SCENE OF HIGHWAY TRAGEDY—Six persons lost their lives in this collision 3½ miles southwest of Snyder last night. In the 1955 Oldsmobile at left were three Snyderites, while an Oklahoma Air Force sergeant, his wife and child, were in the 1952 Chevrolet. It was the highest death toll in a single traffic accident in Scurry County in nine years.

Offer Is Rejected By Steelworkers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Union President David J. McDonald said today steelworkers are voting overwhelmingly against accepting the last offer of the steel companies.

A postcard poll by the union of its membership is running 98 per cent for rejection of the offer, he told newsmen.

McDonald said 35,000 postcards have been tabulated so far and that all but 7 per cent supported the union leadership's rejection of the industry's settlement terms.

The union has about 500,000 members.

McDonald said the members voting in the postcard poll do not sign their names and are not identified in any way, thus making it a secret ballot.

McDonald talked with reporters before going into a bargaining session, called by federal mediators, with industry representatives.

The union president made something of a mystery of why he was absent from Tuesday's sessions.

Asked why he had been absent, McDonald said he was "shopping for a Christmas present for the steelworkers and for the country —that is a new labor contract in the stores of the mighty. This store I have found empty."

McDonald accused the industry anew of "utter disregard for collective bargaining and disrespect for the steel workers."

He complained particularly about a statement Tuesday by R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, that if reporters expected any earthshaking developments from the company-by-company negotiations beginning Sunday, they would be better advised to spend their time watching the professional football championship game in Baltimore.

Cooper has said any suggestion the 11 largest steel companies would conclude basic agreements with the union on an individual basis "is wholly without fundation in fact."

McDonald hinted that the union will file a law suit in Pittsburgh next week, but declined to elaborate. He said Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, was busy today "working on documents for presentation to federal court in Pittsburgh next week."

Federal mediation Director Joseph F. Finnegan called off a scheduled bargaining session Tuesday because of McDonald's failure to put in an appearance.

Finnegan avoided any direct criticism of the union president in canceling the afternoon session Tuesday.

But the mediation director said he saw no point in going ahead without McDonald and Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's chief counsel. Finnegan added "This is not my strike. I don't have people out on strike."

Representing the union were Vice President Howard Hague and Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel.

A union spokesman said McDonald and Goldberg were concentrating on two key upcoming events: the separate company talks scheduled to start Sunday and the resumption Monday of the hearing before President Eisenhower's fact-finding panel.

It was obvious from statements of union officials they were placing their hopes on splitting the industry in the company-by-company talks.

Cooper discounted this strategy. He said industry already had conducted such talks five times this year, and was willing to do it again since the union insisted, but that he saw no chance the Sunday meetings would be any more productive than the others.

It appeared, on the other hand, the companies were putting their emphasis on the vote on their last offer which must be held under the Taft-Hartley Act in January.

They issued a formal statement Tuesday night calling this offer "fair to the workers, fair to management and fair to the American people."

Cooper told reporters this offer, unveiled a month ago and promptly rejected by the union, was the one which his side would present to the fact-finding panel next week.

The panel will report the terms to the President. The National Labor Relations Board then will conduct a vote of the 500,000 Steelworkers on its acceptance or rejection, unless a settlement is reached before then.

Abel said the union was conducting an advance post card poll of all its members to find how they stand on the offer. He gave no results.

San Angelo Trio Charged In Burglary

Burglary charges have been filed here against three San Angelo residents, following recovery of part of the loot taken by burglars from the Sportsman's Headquarters on Dec. 2.

District Attorney Wayland G. Holt, Police Chief T. L. Steele and Police Capt. Leonard White went to San Angelo yesterday afternoon and brought back one of the suspects, along with five rifles, a shotgun and two pistols which were identified as having been taken in the burglary..

Carmen Rodriquez of San Angelo was returned here and charged with burglary.

Steele and White returned to San Angelo today to transfer Frank Lopez and Raul Martinez, two other suspects, to Snyder. Lopez and Martinez are in the custody of the San Angelo Police Dept. which had worked with Snyder police on the case.

Holt said two rifles and a pistol were found in a house owned by the mother of one of the suspects, another rifle and another pistol were found in a house where one of the suspects lived, while two other rifles and the shotgun were found hidden in a pasture.

Two more pistols, a pellet gun and two more rifles are still missing.

Six Persons Killed In Highway Crash

Six persons perished in one of the worst highway tragedies in Scurry County history at about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday when two automobiles crashed head-on about 3½ miles southwest of Snyder on Highway 350.

Dead were Donald Ray Haney, 23, Route 1; Snyder; Mrs. Donald Ray (Barbara) Haney, 24; Robert J. Bearden, 24, 3766 Avenue V; M-Sgt. Elmo Carroll Buford, 45, of Altus, Okla.; Mrs. Catherine Hope Buford, 33; Ellen Winnelle Buford, 2½.

Mr. and Mrs. Haney and Bearden were in a 1955 Oldsmobile headed toward Snyder, while Mr. and Mrs. Buford and their young daughter were in a 1952 Chevrolet headed toward Big Spring.

The two cars collided near the top of a hill.

The impact virtually demolished both vehicles, scattering shattered glass, seat cushions and personal belongings of the occupants over the highway and into the barrow ditches on either side of the road.

Highway patrolmen, who along with officers from the Scurry County Sheriff's Dept., went to the scene, said the automobiles were driven by Haney and Sgt. Buford.

The Buford family was en route from Altus Air Force Base to Midland to visit his brother, W. D. Buford. Mr. and Mrs. Haney and Bearden were returning to Snyder from Big Spring.

Ambulances from both Bell and Bolger Funeral homes in Snyder went to the scene, and a truck from the Snyder Fire Dept. was called to standby while the wreckage was cleared from the highway. Gasoline from both cars saturated the road.

Two wreckers were required to pull the two cars apart.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Haney and Bearden were at the Bolger Funeral Home where funeral arrangements were pending.

Airmen from Webb Air Force base at Big Spring this morning transferred the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Buford and their daughter from Bell Funeral Home here to Lawton, Okla.

The death toll in last night's crash was the highest for a single accident in Scurry County since Nov. 13, 1950, when six persons were killed in a two-car collision seven miles east of Snyder on the Roby Highway.

The traffic fatality count for 1959 now stands at 10 for the county.

Elsewhere in the state, multiple-death automobile crashes claimed 11 more victims late Tuesday and early today. Three teen-agers died near Lyford in South Texas this morning when their car and a train collided.

Five were killed in a traffic mishap near Olney yesterday while three died in a crash near Kilgore.

Funeral services for Robert Bearden will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Trinity Methodist Church, with Rev. Elton Wyatt officiating, assisted by Glen Pace, minister of the Twenty-fifth Street church of Chrjst.

Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Bearden served four years in the Navy and was active in the Navy Reserve. He was a junior student at Texas Tech and a member of the Methodist Church.

Born in Snyder June 16, 1935, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ruby Bearden of Snyder and five brothers, Olin, Ronald and Lowell of Snyder, Clyde of Spur, and Frank of Durango, Colorado.

Double services for Mr. and Mrs. Haney will be held tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the Twenty-fifth Street church of Christ building. Glen Pace, minister for the congregation will officiate, assisted by C. Dale Brooks, minister for the Thirty-seventh Street church.

Burial will be in the Hillside Memorial Gardens under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Haney was born in San Angelo Sept. 22, 1935. She is survived by her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Brown; two daughters, Nikki Jo and Teri Lynn Chambless of Snyder; her grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Haywood of Snyder; one uncle, David Haywood of Snyder; and her father R. C. Rawls of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Born August 13, 1936, in Snyder, Haney is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haney; two step daughters; one brother, Darrell Haney, and maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beavers all of Snyder.

Chamber Holding Annual Election

Ballots have gone out to members of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce for the organization's annual election.

The chamber membership will elect six directors to serve two-year terms. The six new directors will join six holdover directors to compose the chamber board for 1960.

Deadline for casting ballots is Dec. 31.

Twelve nominees have been submitted by the nominating committee. They are Hugh Boren, Jr., Roy Burgess, Joe Cargile, Mel Gilbert, Dave Harlin, Bill Lee, Joe Luther, Charles Musslewhite, Joe Robinson, D. R. Scott, Bill Wilson and Bob Wilson.

