All About Nothin'

With the closing of Crow laundry here this week, this section now has only one "helpy-selvy" laundry to serve the hundreds of patrons. The laundry at Monroe closed when the owner, W. E. Wilkinson, enlisted in the air corps ground crew. W. H. Crow, who operated his laundry here for over two years, is now employed in the parts department at Duncan Field, San Antonio. His family left this week to make their home in the Alamo City. Wilkinson of Monroe is stationed at Lubbock Army Flying school.

The one laundry left, J. L. Merritt Handy-Dandy Steam laundry, will be overworked to the limit, and any cooperation you can give them will be a help to yourself, to other customers and the Merritts. They will do their very best to give you good service under present conditions.

Nov. 22-28 is "Women at War" week.

SCATTERINGS: 412 tons of scrap were collected in Hale county during the month of October — Where are those "good old West Texas sand storms" we had a few years ago? — A union Thanksgiving service is being planned for Abernathy on the traditional last Thursday Turkey Day date, local ministers announce — A bouquet to S. H. Lebow and his men for their efforts in putting the Santa Fe right-of-way property in town in spic and span shape. It looks nice. The rest of the town needs to be cleared of weeds and trash — Postal officials are urging people to mail Christmas cards and packages earlier this year — The local school faculty may have some more vacancies when work begins again Nov. 23 — Hale county makes its next call for drafters on Nov. 21 when 40 men are to leave for induction —

Hale county's War Bond quota for October was $65,100, and residents of the county bought $70,348.50 during that month. Herb Hilburn, county War Bond chairman, says, "Thanks, and let's do it again in November!"

The Nation's cotton growers will decide on Dec. 12 whether they want marketing quotas in effect next year.

VOLUME XXII, NUMBER 22

Our Men In Service

SSgt. Clyde W. Hedges, above, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hodges, former residents of Abernathy, is now stationed at the Naval Air Station in Alameda, Calif.

He enlisted Nov. 15, 1940, in the Army Air corps and was sent to Kelly Field, San Antonio, for basic training. He was then sent to Chanute Field, Ill., to be trained as an airplane mechanic. After his graduation, he was assigned to the 48th Bomb Sqdn., and sent to Tuscon, Ariz. Since then he has been at Muroc, Calif., Bakersfield, Calif., and Alameda, Calif. He has just completed his training at Las Vegas, Nevada. Gunners' school.

He is now back with his squadron, serving as an aerial gunner and aerial engineer while patrolling the coast.

He married Miss Willene Crow, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crow, here on Nov. 6, 1941.

(Sponsored by Abernathy Farmers' Co-op Gin.)

T/Sgt. Olin O'Neal Weds

(Editor's Note: In most newspaper stories of weddings, the groom is treated as a necessary, but unimportant, part of the ceremony. However, things have been changed in the following item, clipped from an army newspaper, about the recent marriage of T/Sgt. Olin O'Neal, former Abernathy resident and a grandson of E. P. Crow of this city.)

BILLINGS BRIDEGROOM CHOOSES OLIVE DRAB

"Tech. Sgt. Henry O. O'Neal, the scion of a well known Abernathy (Texas) family, and mess steward at Billings General Hospital, Fort Harrison, and Miss Martha Shaul, of Pendleton, Ind., a nurse at St. Johns Hospital, Anderson, Ind., were wed Tuesday at 6 o'clock in the office of the Methodist church in Anderson.

"It was not possible for this correspondent to get a description of the bride's costume, but it was divulged that the groom chose the season's popular olive drab blouse and trousers of wool serge, with harmonizing sun-tan shirt for his wedding.

"Setting off the straight lines of the blouse was a single row of bright brass buttons down the front, with matching individual buttons on each pocket and on each shoulder. His trousers were straight-cut without cuffs. Cotton socks of olive drab, with harmonizing brown shoes and an olive drab serge tie completed his ensemble. In his left hip pocket he carried a white linen handkerchief.

"For going away, the groom chose a heavy woolen coat of olive drab, with brass buttons on the front and shoulders. A dressy traveling hat of garrison design in olive drab, with harmonizing brown leather brim and chin strap, and a pair of knit woolen gloves of olive drab were his only accessories."

Ramsey Recovering

Satisfactory recovery from a recent hernia operation is reported by Clarence Ramsey, A. S., who underwent surgery at the Naval Hospital at Great Lakes, Ill. "You can tell the folks that I got out of bed Oct. 28, and am doing fine," he said in a letter written Nov. 2. He received lots of letters and cards from local residents while in the hospital, he stated.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Conversing with a man who always agrees with you is almost as monotonous as talking to an echo.

