PROTOCOL IS TO BE OKED THIS EVENING

CONFERENCE OVER WAR DEBT SETTLEMENT TO END TODAY

(By Associated Press)
THE HAGUE, Aug. 30.—Letters and documents recording the agreement of France, Great Britain, Italy, Belgium, and Germany on evacuation of the Rhine and financial questions incident to acceptance of the Young reparations plan were signed at 12:15 P. M. today by representatives of those nations.

The protocol and other documents in which will be registered the results of the Hague conference of the governments will be ready for approval this evening, and the conference will adjourn sine die tomorrow.

Does Much For Peace
Statesmen of Europe assembled here believe that in agreement on the Young committee's reparations plan to replace the Dawes plan they had done much for the future peace of the continent and the world.

The Young plan fixed the German war debt at a certain figure, beyond which the Germans could not not having to pay and on which the former Allies could count in arranging payments of their own war debts.

To Hal Bickering
It was believed this stabilizing would eliminate most of the constant bickering which in the last few years has so often disrupted the European family of nations. It was in the words of Aristide Briand, French foreign minister and premier, a "final liquidation of the world war."

The approval was not gained without a battle of national interests, in which from the first Philip Snowden, British chancellor of the exchequer, and Henri Cherbon French finance minister, seemed the principal combatants.

Gains Brought
Agreement on the plan in the end brought certain definite gains to each. Mr. Snowden goes to London with arrangements for reduced payments in kind from Germany and with 80 per cent of the additional reparations annuities; he sought from Germany guaranteed him.

The German delegation, headed by Dr. Gustav Stresemann, will take to Berlin an allied agreement to (Turn to Page 4, Column 2, Please)

SAN JOSE, Calif., Aug. 30 (AP).—Arrested near Sunnyvale while en route to a prayer meeting, the Rev. Harry W. Davis, 35, Erick, Okla., divine, was in the county jail here today.

Davis was wanted in Erick on a statutory charge involving a 14 year old girl.
Davis denied the charges and said he had left his pulpit in an Erick Baptist church because of disension among members of the congregation and tangled church finances. He is said to have a wife and small daughter residing at Erick.

(By Associated Press)
JERUSALEM, Aug. 30.—Arabs again today attacked the Jewish colony in Tipith between Jerusalem and Bethlehem. The attack was repulsed by a platoon of British troops from the South Wales borderers regiments. The troops were accompanied by a police commandant. Tension prevails in Jerusalem today owing to apprehension of renewed trouble when Moslems emerged from the Mosques, this being the Arab Sabbath day. Practically every shop is closed. Strong military pickets have been posted at strategic points.

SMITH HEADS GIANT PROJECT

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP).—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith has announced he will head a company that will erect the largest building in the world, an 80-story skyscraper, on the site of the old Waldorf-Astoria hotel at Fifth Avenue and 34th street.

The structure, to be known as the Empire State building, will tower above the street nearly 1,000 feet, about 200 feet higher than any existing building in Manhattan.

It is to be completed in a year and a half at an estimated cost of $60,000,000. Sixty thousand persons will be housed at one time in the building.

INSANITY OF HELMS TOLD
WITNESSES TESTIFY CONDEMNED MAN IS NOT RIGHT

(By Associated Press)
EASTLAND, Aug. 30.—Counsel for Henry Helms, sentenced to be executed September 6 for his participation in a Cisco bank robbery in 1927, continued today to introduce testimony in his sanity trial here.

Mrs. Nettie Helms, the condemned man's wife, who testified yesterday was recalled today by Helms' attorney to identify letters received by her from her husband. They were not read in court.

"Judge of Court"
J. J. Parker, assistant jailer of the Dallas county jail where Helms was incarcerated for some time, testified Helms was judge of the "Kansaroc court" in his portion of the jail and the cells in that part of the prison were kept clean.

On cross-examination by the state, Parker said he believed Helms sane.

Tony's Vow Cheated
By Roar of Feud Gun

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (AP).—Tony Domingos' two-year-old vow to avenge the dynamite death of his wife must remain forever unfulfilled. A feud gun got his range last night.

The violent death of Tony's wife through explosion of a bomb concealed in her automobile was no more sudden than Tony's own. A shotgun pressed against his back; nine slugs in his body; and Tony Domingos, 35, one time "Alky Cooker" on a little Michigan farm, was dead on the floor of a North Side cafe.

CANADIAN DOUKHOBORS STAGE MARCH WITHOUT CLOTHES PROTESTING ARREST

(By Associated Press)
NELSON, B. C., Aug. 30 (AP).—The Provincial and city jails were packed to overflowing today with 150 Doukhobors, members of a Russian religious sect, who started a nude parade on the highway, 15 miles south of the city yesterday only to be rounded up by Provincial police and special officers.

A march of Nelson was begun several days ago in protest against the imprisonment of Peter Woloff, a Doukhobor, in connection with the burning of Doukhobor schools.

When Provincial police appeared yesterday to arrest four members who had disrobed, over 100 of the marchers, men, women and children, took off their clothes. They were given half an hour to dress. Refusing, they were loaded into trucks, automobiles and buses, and brought here. Sixty special officers were sworn in to aid the police.

A special truck carrying discarded clothing dumped the garments in the prison yard, but the protesters still declined to resume the habiliments of civilization.

SEVENTY-FOUR BELIEVED DEAD IN SEA COLLISION

Youthful Slayer Breaks From Jail

JUD PECK IS SOUGHT TODAY BY OFFICERS

THREE NEGROES MAKE BREAK WITH BOY LAST NIGHT

(By Associated Press)
WOODVILLE, Aug. 30.—Jud Peck, 1, charged with the slaying of his purported sweetheart, Emma Womack, 33, escaped from the Tyler county jail with three negroes last night. Peck, whose examining trial had been set for today, remained at large this morning, and officers combed this section of the country in search of him.

One Come Back
David Cumming, one of the three negroes who broke jail, wandered back some time during the night. The others had not been caught. He said Peck did not want to leave, but the negroes prevailed upon him to do so.

The negro who returned said the prisoners tore a hole in the ceiling dropped from the attic into the hall and walked out while no officers were near. The four men were the only prisoners in the jail.

Found Nearly Nude
Miss Womack was found dead, nearly nude and with her head badly battered, in a small ravine near Fred Sunday. She had been missing since August 16.

H. B. Ogden, Tyler county sheriff, said the youth admitted having killed the woman because she broke a marriage engagement with him. The crime for which Peck was in jail was described as the most gruesome ever committed in Tyler county.

Shortly after the finding of the body, the youth was arrested at the house, and was taken to the jail. (Turn to Page 4, Column 4, Please)

GRADE CRASH IS FATAL TO 2 GIRLS

HOUSTON, Aug. 30 (AP).—A speeding passenger train smashed an automobile at a grade crossing here last night, taking the lives of Miss Edith Wyatt, 16, of Cooke Creek and Miss Nan Nunley, 13, of Houston. The other occupant of the machine, Frank Ogden, 19, Houston, the driver, was injured seriously. The motor car was said to have swerved onto the tracks.

