Shuttle mission might be shortened

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Columbia's astronauts have the best seats ever for watching Halley's comet, but may not get as much data as they want because of a clouded image on one of two cameras they were to train on the speeding chunk of ice and space debris.

As astronaut George Nelson checked one of the cameras for use later today, he noticed that its power switch apparently had been on since liftoff. When he tried to focus the camera, an image intensifier, he found the image was fuzzy.

Following troubleshooting instructions from Mission Control, he replaced camera batteries and made other adjustments, but without luck.

Investigators on the ground decided to use just one of the cameras, a souped-up 35mm device, for today's two photography sessions and expose the film for a longer time, providing a brighter image of the comet. It won't be as bright as a picture from the image intensifier, but it will come close, officials said.

They said they would continue to troubleshoot the problem and hoped to have it resolved by Tuesday's comet runs.

Flight director Jay Greene also reported there were niggling problems with a materials processing experiment and a medical experiment, two of the more than a dozen that are on board.

Greene also said officials may consider returning Columbia to Earth on Thursday instead of Friday to get a head start on Columbia's next mission, which is scheduled March 6 and has a short launch window of only a few days.

The flight plan today was devoted mainly to astronomy, and Steve Hawley spent the morning pointing two ultraviolet telescopes at star targets in a search for luminous cluds of ultraviolet radiation.

Hospital board, BCD membership reappointed here

All members with expiring terms on the Cogdell Memorial Hospital Board and the Board of County Development were named to new terms of office Monday by county commissioners.

The appointments came as part of the annual selection to county boards required by the court.

Although not specifically addressed Monday, the court's decision regarding the hospital board did not include a suggestion from Commissioner C.D. Gray Jr. that two more members be added.

Gray said last week he feels at this time he does not have sufficient support to implement the larger board. He has noted as his reason the expansion of community involvement in the hospital's operation.

Gray had indicated he would nominate two women to serve on the board, currently an all male membership.

Named to new terms on the hospital board Monday were Dan Cotton, Rex Robinson and Leon Autry.

Board members on the BCD reappointed Monday were Arel (Red) Faver, Morris Light and Dale Stuard.

Two changes were noted on the child welfare board. New members will be Larry Thompson, who will replace Mrs. Ruben

College board to call spring trustee ballot

Western Texas College trustees will meet at 6 p.m. Monday to consider a several item agenda which includes calling the spring election for two seats on the board.

Trustees serve six-year terms and WTC elections are conducted every two years.

Board members facing expiring terms this spring include Howard Sterling, place 3, and Bob Hargrove, place 4.

Preceding the regular meeting, the board is scheduled also to tour the recently completed Golf Course Land Management building.

The board will accept also proposals for conducting the college's annual outside audit.

Other agenda items include consideration of liability insurance and a discussion of possible board action related to the 300 shares of First Interstate Bancorp stock given to the college.

Other action agenda items include two bids. One is for a pump control system and the other concerns janitorial supplies.

Trustees will also review the 1984-85 budget vs actual expenditures and the fall 1985 and 1986 mid-winter enrollment reports.

Harry Krenek, acting chief executive officer, will give the president's report.

Trustees will review superintendent's post

Monday night, Snyder school trustees are scheduled to complete the board's annual evaluation of Superintendent Bob Hawes and to consider extending the administrator's contract for a new year.

The action will be part of the board's regular January meeting, moved to Monday this month due to a schedule conflict with a Snyder Tiger basketball game.

The board will first gather at 6 p.m. for a dinner meeting at The Shack. This session, closed to the public, will be to complete the annual evaluation of the superintendent's post.

The contract renewal is then listed as an action item under personnel during the regular board meeting. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.

At the January meeting, the board will also consider approval of the district's discipline management plan, another new requirement mandated by House Bill 72.

The plan is to outline for the state the steps to be taken by Snyder ISD in dealing with problem students.

Included in the measure is a home study requirement for the student who is a habitual problem in the classroom. Currently, this is viewed as an alternative to the "alternate campus" concept discussed and ultimately rejected by the board.

As a final alternative, students unable to function in the normal classroom will be given home-based instruction under the plan.

Other agenda items listed for action include:

—Consider bids to reroof the shop building at Snyder High School.

—Consider a request submitted by a group of former students of SHS ag advisor Billy Bob McMullan requesting a plaque in his honor be placed at the ag building.

—Consider adopting a resolution supporting the Sesquicentennial Celebration in Texas.

Crime linked to local trio

An armed robbery of a Big Spring liquor store has been linked to three Snyder men who were arrested there Friday night in connection with the incident.

Charged are Craig Bailey, 17; Robert Lee Baily, 28; and Jimmy Brown, 32. Bond for each was set at $15,000.

Authorities say the description of the vehicle they were driving matched one which three men used after taking an undetermined amount of cash from Big Mike's Liquor on State Hwy. 350.

The Snyder trio were arrested by Howard County sheriff's deputies and a state game warden after a description of the vehicle was transmitted to area law enforcement officers.

The vehicle they were driving was spotted north on FM 669.

2 brothers gather stock show prizes

The White brothers — Rodney and Ronal — dominated the 1986 Ira FFA Livestock Show Saturday claiming three of the day's top six prizes.

Rodney — a five-year veteran of the Ira ag program and show circuit — claimed two grand championship titles with his animals and little brother Ronal won a reserve championship.

Rodney won the grand championship of the lamb division with a heavyweight medium wool animal and the grand championship of the swine division with a medium weight crossbred animal.

Ronal — who has only been showing animals for 2 years — backed up his older brother in the swine division claiming the reserve championship in that competition with a heavyweight crossbred animal.

Brandy Oliver was also a multiple award winner for the 1986 show — claiming both the grand and reserve champion's trophies in the steer judging.

The 10-year-old Oliver — in only her second year of competition — showed two white faced calves as the only entries in the steer judging.

The day's sixth top award was claimed by high school junior Rebel Royall in the lamb competition.

He campaigned a finewool animal to the reserve championship of the division after taking top honors for the breed in a division not classified by weight.

A new feature for the 1986 Ira FFA Show was the Prospect Hog division.

