GOODMAN GOT EIGHT YEARS

Granbry and Stephenville Fair Excursionists Narrow Escape.—Killed by Horse.—Commissioners.

The only case tried in the district court at Stephenville last week was that of Ed Goodman, charged with the killing of Quinn Pitman in the Hickey school house community last spring. Thursday morning the jury returned a verdict of guilty and assessed the punishment at eight years in the penitentiary.

Excursionists' Narrow Escape.

The party of Granburyites and others who made up the special car bound for the World's Fair, of whom we made mention last week, had a narrow escape. The train on which they left was wrecked at Vineta, I. T., at 4 o'clock on the following morning after leaving here. About twenty were injured but all of our people escaped unhurt, as the sleeper did not leave the track. Among the injured were Mr. and Mrs. Leverett of Stephenville.—Granbury Graphic-Truth.

Killed by a Horse.

A man by the name of Bulay, who had been a citizen of Comanche for a short time, was killed at Llano Wednesday, by a kick from a horse. He had taken his team out at the wagon yard and was leading them to water, when a horse in a stall kicked him over the heart as he passed by. He died within fifteen minutes and the remains were brought here for burial Thursday. He leaves a widow and a grown son and daughter. His wife and daughter were with him at the time of the accident on their return from a visit to near San Antonio.—Comanche Chief.

themselves 20 cents on the $100 of taxable values for school purposes.

B. G. Hall was reappointed as superintendent of the county poor farm.

Arthur Stell was elected janitor of the county house at a salary of $40 per month.

The Empire and Appeal were jointly awarded the contract for doing the county printing.

Dr. W. Keith was given the jail and county farm practice.

Valuable New York Property.

In order to keep out the intrusion of speculators and hotel builders William K. Vanderbilt bought the ground on the opposite corner from his Fifth avenue mansion in New York. The price paid was $850,000, the highest ever paid for Fifth avenue land. The property includes three old dwellings on Fifty third street. At the rate paid the Fifth avenue frontage brings over $10,000 a front foot.

Cottonwood Cemetery Meeting.

All persons interested in the Cottonwood cemetery are requested to meet at the grave yard next Friday, August 26th, early in the morning, with proper utensils to help clean off and fix up the graves and yard. None should fail to come promptly.

Mr. Chambers Still With Us.

In speaking of the ex-confederate soldiers belonging to the Erath-Comanche association who died during the past year, the Dublin Progress includes the name of W. F. Chambers of Stephenville in the list. This is a mistake. Mr. Chambers is very much alive, and bids fair to live many years yet.—Stephville Tribune.

The list published by the Progress was procured from the records of the secretary of the asscoiation and was compiled thereon by the secretary from reports given him. Possibly this error may have been one involving initials only. However we are glad to note that our friend Chambers is still in the land of the living.

Baseball Briefs.

San Angelo defeated Ballinger in three games last week.

The Brownwood "Kid" ball team met a Waterloo at Santa Anna Thursday of last week by a score of 16 to 2.

The Brownwood and Coleman teams played at the former place last Saturday. Score eight to two in favor of Brownwood.

The Morgan second nine played against the Meridian first nine at Meridian Thursday. The score was 12 to 9 in favor of Morgan.

San Angelo defeated Denton at the former place last Monday by a score of ten to two. Batteries—Deatheridge and Frances for Denton and Sparger and Conner for Angelo. Though the Denton team has a record of being the best amateur team in the state they appear to be at the present time working against a failing effort to hold the laurels. Out of nine games Denton played with Dublin this season the Dublin team easliy won six of them.

ST. GEORGE.

Received to late for last week.

Aug. 10th.—The reunion is over and it was a pleasant affair for all.

We have had a good rain and crops and grass are improving.

Raphael Cabiness had the misfortune of having one of his ears badly bitten by a horse as he stooped to go under the fence at the reunion grounds at Dublin.

Boss Williams had a fine mule cut up very bad on wire last week. It was in the corner of his pasture near the railroad and the train came along and scared it.

Mr. Tine Brannum and Miss Della Daniels went to Hamilton yesterday to get married. We join their many friends in wishing them a pleasant journey through life.

It was decided Sunday night at prayer meting to meet Wednesday Aug. 17th at the school house and build an arbor for the protracted meeting that is to commence the following Saturday night. The meeting will be conducted by Revs. Early Morton and J. T. Owens.

Special Service.

There will be special service for the young at the tabernacle next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Evangelist Swinney will address the young people at that hour. There will be a children chorus at that hour led by Singer Fitz. Come and bring the young.

Compensation.

Devoid of grandeur and sublimity would be
The roaring, restless, grand old sea
Without it's awful gulfs and wild waves' roar,
And billows dashing on its rocky shore.

To make a picture beautiful and true
The deepest shades as well as light are due.
Music, enchanting, rich and sweet,
Must have discordant notes to be complete.

The summer sky is ne'er so bright and clear
As after storms have battled far and near.
The human face wears ne'er so beautiful a sheen
As when its smiles through pearly tears are seen.

How blank and tame would be the human mind,
How rude, how simple and how unrefined,
Without a struggle for the needs of life,
With all our cares and evils rife.

There's nothing gives repose such charm and zest
As toil and weariness before we rest.
There's nothing makes our food so fine and sweet
As earning it before we drink and eat.

Would we the rose embrace, the thorn appears;
The price of pleasure is oft paid with tears;
The hardest battle only wins the prize,
And the joy earned from its pursuer flies.

Spring takes its life from winter's snow and sleet.
Autumn its glow from summer's languid heat.
Battle and strife the highest worth bring out,
And wisdom ever follows honest doubt.

Choicest fruits on highest branches grow.
Richest gems are deepest hid below.
Warmest hearts beat 'neath the coarsest guise.
Sweetest thoughts are born where sorrow lies.

Failings and faults make character complete:
Advancement comes with failure and defeat.
Sorrow gives birth to poetry end song.
And music owes its charms to woe and wrong.

There's not a pain or woe or grief or ill
But has the fullest compensation still.
Each shade has lights, each fault a virture true,
And from the meanest thing some good accrues.

Vain is the wish, the hope, the prayer devout
To have the so-called evils blotted out.
Whatever is here its mission has to do.
And must be right,else it would not be so.

No sighs are lost, no tears are shed in vain.
Rewards are sure for every grief and pain.
Some choice flowers in every pathway spring,
And there is something good in everything.

DAVIS DULY NOTIFIED.

Formally Informed of Nomination For Vice President.

IS TOLD BY WILLIAMS

Ceremonies, Held at White Sulphur Springs, Va., Attracted People by Train, Wagon, Horseback and on Foot.

White Sulphur Springs, Va., Aug. 17.—Hon. Henry G. Davis was formally notified Wednesday afternoon of his nomination for vice president on the Democratic ticket. Congressman John Sharp Williams delivered the notification address. Trains brought many visitors and numbers of mountaineers came on horseback, on foot and in wagons. The famous Stonewall Brigade band, organized by General "Stonewall" Jackson, furnished the music. Seventeen ladies of Atlanta, all bearing a Georgia state flag, congratulated Mr. Davis over his speech. The same ladies tendered Judge Parker a reception at Atlanta last June.

In responding to Mr. Williams' remarks former Senator Davis spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee: The official notification which you bring of my nomination for the vice presidency of the United States by the national Democracy gives me a feeling of sincerest gratitude to my party for the honor conferred. At the same time, it brings to me a deep sense of my responsibility to my party as a candidate, and to my country in case of my election.

A spirit of determination to succeed in the campaign before us appears to pervade the rank and file of our party in all sections of the country. Of that rank and file I have for many years been a member and have at all times devoted my humble powers to party success. Unexpectedly called as I am now to the front, I am impelled to an acceptance of the obligation by a sense of gratitude to my fellow workers and the hope that it may be able the better to assist in restoring to power that party to whose principles and past history guarantee a safe, wise, economical and constitutional administration of the government.

I find it therefore a great pleasure, standing upon the borderland of the two Virginias, to receive and accept the commission you bear and to send greetings through you to the Democracy of the entire country. Is it not significant of a closer and truer brotherhoood among us, that for the first time since the civil war a nominee of the national ticket has been taken from that section of our country that lies south of Mason and Dixon's line—a happy recognition of the obliteration of all sectional differences which led to and followed that unhappy struggle?

As an introductory to the few remarks I shall make, I desire to say that I heartily endorse the platform upon which I have been nominated, and, with the convention and its nominee for president, regard the present monetary standard of value as irrevocably established.

In the campaign preceding the last election much stress was laid by Republican speakers upon the prosperous condition of the country, and forebodings were heard of the ill results, especially to the laboring man, which would follow any change in the political complexion of the government. It is true that the times then were good, but it is no less a fact that, while there has been no changes in the party in power, many of the evils prophesied come under Republican rule. Four years ago factories, mills, mines and furnaces were in active operation, unable to supply the demand, but now many are closed and those that are open are being operated with reduced force on short hours. Then wages were higher, labor was scarce and there was work for all; now work is scarce, many wage earners unemployed, and wages reduced. The apprehension which now prevails in business circles and the present unsatisfactory industrial conditions of the country seem to demand political change.

In the language of our platform, "The rights of labor are certainly no less vested, no less sacred and no less inalienable than the rights of capital." The time is opportune to emphasize the truth of this utterance. The most sacred right of property is the right to possess and own, and the labor of one's hands is capital itself, being but stored up labor. For years I worked in the ranks of the wage earner and I know what it is to earn my living by the sweat of my brow. I have always believed, and my convictions came from the hard school of experience, that, measured by the character of work he does and the cost of living, a man is entitled to full compensation for his services. My experience as a wage earner and my association with labor have alike taught me the value of Democratic principles, for in them the humblest has the strongest security for individual right and the highest stimulus to that independence of spirit and love of self-help which produce the finest characters and form the base of the best possible government.

