Rogers Withdraws From Congressional Race

United States Representative Walter Rogers announced on Sunday, July 31, that he is withdrawing from the 18th District congressional race and that he will return to the private practice of law when his present term in Congress ends. The announcement caught his Collingsworth County friends by surprise, just as it did those in all other parts of the 30-county district, which he has served since 1951.

Unopposed in his race for reelection as the Democratic nominee this year, he would have faced Bob Price, Pampa Republican, in the general election Nov. 8. Notification of his withdrawal came to Collingsworth County in a letter to Paul Spillman, county Democratic chairman. Several of Mr. Rogers' Collingsworth County friends talked with him by phone in Washington Monday and early Tuesday. He assured them that he will continue working for the people of this county until the end of his term in Congress. He gave them no indication as to his plans after his tenure in Congress ends.

He is a member of several important Congressional committees and subcommittees.

The ranking Texan on the Interior and Insular Affairs committee, he heads the subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation, which is working on the proposed Colorado River Project by which 2.5 million acre feet of water might be imported from that river. He also is chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee and chairman of the subcommittee on communications and power.

Before he entered Congress, Rogers, who is 58, practiced law in Pampa.

He is married to the former Catherine R. (Jean) Daly of Pampa and they have six children.

County Committeemen To Pick Demo Nominee

Although Congressman Walter Rogers has announced his withdrawal from the 18th District congressional race, certain steps must be taken to make this legal. Selection of his successor as a candidate also must be made.

Here is what must take place: The Congressman must file letters of withdrawal with the Secretary of State and with the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Upon official notification, Will D. Davis of Austin, state Democratic chairman, will call together the county Democratic chairmen of the 30 counties which make up the 18th Congressional District.

Davis will appoint a temporary chairman and the 30 county chairmen will then organize a permanent "district committee" and name their own chairman.

If the district committee agrees on a nominee, the decision is final. It is not required that the name be ratified by the State Democratic Convention which meets Sept. 20 in Austin. The district committee merely certifies to the secretary of state the name of the new nominee.

If, however, there is a tie vote or the committee cannot agree on a candidate, the state Executive Committee is empowered to name the candidate.

The Texas Election Code specifies that certification must be made 20 days previous to the general election, which this year will be on Nov. 8.

Spillman said Tuesday evening he had not received any word of a meeting of the county committee.

Delegation to Request New F-M Roads

A delegation from Collingsworth County will appear before the Texas Highway Commission Thursday, Aug. 4 at 10 a.m. to request the county's new Farm-to-Market Road program.

Headed by the Commissioners' Court, the group also will include Joe Coleman, county road administrator, and it is due to have also representatives of the Dozier and Samnorwood communities, the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce and other interested persons.

The F-M Road program that the commissioners will request and which would cover a two-year period, is proposed for the Samnorwood and Abra communities, and divided into Project A and Project B.

The teams are provided by the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers on a matching fund basis with the Texas Department of Agriculture for the purpose of providing research information on the habits of Rolling Plains insects, particularly the boll weevil.

The one-day event begins swinging at 8:30 a.m. and it won't be over until the Has Been's play Home Sweet Home for the dancers at midnight or after. Two hundred are expected for the barbecue.

Plans were announced by Donald Curry, president of the Ex-Students Association.

The high point this year will be the four individual class reunions already announced — those of the classes of 1928-29, 1946, 1951 and 1955.

1928-29 Classes

The classes of 1928 and 1929 were a close-knit group in high school and the tie has remained as the members became ex-students.

These classes will hold a luncheon Saturday at noon at the Dixie Maid dining room.

Thelma Masten Curry and Eva Glenn Thompson are in charge of arrangements.

Wade Mahan now of Munday was president of the 1928 class, which had, as exes remember it, 45 members. The next year the 68 member class was headed by Ralph Long of Wellington.

The luncheon will be informal.

Class of 1946

The class of 1946 will get together for a coffee in the Greenbelt Electric Co-operative Inc. building at 10 a.m. Saturday.

This will be informal and all class members and their families are urged to attend.

In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Noma Cristie Clement, Gay Reeves McAllister, Clogene Young Mitchell, Beth Bowen White of Phoenix, Arizona, Willie Faye Talbot Hendard.

The class president that year was Barbara Baumgardner Gordon, now of Grape Vine, who will return for the event. There were approximately 50 in the class.

Class of 1951

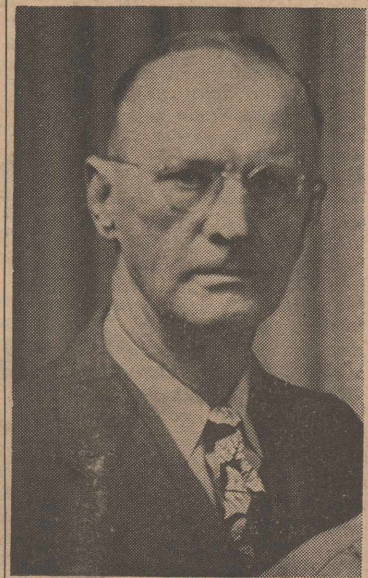

Patsy Harper Mitchell has announced plans for the 1951 class reunion which will be held Friday night, August 5, in the dining room of Cherokee Inn.

Fifty class members and their guests are expected, and the banquet will begin at 7:30 p.m. Fred Saied is in charge of banquet plans.

Saturday at 2:30 p.m. a houseparty will honor the class with Mrs. Bura Handley as hostess. She is the mother of a class member, Jimmy Brock of Amarillo.

Death Takes Dozier Man. A.F. Wischkaemper

A. F. Wischkaemper, who for half a century influenced the agricultural, community and school life of the Dozier and Samnorwood area, died in Fort Worth Saturday night, July 30. He had been in ill health about a year and a half and on Wednesday night he suffered a stroke.

