A Snyder native who has carved a distinguished career in the Federal service is the subject of an article in a recent issue of a publication for National Park Service personnel.

He is Elmer W. Watkins, who was born here on Oct. 23, 1915, and whose mother, Mrs. W. E. Watkins, lives at 3910 Muriel Drive in Snyder. Watkins also has other relatives here — two aunts, Mrs. May Brush and Mrs. Bea Forkner, and an uncle, Claude Ingram.

The article in the Park Service Newsletter noted that Watkins began his Federal career in 1935, and he has moved steadily forward in various branches. Last February he was promoted to the position of chief of the Division of Finance of the National Park Service.

However, he saw service in other branches of the Federal service over the past 33 years.

Watkins' first position was in the Patent Office of the Department of Commerce, where he served as copypuller, examiner's aid and under clerk. Then, he transferred to the Soil Conservation Service as a junior clerk and was subsequently promoted to assistant clerk and then to clerk. In 1941 he moved to Denver, Colo., and was promoted to voucher clerk, principal clerk, head of the invoice section, chief fiscal officer and assistant field auditor in the Denver Ordnance Plant.

After three years there, he moved to the U. S. Air Force Convalescent Hospital in Fort Logan as fiscal accountant.

In 1945 he returned to the Ordnance Plant as junior administrative officer. After serving in the U. S. Navy in 1945-46, he returned to Fort Logan as assistant finance officer and then transferred in late 1946 to the Veterans Administration as assistant finance officer and auditor. In 1958 he became supervisory auditor with the Division of Audits in Washington, D. C., in the park service. He earned an Outstanding Performance Rating in 1964 and in 1965 was appointed assistant regional director (administration), his position until promotion to his present post.

Mrs. Watkins (Juanita) is a native of the Texas Panhandle. They have a daughter and an 18-month-old granddaughter. The daughter, Janice, is married to Dr. S. S. Leffingwell, and the family, including 18-month-old Stephanie, lives in the Canal Zone.

Snyderites and their descendants get around.

Steel Price Hike Follows Labor Pact

By PAUL BAILEY
Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The steel industry's two giants announced price increases today, less than 24 hours after the United Steelworkers Union won a new billion-dollar labor contract-richest in its history.

Bethlehem Steel, the nation's second largest producer, announced an increase of almost 5 per cent across the board- first of its kind since the late President John F. Kennedy forced a rollback in 1962.

U.S. Steel Corp., the biggest steelmaker and usually the pacemaker for industry prices, posted increases for many of its tin mill products, although some items were reduced.

However, a spokesman for U.S. Steel said, "This is a price increase. No question about it."

There was no immediate comment from Washington, which usually watches steel prices closely and is not slow to express displeasure with increases.

It was only Tuesday night that the union wrapped up a new labor contract that will give the nation's 450,000 steelworkers wage and benefits hikes of 90 cents to a dollar an hour. The over-all package was figured to be a 6.5 per cent increase in each year of the three-year contract.

The industry had insisted all along that it could not stand a 6 per cent contract without price relief. Otherwise, industry spokesmen said, two-thirds of the industry's profits would be wiped out and some companies would be put out of business.

"The price increases," Bethlehem said, "are expected to add only enough in revenues to offset cost increases just incurred or expected in the next several months.

"Selective price increases have not been effective in offsetting smaller cost increases than those now facing Bethlehem. A general price increase is the only method available to alleviate the financial problem which would otherwise occur in the future."

The Bethlehem hikes take effect Aug. 8.

The increases on tin products which amounted to 3.6 million tons out of the industry's 83.9 million tons of shipment last year were so complex that an exact rundown of each item was not immediately available. They are effective Oct. 1.

The increases hit the market at a time when foreign steel, which already sells for $25 to $40 a ton less than domestic steel is running 30 per cent ahead of last year.

MEKONG DELTA RAID

Red Arsenal Seized

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — A task force of armored American gunboats, helicopter gunships and South Vietnanese marines plunged deep into the fertile Mekong Delta to raid a Viet Cong base camp. Field reports today said at least 90 of the enemy had been killed and the action was continuing.

The Vietnamese Marines reported seizing an arsenal containing 62 weapons, 423 mortar rounds and more than 12,000 rounds of small arms ammunition.

The only allied casualties reported were two South Vietnamese wounded.

The assault was made Tuesday 92 miles southwest of Saigon, along a tributary of the Cai Lon River 34 miles east of the Gulf of Thailand.

A military spokesman said it was the first allied penetration of the area of the southern Mekong Delta which has been dominated by the Viet Cong for years.

The allied commanders "had good information they would get some action down there," the spokesman said.

Most of the damage to the Viet Cong apparently was done by the U.S. Navy's 60-foot Monitor for gunboats and by armored troop carriers after the Vietnamese marines had cornered the enemy in a bunker complex.

U.S. Army helicopter gunships also raked the enemy positions with machine guns and rockets.

About 1,000 U.S. infantrymen from the 9th Division, swept through another area about two miles to the east but reported little contact.

Elsewhere, only light, scattered skirmishes were reported. They included three small fights on the outskirts of Saigon in which South Vietnamese troops said they killed seven enemy soldiers, captured six and seized 18 weapons and large quantities of ammunition.

Northwest of the capital, American strategic bombers flew their 50th mission in seven days against suspected North Vietnamese troop concentgations menacing Saigon and key towns near it.

Industrial Team Gets 'A' On Exam

Snyder's new industrial development team got an "A" on its final examination yesterday.

Members of the team made presentations to Jim Heath of the Texas Industrial Development Commission and to Don Stafford, manager of the Fort Stockton Chamber of Commerce in their final session Tuesday afternoon in the community room of Snyder National Bank.

The training course for the team was conducted by personnel from the Area Development Division of Texas Electric Service Co. Object of the project is to provide individuals from various business and service areas with specialized training in compilation and presentation of pertinent data to prospective industries.

Members of the Snyder Industrial Development team are Bills Nabors, George Patterson, Ernest Sears, Malven Stevenson, Bill J. Hood, Dr. John A. English, Wesley Dyess, Herbert Reed, John Boren, Les Francis, Cecil Boren and H. W. Cargile. Each has been trained to assemble and present information in a particular field or area of community life.

Following the last class session during which the team members made practice presentations to Heath and Stafford, the local team members drew praise for their achievement. Heath, who has served as a practice "prospect" for more than a score of cities, said the team here likely would rank among the top three or so in its performance.

OT Building Bid Accepted

Snyder School Trustees this morning accepted a bid for construction of an occupational training facility.

A building of some 1,600 square feet in area will be attached to present occupational training space at the Lincoln School building. The occupational training program, which was offered last year on the junior high level, will be extended to the senior high school this year.

The board accepted the lower of two bids received for the new construction, a proposal of $9,273 by Wadleigh Construction Co.

