Nation's Supply Of Ready Cash Stands At New High Total

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—The nation's supply of ready cash stood at a new high figure today, while national income had climbed for the fourth consecutive month.

The commerce department's index of income payments to individuals rose from 82.5 per cent of the 1929 level in August to 83.3 per cent in September. The September index was 2.9 points above the low point for the year, but was 8 per cent below the 1937 peak.

Reach Unprecedented Total

Federal Reserve experts estimated that bank deposits and currency in circulation had reached the unprecedented total of $57,700,000,000 including a near-record supply of idle funds that might be loaned to stimulate business.

About $6,700,000,000 of the total was in currency and the rest in deposits. The lendable portion of deposits was estimated at $3,280,000,000, compared with normal needs of $500,000,000.

Deposits and currency have expanded by $1,000,000,000 since June 30, largely due to the influx of foreign money seeking a haven from European war threats. The previous peak was in December, 1936.

Since April, the administration has taken various technical steps to increase artificially the volume of lendable money in the hope that its mere availability would encourage banks to make more loans.

Actually, commercial, industrial and agricultural loans have declined slightly, although showing irregular signs of recovery in the last four weeks.

Political Parties Rushing Star Orators Out For Rousing Close Of Campaign Over Nation

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — Democratic and Republican headquarters are rushing their star orators North, East and West for a rousing finish to the congressional election campaign.

Little more than a week remains before millions of voters will choose 35 senators and 432 house members Nov. 8, but the closing rallies will have as much red fire and pointing-with-pride as all the political gatherings of the previous month.

Only in the South, where few Democrats have opposition, are the public platforms fairly free of candidates.

The climax of the Democratic campaign will take place next Friday night, when President Roosevelt will deliver a radio speech from Hyde Park, N. Y.

Republicans have marshalled a corps of speakers that includes both former President Hoover and Alfred M. Landon, presidential candidate in 1936. Mr. Hoover will make the last of a series of three political addresses in Spokane, Wash., Nov. 5.

Most active among the Democratic cabinet speakers has been Secretary Wallace, whose program for bolstering farm prices has been the subject of Republican criticism in the farm states.

Among others is Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex), who goes to Indiana next week for speech-making.

Six-Mile-A-Minute Plane To Be Army's Answer To Rivalry For Air Speed Supremacy

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — A six-mile-a-minute war plane is the army's immediate answer to European rivalry for speed supremacy in the air.

A 360-mile flight in 61 minutes from Dayton, Ohio, to Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday by Lieut. Benjamin S. Kelsey lifted the wraps from a pursuit ship about which the air corps previously had little to say.

Squadron Delivered Soon

The plane, the Curtiss P-37, already has passed the experimental stage. An initial squadron of 13 ordered last December soon will be delivered, officials said.

Without baiting to gloat over the P-37, the army intends to announce in a few days another and presumably even faster plane. Designated the P-40, it is an experimental job, and most details will not be disclosed for the present.

Boast Greater Speed

Both Germany and Great Britain have combat planes for which they have boasted even greater speed than that attained by the P-37. But the air corps has a ready answer.

Lieutenant Kelsey's flight and earlier trials, which were kept secret, were made with full military equipment. Germany claimed some

Texas' Retail Sales Higher

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 288. — The commerce department reported today that retail sales of 1,305 independent stores in Texas showed an increase of 11 1-2 per cent in dollar volume for September as compared with August.

September sales were 11 per cent under the volume shown by the same stores in September of 1937. Austin was the only city which showed an increase for the month over last year. The gain there was 5 per cent. Drops ranged down to 35 1-2 per cent at Pampa.

The smallest decrease in sales over last September for population groups was the loss of about 7 per cent recorded by cities from 50,000 to 100,000. Areas of less than 2,500 reported a loss of 15 per cent.

Gains in volume sales during September over August in population groups were: cities 100,000 and over —14.7 per cent; 50,000 to 10,000—18.3 per cent; 25,000 to 50,000—14.2

Grave New Troubles Plague French Regime

Threatened Break Looms For Daladier

Still-Unfinished Aftermath Of Munich Pact And War In China Add To Difficulties

(By The Associated Press)

Grave new troubles at home and abroad plagued France today in the still-unfinished altermath of Germany's diplomatic victory at Munich and Japan's conquest of China.

A break was threatened in Premier Edouard Daladier's radical-socialist following which might seriously undermine his government at a time when France is struggling to reconstruct her finances and diplomacy.

Split Already Occurred

French political observers said such a split, reaching even to high cabinet officers, already had occurred because of Daladier's violent attack against communists yesterday.

There were two reasons for radical-socialist discontent with Daladier's stand. His own power has been based partly on communist support in the now strained popular front. Second, many observers interpreted Daladier's blast as an attack on Soviet Russia foreshadowing a rupture with France's ally.

The Japanese foreign office warned France that Japan "might be compelled to take measures" if the French continue to supply China with arms.

This, it was believed, meant pos-

BREAK IS COMPLETED

MARSEILLE, Oct. 28 (AP) — Premier Edouard Daladier completed his break with the communist party today and warned parliament that if it failed to approve reforms the government contemplates he would carry the issue direct to the voters.

At his request, the committee on general policy of his radical socialist party approved a resolution, to be submitted to the party congress here Saturday, saying the communist party "has excluded itself" from the people's front of radical socialists, socialists and communists.

In Paris, meanwhile, a foreign office spokesman disclosed that France and Germany were considering a declaration renouncing war between them, similar to the agreement signed by Adolf Hitler and Prime minister Neville Chamberlain at Munich.

Czech-Hungary Peace Is Seen

BY LOUIS A. MATZHOLD
Associated Press Staff Writer

BUDAPEST, Oct. 28—Hungary and Czechoslovakia appeared today to be on the way to a peaceful settlement of their long-standing and often-threatening territorial dispute.

The Budapest government in a new note last night accepted the Czechoslovak offer to cede to Hungary about 3,860 square miles of land with predominantly Hungarian population.

Hungary also agreed that military experts should meet immediately to organize Czech evacuation and Hungarian occupation of the area and that a German-Italian arbitration commission should deal with eight disputed districts.

Had Demanded Mediators

Czechoslovakia had demanded that the mediators settle the entire dispute and fix a time for the occupation of the whole area demanded by Hungary.

Diplomatic circles believed, however, that this would be no major obstacle because German and Italian mediators were likely to permit Hungary to occupy the undisputed

Mexican Reprieved From Chair Three Times Finally Executed

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 28. (AP)—Selanes Canedo, reprieved from the electric chair three times — once after the machinery broke down—was executed early today at the state penitentiary.

Reciting a Mexican prayer and telling Warden W. W. Waid "You've been mighty nice to me," Canedo went to his death for the murder of Joseph W. Daly in a robbery two years ago at San Antonio.

Mexican consular officials previously had obtained stays, but the board of pardons and paroles yesterday decided the San Antonio Mexican was not entitled to further consideration.

The electricity was turned on at 12:04 a. m. and Canedo was pronounced dead eight minutes later.

Baylor Official Warns Medical School May Lose Its Rating

DALLAS, Oct. 28 (AP) — The board of trustees of the Baylor university medical college in Dallas studied a report today from Dr. Justin F. Kimball, executive vice-president of the university, in which he warned that lack of funds might bring a class B rating or possible abandonment of the medical unit.

The trustees in Dallas discussed the report yesterday but took no official action. Early B. Smyth, vice-president of the board, said.

Another member, who would not allow his name to be used, said the group was at least individually agreed to ask the Baptist general convention here Nov. 8-11 for aid.

Chinese Plan To Fight To Last Ditch

(By The Associated Press)

HONGKONG, Oct. 28.—A Central News agency (Chinese) dispatch from Chungking today said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek had declared China would fight on and that "a decisive battle" between a united China and the Japanese armies would be fought west of the present area of Japanese conquest.

The dispatch quoted a telegram sent by the Chinese leader—presumably from new headquarters somewhere west of fallen Hankow—to the people's central political council at Chungking, provisional capital.

General Chiang's telegram reaffirmed China's decision to continue resistance until ultimate victory is achieved. It discounted the loss of Canton and Hankow and said Japan's "desperate invasion of South China was prompted by realization of the danger of exhaustion of her strength."

Teachers Retirement Board Is To Purchase Government Bonds

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (AP)—The State Teachers Retirement board met here today to purchase approximately $650,000 in government bonds with an uninvested balance in the retirement fund.

S. M. Brown, executive secretary, said teachers had contributed from their salaries approximately $2,500,000 the first year of the fund's operation and the legislature must raise that amount annually for matching purposes.

Ten-Year-Old Kentucky Girl Weds 34-Year-Old Widower

(By The Associated Press)

PRESTONSBURG, Ky., Oct. 28. — Rosie Columbus has changed her playthings for a husband.

Dr. L. B. Sheppard, Johnson health officer, said today records in his office showed the girl is ten years old. She was married to 34-year-old Fleming Tackett, a widowed coal miner.

The marriage license was obtained at the Floyd county courthouse here by the girl's mother, Mrs. Grace Columbus, who gave Rosie's age as fifteen.

The Rev. W. G. Ratliff, employed as a coal mine blacksmith, said he pronounced the marriage vows in a simple hill country ceremony in front of a newly-constructed log cabin near here where the couple will live. Coal-blackened miners looked on silently during the ceremony.

The two-room cabin is located on Abbott creek three miles north of Prestonsburg in an isolated section of rugged eastern Kentucky mountain country. In it, with Rosie and her

State Section Of Society Is Being Held

Approximately 70 Men Are Registered; Papers Of Importance Are Read

A pioneer surveyor who in 1885 came to Singer's store a few miles from the location where Lubbock later was to spring up delivered the first paper this morning on the two-day program of the Texas section of the American Society of Civil Engineers in Lubbock hotel.

He is W. D. Twichell of San Angelo, who in approximately half a century covered about 14 million acres in his work as surveyor. He now is retired. He delivered a paper on "Surveying in Texas."

More Than 70 Attend

More than 70 men in various phases of civil engineering work heard the paper by Twichell and others on this morning's program.

The meeting is the first ever held by the Texas section west of Mineral Wells.

College Delegations Present

Delegations came from Texas A. and M. college and the University of Texas. North Texas Agricultural college is represented. Engineers here include those in private practice, PWA engineers, state highway department men, a United States geological survey representative, an experiment station official, and men in other phases of the work.

Texas Technological college is well represented.

J. T. L. McNew, professor of highway engineering at Texas A. and M. college, presided this morning. He responded to an address of welcome by Mayor Carl E. Slaton.

"The growth and Development of Lubbock Municipal Facilities was outlined by Marlin R. Smith, jr., city engineer, in the second paper. Smith described the progress in

Fund Has $29,204,591

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 (AP) — Unemployment compensation headed into its third year of operation in Texas today with $29,204,591 in a trust fund for tiding over eligible workers in jobless periods. The system was set up Oct. 27, 1936, but cash benefits were not payable until Jan. 1, 1938. Since then the compensation commission has certified payments totaling $7,232,342 against 170,633 approved claims.

The fund is financed by a tax on payrolls currently 3 per cent. The state receives 2.7 per cent and the federal government retains the balance for paying administration costs.

Lubbock Will Be Host To Hundreds

Train And Countless Cars To Bring Plainview People Here For Game Tonight

Preparations for the Plainview-Lubbock High school football game here tonight are all over but the shouting, but there remains a whale of a lot of that.

Most of the Plainview delegation is scheduled to arrive aboard a special train at 7:30 p. m., and the noise-making attendant to what promises to be one of the most colorful events of the year will be at its beginning.

Stop At College Avenue

The eight-coach train, according to Pete H. Smith, manager of Plainview Chamber of Commerce, is to be stopped on the spur north of Tech gymnasium where passengers—including Plainview High bandsmen and pep squad members, will unload.

Waiting them there, according to R. W. Matthews, Senior High school principle here, will be the band and pep squad of Lubbock High.

Officers To Cooperate

Capt. W. W. Legge, district commandant of the state highway patrol, Police Chief Don Reeder and Sheriff Tom Abel are to cooperate in handling traffic approaching the stadium.

From the train, the bands, pep squads and those of the Plainview delegation aboard the special will parade into the Texas Technological college stadium. Kickoff time is 8:15 p. m.

The visitors have been invited to use whatever time between halves they may need for the presentation of a program on the football field. If any time remains, Lubbock High pep squad also will be presented.

Original plans had been to unload the train at the College avenue crossing but were revised because of the traffic congestion and hazard which would have resulted.

Littlefield Rooters Will Pass Through City Today

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 28. (Special)—Seventeen bus loads of Littlefield rooters, part of a delegation expected to total 1,200, will transport part of Littlefield to Ralls tonight for a football game.

The parade is panned to be the largest arranged for a West Texas high school. One hundred automobiles may be in the procession.

The group was to reach Lubbock at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Senator Tom Connally Speaks To Estimated 4,200 In City

Sen. Tom Connally, who spoke to an estimated 4,200 persons in Thursday's public gatherings and shook hands with possibly 500 more at informal receptions, left aboard an early train this morning for Amarillo.

He will be entertained at Amarillo and Saturday morning he will make an address at WTSTC at Canyon.

Senator Connally, who had an even dozen engagements here, said he was "overwhelmed" at Lubbock's courtesies to him.

Watt who is Secretary of the Massachusetts State Federation of Labor, said he and the King "just gabbed". Later, he chatted with Queen Elizabeth and reported "that she is a most beautiful and intelligent woman."

Mexico Opens Oil Sales Drive

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 28.—The Mexican government today began a drive to regain world oil markets and predicted an Italian order was the first of "large sales in that country and its colonies."

Azienda Generale Italiana Petroli of Rome contracted to buy several million dollars worth of oil, the government announced.

Representatives were named to promote sales also in the United States and Brazil. The delivery also was announced of the first 500 tons of a quantity of asphalt purchased by Costa Rica.

Oil has pressed the capacity of storage tanks since Mexico expropriated 17 American and British oil properties on March 18 in the interests of a program of socialization.

Controlled Tankers

The oil companies controlled seagoing tankers and refused to transport oil from the expropriated wells, for which Mexico has not yet paid and over which litigation still is in progress.

President Cardenas at first said Mexico would sell oil only to the democratic nations, but later asserted refusal by the democracies to buy would force the nation to seek other markets.

A small quantity was sold to Ja-

Correct Diet Said Important In Ability To Resist Disease

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 28. —A Rockefeller foundation scientist declared today that correct eating is as important as heredity, in the ability of a person to resist disease.

Many persons have a natural resistance to infection acquired from their parents, Dr. Charles F. Church, director of the foundation's nutrition fund declared, while others succumb readily to tuberculosis, colds, measles, diphtheria, pneumonia, and a host of other diseases.

It is becoming apparent, however, that the right diet for both mother and child is just as important, if not more so, than the factor of heredity in building up disease resistance, Dr. Church, who is also a children's specialist at the University of Pennsylvania medical school, told the American Public Health association.

In a series of experiments on mice infected with the bacteria salmonella enteritidis, which cause food poisoning, it was

Red Sutton Is Named Slayer Of Woodroof

Lamesa Store Clerk's Death In Hijacking Is Traced To Man Being Held Here

BY DAN TARPLEY
Evening Journal Staff Writer

The unsolved killing of young Maxie Woodroof in a Lamesa haberdashery nearly a year ago, one of the South Plains' most baffling mysteries, apparently neared solution today, according to Truett Smith, Dawson county district attorney.

He announced that a murder charge against Red Sutton had been filed and that the suspect was in the Lubbock county jail and would face questioning, possibly this afternoon.

Recently Convicted Of Theft

Sutton recently was convicted on a chicken theft charge in district court in Atascosa county and was given a sentence of two years in the penitentiary, according to officers here.

Frank Mills, Texas ranger who has been working on the case nearly a year, said Sutton had served two penitentiary terms in Texas and one in New Mexico.

Other Warrants Issued

Warrants also were issued in Dawson county for arrests of two brothers-in-law of Sutton who are in the penitentiary. They were believed by Smith and other officers to have been associated with Sutton or, at least, accomplices by aiding in his escape.

Woodroof, 27, was shot the night of Dec. 11, 1937, when he grappled with a hijacker who had held him up in the haberdashery where he worked and taken approximately $500. The bandit took the money from the cash register.

Woodroof Chased Hijacker

Woodroof chased the hijacker after he left Hurt's haberdashery, overtook him about a block from the place and began wrestling with him.

A bystander said he heard one of the wrestlers say, "Look out, fellow, or you'll get shot." Only one shot was fired.

The lone, unmasked bandit had entered the haberdashery about 7:30 o'clock, bought a tie from Woodroof and followed him to the cash register. Woodroof was preparing to give him his "change" when the gun was produced.

