Fastener Plant to Move To Wellington in Sept.

Wellington Industries, Inc. will move a metal fastener plant to Wellington by late September, company officers said this week.

The plant will employ eight people in an 8-hour-day, 5-days-a-week shift when operations begin in Wellington around October 1.

The company, Arrowhead Products, Inc., is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wellington Industries. Wellington Industries bought Arrowhead, located in Emporia, Kansas, in October, 1982.

Arrowhead manufactures aluminum rivets and stainless steel and alloy steel bolts and screws for aircraft industry, commercial and government markets.

Wellington Industries received approval Monday of a Small Business Administration loan which, in conjunction with a loan from the Wellington Industrial Board, is being used to rebuild the old Wellington ice plant into a new facility for the plant. The new building, located at the intersection of 7th Street and the Burlington railroad, will have a floor area of 8,700 square feet.

New concrete flooring is being completed this week, and Kenneth Davis, contractor for the building, expects new walls and roofing to be completed in two weeks.

Dwain Marple, Arrowhead vice president, said he will begin moving equipment and machinery from Kansas as soon as the building is dried in.

The plant includes four rivet machines, seven headers, and seven thread rollers and trimmers. The plant will include its own tool and die department.

Arrowhead president Brenda Marple said that four families will move from Emporia to Texas. Arrowhead's general manager, Mike Morris, will move to Shamrock because his wife, Jo, has been hired by Shamrock Independent School District as a special education teacher, and Shamrock requires teachers to live in the district, Mrs. Marple said. The other families will live in Wellington.

Dwain Marple said that Arrowhead hopes to be able to add a second shift later. He also said the company plans to add heat treating and etching facilities at the plant here later. The company currently sends its products out of house for those processes.

Arrowhead ships its products by truck to a variety of customers including aircraft manufacturers, truck van manufacturers, distributors, and the United States government.

Arrowhead's largest product is a bolt 3/8 inch in diameter by 3 inches long.

"We were going to have to move the plant to a larger building this fall, and since we would be moving equipment anyway we thought a move to Wellington would be good for the company," Brenda Marple said. "Most of our rivet sales are in California, and we're hoping to expand sales in the Texas/Oklahoma market by being more competitive with a location in Texas. We also thought the new jobs here would help the local economy."

Rodeo Kicks Off Friday Night

Wellington 4-H Bit and Spur Horse Club will post the colors and stage the grand entry that opens the annual Wellington Rodeo Friday, Jo Rita Henard has announced. The time will be 8 p.m. both nights, Friday and Saturday, August 23 and 24.

The action will be in the VFW Rodeo Arena in northeast Wellington.

The Bit and Spur Club will also have the concession stand on the east side of the arena.

Rodeo events will be bronc riding, team roping, calf roping, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, and for the girls, barrel racing and girls breakaway calf roping.

This is a Texas Cowboys Rodeo Association approved rodeo produced by C&C Rodeo Co., Inc., of Childress.

There will be two local events, one for adults, the other for children.

The wild cow race will be made up by teams composed of three men and a wild cow. There is a $15 entry fee. Winner takes all.

The kid's calf scramble is for boys and girls 12 years of age and under. A cash prize will be paid for the first ribbon returned.

The rodeo dance will be held both Friday and Saturday nights from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the new dance slab. Admission will be $6 for singles and $10 for couples.

There will be music by Marl White and the Night Life Band.

General rodeo admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children under 12.

Children under 6 years will be admitted free.

More Floats for Fair Parade

The longest, most colorful parade of recent years will open the two-day Collingsworth County Fair Friday and Saturday, Sept. 6-7, Tommy Hudson, parade chairman, announced.

It will start at 10 a.m. Friday.

All parade entries should be brought in so they can be in place at 9:30 a.m.

The parade route and location of the various parade divisions will be announced next week, said Hudson.

Several changes are planned.

The theme of this parade will be set as veterans organizations and the National Guard provide the parade marshal and color guard. The parade will be in observance of the 40th anniversary of the end of World War II in 1945.

Those working with the parade are already contacting businesses and organizations in search of colorfully decorated floats in each division: youth organizations, adult organizations and commercial floats.

For the first time, surrounding towns are being invited to send floats to the Collingsworth Fair parade, each representing in some way its own community.

In another first, a $25 cash prize will be given to the 1st place winner of the youth organization category and another $25 to 1st place winner of the adult organization.

A traveling trophy will be awarded to the commercial float 1st place winner from Collingsworth County.