Transplant Is Failure

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A 19-month-old girl who received an infant's liver in a transplant died today—four and a half hours after the operation.

Surgeons said earlier that the tot's chance of survival were slim.

A spokesman at Texas Children's Hospital said the cause of death had not been exactly determined but doctors believe the reason was that the donor's liver had an artery defect.

The child was Shelia Renee Sanford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royce J. Sanford of Corrigan, Tex.

She weighed only 13 pounds and was admitted in what doctors called terminal condition from blockage of the bile ducts.

The little girl died at 6:30 a.m. The operation ended at 2 a.m. after three hours of surgery.

RIOTS, RED-INSPIRED

More Violence In Mexico City

By STRATFORD C. JONES
Associated Press Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico City was a battle ground again Tuesday as mobs of young people ran wild through the city, fighting police, wrecking city buses and throwing rocks and bottles.

At least one person was dead, more than 400 were injured and at least 1,100 persons had been arrested since antigovernment rioting began last Friday.

Officials claimed the riots were Communist inspired and said they were the worst Mexico's capital has experienced in 20 years.

Tuesday night club-wielding students braved a heavy rain and hijackedf our city buses after forcing terrified passengers to flee. Then they ran the vehicles into the sides of buildings.

Earlier, Army troops fired volleys of shots into the air and dispersed the students. The troops were withdrawn, but the mobs returned, marching from the old university section, and seized the buses near the city's central square.

Riot squads swinging long batons dispersed that crowd, but at least 3,000 of the youths gathered half a mile away near a teacher's college. Their leaders used bugle calls and walkie talkies to control them. They swarmed over buses and a trolley car, smashing windows and running the vehicles onto the sidewalks.

At one point all four intersections around the park in front of the school were blocked by the wrecked buses.

Two busloads of riot police sped to the scene. The students fled and the police were again withdrawn.

The violence mainly involved prep school students from 14 to 18 years of age. The disorders began last Friday with a pro-Castro demonstration honoring the anniversary of the Cuban prime minister's 26th of July Movement. Students charges of police and troop brutality brought more demonstrations on Saturday and Monday.

The students were outraged during the rioting Monday night when police fired a bazooka shell and lobbed tear gas through the wooden door of the National University's No. One preparatory school, and cleared out several hundred students barricaded inside. School campuses in Latin America are traditionally off limits to the police and the military.

Officials pointed out that most of the city's estimated 250,000 students had not joined the rioting. Many reportedly feared the effect it would have on prospective visitors for the Olympics, beginning here in three months.

Harriman Denounces North Viets

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman charged the leaders of North Vietnam today with ruling "through terror and butchery" and said they should give their people a little freedom.

Harriman also told newsmen as he entered the 15th meeting of the Vietnam peace talks that he intended to denounce North Vietnam for failure to live up to the 1962 agreement to neutralize Laos.

Harriman made the accusation against the North Vietnamese leaders when asked what he thought about recent jail sentences given by the Saigon government to critics or opponents.

"Have you seen any freedom in North Vietnam, in Hanoi?" Harriman responded.

"It would be a great thing for Hanoi to give a little freedom to the people there," he continued. "They impose their will through terror and butchery and so it's rather ill becoming for them to make any comment about freedom in other parts of the world."

Harriman told newsmen that "the North Vietnamese never kept the 1962 agreement (on Laos) for one day."

"One of the ways to make peace in Southeast Asia on a permanent basis," he said, "is for North Vietnam to leave its neighbors alone."

Cost Of Living Takes Another Jump

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living, paced by higher mortgage interest and other home ownership charges, jumped one half of one per cent in June to a level 4.2 per cent above that of a year ago, the government announced today.

The June rise equaled that of February 1966 and was larger than any other since September 1962 when the index went up six-tenths of one per cent.

The rise in consumer prices was relatively steeper than that for wholesale prices which increased two-tenths of a per cent in June, raising them 2.3 per cent above a year ago.

Reagan Wooing Texas Delegates

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas delegates to the national Republican convention are being told that California Gov. Ronald Reagan wants them on his side despite Richard Nixon's victory claims.

Reagan already has more delegate votes from Texas than any other state except California.

Jack Cox, former strong GOP candidate for governor, defected Tuesday from Nixon's ranks and told each delegate he wanted to "visit personally with you on this important matter and hope you will lend your voice to Gov. Reagan."

The announcement by Cox, who previously told the Associated Press he would support Nixon at the national convention starting Aug. 5, climaxed an intensive drive being made in Texas since Reagan spoke in Amarillo July 19.

Cox noted in his letter to each delegate that he has been statewide chairman of the John Tower favorite son committee and has been active as a peacemaker between Nixon and Reagan forces at the state convention June 11.

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., abandoned his favorite son candidacy July 1, and urged the 56 delegates, now freed from their state convention pledge, to support Nixon.

An Associated Press survey completed Tuesday of each delegate showed 30 saying they would support Nixon, 13 for Reagan and 13 uncommitted. Several "uncommitted" delegates have endorsed Nixon previously.

There were no Texas delegate votes for Nelson Rockefeller.

Talks 'Promising' Says Czech Brass

PRAGUE (AP) — One of Czechoslovakia's leading Communist reformers reported today that the crucial talks between the Soviet Politburo and the Czechoslovak party Presidium are taking a "promising course."

"The atmosphere is optimistic," said National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky in Rude Pravo, the Czechoslovak party newspaper.

The leaders of the two parties met for the third day today to the martial accompaniment of record Soviet military maneuvers. The talks continued at least one day longer than expected as the Soviets sought to develop evidence of discord among the Czechoslovaks.

Talks between the top-ranking leaders of the two parties, which had been expected to end Tuesday, were extended after the Soviets insisted that each member of both delegations have a chance to state his personal views on the liberalization program launched by the Czechoslovak party's new leaders.

The Soviets presumaby hoped to draw out dissident members of the 11-man Czechoslovak party Presidium attending the conference that began Monday in the tiny farming village of Cierna, in Slavakia one mile from the Russian border.

The Russian Politburo delegation, headed by party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, is reported to have demanded a reversal of Czechoslovakia's new course and the right to station Soviet or other Communist bloc troops on Czechoslovak territory.

DEAR ABBY: I am 22 and Chuck is 23. We've been married going on five years and we have three children and another on the way. Financially we're not rich, but we're not starving either. We got married young, Chuck has changed all that. We have never had a place of our own since we've been married. We have lived with my folks or his, and we never seem to get ahead. He can't seem to hold a job, so I have to work, and we need someone to look after the kids.

On top of that, Charlie still runs with the guys he ran with before we were married and he just doesn't seem to want to settle down to married life. We have separated twice on that account and I can see it coming again. If it weren't for the kids, I'd leave him sure. I just might anyway. Have you advice for a girl who messed up her life as badly as I?

