Representative From Agency To Be In Stratford January 11

Austin, Tex.-State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Tuesday that a representative from his agency will be in Stratford on Thursday, January 11, 1990 to answer questions about Texas taxes and assist taxpayers with paperwork and problems.

"I don't want to see state taxes turn into a burden for folks who can't get to a field office. Our visits are a service we're happy to provide to Texas taxpayers," Bullock said.

Margaret McClung, enforcement agent at Amarillo Field Office, will be at the County Courthouse at Sherman County Courthouse from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. The public is welcome and there is no charge.

"I'm sending my employees out to help people with questions, filling out forms, and working out problems on a local, one to one basis. There's some things you just can't do as well over the phone or through the mail," Bullock said.

Stratford area taxpayers who can't attend the courthouse seminar can still get individual tax assistance by calling the Comptroller's toll-free telephone number, 1-800-252-5555, from anywhere in Texas.

The Amarillo office, headed by Mort Watson, serves twenty-five counties in the Texas Panhandle, including Sherman County.

Lewis Announces

Judge David G. Lewis has formally announced his candidacy for judge of the 69th Judicial District Court, subject to the Democratic primary on March 13. Judge Lewis presently presides over the Moore County Court at Law, where he has served since his election in 1986. The new district judge will succeed Judge Bill Sheehan, who has announced that he will not seek re-election.

"I believe that the highest calling of a judge in the State of Texas is to preside over its trial courts," observes Lewis. "The appellate courts are certainly necessary, but the State trial courts are where the lion's share of the work is done. I feel that my judicial experience should be the deciding factor in this campaign. By the time of the general election in November, 1990, I will have handled district level cases for over four years." The Moore County Court at Law has had concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in domestic and family law matters, worker's compensation, eminent domain and condemnation and damage suits up to $50,000.00 in addition to county criminal, juvenile and administrative matters. "We have handled more cases in the past three years than any other court of record north of Amarillo, and that experience has been invaluable," Lewis said.

"Everything I have done in my professional life has been in preparation to be district judge," says Lewis. "It is my sincere desire to serve all of the people of Dallam, Hartley, Moore and Sherman County equally as their next district judge, and I truly believe that I have the qualifications and judicial experience to get the job done. Bill Sheehan has been an outstanding district judge and will be tough to follow, but I have worked closely with him in the programs that are in operation in the 69th District and would like to continue the progress we have begun."

Lewis, 36, practiced law in the Texas Panhandle for eight years before his election to the trial bench in 1986. He graduated magna cum laude from Texas Tech University in 1975 with a degree in political science and received his law degree from the Texas Tech School of Law in 1979. Lewis served as County Attorney in Sherman County from 1980 to 1983, when he moved to Dumas.

Lewis confirms his strong belief in a community's responsibility for itself through his service in numerous civic and professional organizations. He is currently serving on the Juvenile Section Council and the Judicial Ethics Committee of the State Bar of Texas. He is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the American Bar Association, The Dumas Bar Association and is a member and former president of the 69th District Bar Association. Judge Lewis serves on the Panhandle Regional Criminal Justice Advisory Board, the Moore County Child Protective Services Board, CASA 69, Inc., Safe Place, Inc., the Moore County United Way, Community Education Advisory Council and was recently elected District Chairman of the Frontier District, Golden Spread Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He chairs the legislative affairs committees of the Moore County Chamber of Commerce and the Juvenile Section Council of the State Bar and is an active member of the Dumas Noon Lions Club. Judge Lewis organized the Moore County Teen Court and is an associate member of the Texas Association for Court Administration.

His wife, the former Karen Garrett of Borger, serves on the boards of the Dumas Discovery Center and Moore County Community Concerts, and is active in the Don and Sybil Harrington Circle of Friends, the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce and Esprit, Etc., Study Club. She has also taught in the public schools in Stratford and Dumas. The Lewises are proud parents of their daughter, Lauren, age 6, who is a first grader. They are active in the First Baptist Church of Dumas, where Lewis teaches adult Sunday School, sings in the Sanctuary Choir and is a member of the Baptist Men's Association. Judge Lewis has also been an instructor for Amarillo College on the Dumas Campus for the past six years, teaching political science and criminology.