Started As Cowboy
Born in Texas, country Mr. Clark as a youth went into New Mexico to work as a cowboy. He was employed on the famous Chisum ranch and later on the George W. Littlefield ranch both in New Mexico.

Later he went to Midland. Then he began trading in cattle partly from the funds he had earned as a ranch hand. As a cattle trader success crowned his efforts.

In 1901 he and W. E. Connell of Fort Worth purchased the Frank and A. J. Lang ranch near Post which was known as the O. S. Ranch. This partnership continued for a number of years when Clark sold his interests to Connell.

Then Clark purchased a ranch in Kent and Scurry counties which he owned at the time of his death. This ranch consists of more than 10,000 acres.

TALES OF CANNIBALISM AND MURDER REVIVED IN DEAD MAN'S GULCH

(By Associated Press)
LAKE CITY, Colo., Aug. 30.—Tales of cannibalism and murder have been revived here with the discovery in Dead Man's Gulch of a gun, believed to have been the weapon used by Alfred Packer, convicted slayer of five miners in 1873. The gun, in good condition, and some matches, perfectly preserved, were found in a cache near Slum Gulch.

Packer, who died last year, spent nearly 40 years in prison charged with the murder of five miners, with whom he ventured into the hills here in the winter of 1873. The party went against the advice of Indians, who recommended they wait until spring.

Six weeks later, Packer appeared to the Los Pinos Indian agency near here with a large sum of money and told a tale of the desertion of his five comrades.

A few days later Indians found the bodies of the five men, and discovered what were said to be unmistakable signs of cannibalism in connection with the murder.

Packer was arrested. Around his trial the issue of cannibalism hung but never was definitely proven. On the witness stand Packer said one of the men had died and the other four had eaten his body and then died themselves.

Packer was released from prison several years ago.

E. W. CLARK DIES IN FORT WORTH TODAY OF ILLNESS

(By Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Aug. 30.—Eugene W. Clark, 69, pioneer cattleman and capitalist, died at noon today after an illness of more than one year. For approximately 28 years Mr. Clark has maintained his home in Fort Worth but during that period has spent considerable time on his West Texas ranches. He was known as a man whose wealth was the result of hard labor during the pioneer days of this state. The first few dollars which he earned, some of which were saved for his start as a cattleman were made as a clerk in a dry goods store and as a cowboy.

Auto Not Found
A search for an automobile which Odell drove from his home and in which he later was seen in company with a young woman has been in vain.

Investigators are working on the theory the couple were victims of assassins who came upon them on Cliff drive, a favorite retreat for young couples.

Odell was shot in the back of the head. His body was found beside steps leading up the steep side of cliffs which line the drive. The girl's body was found face down.

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Revised figures on the number of passengers who were aboard the coastwise steamer San Juan when she sank off Pigeon Point south of here today showed seventy-four persons remained unaccounted for and may have perished.

Radio stations here reported the steamer San Juan had renewed its search of the wreckage strewn collision area off Pigeon Point today at 8 a. m. It had not reported picking up any additional persons.

These advices, coming eight hours after the San Juan sank, led to the belief that few if any of the 74 missing would be found alive.

MAN HUNT ON FOR ROBBER

MAN BELIEVED TO HAVE FLED SHOOTING AT TULSA THURSDAY

(By Associated Press)
TULSA, Okla., Aug. 30.—A man hunt, designed to locate a man believed to have fled from the last gun fight of Dick Gregg, notorious Oklahoma bank robber, was in progress today as officers still were piecing together the final chapter in the life of the outlaw, which ended late yesterday in his death and the death of two Tulsa county officers in a gun battle on the outskirts of Tulsa.

Gregg, wanted in connection with three Oklahoma bank robberies and suspected in several others, was killed after he had been halted on the Sand Springs highway at the western edge of Tulsa by Ross Darrow and A. L. "Link" Bowline, highway police.

Three Men Shot
As Gregg halted his car, Bowline jumped on the running board with his gun drawn. Gregg whipped out a gun and fired. Bowline falling, Darrow came running from the officers' car. Darrow and Gregg both fired, Gregg slumping down in the car seat and Darrow stumbling to the roadway.

Witnesses told officers two men clambered from the outlaw's car and fled.

HUBBERS TO MEET LAMESA LOBOES IN 3-GAME SERIES SUNDAY AND MONDAY; HURLING TO BE IMPROVED, IS REPORT

Manager H. B. Wilson is gathering his baseball forces this week in preparation for the three-game series with the Lamesa Lobos here Sunday and Monday.

With pitching standing out as the Hubbers' greatest weakness, the local baseball pilot is making an extended effort to give the club a higher grade of hurling for the impending series with the struggling Lobos.

Fonken to Pitch

Lefty Fonken is slated to oppose the invaders in the single engagement Sunday while English and McColl are in line for the Labor Day double-header. McColl has yet to lose a game to the Lamesa nine and in case the old soupbone is in shape by Monday, the big right-hander should be able to turn back the Lobo threat effectively.

Glossup, former Big Spring second sacker, is likely to hold down the keystone sack for the Hubbers and Rigney will be shifted to the outfield. This change will add greatly to the locals' offensive punch.

Rose Up Again

And, needless to say, Leonard Rose will fire the opening shot for the Lobos. Despite his record of wins over the Hubbers, the Lubbock baseballers are gunning for a clean sweep of the three-game series.

The customers at Monday's double bill will be given an extra attraction between games when Topper Rigney, the self-styled "Great Rigney" and Manager Wilson, the "old folks" of the Lubbock club, meet in a foot race from fence to fence. Odds favoring Wilson were at great demand along Texas Avenue this morning.

DISPLAYS GOOD FRUIT
O. Sherrod, farmer living ten miles south of Ralls, was in Lubbock today with specimen of apples grown on a tree on his farm. The tree has over ten bushels of fruit on it. Mr. Sherrod said. Crops in his territory are good. Mr. Sherrod said, cotton will make about one-third bale while maize is showing indications of yielding a ton to the acre.

CHARACTERISTICS OF CHRISTIAN SET FORTH IN SERMON BY REV. M. F. HAM

The Rev. Mr. M. F. Ham set forth last night those characteristics which would identify the real follower of Christ: as related in New Testament standards in his sermon "What Is A Christian?" at the co-operative revival tabernacle, Texas Avenue and Sixteenth street.

H. W. Richardson, education director of the First Methodist church, sang a baritone solo, "Nor Silver Nor Gold," a special feature of the musical program.

Many Request Prayers
A large number of persons stood at the close of last night's services when Reverend Ham gave a brief invitation to those who wished to request prayers.

"It is the height of idiotic conceit," said the evangelist, "to call yourself a Christian when you are not, and conduct have not purchased the name for you. A Christian is one whose Master passion is to win other men to Christ."

Recounts Experiences
The revivalist recounted a number of interesting incidents of his own personal experience at this morning's service. "Cross of Christian Experience" was subject of his sermon.