OLD AT 22

DEAR OLD: There is not much advice for a young woman in your position but your experience could serve as a warning signal for lots of 17 and 18-year-olds who are "so much in love" they can hardly wait to get married. You are still young enough, however, to make a better life for yourself, as if leaving Charlie is in the cards, don't wait another five years.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do with a husband like mine? Last night I served fresh raspberry pie, which has always been one of my specialties. And all of a sudden my husband, whom I shall call "Dr. Jekyll" turned into a regular Mr. Hyde. He stormed around like a wild man, saying he never cared for raspberry pie as it took him two days to get the seeds out of his teeth. Then he said he never could understand why I've been shoving it down his throat for 28 years.

Abby, I always thought my husband liked raspberry pie. I felt so hurt I cried myself to sleep. Was I wrong, or was he?

RASPBERRY FIGHT

DEAR FIGHT: If a man doesn't care for something his wife serves him, he shouldn't wait for 28 years to tell her about it. Tell Mr. Hyde you're no mind reader, and serve him baby food.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband wasn't feeling well so he went to a doctor. The doctor checked him over and told him he needed an operation. My husband never went back to the doctor, and he never got around to having the operation. Today he is still feeling lousy, and he says he never felt better in his life. How can you account for this?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Either your husband didn't need the operation in the first place, or he still needs it. If you love him, get him to a doctor for another checkup. If he's lost confidence in the first one, let him try another.

Cash Is Not Good Enough

DALLAS (AP) — Years ago somebody stole one of Lee Hagaland's credit cards, and he decided to operate henceforth on a strictly cash basis.

Apparently that worked fine until Hagaland arrived here from his Los Angeles home en route to visit an ailing brother at Bonham, 70 miles northeast.

He tried to rent a car, offering cash, for the drive from Dallas. Hagaland produced a California driver's license and identification from his employer. He even offered to buy the car. No takers.

An employe of a rent-a-car firm said Tuesday his company requires three forms of identification and a credit card is acceptable. It doesn't recognize a driver's license, social security card or draft card.

Hagaland finally made it to Bonham anyhow—by bus.

Takes Post At Negro College

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Dr. Vincent C. De Baun is resigning as president of Lasell Junior College in Newton to become a professor at a Negro college in Alabama.

De Baun, 42, said the move is his answer to the question, "What can we do to fight racial injustice and increase interracial understanding?"

His decision is the second such action by a white educator in the Boston area in 18 months. In March 1967, John U. Munro resigned as dean of Harvard College to become director of freshman studies at Miles College, Birmingham, Ala.

De Baun said in an interview, "My wife and I estimate that my real income—that is, our standard of living—will be cut just about in half." He lives in Newton with his wife, Hillary, and their two sons, Christian, 6, and Nicholas, 3.

"The killing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was the real beginning of this decision," the educator said.

De Baun will become professor of humanities at Talladega College, founded in 1867 at Talladega, Ala., about 70 miles east of Birmingham. The college, which has some 300 students, has an all Negro administration and about 70 per cent Negro faculty. The student enrollment is almost entirely Negro.

Says Nominations To Court Will Never Be Confirmed

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The opposition leader to President Johnson's Supreme Court nominations says his forces have doubled in recent weeks and have more than enough votes to keep the Senate from voting on the appointments.

"I am confident these nominations will never be confirmed," said Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., Tuesday about the nomination of Abe Fortas as chief justice and Homer Thornberry as an associate justice. Griffin said 40 senators now oppose the two.

He did not name the senatrs who he claims have increased the opposition strength from the original 19.

Griffin and his allies have threatened a filibuster against the appointments and it would take a two-thirds vote to shut off their debate. Griffin needs to muster at least 34 members to vote against choking off the filibuster.

Griffin commented in a speech to the National Press Club while members of the Senate Judiciary Committee gathered in secret in the Senate's basement recording studio to view three films which one called "hardcore pornography" and another labeled "crude vulgarity."

The question of pornography has taken center stage in the drawn-out hassling over Fortas' nomination to succeed Earl Warren. One Republican has charged on the Senate floor that Fortas' votes on obscenity have helped "destroy community morals" in the United States.

Congress recesses Friday for the two national political conventions, returning in September. There appears to be no chance for action on the nominations until then, although committee Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called a meeting today to consider the Fortas appointment.

The committee has put off any action on Thornberry's nomination until after the Senate confirms or denies Fortas.

President Johnson has accepted Warren's retirement effective upon selection of a qualified successor, meaning one that has been approved by the Senate.

Warren says he will stay on if Fortas, an associate justice since 1965, is rejected.

One of the three films viewed in the small basement room was "0-7."

Fortas voted with the majority in reversing a lower court decision that "0-7" was obscene.

"Francis will report to the TADA Board of Directors on all phases of activity relating to the motor vehicle buying public in the Snyder area," commented TADA President Boyd Mullen, Pasadena.

"He will work closely with legislative and other governmental officials for better auto safety standards, safer highways, and effective driver education," added Mullen.

"The job of Area Director is one of the most important in our giant statewide association," said Mullen, "and we are confident Francis will serve with distinction."

TADA represents the franchised new car and truck dealers in Texas.

Volcano Toll Climbs

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — The death toll in the eruption of Mt. Arenal rose to 65 today and authorities began evacuating the town of Tilaran, where great quantities of volcanic ash were falling.

Some 90 persons were missing as lava, ash, rocks and boiling water continued to pour from the volcano. Dormant for five centuries, it began erupting Monday.

More than 100 persons were injured and poperty damage was estimated in the millions of dollars. Large amounts of livestock were destroyed.

An estimated 4,000 refugees fled from the area 62 miles northwest of San Jose.

The U.S. Air Force dispatched two UH1F helicopters, each carrying three paramedics, from Panama to aid rescue operations.

Fancy Up That Dish Of Ice Cream

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

You scoop out that ice cream and serve "as is" to the family. But when guests come, it's fun to make additions.

One interesting way to add to vanilla ice cream is to team it with chocolate-mint cordial. This is a comparative newcomer among cordials — and a delightful entry.

The simplest way of all to offer this combination is to turn scoops of vanilla ice cream into sherbet glasses, pour the chocolate - mint cordial into a decanter and pass it so each guest can help himself. No decanter? Then pass the cordial in its own bottle; it's done at the best tables.

If you have parfait glasses, you may want to pack the vanilla ice cream into them alternately with the cordial, then top the parfaits with rosettes of whipped cream and cherries.

Another way to use the cordial is in a sauce. The sauce may be passed with ice cream in sherbet glasses or it may be spooned into parfait glasses alternately with the ice cream. Take your choice. This Chocolate Mint Sauce is velvet-smooth and rich, but it is semi-sweet rather than sweet. Because of this it will suit sophisticated tastes. Here's the recipe for the sauce:

CHOCOLATE MINT SAUCE

½ cup (3 ounces) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
½ cup heavy cream
3 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon instant coffee
1 egg yolk
¼ cup chocolate - mint cordial

Melt the chocolate and butter cream; over hot (not boiling) water, stir constantly until smoothly blended.