A permanent trophy will go to the first place winner in the out of county category.

Fire departments from the surrounding towns and communities have been invited.

Rockets, Crosbyton Scrimmage

Wellington and Crosbyton football teams will scrimmage at Valley Friday, Aug. 23, starting at 5 p.m. Head coach James Williams announced.

This will be a controlled type of scrimmage, with no kickoffs and no punts, according to Williams. Play will start on the 20 yard line with teams alternating for possession of the ball after a designated number of plays.

Junior varsity boys will play first, followed by the varsity team.

Williams and other Skyrocket coaches urge Wellington fans to follow their team to Valley to see this first 1985 appearance.

"We are impressed with the kids so far. They have worked real hard during the week and a half we have been out," said Williams.

"We have some boys who have grown a lot since last year, who not only came back with quite a bit more size but also a little more quickness.

"We can tell a little more about the team as a whole after this scrimmage."

Williams said he is still trying to get a scrimmage for next week.

"These kids are working hard and trying to learn. I have really enjoyed this week and a half of coaching," he added.

Skyrocket coaches are carrying 24 boys on the varsity squad and about 20 on the junior varsity.

Boulter Says Deficits Mean Economic Crisis for Nation

U.S. Representative Beau Boulter said Saturday, Aug. 17 that the United States is facing a "real economic crisis with its $230 billion fiscal deficit, $150 billion trade deficit, and a national debt of over $2 trillion."

Boulter, freshman Republican from Texas 13th District, was in Wellington for one of the "town hall" meetings that he is holding in each county in his district. Boulter said that he was using Congress' August recess to hold eleven town hall meetings and make twenty-five speeches in the district. He said that when he finished these eleven meetings, he would have held them in each of the 37 counties in his district.

Approximately 30 constituents attended the meeting in Wellington at the Farm Bureau building. With Boulter at the Wellington meeting were his wife, Rosemary, children Matt and Libby, and Amarillo district office manager Ernie Houdashell.

Boulter decried the lack of program cuts in the budget that Congress approved just before the recess.

He said that the Senate proposed to eliminate 17 programs such as Legal Services, Amtrak, $3 billion in aerospace industry export subsidies, the $9 billion synfuels program, and UDAG grants.

Boulter said that by the time the conference committee had finished compromises not a single program had been eliminated.

Boulter served as the only freshman on the conference committee.

He said the National Endowment for the Arts was a prime example of programs that could be cut or eliminated. He said that program started with a budget of $2 million. It's budget now is $180 million.