Holdover directors are Gene Dulaney, Clyde Hall, Herman Doak, Ike Dolen, Rex Miller and Harry Reed.

Retiring from the board after serving two-year terms are Dr. John Blum, Bill Brown, J. W. Phillips, Malven Stevenson, Bob Clinton and M. L. Broman.

Members of the chamber have been asked to mark their ballots promptly, selecting six of the 12 nominees, and return the ballots to the chamber office.

Names of the new directors will be announced before the January meeting of the board. The new directors will begin their duties officially at the chamber's annual banquet in January.

Strikers Face Payless Yule

HOUSTON (AP)—Striking union members in Houston and Texas City today were picking up Christmas packages, checks and toys—donated by fellow union members as they faced a payless Christmas.

Elsewhere over the state, strikers in Dallas, El Paso, San Antonio, Waco and Fort Worth received donations aimed at helping tide them over the holiday season. The Texas State AFL-CIO reported.

In Houston, members of machinists lodges 12 and 2607, on strike at the Mission Manufacturing Co., received gift checks of $25 each plus $5 for each dependent, according to A. T. Adams, business representative of Machinists District Lodge 37. The Christmas Fund was provided by the Consolidated Stewards Assn. of District 37.

Thousands In Silent Tribute To Last Civil War Veteran

By JIM BOWMAN

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Green-clad Army infantry troops escorted the body of Civil War veteran Walter W. Williams through downtown streets today to a Baptist church where he was eulogized as one of mankind's immortals.

Thousands stood in silent tribute as the military procession left the Civil Courts Building where the body of the 117-year-old Confederate lay in state.

"For years our nation has watched the thinning lines of honored men who gave their lives that our nation might become one in purpose and patriotism among the noblest nations in the world," said The Rev. Dr. S. Stephen McKinney in a sermon prepared for the services.

"And now, with the passing of our noble citizen they have all become men of history, and as such they are immortal."

Williams, last survivor of the War Between the States, died Saturday. Doctors said death followed complications arising from old age.

Two platoons of picked 4th Army troops marched behind the gleaming black hearse bearing the old soldier to the cream-colored brick South Main Baptist church.

Behind them, marched a firing squad and a 25-man fife and drum corps from Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Eight uniformed military pallbearers accompanied the body on foot. Honorary pallbearers rode in a limousine leading the procession.

The Rev. Dr. McKenney, retired Methodist minister, and the Rev. Dr. E. H. Westmoreland, pastor of the church, officated.

The procession was to leave the church immediately after services for Franklin, Tex., 125 miles north of here where military rites were to be administered at graveside.

Williams farmed near the small town for many years upon moving to Texas from Mississippi after the close of the Civil War. He served as a forage master in Hood's Brigade.

"He has achieved an honor to which each of the millions of veterans of our War Between the States earnestly aspired, but never reached, and never can," the Rev. Dr. McKenney said.

"He alone in the providence of God has survived the vast multitude that has gone down into the silent chambers of death before him."

"It is safe to say that no name among our nation's citizenship has come to be better known than that of our own distinguished friend whom we honor today," he continued.

"Tens of thousands of our school children had learned to call him reverently by name . . . He and all his comrades have kissed the lips of immortality, and joined 'the choir invisible whose music is the gladness of the world.'"

The minister concluded: "We will not forget him, or love him less, in the days ahead than we do today. That is an assurance of his conquest over death."

Fire Damages Cotton In Car

Fire in a boxcar of cotton bales on the RS&P siding did an estimated $2,100 damage to 15 bales last night at about 7:30, according to agent Stanford Land. Water damage to the other 85 bales cannot be estimated until it is recompressed and regraded.

"We believe that the cotton had been burning since the car left California", Land stated.

He went on to explain that a fire in a sealed car feeding on tightly compressed cotton would require several days of burning to have done that amount of damage.

The car, enroute to the southeast, had just been transferred from the Santa Fe Railroad when the smoke was noticed. Firemen called to the scene chopped a hole in the top of the box car to extinguish the blaze.

Fire Levels C-City Store

COLORADO CITY, Tex. (AP)—Fire early today destroyed the Piggly Wiggly Grocery and damaged two other businesses housed in the same building.

Fire heavily damaged the C. R. Anthony Department Store and the White Auto Store suffered heavy smoke and water damage.

Firemen said the fire apparently started around compressors in the grocery.

During the height of the fire the mezzanine floor of the Anthony store caved in, and about 95 per cent of the stock in that section was damaged.

The dollar value of the fire loss had not been determined.

School had just turned out for the Christmas holidays, leaving teachers with the aftermath of a gay afternoon and the prospect of being free until Jan. 4.

Numbing Arctic Blast Hits Northeastern U. S. Today

By The Associated Press

A numbing arctic blast hit the Northeast today in the wake of a heavy snowstorm which marked winter's official arrival Tuesday.

Many below-zero recordings were listed throughout the region during the early morning hours.

As the storm moved out of the Northeast, a fresh wintry outburst plastered the upper Mississippi Valley with up to seven inches of snow.

The temperature dropped to a minus 34 at Wanakena in northern New York and 29 below at Saranac Lake in New York State's Adirondack Mountains.

Montpelier, Vt., reported a reading of 8 below and Burlington 2 below. Boston's mark was 12 above.

Maine's lowest was one below at Caribou, but the Weather Bureau warned that the temperature was expected to fall as low as minus 20 in northern Maine tonight.

Tuesday's snowfall, ranging up to 10 inches and setting records for the date in some spots, snarled highway, rail and air traffic.

At least 19 deaths were blamed on the storm and highway accidents caused by slippery roads.

Up to 10 inches of snow fell in areas just north of New York City. New England had 2 to 7 inches.

Commuters and Christmas shoppers bound for New York City were delayed by slow-moving buses, subways and trains. More than 200 flights were delayed or rerouted at La Guardia and Idlewild airports.

Many schools, including 500 in the New York metropolitan area, closed.

Herds of wild deer came out of the woods near Yorktown, N.Y., to forage for food. The animals halted traffic in some spots.

The 16-hour snowfall in New York City was the worst since February 1958. Seven inches was reported in Manhattan.

The Midwestern storm moved slowly eastward from Iowa and Minnesota through Wisconsin and northern Illinois.

It headed into northern Indiana, Michigan and northwest Ohio, with snow, freezing rain and sleet indicated. A belt of sleet or freezing rain appeared likely to precede the snow storm into western New York and Pennsylvania.

Wisconsin and northeast Iowa were hit by the heaviest snow covering in the Midwest, from four to seven inches. Fals in Minnesota and Illinois were more than two inches.

It was cold in most areas from the Rockies to New England.

Cubans Order Newsman Out

By RICHARD VALERIANI

HAVANA (AP) — American newsman James Buchanan today was under orders to get out of Cuba after being convicted of helping an American escape from a Castro prison.

A five-man military court in Pinar del Rio convicted the 43-year-old correspondent for the Miami Herald Tuesday night, gave him a suspended sentence of 14 years and ordered him deported within 24 hours.

"That's good," said Buchanan and left Pinar del Rio for Havana to catch a plane for Miami.

Buchanan was charged with concealing facts about the escape earlier this month of Frank Austin Young of Miami, who broke out of a Pinar del Rio prison after being sentenced to 2 years in prison for leading an armed anti-Castro band.

Buchanan was arrested as he approached Young's hotel room hideout with bandages for the fugitive's injured leg.

In Miami, Lee Hills, executive editor of the Herald and the Knight newspapers, said his organization is "absolutely convinced" that Buchanan "was 'guilty' of nothing except covering a legitimate news story in Cuba."

Hills said the Herald "will continue to cover all legitimate news in Cuba in the future as it has in the past."

The five-man military court was hastily summoned Tuesday although other tribunals were in recess for the Christmas holidays. Earlier in the day the U.S. State Department sent a note to he Cuban Ministry of State presummably requesting expeditious handling of Buchanan's case.

The trial lasted only a few hours.

The prosecution asked for a 20-year sentence. But Oscar Fernandez Jordan, the civilian prosecutor, said Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime would "show its benevelence" by deporting Buchanan.