Add butter and instant coffee; stir until butter has melted.

In a small bowl, beat the egg yolk slightly; gradually stir in a little of the hot chocolate mixture; stir back into chocolate mixture in double boiler. Cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly, until egg yolk thickens mixture — about 5 minutes.

Remove from heat and water. Stir in chocolate - mint cordial. Serve hot or cold with vanilla ice cream. Makes about 1 cup.

COMPANY PARFAITS — Made with vanilla ice cream and a chocolate sauce flavored with chocolate-mint cordial.

Picnic Meat Loaf

2 eggs
½ cup water
2 slices white bread, crusts removed
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dried crushed savory
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
2 pounds ground top sirloin beef
Paprika

In a medium mixing bowl beat eggs slightly; add remaining ingredients except beef and paprika; mix well so bread disintegrates. Thoroughly mix in beef — with a fork or your hands. On wax paper shape into a loaf about 10 inches long and 4 inches wide; turn into a shallow pan (11 by 7 by 2 inches). Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven 1 hour. Loaf cuts well into thin slices for cold service.

Fireplace Decor

A surfacing material that is suitable for use in and around a fireplace must be fire-, burn- and scorch-resistant. This, however, need not limit or hamper an imaginative home decorator, for a surfacing with those properties need not be drab and colorless. Ceramic tile, for example, is a popular choice for both fireplace and hearth and it comes in a wide selection of decorator colors, sizes, shapes and textures.

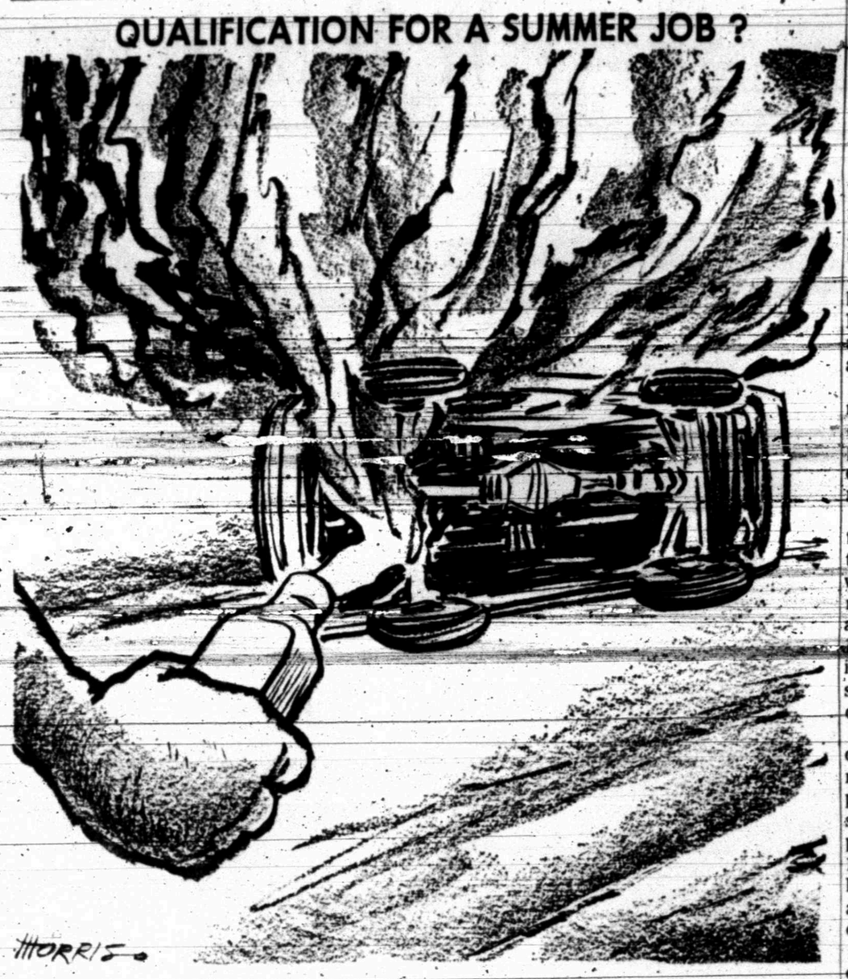

Tile Cleaning

Heavy accumulation of dirt and grime can be removed from a glazed ceramic tile surface with a stiff brush and scouring powder.

Ferryboats Make Travel Adventurous

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — It is about 200 miles between New York and Washington, and some motorists can make the trip in as little as four hours. It takes us 10.

That's because my husband has a yen for taking ferryboats. If there isn't a ferry where we are going, we go where there is a ferry.

Thus on a recent trip to the nation's capital we disdained the direct mode of travel via turnpike and set out in our eternal pursuit of a ferryboat route.

Instead we traversed the entire coastline of New Jersey, all the way down to Cape May where, by diligent map study, my would-be sailor had located a ferry that took us from New Jersey to Delaware. From there it was only a roundabout trip of some hours before we reached our destination.

En route to Florida we always drove down to the tip of the Delmarva Peninsula, from which point we were waterborne in slow splendor across Chesapeake Bay. When they built the 17-mile-long Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel a few years ago and eliminated that ferry, what others regarded as an engineering marvel my husband regarded as a personal affront.

The next time we went down that way we traveled a couple of hundred extra miles in order to take a ferry he had discovered in Wilmington, N.C.

There is always some heated debate between us as to whether the ferries he has ferreted out are seaworthy. I always take the negative.

On one occasion we rode a vessel so tiny that it resembled a raft. It was so small it wouldn't even hold the car, but that didn't deter my determined spouse. We left the family vehicle behind and went to an island and back just for the ride.

When we do manage to get the car onto a boat, I am always convinced that we are going to drive straight into the water when we leave it. Actually there is not much danger of this as my chauffeur is usually not even at the wheel when we make landfall. He always insists on getting out, no matter how short the trip, to view the passing scenery and is usually not back by the time the chains are down and the attendants are motioning impatiently for the car to move.

Each time my husband reads that a new bridge is being built and an old ferry is being dropped, he reacts as though a favorite uncle had died.

Outwardly I commiserate with him, but inwardly I smile. I'm all for progress.

FOOD, MINERAL WEALTH

Industry Looks To The Sea

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Industry is plunging into the science of oceanography in hopes of reaping profits from the wealth of resources in and beneath the seas.

The hidden treasures include oil, minerals and food.

"Just as the seas are the last great area for physical exploration on the planet, they are also the last great area for economic expansion," says Dr. Charles F. Jones, president of Humble Oil & Refining Co.

The big brokerage firm Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith includes oceanography in its list of five emerging industries. The others are medical technology, nuclear energy, learning aids and pollution control.

