Landfill open additional day

The Colorado City sanitary landfill will be open six days per week through the summer instead of five, announced City Manager Rick Crowley.

Previously, the landfill had been closed on Wednesdays and Sundays but Crowley said that the normally heavier use during the summer months, due to more construction and so forth, prompted city officials to keep it open Monday through Saturday.

The landfill will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on those days.

(Q) How come the taxpayers of the Colorado Independent School District paid for lights to be put on both new tennis courts, when they cannot be turned on at night for their use?

(A) CISD superintendent Charlie Uselton said, "The tennis court lights at Colorado High School are being repaired at the present time."

He continued, "The contractor that installed the lights has been contacted and is working on the problem. The power to thelights has been cut off, as the lights would burn twenty-four hours a day had the lights been on. We though it best to turn the lights completely off, rather than the taxpayers paying the high utility bill from continuously light."

Uselton concluded, "The lights should be in working order by the time this appears in the Colorado City RECORD."

New rodeo banners donated to Chamber

Barq's Root Beer has donated the banners to be used at the Chamber of Commerce office and the rodeo arena during the AJRA rodeo scheduled for June 29-July 2.

Chamber Manager Linda McCombs noted that this year's banners were made of paper instead of cloth because the banner used at last year's rodeo was stolen and new ones had to be made.

The rodeo will begin each night at 7:30 and the rodeo parade will start at 5 p.m. Saturday, July 2. Following the parade, a barbeque supper will be held on the courthouse lawn at 5:45 p.m.

Rodeo tickets are available from all Rodeo Queen contests at $3 for adults and $2 for children; barbeque tickets can be purchased from any member of the 4-H rifle team, which will receive all proceeds from the supper, at $4.50 each.

Sammy Smith Rodeo Company is supplying the stock for the rodeo this year and Marv Pierce will be the announcer.

THE NEW AJRA rodeo banner is being proudly displayed by Chamber of Commerce Secretary Patti Powell and Chamber Manager Linda McCombs.

THIS BRIDGE across Lone Wolf Creek took about a year to build and should last much longer than bridges previously built in that location.

Ribbon cutting is slated for low crossing bridge

A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 16 to commemorate the opening of the Colorado River Low Crossing Bridge at the Rogers Road exit at Interstate 20.

Another bridge that has recently been completed is one on Lone Wolf Creek by the railroad tracks, near the Sterling City Highway.

Bridges have been built in the spot before but have always washed out when heavy rains came through and it is hoped that this bridge, built with joint funds of Colorado City and the Highway Department, will be permanent.

The Commission voted to send the property owners in each case notices informing them that the structures had been declared unsafe and stating the date of a public hearing at which they can state objections to the Commission's decision.

City Manager Rick Crowley also reminded the group that they would need to take action on the three buildings that had already been condemned, including the Baker Hotel.

Aid offered to low-income families

Some low-income Texas households may be eligible for help in paying their cooling bills, according to the head of the Texas Department of Human Resources.

Human Resources Commissioner Marlin W. Johnston said the assistance with paying utility bills is available to low-income households who in June 1983 received food stamps, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Supplemental Security Income, or needs-tested Veterans Administration benefits.

Potentially eligible veterans are those who receive payments under 415, 521, 541, or 542 of Title 38 of the U.S. Code or under Section 306 of the Veterans and Survivors Pension Improvement Act of 1978.

Eligibility is limited by gross income. For instance, aid is available for a one-person household having less than $334.49 gross income per month. The gross income limit is $546.49 for a two-person household, $749.49 for a three-person household, $926.49 for four persons, $1,092.49 for five, and $1,277.49 for six.

Eligible households must be subject to energy cost increases–because of higher bills or rent due to rising utility costs. Households are eligible if they live in privately owned or rented housing even if the cost of utilities is included in the rent payment or if the household pays only a portion of its home energy costs.

Johnston said applications are mailed automatically to households which receive food stamps, AFDC, and SSI. Households receiving needs-tested Veterans benefits must requst an application from DHR in June.

If you have not received an application and think your household may be eligible, contact a local office of the Texas Department of Human Resources, Johnston said.

Cook's Corner

Forbes learns by teaching cooking

Billie Forbes learned how to cook after she got married and one of the things that helped her to learn was being a 4-H leader when her two daughters were old enough to join the organization. She explains, "I taught cooking in 4-H which helped me as much as it did the girls because I had to stay one step ahead of them. Some of the younger girls could sure cook!"

Her daughters helped with the cooking chores a lot, she said: "Both of my girls loved to cook and one cooks fancy desserts, the other was salads and meats. So, I was left with vegetables and stuff like this whenever they were home cooking."

The types of things Mrs. Forbes now cooks change with the seasons. "In the wintertime, I love soup. I make all my own soups. I make lots of salads and casseroles in the summer. They're easier to cook and quicker." But, summer or winter, she likes to plan ahead and prepare as much in advance as she can.