"How a Righteous Man Got in Bad" will be the subject of tonight's sermon.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock he will speak on the court house lawn on "The Battle of Armageddon."

"The Signs of the Times," third of a series of prophetic messages, will be delivered Sunday afternoon.

Weather Checking Crop Deterioration
Although showers of the last few days have not been sufficient to offset for boon to cotton crops, they have tended to cool the temperature in such a manner as to check deterioration in most sections of the South Plains, says D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agent.

"The moisture this week has been scarcely enough to gauge at any place in the area," said Mr. Eaton, "but the accompanying temperature is encouraging at this season. The coolness will prevent cotton from prematurely ripening."

Mr. Eaton estimates that the cotton crop in Lubbock county will be about 50 per cent of normal.

The contract calls for 123 buildings, including six barracks, 68 officers quarters, 47 non-commissioned officers quarters, two quartermaster warehouses and an air corps warehouse.

SEA TRAGEDY

ed up by the Dodd. Emergency hospitals were made ready to receive the survivors, some of whom were injured and reported badly in need of medical attention.

The San Juan, a double decker of iron construction, 235 feet long and of 3,500 gross tons, had sailed the seas for 47 years. She was one of the oldest ships on the Pacific, having first taken to the water shortly after the disappearance of the swift packets that carried the frontiers of trade to the Pacific coast.

After a short period of service with the Pacific mail steamship line in South American trade, the San Juan was sold to the James K. Nelson company and soon thereafter became the property of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation company. She plied between the two California cities for years, featuring low passenger fares.

The Dodd is a 7,000-ton ship. She was damaged little in the collision. Radio accounts of the rescue indicated the chances for many of the 74 unaccounted for persons were slim, due to the speed with which the San Juan sank and the fact that darkness and confusion handicapped the rescue workers.

The San Juan left San Francisco last night for Los Angeles. Most of the passengers were from Los Angeles.

Captain Goes Down
Survivors aboard the Dodd said they saw Captain Adolph F. Asplund go down with his ship.

A heavy fog had hung over the Pigeon Point area since yesterday afternoon.

Ralph Hultman, second radio operator of the San Juan, who was picked up by the Dodd, reported the collision occurred while he was asleep. He awoke from his berth and ran to the main deck. The deck was sinking beneath the surface and he hurried into the sea. He said the ship had been launched from the San Juan.

Two coast guard cutters, the Shenandoah and the Wahoo, went to the scene of the wreck from San Francisco while preparations got under way here to receive the injured from the oil tanker.

Soliciting Found To Be Without Reports

Investigation conducted by the local Retail Merchants association relative to solicitation in this city for funds to aid in supporting an east Texas institution for delinquent negro children revealed that the solicitor, a negro, had not been making proper report money collected in his itinerary, it was announced today.

The solicitor had been referred by Lubbock business men to the Retail Merchants association for endorsement, and the investigation followed. A letter from a banker in the city where the institution is located stated that solicitors, who had at the start of the campaign secured letters of recommendation from him (the banker), had not making reports of funds collected.

Officials of the Retail Merchants association pointed out that they do not endorse campaigns here for charitable institutions not located in this city, but expressed a willingness to support worthy local charity needs.

Eaton Will Conduct Tour of Inspection

"I am interested in getting as many farmers as possible for the trip," he said. "A study of terracing methods and comparative results will be made, and this should prove beneficial to all making the tour."

TEXARKANA TOUR OVER DAIRYING CENTERS BRINGS ACTION

(By Associated Press)

TEXARKANA, Aug. 30.—Practical methods of dairying will be introduced in Bowie county, Texas, and Miller county, Arkansas, this fall as a result of a tour of dairying centers in Mississippi by 50 or more farmers and business men of the two counties.

The inspection tour began in Texarkana Aug. 19 and ended on Aug. 24.

Leaving Texarkana, the party passed through Garland City, Magnolia, El Dorado, Ruston, La. Monroe and Vicksburg where the first night was spent.

Plants Inspected
The second day, Jackson, Forest, Meridian, Macon and Starkville were visited. The big condenser plant at Macon was inspected, as was the Borden plant and cannery at Starkville.

The Swift plant, King creamery plant and the government alfalfa experiment station at West Point were visited on the third day, the night being spent at Aberdeen.

Numerous large dairy farms at Aberdeen were seen on the fourth day, and the night was spent at Tupelo. Inspection of dairying farms at Tupelo, New Albany and Holly Springs constituted the program for the fifth day. The party arrived in Memphis late Friday, where it disbanded.

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The canvas parachute worked great. It didn't seem to hesitate, but opened up real wide and then went floating through the air. The Tines hung on very tight and everything worked out all right. Said Scouty, "We could float for hours and shucks, I wouldn't care."

The aviator overhead looked down and to himself he said, "well, I have done my duty. All the Tines are okay! They made a jump that turned out good. Each one was game. I knew they could. As long as they don't need me now, I'll sail off on my way."

So, as the Tines neared the ground and a flyer neatly circled round until he came real close to them. And then he waved good-bye. The Tines waved right back at him and then they saw the big plane skim up toward the sun and disappear within a cloud-filled sky.

"Get ready for a sudden land," said Clowny. "I hope we can stand when we arrive on earth again. We're dropping fairly fast. The circus folks are just below. We're giving them a dandy show. I hope they watch us closely 'cause this isn't going to last."

A puff of wind then came along. It seemed that something would go wrong. The parachute bobbed up a bit, while swaying to and fro. The Tines seemed to realize that they might sail back to the skies. Poor Clowny was so frightened that he loudly shouted, "Whoa!"

Then, as the air seemed shy of breeze, the parachute dropped down with ease. The Tines' feet soon touched the ground. Said Coppy, "Ah! We're here." They worked for all that they were worth and pulled the parachute to earth. The circus

MOST MEMORABLE SCENES OF WORLD TOUR OF ZEP WERE SPREAD OUT IN CROSSING OF U. S., PASSENGERS SAY

By DEMING SEYMOUR
Associated Press Feature Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP).—The most memorable scenes encountered by the Graf on its circuit of the globe were spread beneath its passengers as the ship soared across the United States, members of the party said today as they debarked from the silver vessel at Lakehurst, N. J., and hastened to New York.

Some of the travelers were at the end of their dirigible voyage while others had still to make the last leg of their flight, across the Atlantic to Friedrichshafen, before they were at home. Most agreed that nothing witnessed over Siberia could outdo the panoramas spread beneath the ship as it journeyed from Los Angeles to Lakehurst.

Lake Front Spectacular
Gustav Kauder, Berlin journalist, declared the scene along the Chicago lake front, with throngs massed on Michigan Boulevard as the Graf passed over Chicago on Wednesday evening, was the most striking picture of the entire journey.

Lieut. J. C. Richardson, observer of the ship for the United States navy, believed nothing he saw quite as cheering.