The federal government spearheaded research into the realm of oceanography. The oceanographic activities of 22 federal agencies may involve an expenditure of $500 million next year.

"Three hundred of the nation's 500 largest corporations have ocean science programs of their own," reports Oilways, a publication of Humble Oil & Refining Co.

But Samuel A. Jordan, manager of Westinghouse Electric Corp.'s Underseas Division, cautions against thinking that a harvest of wealth from the oceans is just around the corner.

"In the immediate future the outlook is uncertain," he says. "But we want to be ready. For the long haul you can be optimistic. Ten or 15 years from now there probably will be production from deep oil wells and the more sophisticated food areas."

Current manufacturing activity in the oceanographic field is mainly confined to submersible vessels, research instruments and equipment to enable man to operate at great depths.

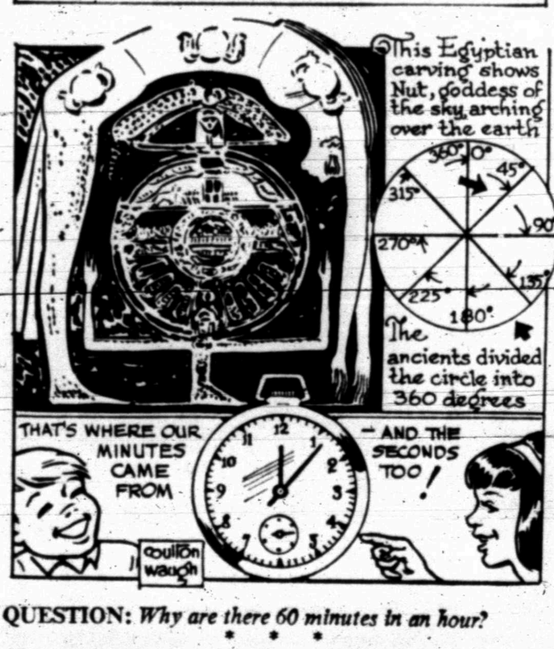

In its projection of oceanography's future as a commercial undertaking, Merrill Lynch says scientist believe the greatest riches of the ocean, which cover 71 per cent of the earth's surface, lie on the continental shelves surrounding the land masses.

So far, industry's biggest and most profitable oceanographic venture has been offshore production of oil and gas. Offshore wells provide 16 per cent of the petroleum produced in the Western world and are expected to account for 40 per cent 10 years from now.

Companies now are extracting sulphur, manganese, salt and bromine from the seas. In the future they may de able to remove from deep-water manganese nodules not only manganese but rich deposits of nickel, copper and cobalt.

Many companies are optimistic about the possibilities. Frank Compton, who heads the Ocean Division of North American Rockwell Corp., a manufacturer of aircraft, missiles and electronics products, predicts that within 10 years underwater business will account for 20 to 25 per cent of his company's business.

Junior Editors Quiz on HOURS

QUESTION: Why are there 60 minutes in an hour?

* * *

ANSWER: The ancient Egyptians thought of a huge goddess, Nut, arching over the sky and carrying the sun (symbolized by the three discs) over the earth by day. At night, the sun was supposed to be carried back to the east by boat. The ancients had observed that the year had about 360 days and that the time between full moons was roughly 30 days. Twelve such moon periods made 360, about the same as the number of days in a year. The ancients concluded there was something magic about the number 360, and when they came to divide a circle in parts, they gave it 360 divisions or degrees. They had become used to figuring small units in 10s and 60s, so when they came to dividing the degree, they gave it 60 parts. The Romans called these "partes minutae primae," or first small parts, and from this came our word minute. The minute was then divided into "partes minutae secundae," or second small parts, shortened to seconds. At first, the hours were not strictly divided during the 24-hour period, daytime hours being longer than night ones. But with the later use of mechanical clocks, astronomers regulated the hours and divided them as the ancients had divided the circle. So we had 60 minutes in an hour and 60 seconds in a minute.

Edict To Have Little Effect On US Family Planning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pope Paul VI's birth control edict is not expected to have significant impact on the U.S. government's broad and costly family planning programs, say informed sources in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Past experience has shown that most poor women, including Roman Catholics, are eager to obtain means of birth control, these sources say.

"Many are desperate to control the size of their families," said a well-placed source. "They otherwise have one baby every year, and that keeps them in poverty and it's bad for their health."

The source said that men, from the Pope down, "have always speculated on the moral and theological issues, but it's the women who bear the babies —and they make the final decision."

HEW declined official comment on the Pope's encyclical released Monday forbidding Catholic women to use birth control pills or any other mechanical means of contraception.

No figures are available on the number of Catholics among women eligible for family planning services under federally supported programs. But officials say Catholics probably comprise a distinct minority.

HEW officials point out, however, that there are sizeable concentrations of Catholics in low-income brackets; Puerto Ricans and Mexican-Americans.

Mrs. Katherine B. Oettinger, HEW's deputy assistant secretary for population and family planning, noted in an interview that predominantely Catholic Puerto Rico has pioneered in family planning programs and they have been extremely popular. But, she said, "It's too early to tell how Catholic women will react to the Pope's statement."

The federal government provided about $28 million in birth control services last year.

President Johnson has asked for $56 million for the current fiscal year. Indications are that Congress will grant only part of the increase.

In another reaction to the Pope's pronouncement, 87 Roman Catholic theologians announced Tuesday in Washington that they were opposed to it and that they believe Catholic couples should use birth control techniques according to their own conscience.

"As Roman Catholic theologians, conscious of our duty and our limitations," they said, "we conclude that spouses may responsibly decide according to their conscience that artificial contraception in some circumstances is permissible and indeed necessary to preserve and foster the values and sacrednes of marriage."

Odessa Eyes Possible Loss Of Funds

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — The Ector County School Board will meet Thursday to discuss the possible loss of $400,000 in federal funds for failure to comply with school desegregation guidelines.

School Supt. Floyd Marny was notified Tuesday by the Dallas Office of Civil Rights of the Department of Health Education and Welfare that the district's alleged non-compliance was being called to the attention of the Washington office, where administrative action to strip the school of funds could be initiated.

Two months ago the civil rights division inspected the Ector County schools and notified the school board of what the department considered four violations.

These included not enough progress in integration of faculty, transportation of white students past minority group classrooms to predominately white schools, and that the geographical attendance zones failed to eliminate the dual school system in the district.

The HEW also said five schools were "identifiable as minority group schools."

In July the board answered the charges and said the members felt it had accomplished desegregation and were in compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

Brownsville Scouts Lead Canoe Race

AUSTIN (AP) — Explorer Post 119 of Brownsville continued to lead 12 other teams Tuesday in the Highland Lakes canoe race sponsored annually by the Austin Aqua Festival.

The Brownsville post also led the first day and recorded the winning time of 6 hours, 3 minutes and 21 seconds on Tuesday's second leg from Kingsland to Marble Falls. Mike Gonzalez, George Franklin Cox and John Bugge make up the Post 119 crew.