Her grandchildren picked their favorite recipes of grandma's to be included in "Cook's Corner" this week.

Search continues for dump site

The state's search for a place to bury low-level radioactive waste has narrowed to portions of 105 Texas counties, including Mitchell and several other Big Country counties.

Most of the potential sites are located in north central, western and southwestern parts of the state. The Texas Coast, the Panhandle and chunks of East and West Texas have been ruled out because of undesirable geographic conditions, such as shallow groundwater, limestone deposits or flooding.

The report proposes to concentrate the search in 15 regions of the state. It is the first phase of the three-step study designed to locate the best place to construct a landfill for low-level radioactive waste from nuclear reactors, hospitals, laboratories and other industries handling radioactive materials.

Spent reactor fuel will not be dumped at the landfill, a state official said, but other radioactive material from the reactor sites, such as contaminated chemicals, worker clothing and tools will be deposited there, he said.

The Red Bed Plains Region where Mitchell County is located is one of the 15 regions, and it listed as one of the "preferred locations" in the report. This region incudes parts of Mitchell, Howard, Martin, Sterling, Glasscock, Dawson, Borden, Scurry and Kent counties. It is one of th etop eight of the 15 regions.

"This area features small, but favorable sitting locations in nine counties or more, each exhibiting preferred soil conditions," the report said.

The search will be narrowed to five regions in the next phase of the study expected to be completed by July, said Rick Jacobi, the authority's general manager. A final site will be pinpointed through the study no later than October, he said.

MATHEMATICS

BASIC TERMS, SIGNS AND SYMBOLS

SUM - The answer to an addition problem.

DIFFERENCE - The answer to a subtraction problem.

PRODUCT - The answer to a multiplication problem.

QUOTIENT - The answer to a division problem.

EVEN NUMBERS - Whole numbers which can be divided evenly by 2. Example: 6, 14

PRIME NUMBERS - Whole numbers which can only be divided evenly by themselves and 1. Example: 7, 29, 83

+ plus: addition sign
— minus: subtraction sign
x or • multiplication sign
÷ division sign
= equal to
≠ not equal to > greater than, 5>4
< less than, 5<6
≃ approximately equal to

WHOLE NUMBERS

A whole number is made up of one or more digits. Each digit has a place name and a value which is determined by the place that it occupies in the number. For example, in the number 143, the four occupies the tens place and therefore has a value of 4 X 10 or 40. Below the chart shows the names of the places for each digit in the whole number 8,490,592,426.

billion	hundred million	ten million	million	hundred thousand	ten thousand	thousand	hundred	ten	one
8,	4	9	0,	5	9	2,	4	2	6

When adding whole numbers, align the numbers vertically so that the digits will be in their proper value places.

PROBLEM 1. Find the sum of 246, 78, 1,292, 4

  246
   78
 1292

When subtracting whole numbers, place the larger number on top, align the numbers vertically with the digits in their proper value places, and subtract.

PROBLEM 2. Find the difference between 946 and 1,839.

- 946

Complete knowledge of the multiplication tables is essential in solving all multiplication and division problems, even in higher mathematics. Memorize multiplication tables 1 through 12. If you would like a chart of the multiplication tables, send a self-addressed, stamped, business-sized envelope to the address below and we will be happy to send you one.

PROBLEM 3. Find the product of 472 and 86.

x  86

PROBLEM 4. Find the quotient of 6744 divided by 8. $8\overline{)6744}$

AVERAGING NUMBERS

There are two steps involved in finding an average for a given set of numbers:

1. Add together all of the numbers to be averaged.
2. Divide the sum by the number of numbers added.

PROBLEM 1.

The salesperson traveled 18 miles on Monday, 23 miles on Tuesday, and 46 miles on Thursday. On the average, how many miles were traveled per day?

  18
  23
+ 46      3)87
  87

MEASUREMENTS

When doing math problems, be sure that all units of measurement are the same. For example, you must multiply inches and inches, feet and feet, etc. Here is a chart of the most common English measurement equivalents. Most of the problems on the GED test involve this type of measurement. However, if you would like a more extensive chart which includes metric measures, send a self-addressed, stamped, business-sized envelope to the address below.

LENGTH	12 inches (in.)	= 1 foot (ft.)
	36 inches	= 1 yard (yd.)
	3 feet	= 1 yard
	5280 feet	= 1 mile (mi.)
	1760 yards	= 1 mile
LIQUID	8 ounces (oz.)	= 1 cup (c.)
	2 cups	= 1 pint
	4 cups	= 1 quart (qt.)
	4 quarts	= 1 gallon (gal.)
WEIGHT	16 ounces (oz.)	= 1 pound (lb.)
	2000 pounds	= 1 ton (T.)
TIME	60 seconds (sec.)	= 1 minute (min.)
	60 minutes	= 1 hour (hr.)
	24 hours	= 1 day
	7 days	= 1 week (wk.)