The receipts of the government for the year ending June 30, 1902, the first fiscal year of the present administration, showed a surplus over expenditures of $91,000,000, but for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, instead of a surplus there was a deficit of $41,000,000. From the first of July, 1904, to Aug. 10, or for about a month and a third of the present fiscal year, the expenditures of the government have exceeded the receipts by $21,715,000. Thre could be no stronger evidence of the extravagance into which the Republican party has fallen, and no more potent argument in this behalf of a change to the party whose tenets have always embraced prudence and economy in administering the people's affairs.

Our Republican friends are prone to refer to the great commercial growth of the country under their rule, and yet the census reports show that from 1850 to 1860, under Democratic rule and the Walker tariff, the percentage of increase was greater in population, wealth, manufactures and railroad mileage, the factors which affect most largely the prosperity of the country, than in any decade since, the cost of government has largely increased under Republican rule. The expenditures per capita for the last years respectively of the administrations given, from the reports of the secretary of the treasury, were as follows:

In 1860, under Buchanan, $2.01.
In 1893, under Harrison, $5.77.
In 1897, under Cleveland, $5.10
In 1901, under McKinley, $6.56.
In 1904, under Roosevelt, $7.16.

The Republicans now claim great consistency in their attitude upon the currency question, and the president in his recent speech of acceptance, said that they know what they mean when they speak of a stable currency, "The same thing from year to year," and yet in the platforms of their party in 1884, 1888 and 1892, they favored the double standard of value. In the platform of 1888, they said: "The Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money and condemns the policy of the Democratic administration in its efforts to monetize silver."

I congratulate your committee and the constituency it represents in the selection by the delegates to the national convention of the nominee for president. He is a man of courage, yet prudent; of high ideals, yet without pretense; of the most wholesome respect for the constitution and majesty of laws under it, and a sacred regard for their limitations; of the keenest sense of justice, which would rebel against compounding a wrong to an individual or to a nation; positive in conviction, yet of few words; strong in mental and moral attributes, and yet withal modest, possessed of a sturdy constitution and magnificent manhood, and yet temperate in his actions and dignified in his demeanor. It is not the orator or man of letters, but the man of reserve force, of sound judgment, of conservative method and steadiness of purpose, whom the people have called to the office of the presidency; notably in the contests between Jefferson and Burr, Jackson and Clay, Lincoln and Douglass, Grant and Greely, Cleveland and Blaine.

Dire predictions were made by political opponents of what would happen at the St. Louis convention, but they misjudged the temper of the party and the people. While there had been differences in preceding campaigns, yet at St. Louis they were all harmonized and a common ground was found upon which all could stand and do battle for Democratic principles. A platform was adopted by a unanimous vote, containing the issues of the day, and putting to the people a declaration of the principles which in the language of the times, is sane, safe and sound.

With a candidate whose personality appeals to the good sense and sound judgment of the American people, a platform whose principles for the greatest good to the greatest number and a reunited party earnest for the restoration of good and economical government we should succeed and the principles of Democracy again triumph.

I beg my countrymen, as they value their liberty, to guard with great care the sacred right of local self-government and to watch with a jealous eye the tendency of the times to centralize power in the hands of the few.

Mr. Chairman, it is an added pleasure to receive this notification at your hands. You have been conservative and courageous as leader of your party in the house of representatives, a position which few men have filled with the signal ability that you have displayed.

It will be my pleasure and duty, at a time not far hence, to accept more formally in writing the nomination which you have tendered in such graceful and complimentary terms, and to give my views upon some of the important questions now commanding the attention of the party.

NOTED NOVELIST GONE.

Prentiss Ingraham Departs This Life at Beavoir, Miss.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Colonel Prentiss Ingraham, the author of more than 1000 novels, is dead at Beavoir, Miss., aged sixty years. Colonel Ingraham, who was a native of Natchez, Miss., was the son of the late Rev. J. H. Ingraham, who at the time of his death, in 1857, was rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Mobile, Ala. The father was also a writer of note, his main work being "A Prince of the House of David." Colonel Ingraham won his title as a Confederate soldier, being one of the youngest colonels. For years he turned out a novel every three weeks. His best known book is "Land of Legendary Lore." A widow and three children survive.

STATESBORO QUIET.

No Further Excitement Is Apprehended at That Place.

Statesboro, Ga., Aug. 17.—Everything is quiet here after the trouble and excitement of Tuesday which brought death by burning to two negroes, Reid and Cato. Court has adjourned and court officials have gone. Troops have returned to Savannah and this little city has resumed its usual business. There were rumors that some suspects who were released from jail Tuesday evening because there was no evidence on which to hold them had been lynched in the country, but it is discredited.

Fatal Loop the Loop.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 17.—Clarence De Ryder, a cyclist, was killed while attempting to "loop the loop" at a local resort here. When he reached the upper side of the loop his wheel left the track and he dove sideways to the ground. His struck the wheel and his neck was broken.

Driver Inexperienced.

Kansas City, Aug. 17.—Five persons were injured in an automobile accident, caused by an inexperienced driver, who drove the machine over a ten-foot embankment near Lee's Summit, Mo. The whole party were pitched into a barbed wire fence and all cut and bruised.

THE OSSETINIANS.

A Race of the Caucasus Mountains With a Georgian Dialect.

In the highest parts of the Caucasus mountains, around the Kasbeek region, there is a tribe, very tall and handsome, which speaks its own peculiar dialect of the Georgian language and has its own peculiar customs, differing in many ways from those of the Tscherkesses, Armenians, Circassians and other tribes that dwell in the same country. It is the tribe of the Ossetinians.

Like the rest of the Caucasus tribes, they have recognized Russia's authority. But they adhere to the claim that they are not descended from Asiatic races, like the other tribes, but that their ancestors were German knights who had gone to the crusades and who, after the disastrous end of the last crusade, had been driven into the wild valleys of the Caucasus, whence it was impossible for them to win their way out and homeward owing to the vigilance of the Moslem foe. So at last they settled down and took wives among the Caucasus mountain women, who have always been noted for their beauty.

It is a strange fact that the Ossetinians understand the science of brewing malt liquors, and they are the only ones who drink beer, the other tribes preferring Asiatic liquors.

THE WORD LIVERY.

It Originally Meant Something Delivered or Freely Given.

Our word livery is derived, through the French, from the Latin liberare, to deliver. Hence a livery originally meant something delivered or freely given, and came to be applied to an allowance of food or clothes.

From Norman times an English nobleman allotted a fixed "livery" of bread, wine and candles to his servants for their private use. A remnant of this system still survives at Oxford and Cambridge, where the fellows of a college are entitled to a daily allowance of food called "commons."

An allowance of provender for a horse was also called a livery, and a horse fed and groomed for its owner at a fixed charge was said to be "at livery."

In the middle ages "livery" was worn by any one who was in any sense in the service of another of superior rank or station.

The trading companies of the city of London used to provide a special attire for their freemen, who became known as liverymen, a title which they still retain.

FEMALE DISORDERS.

These Troubles Are Nearly Always Caused by Torpid Liver, Poor Digestion and Irregular Bowel Movements.

To Permanently Cure Them the Liver, Stomach and Bowels Must Be Put Right.

It is a fact well known to medical men that a very large majority of the weakness, irregularities and disorders peculiar to women are due to a torpid liver and constipated condition of the bowels. In men a diseased liver produces kidney trouble; in women the genital organs being more delicate than the kidneys are first affected, the disease spreading later to the kidneys. To all women who suffer irregular, excessive or suppressed menses, leucorrhœa (whites) womb trouble, pain or irritation we say Prickly Ash Bitters offers you a speedy and permanent relief. It puts the liver in vigorous condition, empties and cleanses the bowels and tones up the female organs. With the liver and bowels active and healthy those distressing bearing down side and back pains, spells of weakness, heart throbbing, faintness, nausea will quickly disappear, giving place to a feeling of vigor and buoyancy of spirits. The eye is brightened, the complexion is cleared, the whole body strengthened and improved, thus changing a weak, nervous, despondent woman into one of sparkling health and cheerfulness. Prickly Ash Bitters is in this respect a boon to suffering womanhood. As a kidney remedy it has merit of the highest order. The experience of years has proven that it is more successful in the mild or chronic forms of kidney disease than any of the widely advertised remedies of the present day.

Accept no substitute. Insist on having the genuine Prickly Ash Bitters with the large figure 3 in red on the front label.

FIRST CONTRIBUTION.

Made by an Episcopal Clergyman of Four Score Years.

Esopus, N. Y., Aug. 17.—George Foster Peabody, treasurer of the Democratic committee, arrived Tuesday afternoon from his summer home at Lake George to visit Judge Parker, and was driven to Rosemount. He had nothing to say concerning his visit. He said incidentally that the first campaign contribution he received as treasurer was from an Episcopal clergyman over eighty years old. The clergyman wrote that while he did not know whether he would live to vote for Parker and Davis, he wanted to send a dollar bill, all he could afford, with the hope that the campaign fund would be made up of the dollars of 1,000,000 voters, rather than the larger gifts of rich men.

UP TO STOESSEL.

Has a Perfect Right to Surrender Port Arthur if He Desires.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—The announcement of the mikado's offer to allow non-combatants to leave Port Arthur, coupled with the demand for surrender of the garrison, causes a revulsion of feeling here. The original report that non-combatants would be permitted to depart before storming operations began is regarded as a humane and considerate act. The war office is without official confirmation of the summons served upon General Stoessel, but not the slightest idea exists in military circles that he will yield so long as food and ammunition hold out without a fight to protect defenseless women and other non-combatants from bombardment.