Second place in Class I went to Post 142 of Baytown, which was also second on the first day.

Post 176 of Mineral Wells ran first in Class II, and Post 36 of Austin led the post class.

Wednesday, the racers will paddle from Marble Falls to Travis County Park.

CAREER CORNER

By F. J. LAIN

The Austin American Statesman and Miss Lain award a new Mercury portable, courtesy of the Royal Typewriter Company, to Carmen Carter, Austin, Tex., for this question:

"What is a career that has to do with plastics? Would it have future promise?"

A — Not to be believed. Now employing some 200,000 persons, plastics is the fastest growing industry in the U.S. today. And experts think it will increase to eight times its present size by 1980! Already opportunity-seekers find an attractive personnel shortage.

TEST YOUR AWARENESS by counting the number of products you think of which are made of plastic, from bounding bottles to Aretha's latest record. A few of the more dramatic: The Echo I satellite balloon. . . feeding pouches (with life-sustaining properties) used by astronauts. . . Houston's skyhigh Astrodome, and. . .

THE SKY ISN'T THE LIMIT. There are plastic igloo-like buildings with such good insulation that human body heat warms them in subzero weather. . . implanted plastic heart valves keeping people alive. . plastic "dirt" in Mexico City's 1968 Olymphics stadium. . . light - weight plastic auto bodies for experimental low-powered electric cars. . . plastic diving equipment for ocean adventuring.

Some planners expect that within the next decade or so, more things will be made of plastics that any other material. The increasing demand will apply to jobs ranging from chemist to semi-skilled worker, president to janitor. In particular, an extreme shortage exists for skilled craftsmen such as. . .

PLASTICS MOLD MAKER. Also known as a tool and die maker in other industries, the mold maker is the most skilled craftsman in the plastics manufacturing plant. He sets up, operates, adjusts and maintains machines and hand tools to shape (master) molds from steel. Unionized, a journeyman can earn as much as $5-6.00 per hour, and with time-and-a-half rates for plentiful overtime, frequently makes $15,000 or more, a year. The job requires visual and manual dexterity, comprehension, learning speed, ability to communicate and alertness. Job security is generally excellent. Drawbacks include possibility of odd or night shifts at first, and plants may be hot and noisy.

APPRENTICESHIP for mold makers last for about four years (8,000 hours of which the first 500 are probationary), and 1968 apprentice wages start at $1.75-2.25 per hour and go up to $3.35 to 3.85 per hour. Apprentices learn to operate all basic machine shop equipment, related hand tools and accessory equipment used in mold making. HOW TO BECOME AN APPRENTICE?

SECURE SPECIFICS from the Mold Makers Division, The Society of Plastics Industry, Inc., 250 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

MOLD MAKERS EDUCATION. A college degree is not necessary, although some college training is helpful. In high school, take math through trig, elementary physics, mechanical drawing and basic machine shop. In junior college, continue same subjects and add metallurgy.

COLLEGES WITH COURSES IN MOLDS AND MOLD DESIGN include the Los Angeles Trade Technical College, 400 W. Washington, Los Angeles, Calif.; Newark College of Engineering, Newark, N.J.; and Lowell Technological Institute, Lowell, Mass.

Pros Say Palmer Is About Ready

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The pro golfing clan is saying Arnold Palmer is about ready to win a big one.

So, this is notice that Arnie's Army can start warming up its cheers. Arnie, Tom Weiskopf, the leading money winner, and defending champion Jack Nicklaus are favorites in the 65th Western Open starting Thursday.

Historic Olympia Fields, just south of Chicago—where such greats as Walter Hagen, Bobby Jones and Tommy Armour once matched shots—is well adapted for siege gun hitters like the favored trio.

The greens are true and hold like fly paper; you can let out the shaft on most of the fairways although drives will require spotting because of some narrowness and traps; and there are a lot of out-of-bounds hazards and enough trees to start a lumber camp.

The north course stretches 6,749 yards with a 35-36—71 par. The late Lawson Little set the official course record of 65 during the 1940 U.S. Open qualifying trials.

If Julius Boros' putter remains hot, the old codger again could be the surprise package.

He recently became the oldest player ever to win the National PGA—age 48. Until then, Jerry Barber, 45, had held that niche.

Weiskopf tops the money list with $137,061. He has won the San Diego and Flint Open, has been second twice, third three times and fourth once.

Billy Casper, the second leading money winner and Western Open champion in 1966 and 1965, is not entered.

The Western carries a $130,000 prize list with its biggest winning jackpot of $26,000.

Clippers Set For Playoff Tournament

The Snyder Clippers, champions of the local Senior Teenage League, will leave Thursday morning for Brownwood where they will take part in the district playoff tournament.

The Clippers are slated to take on Ranger in the first game of the double - elimination affair at 4:30. If they win they will then face Sweetwater, who drew a bye, at 9 that night. Should they lose, they will play at 4:30 Friday against the loser of the tilt between Cross Plains and Brownwood.

The local champions, who now have won 16 and lost only 2, swept through the league here, involving teams from Snyder and Colorado City, and then warmed up for the playoffs by winning the Post Tournament last weekend. In the final contest of that tourney they defeated the Snyder Jets, who had eliminated a Post team to make it an all-Snyder finals.

Joe Brown is manager of the Clippers. Terry Holt has served as coach throughout the season, but will not be able to make the trip because of his son, Terry, who was a recent burn victim. The Holts transferred their son to Lubbock Tuesday morning. Garland Bishop is now assisting Brown.

The Clippers were allowed to get three players from the rest of the league, so they have added Steve Moffett, Ronnie Lewis and David McGinnis, all from the Jets.

The winner at Brownwood will go to the state playoffs, which will be held in San Angelo next week.

US Divers Hope To Win Olympics

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Can the United States continue its 48-year domination of Olympic diving?

It's up to the talented group of men who will open the 18th National AAU outdoor swimming and diving championships here today. Heading the listing are Pan American Champion Bernie Wrightson and Keith Russell, defending AAU champ in two of the three diving events.

Olympic champion Lesley Bush heads the women's field.

The swimmers will take over with four world record holders competing in eight events Thursday. The four-day, 30-event swimming schedule ends Sunday night.

The United States has taken every gold medal in men's Olympic springboard diving since 1920 and all but one in high diving since then.

But there are signs the rest of the world is closing the gap.

World record holders competing Thursday include Mark Spitz of Santa Clara in the 100-meter butterfly, Debbie Meyer of Sacramento, Calif., in 400 freestyle, Catie Ball of Jacksonville, Fla., in the 100 breaststroke and Karen Muir of South Africa in the 200 backstroke.

