Russian Chief Claims Rioting Was Avoidable

British Patrols Declared Inactive During Attacks

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Sept. 15 — Britain charged today Russian troops provoked German anti-Communists into the rioting last Thursday which resulted in street fighting at the Brandenburg gate.

The statement by an official British military government spokesman rejected an accusation by the Russian commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, that inactivity of British military police encouraged "fascist provocateurs" to attack Russian soldiers in the bloody street fighting around the Soviet war memorial last Thursday.

Other Accusatons Made

This was the third sharp rejoinder to Kotikov from the western allies in three days. It came within a half day of the tenth meeting in the Kremlin between western diplomats and high Russians on the Russian blockade of Berlin. Moscow reported the four power talks are expected to be resumed in Moscow by the end of the week. Talks here between the four military governors of Germany are in recess.

Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval of France rapped Kotikov last week. He implied publicly the Russian commandant was a liar as well as a breaker of pledges for permitting Soviet troops to kidnap 19 western Berlin police who had been guaranteed safe conduct by the Russians from the city hall the German Communists were besieging. Col. Frank Howley, U. S. commandant, recently said Kotikov was responsible for "international shame" in failing to protect Berlin's elected city council against Communist rioters.

Russian Protest Slated

Kotikov started the latest controversy by sending a letter to the British commandant, Maj. Gen. E. O. Herbert, complaining about the conduct of British police during the disorders last Thursday at the boundary of the British and Russian areas of Berlin.

Kotikov declared in a letter directed to the British commandant, Maj. Gen. E. O. Herbert charged that "criminal elements dishonored the monument in honor of Soviet soldiers who died in the struggles for Berlin."

"This took place after an anti-democratic demonstration which you permitted, in the presence of units of British military police and German police of the British sector of Berlin," the letter declared.

Inactivity Charged

"The fascist bandits opened fire on Soviet guards before the Soviet monument disturbed the public order, causing the death of one person, injury to several others,

PARTIES CHOOSE CANDIDATES

Seven States Hold Primary Elections

(By The Associated Press)

Voters in seven states had their candidates all picked today for political offices ranging from governor and senator down to minor town positions.

These were the major results in yesterday's primaries:

Senator Joseph Ball won Republican renomination in Minnesota, while Mayor Hubert Humphreys of Minneapolis snagged the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Another incumbent, Senator Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, rolled up a heavy victory margin in his state's Democratic primary. His November opponent probably will be Republican Will F. Nicholson, political newcomer who held a growing lead over former Gov. John C. Vivian.

Republican Senators Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Styles Bridges of New Hampshire were unopposed. Saltonstall will get his November opposition from John I. Fitzgerald, while Alfred E. Fortin will square off against Bridges.

Both Michigan senatorial candidates—GOP Senator Homer F. Ferguson and former Democratic Rep. Frank Hook—also lacked opposition within their own parties.

A number of candidates for governor also were chosen in yesterday's primaries.

Bradford Renominated

Massachusetts Republicans renominated Gov. Robert F. Bradford. Democratic Candidate Paul A. Dever was unopposed—practically. Although Maurice J. Tobin quit the race to accept appointment as President Truman's secretary of labor, his name was on the ballot. Tobin polled more votes than Bradford's Republican opponent.

Former Rep. Sherman Adams copped the Republican gubernatorial nomination in New Hampshire—where the Republican nominee has won election for the past 26 years. His Democratic opponent: Herbert W. Hill, Dartmouth college professor. In Vermont, where Republicans are even more certain of November victory, Gov. Ernest W. Gibson pulled away from Lieut. Gov. Lee E. Emerson in one of the closest gubernatorial nomination contests in years.

Gov. Luther Youngdahl of Minnesota also built up a lead for Republican nomination, over State

Two Hurt In Car Crashes

A baby and a 4-year-old girl were injured slightly in two collisions of automobiles here today, police reported.

Each had been taken home this afternoon, after it was determined there was no need for x-ray examination.

Cars In Collision

Lana Jane Sirpless, 1, suffered slight injurjes of the face when a car driven by her mother, Mrs. J. B. Sirpless, 27, of 1101 Thirty-fifth, was in collision with a car driven by Mrs. S. P. Boling, 36, of 1905 Thirtieth, about 9 a. m. in 2900-block Ave. N. Mrs. Boling was backing her car from the curb. She was given a traffic ticket asking appearance on a charge of negligent collision by failure to yield right-of-way, L. W. Fristoe, Bob Atkinson and William H. Vernon, police traffic patrolmen, said.

In the other mishap, Gloria Jean Branch, 4, of Magnolia, Ark., suffered a skinned nose. She was riding with Ed Branch, 49, of 3103 Maple, a City of Lubbock employe, when Branch's car was in collision with one driven by R. Stevenson, 53, of 3108 North Fifth.

Tickets Are Given

Fristoe, who investigated, said Stevenson was given traffic tickets charging no operator's license and negligent collision by failure to yield right-of-way and through employment of speed exceeding the legal limit.

Stevenson's car, Fristoe said, ran across the curbline, jumped

1948 World Series Will Start Oct. 6

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15. (AP)—The 1948 World Series will begin on Oct. 6 this year in the National league city winning the pennant.

The second game also will be played in the National league city, with the next three games in the city where the winner of the American league club has its home.

The next two games, if needed to determine the champion, will be played in the National league city.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, representatives of five National league clubs and four from the American league, settled on the dates and arrangements at a meeting here today.

Arctic Flying Is Perfected

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—The United States bomber force has licked the problem of operating in the stormy but strategically vital Arctic, its chief disclosed today.

Gen. George C. Kenny, boss of the Strategic Air Command, said crews have now learned how to fly B-29s "with high efficiency" in the bitter cold up near the top of the world.

"Last winter we took all the mystery out of flying B-29s in the Arctic," he said in an interview.

Importance Pointed Up

The general's comment pointed up the major importance strategists attach to the polar regions, the short air road between three continents.

"The main thing you need for Arctic operations," Kenny said, "is just about twice as many people because a man's efficiency there is just about half of normal."

This was demonstrated, he said, by the exhaustive studies, tests and training during which superfortresscrews in Alaska actually flew more hours than groups in the United States.

Failure Pared Down

Failure of equipment in the Arctic training, however, was pared down until it was no greater than it was for bomber operat-

Big Top Goes Up In Lubbock; Circus Arrives This Morning

To the creaking of heavy machinery and the busy shouting of workmen the Big Top was raised this morning for the performances of Cole Brothers circus, one of the top names of the sawdust, at the circus grounds on East Broadway.

Hoisted by the traditional elephant power, the circus company of some 800 persons, men and women, set to work after the 35-car train bearing the equipment arrived in Lubbock at 7 o'clock this morning. Four hours later, the circus grounds was nearly ready to go, with final preparations completed at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Billed as the second largest circus in the country, the Cole Brothers outfit scheduled two performances—at 2:15 and 8 p. m. Tickets are available at Wylie's drug store, 1106 Texas, and Dunlap's. Regular prices are $1.20 and 60 cents.

The scene at the circus grounds this morning was typical of such actions everywhere. Hundreds of Lubbock residents bordered the fences

35 U. S. Soldiers Killed

Americans On Way Home In Korea Victims

85 Other Persons Hurt In Wreck Of Passenger Trains

(By The Associated Press)

SEOUL, Sept. 15 — A fast passenger train roaring out of a tunnel last night crashed into another train halted on the track killing 35 homeward bound American soldiers. Two Koreans were killed and 85 persons were injured, including 45 American troops. They were bound for Seoul from Pusan (Fusan).

Witnesses said the fast train from Mokpo to Seoul, which had no headlight, telescoped the rear of the troop train, which had no rear lights.

A "Dante's Inferno"

One passenger on the soldiers' train likened the wreck and subsequent fire to a Dante's inferno. Rescue workers worked all night digging out the dead and injured.

The 35 American bodies were brought here early today. The injured were treated by American and Korean doctors and many of them were able to continue their journey.

Charles McCafferty, of Chicago, a passenger, said the engineer of the Mokpo train apparently did not see the other train until it was 50 yards away.

The engine plowed half way into the rear coach from which most of the passengers had jumped when the other train roared from the tunnel.

Ripped From Trucks

The rear coach was ripped from its trucks and shoved into the coach ahead, where most of the casualties occurred.

"We saw the train come out of the tunnel about 1,000 yards away," said McCafferty, a labor relations adviser to the military government in the American zone. "We yelled to the passengers and all got off except one man in the washroom who was not hurt seriously."

Army officials said relatives of the dead were being notified but it may be necessary to bring personnel records from outlying detachments to complete identifications.

Acetylene torches were used to cut open the coaches to reach

Borger Boy Killed In Traffic Mishap

BORGER, Sept. 15. (U.P)—A 12-year-old Borger boy was killed in a traffic mishap today and the incident was the indirect cause of injury to two other persons.

Noel Wayne Hopwood was riding a motor scooter when it collided with a car driven by Roy D. Ogle, 19. Ogle said he did not see the youth until the scooter struck the side of his car.

A witness, Ralph Bayless, jr., 25, became faint when he saw the fatal accident and sat down on the steps of a building. He fainted and fell down the concrete steps, cutting a gash in his head which required seven stitches to close.

When an ambulance took Bayless home, his sister, Mrs. R. E. Bayless ran out. The sight of blood excited her. She fell and is in a hospital with a broken leg.

State GOP's Confer On Senate Candidate

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15. (AP)—The high command of Texas Republicanism met in Fort Worth today for a "last chance" conference on a new candidate for United States senator.

Eighteen members of the state executive committee met briefly and discussd two potential candidates, one of whom is Senator W. Lee O'Daniel. Leaders declined to name the other.

Wichita Falls Marriage Turns To Tragedy

Ex-GI Seeking Reconciliation Learns Wife Killed In 1946

(By The United Press)

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 15 —E. V. (Bud) Blankenship, a quiet, sturdy Tacoma, Wash., farm youth, had plenty of time to think whiling away lonely peacetime hours with the army air force on Guam.

The more he thought, the more his memory kept flashing back to a comely Texas girl and 'teen-age, wartime marriage they both had let turn into an estrangement.

Bud was just past 18 when he met and married Mary Gertrude Ford of Wichita Falls while stationed at nearby Sheppard Field. Theirs was one of many wartime marriages that more or less dissolved themselves when the husband left for overseas duty.

In Bud's case, the overseas orders came just four months after their marriage.

"I didn't write her, and apparently she didn't write me," Bud said. "It was just one of those things."

On Guam, however, the situation took a trend the other way.

He decided it was a mistake and made up his mind to do something about it when his hitch was up.

So, when he got out of service not long ago, he stopped by his parents' farm and made arrangements to bring his

BIG FOUR MEAT PACKERS SUED

Uncle Sam Seeking To Break Monopoly

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—The government sued today to break up the "big four" meat packing companies into 14 separate and competing companies.

A civil anti-trust suit filed in federal court in Chicago alleged that the "big four" packers — Swift and company, Armour and company, the Cudahy Packing company and Wilson and company, Inc.—violated the Sherman act by suppressing competition.

It asked that Armour and Swift each be divided into five separate companies, and Cudahy and Wilson each be divided into two separate companies.

Suit Against Restraints

Attorney General Clark announced filing of the suit in Chicago.

"The four defendants named in the complaint are charged with suppressing competition in the sale of meat and meat products," Clark said in a statement.

Clark said the suit is aimed at dividing the big four packers into 14 "separate and competing companies."

Swift and Armour each would be divided into five separate companies and Cudahy and Wilson each into two separate companies.

Clark described the suit as "another in a series of cases instituted by the Department of Justice in furtherance of its program to free production and sale of food and food products from monopolistic restraints."

Companies' Methods Cited

The complaint alleges these methods were used by the four packing concerns to suppress competition:

1. Controlling the amount of livestock each company purchases for sale, thus controlling the supply of meat made available;

2. Using uniform cost formulas for arriving at selling prices;

3. Selling meat at "loading" rather than at "delivery" weights.

4. Selling at substantially identical prices and terms of sale.

The four companies, the complaint said, accounted for 58 per cent of the cattle, 54 per cent of the hogs, 68 per cent of the calves, and 79 per cent of the sheep slaughtered under federal inspection during the last 10 years.

Father Whips Son To Death Over Toy

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 15. (AP)—A young father being tried on a murder charge in the death of his six-year-old son, told a criminal court jury that he beat the boy with a belt for refusing to tell where he had hidden a toy hammer.

"I told Jackie a father sometimes has to do things to their children they do not like," Ralph J. Hoge, 26, of Harbor Creek, Pa., testified yesterday.

Dr. James E. Wallace, pathologist at Hamot hospital, previously testified that boy died last May 30 as a result of repeated blows, "probably 100." There were at least 93 abrasions on the child's body, he said.

Hoge testified that after the beating he put his son to bed and massaged his wounds with vaseline. "Jackie told me 'I still love you, daddy'," Hoge said. "Those were the last words by son said to me."

Eskimo Girls Fly To Texas

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 15 (U.P) —Three Eskimo girls were on their way to Texas by air today to help a Fort Worth millionaire win a $25,000 bet.

They left here early today in a plane piloted by Lew Leach, Jr., of Dallas. At 9:15 a. m. CST they landed at Boise, Ida., and 15 minutes later they took off again.

They flew to Portland from the Arctic circle in Leach's plane.

Leach is pilot and general handyman for L. L. Horne, Fort Worth oilman who bet his friends he could get three Eskimos and deliver them in Texas before midnight tonight.

Girls Making Trip

The girls are Lona B. Welch, 22, of Kivilena, Alaska; Molly Blatchford, 26, Golovin, Alaska; and Alice Walker, 26, White Mountain. Their chaperone is Lorena Gray, 39, Kotzebue, Alaska.

They wore spike pumps, nylon stockings, wool coats, white gloves and glasses.

The Eskimo maidens, Leach said, were signed up for the trip to non-Arctic Texas with the aid of Seattle newsmen.

The enterprise began when Horne went to Kalispell, Mont., a few days ago for a brief vacation. While he was there, Horne phoned friends in Dallas and Fort Worth and asked what souvenirs

Stevenson Is Licked; Last Hopes Dying

Coke's Forces At State Convention Of Party Routed

By CHAS. A. GUY
Editor, Lubbock Evening Journal

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15—The tumult and the shouting of another Texas Democratic convention have died away and with it died, also, most of the hopes of Coke R. Stevenson to get to the U. S. Senate.

Stevenson's rout at the convention here last night was complete and final—so complete and final that a planned assault against the convention itself was called off and former Gov. Dan Moody, who was to have led the last ditch fight to secure Stevenson's confirmation as the party's senatorial nominee, never even got to the convention platform.

Knew They Were Licked

Long before the convention's canvassing committee voted Johnson's confirmation by a whacking 28-to-4 vote, Stevenson's shock troops—Moody; former Sen. Clint Small; and Albert Sydney Johnson—backed out of a pre-advertised convention floor showdown. They knew they were licked, and by a wide margin.

Most observers here expect some courthouse phenagling in an effort to keep the name of Lyndon Johnson off the November ticket and, when that fails, perhaps some effort in the U. S. Senate to keep Johnson from becoming a member of what has been called "the world's most exclusive club." But tradition and the records are against a successful ending to any Stevenson effort to override both the action of the voters and of the Democratic party in this state.

Replacements Announced

As delegates left the littered Will Rogers auditorium after a hectic, all-day and the night convention, the 30th. senatorial district had a new executive committeeman and committeewoman, and the 19th. congressional district had a new presidential elector.

By action of the area's delegates, the convention replaced

More Cargo Planes Will Go To Germany

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP) — The Air Force is sending about 40 more C-54 four-engine cargo planes to Germany to reinforce the 105 C-54s flying the airlift to Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

The planes, now going over, will use expanded airport facilities which have been constructed to handle the task of supplying Berlin.

The Air Force said it will continue to meet such requirements as may be laid down by Gen. Lucius Clay, U. S. military governor.

The additional planes and men are being drawn from various areas including the Far East, and will pass through the United States on the way to Europe.

Air Force Acknowledges New Secret Aircraft Being Built

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Air Force acknowledged today that half a dozen hitherto secret combat plane types are being built for speeds up to supersonic. Most are jet and rocket powered.

Acknowledgement of the new types came after a summary of them was printed in American Aviation Daily, an industry news letter published here.

The new types, some being flown secretly at Muroc, Cal., airbase and others nearing completion, are:

McDonnell XF-88, a two-engine penetration jet fighter.

Northrop XF-89, a two-engine all-weather jet fighter.

Lockheed XF-90, a two-engine penetration jet fighter with rocket engines for emergency speed bursts. Top speed is supersonic. That is faster than sound travels, or about 760 miles an hour.

Republic XF-91, a single engine interceptor jet fighter, with rocket engines for use at very high altitudes. Top speed is supersonic.

Action To Prevent Certification For Johnson Launched

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15—Former Gov. Coke Stevenson carried his fight for the Democratic U.S. senatorial nomination to federal court today after the state Democratic convention accepted Rep.

(List Of Committeemen And Electors On Page 5, Sec. 2)

Lyndon Johnson as the nominee.

Clint Small, one of Stevenson's attorneys, said at a news conference this morning that Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson had issued a restraining order to prevent the Texas secretary of state, Paul H. Brown, from certifying Johnson as the nominee.

Led By 87 Votes

Johnson led Stevenson by 87 votes in the official count approved last night by the Democratic convention, which earlier had purged itself of delegates who would not pledge loyalty to the Truman-Barkley presidential ticket.

C. C. Renfro, attorney for Stevenson, said in Dallas that Judge Davidson signed the order at dawn at his sister's farm in Harrison county, northwest of Marshall. A messenger raced back by automobile, carrying the order for filing at Fort Worth. Renfro said the order is returnable at Fort Worth Sept. 21.

Small told reporters the action was filed under the recently revived federal civil rights statute. He said it charges that votes in precinct 13, Jim Wells county, were added to the totals compiled by election judges "long after" the polls closed August 28.

Refuses To Settle

Stevenson was asked at the news conference if he was going to "settle, as is," with the decision reached by the Democratic convention.

"No, I'm not going to settle as is," he replied.

"I believe everybody knows I am a good sport and if I lost by one vote honestly, I would not complain. I think I owe it to the people to determine if all the votes allegedly cast were honestly cast."

In reply to a question, Small

Chest To Open Drive Oct. 13

Oct. 13 was set as kick-off date for the annual Lubbock Community Chest campaign at a meeting this morning in the Community Chest office.

The men's sales army kick-off is set for 7:30 a. m.; the unit account kick-off, for 9 a. m., and the women's sales army kick-off, for 11 a. m. on Oct. 13.

Goal Will Be Set

Charles E Maedgen, jr., Community Chest chairman, presided at the meeting and announced another session of directors would be conducted at 10:30 a. m. Thursday in the Community Chest office to study budgets and set a goal for the drive. The budget committee has prepared recommendations.

Planning for the campaign has been underway about six weeks. Workers' kits have been made up. The city has been divided into areas for purpose of assignment of workers.

A total of 637 firms which employ five or more persons are included in the unit account group, to which envelopes containing necessary materials for recording and reporting contributions from persons in the firms will be distributed.