"The circus boss treats the Tines in the next story." (Copyright, 1929, NEA Service, Inc.)

matched in spectacular beauty the scene above the Parsones and the Golden Gate as the Zeppelin came into San Francisco.

Leeds Thrilled
William B. Leeds, wealthy globe trotter and sportsman, wanted a few days "to realize that this trip has really happened and that I was on it." Before he undertook to isolate specific features of the flight and say he got from them a special thrill. He said he believed he got his biggest kick out of crossing the United States.

"I was amazed, and so were we all who do not know your country intimately, at the number of airplanes in the United States," said Kauder, who is making the journey for the Ullstein publication of Germany. "We had them alongside us all the way from Los Angeles to Lakehurst, in every waking hour, except part of the distance from El Paso to Kansas City, when it was dark night."

Planes Everywhere
"We hear in Germany that America has not many passenger plane services, but we have a very wrong idea of your airplane progress. I was astounded to see planes come up and appear beside us from small communities all along the way. At Los Angeles we had a hundred flying around the ship, and from the Golden Gate to New York we were almost never flying alone. "And your automobiles! Below us

Examinations Set For Highway Posts

AUSTIN, Aug. 30 (AP).—Eighteen divisional highway engineers temporarily will forsake their tasks of directing road construction during September when they assume roles of quiz masters while examinations for employment in the state motor patrol, authorized by the forty-first legislature, are in progress.

Twice during the long session, lawmakers turned down recommendations of Governor Moody that civil service be established in state departments, but Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist has declared that merit alone shall determine selection of the 50 men who are to comprise the force.

Problems typical of those applicants would encounter while serving with the patrol will compose the examination.

Three Charged In Speed Boat Crash

SPIRIT LAKE, Iowa, Aug. 30 (AP).—Frank Long, Jasper Alexander and Harold Yarnes, pilots of the speed boats which collided on Lake Okoboji July 28 with a loss of nine lives, were indicted by a Dickinson county grand jury today on charges of manslaughter growing out of the accident.

A half million persons have taken up their residence in Chicago suburbs in the last eight years. We saw people in crowds, but for every one of them an automobile. Nowhere else do you see automobiles as thick as humans, and it is a scene.

Plainview Finishes Dairy Cattle Count

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 30.—According to a recent survey of Hale county taken by school districts, and considered accurate the county has 14,164 dairy cattle. Of this number 7,109 are giving milk, and 5,489 are heifers two years old and under. There are 771 males.

There are 356 registered cows according to the report. This makes two and one half per cent of the total number.

The large number of heifers indicates that the coming year will show a large increase in the amount of cream and butter products.

First offenders will be confined in a separate prison in California now under construction.

PIRATES MAY STAGE MIRACLE FOR STRETCH FIGHT IN NATIONAL

Coach Heinie Weir and the Vernon Lions couldn't stand it any longer. News from other football camps of District One in which the Spudders were holding daily workouts was just too much for the vicious Jungle Beasts and the date for the opening of their training camp was moved up five days. Contrary to the previous announcement that the Lions camp would open on September 2, Coach Weir and his assistants called their cohorts together Thursday and issued equipment to a half-hundred candidates for the 1929 eleven which will wear the Red and White.

The Vernon head mentor has expressed the belief that the team in District One will be much stronger this year than last. The corresponding certainty that competition will be much keener. With a comparatively light team, the Lions must depend upon speed and spirit to win their games. Coach Weir has told his charges, Vernon's grid commander is of the type that will predict nothing for his club. On the other hand, he sits tight, like a good Scotchman, and says nothing incidentally. Weir is considered one of the smartest football coaches of high school teams in the state.

When an x-ray revealed that Charley Grimm was suffering with a fractured index finger, Manager Joe McCarthy put in an order for another Charley to hold down the initial sack for the pennant-bound Chicago Cubs. Charley Tolson has been pounding the state at a 27-clip for Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League during the current season and has 28 home runs to his credit. Since William Wrigley, Jr. owns both the Chicago Cubs and the Los Angeles club, the Pacific Coast team's manager appears to be a little about losing their star first-sacker. The cheating gun magazine is lucky in having a player of Tolson's caliber to replace Grimm at this critical stage of the game.

Practically assured of winning the National League flag, the McCarthymen are shooting at the 100 mark in games won for the season. By winning a few more than half of their remaining games, the Bruins can do just this thing. The second place Pittsburgh Pirates came to life long enough to hand the Cubs three straight defeats, but still there is little to fear from the Chicago standpoint.

At the same time, it's interesting to speculate on the possibility of Jewell Ems, the newly appointed Pittsburgh pilot, overtaking the league leaders. The Bucs' third straight victory over the Cubs yesterday cut the Cubs' lead to 11-1-5 games, making their ambition of finishing the season 20 games ahead rather remote.

The most disappointed group of baseball fans in the entire country are those in New York, who have become accustomed to seeing one of the Gotham clubs play in the world series. Miller Huggins and his Yanks have been clearly outclassed by the hard-hitting Athletics but the experts have been unable to determine the why and wherefore of the Giants' downfall. McDrew's error appears on paper to equal just about any club in the senior circuit, but for some reason has failed to click on all cylinders. A playoff series between the two New York teams seems to be for autumn baseball.

Roger Peckinpah has been signed to pilot the Cleveland Indians again in 1930. The Tribe, in first division and stands a splendid chance to finish ahead of the St. Louis Browns to take third money for the season. Cleveland fans are well satisfied with the progress of the Redjacks and expect the hunting young club to be even more dangerous in the American League race next season. The announcement that Peck's contract had been renewed was greeted heartily by the natives.

Junior Spudders To Try For State Title

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Wichita Falls Junior Spudders, fresh from conquests in the month, will face the Berry Winkle Broadway Rangers who have won 67 out of 81 games this season here Friday and Saturday for the state of Texas amateur athletic federation junior club arrived Thursday night.

JOHNNY DAWSON'S NAME WITHDRAWN

DEL MONTE, Calif., Aug. 30 (AP)—The withdrawal thus far of twelve of the original field, including Johnny Dawson, Chicagoan, has cut to 150 the number of prospective starters in the National amateur golf championship over Pebble Beach.

The hazards of this ocean side course will complete the reducing process in the qualifying competition next Monday and Tuesday.

Elimination of Dawson, who scratched his name voluntarily because he chose to resume connections with a nationally known sporting goods manufacturer in preference to an unquestioned amateur status, shared the main pre-occupation today with the prospect of another attack upon his own record by Bobby Jones.

SPUDDERS LEADING IN TEXAS AGAIN BY 21-2 GAMES

GUIDANCE OF EENS CAUSES CREW TO WIN

THREE VICTORIES ARE GAINED IN 2 DAYS BY CORSAIRS

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The march of Pittsburgh's phantom legion moves on through the darkness in a stubborn attempt to recapture a vanished hope. This return of Corsair ghosts from the grave is giving the National League the only shred of a supreme moment the stretch run of 1929 can know.

The miracle may last no longer, but remarkably enough, it has carried through three games in two days, to the utter amazement of Joseph McCarthy and the Cubs. The third Pittsburgh decision was gained 5 to 4 at Forbes Field yesterday.