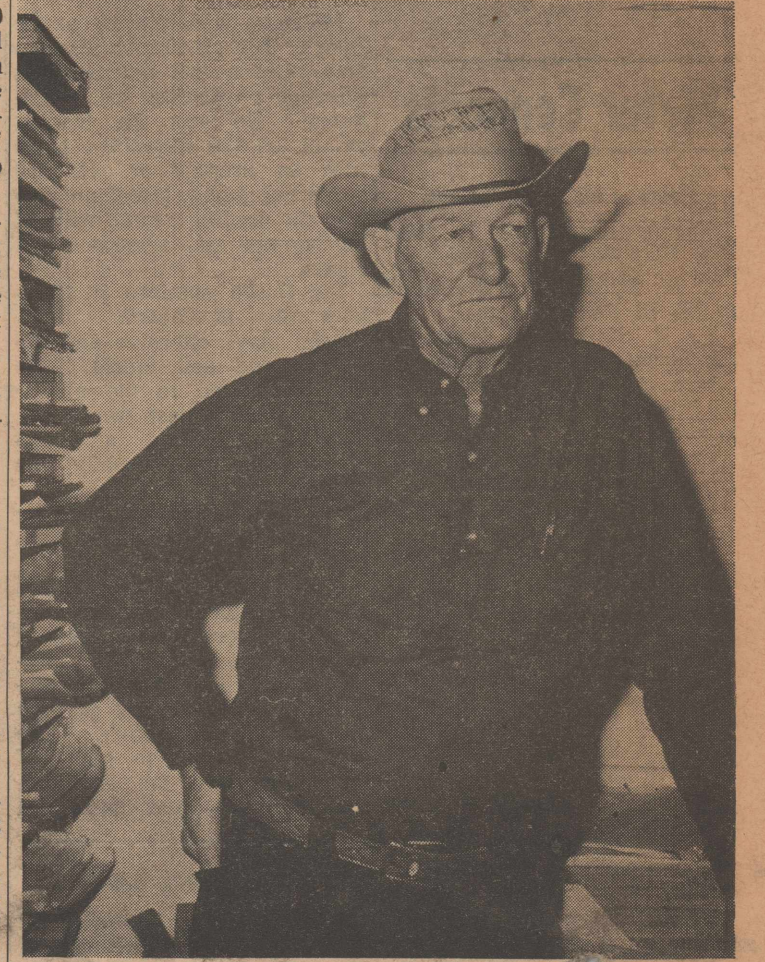

Mr. Wischkaemper would have been 80 on August 11. He was the last of four brothers who chose Collingsworth county as their home. Other members of the family remained in South Texas.

Alvin Frank Wischkaemper was born August 11, 1886, at New Braunfels, and while he was still a boy, he moved with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wischkaemper, to Yorktown.

He left the family farm in 1907 and came to Shamrock. The first year he worked as a hired hand for Henry Schlegel. In 1908, he bought the family home farm at Dozier. His first living quarters was a dugout, in a hillside. Within a few months, however, he built the house to which he brought his bride, Annie Serilda Nunez of Yorktown, whom he married March 17, 1909.

He and his family lived at Dozier until 1926, when they moved to Shamrock for the children to be in school. In 1932, they returned to the farm. Mrs. Wischkaemper died in 1954, and he remained a few years longer. In recent years he had made his home with his daughters, Mrs. Wade Howland of Georgetown and Mrs. Willis Garrison of Dalhart.

In his active years he was interested in those affairs — from page one

AUSTIN O'NEIL

A rancher north of Dozier and life-long resident of Collingsworth County, Austin (Polly) O'Neil died at his home early Tuesday, Aug. 2. He is shown here when he received the Save the Soil and Save Texas Award in 1964.

Lifelong Resident

Austin O'Neil Dies Tuesday at Ranch

Austin (Polly) O'Neil, 73, died in his sleep at his ranch home in the north part of Collingsworth County some time after 2 a.m. Tuesday, August 2. His death came as a complete shock to friends, some of whom had seen and visited with him in Wellington Monday.

Visiting with him and Mrs. O'Neil were a son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Austin O'Neil, Jr. and children of Cotton Center, and the family had talked until after midnight. He was apparently well when they retired.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First Methodist Church in Wellington Thursday at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. C. R. Hankins, pastor of Glen Davis Memorial Methodist Church at Dozier and the Rev. Raburn Holton of Garland will officiate. Burial will be in North Wellington Cemetery by Kelso Funeral Home.

Mr. O'Neil was truly a part of Collingsworth County. Born in Wellington April 27, 1894, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. T. O'Neil, who were among the earliest settlers. His father was one of the group of men who helped to shape the destiny of the county and of Wellington during the formative years. Many of Mr. O'Neil's earliest memories were of a town that was part of the frontier, and many of the strengths that remained with him throughout life came from this pioneer heritage.

To many, in both appearance and manner, he represented the "typical Texan".

Mr. O'Neil received his education in the Wellington Schools, then attended Clarendon College.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 26 proposing an Amendment to Sections 4 and 5 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide for a Court of Criminal Appeals of five members; prescribing their qualifications; elections, appointments, tenure of office and compensation; and prescribing the term of court of said court.

LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 4 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 4. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of five Judges, one of whom shall be Presiding Judge, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three Judges shall be necessary to a decision of said court. Said Judges shall have the same qualifications and receive the same salaries as the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court. The adoption of this amendment shall not be deemed to have the effect of readopting the remainder of the Section, and if any other amendment to this Section, being for a different purpose, is adopted at an earlier election or at the same election, the adoption of this amendment shall not be construed as nullifying the change made by such other amendment.

The Teams Will Be in School Football System This Year

The Wellington School athletic program will support five football teams this fall, due to a revamping of both high school and junior high teams.

The Varsity team — the Skyrockets, remains unchanged. Bill Beene will be in his first year as head football coach. His assistant is yet to be chosen, but filling this place is due to be considered by the school board in its meeting Monday night, Aug. 8.

There will no longer be a Skyrocket B team, but sophomores and juniors not on the varsity will make up a Junior Varsity team.

James Stavenhagen, who has coached B team each year he has been here, will coach the junior varsity.

Rogers Continues Work on Truth in Packaging

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special) — Congressman Walter Rogers said hearings this week on so-called "truth in packaging" legislation "will reveal more clearly the extent to which proposed sections of the bill could remove business decisions from business management and place control in the hands of Federal regulators."

"The Committee must face questions as to whether the proposal is a smokescreen for encroachment by the Federal Government into areas that properly belong to free enterprise businessmen, large and small, and would interfere with business growth as well as job opportunities for young people," Congressman Rogers said.

