4-H Awards In Lubbock

Woody Anderson and Sally Smith are shown as they received awards and recognition at the Extension District 2 Gold Star banquet in Lubbock which honored 40 outstanding 4-H Club members from the South Plains. The Gold Star youths were cited for personal development, outstanding achievement and results in demonstrations, special contribution to 4-H on local and district levels.

Driver Charged In Fatal Wreck Here

Negligent homicide has been charged here in connection with the Interstate 20 freeway death of Mrs. Clarence Baldwin, 73, of Long Island, N.Y.

Defendant in the case filed in County Court is Robert Lloyd Lasson of Tulsa, Okla.

Lasson is identified as driver of a 1966 pickup which was in collision with the 1962 Rambler in which Mrs. Baldwin was traveling with her husband.

Both vehicles were traveling west, according to police, and the impact of collision was with the front of the pickup and the rear of the Baldwin auto.

2nd War Victim Coopers Await Son's Body

Family of Mitchell County's second Vietnam war victim waited Wednesday for the Army to return home the body of their son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cooper, who live on Route 1 just north of Colorado City, were notified Friday their son, Specialist 4th Class Robert W. Cooper, had died of wounds received in combat.

They had been notified Monday, Dec. 18, that their son, a tank driver, had been severely wounded by an exploding booby-trapped enemy bomb.

Ex-Airman To Join City Police

A new patrolman joins the Colorado City police department Jan. 1.

Crazy Spiral for Cotton Trading Slackens On Low, Mike Short Staple

The wild cotton market this season, coupled with the shortest crop in the last 50 years, will give cotton producers, processors and buyers something to talk about for many weeks.

"Middling 1-1/16-inch staple was averaging as much as 35.50 cents in some of the major markets."

"About the clearest aspect to the wild market of mid-December," said Bragg, "is the fact that the high strength, longer staple cotton is bringing tremendous premiums over the shorter staples."

omy of the area. As it now appears," Bragg continued "we cannot afford to lose any more of our cotton allotment. And it will be advantageous to all segments of our economy if the highest quality planting seed of the most desirable varieties are planted in 1968."

"The 27.10 paid last week for middling 1-inch compares with 21.91 cents average which was paid by the same markets on a corresponding date a year ago," Bragg stated.

"That's the report Wednesday from County Tax Assessor-Collector M. A. Hartlegree.

A native of Colorado City, Hock received a degree in marketing from Texas Technological College. He will live in the Chicago area.

He is son of Mrs. Inez Hock and the late R. V. Hock.

County Voters Above 2,000

Voter registration in Mitchell County for 1968 already has passed the 2,000 mark.

Deadline for registering at the county tax office is Jan. 31.

Previously, exempted voters did not have to register, but under new provisions of Texas Election Laws, every qualified voter must register annually.

Graduates At Air University News Items From C-City's Military

First Lieutenant Robert D. Brookshear, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godwin, 735 E. 16th St., has been graduated from the Air University's Squadron Officer School at Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Lieutenant Brookshear was one of 325 students who completed the 14-week professional officer training. He was specially selected for the course in recognition of his potential as an officer.

A 1960 graduate of Denton Senior High School, the lieutenant received his B. B. A. degree in 1964 from North Texas State University. He was commissioned there as a distinguished military graduate, upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

The exercise was held off the coast of Southern California from Nov. 23 to Dec. 9. It involved 21,000 men in 45 ships, and six air units.

James Hock Promoted

Campbell's Soups has announced the appointment of James N. Hock as Campbell Sales Company's area supervisor - Special Products Central Division.

Hock joined Campbell in 1960 as sales representative, West Texas Heat Processed Products District. He was promoted to sales specialist in 1961, and to account manager, East Texas District in 1964.

20-Year Service Awards

Willis Jones, left, presents 20-year service awards to two fellow Col-Tex Refinery employees — Oren F. Moore, center, and J. L. Shafer. Moore and Shafer are among eight Col-Tex employees who during 1967 have joined the group of "seniors" with 20 or more years of service at the refinery.

New Civic House Policies Coming Jan. 1 for Facilities, Meals

Policy advisory board for Civic House has revised policies and fees for use of the building's facilities and services.

The new policies are effective Jan. 1, according to announcement by the board.

Meals will be served at minimum fees of 1.72 per plate (plus 3 cents sales tax). Special meals will cost $1.72 per plate (plus 3 cents sales tax) and $1.96 per plate (plus 4 cents sales tax) when served at table.

to stipulate in its policies that no intoxicating beverages will be allowed on premises.

Tractor Runs Over C-City Contractor

Lloyd Barr, dirt contractor here, suffered a fracture of the lower right leg Sunday morning about 9:30 when his driverless tractor ran over him in front of Costin-Implement Co. 274 Oak St.

He was taken from the accident scene by ambulance to the emergency room of the hospital here.

Mitchell HD Council Host For Installation & Dinner

Annual family Christmas dinner and installation ceremonies for 1968 officers of Mitchell County Home Demonstration Council was featured at Medallion Room, Long Wolf Electric building, Thursday evening.

