receiving the checks from the banks.

ax this year to pay the tax and become eligible to vote.

The house engrossed a proposed constitutional amendment that would subrait repeal of the prohibition section of the state constitution but the vote was 28 short of the number necessary to place the issue before the people. It would require 100 votes in the house to submit the proposition and the resolution received only 72 votes to 54 against. The resolution also would have to be approved by 21 votes in the senate.

Would Replace Section

The resolution would replace the existing prohibition section with the local option method of determining the liquor problem.

A resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to place a limit of six on the number of representatives in the Texas house from thickly populated areas was subscribed by the house 110 to 25. It also must be approved by the senate.

A compromise sales tax bill was approved by a sub-committee of the house committee on revenue and taxation. A tax of one-fourth of one per cent would be levied on sales of manufacturers, jobbers and wholesalers and one and one-half per cent on retail sales to consumers. A tax of two per cent would be levied on the gross receipts of public utilities and on the gross receipts of amusement operators.

the valley to the mountains through Nashville, Harrogate, Jellico and Kingsport, Tenn., touching many small villages on the way.

Death Toll Grows

The list of dead and injured grew as reports trickled in from the rural communities over crippled communication lines.

Nashville, a city of more than 150,000 and the Tennessee capital felt the full force of the storm as the driving winds dipped over a fringe of hills and cut across the eastern portion of the community, bowling over houses, damaging buildings, uprooting trees and littering the streets with debris. At least eight were killed here.

Lights over the city were snapped out as power lines fell. Ambulances drove through uncertain streets to take some 100 or more injured to hospitals where physicians had to work for a time with improvised illumination.

Buildings Leveled

Scores of buildings in east Nashville were leveled and the national guard was called out to preserve order. Rescue workers with flashlights picked their way over trees and through debris in the hunt for the dead and injured.

BEER BILL

ator Ashurst (D., N. M.), said beverages containing 3.2 per cent alcohol would be constitutional since they are not intoxicating.

Similar Bill Changed

In the last congress, the senate judiciary committee took a similar house bill and amended it to such an extent that even Democratic senators pledged to immediate modification of the Volstead act were not unduly anxious for its passage.

The new beer bill would levy a $5 federal tax on each 31-gallon barrel; forbid transportation of the new liquors into dry states; leave regulatory measures up to the states; permit advertising; make no provision for wines or fruit juices; become effective 15 days after being signed; require brewers, wholesalers and retailers to take out licenses costing $1,000, $50 and $20 a year respectively.

The Johnsons plan to use airplanes in their explorations.

tax returns must be made. The time for filing ordinarily would have expired at midnight tonight, but the bureau of internal revenue announced last night that the date had been changed to March 31. This was due to the realization by government officials that many taxpayers have found it difficult, and in some cases impossible, to complete arrangement for payment of their tax, due to the bank holiday. The only stipulation made in the postponement is that taxpayers who wait until after midnight tonight must pay six per cent interest for the two weeks period on one-quarter of their full tax.

There were signs that a larger part of the hoarded gold of the country, if indeed not most of it, already has been turned back into the Federal Reserve banks. The time limit set by the treasury department for return of gold expires March 17. It was estimated that the return of gold throughout the country has exceeded $300,000,000 to date.

New Impetus Provided

Every Federal Reserve bank district had opened a sufficient number of banks within its territory to provide new impetus for business and trade.

The bureau of printing and engraving at Washington, announcing that it is swiftly approaching peak production on a 24-hour shift, disclosed that by next week it will be turning out six million new banknotes each day to fill the first order of two billion dollars worth of currency under the emergency banking act. The production program for currency required by the new law was said at the bureau to be without precedent.

Secretary Woodin of the treasury conferred last night at Washington with Senator Carter Glass of Virginia on details of the bank reopening program and also permanent banking reform legislation.

"Things are working out beautifully," he said afterward. "I am more encouraged now than ever. I have had the most wonderful cooperation from all over the country."

HUNDREDS OF BANKS OPENED IN TEXAS

DALLAS, Mar. 15. (AP)—Bank the hundreds opened in Texas day.

While the backbone of the financial stringency was broken yesterday and Monday when banks in the larger cities resumed normal functions, it was the many smaller banks, members of both the Federal Reserve system and the state system that gave the last, final impetus to the forward movement.

Restrictions Lifted

The openings today were the third phase of the government's policy of progressive resumption of usual transactions. James Shaw, banking commissioner of the state, completed the lifting of most restrictions when he ordered all state banks, bank and trust companies, trust companies and private banks, except as otherwise ordered, to resume business unhampered.

President Roosevelt's proclamation providing penalties for hoarding of currency and gold still maintained, however.