The hearings before the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, on which Congressman Rogers serves as ranking majority member, began last week and will continue Tuesday through Thursday of this week.

"This highly controversial legislation is posed in the name of consumer protection but its ramifications go to the basic structure of Government-business relationships," Congressman Rogers said. "The Committee must give careful consideration to this relationship as well as to whether consumer protection laws now on the books, if properly administered, could eliminate abuses that led to the call for new legislation," he said.

In other Committee activity, the Commerce Committee will hold hearings Monday and Friday on legislation affecting hours of service of train crew employees. Meetings are also scheduled of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, on which Congressman Rogers also serves.

The full House of Representatives is scheduled to resume debate Monday on civil rights legislation containing bitterly disputed sections affecting housing and property rights. A decision is expected this week.

Stock Eats Less in Summer
Ever wonder why cattle lose weight or make low gains during the summer months? The common answer is that summer pastures are not as high in quality as in the spring. This may be true but Marvin Riewe of Texas A&M's Gulf Coast Pasture-Beef Research Station says a good part of the blame is simply that ruminants (cattle, sheep and goats) eat less during hot weather.

His research shows that as temperatures climb, intake of ruminants decline. For example, animals eat about 19 percent more ryegrass at 60 degrees F. than they eat when the temperatures is 90 degrees F.

New Rations Ready for Whooper Set

AUSTIN.—The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has learned that further experiments are planned to supplement the diet of wintering Whooping Cranes and countless other migrating wild birds on the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near Austwell.

Two years ago first steps were taken to augment available crane food on Blackjack Peninsula because of habitat shrinkage in the marshes.

The initial 98-acre inland test plot was planted two years ago. Last fall another plot was provided. Now further expansion and refinement are planned.

Bob Shields, refuge manager, told the Department that experiments actually amount to pioneering in new farming techniques. Crops cannot be planted until early fall if they are to survive the usual heat, insect plagues and weeds, and other adverse conditions.

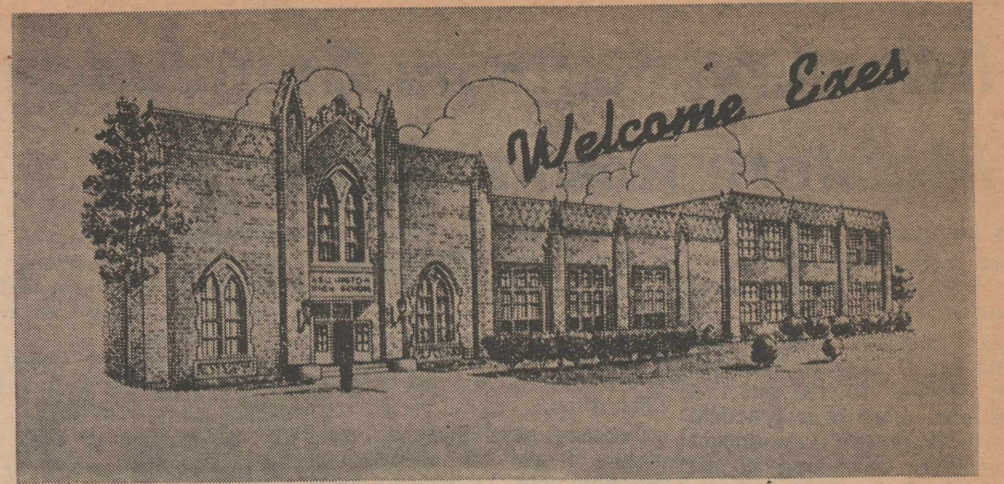

In what Shields refers to as "backward farming," peanuts and cow peas are planted after ordinary agricultural pursuits in the area are concluded for the season.

Now, he will attempt to root break the plots so that the crops may be cultivated in a bid for a higher yield. Not the least of the problems is the sandy soil.

The Whooping Cranes, now summering at the Great Slave Lake nesting grounds, have adopted the experimental plots, which also plays mealtime hosts to sandhill cranes, wild geese and assorted moochers, according to Shields.

The supplemental food program was begun by Shields because marsh areas were being increasingly affected by siltation, pollution and other man-made perils. The undertaking has been so enthusiastically indorsed by the entire refuge population that a tall deerproof fence is needed to protect the crops. The fence also has required strong reinforcing at the bottom to keep out different varmints, particularly the myriad raccoons.

Irrigation Farmers Can Judge Moisture Remaining in Soil

As irrigation farming becomes more technical, the when and how to irrigate is more important.

Lynn Courtney, conservation technician of the Soil Conservation Service, pointed out this week that there is a practical way to determine the amount of moisture remaining in the soil by its feel or appearance.

Crops produce greatest yields when they can get moisture easily throughout the growing season. Too frequent irrigation—and it sometimes does happen here—costs more than is necessary, but delay of irrigation until plants show signs of wilting cuts yields.

Courtney recommends irrigation prior to the pre-planting irrigation, then again at intervals based on crop moisture needs.

"For most field crops, the soil should be wet to a depth of 4 to 6 feet at pre-planting time and maintained throughout the growing season," he said.

Here is when it pays to know how much useful moisture remains in the soil at any given time.

Courtney says that a soil sample should be taken from approximately 12 inches deep or where the most of the roots are located.

"Take a handful of soil from this area and squeeze it firmly," says the SCS technician. "Release the hand and observe moisture conditions of the soil as shown by the chart below."

No Useful Water

If no useful water remains in the soil: in Coarse soil, the dirt will appear dry, loose, single grained and flow through the fingers.

Light soil: dry, loose, flows through the fingers.

Medium soil: powdery, dry, sometimes slightly crusted but breaks down easily into a powdery condition.

Heavy soil: hard, baked and cracked, sometimes has loose crumbs on the surface.

50 Percent or Less

If there is 50 percent or less useful water remaining in the soil, these conditions may be observed:

Coarse soil: still appears to be dry, will not form a ball with pressure.

Light soil: still appears to be dry, will not form a ball.

Medium soil: somewhat crumbly, but will hold together with pressure.

Heavy soil: somewhat pliable, will ball under pressure.