"General Stoessel, as an independent commander would have a perfect right under Russian military regulations to surrender at discretion," said a member of the general staff to a correspondent of the Associated Press, "but it may be safely assumed Stoessel will not create a new precedent in Russian history. Our military annals do not show a single case where a commander yielded a fortress upon demand of the enemy in order to avoid a fight. Sebastopol was taken by storm."

FOOD STUFFS.

Great Britain Has Raised Question as to Being Contraband.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—Great Britain has formally raised the whole question of food stuffs as contraband of war and legality of sinking neutral ships in a communication to the Russian government presented through Ambassador Hardinge. The views are practically those embodied in the king's speech at the proroguing of parliament. The communication takes exception to Russian doctrine that foods stuffs are contraband, takes position against the right of Russia to sink neutral merchantment, and demands compensation in case of Knight Commander.

FROM KUROPATKIN.

Gladly Anticipates Meeting the Foe and Proving Fidelity.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from General Korupatkin, dated from Anshanshan and conveying congratulations of the army to the emperor on the birth of their to the throne says: "We await the decisive battle with the Japanese army advancing upon us, gladly anticipating meeting the foe and proving our fidelity to our emperor and country."

Japs Have Tsian Hill.

Mukden, Aug. 17.—The Japanese occupied Tsian hill on the Russian extreme left. A small force of Japanese infantry occupied Dapindu pass Aug. 15. The Russian outposts retired.

Whereabouts Unknown.

London, Aug. 17.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says the whereabouts of the armored cruisers Gromoboi and Rossia are unknown.

Porte Sends Formal Note.

Constantinople, Aug. 17.—The porte has addressed a formal note to the American legation confirming its undertaking to accord equal treatment to American schools and kindred institutions as that granted to most favored nation, "subject to accomplishment of usual departmental formalities."

Run Down by a Car.

St. Louis, Aug. 17.—Joseph A. Schaefer, aged thirty-seven, a World's fair visitor from Beaumont, Ark., was instantly killed Tuesday night while walking on the street car tracks, near the exposition grounds. He was run down by a street car.

Was Abandoned.

Louisville, Aug. 17.—Unable to secure the horses necessary for mounting the Pythian brigade officers and their staffs, General Carnahan decided to abandon the review and inspection.

...mall guard about the prisoners withdrew into the room and closed the door. The mob crashed against it, bursting it as though it was an egg shell. The prisoners were at their mercy, all resistance having been beaten down. Cato, Reed, Handy Bell and the other prisoners cowed before the crowd. They dragged Cato and Reed out, releasing Bell into the hands of the few soldiers left there as soon as they had learned he was Reed, for whom they had mistaken him.

Reed was taken down one stairway with a rope about his neck, and Cato down the other, both pleading for their lives. The crowd now numbered 500. Shouting, they dragged the men down the roadway leading to the Hodges homestead where the five members of the family had been murdered and burned.

That was their destination. The heat was so intense that the crowd was tired when two miles had been traversed. Going several hundred yards from the road, the crowd halted. The two negroes were made to seat themselves on a log. They were told that they had but a short time to live, and that they should confess. Reed was the first to speak. He confessed, implicating other negroes. He denied, however, that he had taken an active part in the murder. Cato answered incoherently. The crowd moved across a field to a strip of woodland. Several men climbed to branches and called for ropes. "Burn them!" "Burn them!" shouted the crowd.

Cato begged to be shot or hanged, saying he was innocent, for that he had had no part in the crime. Some of the more humane wanted to grant his request, but they were in the minority. The rest wanted to visit the same death upon the negroes that they had visited upon the Hodges family.

A member of the mob made a speech, recounting the horrors of the crime. This inflamed the crowd to the burning pitch. With their backs to a stump twelve feet high the men were fastened with chains. Then a wagonload of pine wood was hauled to the spot. It was piled around the men and then gallons of kerosene was thrown over them. A photographer was in the crowd and he took several views of the men bound to the stakes and ready for the burning.

These scene which followed beggars description. Frenzied cheers rent the air as men almost crazed with the hatred of the men being punished saw the cruel flames drinking up the life blood. Just as the match was applied to the pyre one of those in front asked Reed if he didn't want to tell the truth before he died.

"Yes, sir; I killed Mr. and Mrs. Hodges," he replied.

"Who killed the children?" he was asked.

"Handy Bell," came the response, as the flames leaped upwards and further questioning was impossible in the wild tumult. The spectacle was frightful. As the flames leaped about Reed's naked body, with the oil-soaked skin, he twisted his head around in an endeavor to coke himself and avoid the fearful torture. Only once did he complain. He said, "Lord, have mercy!"

Cato screamed in agony and begged that he be shot. His heavy hair, which was oilsoaked, was almost the first thing the flames fastened on, and screaming with agony, while the hemp rope became a collar of fire around his neck, a thrill or horror ran through the frames of the more timid. Before the flames had quenched Cato's life, the rope was burned in two, and his head swung from side to side as he endeavored to avoid the fiery tongue. By effort almost super-human he writhed under the close locked chains. For only about three minutes was he visible to the crowd before the great pile of fagots made a wall of flame, which the wind swept around on Cato's side and hid him from view.

Reed was the first to become unconscious and was, perhaps, the first dead. Before the flames had progressed far up his body his head sank forward and many believed that the fire got into his lungs. As Cato's head swung to and fro some of the more excited members of the party commenced to throw light wood knots at it.

As soon as it was seen that the men were dead, the crowd commenced dispersing. A large number remained behind, however, piling more fuel on, until both bodies were burned all except the trunks. Others employed themselves in threshing out the fire which commenced spreading along the dry streaks of pine needles.

Ardmore, Aug. 17.—An unknown negro broke into Chin Ock's restaurant with a view or robbing a trunk containing money. On his failure to open the trunk the negro tried to carry it off, which aroused Chin Ock from his slumber, who grabbed a frying pan of hot grease and threw it on him; then knocked the negro down with the frying pan. The negro ran over the Chinaman and escaped.

Heavy Forest Fires.

Missoula, Mont., Aug. 16.—Heavy forest fires are raging in the hills close around Bonita, some twenty-four miles east of Missoula. The fires, which started four days ago, spread with rapidity over a vast territory, causing great damage. For the past few days from seventy-five to 100 men have been fighting the fires without any apparent success. The upper sawmill camp of Andrew McMullen had to be abandoned owing to proximity of the flames. Thousands of railroad ties have been destroyed.

Jefferson Better.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., Aug. 16.—Joseph Jefferson, actor, has been ill for a day or two at Crow's Nest, his summer home here. A doctor called from Boston, stated the trouble was a severe attack of indigestion, which remedies soon relieved. Mr. Jefferson is said to be much improved.

BLUE AND GRAY.

Grand Army Men and Confederate Veterans Clasp Hands.

Boston, Aug. 16.—One of the striking features of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment Monday was a reception which Governor Bates held in honor of a party of distinguished southerners, all ex-Confederate officers, who are attending the encampment. Captain Edward S Gay of Atlanta, Ga., responded for the Confederates, expressing the deep gratification that exists throughout the south at the frienlly act of a northern Grand Aarmy post (Edward W. Kinsley, No. 13, of Boston), in inviting himself and comrades to come and break bread with them.

The most notable gathering of Monday evening, aside from the camp fire, was the banquet in historic Faneuil hall, tendered by Edward W. Kinsley post, No. 13, of Boston, to a score of former Confederate officers and to Lafayette post, No. 140, of New York City. Commander J. J. Little of Lafayette post, the first speaker, paid a tribute to the guests from the south, who, he said, had joined hands with the north in supoprting "Old Glory"—one country, one flag, one citizensip.

Before introducing Rev. E. A. Horton, the chaplain of Kingston post, Toastmaster Taylor declared it was worth all the "gold brick" Philippine islands had cost to see reunited by means of the Spanish war the people of the north and the south.

The succeeding speakers, including Governor Bates, who offered the welcome of Massachusetts; Colonel J. A. Anderson, of Kinsley post; Commander-in-Chief John C. Black, of the Grand Army of the Republic, who extended a greeting to the Confederate officers, and who declared that every trace of hostility betwen the north and the south had been obliterated, and General John B. Castleman of Louisville, Ky., who dwelt upon the spirit of union between the north and south.

The last speaker was Captain Gay of Atlanta, Ga.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Biennial Conclave Begins Business In Kentucky Metropolis.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—A simple ceremony—the formal transfer of Camp Marion E. Taylor from the local executive comimttee, which has placed it in readiness, to the Knights of Pythias, for whom it was prepared—marked the formal opening of this organization's biennial conclave of 1904. The exercises occurred at 4 o'clock in the presenc eof about 10,000 people. Marion E. Taylor, chairman of the executive committee on arrangements, formally presented the tented city which bears his name, to Tracy R. Bangs, supreme chancelior of the knights, who turned the camp over to General James R. Carnahan of Indianapolis, commanding uniform rank, the general speaking briefly in acknowledgement. The adjutant general's flag was then thrown to the breeze and the salute fired by Battery A of Wheling, W. Va.

At night the electric decorations in the business district were set ablaze, to the delight of the thousands which thronged the streets.

ROAD A CERTAINTY.

McKinney and Bonham to Be Connected by Interurban Line.

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 16.—The consultation at the parlors of the Binkley House between H. Wodson of Chicago, also representing his associates, and a large delegation of leading business men and property owners of McKinney, Bonham, Valdasta, Blue Ridge, Trenton and Randolph, resulted in the signing of an agreement whereby an electric railway is to be built from Bonham to McKinney, a distance of forty miles, and that work is to be begun within ninety days and to be proceeded with to completion with no unnecessary delay.

Street car lines will also be operated in McKinney and Bonham.

WONDERFUL MEMORY.

Negro Gives Some Remarkable Demonstrations at Denison.