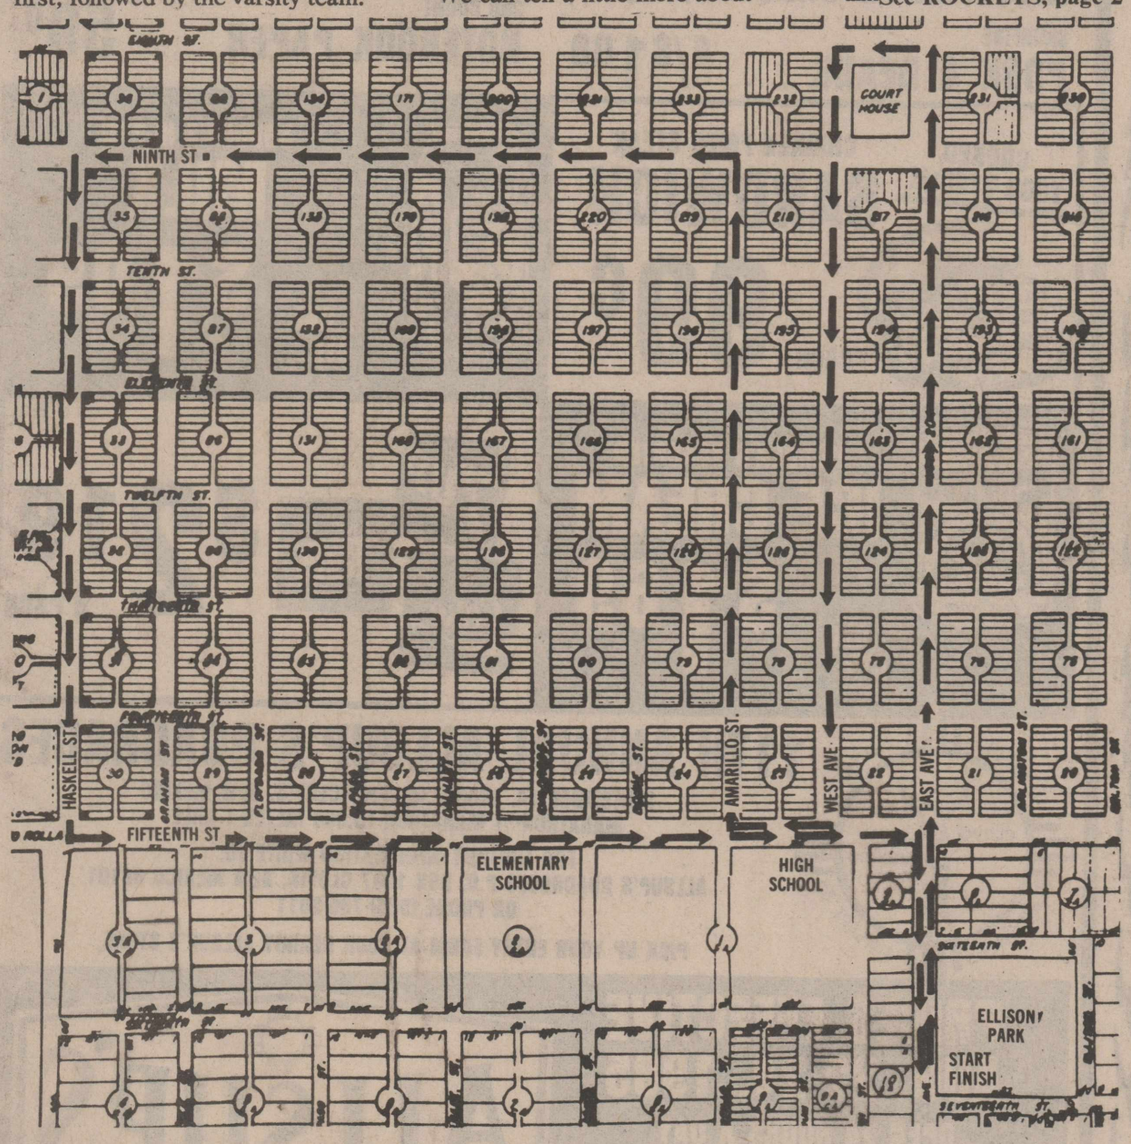

Boulter said some of the money is spent on grants to people to write poetry or produce works of art, and Boulter said some of the results are "abhorrent."

Boulter said he would not vote for a tax increase unless a Constitutional Amendment to balance the budget passes and the President gets authority for a line item veto.

Former Democratic Party county chairman Doug Seal asked Boulter why he voted against one farm credit bill, but issued a press release saying he had voted for another credit bill.

Boulter replied that he had voted for a new farm credit bill that he and other Republicans thought they had a chance of passing and getting the President's signature. He said he voted against the bill that the President later vetoed because he thought banks already had incentives on farm credit and

Peanut Field Day Slated Sept. 9

By Don Reeves, Extension Agent

Peanut producers in Collingsworth and surrounding counties are invited to the annual peanut field day scheduled for September 9th. This event will start at 1:30 p.m. at the John Coffee farm 4 miles north of Quail.

Dr. Leland Tripp, State Extension Peanut Specialist at College Station and Dr. Chip Lee, Area Extension Plant Pathologist at Stephenville will be here again this year to discuss peanut management practices, disease control, insect control and harvesting.

At the John Coffee farm you will see florunner peanuts and from there we will visit a field of Virginia peanuts on the P.J. White farm. Virginia peanuts are a relatively new crop in this county and present different management problems than florunners of Spanish peanuts. This will be a good time to visit with Extension Specialists if you are growing any variety of peanuts.

STORM DAMAGE

Christian Academy Sets Open House Thursday

The faculty and staff of Wellington Christian Academy will hold an open house Thursday, Aug. 22, beginning at 7:30 p.m. "We would like the community to know what a Christian school is all about," said the Rev. Dan Denissen, pastor of Abundant Life Fellowship.

The school is located in Abundant Life Fellowship Church at 101 9th Street.

A slide presentation will be made with an explanation of this year's program.

A question and answer time will follow with personal counseling available.

This year scholarships will be available to help interested students to attend, Rev. Denissen said.

the 1984 season.

Crosbyton is rated 136th, down from 145 last season.