50-75% Remaining Useful Water

If there is 50 to 75 percent useful water remaining in the soil, these conditions will be found:

Coarse textured soil: same as coarse texture at 50 percent or less.

Light soil: tends to ball under pressure but seldom will hold together.

Medium soil: forms a ball, somewhat plastic, will sometimes stick slightly with pressure.

Heavy soil: forms a ball, will ribbon out between thumb and forefinger.

75% to Field Capacity

If there is 75 percent to field capacity moisture, these conditions will be found:

Coarse soil: tends to stick together slightly, sometimes forms a weak ball under pressure.

Light soil: forms a weak ball which breaks easily and will not slick.

Medium soil: forms a ball and is very pliable, slicks readily if relatively high in clay.

Heavy soil: easily ribbons out between fingers, has a slick feeling.

At Field Capacity

If moisture is at field capacity, these conditions will be found.

Coarse soil: upon squeezing, no free water appears on soil, but wet outline of ball is left on hand.

The same conditions apply for light, medium and heavy soils.

If water in the soil is above

Mr. Manley underwent surgery in June but apparently was recovering, friends said.

Funeral arrangements had not been made when the Max Manleys left here.

field capacity, here are the conditions:

Coarse soil: free water appears when soil is bounced in hand.

Light soil: free water will be released with kneading.

Medium soil: can squeeze out free water.

Heavy soil: puddles and free water forms on surface.

SYSTEMIC APPLICATOR FOR COTTON DESIGNED AT A&M

COLLEGE STATION.—A new machine that applies systemic insecticides to cotton plants has been developed by agricultural scientists at Texas A&M University. The rig is the first practical machine designed to apply systemic chemicals to plants on a large scale.

The systemic applicator uses twin, rotary nylon brushes to apply insecticide near the bottom of the main stem. It may also prove adaptable for applying fungicides, plant hormones, or defoliants to cotton.

B. G. Reeves, Extension cotton mechanization and ginning specialist at A&M, and R. L. Ridgway, A&M based entomologist for ARS are responsible for development of the unit.

Systemic chemicals are absorbed by the stem or roots of plants and move through the rest of the plant, making it poisonous to feeding insects.

Other research done at Texas A&M indicates that application of systemic insecticides to the lower part of the main stem is an effective way to control several species of cotton pests. Spider mites, cotton aphids, cotton fleahoppers, lygus bugs, boll weevils and bollworms can be controlled by stem treatments with systemics.

Systemic treatment offers several advantages, says Mr. Reeves. First, it eliminates the possibility of pesticide drift. Also, systemic treatment can be made at times when other methods might be impractical, as when dry conditions prevent effective soil application.

The new machine handles two rows and is mounted on a regular tractor cultivator

15,383 Deer A Transplanted

WACO.— The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department transplanted 14,383 white-tailed deer from 1938 through 1964 in cooperation with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

These deer were released on areas previously approved by the Department. Cooperating landowners agreed to permit no hunting of deer for a period of five years following the release of the broodstocks.

Education Key to Change

COLLEGE STATION.— Science, business and politics are moving at a faster pace than ever before. Students must prepare themselves to adjust to the ever-changing world, says Mrs. Elsie Short, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

What you learn in school today will help you meet the changes of tomorrow. Are you going to be ready for one of those top jobs? Whether you make your way to the top depends upon what you are doing now to prepare yourself for the future.

Today's student has three factors to face which earlier groups of students did not: the increased amount of knowledge in the world; the advanced stage of education given every pupil; and the pressure of ever improving techniques.

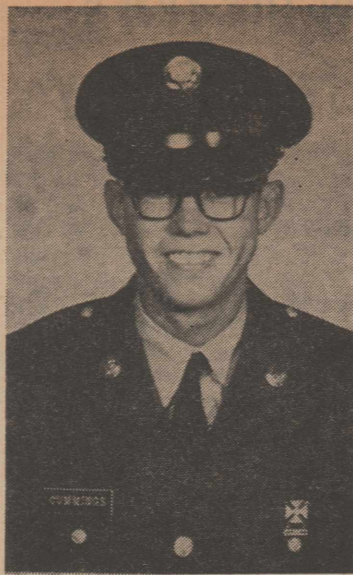

Thousands of companies are going to succeed or fail 20 years from now depending upon whether you or some other youth has learned to understand the technical and social effects of change and respond to them effectively.

Mrs. Short suggests that the most efficient tool, whether it's a computer or a research microscope, is only an extension of man's capabilities. In order to use existing tools or to invent and use new ones, you must develop capabilities.

This means not only spending more time in school, but spending that time in a well-organized effort to learn. You need to adopt some principles of your ancestors, adopt a little to meet changed circumstances, accept a little from other people's experiences and add a few tricks of your own.

Read, and study about and visit many different businesses and talk with as many professional people as possible. Keep up with the happenings in your community, state, and nation as well as what goes on in the foreign countries.

Knowledge about many different occupations will help you decide what preparation you need for the future. Remember, also, you may need to make adjustments anywhere along the line. You must be ready and willing to meet the challenge.

WTCC Leaders Meet at Pampa

ABILENE. — West Texas Chamber of Commerce leaders from across the entire 132-county WTCC area will converge on the Top o' Texas on Aug. 11 and 12 as the chamber holds its mid-summer meeting in Pampa.

John S. Coleman, WTCC director from Wellington will attend this meeting.

Highlight of the Pampa meeting will be a dinner on Aug. 11 honoring West Texans who are volunteers on state boards, agencies and commissions.

There are more than 250 of these individuals, and this is the first time in history that such a special recognition dinner has been held in Texas.

John Ben Sheppard of Odessa, president of the West Texas Chamber, will focus attention of the entire WTCC leadership on his newly-formulated Potentials for Progress at the Pampa meeting.

For two months now, hundreds of WTCC leaders, Texas experts and community leaders have helped the West Texas Chamber formulate the growth potentials through a series of idea and planning sessions, followed by another series of Directors' Action Forums. Ideas and recommendations have been examined and re-examined, then incorporated into the new program of work for the organization. It will get its final scrutiny at the Pampa meeting.

The two-day meeting, scheduled at the Coronado Inn, will include a meeting of all committees, special meetings of committee chairmen, a gathering of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.