Denison, Tex., Aug. 16.—J. W. Gilmer, a negro extra gang laborer, entertained a crowd of railroad men at the brick office by an exhibition which demonstrated that he has a remarkable memory. Standing with his hands before him in the form of a book, the negro repeated whole chapters of the Bible, and page after page of other books.

Gilmer said that he could read a book three times and then repeat it word for word. He held his hands in front of his face, and says that the words seem to pass before his eyes. The demonstration was remarkable. Gilmer is forty-two years of age.

REID TO HANG.

Verdict and Sentence Received With Much Applause.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 16.—In the superior court of Bullock county, at Statesboro, Tuesday, the trial of the alleged murderers of Henry Hodges and his family were resumed. Paul Reid was found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged Sept. 9. Will Cato, who was convicted Monday, was sentenced to die at the same time. Judge Daily told the men they did not have a chance on earth to escape the gollows. The verdict and sentence were received with a most pronounced applause of those in the court room. Reid and Cato in their statements both confessed complicity in the crime and said robbery was their purpose.

A special from Statesboro said trouble was imminent and some of the soldiers had been disarmed by citizens. Judge Daily stoo don the court house steps pleading for quiet. Lynching was feared at any moment. A riot call was sounded.

The Western Union telegraph operator at Statesboro was seized by a mob and the office closed Tuesday afternoon.

GRAND ARMY PARADE.

About Twenty-Five Thousand Veterans Were In Procession.

Boston, Aug. 16.—Tuesday dawned clear and fairly cool for the great parade of the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, and in honor of the occasion the day was generally observed as a holiday by all classes of business. From California to Maine and Massachusetts and from states between the hosts have come, and at 10 o'clock, the hour set for the parade to move, 25,000 were in line. Along the line of march at every available point, viewing stands had been built and these began to fill early, particularly those on Boston Common. Arrangements had been made for veterans who were physically unable to engage in the parade or who did not care to do so to view the procession from a stand in Winthrop square. During Monday night final decorations were placed and Tuesday the center of the city was one mammoth display of flags, bunting and streamers of red, white and blue. Decorations have never been more general or more elaborate for any event in this city. In the formation of the parade Edward H. Kisley post of Boston was given the place of honor that it might be an escort ot Colonel J. C. Black, commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Charles H. McConnell, chief of staff.

Forty-two states and two territories were represented in the column, besides the Potomac division, made up of old guards of Washington. Each state comprised a division with the exception of Massachusetts, of which there were two divisions, there being 135 posts in line from this state. New England posts numbered about 7000 men, New York had two battalions, Wets Virginia eighteen posts, Kentucky twelve posts, North Dakota ten and Minnesota thirteen posts. The Maryland delegation numbered about 1000 men and that from Ohio about 720. California was represented by two posts and Oregon by one. It is estimated the column required about three hours to pass one point.

MAY BE INJURED.

Commercial Bodies Will Send Resolutions to Secretary Hay.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Representatives of various commercial bodies of San Francisco are considering action in relation to threatened injuries to Pacific coast commerce with the orient on account of the Russo-Japanese war. The opinion expressed is that danger to American vessels is by no means over because of the recent defeats of Russian fleets, but the danger will continue as long as the war lasts. A committee has been appointed to draw up resolutions to be forwarded to Secretary Hay and also to confer with officers of the Pacific Mail company. The Pacific Mail company is reported as chartering the ship Aztec to carry merchandise to the far east.

Protest Presented.

London, Aug. 16.—Ambassador Benckendorff, carrying out the instructions of Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, presented to Foreign Secretary Lansdowne the official protest from his government against the alleged flagrant violation of international law and neutrality by Japanese torpedo boat destroyers at Chefoo. The protest is in the nature of a circular to all powers and recites the facts as already published.

Entirely Satisfied.

London, Aug. 16.—Japan has notified Germany that she is entirely satisfied with the latter's course toward the Russian vessel at Tsing Tau and Germany has advised Japan she is quite willing to permit Japanese vessels to enter Tsing Tau harbor so her commander may convince herself that the Russians really disarmed such ships as failed to leave the harbor within twenty-four hours.

Has Been Delivered.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The formal British protest against the treatment of neutral ships was delivered to the Russian government Tuesday. It follows the line of Foreign Secretary Lansdowne's and Premier Balfour's recent statements on the subject in parliament.

MADE A SORTIE.

Russian Port Arthur Fleet Went Out, but Returned.

Chefoo, Aug. 16.—The Russian ships at Port Arthur made a sortie early Tuesday. It is reported they did not encounter the Japanese fleet. The vessels returned to Port Arthur.

James P. Ashcraft, a Texarkana pioneer, is dead.

ARE MINING.

Japanese Evidently Intend Doing Some Underground Firing.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—A dispatch received from Chefoo dated Aug. 16, and giving undated advices from Port Arthur, says that the Japanese, during a bombardment occupied strongly fortified positions. After two hours several of the Japanese were silenced.

The Japanese, these advices say, are no longer trying to place their guns in the higher positions, which are too easily reached by the fire from the fortress, but are busying themselves with mining operations against the defenses.

OCCUPIED BY JAPS.

They Are Believed to Have Secured Important Positions.

Chefoo, Aug. 17.—Tuesday's sortie of the Russian warships from Port Arthur, is regarded as a confirmation of the previous reports that the Japanese have occupied important land positions, the fire from which compelled the Russian vessels to leave the harbor. It is not certain that they returned to their former anchorage after the battle.

Junks which left Port Arthur Aug. 13, report that heavy fighting was continuing.

Struck It Out.

Lewiston, Idaho, Aug. 16.—The Democratic state convention struck out the Dubois anti-Mormon resolutions from the platform by a vote of 133 to 131 early Tuesday after a night devoted to debate.

Offer Delivered.

London, Aug. 17.—The Yokohama to release the non-combatants at Port that the cruiser Novik of the Port Arthur squadron has been sighted off the Strait of Vandiemen, steering for Vladivostok.

Tokio, Aug. 17.—The emperor's offer to release the no-combatants at Port Arthur, coupled with a demand for the surrender, was delivered.

A Peculiar Ornament.

Berlin has probably one of the most peculiar ornaments for a reading room that has ever been seen in a similar position in a civilized country. This is a gravestone which stands, large and massive, in one corner of a small room. It is not only a gravestone, but is in its legitimate position at the head of a grave. The history of its location in the house is interesting. It was not put up in the house, but the house was built around the stone. Its original position was in the burial grounds in the churchyard at St. Hedwig's.

How Could He Help It?

He—Do you think marriages are made in heaven? She—I don't know. Perhaps they are, but I'd be satisfied with one made in—or, that is, of course, I wasn't thinking what—oh, Charlie, do you really mean it?—Chicago Record-Herald.

Nothing Definite.

Her Mother—Mr. Sloman has been coming to see you for quite a long while, Maude. What are his intentions? Do you know? She—Well, I think he inteuds to keep on coming.—Philadelphia Press.

Some Observations.

They say Hearst spent $500,000 in his campaign. Whether he is wise or unwise, it must be conceeded that he is rich.

A wealthy sugar refiner in France has offered to buy a considerable group of the Phillipine islands if the United States will sell. The trouble is he wants to be the sole ruler and set up a government of his own.

A statesman named Bower has been nominated for congress in Pennsylvania. After looking over recent majorities in that district, the joker remarks that he will probably be the left Bower.

Curtis writes from Manila that the two faults of Americans are "criticising the government," and "not going to church." But then, the same things happen here. He says that the British marauders in India and Burmah are very religious and devout.

The dredging of New York Harbor must be resumed. The new White Star liner Baltic, now the largest ship afloat, draws thirty-six and one half feet, while the depth of the channel at high tide is only thirty-four feet. She cannot load to full capacity till the channel is cleared.

Navigating the St. Lawrence in the summer is especially dangerous on account of the fogs which prevail. To overcome this and enable steamships to pass up and down the river, an electric cable has been laid along the channel. An instrument on the steamer indicates any deviation from the channel.

It seems that the King of England is always late at church, and has ordered that the sermons must never be over fifteen minutes long. But then he behaves quite well in church—never snores, does not whisper, does not turn round every-time some one comes in, and never puts a nickel in the plate.

A lot of college-bred girls in central New Jersey, taking advantage of the scarcity of farm hands, have gone into the field and are making it fashionable to do a man's day's work for pay—$2.00 a day. Some scores have survived the blisters on their hands from work and on their necks from exposure, and will presist to the end.

There is money enough if the right persons have it—an average of ninety-four dollars for every family in the country. Of the total money in the United States, estimated by the Comptroller of the Currency at $2,688,000,000, over one half is outside of the treasury and the banking institutions and is in daily use in business.

About all the telephone lines in this country have been built within the past twenty-five years. The lines of the Bell system include four hundred thousand miles of wire, reaching twenty thousand cities, towns and villages. And yet it is thought the work of contsruction is in its infancy. Climatic conditions, mountain ranges and rivers are no longer impassable barriers.

Is Charles M. Schwab one of the most generous and self-sacrificing men ever known in business? It is said that he has voluntarily paid back to his associates in the Bethlehem Steel Co., the one million dollars which they put in, receiving nothing for it. It sounds magnificant; about a million poor folks who bought steel stocks and lost one half of their investment are anxiously waiting for him to come 'round and earn their blessing.

There never has been such a worthless report of a great war as that which drizzles from the censors and cable concerning the Russo-Japanese contest. Wireless telegraphy is all very well, but a liarless service is what we need. If some American corrrespondent on the shores of China sea would throw down his pen and come home and give the public a coherrent statement of the strength and attitudes of armies, he would do much to illuminate the situation.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thougt of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nervine will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great stomach, liver and kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Overton Drug Co.

