Garrison grew up and attended public schools at Levelland, playing basketball on several occasions in Olton when his team visited here.

Both Brown and Garrison attended Texas Tech. Brown served as County Agent of Lipscomb County in the North Panhandle and County Agent at Dalhart before joining the bank at Olton in 1960 with the First State Bank of Vernon. He became president of the Vernon bank at that time.

Norfleet will remain as president, serve on the board of directors and although he will no longer be active in day to day bank management, will serve in an advisory capacity. Laus Hair will serve as the banks executive officer with the title of executive vice-president.

"We are extremely pleased to be afforded the opportunity for this new association with the Olton State Bank and people of the community of Olton," Brown said.

"Because of my wife's family connections I have maintained an interest in the area around Olton since our marriage in 1947. Joe Garrison and I are particularly impressed with the agricultural potential and the type of people who live here, and we are looking forward to this association with a great deal of pleasure," Brown said.

According to a letter mailed out by the Chamber's Committee on Program of Work and Membership, the meeting will attempt to gather ideas on three questions:

- Do we (the C-CA) need to change the organizational set-up?

Babe Ruth Players Are Still Needed

Are the young boys of Olton going to be denied a summer baseball program because the adults of the community are "too busy"?

That is the question which has been asked recently by members of the Olton Baseball Association.

There is a need for several more coaches in the program as well as a need for six more Babe Ruth players. In order for Olton to be a member of the Babe Ruth League, each team must have a minimum of 12 members and there are only nine on two Babe Ruth teams at present.

If Olton doesn't qualify for Babe Ruth League, the Babe Ruth Tournament cannot be held here this year.

Men who are interested in coaching one of these teams are asked to contact Gene Trotter at the bank and any boys who would like to sign up to play, may also contact him.

ELECTION ON HOSPITAL TAX SET IN EARTH

Election on a new District hospital to be located in Earth will be held Saturday May 27. Persons living inside the district will be eligible to vote on the issue.

The district is bounded by Castro County on the north, on the east by a line running north and south through Circle, by a line approximately seven miles south of Earth and on the west by Bailey County.

The proposed hospital will be a 26-bed unit, with clinic facilities for two medical doctors. It will be an accredited hospital, with a portion being used for a nursing home.

As a District Hospital, it will be supported by a 30 cent tax rate based on county assessed evaluation. For example, a $10,000 home is evaluated at 10 percent, which is $1,000 making the tax $3.

On farm land, top land will be taxed at $8 per quarter.

Former Pastor Will Speak

The Rev. Glenn Godsey, former pastor of the Mexican Mission at Olton, will speak Thursday night, May 18 at the First Baptist Church at 8 p. m.

Godsey will tell of the work he will be doing in Marfa, when he assumes the duties of his new position there. He was recently elected missionary of the Big Bend Baptist Association.

He will be superintendent of missions for the association, comprised of some 13 churches and seven missions with more than 3,650 members in the giant area encompassed by Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Pecos and Terrell Counties.

The public is invited to attend.

Research Saves Lives

In this high speed jet age, when figuratively speaking, our cities present a new skyline almost every morning, it is easy to succumb to the notion that great progress is an overnight affair. Rarely is this so. In late years, for example, there have been dramatic advances in the medical arts and "miracle drugs".

In the case of drugs particularly, the sudden solicitude of public regulatory agencies for the health and well-being of people leaves the distinct impression that both drug progress and concern for the public are matters in which government has been a pioneer and leader. Nothing could be further from the truth.

A major drug firm is running a series of advertisements in publications pointing out that, "For four generations we've been making medicines as if people's lives depended on them." The latest Annual Report of this company records the passing of one of its founders and describes his contributions during his 52 years with the company as "immeasurable".

Another major drug firm has issued a news release reporting the death of one of its founders who spent more than 60 years with the company which his father helped to establish. This particular pioneer in the drugfield accurately foresaw that research was the key to future progress.

In 1929, his company was reorganized so that one of its main functions became the discovery and development of new drugs of special value to medicine.

In other words, while the rest of the country was preoccupied with leaf-raking in the 30's, the seeds of the great progress that was to come in ensuing years were being sown by the pioneers of business and industry in research laboratories all across the land. Real progress is a fragile thing.