He accused the editors of the Herald of sending Buchanan to Cuba to help Young flee the country.

"What would happen if a Cuban newsman went to the United States to help a fugitive from justice?" Jordon said. "It would shake the Justice Department."

Buchanan denied aiding Young to escape. He told the court that his purpose in coming to Cuba was to interview the other American and that he brought him bandages only as a humanitarian gesture.

He admitted that he took $20 from Young to pay the dunted man's hotel bill. But he said he tried to get in touch with the U.S. Embassy to explain the situation and was blocked by his arrest.

He added that he had planned to remain in Havana only a few hours after the interview and had already bought his plane ticket home.

Young also took the stand in Buchanan's defense and denied the newsman tried to help his escape. He confirmed Buchanan's testimony about the hotel bill.

Rains Fall Along Front

By The Associated Press

Light rain fell along a weak cold front in Texas Wednesday but forecasts indicated increasingly bright hopes for a mild, dry Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

The cold front at daybreak ran along a line from Ardmore, Okla., to Mineral Wells. Occasional showers also fell in Northeast Texas while skies were cloudy in North Central portions of the state.

Cloudiness and fog mixed with light drizzle over the Texas midlands and skies were clear to partly cloudy in West Texas.

Temperatures varied before dawn from 57 at Palacios to 24 at Dalhart.

A five-day forecast, covering Wednesday through Monday, indicated temperatures near normal in eastern and central portions of the state and from 2 to 5 degrees above normal in West Texas.

Precipitation during the five-day period, the forecasts indicated, would be light to moderate in East Texas and central portions and light to none in West Texas. Most of rain is expected to hit the state Saturday and Sunday.

Tuesday, the first day of winter officially, had maximum temperatures ranging from 76 at Brownsville to 43 at Amarillo. Extremely light rain fell at Wichita Falls, Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, Palacios and Sherman.

Judges Rule Wilson Can Reopen Plant

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A panel of three federal judges today upset an order by Gov. Orville L. Freeman and ruled that Wilson and Co. is entitled to reopen its strikebound Albert Lea, Minn., plant.

The plant was closed Dec. 11 when Gov. Freeman declared martial law.

Freeman and the National Guard were enjoined from interfering with the company's right to have "free and unlimited access to an egress from the plant and property."

The court, however, granted a stay of the injunction until midnight Sunday. Its ruling was unanimous.

Freeman ordered out the National Guard after two days of violence involving striking pickets and non-union workers.

"At the time the governor declared martial law," the court said, "the local government of the City of Albert Lea and the County of Freeborn was functioning. The courts were open, the citizens were moving freely in and about their daily pursuits without danger, except those who desired to continue with their work for plaintiff (Wilson and Co.)...

"The governor possesses no absolute authority to declare martial law. Military rule cannot be imposed upon a community simply because it may have seemed to be more expedient than to enforce the law than by using the National Guard to aid the local civil authorities," the court said.

Santa Makes An Unscheduled Stop

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The yellow train engine made a special stop outside a back yard in Maywood Tuesday and out stepped—

Santa Claus!

For 4-year-old Wayne Thomas it was Christmas ahead of time. Santa and the train crew produced a tree, tricycle, wagon and other toys.

Wayne, who always waves at the crew as they pass his kitchen window twice a day, is partly blind.

He was so excited he didn't notice that conductor Ken Trembley wasn't among the party.

But then, neither did he notice the professional looking "highball" that Santa waved to the engineer as the train chugged away.

Western Allies Are Still Far From Unified, Despite Talks

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

PARIS (AP)—In the wake of the Western summit and NATO talks in Paris, the major Western Allies are still far from unified on four major issues they must negotiate with the Soviet Union. Disunity continues over the military policy of the Atlantic Alliance itself.

The Western Big Four set a pattern for negotiation with the Soviets that might go on for years. But their decision is clearly only the beginning of a beginning.

President Eisenhower, French President Charles de Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer either failed—or did not even try—to resolve their own differences on basic issues, they intend to discuss with Nikita Khrushchev.

Instead they ordered their experts to go to work on building a common front for the proposed April 27 encounter with the Soviet Premier. Leading diplomats confidently explain the experts have four months to resolve the conflicts. But it took them 13 months of dickering to get together on the matter of holding the East-West summit meeting.

A balance sheet of the Paris exchanges, based on what high officials have disclosed, shows:

Summit meetings after 1960. Eisenhower does not consider that the next U.S. administration need be bound by this Western proposal. He, De Gaulle and Adenauer regard the suggested April meeting as largely a probing exercise. But Macmillan believes he has won the agreement of his partners to go on trying, even if the first session's results are slight.

A stopgap Berlin deal: Eisenhower—and Macmillan consider—although they do not say so out loud — that this offers the best chance of a firm agreement at the summit. They are ready to renew an offer the West made in the 1958 Geneva foreign ministers conference, which included a ceiling on armed forces in the divided city and a ban on hostile propaganda.

De Gaulle and Adenauer disagree. They argue that if Khrushchev really wants an end to the cold war, he won't dare revive the Berlin crisis.

Disarm: Eisenhower, Macmillan and, to a lesser extent, De Gaulle believe this could be a fruitful field of negotiation over a long period. Adenauer does not rate the chance of success too high. There is no agreement on the program to offer Khrushchev.

East-West relations: Allied experts still have to agree on what the four Western government chiefs meant in offering this blanket item for summit discussion. Strictly speaking, it might allow raising the matter of Red China and other topics that could generate more heat than light.

Atlantic Alliance affairs: De Gaulle is still playing odd man out. Despite personal pleas by Eisenhower and Macmillan, he refuses to accept U.S.-built nuclear rockets on his soil, to put French forces into the NATO pool, or to accept new military commitments. For their part, Eisenhower and Macmillan refuse to give way to De Gaulle's demand for a greater share in global policy-making.

Non-Farm Worker Rolls Increasing

AUSTIN (AP) — Nonfarm employment in Texas should total 3,025,000 by the first of the year due to holiday buying, the Texas Employment Commission estimates.

The Dec. 1 figure was 2,999,800, an increase of 7,000 over the November total, the commissioner said.

Increases came mainly in primary metals and retail trade.

Major drops were in construction and transportation equipment.

Unemployment rose 15,200 to 162,100 during November, giving the state a ratio of 45 jobless for every 1,000 in the labor force. The ratio compares with 41 per thousand in October and 47 per thousand in November 1958.

Boy Is Buried Alive 7 Minutes

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "There wasn't anything I could think of but to pray and believe me I prayed."

This is what Robert French, 14, said after he was pulled from a cave where he had been buried alive for seven minutes Tuesday.

The crys of French's companions brought Homer Smith, a visitor from Rockford, Ill. Smith had dug the boy's head clear by the time firemen arrived.

Ailments Blamed On TV Viewing

LONDON (AP)—A British medical magazine warned today that too much television can give you anything from a pain in the neck to a heart attack.

The periodical, "The Lancet," emphasized that the incidence of what it dubbed "television collapse" is small. It asserted, however, that prolonged peering may bring on the following ailments:

1. TV neck. Watching from a chair which is too low or too high may cause pain and stiffness among the upper vertebrae.

2. TV thrombosis. Sitting immobile in awkward positions may lead to blood clots in the veins.

3. TV fits. Flickering of the screen may touch off convulsions in borderline epileptics.

4. TV arteries. Slouching in an easy chair may push the heart forward in the chest, producing degeneration of main blood vessels.

5. TV gas pains. Viewers have been known to faint from pain beneath the breastbone caused by eating a heavy meal and then lolling in a cramped posture.

6. TV heart attack. Programs which cause emotional stress may bring on angina pectoris, a pain in the chest accompanied by oppression of the heart.

The Lancet said viewers may head off most of these by getting out of their chairs at least once an hour and taking a brisk walk around the room.

They also should avoid wearing tight belts or girdles.

On the island of Madagascar off the coast of South Africa a thirsty traveler doesn't have to worry much. Find a Ravenala tree, punch it with a sharp stick and about a pint of clear water flows out.

Gore Says Senate To Evaluate Aid

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) says the Senate will make its own evaluation of this country's foreign aid program.