Motorists Prepare For Gas Rationing

State Rationing Director Mark McGee this week announced that registration of motorists for gasoline rationing has been postponed one week, from Nov. 12, 13 and 14 to 19, 20 and 21, which is Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. He gave as the reason for postponement that sufficient books, papers and other supplies have not been received to handle the immense task in the Lone Star State.

Rationing of gasoline will not begin in Texas until Dec. 1, postponed from Nov. 22, McGee reported.

Lubbock county residents may register at Abernathy school home economics cottage if that registration place is more convenient, Supt. Swinburn stated. The applications will be sent to the Lubbock county board.

Parents of boys in service may register for cars owned by the boys if they are to be used, Swinburn said.

W. A. Richter and J. H. Nunn are named on Abernathy's advisory panel.

On Monroe Panel

Members of the advisory gasoline rationing panel for Monroe community are L. L. Watson, S. S. Allcorn and C. H. Johnson.

Members of Lubbock county regular gasoline mileage panel of the rationing board are J. Ben Cole of Lubbock, chairman; Geo. R. Bean, James E. Reid, John Spikes, F. H. Childress, Rev. Floyd Dawson and W. P. Clement, all of Lubbock; and J. T. Pinkston, J. A. Klasner and Webster Williams, all of Slaton.

Migratory farm workers who use trucks in traveling from job to job, and who are away from home are required to contact the district office of the Office of Defense Transportation on the proper procedure to procure their certificates of war necessity. There are many such workers in this area who are planning to leave their jobs and return home in the fear that they would be unable to operate their trucks after Nov. 15.

Everything possible will be done to expedite the handling of these applications so that trucks used by migratory workers will not be forced from the road. It will not be necessary for these workers to leave their jobs and return home in order to obtain a certificate. This would only be a waste of time and rubber, and it would probably delay rather than expedite the issuance of the certificates.

Any migratory worker who has not received his application should contact either the County Agent in the county in which he is at present living, or the District Office at 623 National building, Lubbock, for detailed information.

To expedite the issuance of Certificates of War Necessity required of all trucks and commercial vehicles beginning November 15, blanks are now available at the Office of Defense Transportation motor transport district office located at 623 Lubbock National Bank Building, Richard E. Wood, District ODT motor transport manager, announced today.

The application blanks are for the use of commercial motor vehicle operators who did not receive their application blanks by mail from the ODT central mailing office in Detroit. Any operator of a truck, bus, taxicab or other commercial motor vehicle who has not yet received an application for a Certificate of War Necessity should report this fact at once, Mr. Wood said today. Local operators are asked to come by in person for their application blanks. Other operators in this section of the state will be served by mail.

Because there is so little time left—all carriers must have the actual Certificates of War Necessity in their hands by November 15, or they cannot lawfully operate—carriers should be certain that all applicable questions on their applications are answered fully and correctly and that the applications are returned in the shortest possible time, Mr. Wood said.

TEACHERS' EXAMS SET

Hale County School Superintendent A. C. Koeniger, announces an examination will be held Friday, Dec. 4, and Saturday, Dec. 5, for teachers. All who desire to take the examinations should register in Koeniger's office prior to Nov. 20.

WHO WROTE THIS?

"The basis of all excellence is truth."

REGISTRATION SET AT THREE SCHOOLS IN AREA

Registration in this area is to be at the following three places: Abernathy school home economics cottage, Supt. W. V. Swinburn in charge.

Lakeview school, Mrs. Kermit Mitchell in charge.

New Deal school, with Supt. A. L. Faubion in charge.

SOME "MUSTS" FOR REGISTERING FOR GAS RATIONING

Registration will be Nov. 19, 20 and 21. The registering should be done by the person whose name the car is registered in, if possible. The owner must not have more than five passenger type tires in his possession, or no more than 1 tire per wheel for trailers and house cars. He must bring with him the serial numbers of the five tires he has, and also the 1942 registration papers. Just the car registration number alone is NOT sufficient, he must have the official 1942 license receipt.

Rites Are Held For Joe Seale

Funeral services for Joe Seale, 61, of County Line community, who was an auctioneer and who had lived in this vicinity for 19 years, were conducted at Lubbock Saturday afternoon, with Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor of First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. Seale died about 2 o'clock Friday morning after suffering a heart attack. He was taken to a Lubbock hospital, but was dead on arrival.

Survivors include his wife; a brother, W. H. Seale of Floydada; three sisters, Mrs. E. L. Laidt, Lubbock, Mrs. Emma Downing, Hugo, Okla., and Mrs. A. E. Bachman, Norman, Okla.; three daughters, Mrs. Horace Roberson and Mrs. Jack Bowles of Lubbock, and Mrs. Lena Murphy of County Line, and six grandchildren.

she wore a watch which belonged to an uncle, and for something borrowed, she carried her mother's white lace handkerchief. Her corsage was pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Tow, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Fleming of this community, was graduated from Abernathy High school with the class of 1941.