Petty Holds Own
The venerable Mr. Jesse Petty held his own so well against nine right-handed Bruin swingers the Pirates were able to eke out the decision in the sixth when two runs were scored on Traynor's triple.

Bill Walker, young Giant south-paw, flurried with the hall of fame hit and Hemery's sacrifice fly. Hal Carlson allowed only eight hits to ten by Petty, but was unfortunate enough to see them bunched. The Athletics added half a game to their lead by shading the Red Sox 7 to 6 at Shibe Park as the Yankees divided two with the Senators in the big stadium in the Bronx. Babe Ruth's thirty-seventh home run enabled the Yanks to save the opener, 5 to 4, after a circuit drive by Goose Goslin apparently had sewed up the decision. Washington routed Hoyt in the nightcap, 8 to 4.

LEWIS WHITE AND BELL TO MEET DOEG AND LOTT TOMORROW

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 30.—The mixed doubles players in the 48th national doubles tennis championships, who have been striving all week on out of the way courts for the title left undefended by Miss Helen Wills and Jack Hawkes, her Australian partner, today appeared assured of holding the center of interest as a result of the tournament committee's decision to hold over the men's final match until tomorrow.

Gorge Lot and Johnny Doeg reached the final round of men's doubles yesterday by defeating Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter for the second time in a week. The former pair will play Berkeley Bell and Lewis N. White, the Austin, Texas, team for the title tomorrow. The Texans gained the last bracket by trouncing W. F. Coen, Jr. and Harry Coggeshall of Des Moines, Iowa.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The annual east-west tennis matches get under way at the West Side tennis club at Forest Hills tomorrow. Three singles and one doubles match will be played tomorrow and three singles and two doubles on Monday.

Texas League Umps To Get Major Flings

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (AP)—Although lacking confirmation at league headquarters here, it is reliably reported that at least two Texas League umpires will go to higher company next season.

Harry Kane, veteran arbiter in the Texas circuit, will go to the American League, the report says, while Mike Donohue will join the International League. Kane is known to every fan in the Texas loop for his dramatic manner of calling balls and strikes.

Polo Teams To Meet In National Open

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Six teams, numbering in their ranks the finest polo talent in the United States and England, begin their quest for the National Open championship on International Field at Westbury, Long Island, tomorrow.

SCHUBLE COPPING BOBBLES HONORS

OF THE DETROIT TIGERS HAS MADE MORE THAN 40 ERRORS THIS YEAR

BY JACK SORDS
Sports Cartoonist Writer for Central Press

The Detroit Tigers may be gathering little in the way of honors this season, but at the rate the team is booting the ball it seems destined to "old the distinction" of being the club to make the most errors for 1929.

The Bengals' miserable being recalls the season of 1901 when they set a record for modern baseball with 425 misplays. They made as high as 12 errors in a single game that year, which is another record for teams to shoot at. Those dozen boos came in a game with the Chicago White Sox on May 1.

But try as hard as they can, Manager Bucky Harris' players can not come near the "Horn" Tiger team of 1901 displayed. So far, with Heinie Schuble leading the pack with about 43 slips, Heinie is going through a siege that overlooks Ralph Kress last season, when he made 55 errors. Schuble is ordinarily a fine fielder but he has been having his troubles this year. Even with all of his errors he looked great at times, making seemingly impossible stops. But on top of some sensational assist would follow a fumble of an easy roller.

Schuble and Kress aren't in it when compared with old-time bobbler mazers. Joe Sullivan of the Washington Nationals in 1913 won the all-time error-making title by frothing 106 chances. Since it is doubtful that Sullivan played in many more game than 100 because of his fearful feinting it is likely that he averaged at least one bobbler per game that year.

Other famed error makers were Charlie Hickman of the New York Giants, who rang up 91 during the 1909 season, Bill Robinson of St. Louis (92 in 1896), and Johnny Gochneur of Cleveland, who committed 99 bobbles during 1903.

SPORT SLANTS

Babe Ruth has set up a few extra marks for world's series clouting that will take a little time and quite a little slugging to remove from the books.

For instance, the big fellow has on two occasions smacked three home runs in a single game, with the outer reaches of Sportman's Park, St. Louis, as his target each time.

Nevertheless two of the hardest and longest hitters in the game, Jimmy Foss and Hack Wilson, all pros well, will have a chance to start tackling the Babe's record this October at Shibe Park and Wrigley Field.

Al Simmons and Rogers Hornsby may be the most valuable all-around hitters, the most consistent in the lineup of the prospective pennant contenders, but there is little question that Foss and Wilson hit 'em farther, on the average. I have that, at least, on the word of two observers who happen to know considerable about R-Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy.

"Foxy" gets astonishing distance. Mack told me, "Naturally possessed of a good, easy swing, he seems to get more into his drives than any player on the team. When he gets hold of one squarely, it continues to rise long after you expect it to drop. Some of our players hit just as hard without clearing any barriers but when Foxy rides one, the first thing you know it is out of the park."

The answer is that Foxy gets "over-spin" on the ball to produce

Four Women To Meet For Western Winner

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Western Women's golf championship today rested among a quartet of veteran golfers—two from Los Angeles, one from Kansas City and the other from Buffalo.

Surviving gruelling quarter-final matches, two of which went to the nineteenth hole, the four entered the semi-final 18-hole round on the old Mayfield Country Club links today. They were Mrs. Greg Lufkin and Kathleen Wright, former rivals from Los Angeles; Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, holder of the trans-Mississippi championship for the

CUBAN KID IS WINNER AFTER TOUGH BATTLE

SINGER COMES NEARER TO DOWNING RING STAR THAN ANY

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The amazing ring record of Eligio Sardinia-Cuba's Kid Chocolate—still was unmarred by defeat today, but the smiling Cuban negro has found at least one foe who can give him a run for his money.

Through 12 rounds of bristling action, Chocolate and Young Al Singer, Jewish idol of the Bronx, battled on close to even terms at the Polo Grounds last night with the decision going to the Cuban.

Struggle Close
So close was the struggle that some portion of the crowd of 45,000 who jammed their way into the home of the New York Baseball Giants, booed lustily when the decision was announced.

There were no knockdowns but there was plenty of action. Against Singer's superior aggressiveness and harder hitting power, Chocolate fought a heady battle. He was content to lay back, keep Singer off with a snaky left until the going got tough. Then he tore in furiously and had the Bronx idol holding on at several stages of the battle.

Knockout Threatened
Although neither seemed at any time to be in any particular danger of a knockout, there were not a few moments when it appeared that a few more blows to the right might cut the fight short and send one or the other home victorious by other than the decision route. Chocolate weighed 125 pounds; Singer 128 3-4.

The gate was in excess of $200,000, the biggest purse any division lighter than the lightweights ever has drawn.