According to show organizers, the new division was set up to allow those students to show hogs which are not yet up to the

In Brief

AIDS hearing

AUSTIN (AP) — State Health Commissioner Dr. Robert Bernstein says the state should be allowed to isolate certain "incorrigible" AIDS victims whose refusal to curtail their sexual activity might cause a spread of the fatal disease.

Not everyone agrees, however, and representatives of civil liberties groups and homosexual organizations planned to voice their objections at a public hearing on the proposal.

Firemen hurt

HOUSTON (AP) — A fire that resulted from a leak at a gas transmission substation left two firefighters with minor injuries and 2,000 residents temporarily without electricity, authorities said.

The flash fire started about 8 a.m. Sunday when a gas line began leaking at a southwest Houston gas transmission station, authorities said.

The blaze sent flames hundreds of feet into the air and caused power circuits to automatically shut off at a nearby Houston Lighting & Power Co. substation.

Local

Club break-in

Police are investigating a burglary of the Great Western Restaurant and Club reported Sunday night.

Employees told police they discovered the break-in at 11:10 p.m.

Officers report someone apparently gained entry to the business by forcing open a back door sometime after the restaurant closed at 2 p.m. Sunday.

An as yet undetermined amount of cash was reported taken from the cash drawers of both the restaurant and private club.

Pickup rolls

A Snyder man escaped injury in a one-vehicle traffic mishap on U.S. Hwy. 180 Saturday morning.

According to Department of Public Safety accident reports, A.C. Rodgers of Rt. 1, Snyder apparently lost control of a 1986 Ford pickup owned by Grimmett Brothers Construction of Snyder.

The mishap occurred around 8:45 a.m. as he was westbound on 180 some 7 miles west of Snyder.

The pickup veered off and then back across the roadway before overturning.

Searched ship arrives in port

FUJAIRA, United Arab Emirates (AP) — An American cargo ship that was intercepted and searched by the Iranian navy in international waters arrived in this port today, and U.S. warships were reported to be escorting other American vessels in nearby shipping lanes.

The U.S. ambassador to the United Arab Emirates, George Quincey Lumsden, visited the 39,000-ton President Taylor after it entered port and listened to a report on the incident by the ship's captain, Robert Reimann.

Malcolm Stafford, general manager of Fujaira National Shipping Co., agents of the President Taylor, said, "Everybody (aboard) is safe, everything is fine."

The vessel with its 43-man crew was scheduled to leave Tuesday for India, he said.

A maritime shipping agent who spoke on condition he not be identified said, "Units of the U.S. Navy have been physically shadowing American merchant ships in and near gulf sea lanes, protecting them against the eventuality of being harassed by the Iranians."

The shipping agent contended the Iranians were "merely flexing their muscle, apparently to demonstrate solidarity with Libya."

The Reagan administration accuses Libya of supporting the terrorist group that is believed to be responsible for attacks at the Rome and Vienna airports Dec. 27 in which 19 people died. Last week, President Reagan announced an end to all economic activity between the United States and Libya, and ordered Americans living in the North African country to leave.

No arms were found aboard the ship, which is owned by American President Lines, Ltd., of Oakland, Calif.

"Seven armed Iranian soldiers and officers boarded the ship and opened three boxes of cargo," one Arab diplomat told The Associated Press. "What we know is that the boxes contain cotton. The President Taylor had to stop and allow the Iranians to come aboard when these Iranians threatened to blow it up."

It was the first American vessel boarded by the Iranians, who have boarded cargo ships from other countries in an effort to block arms shipments to neighboring Iraq. Iran and Iraq have been at war since September 1980.

Iran's official Islamic Republic News Agency confirmed the interception of the ship in a report monitored today in Nicosia, Cyprus. The news agency said seven sailors boarded the ship Sunday, and that it was released two hours later.

IRNA quoted an Iranian naval officer as "repeating once more that in the Persian Gulf, Iran will seize ships suspected of carrying military hardware for the Baghdad regime." It also said no arms were found on the ship.

Sources in the Persian Gulf said the sailors boarded the ship in the Gulf of Oman about 30 miles southeast of Fujairah and 20 miles off the coast of Oman.

White House spokesman Peter Roussel said President Reagan had been informed of the incident. The president returned Sunday afternoon from a weekend at Camp David, the presidential retreat in Maryland, but made no comment to reporters.

"Obviously, it is a matter of serious concern," he said.

In an interview Sunday night on Cable News Network, the Iranian ambassador to the United Nations, Dr. Said Rajaie-Khorassani, defended the boarding.

"We think it is justified according to international law because it is not tolerable for us to see that ships are carrying or may be carrying armaments to Iraq," he said.

The United States declared neutrality after the Iran-Iraq war broke out.

Dispute over white oil leads to swoon in Texas economy

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — Independent oil operators have been devastated by recent state and federal rulings, and the ripple effect is proving ruinous to the Texas Panhandle communities they serve, a state senator says.

About half the businesses in Borger are facing bankruptcy, and it's only a matter of time before Pampa and Dumas are in the same situation, Sen. Bill Sarpalius, D-Amarillo, said.

The Amarillo Globe-News reported Sunday that of 30 Borger and Pampa businessmen surveyed recently, all said their business has plummeted 20 to 60 percent from 1984 and that a controversy over "white oil" production is to blame.

The boom spawned by independent oilmen's discovery that they could get white oil from natural gas came to an abrupt end following rulings by the Texas Railroad Commission and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Those decisions resulted in the shutdown of white-oil and some black-oil wells the agencies say were tapping interstate gas reserves. They also have given several major oil companies grounds to file lawsuits against hundreds of independents, which means even more wells may be closed down.

White oil comes from the pressurized cooling of gas vapors into a liquid. The major companies say the independents are unlawfully tapping natural gas reserves they don't own. Independents claim they are only taking casing head gas, a legal byproduct of an oil well.

Many businessmen the Globe-News interviewed asked not to be quoted, saying they did not want to offend officials of major petroleum companies or independent oilmen.

As one Borger businessman put it, "We need both the independents and Phillips Petroleum."