Backed Out Of Store

The hijacker reached into the cash register, took the money taken in on a busy Saturday, and backed out of the store. Several clerks and "three or four" customers were in the store, but the bandit attracted slight attention until he was leaving.

When Woodroof was shot, another

Great Development Seen For Southwest

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28. (AP)—A "tremendous industrial development," with advertising playing an increasingly important part, was foreseen for the Southwest today by Earle Pearson of New York City, general manager of the Advertising Federation of America.

About 500 advertising men and women attending the federation's tenth district convention here heard Pearson's address at the opening session.

"Those of us who know something about this country and particularly those of you who live here know that the Southwest is sure to realize within a few years a tremendous industrial development—far exceeding the progress that has been made since the turn of the century," Pearson declared.

Pearson urged advertisers to "profit by some of the mistakes made in the expansion of the older industrial centers" and "protect and cultivate" their public relations by honest advertising and business methods.

U. S. May Retaliate Economically Against Japs If Warning Ignored

Ask Rights To Be Respected

BY ANDRUE BEDRING
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — The United States government may retaliate economically, informed persons said today, if Japan fails to heed a stern state department protest against "unwarranted interference" with American rights in China.

The state department's note demanding that the traditional "open door" of economic opportunity be maintained in conquered Chinese Territory, was made public here Thursday.

Assurance Demanded

It charged Japan with attempting to squeeze United States business out of China as she has been doing in Manchuria, and demanded early assurances "in the interest of relations between the United States and Japan."

The implicaton was that relations between the United States and Japan would be impaired if Tokyo did not make an early and satisfactory reply.

Although the American statement was delivered to the Japanese government on Oct. 6, the Japanese foreign office said today that no definite date for answering it had been set. The note will not be published in Japan, it was disclosed.

Action Being Hinted

The statement hinted at a possible course of action by this government, if Japan failed to comply, by pointing out the "great and growing disparity" between the treatment Japan gives Americans in China and the treatment the United States gives Japanese here.

Unofficial foreign affairs experts suggested three steps this government might take:

1. Restrictions on the trade of Japanese merchants with the American market.

2. Denunciation of the commercial treaty of 1911, which provides for equality of business opportunity for Americans in Japan and Japanese in this country.

An Economic Blacklist

3. Placing Japan on the United States' economic blacklist, a position now occupied by Germany because of her alleged discrimination against American goods. This would prevent Japan from obtaining the benefit of tariff concessions being made in trade agreements with other countries. Since the United States is working on a trade-agreement with the United Kingdom and is new one with Canada embracing tariff reductions on literally hundreds of articles — some of them of special interest to Japan—this is a threat with a punch in it. Many students of foreign affairs considered it the most likely to be carried out, partly because it could be invoked quickly by presidential proclamation.

In diplomatic circles it was said Japan's attitude toward American interests in China would have at least the effect of postponing indefinitely any American recognition of the government of Manchukuo.

The United States note accused Japan of trying to monopolize all commerce, transport and communication, in China by setting up pseudo-Chinese monopolies; with manipulating the currency in North China; with tampering with the tariffs; with keeping American businessmen from their properties; and with censoring and interfering with American mail and telegrams at Shanghai.

The note made three specific demands:

1. Discontinuance of discriminatory exchange control.
2. Discontinuance of monopolies which discriminate against American business.
3. Discontinuance of interference with American properties, travel, mail and telegrams.

Prime Discussion Subjects

The note to Japan, and President Roosevelt's address of last night questioning the lasting quality of "peace by fear," were prime subjects of discussion in this and other capitals today.

Senator Logan (D-Ky) said he thought the note to Japan was "rather strong and I don't know what we are going to do about it if Japan does not comply."

Senator Holt (D-WVA) expressed apprehension the policy adopted by the state department indicated a trend toward American involvements in Asiatic affairs.

REPLY IS DELAYED

TOKYO, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Japanese foreign office said today the date of replying to the new three-week-old United States warning against closing of the "open door" in China was indefinite.

The 3,000-word protest against "unwarranted interference" with American rights in China, divulged in Washington but not published in Japan, asked an early reply.

Sources close to the government said Japan would take "a determined stand" in negotiations with foreign power over rights and privileges previously enjoyed in China. The status of foreign concessions and settlements at Canton, Shanghai, Hankow and Tientsin will be of particular concern.

It Depends On Whose Baby You Are...

In the Sudetenland, it all depends on whose baby you are. Perhaps your parents are anti-Nazis, like Mrs. Vera Koudelova, at left above. Then your folks flee with scant possessions as the Nazi army of occupation approaches. You get tired and hungry, and you cry. But mother can't help you much. She can get you to the safety of Prague, as Mrs. Koudelova did. There, with 1500 other refugees, you'll be packed into a school building—with a mattress on a straw-covered floor as your new home, and charity the only source of your meals. But if your folks like Herr Hitler and the Nazis, you live amid scenes of joyous celebration. When the Germans come, your mother and other women pelt them with flowers. Perhaps a steel-helmeted soldier, like the one at right, thinks of his own kinder and stops. He tosses you up—and that's fun. So you pat his face to show you like him, and run happily back to your mother. It all depends.

Pressure On Jews Heavier

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Oct. 28—Nazi pressure to force Jews out of business and out of Germany steadily is becoming heavier.

Scattered yet significant incidents today gave emphasis to this scope and variety of the anti-Semitic movement.

The German press displayed reports that 50 Jews had attacked five Germans in Antwerp, one Nazi party organ intimating that as a consequence German-Belgian relations might possibly be disturbed.

The Gestapo (secret polfce) complained that a recent decree of the ministry of the interior having the effect of cancelling all German passports held by Jews may impede the broader purpose of obtaining the fastest possible emigration of Jews.

Under the decree Jews had two weeks from Oct. 7 to surrender their passports with the stipulation that if any wished then to travel abroad and such travel plans were approved their passports might be revalidated by the printing of a big red "J" across the first page.

Now numerous cases are reported wherein foreign consulates, notably the British, refused to grant visas to holders of "J" passports. Thus, the decree of the interior ministry apparently has resulted in increasing the already great difficulties for finding berths for Jews elsewhere.

Hardly a day passes in which several dozens of additional Jewish business houses from banks down to the simplest drygoods store are not "aryanized" by a boycotting process which forces the owner to sell out at a sacrifice.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — An American corporation has a contract with the German Zeppelin company to lease a Zeppelin for transatlantic traffic—if and when it can shake 20 million cubic feet of helium gas from the tight clutches of Secretary of the Interior Ickes.

The contract under which this arrangement was reached is one of the unexpected things drawn up in the drag-net law enated by the last drag-net law enacted by the last of all agencies in the United States which have foreign connections.

The compnay with the contract is American Zeppelin Transport, Inc., of New York. There is nothing secretive or subversive about its contract with the German Zeppelin company. Its whole purpose, as outlined in the contract made public by the state department under terms of the alien-agency roundup, is to launch a transatlantic Zeppelin service with an American company sharing in the business on a fifty-fifty basis with the German company.

The Hope For Helium

Incidentally, the contract indicates the company still has hope that Secretary Ickes—or a later secretary—will reverse the action of a year ago which denied American helium to Germany for use in Zeppelin service.

At that time Ickes held that helium placed in the hands of Germany would be available for war service, contrary to the law which specifies that it could be sold abroad only for non-military purposes. The law was enacted immediately after the Hindenburg disaster in the explosion of the big bag of hydrogen gas.

The contract lapses as soon as the American company feels there is no hope of getting the 20 million cubic feet of helium necessary as a starter. Although Ickes repeatedly has reiterated his refusal to allow Germany any helium, the American company still holds the contract valid. In fact, technically it can keep it alive until 1942. Since President Roosevelt's second term ends in 1940, a new secretary of the interior with different views may be in office by 1942.

Could Build Zep In U. S.

Under terms of its contract with the German company, the American Zeppelin Transport may lease a Zeppelin; buy one in Germany, or even build one here.

The German company is obligated to supply Zeppelin experts if a ship is to be built here, as well as to train an operating crew for the American vessel regardless of where the U. S. company already has contracted with the German company to lease a German ship at a rental of 1,633,000 Reichmarks (about $650,000) a year. That contract also is valid only "if and when" the American company can get 20 million feet of helium, of which the United States has a virtual monopoly.

There is one unique clause in the contract. It provides that neither company may sign a contract for landing privileges in other countries unless both companies are allowed that privilege. In other words, the American company could not arrange for landing privileges in England or France unless it also obtained that privilege for the German company.

Retirement Fund For Employes Of Griffith Theaters Announced

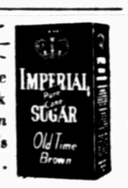

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 28 (AP) —The Griffith Amusement company and affiliated companies announced today a retirement fund had been established for 1,000 male employes in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

The companies operate 200 theaters in 90 cities and towns.

C. O. Fulgham, division manager, said the fund would permit employes to retire at 65 on two-thirds of their salary. Employes may retire after five years of service on about 17 per cent pay.

Toy soldiers, toy revolvers, guns and tanks are to be banned in South Africa.

AUNT JENNY SAYS— TRY MY FRIED PIES, FOLKS— YOU'LL LOVE 'EM! TASTY APRICOT FILLIN' IN A CRISPY, TENDER Spry-CRUST ★ RECIPE BELOW ★

AUNT JENNY'S FRIED PIES

1½ cups thick apricot purée
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup Spry
6 tablespoons cold water (about)

Make a thick purée by rubbing sweetened cooked apricots through a sieve. Add sugar, lemon juice, lemon rind, salt and nutmeg and mix well. Cool.

Sift flour with 1 teaspoon salt. Cut in ½ of Spry until mixture is as fine as meal. Add remaining Spry and continue cutting until particles are size of a navy bean. (Notice how quickly triple-creamed Spry blends with your other ingredients.) Sprinkle water, 1 tablespoon at a time, over mixture. With a fork, work lightly until a dough is formed.

Roll dough ⅛-inch thick and cut into 4-inch squares. Put 1½ tablespoons apricot filling in center of each square. Moisten edges, fold dough over apricot filling, and seal edges with tines of fork. Fry in deep hot Spry (375° F.) about 5 minutes, or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 12.

It's EASY to bake and fry the Spry way
—and foods taste SO much better

"SPRY'S so marvelously creamy it mixes like magic," say cooking experts for 281 home-making schools. No wonder, then, it's so easy to mix a light, velvety cake with Spry—get such deliciously tender, flaky pastry. Foods fried the Spry way are crisper, tastier, so digestible a child can eat them. And everything has such fine, delicate flavor—try Spry!

Texas Industry Averages Paying 59.2 Cents For 40.7 Hours Work

No Industry Below Law

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 28—The University of Texas bureau of business research said today results of a survey showed the average hourly wage for manufacturing industries in Texas was 59.2 cents and hours of work 40.7 a week.

In a report the bureau said no industry canvassed in its regular employment and payroll survey showed average earnings below the 25-cent-an-hour minimum set by law.

Comparatively Small Number

"It is probable however, a comparatively small number of workers may actually receive less than 25 cents and that percentages quoted in the survey would be lowered slightly if industries not canvassed could be taken into aecount," the report said.

It added there may be a considerable number of non-manufacturing establishments which will be required to adjust wage rates upward.

On the basis of industry averages, the bureau concluded approximately 65 per cent of all workers in manufacturing received more than 40 cents an hour and the remaining 35 per cent received between 25 and 40 cents.

Printing Trade Highest

It noted workers in printing and publishing were among the highest paid wage earners, ranging from 56 to 97 an hour.

Petroleum refining, employing about 20,000 persons, averaged 93.9 cents.

Other industries: food products from 29.8 to above 40.

Textile groups, all under 40 but above 25.

Planing mills 48, caskets 46.2, furniture 45.8, saw mills 32.2.

Petroleum Workers High

Crude petroleum production 94.7, carbon black 84.4, paints and varnishes 51.7, other chemicals 50.1.

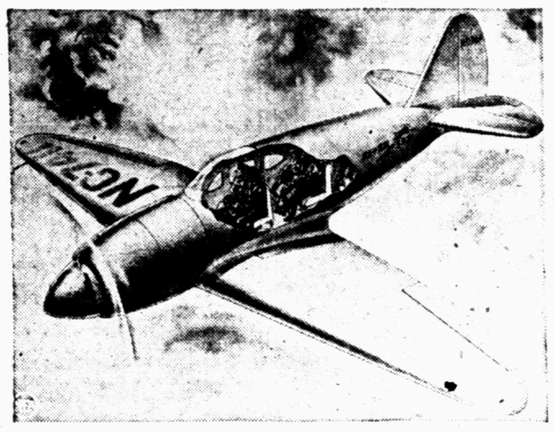

Brick manufacturing 32, cement 58.9.

Foundries and machine-shop products 63.5, structural and ornamental iron 51.

Cotton mills 31.2.

The bureau said there was need for adjustment in hours of work, chiefly among industries which showed these averages: carbonated beverages 48.2, confectioneries 48.1, creameries 46.4, flour milling 50.7, ice manufacturing 57.4, ice cream manufacturing 58.4, meat packing 44.8, saw mills 44.9.

If You're In A Hurry To Get There---

Capable of flying 330 miles per hour, nearly 100 miles faster than other commercial planes in present use, the "Executive," pictured above in cut-away sketch, was recently designed by the Seversky Aircraft Corporation. It is intended to carry four passengers, is powered with a twin-row 1200 horsepower engine and is designed as a full cantilever, low-wing monoplane. Seversky expects it to be an aid to executives needing rapid transportation and a feeder plane for larger airliners.

All But 133 Patients Of 2,378 Discharged Show Improvement

SANATORIUM, Tom Green County, Oct. 28 (AP)—All but 133 of 2,378 patients discharged after treatment of the state tubercular sanatorium in the 1937-38 fiscal year showed physical improvement, Dr. J. B. McKnight, superintendent, said in his annual report.

Patients, from all parts of Texas, treated included 2,384 admitted during the year and 848 in the sanatorium Sept. 1, 1937. Classified, patients admitted were: 1,325 women and girls and 1,059 men and boys. There were 894 patients in the institution at the start of 1938-39 fiscal year, Dr. McKnight's report said.

IF GASOLINE Were Face Cream

Romance in the moonlight... the picture of happy young love... Too bad for us that we can't employ both to woo and win your attention as easily as the face-cream ads.

Too bad for you, too, because you may therefore have missed the money-saving facts about a most remarkable motor fuel—Phillips 66 Poly Gas.

It's different! And you can feel that difference; otherwise sales of Phillips gasolines could not have grown from 393,000 gallons a year to 592,000,000 in ten short years. Car owners did not buy five or ten or a hundred times as much in 1937 as in 1927. They actually purchased 1500 times as much!

Phillips 66 Poly Gas is the outstanding custom-tailored gasoline. Continuous laboratory surveys prove that no other gasoline is so accurately matched to the month-by-month changes in your weather. Hence it protects engine performance against changes in climate. Gives you cooler power in summer. Faster starting in winter. And livelier throttle response, faster acceleration, all year round.

Remember, Phillips 66 Poly Gas is higher test without higher price because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline. Find out what this means in economy and performance by stopping for a trial tankful at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Harvest Motif Is Employed

A week-end of gayety has been planned by various organizations in the city in celebration of the harvest season, Halloween, and carrying out themes of masquerades and ghost parties.

Lubbock Dancing club is to attend a costume dance tonight at 9:30 o'clock at the Hilton hotel. Prizes will be given for the cleverest costumes and masquerade. Ned Bradley's orchestra will play. A grand march will be conducted at midnight.

The Tech Home Economics club will entertain with a Halloween "whoopee" party in the home economics building at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Cider, popcorn balls and doughnuts will be served.

The Colonial Needle club will entertain with a husbands' party at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the home of Mrs. W. V. Lewis, 2420 Twenty-first street. A masked party will be given for the Arnett-Benson club in the home of Mrs. C. O. White, 2612 Locust street.

A Hallowe'en birthday party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Barton of 1402 Avenue L in honor of her 9 year-old son, Clarence, jr. The house was decorated with black cats and other Hallowe'en figures. The birthday cake was decorated in the same motif, and footballs were given as favors. The cake was served with ice cream molded in Hallowe'en figure shapes. The guests played football and bingo.

Attending were Si Hamilton, George Etz, Stewart Stassner, Ewing Rushing, James Pruitt, J. R. Bridges, Francis Elliott and Donald Barton.

Parties given Thursday night included one for the intermediate department at the First Methodist church, given by the superintendent, E. L. Campbell and one given at the First Baptist church after choir practice. The Hallowe'en motif was featured in refreshments at both celebrations, and the Methodist group wore costumes, played games and told fortunes.