OH, YES, THERE'S STILL SOME USE OF THE WORD 'PAL' IN ATHLETICS; FEW INSTANCES PREVALENT NOW

BY WM. M. BRAUCHER
NEA Service Sports Writer

There isn't much room in modern professional sports as they are played for those beautiful old burnished sofa pillows with the legend "To My Pal" as the sentimental decoration.

Owing to the new paper money, sun spots and the ratio between turnstile and pay envelope, you don't hear a lot about beautiful friendships among the athletes. At least not so much as was common in the dear old days of ostrich plumes and New Orleans fizzes.

Kearns and Dempsey
The word "pal" has become more or less of a quip now-a-days, but back in the days when Jack Kearns and William Harrison Dempsey were wondering where their next time and doughnut were coming from, it meant something. Hot friendships like those are becoming less and less frequent now.

The boys who get around a lot have friends today, but they are gone tomorrow. Grover Cleveland Alexander had a host of pals in his day, but most of them seem to have forgotten all about Aleck now.

We are reminded of Flint Rhem, the former Cardinal pitcher, Rhem knocked about with Aleck a lot. They had fun together. Prexy Sam Breadon came to the conclusion they were having almost too much fun together, so he called Rhem on the carpet and asked him about it.

Tried to Save Aleck
Rhemed admitted he had done his share of drinking with Alexander, more than his share, in fact. He even gave up the information that he had been drinking most of Aleck's highballs, just to keep Aleck from getting out of condition altogether. What a holy pal was Flint!

Between two of the hardest hard guys on the diamond there has always been a close tie of friendship—Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. On the face of it, you would not charge either of those lads with being very mushy at heart. Evers even got the nickname a few years ago of "the human crab." Maranville has been an eccentric, a man living within himself, of an impenetrable, impetuous nature.

Yet when the management of the Boston Braves was offered to Evers recently he declined, and the reason was that he wanted Maranville to have it.

"The Rabbit has worked hard and he deserves it," was Evers' declaration.

tion in refusing to take over the Boston aggregation.

Falk and Fonseca

When Bib Falk was with the White Sox he roamed alone, a discontented maverick. Bib will tell you himself that he carried a chip on his shoulder for any man during his unhappy years with the Chicago White Sox. When "Bib and Tucker" came to the Indians, however, he became a fast friend of Lew Fonseca, the first sacker. Bib and Lew have been the Damon and Pythias of the diamond ever since.

Lefty O'Doul and Babe Ruth were close friends when they were in New York together. The Babe, until the last few years, was a man about town in every sense of the word, and Lefty had quite a time keeping up with the fast-moving Sam. Their friendship endured, however, even after Lefty's removal to Philly.

Ruth and Meusel

Another who was Ruth's friend was Bob Meusel, and Meusel was a type who fraternized with few ball players, in New York or any other town.

The Dempsey-Kearns arrangement was one of the most outstanding examples in boxing. They fought their way up together, but at the top they parted. Some say it was because of Lady Estelle. But maybe it was only an idea.

COLEMAN TO TRY COME-BACK TODAY

COLEMAN, Aug. 30 (AP)—Vanquished ingloriously yesterday, the Coleman team hoped to present a sterner front this afternoon in the second game with Midland for the West Texas league championship.

Poor pitching early in the contest, together with errors that cost seven unearned runs in the eighth inning helped lead the Bob Cats to a 12-3 defeat.

Harris and Blake were assigned to the hill in today's game.

STRIKING WINS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 30 (AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling, Macon, Ga., heavyweight, easily won an eight round decision here last night from Frankie Wine, of Montana.

Collard Is Stingy

Shreveport made it three out of four at Beaumont and took under-estimated possession of the third rung by downing the Exporters 9 to 2, in their final. Collard limited the Shippers to six bingles while his mates were drumming 15 knocks off four opposing chumpers. A six-run outburst in the first chapter iced the game.

VIEWPOINTS PUT BEFORE TWO NATIONS

U. S. AND ENGLAND GET
EACH OTHERS' IDEA
ON LIMITATION

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The complete viewpoints of Great Britain and the United States on the problem of limitation of cruisers have been placed before the two governments. The differences between the two are few but will require further discussion before an agreement can be announced.

It has been found the two governments think alike on destroyers and submarines and it was said a settlement of the problem of limiting these would present no great difficulty.

It was learned today that as a result of diplomatic conferences the American viewpoint on the cruiser problem, the differences over which between the United States and Great Britain resulted in the failure of the tripartite conference of 1927, has been cable to Ambassador Dawes for presentation to Prime Minister MacDonald.

LOAN OFFERED GRAIN FARMER

IMMEDIATE RELIEF IS TO BE GIVEN, SAYS
CHAIRMAN LEGGE

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (P)—Immediate financial relief for grain farmers through loans by the Federal Farm board on unheeded grain, which has already been used as collateral for loans from federal intermediate credit banks was the promise made today at the close of the grain marketing conference by Alexander Legge, chairman of the farm board.

Legge asserted the board would loan 10 cents a bushel on such grain if members of farmers' cooperative.

The meeting adjourned without adopting any definite plans for the proposed national grain marketing corporation.

The sub-committee of three, appointed to draft plans for the corporation, was ordered to continue its work after tentative plans submitted yesterday had been refused.

Aid To Growers Of Beans Is Suggested

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (P)—Suggestions for aiding growers of small beans, among them one that a separate stabilization corporation be set up to maintain "reasonable" price to the farmer, were taken under advisement today by the Federal Farm Board.

The board announced it had been advised of various problems affecting the marketing of the product.

Peter Lennon, state senator and farmer, of Lennon, Michigan, said he had suggested a stabilization corporation which would prevent price breaking.

"With $50,000,000 such a corporation could buy all the beans produced in the country at $5 a bushel," Lennon said, "and with its assistance the farmer could combat price breaking."

Organized Labor

Leaders of organized labor, perhaps smarting under criticism within their ranks of their so-called lethargy, have lately begun to demonstrate an increasing interest in the sorer spots of the labor situation and in the newer problems which begin to confront industrial workers as a class.

Generally speaking, the country has been going through the existing period of comparative prosperity without any serious labor troubles.
These have been good times for organized labor and not so good for the unorganized laborer.

Although labor has been bitterly criticized the controlling officials of the American Federation of Labor and other large organizations, it seems only fair to suggest that these men have been representative of the conservatism and caution of the dominant class of labor. Employers have also been more amiable in dealing with employees and less reluctant to share with them some portion of increased profits.

But this is a millennium. Perhaps there is forever bound to be some conflict between capital and labor. Certainly this unprecedented "machine age" of ours was bound to develop certain new and serious social problems.

These facts, to a matter of general interest to society, indicate that organized labor still knows how to battle for itself. Capital, controlling wealth and political power, can take pretty good care of itself.

But when anything goes wrong the workers are the first to feel the pinch in reduced employment and lower wages. In any broad conception of public welfare it is necessary that they be sufficiently articulate and organized to avoid the full brunt of any unhappy effects that may result either from hard times or from the modern methods of attaining what we call prosperity.