Judge J. M. Mallett of Cleburne has been nominated by the peoples party in this district as the candidate for congress. The Judge is a staunch and unswerving man in his devotion to principle and is in all respects a most worthy and able citizen. The nominating convention met at Ft. Worth on the 10th.

An old ex-confederate who lives at Dublin, has for some time been drawing a pension from the state, dut retunded the pittance paid him last quarter. With the check he said he had just come into posession of funds to supply all his necessary wants and until the money was exhausted he could not consistently receive aid from the state. Proud as we are of the bravery of the battlefield shown by the sons of the south land, we are prouder stillof the honor in time of peace. Theman who returns money which his conscience will not allow him to keep is as brave and noble as any hero that ever climbed over bayonets to victory.— Honey Grove Signal.

Never Used Soap.

"You need not bother about alcholic drinks and tobacco if you keep your blood cool and avoid indigestion," said David Miley, of the Bronx in New York, who says he is 103 years old.

"I never ride on an elevated train or trolley car, because I consider it bad for my stomach. My father lived to be 125 years old, and I am about to beat his record."

Miley has lived in this country for nearly seventy years. He attributes his long life to the fact that he selects all his own food. He is not a "medicine man," and frowns on all drugs except those he has prepared himself. He does not like to tell what plants and herbs he uses. After rising in the morning he works a while in his garden and then goes to the bakery and selects his own stale bread, which is the only kind he uses. With a pot of weak tea or soup, this constitutes his meal. After smoking his pipe for some time he takes a walk for a mile or more, though he has been known to walk from his home, near 175th street, as far as twenty-fifth street.

"I am not fond of lager beer," said the old man, "because that has too many chemicals in it.

When I do drink it I put a lump of sugar in it. I have never had a doctor and I have never had my picture taken. I have never used soap in my life, nor have I ever called upon a barber. I attribute my long life to the fact that I eat stale bread and other food, which prevents indigestion by keeping the stomach cool."

JUST ONE DAY

Free From the Slugger Brought out a Fact.

"During the time I was a coffee drinker," says an Iowa woman, "I was nervous, had spells with my heart, smothering spells, headache, stomach trouble, liver and kidney trouble. I did not know for years what made me have those spells. I would frequently sink away as though my last hour had come.

"For 27 years I suffered thus and used bottles of medicine enough to set up a drug store,—capsules, pills and everything I heard of. Spent lots of money but I was sick nearly all the time, sometimes I was so nervous I could not hold a plate in my hands; and other times I thought I would surely die sitting at the table.

"This went on until about two years ago when one dav I did not use any coffee and I noticed I was not so nervous and told my husband about it. He had been telling me that it might be the coffee but I said, 'No, I have been drinking coffee all my life and it cannot be.' But after this I thought I would try and do without it and drink hot water. I did this for several days but got tired of the hot water and went to drinking coffee and as soon as I began coffee again I was nervous again. This proved that it was the coffee that caused my troubles.

"We had tried Postum but had not made it right and did not like it, but now I decided to give it another trial so I read the directions on the package carefully and made it after these directions and it was simply delicious, so we quit coffee for good and the results are wonderful. Before, I could not sleep, but now I go to bed and sleep sound, am not a bit nervous now but work hard and can walk miles. Nervous headaches are gone, my heart does not bother me any more like it did and I don't have any of the smothering spells and would you believe it? I am getting fat. We drink Postum now and nothing else and even my husband's headaches have disappeared: we both sleep sound and healthy now and that's a blessing." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken snddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Grifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

Death of Little Lee.

Lee, the little ten months and eleven days old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Eakins, died at the family home in this city last Friday morning after a brief illness and was buried at the new Dublin cemetery at 9 a. m. on the following day. Mr. and Mrs. Eakins have the entire sympathy of our people in this death of their little child.

TO ZACK AND TENNIE EAKINS:

The little cradle is vacant
Where Darling Lee did sleep,
But he's resting on his Saviour's breast,
That rest so pure and sweet.

Then Tennie think how happy
Among the Angel band
Your Darling little Baby,
Stands there with beckoning hands.

Oh Zack won't you be faithful,
Your Saviour's cause to own,
Then you will meet your little Lee,
Around our Father's Throne.

Then you will be so happy,
If all of you are there,
To sing the praise of Jesus,
And a golden crown to wear.

You will never more be parted,
You will never know a sigh,
You will never know a heartache,
You will never, never die.

Those hands are calling mama,
To that bright world above,
Where she can see her Saviour,
And sing redeeming love.

Those hands are calling papa,
And I'm sure it won't be long,
Till you shall meet your little Lee,
And sing that sweet, sweet song.

They are calling for brothers and sisters,
To love their Saviour Dear,
To put all their trust in Jesus,
Then, a crown of life they will wear.

Our Darling little Babies,
Are walking hand in hand,
Around the Throne of Jesus,
Joined in that glorious band.

Will you go with us to meet them,
And hear the Saviour say,
Welcome, welcome, weary ones,
With me forever stay.

—By J. A. E., Hico, Texas.

TO LITTLE LEE:

When this life's troubles are over,
And we with the angels be
May we be an unbroken family,
My sweet boy Lee.

I know he is waiting
And looking for me,
Now don't be uneasy,
We are coming to thee.

When you were with us,
And in your merry glee,
It's sad to see how shortly,
The parting from us Lee.

Now wait sweet child 'twill not be long,
Till family will welcome thee.
Though troubles meet our pathway,
We are surely coming Lee.

Farewell on earth sweet child
Angels were beckoning for thee,
And onward we march
To live in heaven with Lee.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic. Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Card of Thanks.

We hereby extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who offered their sympathy and many kind words of encouragement in our late bereavement. It caused us to feel that kindness was the exemplar of happiness on earth and a step toward a home in Heaven. We feel sadly bereaved over the loss of our sweet little babe, Lee, but we know it was God's will that he was taken from us, and this too served to emphasize the uncertainty of life, for our babe was sick only a few days. Again we would thank the loved people of Dubin for their kindness and assure them that it will be remembered by us.—Zack Eakins and Family.

Letter to Jordan-St. Clair Co. Dublin, Texas

Dear Sirs: Would you rather have yonr customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water, and taking a shine; or wag their heads and say nothing?

We'd rather have ours, at long intervals say: "We want some more paint and we want Devoe." We know it isn't in human nature to paint very often; we don't expect them to come very often; don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint whenever they paint it; the longer the time the surer they are to come back.

There's business enough in the world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time.

If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes tc last a life time, and shoe the whole town. Yours truly,

The city council held its regular monthly session last night and attended to routine business. Outside of this there was no special business transacted except to authorize the mayor and city secretary to issue script to the amount of $406.25, bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent, to take up out standing indebtedness for which there is no funds in the treasury. The city treasury is in a very bad financial way with no immediate prospects of relief—in fact the contracted expense is in excess of the possible income at the present tax rate and a deficiency of about $2,000 already exists.

R. H. Fowler and wife of Dublin were here last week for a visit to their grand-children, the children of Mrs. W. J. McElroy of the Acton neighborhood....Ralph Bowden has purchased Dave Gardner's interest in the Bowden Drug Co., and is now sole proprietor. He will not, however, devote himself entirely to the store, but has turned over the business management of the house to Harley Cherry.—Granbury News, Aug. 18th.

The total tax valuations in Comanche county this year amounts to the sum of $6,000,879 against $5,117,831 for last year. Of this sum $3,675,950 was for a total of 491,244 acres of land, $516,818 for city and town property, $13,122 for horses and mules, $32,043 for cattle, jacks and jennetts $4,606, $2,707 for 2594 sheep, 25,860 for hogs to the number of 9670 and $1,394 for 109 dogs. The poll tax assessment aggregated 3,323.

Ed S. Whitacre of the Lingleville country was here last Saturday with the corpse of Dr. Campbell, brother of R. P. Campbell of Lingleville, who died at the latter's home Friday of congestion. Dr. Campbell was a resident of Geneva, Alabama, an dhad been visiting his brother for two weeks. He was sick on his arrival and gradually grew worse until death occurred. The body was shipped to his home in Alabama for interment.

Prof. D. S. Ligon of Lingleville, who has for several years past been superintendent of the Christian college at Lingleville, has resigned that position and his successor has been elected. Pro. A party composed of E. F. Jones and wife, Misses Alma Russell and Laura Crash, Capt. Cherry, Dr. Borders and F. A. Schnable of Stephenville, passed through Dublin Tuesday night en route home from a trip to Galveston, to which place they went last Saturday. The party originally consisted of about thirty people, all of whom had returned home except those named.

A Hico lady took her false teeth out and laid them on the center table one night recently, when her husband, to play a joke on her substituted a horseshoe in their place. She wore the horseshoe all the forenoon, complaining that her "teeth didn't fit," and only discovered the change by the wide gash the toe calk made when she bit a biscuit.—Hamilton Rustler.

Miss Ella Stine returned the first of the week from Henrietta, after a stay of two months with her uncle, J. D. Stine. While there she attended the summer normal and received as a reward for her diligence, a first grade certificate. Miss Ella has been elected as first assistant teacher in the public schools at Lingleville.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Hyomei—Only Guaranteed Cure for This Common and Disagreeable Disease.

Hyomei cures catarrh by the simple method of breating it into the air passages and lungs. It kills the germs of catarrh poison, heals and soothes the irritated mucous membrane and effectually drives this disease from the system.

If you have any of the following symptoms, catarrhal germs are are at work somewhere in the mucous membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes or tissues of the lungs.