Pvt. Tow is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Tow of Odessa. He has been stationed at South Plains Army Flying School, and is to be transferred late this week to the new field at Pampa.

COTTON ACREAGE TO REMAIN UNCHANGED

D. B. Williamson, chairman of the Lubbock county Agricultural Adjustment agency committee, said 1943 cotton acreage allotment will be the same as it was this year for almost all of the cotton farms.

Listing sheets, he said, are being worked out this week and producers should receive their notices within the next two or three weeks, each farmer being advised individually.

The only farms which will have a changed allotment of cotton acreage are those in which the total crop land will change from that in cultivation this year, Williamson said.

The yields on most farms will change, due to the fact that the 1941 production will be used in determining the 1943 adjusted yield. The yield to be used on farms for which a five-year record of production is available will be the simple average yield produced on the farm for the five years—1937 through 1941.

For all other farms, the 1941 yield will be given a weight of one year and the 1942 adjusted yield the weight of four years, and the yield then determined from this formula. In using this method, Williamson said, the yield will not vary more than 10% either up or down, from the 1942 adjusted yield.

Mrs. J. C. Hurst and daughter, Mary Ann, of this city, and Mrs. Vic Lamb and children, Ann Kathleen and Jimmie, of Hale Center, visited Mrs. Chas. Hurst and daughter, Mary, in Ft. Worth early this week.

"FLYING TIGERS," with John Wayne, Anna Lee, Jno. Carroll, Paul Kelly & Gordon Jones, shows at the Rita Wed.-Thurs., Nov. 18-19. Paramount News.

"Soldiers" Behind the Lines

TOM DAVIS

President, Rotary International

From Acco Press

Millions of American young men have gone to war! They have set aside their hopes and dreams. They have left comfortable homes, and they have all postponed their careers. Declared a moratorium on life!

Turned abruptly from the ways of peace — they are now digging ditches, building roads, peeling potatoes, swabbing decks, emptying garbage, drilling, training—learning to shoot! We may thank our lucky stars they don't have to learn to die. They are Americans. They just don't like being kicked around.

They went cheerfully — went where they were sent, and no questions asked. Rich and poor, Republicans and Democrats, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Gentiles. Wealth, position, religion, color, politics—these don't matter when the question is one of freedom or slavery.

There are no eight-hour days where these boys work now. No rules decide their pay. They've got a grim, tough job to do, and they are doing it—like men! They're learning things every day —these boys we say we cherish. Learning a lot of things we should know—but stupidly refuse to admit.

They're learning that courage alone is a thin weapon against Axis planes and tanks.

They're learning the tragedy of losing for want of a few extra bombers in the right place at the right time.

They're learning the brutal, bloody cost of haggling and arguing and debating and stalling—while our sons die!

We stood on the curb as they left. We cheered. We went with them to the station — and shed a few tears. We drove home in our cars to warm firesides. Then in a week or two—we stormed the stores when the demand for cloth to clothe them removed the cuffs from our pants!

In God's name, America—let's be men—at least as big as our sons! We are the unarmed forces of the United States. No one of us is without responsibility—or duty! While we haggle over an hour of overtime—our sons are being slaughtered!

We live our comfortable lives back of the ramparts they watch. If they fail—there will be no life—but a slow, living death!

Our supreme duty—our only duty is to deliver to these young men the planes, tanks, guns and ships they need. Deliver them at top speed—and work as many hours making them—as they willingly work using them.

They are out there now. Waiting with the coming of each dawn. And for their courage—their bravery—their sacrifice—they've asked just one thing of us—"Don't let us Down!"

★ THE MEN Write Home

Dear Buford:

I will write you a few lines and let you know that I am still getting the Review. I really do appreciate it a lot. I like to keep up with the other fellows who are in service.

Since writing you last I have crossed the continent. I have seen lots of sights for a country lad from the Texas Plains. In all my moving I traveled every way of transportation there is except in the air.

I am stationed here at Ft. Screven, Ga., for the time being. Don't know how long I'll be here, but I hope it is quite a while. We have a nice place to stay and the chow is better than usual.

How is everything back in the old home town? I surely wish I could be back there and see everyone.

Tell everyone hello for me and maybe I'll get to come home for a few days before long and see every one. Best regards, Pvt. Melvin A. Patterson.

Dear Buford:

I thought I would drop you a line to let you know that I surely do enjoy the paper.

I get it every Saturday. What I don't read of it is because I don't have time to read it.

Boy, I didn't know I did like old

Abernathy so well until I got out here in this old rocky, dry place. But, I would not give my home town for all of Mexico land I have seen yet.

Thanks for the Abernathy Review. It lets me know where all of my friends are. Just today I found where Herman Bifle was. I surely am going to try to go see him some weekend.