CONVERTING MEASUREMENTS

To express a given amount in smaller units, multiply the amount by the number of smaller units contained in one larger unit.

Example: Change 5 pounds to ounces. 1 pound = 16 ounces. 5 x 16 = 80 ounces.

To express a given amount in larger units, divide the amount by the number of smaller units contained in one larger unit.

Example: Change 60 inches to feet. 1 foot = 12 inches. 60 ÷ 12 = 5 feet

PROBLEM 1. Change 2 minutes to seconds.

PROBLEM 2. Change 108 inches to yards.

REVIEW QUESTIONS

PROBLEM 1.

Mark's grades in school are 84, 92, 87, 94, 86, and 79. What is his average grade?

PROBLEM 2.

Mr. Thomas asked Mary to work in his store every weekday afternoon from 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. and on Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. She will be paid $3.35 per hour. How much will Mary earn in a week?

PROBLEM 3.

WRITING SKILLS

Most people have little trouble being understood by friends when using day to day speech. However, we often do not speak in complete sentences. We use single words or expressions to convey meaning. It's not always possible to write the same way we speak. If we did, important legal contracts or written instructions would become confused or misunderstood. Correct writing is our "formal English" with which we should become familiar in order to be concise and correct in writing. This series of writing skills lessons will cover the basic rules and concepts of formal English.

THE SENTENCE

A sentence is the expression of a complete thought. There must be a subject (someone or something performing an action) and there must be a predicate (showing an action or state of being). If these two parts are present, then we have a complete sentence.

(SUBJECT)	(PREDICATE)
a. The chimes	were played.
b. Lynn's little brother	cried for an hour
c. The handles of the baskets	are brown
d. The steam	is hot

These sentences are divided between the subject and the predicate.

PROBLEMS

Separate these sentences by drawing a vertical line between the subjects and predicates.

1. Trains whistle.
2. Who drew this cartoon?
3. This letter came in the last mail.
4. A game of basketball will be played in the new gymnasium.

TYPES OF SENTENCES

DECLARATIVE - A sentence which states a fact. It is followed by a period.(.)

IMPERATIVE - A sentence which is a command. It is followed by a period. (.)

EXCLAMATORY - A sentence which shows strong feeling. It is followed by an exclamation mark.(!)

INTERROGATIVE - A sentence which asks a question. It is followed by a question mark. (?)

PROBLEMS

Label which types of sentences these are and place the correct punctuation at the end of each.

1. Always be courteous
2. Where is my jacket
3. Slow down
4. Our club is planning a new membership drive
5. Please mail this package for me

PUNCTUATION

When punctuating sentences, use the following rules for punctuation:

ALWAYS USE A PERIOD

At the end of:

1. A declarative sentence (statement). Ex: John likes vanilla.
2. An imperative sentence (command). Open the window, please.

After abbreviations and initials. Ex: Mr. N. Johnson; lb. qt.

After Roman numerals, capital letters and numbers in outlines.

ALWAYS USE A QUESTION MARK:

At the end of:

1. An interrogative sentence (question). Ex: Are you hungry?
2. A quotation that is a question. Ex: "Are you hungry?" mother asked.

ALWAYS USE AN EXCLAMATION MARK:

At the end of an exclamatory sentence or interjection showing strong feeling. Ex: Ouch! That hurts!

ALWAYS USE A COMMA:

Between the:

1. Name of a city and state. Ex: Wichita Falls, Texas
2. Day of the month and the year. Ex: May 28, 1948

To separate:

1. Words in a series of three or more. Ex: For lunch I had a hamburger, french fries, milk, and cake.
2. A direct quotation from the rest of the sentence. Ex: Dad said, "Be sure to wipe your feet."

To set off:

1. Words like yes, well, no, however, etc. Ex: Yes, I will go with you.
2. The name of a person directly addressed. Ex: Jane, did you call?

After:

1. The salutation of a friendly letter (Dear Mary,) and the closing of a letter (Sincerely yours,).
2. A person's last name when it is written before the first name. Ex: Reagan, Ronald

ALWAYS USE AN APOSTROPHE:

In a contraction. Ex: can't

To show possession. Ex: Linda's health has improved.

ALWAYS USE QUOTATION MARKS

Around the exact words of a speaker. Ex: "May I have some?" asked Sue.

ALWAYS USE A COLON:

After the salutation of a business letter. Ex: Dear Sir:

In writing time, between the minutes and the hour. Ex: 9:00

To introduce a list. Ex: The following items are on the grocery list: milk, ice.