Rozelle Tells Saints To Keep Tight Lips

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Pro Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle "has threatened to levy $5,000 fines" on any New Orleans Saints' officials "indiscreet enough to discuss" the awarding of Kevin Hardy to the San Francisco 49ers, the Times-Picayune said today.

In a dispatch from the Saints' training camp at San Diego, Calif., sports editr Bob Roesler said Hardy, the reluctant National Football League rookie from Notre Dame, had hired a Texas attorney who "was reported en route to New York for a confrontation" with Rozelle.

Hardy, No. 1 draft choice of the Saints, as awarded to the 49ers last week by Rozelle as compensation for star pass catcher Dave Parks. Rozelle also gave San Francisco New Orleans' No. 1 pick in next year's college football draft.

Parks played out his option with the 49ers and signed with New Orleans. Under NFL rules, however, San Francisco was entitled to compensation for the loss of Parks.

Roesler wrote that Hardy had hired Doc Blanchard, an attorney and Texas state senator from Lubbock, to represent him in the affair. "Blanchard . . . not to be confused with the former Army All-American just happens to be Parks' lawyer and agent," the story said.

"Saints officials are absolutely mum . . . and with justification, for Rozelle has threatened to levy $5,000 fines on any club official indiscreet enough to discuss the subject," it continued.

Roesler said a source, not named, but "close to the situation" believes Hardy will eventually report to the 49ers.

The source was quoted by Roesler as saying, "He can't win this battle and is only hurting his career. This thing is bigger than any one player. Let the people in Washington fight this one out. And believe me, Washington is already looking into this."

Hardy's whereabouts were unknown. His nother in Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Margaret Hardy, said she hadn't heard from him.

"He's unhappy with the way he was handled," said Mrs. Hardy. "Remember, he's just a rookie. I'm sure he has nothing against the 49ers even though he was very happy he was drafted by New Orleans."

Stallings Having Rugged Summer

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

FORT WORTH (AP) — It was right after Texas A&M coach Gene Stellings had disclosed his rugged tailback Wendell Housley had lost 30 pounds in a bout with pneumonia that Stallings got the real shocker Tuesday.

He was told by a writer at the Texas Coaching School that his All-Southwest Conference quarterback Edd Hargett had been playing baseball this summer.

"You've got to be kidding!" Stallings said. "Oh boy, I sure didn't know about that. I'm going to look into this. Really?"

It's been that kind of summer for Stallings, head boss of the conference champion Aggies who upset Alabama in the Cotton Bow. He's spent a good deal of time worrying and wondering if his charges will make it back safe and sound to school this fall.

The Aggies are thin and their chances for a repeat rest on an injury free season—with Hargett in particular the main key to the attack.

Stallings said Housley, who made a jarring touchdown run through what seemed like half of the Alabama team a 20-16 victory, might still be weak when school starts.

"I hope he will be okay," Stallings said. "He had a temperature of 104 degrees for a long time."

Stallings said he had been giving some thought to the possibility that All-American candidate Hargett might get hurt.

"Hargett has two bad knees you know," Stallings said. "I believe my first choice for a quarterback would be Charley Riggs."

Asked about Jimmy Sheffield, a promising newcomer, Stallings said "He'll have to prove himself. He hasn't worked out one day. I will say this — he's confident. He told Hargett to learn a new position."

Graebner Gains Win

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — New York's Clark Graebner repeated his 1967 victory over George Seewagon, also of New York, in the Eastern Grass Court Tennis Championships Tuesday.

The top-seeded Graebner gained the 1968 tourney's third round with 6-3, 9-7 victories over the lanky Rice star, thus leading all but one of the seeded players.

The only casualty among the favored in Tuesday's play was seventh ranked Ray Moore, a South African who was downed 9-7, 9-7 by Jaime Fillol of Chile.

Indians Overcome Hansen's Triple Play

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ron Hansen of Washington pulled off the first unassisted triple play in the major leagues in 41 years, but it didn't take the Cleveland Indians long to get over it.

After falling victim to Hansen in the first inning Tuesday night, the Indians went on to build up an 8-0 lead by the end of the fifth en route to a 10-1 breeze over the Senators.

"It was an easy game—after we got eight runs ahead," joked Cleveland manager Al Dark.

Texas Heavy Champ Decisions Harris

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Texas lightheavyweight champion Paul Patin pounded out a unanimous 10-round decision over Oklahoma lightheavy champ Alonzo Harris before 2,800 fans Tuesday night.

Patin, bidding for top 10 ranking, won every round, staggered the Oklahoma veteran on several occasions and stretched his career record to 34 victories against but three losses.

The winner, from Port Arthur, Tex., weighed 168¾. Harris, from Oklahoma City, scaled 175.

With the decision over Harris, Patin avenged all three of his prior defeats. The Sooner boxer last defeated Patin three years ago.

Patin now hopes to land a bout with any of the top 10 contenders in his division and has repeated demands for a match with Houston's Mark Tessman, rated No. 4 among the world's lightheavyweights.

Tueday night's card drew a paid attendance of $8,000.

New Bowl Game Is Planned For Tampa

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Collegiate football standouts from the North are to knock heads with those from the South of Tampa next Jan. 4 in the nation's newest bowl game—the American All-Star Game.

Tampa Sports Authority Chairman Vincent Thornton Tuesday announced scheduling of the bout and selection of the coaches to head the teams.

Thornton said University of Alabama Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant has signed to head the unit drawing 1968 season seniors from teams in the South and Southwest.

Purdue University Coach Jack Mollenkopf is under contract to lead the opposing team.

Cowboys Trim Squad

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League trimmed four rookies from the squad Tuesday.

The Cowboys cut linebacker Jerry Ahlin of Idaho; center Ron Hudson of Washington; placekicker Peter Christensen of Denmark; and Hugo Hollas, defensive back from Rice. Hollas, who was injured, was waived from the club.

The Cowboy roster now stands at 64. Four more must go by Thursday.

The Detroit Tigers and Baltimore, who had no problems with triple plays, also had easy times as the American League do broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth race remained at the status quo with another single after Rick Detroit rolled behind Earl Monday tripled. Campaneris Wilson's hitting and pitching to knocked in the final run in the a 5-0 victory over the New York sixth with another hit. The Tigers still lead the Orioles and Indians by seven games.

In the only other game, Oakland halted the Chicago White Sox' four-game winning streak with a 3-1 triumph.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs outscored San Francisco 10-4 in the afternoon, and at night St. Louis tumbled the New York Mets 7-1, Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 5-2, Los Angeles edged Houston 3-2 and Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Atalanta, 8-5 and 5-4 in 10 innings.

Hansen got Cleveland off to a bad start after Dave Nelson singled and Russ Snyder walked in the first inning. Joe Azcue lined to the shortstop, who stepped on second to double Nelson, and then tagged Snyder coming from first base on the hit-and-run.

Only seven other players have accomplished the feat, the last two in 1927 when shortstop Jim Cooney of the Chicago Cubs and first baseman Johnny Neun of Detroit did it.