Covered dish menu was served buffet-style. Tables were decorated with holly, flanked by red and green candles. A white Christmas tree and potted poinsettias centered the stage. Walls of Medallion Room were also decorated in the Christmas theme.

At the program hour County Judge Elmer Martin said the invocation. Miss Janice Miller, Mitchell County Home Demonstration Agent, said the welcome address.

CONVERSATION CORNER

NOW it's an echo in the heart . . . Christmas of '67. Now it's an echo made up of the beautiful words and music of "O Come All Ye Faithful," as sung by carolers from All Saints, Saturday night.

It is an echo of the excited, high voices of children and grandchildren around the tree.

It is an echo of the bustle in stores Saturday, Dec. 23, bustle in the kitchen . . . rustle of the gift wrap paper . . . fire crackers at dawn and dusk . . . and "Please pass the gravy."

NOW it's an echo of the voice of Gillian McEntire, happy over the fact that son Randy McEntire had arrived from Albuquerque, N. M., Friday for a Christmas visit.

Happy, too, that daughter Marilyn, her husband Bill Wiegand, and their three sons from Abilene were due for a holiday visit along with first daughter Gillian (Dodie) her husband Howard Kenyon, and their four children from Lubbock.

It is an echo of greetings from Jamie Anderson, here from Austin to visit his mother Aline Anderson and grandmother Mrs. George Phillips.

NOW it is an echo of a telephoned "Merry Christmas" from Carol (Mrs. Frank) Frewitt . . . Ann Randi Davis, too.

Now it is an echo . . . a memory, A memory of Billy Wilkinson's solemn Christmas Eve sermon, heard via KVMC and that First Methodist choir's music, along with congregational singing of the old, sweetest carol, "Silent Night."

Now it is the memory of pretty blond Judy Ellis and her attractive mother Mrs. Jeff Ellis, on this downtown scene. Judy, ACC graduate, teaches school at Irving and is the fiancée of Lt. Bob Bow, who is stationed in Alaska.

OTHER ECHOES include these: Clay Strange, Austin College student in Sherman, was guest of his parents Lena and Gwen Strange, at Westbrook.

Gwen leaves Saturday to be in Gainesville 30 miles from his college, where he is youth director at Whaley Methodist Church. He was youth director there last summer, you'll remember, and continued his work this fall by commuting for weekends. He'll be with the church youth for a New Year's celebration, and then expects to attend the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas.

Also a guest of the Stranges and her mother Mrs. Olive Bird was Mrs. Bird's sister Mrs. Ruth Reynolds of Mineral Wells.

DID you know that Jim Hook, son of Inez Hook of the ASCS office, has been promoted by Mr. Campbell Soup to area supervisor and is being transferred from Dallas to Chicago?

Did you know the Trevlyn Kelleys are parents of a third daughter born to them Christmas Day?

SEEN LATELYS were Ruth Latham and Isabel Raloff lunching duet . . . J. C. Garrett, office visiting . . . Crickett Hrbarek who had a quiet Christmas at home . . . The O. L. Simpsens at dinner and looking forward to Christmas here with their grandchildren Sherri and Ken Handstine and their parents Doug and Jodie of Wichita, Kansas.

Saw Martha Freeman, wife of Charlie, on the shopping scene . . . Carolyn Howell too . . . and the John M. Worrells . . . Edith Wilkinson of Lorraine . . . Willie and Selma Landau.

HERE from Bred, wife for the Christmas holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Donn Trigg, mother and father of Margaret (Mrs. Ben) Sparks and of Mrs. Bill Hudson.

Saw Carol Gindal of North Texas State University, home for Christmas . . . Doris Carter, wife of Bill F. . . Charles Walker, district court reporter . . . Highway Patrolman Buddy H. H. H. . . . Pretty Terry Myers, home for the holidays from SMU . . . her little teenage sister, Judy, looking chic in slacks and tailored shirt . . . Jay Craddock in the post office . . . Ditto Ann Halbert, wife of Lynn.

DICK AND GWEN Wistrand had an exceptionally wonderful Christmas - one of sharing joy with a little boy here at home with them were their daughter Sally, her husband Chris Cooper, son of Ruth and Billy Cooper, Sally and Chris are students in the University of Texas at Arlington.

Sally and Chris brought with them a little nine-year-old boy, Jimmy Hendrix, from the Tarrant County Home For Children, Ft. Worth. They were his holiday sponsors.

With the Wistrands it's "the more, the merrier." They and their sons and daughters, Richard, Hunter, Faye, and Anna, joined hands to welcome Jimmy for Christmas along with Sally and Chris.

ANOTHER celebration was one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith who entertained their daughters and sons.

Here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, their daughters Becky and Pammy of Midland; their daughter Mrs. T. P. Johnson, her husband, their daughter and her husband Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ligon, all of Llano and the Ligon son John Harve of Big Spring.