It begins in the minds of men and comes to fruition over a long period of years. Its deadliest enemy can sometimes be a fumbling bureaucracy which is long on regulation and short on wisdom and vision.

Letter Rationing

Doesn't anybody know how you are supposed to pinch mums?

This week "Prairie Dog Pete" is telling everyone to do something else to their mums and I still haven't done what he said to last week.

When column writing time rolls around each week, it surely is nice to pull out my file and have a letter from a reader to use. A few weeks ago I received several letters all at once. I would like to explain to those writers that the reason they may not have seen their letter before, is that I am hoarding them.

I made a mistake the last time that I received more than one letter in a week. I used both letters in the same column, which was fine for that one week, but then the next week I didn't have any thing to use. I learned my lesson then. So now I am rationing my supply of mail in order to make it last.

I really do appreciate each letter that has been sent to me and I hope that the delay in printing them has not discouraged anyone from writing again. I surely does make it a lot easier for me to find the courage to sit down and write when I know that I have a letter handy.

This week's letter ration comes from a reader in Hereford who writes.

"Dear Karen,

I just had to let you know how much I enjoy reading your "Housewives Arise". I can hardly wait until the paper arrives to pick it up and read your column first. Keep up the good work!

I am from Hereford now, but formerly an "Oltonite". In fact Olton is, and always will be, my hometown. We now live 16 miles from Hereford on a ranch and you'd think I wouldn't have the same house-cleaning problems as others, but don't kid yourself. I sure do. This old dust comes blowing across this prairie right into my front door every day just like to does in town.

Once a week I "lemon oil" my furniture, the rest of the week, I find my old feather duster a life saver. I just give it a swish thru the house and I'm ready to go on to other things.

With three children and me on a diet "Always", one of my main problems seems to be cooking. But I do have a hint or two there for those that may have the same problem.

Have you tried the diet gelatin with artificial sweetening whipped with a low calorie topping mix?

It's a dieter's satisfier and the children like it too. Also, it's more economical than other diet foods.

(let me add a little note here. I tried this myself and discovered that there is a wrong way to make this desert. I seem to have a special talent for finding the wrong way to do anything). In order to keep the gelatin and topping from separating, you must wait until the gelatin jells before adding your already whipped topping, then you add the topping and beat with a mixer until they are well blended and chill until firm.

Most of you would probably know this already, but for those of you that are accident prone like I am, I thought I had better mention my findings)

Just recently I found mushroom soup in a box. It's so good and savory when poured over your Sunday roast and cooked about three hours. I use it many other ways too.

Again it's so much cheaper than the canned mushrooms. I think everyone now-a-days is interested in savings.

And oh yes! Just one more hint I found out quite by accident when I was baking a cake for a sick friend and needed it cooled to be iced in a hurry. I took it right from the oven and put it in my deepfreeze, being careful, of course, not to let it touch any of the pastic bags. And to my surprise it came loose from the sides of the panso much easier in about five minutes and iced beautifully.

Well if I've helped you in any way to get another column out I'm so glad because I'd sure miss it if it weren't there in it's little spot and I know lots of others would too.

Good luck in the future and I'll be reading you.