Frank Howard gave Washington a 1-0 lead in the second with his 30th homer, but the Indians recovered by the fourth inning when Lee Maye slammed a two-run double.

Cleveland added six more runs in the fifth as Jose Cardenal doubled in three and scored on Maye's single. Cardinal drove in another run in the seventh and Sam McDowell coasted to his 11th victory in 20 decisions with a six-hitter.

Wilson was the big man for Detroit. He and Dick McAuliffe hit consecutive homers to open the third inning against Mel Stottlemyre, 13-8. The big righthander gave up only three hits before Daryl Patterson relieved when the first hitter in the ninth walked. Patterson saved Wilson's ninth triumph against eight losses.

Brooks Robinson broke a scoreless tie for Baltimore with a two-run single in the sixth inning and singled in another marker in the big seventh.

Jim Hardin, 13-6, stifled the Red Sox on four hits until Jose Tartabull singled in the eighth. Carl Yastrzemski doubled him home and Ken Harrelson whacked his 24th homer.

That's A-Plenty For An American

EDITOR'S NOTE — Evelyn Schulz sent this item to The Daily News, and perhaps readers who have some gripes they would like to get off their chests will enjoy it, and undoubtedly nearly everybody will concur with portions, if not all, of it. Mrs. Schulz clipped the item from the Welex Log, a [illegible] for which her husband, Ed, serves as district manager here. The Welex publication noted that it, in turn, clipped the item from Drilling Magazine. Here it is in a third publication:

I am a tired American. I am tired of being called the ugly American. I'm tired of having the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American — weary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.

I am a tired American — weary of being lectured by Gen. de Gaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.

I am a tired American — weary of Nasser and all the other blood-sucking leeches who bleed Uncle Sam white and kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the flow falters.

I am a tired American — weary of the beatniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.

I am a tired American — fed up with the mobs of scabby-faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity and morality on which America grew to greatness.

I am a tired American — weary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American — who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income other than government relief checks for three generations.

I am a tired American — who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race — who try to fist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture — in the arts, the movies, literature, the stage.

I am a tired American — weary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins — who prefer Chinese communism to capitalism — who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.

I am a tired American — who has lost all patience with that civil-rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast. Movies denouncing the United States. Movies made in Communist China.

I am a tired American — who is angered by the self-right-eous breast - beater critics in America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am a tired American — sickened by the slackjawed bigots who wrap themselves in bedsheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.

I am a tired American who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their children to private schools.

I am a tired American who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed. They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American — real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world — a generous - hearted nation — a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have-nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star-Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brassy trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flagpole.

I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen — a nation under God, truly with mercy and justice for all.

Wallace To Speak In Dallas, Houston

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace will speak in Dallas as well as in Houston prior to the Texas state convention of the American Independent party, a spokesman said Tuesday.

Bard Logan, state chairman of the party, said Wallace will speak at $25-a-plate fund-rising dinners Aug. 6 in Houston and Sept. 16 in Dallas.

The third party leader will be on hand for the state convention in Austin Sept. 17, Logan said.

The Houston appearance had been announced some time ago but the Dallas arrangements were made public only Tuesday.

Logan said an Aug. 7 speech tentatively planned for Waco had been canceled.

Opposes Pope's Stand

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — William H. Draper Jr., national chairman of the Population Crisis Committee, has told Republicans that Pope Paul VI's stand against artificial birth control devices makes it "even more vitally necessary" that the GOP call for population control in its platform.

"The Pope has missed one of the greatest challenges of our time," Draper testified Tuesday at GOP platform hearings. "He has turned his back on the desperate need of the 20th century. . ."

Draper, who was chairman of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Committee on Foreign Aid, urged adoption by the platform writers of a plank pledging "vigorous action and increased funds to help nations and individuals deal with the growing pressures of too rapid population growth."

TO DEVELOP MORE AREAS

State Parks To Charge Fee

AUSTIN (AP) — Thirtysix state parks will begin charging entrance fees this fall to pay for $5.75 million in bonds to develop recreation areas near urban areas.

The Parks and Wildlife Commission authorized sale of the bonds Tuesday. It is the first issue in a $75 million program authorized by constitutional amendment last year.

The Lyndon B. Johnson Park is not included in the entrance fee plan. J. R. Singleton, department executive director, said it could be "some three to four years" before the park is developed.

The department does not yet know how it is going to spend $1 million in state and federal funds recently authorized for the LBJ park. Singleton mentioned the possibility of building a swimming pool in the park, landscaping and development of a water course in a rugged ditch area of the park.

The bond issue will be repaid in 10 years from $1-a-day entrance fees charged at 30 state parks, 50-cent fees at six others and $12 annual passes to all parks but three.

The three exceptions are the San Jose Mission, Varner-Hogg Plantation and the Eisenhower Birthplace. Deed restrictions and other legal agreements require separate treatment for those.

Entrance fees in other states sharply reduced the number of visitors at first, a department spokesman said, and estimates of initial attendance reduction in Texas as a result of the fees run from one-third to one-half.

The parks with $1 fees "as soon as feasible after Sept. 1 are: Abilene, Atlanta, Bastrop, Blanco, Bonham, Bentsen-Rio Grande, Caddo Lake, Cleburne, Daingerfield, Davis Mountains, Eisenhower, Falcon, Fort Parker, Garner, Goliad, Goose Island, Huntsville, Inks Lake, Kerrville, Lake Brownwood, Lake Corpus Christi, Lake Whitney, Lockhart, Martin Dies Jr., Meridian, Palmetto, Palo Duro Canyon, Possum Kingdom, Stephen F. Austin and Tyler.

The 50-cent fee will be charged at Balmorhea, Big Spring, Governor Hogg Shrine, Monahans Sandhills, Mother Neff and Washington-on-the-Brazos.

Exempted from the fees are Acton, Brazos Island, General Zaragosa, Indianola, Lipantitlan, Velasco, Buescher, Fannin Battleground, Fort Griffin, Jim Hogg, Mission San Francisco de los Tejas and San Jacinto.

Six parks now operated on a concession or lease arrangement and not affected by the commission's action are: Jeff Davis, Longhorn Cavern, MacKenzie, Tips, Copano Bay and Port Lavaca Causeways.

All fees are in addition to use fees for such things as camp sites.

A special group rate of 10 cents a person will be charged children 12 or under in groups of 10 or more.

Gets Ten Days For Conjuring Whammy

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — A man was sentenced to 10 days in city jail for giving Municipal Judge Romualdo E. Chavez a whammy.

Chavez said he was conducting court when he noticed James Khron of Los Angeles giving him what Chavez called the evil eye. Chavez said Khron clasped his hands together and pointed both index fingers at him.

The judge gave Khron five days for contempt of court. When Khron repeated the gesture he was sentenced to another five days.