Mrs. John Butler's class of the First Presbyterian church is having a costume party at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the primary room.

On Saturday Night

Mrs. L. P. Gilbert will entertain her Sunday school class at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist church. "The old witch" will be there to tell fortunes and games will be played.

Monday night parties include one to be given for the young people's department of the First Baptist training union in the group's regular room in the educational building at 7:30 o'clock, with Miss Clara Pratt in charge, and a party for the First Baptist Winsome class.

The Euzelian class of the First Baptist church is planning a luncheon for Monday noon.

Home room mothers of the various schools are planning special entertainments.

Earlier In Week

Many Halloween parties were given as early as Tuesday night. Mrs. J. R. Weiss' Sunday school class of the First Baptist church was entertained that night in the senior annex. The rooms were decorated in black and orange. Guests went through a "crazy house" and had their fortunes told in a dimly lighted room.

Joy Jackson, Mary Jane Payne, Flora Belle Freeman and Annie Belle Perkins were hostesses. Mesdames Weiss and A. T. Cocanougher, Miss Irene Taylor and 16 members were present.

The same night the First Methodist senior department met in the fellowship hall for games. Eleanor Mitchell and Jacqueline Davis were in charge.

The intermediate union of the College Avenue Baptist church attended a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Edwards, 15 miles north of town, Thursday night. Stories were told, games were played and a sing-song was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Lloyd Ricketts, sponsor, and Mabel Parker, Sue Barfoot, Edith Hunter, Willie Ruth Keech, Betty Jo and Vondle Chambers, Dorothy Richardson, Dorothy Morgan, Elaine Milburn, Frances Graham, Betty Jo King, Wayland Edwards, J. B. Milner, Arthur Ben Luck, Kenneth and James Pharr, Ernest Morgan, Boyd Milburn, Jack McDonald and Glenaree Edwards.

Sports Unit Activities Open To Local Women

Miss Ouida Davis, chairman of the sports unit in the A. A. U. W. recreational group, has announced that the group meets each Tuesday night in the basement of the Myrick building for bowling and second and fourth Wednesday nights at the Senior High school gymnasium for volley ball, table and deck tennis and aerial darts. Any woman interested in the indoor activities is welcome, Miss Davis said. A fee of ten cents is charged for the school sports and it is necessary that one wears tennis or gum-soled shoes.

Entre Se Club Is At Party

Entre Se club members attended a novel bridge party in the home of Mrs. Ernest Ohnemus, 2425 Twenty-second street, Thursday afternoon. Each table was named for a famous bar and partners were found by matching names of drinks written on the tallies.

Refreshments carried out a Halloween motif.

Mrs. Dale Ackers, a guest, made high score and second high went to Mrs. Ohnemus.

Mrs. Arch L. King also was a guest and other members playing were Mesdames Hugh Newton, Robert Cooper, Guy Wheatley, Hubert Wiley, Dwain Rogers, Powell McWhirter, Cliff Widener, Ben Jenkins, and Ray Johnson.

The club will meet November 10 at 3 p.m. with Mrs. McWhirter.

Piano Pupils To Appear In Recital Saturday

A piano recital with performers wearing costumes typical of the Halloween season will be given Saturday afternoon in the home of the teacher, Mrs. John L. Ratliff, 2413 Nineteenth street.

Guests will be Corinne Abney, June Royalty, Connie Wright, Betty Jo and Meredith Smith, Mary Moreman, Brentie Sue Thompson, Anna Jo Pollard, Louise and Julia Ann Leftwich, Sonny Barton, Billy Carroll, Phillip and Carol Land, Ouida Goins, Hermanel Bray, Lorna Faye Lickey and Madaline Fay Goodrich.

Mr. Steele Is Available For Bridge Questions

W. F. (Rufus) Steele, internationally famous bridge authority, who is to conduct classes in Lubbock next week, is a guest at the Hilton hotel and will be available for conferences between now and Monday afternoon, opening session, he said this morning.

The series of 24 lessons will be given twice daily, at 2 and 8 p. m. in the American Legion hall. The Legion and auxiliary and Avalanche-Journal Publications are sponsoring the course. A fee of two dollars will be charged.

Bethenian Class Social Given In Hogan Home

First Baptist Bethenian class members and their husbands attended a party Thursday night in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hogan. They brought a gift shower for the hosts.

Forty-two and Chinese Checkers were played. Punch and dainty rolled pimento sandwiches were served to Messrs. and Mesdames C. O Pendley, Vaughan E. Wilson, Bill McCarty, T. B. Stephens, B. T. McCormick, C. W. Marsh, R. N. Land and W. O. Bearden, Mesdames J. H. Cox, jr., and Ishmael Hill.

B. and P. W. Club Will Be Host At Benefit Dance

Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club, meeting in business session Wednesday night at the Hilton hotel, planned a benefit dance to be given November 18. Mrs. R. E. Wylie will represent the club at a regional conference in Oklahoma City November 10, 11 and 12.

J. H. Hackfield was received as a member.

Miss Lavenia Williams, president, presided. There were 21 members present.

SEALING AND STORING

Seal dill pickles or any dilled vegetable in airtight jars. There should be no spoilage if perfectly sealed and stored in a dry, cool place.

Mrs. Olin May, jr., and son, Olin Douglas, of Van Nuys, Calif., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Olin May and family, 2316 Fourteenth street.

Bridge-Dinner Is For Club

Mrs. J. B. Stevens was hostess with a dinner and bridge party for the Triple Four club Thursday night in the home of Mrs. F. R. Friend, 2005 Broadway.

The entertaining rooms and the dining table were decorated with yellow, wine and white chrysanthemums. The same colors also were reflected in place cards and bridge appointments.

High score in the games was made by Miss Marguerite Whipp.

Others attending were Mesdames K. Carter, jr., and Weston Parris, guests, and Misses Myrtle Ewell, Erma Dene Hefner, Mary Lois Thompson, Mesdames Lucile B. Smith, G. P. Cunningham, J. D. Jenkins and Sherrill Boyd.

Costume Party Is Given At White Residence

Mrs. Grace Wrye White of 1624 Seventh street entertained Thursday night with a costume Halloween party, having as guests members of her expression classes. The children were greeted by a witch who stood on the front porch. Pumpkins, cats and other typical Halloween decorations were used.

Celine Chinn, winner in the preschool group, wore a Japanese costume and Frances Chance, junior winner, was dressed as a pirate.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Gus Niblack.

Guests were Roberta Niblack, Linda Fay Ferguson, Billy Laruth Akers, Peggy Jean Bobo, Frances Chance, Fern and Janice Duncan, Betty Jo Long, Myrian Kelso, Willie Mae Buckner, Mary Lou Christian, Betty Jim Murphy, Celine Chinn, Lynn and Christine White, Maxine McMillan, Erpal Pruett and Mary Jo Lacy and a special guest, Betty Stevens.

W. G. McMillan Will Show Pictures For Group

There will be a meeting of the D. F. D. Alumnae association at 6:45 o'clock tonight in the engineering auditorium at Texas Technological college. W. G. McMillan will show moving pictures including scenes of the D. F. D. girls at a tree planting on the campus and trips he has made.

Patronesses and members of the active club, the sponsor, and any guests the members or patronesses wish to bring are invited to all alumnae association programs, Miss Josephine Powell, president, has announced.

Fifth Monday Social Is Planned By Society

The Central Baptist Women's Missionary society will attend a social at the home of Mrs. J. C. Sledge Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. That the party will be in Halloween motif, as reported Thursday, is erroneous, said Rev. J. D. Welch, pastor, since the church does not observe Halloween.

SPROUTS WITH CHESTNUTS

The safe cooking rule for Brussells sprouts is to boil in salted water until just tender. Overlong cooking spoils color and flavor. For extra special occasions try serving them with cooked chestnuts. Pour a browned butter sauce over the whole.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

Pastel Motif Is Featured

Honoring Miss Pauline Jones, whose marriage to Carl Maxey will take place November 8, Mrs. J. B. Maxey, mother of the bridegroom-elect, and Mesdames Homer and Robert E. Maxey were hostesses with a luncheon Thursday afternoon at the J. B. Maxey home, 2123 Thirteenth street.

A pink and white motif was featured in all decorations. Guests sat at foursome tables decorated with pink and white flowers and white place cards to which were attached with pink ribbons tiny white bells with pink clappers. A large table in the dining room was decorated with large wedding bells, candles and flowers.

Guests were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Paul Jones, and Mesdames W. G. McMillan, M. C. Overton, A. B. Davis, Rosella Rushing, M. F. Brashear, L. C. Tatom, G. P. Kuykendall, Harold Humphries, Thomas J. McWilliams, Paul Graham, A. C. Sanders, jr., George Dale, Curtis Cheney and Misses Gladys Hall, Betty Lee Lindsey, Dorothy Ann York, Kathryn Weaver and Jean Conrad.

The party continued a series of courtesies. A dinner is scheduled for tonight.

Tri-Y Club Meeting For Juniors Is Conducted

Initial meeting of the Tri-Y club of Junior High school was held Wednesday afternoon at the school. The meeting was opened with the reading of a few verses from the Bible by Miss Eula McCorkle, and introduction of these advisory council members: Mrs. R. E. McDonald, Mrs. Homer L. Pharr, Mrs. W. T. Strange, Mrs. J. M. Lewis, and Mrs. J. P. Baisden.

The following sponsors of the club were introduced: Miss Eula McCorkle, Mrs. H. Hughes, Miss Norma Price and Sycily Roberts. After the girls sang the club song, "Follow the Gleam," Miss Roberts gave a short talk, explaining the triangle.

Betty O'Mara, Ida Love Ercanbrach, Evelyn Carpenter, Roberta Ellison and Polly Ann Walker, representing the high school Girl Reserves, discussed various committees of their organization. About seventy-five girls joined the club. A Hallowe'en party to be given from 3 to four o'clock Monday afternoon by the sponsors was announced. Mrs. McDonald gave the benediction.

Benefit Party At Lodge Hall Well Attended

Seventy-five persons attended a benefit bridge and forty-two party given at the I.O.O.F. hall Thursday night by the Rebekah lodge. High in bridge went to Mrs. Wallace Bettes and low to a Mr. Teal; high in forty-two games was made by Edwin Barton and low scores went to F. V. Williams, jr.

Two Entertain Thursday For Needlers Guild

Mesdames Renford Taylor and Arch Harper were hostesses for the 1937 Needle Guild Thursday afternoon at the home of the former, 2621 Twenty-first street.

Mesdames M. D. Beck, Wayne Martin and Dale Calvert were guests Others attending were Mesdames F. E. Shell, R. U. Robinson, H. C. Bruckner, W. B. Abbott, jr., Jack Nelson, Keith Smith and R. B. Walden.

Games were played, high scores being made by Mesdames Shell and Robinson. Refreshments were served.

The club will meet at 3:15 p. m., November 8, with Mrs. Walden, 2407 Eighth street.

Newlyweds Are Honored At Party And Shower

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Barney Stagner, who were married this month, the bride's mother, Mrs. R. C. Travis, and her aunts, Mesdames J. D., R. O. and E. E. Corcorran, entertained Wednesday night at the Travis home, 1903 Twenty-seventh street. Mrs. Quinch Haney assisted.

The house was decorated with autumn flowers. After a series of games, the bride cut a three-tiered wedding cake which was served with hot chocolate and coffee to 50 guests.

A shower of gifts was presented to the couple.

Land Removed From Sale

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 — Land Commissioner W. H. McDonald has withdrawn from sale on Nov. 10 leases on more than 80 tracts of submerged land covering approximately 19,000 acres in six counties. The withdrawal was at the request of Governor James V. Allred, a group of educators and four state senators.

The action came after a committee from the State Teachers association, headed by H. L. Mills, business manager of the Houston schools, conferred with the governor.

McDonald and Senators Vernon Lemens of Rainbow, John Redditt of Lufkin, Morris Roberts of Pettus and A. M. Aikin of Paris, were called to the meeting.

Danger Is Cited

McDonald, saying he thought there was danger of drainage in Petronila creek district where two leases totaling 59 acres had been offered, acreed to call off the sale if the governor would hold a meeting of the board of mineral development to ask for bids on the tract. Allred agreed.

The commissioner said he had no intention of putting up any other lands for leasing during the remainder of his term and was publicly commended by all in attendance, including the governor who had severely criticized McDonald's leasing policies in the past.

The leases which were to have been placed on sale were as follows: Aransas county, 30 tracts, 6,207 acres; Cameron county, 10 tracts, 3,362 acres; Chambers and Galveston counties, nine tracts, 6,731 acres; Harris county, 21 tracts, 1,697 acres; Galveston county alone, nine tracts, 990 acres, and Neuces county, two tracts, 59 acres.

Production Is On Up Trend

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — The Federal Reserve board announced today its index of industrial production rose from 76 in May to 90 in September.

The index, based on 1923-25 as 100, is now at the highest point since October, 1937. The rise from August to September was only 2 points, but the beginning of new model production in the automobile industry and further increases in steel production virtually assure a higher figure for October. The 1937 peak was 118 in April and May.

City May Not Compensate Tax Attorneys On Percentage Basis

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 (AP)—A city may not compensate attorneys they employ to collect delinquent taxes with a percentage of the collections, the supreme court has ruled.

It sustained the appeal of the city of South Houston which had been sued by J. F. Dabney for damages as a result of a contract giving Dabney 25 per cent of taxes, penalties and interest he collected.

One city administration repudiated a contract made by a previous one.

The highest court stated a city might employ an attorney to make collections, but could compensate him only by fees similar to those received by county or district attorneys in collection suits.

DICKENS COURT OPENS

DICKENS — The October term of Dickens county court opens here with Marshall P. Formby, judge, presiding. A number of civil matters have been handled this week and criminal cases are scheduled for next week. L. D. Ratliff, jr., is county attorney.

Only three American flyers (Charles Lindbergh, Wiley Post and Howard Hughes) have ever been awarded the Harmon International Trophy for outstanding achievements.

Queen Yam IV

Popular Miss Ernestine Dedman, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dedman, is reighning over the fourth annual East Texas Yamboree at Gilmer. Miss Dedman is a senior of the Gilmer High school and is a Sweetheart of the school band. She will be crowned Queen Yam IV in the brilliant coronation ceremony climaxing the second day's program of the Yamboree. More than a score of East Texas cities are represented by princesses to Her Majesty's court.

Specimens Found In His Own Backyard

McALLEN, Oct. 28. (AP)—Jason Matthews, photographer and explorer of McAllen who travelled the world during recent years with various archeological expeditions, recently found some archeological specimens in his own back yard.

Workmen excavating the foundations of Matthew's new home here unearthed two human skeletons and a quantity of bone and bead ornaments at a depth of five feet. Both skeletons were in a sitting position but after a few hours in the open air, the bones began to crack and fall apart.

Also found in the hole was a string of circular bone beads resembling armaments found by Matthews in tribal graves in Central and South America.

Matthews and J. W. Minton, an oil geologist, declined to estimate the probable age of the bones and beads pending further examination and study. "They might be 2,000 years old and then again they might be only 200," Matthews told newspapermen.

The discovery recalled several Indian graves previously found south of McAllen in the general vicinity of Matthews' home by W. L. Hart, who has owned property there since 1908. Hart has a collection of beads and arrowheads found on the sloping hill near his home.

Legend is that Indian tribes living along the Rio Grande followed a trail crossing the southeast of the present McAllen townsite enroute to the salt lake in northwestern Hidalgo county to obtain supplies of salt. It is generally believed those who died on the trail were buried nearby and it is these garves which are occasionally found now.

Pipes of the Papuans of New Guinea have long bamboo stems. The native smoker fills the stem with smoke, removes the bowl, closes the end of the stem, and inhales through the nostrils.

Secretary Roper Warns Against Any Premature Price Boosts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—Secretary Roper warned business today against premature price boosts which he said might choke off the recovery movement.

"Prices must be maintained within the reach of willing buyers if activity is to continue to broaden," the commerce chief asserted at his press conference.

Roper said he was particularly encouraged by the more active pace of heavy industries.

As smooth and as good as whipped cream!

ALWAYS a joy to cook! Idaho Russets turn out perfectly time after time—mealy all the way through, glistening white, smooth and tender!

SNOWY WHITE—they look so good! They are good! Richer, fuller flavored! They're filled with the calcium, iron and phosphorus of Idaho's volcanic soils.