To Cover Wide Area

The men's sales army will call on all downtown business firms except those classified under unit accounts. Twenty-two women captains each will have a committee of 10 workers to cover the residential section and business firms

Houston Police Nab Feminine Burglars In Most Unusual Case

HOUSTON, Sept. 15 (U.P.) — Houston police held two feminine burglars today, one nick-named "Schnapps," and her light-fingered companion who held victims at bay with a knife.

They were taken into custody after a "tip," officers said. In police headquarters they vigorously denied connection with two bizarre robberies, although some of the loot was later found at the home of one of the suspects.

Most Unusual Case

Officers, revealing that the women were between 20 and 25 years of age, agreed it was the most unusual burglary case on their records.

The pair first entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook around 2:30 a. m. Tuesday. Mrs. Cook roused and asked what they were doing. When she realized they were burglars, she screamed, bringing her 79-year-old husband.

He saw "skirts swishing in all directions," he told police, but missed only a pair of pants that contained an old knife, a key and a few other trinkets.

One Wields Knife

The second victim was Mrs. Lois Fleming. Awakened by a noise she turned on a light and saw a "dark-haired" girl in bare feet run from her bedroom.

While she tried to brace her bedroom door, the burglars forced their way back into the room, she told police. They took $11 in cash and rummaged through her clothing in a closet, taking dresses, suits and other apparel.

Mrs. Fleming told police that one of the girls, red-haired and light complexioned and wearing ballet shoes, carried an open pocket knife. The knife-wielder, Mrs. Fleming said, referred to the dark-skinned, Latin-American girl as "Schnapps."

Flag Salute Optional If Against Religion

MANILA, Sept. 15 (U.P.) — The Philippines secretary of justice has ruled that a Filipino school pupil may not be forced to salute the flag of his country if to do so is against his religious belief.

Secretary Ramon Ozaeta ruled that a school girl whose family belonged to the religious sect, Jehovah's Witnesses," was within her constitutional rights in refusing to salute the flag during school exercises.

"Persuasion—not compulsion—is the teacher's only means to attain the end," the ruling stated.

Ozaeta cited as precedent in the United States the United States Supreme Court decision in the case of the West Virginia State Board of Education vs. Barnette, in 1943.

Oldest president of the United States at death was John Adams, 90, and the youngest was James Garfield, 49.

Vet Group Proposes Novel Benefit Plan

CLINTON, Ia., Sept. 15 (U.P.)—Clinton AMVETS are looking for support for a veterans readjustment plan that is far different from any now in force.

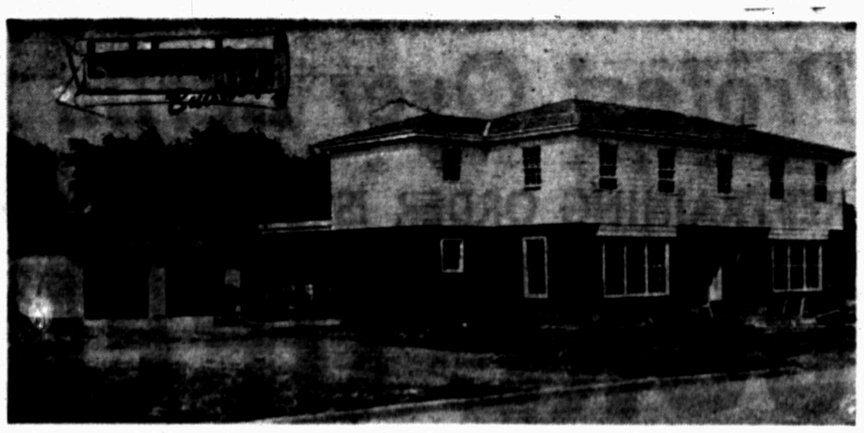

They hope to get the endorsement of the national AMVET organization for their program and to take it before Congress.

The plan calls for the federal government to set up a "credit" account for World War II veterans. Each veteran would be credited with an amount figured by allowing $3 a day for service within the Continental United States and $4 a day for service outside the country.

He then could draw from his account for specified purposes, including education, home building or improvement and business investment. If he preferred, he would be issued a paid-up insurance policy.

The plan would replace most of the present GI Bill of Rights, which the Clinton AMVETS contend gives big benefits to some veterans but practically none to the majority. The local post also argues that the program would be better than an outright cash bonus because it would not cause an immediate drain on the federal treasury.

Frontier Days Of America's Wild West Have Reappeared In Capital Of Malaya

BY ARNOLD C. BRACKMAN
United Press Staff Writer

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Sept. 15 (U.P.) — The picturesque frontier days of America's wild west have reappeared in this capital of the Malayan Federation.

Gun-toting is now part of the daily costume, sometimes dubbed the "new look," since Communist-led insurgents opened their campaign in the Malayan peninsula.

No longer is it uncommon to watch men saunter through swinging bar doors with two pistols strapped to their hips.

The only thing missing are the horses.

Rifles Everywhere

Instead, these leather-tanned rubber planters and tin miners drive up in automobiles, with the windows down and the snout of a rifle pointing out.

Nor is it uncommon to watch a young couple walk into a large downtown department store while carrying a rifle.

Store managers take no notice.

"If we thought everyone entering our shop with a gun was a potential robber," one manager said, "we would never do any business these hectic days."

Greetings Different

Invited to a home on the outskirts of Kuala Lumpur, you no longer first greet your host with a friendly handshake. Instead, you first say: "Hello, there. Where shall I put my gun?"

After the gun-disposal ceremony, you start with the customary pleasantries between guest and host.

For traveling purposes, the gun has replaced the proverbial toothbrush in Malaya.

Even correspondents, noted for their scrupulous neutrality in all clashes, carry guns. Rules of warfare do not apply in guerrilla campaigns.

Wheat farmers will profit more by planting the varieties of wheat that have good baking qualities as well as high yields.

Blind Illini People To Build Club Room

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 15 (U.P.)—Eighty blind residents of Rockford and Winnebago County have decided that they will help themselves before taking aid from others.

They banded together to form the Winnebago County Association for the Blind. The president, Frank E. Waterman, says one of their first aims is to build a club room, especially designed for the blind.

It would be entirely on one floor so that its members would not have to negotiate dangerous stairways. Later, he said, they hope to build a completely-equipped home in the town for sightless persons.

Production Of Food Without Growing Plants Is Foreseen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—People 100 years from now may be munching food made out of wood and seaweed—or even food produced without growing any plants at all.

That's what Dr. Farrington Daniels, University of Wisconsin chemist, told a meeting of scientists today.

The energy of the sun, he related to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, can be used to produce a wide variety of foods and fuels from unsuspected sources.

Dr. Daniels found that "comforting," in the light of current "unequal distribution among the nations of the world due to war and political short sightedness."

These are some of the things he foresees: Fuel alcohol from wood and corn stalks, sugar from seaweed, motor fuel from a combination of carbon monoxide and hydrogen obtained from waste products.

It may even be possible, he said, to produce food by placing carbon dioxide and water in shallow tanks and setting them out in the sun. No living plants would be involved in that process.

"We must learn," he said, "how to use our rich heritage of sunlight more efficiently so that we can be prepared against such catastrophies as war, over-population, exhaustion of oil and coal, or the return of the glaciers."

Reds Blow Up Chinese Train

NANKING, Sept. 15. (AP)—A Communist railroad mine last night blew up a Pukow bound train 90 miles northwest of Nanking killing at least 100 persons.

Railroad officials said the mine was planted near Pengpu and that the locomotive and the first car of the train were destroyed completely.

Meanwhile, government reports said Communist troops had been cleared from Shanhaikuan, where the great wall meets the sea, northward 65-miles to Hsingcheng, industrial and agricultural center.

Government sources predicted Communist bands would be cleared along the railway between Hsingcheng and Chinsien, 40 miles to the north. Chinhsien, former Japanese industrial city, is the base for large scale government forces in Manchuria.

China Puts Ban On Imported Luxuries

NANKING, Sept .15. (AP)—China's executive yuan today ordered imported luxury items—from nylon hose to expensive automobiles—banned beginning Oct. 1.

The vaguely-worded order said confiscated goods would be burned or given to Chinese troops. It left in doubt whether hundreds of high-priced automobiles would be seized and given to the army.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Nervous Husband Gets In Huff Because Wife Is Slow To Dress When They Go Out In Evening

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: We've been married only two months and already a baffling problem has arisen. Roy is very sweet and I love him dearly, but when we go anywhere he always thinks I should—or must — be ready to start the moment he is.

Since we generally go out after supper, I do the dishes while he's in the bathroom; then I begin to get ready and naturally it takes me longer than it takes him, but he doesn't realize that. He says if I'm not ready in a stated time, he'll leave without me, and he has done so.

I have tried to explain to him that if he would either help with the dishes or wait patiently I would be able to go with him as he wishes; and he likes to have me go with him; but he refuses to help with the dishes and doesn't like to wait until I'm ready.

HE NEVER LISTENS TO HER VIEWPOINT

HOW can I get him to understand my viewpoint and wait for me, instead of running off? He refuses to listen to me and will not accept my explanations. When I try to explain myself about anything he either picks up the paper and reads, or turns his back on me and ignores me completely.

I can't imagine why he acts like this; he finds out sooner or later that I am generally right about things; but whenever he gets angry he runs off, and sometimes I don't even know why he is angry. He won't sit down and talk things over; and seems to think he is—or should be considered—right in everything; and that nobody should oppose him even if he is wrong.

I know he loves me, yet he treats me as if I don't know anything; and he expects me to cook his meals, keep his clothes cleaned and pressed and the house in order and be ready to go whenever he is. I do my best to please him, and I can ignore most of his faults, but his habit of walking out on me is really distressing Please advise. Signed V. P.

MAN'S A WALKING NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

DEAR V. P.: Roy's behavior is a blend of obstinate infantilism and active psychoneurosis.

His infantilism is revealed in his refusal to face facts, discuss differences, see reason and work cooperatively in relation to you, also in his bullheaded assumption that you are to cater slavishly to his creature-wants and jump through hoops trying to please him.

His impatience to be "on the go" is a jittery trait; and so is his irritability with any factor that imposes delay. A person who can't idle the motor, so to speak, in leisure hours, but must be dashing hither and yon as if the devil were on his heels, is a walking nervous breakdown, as the saying goes; and Roy's jumping-jack tension after supper certainly puts him in that ailing category.

It seems you are an opposite type: better balanced, with healthier nerves; psychologically more mature; less resistant to chores and routine, and by nature methodical and slow in pursuing a daily duty-routine. Thus from the angle of temperament, you are mismated in double-harness; and where you would like to win Roy to your tortoise-pace, he insists on your hitting his stride.

WIFE SHOULD PLAN FOR JIFFY-CHANGE

SINCE you love Roy dearly and wish to relieve friction on the point at issue, my advice is, profit by experience and plan ahead for the evenings, so that you will be ready for a jiffy-change if he wants to go out.

1. To simplify kitchen work, rely on tasty supper-menus that can be more or less pre-cooked during the day and reheated for serving. 2. Treat yourself daily to a late afternoon bath and pretty-up session, followed by a change of garb from the skin out, and thus be fresh as a daisy when Roy gets home. 3. Stack the dishes after a faucet rinse-off and do a nose-dive into your street clothes, when Roy suggests squiring you somewhere.

If Roy finds you changing your gait to suit his, instead of arguing endlessly that you can't, he may become more malleable too; but I wouldn't want to bet on it. In my opinion, he is very inferior husband-material; and if you contrive to make the marriage last, with any degree of personal content, you will be passing a miracle of sorts. M. H.

Officers Are Named By Sorosis Church Class

First Methodist Sorosis class members were served a luncheon Tuesday at the church by members of Mrs. Aubrey Woodfin's group, Mesdames Ernest Lindsey, Owen McWhorter, J. Ray Dickey, W. J. Spain and M. M. Page.

Twenty-one persons were present.

New officers of the class are Mrs. A. S. Meinecke, president; Mrs. J. D. Sanders, vice president; Mrs. Holt Holloway, secretary; Mrs. W. B. Atkins, assistant secretary; and Mrs. L. V. Risinger, sr., treasurer.

Fall Club Season Is Opened At Program, Luncheon Hours

COUNCIL HEAD — The annual convocation given for freshmen and transfer women students of Texas Technological college by Junior Council is planned for tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the campus Recreation hall.

Elizabeth Craig, Council president, will present a welcome, give general information to the new students and introduce the following: Council members and sponsors, Miss Doris Nesbitt and Dr. Agnes True; Mrs. Mary W. Doak, Dean of Women emeritus; Mrs. Margarette W. Walker, Dean of Women; Miss Margaret W. Weeks, Dean of Home Economics; Lois Cone, president of Association of Women Students; Anita Oliver, president of Forum; and Sue Holmes, president of Women's Freshman Honor society.

Federated study clubs began a new season Tuesday at luncheon and mid-afternoon programs.

THEME FOR YEAR IS DISCUSSED BY FORUM

Hilton hotel was scene of a Tuesday luncheon which was the first meeting of the year for Lubbock Woman's Forum and which was hosted by Mesdames Joe McIlhaney, R. H. Fulton, H. E. Archer and John Mallory. Arranged on the luncheon table were yearbooks which marked each place and a floral decoration of roses, gladioli and mums in shades varying from deep cerise to pale pink.

The invocation was by Mrs. A. A. Holmquest and the greeting by the club president, Mrs. Clarence Whiteside, who built her remarks on the idea portrayed on the frontispiece of the organization's yearbook, "unpack your suitcase and live." The yearbooks were prepared by Mrs. Earl Hobbs, program chairman, and her committee.

Mrs. Alfred Crosby, program leader, introduced Mrs. O. L. Byrd who presented excerpts from the book, "In A Chinese Garden," by Dr. Frederick Loomis.

First, Mrs. Byrd described a Chinese garden as one of willowy daintiness. Afterwards, she gave the contents of a letter written to the doctor by a young Chinese patient who saw hanging on the wall of a Chinese garden the following words: "Enjoy yourself it's later than you think." This idea so captivated Dr. Loomis that he reconstructed his entire life and brought to others enjoyment for the day and enrichment for future living.

Mrs. Byrd stressed the idea of hobbies, travel, study and friendship as means of enjoying oneself.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES ARE DISCUSSED

Members of Sorosis club who met with Mrs. C. R. Hurmence, 2511 Twenty-third, Tuesday afternoon discussed their summer activities.

Fourteen were present at the meeting which was presided over by Mrs. Allen T. Stewart, sr., in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. D. Peters.

BIG FOUR AGREE TO DISAGREE

UN Is Given Italian Colonial Problem

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Sept. 15 — The problem of what to do about Italy's prewar empire in Africa went to the United Natons today for decision.

Representatives of the big four powers—Russia, the United States, Britain and France — wrangled over the question until 3 o'clock this morning, but agreed on only one thing: that they could not agree.

By the terms of the Italian peace treaty, signed a year ago today, the problem now passes to the United Natons assembly. The assembly convenes here next Tuesday. The veto does not apply there.

Time Spent Arguing

In two days of conferences, the big four delegates—summoned to consider the future of Eritrea, Libia and Somaliland — spent most of their time arguing about whether they had the necessary authority to do anything. Russia said they hadn't because only France had a foreign minister present.

When they did get down to the question at hand, Russia demanded that all three colonies be placed under international trusteeship. The western powers said no. The western powers got together on a proposal to put Somaliland under Italian trusteeship. Russia blocked that.

In Washington, the State department announced that the United States is backing a British proposal to turn over Cirenaica, one of Libia's three provinces, to Britain, under U. N. trusteeship, until independence can be achieved.

Report Procedure Problem

This morning's final big four session—concluding almost 15 hours of continuous argument—was unable even to agree on how to notify the United Nations that the four great powers were unable to agree. The western powers said Secretary-General Trygve Lie should be told in a letter from the foreign ministers council.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky, the Soviet deputy foreign minister, said the meetings here were not sessions of the foreign ministers council, since only France had a man of that rank present.

ENTERS HOSPITAL FOR OPERATION—Two-year-old Pamela Lamphere, who was born with her bladder outside her body, is held by her father, Fred Lamphere, as Dr. Palmer Lundberg (left) prepares to make an examination preliminary to a series of operations which will determine whether she has a future. Mrs. Irene Lamphere (right), the child's mother, who originally opposed surgery looks on at County hospital in Chicago.

300 Injured In French Strike

PARIS, Sept. 15 (AP) — About 300 persons were injured today when 2,000 strikers from the nationalized Snecma aircraft factory clashed with police and mobile guards in downtown Paris.

Police said 13 strikers and policemen were taken to hospitals after the outbreak of violence along the boulevard Haussman. Most of the injuries were minor.

Some 100 policemen suffered slight face or body injuries, while about 200 strikers received bruises, lacerations and concussions.

Starts Before Noon

The trouble started before noon, and continued as the strikers moved out of the center of the city with police trying to break up the group.

Strikers from the Snecma aircraft plant in the "Red belt" suburbs demonstrated before the company's headquarters on the boulevard Haussman. The skirmishing was the most violent in the recent flurries of labor trouble.

Two hundred police sent to break up the crowd of demonstrators were met by a hail of asphalt paving blocks. They charged the demonstrators with batons and cleared the crowd from the boulevard.

Weary Fighters Seek To Quell Valley Fire

OJAI, Calif. Sept. 15. (AP)—Weary fire fighters sought today to quell the Ojai valley fire which has burned over an estimated 20,000 acres and still rages out of control in two sectors.

The city of Ojai, however was believed out of danger from further ravages as winds carried the flames in two forks toward Wheeler's George and Senor Canyon at the northeast end of the scenic valley just 15 miles inland from the Pacific coast.

Polio Takes Upward Trend During Week

AUSTIN, Sept. 15 (AP)—Polio took a slight upward trend in Texas the past week, 57 cases being reported from 36 counties.

Five counties had their first polio case of the year. These were Blanco, Callahan, Crockett, Grimes and Kerr. Polio has now stricken persons in 146 of the state's 254 counties, the State Health department reported today.

Texas cases total 1,366, an all-time high for a single year.

Tarrant county reported the most new cases, six, the past week.

Harris and El Paso counties had five new patients; Nueces county, three; Baylor, Bexar, Denton, Guadalupe, Hidalgo and Wichita, two each; and Bee, Bell, Brazos, Cameron, Dallas, Deaf Smith, Falls, Fannin, Fort Bend, Gray, Gregg, Hockley, Lamar, McLennan, Midland, Milam, San Patricio, Tom Green, Travis, Victoria and Wharton, one each.

TYPHOON IS REPORTED

TOKYO, Sept. 15 (AP)—A typhoon with winds of 120 miles an hour at its center threatened southern Honshu, Shikoku and Kyushu islands today as it moved northward from 250 miles off Iwo Jima island.

Grand Jury Indicts Seven At Levelland

LEVELLAND, Sept. 15 (Spl)—Seven bills of indictment were returned to 72nd District Judge Dan Blair late Tuesday by a grand jury of which Edd Lanford was foreman.

