Knight Rest Homes Offer Elderly A "Home Away From Home"

The Knight Rest Home in Littlefield has become a "home away from home" for a large number of elderly and handicapped persons.

The spacious attractive block shaped red brick structure is surrounded by a cyclone fence in which the inner square features a patio-garden with a barbecue pit and comfortable chairs.

The new wing consisting of 4,000 sq. ft. contains separate wings for bedfast and a women residents. Constant care is provided by fourteen employees under the supervision of Mrs. J. E. Knight.

The older wing is occupied by residents who live normal lives in their golden years. Being among others of the same age group results in many common interests.

Mrs. Emily Minix, who recently suffered three broken ribs when she fell against her bed, is the oldest patient. She will celebrate her 103rd birthday, February 15. Mr. Randy Shipman, 38, a polio patient, is the youngest.

Mrs. Knight reports that numerous visits by Boy Scouts, Cubs, Brownies, Girl Scouts and church groups are a big comfort to the old folks who enjoy talking to the younger generation. Many shed tears of joy when the youngsters arrive for a visit.

Mrs. Knight wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb of Springlake and many others who donated to make the elderly folks Christmas a happy one. She regrets that all the names of those who helped are not available but expresses her sincere thanks to everyone.

The Knight Rest Home in Amherst has been in operation 7 years. The Littlefield home opened in November, 1960 and houses 50 residents. There are facilities available for 70.

Membership Drive Being Conducted

The Texas Farmers Union is conducting a membership drive throughout a 17-county West Texas area to meet goals set by the State Executive Committee.

The Lamb County Farmers Union met Wednesday at the Earth Community Room with President Jay Naman presiding.

Said Naman, "There is an apparent restlessness among the farmers of Texas and an awareness that they must join a general farm organization that believes in wise Federal farm programs and the importance of a positive vote in the 1963 Wheat Referendum."

"Our County organizations in West Texas will take advantage of this by executing the most intensified and widespread campaign for membership ever held in order to give farmers an opportunity to join and work for an organization that seeks parity of income prices. The alternatives to a strong representation by farmers in their national government, can be none other than the loss of the price gains accomplished during 1961 and 1962; and, the failure of the wheat referendum will doubtlessly result in no program and $1.00 wheat."

Naman went on to say, "I am confident that we will see the West Texas membership in Farmers Union double as a result of this membership drive."

Lamb County farmers will be working toward a goal of 300 members—a 50% increase over 1962 membership—between now and March 1st.

Here reports that new merchandise will begin arriving within the month and hopes every one will come by and see the 1963 line of new merchandise.

In many of the underdeveloped countries as much as 90% of the people are farmers, and they still can't produce enough food for a nutritious diet.

The meeting is built around the theme "Rural Electrification—Important to America's Strength". Topics ranging from resource development and rural areas development to the cooperatives' contribution to the nation's foreign aid program will be discussed at the four-day meeting.

NRECA has recently signed an agreement with the Agency for International Development to provide assistance in establishing electric cooperatives and rural development projects in Latin America and other areas of the free world.

A number of national awards will be presented to outstanding individuals in rural electrification during the meeting. Miss Rural Electrification of 1963 will be selected from among beauty queens representing various states.

Mighty Wolverettes Taken By Sudan Hornets 43-41

Well, it looks like our winning streak has been broken, but not for long, I hope.

Springlake's mighty girls lost to Sudan 43 to 41.

It always seems that when Springlake and Sudan play, it turns out to be an exciting and heart-stopping game. Tuesday night was no exception.

In the first quarter, Springlake was right on the heels of the Hornets, only 1 point separated the two teams' score. Gregory hit the basket for 5 points, Jones and Dent each had 2.

Sudan's Candis Mudgett took the lead in the first quarter with 8 points, Gatewood came in for 2 more.

In the 2nd quarter, Springlake Wolverettes made 5 points and the Sudan Hornets hit for 11 points. This was the big difference in the outcome of the game. The forwards shooting for the Wolverettes were Carolyn Gregory with 1, Julia Jones sunk 2 more and Beth (Bethie) Dent hit 2.