Well, I must close. I am going on over to the post now for the night. So, be good. Tell all the people hello.

I surely would like to come back there. Many thanks again for the good old home town paper. Yours truly, Pfc. Bill Perry, Lordsburg, N. M.

Dear B. F. D.,

We have been receiving the Abernathy paper regularly and we certainly do enjoy it, thanks to you for sending it to us.

I'd like to advise you of our new address so there will be no delay in getting our paper. Sincerely, Lt. and Mrs. Weldon Nunn, 3001 Elm, El Paso, Texas.

Dear Buford:

Just a line to let you know of my change of address. It is Cpl. Felmet J. Watts, 98th Ser. Sq., 83rd Air Ser. Comm., Pendleton Field, Ore. We got here Sat. at 3:30 p. m. after leaving there (Lubbock Army Flying School) last Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. Had a wonderful trip and saw lots of scenery. We went through six states and traveled about 2,000 miles.

Don't know for sure just how long I will be here, but don't look to be here over a month.

I talked with Mr. E. B. Lindsey when we passed through Abernathy. Our train stopped to take on water and I told him to tell you of my leaving. Did he ever say anything to you about it?

We are four miles from Pendleton, up on the side of a mountain. The ramp is on top and has quite a bit of level room for runways. In fact, that's about the only place in Oregon that they can find to build an airfield. The camp is built on the mountainside, right at the top. My barracks are across the road from the line and I stay up stairs and still I can't see the planes, so, you see, it's some incline. If a soldier doesn't watch here, he will fall "over the hill" instead of "going over" it. I can look down at about a 45 degree angle and see town down there in a valley. I guess I notice it more so since being from West Texas. Every thing a fellow does, he has to "sweat" a line 1/4 of a mile long.

Be good, pal, and give all my best regards to all my friends. Yours, Felmet Watts.

(Yes, Mr. Lindsey told me. B.F.D.)

EXCHANGE OF FARM WORK IN HALE COUNTY

"Farmers of Hale county can do their bit toward helping win the war by co-operating with each other in the exchange of farm work and by utilizing all available sources of farm labor in getting this year's cotton crop harvested," A. B. Cherry, manager of the U. S. employment office in Plainview.

"Especially do we urge farmers to co-operate with each other and with the county war board and the employment service by exchanging farm work, and farm workers. Much valuable time can be lost for the war effort if the workers are unable to proceed directly from one farm job to another," he said. Cherry invites Hale county farmers to bring their farm labor problems to him at the Plainview office, 111 W. 8th St., and where these matters may be discussed and facilities of the employment service put to use in planning solutions.

TO REMOVE NAMES FROM FOOD STAMP ROLLS

AUSTIN — (Special)—The State Dept. of Public Welfare announced today that all employable persons now receiving federal surplus commodities or food stamps will be taken off the rolls if the request is made by the War Manpower Board, and the county commissioners' court. Letter To The Editor

(Editor's note: The following letter was received from this paper's publisher, Jack Hurst, Quartermaster, Second Class, in the Naval Reserve. He recently completed another phase of his training at Davisville, R. I., and is now enroute to his destination, somewhere overseas. Further details cannot be given.)

October 3, 1942
I guess you know by now what our "big jump" turned out to be, but even though it wasn't far in distance it is very easy to imagine we are a thousand or ten thousand miles from where we were. From all appearances here in camp, we could very easily be on "Island X"—in fact, the way we are living now is supposed to represent as nearly as possible an ideal Island X base. Everything is housed in Quamset huts—power plants, wash houses, galleys, mess halls, hospital, etc.—and all of it is hidden away in the trees, so that from a short distance away you can't see any of it. Even in the middle of it, you just see a hut here and there through the trees, and it is hard to realize that

There are 1,500 men working, eating, sleeping right around you. I like the huts a whole lot better than the barracks. They are as snug and comfortable as can be—no fancy fixtures of course, but just cozy, and, after those barns we just left, almost homelike. There are ten of us in each hut, and we run the place more or less to suit ourselves. So long as the hut is kept clean, nobody bothers about whether your towel is hung just so, or your sea bag tied this way, and similar rules.

The woods we are in are mostly oak and birch trees, with a few small pines scattered around. Just now the trees are all the colors of the rainbow, and getting prettier every day. We have cut out most of the underbrush, and are burning it up, so there is the smell of burning wood through it all. Except for hearing traffic on a nearby road—you can't see any of it—we might as well be a thousand miles from civilization.

There are the usual many rumors as to how long we are going to be here, where we are going, etc., and all of them different, so I won't relay any of them to you. The day we left the last place, they took about 25 of the men out and shipped them off somewhere, and the supposition is that they went ahead to where we are supposed to go next. Nobody knows where they went, so you guess as good as mine.

Gotta go now, Jack.