Four of the defendants had been arrested. They and charges naming them were:

Johnnie Hargroves, accused of having stolen and embezzled on March 1 a $1,378.31 check belonging to Union Supply company;

G. E. Brown, accused of having stolen a saddle Jan. 2 from C. B. Hightower.

J. W. Hollifield, accused of having stolen three rock drilling bits valued at $210 April 23 from O. J. Johnson; and Mildred Clay, accused of burglary Aug. 24 of premises of Dr. H. N. Lusk.

Judge Blair has set the week of Sept. 27 for trial of the indictments.

Assistant District Attorneys E. G. Pharr and A. W. Salyars assisted the grand jury in its work.

Grim Warning On Unwarranted Rent Evictions Is Given Here

Facing what he fears is a rising tide of evictions in the housing shortage here, Roy B. Carnes, director of the area rent office, explained yesterday that tenants in housing involved in rent control can be evicted only on certain grounds, and only after receiving written notice stipulating these grounds.

The basis for eviction, specified in the Housing and Rent act of 1948, fall into two categories, and the period of notice differs for each group, Carnes said.

In one group are obvious reasons — non-payment of rent, using the accommodations for immoral or illegal purposes, or for other than dwelling purposes. In these cases the landlord need give only as much notice as local law requires.

Notice Is Necessary

The other group contains seven eviction grounds, and in these cases landlord must give a tenant a minimum of 60 days from the time he gives written notice on any one or more of the seven specified grounds listed in the act, the director said.

He listed these seven grounds as:

1. If a landlord or a member of his immediate family wishes to occupy the quarters.

2. If land lord has contracted in writing to sell the place to a purchaser for his immediate personal occupancy.

3. If landlord wishes to demolish the structure, alter it substantially, or convert it into additional housing accommodations under specified conditions.

4. If landlord withdraws the housing from the rental market, in which case the property cannot be rented again as such.

Court Action Possible

5. If housing has been acquired by a state or municipality for public improvement and rented temporarily prior to start of improvements.

6. If landlord is exempt from taxation under the Internal Revenue core covering non-profit, religious, charitable and educational institutions, and wishes the premises to house staff members.

7. If landlord wishes to recover possession of an apartment in a cooperative project, for occupancy by purchaser of stock in such cooperative, but then only if a minimum of 65 per cent of the dwelling units in the structure are occupied by stockholder-tenants.

Carnes emphasized two additional points. One is, he said, that a tenant may not be evicted because he doesn't have a lease, or because his lease has expired. He added that the law is very explicit on that.

The other is that a landlord may not use any of the eviction grounds as a pretext for obtaining a tenant's removal for some reason not set out in the law. In other words, he cannot evict a tenant on a plea of wanting the quarters for personal use, then rent it to a friend.

Carnes suggested that in cases of doubt the tenant should get in touch with the rent office, now in a new location at 1108 Fourteenth street.

He reiterated that "while it is up to the courts to decide eviction cases, our office is empowered under the law to seek injunctions against landlords, who we have reason to believe, are trying to evict tenants illegally."

Carnes is scheduled to discuss eviction matters in a 15-minute radio broadcast over KFYO Thursday morning at 10:45 o'clock, he said.

Liner Slows Down To Miss Hurricane

ABOARD THE S. S. AMERICA In The North Atlantic, Sept. 15. (AP)—The liner America, slowed down to a crawl to miss an Atlantic hurricane yesterday, probably will reach port a day late.

Capt. John Anderson, who ordered the ship slowed to five miles an hour on a zig-zag course until he was sure the America would not run into the storm, estimated he would reach Le Havre on Sept. 21 instead of Sept. 20.

The U. S. delegation to the United Nations assembly, is aboard the America.

Dove War Is On In Georgia

ATLANTA, Sept. 15. (AP)—Some Georgia hunters were hunting doves today while agents of the U. S. fish and wildlife service were hunting the hunters.

The dove, long a symbol of peace, has started a war between the federal agency and the Georgia game and fish commission because the authorities have fixed different open seasons for hunting the birds.

U. S. Agents On Scene

The state has fixed two open seasons, the first from Sept. 15 to Sept. 30 and the second from Dec. 1 to Jan. 31. The federals, however, contend that these dates conflict with the federal open season for doves in Georgia, set by the U .S. agency from Dec. 18 to Jan. 31 for the state's northern section.

And the feds have brought in 30 agents and two airplanes to enforce the federal season.

Director Charles Elliott of the Georgia fish and game commission says his organization will not cooperate with the federal authorities in enforcing the federal law.

Five Placed On Bond

The federals have won the first round. At Athens yesterday the United States commissioner placed five men, one a second offender, on bond on charges of shooting doves out of season.

James Silver, regional agent for the national organization, said the dove is a migratory bird and is, therefore, under the protection of federal migratory bird laws.

The penalty for violation of the federal law is a fine of $500 or a term of six months in jail, or both, for each violation. Every bird killed out of season is a violation.

Elliott said it's better to let the hunters shoot legally, and limit the bag; otherwise, they'll shoot as they please.

Replied William T. Davis, regional supervisor of law enforcement for the federal unit: doves have become scarcer and scarcer and a short season is necessary to permit them to recover.

Baby Stolen, Left Daubed With Paint

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. (INS)—A five-month-old baby was whisked away from his buggy today and then left bruised and daubed with green paint in a vacant lot near his home on Chicago's south side.

The infant, Cary Herzberg, was found by his mother who searched frantically after finding him missing from his carriage in the back yard of his home.

He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Herzberg.

The baby's head was bruised and cut and his sweater and foot were smeared with the paint.

Painters working on a house adjacent to the Herzbergs said two small boys had stolen a can of green paint shortly before the Herzberg baby was discovered missing.

Later police said Bobby Furneaux, 5, admitted that he and his sister, Judy, 7, kidnaped the child "to play house."

20 Cars Derailed In Fort Worth Yards

DALLAS, Sept. 15. (AP)—Twenty cars of a Texas and Pacific freight train were derailed and overturned on the main line at the Lancaster yards in Fort Worth at 3:15 a.m. (CST) today. No one was injured.

The overturned cars blocked the tracks and will cause a delay in Texas and Pacific's No. 6 southern main passenger train east bound out of El Paso, railroad operating department officials said. Automobiles will meet the train about five miles from Fort Worth and bring the passengers into the city.

The officials said the cause of the derailment was not known.

Truman Throws Top U. S. Labor Dispute Into Political Arena

By HAROLD W. WARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—President Truman tossed the nation's No. 1 labor dispute under the Taft-Hartley act into the simmering political campaign today.

The President accused Senator Taft (R-Ohio), co-author of the year-old labor law, of trying "to put the heat on" National Labor Relations board officers to crack down on the International Typographical Union.

The ITU has been locked in a long and bitter fight with the NLRB's general counsel, and with publishers and printing houses, over its traditional closed shop. The Taft-Hartley act outlaws the closed shop, as such.

Taft Will Reply

Taft, returning to Cincinnati after a Canadian vacation, promised a reply today after studying the White House charges.

The President's move in making public an exchange of letters with David P. Findling, associate general counsel of the NLRB, was interpreted as an open invitation to fellow Democrats to make heavy campaign use of the ITU case.

The Taft-Hartley act, which was passed over the President's veto, already is an issue in the presidential race. Democrats want it repealed. Republicans, generally speaking, have defended it and some have indicated they would go even further in restricting union activities.

This is the background of the latest dispute over the labor-management relations law:

Since last March 27, the ITU has been barred by federal court injunctions from pressing for the closed shop in its new contracts with publishers.

Union Asks Probe

At its Milwaukee convention last month, the union asked the President to investigate reports that Taft had called in NLRB officials last July 28 and suggested that they bring contempt proceedings against the ITU on the grounds that it violated the injunction.

The President received a report from Findling on August 19 to which he replied the next day. Texts of both letters were released by the White House yesterday.

Findling said he and Winthrop A. Johns of the NLRB general counsel's staff attended a meeting in Taft's capitol office last July. Also present, he said, were representatives of several Chicago newspapers whose printers have been on strike for nearly a year.

Findling, in his report of the meeting, said Taft had commented "that he regarded the ITU case as the most important case that had come to the board and that it stood as a symbol to many members of the Congress, and, he believed to the public, of the effectiveness of the enforcement machinery of the statute."

Taft Cites Reports

"He said that he was therefore greatly disturbed by reports that had come to him from various sources, indicating that there was a serious breakdown of the enforcement machinery in the case of the typographical union and the publishers," Findling continued.

"He (Taft) declared, particularly, that in a situation where the general counsel's office had sought and obtained an injunction it was, he believed, the government's responsibility to see that the injunction was obeyed."

Findling said he and Johns "stated emphatically our awareness of our responsibility to the public and to the court; that, as Mr. Denham had publicly stated, the injunction had not been idly sought; and that if violations of the injunction were occurring we would promptly call them to the court's attention."

Truman Statement Given

On August 24, the general counsel's office asked the court to find the union in contempt, alleging violation of the injunction. The charges will be aired in Indianapolis before Judge Luther M. Swygert, beginning next Monday.

Denham, who has been ailing this summer, was not present at the Taft meeting, but conferred with Mr. Truman before the President made the Findling report public yesterday.

In reply to Findling the President wrote:

"It seems to me that it is entirely improper for any senator, no matter what his politics or his rank in the Senate may be, to attempt to put the heat on one of the executive departments."

Boys Club Meeting Scheduled Tonight

All members of Lubbock Boys' club who registered last week for participation in the newly-created Boys' club chorus, as well as members who did not register but who are interested in joining, have been asked to attend a meeting at 7 o'clock tonight at the club house, John W Wilson, Boys' club director, has announced.

Parents have been extended a special invitation to accompany their sons to the meeting, Wilson added.

Dick Richards, director of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., sponsor of the chorus, and Texas Tech Glee club, who will direct the club chorus, is to be present. Also to attend is the Plainsmen's Quartet, which is affiliated with the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., and is composed of Robert Dennis, Robert Hufstadler, R. S. Roberson, and Jack Hall, and a 20 to 30 voice chorus also from the Barber Shop Singers group.

Following the meeting, the regular Wednesday night movie will be shown at the club house for members. A serial and a comedy will be included.

Two Men Killed In Shooting At Hearne

HEARNE, Sept. 15. (AP)—James S. Matthews, 22, and Rufus Gordon Berryhill, about 30, were fatally shot in Matthews' yard last night.

Matthews died in the yard, Berryhill in a hospital here.

Coroner J. E. Mooney said he was holding an inquest but was not ready to return his verdict.

Friends of the two men's families said they had been the best of friends and that they had been "talking about a job."

Matthews is survived by a wife and one child. Berryhill has a wife and two children.

Title Chase Is An Open Affair

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Sept. 15 (AP)—The battle for the 1948 Women's National Amateur golf championship was still a wide open affair today as survivors swung into the second and third rounds of the 48th annual tournament.

Thirty-two players started this morning, and the 16 winners will slug it out in the third round this afternoon.

While there were no major casualties in the opening round, the story today was packed with certain catastrophe by the luck of the draw.

Texan Faces Vet

First off the tee were medalist Bettye Mims White of Dallas and sturdy Dorothy Traung of San Francisco. The pert little Texan who got to the semi-finals in her first whack at the National in 1946 but failed to qualify last year, faced a veteran of numerous nationals and a player thoroughly at home on this course.

Immediately behind in the upper half of the draw were Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta twice runner-up for the crown, and young Marilyn Smith of Wichita, Kan.

Betty Mac Kinnon of Mt. Pleasant, Tex., the Arkansas state champion, went into the second round with a 4 and 2 victory over Verna Lee Bongart of Danville, Ill. Today she meets Mrs. Kermit Pearson of San Mateo, Calif.

First Games To Be Played In Amarillo

(By The Associated Press)

The Amarillo Gold Sox and the Pampa Oilers will open a seven-game series tomorrow night for the championship of the West Texas-New Mexico league. The first two games will be at Amarillo.

Amarillo, which finished in second place over the full season route, eliminated third-place Lubbock, and Pampa, which wound up fourth, took out first-place Albuquerque in the opening round.

Amarillo put the finishing touches on Lubbock last night as the Sox scored five runs in the last of the ninth to beat the Hubbers 11-10 and close out the series in six games.

Pampa whipped Albuquerque 11-9 to wind up the same way — four victories to two.

A crowd of 3,522 saw the Sox stage a wild ninth-inning surge to nip the Hubbers. An error allowed three runs to come in and give Amarillo its winning margin.

Pampa also used a big inning to gain its victory, pushing over six tallies in the eighth, with all the runs being unearned. Relief pitcher Roy Parker nipped an Albuquerque rally in the ninth that had gotten a run and had two on base.

Amarillo Stages 5-Run Rally In Ninth To Sink Hubs 11-10

AMARILLO, Sept. 15 (Special)—Amarillo's slugging Gold Sox clinched a semi-final Shaughnessy playoff victory over the Lubbock Hubbers here last night, staging a bizarre ninth inning rally to nose out the Hub city nine, 11-10 and take the series, four games to two.

With two out and only on run in, the desperate Sox started a rally that netted them the game. Singles by Manager Buck Fausett, Joe Budny and a questionable error on a hard-hit ball by Earl Harriman sent the winning runs across, while 3,522 fans went crazy.

And again it was Joe Budny who came on to gain his third win of the series, although he was lucky not to be charged with his first defeat. Budny didn't weave his magic last night and barely escaped the loss on the last ditch rally.

Chris Haskins, the old warhorse, magnificent in defeat, checked the Sox from the fourth through the initial portion of the ninth. Then he obviously tired, each time he threw causing him agonizing effort and the magic dropped from his curve, while his fast ball slowed down.

Looked Like Victory

But there were two out. All the Hubbers needed was to get one man down and the game would be theirs, the series would be tied up and maybe tonight they'd go into the finals.

They were playing without fate, although Bob Crues got himself put out for the second death of the ninth and then chased from the game. When he left, it looked as though it were to be a Hubber victory.

The Hubbers lost no time in scoring last night, getting single runs in the first two innings and a pair in the third, only to see Amarillo tie it up in the last of the third. Chick Fowler opened the first with a single to center and went to second on an error by Crues. Gene Hixson and Manager Jackie Sullivan went down, but Floyd Walker pounded a triple to center to plate Fowler.

In the second, with two down, Bob Ramsey homered over the left centerfield fence and the Hubbers went ahead 2-0. In the third, Fowler walked and scored ahead of Hixson, when he drove a 1-2 pitch over the left field barrier.

Haskins Retired Sox

The Sox put together four singles to rightfield and one to center to score four runs in the third, with an error helping them. And in the fourth Fausett led off with a single to center and Ted Clawitter, making his first appearance in the series, hit a two and nothing pitch over the centerfield fence to give the home team a 6-4 lead.

That brought on Haskins and he retired the Sox with only four hits for the next five innings, shutting them out cold.

Then in the seventh, the Hubbers rallied, 11 men batting and scoring six runs on five hits. Ramsey led off by fanning, but Haskins singled sharply to short and went to second on Fowler's single to right. Hixon singled to center to score Haskins and when Crues booted the ball, Fowler continued on to score and Hixon went to third. Jack Schumacher was relieved at this point and Budny came on to face Sullivan.

The Hubber manager drew a walk and Walker, after running the count to two balls and two strikes, lined a terrific home run over the centerfield fence to score Hixon and Sullivan ahead of him. Frank McAlexander doubled to right centerfield and Budny lost his control, walking Don Moore and Jackie Wilcox to send McAlexander to third. From there he scored easily on Ramsey's fly to right.

Game Up To Haskins

That was the end of the Hubber scoring and the game was up to Haskins, who had won twice. But Chris couldn't work every day without feeling it and he was worn down in that fatal ninth.

He walked Doug Lewis and Paul Halter to start things off. Crues following with only his fourth hit of the series. A single to center that scored Lewis. Then Crues lost his head, starting for second and Hixon's throw to McAlexander was relayed to Moore, who trapped him in a rundown. And when Dick Gentzkow went down swinging. It looked like the Hubbers were in.

But Fausett singled to right, Clawitter walked, Jim Heller running for him, and Budny helped his own cause with a single behind second that no one could reach, Halter scoring. That brought up Harriman and he lined a sharply hit grounder to Wilcox for what looked like the game-ending ball. But Wilcox didn't knock it down, the ball going on out to deep centerfield and Fausett, Heller and Budny scored bfore there could be any relay to the infield.

Amarillo fans went wild, but the Hubbers were the picture of dejection. They trudged slowly off the field, heads down, fighting their emotions. There were no alibis. They gave everything they had, they almost won. As Sullivan said afterwards, "Well, they won, but they sure knew they had a fight on their hands. We'll get 'em next year."

Braves Almost Cinch To Win

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It looks as if the Boston Braves are in.

With a five game lead and only 16 games left to play, the Braves appear unstoppable in the National league today. At the moment it seems that only a major nosedive would deprive the Braves of their first pennant since the "miracle team" of 1914.

As for hitting a serious slump, Manager Billy Southworth isn't worried. He has the best remedy possible in his double "S" stoppers—Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn.

Rolling In High Gear

Sain and Spahn, the Mr. Right and Mr. Left respectively of the Braves' mound staff, are rolling in high gear. The Braves have won eight out of their last nine starts and Sain and Spahn have won five of these games.

Sain, a big tobacco chewing righthander with one of the best curve balls in the business, became the first pitcher in the loop to win 20 games when he pitched the Braves to a 10-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

The triumph enabled the Braves to pull five games ahead of the runner-up Pittsburgh Pirates who suffered a severe jolt by dropping a doubleheader to the third place Brooklyn Dodgers, 8-5 and 7-3.

Cards Blank Phillies

The St. Louis Cardinals, behind the three-hit pitching of Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, blanked the Phillies, 8-0 at Philadelphia. The triumph enabled the Cards to break their fourth place tie with the idle New York Giants.

The Boston Red Sox retained their two game lead over the New York Yankees in the American league's pennant chase. The Sox downed the White Sox, 4-1, at Chicago while the Yanks brushed off the third place Cleveland Indians, 6-5.

Connie Mack's fourth place Philadelphia Athletics drubbed the Browns, 12-2, in a night game at St. Louis.

The Detroit Tigers took a doubleheader from the hapless Washington Senators, 2-1 in 11 innings, and 12-1.

Sherman-Denison To Meet Wichita Falls

SHERMAN, Sept. 15 (AP)—The Sherman-Denison Twins and Wichita Falls Spudders open the championship Big State league series here tonight.

Sherman-Denison reached the final round by taking out Austin in five games while Wichita Falls eliminated Waco in four straight.

Sherman-Denison was the season leader.

The final series will be seven games unless a winner is decided sooner. The team that wins four games first takes the pennant.

Tight Race Due In Border Conference

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CANYON, Sept. 15.—Four teams stand out in the Border conference—Texas Tech, Hardin-Simmons, Texas Mines and West Texas State.

Arizona and Arizona State of Tempe are "maybe" entries in this Texas-New Mexico-Arizona grid league, but there is slim chance New Mexico, New Mexico A. and M. or Arizona State at Flagstaff will finish near the top.

Five To See Action

West Texas State opened its conference season with a 28-0 victory over Arizona State of Flagstaff last week. Five teams see action this week.