Judy Sterr of the Sudan Hornet team shacked in 6 points, Glenna Gatewood, 1, Candis Mudgett, 2 and Sharon Walsen two points. The score at the end of the first half... Sudan 21 and Springlake 14.

Springlake started coming to life in the second half with 13 points. The crowd roared as Springlake started pulling out from behind. The score changes hands back and forth. The two teams fight hard. Springlake tried hard to get ahead but Sudan keeps the lead by a 5-point margin. Springlake outshot Sudan with 13 to Sudan's 11 points.

Gregory made 8 points and Dent 5 for the great Green and Gold Team.

Sudan's Mudgett racked in 8, Gatewood 2, and Walsen, 1.

The fourth quarter was the most thrilling quarter in the game. Time outs for both teams were made every few minutes. The lead shoots back and forth again. People are on the sidelines shouting for their favorite teams. Gregory and Barlow foul off and Sudan's Nancy Hayes fouls off. Both teams are straining with all their energy to get ahead of the other. But as the buzzer buzzes, we found that Sudan has won the game for another victory with the score being 43 to Springlake's 41.

Gregory made 7 points, Jones 3 and Dent 4, totaling 14 for Springlake.

The 11 points for Sudan were made by Gatewood 5, Sterr 4 and Walsen, 2.

High point girl for Springlake was Carolyn Gregory with 21 points, Julia Jones hit 7 and Beth (Bethie) Dent shacked in 13 points.

Sudan's high point girl was Candis Mudgett with 18 points, Glenna Gatewood and Judy Sterr each made 10 and Sharon Walsen, 5.

Springlake had the ball the first and third quarter, with 28 fouls and Sudan made 24.

Well, girls, better luck next time. We know you can do it.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Parish and Stephanie Lynn visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Carter.

LONG AGO MEMORIES, HUH??? Can you recall from some remote corner of your brain, doubtless covered by the cobwebs of time an old fashioned Hogkilling day at your home? If so, then you perhaps are not a teenager any more. This scene was snapped Tuesday noon following this bad sub-zero weather, just back of the Bonnie Haberer home. Pictured are Jim Norman, Phillip Jones, and Joan White doing the scraping bit, and manning the boiling barrel is Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Norman.

WHY DO YOU LOSE CUSTOMERS

WHY DO OLD AND VALUED CUSTOMERS LOSE INTEREST AND TRADE ELSEWHERE

According to a recent survey:

- 3 percent move
- 1 percent die
- 5 percent because of business friends
- 9 percent because of lower prices
- 14 percent because of grievances
- 68 percent because of indifference

Note that only 9 percent are lost because of prices but 68 percent because of indifference.

Newspaper advertising is almost always an invitation to do business. It goes to your old customers as well as prospects.

And on the figures given above, not the least important phase of your advertising is to keep old customers assured that you want their business.

How Ford spent $100 million to give you more quality for your money

The Ford Motor Company spent $100 million in the past two years alone to bring you a combination of quality features found in no other cars. And here's how Ford quality pays off for you...whether you drive the big Super Torque Ford, the middleweight Fairlane, or the fun-filled compact Falcon!

Superior ride and performance. For example, $10 million was poured into the development of the Super Torque Ford's incredibly smooth new ride. Additional millions went to design 6- and 8-cylinder engines that let you choose sensational performance or saving gas economy...all with minimum maintenance.

More care-free driving. Millions more were spent to perfect Ford's twice-a-year or 6,000-mile maintenance features...now in all Fords and Falcons*. You save time and money. Example: you roll 36,000 miles between major chassis lube!

Greater safety. Brakes adjust themselves when necessary. Roofs are reinforced. Doors have safety locks.

Added luxury. Richer, longer lasting upholstery. Carpeting that wears up to twice as long as in some cars. Improved insulation insures a quieter ride.

Smarter styling. Ford's Thunderbird-inspired lines have set the trend that the whole industry now follows!

Greater resale value. From the big, important items like specially galvanized vital underbody parts and long-life batteries...to the "tremendous trifles" such as extended-life light bulbs and stainless steel exterior screws...your Ford or Falcon will stand up better over the years. Will be worth more when time comes to trade.

And don't forget—Ford Dealers are quality dealers! We want to keep you happy after you buy...and this is your finest guarantee of value!