Betty Coleman
Hereford, Texas

P. S. I read one week the hints you had on making ice and I almost forgot to add my one hint to that.

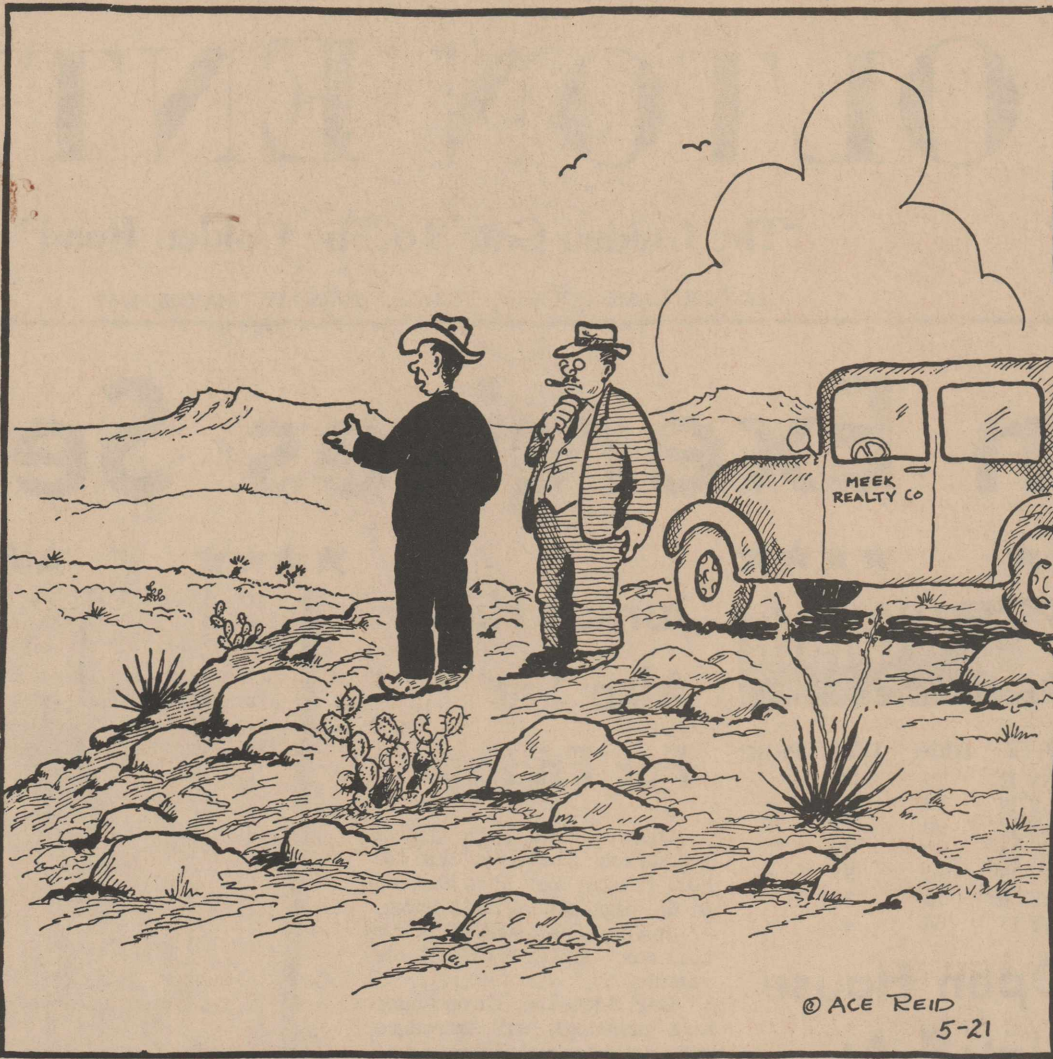

We save our small juice cans and freeze water in them, this makes just one big round cube exactly right to take out and fix one glass of tea, etc, for that husband that comes by from the field hot and thirsty or for that neighbor who drops in for a glass, and saves getting out a whole tray and awasting what's left.

I do thank you and you did help me get another column out, if you compare the amount of space I used and the amount used by your letter you will see exactly how much you did help.

Now if someone would just tell me how to pinch my mums I would have it made.

BY AMY ADAMS

UFO'S, FACT OR FICTION?

Dear Amy:

The "flying things" people have been seeing are fascinating to me. I read where the sightings have been seen in red, orange and white. But I would like to know what other colors these flying things have been seen in and I would appreciate an answer, please.

Sherry

Dear Sherry:

I assume the "flying things" you refer to are Unidentified Flying Objects. UFO's have been observed in every color of the spectrum. I have also learned that there have been "contactees" who claim that UFO's have landed close enough to enable them to converse verbally or through mental telepathy with the occupants.

All those interested in UFO's should contact Mr. Michael Campione, an authority on the subject, at 2202 New Albany Rd., Cinnaminson, N.J., 08077. He has agreed to send my readers information on the greatest mystery of the 20th century and will include a post card in color of a UFO in flight.

Dear Amy:

I am involved in a very delicate situation and maybe you can help me out. I am engaged to a sweet fellow and we have set the "date." I thought I loved him until I started dating his best friend. Now I don't know how can I be sure before I take the big step?