SMOOTH AND FLUFFY—a real treat! Yet inexpensive! Actual tests prove Idaho Russets give you more food value for your money than any other comparable staple. Serve them daily. Insist on

Idaho Russet POTATOES

MASHED POTATOES
—Always light, white, fluffy—twice as flavorful when you use Idaho Russets. Best to start in small amount cold, salted water. Cover. Bring rapidly to a boil. Simmer until tender. Never overcook! Drain, dry lightly over heat, mash, then whip to a fluffy lightness with butter and milk.

POTATO CHOWDER
Cut 2 slices salt pork in small pieces, fry crisp. Remove pork, add one sliced Idaho Sweet Spanish onion, cook slowly 5 minutes. Parboil 2 cups diced Idaho Russet potatoes for 5 minutes in boiled salted water. Add potatoes to fat with 2 cups potato water. Cook until tender, add 1 cup cooked corn, 4 cups scalded milk, 3 tablespoons butter, salt and pepper to taste.

Fugitive Held In California

Sam Bratcher's flight from indictment and various complaints ended in a Fresno, Calif., jail, according to a telegram received this morning by Sheriff Tom Abel of Lubbock county.

"Sam Bratcher in custody at Fresno on four counts of forgery. Wanted in several cases in California. Will advise later of dispositions," said the telegram, signed by George J. Overhold, Fresno sheriff.

Drove To Mississippi

Sheriff Abel, seeking to arrest the man on two grand jury indictments charging forgery and passing in Lubbock county, recently drove approximately 1,500 miles to a Mississippi hamlet only to find the suspect had escaped just in time to evade him.

Bratcher, said the sheriff, gave a worthless check for an automobile to a dealer near his residence and, until this morning's telegram, no further information had been obtained as to his whereabouts.

Distributed Bad Checks

Bratcher, who has a lengthy record according to authorities, left Lubbock after distributing several hundred dollars in bad checks, it has been charged.

He is wanted at several other places, said the sheriff's department.

Transfer of the man to Lubbock probably must await several trials in California, possibly in other states.

Dawson Killing Said Solved

clerk, Hubert Watkins, joined in the chase, but arrived too late to assist. Woodroof had been wounded and the hijacker had escaped.

Woodroof was rushed to Loveless hospital at Lamesa and died early the next morning. The slug had entered his left chest near the heart and ranged downward. He underwent emergency surgery and was given blood transfusions, but all were futile.

Search Was Made

Sheriff Gus White of Dawson county immediately organized a posse to search for the killer, but no suspects were arrested for several months. Descriptions of the man were broadcast from Lubbock to all officers of this area.

Since that time Smith, Texas rangers, officers of the Dawson county sheriff's department, Lubbock officials and numerous other investigators have worked on the case.

A. N. Randale, deputy sheriff, recently swore to complaints against Sutton, and subsequently chargers named D. C. and W. P. Brown, brothers-in-law of Sutton. The Brown men, in the state penitentiary, have not been questioned, but it was indicated they would be if necessary.

Transferred Here Thursday

Sutton was transferred here Thursday by Sheriff Abel and Mills. Smith will come to Lubbock this afternoon to continue investigations, he announced by telephone from Tahoka this morning.

Officers, through witnesses, have traced Sutton's movements on the night of the hijacking.

In sworn statements to Smith, it was alleged Sutton and his brothers-in-law had gone to the home of a friend after the shooting and asked the friend if he would take him (Sutton) out of town. The friend had heard of the shooting and mentioned it to Sutton.

Quoted In Sworn Statement

"By golly, I had to do it, boy," Sutton was quoted as saying in a sworn statement. He was quoted again as saying, "But I had to do it and I never would have done it if he had not made me."

The friend refused to take Sutton out of town. Sutton and his brothers-in-law remained at the place about 30 minutes, one of them on the outside, it was said.

Left Next Morning

The next morning the three suspects were believed to have left Lamesa in a pickup car with a trailer. Sutton said they were "going to do a little crousing around."

Sutton, his brothers-in-law and parents-in-law were living in tents in Lamesa and one of the Brown men had been injured in a gang fight with Mexicans, according to witnesses.

It was indicated officially Sutton would be questioned in at least one other investigation.

Officers are continuing investigations of two other unsolved murder cases in this area.

Cotton Bagging And Ties Are Used On Ropesville Cotton

Approximately 300 bales of cotton from Ropesville, wrapped in cotton bagging and ties instead of the proverbial jute bagging, have been shipped from that town to Brownfield and Lubbock compresses, to be placed in the government loan, Ray Baxter, manager of the Ropesville community project, said this morning.

As far as is known, this is the first large shipment of cotton in the new type of bagging from this area, Baxter.

Shipped From Project

One hundred of the bales were cotton from the Ropesville project; the others were from farmers who had ginned cotton at the cooperative gin there.

Baxter said he expected farmers on the project to ship about 200 more bales in the new type of bagging. The project will probably gather 400 bales this year.

"Cotton bagging and tie patterns may be had through only cooperative gins, I understand," Baxter said. "The ginners told me they were having many requests from farmers for cotton patterns. After having seen bales wrapped that way, farmers seem to prefer it.

Difference In Cost

"The compress men tell me it ships and compresses as well in cotton bagging as in jute bagging. There is a difference of about 40 cents in favor of the cotton bagging."

Ginners were surprised at the way the bagging turned out, said Baxter.

Most of the cotton on the project is averaging an inch in staple length, said Baxter. Good seed has always been used there. The length is from 13-16 inch to 1 and 1-32 inch staple.

Loans are averaging 8 1-2 cents a pound. Grades are very good.

A bale, wrapped in cotton bagging, is on exhibit this week at the Hockley County Jamboree and fair in Levelland. It has attracted wide attention, Baxter said. He saw the bale Thursday afternoon and said he noticed many farmers looking at it.

Hockley County Jamboree's First Day Is Gala Affair

(By Staff Correspondent)

LEVELLAND, Oct. 28 — With a record attendance for opening day of the second annual Hockley county jamboree and fair, today was expected to see even a larger crowd. Continuation of fair weather, said D. W. Sherrill, county agent, indicated better attendance Friday.

Judging of horses and mules by H. B. Horn, Yoakum county agent, was to begin at 10 o'clock this morning, with judging of swine in the afternoon, by Horn.

Many farmers were bringing in their work stock for the fair, Sherrill said he believed the number and quality would surprise those who watched the judging. Even more farmers are expected to watch Horn as he calls the winners.

Good Crowds Attend

Good crowds attended the fair Thursday night. The greyhound and rabbit races drew many, as did the carnival, which has been here all week. Both the agricultural and women's buildings were crowded during the night.

Between 300 and 350 exhibits by women and girls were judged yesterday in the women's buildings by Mrs. Ruth Perry, Lamb county agent. Mrs. Perry told Miss Hazel Phipps, home demonstration agent here that "Hockley county women and girls have a very good fair." She said the quality of exhibits of all kinds was "excellent."

On Display Until Saturday

Entries are to be on display until after 4 o'clock Saturday.

The fairgrounds are located south of the court house and a block east. They are north of the high school football stadium and there is plenty of space for parking of cars and for crowds to watch the judging.

Fair officials are enthusiastic over the receipts so far. They believe that if crowds continue, the association will be able to add considerably to the premium list next year and to improvements.

Rodeo events were held during the afternoon with Pete Daniels in charge. They are to be daily events during the three-day affair.

Each night there will be greyhound races, with W. J. Robertson in charge. There are said to be over 200 dogs from Texas and other states. Towns represented in the list include Amarillo, Plainview, Ennis, Fort Worth, El Paso, Levelland, Abernathy and nearby towns. Some dogs also were here from Ohio, it was said.

Displays Are Judged

Don L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock state experiment substation and Frank Gaines, horticulturalist there, judged the displays of farm products, both individual and community. After several hours of careful checking they announced community booths ranked: Anton first; Ropesville second; Smyer third; Cobleland fourth and Sundown fifth. They received $15, $10, $7.50, $5 and $2.50 respectively.

"Exhibits were much better this year than last," Jones said. "The cotton was excellent. Grain sorghums were mighty good and the whole display a very excellent one."

Other towns participating included Whitharral, Center, Pettit, Hodges and Levelland.

Turner Judges Livestock

Don F. Turner, Amherst, Lamb county agent, judged livestock. He was assisted by Walter Coulson, Farm Security administration assistant here, and a Texas Technological college graduate.

Thirteen 4-H club and two vocational agriculture boys exhibited calves. The calves were young, most of them having been on feed for a short time and while not large, were of excellent quality.

Winners were announced by D. W. Sherrill, county agent and show head, as follows: club calves, Verner Keesee, Ropesville, V. A. boy, first; Garmon Walden, Levelland, club boy, second and third; Jersey cow, T. A. Howell, first; L. L. Green, second; S. L. Jenkins, third; Jersey bull over 2 years, H. L. Fitzgerald, first; J. E. Alexander, Center, second; A. C. Fox, third; Jersey heifer, under 2, Green, first; M. J. Green, second; F. A. Legat, third; bulls under 2, Herman Heck, first; L. R. Taylor, second.

Shorthorn cow, A. N. Riley, first; O. M. Bynum, second; R. C. Keen, third; bulls over 2, A. D. Newman, first; W. L. Beaty, second; heifer under 2, Newman, first, third; R. M. Warren, second; bulls under 2, Edgar Warren, first; T. M. Johnson, second; R. M. Warren, third.

Sheep Judging Results

In sheep judging today the following results were announced: ewes, Pat Murphy, first; V. A. Wright, second; Pat Murphy, third; bucks, W. B. Smith, first; Joe McGaha, second; Ollie Warren, third; weathers, Joe McGaha, first, only award made; lambs, G. W. Nettles, first; Fred Sharbutt, second; Vaughn Reding, third.

In the agricultural building the Whitharral vocational agriculture department had an exhibit showing contouring and strip cropping methods. C. B. Bentley is the teacher. The Anton V. A. department had a display showing stacking of grain sorghums vs. the trench solo. B. C. Drinkard is the teacher.

County Agent Sherrill had a display of two kinds of bale cotton wrapping, the familiar jute bagging and cotton. The latter attracted wide attention. He also showed samples of poor and good cotton and the difference between bollies and long staple. Many farmers closely inspected the booth.

The Farm Security administration had a booth showing a farm home and how to plan a home and farm program. R. L. Burdette, Lubbock V. A. teacher had a display on "Some Problems of Texas Farmers."

In the women's building Miss Hazel Phipps, home demonstration agent, was in charge. Mrs. Ruth Perry, Amherst, Lamb county demonstration agent, judged exhibits.

There were 12 educational displays by the following home demonstration clubs: Claulene, Ropes, Southwest, Smyer, Hodges, Center, Anton, Fair Home, Sundown, Heart of County, Whitharral and the home demonstration council.

Miss Anna Ericson, county health nurse, had a display of her work and the W. P. A. sewing room, with Mrs. Mathis as supervisor, a display of dresses and aprons. The Whitharral home economics department, Mrs. Lillie Daughtry, teacher and Levelland, Mrs. Emma Hastings, teacher, also had displays.

One display that attracted wide attention was a home made mattress, made by farm women of the county. Another was a baby's crib, made by cutting out part of a steel oil barrel.

Engineers Session

Third paper represented was "Soil Conservation on Highways," by Carl F. Izzard of Austin, assistant highway engineer of the United States bureau of public roads.

At 1 o'clock today, the engineers had luncheon at the Lubbock hotel and their wives attended a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock in the Chimayo room of Hilton hotel. Approximately 30 wives had been registered as guests before noon today.

Murdough General Chairman

J. H. Murdough, head professor of civil engineering at Texas Technological college, is general chairman of the local arrangements committee. Mrs. Smith, wife of the Lubbock city engineer, is the chairman of the women's arrangement committee.

Dean O. V. Adams and several members of the engineering staff at Texas Tech are attending the meeting.

Today's program will be climaxed by a dinner dance at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Lubbock hotel ballroom, to be attended by the civil engineers and their guests.

This afternoon's program follows: 2:30 p. m., "The Occurrence of Ground Water on the High Plains of Texas", Winfield Holbrook, vice president and general manager of the Texas Land and Development company, Plainview.

3:15 p. m., "The Conchas Dam, A Movie Talk", Hans Kramer, captain, corps of engineers, district engineer, Conchas dam, New Mexico.

4:15 p. m., inspection, Tech campus.

Visiting women were to go on a bus tour of Lubbock at 2:30 o'clock, and will inspect the campus at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Smith is chairman of the arrangements committee for women's activities.

A business session will be conducted at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Lubbock hotel, and a barbecue at 12 noon in the stock judging pavilion at the college, through courtesy of the West Texas Gas company and Texas-New Mexico Utilities company.

pan which paid with beans. A New York oil man, W. R. Davis, was reported to have agreed to peddle 10,000,000 barrels in the United States and Europe, partly for cash and partly for credits in Germany.

The government statement said the sale to Italy proved "Mexican petroleum is regaining world markets with great success." A spokesman added the Italian firm presumably had or could get tankers for transporting the purchase.

Indicted

Stanley Miller (above), assistant United States district attorney at Albuquerque, N. M., and son-in-law of U. S. Sen. Dennis Chavez, was charged with conspiracy to defraud the government for political purposes by a federal grand jury which indicted 62 persons.

found that an optimum diet would protect both the mother mouse and her children to a high degree, even to the third and fourth generations if the diet was continued, he reported. "The protection thus afforded lasted at least until maturity was reached in all the experiments, and progressive improvement took place for at least three generations on the same diet," Dr. Church said, adding that "the influence of diet upon resistance may thus be on a par with the influence of heredity."

The inclusion of mineral salts in the diet is apparently just as important as including vitamins, he added.

Cutting down the amount of vitamins A and D and fat, considered heretofore as the principal factors in disease resistance, did not produce the same results, indicating that the mineral salts are just as important, or more important; than the vitamins, Dr. Church said.

Representatives of the organization's 6,000 members agreed without a dissenting vote to give every assistance to federal and state authorities and the American Medical association in putting into effect a medical plan which will eventually call for the expenditure of $850,000,000 in tax funds, half of which would be provided by the federal government and the other half by state and local governments.

Hungary also adhered to the original demand that plebiscites be conducted in autonomous Slovakia and Ruthenia, but it was understood the government felt the request necessary to satisfy Hungarians.

Reports from the Czech-Hungarian border, meanwhile, said residents of Komarno, directly across the Danube in Czechoslovakia, were awaiting tensely the next move in the quarrel.

300 miles an hour for its Messerschmitt, but reports here are that it was stripped for racing. Although Britain's spitfire exceeded 400 miles an hour, it was aided by a 75 mile tailwind, American officials contended.

Satisfied At Performance

Officials took particular satisfaction in the performance of the American plane because high powered bombers, both here and abroad, have been threatening to outspeed the pursuit ships, whose primary function is to intercept the bombers.

The army also has ordered a squadron of fighting planes of another type, the bell "Airacuda," which has two motors, propellers in the rear, six guns, including two aircraft cannon and a crew of five.

It speed has not been announced, but the war department said it was believed sufficient to overhaul and vanquish any modern bomber now in production.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28 (AP) — Except for slight declines in distant positions cotton futures showed little net change today at the opening here.

Initial transactions were unchanged to 3 points net lower with Dec. at 8.61, Jan. 8.50 bid, March at 8.40, May 8.31, July 8.15, Oct. 7.91, and Dec. (new) at 7.92 bid.

Towards mid-session Dec. sold at 8.60, March 8.40, May 8.32, July 8.15, and Oct. at 7.90, or 2 points higher to 4 points lower, compared with the previous close.

Sales yesterday were 20,800 bales and open commitments 450,000 bales, an increase of 2,400 bales over the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP) — Cotton futures opened unchanged to 2 points decline with lower Liverpool cables partly offset by trade and local buying. Dec. 8.48; Jan. 8.37; March 8.37; May 8.20; July 8.07; Oct. 7.82.

Late in the first hour the list was net unchanged to 2 points lower. Dec. eased from 8.48 to 8.46.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—Railway stocks held the buying play almost exclusively in today's market as recent industrial leaders were shoved to lower levels by shifting profit takers.

Utilities and electrical equipments were in the advancing limelight for a while, following announcement from Washington of a huge expansion program. These stocks, though, quickly lost vitality.

In dealings that approximated 1,600,000 shares for the day, steels, motors, rubbers, aircrafts, oils and specialties found the going a bit too rough for comfort, and, with offerings stepping up at the close, losses of fractions to around 2 points predominated.

Rail loans were the principal upward movers in the bond division. Commodities were uneven.

Encephalomylitis Is Reported Attacking East Texas Horses

TYLER, Oct. 28 (AP)—Encephalomylitis, a type of sleeping sickness which attacks horses, is reported prevalent in East Texas.

Believed to have been transmitted from West Texas by horse flies and mosquitoes of the malaria species. More than 35 horses have died of the malady in recent weeks in Smith county.