Besides his judicial experience, another factor that would be important for the next district judge would be the absence of conflicts of interest. "Since I have not been able to practice law for the past three years, I would not have to disqualify myself from hearing cases that a lawyer who is just leaving a law practice would have to do. That would prevent having to bring in visiting judges from other district to hear those cases, and would save the district taxpayers' dollars," notes Lewis.

Swinford Announces

A Dumas businessman and grain dealer, David Swinford, announced last week that he is a candidate for representative from the 88th district in the Texas legislature.

Swinford has filed with the Texas secretary of state's office as a candidate on the Republican ballot in the March 13 primary.

"I would like to continue a proud tradition of representation, established by Dick Waterfield, in the 88th district," Swinford declares.

Swinford, president, general manager, and part owner of Moore County Grain Handling Company of Dumas, has a long list of involvements in professional and civic work in Moore county.

A former member of the Dumas Independent School District board of trustees, he served on a task force to study Texas grain laws, and has served as president of the Panhandle Grain and Feed Association and vice president of the Texas Grain and Feed Association.

A native of Wichita Falls, he is a graduate of Texas Tech University and came to Dumas in 1964 as district sales manager for a seed company. He joined Farmers Grain Company in 1967 as assistant manager and became assistant manager of Moore County Grain in 1970. In 1975, Moore County Grain

An ordinance providing for an additional deposit for water services within the City of Stratford in the event a customer was previously disconnected from water services for non-payment of water use charges; and declaring an emergency.

Whereas, the City of Stratford is consistently losing money from customers who failed to pay for water usage and then move from the City of Stratford;

Whereas, many of these people return to Stratford and then leave again owing money for water usage; and

Whereas, the City Council of the City of Stratford feels the imposition of an additional water service deposit will help eliminate or lessen the loss of revenues to the City.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Stratford:

Section 1. In addition to any regular water service deposit or reconnect fees, the City of Stratford shall change an additional water service deposit to any customer whose service was previously disconnected or terminated for lack of payment when due.

She was 87 years old. She was born May 30, 1902 at Garfield County Oklahoma on a homestead her father homesteaded during the great land run called The Cherokee Strip. Her parents were Ferdinand and Emelia Belle (Ehlers) Knopfel. The homestead still remains in the family. The abstract has only had one name since the land was settled.

She received her education at Marshall, Okla. schools.

She married Emery G. Whaley in 1922. Mr. Whaley had three children by a former marriage so she began her married life with three step-children. They are all now deceased. The couple had three daughters.

Mrs. Gordon came to Texhoma in 1936. She was a single parent with three girls which to care. The kind people of Texhoma were a great help to her.

She worked for Mona Butterbaugh at the Texhoma Hotel and for Lilly Long at her cafe.

In 1938 she married Howard Gordon of the Beaver, Okla. area but they made their home in Texhoma. When they married he had a daughter, Mrs. Blum Morris of Balco, by a previous marriage.

Mr. Gordon preceded her in death in 1968.

Mrs. Gordon was a member of the First Christian Church of Texhoma and the Texhoma Rebekah Lodge. Her hobbies included country cross stitch and needlepoint.

The family requests any memorials be sent to the First Christian Church of Texhoma or the charity of their choice.

Kerrick News

by Marylou McDaniel

Santa arrived in Kerrick Dec. 22 and little Nicole Rouse made a running leap to Santa, much to the surprise of her parents, Mark and Debbie! She had seen him two other times and would have nothing to do with him! He talked to each child, then gave out presents and sacks of treats to everyone.

The program was the enactment of the Christmas story to a poem read by Donna Avent who directed the program with the assistance of Gayla James. Sue James was at the electric piano.

The community is blessed with bunches of little ones so several older youth and an adult were called to assist. Dayle Harris was Mary, Trew James, Joseph; Angels were Lynz Browning, Kenna Hawkins, Thea James, April Avent, Kodie Avent, Lori Wilhelm; Shepherds were Brent Wilhelm, Levi James, Billy & Brent Cauble.

Ian Weems sang "Silent Night" and Thea James sang an appropriate, "All I Want for Christmas is My Two Front Teeth".

The performers sang "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" and all joined in welcoming Santa with "Jingle Bells".