The white oil controversy already has devastated oilmen and royalty owners, and it has cut into tax revenues for Panhandle schools, cities and counties, Sarpalius said.

Very few independents are drilling these days and many of them aren't producing anything from the Panhandle Field, he said.

"Nobody will drill a well and nobody will do anything because nobody knows what the rules are anymore," said independent oilman Claude Hooks Jr. of Borger.

Hooks, who owns interests in Hooks Bros. Oil Co., Hooks Well Service and Hooks Tank Truck Service, said his business is off at least 50 percent from 1984 and he's fired at least 25 of his employees.

Magic Words Shut the Door On Woman's Unhappy Youth

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1986 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from the 30-year-old married woman who hated to go home for the holidays because her family kept repeating the stories about how fat, dumb and miserable she was as a child. (They all laughed and made a joke of it.)

I, too, was a fat (200 pounds), sullen, unhappy and unpopular teen-ager, but I grew older and wiser. I trimmed down and became a very successful professional woman. After 10 years in Overeaters Anonymous, I realized that my family could have mixed feelings of pride and jealousy about my adult accomplishments. Some people act more out of habit than malice. I broke my family of their habit of making my miserable past the focal point for family entertainment, or a topic of disclosure to strangers in my presence, with 12 simple words: "There is no need to discuss that now; let's change the subject."

I repeated them in the car, in the shower, to my husband and the mirror until it became automatic. Then every time they started in on my past, I repeated it. No explanations; repetition only. When family members became defensive or denied any intent to hurt me, I said, "That's OK. There is no need to discuss that now. Let's change the subject."

Once, out of pride, I'm sure, my mother started to tell an acquaintance what a fat, rebellious teen ager I had been. I broke into her conversation with the magic words. Mother later said she was upset that I had publicly admonished her. I simply repeated the phrase.

I'm now 34, and my family seldom mentions my childhood. If they do, I remind them with: "There is no need to discuss that now; let's change the subject."

Abby, if you think my letter will help someone whose family insists on dredging up painful garbage from the past, feel free to use this, but not my name. Sign me

MOVING ON

DEAR MOVING: Thank you for a moving letter.

DEAR ABBY: Please inform "Just Asking," who wanted to know what might happen to her because of her husband's failure to file tax returns, that there are a wide variety of possible answers—most of them bad—depending on where they live, the actual income involved, and her actual or deemed knowledge of his reporting of income.

Assuming he earned above certain minimum income levels, it is likely that he should have reported his income, good records or not. The Internal Revenue Service may construct his income for him if he fails to do so, and probably not to his benefit.

If taxes are due, all of their marital property could be subject to a tax liability. She might have "innocent spouse" status for the unreported income; however, that protection would evaporate if she continues to acquiesce in the non-reporting of income.

A divorce will not protect her from past liability to the federal treasury, nor will she likely be able to avoid the tax debt in considering the division of marital property. Your advice was good — get to a tax professional (a CPA or tax attorney) at once. They can't afford not to see one soon.

Astro-Graph

By Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday

Jan. 14, 1986

Conditions in general look hopeful for you in the year ahead. You will be involved in several promising situations that you will handle simultaneously.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be extremely selective if you choose to divulge confidential information today. Actually it would be best to keep your secrets to yourself. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker set instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, Box 1646, Cincinnati, OH 45201.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Continue to keep a tight reign on your financial expenditures. Don't frivolously spend funds earmarked for essentials.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Major accomplishments are possible today, so don't toss in the towel prematurely if the going gets a little rough. Tenacity spells victory.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your plans are feasible today and they can be implemented successfully. Ignore any self-doubts that surface because they'll be false signals.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be on guard for unusual maneuvers by one with whom you have commercial dealings today. He might be contemplating a move to try to catch you unaware.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Today, heed only the counsel of people you know and trust. A recent acquaintance might innocently pass off fool's gold in the guise of precious metal.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) What you do today you will do well. But the drawback could be that you won't complete things that should be finished in detail.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your financial aspects look rather promising today, provided you don't let a well-meaning associate get you involved in a risky hair-brained venture.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) An opportunity will arise today to enable you to do some fence mending with a friend with whom you've recently had a disagreement.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Subdue tendencies today to make last-minute changes in plans you have carefully considered. All will work out well if you stick to your original blueprint.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov.22) Financial trends continue to be a mixed bag for your today. You have the potential for gains, provided you do nothing reckless.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Try not to be too insistent today upon having everything your way. If you bend a bit, people with whom you'll be involved will do likewise.

Conservative group backs Aquino

WASHINGTON (AP) — Philippine presidential candidate Corazon Aquino, who is challenging Ferdinand E. Marcos in an election next month, has won the backing of a private U.S. conservative group with close ties to the Reagan administration.

The National Defense Council, a prominent supporter of President Reagan's policies in Central America, said Sunday that Mrs. Aquino "expresses democratic and anti-communist views" and her election is vital "for democracy to be reborn in the Philippines."

Raul S. Manglapus, president of the anti-Marcos Movement for a Free Philippines, said the National Defense Council's endorsement "dramatically exploded" Marcos' charges that Mrs. Aquino is influenced by communists.

Fine Hair: What You Can (And Can't) Do

Adding body and fullness to fine hair is a frequent request of hairdressers. According to Robert Anderson, manager of Nouvelle Vogue in Miami, a body wave or strong color can change the texture of fine hair. "Also, when fine hair is layered, the illusion is one of fullness. I generally go with short cuts; fine hair shouldn't go below the shoulder, but a lot depends on the person's face and weight. Heavier people should avoid short, blunt cuts."

Cleanliness is also important for fine hair because any residue will make it limp. Using a shampoo specifically designed for fine hair makes sense. "I really like Ivory Extra Body for Fine Hair Shampoo because it's gentle and leaves hair very clean," says Anderson.

Ron Hall of Don Shaw Salons in Atlanta says that mousses, gels and sprays make hair maintenance much easier during the growing out process. "We encourage cuts every eight to ten weeks with little taken off but shape put back in," he says. "Grow out the layers first, length second. If you let the layers catch up to the bottom, there are fewer awkward stages."