The statement was in answer to a refusal by President Eisenhower to make available to congressional agencies confidential reports on the program.

"President Eisenhower would be well advised to reconsider, for I think his cooperation is going to be necessary to avoid severe action by Congress," Gore said Tuesday.

He added: "This is not an area in which a presidential veto will survive. In this case it is the Congress that can say no."

Gore recently completed a five-week tour to countries where U.S. aid funds are sent.

Irate Pedestrian Walks Over Car

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—A car blocked a cross walk at a downtown intersection Tuesday night so pedestrian Herbert Williams, 38, climbed up a fender, walked across the hood and stepped down on the other side.

Indignant driver Claude Hayes summoned a policeman, who arrested Williams on a charge of damaging private property. The policeman was Bob Hayes, the son of driver Claude, and also owner of the car.

Ike, Mamie Have A Happy Reunion

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a happy family reunion at Andrews Air Force Base Tuesday night when Mamie Eisenhower, gaily dressed in Christmas red, warmly greeted her returning husband, son and daughter-in-law.

She hugged them all and held onto the President's arm in the crush of high ranking well-wishers.

It was obvious Mrs. Eisenhower was pleased at her husband's jovial, ruddy appearance. She had expressed worry over his arduous trip.

For 33-year-old Barbara Eisenhower, who accompanied her famous father-in-law on the 22,000-mile mission, it was the end of the most fabulous journey of her life. Her husband, Maj. John Eisenhower, served as his father's aide on the tour.

Barbara returns today to her role as housewife and mother with her four children in their home near Gettysburg, Pa.

She brought home a collection of exotic gifts and memories of elephant rides, snake charmers, cheering millions and strange lands.

Back home, she jokingly told Vice President and Mrs. Richard M. Nixon she was having trouble remembering to say hello after her efforts at greeting in the languages of the 11 countries she visited.

Barbara had stayed out of the limelight in Washington and had never ridden on a jet plane before this journey. She returned a veteran of motorcades, fanfare and huge crowds.

Looking happy, she said she wasn't a bit tired because "I slept on the plane."

She wore a bright blue coat and carried a small Christmas package. She said it was a present for Mamie she wanted to bring personally.

Barbara's four children remained in Gettysburg awaiting a private reunion with their parents.

Pair Found Slain In Shop

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The charred bodies of a dry cleaning shop operator and his employe were found Tuesday in an apartment. Police said both men apparently were murdered before their bodies were drenched with kerosene and set afire.

The victims were Vernon (Red) Elgin, 59, and Ernest (Slim) Steinert, 55.

Elgin operated the business and lived above it. Acquaintances said it was common knowledge in the neighborhood that he frequently carried $200 or more in cash.

The bodies were found by real estate agent Charles Petty in the cleaning shop. The men had been dead about 36 hours.

Police Sgt. John Walsh said an empty kerosene can was found in the apartment. A bullet hole was found in a window of the dingy apartment and the spent slug was found embedded in a board outside.

Diphtheria Rate Higher Than 1958

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas diphtheria rate is running three times higher than last year but still is under the average of the past five years, the State Health Department says.

Dr. Howard E. Smith, director of preventive medicine for the agency, said Tuesday 139 cases were reported in the first 51 weeks of this year, compared to 49 cases for the same period in 1958.

Smith said the increase in cases this year points up the need for continuance of immunication programs.

Gem Thief Sought In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A bandit who robbed a downtown jewelry store of between $200,000 and $300,000 in gems—while a uniformed policeman stood outside—was sought today.

The well-dressed gunman entered the Paul de Vries-Louis & Co. store during the Christmas shopping rush Tuesday night.

He displayed a pistol, threatened to blow up the store with a liquid-filled vial and left with a clerk, Ralph Ruthe, 56, as hostage. Ruthe was released unharmed two blocks away.

Tickets Voided

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) —Merry Christmas to the holders of 1,400 unpaid overparking tickets. The City of Daytona Beach decided Tuesday to void this backlog and start over.

7 Entries In Contest

Seven entries were logged in the Snyder Junior Chamber of Commerce Christmas decoration contest.

The home decorations entered in the event include Ralph Wesson, 3726 Austin Ave.; Mrs. Fred Marr, 215 Thirty-sixth Street; Linda Miller, 2608 Avenue U; Mrs. Ralph Foster, 2908 Thirty-seventh Street; A. M. Blalock, 3119 Avenue T; Mrs. T. T. Withers, 2607 Avenue I, and Truman Ivison II, 2304 Avenue L.

15-Year-Old Crash Is Discovered

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Burned fragments of a military plane which crashed about 15 years ago provided meager clues for an Air Force salvage team trying to identify the wreckage.

The salvage crew dug the fragments out of its grave in a swamp 20 miles east of here Tuesday. In the cockpit were the remains of the unnamed pilot who went down with the plane.

H. A. Brock, executive officer in charge of the Tallahassee chapter of the Civil Air Patrol, said the plane had blue markings but it was not determined whether it was Air Force or Navy.

J. D. Robberson, Tallahassee sawmill operator, found the crater while on a hunting trip Sunday.

Residents Are Pelted With Pelts

SAN MARINO, Calif. (AP) — Residents were pelted by pelts Tuesday.

Officer Martin Boyle said he heard of it raining cats and dogs—but never Persian lamb and muskrat pelts.

The furs, packaged in sacks, fell in a three-block area. There was no identification on them. Police were unable to estimate their worth.

Some residents reported seeing a plane circling the area when the furry flurry started. But no one is sure where the pelts came from.

HOLIDAY ATTIRE—This costume is made of a new square-cut knit in 100 per cent worsted wool. The delightful coat has cape-like shoulder detail and straight, simple lines. The matching dress is one of those versatile sheaths to be worn for many types of occasions. The neckline is scooped, sleeves are brief, and deep darts flatter the waistline. Great for travel because of its versatility and its complete resistance to crushing of creasing.

Some People Work Hard To Avoid Much Leisure

By NORMA GAUHN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Through the centuries, man has slaved to develop labor-saving devices for his mate.

Fire, the wheel, the steam engine, electricity, chemistry— all have been subdued to make life easier for the little woman.

But the female mind keeps buzzing with new ways to avoid the leisure won by her spouse.

At least this is apparent in a theory developed by Rachele Wall, who took six months to work out her thoughts on leisure.

Mrs. Wall, publicist for the Edison Electric Institute, says leisure is not spent wisely nor well by the great majority of Americans. This, she says, is because people haven't yet grasped that it is an entirely new freedom.

"I call it the freedom for man to rule himself," she says. "We are finding out that as we do less work for others, we can do more ourselves— if we only take advantage of the opportunity."

Americans are unique, Mrs. Wall says, because technological advances have freed them of the physical exertion attached to work while most of the world is still struggling to reach that point. But she notes:

"This freedom becomes suspect, an alien creed, contrary to the religious belief that the labor of man is virtuous."

Mrs. Wall is confident that man's inborn sense of responsibility will make him put free time to better use, once he realizes its boundless advantages for himself. She says, "Man can only waste so much time— then he rebels and wants to use it."

Women, Mrs. Wall says, already are experimenting with widening fields in their modern freedom from household drudgery.

"Rather than falling into a stupor in front of their television sets," she cities these activities:

— Perfecting household skills so that cooking, sewing and other duties become arts.

— Pursuing careers without neglecting household responsibilities.

— Returning to college for advanced degrees after children are grown.

— Seeking public office in political, community and welfare fields.

It is the desire for personal fulfillment, Mrs. Wall says, which has led man to his greatest achievements in art, music, medicine and other cultural advances.

"The society which sets the highest standards of free time and its uses," she adds, "can emerge with greater power than the culture which sacrifices personal responsibility for the dubious glory of war or conquer and divide."

Milkmen Handy To Have Around

BALTIMORE (AP) — Some of the most interesting reading in Baltimore is found not in libraries but in milk bottles.

Take this note, for example:

"Dear Milkman: If you see anything funny going on around here call the police. I think Jack the Bat Man is after me."

Or this one from a working wife:

"Knock on the door until you hear my husband get up. If he oversleeps again he'll lose his job, and you will lose a customer."