Other counties in East Texas which have been affected include Anderson where a scheduled horse show at Palestine was cancelled, Van Zandt, Cherokee, Wood and Henderson county.

More than 10,000 horses died of sleeping sickness last year in the midwestern corn states, veterinarians here asid.

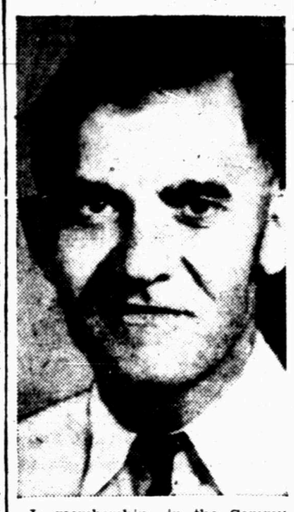

First symptoms appear when a horse is unable to hold up its head and staggers aimlessly. Other symptoms are paprlytic in form. Death usually comes when the beast falls in a stupor.

CALGARY, Alta., (AP) — When Fred Leser received an old hand-carved chess set from the estate of his mother in Germany five years ago he valued it merely for sentimental reasons.

Bryant Favors Death Penalty

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Bruce W. Bryant, chairman of the board of pardons and paroles, today asserted capital punishment was the "greatest deterrent there is against major crime."

His views, concurred in by T. C. Andrews, also a pardons board member, were at variance with those expressed yesterday by Governor-Nominate W. Lee O'Daniel who said at San Antonio he may ask the legislature to abolish the extreme penalty.

Only Punishment Feared

"It's a well known fact that the death penalty is the only punishment that is really feared by criminals of the gangster type," Bryant said.

He asserted execution of criminals was a safeguard against mob rule and lynching because the people generally had confidence in the law.

Not Abolish It In Effect

"You can abolish it by statute but you will not abolish it in effect in Texas or in the South," Bryant said.

"So long as fiends violate the women of Texas you will have capital punishment regardless of what's in the law."

He cited the execution of two East Texas negroes, convicted of raping a woman and robbing her husband on a lonely road. He expressed the opinion citizens, confident the law would deal fairly with the accused men, let justice take its natural course. Had there been no capital punishment in Texas law, there probably would have been a different ending to the case, he said.

"I have lived in Texas some 60 years and I know the temperament of the people," the official said.

He also attacked efforts to pass anti-lynching laws in congress, asserting the movement was designed merely as a club to hold over the head of Southern senators.

Pick-Up In Financing For Smaller Corporations Seen By Banker

Changes For Better Seen

(By The Associated Press)

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 28 — An official of the Investment Bankers Association of American today predicted investment houses would soon be actively raising capital for smaller corporations, after a well-known industrialist had appealed to the bankers to "forget about the New Deal" and get busy.

James J. Minot, jr., of Boston, vice president of the association, said in an interview that changes earlier this year in federal tax laws offered private investment capital greater incentive than it has had for several years. He added:

Response To Be Prompt

"A pickup in inquiries for new money is reported by many of the association's members and business will find the investing public's response to its capital needs will be prompt."

Minot's remarks were prompted by an address before the bankers convention by F. C. Crawford, Cleveland industrialist, who exhorted them to "forget criticism; go back to your workshops; invent ways to keep the flow of capital to industry, if laws hinder, get them changed; forget your old methods."

Crawford, president of Thompson Products, Inc., said only vigorous action of bankers and industrialists to promote recovery would turn America away from "left" tendencies in government of which financial and business leaders have been complaining.

Work Is Continuing On Highway In Mexico As Result Of Loan

EAGLE PASS, Oct. 28. (AP) — As the result of a loan of 125,000 pesos by merchants of Piedras Negras, Mexican city opposite Eagle Pass, to the treasury of the state of Coahuila, work on the new Piedras Negras-Saltillo paved highway is continuing. Nearly 500 men are employed.

The loan was raised after Gov. Pedro V. Rodriquez Triana said work on the road might be delayed because the state lacked funds to meet the federal government's 250,000 pesos monthly appropriation.

Ten miles of the road has been graded southward from the border city and a large concrete and steel bridge spanning the Escondido river, three miles west of Piedras Negras, is being erected.

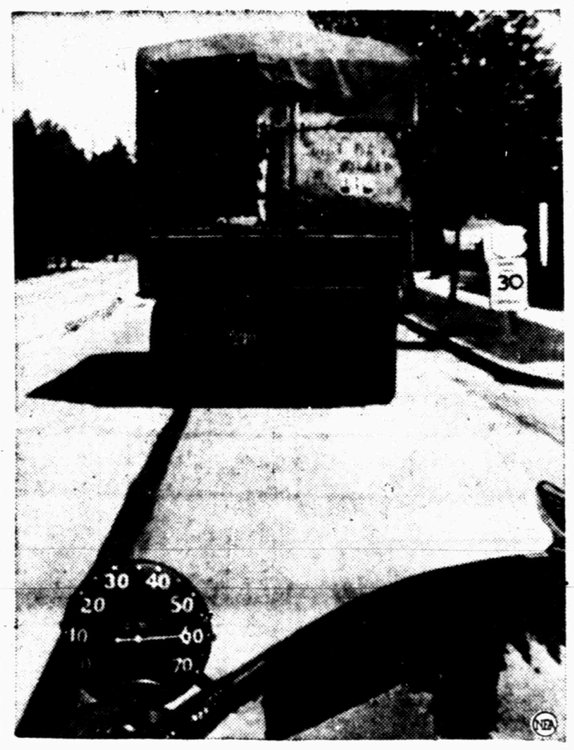

The new thoroughfare will be the first paved through the picturesque, potentially rich but little known state of Coachuila. Its 300-mile length will traverse mountain and streams, and reach villages where life and customs are little changed from 200 years ago.

Construction Work Is Begun On New Gillespie Courthouse

FREDERICKSBURG, Oct. 28. (AP)—Construction work has begun on Gillespie county's new $145,000, four-story courthouse, financed by a county bond issue and a PWA grant. When completed the building will replace one of the county's structures that has served 56 years as a courthouse.

Although circuses gave fewer performances in Denmark last season they paid the Government more in taxes than ever before.

Camera Catches Speeders In The Act

No matter how hard he argues, the driver of the truck in the above picture won't convince a judge he wasn't traveling 60 miles an hour on a 30-mile speed limit highway. A camera on the windshield of the car following the truck photographed simultaneously the truck, a speedometer (registering 60 miles an hour) attached to the left front fender of the trailing auto, and the 30-mile speed limit sign. It's a new device in the war on speeders exhibited at the National Safety Council Congress in Chicago.

Nine Additional Motions Are Filed In New Mexico Charges

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 28 (AP)—Motions were filed in federal court today for nine additional defendants in the New Mexico WPA code violation cases, asking permission to examine testimony presented the grand jury or the right to interview the grand jurors as the evidence heard.

Thirty of 62 persons indicted last Thursday on charges of political conspiracy filed a similar motion yesterday. Those filing today included Fred G. Healy, ousted by Relief Director Harry Hopkins as New Mexico WPA administrator during the grand jury's investigations.

Attorneys for others of a total of 73 defendants said they had until November 5 to file motions for demurrers.

Masons To Gather In Slaton Saturday

SLATON, Oct. 28 — Approximately 300 representatives from most of the 40 lodges in the 20 counties of this zone are expected to attend a meeting to be conducted at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night in the Slaton Masonic lodge hall.

Judge Berry B. Cobb of Dallas, Masonic historian, will attend. Yellowhouse lodge of Lubbock indicated approximately 50 members would be here. H. L. Willeford of Lubbock, district deputy of the 93rd Masonic district, will direct arrangements.

The zone meeting is conducted annually under direction of the committee and service of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

CLOCK STOPS TICKING

CROCKETT, Oct. 28 (AP) — The old town clock, which has faithfully struck the hour for 54 years, stopped ticking this week as workmen took it down from the courthouse, which is being dismantled in favor of a new building.

* * *

The Plainview Bulldogs, current leaders of the District 1 high school football race with two league victories under their muzzles, bear down on the Lubbock Westerners tonight with their true bulldog ferocity.

The Westerners and the Bulldogs are to stage a pitched battle on the Texas Tech stadium turf, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, and when it's over the District 1 favorite will be known.

Plainview bobs up this year with a team calculated to make it tough on all opponents, including the Lubbock Westerners. Under Coach Vernon Hilliard, former Baylor athlete, who brought honor to Tivy High of Kerrville before coming to Plainview, the Bulldogs have made rapid progress.

Both Teams Unbeaten

No longer is Plainview to be considered one of the "weak sisters" of District 1. According to this season's records, the Bulldogs rate practically as high as any team of the league.

Lubbock and Plainview, undefeated and untied in District 1 competition so far, therefore bring to Lubbock and Plainview fans tonight a football feature. It is considered a state feature, since the winner of tonight's game will be battling it out with either Amarillo or Pampa for the circuit's pennant.

Plainview has won five games, lost one so far. Lubbock has won four and lost one.

The Bulldogs defeated Kerrville, 7-6; Bowie of El Paso, 26-0; Lamesa, 24-7 (conference game); Clovis, N. M., 60-0, and lost to Hollis, Okla., in an upset, 6-7.

Lubbock opened with a 7-6 victory over North Side of Fort Worth, and since has defeated Abilene, 14-0, and Borger 67-13 (conference game) while losing to Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City, 13-14.

Only basis of comparison lies in the games with Borger. Whereas Plainview won, 24-7, the Westerners ran roughshod last week for 67 points, holding the Borgers to two touchdowns and an extra point.

Webster Under Fire

The Westerner hopes are pinned largely on Captain Walter "Jumbo" Webster, a power in high school football if there ever was one. He will be supported in the backfield by Leete Jackson, Harold Parsons and Howard Alford, a trio of hustling, trying ball carriers, punters, passers and blockers who know their way around. In the line, Wayne Pipes at center, Joe Pytell at one guard and Jerry Nash at a tackle are considered outstanding, but without the help of Earnest Winter and Clifton Hill, ends; Pat Farris, tackle, and Lloyd Sanders, guard, and of Joe Bob Foster, who may start at end and who is certain to see service there, the Westerners will not go far.

Plainview's 145-pounders, Ray Schneider, Winston Barry and W. A. Graham, plus the help of 160-pound Douglas Coker, fullback, give the Bulldogs a potent backfield, fast, tricky and with ability to punt, pass and run.

Heaviest Bulldog lineman is 180-pound Clay Johnson at left tackle, and from all reports the lad is a powerhouse on legs. Center Miller Needham is another Bulldog star to bear watching. He weighs 170, and gets the job done.

The Plainview club, supported by a chorus of a thousand or so rabid rooters from the home town, will be fired up to the gills for this contest, and there's no telling what will happen out at Tech Stadium this night.

District One's Battles Are Standouts

(By The Associated Press)

Forty-seven games were scheduled today and tomorrow for Texas schoolboy football fans with battles in the Panhandle and North Texas holding the spotlight.

In conference tilts played last night, Masonic Home remained unbeaten in the Fort Worth district with a 15-0 victory over Fort Worth Tech and John Reagan stayed in the thick of the Houston district race with a 19-0 win over Sam Houston.

Brownwood defeated Mineral Wells 19-0 in the eastern division of the Oil Belt where both have already been practically eliminated from title consideration.

Bowie (El Paso) bowed to Mesa, Ariz., 19-0, in an intersectional game.

Sherman and Denison meet tonight in an important game in district 5 while Lubbock is clashing with Plainview in a Panhandle headliner. Tomorrow Amarillo meets Pampa in the standout of the week. Lubbock, Plainview, Amarillo and Pampa are all undefeated in conference play.

Cotton Bowl Game Under New Set-Up

DALLAS, Oct. 28. (AP)—An organization to promote a post-season football classic each year to compare favorably with the Rose bowl and Sugar bowl games launched plans today for the initial feature under the new set-up—the Cotton bowl classics Jan. 2.

The Cotton Bowl Athletic association was organized at a meeting here yesterday at which representatives of six Southwest conference schools agreed to attempt to induce their institutions to accept bids to the game in preference to any others that might be received. Texas A. and M.'s representative would not pledge himself.

J. Curtis Sanford, East Texas oilman who staged the first two Cotton Bowl games alone, was elected director general. Dan D. Rodgers of Dallas was named president of the association.

An executive committee will meet shortly to work out further details concerning the first game under the new organization.

A Thirty-Year Rivalry

By Collier Parris

THE OLDEST FOOTBALL rivalry on the Texas South Plains reaches another milestone tonight when the Lubbock Westerners cavort against the Plainview Bulldogs at Texas Tech Stadium.

If any extant schools or institutions have played each other since 1909, every season, we'd be glad to hear about it.

That was the year Lubbock and Plainview started playing football.

● ● ●

The schools of Lubbock and Plainview matched a football game in 1909. John Jarrott, now a popular realtor, was captain of the Lubbock team, which was just about the first Lubbock football team. Against Plainview, Jarrott ran for a touchdown. It was the only touchdown of the game, and the Westerners won, 6 to 0.

John Vickers, who has since been a judge and who is now a well known attorney, was coach of that team, the team that won its first game—and several more later.

● ● ●

Probably the greatest football "believe it or not" ever fashioned by high school football teams came in the Lubbock-Plainview rivalry of 1917 and 1918. The Westerners mauled the Bulldogs, 54 to 0 in 1917. The Bulldogs mauled the Westerners, 54 to 0, in 1918, completely reversing the score. If any other two teams have experienced such a reversal, we'd like to hear about it.

● ● ●

E. J. Pinkey Lowrey, who knows more Westerner lore than any person we've met in Lubbock, provides the information above. He asks, however, that we leave his name out of the "legend" regarding the 1918 Lubbock-Plainview game. The story that die-hard Lubbock fans like to tell is that every football player on the Lubbock High team entered the "service" in 1917, after the football season, and went to war with guns instead of cleats—and that the Plainview boys, probably too young to go to war, stayed home intact and whipped the daylights out of the Lubbock team in 1918.

Now that's just the story we hear; we wave the white flag before any irate Plainview fans who might show up tonight to question our authority for the yarn.

● ● ●

BUT NOW COMES 1938, and another Lubbock-Plainview game.

For several years in recent gridiron history, the Westerners have held the edge over Plainview. The Bulldogs have won a game or two recently, to be sure, but the cycle has favored Lubbock over a period of years.

Now Plainview is up in the running again. The cycle has been completed, and it now favors Plainview. At least, the Bulldogs are stronger than they have been in years.

● ● ●

The Westerners can not afford to take tonight's game lightly. They are as likely to get beat as they are to defeat Plainview.

The Bulldogs are coming here, not only with their natural power, but with heated-up ambitions to take the Westerners for a ride. They may do it. So it behooves the Westerners, who have played great football in their last two games, to be on their toes, looking for anything, and fighting hard.

This game, we figure, is one of the very most important District 1 clashes of District 1. The winner has a swell chance to take the title.

● ● ●

THERE ARE OTHER games of interest on the grid log for the weekend, and of these we shall concern ourselves later.

Just now this corner would like to say "Thanks" in a big way to the good citizens who helped make a big welcome for the visiting St. Mary's Gaels last night.

It was something a bit out of the ordinary to have a big league team like the Gaels here for a workout, although, personally, the Texas Tech Red Raiders have been known to put on snappier workouts, and it was nice for the people to meet them at the train and watch them at the stadium.

● ● ●

Yesterday, of all days, had to have its little spurt of dust, and the touring Californians, having read, no doubt, of the West Texas sandstorms thought they were in a real one.

But so nice were they treated by the local welcoming committee they soon forgot about the slight haze, which is nothing in comparison with California's fog, and admitted they had a swell two hours in Lubbock. We know, because we questioned some of them, and heard voluntary statements from others, before the train pulled out.

● ● ●

It was nice, too, having half a dozen sports editors and writers from San Francisco and Oakland in our midst. They left here with a liking for Lubbock in their minds. Some we'd met before, here and in 'Frisco. Prescott Sullivan, football expert for the San Francisco Examiner, was with the Gaels two years ago when they came through Lubbock, and he felt "at home" last night. Pat Frayne, sports editor of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin; Bud Tehaney, football writer for the Post-Enquirer of Oakland; Art Cohn, sports editor of the Oakland Tribune, and the Rosenbaum brothers, Art of the Chronicle and Jack of the News, both of San Francisco, were other gents of the press with the club.