To solve the problem of difficult growth patterns, Ric Bishop of the Ric Bishop Salon in Dallas believes in working with cow licks and the hair's natural growth pattern. "When you alter the natural hair line (such as with cuts that are extremely short at the nape) it looks wonderful the first day, but in a few days, stubble comes back," he says.

Anderson exclaims, "Thank God for cow licks! I love 'em! They give hair personality and distinction. Without them we would all look the same—they create a need for different cuts and styles."

CWC's guest speaker has memory like caterpillar

Christian Women's Club held their monthly luncheon at the Snyder Country Club on Jan. 8.

Marcy Mattson of the Diamond M Museum showed a slide presentation of the Brandywine collection. These are paintings from various artists that depicted the changing role of women in the late 1800's and early 1900's. Also the role of men during this time was depicted.

The guest soloist was Liz Neeley accompanied on the piano by Judy Neil. The music was "What the World Needs Now" and "For These Tears I Died."

The guest speaker was Wanda Hall of Canyon. Hall has been involved with Christian Women's Club for many years in several different states. Hall has three grown boys.

With a wonderful sense of humor, Hall said, "My memory and a caterpillar have a lot in common — both are short and fuzzy." Still on the lighter side she says, "You know you have been married a long time when someone asks if you have ever thought of leaving your husband and you reply 'where'."

Sharing how she learned a way to get out of feeling frustrated and trapped in life, she found the answer in Christ. She began to live a God centered life, Hall said. "God will give you the power to live for Him and direction for your life. He cares about every area of our lives."

Phi Beta Kappa book awards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three books have been named the 1985 winners of the Phi Beta Kappa Book Awards.

For the past 30 years, the awards have been made annually to outstanding books published in the United States in the fields of literature, science and the social sciences.

The latest winners, selected from over 150 entries were: "The English Elegy: Studies in the Genre From Spenser to Yeats," by Peter M. Sacks; "The Scientific Reinterpretation of Form," by Norma E. Emerton, and "The Crucible of Race: Black-White Relations in the American South Since Emancipation," by Joel Williamson.

The awards carry $2,500 prizes.

Range Conservationist

Prescribed burning is one of the oldest and newest of range management tools available to ranchers. This may seem like a contradiction of terms, but only requires a look back in history to understand. Lightening caused many prairie fires in past centuries. Nomadic indians practiced a form of prescribed burning by setting prairie fires to provide fresh grazing for the free-ranging buffalo. In the last 15 years we have re-discovered the benefits of prescribed burning on native and improved rangeland. Fire plans have been developed which allow us to safely burn the range when key grasses are dormant and soil moisture is adequate for quick recovery of the plants. With careful planning and burn preparation the danger of large wildfires are reduced. One of the largest wildfires occurred in 1885 and traveled 175 miles from Kansas, south to the Canadian Breaks north of Amarillo. This fire burned 1 million acres of XIT ranch land. Today interspersion of cropland prevents most wildfires from spreading very far.

In the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation district, tobosa grass is the dominant vegetation used in prescribed burning. Objectives in burning are to control juniper seedlings, suppress resprouts from mesquite, control prickly pear and to improve the quality and quantity of tobosa and bluestem rangelands. The optimum time for burning is late January through early March. Now is the time to begin preparation for a burn this year. The Soil Conservation Service will provide technical assistance in developing a fire plan and assisting in carrying out a prescribed burn with the producer. If you would like to conduct a burn or desire more information on burning, contact the Soil Conservation Service at 3423 Avenue T or call 573-1268.

A lucky guess pays off

The North American Swiss Teams, a prestigious bridge event that has been around only a few years, is held during the last three days of the Fall North American Championships. It is more challenging than most other team events since on the last day all the competing teams play their individual short matches with duplicated deals. Doing so eliminates the inequity of other Swiss-team competitions, in which some matches have wilder deals with more opportunity for exaggerated results. My team happened to win this year, so this week you are going to see some of the deals from that final day.

In today's deal, South meant his three-spade bid as a control-showing cue-bid. When North raised to four spades and South corrected to five clubs, it was obvious that South had slam interest. North gambled to bid six, feeling that if South had small hearts, defender West would lead the ace. If West led a small heart, North hoped it would be away from the queen. And that is what happened. On the opening heart lead, declarer played dummy's jack and East won with the ace. Back came the jack of diamonds, covered by the queen, king and ace. Now declarer began the parade of clubs. Since West could not guard both major queens, he eventually shed a heart. Now a heart to the king and a heart ruff made dummy's lowly seven of hearts a winner. This was one lucky hand for our team, but I bet you will feel that some of the other deals this week are even luckier.

Diet Pill Sweeping U.S.

New Super "Dream Pill" Lose Weight As You Sleep!

No Dieting — Eat All You Want

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — An amazing new super "dream pill" has recently been developed and perfected that reportedly "guarantees" that you will easily lose up to 10 pounds in 10 days. Best of all, it allows you to "eat as much as you want of your favorite foods and still lose a pound a day or more starting from the very first day until you achieve your ideal weight and figure."

This remarkable new diet pill combines two natural substances which cause adults to lose weight fast by "tricking" the body into acting like a teenager. These nutritional substances, called L-arginine and L-ornithine, stimulate the body's production of growth hormone. Dr. Robert Harris, a specialist in nutritional medicine in Stafford Springs, Connecticut, was recently quoted as explaining: "Growth Hormone may be what's responsible for allowing teenagers to down thousands of calories in hamburgers and other foods and still be thin as a rail.

"Growth Hormone is present in people up through the teenage years, then slowly diminishes with age. But L-arginine and L-orthinine make the body 'think' it belongs to a teenager again, allowing adults to eat as much as they want — and still be thin and wiry."

"Pill Does All The Work"

According to the manufacturer, "the pill itself does all the work while you quickly lose weight with NO starvation 'diet menus' to follow, NO calorie counting, NO exercise and NO hunger pangs." The pill is not a drug! It is 100% safe consisting of natural amino acids just like those found in the foods you eat everyday.