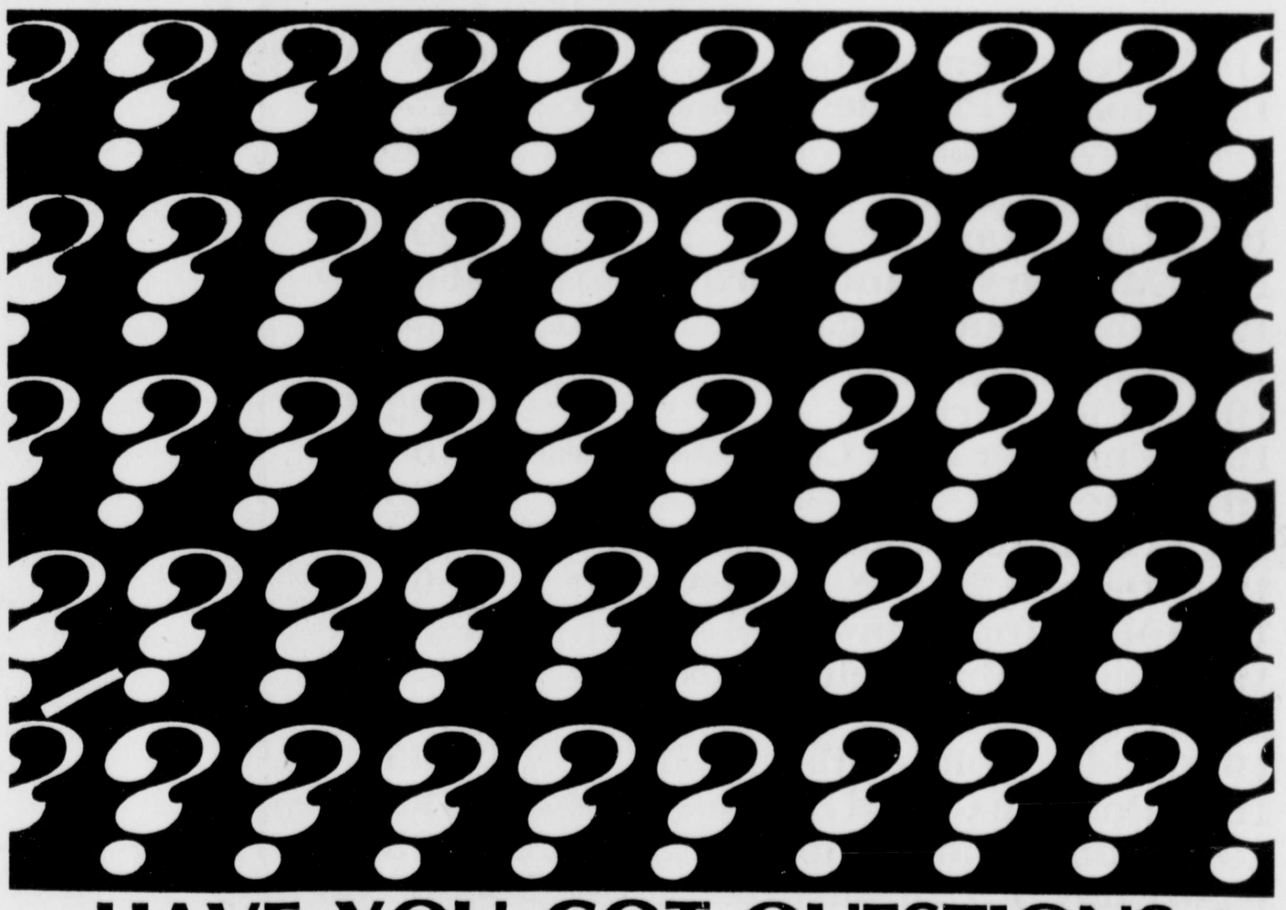

ALWAYS USE A HYPHEN:

To separate syllables of a word. Ex: sep-a-rate

PROBLEMS

Punctuate where necessary.

1. Where did you get those rare stamps John
2. Hasnt Mrs Clark moved her law office
3. The boys ran races pitched horseshoes and waded in the creek
4. Ruth your mothers rose garden is beautiful
5. Will you carry these packages for me Tom asked Aunt Helen

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza cathedral length gown fashioned with wide bands of lace at the neckline, on the sleeve cuffs and in tiers on the skirt. A cathedral train of organza and wide bands of lace extended from a satin bow at the back waistline.

She carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Prior to the ceremony classical selections were played by organist Gordan McMillian. "Trumpet Voluntary" was the processional; "Trumpet Tun" was the recessional. The bride's table was set with a silver punch bowl and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a yellow and white daisy floral arrangement. The groom's table had silver appointments and refreshments of cheese, cocktail bread and fruit.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Joe Coldewey and Mrs. Ernestine Stubblefield of Colorado City, Mrs. Owen Hamilton, Mrs. Dan Howard, Mrs. George Morris, Mrs. W. G. McMillan, Mrs. Morris Nunley, Mrs. O. V. Scott, Mrs. Robert Liles and Mrs. Fuston McCarty.

The bride'a going-away dress of polyester linen was styled with a white bodice and gray skirt, trimmed with pink piping and belt, and complimented by a matching gray jacket.

Following a honeymoon trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple will live in Odessa.