● ● ●

The scribes were still talking about the record "punt" made by Jerry Doud, who regularly plays center for the Gaels, in Wednesday's workout. The Gaels worked out on a mesa near the Grand Canyon. Dowd's kick bounded over the edge and into that crevice. The ball was a good 60-yards through the air, ON TOP, and since it was more than 5,000 feet to the botton of the canyon, the kick traveled well over a mile, bouncing and jouncing through the air—and after it hit the river, "no telling how far it went."

Anyway, the boys were willing to concede it was a new high for punts, at least so far as distance is concerned.

● ● ●

Time now to get out on that well-worn limb and try to uphold the .870 average for the season. You'll note one or two screwy selections, no doubt, but pass them up as boners or as the old college try for an upset.

Sports Roundup

BY SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Is it the McCoy that Dana Bible sewed up 99 players (or thereabouts) for future U. of Texas use by using 'em in the first Longhorn freshman game this fall? . . . Seems there's a Southwest conference rule that if a frosh plays even one minute for one school down there, he can't be accepted by another, so Dana (according to the story) just wanted insurance . . . And it's a neat trick, even if he didn't do it . . . Tony Canzoneri wasn't any too fast in outpointing Howie Scott in Jersey City the other night . . . But insists that'll all be fixed with another half-dozen starts under his belt . . . Frank Milani, touted by scouts as a successor to Lou Gehrig in the not-too-distant future, takes the first step up the Yankees' farm chain next year, moving from Wenatchee (Wash.) to the class "A" Binghamton club . . . Maurice Strickland, the New Zealand heavy, sails from London tomorrow to try for a crack at Joe Louis here . . .

Marquette overlooked a bet when it let Vern Miller, 230-pound tackle from Milwaukee, escape to Harvard . . . He's going great for the classy Crimson frosh . . . It's costing Al Jolson's radio show ten grand to move to New York for next week's broadcast, so that the mammy man can take in the Armstrong-Garcia welterweight party . . . Incidentally, Garcia hit one Seaborn Ashley a sparmate, with his pet bolo punch yesterday and knocked him clean out of the ring . . . Have the Big Ten's football officials taken to wearing striped jackets for self-preservation? . . . Seems too many teams were turning up with white sweaters, and 'twas getting so bad the boys were taking body blocks and tackles out of the refs and umps.

We pick (but won't bet on it) Texas Christian to settle the Southwest fuss by belting Baylor . . . wanta special? . . . Well, how's for underdog Arkansas to pass Texas A. & M. slightly dizzy.

T.C.U. Favored To Take Bears On Saturday

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Only unbeaten survivors of the Southwest, Texas Christian and Baylor tomorrow drop their futures in the magic hands of two forward passers who thrive on pressure.

Not since the historic "Rose Bowl Invitation" game T. C. U. and Southern Methodist put on in '35 has Fort Worth readied for such a dogfight—the duel between Davey O'Brien and Bill Patterson.

O'Brien Shades Patterson

O'Brien, with his 782 yards and ten touchdowns gained via the air, shades Patterson in statistics only. Patterson is the payoff man at Baylor, both with hand and foot. His arm takes care of the scores; his spindly right leg that has averaged 41 yards on 33 kicks keeps the enemy off balance.

AIM TO END HORSE PLAY

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28 (AP) — Action aimed at ending the horse play that has resulted in annual forays by Texas Christian university and Baylor university students prior to the football game between the two institutions was taken today by the student government committee at TCU.

The committee considering the cases of nine TCU freshmen who recently invaded Baylor campus at Waco forbade them attending the Frog-Bear game here Saturday and recommended suspension for remainder of the semester. The suspension was softened by placing the nine erring freshmen on probation for the rest of the semester.

The action followed recent visitation on the Baylor campus by the TCU yearlings, three of whom were caught and decorated with shaved pates daubed with green paint. While the shaving was in progress however, the other six decorated the Baylor campus with signs reading "Yea, Frogs." A Baylor frosh retaliated in Fort Worth the next night."

But behind O'Brien and his aerial legerdemain are two important factors that made T. C. U. the favorite—a crushing running game and a defensive barricade no team has been able to effectively penetrate. John Hall, Earl Clark and Big Connie Sparks, the ramming sophomore fullback, take longer to get there but do almost as much damage as O'Brien's passes. And the little fellow himself is a respected runner.

Baylor Has No Reserves

After Patterson, Baylor has only a fair running game and a barrel of courage. Where Texas Christian can feed excellent line reserves to tiring first stringers, Baylor must goad its first stringers to keep going.

The Christians, one of the most versatile and potent teams in conference history, prepared for the game in top physical condition. Baylor had its first and second string centers ailing; the entire line bruised from the Texas Aggies battering of a week ago.

No Repeating Last Year

Its Texas Christian from any angle; by two touchdowns, at least, on dry ground. No such happening as the '37 game, when T. C. U. shoved Baylor around and lost, 0-7, will occur this time.

Still vulnerable to forward passing, the Texas Aggies, on their College Station field, meet the Arkansas Razorbacks, a giant machine that has fired 154 times through the air in five games. But the Aggies have unloaded a fresh shipment of yardage themselves in a powerhouse ground attack featuring John Kimbrough, a rumbling son of West Texas who cut Baylor's line to shreds last week. So damaging is this 210-pounder's thrusts that he sent three of his own mates, Tackles Boyd and Bransom and Guard Minnock to the sidelines with injuries in scrimmage sessions.

Todd To Carry Through

It was doubtful whether any of the three would be ready for an Arkansas team also crippled by the injury of its guards. Arkansas will harass the Aggies with passes, but new found Cadet power and Dick Todd's fancy stepping will earn this one by a touchdown in a wild scoring spree.

Threshed by Pitt but made to look worse by its own fumbling, Southern Methodist moves to Austin for the annual settlement of the Texas grudge. In Will Mullenweg the Mustangs found a great line backer and blocker in the Pitt game. Its running game showed well and the passes clicked. Texas will continue its improvement, noted in the Rice game, but will fall just short of winning this one.

Gloom Drapes Rice

Gloom draped the Rice institute campus on the eve of the game with Auburn. Big Ernie Lain and Scat Sullivan, the 155-pounder who has stirred Rice to its most wide-awake moments in four games, were out with ankle injuries. The same type hurt kept a third left halfback, Earl Glassie, on the sidelines.

Shot through with reserves, the Rice team still hoped to put up its best battle thus far against their old coach, Jack Meagher, and may do it.

OIL MEN PLAYING

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28 (AP)—The 1938 Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association's golf tournament got underway this morning at the San Antonio Country club.

E. D. Herron of Houston is the defending champion, favorites included Charles Campbell and David Davis of Tyler and Morris Norton of Wichita Falls.

In This Corner ALL PROPHET, NO LOSS

Barker Picks Pitt, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Tennessee, T. C. U., Oklahoma, Vanderbilt, Texas A. & M., Auburn And Mustangs

B. HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—If the best defense is a sharp attack, there's no use wasting any words before moving into action against this week's football program. So . . .

Pitt-Fordham: The fourth chapter in the "battle of goose eggs." The Panther and the Ram hitherto have held such respect for one another that they have neglected to score any points in three successive meetings—Pitt.

Ignores Strong Hunch

Army-Notre Dame: It is only by painfully applied will power that this corner ignores a strong hunch on the Cadets and casts the customary ballot for Notre Dame.

Northwestern-Minnesota: This really is becoming a prognosticator's nightmare. Harold Van Every earns Minnesota the nod.

Tennessee-Louisiana State: A teetering ballot for Tennessee.

T. C. U. On Records

Texas Christian-Baylor: Baylor's tie with Texas A. and M. may have been misleading, but Christian must be picked on the records.

Oklahoma-Tulsa: Oklahoma, but the Sooners will be looking at a flock of passes all day.

Vanderbilt-Georgia Tech: With utmost trepidation, Vanderbilt.

Texas A. and M.-Arkansas: One of the toughest of all. The Aggies.

Rice-Auburn: Rice has lost Ernie Lain temporarily. Therefore Auburn.

Texas-Southern Methodist: Picking S. M. U.

Texas Wesleyan Is Victor Over Austin

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 28 (AP)—Carrying the fight practically all the way, Texas Wesleyan of Fort Worth defeated Austin college of Sherman, 19-0, here last night.

Austin college got no nearer than the Wesleyan 20-yard line and that was late in the game. Joe Turner, Howard Gracey and Wayne Hillery scored the Wesleyan touchdowns.

Football Teams Of Junior High Win And Lose Thursday Games

Football teams of Junior High school won and lost in games for the week. Coach Gordon Thompson's sixth graders, the Calf Ropers winning from the Post Addax, 21 to 0, and the Cowboys, coached by Lovic Liston and Mule Davis, losing yesterday to the Plainview Juniors, 0-6.

The Cowboys threatened late in the second quarter at Plainview, driving from midfield to the Plainview 5-yard line before giving up the ball, after Plainview had completed a 50-yard drive for touchdown.

Only One Archer Is Back With Buck In Utah Forest Area

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 28 (AP)—The men who hunt the hard way—with bow and arrow—came straggling back from the hills today empty-handed—with one exception.

Muscular, black-haired E. A. Rosenvall of Salt Lake City, who disdained to hunt in an area reserved for archers and competed instead with gunfire in central Utah's Fishlake forest, used two arrows to bring down a big buck.

Other archers, disappointed at their fruitless guest, said they would seek greater hunting concessions next year.

"I heard the thump, thump, thump of deer running through the woods, and out into the open, 50 yards away, bounded two does and a buck," said Rosenvall.

"My arrow broke the buck's hip. I followed him half mile through the brush, then shot him through the neck. The arrow severed the jugular vein, went clear through and shot into the ground."

St. Mary's Rattlers Win Over McKendree College, 44 To 0

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28. (AP)—The St. Mary's Rattlers smashed over McKendree college of Lebanon, Ill., 44-0 here last night in a game in which the visitors never threatened.

St. Mary's scored in the first five minutes on Curtis Sandig's 31-yard run then pushed over touchdowns practically at will.

Football has more female fans in England than any other game.

John Henry Lewis Puts Title Up In Bout With Gainer Tonight

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 28. (AP)—John Henry Lewis of Phoenix, Ariz., world's light-weight champion, will put his coveted crown, which he has not defended for two years, on the block tonight in a 15-rounder against Al Nelson Gainer, New Haven's persistent contender.

As the hour for the twice-postponed battle—the first title bout in the light-heavy division between the two negroes—drew near betting circles made Lewis a 7 to 5 favorite to retain the championship he won three years ago from Bob Olin in St. Louis.

Lewis, announcing "I beat him once and can do it again," was given the slight edge because of the 12-round decision he won from Gainer in a non-title scrap in Pittsburgh in the summer of 1936.

Oklahoma Aggies Will Still Be Looking For A Victory Tonight

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 28. (AP)—The Oklahoma Aggies still will be looking tonight for their first Missouri Valley conference victory when they clash with the Ichabods from Washburn college of Topeka, Kas.

The kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. and it's Dad and Mother's day on the campus.

Creighton and Tulsa already have measured the Aggies who have gone victoryless since their opening game against Central Oklahoma Teachers.

Sammy Baugh, Sid Luckman And Benny Friedman Meet And Talk Passing Game

BY DREW MIDDLETON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 — Sammy Baugh is in town and by a strange prank of fate — or maybe just smart press agenting — he met up with Benny Friedman, the man from Michigan who was the greatest passer of the "twenties," and Sid Luckman, the Columbia tailback who is the most talented college heaver of the year.

The trio warmed up fast. The tall, drawling Baugh who looks like a cowboy, and Luckman, a quiet, unassuming boy who blushes when asked a direct question, started swapping experiences and business secrets, while Friedman, an All-America at Michigan when they were frisking about on sand lots looked on and smiled.

Pro Receivers Better

"The receivers are better in pro ball," Sam told Sid, "but it evens up 'cause they rush you more. One thing, there aren't any soft spots anywhere. I've found that out with the Washington Redskins."

Someone asked Luckman if he would play proball after college.

"No, not me. I'd like to go into business and do a little coaching on the side, maybe, but no professional football," he said.

They started comparing grips and hands. Baugh has the longest hands and the strangest grip. He holds the ball with the lacing against the heel of his thumb. Friedman and Luckman, whose hands are broader and a touch smaller, hold it with their fingertips across the lacing.

Always Leads Receiver

"I don't tip the ball none," said Sammy. "If it's a long pass, I nose the ball up, but mostly I throw them flat-chest high. Downfield I try to get 'em a little ahead and a little higher. 'Course I always lead the receiver on flat passes."

"We throw some flat ones, too," Sid ventured, "I don't think we do it as well as you fellows but we have a play almost like that pass you throw Malone."

Now It's Half Offense

Benny laughed. "You should have seen the stuff we had. About three plays. And all the passes were spot stuff. When I started, passing was just a supplementary attack, now it's 50 per cent of the offense."

Queried as to what made a passer, each had the same answer—pose.

"I know a lot of linemen can throw the ball farther than a back," said Baugh. "In fact I don't know just how far I could throw it if I tried and I bet these two fellows don't either. But that doesn't count. You've got to be able to stand back there with three or four guys crowding you and let it go right to your man."

Pittsburgh And Fordham Collide In High After Three Scoreless Ties

Something Has To Give In

BY HARRY GRAYSON
Sports Editor, NEA Service

Pittsburgh and Fordham . . . before all spacious Pitt Stadium can hold . . . standing room and all!

There'll be a lot of excitement in Pittsburgh, Oct. 29, particularly if the knee of Leonard Eshmont, the Ram's phenomenal sophomore back, mends in time.

But the Sutherland Scythe should cut down Fordham or any other outfit. Oddly enough, the two powerhouses are to end a three-year period of scoreless ties.

Elmer Layren will show New York the slickest Notre Dame array in four campaigns. The Irish ought to mop up Army. I liked the way they took hold when they obtained their break in the fourth period of the spirited engagement with Carnegie Tech.

Has Capable Carriers

Northwestern has Jack Ryan and Red Hahnenstein and other capable carriers and passers and a line to match, but Minnesota is out to get even with Northwestern for breaking its unbeaten streak of 28 games in 1936, and when the Gophers are out to get hunk look out.

The clubs are meeting at Dyche Stadium, Evanston, where on a heavy track the Wildcats handed the Vikings their only Big Ten reverse since 1932, but I doubt that Lynn Waldorf's well-drilled combination can repeat.

Dartmouth Rolls On

Dartmouth should roll over Yale at New Haven. Harvard is due to win, although Princeton, the stayer, will be tough to the last down in Cambridge. Cornell packs too much power for Sid Luckman and Columbia in New York. The same is true of Pennsylvania in its engagement with Navy in Philadelphia.

Holy Cross has nothing to worry about in Colgate in Worchester now that the Crusader signal-callers have learned to let the backs lug leather instead of throwing it.

He's No Faker

Penn State will find that Wilmeth Sidat-Singh is no faker when Syracuse drops in on the Nittany Lions. New York University will give Ohio State another afternoon of scrimmage in Manhattan before the Buckeyes tackle more important Western Conference assignments.

Santa Clara, unbeaten since 1936, makes the near transcontinental trip to East Lansing to engage Johnny Pingel and Michigan State. You have to stick with a champion, but the Broncos will know they've been in a football game.

Cyclones Should Win

Iowa State, a candidate for the Big Six title, leaves its conference to block and sock with Marquette in Milwaukee. The Cyclones should prevail, but hardly will look like one in the process.

Michigan should prevail against Illinois at Ann Arbor, Wisconsin against Indiana in Madison, and Purdue in its affair with Iowa in Iowa City.

Vols Tackles Tough One

Tennessee, which scaled the heights by repulsing Alabama, will have its hands full against Louisiana State in Knoxville, but the Volunteers should escape with their Rose Bowl bid unblemished.

Duke and North Carolina always spells dog fight, but we're stringing with Dan Hill, Bob O'Mara and the Blue Devils at Chapel Hill.

I'm giving Georgia Tech a shaky vote over Vanderbilt in Nashville, and Rice a no more enthusiastic nod in its battle with Auburn in Houston. Alabama should repel Kentucky in Lexington without a great deal of trouble. Tulane gets the call over Mississippi State in New Orleans.

I can't picture a Nebraska team entering the second half of the season without a victory, so am picking the Cornhuskers to repel Johnny Christman and a first-rate Missouri machine in Lincoln. Tulsa always is tough, but Oklahoma should take another hurdle at Norman en route to the Big Six crown. Kansas State's smashing victory over Indiana makes it the choice over Kansas at Manhattan.

Texas Christian will take Baylor in stride in Fort Worth just as it has taken all others . . . in and out of the Southwest Conference. Texas A. and M. figures to shade Arkansas at College Station, Tex., and I'm giving Texas a decision over Southern Methodist in Austin only because it is about time that the Longhorns copped one.