Running Water Draw Project Involves Five Counties

Although individual Soil Conservation Districts earlier recognized the need of some type of flood protection on the Running Water Draw Watershed, they had never felt that Public Law 566 was applicable until September 1961. This was when all the SCD's along Running Water Draw joined together in a joint application for assistance. No one District had enough damage to be feasible to treat but altogether the project was economical and feasible. So they made an application for assistance under the Upper Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act (Public Law 566). This application, as finally revised, takes in portions of Lamb, Hale, Swisher, Palmer counties of Texas and Curry County, New Mexico in the Watershed of Running Water Draw.

In February of 1962, a preliminary survey of the watershed was completed and it was a very favorable report to the Districts. For every dollar spent on this project, a $1.25 to $1.50 would be returned in 50 years. The basic proposal is for flood control to halt damage in both rural and urban areas. In this case, the investigators felt that damage was about 50% each way, an ideal proportion.

Tentative plans are for three structures in New Mexico, 3 in Palmer County, two in Castro, one in Lamb and three in Hale County. It will be about a 2 1/2 million dollar project. Actual sites have not been chosen as planning has not advanced that far.

The entire plan calls for 10 to 12 structures having a maximum capacity each of 5,000 acre feet of water for flood control. (Example: a lake a square mile in size with average depth of 8 feet.) These lakes would catch water during rains and it would be slowly drained down the draw within twenty to thirty days. Each structure would also have a sediment pool which would contain about 200 acre ft. of water when full. These pools would be permanent and are expected to collect the sediment for fifty or more years. These permanent pools would be excellent recreation lakes for fishing and limited water skiing. The land-owners giving easements for the structures would retain control of access to the lakes and regulate their use. For instance, a landowner could irrigate from his pool if he had water rights or he could charge for recreation. The recreation income alone would probably be much greater than from any other use.

If owners of property give easements for the lakes, they can pretty much do as they like with the lakes. If local sponsoring organizations must buy, lease or rent the land the structure must be open to the public. A planned structure could be enlarged if local people wanted to do so and the site is adequate. For instance, a city might enlarge the permanent lake for water or recreation. Such a multi-purpose structure would have to be enlarged at local expense and the easements would have to be obtained by the local government. However, Farmers' Home Administration now has expanded loans available for land purchase, structure enlargement, and development of the shore facilities to include park improvements, roads, etc. In most cases some percent of the enlargement would also be borne by the Federal Government.

The dams would be about 25 to 40 feet in height and the longest would be straight for about 4,000 feet. A technicality limits a watershed to no more than 250,000 acres so this necessitated forming two water-sheds: an upper and a lower. The Upper takes in Curry County and Palmer Co. The Lower, Castro, Lamb, Swisher and Hale Counties. The total contributing acreage in these two applications is approximately 335,000 acres.

Sponsors of the Project include all the Soil Conservation Districts along the Draw; Lamb County SCD, Hale County SCD, Swisher County SCD, Running Water SCD (Castro County), Farmer County SCD and Curry County SCD. However, co-sponsorship must also be obtained in each District of a local government which has the power of taxation and eminent domain. These co-sponsors will help obtain land easements and rights of way; administer contracts and agree to maintain the structures after completion. Other co-sponsors to date are: city of Clovis, Curry County Commissioners Court, the Clovis Park Board in New Mexico; the Swisher Commissioners Court; Farmer County Commissioners Court; and the city of Ft. Stockton, and Hale County commissioners court and city of Plainview.

After acquiring co-sponsorship of the commissioners courts in Lamb and Castro Co. the projects will be eligible for further planning. Castro Commissioners Court expressed that they would probably sign co-sponsorship in a short time. Lamb County Commissioners' is still considering the project.

As more projects are approved in the State Running Water Draw Project will be further down on the waiting list. We must move fast if our project will be a reality in the near future.

Springlake Colored School News...

Correction: Mrs. Mary Dell T. Osborne who is Mrs. U.S. Osborne, says that her highest college degree registered in the Superintendent's Office is the Master of Science degree in Education which she received from Prairie View A. & M. College in the summer of 1960.