Offensive breath, huskiness of the voice, dryness of the nose, discharge from the nose, pain across the eyes, stoppage of the nose at night, pain in the back of the head, aching of the body, pain in the front of the head, droppings in the throat, teudency to take cold, tickling back of the palate, burning pain in the throat, formation of crusts in the nose, hawking to clear the throat, dryness of the throat in the morning, pain in the chest, loss of strength, a cough, spasms of coughing, stitch in side, cough short and hacking, losing of flesh, cough worse nights and mornings, variable appetite, loss in vital force, low spirited at times, a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest, raising of frothy mucous, expectorating yellow matter, difficulty in breathing, frequent sneezing.

Hyomei will destroy activity of all catarrhal germs in the respiratory organs and in a few weeks the cure will be complete.

This is a strong statement, but Overton Drug Co. emphasizes it by agreeing to refund your money if Hyomei does not cure.

St.Clair-Davies.

The Baptist church in this city was the scene of a lovely wedding on last Wednesday evening, August the seventeenth, when Miss Willie Davies and Mr. Elbert G. St.Clair plighted their mutual troths which made them man and wife.

The church presented a fairy spectacle in its decorations of white and green. The organ behind the altar was concealed by a perfect bank of palms and ferns, their luxuriant foliage forming a lovely back ground.

Several hundred guests had assembled to witness the marriage rite of these popular young people, among them being the boys of the Dublin Fire Department, of which Miss Willie is sponsor. They were in full uniform and like the remainder of those fortunate enough to be present were eager for a glimpse of the beautiful bride.

A hush fell over the assembly when Miss Pearl Moore attended by Mr. W. Scott Birdsong rendered in her usual exquisite manner "Traumerei."

The strains dying away the bridal procession entered to those of Mendelssohn's immortal march.

Rev. Richardson, pastor of the McKinney Presbyterian church, then entered and took his place at the alter. Then came the attendants, Mr. Walter Williams and Miss Jannette Files, Mr. Maurice Reid and Miss Susie Files, Mr. Babe Morrison and Miss May Williams, Mr. Robert Fry and Miss Jewell Files and Mr. Grief Herndon and Mrs. Lcra Files Cunningham, of Waxahachie, the beautiful young Matron-of-honor.

The bridegroom entered on the arm of his best man, Mr. Ely Herndon, then the bride with her sister and Maid-of-honor, Miss Minnie Davies. They were preceded to the altar by their attendants, where they met and the impressive ceremony was said during the sweet low strains of Mendelsshon's "Spring Song" played by Miss Moore.

The bride has always been considered beautiful, but in her elegant robes of white mousselline over white taffeta, she was if possible more lovely than ever. Her gown was a beautiful creation, elaborate in its trimmings of chiffon roses and teneriffe wheels.

The bride's maids were attired all in white with low coiffuire. The bride and her maids carried cluster boquets of lillies of the valley and maiden hair ferns.

The ushers were a group of lovely young girls—friends of the bride, namely, Misses Nina Higginbotham, Ellen Harris, Lottie Maloney and Hattie Moore.

Following the ceremony a beautiful course luncheon was tendered the bridal party and the relatives at the elegant home of the groom's brother, Mr. J. R. St.Clair. Here a delightful time was spent—one feature of especial interest was a flash light picture of the bridal party being made while assembled in the parlor.

The bride's gift to her maids were beautiful little signet rings engraved with their initial, while the groom gave to his attendants stick pins set with pearl.

The entire bridal party accompanied the bride and groom to the station where they departed on the 12:15 train for Kansas City, Chicago an St. Louis, where they will spend a few weeks. The bride's going-away gown was a lovely brown taffeta with brown velvet dots, front of ecru venise points over white and collar decoration of blue battenburg rings. She wore a brown tailormade hat which accorded perfectly with her gown. At the train the bride threw her boquet from the window and a general scramble ensued among the young ladies. It was secured by Miss Hattie Moore, who will by popular superstition be the next bride.

The collection of presents was one of the largest and the most handsome ever seen in this city, including, cut glass, silver, fine china and handsome linen, also many beautiful pieces of furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. St.Clair are among Dublin's most popular young people. The bride has been reared among us from childhood, and is a general favorite for her sweet, sunny disposition and charming manner The groom is one of our prominent young business men and a member of one of our oldest and best families. The Progress extends congratulations and hopes that on the sea of life this young couple will find the sailing easy and pleasant.

TOLD BY KAMIMURA.

Japanese Vice Admiral Gives Account of Sunday's Fight.

ROUTS THE RUSSIANS

After Battle Lasting Over Five Hours and During Which the Rurik Went Down the Other Vessels Departed.

Tokio, Aug. 16.—Admiral Kamimura, in his detailed report on last Sunday's victory of the Vladivostok squadron, says:

"At dawn Sunday morning the armored cruisers Idzumo, Captain Injichti; the Aduma, Captain Fujii; the Tokawa, Captain Yoshimatsu, and the Iwate, Captain Taketomi, while engged in a search off Funsan, Korea, discovered three of the Vladivostok squadron steaming southward. Seeing us, the enemy endeavored to flee northward. We immediately closed their retreat. The engagement opened at 5:23 a. m. The Rurik being the slowest of the enemy's vesesls, was constantly left behind and she formed a target for our incessant fire. The Roosia and the Gromoboi gallantly attempted several times to protect the Rurik. They frequently returned to the Rurik, nd when united the three advanced together. Our fleet thus had the advantage and pouring its fire from a formation in the shape of the letter "I." The enemy's ships were seen to be on fire several times, sowing thereby that thy were reavily damaged. The Rurik was finally disabled anl her fire weakened. She began lowering in the water, listing to port The Roosia and Gromoboi finally abandoned the Rurik. Just then our north detachment, consisting of the protected cruisers Naniwa, Captain Wada, and the Takeshio, Captain Mori, having been seen attacking the Rurik, our squadron pursued the Roosia and Gromoboi. Severe fighting continued for several hours, the Rossia and Gromoboi escaped to the northward at full speed. At 10:19 a. m. our squadron changed its course to starboard and went south in search of the Rurik. In the meantime the Rurik had been sunk. Our ships steamed over the locality and succeeded in saving 600 members of the Rurik's crew. Our damage was not serious. The spirit of our men was excellent."

FURTHER NORTH.

Chinese Bandits Are Preparing to Sack Liao Yang.

Berlin, Aug. 16.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Liao Yang indicates a belief in the retirement further north of the Russian army. The dispatch says that the Russo-Chinese bank at Liao Yang is preparing to remove to Tielinghsien, and that the bank at Mukden is apparently about to close. The authorities, the lispatch says, have heard that 1200 Chinese bandits are preparing to sack Liao Yang as soon as it is evcuated by the Russians.

The heavy rains have converted the country into a swamp.

RUSSIA'S PROTEST.

It Is Not Expected to Evoke an Immediate Response.

St. Petersburg, Aug 16.—Russia's protest against the violation of Chinese neutrality by Japan in connection with the Ryeshiteini incident at Chefoo is not expected for the foreign office to evoke an immediate response from the powers. International action therefore is not regarded as likely at present unless the authorities at Washington change their mind and decide to press the question before the powers

PORT ARTHUR'S FALL.

General Stoessel Sends Wife and Children to Chefoo.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The expectation here is that Port Arthur will fall at any moment. Special significance is attached to the fact that Lieutenant General Stoessel's wife and children went to Chefoo on board the torpedo boat destroyer Ryeshiteini.

Has Sailing Orlers.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The cruiser Division of the Baltic squadron, has received sailing orders. Some of the vessels have already left Cronstadt and others, including the Oleg, will leave in a few days. The Division may go round the Cape of Good Hope, where it will meet coalers. The battleship division is awaiting the completion of the repairs to the Oreland and is not likely to start for a week or fortnight.

Russia's New Loan.

London, Aug. 16.—The Moscow correspondent of the Standard says that Russia has arranged a new loan with France of $50,000,000 at 5 per cent, repayable in six years, the issue price to be 99¾.

Rescued Six Hundred.

Tokio, Aug. 16.—Vice Admiral Kamimura rescued 600 of the crew of the Russian cruiser Rurik, sunk by his squadron off Tau island.

Glazoff Appointed.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—General Glazoff has been appointed minister of public instruction.

Old River Man Suicides.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—Captain Andrew J. Byars, seventy years of age, one of the few remaining ante-bellum Mississippi river men, is dead, as the result of wounds inflicted by himself with a revolver. He took his life because he believed he had outlived the business he had followed for sixty years.

Oilhouse Burning.

London, Aug. 17.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tokio says that a big oil warehouse at Port Arthur was blazing furiously, and that the position of the besieged was such that the Japanese were urging them to surrender.

Important Questions.

Pekin, Aug. 17.—The Chinese railways have been asked if they have sufficient rolling stock, and how quickly they can transport 40,000 troops to Shan Haikawan.

PROROGUING BRIEF.

King Edward Had Little to Say In Opening Parliament.

London, Aug. 16.—After an admittedly barren session marked by no less than seven fruitless attempts on the part of the opposition to turn out the government on vote of censure, parliament was prorogued Monday, no more than twenty-five members being present, including one member of the cabinet.

The king's speech proroguing parliament was brief. After mentioning his visits to the king of Denmark and the German emperor, at which he said his reception in each case was most cordial and the agreement between France and Great Britain, which, he pointed out, will be advantageous to all concerned and materially strengthen the friendship uniting Great Britain and France, the king said:

"Hostilities, I regret to say, are still in progress between Russia and Japan. Upon the outbreak of war I issued a proclamation, declaring neutrality and enjoining all my people to a strict observance thereof. Important questions, involving the treatment of neutral commerce in the hands of belligerents, have arisen in connection with these operations. The issues involved, which are of the gravest moment to the trade of the empire, will, I trust, be amicably settled without prejudice to the vast commercial interest of this country. My government will energetically support my subjects in the exercise of rights recognized by international law as belonging to neutrals."