Dear In love:

Your code of conduct leaves much to be desired. If you find pleasure in the company of a man other than your "sweet fellow," you're not ready for the "big step" . . . at least not with him.

Dear Amy:

I have been married for nine years. It is the second marriage for both of us.

Two years after we were married, my husband became seriously ill. I went to work as a waitress to help with the finances and have been working ever since.

My husband recovered enough to go back to work but he never did. His doctor says he should get a job to give him something to do or else he will die (from boredom). He is so used to me working that he has become very lazy and every time I suggest that he get something to do, he puts on a real act about how sick he is.

I'm so tired of working all hours of the day and night, I don't know what it is to sit down and relax any more.

Is there any way you know of to get him off his "you know what" because I can't take it much longer.

P.S. He smokes a box of cigars and drinks a fifth of liquor a week.

Dear Sick:

A man who is physically capable of working and chooses to loaf doesn't deserve a wife, much less one who keeps him in cigars and liquor. Cut out his luxuries and stop treating him in the manner to which he has become accustomed. If he doesn't like it, he might get off of his "you know what" and try to earn a dollar like any decent man would.

Dear Amy:

Recently I held a 48th wedding anniversary party for my parents and as my house is not very large, I stated on the invitations: Adults Only. My cousins who have children didn't show up and later I found out that they were all burning up. They said that where their children are not welcome, they wouldn't think of going. It wasn't that their children were not welcome, but just that I didn't have the room . . . so was I wrong in wording the invitations in this manner?

Just Want To Be Right

Dear Right:

I think you were absolutely right in wording the invitations as you did. Further more, small children don't belong at adult functions. People who are insulted because their tykes don't get an invite are the ones who hustle their little darlings off to bed before their guests arrive when THEY entertain.

But NOW-WOW!

By ART BEEMAN

It is the end of another year and everyone is ready for it to end in some ways. OHS is losing 43 of its long-time residents and we hate to see them go. We know that they must stand alone and grow in strength and maturity, so with this feeling we want to honor our 1966-67 Olton High School graduates by listing their names and sending them a warm congratulations for a four-year job well done.

Those students that were awarded honors are Valda Jones valedictorian, Kay Schultz, salutatorian, history, Shirley Johnson; science, Greg Sweat; math, Jane Ann Duncan; drivers training, Jerry Davis; English, Brenda Kirkpatrick; physical education, Gayle Gary; band, Harry Max Thomas; choir, Dale DeBerry; journalism, Jackie Harrod; Spanish, Lupe Hernandez; business, Brenda Kirkpatrick; vocational agriculture, David Aigaki; homemaking, Paulette Bley; boys physical education, Larry Johnson; out-

Emma Porio received a plaque symbolizing the appreciation of her visit to OHS this year at the awards assembly. She then gave a heart warming speech of thanks to the OHS student body and administration for the welcome that they have shown her this past year. The students and teachers hate to see Emma go also for she has truly brought many good and rewarding ideas and ideals to our school as well as our town and community. "Good Luck, Emma".

It's been a very good year! In fact, it's been great! With bubbling spirit and high aims, our school has gone far this year.

But regardless of all the good times, everyone's looking forward to the three-month vacation.

The seniors will be stepping into a world of their own. Some are sad to leave but, still, they are eager to explore the future.

Of course, the juniors are glad because graduation brings senior rings, and senior rings means "superiority." And the rest, well, they're just looking for a good time.

To us, summer brings skiing, swimming and "free time." It brings relaxation and rest. It means sleep and FUN! FUN! FUN!!!

CHIT CHAT RETIRES!! It's not because we've saved up enough money to last us the rest of your lives. Nor is it because we've become physically disabled. But it's because "Summer Fever" has struck, and we'll be doing well to recuperate in three months. So until school reopens again, we say "Farewell to you!!"

1967 OLTON GRADUATES!

A small word with a world of meaning. It's a priceless possession. Pride is what picks you up off the ground and gets you going again. Pride is what makes you refuse to quit when everyone says you should. Pride is what makes you ignore the score as long as the game is still in progress.

To the Graduates... we offer our most sincere congratulations. Your past achievements are but a small indication of your pride and potential.

May your pride never weaken... may it be passed on intact to those who follow after.