West Texans honored at the Aug. 11 dinner will receive especially-prepared certificates in recognition of their service, and a special souvenir program is being prepared.

Battery A Comes Home, Wiser in Ways of War

NORTH FORT HOOD — Trucks of the 49th Armored Division will travel more than 10 million miles this weekend on their way home. Among the men returning were those of Battery A, 2nd battalion, 131st artillery, Wellington.

The figure — 10,370,000 miles — comes from Maj. Stanley Freese of Dallas, the division transportation officer. He has been in the 49th for 19 years and has been planning its summertime moves for 10 years.

"I arrived at the figure by multiplying the 1,700 trucks in the division by 6,100 miles, the total length of the 29 convoys' travel," said Maj. Freese. He continued, "About 10 percent of the division's 8,000 men were authorized to bring their personal cars to camp. We will still need 25 commercial buses, carrying about 35 passengers each, to supplement the cars and trucks."

Maj. Freese and his assistant, Capt. Bobby Vorplank of Farmers Branch, bear three things in mind when planning the convoy movements: safety, timing and impact on civilian highway travel. For safety's sake, each convoy pulls off the road for a rest halt 10 minutes of each hour, and drivers are rotated periodically.

Units facing the longest journeys are the first to leave North Fort Hood. Five convoys will get a head start by pulling out Saturday for points such as Wellington and Shamrock in the Panhandle (382 miles) and Harlingen in the Rio Grande Valley (430).

"We go to great lengths to space these convoys out for the convenience of civilian drivers," Maj. Freese said. "Any convoys using the same route out of here are scheduled at least an hour apart to cut down on traffic density."

"Within a convoy, trucks stay 100 yards apart while on the road. That's sufficient space for civilian cars to move in and out safely. And each of our drivers has instructions to help civilian drivers pass and to obey all traffic laws. Convoys have no special right-of-way privileges unless they have a police escort, "the major commented.

Convoy commanders send a representative ahead to each town through which the unit will pass to coordinate the move with police, according to Maj. Freese. "We work especially closely with the Waco Police Department because we will have hundreds of trucks going through there early Sunday morning," he said.

The long convoys travel 30 miles each hour, including the rest halt. "Drivers would have to maintain 36 miles per hour for 50 minutes to average 30. Most of the time they're rolling about 40 to make up for going through towns, and the last vehicle has to hurry like the dickens to keep up."

The 49th's convoys don't pull into neighborhood service stations to gas up. Fuel comes from each unit's 750-gallon tankers which refuel trucks during the rest halts, Maj. Freese explained.

He added that units which leave here Saturday spend the night camped at roadside parks, then are on the move again by daybreak Sunday.

The pullout from North Fort Hood will start at 5 a.m. Sunday. Last unit to leave the post will be Company D, 949th Maintenance Battalion from Gatesville (Coryell County). Their trucks are stored here the year around, and the soldiers will ride home in cars. But for the men in the back of 2½-ton trucks headed for Harlingen, it will seem that their trip is 10,370,000 miles long.

All 8,000 men should be home by nightfall Sunday after storing trucks and equipment at their armories.

Drownings Take 3380 in Decade

AUSTIN.—Deaths from water recreational accidents moved ahead on the 1965 pace, as it was disclosed that through last year 3380 Texans had drowned from all causes during the last ten years.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, maintaining an unofficial water death count as a safety reminder, reported 149 persons had died this summer from bathing, fishing or boating mishaps.

This is slightly higher than last year when 200 persons drowned from the same causes.

Adding to the ghastly toll was a report from the U.S. Corps of Engineers that 277 persons have lost their lives on Corps' reservoirs since 1951. The official all-causes drownings statistics were given by the State Health Department for the last decade as follows: 1956, 293; 1957, 335; 1958, 333; 1959, 291; 1960, 371; 1961, 322; 1962, 339; 1963, 359; 1964, 409.

Among the latest 12 fatalities from water accidents, the Parks and Wildlife Department noted that seven drowned while bathing, three while fishing and two in boating mishaps.

Two drowned while going to the rescue of others who were saved by others.

One of the boating tragedies occurred when a craft struck a submerged stump and overturned.

Blurred Line Between Right and Wrong Feeds Law Violations

A recent message from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, outlines one of the principal sources of operations of law enforcement officers on every level—the concept we have of the difference between right and wrong.

"Unfortunately, the concept of right over wrong is not as clear and strong in the hearts and minds of present day America as it was in the hearts and minds of our forefathers. Acts that are wrong, illegal and immoral are condoned or ignored by much of our society. Many persons have no compunction about committing illegal acts because they feel secure in the knowledge that if detected they stand an excellent chance to escape punishment through legal loopholes or technicalities," Mr. Hoover says.

The increase in youthful crime leads to the inescapable conclusion that many of our young people are not being taught, either by word or example, the simple difference in right and wrong, Mr. Hoover believes.

Law enforcement officers, however strong, will continue to face the problem of increasing violations and growing indifference to law for so long as a clear distinction between right and wrong are distorted, especially to impressionable youth.

Two men were standing on a street corner arguing. Finally, one man shouted at the other, "My psychiatrist can beat your psychiatrist." "Oh yeah," yelled the other chap, "my psychiatrist can cure your psychiatrist."

We heard one the other day about a scientist who has been trying to make a nourishing food out of wood fiber. He isn't getting rich, but he's high on the log.