Baltimore milkmen say nine out of 10 notes are the run-of-the mill, "please leave and extra quart" variety. But that 10th one is a lulu.

Milk bottle notes indicate many housewives consider their milkman a family confidant, pillar of strength, font of wisdom and general handyman. The handyman type of note is common.

"Leave two quarts and two cigarettes," wrote one housewife. "My husband and I smoked our last during the late-late show."

"Ring the bell when you leave the milk," wrote another. "I want you to help me move a sofa."

Such services are common. Several Baltimore milkmen wake up customers who don't hear their alarm clocks. A few tip-toe into houses on their route and turn the heat up so the family can dress in comfort when its time to get up.

Of course there are gripes:

"Don't bark back at our dog. His barking doesn't wake us up, but yours does."

And suggestions:

"Doesn't any dairy deliver warm milk, already put up in baby bottles?"

The milkmen complain that housewives are stingy with writing paper, dash off notes on paper toweling or facial tissue and then drop them inside the bottles so nobody can get them out.

Some dairies tried to correct this by distributing memo pads, but it didn't work. "Thank you for the nice gift," one woman wrote on a scrap of newspaper.

Milkmen claim it infuriates any woman to have her note read, then crumpled on her doorstep. One offending milkman got two notes. The first note ordered two quarts of milk and the second instructed him not to throw the first one on the sidewalk.

The first patent for chewing gum was issued to William F. Semple of Mount Vernon, Ohio, on Dec. 28, 1869.

Sorority Entertains Husbands

The Iota Psi chapter of ESA entertained their husbands with a dinner Monday evening in the community room of Snyder National Bank.

The tables were gaily decorated with seasonal cloths and napkins with a miniature Santa Claus centerpiece.

Following the dinner the group exchanged gifts and secret sisters were revealed.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed by playing 42.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Corbell, Jr., Mrs. Janell Beasley, Mrs. Anna Stephens and Mrs. Monty Valentine.

Virgil Mott Family Honored Sunday Evening

Sunday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church was the scene of an old-fashioned pounding honoring the Virgil Mott family.

Approximately 200 persons attended the reception, showing their love and appreciation of the the Motts. Mr. Mott is the Minister of Music and Education of the church.

Master of ceremonies was D. D. Shelburne, Mr. Bob Norris led the group in singing familiar Christmas carols. Several selections were presented by the Sub-Debs of Lamar Junior High School accompanied by Mrs. Nan Lee. Miss Diane Ator concluded the program with an old favorite, "White Christmas".

The refreshment table was attractively decorated using the Christmas theme with Mrs. H. H. Eiland and Mrs. Joe Cargile presiding. Others acting as hostesses were Mrs. R. C. Patton, Mrs. Ken Cole, Mrs. R. C. Lunsford, and Mrs. Edd Floyd. The reception was sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. Homer Godair, president.

The Dutch, who first explored Australia in 1613, called the land New Holland.

Gamma Upsilon Holds Dinner

The Gamma Upsilon chapter of ESA held their annual Christmas party recently at the SunRay recreation hall.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. W. W. Springer and Mrs. James Guy.

A delicious meal of baked ham, green beans, candied sweet potatoes, salads, hot rolls, tea and coffee was served. Following the dinner the secret sisters held a gift exchange.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bostick, Mr. and Mrs. Roaal Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Ivison, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Mearse, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Glasscock, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reneau, Mr. and Mrs. James Guy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Confusing Traffic Signs

CHICAGO (AP) — "Women have a knack of getting thing done where men sometimes fail."

That's the assertion of Mrs. Lois C. Northcott as she leads 140,000 women in checking on confusing traffic signs.

She is national director of the Business and Professional Womens Foundation that is directing the civic project under a grant from the Automotive Safety Foundation.

The survey— first of its kind— is being conducted to learn whether traffic signs in different cities and states conform to national standards in shape, color and design.

The women, in 3,300 communities aim to make it easier for motorists to identify traffic signs.

The study is based on the belief that standardized signs can be spotted readily and recognized by drivers who are strangers in an area.

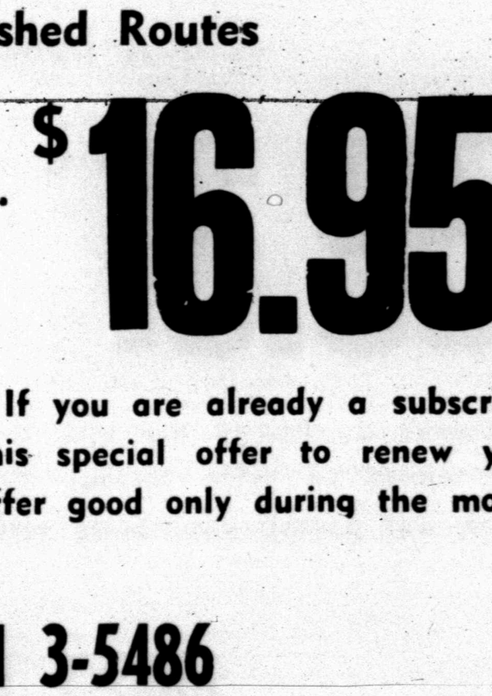

The findings are expected to provide the basis for community action that will bring all traffic signs and signals up to national standards set by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in cooperation with the American Assn. of State Highway Officials.

Mrs. Northcott says the project was undertaken to minimize traffic hazards and save lives.

Shoppers Are Noted For Such-Remarks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Christmas shopper remarks that salespeople get tired of hearing—or overhearing:

"We might as well try on some shoes, Mabel, while we sit here and rest our feet."

"Have you got something like that—for about $20 less?"

"Willie, put down that toy. You've broken three already."

"Yeah, the size is right and the price is okay, but I don't like the color. Don't you have it in purple?"

"Oh, I almost forgot to get something for my husband. Where is the necktie counter?"

"No, I don't know her exact measurements. But I'd say she was about halfway between Marilyn Monroe and Kate Smith. Can't you figure it out from that?"

"Willie, did you have to put your stickly lollipop on the nice cashmere sweater the lady was showing mommy?"

"Be sure and take the price tag off."

"Gimme something for my wife. It don't make any difference what it is. She'll bring it back next week anyway."

"Can you recommend a good book for an 80-year-old spinster who likes crocheting and sports cars?"

"I'd like a toy for an exceptionally bright child—and be sure it's unbreakable."

"What're you getting for Christmas yourself, doll—a package of corn plasters?"

"Where are the rest rooms?"

"If you don't have it, do you know any other place in town that does?"

"He couldn't be buying it for his wife. I happen to know she's allergic to silk—and he's allergic to spending that kind of money on her."

"Willie, you're being very naughty. Hand Santa Claus back his beard—or Mommy will spank you right here in elfland."

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson, the American essayist and poet, who said: "I hate quotations! Tell me what YOU know!"

50s Will Be Recalled As Era When Man Reached For Stars

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—What will history remember best of this decade of the 1950s?

This, no doubt. It was the time when earth-bound man first reached out toward the stars. The satellites and space probes, fantastic as they seem, were only timid preliminaries to the sum total of wonders set in motion in the 1950s.

For each of us these past 10 years have had private meanings. For all of us, depending on who we were and where, they had moments of greatness, bitterness, relief, misgiving, turbulence, torment and defeat.

The most memorable achievements were in science, social justice and the stampede of new nations toward self-realization. The greatest failure was in world politics—in the inability of nations to find real peace.

In this decade, besides devising instruments for journeying into space, men developed the hydrogen bomb and missiles. Either now makes war unthinkable.

It was the period of vaccine against polio and of the nuclear-powered submarine which skimmed under the North Pole ice. Either would have been a landmark in any decade.

It was also in this decade that the U.S. Supreme Court created a landmark of its own when it ruled at last that segregation of human beings because of the color of their skin was wrong and no longer endurable.

It was in this 10-year span that people around the world in China, India, the Middle East and Africa, shaking off the misdirection, exploitation, suppression or lethargy of generations or centuries, were working out their new independence.

Soviet progress in the 1950s shocked Americans into realizing if only dimly so far, its days as No. 1 among nations may be numbered. But the Soviet Union, bragging about leaving America behind, could not escape misgivings, either.