The bride graduated from Monterey High School in Lubbock and Texas Tech where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta and Phi Beta Phi sororities. She is employed by the Odessa school system.

The bridegroom, a 1976 graduate of Colorado High School, graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and is employed by Amoco Production Co. USA in Odessa.

The bridal couple and members of their wedding party were honored at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the Lubbock home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton M. McPherson. Co-hosting the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Barber of Colorado City, grandparents of the groom and the groom's parents.

Century club members total 32,000 in U.S.A.

Thirty-two thousand people now living in the country are 100 years or older, and three-fourths of them are women, according to the Census Bureau.

The middle-aged and elderly are the fastest growing segments of the population, the Census said in its new study.

The report estimates the nation's total population as of last July 1, at 232,057,000, an increase of more than five million since the national head count in 1980.

The study indicates that the nation's median age has climbed to 30.6 years, a record high. It reached 30 in 1980 and was 30.3 a year later.

And thanks to the "baby bust" of the 1960's, the number of teenagers is dwindling. But the number of children five and under is on the rise again.

The fastest growing age group is 35 to 44, the bureau said, as the oldest segment of the World War II boom babies reaches this age. That segment–called a cohort by statisticians–has increased 9.5 percent since the 1980 census and now numbers more than 28 million.

"This is the most rapidly growing age group and will continue to be for years to come, as the baby boom generation approaches middle age," said the report prepared by Louisa Miller of the bureau's State and National Population Estimates Branch.

Second in the growth is the over-85 age group, which has increased 9.1 percent as longer life spans add to their numbers. That group totaled 2.4 million.

This group includes 32,000 people aged 100 and over, whom 24,000 are women, the bureau said.

According to the study, the nation has 25,000 white centenarians, and 7,000 blacks aged 100 or older.

CHS students receive scholarships

Three Colorado City students have been awarded Carr Academic Scholarships for 1983-84 at Angelo State University.

The three are Amy Moore, $1,000, Stacey Tarter, $1,000 and Tracy Tarter, $1,500.

The awards are provided by the Robert G. and Nona K. Carr Scholarship Foundation and are based on the students' outstanding academic records and personal achievements. Moore was selected to Who's Who Among American High School Students and was a member of the National Honor Society. She also played in the band and was a member of the student newpspaper staff. Captain of the basketball and football teams, Stacey Tarter was selected to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Tracy Tarter participated in football, basketball, track and band and was selected to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

The three Colorado City students are among approximately 300 distinguished high school students throughout the state and nation who have been selected to receive Carr Academic Scholarships for 1983-84. Another 500 Carr Academic Scholarships have been awarded to currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students at Angelo State.

The distinctive scholarship program was created by the late Mr. Carr in 1978 and will provide approximately $1.2 million in academic scholarships during the 1983-84 school year.

Mr. Carr bequeathed to the Board of Regents, Texas State University System, for the use of Angelo State, all his interest in oil, gas and other minerals with the provision that these properties be held in trust for the establishment of the Carr Academic Scholarship Program.

CANNING PEACHES

Wash and peel your peaches just as you would prepare them to be eaten fresh, or plunge them in boiling water for 2 minutes or until the skins slip. They can be halved or sliced, but be sure to remove the pits. Pack the paches into clean jars, leaving ½ inch at the top of the jars. Cover with boiling syrup made with 2 cups sugar to 4 cups water. If you like a sweeter syrup, add more sugar. Wipe off the sealing surface of the jar and close according to the type of lid being used. Place the jars in boiling water bath canner which is a large container with a rack in the bottom to hold the jars about one inch from the bottom. It should be tall enough to have space to cover the jars with about one to two inches of water and about the same amount of space above the water. The water should be hot but not boiling when you place the filled jars in the canner. Place the lid on the canner and bring the water to a rolling boil, but reduce the heat just to boiling. This prevents the juice from being drawn out of the jars. Boil pint jars 25 minutes and quart jars 35 minutes. Remove the jars from the water bath and let them cool away from a draft. The peaches can be canned without sugar if you prefer. You can expect to get about 30 to 44 pints of peaches from one bushel of peaches.

CANNING TOMATOES

Wash and sort fresh, firm, vine ripened tomatoes. Put them in a wire basket or thin cheese cloth bag and dip them in boiling water for 1 minute or until the skins crack. Plunge them into cold water immediately. Remove the core and skins. Leave them whole or cut them into halves or quarters. Pack them into clean jars leaving ½ inch at the top of the jar, pressing gently to fill spaces. Add no water. Add ½ teaspoon salt to each pint or 1 teaspoon to each quart. Wipe off the sealing surface of the jars and close according to the type of lid being used, following the manufacturer's directions. Place the jars in a boiling water bath canner which is a large container with a rack in the bottom to hold the jars about one inch from the bottom. It should be tall enough to have space to cover the jar with about 1 or 2 inches of water and about the same amount of space above the water. The water should be hot but not boiling when you place the fitted jars in the canner. Place the lid on the canner and bring the water to a rolling boil, but reduce the heat just to boiling. This prevents the juice from being drawn out of the jars. Boil pint jars 35 minutes and quart jars 45 minutes. Remove the jars from the water bath and let them cool. The tomatoes can be canned without salt for the person on a low salt diet.