The meeting in November was a "Know Your Scouting" program. The Cubs, Scouts and Explorers had a joint program meeting so that boys who missed Cubbing or Boy Scouting could sort of get acquainted with their operations.

The Pledge of Allegiance and God Bless America were led by Boy Scout Charles Ray Brown. Patrol Leader Tim Ray Matthews had the boys rollicking with his account of "Hanna" who stood off a wild band of Indians with a single Blunderbuss gun and the Boys Scout antics with the mystery flyer which nearly broke up the city's annual celebration, led by the mayor. The charade was brought by Cub Scout Leo Brown and the joke by Webelo Willie Wilborn.

Out December meeting was a program planning one. After Isaac John brought the report on the good time he and his date, Margaret Wilborn had at the Explorer Social in Lubbock, in the Texas Tech Ballroom, the boys grouped for the study of their "sheep badge" and the giving of the Christmas play. The play was given at the Lions' Club Christmas luncheon. The boys enjoyed portraying "Shepherds in David's Fields" by Madeleine S. Miller from which they got much of the care of sheep during and before the birth of Christ. The highlight for the boys was the Lions' delicious. We enjoyed looking over our new Scout handbook and got down to grouping for "Citizenship and our March of Dimes Family annual Project." The Cubs closed their meeting with "the Human Circle". The boys then paired off, Cubs, Explorers and Scouts for the Buddy Physical Fitness Test from which they got lots of fun.

AREA ANNUAL BOY SCOUT COUNCIL DINNER

The area annual Boy Scout Council Dinner in Lubbock for which the Osbornes paid for reservations was missed by them because their car was out of commission.

Corn Varieties Tested In 1962 Show Low Yield

Halfway, Texas: 1962 CORN VARIETY TEST

Eighteen varieties of corn were evaluated at the High Plains Research Foundation in 1962. The yield ranged from 145 to 92.5 bushels per acre. The corn variety tests were conducted by Barry Love, Assistant Agronomist, and Paul M. Belcher, Laboratory Assistant at the Foundation.

The eighteen varieties were planted on April 24 in four row plots 50 feet long. There were four plots for each variety in randomized blocks. They were harvested September 18 and 19. All plots were fertilized at planting time with 218 pounds of 13-30-0 per acre. This fertilizer was applied four inches to the side and 4 inches below the seed. All plots were fertilized with a seed dressing of 150 pounds anhydrous ammonia on June 26.

A preplant irrigation of 4.62 inches was applied March 6 to all plots. These plots were irrigated with 3 inches each on July 5, July 15, and August 15. Rainfall amounted to 14.01 inches from April 1 to September 1.

Report No. 53 issued by the Foundation to all contributors included data on Early Vigor, Bloom Date, Plants per Inch, Plant Height, Percent Stalk Breakage, Ear Height, Ear Pendency, Husk Cover, Moisture Percent, Shelling Percent and Yield. Stalk Breakage was higher than in previous years due to the ravages of the Southwestern Corn Borer.

The highest corn yields for the last four years have been 94 bushels in 1959, 172 bushels in 1960, 165 bushels in 1961, and 145 bushels in 1962.

Colored School News

EYE EXAMINATION

One of our pupils was taken for an eye examination to Littlefield in December at the expense of the Lions Club. Although the method of correction has not as yet been determined, our school nurse, Mrs. Paul Woods, who recommended the examination, is yet working at it.

SIXTEEN QUARTERS AND CANDY BAGS

The Christmas program at our school was enlivened with sixteen quarters and candy bags. Mr. Osborne gave presents to the parents of each family who have children attending our school and to all who attended the Christmas program. All of his children received his candy bags. Many of the parents Santa Claused the teachers. Before our formal program, we had spelling and arithmetic matches which our people like very much.

Beginners' spelling was won by Margaret Washington, Grade 1 as; second grade: Spelling and numbers by Marguerite Hood; 3rd grade: arithmetic, Robert Lee Washington and spelling by Dorisene Renfro; grade four: spelling, Joyce Finch, and arithmetic, Daisy Ruth Washington; fifth grade: spelling and arithmetic by Willie Wilborn; sixth grade: spelling by Willie Dean Spraglin and seventh and eighth grade spelling and arithmetic by Tim Ray Matthews.