All it had to do was look over its shoulder toward Asia where a billion people, in China and India, were going through convulsions in their efforts to industrialize. When they do, the Soviet Union and America may trail both of them.

Every decade has had some wretched moments, and some soul-searching ones. The 1950s were no exception. This country was split by McCarthyism which began in 1950. Hungary tasted freedom for an instant before the Soviet heel came down.

This was the decade of the Korean war, which settled nothing. It was a time of increasing prosperity, some recessions; when Europe got back on its feet; and heads of state began exchanging visits like country cousins.

Joseph Stalin's death in 1953 brought a whole era of savagery and terror to an end in the Soviet Union, or so it seemed. His more subtle and imaginative successors switched Soviet policy from sullen grunts to jolly goodfellowship talk.

But it was in the field of world politics that mankind once again failed most miserably; it failed to find a real peace.

Whole groups of people, still clinging to the primitive tribal system which is called nationalism nowadays, built up weapons of horror, glared at each other over their missile pads, and mentioned good intentions while talking annihilation.

For this reason the period of 1950s, when man produced his worst weapons, may seem to historians a thousand years from now the stupidest decade on earth. Just as the period neared an end, the big powers decided to talk more—and more amicably.

Only the decade of the 1960s can show whether this new togetherness means anything.

ORANGEMEN ON TOP — Jubilant Syracuse footballers carry coach Ben Schwartzwalder in Los Angeles Coliseum after defeating UCLA, 36-8. The Easterners finished season unbeaten to become the 1959 national college football champions in AP poll.

FLUID DRIVE — Beer drenches Chisox left fielder Al Smith as Comiskey Park fans reach for homer hit by Dodgers' Charley Neal in second World Series game.

TOO MANY RIGHTS — Ingemar Johansson sends Floyd Patterson sprawling in the last round of June title bout at Yankee Stadium. The Swedish challenger won world heavyweight title by dropping Patterson seven times in third round for a TKO.

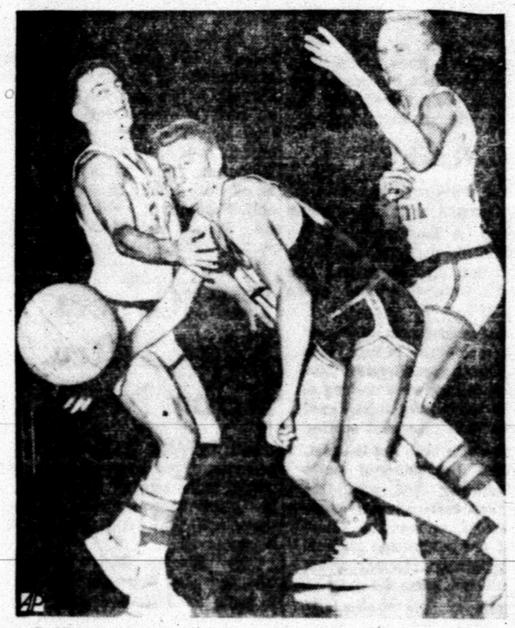

IN VAIN — Pirate lefty Harvey Haddix is a pensive loser after game in May. He pitched 12 perfect innings against Milwaukee Braves, only to lose in the 13th.

TOP GRIDDER — LSU's Billy Cannon, twice All-America, poses with Heisman trophy in New York after selection as top college football player of 1959.

CUP 'N KISS — Billy Casper is kissed by wife, Shirley, after taking U. S. Open title in June. He had a 282 score for 72 holes at the Winged Foot Golf Club.

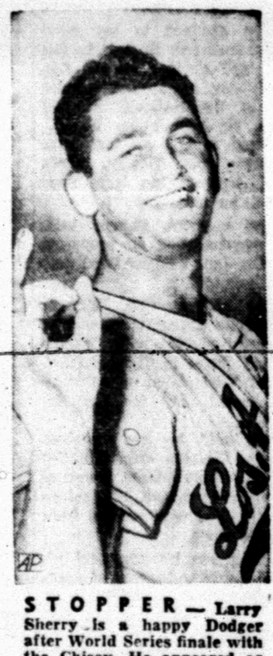

BEARING IN — California's Darrall Imhoff moves past West Virginia's Marv Bolyard, left, and Jim Ritchie in March NCAA final won by California, 71-70.

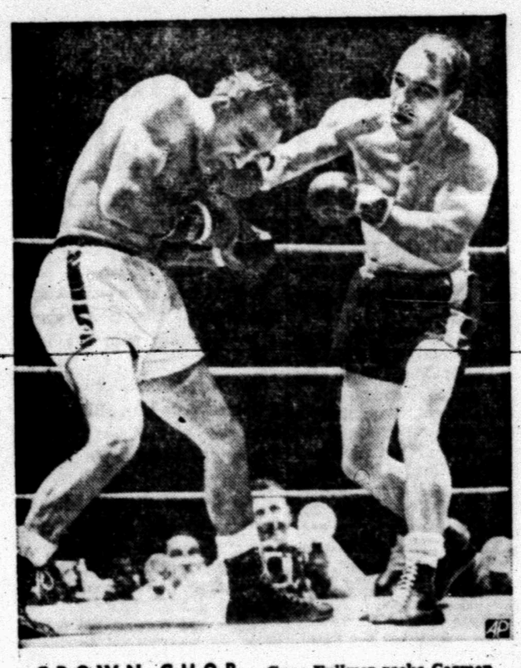

YEAR'S BEST — Sword Dancer was the unanimous choice as the horse of the year. The Brookmeade Stable's chestnut colt was also top money winner in 1959.

HAPPY LANDING — Don Bragg comes down in sawdust after clearing bar at 15 feet, 9½ inches to set world indoor pole vault mark at Philadelphia in February.

STOPPER — Larry Sherry is a happy Dodger after World Series finale with the Chisox. He appeared as reliefer in four games, won two; allowed one earned run.

CROWN CHOP — Gene Fullmer rocks Carmen Basilio with right in 13th round of August middleweight title bout in San Francisco. Fullmer won in next round.

LINKS QUEEN — Barbara McIntire of Lake Park, Fla., smiles with trophy after winning the U. S. Women's Amateur Golf championship at Washington in August.

RUN FOR ROSES — Tomy Lee, right, Willie Shoemaker up, nips Sword Dancer in stretch to win 85th running of Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs in May.

A RECORD ROLL — Boston University's sensational high jumper John Thomas clears bar set at 7 feet, 1¼ inches in National AAU meet at Madison Square Garden in February. His jump is highest ever recorded for either an indoor or outdoor meet.

BEST IN 1959 — Cubs' shortstop Ernie Banks and White Sox second baseman Nellie Fox are the 1959 Most Valuable Players in National and American Leagues.

CUP GOES DOWN UNDER — Australia's Neale Fraser puts away point against Alex Olmedo in opening match of Davis Cup Challenge in New York in August. Fraser defeated Olmedo and Australia went on to wrest the Cup from the United States.

Floyd Pact Disputed By Pro Clubs

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—There appeared to be some question Tuesday night over who had signed to a pro contract Don Floyd Texas Christian All-America tackle.

K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston American Football League team, said through his office that Adams had signed with his club. Floyd announcement last night came after the Baltimore Colts of the National League said Floyd signed up with them Sunday night.

Neither Floyd nor Adams could be reached for further comment.

In Baltimore, Colt General Manager Don Kellett insisted last night that Floyd signed with Baltimore last Saturday.

"He seemed like a good boy and told me at the time, 'I want to play with the best.' As far as we are concerned, he belongs to the Colts and will play here next season," Kellett said.

Texans Sign Tackle

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Henry (Hank) Stram, coach of the Dallas Texans of the American Football League, announced Tuesday signing of Jack Stone, Oregon University tackle.

Brown Is All-Pro Unanimous Choice

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Jarrin' Jimmy Brown was the only unanimous selection in the Baltimore and New York-dominated 1959 all-pro football team picked for The Associated Press by NFL writers today.

The explosive fullback of the Cleveland Browns, who led the league in rushing for the third successive season, was named to the first team on all 37 ballots. Ray Berry, Baltimore's brilliant end, and Sam Huff, New York's redoubtable linebacker, missed out on one ballot.