CANNING BERRIES

Just wash, drain and cap the berries as though you were preparing them for eating fresh. Fill clean jars to ½ inch of the top of the jar, shaking the berries down for a full pack. Cover them with boiling syrup; made with 2 cups sugar and 4 cups of water–a thin syrup or add more sugar if you prefer them sweeter. Leave ½ inch space at the top of the jar. Wipe off the sealing surface of the jar and close according to the type of lid being used following manufacturer's directions. Place the jars in a water bath canner which is a large container with a rack in the bottom to hold the jars about 1 inch from the bottom. It should be tall enough to have space to cover the jar with about one to two inches of water and about the same amount of space above the water. The water should be hot but not boiling when you place the filled jars in the canner. Place the lid on the canner and bring the water to a rolling boil, but reduce the heat, just to boiling. This prevents the juice from being drawn out of the jars. Boil pint jars 10 minutes and quart jars 15 minutes. Remove the jars from the water bath and let them cool. The berries may be canned without sugar if you prefer. Then sugar can be added according to the way they are to be used–cobblers or jelly.

If you want to know more about canning, call or write me for a copy of the B-194, "Home Canning Fruits and Vegetables."

THE CHRISTIAN, HUMBLE OR TIMID?

Humility and timidity are often confused in the mind of the average person. They should not be. In fact, they are poles apart. The Christian is instructed to be humble: "Humble yourselves...under the mighty hand of God that he may exalt you in due time" (I Peter 5:6). Humility is to be desired. Humility demands deep recognition of dependence on Christ. It fosters cooperation with others.

Timidity is utterly different. Timidity is akin to fear. The disciples were timid, backward men before Pentecost. They lacked both courage and stamina.

The instruction of God's Word is that the Christian be humble, not timid. In fact, Paul insisted, "In (Christ) we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him" (Ephesians 3:12). Humility and boldness are a great Biblical combination for the child of God!

UGSA Action

Action was fast and furious Tuesday in United Girls Softball Association play as the Chics, Red Devils, Cougars and Panthers all captured victories.

The Chics downed the Chargers 14-9 in Division II play.

Tammy Bradley pitched three innings for the winners and received the win. Christabell Molina and Misty Strain aided Bradley in relief. Molina, Strain and Laura Crow led the Chics hitting attack.

For the Chargers, Sylvia Alvarez was the losing pitcher, as she went the distance. Denise Lowrance aided the cause with her third home run of the season. Amber Stephens also hit well for the Chargers. The loss drops the Chargers' record to 1-4, while the Chics' record stands at 4-1 for the year.

The Red Devils, behind a fine pitching performance from Dalia Franco downed the Sweetwater Blue Angels 16-2 in Division I play.

The Division II Cougars had an uphill struggle in their contest against the Sweetwater Blue Jays, but finally ended up on the winning side as they took a 21-19 victory.

The Cougars trailed the Sweetwater team 10-2 after two innings of play, but battled back until they regained the lead 21-19 after five innings. The big blow was a Kim Wulfjen triple which scored three runs.

Margie Beltran started the game for the winners and pitched three innings. Pricilla Mays got credit for the win as she pitched two stanzas. But the story of the contest was the fine relief pitching of Wulfjen, who pitched the final two innings and held Sweetwater scoreless to preserve the win.

In other Division I play the Panthers and Champions hooked up in a battle, with the Panthers getting the win 16-15.

The Champions held a 15-14 lead going into the final inning, but the Panthers rallied for two runs to take the victory.

Melanie Gilstrap started for the Panthers while Nat Gabba pitched two innings and received the win. Jennifer Munoz was losing pitcher for the Champions.

The win ups the Panthers' record to 3-2, while the Champions fall to 2-2-1.

In Thursday night action in Colorado City, the Red Devils and Sweetwater battled to an 11-11 tie. Action was halted because of the time limit.

Mikkie Findley, Franco and Tracy Hoover pitched for the Red Devils. Glenda Wallace paced the 'Devils hitting attack.

The tie leaves the Red Devils' record at 4-1-1 for the year.

In the other Thursday night contest, the Cougars put up a hard battle before finally falling to the undefeated Sweetwater Superstars by a count of 13-11.

It looked like the Cougars might pull off an upset as they led the visitors 10-7 in the fifth inning, but the Superstars rallied for the win. Wulfjen took the loss for the Cougars, Beltran and Mays also pitched for the 'Coogs.

Darla Gregory aided the Cougars' cause with a homerun to left field. Nancy Castillo played a good defensive game at third base, including getting a double play by herself.

The Cougars' record stands at 3-3 for the season.