ALONG THE BAMBOO TRAIL

The airplane tour to the Orient by Cotton John of KGNC Radio and many people of the Plains was not only enjoyable but informative. Our children along with others of the school enjoyed every minute of the color and action of the film. The religious emphasis people of the Orient depict in everything they do only served to heighten the interest and make it more colorful. The Shantu religious temples, The Smoke purification ceremony and the marriage ceremony although strange to our customs were informative. The mother giving the daughter in marriage instead of the father as in our country and boxing in Thailand caught the attention of all. The Chinese New Year at which time the Chinese who have been rescued from Communist China go back to visit their almost starving relations and take presents of food and other goods. The house boats where these refugees live were of interest to those who had studied the houseboats of Lake Dwellers of the North American Indians.

We also saw our own Mrs. Bonnie Haberer in the picture. The water buffalo ride by the native boy was of interest to the little children. To see the same buffalo eating in a land pasture was commented on by many of the children. Though living conditions caused by drinking, washing clothes, bathing and emptying sewage and garbage into the same stream was appalling.

Many of our older children reported Monday morning that the Thailand boxing, using elbows, knees, and feet in the fight as well as the religious emphasis prepared them to understand the hour long "Sports International" on CBS last Saturday. The TV picture was on the history of boxing in Thailand from fencing with sword, daggers, etc. to the present native boxing.

Our thanks to Cotton John and the KGNC Radio and its staff together with the American National Bank of Lubbock for making such wide spread culture of international historical and geographic facts possible to the "Golden Spread".

Bossy Proves She Likes Dry

One suggestion on feeding forage to cows for high milk production is to let the cows drink their water—not "eat" it as forage moisture.

A couple of Wisconsin dairy-men have followed this rule and their success is obvious by superior production records and labor efficiency.

One man's 71 contented, cud-chewing Holsteins produced over 14,000 pounds of milk last year per cow with 545 pounds of butterfat. The other man's cows did as well.

Both say the cows like alfalfa haylage better and there is less waste where the crop is ensiled at 35 to 50 percent moisture.

They like it dry and the more dry matter the cows get, the more milk they give.

Some tips from these dairy-men are given in the Winter issue of the Farm Quarterly. Here are a few: The hay is cut when the first bud shows. Crop drying is aided by crushing. Hay is chopped short for tight packing,

The Athletic Program is in full swing at Springlake Junior High and High Schools.

Tournaments and individual games are keeping team members, coaches and fans busily occupied in recent weeks during this basketball season.

The varsity boys have come through with a 13-5 won and lost record. The varsity girls, one of the most outstanding teams in the district, to date, have a 16-2 won and lost record.

Participating in three area tournaments, the two teams have captured four trophies during the current season.

Twenty-two wins and 10 losses were recorded during the past football season within the entire Wolverine program.

A considerable amount of track activity is now in progress with boys who are not participating in basketball. An extensive weight program also is being carried out with these boys. It is hoped that the district track-meet can be held at the Wolverine Stadium and also invitational track meets for the varsity, freshmen and Junior High teams.

Glass backboards have been received for the basketball court in the High School gym, but as yet, have not been installed. They were purchased jointly by the Men's Booster Club and the School.

easy automatic handling and cow palatability. Covered wagons are used to prevent leaf loss.

The silo is filled quickly to prevent spoilage.

Both use relatively large silos, silage packs and excludes air. The silos are sealed after filling (or they are permanently air-tight).

The number of emergency permits issued annually in Texas has increased from 1,121 in 1955 and 56 to 7,099 in 1961-62.

No Quotas To Meet on Horse Boarding Farm

How'd you like to try a hand at a farm enterprise that has no foreseeable surpluses, no quotas, no allotments and apparently plenty of room for expansion?

The project is boarding horses for owners who either have no land of their own, or who are remote from the breeding centers and want to keep their mates close to the more popular studs.

Boarding projects of this kind are right in line with the government's pleas to divert land from the production of surplus food and fiber crops, says an article in Farm Quarterly magazine.

As to how much money you will make out of this enterprise, one man says a fellow is always more apt to complain about the condition of his horse than about what you charge him. If you keep the horses in good shape you'll get along all right.