The poll, which doesn't always work out for the Rockets, lists them as No. 1 behind Memphis in District 2-AA. Wellington was in a rebuilding program last year and posted a 2-8 record. This year it's different. The Rockets have 18 lettermen returning with 6 offensive and 7 defensive starters. They remember the strength that took them to back to back playoffs in 1982 and 1983 and undoubtedly they have ambitions of another trip to the post season playoffs play.

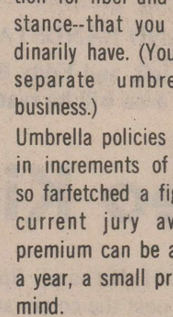

Crosbyton has 11 lettermen, three offensive and three defensive starters.

With its 8-3 record last year, it made the playoffs as it was expected to do. A return trip hinges on whether Coach Don Coward can develop some linemen. The backfield is sparked by running back David Mullins who rushed for 1176 yards as a junior. On the whole, the team is weaker than last year, Harris believes.

EXTENDED COVERAGE

by Betsy Lemons

What are you worth? Are your assets protected if you're sued for a million dollars--and lose? They could be, at little extra cost.

Umbrella liability insurance protects you where your ordinary insurance leaves off, taking over in case of extraordinary judgments.

Your underlying homeowners and auto policies usually have to be raised to qualify for coverage, but the cost is far less than if you had to raise each policy to a million or more.

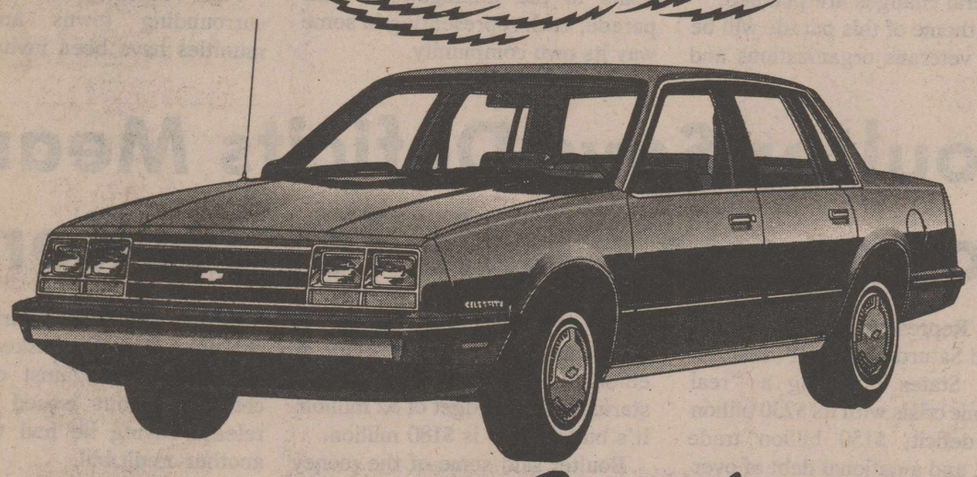

In many cases, the umbrella also adds extra liability protection--for libel and slander, for instance--that you would not ordinarily have. (You should have a separate umbrella for your business.)

Umbrella policies are usually sold in increments of $1 million--not so farfetched a figure, in light of current jury awards--yet the premium can be as little as $100 a year, a small price for peace of mind.

What's your protection profile? Come in for a no-obligation talk with the experts at...

NEW 2157 2165

Superior grain yields with a good grazing bonus. Excellent straw strength, too!

Our researchers were impressed by the tremendous pasture production and grain yields from these new varieties during testing. And now that the varieties have stood the test of actual production on many farms under many conditions, the proof is in!

They grow off well and show strong resistance to SBMV, leaf rusts, fungal leaf blights, and the Hessian fly.

- New 2157 gives you good, early grazing, then stays with you through the winter. And the grain yields are right up there with anything you care to compare it against. Choose 2157 for dryland or limited water production.
- New 2165 works with your irrigation program to make the most of all you put into the crop. Pasture comes on strong in the fall and grain yields are among the best you'll find, bar none.

Community Band Seeks Drummer And Members

Wellington Community Band is seeking more people to participate in upcoming events, members said at a meeting Sunday, Aug. 18.

The band will participate in the County Fair Parade and in the Hedley Cotton Festival on Saturday, Sept. 21.

Members said they will meet with new Wellington High School band director Bill Dyer to work out a schedule for practices.

The band is especially in need of drummers, members said.

"Anyone who can play an instrument is welcome," Tom Lonon, a band member said. "You don't have to be a Wellington Ex-Student to play."

The type of music that the band will perform will be determined by the instrumentation that is available.

Anyone that would like more information should contact Ray Cozad, band president or Tom Lonon or Debra Belew.