Some recent labor efforts may not be effective in promoting labor welfare, but they indicate that organized labor is still to some extent on the job. The outstanding example is its active interest in the southern textile struggle.

William Green of the A. F. of L. has struck some actual blows in his defense of the rights of southern workers to organize and work. A national campaign is being waged with a A. F. of L. support to organize the South. It is a hard fight. The New England industry and its workers continue in a war with lower wages and the southern workers receive still lower wages.

To the interest of organized labor to fight low standards wherever they appear.

Transferring textile manufacturing from one section to another has its inevitable unfortunate effect on some workers, but transfer of production from one country to any other is often regarded as taking so much employment away from American labor as a whole. This problem has been taken up by the A. F. of L. and Vice President Matthews Wolf is trying to get Congress to enact that holders of American patents and trade-marks must manufacture in America articles so protected. But hundreds of large corporations have found it more expedient to manufacture their products abroad and the practice is growing constantly in scope.

So many of labor's problems are involved in inevitable economic trends that it is not surprising that labor can not at first grapple with them effectively. For instance, the technological unemployment—replacement of men by new machines and new processes—which is commonly recognized as a problem of increasing seriousness. The optimistic theory is that other new occupations available are taking up the surplus workers, but the strain and hardship on the individual affected as he makes the enforced transition is something that few others ever bother to worry about.
Allied with this is the problem of

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says most women will listen to anything but reason.

Lubbock county's pioneers, some of them getting pretty feeble now held their annual get-together yesterday at Fair park. Men and women who have followed them into this section can't understand, but when the pioneers get together there is an invariable bond which is apparent even to the casual visitor. You can't see it—but you know it's there.

The Plainsman went out to the reunion yesterday evening. He didn't have any business out there but he took advantage of a friend's kind invitation and went. Anyone having the opportunity would have enjoyed the contacts made as the men and women who carved civilization out of a bare prairie talked of days long removed from the calendar.

There was Mrs. Maggie Ghoulson, visiting in Lubbock for the first time in 31 years.
Prior to that time she lived here and then went to Tucuman, where she has been ever since.
Think she didn't notice a change?

Not having been here 31 years ago, of course The Plainsman can't speak with authority, but he'll bet a Stetson hat that Mrs. Ghoulson, if she had a mind to could sit down and tell plenty about the surprise she got when she returned to Lubbock and found a city where she left but a few scattered homes.

The Plainsman is of the opinion that there isn't enough attention paid to the oldtimers who came out here when West Texas was in the raw and laid the foundation for what has come since and what will continue to come in the future. This writer breaks right down to tell the world he has real respect for them.
It took indomitable courage to do what they did and sometimes it looks like the rest of us don't take enough cognizance of the fact.

Various communities in Texas take pains each year to fete the pioneers in their particular section, the most notable in this region being the Rotary club's annual banquet and program at Post. It appears Lubbock could have one here to good advantage, whether it was Rotary club, Kiwanis, Lions of Board of City Development—or any other organization, for that matter sponsoring it.

Two or three of the old timers out at Fair park yesterday had pictures of bygone days, showing scenes. While they were looking at photos of cow outfits, burrowed freight trains, the old Nicolett hotel and the first homes erected on the territory, The Plainsman couldn't help but contrast the present with the past. Just across a bar-wire fence in the country park, men and women in knickers played golf over a part of the same country where herds were one day driven and a plowman followed the city and its rapidly growing skyline showed great mountains of stone and steel where within the memories of every man and woman belonging to the Lubbock County Pioneers association there was nothing but bald prairie.
Snappy sport reporters struggled for space in the papers and in the vicinity of the picnic and gave mute testimony to the change which has taken place in this section within parts of the lifetimes of many men and women. By contrast, the saga of Lubbock county was sung impressively.

Every year there are a few of the pioneers who have attended their last reunions—there are a few familiar faces missing and that angle will continue to obtain. For that reason The Plainsman believes Lubbock is reaping out its rights as every day slips by without some plan being laid to regularly honor the benefactors of this part of the country. They can't last always these oldtimers, and we may just as well realize the fact.

That Man on Avenue G says a lawyer is always eager to work with a will—that is, if there's anything much to the will!

The legislature which established the extension service of Texas A. and M. college performer a great service to the farmers of this state and through its wise provisions was a long way toward furthering the cause of agriculture throughout Texas' vast empire.
These words are proven by the state experimental farm, where farmers from this whole section have gathered to view the results of the labors of Super-old age unemployment—caused partly by the policy of some corporations in not employing men over 45 on the theory that older workers can not keep up with modern industrial pace.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers, one of the strongest American unions, is only now beginning to clean up notorious sweat shop conditions. More than 1,000,000 children, between 10 and 15 years old, were shown by the 1920 census to be employed.

Obviously, there is room for a broad and intelligent labor program with the aim of establishing and maintaining the broadest possible prosperity.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor,
Avalanche-Journal,
Lubbock, Texas.

I appreciate very much what you had to say in your editorial in the Journal yesterday afternoon regarding the new system of accrediting pupils in the high school. I am glad that you are willing to give us a chance to try something new in the school world, and wish that we had more like you. If any business in the world needs reforming, it is education. The people have become accustomed to inefficiency in the work of the schools so long that they do not seem to want anything else. The schools have made very little progress during the past twenty-five years. The teacher who left them twenty five years ago could walk in the average school room today and be perfectly at home. Educational science has brought us new aims in education, a new content, and new methods,
but the school people are so conservative that they prefer to use old machinery and to go on in the same old way. I think some of those who should know better are too willing to criticize the man who seeks to put into practice the proven facts of educational science. I want to tell you that they are the dearest bodies in the world.

We are seeking to put into operation in the Lubbock public schools only those things that the science of education has proven beyond a shadow of a doubt. We are seeking to reach the spiritual life of the child and to get him into his work in a whole-hearted manner. We are trying to get every child to have the same enthusiasm for his work that the business man has for his business or the professional man has for his profession. We feel that we are succeeding in a small way and that continued effort along the line we are working will bring greater fruits. The 256 graduates of last year and the 232 of the year before are some evidence that we are succeeding to some extent. At least, we are trying to do all we can to make the boys and girls happy and enthusiastic in their work. The point system is sure to help to that end.

Yours very sincerely,
M. H. DUNCAN.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The members of the United States Senate have always professed to be just a little bit better persons than any other persons, but there certainly have been times when their claims were often open to question.

Now, says Senator J. Boonhoo McWhorter, there isn't any more doubt about it. A senator has to set himself up as a model of probity or he is very soon out of luck. Mc-Whorter is rather plaintive in his comment. One gets the idea that he believes senators ought to be left entirely on their honor—that is, that they ought to have the opportunity to decide for themselves whether or not they want to behave.

"Take," says Senator McWhorter,
"this vicious custom of White House breakfasts."

"I can remember when an invitation to breakfast at 8 o'clock in the morning would have been an insult in this town. The ordinary member of Congress would demand to know why his sleep was to be broken up right in the middle of it. But now whenever the president has anything important to talk about he invites people around for breakfast, and they have to go."