RADIUM FOUND.

Precious Ore Has Been Discovered at Three Different Places.

Denver, Aug. 16.—The News says: Radium ore has been discovered at three different places in the Cripple Creed district. At two places ore has been found in a well defined vein, averaging from eighteen inches to two feet in width. Thousands of dollars' worth of the precious ore has been thrown over the dumps by people operating mines in sections referred to because they did not know it was of any value.

One Killed, Seven Hurt.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 16.—One person was killed and seven slightly injured early Tuesday by the overturning of a car on the Camden and Trenton trolley line at Hatch's Corner, near Delair, N. J. As the car approached a sharp curve a brake chain broke. The car jumped the track and toppled over. Conductor Robert Holloway fell underneath the car and was crushed to death. Injuries to passengers consisted of slight bruises and cuts from flying glass.

CIRCULATING LIBRARIES.

They Were Started by the Stationers of the Middle Ages.

The earliest form of circulating library was the lending out of books for hire by stationers of the middle ages, but this was of very limited extent. In the reign of Henry IV, Richard of Bury, bishop of Durham, left his valuable library for the use of Oxford students. Two provisions are very practical, one being that no book was to go into circulation unless there was a duplicate; the other, that the borrower had to deposit security exceeding the value of the book.

Dunfermline, Scotland, established the first proper library of this description in 1711, Edinburgh following in 1725 with one founded by Allen Ramsay. The first public one in England was established in Salisbury by a clergyman, Fancourt, in 1740. This failed to survive, but others in Bath, and at London in the Strand, succeeded in becoming popular. Many London scientific societies established circulating libraries in the eighteenth century, and in the nineteenth they became far more widely spread.—London Globe.

Old Maids.

The true "old maid," like the true poet, is born, not made, old maidishness being a question of innate character rather than of incidental condition. There are old maids of every state and age and sex, says Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, creatures who revel in fuss, and batten upon detail, and abide in the narrowest of narrow ruts. Do we not all know married women with large families who are, nevertheless, old maids to the backbone, just as we know adorable elderly spinsters who have the minds of girls and the hearts of mothers? And do we not also know numbers of the (so called) stronger sex whose absorption in trifles and avidity for gossip proclaim them old maids of the purest water?

A Man to Dodge.

"Look at Baker, out on a day like this without an umbrella. Is he crazy?"

"I'm afraid he is. Let's hurry on. I don't want to meet him."

"Why not?"

"He may recognize this umbrella. It's his."

Among Them.

Clara—Do you know, Maud, Mr. Smithers paid me a great compliment last night?

"No. What did he say?"

"He said I was among the prettiest girls at the party."

"Yes, I noticed you were among them."

MRS. HENRY DEAD.

Prominent Texas Lady Departs This Life at Home In Dallas.

Dallas, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Cornelia Jamison Henry, wife of Judge John L. Henry, and one of the best known Texas ladies, died at the family residence Tuesday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Henry has been a resident fo Texas since 1859, and twenty-five years a resident of this city. She was sixty-eight years old.

Mrs. Henry was state regent of the Texas organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution and first vice president and ex-officio member of the board of managers of the Colonial Dames.

Hibernians Retrench.

Dallas, Aug. 17.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians manifested a desire to economize in incidental expenses and reduced secretary's salary from $240 to $150 and expenses of delegates to state conventions cut down.

Collision on Santa Fe.

One Engineer Perhaps Fatsily Hurt, a Fireman Badly Injured.

Lampasas, Tex., Aug. 16.—A double header stock train collided with local freight train No. 71 in the Santa Fe yards about a mile from this city, and three men, all of Temple, were serious injured. These are G. B. Delhoorne, engineer, injured internally and may die; Jim Whitehurst, fireman, fracture of skull, and G. A. Felder, engineer, ribs broken.

Two cars of cattle and one car of sheep and four other cars caught fire and burned up.

CHOPS HEAD OPEN.

Victim Was Defending His Daughter When Crime Was Done.

El Paso, Aug. 16.—Salem Lopez, a section foreman, it is alleged, was beating his wife. His father-in-law attempted to make him desist. Lopez then chopped the old man's head open with an ax and fled.

One Burglar Slain.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—In attempting to elude policemen and detectives early Tuesday Chester Severson, one of four burglars, was shot and instantly killed. None of the alleged thieves are more than seventeen years old, Severson being the oldest and probably the leader of the gang. The other robbers were arrested.

ASKOLD'S LOSSES.

Total Number of Casualties Is Placed at Fifty-Eight.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—Captain Reitenstein, commander of the cruiser division of the Port Arthur squadron, reports to the naval general staff that the cruiser Askold, owing to the damage which she sustained in the naval battle off Port Arthur, was obliged to enter the port of Shanghai on Aug. 12, and that her losses were one officer killed and three wounded and ten sailors killed and forty-four wounded.

SENT TO MIKADO.

Russia's Protest Transmitted by the French to Japan.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Russia's protest against Japanese violation of Chinese neutrality at Chefoo has been transmitted to the mikado's government by the French legation at Tokio, acting purely as an intermediary of Russia, which has not made any representations to France on the subject. The latter, a neutral power, is not directly concerned, and has no reason for intervening in any manner at the present time. The impression in well informed circles here is that the whole question is not urgent and it will be solved diplomatically. News that the Russian legation at Pekin protested to the Chinese government on account of the latter's permitting breach of neutrality in its territory is officially confirmed.

ALEXIEF ARRIVES.

Is at Vladivostok and Presented With Bread and Salt.

Vladivostok, Aug. 16.—Viceroy Alexeeff arrived Monday. He was received at the railroad station by Admiral Skrydloff, General Linevitch, the governor of the maritime provinve and other notable persons. Escorted by mounted volunteers the viceroy drove to the cathedral, where he attended service. At the governor's house the mayor presented him with bread and salt. He then received several deputations, including one from the Chinese inhabitants.

JAPS LOST SHIP.

Officers of Russian Battleship Insist That It Is a Fact.

Chefoo, Aug. 16.—A telegram received from Tsing Tau says the officers of the Russian battleship Czarevitch insist that a Japanese battleship sank within full view during the battle on the night of Aug. 10.

A creditable report states that the Russian protected cruiser Pallada was sunk during the engagement on the same night.

Says She Was Sunk.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Official advices received here Tuesday state Japanese commander in chief reports the Russian cruiser Pallada was sunk by Japanese torpedoboats on the night of Aug. 10. A cablegram on the subject received by the Japanese legation from the foreign office at Tokio says: "According to the latest reports from Admiral Togo, a Russian vessel of the Pallada type is believed to have been sunk by our torpedoboats during the attack on the night of Aug. 10."

Have Been Dismantled.

Tsing Tau, Aug. 16.—The Russian battleships Czarevitch and three torpedoboat destroyers now in the hands of the local German government for repairs, have been dismantled.

PYTHIAN PARADE.

Only Drawback Was the Number and Quality of Horses.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 17.—Under fair skies twenty-six brigades of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, over 10,000 strong, passed in review before the people of Louisville Tuesday. Over 100,000 people lined the route of the parade, three miles in length, and cheered the militatant order as they marched past in trim service uniforms or dress-parade regalia, with scarlet plumes and glittering trappings.

Despite a drawback in the number and quality of the horses, furnished visitors, which according to the general staff prevented nearly 2000 men from participating, the pageant was a gorgeous success. General Carnahan, commander in chief, was a very wrathful man when the parade drew near, and he took note of the quality of beasts offered for mounts.

"Look at that plug," he ejaculated, pointing to a tired looking animal, whose legs were garnished with nearly all the humps mentioned in the horse book. "If they expect me to ride him, they are mistaken. They would egg me out of the parade if the poor brute could stagger through it. And this in the home of the thoroughbred!"

At the last moment General Carnahan was furnished with a suitable horse, but three cavalry companies and many officers were forced to enter the parade unmounted, while others did not participate at all.

The Phillipine constabulary band, which led the parade, was one of the features receiving a tremendous ovation all along the route.

Twenty-six states were represented by brigades, notably among which was the Major H. Teller brigade of Texas.

There was a grand ball at night.

First session of the grand lodge was held Tuesday, but little business done.

LONG PROCESSION.

Twenty-Six Thousand Men Were In Line of March.

Boston, Aug. 17.—Twenty-six thousand survivors of the Union forces which fought in the Civil war marched through the streets of historic Boston Tuesday, and over 500,000 people, who had assembled from all sections of the United States, saw pass in review the Grand Army of the Republic.

At the state house the parade was reviewed by Governor Van Sant of Minnesota and several former Massachusetts governors, Senator Lodge and Booker T. Washington.

At the city hall Mayor Collins and former mayors and the mayors of nearby cities saw the pageant, and on Boylston street Commander in Chief Black reviewed comrades who had come from forty-two states and two territories.

ALLOTMENT SUIT.

First of Several Has Been Filed by the Katy Railway.

St. Louis, Aug. 17.—A special to the Republic from Muskogee, I. T., says: The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company has filed suit in court here against James Bullitt, a citizen of the Creek nation, for possession of an allotment. This is the first of several suits which will be filed by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway to test its claim against the government to every alternate section of land for five miles on each side of its right of way through the Indian Territory. In 1886, it is claimed by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, congress made a grant to the first railroad that would build a line through the Territory from the Kansas line to the Texas line. There are 3,290 acres of land involved, it is claimed, and some good towns in the Territory are on these sections.

IDAHO DEMOCRATS.

Heitfeld Nominated For Governor and Polygamy Denounced.

Lewiston, Ida., Aug. 17.—Henry Heitfeld, ex-United States senator, was nominated by the Democratic convention for governor. Following resolution was adopted:

"We demand the extermination of polygamy and unlawful co-habitation within the borders of Idaho, and the complete separation of church and state in political affairs.