Hopefully these are the names of those present, Frank & Blanche James, Joyce Harper, Hank Rogers, Josh Rogers, Charley, Denton and Ginger Crabtree; Ben Tom, Gayla, Trew, Levi and Thea James; Bevin, Donna, April & Kodie Avent; Wendy Allison, Barbara & Terry Schoonover Mike Leedy, Mike, Kathy, Sasha, Lynz & Merilee McDaniel; Ted and Joyce Irlbeck, Jo June and Kayo McDaniel, Mark, Debbie & Nicole Rouse, Bill and Pat Boren, Joe Bill & Jennifer Boren, Kerry & Kelly Carlisle, Nita Taylor, Donna Baker, Brenda & Franny Taylor, Darrell, Jayme, Lori & Brent Wilhelm & Richard, Sue, Donald James, Skate Beck, Karen Ivey, Leonard & Peggy Hawkins, Don & Martha Ellison, Minnie, Annette, Ralph James Hampton; Rhett, Susie, Billy, Brent and Brett

Jordan Taylor, R.J. & Mary Hill, Keith Hill, Kevin, Vickie, Daniel Hill, Marjorie & Dick Munden, Peggy, Buck, Debbie and Christy Hart, Terry & Christy Wells, Darla Cummings.

The John McDaniels hosted Christmas at their Dalhart home for Kayo and Jo June McDaniel and the Whit McDaniel family.

The Newt Crabtree Christmas gathering was Dec. 23 at the Burton Olson's near Gruver. All of the Ralph Hampton family attended. Christmas night Mike, Nora & Parker were with the Hamptons.

Christmas Eve Bevin, Donna, April, Kodie Avent hosted Alvin & Dayle Harris, Joyce Harper, Bevin Avent, Jay Harris & Bruce Harris. Jay is a student at Chadron, Neb. and Bruce, who has been working in Sioux Falls, S.D. will be starting school at S.D. State University at Vermillion in January.

Holiday dinner guests at Hank & Mabel Rogers' were the Alvin Harris family, Joyce Harper, Bevin Avent family, Florine and Mark Wolfe of Amarillo, and Jo Alice Rogers of Oden, Ar. who spent four days with them.

The R.P. Crabtree family Christmas party was held Dec. 23 at the country home of Judy and Lyman Potter. Among those present were Lynn & Kenneth Wells and daughters, Jennifer and Jan of Austin and grandson, Derrek Wells of Stratford. Jan returned to Austin Thursday and Jennifer leaves about now.

Bill, Sandy, Erika and Amy Taylor arrived Dec. 27 for a three or four day visit with Bill's mother, Nita Taylor. They missed Christmas dinner with Linda, Poe, Mark and Jere Keener, Doug, Anita and Mandy Taylor, Minnie Butler and George Fesser of Amarillo.

Christmas Eve dinner at the Fred McDaniel home had these present-Patti McDaniel, Denver, Co.; Mike Leedy, Junction City, Ks.; Mike, Kathy and Merilee McDaniel, Sasha and Lynz Browning.

Just gotta say it—with the exception of overly dry Christmas trees, I don't like to see decorations taken down before New Year's Day. We have led up the Holiday season, which is from Christmas to New Years, beginning even before Thanksgiving! Then in the very week of the holiday so many stores take down the decorations! Now that makes it really commercialism to me.

Tips & Topics

By Susie Spurlock County Extension Agent

In 1988, the Social Security Administration introduced its Personal Earnings and Benefits Estimate Statement (PEBES) to the public. Here are some of the most common questions people ask about PEBES:

What does PEBES have to offer?

PEBES gives each worker a year-to-year breakdown of earnings under Social Security and estimates of future benefits.

I'm not sure when I want to retire. Can my PEBES help me decide?

PEBES can help you make a realistic decision by providing estimates of your benefits if you retire at age 62, 65, or if retirement is delayed until age 70.

For me, retirement is 20 years away. Why would I want a PEBES?

A brand new year is underway,
And just one week ago today
You made a comprehensive list
Of what temptations to resist;
Along with projects to be done,
Including those not yet begun:
Like writing letters you've postponed,
To people whom you should have phoned.
You'll clean that closet out for sure,
And give those things to help the poor.
But most of all, you've vowed to heed
The lessons of your chosen creed,
And each and every Sabbath day
Attend the services and pray;
Then thank the Lord with all your heart
You gave this year a flying start.