Plenty of manpower and a wealth of experience at Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons makes it easy to tag these two at the top. But Texas Mines is getting heavy backing and from some of the conference coaches.

Manpower is the one reason Texas A. and I. dominates the few independent college elevens in the Southwest.

Dewey Mayhew has seventeen lettermen back at the South Texas college, including nine experienced backs.

There's No Moaning

Texas Tech lost a flock of fine players, but there is no moaning around Dell Morgan's camp. And any moaning from Texas Mines' headquarters at El Paso should be taken lightly. Twenty-five lettermen are in Coach Jack Curtice's compact varsity squad.

Frank Kimbrough used his regulars only nine minutes in the Arizona State game and his reserves only add to the conclusion the Buffs will make it tough for any foe.

Hardin-Simmons has the nation's leading ground gainer last year in Wilton Davis, and that takes care of a large portion of Warren Woodson's offensive worries.

Mike Casteel thinks his Arizona Wildcats will be among the leaders. On paper his offense looks stronger than his defense.

Sophomores dominate Arizona State at Tempe. But Eddie Doherty figures on the best season in recent years.

An Improved Outlook

Arizona State at Flagstaff has an improved outlook, but has scheduled only three conference games.

New Mexico A. and M. lost heavily through graduation. Even so, Vaughn Corley has sixteen lettermen on hand and a promising back in Miriam Mirimanian.

Berl Huffman rates his New Mexico Lobos sixth in the conference. This may be the tip off they'll be tougher than expected.

Major Bowling Loop Schedule Launched

Walton's Mens store keglers gained a 3-1 decision over the Hemphill-Wells team Tuesday night at the Lubbock Bowling club lanes, as the Major Bowling league schedule got under way. Western Cafe quintet scored an identical win over Hub Clothers, 1948 league champions, and the Mission Orange bowlers broke even with McFarland-Maisen at 2-2.

In the new scoring system adopted this season each game won credits a team with one point and an additional point is earned for high three game total.

Glenn Evans, of The Westerner five, rolled a three game total of 621 for high series, while Ken Kimble soared to a 251 for the high single game of the night.

Other high series included a 612 by E. A. Christensen for McFarland-Maisen, T. I. Brown's 608 for Mission Orange and George Tate's 589 for Hub Clothiers.

High single games were E. A. Christensen 234, T. I. Brown 225, Clyde Curlee 222, George Tate 216, Jack Goodgion 215, Glenn Evans 214, Dayle Vannoy 209, Tubby Reed 208, Ben Brown 210, Cy Barkley 202 and Jay O'Keefe 201.

Dempsey Will Referee Here

Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, will referee the two of three falls main bout matching tough Al Getz of Pittsburgh against Boston Billy Weidner in one of the top mat cards of the year tonight at Sled Allen's arena.

Dempsey, now making a tour of the Southwest in the role of referee, gained fame more than two decades ago as the "Manassa Mauler" who battered his way to the world heavyweight boxing crown. Jack is now 53 and a prosperous New York business man, but he continues to be one of the top names in the sports world.

During the war Dempsey served with distinction as an officer in the Coast Guard. He was active in both the European and Asiatic theaters and participated in the training of the Guard's enlisted personnel.

Holds Attendance Records

Although he fought his last title battle 21 years ago, Dempsey still holds two attendance and earning records. His fight with Gene Tunney in Philadelphia drew a crowd of 120,575 and the second two decades ago as the "Manassa tlers in Chicago grossed more than two million dollars.

The clash between Getz and Weidner should be a "natural," as far as Lubbock mat fans are concerned. Weidner took a decision over the durable Dutchman last week, when Getz was disqualified in the crucial third fall for throwing the Boston grappler out of the ring. Both of the men demanded—and obtained—a rematch.

Veteran Rod Fenton of Edmonton, Canada, and Rex Mobley of Borger will meet in the two of three falls semi-final setto. Fenton has made numerous appearances in the local arena and has gained a reputation for speedy rough grappling. Mobley gained a spot in the semi-final bout with two consecutive victories on recent cards here.

Tickets Sold at Wylie's

Popular Dory Detton of Amarillo and George Curtis of Vicksburg, Miss., will tangle in the 20-minute preliminary. Detton is one of the top favorites of local fans and will have the support of the crowd, although Curtis is a fast, clean grappler with considerable support.

Tickets for the feature program went on sale at 9 o'clock this morning at Wylie's drug. Ringside ducats are priced at two dollars each, with reserved seats selling for $1.50. General admission pasteboards will be priced at one dollar.

The matches will get underway at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

Raiders Prepare For Opening Tilt With Long Drill Session

Head Mentor Dell Morgan speeded up preparations for Texas Tech's opening grid tilt of the 1948 season, against the dangerous West Texas State Teachers college crew from Canyon here Saturday night, with a lengthy drill session Tuesday afternoon on the "old stadium" practice field.

The Raider gridders hustled through the head-knocking setto determinedly, following reports by scouts who watched the West Texas eleven grind out an impressive 28-0 triumph over Arizona State of Flagstaff last Saturday night at Canyon. The veteran, speedy Buffs used their first team for only eight minutes to chalk up two touchdowns, then the regulars watched the rest of the game from the bench.

A quick-breaking ground attack is the Buff's chief scoring threat, reports indicated, but the Canyon gridders are certain to have a good overhead assault ready when it is needed.

Mentors Have Problem

The Raider mentors also face the problem of getting their team "fired up" for the Border conference setto. The Tech game is "the game of the year" where the Buffs are concerned, but the Tech squad members are looking ahead to next week's battle with the Texas Aggies and to the approaching tussle with Southern Methodist's mighty Mustangs at Dallas. Last year the scrappy Buffs took a two-touchdown lead on the Raiders before the Techsans realized what was happening. The same thing could happen again.

Defense drew the attention of the mentors yesterday afternoon, as Morgan and his assistants set up a defensive pattern for the West Texas clash. Morgan is known throughout the Southwest as one of the top "defense builders," and his probable lineup against the potent Buff assault should cause the invaders plenty of trouble.

Play assignments and timing also drew considerable attention from the coaches, who will depend on Tech's blazing backfield speed for most of their scoring punch. J. W. Thompson, former all-state fullback from Odessa, was impressive in the workout, as were halfbacks Cal Steveson and Charley Reynolds.

Maloney Misses Session

Halfback Walter Maloney, probably the most elusive runner on the Raider roster, missed the Tuesday session. He was reportedly called to his home at Roscoe by the death of his mother. Maloney, playing his third year with the Raiders, is slated to see plenty of action this season despite his lack of weight.

Only one injury is reported by the Tech squad. Guard Ted Cummings received an ankle injury recently, and may be slowed up in the tilt with the Buffs. Don Williams is slowed by a pulled muscle, but will probably see action Saturday night.

Ticket sale for the opening tilt continue at a brisk pace, Tech officials have reported, and a huge turnout for the initial tussle is expected. All reserved seat ticket reservations must be picked up not later than 6 o'clock this afternoon at the athletic office at the new Jones stadium, officials warned. Some reserved seats are still available for the contest.

Highlanders Whip W. Wilson 12 To 7

(By The Associated Press)

Highland Park and Woodrow Wilson, two Dallas powers, started the week of play in the Texas interscholastic league football campaign last night with a tight duel that saw the Highlanders emerging with a 12-7 decision.

Each team is a favorite in its district—Highland Park in Class AA and Woodrow Wilson in the city conference. They won't meet later on even if each wins its district title.

TCU Frogs Promise Jolts For Other SWC Elevens

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

AMARILLO — The Hubbers brought their season to a close here last night with one of the most heartbreaking finishes ever recorded. Two men out in the ninth, only one more out needed and a sharp ground ball that the shortstop failed to knock down and the game and season was history. What a rough finish it was for as fine a group of men as you'll ever want to meet. They took it hard, too, spirits drooping and down at the mouth. They wanted to win this game and they gave everything they had. It wasn't quite enough, but they lost no honor in trying.

It was particularly bitter for Chris Haskins, one of the most underrated pitchers in the league. Chris toiled in every contest except the Sunday game, pitching one complete tilt and working several innings in every other one. He wanted to win that game last night and, except for faulty umpiring, he would have. With two out and the dangerous Ted Clawitter, who already had a two run homer at bat, Haskins worked carefully. He ran the count to three and two. And then he came in with a fat pitch, right down the middle and belt high. Umpire Fisher called it ball four and Clawitter walked.

After the game Umpire Fisher saw Haskins in the Hotel Herring lobby. He went over to him and apologized. He told Chris that he had called a bad one and that he was sorry, that it should have been a strike. He was sorry! He hadn't done anything. He merely called a perfect pitch ball four, when a proper call would have ended the game and given the Hubbers a victory and a deserved one at that. But that's officiating in the league and we can skip baseball for 1948, turning to football from now on.

The Hubbers were the guests of A. A. Sluder and the Anton Oil Corporation Monday night after the ball game for a dinner at Henry Tryheart's cafe. That's the usual hangout for a Hubber anyway, but this was something special. Sluder promised the players a free dinner in appreciation for their work this year and he thought that Monday night would be a good time for it. He's an ardent sportsman himself and he admired the way the Hubbers had come back to even the series.

Two things make us mad; persons who write nasty letters and don't sign their names and persons who call up on the phone to be nasty without identifying themselves. We can't think a great deal of either. We aren't ashamed of what we write; they are our own convictions and any time you read this column, you know who wrote it. Unfortunately, if you don't sign your name to letters, or call up and refuse to identify yourself, we have no way of knowing who you are. So please, in the future, identify yourself; it will make us feel better and besides, we probably wouldn't know you anyway.

The Los Angeles Rams have arrived in Dallas, where they will meet the Philadelphia Eagles tonight in a charity exhibition game in Dal-Hi Stadium. The Rams flew in from Honolulu, where they have been training, and are said to be in topnotch shape. The game should be a real treat for football lovers and if you haven't seen a pro game before, we'd advise you to go, if you can. There's as much difference between college football and pro football as there is college baseball and pro baseball. Both have their points, but the pros are bigger, better and more exciting to watch.

When the Texas Mines' football team plays McMurry's Indians at Odessa Saturday night, the football field supposedly will be neutral for both teams. But it won't be. Nine of the current gridders at Texas Mines are Odessa High school graduates and will be returning to a place more than a little familiar to them. Two of the players are top grade, Tackle Raymond "Sugar" Evans and Jake Rhoads, also a tackle. Evans is in his fourth year with the Miners and was All-Conference last season, Rhoads is in his third year. The others have less experience, but will see plenty of action this season.

Meyer Will Field A Powerful Squad

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15—Texas Christian is coming up with a football team that could win the Southwest conference championship and occasion no surprise. It has experience, passing, running and punting—everything it takes.

There are 27 lettermen, nine of whom are playing their third varsity season, and three who are playing their fourth. There also are 19 squadmen and B team members from last season. That makes 46 experienced hands. Coach Dutch Meyer has won titles with fewer.

Had Some Jolts

Texas Christian had some jolts after spring training this year. It lost both of its starting tackles—Weldon Edwards, who decided to go ahead and graduate, then signed a pro contract, and Harold Kilman, who became scholastically ineligible. It also lost its two regular guards—Alan Pike and Clifton Caffey, both having finished at T. C. U.

The major loss, however, was Al Vaiani, who became a polio victim. Vaiani had shown he would be one of the best wingbacks in the circuit.

But Texas Christian has the men to plug the gaps, maybe not as good as if those fellows all had come back but good enough that the Horned Frog line will be one of the best. Meyer's returning tackles, C. C. (Red) Marable and Don Narrell, are in some ways better than Edwards and Kilman.

Passing To Be Better

Horned Frog passing will be better than last season and the running will be as good. Meyer had worried some over the punting situation with the departure of Carl Knox. But Leon Joslin, a two-year letterman, has stepped into the breach in big league fashion.

"We'll have a good football team," says the always optimistic Meyer, but he admits he'll have some problems.

Leading contender for the wingback spot is Jack Archer, who was on the freshman team at Ohio State in 1946 and has transferred to T. C. U. He has speed and is a fine pass-receiver.

Texas Christian still has its great tailback, Lindy Berry, and its all-conference fullback, big Pete Stout who hammered lines like a battering ram last fall. Berry and Charlie Jackson, a two-year letterman, give the Horned Frogs a couple of fine passers.

Stout To Carry Load

Stout, the 205-pound veteran, will do most of the playing at fullback, but while he's resting, if any, letterman Otis McKelvey will be carrying on. The blocking backs are David Bloxom and Orein Browning, a couple of lettermen, and Meyer also likes Frank Struska, who was on the B team last season.

Texas Christian has plenty of good wingmen. Six veterans return at those positions, offering pass-receiving and defense that will compare with any college in the country. They are George Boal, Morris Bailey, Wayne Rogers, Rex Alford and the Moorman twins—Bob and Bill. Meyer knows them apart because one has a chipped tooth. But he has to ask them to open their mouths to do it.

Back of Marable and Narrell at tackle are letterman Hubert Eoff and Roger McAuley, squadman. Tackles are thin compared to the ends but not enough to cause great worry unless there are too many injuries. For that matter, George Brown, one of the starting guards, can play tackle in top fashion if necessary.

Flush At Center

Brown and Morelle Hicks, two-year letterman, are the guard starters with lettermen Shankle Bloxom and Dick Lowe as backstoppers.

The Frogs are flush at center with the veteran Doug Brightwell, playing his fourth season, the No. 1 man. Doyle Malone, a letterman who is noted for his defensive ability, and Max Eubank, another letter-wearer, are next in line.

Jim Hickey, B team member last year and Johnny Dunn, who also played on the B, are back of Archer at wingback.

Meyer picks Southern Methodist to win the title with Texas second and Rice third. He doesn't say where he thinks his Horned Frogs will finish.

Louis To Take Time On Retirement Plans

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15 (AP) Joe Louis intends to take the full six months to decide whether he'll retire as heavyweight boxing champion of the world.

The Brown Bomber, who previously said his June 25 fight against Jersey Joe Walcott was his last, told delegates to the National Boxing association dinner last night:

"I have six months from the date of my last fight to make known my plans of retirement and until that time I should be known as the heavyweight champion of the world."

He then turned to Abe Greene, president of the NBA, and said:

"Mr. Greene at the end of six months you'll have my answer on whether I'll retire or fight again on your desk."

Westerners On Pass Defense

Lubbock High's Westerner gridders romperd through another lengthy drill session Tuesday afternoon at the Chapman field practice layout, as Head Coach Pat Pattison worked to eliminate errors which were made by the Westerner secondary against Odessa's Broncos last week.

The Broncos just missed connecting on several long passes in the tilt with the Westerners and Coach Pattison is determined that the rifle-armed San Angelo quarterback, Bobby Clitterbuck, will not have the same opportunity when the Bobcats of 3-AA tangle with Westerners in a non-conference setto Friday night at Jones stadium.

Uses Every Player

Pattison used every player on the 35-man Westerner squad during the lengthy session, with several defensive combinations being used against San Angelo's T-formation plays.

The "dummy" drill was followed by a head-knocking session that gave the Westerner gridders their first contact work since the game last Friday night. There was no first or second team, since all the boys alternated at offensive and defensive posts.

Another lengthy practice period is slated today on the Chapman field gridiron, Pattison reported, and there may be some contact work before the drill is completed. The Black and Gold representatives will taper off with a light drill Thursday, before tangling with the Bobcats Friday night.

All In Good Condition

The Westerner squad is at near top strength for the San Angelo tilt, mentors reported. Norman Bantz, stocky blocking back, has recovered from a knee injury and will probably see some action. A few of the boys are still recovering from bruises received in the Bronco encounter, but all are expected to be in top physical condition by kickoff time.

Tickets for the game with San Angelo will be on sale all this week at the Senior High school athletic office, Business Manager E. J. Lowrey has reported, and ducats for seats in the west stands may be purchased at any time. Reserved seat tickets will also be sold under the west stands at the new stadium Friday night. No student tickets will be sold at the stadium, however.

Black Hubbers Will Clash With Detroit

Nearing the end of the season, Lubbock's Black Hubbers are to play the Detroit Senators Thursday night on the diamond at Hereford, starting at 8 o'clock, it was announced today by James Roy Lewis, manager.

The club is scheduled to return to Hobbs for a game there Sunday, and plans had not been completed for a contemplated last game of the season at Sam Rosenthal field here.

Shreveport, Tulsa Lead In Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

Shreveport, the club that managed to get into the Texas league play-offs by a fraction of a point, held a one-game margin today over the Fort Worth Cats, tight-fisted leaders over the full season route.

Tulsa's oilers, who slugged their way to second place, had a similar advantage over Houston, the third-place outfit, as the two play-off series were resumed at Fort Worth and Tulsa.

Shreveport beat Fort Worth 1-0 in eleven innings last night, getting an unearned run to do it. Tulsa edged Houston 3-2 in a brilliant pitching duel in which Bud lively came off victor over Cloyd Boyer, the league strike-out king.

Wyse Against Sloat

Shreveport will use Henry Wyse, with a 12-8 record, against Dwain Sloat, 10-8, tonight with Houston throwing Jack Creel, who has won 12 and lost 10 this season, against Harry Perkowski, the league's top pitcher. Perkowski took 22 decisions while dropping 10 during the campaign.

The Fort Worth-Shreveport game was a pitching duel between Howard Auman of the Sports and Willard Ramsdell of the Cats with the former giving Fort Worth just three hits. The sports got to Ramsdell for six.

But the winning run came on a couple of loose plays. With one out in the eleventh Auman singled. Al Mazur then bounced a double-play ball to thirr baseman John Le Gros, who threw wildly to first, sending Auman to third. Jack Richards then fouled one behind third base which shortstop Jack Lindsey caught with his back to the plate. Auman won his own game by racing in ahead of Lindsey's throw.

8,145 See Game

A crowd of 8,145 turned out for the game.

Lively was tough in the clinches in Tulsa's victory over Houston but Boyer's support failed him at crucial times. The Buff righthander allowed the Oilers only seven hits and smacked a home run and a single, his circuit clout in the fifth knotting the score at one-all.

As in the Fort Worth-Shreveport game, an unearned run was the margin. Tulsa got it in the sixth when Al Usher was safe at first on an error and Billy Capps tripled him home. Johnny Lane doubled in the first Tulsa tally in the third and singled in the final in the seventh.

Tulsa had its largest crowd ever to see a Texas league game there—6,640.

Vernon And Midland Start Final Series

MIDLAND, Sept. 15 (AP)—Vernon and Midland start the final series in the Longhorn league play-off here tonight.

Vernon took out Big Spring, the leader over the full season route, four games to two in the first round. Midland eliminated Odessa in four straight.

The clubs will meet over the seven-game route.

More Than 6,500 Students Are Expected To Enroll At Tech

Approximately 6,000 students had obtained permits to register at Texas Technological college by noon today, as preparations were being completed for opening of official registration Thursday morning.

Registration will be conducted from 8 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p. m. Thursday through Saturday. Classes of the fall semester will open Monday morning.

Registration Expedited

Registrar W. P. Clement said that indications still point to an enrollment of 6,500 to 7,000 students. The total of about 6,000 students who have obtained permits include those who filed applications for registration by mail under a new plan started this year.