Life Extension Authors Confirm Results

Durk Pearson and Sandy Shaw, graduates of MIT and UCLA respectively, introduced these miracle substances to the public in their runaway best selling book, Life Extension. They discovered the weight-loss effects by accident. Sandy fell and broke her foot and started taking L-arginine because of its well-known healing qualities. Much to her amazement Sandy lost 25 pounds of fat and put on 5 pounds of firm-toned muscle in six weeks. According to Durk's calculations, the pill caused Sandy to lose 400 times as much fat as she would otherwise have lost — without dieting!

Lose Weight While You Sleep

One beautiful thing about these miracle pills is the ease with which they work. You don't have to count calories and you don't have to follow special diets or eat special foods. You don't even have to exercise. The best time to take the pills is just before you go to bed at night. That way, the pounds melt away even as you sleep. You wake up every morning, slimmer, happier and feeling younger!

The super dream pill is already sweeping the country with glowing reports of easy and fast weight loss from formerly overweight people in all walks of life who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Extraordinary Guarantee

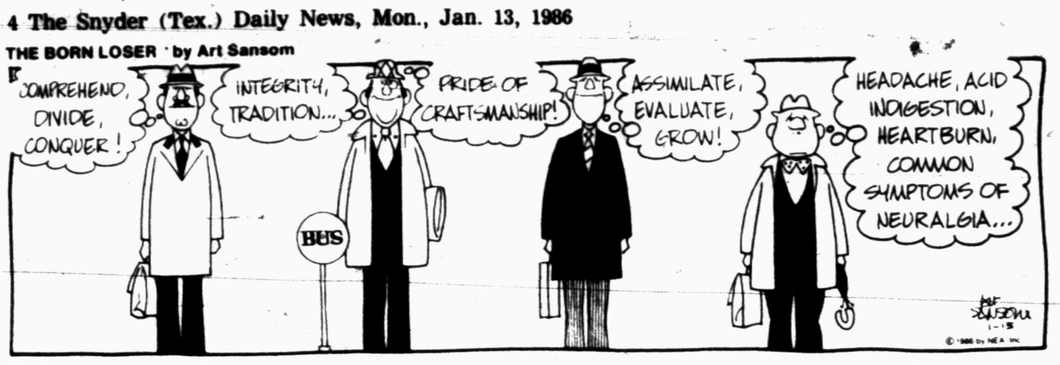

Place your order now. If you are not completely satisfied with the thinner "new you" simply return the empty container for a full refund of your entire purchase price. No questions asked. Now what could be fairer than that?

You can order a 30 day supply of these remarkable capsules for $19.95 or a 60 day supply for $34.95.

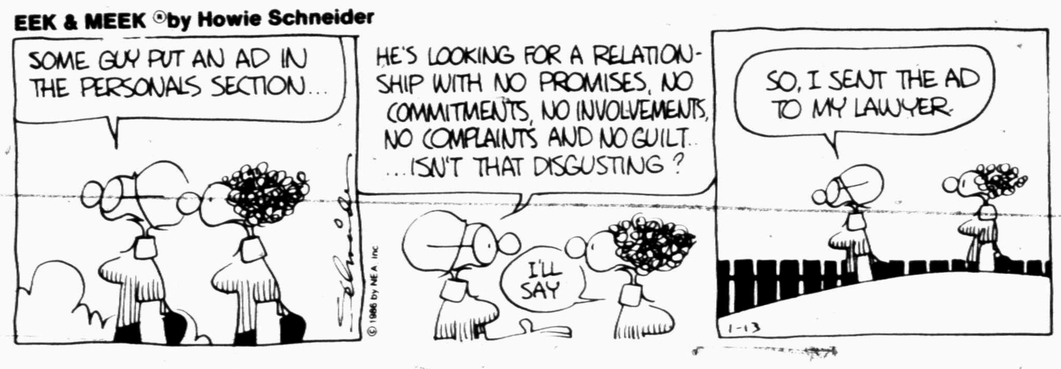

To order simply call Dream Pill TOLL FREE 1-800-453-4903, and use your VISA or MasterCard. Operators are standing by 24 hours a day, seven days a week. McMahon leads Bear romp; Chicago Super Bowl bound CHICAGO (AP) - The Chicago Bears are a team with a purpose. And quarterback Jim McMahon, their defiant field general, is the man to fulfill it despite his sometimes crazy antics.

McMahon, running for one touchdown and passing for another, directed the Bears to a 24-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams Sunday for the National Conference championship and a berth in the Super Bowl.

The game was supposed to be a battle between super running backs Walter Payton of Chicago and Eric Dickerson of Los Angeles. It never materialized. Payton rushed 18 times for 32 yards. Dickerson, who set a playoff record of 248 yards rushing against Dallas last week, carried 17 times for 46 yards.

McMahon took charge from the outset.

He turned what was to have been a pass play into a 16-yard touchdown run "when I saw the alley open." In the third quarter he junked the draw play called by Coach Mike Ditka and hit Willie Gault with a 22-yard touchdown pass.

"I do it often," McMahon said of the audible. "Mike? He congratulated me for making a good call."

Although he was sacked three times, McMahon completed 16 of 25 passes for 164 yards with no interceptions.

Dieter Brock of Los Angeles completed 10 of 31 passes for 66 yards and had one pass intercepted.

"I wouldn't want to be in Dieter's shoes," McMahon said. "It's tough to throw in that wind when the other guys have their hands in your face."

Brock also was sacked three times and constantly was harassed by the Bear pass rush. The Bear defense allowed the Rams a net total of 130 yards in recording an unprecedented second straight playoff shutout.

The seriousness and importance of the game didn't detract from McMahon's penchant for being somewhat different.

After dashing 16 yards for a touchdown on the Bears first drive, the irrepressible McMahon took off his helmet and displayed a sweatband scrawled with the name of "Rozelle." That was for Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the National Football League.

"Last week it cost me five grand," said McMahon, who drew a fine from the league office for wearing a sweatband with the Adidas brand name on it. "I decided to give Pete a little publicity so he wouldn't fine me."

Snyder's Webb reaps post-season notoriety

Snyder running back Justin Webb received honorable mention honors with the Class 4A All-State Team, released over the weekend.