Means Early Bedtime
"How is anybody going to be able to stay out all night if he has to get to the White House by 8 o'clock?
All would be well if you merely had to show up and say 'Present!' but you're supposed to have a lot of bright ideas about complicated subjects. Anybody knows it's hard enough to have bright ideas on any subject at 8 a. m., let alone after a late poker party. Being prominent here simply means an early bedtime."

"Once we used to have a little secrecy in the Senate. Whenever a statesman or several statesmen decided that they could do their constituents more good in the long run by voting against their best interests on a single occasion, we could go right into executive session and there would be no need of embarrassing explanations. We could put our feet up on the desks and smoke at these sessions, too. But now whenever we vote in supposedly secret session some scoundrel goes and prints the roll call and they're talking about abolishing these comfortable sessions altogether."

"It's got so bad around here that whenever you want a man appointed to office now you have to take one who has some qualifications."

"Goodness knows there are plenty of fine fellows in the country who have worked very hard for their party and who ought to be rewarded, not just because of their political work, but because they are such fine and deserving men. But the president of the United States has got an idea that candidates for federal judgeships and other posts should come well recommended and is even going so far as to bolster up his nominations with lists of the people who support the fellow. All these things curtail the opportunities of a senator for service. We used to be able to get away with murder."

Longs for Scandal
"Evidently we will be voting on the tariff and the Maker of us all only knows how many of us will be able to vote as we want to vote.
Much as it may hurt, we've simply got to be noble."

"Until the last two or three years nobody ever questioned the personal habits of a dry senator. Now everybody jumps on him if he has any personal habits at all. It's got so a senator can't express himself on paper any more. There's Senator Gould of Maine who wrote to a grape juice company to compliment them on the fine wine he had made out of their grape juice. Now

Three Die As Fire Rages In Tenement

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Three persons were killed and eleven were injured today in a fire in a four-story tenement house on the lower west side.

Fire Lieutenant Michael Coyle
swung from an adjoining house, while held by two other members of his company, and rescued Morris Brunwasser, 48, trapped on a third floor window sill with the flames at his back.

Charles Hollander, 65, who lived on the top floor, was killed when he leaped to the back yard. The bodies of Mrs. Sophie Brunwasser, 46, and her 16-year-old son were found in their third floor apartment. Their deaths were caused by smoke and burns.

$20,000 FIRE IN SANTONE
SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 30.—A fire of unknown origin damaged the Rubin Bedding company of San Antonio to the extent of approximately $20,000 and threatened adjoining buildings today.

A passenger train was delayed 20 minutes on the Southern Pacific tracks when flames swept across the right of way.

The burning and contents, including cotton and machinery, were destroyed.

Going Places

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A few weeks ago a South Carolina editor appeared on Broadway in pajamas and was amazed that the crowds upon the big street did little more than arch an eyebrow.

Small wonder!
Broadway has such a daily diet of strange sights that one more or less makes little difference.

The main stream throngs will stop back and forth clad in a blue coat-ers digging the foundation for a new skyscraper, or a tobacco machine that turns out cigars by the million, or pretty girls juggling pancakes in a Childs cafe window.

But the competition in odd characters is far too keen for the average innovator to make much of an impression.

Strolling along the highway which boasts of the largest electric light bulb, I found the summer crop of cock-eyed goings on as large as usual.

The stilt walker, however, had discarded his rube uniform and was now wearing a natty red coat.

In front of a movie theater, attracting attention to an Irish picture within, a young man walked back and forth clad in a blue coat-ers from the pocket of which protruded a bright green handkerchief. His tie was also of emerald hue. He smoked a clay pipe and swung a gnarled blackthorn stick.

Just then along drove a very modern version of the old circus cal-lopie, playing the theme song of an other picture just down the street.

A quartet of show girls crossed a subway ventilator and their skirts blew—well, sufficiently to keep one's eyes from being attracted to a pajana-clad male.

In a theater alley, a couple hundred of "the boys" were gathered trying to get jobs as chorus men in a forthcoming musical show. And when a couple of hundred of "the boys" get to talking it over—oh Greenwich!

A couple of circus dwarfs got all tangled up in feet, while trying to make the doorway of an office building.

A street faker began to do a few card tricks in a doorway and nearby hawker began to hawk some paper dancing dolls. At the street I encountered a sandwich man in Palm Beach clothes advertising a straw hat cleaning emporium.

And so it goes.
In other words, the fellow who appears in pajamas on Broadway is likely to be listed as just another racketeer and the blasé throngs are likely to do little more than inquire, "Wonder what's his game?"

Speaking of games reminds me that the smart New York shops are showing a game which may be quite a vogue this winter. Particularly among those folk who like to do a little betting on the side.

It's called "Ticker" and it's almost to appeal to the boys and girls who don't get enough of Wall Street even when the redoubtable rate is boosted to six per cent. Also, it may teach the prospective plunger a few lessons in what can happen on the exchange. It has bulls and bears, and a certain number of listed stocks and unpleasant margin calls with dice to indicate the rise and fall in the value of certain securities upon which the players can make their bets. Tiny bits of paper are used for stock certificates—and the wagers, of course, depend on the players.

WASHINGTON, — Harry F.
Guggenheim, wealthy member of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, had an idea that Uncle Sam owed him $24, but Comptroller-General
McCart has decided otherwise.

An expense bill for oil and gas used by a private plane that took Mr. Guggenheim from New York to Washington and back for the committee's first meeting has been disallowed.
Mr. McCart can stand for only $36.33, the train fare.

The report that Tunney is coming home from Italy to fight civil suits has been denied. He isn't even coming home to fight.

A North Carolina leghorn hen died after living thirteen and a half years. Just think—if she laid an egg a day all her life, that would be 4827 and a half eggs, or about 410 dozens. But she didn't.

A Brockton, Mass., man went to Italy and married a girl he had never seen before. We know a fellow who married a girl he had seen numerous times, but hasn't been able to see her since.

MOSER TELLS OF FARM BOARD'S PROMISE TO ASS'N

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Aug. 30—Ample financial aid to cotton farmers was assured by the Federal Farm Board, C. O. Moser, president of the American Cotton Growers' Exchange, said on his return to Dallas today from Washington.

"The board members said they would authorize a loan of from five to ten million dollars to our organization and if this was not sufficient they would give us more," Moser said. "The board favors the plan of aiding farmers and has taken a broad-minded attitude and are willing to give reasonable aid to cooperatives over the country."

Dawes, MacDonald, In New Conference

LONDON, Aug. 30 (P)—Ambassador Dawes, smoking his famous pipe, strolled over to Downing street today for a further conversation with Premier MacDonald on the question of naval affairs.

In well-informed quarters considerable satisfaction was expressed with the excellent progress reported to have been made in the Anglo-American negotiations to secure naval reduction and there was said to be reason to believe that an agreement between Great Britain and the United States on a formula for reduction may be achieved within the next ten days.