Registration is expected to run more smoothly this year due to the early pre-registration by mail. The plan is expected to decentralize registration activities, allowing students who have accomplished the preliminary procedure to go directly to the various divisions at assigned times instead of reporting to the registrar's office. They also may pay fees in five places rather than one.

Convocations Set

Those who have not applied to register will report to registration desks in the west corridor of the administration building. Those who applied late and did not receive their permits and other cards by mail will report to registration desks to claim their packets of cards. Others will not need to report except at the assigned times in their respective divisions.

Numerous new students and others were visiting the campus today. Freshmen reported Monday and are concluding their orientation program today. They will attend convocations tonight, with men meeting at 7:30 p. m. on the lawn south of the administration building and women meeting at the same time in the recreation hall. At 8:30 p. m., a "mixer" for both groups will be conducted in the recreation hall.

Train Wreck

some of the dead and injured.

About daybreak today, a hospital train arrived in Seoul with 20 bodies and 16 of the injured.

A medical disaster team and salvage workers were at the scene. Army physicians reported that at least three soldiers remained trapped in the twisted wreckage when the first hospital train left for Seoul.

M. E. Penry of Flushing, N. Y., among 30 passengers in the rear coach of the rammed train, said he shouted a warning when he saw the other train approaching. The coach was emptied quickly. He said he ran alongside the train, waving a small pocket flashlight in an effort to warn the soldiers in the two coaches ahead.

Seconds later and just before the crash, he jumped from the right-of-way into a rice paddy.

The crash, he said, sent the rear car "right through the one ahead — riding through at the level of the seat tops."

'I've got to hand it to an M.P. who was giving a warning from the other side of the train," Penry said. "He jumped onto one of the soldiers cars and got caught in the vestibule when the crash came."

The Pusan-Seoul train was not on its regular route because of a washout, the Army reported.

Auditor Stafford King. The Democratic ballot spot seemed certain for Charles L. Halsted.

Michigan Democrats handed a slim lead to G. Mennen Williams, a socialite running with CIO backing, over two opponents; Victor E. Bucknell, supported by the AFL teamsters union, and industrialist Burnett J. Abbott. Republican Gov. Kim Sigler was unopposed.

Washington's Democratic Gov. Mon C. Wallgren, good friend of President Truman, seemed sure of renomination, while former Gov. Arthur B. Langlie was the choice of the GOP voters in the same state.

Both candidates for governor of Colorado—Democrat Lee Knous, who is the incumbent, and Republican David A. Hamil—were unopposed.

Daily Markets

Stock Market

STOCKS MOVE LOWER

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP) — Stocks moved through an irregular course today with a moderate volume of trading.

Business totaled about 750,000 shares, activity picked up in the closing minutes and some losses were reduced slightly.

A brief rally early in the day did not hold, and prices generally moved lower.

Packing company stocks were unchanged to slightly lower, apparently ignoring a Justice department anti-trust suit filed in Chicago against Swift, Armour, Cudahy and Wilson.

Stocks tending to the losing side included General Motors, Union Pacific Montgomery Ward, Kennecott, Standard Oil (NJ), and Illinois Central.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in dull trading today. Scattered liquidation was influenced by weakness in the cotton textile situation and delay in the ECA export program.

Futures closed 25 cents a bale higher to 10 cents lower than the previous close.

of his trip they wanted.

The Texans asked for Eskimos, set the deadline and made the bet. Leach got his flying orders and went to work.

Leach first flew to Alaska but found the Eskimos there were wards of the federal government and couldn't be ferried over the countryside for betting purposes, even with chaperones. Then Leach was advised to try Portland, which was represented as full of Eskimos.

After Portland, Leach tryed Seattle and signed up the Eskimos there. They will be paid $100 a day and expenses.

young wife there to live.

Then, he hurried to Wichita Falls to patch things up with Mary Gertrude.

Here, he discovered that Mary Gertrude had been dead more than two years, the victim of a fireworks accident in August, 1946.

Too, he learned that, a son who would have given him something tangible to show for their brief married life together, died one short hour after he was delivered prematurely following the accident.

then said that a restraining order had been issued.

Asked why the action was brought in federal court, Small replied:

"It becomes a federal question when you are denied civil rights which rights are having the votes properly counted and properly certified."

Would Be Violation

He said it also would be a violation of federal civil rights to have your right to vote denied.

Johnson left Fort Worth early this morning. His attorneys here would not comment on Small's announcement, saying they had received no official notification of the action.

Judge Davidson could not be reached for comment. A court official at Jefferson said he was at his farm in Cass county and would hold court in Jefferson Friday morning.

The Sept. 21 hearing date on Stevenson's suit is four days beyond the Sept. 17 deadline for the certification of candidates by the secretary of state. Attorney Renfro said in Dallas that the deadline was not set by law, but was prescribed by the secretary of state.

Just before midnight, convention officials sent the Johnson certification by registered mail to the secretary of state at Austin. This, Johnson's attorneys said, was to forestall possible legal action by Coke Stevenson, defeated in the Senate race by a record-breaking close margin of 87 votes.

Delegates Are Ejected

It took the Truman forces five hours to beat the stubborn States' Rights minority down and sweep into control with two clear-cut victories on test votes. Then it ejected anti-Truman delegates from four counties. States Rights sympathizers from five other counties walked out in protest.

Pro-Truman delegations from Harris, Dallas Tarrant and Harrison counties triumphantly streamed into the hall and took the seats vacated by those who were kicked out.

The party aimed these hard-fisted jabs at members who were even suspected of unwillingness to vote the ticket straight:

1. An overwhelming vote recommending that the national committee replace Wright Morrow of Houston as a member from Texas, substituting Byron Skelton of Temple, floor leader of the Truman group, for him. Morrow has been under attack as a States' Rights sympathizer.

Woman Is Ousted

2. Ousting of Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Goliad—openly a States' Righter—as vice-chairman of the state executive committee and replacing her with Mrs. Claude Hudspeth of San Antonio.

3. Election of what amounts to a brand-new executive committee, minus anyone with States' Rights leanings, and including a sprinkling of liberals.

4. Giving the state Democratic executive committee full power to require its members, county and precinct chairmen, and members of county executive committees to sign party-loyalty pledges or be removed.

5. Ousting of five of the 23 presidential electors named in May because they have "not made it clear that they will support the nominees of the Democratic party." They were Abe Mays of Atlanta, Ralph Prince of Gladewater, J. B. Adoue of Houston, William D. Morris of Fort Worth, James H. Goodman of Lubbock.

Calhoun Is Chosen

Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro refused the convention's persistent demand that he be continued as chairman of the state executive committee. John C. Calhoun of Corsicana, a close friend of Gov. Beauford H. Jester, took his place. The convention paid standing tribute to Calvert for his service in the party loyalty fight.

Stevenson's strategists junked their plan to fight Johnson's certification on the convention floor when it became apparent that the congressman's friends had an unbeatable majority. They said, however, they have not given up the fight.

Almost all the delegates jumped to their feet cheering and clapping when Johnson and his wife came to the platform.

"This is a great night for us," he beamed. "I have so much gratitude in my heart that there is no room for bitterness. I pledge here and now that I will devote every ounce of my strength to make you all and all those who voted against me the kind of senator Texas is entitled to have."

Gov. Jester also was applauded when he appeared to speak. The convention adopted a platform outlining objectives of his program for the next two years. It included advocacy of a tax on natural gas if needed to finance rural roads, and a broad outline of expansion of many state services. It commended Jester's administration, especially his handling of clemencies.

The platform opposed a sales tax and called for repeal of "ill-considered laws unduly encumbering labor-management relations" and enactment of a mediation law. It opposed the FEPC and advocated adherence to the "wise and time tested policy of segregation . . and continued support of the constitutional provision for separate schools." It also urged continued efforts by the state to improve the educational, economic and health standards of negroes.

Tom Tyson of Corsicana, attorney who led in the battle to displace anti-Roosevelt electors in 1944 and in the pro-Truman fight this year, was elected permanent chairman of the convention. C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls was temporary chairman.

Second Fair Booster Trip Set Thursday

The second of four trips to boost the Panhandle-South Plains fair here Sept. 27-Oct. 2 will take 50 or more Lubbock civic and business leaders to Portales, N. M., and intermediate points Thursday.

The trip schedule follows: Leave Lubbock city hall, 7:15 a. m.; Shallowater, 7:50 to 8:05; Anton, 8:30 to 8:50; Littlefield, 9:10 to 9:45; Amherst, 10 to 10:30; Sudan, 10:45 to 11:15; Muleshoe, 11:40 to 12:10 p. m.; Farwell, 12:35 to 12:50; Clovis, for lunch, 1 to 2:30; Portales, 3 to 3:30; return to Lubbock, 6:30.

The trippers will provide entertainment and distribute souvenirs at each stop. Rex Webster and Mark Hailey are co-chairmen.

Tuesday's itinerary included 11 towns in the southern portion of the Lubbock territory.

executive committeeman R. M. Kendrick, of Brownfield, with Truett Smith, of Tahoka; and Mrs L. J. Halbert, Plainview, with Mrs. J. W. Walker, Plainview, as executive committeewoman.

The convention also removed James H. Goodman, Lubbock, from the presidential elector's post and named in his stead, V. Z. Rogers, retired school superintendent, of Lamesa. The district caucus' suggestion of Terry County Judge Homer Winston, Brownfield, as presidential elector, was overriden by the convention's committee on presidential electors.

Johnson Feature Attraction

Although the convention heard various orators of political renown—including a pious dissertation by Gov. Beauford Jester, who made only one brief visit to the hall—the high spot of the convention was the presentation of Lyndon Johnson, victor in the closest state race in Texas history—and one of the hottest, to boot.

Almost every man and woman in the smoky hall rose to their feet to thunder Johnson a rousing welcome as he and his charming wife reached the platform, escorted by a special committee. Mrs. Johnson, introduced first, gave the convention only a smiling "thank you, thank you, thank you for a wonderful night," but the tall Austin congressman spoke more fully.

Touched By Reception

Visibly touched by the crowd's whooping acceptance, and still flushed by his hard-won victory, Johnson pledged his best efforts in the Senate, and, in a voice filled with emotion, said, "We love our friends and have forgiven our enemies.

"I have so much gratitude in my heart tonight," he said, "that there is no room for bitterness there.

Lubbock and South Plains delegates, 53 strong, were well represented on the convention's various committees.

Area committee selections were as follows:

Credentials — L. C. Ellis, Lubbock county, elected over George Mims of Howard county, and Harold Lafont of Hale county;

Permanent organization—Truett Smith over Harold Lafont:

Canvassing — G. H. Nelson of Lubbock, by acclamation;

Platform and Resolutions—John Stapleton of Floyd county over Judge Kilmer Corbin of Dawson county, and Dr. M. H. Brannen of Dickens county;

Nominations—Dr. Joe Webb of Hale county over Homer Winston, Terry county;

Presidential electors — Homer Winston by acclamation.

All these individuals accepted their committee appointments and served on the committee work through the convention.

Lubbock county, voting under the unit system which requires that all the county's 25 votes be cast on the basis of majority ruling, was represented, as actual voters by the following: Delegates—L. C. Ellis, J. H. Brewer, W. M Barton, Homer D. Grant, Bill Collins, Mrs. William G. Dingus, James H. Goodman, G. H. Nelson J. O. Cade, L. Wesley Read, P. G. Meading, Clarence Whiteside, J. W. Jackson, C. L. Harris, L. B Wright, and J. Ben Cole. Alternates—Y. E. Douglas, J. B. Walker, J. S. Millerman, Jim Denton, Dudley Brummett, Jesse L. Davidson and Howard Billings.

Rip-Snorting Affair

A convention which was expected last spring to become just a ho-hum affair turned into a rip-snorter because of the intense rivalry between Stevenson and Johnson factions and a head-on clash between proponents of the Truman-Barkley and Thurmond-Wright national tickets.

The faction loyal to the Truman-Barkley wing won, hands down, over the states righters, but not until boos and catcalls filled the big hall and, finally, until delegations from Harris, Dallas, Tarrant, Harrison, Gregg, Rusk and Shelby counties were forced out of the convention and their seats taken by substitute delegations, whose members had been held outside the hall in readiness to march in.

Victorious Truman-Barkley groups from the counties affected by the party split and their opposing, losing groups filed shouting by each other in the narrow aisles, but there was no physical violence. The Harris county Truman-Barkley delegation was studded with negroes, who sat along with their white fellow delegates with no attention to Texas segregation laws.

Negro Reporters Present

In the jampacked press section were two negro reporters from Houston, one man and one woman, and a negro news photographer jockeyed for shots with an army of white picture-takers. There were no objections raised against negroes in the press section by white reporters, and the negroes seated together next to an aisle, conducted themselves in admirable fashion.

Biggest winner of the convention, aside from Lyndon Johnson, was handsome Byron Skelton, Temple lawyer, who hoped his outspoken espousal of New Deal practices would make him the chairman of the state executive committee. Skelton, however, may get an even bigger prize—the post of Texas member of the Democratic national committee—if Washington party heads follow the request of the party bosses in Texas and oust Wright Morrow of Texas, on the grounds that he is against the Truman-Barkley ticket and hence a "disloyal Democrat."

Morrow apparently expects to be fired. He left Fort Worth hours before the convention was over.

Man Freed Of Liquor Charge

A county court jury late Tuesday afternoon adjudged B. F. (Lefty) Fowler, about 32, innocent of a charge of possession of beer for purpose of sale.

Lee Thompson was foreman.

The state asked an enhanced penalty, setting up in its complaint that Fowler twice previously had been convicted of liquor law violation, on July 28 and Sept. 2, 1947.

Fowler elected to defend himself without counsel. He told County Judge Walter Davies and the jury arresting members of the liquor control board had found only five cans of cold beer in his car.

Negro Is Fined

Two beer cases containing beer, were in sight of the jury, along with the five cans Fowler referred to. The defendant explained that the cases came from another car, not his. The state did not identify ownership of them as Fowler's.

Earlier, a jury had fined Clifford Robinson, about 26, a negro, $1 and court costs for negligent homicide growing out of the Feb. 23 death of Roosevelt Taylor, another negro, on a curve near the old Slaton cutoff road. Robinson was injured in the same mishap and only three weeks ago had been dismissed from treatment in a Temple hospital.

Jesse Ford Lester, 17, of Lubbock was fined $50, court costs and ordered to spend three days in jail for theft of a bike, county court officials said this morning.

Officials said Tom Davis, 34, of Carlisle, was fined $100 and costs on a plea of guilty of liquor law violation after waiving a jury.

The sheriff's department said that bond of $500 had been posted by two other persons who pleaded innocent of liquor law violation: Angeltz Brionez, 27, and Concepcion Alcorta, 40, both of Lubbock.

Officers Are Named By Sophomore Class

Sophomore class vice presidents and cheer leaders at Lubbock Senior High school have been announced, following counting of votes cast by class members Monday.

Vice presidents are Iris Brunson, Nancy Ketron, Jerry Peyton, Pat Rhea, Sandra Toombs, Glen Adair Frank Ford, Jimmie Grace, Sterling Miller and Neil Vaughn.

The sophomore cheer leaders are Nancy Ketron and Thomas White.

The class president and secretary will be elected next week.

Expectant Mother Is Suicide Victim

HOUSTON, Sept. 15 (U.P.)—The husband of a 27-year-old expectant mother was unable today to give police any reason for his wife's suicide.

Mrs. Ruby Lee Wark shot herself to death in an apartment above her husband's hardware store late yesterday afternoon. Her husband, A. F. Wark, 34, found her body on the floor of a rear bedroom. In her right hand was a .38 caliber revolver.

Deputies said Mrs. Wark had been shot through the right temple.

Wark said his wife had been in good health, and he could give no reason for her act. A suicide verdict was returned by a justice of the peace.

Collision Fatal To 16-Year-Old Bride

HOUSTON, Sept. 15 (U.P.)—A 16-year-old bride of five months died in a Houston hospital today of injuries received in a motorcycle-automobile collision last night.

The victim was Mrs. Clara Nell York, who had recently come here with her husband from Oklahoma.

Mrs. York was riding in a car driven by her husband. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Greek Army Accused Of Using Poison Gas

ATHENS, Sept. 15 (U.P.) — A guerrilla radio broadcast charged today that the Greek army had used poison gas against Gen. Markos Vafiades' forces in the Vitsi mountains on the northern border.

The Greek general staff denied the charge but admitted the northern offensive had been considerably slowed down by enemy resistance and heavy rains.

Exchange Club Is Presented Grover Cole Attendance Trophy At Luncheon Meeting

Dr. James Reynolds, Lubbock Exchange club president, today presented to the club the Grover Cole attendance trophy, won by the local Exchange chapter at the Texas Exchange club convention held in San Antonio over the weekend for having the most members present from the farthest distance. The local chapter had seven representatives present.

Reynolds also announced at today's luncheon, held in Hotel Lubbock, that the local club had won third place out of 22 Texas clubs competing in the youth project competition. The local chapter, which was awarded third for its Soap Box Derby project here, finished behind clubs from Stamford and downtown Houston.

The group also heard a brief talk, "Every Dog Has His Day," by Rev. Travis White, pastor of the First Christian church, who stressed that "while every dog may have his day, his one day, every man has every day, and his manner of day-to-day living will determine not only his own life, but the basic structure of the American nation."

In stressing the importance of a day's actions and a man's daily philosophy, White denounced several widespread philosophies of living, including "the philosophy of the iron lung," that life owes a person a living; the "lie detector philosophy," that a man is to be commended for "getting ahead" of another by deceit and literal untruthfulness; the "applause meter philosophy," that success is determined by how much the crowd applauds a man's actions, and the "atop the family tree philosophy," that a man is born into a place of priority in the world.

Bare Arm Philosophy Better

A better philosophy of life, according to Rev. White, is the "bare arm philosophy"—that in which a man rolls up his sleeves and uses each day as constructively as possible, doing the jobs necessary to be done for the protection of his family and his country.

The club also gave its stamp of approval to a series of purchases proposed by Roy Finley, publicity chairman. The proposals call for purchase of several Exchange Club signs to be placed on the highways, a luncheon bell, a metal club shield to be placed in the lobby of Hotel Lubbock, and other publicity mediums.

Bedford Raley was program chairman, and Dr. Reynolds presided.

News Briefs

If E. L. Conger, a farmer living northwest of Lubbock, will go to Bob Bryant's radio repair shop at 702 Main he will find a new radio waiting for him, at no cost. Conger found a high-powered model airplane that got loose Sunday from Bryant and Cliff Cocanougher, its builders, and flown an estimated 37 miles before landing undamaged on Conger's field. A "worthwhile" reward had been offered by the owners for recovery of the 6-foot ship, which was constructed for flying with radio controls. At the time it disappeared at 6,000 feet over Lubbock Army Air field it was being testhopped preliminary to installation of those controls.

An interdenominational revival, under direction of Rev. Ben D. Johnson, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, will begin at 8 p. m. tonight and continue nightly through Friday, Sept. 24, at the old Joe Stokes school about 18 miles south of Lubbock.