Webb, a 180-pound senior, rushed for 1,128 yards and 11 touchdowns. He also caught four passes for 119 yards and one other TD.

Webb had earlier been named to all-district, all-South Plains and all-West Texas teams.

Sweetwater's Mike Welch was named to the first team defense for the second straight season. Joining him was teammate Warren Creed, offensive lineman.

Mustang quarterback Neal Hoover was named third team while Welch and Anthony Norman was also selected as honorable mention split end.

Monahans running back Dana Amos also received honorable mention.

Pats plaster Miami, 31-14

MIAMI (AP) - So much for talk about how improbable it would be for a team to win three straight playoff games on the road to the Super Bowl.

The New England Patriots have beaten those odds and it's of little consequence to them if few people believed they could. Mission Impossible became Mission Accomplished on Sunday.

Playing near flawless football for the third consecutive week, the Patriots defeated the Miami Dolphins 31-14 to win the AFC championship and a berth opposite the Chicago Bears in the Super Bowl on Jan. 26 in New Orleans.

The Patriots beat Miami with an awesome rushing attack that exploited Miami's defense for 255 yards as well as ball-hawking special teams and defensive units that forced six turnovers.

Turnovers once again were New England's ally, and a porous run defense was Miami's enemy.

The Patriots converted four Miami fumbles into 24 points and also intercepted two Dan Marino passes to give New England 16 takeaways in its three playoff victories, compared to five giveaways.

"It just makes sense mathematically that if you have a large number of takeaways it's going to make it easier for you to win," said New England Coach Raymond Berry, whose team had scored three touchdowns off fumbled kickoffs returns in its previous four games.

New England's rookie defensive linemen Garin Veris and Lester Williams recovered fumbles to set up 10 first-half points that helped New England to a 17-7 halftime advantage.

Miami slipped into deep trouble when Lorenzo Hampton fumbled returning the second-half kickoff and New England's Greg Hawthorne recovered at the Dolphins' 25.

Six plays later, Patriots quarterback Tony Eason threw his third touchdown pass of the game to make it 24-7.

Marino tossed a 10-yard scoring pass to Tony Nathan 32 seconds into the fourth quarter, after a Patriot fumble, to trim the Pats' lead to 24-14.

New England's Julius Adams recovered a Joe Carter fumble on the Dolphins' next possession and the Patriots drove 45 yards to put the game away on Mosi Tatupu's 1-yard run with 7:34 remaining.

Craig James paced New England's offense with 105 yards on 22 carries.

The Patriots' rushing attack was so effective that Eason attempted only three passes in the second half and finished with 10 completions in 12 attempts for 71 yards.

Besides his 2-yard touchdown pass to Weathers, Eason tossed a 4-yarder to Tony Collins and a 1-yarder to to Derrick Ramsey.

Marino completed 20 of 48 passes for 248 yards, but the Miami running game produced only 68 yards.

Western hosts Thunderbirds in conference action tonight

Western Texas College basketball returns to Scurry County Coliseum tonight as the Dusters and Westerners play at home for the first time in more than a month.

The action pits Western Texas against solid New Mexico Junior College. Tip-offs are scheduled at 6 and 8 o'clock.

The test will be tough for Western teams. Coach Phil Spradling's Westerners haven't played since early December, while the Dusters spent a grueling weekend in the Northern Oklahoma Tournament of Champions.

"We're in a super tough part of our schedule right now," said Dusters Coach Kelly Chadwick. "We had three hard tournament games and I'm hoping the kids won't be tired tonight."

WOMEN

Western Texas is 14-6 and comes into the game following a consolation victory in the Northern Oklahoma Tournament of Champions. The Dusters are 1-1 in conference play.

In conference play the Dusters defeated Howard 72-50 and lost to top-ranked Odessa, 74-69.

New Mexico Junior College's Lady Thunderbirds are also 14-6 and 0-1. Their lone conference outing was a 71-67 loss to Clarendon College.

A key to the game will be how well Western can handle New Mexico's high-octane offense. The 'Birds boast a 79.8 scoring average while Western is giving up only 56.5 points an outing.

The 'Birds also average 44.3 rebounds a game; Western 35.1.

Top players for New Mexico include Suzanne McKeen (13.9 points), Tammy Sprangler (13.3 points, 7.8 rebounds), Kelly Foster (12.7 points, 7.8 rebounds) and Lori Trollinger (10.6 points, 4.2 rebounds).

Western is led offensively by 5-11 freshman Brenda Welch and 5-8 sophomore Pam Cox, who average 19.7 and 18.8 points respectively. Welch also averaged 8.6 rebounds.

Angela Jeans, floor leader for the Dusters, is averaging 8.9 points, 5.4 rebounds and 6.4 assists a game.

MEN

Western Texas College is 11-5 for the season and 2-1 in conference play. The Westerners haven't played since Dec. 9 when they defeated Odessa College 92-75. They also defeated New Mexico Military 80-76 and lost to Howard, 80-72, in conference outings.

New Mexico Junior College comes into the game with a 13-4 record, 1-1 in conference play. The Thunderbirds whipped Clarendon 80-71 but lost to Midland 90-81.

Derrick Hill leads the 'Birds by averaging 18 points and 8.9 boards. NMJC also features Craig Walker (12.5 points, 6.8 rebounds) and Clark White (11.5 points, 6.2 rebounds).

New Mexico is averaging 88.5 points and 44.8 rebounds a game.

Western's top scorers are stacked at sixth, seventh and eighth in the conference. James Dawn averages 17.2 points, Alvin Lee 17.1 and Alvin Hicks 16.1. Cliff Langford, a 6-9 sophomore, averages 12.3 points and 8.5 rebounds.

The Westerners lead the conference in scoring with an 89.6 average and pull down 37.1 rebounds a game.

Dusters clip Eastern; take third in tourney

TONKAWA, Okla. – Western Texas took consolation honors in the Tournament of Champions here Saturday, getting a 30-point effort from Brenda Welch to defeat Eastern Oklahoma 74-67.

The Dusters, now 14-6 for the season, return home for a Western Junior College Athletic Conference game with New Mexico Junior College tonight at 6 in Scurry County Coliseum.