The trouble with American foreign relations is that so many of them are broke.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ELEVEN ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-d, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, declaring state policy regarding optimum development of water reservoirs; providing for the use of the Texas Water Development Fund under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law in the acquisition and development of storage facilities and any system of works properly appurtenant thereto; providing for the sale, lease or transfer of such facilities under General Law; providing for long-term contracts for water storage facilities; authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds by the Texas Water Development Board upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each house; providing that anticipatory legislation shall not be invalid because of its anticipatory character; providing for the necessary election, form of ballot, and proclamation and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-d of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 49-d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the state, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. The proceeds from the sale of the additional bonds authorized hereunder deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund and the proceeds of bonds previously authorized by Article III, Section 49-c of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General

Law, including the requirement of a permit for storage or beneficial use, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities and any system of works necessary for the filtration, treatment and transportation of water from storage to points of treatment, filtration and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods; provided, however, the Texas Water Development Fund or any other state fund provided for water development, transmission, transfer or filtration shall not be used to finance any project which contemplates or results in the removal from the basin of origin of any surface water necessary to supply the reasonable foreseeable future water requirements for the next ensuing fifty-year period within the river basin of origin, except on a temporary, interim basis.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law the Texas Water Development Fund may be used for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes by construction or reconstruction or enlargement of reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, together with any system of works necessary for the filtration, treatment and/or transportation of water, by any one or more of the following governmental agencies: by the United States of America, or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas, or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the state; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations. The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions under which the Texas Water Development Board may sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any reservoir and associated system or works

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW:

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR FARMERS

By Roger W. Babson

Things are looking up for American farmers. Prices for livestock and other farm output are at good levels, and everything points to a new record in farm income in 1966. Farmers, in fact, appear to be on the road to regaining the property that has been eluding them since the end of World War II.

More Insistent Demand

The long period of general business boom here at home and mounting food requirements abroad have combined to push total demand for American farm produce to new highs. For decades, the federal government has been pursuing farm programs designed to cut crop surpluses and to bolster agricultural prices. Now the shoe is on the other foot and the Administration is concerned because our grain reserves are dwindling and farm prices climbing.

The current broader demand for U.S. farm produce is pointed up by the fact that on July 1 this year our carryover of wheat from last season dipped below the 600-million-bushel mark for the first time since the early 1950's. Actually, in the 1965-66 season, total disappearance of wheat, corn, and soybeans has been well above average. When all the figures are in, it will probably be found that usage and shipments of these grains set new records.

Higher Production Costs

Last year, gross income realized from farming was at a record high of $44.4 billion, up $2.2 billion from 1964. A new record will be set this year as cash receipts from marketings move still higher. But this excellent and improving trend in gross farm income does not tell the whole story. Much of the cream will be skimmed off by boosts in farm production costs.

In 1965, total farm production expenses were about 4% higher than in 1964. This year they may top 1965 by a larger percentage, — reflecting rising costs for livestock, feed, maintenance and repair of machinery, and the carrying of debt. Taxes paid by farmers are also in a decided upswing. Even so, farmers' net income from their farm operations should increase somewhat this year; in 1967 they may be expected to do considerably better.

Onslaught of the Labor Unions

Look for improvement in the over-all economic position of farmers to lead to greater efforts by labor union leaders to "organize" farm workers. Historically, labor unions have met rather stiff opposition in their campaigns to sign up farm labor. The success they have had recently in unionizing the workers in the vineyards of the West will spur union leaders to step up their plans for "organizing" farm laborers generally.

During the next few years, profit margins of farmers will be under persistent, heavy pressure from rising labor costs. Not only will this pressure come from wider union-

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

My slum farmer neighbor says what the country needs is more efficiency in the use of our natural resources.

Like our big city rioters, with their fire bombs and their loot-lust, had ought to be herded into areas which are due for Urban Renewal, so as to get the demolition work done on these projects for free.

Says this would also provide recreation for these under-recreated people, and would save even more money if maybe 10 percent of the amount of loot they got was deducted from their welfare checks.

It is being widely advertised by the social engineers that holding an election in South Viet Nam will solve all of that country's problems.

But my veteran voter neighbor says he has seen cases where an election made a bad situation worse, even when it didn't seem like that was possible.

So he says Elections are highly overrated as strife quenchers, and this will be proof of farm laborers; it will also come from the application of federal wage-hour laws which are granting steadily broader coverage and compensation.

Bright Future for Farm Equipment Sales

While some large farm operations have done very well for themselves in recent years, the average farmer has economically lagged his city cousin. For one thing, the price he is receiving are still some 9% below their 1947-49 level. But, as rapidly expanding demand gives him new hope for farmer will be more eager to help himself.

Hence, coming months will probably see farmers spending more freely for supplies, including heavy machinery. Such spending could well set a record this year. Bulk of their buying of farm supplies and equipment will likely come in the final months of the year... when crops are in and they know where they stand financially, and when they may well be looking for ways to offset the tax impact of their prospectively higher dollar income.

Marco Polo was first to call Japan the Land of the Rising Sun.

true until modern science can come up with a type of election that will make the losers happy too.

News is that a task force of Brains will study about training elder people how to live more completely and purposefully and productively.

My golden-ager neighbor says he skipped for years and thought he had saved up enough for the good life as an obsolescent, but then the price of good living went up.

Says the Washington spend-thieves wiped out 6 of his savings with inflation, but it's real noble of them to want to make up for it by sending out some college-ripened experts on Life to teach him how to live happily with his short breath and short funds.

Studying the news from a distance like us rural type people do, shows that many folks are of a suspicious nature and don't believe much in coincidences.

Like some say it wasn't a coincidence that the anti-trust suit against them was dismissed about the same time several members of a beer-making family paid up $1,000 membership in the President's Club.

But my loyal peon neighbor says he don't believe you can buy immunity from government aggression by donating to the Party in Power. He just thinks it likely won't make your problem any worse.

Outline Tells Content of Sixteen Amendments

Texans who vote in the general election Tuesday, Nov. 6, will not only cast their ballots for candidates on the county, state and national level, they will also decide the adoption or rejection of 16 amendments proposed for the Texas Constitution.

Publication of these amendments in full begins in this week's issue of The Wellington Leader, and will run for four weeks, as required by law.

Here in brief form is what the amendments are about. Those wanting more information may refer to the full text of the amendment in the legal notices.

Amendment No. 2: Would authorize creation of airport authorities composed of one or more counties.

Amendment No. 4: Increases the permissible term of office for directors of conservation and reclamation districts from two to six years and validating present statutory terms of office for such officials.

Amendment No. 5: Would authorize the legislature to provide for a system of retirement, disability and death benefits for county officials and employees and others.

Amendment No. 6: Provides for payment of assistance to survivors of law enforcement officers, custodial personnel of the Texas Department of Corrections and full-paid firemen.

Amendment No. 7: Would repeal the Constitutional provision requiring a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting and requiring the Legislature to provide for annual registration of all voters.