While Oregon State beat Washington, so has everybody else, and the Beavers figure to be little more than a breather for California in Berkeley. Southern California ought to get over Oregon . . . rain or shine in Portland. U. C. L. A. has too much Grade A material for Stanford in Los Angeles.

But take nothing for granted in football.

Earl Clark

Barrett Booth

Charles Long

This group of hart-hitting young men have their work cut out for them Saturday. Long, Army halfback, will lead the soldiers' attack against Notre Dame in New York; Graybeal, Oregon halfback, will spark his team's drive against Southern California at Los Angeles; Goldak of Northwestern will help stand off Minnesota's charge at Evanston from his guard position; Clark, Texas Christian halfback, will lug the ball against Baylor at Fort Worth, and Booth will call signals for Louisiana State against Tennessee at Knoxville.

Oklahoma University Goldbugs Defeat Louisiana Tech, 7 To 6

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 28. (AP)—The Oklahoma City university Goldbugs scored with a minute left to play last night to down the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs from Ruston, 7 to 6.

After a sustained drive from midfield that was highlighted by a 20-yard run around end by Otto Smith, Goldbug John Macchi went over on the statue of liberty play from the four-yard stripe. Charlie Webb converted from placement for the winning point.

The Bulldogs went into a lead in the first quarter. They punched their way from their own 16 mostly through the efforts of Bill Hinkie who broke away for 22 and 20-yard gains, and then scored from the Goldbugs' four-yard marker. Hinkie missed his try for extra point from placement.

TULSA HORSE WINS

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 28. (AP)—Donna Clara, owned by Herbert Barall of Tulsa, outstepped a classy field last night to win the fine harness event of the second night's program of the four-day oil capital horse show and rodeo. Mrs. Robert D. Hudson handled Donna Clara.

Victor in the junior fine-harness competition was "Hell and Maria," owned by Campbell Sewall of Fort Worth, Tex.

Crowd Of 80,000 Is Seen For Army And Notre Dame Battle

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP) — One of the most peculiar things about the football season is the annual game between Notre Dame and the Army, the 25th of which will be played tomorrow at Yankee stadium before about 80,000 alumni of the two institutions.

The game is unique because of this terrific outpouring of the old gratis, most of whom bought their tickets back in August. Otherwise the contest is not particularly distinguished, because Notre Dame usually wins and national honors very seldom are in the balance.

The 80,000 alumni who scheme and scrap for the privilege of paying $4.40 to see the game are not to be confused with the calmer type of alumnus who actually attended classes at one of the two institutions. The latter is comparatively rare and has become scattered all over the world, while the Notre Dame football alumni is concentrated right here in New York.

There are estimated to be about 300,000 of them in the greater city, men who for years have suffered agonies every time the Army threatened to score on their alma mater. Some of them have been loyal Notre Dame old grads ever since the days when Knute Rockne and Gus Dorais first came to the plains and forward passed the cadets into a state of collapse.

Ching Johnson, for years a National Hockey League defense star, will manage the Minneapolis club this season.

Seabiscuit Served Notice That He Must Step To Beat Admiral

BALTIMORE, Oct. 28. (AP)—Fast-stepping Seabiscuit was served notice today that unless he does some mighty, mighty fast stepping right from the start of things in his race with War Admiral Tuesday, he will be a very, very sorry second at the end of things.

And of course, added Charley Kurtsinger, Seabiscuit will be second in the two-horse race anyway.

Confident Kurtsinger will be astride the Admiral in the mile and three sixteenths showdown with Seabiscuit at Pimlico.

"War Admiral is the best horse to come to the races in the last decade. He never really has been extended in a race during the past two years. The Admiral is in a class by himself."

That Girl on Broadway says there's poetry in everything—including the wastebasket.

The Tech student walked into his dormitory room and found his roommate busy at the writing desk.

"Writing a letter home?" he asked.

"Yeah," replied his roommate.

"Mind making a carbon copy?"

ALTHOUGH he would not go so far as to say that he would recommend such action to the legislature, Wilbert Lee O'Daniel, Democratic governor-nominate, in San Antonio Thursday reaffirmed his belief that Texas should do away with capital punishment.

While we cannot agree with Mr. O'Daniel's bland statement that "everybody knows I'm opposed to capital punishment," we think we know why he has reached such a decision. It must be because of cheers given him by prisoners during his recent visit to the prison rodeo at Huntsville.

It would take a good deal more solid and substantial individual than Mr. O'Daniel not to be unduly moved by demonstrations upon the part of the convicts. It is the human thing for him to remember and, remembering his warm welcome, to wish to reciprocate.

We hope Mr. O'Daniel will not ask the legislature to do away with capital punishment in Texas.

After all, a jury hearing a case is much more able to decide upon the punishment fitting the crime involved than a legislature is able to rule on it in advance of the testimony—or even in advance of the perpetration of the crime itself.

But even should Mr. O'Daniel make such a suggestion, we cannot believe the legislature of Texas will follow it.

Too many experienced lawmakers are better fitted to weigh the essentials than is the governor-nominate who, by his own frequent admission, knows nothing of such things.

★ ★ ★

THE Plainsman certainly is no bloodthirsty individual.

To be perfectly honest about it, he is a sap for a sob story under practically any and all circumstances.

Yet he can think of nothing which would be more of an invitation to commit brutal crime than wiping the death penalty from the Texas statute books.

Let us suppose, for a minute, that Mr. O'Daniel should make an effort to do away with the death penalty and be successful in that effort.

Then let us suppose that a repetition of the dastardly Mattson kidnap-murder case should arise in Texas. (That, in case your memory is short, was the case of the helpless, 8-year old Tacoma boy who was kidnaped, mistreated and finally slain and whose murderer has not yet been apprehended.

Let us further suppose that the kidnap-murderer were caught and his guilt established beyond doubt.

Where would Texas be without a death penalty?

THE Plainsman is frank to say that were one of his children made the victim of such a crime nothing short of a death penalty would begin to suit him as a punishment.

While the writer has never even seen Lee O'Daniel and knows nothing at all about the man, we doubt that he would be satisfied with anything less than the supreme penalty for a criminal who would mistreat and slay one of his own children.

If he would, he is a peculiar sort of father.

Before he talks about doing away with the death penalty, Mr. O'Daniel should, we think, carefully consider the matter in the same light as if the shoe were on his own foot.

If he does, he will not be so anxious to coddle the more brutal and depraved of criminals.

Texas does not frequently impose the death penalty.

If there ever has been such a sentence unjustly imposed there have been scores—yes, hundreds—of brutal murderers who have received less than their just due in the way of punishment for crime.

We should keep the death penalty on our books if for no other reason than to have it ready to use in extreme cases, such as a repetition of the Mattson or Lindbergh cases, should the occasion arise.

★ ★ ★

WHATEVER may be his qualities, Mr. O'Daniel—since his meteoric rise to fame—has not frequently marked himself as a man of careful judgment.

Too frequently he has climbed gaily out upon a limb—with a rare dash of showmanship—only to find the limb promptly sawed off behind him.

In the case of his commentary on capital punishment, Mr. O'Daniel once more has given a pucid example of jumping at conclusions—and jumping short.

★ ★ ★

That Man on Avenue Q says it's true that when the cat's away the mice will play—but there's always the radio to do the yowling.

★ ★ ★

"Darn it!" ejaculated the teen age miss. "I've forgotten the words to 'A-Tisket-A-Tasket.'"

"Fine," growled her dad, from behind Collier Parris' column. "Now all you have to do to make your mother and I happy is to forget the tune!"

IN his public appearances here Thursday, U. S. Senator Tom Connally did not go into detail concerning the various problems which confront the nation.

He made no mention of any of the present, pressing public questions except that having to do with preparedness against possible attack by mad dog nations.

But he brought to Lubbock and the South Plains a stirring measure of Americanism which could profitably have been heard and digested by every man and woman in this section.

★ ★ ★

To students of the high school and Texas Tech, as well as to a group of business and professional men attending the Kiwanis club luncheon, the junior Senator from Texas hammered forcefully home the truth that, despite economic woes of recent years, this country is still the best place on the globe in which to live.

Listeners never failed to respond with hearty applause when Tall Tom from Marlin spoke along that line.

DESPITE his high station in the councils of the nation and the fact that his remarks, if relayed to Europe might result in high dudgeons on the part of those affected, Senator Connally lashed out at the "would-be Napoleons," the "would-be Caesars," and "the ruler whose ideals are supposed to come straight from heaven," as he decried fascism and communism and propagandizing in this country.

He did not call any names, but even the most naive Tech freshman knew the Senator was referring to Adolf Hitler, to Benito Mussolini and to Emperor Hirohito, of Japan.

Senator Connally left no doubt in the minds of those who heard him that officially, in Washington, he may be counted upon to uphold to the last the principles, tenets and objects of this democracy of ours.

Further, he upheld his reputation for saying what he thinks regardless of the consequences and made no apologies for so doing.

And the message he drove home was one calculated to stir the breast of everyone within sound of his voice—to awaken in the hearth of all the feeling of patriotism that so many of us forget to nurture as often as we should.

SENATOR CONNALLY always has been popular in this section of the state.

When he ran first for the Senate in the summer of 1928, the people out in this area gave him a whacking vote — a considerably greater vote than it gave his chief opponent and the then incumbent, Earle B. Mayfield.

When he ran again in 1934, our people rallied to him almost to the individual voter, giving little attention to the pleas of his opponent, Joseph Weldon Bailey, jr.

Yet despite his longtime popularity, Senator Connally made more friends than ever during his brief stay in Lubbock. Almost everyone with whom he came into contact was won by his geniality, his demeanor and his very evident sincerity of purpose.

The Senator "comes up" again in 1940 and it may safely be said that unless the skies fall, he again will be the overwhelming favorite of the voters of this section which, at the present

The Story So Far: Judith Goodloe, of an old Maryland family, marries self-made Reuben Oliver for his money—only to discover he is bankrupt. After a poverty-stricken period during which twins are born, Reuben gets work in a lumber camp managed by Gary Brent—the man Judith loves. Reuben is in the woods when Judith arrives, and Gary provides a cabin for her and takes her dancing. Blind with rage at this discovery Reuben removes the babies to his tent. When Judith and Reuben meet the stored-up resentment of months is uncorked.

Chapter 33
His Own Laws

Reuben walked to the tent's flap, untied and flung it aside. Stooping to pass through it, he tossed her a crooked smile that reminded her absurdly of Judykin's when her feelings were hurt. "You're making another try for Brent, eh? Wish you luck this time!"

The flap fell shut behind him—"Wish you luck this time!" Reuben's words echoed through the tent; echoed around the world. They made a roar like thunder.

Judith, waiting for the reverberations to die away, stood staring at the still swaying tent flap like one hypnotized.

Reuben had said that—Reuben! But for his coat flung cross one of the beds and his pocket knife lying atop a pile of blankets she could have believed the whole episode a dream.

It wasn't a dream. She and Reuben had done the very thing they so carefully avoided—quarrelled! Very thoroughly, too; but at that they hadn't said all they wanted to say. Judith knew it by the tumult that seethed and foamed within her. By her tensed fingers, curved like talons—mute evidence that she wanted to scratch and claw!

It didn't seem possible. What had she been thinking of to allow such an impasse? Gran could have avoided this vulgar situation easily, Judith felt a sudden shame.

"Gran was never hectored like a trapped animal. Gran never had to live in Casper Street or in a tent and scrimp and save and worry and try not to hate."

She had come further than Gran. The going had been hard. It would be harder. Infallibly Judith knew that. What had just happened between her and Reuben was just the lifting of the lid and letting out the first feeble sputterings of a restive volcano.

"I won't stay—I won't degrade myself quarreling, fighting. I'll go back to Casper Street in the morning!"

"Then what?" The tent's sloping white walls shrieked it at her, "Then what—what, what?"

No matter what, she was going away from here in the morning. Going away from Reuben. She hated him, crude, rude—

Gary! If she went away now she wouldn't see Gary, wouldn't go riding—

But of course she'd see Gary. Wherever she went now she'd see Gary. The knowledge sent her head up. But Casper Street would be unbearably hot—

Sh hadn't dreamed Reuben would dare to speak harshly to her. Hadn't dreamed he had the nerve. He'd always tried so hard to please—flushed, stuttered, been embarrassed at her slightest displeasure. Been servile—almost. What had happened to change him so entirely?

She did not blame herself. Something or somebody—What Who?

"Cissy!" The answer zigzagged across her reason.

"No!" Judith protested vehemently aloud, "No!" Her self respect wouldn't countenance that. Cissy had taken one man from her—it would be absurd to have her take two!

Reuben Acts

The sun was well up before Reuben found a semblance of sanity. The finding had been hard. His rage clung to him like myriads of persistent prickly burrs. All night he had roamed the forest—a jungle beast. Passion, raw, primitive stalked with him. He wanted to strike, to hurt, even as he had been hurt. Reason tried to tell him that he was placing undue importance upon a trifling incident. He would not listen to reason. Judith had done this to him—Judith! And after the way he had slaved and scrimped to bring her here.

His mind veered to Pike. It was all his fault for not preparing the tent, but murdering Pike wouldn't help any now. He must prove to Judith that he was as good a man as Brent—By gum that was what he'd have to do! Not next week, next month, next year, but now—this minute! He'd show her! He'd been a fool to take Judith and her codes so seriously. Hereafter he'd make his own laws. Live by them! Fight for himself and the devil take the hindmost.

The suddenness with which he came to this decision quelled his rage, steadied the dizzying landslide. The time to act was now.

But first he went to the pool for a swim. The cold water stimulated and banished, for the time, his weariness. He went to the community hall for breakfast. He ate a good one. By eight thirty he was rapping on the door of Gary's cabin.

Alf admitted him. "Mawning Mist' Oliver. Yo'll come after yo' cah?"

"I came to see Mr. Brent. Am I too early?"

"Not at all." Gary, shrugging into a coat came into view, "Come in Oliver. How are you?"

"Fine." The two men shook hands. Reuben took the chair Gary pushed forward, declined a cigarette. "I'm deeply grateful for your courtesy to Mrs. Oliver." It cost him something to say that.

And Gary knowing it did: "I'd like to do more—for Judith."

"Thanks," Reuben said and added without preamble: "I know I'm making an unheard of request for a woodsman but I'd like to rent that cabin."

"Impossible, but you're welcome to use it until it's wanted."

"I wouldn't consider that," stiffly.

"Why not?"

"I don't relish favors," bluntly, "or being put out over night. If I can rent it at your own figure—" recklessly.

"It has never been done."

"So I've been told, but with all of them empty and the season so slack—I'd like to make my family comfortable."

"I'd like to see them comfortable." Gary drummed on the arm of the chair.

"Well?"

"There's an unwritten law about cabins—but I can always put up a friend—"

Hot color crept up under Reuben's tan. "Need I remind you that you're my boss?"

"Can't I be your friend too?"

"It's possible, but as I said before, obligations are unpleasant," Reuben stood up. "Nine times out of ten they lead to complications."

War To The Knife

It was Gary's turn to flush. He said: "Sit down, man!" He thought: "It's my one chance to keep Judith here." Suddenly keeping Judith where he could see her every day was the only important thing in life. He said: "How long do you want the shack?"

"Until I get a better job or," with a slight smile, "until you discharge me."

Gary longed to do just that—right this minute—but that meant Judith would go away too. He said: "If the season picks up—there'll be the devil to pay if we can't house the buyers when they come."

"You just said that isn't likely."

"It isn't, with building at a standstill."

Their eyes met, held. Each knew it was war to the knife.

Reuben thought: "I used to think I was the better man—I still think so."

Gary thought: "I'll show this bounder up to Judith. Let him get into debt, then fire him. Serve him right." He said: "You win, Oliver! The cabin is yours."

"Fine! Now about the rent?"

"Fifty dollars a month." It was an unfair price.

It was $25 more than Reuben could afford to pay with the rent of the Casper Street house still going on. "If you'll give me the key?"

Gary got it. "I'll send Alf over to help you move."

"Please don't. There's only a bag or two. I'll take Judith's Rolls back though. She bought it for $30."

"Some bargain!" Gary followed his visitor out of doors and watched him get into the dejected car.

Reuben's world was staticnary once more. The key in his pocket steadied it. Then last night's quarrel came vividly back and set it rocking again. Suppose Judith refused to move to the cabin? What would he say to her? What would she say to him?

Judith was contemplating the outdoor grill in some bewilderment when Reuben arrived. She looked fresh as the morning in white linen, a maize ribbon banding her hair. She heard the clatter of the car and turned expecting to see Gary.

"Good morning," Reuben achieved a casualness he did not feel.