W. W. Atwood of 1707-B Ninth was scheduled to undergo major surgery today at Santa Fe General hospital in Albuquerque, N. M. He entered the hospital Sunday.

Gradie Bownds, 2016 Fifteenth, left by plane this morning to attend a convention of the National Association of Life Underwriters at St. Louis, as a delegate for the local association.

Lubbock's Bluebonnet Sunbeamers, representing Texas at the World Champion softball tournament at Oklahoma City, will meet Toronto, Canada tonight at 8:30 o'clock, according to an announcement here today. The game will be broadcast over KSEL. The Sunbeamers have won two contests at the tournament.

Further plans for Lubbock observance of national fire prevention week Oct. 4-11 will be discussed at a special meeting of the local committee in the director's room of the chamber of commerce at 11 a. m. Thursday, Chairman Marion Sanford announced today.

Dewey McDonald of 2304 Broadway, who is associated with Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home, has gone to Bellefontaine, Ohio, to purchase a 1948 Cadillac ambulance, and while in that area, will also visit with friends and relatives. He is expected to return to Lubbock early next week.

Committees Named By Dahlia Society

Committees planning the eighth annual South Plains Dahlia society show to be conducted Saturday and Sunday in the showroom at Kuykendall Chevrolet Co. at Nineteenth and Texas have been announced by show officials.

Dr. J. G. Porter and Mrs. James Samson are co-chairmen for the show.

The show will be free to the public.

Committees, with the chairman listed first in each case, are:

Publicity, H. J. Kendrick, who is club president, and Mrs. H. S. Weiss; property, W. B. Sides, Kendrick and R. C. Badgett; entries, Dr. Porter, Mrs. Kendrick and Mrs. J. D. Hord; staging and arrangements, Mrs. Lillian Slay, Mrs. Badgett, Mrs. John Fry and Mrs. W. J. Culp; ribbons, Mrs. O. A. Goodart, Mrs W. B. Sides and Mrs Frank Moss; hospitality, Mrs W. L. Palmer and Mrs. Frank R. Murray; clean-up, the entire club, and committee to select judges, Mrs. Weiss, Mrs. Samson and Mrs. Fred Rhea.

Six In One Family Are Polio Victims

DEERFIELD, Ill., Sept. 15 (AP) Infantile paralysis has struck the six children of one Deerfield family.

Four of its six children are home convalescing. Today the remaining two were taken to an Evanston hospital with polio.

Services Set For Lubbock Resident

Funeral services for Kenneth Kratzer, 26, of 124 Ave. T, who died late Tuesday afternoon in Lubbock Memorial hospital, will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday in Rix Funeral home chapel with Gene Luper named to officiate. Kratzer, a lifelong resident of Lubbock, had been in the hospital since Friday.

Pallbearers will be Roy and Stanley Lindsey, Clarence Noel, S. E. Holt, J. D. Sanders and A. J. Richardson. Interment will be in Tech Memorial Park.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kratzer of Lubbock, two brothers, E. M. Kratzer and Keith Kratzer, both of Lubbock, and one sister Mrs. Marvin Roberts, also of Lubbock.

Coach Morgan Reviews Raider Prospects At Rotary Luncheon

In his usual facetious manner, Dell Morgan, head coach at Texas Tech college, told the Rotary club at luncheon today at the Hilton hotel that "all our games with Southwestern conference teams will be a cinch as always," this year, but he fears the Red Raiders "will have a little trouble" with such teams as Arizona, Hardin-Simmons, and Burl Huffman's New Mexico Loboes.

Morgan reviewed, in more sober vein, Raider prospects and personnel, going over the list by positions.

Personnel Named

He is proud of several personnel additions, but singled out Milton Rathbone of San Angelo, backfield man; Bobby Broyles, also of San Angelo, tackle, and Hayden Havey of Uvalde Junior college, as excellent prospects among newcomers.

He said balance of the team that will be on the firing line this year are holdovers from last year, and he hopes to give WTSTC a real tussle here Saturday night. He also reviewed freshmen prospects with much optimism.

Morgan explained rule changes, one of which allows substitution in a given time, one following each play, without time out. He said this will allow gradual shifting from defense to offense with no time losses.

Meeting Cancelled

The club voted, at call of President Irving L. Jones, to dispense with next week's Wednesday luncheon because of the inter-city meeting scheduled Thursday night at the college gym, when 500 to 600 from over the area are expected.

Visiting Rotarians included Roy Abell, jr., Percy Eason, Sam Davis, and Mike Wicks, all of Ralls, E. H. Read of Tyler, Jack Coffey of San Antonio, R. C. Kennedy of Pauls Valley, Okla., E. B. Hearne of Little Rock, W. Price of Liberty, and O. K. Lewis of Amarillo. Invocation was by Rev. Wm. F. Blakeslee.

Youth Held On Assault Count

The sheriff's department said this afternoon that Loyd Mack Gray, 22, of Sundown, was attempting to post a $1,000 bond in connection with a charge of rape filed a few hours earlier in the justice court of D. W. Robertson.

The complaint, filed by A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney, had been sworn to by the mother of a 15-year-old Lubbock girl who, officials said they were informed, was married a few weeks ago to a World War 2 veteran who has been in a veterans hospital in Amarillo.

Got Into Car

The girl charged in a statement that she and two other girls got into a car with Gray and another man, about 26, Sunday night at a dine and dance place outside the city limits.

She said the other two girls were let out of the car within a short time, leaving her with the two men. She said she asked them to take her home, but that they drove to near Lubbock compress. She said one of the men got out of the car and that Gray assaulted her. She told officials that in her struggles to resist him she broke a glass in the automobile.

She said she was struck and dazed before she allegedly was overcome.

The defendant made a statement denying the girl's charges but declined to sign it. At least two other statements, made by other witnesses, including the complainant, were signed, the district attorney's department said.

U. S. Army Picking Up Strength Fast Since Congress Passed New Selective Service Act

By JIM G. LUCAS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Uncle Sam's army has begun to put on weight.

It took the draft to do it. Until old doc Congress gave him that injection, the army was flat on its back and growing weaker every day. Now, it's sitting up and occasionally flexing a muscle.

The 10,000 men the army will pick up in its first selective service call aren't the real measure of its recovery. They'll help, certainly, but there are other, more significant gains. The fact it called only 10,000 men—instead of 30,000 as originally scheduled—is convincing proof the old boy's back on his feet.

Draft Speeds Enlistments

For a year, the army has failed to meet its 30,000-man monthly quota. That's what it had to have to hold its own. January through June, it averaged 19,000 men a month. In those days, the army was a sick man. It dropped from 559,000 in January to 538,000 in April. May brought only 16,000 additional soldiers — little more than 50 per cent of its needs.

In June, however, America's young males began to hear talk of a peacetime draft. Some were convinced and 22,000 decided to beat Uncle Same to the draw. They enlisted. On June 24, the selective service act was passed and became law a week later.

In July, another 39,000 young men signed up. It was the first time the army had gone over 30,000 men in 18 months. In August, it did even better. The army picked up 45,000 new soldiers.

More Men Wanted

Today, it tips the manpower scales at a comparatively robust 612,000 men. That's 74,000 more than when it hit bottom, April 1.

Moreover, the army's manpower experts—who forecast trends—think they'll continue to get 45,000 or more men a month for some time.

The army still has a long way to go before it's completely well. Gen. Omar Bradley will concede its recovery only if he has 900,000 men — including 110,000 one-year trainees—on July 1, 1949 and 947,000 a year later. That will require a lot of draftees, but not as many as army men once thought. There'll be a lot of voluntary enlistments.

The army would much rather get its men that way. It's particularly happy because 75 per cent of its men have signed up for three-year hitches. Draftees serve only 21 months.

Current Recruits Smarter

Finally, the army says current recruits have a higher intelligence level than those it picked up before selective service. The brighter boys—who make the best soldiers and technicians—couldn't bring themselves to enlist earlier this year. They went to college and into business instead. Now, with the draft board breathing down their necks, they're taking the plunge. General Bradley thinks he will have a better, more intelligent army as a result.

The army believes the mere fact there's a draft law on the books will spur voluntary enlistments for a long time.

Meanwhile, the army's had to reduce its anticipated draft calls 66 per cent. Its recruit depots and training camps are jam-packed with boys who made the decision of their own free will—with a gentle prod from Uncle Sam.

A STUDY IN FLESH TINTS—The Japanese woman at left and her male companion have an advantage over most folk in that whenever they go, they take their favorite pictures with them. In fact, they can't get away from them. The couple were among members of the Tokyo Tattooing Club at their first postwar convention. Tattooing, some of which take 25 years to complete, generally depict scenes from classic Japanese folklore.

STEADY IS AS STEADY DOES

CHICAGO (U.P.)—The 15-year-old boy who applied for work at the Chicago Daily News said he had to have a steady job because he was helping support his widowed mother and a younger brother. Fifty-seven years later Henry Eagle, still known as "Steady" to his fellow workers, has retired at the age of 72. Eagle began as a floor sweeper and was print paper foreman at the time of his retirement.

Army Wife Gives Up Baby For Adoption

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. (INS)—A 9-month-old son was given up for adoption today by a young Reading, Pa., army wife because the boy "deserves a better break in life."

The 18-year-old mother, Mrs Shirley Weinman, said she left the child, Lester, jr., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitts of Waukegan, Ill. She said the Pitts plan immediate adoption proceedings.

Mrs. Weinman went to Waukegan two days ago from Reading. She placed an advertisement in a suburban paper offering the child for adoption.

She explained:

"I had to do it. I just can't take care of him any longer."

The young mother said her husband, Lester, is stationed in Korea. She said he wrote her recently and gave permission to offer the baby for adoption.

Patient Dies After Beating At Hospital

DANVILLE, Ky., Sept. 15 (INS)—The death of a 75-year-old woman paetient at the Kentucky state hospital in Danville after an attack on her by another patient was announced today.

Hospital Superintendent Dr. R. S. Ahrens confirmed reports of the death of Mrs. Lucie Witt of San Gap, Ky. He said she died Monday morning.

Ahrens said Mrs. Witt was beaten, stomped and bitten by another woman patient Sunday morning. He said Mrs. Witt's assailant attacked her despite being restrained by a strait jacket.

The cause of death was listed as traumatic shock.

It was the third violent death at the hospital in six months. The body of a woman patient was found last April in a lake bordering on the hospital grounds. A month later another patient hanged herself.

Ahrens blamed Mrs. Witt's death on lack of trained personnel. He said he now has 17 attendants to handle approximately 1,000 patients.

The superintendent described the woman who attacked Mrs. Witt as a "hopeless mental case."

For healthy exercise and growth, baby clothes should be short, lightweight, loose in style, smooth, soft and supple, yet strong firmly woven so that it will not rumple easy.

Judge Not Convinced By One-Eyed Driver

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (INS) — A partially-blind man who claimed he could "see more with one eye than most drivers with two" was sentenced to 30 days in jail today in Chicago on a reckless driving charge.

The defendant, 41-year-old Joseph Chovanes, was sternly reprimanded by municipal Judge Irwin B. Clorfene. Clorfene asserted:

"You have no right to drive a car. It's the same as walking around with a loaded pistol."

The judge also lectured Chovanes, who has only one eye, for not equipping his car with special mirrors and for failing to have a rear view mirror.

You just know it's a Packard!

There's a story of exclusive values behind these exclusive lines. Come in — see for yourself!

When you point to this proud, glistening grille, any schoolboy can tell you it's a Packard . . . the car that still looks like itself!

That's because the Packard radiator grille, for nearly 50 years, has been a trademark of precision-built character.

Packard, for example, has always meant precision-built engines. And Packard today is winning new fame with the amazing economy of its new "free-breathing" straight eights, in three power ranges.

Packard has always meant masterful roadability. And Packard leads again today — with a "self-controlling" suspension system.

Packard has always meant precision workmanship. And today's Packards are the finest-built Packards ever to bear the name!

It all adds up to a story we'd like to tell you in full . . . and soon!

Marshall Plan Making Gains

SPRING LAKE, N. J., Sept. 15, (AP)—Economic cooperation administrator Paul G. Hoffman said last night Americans can now "feel confident" that the free nations of western Europe will remain free.

There is "greater good will" among the nations of western Europe—even bizonal Germany—"than in any other time I can recall," he said in a speech at the 29th annual meeting of the American Association of Magazine publishers.

Plan Gives Hope

Hoffman credited the Marshall plan with instilling this confidence.

The plan, he told the 200 assembled publishers, had given hope and direction to European recovery.

"Merely the proposal of the Marshall plan, plus interim aid, aroused the hope which kept France and Italy from going Communist," he said.

"The reality of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of goods moving across the Atlantic," he added, "has built up such hope and determination in France and other free nations, that we may feel confident they will remain free."

Russia Wants Confusion

Hoffman said the program originally outlined by Secretary of State Marshall had included both eastern and western Europe, but participation of countries in the Soviet sphere "was prevented by orders from the Kremlin."

"Russia does not want war, nor does Russia want peace ,"the Marshall plan chieftan said.

"In place of peace," he added, Russia wants confusion and chaos as the basis for totalitarian dictatorship . . .

"If western Europe went Communist, we could retain any part of our freedom only by making the United States a garrison state with military expenditures at such a high level that oppressive controls of business, labor, and even the press, would be inevitable."

According to National Safety Council tabulations, the highest death rates from accidents were reached in December and January last year.

GREEK TRAGEDY—Her eyesight and both her hands gone, 20-year-old Marika Sideri lies on her hospital cot while her weeping widowed mother sobs out the story of the girl's tragic accident. New Miss America Is Welterweight Who Lays Down Stern Terms To Movie Moguls

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 — The new Miss America is a welterweight like Barney Ross or Mickey Walker, the toy bulldog. She is taller, I believe, than Joe Londos, the ex heavyweight champion wrestler.

Furthermore, Miss Beatrice Shopp, who won the Atlantic City beauty pageant, can drive a tractor, loves "to clean fish," and plays the piano and drum.

And this red-blooded, clean-cut Minnesota farm girl, richer by $16,000 in prizes, has sternly served an ultimatum on Hollywood she will appear in no films unless they let her perform on the vibraharp.

All Very Confusing

All of this is very confusing to those who cling to the old-fashioned idea of romantic beauty as symbolized by a pale and lovelorn lady languishing in a high tower as she waits to be rescued. What knight wouldn't feel a bit silly galloping to the aid of a strapping lass who can kill, clean and cook a chicken for lunch and lays down stern terms to the movie moguls?

Philosophers can see in the triumph of Miss Shopp a tribute to the new American worship of the dominant female

Of her beauty there is no doubt. She is clearly lovely. But twenty years ago what chance of victory would a growing 18-year-old girl have who stood five feet nine inches, weighed 138 pounds, and had a 37-inch bust measurement? None at all. Beauty was admired in smaller packages then.

Belief Confirmed

The victory of this tall, robust, baby-faced brunette who neither smokes nor drinks is a clear confirmation of the belief held by most Europeans that Americans always demand bigger and better things.

But to win her crown the new Miss America had to do more than demonstrate she had more curves than a mountain road. She had to display poise in an evening gown as well as charm in a bathing suit. She had to show cultural talent And she had to evidence a winning personality.

28 Planes To Hunt For Missing Craft

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15 (AP)—Twenty-eight planes will take up the search today for a United States twin-engined aircraft missing since Sunday in northern Manitoba bushland. Five men are aboard the lost ship.

RCAF officials estimated last night that 22,000 miles have been covered by search planes thus far in quest of the missing naval aircraft. Today the 21 Canadian and seven American reconnaisance planes may double this figure, they said.

The plane was reported missing while on a 450-mile flight from the Hudson Bay port of Churchill to the Pas. Aboard were two high naval officers, Capt. Benjamin Scott Custer, naval attache to the U. S. embassy at Ottawa, and Capt. Sir Robert Stirling-Hamilton, naval adviser to the British high commissioner at Ottawa.

THIEF MISSES BET

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (U.P.) — A thief stole an automobile owned by Leo F. Manley, drove it a few blocks and then abandoned it after striking two parked cars. So great was his haste he failed to look in an envelope that lay on the front seat. It contained $150.

LOTS OF SMOKE

CHICAGO. (U.P.)—Where there's smoke there's fire, as far as Chicago's firefighters are concerned. Four fire engines, two ladder trucks, a rescue squad and a pressure wagon, led by two battalion chiefs and a division marshal, arrived in time to watch the last wisps rise from the hood of a taxicab. The driver said it probably started from a backfire but went out without anybody's help.

Mass X-Ray Survey To Be Held At Tech

Plans for a mass x-ray survey of students, faculty and employes of Texas Technological college to be conducted Tuesday through Saturday next week, under sponsorship of Lubbock County Tuberculosis association, have been announced by Dr. Embree R Rose, director of the student health service at Texas Tech.

"Plans for the survey were made through the efforts of the Tuberculosis association in cooperation with the college health service and this association has now made it possible for the college to take a great step forward in its program for the control and eradication of tuberculosis on the campus," said Dr. Rose.

No Charge For Service

A mass chest x-ray is a modern method of examining large numbers of persons for the purpose of screening out those who have diseases of the chest. Portable x-ray equipment will be used and the picture will be made on small size roll film. The subject may be fully clothed. Only a few minutes of a person's time will be required for the examination, it was announced.

Up to 1,000 persons can be examined by one machine each day, state health authorities have explained. The state health department will furnish the machine with personnel to operate it, and also the firm and the interpretation of film. The procedure is only a screening process and anyone who shows abnormalities of the chest will be referred to his own physician for diagnosis.

The chest x-ray will be given without charge. The Lubbock County Tuberculosis association has urged that all students, faculty members and employes avail themselves of the opportunity. "To examine only students would be a half measure," officials stated, "as other surveys conducted at the University of Texas and A. & M college showed that more unrecognized tuberculosis was found among employes and faculty members than in a similar number of the student body."

The first portable unit in Texas was purchased by the state tuberculosis association through the sale of Christmas seals. Now, the units are under direction of the state health department and are supported by taxation.

Dr. Agnes True, student welfare community chairman on the campus, has charge of arrangements. Leaders of social clubs on the campus and wives of veterans in college will be paid to do clercial work.

Examinations will be given in the Aggie Memorial auditorium from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Tuesday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sept. 22, 23 and 24, and from 8 a. m. to 12 noon Sept. 25.

Hurricane Off Newfoundland

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—The Atlantic hurricane was centered about 300 miles south-southwest of Cape Race, Newfoundland at 5 a. m. (EST) today.

The weather bureau said the hurricane apparently will not strike the North American continent.

The bureau's early morning advisory said the hurricane was moving northeastward at about 35 miles per hour and was expected to continue that path, with its speed increasing during the next 24 hours.

Storm Is Described

Hurricane winds extend over a radius of about 75 miles, with winds estimated about 120 miles per hour near the center of the disturbance, and gales and squalls extend outward as far as 350 miles from the center, the bureau said.

"This is a severe storm and all shipping in its path should exercise extreme caution."

Coast Guard area headquarters here said it had not received any report of a ship in distress in the hurricane area.