The Colts and Giants, who meet for the NFL championship in Baltimore Sunday, captured 12 of the 22 positions on the offensive and defensive squads. Baltimore landed seven berths and New York five. Cleveland, San Francisco and the Chicago Bears took two each and Los Angeles, Green Bay, Detroit and Pittsburgh one apiece.

Brown's backfield mates included Johnny Unitas, the peerless passer; Lennie Moore, his Baltimore teammate, and Frank Gifford, the Giants superlative triple threat.

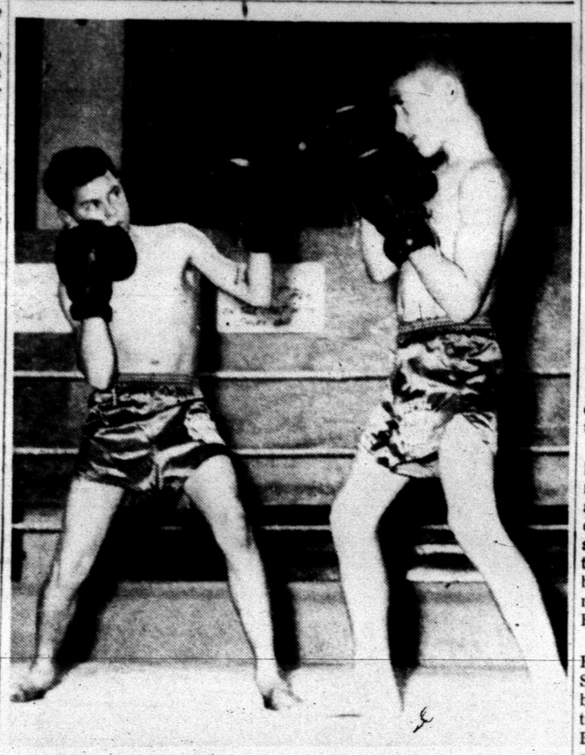

Del Shofner of Los Angeles, who vied with Berry for league pass catching honors, won the other end berth on the offensive squad. Jim Parker, the 270-point Colt tackle, headed a devastating line that included Rosey Brown of the Giants in the other tackle position Green Bay's Jim Ringo at center, and guards Stan Jones of the Bears and Jim Ray Smith of the Browns.

The defensive line with Huff as the spearhead included Gino Marchetti of Baltimore and Andy Robustelli of New York at ends, Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, Baltimore's man mountain, and San Francisco's Leo Nomellini at tackles, Bill George of the Bears at middle guard and linebacker Joe Schmidt of the Lions.

The defensive backfield consisted of Jimmy Patton of the Giants, Andy Nelson of the Colts, Jack Butler of the Steelers and Abe Woodson of the 49ers.

The second team included such outstanding performers as Alan Ameche and Art Spinney of the Colts; Ray Wietecha, Chuck Conerly and Rosey Grier of the Giants; Mike McCormack and Walt Michaels of the Browns; Bobby Layne, Dean Derby, John Reger and Jimmy Orr of the Steelers; Tommy McDonald and Tom Brookshier of the Eagles; Forest Gregg and Paul Hornung of the Packers; Frank Fuller of the Cards; Les Richter and Lou Michaels of the Rams; Yale Lary of the Lions; and Bruce Bosley and J. D. Smith of the 49ers.

The biggest man on the first team is Lipscomb, the only member of the squad who didn't go to college. He joined the Colts after graduating from Miller High in Detroit. At 6-6 and 288, he is the bulwark of the Colts' defensive line. Nomellini, Lopscomb's counterpart, is a mere 255. The former Minnesota great, 32 is the veteran of the squad. Shofner, Brown and Woodson, 23, are the youngest. Patton and Nelson, at 180 pounds, are the lightest.

Cincy Is Dubbed 'Greatest Ever'

By The Associated Press

Cincinnati's No. 1 rated Bearcats and their "Big O", Oscar Robertson, continue to be the scourage of the college basketball courts.

The powerful Ohioans, called by some the greatest college cage team ever assembled, faced their biggest test of the young season Tuesday night and came through with their sixth straight victory.

The victim was previously undefeated Bradley. The Braves, ranked fifth nationally, gave it a good try. Trailing only 38-35 at the half, Bradley trimmed Cincinnati's lead to a point, 44-43. But the Bearcats surged back with nine straight points and were never threatened again as they registered an 86-71 triumph.

As expected, Robertson was the big gun. He hit with 42 points to match his season' sscoring average. The high-scoring All-America didn't really get going until the second half. Held to 18 points in the first half, Oscar stormed the basket for 24 markers after intermission. Bobby Joe Mason led Bradley with 21 points.

Other teams in The Associated Press top ten fared well. Ohio State's third-ranked Buckeyes rebounded from Monday night loss to Utah with a 91-79 triumph over Brigham Young. St. Louis, ranked seventh, whipped Kansas 66-59. Eighth-ranked Georgia Tech, toppled from the unbeaten list by SMU Monday, edged out Texas Tech 63-60 for its seventh victory in eight starts. Ninth-ranked Indiana defeated a stubborn Butler team 91-85 in the opening round of the doubleheader played at the Butler Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

In other major games, Kentucky won from Temple, 97-92. Marquette turned back Stanford 63-50, Santa Clara beat Connecticut 54-47, Fordham drubbed Pittsburgh 80-68, Oklahoma City whipped TCU 74-63, Iowa conquered Loyola of New Orleans 68-60, Dayton flattened St. Mary's of Texas 79-53 and Mississippi won in overtime from Tennessee Tech by the low score of 37-36.

Bob Nordmann scored 20 points to lead St. Louis to its seventh victory in nine starts. The 6-10, 270-pound center was held without a field goal for nearly 10 minutes as Kansas, trailing 29-21 at halftime, tied the score 42-42. Then Nordmann stuffed in two field goals within one minute and the Billikins opened a six-point bulge as they handed the Jayhawks their third loss in eight games.

Indiana's Hoosiers roared to their fifth victory in six starts despite a 36-point performance by Ken Pennington of Butler. Hugo Walt Bellamy and Frank Radovich had 45 points between them for the winners. Notre Dame's victory over Purdue was highlighted by 31-point performances by Mike Garney of the Irish and Terry Dischinger of the Boilermakers. Notre Dame meets Indiana in the final game tonight.

Temple overcame two Kentucky leads—one of 11 points and one of 13—but an uninterrupted 14-point spurt by the Wildcats gave them a 68-55 second-half lead which they protected to the end. Kentucky's Bill Lickert scored 27 points but lost scoring honors to Temple's Bill Kennedy, who tallied 29. It was Kentucky's fifth victory in eight games.

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

TCU's showing in the Bluebonnet Bowl of last Saturday was slightly on the anemic side of things, to say the least.

It's regrettable that it turned out that way, regardless of the cause or causes which reportedly led up to the lapse. The crux of the whole business seemed to be that (1) Clemson flew to Houston and resided in the plush Shamrock Hotel, while (2) Texas Christian clickety-clacked from Cowtown to the same city via choo-choo and stayed at a not-so-plush downtown hotel.

And some of the Frogs were heard to mutter expletives which sounded a whole lot like "bah" and "humbug" when asked what they thought about the whole setup. Others volunteered the information without being asked.

Shall We All Go Dutch, Dutch?

CRIES OF "expense-shaving" were hurled in the direction of Athletic Director "Dutch" Meyer, who may or may not have been a victim of circumstances. Head Coach Abe Martin accepted the responsibility for those arrangements which had been made, however, thus taking the bee off Meyer's back.

Commented Abe: "If I had to do all over, I'd make only one change. I'd call the team in and inform them of the arrangements." All of which probably eased the pain but very little. And the day's play reflected the friction-fraught situation.

Abe further commented that as the game progressed that it looked as though his Frogs were going to win on a "mediocre effort", as they held a 7-3 lead going into the final quarter of play, but the game split wide open at that point as the Clemson aerial show came into being. A long pass put the Caroliners into the lead, and starting with that play there was "no stopping", with the final score reading 28-7.