The more common rate on Standardbred establishments is $60 to $75 per month; for Thoroughbreds $100 to $125 per month. These rates include stall, pasture and feed, nothing more.

Because of the Texas State Teachers' Association's concern for qualified teachers in the future, Texas now has 393 chapters involving over 19,000 future teachers in student professional organizations.

There's a new alarm clock for actors which is guaranteed to produce results. It doesn't ring it applauds!

Texas teachers leave the profession at the rate of 6,000 per year.

QUILTED NYLON!!

By—Vern Sanford

Every fisherman who uses an outboard motor has said to himself, at least once, "I wish they'd design a motor to fit my needs."

He's thinking of his own personal use of a motor. Usually it boils down to one engine that will meet all, or at least most, of his demands for lake or river fishing.

What are these requirements? What are yours?

Is your prime interest speed? No! Or power? Nope! But you do want it to be able to move when necessary . . . and have a little power to spare.

Is your major requirement price? Maybe. That's always an important factor.

Is it economy of operation? Not too important, providing it gets the job done like you want it to. Gas consumption is low on nearly all outboard engines. And fuel is cheap considering its lasting time.

Is trolling ability? Usually that is a factor most anglers seriously consider. Unless, of course, they already own an electric troll motor . . . which the majority do not have.

Is it portability? Quite often this is a very important requisite. Especially so with elderly anglers. Also to those who have no boat, but who do keep a motor in the trunk of the jalopy and ready to ramble on a moment's notice.

There are six features that fishermen desire in a motor. They are not just our ideas. They come from an inquiry we made among Texas anglers in the Highland Lakes area who fish over a wide area of the state.

Personally, if we had a choice of but one motor, wanted it for angling only . . . no racing, no skiing, and had no trolling motor . . . and intended to use it on the customary 14-foot aluminum or fiberglass fishing boat on Texas ponds, rivers or lakes, we would rank our requirements in this order: price, portability, trolling ability, speed and economy of operation.

In fact that's exactly what we wrote down when the Mercury outboard folks asked outdoor writers to specify their preferences in a fishing motor.

That was several years ago. In re-reading our notes we still arrive at the same conclusion.

Mercury followed through on its survey and produced a motor, which it says meets the specifications of the majority of the outdoor writers. It's their Merc 110—a 9.8 hp honey.

We've never owned a Mercury outboard of any size (you can't have everything). But we do have lots of friends who own Mercs and who swear by them. Also we've run lots of Mercury motors.

Generally they are regarded as fast engines. This perhaps due largely to the fact that one or more Mercs are entered in nearly every type and class of racing competition.

But for fishermen, speed is not THE important thing. Hence, Mercury's development of the smaller motor.

So let me tell you about this little 110.

First—it's price is reasonable.

Second—it weighs only 54 pounds.

Third—it will troll about as slow as you could possibly want.

Fourth—it will get up and go to the next fishing spot with surprising speed.

Fifth—it uses a bare minimum of fuel even at full throttle.

In other words, the Kiekhaefer Corp. has produced a motor exclusively for the angler in as close keeping with the results of their survey as appears possible.

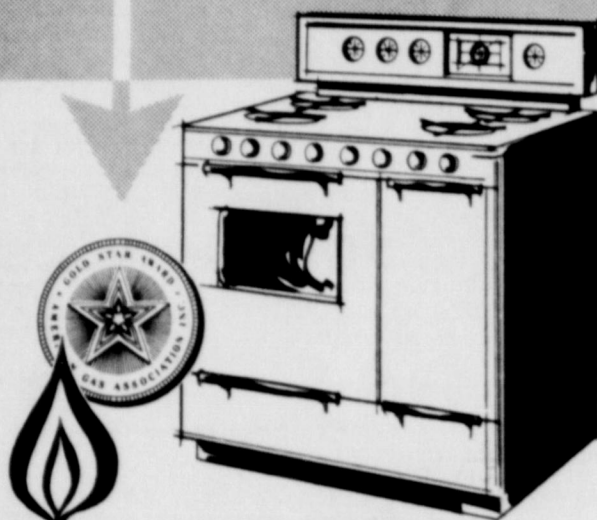

Inasmuch as the firm has earned a reputation for building big and powerful outboard engines—the 100 hp Merc 1000 being the largest manufactured anywhere in the world—we feel they deserve the plaudits of the outdoorsmen for not overlooking the little fellows in their race for acclaim as a "Mammoth Motor Maker."