Teenage League opens season

Thursday night marked the official start of Texas Junior Teenage Baseball in Colorado City, and the Braves and Lions came away with wins.

In the opening contest, the Lions used a big second inning in which they scored six runs to run past the White Sox by a score of 10-6.

The Lions struck first in the opening inning when David Birmingham doubled and later scored as the Lions took a 1-0 lead. The big second inning was keyed by a Doug Chitsey triple and the Lions held a 7-0 lead going into the third inning.

The White Sox battled back, but could not overcome the large Lion lead as the Lions won the opening game of the season.

Birmingham got the win for the Lions, and Eduardo Melendez aided him in relief. Sammy Rivera was the losing pitcher for the White Sox.

In the second game which pitted the Braves against the Colts, the Braves came away with a 10-1 victory in four innings.

The contest was highlighted by a sparkling no-hit performance by Brave pitcher Paul Arellano. The Braves 10-hit attack was led by Wylie Dakan who went 2 for 3 at the plate.

County may get juvenile board

A new legislative bill proposed by Roby democrat Steven Carriker calling for a juvenile board for the 32nd judicial district which includes Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher counties has been passed by the House and is awaiting the governor's signature.

The bill states that the name of the board will be the 32nd Judicial District Juvenile Board and it will be composed of 11 non-salaried members. If the bill is signed by Governor Mark White it will go into effect September 1.

The board will be composed of two members appointed by Nolan County Commissioners Court, two members appointed by the Sweetwater City Commission, two members appointed by the Board of Trustees of the Sweetwater Independent School District, three members appointed by the Mitchell County Commissioners Court and two members appointed by the Fisher County Commissioners Court.

The board will also have five ex-officio members comprised of the judge of the district court having jurisdiction in fisher, Mitchell and Nolan Counties, the county judges of Fisher, Mitchell and Nolan counties and the judge of Nolan County court-at-law. According to Sweetwater Chief Juvenile Officer Stephen Lawhon the ex-officio members can attend all board meetings but do not vote on the various issues concerning the board.

Towns that are included in the 32 Judicial District are: Mitchell County–Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook; Nolan County–Sweetwater, Roscoe, Blackwell, Maryneal, Divid well, Maryneal, Divide and Highland; Fisher County–Roby, Rotan, McCaulley and Hobbs.

Commissioner Paul Hunter feels that the new board will be an added plus for Mitchell County. "This will work good in a rural area. This way we have more people filling in on the board and our community will have a voice on the board," said Hunter. If the bill is signed by White, Hunter says right now he does not know who or how the Mitchell County appointees will be made.

Lawhon also feels the new juvenile board is a good thing for all counties. "It will provide a stronger body for each county. Now each county will be equally represented according to population instead of just one county (Nolan) representing all three districts." Lawhon says he doesn't see any reason why the bill won't be signed by the governor.

The duties of the board will be to establish a juvenile probation department in accordance with standards set by the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, appoint a chief juvenile probation officer where more than one juvenile probation officer is required who, with the board's approval, may appoint a sufficient number of assistants.

The board may also designate one or more courts as the juvenile court and may appoint referees in accordance with Sections 51.04 and 51.10 of the family code, personally inspect the detention facilities in the county or counties on an annual basis, report annually to the Commissioners Court on the suitability of the quarters and the facilities of the juvenile court and operate or supervise juvenile services at the county level, including the making of recommendations as to the need for and the purchase of such services.

Is citizen's find a meteorite?

By TOM JAY GOSS II

From a galaxy long ago and far away, we sometimes receive messages that there is something out there. Maybe. Maybe, just rocks, because that's what we get the most of.

Les McDonald, who lives out at Lake Colorado City, thinks he has one of those.

He found it during his oil field days, working on a drilling rig near the San Juan River, just out of Mexican Hat, Utah.

He kept a boat at his rig, so that he could go fishing now and then, when things were slow around the rig.

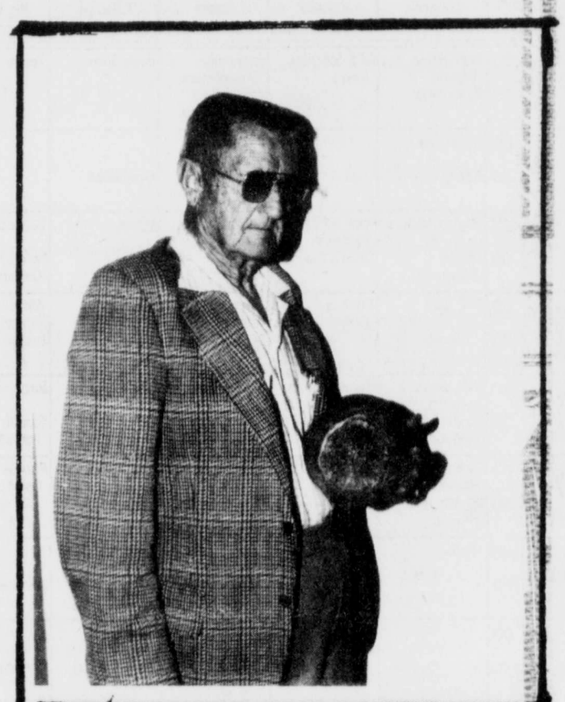

One day he took his boat down to the banks of the San Juan and started downstream. He was looking for a place to tie up so that he could do some bank fishing. He found a little cove in the riverbank, pulled in and tied up.