Welch, a 5-11 freshman who earned all-tournament honors here, went to the free throw line to get 10 of her 30 points. She hit 10 of 11 from the line as Western exprienced an unusually good night from the charity stripe.

The Dusters, who had lost to No. 8 ranked Connors State here Thursday because of poor free throw shooting, were 14 of 17 against Eastern Oklahoma.

Western also got another fine effort from point-guard Angela Jeans, who cashed in eight field goals for 16 points. Sophomore standout Pam Cox pitched in 14 more.

Western trailed at halftime, 38-36, but took control of the game with about 10 minutes to play.

"I think the tournament will really help our team," said Coach Kelly Chadwick. "We saw just about every kind of defense and we got work on our offenses and defenses quite a bit."

Upsets continue to change Southwest Conference play

by The Associated Press

The basketball rivalry between Texas A&M and Texas hasn't been as intense in recent years because of the Aggies' dominance.

The Aggies have won five of the last six games.

However, there's a big showdown in College Station Wednesday night that could be the most heated of the series since Bob Weltlich became coach of the Longhorns.

"The rivalry is a pretty big one but this time it's for the No. 1 spot," said Aggies' guard Todd Holloway.

Texas at 4-0 is leading the SWC with the Aggies and defending champion Texas Tech a half game behind at 3-0.

In Saturday's action, Texas bounced Baylor 65-40; the Aggies nicked Texas Christian 64-60; Texas Tech nipped Arkansas 48-46 on another last-second shot by Tony Benford; Rice upset Houston 71-68l and Kansas crushed Southern Methodist 72-56.

TCU Coach Jim Killingsworth said the crowd at G. Rollie White Coliseum intimidated his Horned Frogs.

"The crowd got to 'em," said Killingsworth. "They didn't think like they do at home."

Arkansas, selected as the preseason favorite, is tied for dead last at 0-4 under new coach Nolan Richardson and "Hawgball" has yet to produce a victory.

Houston, expected to make a run for the title, is 0-3 and just lost to Rice in Hofheinz Pavilion for the first time in history.

Rice's victory over Houston in Hofheinz was its first in 16 tries.

"All of those losses were other Rice teams," said Terrence Cashaw, who scored a season-high 26 points. "We were confident despite Houston's inning streak."

Texas Tech used a well-worn script to beat Arkansas.

For the third straight SWC game, Tony Benford hit the game-winning shot. This time it was a 10-footer with eight seconds left.

Arkansas is now off to its worst SWC start since 1970-71, Lanny Van Eman's last year as head coach.

Baylor received some good news Sunday from the NCAA, which had suspended seven Bears following allegations of rules violations.

The association's Subcommittee on Eligibility decided that guard Eric Johnson and forward Darryl Middleton can return to action on Feb. 1. Johnson and Middleton were among seven Baylor players suspended last month by the NCAA.

Tigers eye Mustangs for Tuesday contests

Snyder varsity basketball teams are pitted against Sweetwater in a couple of key District 2-4A games Tuesday.

Though Snyder boys need a win to stay in second place in their standings, the game is even more special for the girls.

Sweetwater's girls are 20-1 for the season, 6-0 in district play and ranked No. 6 in the state. Snyder is unranked, but boasts records of 16-1 and 5-1.

A victory for the Lady Tigers Tuesday would push the loop back into a three-way tie for first place.

In action last Friday, Snyder girls ripped Fort Stockton 71-37 while Sweetwater ran past Pecos 52-38.

Snyder boys are 12-4 for the season and 3-1 in conference play.

Lamesa boys, suffering the effects of an elongated football season, are 2-2 for the season and conference play. The Mustangs defeated Monahans 48-39 last Friday while Snyder popped Fort Stockton, 85-62.

Obituaries

Lela Carmichael

Services for Lela Myrtle Carmichael, 85, a lifetime resident of Fluvanna, were to be at 2 p.m. Monday at Fluvanna Church of Christ with Don Campbell officiating. Burial was to be in Fluvanna Cemetery.

She died Saturday at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. She was born May 26, 1900 in McGregor, Tex. She was a housewife and Church of Christ member.

She married Horace Carmichael Aug. 14, 1917 in Gatesville. He died in 1969.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Oscar Maples who died April 22, 1984.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mrs. Harry Kingston, both of Fluvanna; five grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. H. O. Markley of Dimmitt and Mrs. Hubert McMullen of Erick, Okla.; a brother, M. A. Hughes of Floydada.

Pallbearers were J. D. Patterson, Sandy Holder, Don Jones, Bobby Stansell, Rex Pylant, Oliver Hughes.

Faulkenberry

Services for Sheila Clorette Faulkenberry, 42, of 1209 28th were held Monday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Don Anderson of Bethel Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Hobbs Cemetery under direction of Bell-Cypert-Seale.

She died at 4:15 a.m. Saturday at her home. She was born Sept. 15, 1943 in Santa Maria, Calif.

She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church. She was an invalid.

She is survived by her mother, Clorette Faulkenberry, a brother, Jesse Faulkenberry, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duke, and three nephews, Marc, Paul and Stephen Faulkenberry, all of Snyder.

Pallbearers were Jerry House, Dick Fowler, Jim Bob Millhollon, Elbert Hill, C. W. Berryman, R. C. Reap, Ben Clamon.

Stan Elliott

LUBBOCK--Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the South Plains Church of Christ for Stan P. Elliott, 44, who died Saturday afternoon at St. Mary's Hospital following a brief illness.

Elliott, a resident of Wolfforth, was the brother of Tommy Williams of Snyder. Burial will be in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Born in Coahoma, he was a cotton gin machinery salesman and had lived in Wolfforth for 13 years, moving there from Lubbock. He was a member of the South Plains Church of Christ. He married Esther Box on July 23, 1960 in Levelland.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Nanette Green of Lubbock, three other brothers, David Elliott of Levelland, Jimmy Williams of Abilene and Garland Bethel of Amarillo, two sisters, Patsy Dillauou and Janie Kennedy, both of Amarillo.