While Texas banks comprised most of the eleventh Federal Reserve districts, others in small sections of Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona came under the direction of the district bank governor here, B. A. McKinney, and received licenses to reopen as rapidly as approval could be transmitted.

Others Await Orders

Although only five national banks in the lower Rio Grande valley had received permission to reopen, instructions to others were expected momentarily. The five were at Brownsville, Harlingen, Raymondville, La Feria and Mission.

In the extreme southeastern part of the state, near Beaumont, all banks in Jefferson county resumed operations while banks in Sour Lake, Hull-Daisetta and Silsbee, Hardin county, also awaited permission said to have been sent from Dallas and Austin.

The three Tyler banks were crowded early in the day but deposits exceeded withdrawals. Greenville's banks started up again amid shrieks of sirens, blowing of whistles and tolling of bells.

Deposits Heavy

The crowds were no larger at Denton than those ordinarily following any legal holiday but the heavy accumulation of checks indicated long hours for bank clerks. Deposits also were heavy at Denton.

All the Vernon banks reopened, including two national and one state. Two banks opened at Olney and two at Nocona. Amarillo's banks also conducted "business as usual."

San Angelo reported the following reopenings: San Angelo three, Coleman 1, Ballinger 3, Winters 2, Rowena 1, Miles 1, Ozona 1, Sonora 1, Eldorado 1, Alpine 2, Big Lake 1, Sterling City 1, McCamey 1, Rankin 1.

Corsicana's plans for a "new deal day" were typical of the manner in which many communities welcomed normalcy. Every person in that city was urged to make deposits in the banks regardless of the amount. Many organizations participated in a parade coincident with the reopenings.

Secretary Woodin Cites Cooperation

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Secretary Woodin in a brief statement today said the country's response in oversubscribing the $800,000,000 issue of treasury certificates at the time the country was emerging from its banking difficulties was "another fine example of the cooperation of the country in carrying out the government's financial plan."

The issue of five and nine month certificates, bearing 4 and 4 1-4 per cent interest, was oversubscribed two and one half times the day the books were opened.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Mar. 15. (AP)—Securities markets surged upward enthusiastically as trading was resumed today.

The quick resumption of free and normal trading, with rising prices, was a bright contrast to the months of highly restricted dealings by which trading was started again after the last important closing, coincident to the outbreak of the World war. Many stocks gained 1 to 8 points, virtually cancelling the losses of the last half of February. While the market hesitated for a time after the first upsurge, it moved up again in the early afternoon to a new high for the current recovery.

Case and Owens Illinois Glass registered exceptional gains of 8 points, while advances of 5 or more appeared in such issues as American Telephone, Allied Chemical, U. S. Steel preferred, International Harvester, American Sugar, Union Pacific, Corn Products, Norfolk and Western, and Macy. Gains of 3 to 4 were numerous, embracing such issues as U. S. Steel, American Can, Santa Fe, South Porto Rico Sugar, National Distillers, National Dairy, American Tobacco B, Johns Manville, Sears Roebuck, Continental Can, Consolidated Gas, and others. General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Anaconda and Kennecott were among issues up 2 or more.

Uncle Sam's Eagles at Western War Games

POUNDAGE INCREASES

WASHINGTON. — Recent comparisons by the Department of Commerce show enormous increases in poundage and passengers carried by the various American lines between 1926 and 1932. Air mail poundage increased from 800,000 in 1926 to 8,000,000 in 1932; passengers from 5,700 carried in 1926 to 536,000; express from 3,500 pounds to 1,500,000. Scheduled pilot flew 4,000,000 miles in 1928 and 50,000,000 in 1932.

The area of the Sahara Desert in northern Africa is said to be more than 3,500,000 square miles.

EXPRESS OFFICE OPENS

CHICAGO.—An air express office has been established at the Chicago municipal airport. The volume of air express being dispatched from this city has been increasing so rapidly that the office was inaugurated to facilitate handling of the shipments and improve the service.

France Warned To Pay Its War Debt

PARIS, March 15 (AP)—Former Premier Edouard Herriot has frankly warned France that it is to her "essential interest" to pay her three-months overdue debt to the United States as soon as possible in view of changed conditions in central Europe.

While the French government is seeking a League of Nations investigation of Hitler's Nazi storm troopers and is aroused by their activities in the Rhineland frontier, Herriot has speeded up his campaign for a close agreement between the United States, England and France as "the best guarantee of freedom and peace."

Hinkle Faces Term For Bank Robbery

PAULS VALLEY, Okla., March 15 (AP)—Henry Hinkle, jr., Lindsay attorney, today faced 20 years in prison in connection with the robbery of the First National bank of Lindsay several months ago.

Hinkle, convicted by a jury last week of participation in the robbery, in which nearly $18,000 in money and securities was taken, was sentenced to a 20-year term yesterday. He formerly was a law partner of Col. Cicero I. Murray, cousin of Governor Murray.