Amendment No. 8: Would authorize the Legislature to enact laws permitting persons to vote for state officers and for president and vice president of the United States without having fulfilled residence requirements to vote for other officers, as well as law permitting former residents of the state, for a certain period, to vote absentee for president and vice president.

Amendment No. 9: Increases to five the number of judges on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and lengthens the term of that court.

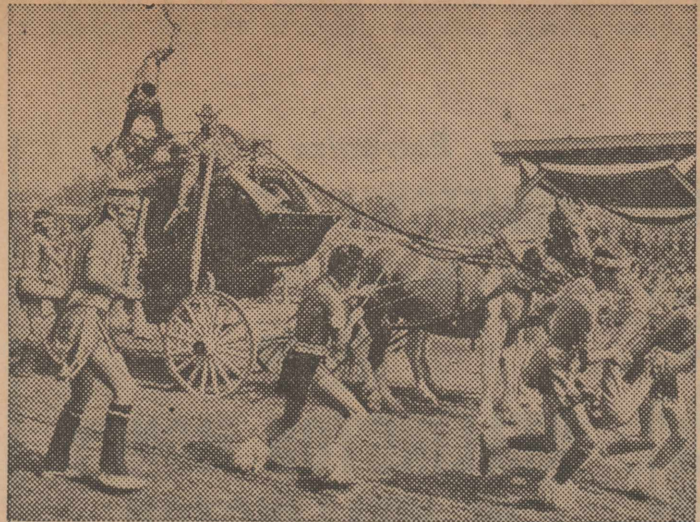

Amendment No. 10: Provides that taxes or bonds previously voted in any independent school district or in any junior college district shall not be abrogated, cancelled or invalidated by any change in boundaries and authorizing the continuance of the levy after such change without further election.

All Classes Start at Once

Schoolboy Football to Open Statewide Sept. 9

The 47th year of the Texas Interscholastic League football plan starts Sept. 9. It is the first time in years for one starting date for all classes.

Previously all except Class AAAA opened the first week in September.

Anyway, 957 schools — the largest in history — will go to the post 10 weeks from now. Seems like a short summer doesn't it.

Practice openings vary. Under a complicated system this is the schedule:

Aug. 10—First day to issue football shoes and socks in Classes AAA, AA, A, B, Six-Man and Eight-Man (no conditioning drills or organized instruction permitted).

Aug. 15—First day for fall football practice in Classes AAA, AA and A; first day for all conditioning in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted).

Aug. 17—First day for issuauthorize the Legislature to provide for consolidating the functions of government within a county having 1,200,000 or more inhabitants and to provide for intergovernmental contracts between political subdivisions of the county.

Amendment No. 14: Would allow members of the armed forces to vote in Texas upon satisfying the residence requirements applicable to Texans in general.

Amendment No. 15: Authorizes the channeling of funds from private and federal sources through the state for use by privately owned or local agencies in establishing and equipping facilities to assist the handicapped in becoming gainfully employed.

Amendment No. 16: Establishes the date on which newly elected members of the Legislature qualify and take office.

ing shoes and socks in Class AAAA (no conditioning drills or organized instruction permitted).

Aug. 22—First day for issuing contact equipment and conducting contact activities in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man; first day for football conditioning in Class AAAA (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted); first day for football interschool scrimmages in Classes AAA, AA, A, B, Six-Man and Eight-Man.

Aug. 26—First day for issuing contact equipment and having contact activities in Class AAAA.

Sept. 9—First day for playing football games in all classes.

This, in a nutshell, says Classes AAA, AA and A can start full-fledged football practice Aug. 15 and that Class AAAA must wait 11 days to reach that stature. This is because only Class AAAA has spring training, thus it must start later in the fall to compensate the other divisions.

But Class AAAA will have plenty of time to get into shape—15 days. Besides these schools were able to spend 21 days in spring training, which puts them ahead of the others overall.

Texas schoolboy football seems to be on a decided upward swim and this fall should be no exception. The 1965 campaign probably was the best in the league's history. It exalted Texas schoolboy football when all-star teams beat Pennsylvania in the Big 33 game at Hershey and the Oil Bowl at Wichita Falls.

The players get better and smarter, the coaching improves and all-in-all Texas is the garden spot of schoolboy football.

Five streaks will go on the line when the fall campaign opens—Wills Point's 15 straight in winning the Class A championship, Brownwood's 14-0 record in taking the Class AAA title, Class AAAA champion Odessa Permian's 12-game skein and Class AA titlist Plano's 11 in a row.

The fifth streak: Well, it is owned by Madisonville, which lost 39 in succession, starting in 1962. It is the all-time losing record in Texas.

Madisonville, however, has hopes of getting off the spot. It has dropped from Class AA to Class A.

Abilene still is the all-time leader in championships, with six. But Abilene hasn't cut the mustard in nine years and may take still more time since it no longer is a one-high school city.

Waco is second with five championships and a tie and Wichita Falls is third with five outright titles. Breckenridge has taken four championships and tied for two to figure in as many titles as Waco and Abilene.

Next in line is Lubbock which has won three.

Only three coaches have won four state championships — the late Paul Tyson at Waco, Joe Golding at Wichita Falls and Gordon Wood of Brownwood. Tyson and Golding won all their titles at one school. Wood won two at Stamford and two at Brownwood.

Blair Cherry, Chuck Curtis and Chuck Moser won three apiece — Cherry and Moser at Amarillo and Curtis at Jacksboro and Garland.

Pete Shotwell won two and tied for one — all at different schools.

SALT CONSERVATION FORK DISTRICT NEWS

WATER STORAGE FACILITIES By Stephen Qualls

The primary purpose of a water storage facility is to provide adequate storage of enough water to meet the continuous needs of livestock utilizing the area served by the water facility. The water storage facility may be constructed so that it can serve as a combination storage and watering facility.

A storage facility should be constructed of a size to provide a 7 day water supply for the area served. For example a facility in a pasture used by 50 animal units should have a minimum capacity of 5000 gallons since 100 gallons is needed for each animal unit per week. Facilities are constructed of reinforced concrete bottoms with galvanized metal sides. The height of the finished product is approximately 24 inches and the diameters range from 10 to 25 feet. The 10 foot diameter facility will have a capacity of 1100 gallons, whereas, the 25 foot diameter tanks will have a capacity of approximately 6800 gallons. The price range is from $200 for the smaller tank to $450 for the 6800 gallon facility.