"We pledge the Democratic party to enact such legislation as will eventually suppress this evil."

Nothing Done.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Mayor Harrison, after talking with the strikers' representatives, said for the present there was nothing he could do to end the strike. The strikers were willing to take up negotiations with the packers, but the latter refused to meet the strikers. Mayor Harrison announced that he would drop the matter for the present.

VERDICT WAS GUILTY

Only Eight Minutes Required by the Jury to Decide.

PRAYS DURING TRIAL

Members of the "Before Day Club" Guarded by Militia of Georgia, but There Was No Demonstration Made.

Statesboro, Ga., Aug. 16.—At 7:18 o'clock Monday night the jury in the case of the state vs. Will Cate, returned a verdict of guilty after being out eight minutes. Judge Daly immediately adjourned court until 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, without passing sentence on the prisoner.

There were less than one hundred persons in the court rom when the jury returned its verdict. Ther was not the slightest evidence of pleasure or displeasure at the ujry's finding, as the verdict was anticipated before th trial commenced.

As soon as Judge Daly announced a recess the courtroom was cleared and after waiting a half hour the prisoners were escorted back to the jail under a heavy guard. Stationed every few feet from the courthouse to the jail were armed men with fixed bayonets. After 6 o'clock no one was allowed to enter the courthouse, heavy guards being placed at each of the four entrances.

In spite of the wild rumors all was quiet here Monday. Before court opened men were seen in groups on the streets and sidewalks but a request from a military officer was sufficient to disperse them. Judge Daly found the local military already on duty. The talk of lynching was more prevalent outside of Statesboro. Rev. H. A. Hodges of Texas, a brother of Henry Hodges, who, with his wife and three children, was murdered, opened court with prayer. He prayed for the spirit of a sound mind, a godly judgment, an unbiased verdict and for the observance of the laws. He pleaded that the people stand by the court in his action.

The state was represented by Gen. A. M. Deal and Daniel Groover. Judge Daly urged that the guilty be punished and the innocent be given freedom. "The entire country stands at your back when you observe the law," said Judge Daly; "but no one is with you when you violate the law. I consider it a personal insult to me if the law is violated."

Captain Hitch and the Oglethorpe Light Infantry of Savannah, reached the city at 1:30 o'clock. Captain Hitch assumed charge of the military forces, which numbered 100 men.

The following negroes were in the courtroom under military guard: Will Cato, Paul Reed, Will Rainey, Handy Bell, Dave Young, Elias Young, A. J. Gaines, David Bennett, Philip Decasse, Ben Pendennis, Hattie Reel, Ophelia Cato and Louis Cooper. All the parties are supposed to belong to the "Before Day club."

An unusual scene was presented at the opening of the court Monday afternoon. The grand jury reported, indicting Reed and Cato for the murder of Henry Hodges. Cato was ready for trial and a jury was selected. The state elected to try the men separately. The indictments brought only one charge, the murder of Hodges.

WAS NO LYNCHING.

There Was Great Excitement at Statesboro, However.

Atlanta, Aug. 16.—A report came to Atlanta from Statesboro, Ga., that fifteen negroes, alleged to be implicated in the killing of the Hodges family, had been swung up by a mob at 4 o'clock Monday morning. Advices are that the story is untrue, although great excitement prevails. There are 1000 armed men in Statesboro.

The murder of the Hodges family was a diabolical one. The father was shot down in his barnyard and the mother and little daughter both criminally assaulted and murdered.

Lay Like One Dead.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 16.—George Gardner Monday night defeated Jim Jeffords in the third round, knocking him out with a right swing to the jaw that laid the flesh open and sent the Californian reeling to the floor. Jeffords lay like one dead for several moments and was in his corner for about three minutes before he was able to comprehending anything.

Emptied Gun In Congregation.

Shreveport, La., Aug. 16.—Four miles below here some negroes had a fight outside a church. A gun was emptied into the congregation. One negro is dead and another fatally wounded.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

COMANCHE.

From the Visitor.

August 18th.—Some two hundred Comanche people spent last Sunday at the big camp meeting on Indian creek.

Their numerous friends wish them a long and happy married life.

Mrs. John Sullivan and family spent Tuesday in Dublin visiting relatives.

Five or six bales of cotton was sold here yesterday. About 9c50 was paid for same.

Populist executive committee met in this city Friday and laid plans for a vigorous campaign.

Quite a lot of machinery for the oil mill has arrived. The work on the building is progressing slowly.

Albert Shipman and Miss Susie Tarver were married at the home of the bride, J. R. West, Sunday.

The new Christian church building is about completed and is one of the handsomest churches in Comanche and has a greater capacity.

The annual reunion of the Cunningham-Homsley family was held at Newburg Monday. We learn that there were 236 of the relatives present.

Dr. J. B. Hall, Misses May Hall and Dennie Welch left Sunday for St. Louis to attend the fair. Miss May will visit relatives in Arkansas and east Texas before returning.

Gustine boys have organized a brass band of fourteen pieces. A teacher has been employed and before many weeks the people of that section will listen to some good band music.

Dock Stewart and Miss Viola Allen stole a march on their friends Saturday night and came to town, secured a marriage license and Judge Jackson spoke the words that made them husband and wife.

Drs. Wynn, Thomas, Gray and Chilton operated on Mrs. Douglass Saturday evening for appendicitis and gall stone of the bladder. The operation was very successful and up to the hour of going to press she was getting along nicely.

Mr. Tom Pruitt and Miss Clara Nabors were married at the home of the bride yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and left on the 6:35 train for Birmingham and Mobile, Ala., on a bridal trip. Miss Clara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nabors and Mr. Pruitt is one of Comanche's young business men.

Several odd Fellows will go from here to Bibb Saturday night for the purpose of organizing a lodge at that place. This great order is growing very rapidly throughout the nation.

A stock company was formed at Gustine some weeks ago for the purpose of erecting an immense stone business house at that place. The lumber of this building was hauled out this and last week and it is said that the stone work is progressing rapidly.

Wednesday morning while Ernest Gore who lives seven miles south of town, was out hunting, he accidently shot himself through the foot, inflicting a very serious wound. He was brought to town at once and the wound dressed by Drs. Wynn and Thomas.

PURVES.

Regular Correspondence.

Aug. 18th.—W. M. Harris brought the Purves gin its first bale of cotton. The bale weighed with seed 1,700 pounds and net 590 and was ginned through without a stop. The bale was bought by Goodwin Bros. at a price of ten cents a pound and a premium of $10.00 was donated by our townspeople. Many farmers were on hand to see how the gin worked.

Drs. A. F. Upton and Scott are having an office erected for their use.

The side walls of the rock building being erected by Goodwin Bros. have been completed.

J. T. Chambers is building a neat little cottage in our burg, which he will occupy as soon as completed.

Jno. T. Simmons and Monroe Isham left this morning for a fishing and general outing trip on the Colorado.

Burl Caudle, a prominent citizen of our community, took a pleasure trip to Galveston the latter part of last week.

While scuffling with another young man last Thursday Will Burnett had the misfortune of crushing a bone in his right leg.

Leonard Anderson is again in our midst. He has been engaged in the restaurant business at Comanche for the past three months, but last week sold his business there to Dave Ray of Dublin.

STEPHENVILLE.

From the Tribune.

Aug 12th.—T. J. Hicks brought to our office this week an enormous radish measuring twelve inches in circumference.

Mrs. Swan Jordan, who has been visiting relatives at Comanche, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Murphy returned yesterday from Proctor where she has been visiting her parents.

Mrs. Leon Sensabaugh of Dublin, came over Wednesday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Frank.

Ernest Hall moved his family up from Bluff Dale Tuesday. He has accepted a position with H. L. Kight to keep books at his new gin.

J. H. Gordon, the gardner, brought to our office Tuesday morning a stalk of June corn, which is fifteen feet high and measures seven and one-half inches in circumference at the bottom. The strangest thing about it is, there is not a single ear of corn on the stalk. The corn was planted in March and plainly shows that June corn planted early in this country will not produce anything but stalk.

News reached here this week of the death at Corsicana Monday, the 8th inst., of Mrs. M. V. LaBeaume, who lived in this town for many years prior to 1894. She had been in poor health for some time, and was recently operated on in Ft. Worth for gall stones. The operation was successful, and fifty-two stones removed, but the pressure had so impaired the liver and other organs as to make recovery impossible. She was about sixty years old.

On account of a disagreement between Major Baldwin of the electric light plant and the city council, Stephenville is now in utter darkness after nightfall except the illumination afforded by the silvery crescent and the little stars, which have not yet gone on a strike. The city council had agreed to pay the light people $300 a year for forty lights and lights were to be furnished to individuals at one dollar per month each. The light people reduced this to half the sum and the council refused to pay more than one hundred dollars.

At 4 o'clock last Sunday afternoon at the residence of Mr. N. E. Booher a few neighbors and friends gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. Frank S. Booher and Miss Stella Gilbert of Dublin. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. W. H. Terry and then refreshments were served consisting of cake, ice cream, mellons, etc. Mr. Booher and his sweet young bride left on the afternoon train for Dublin to visit the brides' parents, and will go from there to Galveston and other points. The Empire joins a host of friends of this popular young couple in wishing them much and unalloyed happiness.

The train bearing the Stephenville party, composed of Ed Richards and wife, Chas. Neblett and wife and sister, Tommie, Miss Lillian Caver, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Compton, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Leverette, who live four miles west of town, was wrecked at Vineta, I. T. the morning after leaving here. All were in a rear car which did not leave the track, except Mr. and Mrs. Leverette. They were in a froward coach which was thrown off, and they were considerably bruised, but no bones were broken. A large number of other passengers were also hurt, but fortunately no one was killed.