NEW LANDING FIELD

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. G. Biffle by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 99th District Court of Lubbock County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, on the first Monday in April, A. D., 1933, the same being the 3rd day of April, A. D., 1933, then and there to answer a First Amended Original petition filed in said Court on the 27th day of February, A. D., 1933, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 4947, wherein Higginbotham-Bartlett Company, a corporation, is Plaintiff, and J. G. Biffle, the Goodland Consolidated School District No. 7 and Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, a corporation, are Defendants, and said petition alleging that about December 27, 1930, defendants, J. G. Biffle and Goodland Consolidated School District No. 7, made and entered into a contract in writing, whereby J. G. Biffle agreed, for a consideration, to build and construct a one story, four room, brick and tile school building in the town of Goodland, Texas, at the same time, J. G. Biffle also executed and delivered to the School board of said School District his bond for the faithful performance of his contract, executed by defendant, Aetna Casualty and Surety Company.

That during the construction of said building, plaintiff sold and delivered to defendant, Biffle, goods, wares and merchandise and materials which were used by defendant, Biffle, in the construction of said building. And that there is a balance due on said account in the sum of $6,663.21 with interest thereon from completion of said building to this date at 6% per annum, which defendant, J. G. Biffle, though often requested, has failed and refused to pay to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $7,000.00.

That this plaintiff duly filed itemized and verified accounts within the time required by law and sworn to as required by statutes as to mechanic's lien claims and filed the same with the County Clerk of Bailey County, Texas, and that by reason of the execution of said contract and bond and the filing of said liens, defendants, J. G. Biffle, Goodland Consolidated School District No. 7, and the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, became liable and bound to pay to plaintiff said sum of $6,663.21, together with interest due thereon.

Plaintiff further alleges that said School District contains in its hands the sum of $6,414.03 out of the contract price due to said Biffle. That it has a valid and subsisting first lien on said funds by reason of having given notice as required by law.

In the alternative, that if the said Biffle and said Surety Company have withdrawn said funds and have given a bond therefore, that it is entitled to recover against all the defendants, jointly and severally, the amount due it, including its reasonable attorney's fee, which it alleges to be the sum of $1,000.00, to be taxed as costs.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendants for its debt, interest, costs of suit, foreclosure of lien, etc.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Lubbock, Texas, this the 27th day of February, A. D., 1933.

THE SIGNAL HAS BEEN RECEIVED!!

"AMERICA, FULL SPEED AHEAD"

For three and one-half years we have been proceeding at a constantly reducing speed—headed for nowhere in particular—hampered and held back by doubt and uncertainty.

The blow we have feared has been received—the shock we somewhat dreaded has been experienced. As is usually the case neither has proved to be as severe as was expected. On the contrary we have found we could "take it"—found that we could take it with a surprisingly slight jar.

Now the signal changes: "Full Speed Ahead" is the new order of the day. Of course some time will be required to again gain full momentum, but what of it—at last we are off—we're headed somewhere—we're on our way.

For our part we are now looking to the future with confidence, assurance and satisfaction. America will again prove her greatness.

WORKERS TEAR DOWN SHELL

TWO TOP STORIES OF GUTTED BUILDING TO BE RAZED

Workmen this morning prepared to take down the two upper stories of the four-story shell of the Temple Ellis building, which wind threatened to wreck yesterday.

Exercising police power in what was termed "a public emergency," City commission yesterday afternoon awarded a contract to J. B. Maxey of Lubbock to remove the walls of the third and fourth floors of the Temple Ellis building.

Rails Around Building

Maxey had guard rails placed around the building late Tuesday. He said he anticipated wrecking of the two top floors would be completed within five or six days.

Toppled over by a north wind which reached a maximum of 44 miles an hour, brick and mortar crashed from two of the walls yesterday morning.

The contract to Maxey stipulated payment of $790 by the city for the razing. His was the lowest bid. In part, the contract read:

Contract Is Quoted

"Whereas, it has come to the attention of the city commission that part of the walls of the Temple Ellis building have been blown down today by high winds; that part of the walls of the third and fourth floors remaining threaten public safety and create a danger requiring prompt action to prevent loss of life and property; and,

"Whereas, the City commission is required by such peril to exercise the police power in such public emergency; and, x x x

"Whereas the city manager (W. H. Rodgers), has received competitive bids, and J. B. Maxey is the lowest bidder at $790, the said city manager is hereby authorized and directed to enter into contract with the said contractor to remove the walls of the third and fourth floors of said building down to the concrete girder on top of the second story; said work to be started immediately and completed as quickly as possible."

Dropped Into Basement

The contract stipulates that the wreckage is to be dropped into the basement of the building. Material was carried to the site late yesterday for erection of scaffolding. Maxey said about 20 men would be employed in the project.