He took his pole and started across the sandstone bank.

"I walked right over the top of that dude," he says, in reference to the rock he has. "The sun was shinin' right down in the hole it was in and by golly, it was the prettiest thing I ever saw, gleamin' and shinin'."

The rock was down in the bottom of a hole in the sandstone. He couldn't quite reach it. "Arm wasn't long enough," he explained. He made two trips back to the rig to find something that he could use to take the rock out of its hole and finally came up with it.

He took it back to the rig with him and when a geologist came by the next day, he proudly displayed his find.

Les McDonald

"You know what that is, don't you?" the geologist said.

"No," I said.

"It's a meteorite," he said.

The geologist told McDonald to take it to an assay office in Grand Junction to see what it was worth.

"I laid the rock on his desk," McDonald said, "and the assayer said 'I'll give you $500 for it.'"

"I told him, I didn't want to sell it," McDonald says, "Later, I showed it to a man in Denver, who offered me a thousand dollars for it."

The fact is, he never did sell it. Still has it, and has had it photographed and will send the photographs to the Smithsonian Institute in Washington.

The rock is about six or seven inches in diameter and is flat, about an inch and three-quarters thick. An outer rim appears to be fine grained sandstone. The interior is crystalline in appearance.

McDonald does not know that the mineral content of the rock may be but says that it fluoresces and makes a geiger counter go crazy. It looks like the inverted cap of a mushroom.

He hopes that the Smithsonian will find the answer to his oft repeated question, "What is it?"

Oil production down

Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace announced that 60 refineries in Texas processed 110,563,647 barrels of crude oil and hydrocarbon blends during February.

February's volume compares to 120,355,123 barrels in January and 110,955,831 barrels in February 1982.

Texas refineries ran 86,195,119 barrels of crude oil in February compared to 91,847,204 barrels in January and 83,588,532 barrels in February 1982.

Products manufactured in February totaled 110,694,092 barrels, down from 122,121,646 barrels in January and down from the 111,532,276 barrels in February 1982.

A BIG CATCH--Local fishermen Herman Mitchell and David McNary proudly show their "big catch" they caught recently at Lake Champion, a 33 pound, 43-inch yellow catfish. The duo caught the fish on a throwline using perch for bait.

Palace Theater has new owner

A few changes are in store for the Palace Theater since it has been taken over by Keith Pherigo, including a Spanish matinee every Sunday afternoon beginning this Sunday.

Pherigo said English-speaking movies would still be shown Friday through Monday, but the format will be a little different than it used to be.

Two movies will be shown each night, the earlier one a PG and the later one an R, he stated.

Pherigo explained that he wanted to show movies for kids and also have movies available for the "basic, movie-going crowd," adding that he had no intention of ever showing X-rated movies here.

Future plans for the theater include the showing of a Saturday matinee beginning in July and the addition of a game room.

For now, Pherigo is content with re-doing the seats, painting and cleaning because he wants to see what the city will do about the Baker Hotel next door to the theater before spending any more money at the present site.

"If the city would do something about that old building, I would be more likely to do extensive renovations here," he said.

Sun employees hold Banquet

A Safety Banquet was held May 24 in the Coke County Recreation Hall in Robert Lee honoring all the employees of the Sun Gas Jameson Plant at Silver for one year of no "lost time" accidents.

Attended by sixty people, the catered dinner was earned by the staff for putting in over 71,000 man hours without having an accident that caused loss of work time.

Guests were spouses of the employees, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bergeron, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker of Abilene, Kenneth Rester of Laverne, OK, Jack Andrews of Dallas, Carl Herber of Oklahoma City, Jim Clendennen, Ms. Becky McHaffey and special guest, Mrs. Wavoline White of Robert Lee.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Jim Clendennen, assisted by Jack Denman and Raymond Westbrook.

Door prizes including one case of Sunoco oil, nine floral arrangements, three pieces of Leonard sterling, one Cross pen and pencil set and one money clip were given away during a drawing.

Maddox listed on OU honor roll

Marjori Maddox of Colorado City, was one of the students from nearly 200 Oklahoma communities, 48 other states and the District of Columbia, and several foreign countries listed on the University of Oklahoma's Norman campus honor roll for the 1983 spring semester.

In most colleges, students must earn a minimum 3.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale to be included on the honor roll. Students in the College of Engineering and College of Environmental Design, however, are recognized with a 3.0 or better.