Environmental Issues Highlight Annual Irrigation Conference

Amarillo-Public concern over water quality and water availability, now and in the years ahead, will be addressed at the annual High Plains Irrigation Conference here Jan. 9.

Presented by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and its Panhandle Economic Program, the conference will be at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd. West. Registration opens at 8:30 a.m.

Use of water, rights to water and the permits and laws which regulate these are under new scrutiny and being challenged in some areas, said Leon New, Extension Service Irrigation engineer and conference coordinator.

Such legal issues and their implications for the Texas High Plains will be explained by Frank Booth, Austin attorney.

Recent legislative activities addressing urban and agricultural water issues will be reviewed by Richard Bowers, manager of the North Plains Underground Water District, Panhandle.

Protection of groundwater quality is another public concern. Wayne Wyatt, manager of the High Plains Underground Water District, Lubbock, will report on the present condition of water quality, especially in the Ogallala Aquifer.

The impact of water availability and quality on land value will be examined by Jim Hayes, real estate agent and appraiser, Clarendon.

After lunch, the conference will focus on irrigation management decisions and provide and update on pesticide application regulations.

We are still working for the self preservation, growth promotion and development of this community. We are as strong as our Chamber membership. So, why belong to the Chamber of Commerce

Cards of Thanks

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

Travis and I want to thank you for your steadfast love and loyalty shown us during my stay in the hospital and since returning home.

To those who looked after our home while we were away--we say a grateful "Thank you," also for the many cards, flowers, phone calls, food and sweet visits. Nothing can match that!

I especially thank you, John, for standing by my family while I was in surgery and for visits later. God has been so good to us. Our love to you all.

Your Right To Know

By Terry Kennedy

Picking up the pieces. One of the first natural disasters ever studied for its long-term emotional consequences was the Buffalo Creek flood in West Virginia in 1972, which killed 125 people in a small community and left 500 homeless. Psychiatric researchers who testified in the ensuing lawsuit reported that survivors experience rage, hopelessness, grief over the death of friends and family, and shame that they themselves had survived, and found that these symptoms persisted for two years or more. The flood damaged the social bonding and support of the community as a whole. More on disasters and 'picking up the pieces' in the next several articles.

Simmons Communications serves approximately 315,000 subscribers, in 20 states. It employs over 650 people out of 58 offices.

The company was founded by Chairman and CEO Steven J. Simmons, in 1982. He began the company on his dining room table in a Manhattan apartment, and today the corporate headquarters are on the 14th floor of Landmark Square in downtown Stamford, Connecticut. Mr. Simmons said about the company's number one ranking, "Cable TV has been a wonderful industry. It has provided an opportunity for all of us at Simmons Communications to offer more diverse programming to the communities we serve than they have ever had before. We can provide more news, public affairs, sports, movies, children's programming, cultural events, music and lots more than have ever been viewed over television. I'm proud of our record to date, and proud of the efforts of all of my colleagues at Simmons Communications. We look forward to continuing growth in the years ahead."

Simmons Communications was also just ranked among the Inc. 500 fastest growing companies in the United States for the second year in a row.

Handling Co. was started by Swinford and four others.

He and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of two children. They are Chris, who is a preacher at Happy, Texas and Melissa, who teaches first grade in Brownfield, Texas. They also have two grandsons. David and Joyce are active members of the First Street Church of Christ of Dumas.

Looking at the future in the Texas Legislature, Swinford believes that school financing will be a continuing issue, and he expects to use his experience as a Dumas school trustee as a foundation for decision making in that area.

"I have given this a great deal of thought, discussed it with my partners and my family—I believe I can devote the time needed to serve the people of the 13 counties in the district as Dick Waterfield has," says Swinford.

The economic future of Texas is also a major concern and Swinford believes that a state income tax is not the route the Legislature should do to provide services needed.

"I oppose a state income tax, with a passion," he says.

On Tuesday, December 19th, the Sherman County Library was host to an autograph party for Chloe Morgan.

Chloe autographed copies of her two books of poetry, "Out Of My Mind and Opening Minds." She also presented two readings of her work. There was a very nice turn out for the event.

There are several reasons. PEBES also estimates what disability or survivor benefits could be paid based on your earning history if you become disabled or died today. This is important to consider in your financial planning. In addition, you will want to check over your statement to make sure all your earnings are shown correctly.