Salt water sport fishermen spend more than $600,000,000 in catching more than five hundred million fish a year.

Sunnyside News

by TERRY BOWDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis and family of Olton were dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lilley.

Mrs. Raymond Lilley and Mrs.
Raymond Lewis and family of Olton visited Mr. and Mrs. F. D.
Rogers of Big Springs last Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lilley and Twila.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sweett & family of Olton also visited last Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lilley and Twila.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turner from Wink visited last Wednesday with Mrs. J. D. Cox and Mrs.
Rachel Elsie.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Powell received considerable damage from a fire Monday. It was confined to the bath where it started when the four year old son turned up the wall heater too high while his mother was hanging up clothes. The blaze reached the curtains which caught fire and set some clothes on fire. Mrs. Powell called Mr. Powell and Larry Sadler at the Sunnyside Shop and her parents, the Ezell Sad-

Cotton Classing Office Has Another Good Week

The Lubbock Cotton Classing office had another big week with 260,000 samples classed for the week ending January 4, 1963. The Light Spotted grades and 15/16" staple accounted for well over a majority of the cotton classed. This report came from H. H. Bowling, Market Supervisor for the Lubbock Office.

For the year 1,478,000 samples have been classed in the Lubbock Office. This compares with 1,354,000 samples classed on the same date last year. There was a carry-over of 70,000 samples reported.

Strict Low Middling Light Spotted continued to account for the largest volume with 35%. Middling Light Spotted was 17% and Low Middling Light Spotted was 9%. Strict Low Middling accounted for the majority of the white grades with 18%. Other white grades were: Low Middling Plus, 2% and Low Middling 8%. Of the cotton classed 7% was Spotted and 2% was Tinged in grade.

The average staple length for the week was 29.9 thirty-seconds of an inch. For the season the average is 15/16 of an inch. The actual break-down of staple lengths for the week is: 7/8" 1 percent; 29/32" 24 percent; 15/16" 63 percent; 31/32" 10 percent and 1 inch and longer 2 percent.

Ten percent of the cotton was classed as waxy for the week as compared to 7% the previous week. The range of 2.7-2.9 was 19%. Thirty-seven percent milled 3.0-3.4 and 34% was 3.5 or better.

The Lubbock Cotton Exchange reported 37,500 bales purchased for the week ending January 4, according to H. A. Poteet, Secretary of the Exchange. The week before 28,000 bales were reported and 83,000 bales were reported for the corresponding week a year ago.

Middling 1 inch quotation is 32.55, which compares with 32.85 one year ago. The price quotations for grades predominant in production remained unchanged this past week. These quotations are: Strict Low Middling 29/32 29.60, Strict Low Middling 15/16 30.10, Low Middling 29/32 28.45, Low Middling 15/16 28.95, Middling Light Spotted 29/32 29.70, Middling Light Spotted 15/16 30.20, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 29/32 28.90, and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 29.40.

ordinate the historical preservation work accomplished on the local level with programs carried on the state level. Currently County Historical Survey Committees are locating and marking graves of Civil War Veterans and sponsoring Historical Building Medallions to be placed on historic structures.

Field Personnel To Level In District Measure Water

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, in cooperation with the Texas Water Commission, has commenced measuring water levels in observation wells throughout the Water District.

Annual measurements are made each January when interference from pumping wells is at a minimum.

During the past year, additional observation wells have been selected at strategic points so that in the near future there will be at least one observation well for every 2 1/2 to 3 miles.

The water levels in wells show the extent to which water supplies are depleted by drought or by heavy pumping for irrigation, industrial and municipal uses, and also the extent to which they are replenished in seasons of abundant rainfall or melting snow.

For the next month, personnel from the Water District and the Commission will be in the field making measurements. Results of this year's measurements will be publicly released by the District in the early spring.

It may come as a surprise to many, but there are 182,250,000 people in the U. S. who are not millionaires.