Although 52 per cent of its area is forest, Pennsylvania imports two-thirds of its lumber.

Inquiries Are Received From Other States

Rabbit, Cavy Breeders Plan Show At South Plains Fair

Inquiries from as far away as Valparaiso, Ind., Dover, Ark., Kansas City, Kas., and Champaign, Ill., have been received by the South Plains Rabbit and Cavy Breeders association from rabbit breeders who are interested in sending entries to the Panhandle-South Plains fair.

In addition, other inquiries during the last few days have come from Colorado Springs, Mangum Okla., Sapulpa, Okla., Port Arthur and Bryan.

Fair Exhibition Set

Breeders of the South Plains have discussed plans for arranging for such entries.

Approximately 350 rabbits attracted considerable interest last year, the first year of display of rabbits. This year will be the first year that cavies will be exhibited.

The rabbits and cavies will be shown the last three days of the fair, from Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 30 through Oct. 2. After the fair closes, many breeders will take their rabbits to Amarillo to enter them in the Tri-State fair by 9 a. m. Oct. 3.

Marion Stoner of Wichita, Kas., who has been judging rabbits and cavies about 23 years, will be judge here and also at Amarillo

Prizes To Be Given

Entries are expected from Amarillo and from Abilene for the show here.

The South Plains Rabbit and Cavy Breeders association met Monday night at Central Fire station and will hold its next meeting at the fairgrounds the night of Sept. 29.

The show will be held according to latest revised rules of the American Rabbit and Cavy Breeders Association, Inc. Prizes will be awarded in accordance with that organization's standard of perfection. The association will give ribbons awarded for the six breeds with the largest number shown.

Cavies will not be shown in such large numbers as rabbits. Unless some are shipped in, the only entries may be those of E. E. Cannon of Lubbock, superintendent of the cavies show. Mrs. Glenn Smith is cavies show secretary.

Pennsylvania has the second largest rural population of all the states and its agriculture represents a larger capital investment than either its mining or manufacture of primary metals.

Dawson County Tester Shows Some Gas, Oil

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware No. 2 Lee, southeast Dawson county exploration, which is slated to go to 10,600 feet—unless it gets good oil and gas yields from the lower Permian, or other zones above the projected deep destination—had some shows of oil and gas in a drillstem test in the Sprayberry section of the Leonard zone of the Permian at 6,457-6,545 feet.

The tester was open for two hours. There was a blow of gas at the surface for 70 minutes of the period.

Recovery was 540 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud and 400 feet of fluid which was estimated to have been 50 per cent oil and 50 per cent drilling mud. No formation water was developed.

Location Is Given

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 475 pounds and shutin bottom hole pressure was 1,475 pounds, after 20 minutes.

The project is now making hole below 6,735 feet in shaly sand.

Seaboard has logged similar shows from the same formation, as that just tested in No. 2 Lee, in two other deep wildcats which have been drilled in the adjacent regions.

However, extended testing on both projects failed to develop any commercial production from the petroleum indications.

This development is adjacent to the shallow Spraberry field, 15 miles southeast of Lamesa, and 440 feet from north and east lines of section 47, block 34, TP survey, T-5-N.

Stuck Tools Cut Off

Tide Water Associated Oil company No. 1 White and Shelton, flanker to proven production from the Clear Fork of the Permian in the North Riley field in west-central Gaines county, and 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 404, block G, CCSD&RGNG survey, had cut off stock tools at 4,677 feet, and was preparing to set a whipstock to drill by junk left in the bottom of the hole.

This venture had reached a total depth of 5,392 feet in San Andres lime when the tools were stuck. Efforts to extract them have been underway for several weeks. The exploration is slated to drill to around 7,000 feet to explore into the section which is making oil in nearby wells.

Scurry Test Slated

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Winston, south-central Scurry county prospective discovery from some oil saturated sections in the Pennsylvanian, and located four miles south of Snyder, had set a 5-inch liner on bottom at 7,905 feet, in the Ellenburger,

Spy Probers To Test Contempt Action Voted Against Witness

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP) — Congressional spy probers intend to make a test case of contempt action they voted to bring against Communist Steve Nelson.

What they want to test is whether any witenss has the right to refuse to answer questions of a congressional committee on grounds he might incriminate himself.

More contempt charges appeared likely to come out of another congressional investigation of Communist power, in the CIO fur and leather workers union.

A House labor subcommittee called in seven officers of the union for questioning today. It had one question ready for all of them: Are you or have you ever been a Communist?

Chairman Max Schwabe (R-Mo) said he expected the witnesses to refuse to answer.

Nelson Identifies Self

"I think," he told reporters, "we will have some citations for contempt of Congress coming up. In fact, I am certain of it."

Nelson is chairman of the Communist district committee for western Pennsylvania. He thus identified himself yesterday in a statement handed to reporters. And he said that from 1941 to 1945 he was a Communist party organizer for Alameda county, California.

But he refused to tell a House un-American activities subcommittee whether he is a Communist. And he refused to answer other questions on grounds he might incriminate himself.

The subcommittee promptly and unanimously voted last night to ask the full committee to cite Nelson for contempt at its next session. If it does, then Speaker Martin (R-Mass) will be asked to pass the case along to the U. S. attorney here for prosecution.

Rep. McDowell (R-Pa) told reporters the subcommittee decided to make a test case of the self-incrimination angle, which never has been ruled on by the Supreme Court.

Born In Yugoslavia

McDowell described Nelson as a "real brass-hat Communist" who was a sort of secretary of labor for the party before Earl Browder was deposed as its head.

Nelson left the closed door hearing sputtering. He handed reporters his statement protesting against being "hauled up before this gathering of political pyromaniacs."

He said he had nothing to do with "this atom business" but that the committee tried to connect him with it.

Nelson said he was born in Yugoslavia and is a naturalized American citizen.

McDowell said Nelson was born in 1903, came to this country in 1920, was naturalized in 1927 and that his real name is Steve Mesarosh.

Chairman Thomas (R-NJ) said three more witnesses would be questioned today in the committee's atomic espionage investigation.

Union Officers To Appear

The House labor group meanwhile prepared to hear what the fur union officers have to say.

During five days of hearings, committee counsel John O. Graham has asked fur manufacturers and other industry spokesmen men whether they are, or ever have been, Communists. Each witness has replied with a prompt negative. One former union officer testified he belonged to the Communist party until he was expelled in 1934.

Schwabe said this procedure has been followed to set a precedent, and the subcommittee will recommend contempt citations for any witnesses who do not answer questions about their political sympathies.

Called for today were Pietro Lucchi, secretary-treasurer of the international union; Sam Mencher, president of the fur workers joint council; Frank Bartolini and Joseph Karus, presidents of local fur workers' unions; Sam Burt, manager of the furriers' joint board, and Frank Magnani and Samuel Mindel, union business agents.

The president of the international is Ben Gold, a member of the Communist party's national executive committee. He is scheduled to testify Thursday.

Representative Wed To Bavarian Nurse

ALTUS, Okla., Sept. 15 (AP)—A war-time marriage to a Bavarian nurse has been revealed here by Rep. Preston Peden (D-Okla).

Peden married Ursula Wendt, a nurse, while he was assigned to military government forces in her home town.

The congressman said he was ordered back to the United States for discharge and to protect Mrs. Peden, who could not be brought out of Bavaria at that time, did not reveal the marriage.

Their son, was born shortly after his return and he did not see the boy until he returned to Bavaria on a visit as a civilian.

He brought them to the United States 16 months ago and the family has been living at Falls Church, Va. He brought her to his home here about three weeks ago and announced the marriage yesterday.

Peden was defeated for re-election by former congressman Victor Wickersham in the July 26 Oklahoma primary. He plans to reopen his law practice here.

Hollywood Actress Still Unconscious

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 15. (AP)—Actress Rita Johnson remained unconscious a ninth day from head injuries which police now concede must have been caused by a falling hair drier.

Detectives A. W. Hubka and C. C. Forbes ruled out foul play in a formal report yesterday and said they found nothing except the heavy drier which might have caused the severe brain concussion.

Dr. Lee Siegel, the actress' physician, reported slight improvement in her pulse and temperature.

Actress Comfortable After Appendectomy

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 15. (AP)—Movie actress Peggy Ryan was resting comfortably today after an emergency operation for appendicitis yesterday. She was stricken at her Burbank home.

Miss Ryan, 23, has been working in a film at Eagle-Lion studio. Her husband is James Cross, former actor now a promotion man for Bob Topping, tinplate heir. They have a six-months-old son. The actress, best known for juvenile roles, is a singing and dancing comedienne.

WHAT MADE LINDA LOSE HER LOOKS?

*It may very well be a Borderline Anemia

It's no help to a happy marriage when a wife is forever fatigued and out of sorts—when a faded, forlorn look has taken the place of her youthful beauty.

Yes, and so often this loss of energy and color stems from faded red blood cells. If you're too pale and tired, you may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies show that up to 68% of women—many men and children—are the victims of this blood condition.

Weariness and pallor have many causes—always consult your doctor regularly. But if you have this Borderline Anemia, remember: Ironized Yeast Tablets can help you reclaim your vitality and healthy good looks. They are specially formulated to help build up faded and fagged-out blood cells. To feel better—look better—act alert and alive—try IRONIZED YEAST TABLETS!

*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

Cities Taken In Hyderabad

NEW DELHI, Sept. 15. (AP)—Aurangabad, Hyderabad's second largest city has fallen to invading Indian troops, an Indian defense ministry spokesman said today.

He said the city, which lies about 275 miles northwest of the princely state's capital, was surrounded by the chief collector, the city's principal administrative officer. Not a shot was fired, he added.

No Opposition Claimed

The occupation of Aurangabad, together with the capture yesterday of Daulatabad and Jalna, gives the Indian army control of virtually the entire northwest corner of Hyderabad, the spokesman said.

He declared the Indian troops are encountering no opposition at all from civil authorities or the populace anywhere in Hyderabad. About 80 per cent of the 16,000,000 residents of Hyderabad are Hindus. They are ruled by a Moslem nizam who has steadily resisted all efforts to bring his state into the Indian union.

Indian troops marched in Monday morning under orders to restore order, prevent anarchy and garrison the state until a decision is reached on the future status of Hyderabad and its relationship to India.

Minister Heads For Paris

(The United Nations security council has been called to meet tomorrow to study the swift march of events in Hyderabad. Nawab Moin Nawaz Jung, Hyderabad's foreign minister, arrived in London last night on his way to Paris to back up Hyderabad's protests. He declared the Indian attack on his state was a "wanton and entirely unprovoked act of aggression.")

("I sincerely hope," he added, "the security council will take immediate action to stop the aggression and thereby avoid the communal blood bath which is sure to follow in its wake.")

Indian troops marching into Hyderabad in the southwest yesterday captured Rajasur, 85 miles from Hyderabad City, about half way on the invasion route. To the east, other Indian forces took Suriapet, 78 miles on the other side of the capital.

Fake Priest Sought On Swindle Charge

BOSTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—A man disguised as a priest was sought today on a charge of swindling a Boston used car dealer of $1,900.

Police said the man—carrying a prayer book and a Bible—"sold" the Jackson Square Motors, Inc., an automobile he had rented an hour earlier from the Columbia Motor Mileage corp., in the Roxbury district.

Authorities said the swindler called the Jackson Square firm and told the manager he was "sending in a priest" who had been reassigned and wanted to sell his car before leaving for a new parish.

Forty-five minutes later, wearing the black garb of a priest, he arrived at the used car company, completed the deal within a matter of minutes and left.

Shortly afterward, the purchasing concern discovered the machine had been rented.

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet nor for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe to take off ugly fat.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 30 Pounds

"I wish to state that I lost 30 pounds taking Barcentrate. I didn't starve myself and I feel better than I have in years. I am sure that the easy, safe way to lose weight is by taking Barcentrate."—Mrs. Florence Chadwell, Route 1, Box 650, San Antonio, Texas.

25 Pounds Lost

"When I started taking Barcentrate, I weighed 195 pounds. I now weigh 170. I certainly praise Barcentrate."—G. W. Miller, Weatherford, Texas.

Texas Democrats Adopt Party Platform; Commend President

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15 (U.P.)—Texas Democrats, in their state convention here yesterday, adopted a platform of 13 planks on which their party policies will be based for the coming year.

The platform included:

1. Belief in states' rights.
2. Commendtaion of President Truman.
3. Commendation of Gov. Beauford Jester.
4. Promise of a continuing fight for retention of Texas' tidelands.
5. A plea for the "finest system of schools in the land;" increased teacher pay; and "up-to-date" educational program for handicapped children; action by the legislature to provide additional funds to combat juvenile delinquency.
6. Disapproval of the "present state program for veterans" as being "inadequate."
7. Endorsement of the good neighbor policy with Mexico.
8. Calling for more farm-to-market roads; recommendation that the legislature levy "a reasonable tax" on gas being shipped from the state in pipelines; conservation of soil resources.

Tax Study Urged

9. Recognition of the needs of "the economically and physically unfortunate," including aid to the aged, poliomyelitis victims, fostering of a state-wide recreation program.
10. Calling for a study "by a competent committee" of the state's tax structure.
11. Rehabilitation of the "entire prison system."
12. A program to improve the "educational, economic and health standards" of the state's negroes; opposition to the "federal F. E. P. C."
13. Recommendation of a constitutional referendum in Texas on the poll tax; lowering of the legal voting age in Texas to 18.

Scientists To Study New Cattle Disease

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (U.P.)—The government soon will send a team of scientists around the country to attempt to identify and conquer a new cattle disease, now known only as "disease X."

The Agriculture Department said outbreaks of this "new and baffling malady" already have caused "serious losses . . . of meat, milk and other animal products."

So far, it said, the new cattle killing disease has been reported in 26 states.

"All attempts to transmit the disease experimentally have been unsuccessful and numerous drug treatments on infected animals have been futile," the department said.

The team of scientists, working closely with state and local governments, will begin its all-out study of the disease within a few weeks.

One department official said about all that is known of the disease at present are the general symptoms. Those include a watery discharge from the eyes and nose of the infected animal, loss of appetite and a thickening of the skin.

The official said the disease appears to have a normal course of between three weeks to three months and seems to be more prevalent among young animals than olded stock.

ONE MINK WAS MEAN

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Vincent Colletti, a 26-year-old freight handler, couldn't figure out why anyone would ship one mink in a case of its own while three other cases in the shipment had about 16 minks each. He lifted the case with the lone mink and soon found the answer. Doctors said his bitten hand was not serious.

Fair Skies Prevail Over Most Of State

(By The United Press)

Fair skies prevailed over most of Texas today, after widely scattered showers of light proportions fell in some sections yesterday and last night.

Only measurable amount reported was .01 of an inch at Laredo.

Temperatures continued pleasantly cool, by comparison with last month's scorching weather.

The highest reading in Texas yesterday was 90 degrees at Dallas, Texarkana, Crystal City and Presidio.

Guadalupe Pass reported the lowest reading in the state, with a cool 73 degrees. Beaumont had 78 degrees.

Minimum temperatures early today ranged from 53 at Abilene to 74 at Brownsville and San Antonio.

The forecast called for partly cloudy skies over the entire state this afternoon, tonight and Thursday.

Warmer temperatures were expected in the Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon and tonight.

Widely scattered daytime thunder showers were forecast for the extreme south portion of East Texas, with little change in temperatures in the East Texas area.

WCTU Will Obtain Temperance Material

Members of the Nanny B. Curtis chapter of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, meeting last night at First Methodist church, ordered two sound films from the Texas Drys in Dallas for showing in Lubbock, and ordered additional temperance literature.

The films, entitled "A Family Affair" and "That Boy Joe," are scheduled to be shown at the high school, the junior high schools, and in many of the city's churches.

The group also ordered 1,000 additional copies of Nina Wilcox Putnam's article, "Women Are Fools to Drink." The local group already has distributed 500 copies of the article in local hotels. Representatives from five Lubbock schools, and churches.

It was voted to ask Mrs. Elizabeth House, state president of the Oklahoma W.C.T.U., to speak here the last week in September, with her naming her speaking date, and Mrs. D. D. Hokett of Dallas, associate editor of "The Texas Drys," to speak in October.

Mrs. C. M. Kaigler, president, presided at last night's meeting. churches attended.

Dawson Tester

with 180 sacks of cement, and is to drill the plug and start testing shortly.

Located 330 feet from the north and west lines of tract 72, Kirkland and Fields survey No. 37, this venture had some slight signs of petroleum in the Ellenberger, along with some water.

The testing will likely start in that formation, and then continue up the hole to check the Pennsylvanian formations.

American Republics corporation No. 1 Koonsman, 15 miles northeast of Snyder, in northeast Scurry county, and 2,115 feet from north and 3,290 feet from east lines of section 240, block 2, H&TC survey, had reached 4,646 feet in the lower Wichita-Albany section of the Permian, and was drilling ahead.

New Exploration Started

No signs of oil have been logged below the zone at 3,586-3,608 feet. A drillstem test on that horizon failed to develop any free oil.

This prospector is slated to continue to the Ellenburger—unless it gets commercial production from a higher formation.

The Pure Oil company No. 14-E-A E. P. Cowden is a new exploration to test into the Ellenburger on the northeast side of the Pollar Hide field in extreme southwest Andrews county.

It will be 661 feet from west and south lines of section 17, block A-52, psl survey. Drilling to around 10,500 feet, with rotary tools, is to start by September 16.

McCraw Is New Head Of American Legion

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 15. (U.P.)—William M. McCraw of Dallas, former state attorney general and veteran of both world wars, yesterday was named commander of the Texas department of the American Legion.

His election to succeed George Berry of Lubbock concluded the four-day department convention here.

McCraw was in the run-off with Joe Spurlock of Fort Worth. Miller Ainsworth of Luling was elected national committeeman

Other officers named were V. F. Taylor of Smithville, judge advocate; Manley H. Williams, jr., of Victoria, sergeant at arms; Carrie Wilcox of Houston, historian; W. F. Spiegel of Austin, treasurer, and Rev. Sam B. Hill of Victoria, chaplain.

Mrs. O. E. Duey of Graham was elected president of the Texas department auxiliary.

The Legionnaires spent most of the final day discussing the next convention city and a proposed 25-cent yearly increase in dues to be used for a rehabilitation program.

Galveston was decided upon as the next convention city. The increase proposal was rejected.

Enlistments Open For WAC and WAF

Beginning today, enlistments are open to all former WACS and women in civilian life for the Womens Army Corps and the newly-created Womens Air Force, local Army and Air Force recruiting personnel announced Tuesday.

Prior to today, only those women who were discharged from the WACS between May 1, 1948, and July 8, 1948, were eligible for enlistment in either service.

Qualifications for enlistment are as follows: Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 35, with those 18 to 21 first obtaining the consent of their parents. Applicants must be high school graduates, although this qualification may be waived in some cases. must have high moral standards, be in excellent physical condition, and meet current enlistment directives.

Major Harold Fulghum, commanding officer of the local recruiting station, has announced that all women who are interested in either service, contact the recruiting station in Room 203 of the Federal Building for additional information.