At the present time there are approximately 60 of this type facilities in this district. The majority of these are constructed at windmills, however, some are constructed away from water source with pipelines leading to them. Facilities of the latter type are usually constructed to improve grazing distribution in addition to increasing the water storage capacity.

Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service will assist you in planning the proper location and size of the storage facility needed in your particular case. Cost share of 50% is also available under the Great Plains Conservation Program.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13 proposing an Amendment to Section 2, Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, to repeal the provision making payment of the poll tax a requirement for voting and so as to authorize the Legislature to provide for the registration of all voters.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended, effective February 1, 1968, by deleting the following language:

"and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt he or she, as the case may be, shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before an officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. The husband may pay the poll tax of his wife and receive the receipt therefor. In like manner, the wife may pay the poll tax of her husband and receive the receipt therefor."

provided, however, that before offering to vote at an election a voter shall have registered annually, but such requirement for registration shall not be considered a qualification of an elector within the meaning of the term 'qualified elector' as used in any other Article of this Constitution in respect to any matter except qualification and eligibility to vote at an election. Any legislation enacted in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment shall not be invalid because of its anticipatory nature. The Legislature may authorize absentee voting. And this provision of the Constitution shall be self-enacting without the necessity of further legislation. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States or component branches thereof; or in the military service of the United States, may vote only in the county in which he or she resided at the time of en-

In like manner, the wife may pay the poll tax of her husband and receive the receipt therefor."

Sec. 2. If any other Amendment to Sections 2 or 4 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, being for a different purpose, is adopted at an earlier election or at the same election, the adoption of this Amendment shall not be considered as nullifying any change made by such other Amendment.

Sec. 3. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 79 proposing an Amendment to Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding Section 1-d to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding Section 1-d to read as follows:

"Section 1. (a) All land owned by natural persons which is designated for agricultural use in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use. 'Agricultural use' means the raising of livestock or growing of crops, fruit, flowers, and other products of the soil under natural conditions as a business venture for profit, which business is the primary occupation and source of income of the owner.

"(b) For each assessment year the owner wishes to qualify his land under provisions of this Section as designated for agricultural use he shall file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land is devoted.

"(c) Upon receipt of the sworn statement in writing the local tax assessor shall determine whether or not such land qualifies for the designation as to agricultural use as defined herein and in the event it so qualifies he shall designate such land as being for agricultural use and assess the land accordingly.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of Texas by adding to Section 62 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution; providing further that the Texas Legislature in the enabling statute will make the determination as to the amount of money that will be contributed by the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county to the State-wide System of Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Benefits for the officials and employees of the counties and other political subdivisions of the state, and of the political subdivisions of any county.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 62 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a subsection (c) which shall read as follows:

"(c) The Texas Legislature is authorized to enact appropriate laws to provide for a System of Retirement, Disability and Death Benefits for all the officers and employees of a county or other political subdivision of the state, or a political subdivision of a county; providing that when the Texas Legislature has passed the necessary enabling legislation pursuant to the Constitutional authorization, then the governing body of the county, or other political subdivision of the state, or political subdivision of the county shall make the determination as to whether a particular county or other political subdivision of the state, or subdivision of the county participates in this System; providing further that such System shall be operated at the expense of the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county electing to participate therein and the officers and employees covered by the System; and providing that the Legislature of the State of Texas shall never make an appropriation to pay the costs of this Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation System.

"The Legislature may provide for a voluntary merger into the System herein authorized by this Constitutional Amendment of any System of Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Benefits which may now exist or that may hereafter be established under subsection (b) of Section 62 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution; providing further that the Texas Legislature in the enabling statute will make the determination as to the amount of money that will be contributed by the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county to the State-wide System of Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Benefits for the officials and employees of the counties and other political subdivisions of the state, and of the political subdivisions of any county.

"It is the further intention of the Legislature, in submitting this Constitutional Amendment, that the officers and employees of the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county shall be included in those systems regardless of whether the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county participates in the Retirement, Disability and Death Benefit System authorized by this Constitutional Amendment, or whether they participate in a System under the provisions of subsection (b) of Section 62 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution as which is herein amended."

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The announcement by Congressman Walter Rogers of his decision to withdraw from the race for Congress shocked the Democrats of the Panhandle considerably. The concern locally is the possible effect his retirement from Congress may have on the construction of the dam on Salt Fork since he is a ranking member of committees that would be important in helping secure Federal assistance in the project.

He has assured members of The Salt Fork Water Conservation Board that he will do everything he possibly can to speed up the progress of the project. Even so it is a very short time until January 1 considering the magnitude of the work that has to be done.

Thus far the county chairmen have set no date as to when they will meet to select a Democratic nominee for Congress in the general election in November. Bob Price is the Republican candidate and says Rogers' decision has not changed his plans. He said: "I am not running against a candidate but running for a purpose."

The month of August in 1966 will be a rare one as far as the full moon is concerned; for there will be two full moons in the month—one on the first day and the second on the last. The moon on the 31st will be harvest moon which ordinarily "shines on" in September and the hunters moon which usually comes in October will reach its full on September 29.

August is a good time to observe the constellations such as the Herdsman, Northern Crown, Swan, Lyre Hercules and Little Fox. And next week is the time for the shooting stars—the Perseids.

The letter which Congressman Rogers sent to Spillman as Collingsworth County Democratic Committee chairman, read:

It is with deep regret that I must advise you that I have decided to decline the nomination to appear on the ballot in the General Election in November. It is my intention to reenter the private practice of law at the end of this term in Congress. Hence, I feel that this decision should be brought to your attention at the earliest possible moment; also, that it would not be fair for me to continue as the nominee and resign after the Election.

Needless to say, this has been one of the most difficult decisions I have ever had to make. However, after exhaustive and careful consideration of all factors, I have reached this conclusion.

The great wealth of able and qualified individuals of the true American tradition in the Panhandle of Texas should enable the Democratic Party to choose another nominee for this position in accordance with the law and in ample time for such nominee to conduct a highly successful campaign.