Action of the City commission followed authorization by the owner of the structure, Lubbock Mercantile company.

Denison Court Test Completed Tuesday

AUSTIN, March 15. (AP)—Trial of a friendly court suit to determine validity of the claim of Frank L. Denison of Temple to the chairmanship of the state highway commission was completed Tuesday in district court here.

District Judge J. D. Moore promised a decision within a few days. Regardless of his decision, the case will be taken to the state supreme court.

There are more than 5,125,000 radio license holders in Great Britain, and 910,000 more licenses were issued last year than in 1931.

No Further Clues Found In Mystery

RATON, N. M., March 15. (AP)—Hopes that a human skull found 12 miles south of here yesterday might throw light on the disappearance of Ray Sutton, prohibition agent, diminished today as officers were unable to find further tangible clues.

Sheriff R. E. Fletcher, who spent yesterday hunting for the remainder of the skeleton said he believed the skull had been there for many years.

The skull bore evidences of being that of a person who had been shot through the head, two bullet wounds were found.

Sutton disappeared in August, 1930, while presumably in search of a still.

Change In Gas Tax Will Be Protested

AMARILLO, March 15. (AP)—Gas producers and land and royalty owners of the Panhandle organized Tuesday to move their forces to Austin in protest of any proposed change in the present tax on natural gas.

Committees representing every town in the gas producing area will be in Austin Thursday night when gas tax bills come up for committee hearing. Only a tax levied on gross production and market price at the well will be favorable to the Panhandle group, they said after a meeting here Tuesday. The present tax is two per cent of the price at the well.

Would Put Teeth In Pact Of Paris

WASHINGTON, March 15. (AP)—The great nations of the world with the United States in the forefront were moving today toward concerted action to put teeth into the pact of Paris by agreeing to deny the implements of war to nations violating its solemn pledge against the use of force in settling international disputes.

This broad and significant plan, with its direct bearing upon the peace of the world, was disclosed as the Roosevelt administration determined to ask the present session of congress to grant the president authority to forbid the shipment of arms or munitions to any nation on the globe.

INTERESTING NEWS, COMMENT FROM AUSTIN

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, March 15 (AP)—Assigning pages is one of the most difficult tasks of his office, Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt believes. He put on a staff of pages when the legislature began with understanding some of them would have to relinquish the places to other applicants when the first half of the 120-day period ended.

He had to revise his list recently and replace some of the first-half pages with others and give some who had been enjoying full-time employment places that called for part-time work.

Witt Defends Senate

Lieutenant Governor Witt defended the senate against talk from some quarters that it had been "taking things easy" during the first sixty days.

"Just let them look at the great number of bills passed out of committees and our critics will have their eyes opened," Witt said. "Under the constitution it was intended that the first two months of the session be devoted to committee work except in the case of emergency legislation. We have been hewing to that line pretty consistently. The complaint that the Texas senate has not been working will not stand up under the facts."

Secretary Impressed

John Wood, secretary to Governor Ferguson, has been impressed with the "same line" of conversation put out by those who seek to gain entrance to the chief executive's inner office.

"They invariably tell me that they do not want to see the governor, but that the governor wants to see them," Wood said.

"The other day a man presented himself for admittance to the governor's private office. He told me he was a 'big shot' during the campaign in a certain tier of counties. 'I don't particularly want to see the governor, but the governor wants to see me,' this man explained. I went to the governor with the man's name and was told the governor never had heard of him."

VETERANS OPPOSE ECONOMY PROGRAM

The Lubbock post No. 2466 Veterans of Foreign Wars will ask Texas senators by telegram to oppose the economy bill now in the senate, the post decided last night in the Lubbock hotel.

The post took this action not because "we oppose any cuts in veteran administration but because we do not know the reductions the president plans," it was said. Any reductions in claims for service-connected disabilities will be opposed, Tom Carter, commander, said. He said the veterans are supporting the president.

Four new members were initiated last night. They are R. W. Martin, G. M. Carr, E. E. Woodson and B. W. Dansfield. Plans were made for a membership campaign and for organization of a bugle corps.

Mattern, Griffin Confer On Flight

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 15. (AP)—James Mattern of San Angelo and Bennett Griffin of Oklahoma City, who hope to set a new record for a globe-girdling flight, conferred today with C. E. Page, who was business manager for their attempt last year which ended in a Russian peat bog.

Page said no announcement of their plans would be made for several days.

Lubbock Banks will all open for business today, March 15, with no restrictions against withdrawals except for hoarding.

To the citizens of Lubbock and its territory, we wish to express our sincere appreciation for the splendid spirit shown during the period that the banks have been closed by a proclamation of President Roosevelt.