Ice Cream Cone Is Fire-Fighting Tool

ONTARIO, Calif., Sept. 15 (AP)—Ice cream cones, as every youngster knows, are delicious, nutritious, healthful. But that's not all. You can use 'em to put out fires.

Policeman Alfred Bolsta did. The officer was munching on his double-decker fudge wave special when a juvenile driver in a "hot rod" zipped down the street, leaving a backwash of half-exploded gasoline fumes.

The motorcycle officer noticed, however, that the car's rear end was blazing. He took after the youth, chased him for five blocks, until the flaming car pulled into a service station.

"Get out of that car," yelled the policeman, fearful that an explosion might blast the station. As the youth got out, Bolsta jammed his ice cream cone into the tank opening. It stopped the flames.

Services Set Today For Texas Oil Man

DALLAS, Sept. 15 (AP) — Funeral services were planned today for William Vanderburgh Lester, who was credited with discovering the world's greatest shallow oil pool.

Lester, 69, died at his home here yesterday after a brief illness.

He was president of the Trico oil company and had been in the oil business since 1914.

It was in 1926, while operating in Brown county in central Texas that Lester discovered the Fry pool, for which he became famous. The pool produced 44 gravity oil at a depth of 1,300 feet.

Lester was born in Chicago. He first became an independent oil operator in Kansas and Oklahoma. Two years later, in 1916, he settled in Dallas.

His first operations in this state were in the West Texas fields and in fields around Mexia, Wortham and Powell in central Texas.

When the east Texas field was brought in, Lester extended his operations into that section.

Before entering the oil business, he was a member of the Chicago board of trade and the Chicago stock exchange.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Lillian McIntyre of Emporia, Kan.

A biologist claims that man, in an earlier state, had four hands.

A lot of today's species don't know what to do with two!

EVERY TIME it rains out here in West Texas, people go around grinning and calling to each other, "Sure is a fine rain, ain't it?"

Having lived in West Texas for the greater portion of our life, we'd be the last person on earth to belittle rain. It's mighty important stuff and, as the late O. L. Slaton used to say, we'll "take it whenever and however we can get it and be glad to do so."

But did you ever stop to think that the sunshine is mighty important, too?

And can you ever remember people going about, happily, shouting to one another, "Sure 's fine sunshine, ain't it?"

The truth of the matter is that sunshine, in this or any other agricultural country, is just as important as rain.

Just as crops can't be grown without rain, neither can they be grown without sunshine.

But we have, fortunately for our health, a lot more sunshine than we have rain. Therefore, being humans, we're more thankful for the stuff we get a little of than for other stuff that we have in quantities.

WE PEOPLE are funny animals. We get so used to things like sunshine and fresh air, good health, plenty to eat, a place to live, and clothes to wear, that we don't stop to appreciate them until, all of a sudden, it looks like we're running short of one or another.

Just as we show more happiness and appreciation over rain, we show more of both for the other less usual pleasantries which come our way.

A guy smacks his lips over a good cup of coffee, a properly mixed highball, or well iced, popular soft drink. But none of these are essential to his living.

On the other hand, the same fellow, every day, will drink a half dozen glasses of water—which is essential to his living—and never think a thing about it!

Out here on these baldies, we have to have rain and again we say that the guy who doesn't appreciate it (if there be such) ought to have his head examined.

But let us not forget that we have to have the sunshine, too, and let's be a little thankful for it as we go along!

Most of us have a great deal of other things to be thankful for, too, although we rarely give any thought to them.

Maybe if we gave more thought to them, we'd lead happier and more satisfactory lives, hey?

IN ALL PARTS of the country these days there are discussions, formal and informal, of the divorce rate in the U. S.

Magazines and the radio, as well as the newspapers, give attention to the problem and its underlying causes.

The more academic the discussions, the more high-flown the reasons for widespread divorce, with scientists, pseudo and otherwise, putting in their oars.

It will occur to most thinking laymen, however, that there are two outstanding reasons for the great incidence of divorce in our country. One is the general, public acceptance of divorce for any reason that will pass the lackadaisical approval of an equally lackadaisical judge. The other is that people don't think seriously enough about marriage before they go to the altar.

It seems to us that people both young and old would marry in less haste and therefore divorce less if they thought, before agreeing to the nuptial ceremony, along this line:

"I've only got one life to live. I want to make it as happy and as generally satisfactory as I can, which means I should be very sure about those with whom I spend it. Since a person spends more of his or her life with the other individual in the marriage contract, I'd better be sure, before I marry, that the person I'm thinking of marrying is the person with whom I wish to live most of my one life."

IT MAKES no difference how good a reason anyone may have for seeking a divorce—and there are good reasons—the fact remains that there always is unhappiness involved.

Sometimes the period of unhappiness is short. Sometimes it is long. Sometimes divorce results in an aching void down through the years; sometimes it causes discontent, if not downright unhappiness, throughout much of a lifetime.

For all these reasons, and countless others from different angles, divorce should be avoided, at least until all means to dodge it have failed.

One way to dodge divorce is by straight thinking before marriage.

That doesn't sound quite as impressive as the way the psychiatrists and other learned gentlemen put it, but it makes sense.

It's a mighty poor politician whose "vision" is not sufficiently great to permit him to see a new national danger at any moment he may feel the need of one in his campaign.

IT IS TRUE, as Shakespeare said, that "all the world's a stage." The big trouble is getting the people in it to play their parts properly, and well!

BY DREW PEARSON: HIGH-UP REPUBLICANS CAUTION GOV. DEWEY AGAINST DULLES

Truman Shows Spunk In His Campaign Strategy

WASHINGTON — It isn't being advertised, but Governor Dewey received some firm but friendly advice from high-up Republicans to think twice before he appoints John Foster Dulles as his secretary of state.

PEARSON

The opposition to Dulles is partly on the ground that he is one of Wall street's most prominent lawyers, partly because of the disastrous role Dulles played in selling the American public on the now defaulted German bonds prior the 1938 when leading American economists were warning that they would be worthless paper.

One high-up Republican who recently cautioned Dewey about Dulles was Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the powerful senate appropriations committee. Bridges raised a new objection, namely Dulles' recommendation of Alger Hiss, alleged Communist, to be chairman of the Carnegie peace foundation.

The directors of the foundation, Bridges recalled, were lukewarm about Hiss but were pressured into the appointment by Dulles.

"Yes, he did make a mistake on that one," admitted Dewey.

"And he's made too many mistakes," urged Senator Bridges. "He made a terrible mistake regarding the Nazis. We just can't afford to have a man as secretary of state who makes mistakes. The problem of peace is too delicate."

Bridges also reminded Dewey that Dulles might have difficulty in being confirmed by the Senate.

"We hope to give you a real majority in the Senate in November," the New Hampshire senator explained. "But we may be darn lucky to keep what we've got. If so, and if only two or three Republicans oppose Dulles, then the Democrats will jump in en masse to fight his confirmation. They'll love it."

Dewey countered that Foreign Minister Molotov liked Dulles, and that ironing out our Russian problems was all important.

"He's the only man in America who can get along with Molotov," Dewey told Bridges.

"And, I suppose," quipped Bridges, "that Molotov is a good Republican and wants us to win in November."

Polygamy In The U. S. A.

At arid, isolated Short Creek, Arizona, a band of Utah polygamists have set up a communistic society all their own.

Short Creek is located deep in the sagebrush-and-cactus belt and few outsiders have stumbled upon it. However, here is a first-hand account of life in this weird haven of men with many wives.

The colony is governed by a council of seven "high priests." John Y. Barlow is senior member in the hierarchy, but the real leader is the No. 2 man, Joseph W. Musser. They control both the spiritual and worldly activities of their flock.

In most homes, each wife is assigned her own quarters with her own children. Children with the same father but different mothers are considered full brothers and sisters. They are classified as half brothers and sisters, however, if they happen to have the same mother but different fathers.

The polygamists flock to church on Sundays, worship also on Tuesday evenings, and hold socials on Fridays. At these socials, modern dancing is considered sinful.

The Arizona polygamists believe that women should do the proposing, and that the question of a man's adding a new wife must be approved by all his other wives. It is admitted, however, that this practice isn't strictly followed.

After they left Utah to settle in Arizona, the polygamists turned all their private possessions over to the cult and prepared to live as one large family. They were supposed to share the work and draw their food from the central storehouse.

But, unhappily, this communistic experiment is not working. Like most communities, the polygamists have their drones who won't work but who insist on drawing equal rations from the storehouse. As a result, some discontented members have broken away from the communistic principle, and the cult has been forced to recognize private initiative in individual cases.

Note—contrary to popular belief, the polygamists are not Mormons. In fact, the Mormon church helped the government prepare its case against the polygamists.

SPUNKY Harry Truman isn't being discouraged by the Roper poll which concedes him no chance to win. Talking to the District of Columbia Truman-Barkley committee the other day, he declared:

"We won't lose this campaign for lack of hard work. I intend to make more public appearances and wage the most strenuous campaign any president has ever attempted. I'm not only going to make radio appeals to the man in the street—I'm going to rub shoulders with him."

His chief worry, the President confided, was the possibility of a light vote.

"We'll need a heavy vote and I'm going out to get it if I have to punch doorbells," the President said. "If every Democratic precinct committeeman throughout the country operates on that theory, we'll be all right."

That even goes for the District of Columbia, Truman told his D. C. callers, led by Al Wheller, a Washington attorney.

"Citizens of the district can't vote, but there's a big potential absentee vote here that could be mighty important," explained the President. "It was the absentee ballots cast by D. C. government workers who were registered elsewhere that clinched Grover Cleveland's election."

Hot In White House

The sun glared furiously on the White House rose garden as members of the national citizens committee on United Nations day wanted to be photographed, with President Truman.

Even Ben Crosby of the State department, under fire many times as an artillery officer, groaned at the searing temperature.

"We sure picked a hot day, Mr. President," remarked citizens committee Chairman Harper Sibley, mopping his brow.

"Oh, it's always hot at the White House," grinned Truman, "even in January."

Confusion! A Synonym On Russian Policy

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

HE'S a typical husband if—

The only way you ever find out anything about his business is by overhearing him discussing it with another man.

He doesn't like to watch you work, but his answer to the problem is not to pitch in and help, so you will be through sooner, but to tell you comfortably just to put off whatever you're doing until some other time.

MILLETT

He often admits having had a hard day, but acts surprised if you mention that your day got you down. "What in the world," he is obviously thinking, "could you do around a house that would tire you out?"

"LET'S EAT HOME"

HE can't understand why you like to eat dinner out occasionally. His idea, of course, is that restaurant food can't compare with your cooking, which is supposed to be flattering enough to make you give up the idea of eating Sunday dinner out.

Even though he is spending the evening reading, listening to the radio or puttering around with a hobby, he acts injured if you announce that you are going out to play bridge or see a movie with "the girls."

He thinks you make more of a job out of entertaining than other women, simply because he doesn't see the housecleaning they do before they entertain.

He expects you to be perfectly contented with your lot, whatever it is. After all, you're married to him, aren't you?

By Bennett Cerf

"Try And Stop Me"

REED HYNDS swears that the day Ringling Brothers Circus hit St. Louis director John Murray Anderson took one look at the pageant parading around the three-ringed arena and shouted, "Stop! There's a horse missing." He was right. A big white one had tripped in the entrance alley, and had been withdrawn for minor repairs!

Anderson says he had a terrible time training the elephants this year to do a new "dance" routine he had dreamed up. "Believe it or not," he explains, "the lady elephants understood only German, and the gentleman elephants only English. Furthermore, we had a bear that heeded nothing but Polish, and a seal that had to be addressed in Portuguese."

I think the prize circus story of the year concerns the acrobat who reported. "My brother tried out a wonderful new act last week. He got himself shot out of a huge cannon." "How did he like it?" asked somebody. "Dunno," answered the acrobat. "We haven't found him yet."

Unnatural Glow Of Optimism Found In Democratic Circles

WASHINGTON — In this moment before the kickoff there is an unnatural glow of optimism in the Democratic camp, and this goes not merely for the professional optimists immediately around the President. It has infected even the realists who, up until now, have taken a dim view of Mr. Truman's chances for re-election.

The encouragement comes not so much on the positive side. The handicaps of the Truman campaign still loom large as the Rocky Mountains. Instead it comes from a hope that the Republicans can throw away what has seemed an almost certain victory.

CHILDS

This small flame of hope was fed by Harold Stassen's Detroit speech. The Democratic National committee plans to distribute thousands of copies of that speech in Iowa and in other predominantly agricultural areas.

Passages of the Stassen speech are to be underscored in an effort to convince farm voters that the Republicans are opposed to the present policy of price support for major agricultural products. Passages in the speech will be linked with a statement Stassen made in an interview in Albany when he blamed high food prices on Truman's secretary of agriculture.

Reasons for Belief

This seems at first glance to be clutching at straws. There is, however, some reason to believe that farmers are suspicious of Governor Dewey's attitude on farm prices. Statements made in past years, when Dewey talked to city audiences about high prices, are remembered in the farm belt, where phenomenal prosperity is bolstered by support programs that may this year cost the government several billion dollars.

In opening his campaign at Dexter, Iowa, President Truman will stress the gains to agriculture during the past 16 years, beginning with the New Deal's AAA program. As now planned, he will openly charge that a Republican Congress and a Republican President would modify or even do away with the support program and put a period to farm prosperity.

Another section of the Stassen speech has been under close study by Democratic strategists. That is the section dealing with the Taft-Hartley law. In typical campaign fashion, Stassen credited the law with wage increases gained since its passage.

WHILE HE generalized about the need to subject all labor-management laws to study and possible change, he said nothing specifically about amending the Taft-Hartley act. Because of this omission, in the view of those helping to plan the Truman campaign, Dewey will get no avowed labor support other than the recent pledge of the Building service union, which has only 175,000 members throughout the nation.

The root cause of the timid flush of optimism in the Truman camp is the active support of a large majority of organized labor. Again the realists have no illusions. It is not so much that the labor bosses—and perhaps the rank and file, too—are for Truman as they are against Dewey.

The conviction has spread among union heads that there is nothing to be gained from Dewey. They are convinced that management will be firmly entrenched between the Republican candidate and organized labor, even though Dewey might prefer it otherwise. Therefore, as they see it, they have nothing to lose in going all out for the Democratic ticket.

How far the leadership reflects the views of the ordinary working man and woman is another matter. Stassen made a telling point when he charged that union bosses had compelled attendance at the Truman rally in Detroit on penalty of a fine. James Hoffa, boss of the Teamsters union in Wayne county, sent a letter to all the 55,000 members in his jurisdiction saying that each man not present and counted would be fined.

Objective Given

The objective of the President's western trip will be to convince the farmer that, like labor, he has nothing to gain and a lot to lose by a Republican victory. It is hoped that the small cloud of suspicion on the rural horizon can be blown into a major threat which will persuade farmers with a record crop that they

Today's Journal Editorial

THE BIGGEST TAXPAYERS

The disproportionate burden of taxation now borne by the oil, gas and related industries in Texas provides one of the striking features of a financial report for the fiscal year ending last Aug. 31 issued the other day by State Comptroller George H. Sheppard.

The report shows that, of the $398,000,000 in revenues collected by the state last year, $210,000,000 came from those industries. The chief items were $87,400,000 from the crude oil tax, $86,600,000 from the gasoline tax, $26,400,000 from oil royalties and rentals and $9,600,000 from the auto sales tax.

The report suggests that when Texas legislators begin searching for new and increased sources of revenue when they convene in Austin in January, they might be wise to look elsewhere than to the oil industry. Mr. Sheppard's report implies a warning that this industry already is carrying a burden so heavy that to pile on more might involve serious risk of a collapse.

Highway Will Get New Look

CROSBYTON, Sept. 15 (Spl.)—The scenic portion of U. S. Highway 62-82 through Blanco canyon east of here will soon be sporting the new look, and 14.461 miles of this important Lubbock-Fort Worth artery will be reconstructed at a cost of more than $350,000.

T. C. Cage Construction company of San Antonio is moving equipment onto the site and preliminary excavation for culverts has started. The firm was awarded the contract last month by the Texas Highway department on a bid of $332,630.81.

Highway Rerouted

Most important change will be the rerouting of the highway from near the center of the canyon to the east caprock, said F. C. Stanley of Lubbock, senior resident engineer for the highway department. The present curving, steeply inclined road will follow a new right-of-way, the grade will be lessened and three curves will be eliminated.

A portion of the new highway will be three lanes, two for uphill traffic and the other for downhill traffic, to enable slow traffic such as trucks to proceed uphill without blocking the highway.

The highway will be resurfaced with flexible base and triple asphaltic surface from four miles west of Crosbyton to the Dickens county line. It will be widened from present width of 18 feet to 24 feet.

The contract specifies a 280-day-period for completion of the job.

must not change things in Washington.

All this, of course, is before the game has actually begun. The flush of hope may be due merely to the pep talk that the coaches are giving each other under the stadium before the whistle blows. In a single farm speech, Dewey may blow Democratic hopes for the rural vote sky high.

Asked for something more tangible, the Democratic planners point to the latest Gallup poll in Missouri, the President's home state. This shows that the President's strength has risen to 53 per cent of those expressing an opinion, with 36 per cent for Dewey. If the undecided vote was distributed in the same proportion, Truman would have 59 per cent, Dewey 41. But the skeptics raise an eyebrow since, in 1944, when Dewey was running against the champ, he got 48½ per cent to 51½ for Roosevelt.

Death Case Reset Following Mistrial

WACO, Sept. 15 (U.P.)—A mistrial has been declared in the case of former Constable A. L. Trollinger, charged in the death of Francis Wetzel of Riesel last May 23.

The trial was reset for Sept. 20 and the jury was dismissed after one juror was accused of having expressed an opinion in the case before the trial began.

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 99th District Court of Lubbock County at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 18th day of October A. D. 1948 then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 27th day of August A. D. 1948, in this cause, numbered 16627 on the docket of said court and styled Eli Woods Plaintiff, vs. Janie Coleman et al Defendant.
A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:
On August 23, 1948 Plaintiff was in lawful possession of Lot Two (2) Block Thirty-Two (32) of Wheelock's 2nd Addition to City of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas. Plaintiff has had peaceable and adverse possession of above described property for more than ten years prior to commencement of this suit. On August 24, 1948, Defendants entered upon and dispossessed plaintiff of above described premises.
Plaintiff prays for title & possession of above described premises and such other relief as he may show himself entitled, as in more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.
The officer executing the process shall promptly execute the same according to law and make due return as the law directs.
Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Lubbock, Texas, this the 30th day of August A. D. 1948.
Attest:
ROY ALL PURGESON Clerk,
99 Dist. Court, Lubbock County, Texas.

One-Man Committee Adopts German Town

LUENBURG, Germany, Sept 15 (U.P.)—W. H. Flower, a Thomasville, Ga., baker, has taken upon himself the whole care and feeding of Thomasville's adopted town in northern Germany.

Mayor William Watt of Thomasville has referred to Flower, in his letters to Lueneberg's mayor, Ernst Braune, as the one-man adoption committee. Already 85 packages have been prepared under Flower's personal direction for the poor.

Approximately $715,000,000 is spent annually in the U. S. for drugs, including home remidies and patent medicines.