Three Firemen Attend Firefighters School

Three members of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department attended the 56th annual Texas Firemen's Training School, July 21-26.

Richard Keller, fireman and also Wellington Fire Marshal, was sponsored by the Collingsworth County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies.

The City of Wellington paid the expenses of the other two.

This is a part of the continuing program to upgrade the Fire Department, obtain certification for the firemen, and gain credit for the fire insurance key rate for the city.

Nearly 2,000 firemen from approximately 700 towns attended the school coming from 25 states, which was held on the Texas A&M University campus.

In speaking of Farm Bureau's participation, S.M. True, president of the organization said:

"Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting and fire prevention, 100 County Farm Bureaus and the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in the statewide program have sponsored 100 firemen at the school.

"The Farm Bureau Insurance Companies believe Volunteer Fire Departments have been very effective in reducing the amount of loss involved by fire in rural areas. It is our hope in sponsoring this program that the fireman will help the Wellington Volunteer Department to better serve the residents of Collingsworth County."

He served in the 305th Bomb Group, 366th Squadron, of the 8th US Army Air Force in England, and was a member of the ground crew of the Ole Miss Destry, the B17 (Flying Fortress) that flew more missions without mechanical failure than any other in the 8th Air Force.

Sandy Morris Weds Dean Hawkins In Candlelight Rites Saturday

Wedding vows were exchanged by Sandy Morris of Wellington and Dean Hawkins of Ralls on Saturday, August 17, at six in the evening. Milton Gage of Elk City, Oklahoma, performed the ceremony in a candlelight setting in the sanctuary of First Christian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerol Morris, 1209 Amarillo Street, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hawkins of Clarendon.

A brass arch, entwined with foliage and laced with fresh summer flowers, stood at the center of decorations in the altar area. Two candalabras with lighted candles along the spiraling arms, were on each side of the arch, and they were also laced with foliage and flowers. An arched candelabra holding lighted tapers was across the back.

At the back of the church, tall brass standards held pots of fresh summer flowers in a variety of colors.

Pews were marked with large white and lavendar bows.

Kathleen Reeves, played a group of wedding selections as the guests gathered. Katherine Reeves was the accompanist as Jackie Wilkerson sang, "Wedding Prayer", and as Teresa Howard, sang "My Treasure" and "Time for Joy."

Mr. Morris gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride chose a formal gown of white silk organza fashioned with an off the shoulder neckline. Ruffled lace accented the shoulders and also wrists of the victorian flounced sleeves. Venise lace motifs touched with seed pearls accented the bodice which tapered to the waist to which was attached the full skirt trimmed with lace and organza ruffles flowing into a semi-cathedral train.

The bride's satin victorian styled hat had a crown covered with Venise lace and circlets of seed pearls. The lace and pearls were repeated on the brim, which was turned up at one side and accented with a white silk rose, from which fell pearl loops. A fingertip length illusion veil was attached at the back in a dainty pouf bow and flowing satin ribbon.

MRS. DEAN HAWKINS

She carried a cascade bouquet of loosely gathered lavendar and white flowers, tied with satin and lace streamers.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Jeanne Taylor of Wellington. Bridesmaids were Teresa Howard of Grove, Oklahoma and Lana Burson of Silverton. They wore gowns of deep purple moire taffeta with sweetheart necklines and above the elbow puff sleeves. The bodices had accented princess lines and were cinched at the waist with wide moire taffeta cummerbunds which tied in a bow at the back. Each carried an arrangement of cascading silk flowers in shades of purple and lavendar, accented with purple ribbon.

The bridegroom's brother, Doug Hawkins of Clarendon, was the best man, and groomsmen were Buddy Hall of Throckmorton and Mark Jack of Amarillo. Ushers were Dannie Morris of Wellington, brother of the bride, Jeff Hill of Ralls and Craig Forbis of Lubbock.

Candles were lighted by Nicky Johnson of Kelton, cousin of the bride, and Kimberly Wooten of Clarendon, cousin of the groom.

Tara Stages of Amarillo was the flower girl and Toby Tarver was the ring bearer.

The flower girl and candlelighter wore floor length lavendar moire taffety dresses with sweetheart necklines and puff sleeves. The flower girl carried a tiny lace basket decorated with small purple bows and flowers, from which she scattered minature purple bows and flower petals.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Morris entertained with a reception in Bura Handley Community Center.