Joining the family were the Smith daughter Ruth and her husband Joe Barbett, of C. City; their son Charlie, his wife Ella (Hubbard) of C. City; the Smith daughter Betsy and her husband Dan Ballew, of Texas Tech; Mrs. Charlie Smith's daughter Margaret Ann Hubbard of Austin and son Charles of Dallas.

POSTSCRIPT - Over our way from Abilene were Aline and Milton Botzin.

Among the college crowd home for holidays are Susan Kirschbaum of Texas Christian . . . Brenda Bell of University of Texas at Austin and her brother Craig, University of Denver.

G.M. Howell Home Host For Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon M. Howell, route 2, entertained with Christmas dinner at their home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jameson, their daughter Kay and son Harold; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jameson and daughter Natalie; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Howell and son Blake of Tulsa, Okla.; Miss Carolyn Howell, daughter of the host couple. Joining the family were Miss Jane Merrill and Wendell Brady, of Ft. Worth.

POINSETTIAS AND PUPPY DOGS

Poinsettias for Grandmother, a puppy for brother Joe, stationery is perfect for Aunt Sue.

"Tis the season to be jolly," carol the loudspeakers in the department stores, but each year it becomes harder. Days are frantic with shopping, wrapping, and addressing. There's too much to do, too many things to remember; Sally's school play, a white elephant for Joe's Scout party, the Kirby's gala on the twenty-second.

There's no time for thinking, but sometimes late at night, a moment for reflection. In the rush of doing all the right things have we forgotten our reasons for doing them? Have we come bearing gifts, like the Magi, with hearts empty of the wonder and awe that was theirs?

Perhaps we need to hear anew the age-old story of a tiny Babe wrapped and gently laid in a manger while shepherds quaked and angels sang. The door of your Church stands open. Worship there the newborn King this Christmas and every Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Two Washington men escaped serious injury Saturday when their 1968 Oldsmobile overturned near Westbrook.

James Jenkins, the driver, and Woodrow Williams both of Tacoma, Wash., were treated at Root Memorial Hospital.

They were traveling east on Interstate 20 freeway about 2:30 a.m. when the accident happened half mile west of Westbrook.

State Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger said the two-door sedan ran off the right side of the pavement, then careened out of control back across both freeway arteries, overturning on the north fringe road.

The new car was severely damaged.

The Saturday accident was one of two major wrecks reported inside Mitchell County during the Christmas weekend.

CALIFORNIA VOWS

Miss Dixie L. Dixon Bride Of Nicholas F. DeLorenzo

Mrs. Nicholas De Lorenzo
... Formerly Miss Dixie Dixon

Among the Christmas season weddings of interest in Colorado City was the marriage of Miss Dixie Louise Dixon to Nicholas F. DeLorenzo, in Newport Beach California.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross D. Dixon, Jr. of Costa Mesa, California. She is granddaughter of the late Ross D. Dixon, Sr., and of Mrs. A. T. Caffey, formerly of Colorado City, now of Arlington.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. John De Lorenzo of Corina, California.

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, December 16, at 12:30 p.m. in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church at Newport Beach, with Father Jerome Lyon Cummings of St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Pomona as officiant for double ring vows.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of champagne lace over English net designed with long pointed sleeves, a scalloped square neckline, princess silhouette enhanced by a chapeau length Watteau train. Her headdress was an open crown caplet of lace petals in orange blossom design, with veil of English net.

Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis in a cascade. For something blue and something old the bride wore the wedding blue ring which belonged to her late paternal grandmother, Hazel McKenzie Dixon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Parker of Newport Beach. Bridesmaids were Miss Dale Dixon and Miss Diane Dixon, sisters of the bride. Attendants were gowned in azelea pink silk organza over taffeta—fashioned with empire bodices, cap sleeves, scoop necklines, and floor-length A-line skirts bordered with full ruffles of pink nylon tulle. They wore matching pill box hats with blush veils and carried cascade bouquets of pink and red roses.

Flower girl, Miss Maria DeLorenzo, the groom's sister, wore a dress matching the frocks of the other attendants.

Best man was William O. Horn, Jr. of Covina. Ushers were Andy Conahan, Tom Runa, and Mike Gillespie. Marking the altar were white candles, white carnations, spider mums and angel fern.

Reception was held at the home of the parents of the bride where white tapers were flanked by pink and white carnations. Patio was decorated with a wedding bower made of garlands of white wedding bells and greenery. Champagne brunch was served to 150 guests.

Sisters of the groom, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Miss Theresa DeLorenzo, assisted at the reception.

After a ski trip in Northern California, the couple will live in Pomona.

The bride is a graduate of Newport Beach High School and attended Orange Grove College where she is president of Theta Sigma. Graduate of Pomona Catholic Boys School the groom is attending California Polytechnical College at Pomona where he is majoring in landscape architecture. He is member of Pi Sigma Chi.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's maternal grandmother Mrs. A. T. Caffey of Arlington, and uncle Bob Caffey of Dallas.