"Good morning." Judith's voice was almost amiable. She reminded hrself that after last night she should be indignant, unapproachable, but stirring among the ashes of her anger she could not even start the ghost of a flame. Just indifference. She thought: "He can't hurt me. He doesn't matter. I'll see Gary today." She said: "Do you know anything about this grill?"

"We won't need it." He drew the key from his pocket and held it out to her. "To the cabin you so regretted to leave."

Monday: The landslide continues.

A LESSON FROM THE GRIM PAST

A lesson learned from the Titanic disaster of 27 years before paid dividends a few nights ago when fire broke out aboard the palatial German liner, Deutschland, while steaming off the Newfoundland coast toward New York.

An explosion occurred aboard the liner. Fire began to spread. Without loss of time, an SOS was put upon the air and was repeated time after time. All other radio sending was silenced instantly. Help was speeded at once toward the endangered ship and was reminded constantly of her position.

As it happened, the fire was brought under control without life loss. And even had the worst occurred, the probabilities are that help would have been there soon enough to rescue passengers and crew.

Contrast that with the Titanic disaster. Then there was criminal delay in sending out distress calls. Then there were an insufficient number of lifeboats for those on board. More than 1,500 people lost their lives as a result. It caused a scandal without comparison in sea travel, before nor since.

But because the impossible happened to the Titanic which had been acclaimed the "unsinkable ship," sea captains were made to realize the impossible also might happen to them. They were made to realize, too the disgrace that would be theirs even should they survive. The result has been a minimum of chance-taking. They have been forced to adoption of the policy: When in doubt, call for help.

The Titanic admittedly was a terrific price to pay for realization of that necessity, but it obviously was a price which has not been wholly without compensation.

Democrats Defend Their Advantage As GOP's Attempt To Recoup Fortunes On November 8

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Election of 32 governors, 37 senators and 432 members of the House of Representatives on November 8 may be expected to produce a net Republican gain for the first time since the Hoover landslide of 1928.

Dutcher

Democrats, holding 39 of the 48 governorships, 76 of 96 Senate seats and 328 of the 435 House seats, admittedly are on the defensive, although party control of Congress isn't even remotely threatened and they will keep control of most state capitals. They expect certain losses and are fighting to keep them as few as possible.

The 1940 presidential nominations and election are on many political minds. Recovery of a few large states lost in the last 10 years would boost GOP hopes of a nanational comeback two years hence. Several candidates in senatorial gubernatorial contests already are embryo presidential candidates and will be regarded as 1940 "possibilities" if they win.

Big Stakes, Big Names

In some states President Roosevelt and the New Dealers particularly, as well as the Democratic party in general, have much at stake.

The list of "doubtful" states this is a long one, as Republicans see it. Great states such as New York, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Kansas and Wisconsin are ringing with the cries of battle and charges and counter-charges which increase in vigor—sometimes in viciousness—as election day nears.

Nationally familiar names and political fates of outstanding leaders figure in some of the warmest contests—Bob Wagner, Herbert Lehman, Frank Murphy, Fred Van Nuys, Phil LaFollette, Gerald Nye, George Earle, Elmer Benson and John O'Connor.

Hard-hitting newcomers have popped up on the national scene—among them Tom Dewey, Sheridan Downey, Harold Stassen, Leverett Saltonstall, Clyde Reed and Robert A. Taft. Some of them may be sent back to political oblivion. Others may win and go on to fame. In some states such men have brought new life and more liberalism to the Republican party.

The New Deal is an issue here and there, but not importantly so everywhere. Many Democratic candidates hope to benefit from Roosevelt popularity and their opponents bank on a backswing against parts of the Roosevelt program, if not against the President himself. There is nothing resembling the 1934 rush of Democratic and Republican candidates alike to ride Roosevelt coattails. On the other hand, there's no general Republican onslaught against the President and issues vary from state to state.

• • •

Counts On Natural Swing

Primarily Republicans are counting on a natural midterm swing away from the party in power such as failed to appear in 1934. Further, GOP experts figure:

Although the sharp 1937-38 depression which they once counted on for a major campaign issue appears to have ended and business is improving, a substantial group of voters is impressed with the idea that Roosevelt has no magic wand for maintaining a recovery trend. Especially this is true among farmers, whose resentment against present low prices endangers several Democratic candidates.

Although admitting Roosevelt popularity, GOP candidates learned from the "purge" primary results that political capital can be made by attacking "yes men," "one-man government" trends and such measures as the President's Supreme court plan and reorganization bill. Most of them are following that line.

They believe the administration has been hurt by John L. Lewis, its 1936 political alliance with him and subsequent prejudice which has arisen against CIO. Farmers especially oppose CIO and shrink at the thought of hired hands going on strike. Secretary Hull's trade treaties and their alleged harm is being used by Republicans in some districts.

"Reckless expenditure" as an issue doesn't get much of a rise out of voters, Republicans say, but in several states they are hitting hard at alleged corruption of Democratic machines, WPA scandals and graft, pointing out that the New Deal depends on such machines for election victories.

• • •

FDR Will Have His Say

New, liberal and sometimes fantastic old age pension schemes are issues in some states—espoused by Republicans, Democrats or both. And any candidate favored by CIO or Labor's Non-Partisan league is likely to be dubbed "communist" by his opponent.

Herbert Hoover, Alf Landon and National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton have been emitting the chief national Republican campaign blasts. Democratic Chairman Jim Farley and other cabinet members have been sounding off for the Democrats. The campaign speech of the year presumably will be a radio address by Roosevelt the night of November 4, when the President speaks "as a citizen of New York" while the nation listens in.

One state election has been held, Maine, in September, elected a Republican governor and three Republican congressmen.

THE LUBBOCK LIVESTOCK COMMISSION CO
At 1310 Ave. B
HORSE AND MULE AUCTION SALE EACH
THURSDAY
CATTLE SALE EVERY WEDNESDAY!
Our market is really opening up here—sales the past two weeks have been very encouraging. Apparently they are also opening up further east as many new buyers are now showing up. This is very encouraging to the consignors of this territory, as most of the stock for the eastern trade is bought here.
This coming Thursday's sale, especially, looks like a mighty good bet for your horses and mules. We are advertising the sale to right at 500 buyers and stressing the fact that, included in the stock to be offered, will be one full carload of young mares and colts which WILL POSITIVELY BE SOLD, HALTERS OFF! This will bring a lot of buyers and get the sale off to a good, hot, start—and should raise the general price level on all stock offered.
For the cattle sale Wednesday, we are expecting a heavy demand, with plenty of buyer competition—especially on stockers, light calves, and light bulls.

Funds Assured Park Board

Assurance that the city parks board may depend upon a definite sum for 1939 was given by the city commission at its semi-monthly meeting Thursday afternoon to eliminate, at least temporarily, the proposal that a tax election be called.

K. N. Clapp, chairman of the city parks board, appeared before the commission to renew oft-repeated urgings that an election be called on the proposal to set aside two cents on the $100 of valuation of the tax rate for parks purposes.

Revenue Not Assured

He complained that under the present system the parks board cannot be assured of revenue even from week to week, that the city budget is not adopted until after 85 per cent of parks work for the particular year is completed, and that a long range program of expansion to meet future park needs of the growing city is a financial impossibility.

Although members of the commission objected to calling an election, they advised that they will approve a $30,000 budget for parks operations in 1939. The figure compares with approximately $27,000 for the parks department during the present fiscal year which began last April 1. The sum, Clapp said, will make possible the planning of parks activities for at least that year and should leave a small margin for possible investment in expansion.

The commission also approved on first reading an ordinance which calls for the paving of approximately 19 blocks of downtown alleys with concrete base and brick surface. Cost will be on the basis of 25 per cent by the city, 25 per cent from the Works Progress administration and 50 per cent by the property owners.

No action was taken on an ordinance submitted by Santa Fe and Fort Worth and Denver railroads which would place sharp restrictions on operations of trucks within the city.

Contractor's bond of Chas. A. Ross was approved.

Appropriation Authorized

An appropriation of $1,000 for current operation of the County-City Welfare association was authorized.

L. P. Williams, owner of a section of land southeast of the city limits, proposed to buy four acres of adjoining city owned land which would give his livestock access to a running stream in Yellowhouse canyon. The commission, declining to sell, countered with the offer to lease Williams the land for $75 per year subject to cancellation after 60 days notice.

Girl Scouts were authorized to erect a frame and stucco structure on Avenue P between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth street to serve as their headquarters.

Another 'R' Added To 'Three R's' As Cleveland Launches Radio Lessons; Air Waves Carry Instructions To Classes

BY WILLIS THORNTON
NEA Service Correspondent

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28 — The largest regular public school class in the world is in session.

Eyes shingly intent on loud-speakers, 5000 students in 115 Cleveland schools attune their ears to the first lesson of the first radio broadcasting system in the world owned and operated by a public school system.

It is station WBOE, whose programs permit simultaneous and uniform instruction from a central point in practically all of the lower grades of Cleveland schools. The system gradually is being extended to the higher grades, until 140,000 pupils will soon be getting instruction over the air.

Not New, But Different

Radio instruction in schools is not new, but suc phrograms have usually been carried through commercial channels, subject to restriction and interruption. Now, thanks to definite assignment to the Cleveland schools of the regional band of 41,500 kilocycles the schools operate their own system.

Not a teacher has been eliminated by the new system. Each continues to supervise his or her class as before. The radio instruction is not regarded as something to supplant, but to supplement, regular teaching, emphasizes Dr. William D. Levenson, director of radio activities. The regular classroom teacher is provided in advance with instructions and suggestions in handling the radio lesson. At the blackboard during the broadcast, she illustrates and emphasizes points of the lesson as it goes along. The broadcasts are made by special teachers, and embody teaching principles developed in laboratory schools. Thus new techniques in teaching are made instantly available to all schools, and the regular teachers learn while the pupils are learning.

"Good morning, children!" greets the voice from the loud-speaker. The lesson proceeds, the spacing of questions and the instructions to the class carefully spaced by a stop-watch at pre-determined intervals. "Open your notebooks" says the voice, and a rustle sweeps the room. "Have you the right page?" cautions the voice, and little heads nod emphatically to the loud-speaker which can not see them. "Now who can tell me how to spell 'spinning'?" asks the voice, and little hands eagerly shoot high. The teacher then calls on a pupil to answer.

History As It Happens

Recordings are made of the radio lessons, and a lesson given early in the morning may be repeated during the day without additional strain on the teacher. Such recordings will never displace actual teaching, sponsors indicate, because of rapid changes in current events, techniques and methods. Recordings are also being made of important speeches, like those of Roosevelt, Chamberlain and Hitler recently, so that students of history and public affairs may hear in person the voices which made the history they are studying.

Cleveland's experiments with radio instruction began more than 10 years ago, but allotment of $42,800 from the Rockefeller Foundation and recent developments in ultra-high frequency transmission made the present system possible. Radio receivers outside the school system cannot receive the school broadcasts except with a special adapter, so WBOE is practically the private instrument of the school system alone, the newest addition to the teacher's tool-box.

Libby Yirava broadcasts a geography lesson to 5000 Cleveland children in 115 schools.

The lesson is broadcast over the city's own radio station, WBOE. J. D. Woodworth, technical director at the controls.

"How many of you have spelled the word nomad—n-o-m-a-d?" asks the radio voice, and eager hands are raised in this Lafayette School class.

St. Mary's Gridders Work Out On Tech Field On Thursday

Enroute to New York City where they play Fordham university's Rams next week, the St. Mary's Gaels of San Francisco stopped off for two hours here yesterday and spent more than an hour of it in a scrimmage at Texas Tech stadium.

A special train bearing the squad of 35 players and coaches, and about 130 fans detrained at 5:30 o'clock, were met by a large delegation of Lubbock citizens and a part of the Texas Tech band. A South Plains bus carried the squad, behind police escort, to the football field, where a crowd of about 1,000 turned out to watch the popular Galloping Gaels indulge in a stiff rehearsal.

Coach Slip Madigan, making his third call in Lubbock, appeared highly pleased with the reception accorded his team, and expressed the hope he could soon return here.

Since both Texas Tech coaches were out of town, there was little or no discussion with Madigan concerning a possible game, either in 1939 or 1940, between Tech and St. Mary's, but such is the ambition of Coach Pete Cawthon and the Texas Tech athletic council.

The Gaels and their fans left here at 7:30, headed South and East. The team is to work out this afternoon at Hot Springs, Ark., and arrive in New York Tuesday.

Fifteen days has been allowed for the complete trip.

Quacksmen Sought In Jewel Robbery

'Twas a fine October day in New York, so Mrs. Marion Whitehead Pierce, right, ex-wife to both a beverage millionaire and to an heir of a woolens fortune, took a stroll in Central Park and fed peanuts to the ducks. All of a sudden—even quicker than that—one ingrate of a quicker snapped at her hand, and when she looked down a $10,000 black pearl was gone from the ring, shown on her hand. Mrs. Pierce pierced the air with her cries, which brought park guards, police, finally reporters, to the scene. A number of duck suspects, pictured at left, were arrested and held under observation for some evidence of guilt, as it were. Incidentally—Mrs. Pierce is opening on Broadway soon in both a night-club and a motion picture.

Nevada Board Of Regents Deny Request That Coaches Resign

RENO, Nev., Oct. 28. (AP)—A request by members of the University of Nevada football squad that Head Coach Doug Dashiell and Duane Keller, an assistant, be relieved of their duties was denied by the executive committee of the university board of regents Thursday.

The regents asked the football squad to play the remainder of the games scheduled for the 1938 season and, in their resolution, made no mention of the students' request that J. E. Martie, director of athletics, be asked to resign.

Stones from the tops of Mt. Fujiyama and Mt. Rainer were exchanged by the national park services of Japan and the United States as good will gesture between the two countries.

FDR's Speech Is Parallel

BY KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — On the 80th anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt, the world was put on notice that America is equipping itself to heed T. R.'s advice about carrying a "big stick."

That message rang through every speech by government spokesmen from President Franklin Roosevelt down in the most significant celebration of Navy day the nation has known in the seventeen years since it was established.

Not Specifically Cited

Theodore Roosevelt's "big stick" declaration was not specifically cited either by the president or by navy spokesmen. Both selected instead his assertion that "upbuilding the navy must be steadily continued;" but the thought behind the two expressions was the same.

There are striking parallels between the Theodore Roosevelt armament policies of 30 years ago and those of Franklin Roosevelt Thursday. It is just three decades since the "white fleet" was paraded clear around the globe by T. R.'s order.

Reason Was The Same

The reason for that display of massed American sea power was the same that lay behind President Roosevelt's Navy day and armament policy discussions. It was calculated to impress on Japan, on imperial Germany of that day, and on all other powers the fact that the United States was prepared to meet any encroachments on the Monroe doctrine.

What Franklin Roosevelt is clearly seeking, as observers translate every move he makes, is so overwhelming an expression of American public approval of the policy of armed readiness as to catch world attention.

Funeral Services For Slaton Woman Are Scheduled Today

SLATON, Oct. 28 (Special)—Rites will be read at 2 o'clock this afternoon for Mrs. C. Raymond Westerman, about 45, and burial will be in Englewood cemetery.

Mrs. Westerman died at 7 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Waxahachie, where she had gone several days ago to visit friends. Her unexpected death was attributed to a heart ailment.

The Westermans have extensive land holdings on the Crosby-Lubbock line and had lived approximately 25 years in the Midway community near here.

Mrs. Westerman was a member of the Methodist church. At her rites Rev. Aubrey Ashley, pastor of the Robertson and formerly of the Lorenzo church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, pastor of the Slaton Methodist church.

Only the husband survives.

SO THEY FREED INMATES

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (AP)—When repair work started on the local jail, Sheriff Charles J. McCoy put it up to county officials as to what to do with 24 misdemeanor prisoners. Since transfer to jails of neighboring counties was "too expensive," the parole board liberated the men. Only prisoners facing felony charges were held.

Mexican Bootlegger Probably Will Stop, Look And Listen Before His Next Sale

TAHOKA, Oct. 28.—Deputy Sheriff Ed Sanders recently was the prospect of a Mexican bootlegger here who was not well acquainted with his customers.

As soon as the officer purchased a half-pint, the Mexican was arrested and a charge filed. On his plea of guilty, the county court judge assessed a fine of $100 and court costs.

"Me tellie the judge I sell officer half a pint and I get $100 fine; me tellie him I sell officer whole pint, he give me 'lectric chair, I guess," was the Mexican's comment.

STATE HAS SNAKE-HUNT

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — The Wyoming fall rattlesnake hunting season has opened. Three Cheyenne men killed 54 of the reptiles in a den 30 miles north of here, first mass slaughter reported this year. The snakes were hibernating in a den.