The bride's table was covered with a white underlay and white lace cloth, which was caught up at the corners and center front with bouquets of satin roses, tied with lace streamers with seed pearl accents and narrow purple ribbon.

The bride's bouquet with double crystal candelabras holding purple tapers on each side formed the centerpiece. The tiered wedding cake was at one end and the silver punch bowl at the other.

Chocolate cake and coffee were served from the bridegroom's table, which was covered with a lace cloth and lavendar underlay. Minature chocolate boots and saddles made by the bride were served to guests.

Presiding at the tables were Kathleen Reeves and Elizabeth Brewer of Amarillo, Mrs. Kyle Janes, Kathleen Fields of San Antonio and Jennifer Franklin of Panhandle.

Rice bags were distributed by Chris Wooten of Clarendon, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride graduated from Wellington HIgh School and attended Clarendon College and West Texas State University. She received her bachelor's degree from the School of Education of Texas Tech University, Lubbock. She will teach this year in the Ralls School System.

The bridegroom, attended Clarendon College and was graduated from the School of Agriculture of TTU. He is a research assistant in the Texas Tech Animal Science Department. The couple will live at Ralls.

Congressman Beau Boulter was in Wellington Saturday for a "town hall" meeting. Boulter is one of 535 United States Representatives and Senators who decide and vote on the economic policies of our nation.

With all of the problems that are facing family farmers and their communities today, one would have thought the building would have been packed. Not so. Only 30 people bothered to show up. And only 2 were under the age of 40.

Most people probably figure that going to a political meeting like the one here last week won't make any difference in their future.

I disagree. If 500 people had shown up and expressed either agreement or disagreement with the Congressman's policies, it would have made an impression on him. He would have known that people felt strongly one way or the other.

Perhaps we need to rethink our priorities when it comes to Saturday morning activities.

I disagree with Boulter on one of the primary premises of Republican farm policy.

That premise is that we need to lower support prices in order to gain a larger share of the export market.

This idea might work in the long run, but it's the last in a long line of things that must be accomplished before it can make a difference.

If we are to export effectively, we must force open markets that are now closed to us. The European Economic Community and Japan are the two best examples. Our markets are virtually wide open to the products that they produce best, such as automobiles and electronic products. Their markets are closed to us on products that we produce best such as farm commodities.

Internal politics in each of those markets is responsible for the current situation and its unlikely there will be a rapid change on those nations' tariff policies, even if the United States uses all of its leverage, which it has not yet chosen to do.

A second thing that must happen before farm exports zoom ahead is that the dollar has to come down in relation to other currencies. A strong dollar now amounts to a tax on all exports from the United States.

A balanced budget may be the answer to that problem, or it may not, but even a balanced budget is a long way off.

Farmers would like to move to a market-oriented system of agriculture. But there are many factors, including the two noted above, over which farmers have no control.

There's much to be done in agricultural policy, and lowering price supports is the last thing we should look at during the current farm economic crisis.

Letters From The People

Dear Editor:

Belatedly I would like to express my appreciation to those local classmates who helped make the 50th Reunion a success for us in the class of 1935. Gertrude Johnson Mayhugh, E.B. Peeples, and Wayne and Jean Cudd, who did an outstanding job.

My suggestion for future Ex-Student Reunions would be a few hours of Open House at the high school, so that those who have not visited it recently could see the changes that have been made. This feature would be especially pleasing to visitors from out of town who are observing a special milestone since graduation.

THOMAS ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes Reported Each Week

WASHINGTON -- Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes in the days before the current House and Senate recess.

HOUSE

HOUSING By a vote of 213 for and 204 against, the House reduced by half the number of new public housing units proposed as part of the Department of Housing and Urban Development's fiscal 1986 budget.

Members voting yes wanted to cut the fiscal 1986 appropriation for new public housing by $990 million.

Voting yes: Beau Boulter, R-13, Charles Stenholm, R-17, Larry Combest, R-19.

TREASURY By a vote of 288 for and 133 against, the House exempted several agencies from a proposed 2.65 percent cut in the fiscal 1986 Treasury Department appropriations bill.

Members voting yes supported a $35 million rather than $192 million cut in the Treasury appropriations bills.

Voting yes: Stenholm, Combest.

Not voting: Boulter.

NASA The House rejected, 112 for and 300 against, an amendment to freeze the fiscal 1986 appropriation for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and National Science Foundation at 1985 levels.

Members voting no were opposed to the freeze amendment.

Voting yes: Boulter, Stenholm, Combest.