It was reminiscent of Texas' complete collapse in last years Sugar Bowl game against Mississippi. Things were rocking along on fairly even terms until a second-half fake punt scoring play shot Ole Miss out in front, and then they powered on to a humiliating 39-7 win. One break can turn a close game into a rout, in that the demoralized and victimized team is forced to take chances which it would not normally take in an effort to play "catch-up." More often than not those chances backfire.

Open Mouth, Insert Foot

SEVERAL UNINTENTIONAL and possibly unnoticed bloopers were evident in the TV narration of the game, though, which tended to spice up the proceedings.

At one stage the announcer referred to the "Bluebonnet Bowl between Duke and Texas Christian" which was being played. Possibly he had read one of our own blooper headlines of a few weeks ago which proclaimed, "Clemson Accepts Cotton Bowl Bid", and was merely making a substitution accordingly.

Also, his references to Clemson sometimes came out to be "Clumson".

The topper, however, tended to emphasize that he is no doubt a hanky-panky Yankee-type individual who isn't too well-versed on Southwestern lore:

He made "Froghorns" out of the Horned Frogs. Couldn't tell just what he had in mind. Could've been "Longhorns"... or even "Foghorns".

But FROGhorns!! Good grief!

Pitt Cagers Edgy After Bribe News

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pitt basketball team, rocked by a reported bribe attempt in shades of the black cage scandals of nine years ago, may be feeling the ill effects.

Only Monday Dick Falenski, who had been averaging 17 points a game for Pitt, and John Fridley, the team's top rebounder, reported they had been offered a bribe.

Tuesday night the jittery Panthers suffered an 80-68 defeat at Fordham with Falenski scoring just 7 points, and Fridley 9.

A hearing for Dr. Edward H. Sebastian, 43, a nearby McKees Rocks dentist, has been postponed from today to next Tuesday because Fridley and Falenski were playing in New York.

The players had stated that Dr. Sebastian, a former dental instructor at Pitt, offered them a guarantee to enter dental school and 50 per cent of winnings if they would keep Pitt's scores within bet-winning range.

"I was nervous during the afternoon, but when the game started I was Ok," said Fridley, after the defeat at Fordham. Falenski said only, "I wasn't nervous."

Pitt coach Bob Timmons explained it this way:

"They waited two days before they reported it (the alleged bribe). You know how kids are. They want to be accepted by the bunch. That's more important to them than anything."

". . . I told them not to worry about him (Sebastian), that he wasn't worried about them. They seemed to be relieved by it all and the way it was handled."

Perhaps Fridley and Falenski weren't worried. The Panthers have a road jinx. Their three losses have been on the road, their four victories at home.

Dr. Sebastian has denied the bribery charges.

Richard Petty, 23, of Randleman, N. C., has been named NASCAR's rookie driver of 1959.

Duke University— then Trinity College— lost its first basketball game to Wake Forest 24-10. That was in 1906.

Raiders Edged By Engineers, 63-60

By The Associated Press

The Southwest Conference ended its pre-Christmas basketball exhibition series Tuesday night with two losses to outside powers to wind up with a .500 average. The loop has won 21 and lost 21 games in the pre - season play.

Georgia Tech, the nation's eighth - ranked team, rebounded from its only defeat to edge Texas Tech at Lubbock 63-60 before a howling crowd of 5,100 partisan fans. It was the Engineers' seventh victory in eight starts.

Oklahoma City University took its sixth victory in eight starts to lambast Texas Christian at Fort Worth 74-63.

Texas Tech now has won two games and lost five. Texas Christian has lost five of seven starts, too.

Georgia Tech's victory gave the Southeastern Conference quintet a split of its two-game Southwest invasion. SMU whipped the Ramblin' Wreck 80-71 for their only loss of the season Monday night in Dallas.

Roger Kaiser with 28 points paced the Engineers wholed 31-30 at halftime and 41-32 early in the second half only to have to come from behind to whip the Red Raiders.

Texas Tech sub Robert Echols sank a deep wing shot to give the Raiders a 56-55 lead. But Dave Benton sent the Georgia team back in front 57-56 and Benton and Kaiser sank two free throws each to expand the lead.

TCU, which led 32-30 at the half, took a six point lead at 55-49, but they the roof caved in on the Frogs. Two Kiowa Indians, Fred Yeahquo and Bud Sahmaunt, went on the warpath for Oklahoma City U and just ran away with the game.

Sahmaunt scored 20 points for OCU and Yeaquo garnered 15. Bobby Tyler's 17 points paced the Horned Frogs.

Buffalo Boomed For Continental

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Buffalo appears to be in line for the eighth spot in Branch Rickey's proposed Continental League, observers who talked to the baseball man here today believe.

Rickey and Bill Shea, the original organizer of the Continental, granted Dallas-Fort Worth the seventh franchise Tuesday.

The development came after a three-hour meeting between J. W. Bateson, owner of the American Assn. Dallas Ranger franchise; Amon G. Carter Jr., president of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram; Rickey and Shea.

New York, Toronto, Atlanta, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver, and Houston, Tex., previously had been granted franchises in the embryo league.

"Now that we have the heartland portion of the league formed with the four great Midland centers of Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver, Fort Worth-Dallas and Houston," Shea announced, "We are ready to finish the eastern wing."

It was obvious that Buffalo is ahead in the race for the eighth franchise.

Rickey, Shea and representatives from five of the other six cities in the league Monday held a meeting at Arlington, Tex. — Midway between Dallas and Fort Worth—with 200 Dallas - Fort Worth leaders.

After that meeting, Rickey, Shea and Allen Russell, owner of the Austin franchise in the Texas League, started holding conversations in Forth Worth with smaller groups. Bateson and Carter became the key men in the problem that had to be settled before Jan. 10.

"Things took an explosive turn," Rickey said. "The thing came to a head quicker than any of us expected."

Shea said Russell, who arranged the meetings with Rickey and Shea as a Continental League liaison man, is not in the franchise picture.

"We have dealt only with Mr. Carter and Mr. Bateson," Shea said. "They have, in effect, accepted responsibility of meeting the financial requirements for granting a franchise."

Carter and Bateson did not disclose the amount of money for which they are committed. But it is known that the standard price of a franchise is $150,000 with $1,500,000 available and another million dollars in reserve.

H-SU Names Head Coach

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Howard McChesney, 36, Tuesday was named head football coach of Hardin-Simmons University to succeed Sammy Baugh.

McChesney has been Baugh's assistant for two years. His new contract is for one year. The salary was not divulged.

Cotton Bowl Sellout

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Texas-Syracuse Cotton Bowl football game is a complete sellout.

The big Dallas stadium seats 75,504 fans.

Secretary Howard Grubbs of the Cotton Bowl Assn. said the University of Texas sold 17,000 tickets and Syracuse University 6,500. The public bought 30,000 and bondholders 20,000. The rest of the tickets will go to bands.

Cannon Gets Offer From Texas Club

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — All-America Billy Cannon of Louisiana State said today he had received a "very nice offer" from Houston of the proposed American Football League but denied he had discussed it with a television station newsman.

Cannon, college football's most honored player, made the denial in a seven-way telephone hook-up with wire service newsmen and reporters from Baton Rouge and New Orleans newspapers. LSU arranged the interview.

Cannon declined to say what the offer included. He said he has not decided whether he will sign with Houston or the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League. He will make his decision and sign a contract after he returns from Hawaii, where he will play in the Hula Bowl Jan. 10, he said.

At the moment, Cannon said, he is concentrating on preparing for LSU's Jan. 1 Sugar Bowl date with Mississippi.

In Los Angeles, Gen. Manager Pete Rozelle of the Rams said he was surprised. He said Cannon, the No. 1 choice in the professional draft, "had stated unequivocally he would play for Los Angeles."

Cannon said he had received the latest Houston offer Tuesday from K.S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston franchise. He said he had not talked with anyone from the Rams since.

Rozelle made his comment after Mel Leavitt, director of special programming for WDSU-TV in New Orleans, said Cannon told him Tuesday he had received such a tempting offer from Houston he might not be able to resist it.

According to Leavitt, Cannon said the contract would be a three-year personal pact.

Leavitt said he got the impression that it was a tremendous offer.