SENATE

FUEL EFFICIENCY By a vote of 52 for and 39 against, the Senate tabled (killed) a sense-of-the-Senate resolution in behalf of higher fuel-efficiency standards for passenger cars.

Senators voting no were opposed to any lowering of the 27.5 mpg fuel-efficiency standard.

Lloyd Bentsen, D, voted no. Phil Gramm, R, voted yes.

that they didn't need the interest buy-down provisions of that bill. He also said that 7.5 times more money than the administration was requesting for Ethiopian aid was tied to the bill that the President vetoed. He said that most farmers he had spoken with in town hall meetings thought his vote was a good one.

Boulter said he estimated that the district would lose 6.5 percent of its farmers to economic problems this year.

Boulter said that he thought the answer to farm economy problems was to lower price supports and increase exports.

James Long, a farmer from Paducah, said that he disagreed with the idea that exports can solve the farm economy crisis. He said that in 1968 the U.S. exported 30 million metric tons of foodstuffs and that farm debt that year stood at $50 billion. He said that today we're exporting 120 million metric tons, but that farm debt is now $200 billion.

Long said that exports have been subsidized by the American farmer and that he is now more deeply in debt than ever before.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE FOSTER WHALEY capitol comment

With September 1 rapidly approaching, many new laws passed by the 69th Legislature will be taking effect.

One of the most publicized and controversial of these new laws is Senate Bill 500, the mandatory seat belt law. This bill passed the House by a narrow margin of only 15 votes.

While I adamantly opposed this bill during the session and continue to oppose the "big brother" philosophy behind the bill, it will soon be state law.

I religiously "buckle up" every time I get into a motor vehicle, but I resent the state and federal government acting as my big brother and telling me I have to use a seat belt.

Texas has a long-standing tradition of personal freedoms and individual responsibility and I do not believe the government has the right to infringe on these liberties.

However, beginning September 1, persons convicted of violating this law will be subject to a $25 to $50 fine. A "grave period", whereby offenses will not be subject to penalties, will be in effect until December 1, 1985.

Persons 15 years of age and older, who are passengers in the front seat of a motor vehicle, are required to wear a safety belt or be subject to a fine.

The driver of a motor vehicle will be responsible to see that a child at least 4-years-old but less than 15-years-old riding in the front seat be secured by a safety belt.

The earthworm is often known by several other names, including fishworm, angleworm, or night crawler.

Quail Cemetery Needs Operating Money

Quail Cemetery Association is in need of funds with which to operate during the coming months, according to Delbert White, an officer of the organization.

"The rains which have caused weeds and vegetation to grow so rapidly has caused this situation to come about, he explained, adding that due to this there has been an excessive amount of work to be done.

Quail Cemetery must depend on donations by those with families buried in it, or friends interested in the upkeep of the cemetery, or on memorial gifts. These have been slower coming in this year.

White said that the cemetery has been mowed five times already because of the rapid growth of weeds. Each mowing has cost from $160 to $190, depending on how large the weeds are.

Those wanting to make donations may mail them to:

Delbert White, Box 122, Route 1, Quail, Texas 79251.

White recalled that formerly, people living in the community worked the cemetery and kept it clean. Only 5 or 6 families remain who have lots in the cemetery or have relatives buried there.

Girl Scout Leaders Needed for New Year

Leaders are needed for three Girl Scout troops for the new school year, according to Rhonda Colson, neighborhood chairman.

A new neighborhood chairman will be needed to succeed Mrs. Colson, who is moving to Wheeler.

The leaders would be for the new kindergarten troop, Daisy troop, the first grade troop, and for 4th, 5th and 6th grade troop.

Girl Scouts will have a table set up at school registration to distribute materials and give information, Mrs. Colson said.

The troops also plan to sell cotton candy at the Collingsworth County Fair, and have arranged to have the cotton candy machine from the Girl Scout Council in Pampa.

"We need a lot more adults participating in Girl Scout work, and we need more who will serve as leaders" Mrs. Colson said.

"We have a lot of girls who want to be in Scouting, but at present we just do not have enough adult leaders to head the troops," she emphasized.

Reeves Family At Agricultural Agents Meeting

Serving with the directors from the other extension districts in the state, he will meet in Brownwood at the State 4-H Center twice a year to conduct T.C.A.A.A. business.

Firemen Called To Minor Blazes

Volunteer Firemen were called to two minor blazes Thursday, August 15.

The call Thursday morning was to Roberson's Restaurant, after stale gasoline that was being flushed from tanks at the Phillips Station flowed near the restaurant, caught on fire, according to J.D. Sheer, department secretary.

The Thursday afternoon call was to a car burning at the corner of 8th Street and Highway 83. Damage was minor, Sheer said.

Methodist Flea Market Reopens

The flea market operated by women of 1st United Methodist Church through much of the year, has resumed operation and will be open on Wednesday and Friday of each week.

"We have about 2,000 new paper back books and lots of new clothing and other items," said Mrs. Chester Fires, one of those in charge of the operation.

Women of the church worked for approximately two weeks cleaning the building, which is located in the 1600 block of 8th, on the south side of the street.

"We have lots of room for other items," said Mrs. Fires.

Music Appreciation

I am not a musician, but as I write this I think back and realize how my taste in music has changed. Early in life, it took only the simplest childhood jingles to please me, then in school I was trained and taught to appreciate more intricate music. All through life I feel that my knowledge of . . . and appreciation for music has grown and matured.

Through study and help from others, I have also grown as a Christian and have a better appreciation of my Lord.

My knowledge of, and love for God increases with each church worship service . . . This way of life and worship, I would recommend to anyone. Won't you try it . . .

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

HENRY DE LA CRUZ - MICHAEL DE LA CRUZ - BRET OUTLEY

Youths at Hoblitzelle

Three Wellington youths have returned from the Salvation Army's Camp Hoblitzelle at Midlothian. They were sponsored by the local chapter of the Salvation Army, according to Beth Motsenbocker.

They were Bret Outley, 10, son of Bellezora Outley; Michael De La Cruz, 8, and Henry Lee De La Cruz, 11, sons of Jose and Maria Quintero.

The boys traveled from Childress by bus.

Their camp activities included swimming, visiting a fort located in that area and fishing.

They saw the film, "Sword and Stone," and each day they attended Bible study. On the last night they camped out-of-doors.

The Salvation Army sponsors Camp Hoblitzelle each summer, and the various counties receive quotas of children who can be accepted. Collingsworth's quota this year was three.

High School Annuals Due Here Next Week

The Wellington High School annuals, That Skyrocket, are due to be shipped this week and the publisher has notified Judy Cudd, sponsor, that they will be in Wellington next week.

As soon as they arrive, students will be notified.

This is later than the annuals were scheduled to be received.

"We're sorry they are arriving late and that the students leaving early for college will not be here. Please have your parents or someone else pick up your book," she said.

Those who have a receipt should bring it. Those who have not paid the full amount for their annual should bring the balance due.

As soon as the annuals arrive, notice will be given of the location where they can be picked up.

Personal

Enroute to Wellington from the annual meeting of the Texas County Agricultural Agents, the Don Reeves and Wesley stopped in Arlington to spend the night with Don's brother, Dr. Bill Reeves, who is Athletic Director of U.T. Arlington, and his wife, Linda and daughter, Recie, a student at A&M.

MEDICARE.
They pay. You pay.

Medical and hospital bills. They can be overwhelming if you're not prepared.

Medicare will pay a part of the bill and generally you are left with the rest. That's where WE come in.

Southland Life. We have a Medicare Supplement Insurance Plan to help cover those bills. We supplement your Medicare coverage. In other words:

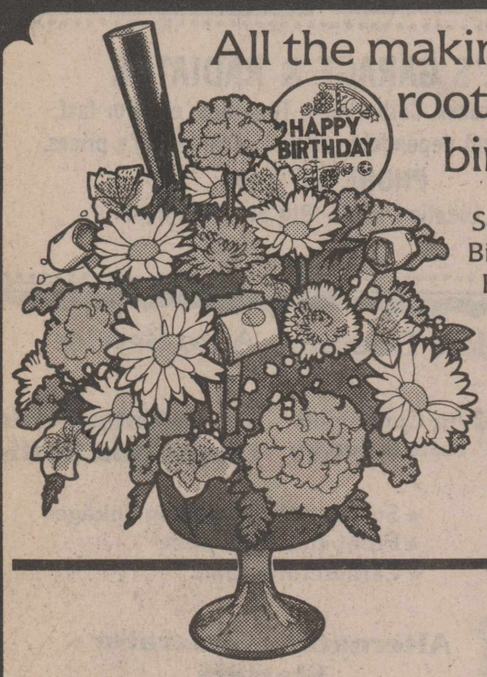

They pay. You pay.

We pay.

With our Medicare Supplement policy, we help reduce the "You pay" portion. Call or write for details. There's no obligation.