Vivian Lay

ROTAN--Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the First Baptist Church for Vivian Lay, 81, a former Scurry County resident.

She was the mother of James Lay of Hermleigh. Mrs. Lay died at 12:15 a.m. Sunday at South Park Hospital in Lubbock after a brief illness.

Burial was to be in the Hobbs Cemetery in Fisher County. Officiating at the service was the Rev. Steve Teace, pastor of the Rotan First Baptist Church.

She was a native of Erath County and was married to Jefferson Thomas Lay on Dec. 24, 1920 in Stephenville. The couple moved to Fisher County in 1927 and had lived in Fisher and Scurry counties before moving to Lubbock in 1984.

She was a member of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church in Snyder. She was a retired jewelry store and tailor shop employee.

Other survivors include a son, Boyce of Odessa; three daughters, Mildred Davis of Livingston, Alta Marie Snowden and Mary Nell Snowden, both of Wolfforth; two brothers, William Lee of Brownwood and Jake Lee of Stephenville; four sisters, Mary Jane Belcher of Brownwood, Minnie Hill of Fort Worth, Eunice Jacobs of Stephenville and Jimmie Watson of Mineral Wells; 12 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Garland Scott

COLEMAN--Final rites were conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Coleman First Baptist Church for Garland M. Scott who died Friday at Overall-Morris Hospital.

Scott, 73, was the brother of Charles Scott of Snyder. Burial was in the Coleman Cemetery.

A native of Coleman, he attended school in White Chapel and was a veteran of World War II. He retired in 1976 as a partner in Scott Oil Co., a Fina distributor.

Other survivors include his wife, Lena Scott; two sisters, Mrs. Thelma Goodman and Nelda Scott, both of Coleman; and one other brother, Loys Scott of Bowie.

A followup on Tums and talc

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR GOTT — The label of Tums lists talc as an inactive ingredient. Are you brave enough to admit you were wrong in a recent column, and perhaps encourage the manufacturer to change the Tums formula?

DEAR READER — I've never thought of myself as brave, but if setting the record straight is bravery, then here goes.

At the time I wrote the answer about talc in Tums, neither the label on the container nor the Physicians Desk Reference of Non-Prescription Drugs listed talc as an ingredient. Since then, manufacturers of over-the-counter products have, by and large, agreed voluntarily to list both active and inactive substances in these products.

Talc comprises 2.2 percent of Tums. I have been told by a manufacturer's representative that starch, talc and small quantities of mineral oil are used in the compounding process to help Tums' ingredients stick together. I have been assured that the talc is harmless and is added only to enhance the physical characteristics of Tums. Those readers who are concerned about the potential consequences of talc in Tums can contact the manufacturer for further information. Norcliff Thayer, Inc., One Scarsdale Road, Tuckahoe, NY 10707 (914-631-0033).

DEAR DR GOTT — I received a lumbar laminectomy (L3, 4, 5) and have a dropped left foot and weakness in my left leg. I am an older polio victim, with the affliction in my right leg. Do you have any information that can help relieve my present problem?

DEAR READER — I do not know whether the nerve damage you describe (foot drop and leg weakness) preceded or followed the surgery on your back. If it preceded the operation, the laminectomy may have been delayed too long. If it followed the operation, you may be experiencing a postoperative complication that can still be treated. Either way, a physiatrist (rehabilitation specialist) could probably help you through the use of exercises or a brace.

DEAR DR GOTT — Three or four times a year I develop a sore throat that lasts six to eight hours, then is gone. I am left with a hoarseness that lasts two to four weeks. Some doctors say it's allergies; others say it's sinus drainage. I'm not a smoker. What do you recommend?

DEAR READER — See an allergist. There may be an identifiable substance in your environment that you could avoid or to which you could be desensitized.

DEAR DR GOTT — Our beautiful 24-year-old daughter is addicted to diet cola. She starts in the morning and drinks eight or more each day. Can this have an adverse physical effect on her? She's 5 feet 8 and 135 pounds.

DEAR READER — It is probably a misnomer to label your daugher "addicted" to diet cola. She may have developed an unfortunate habit, but, to my knowledge, the amount of beverage she consumes will not physically harm her. You may be reassured by writing the consumer relations department of the cola manufacturer to obtain data about the product.

I wonder if your daughter is remaining beautiful (and slim) by substituting diet cola for regular food. I'd worry more about her general nutritional state than about the specific effects of diet cola. However, she is 24, so your influence on her is probably limited. Why not share my answer with her and see if she might be motivated to use fruit juices or more natural drinks in place of the diet soda?

Send your questions to Dr. Gott in care of this newspaper at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101. Due to volume of mail, individual questions cannot be answered. Questions of general interest will be answered in future columns.

Man shoots clerks, kills self

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — A clerk wounded in the siege of a 7-Eleven store where one of his co-workers was shot to death says the gunman repeatedly said he would kill both employees because they were friends of his estranged wife.

"He wanted to kill (his wife's) friends to make her suffer," Craig Talley, 25, said Sunday from his hospital bed at Arlington Memorial Hospital, where he is recovering from at least three gunshot wounds.

Thomas Edward Stephens' confrontational visits and phone calls to the store were common knowledge among several employees of nearby 7-Eleven stores, who said Stephens' threats had become a topic of conversation, the Dallas Times Herald reported today.

Stephens, 40, killed store clerk Terri Lee Palmer of Mansfield, wounded Talley and held his wife, Pat Stephens, hostage in the store for six hours Saturday before shooting himself to deaths minutes after his wife escaped at about 6:30 p.m.

The day after the six-hour siege, relatives, friends and acquaintances struggled to understand Stephens' behavior and painted a picture of a confused and troubled man battling alcoholism and struggling to accept the breakup of his family. Stephens had been served divorce papers Friday.

Talley said Sunday that as he lay wounded beside Ms. Palmer, he fought the desire to run, knowning that he'd be killed if he did.

"My plan was to play dead and hope the man wouldn't come back and shoot me again," Talley told the Times Herald. Stephens "came back over near the phone a couple of times to do some other things, but he didn't check on us."

Talley said his fear intensified when Stephens repeatedly said he wanted to kill him and Ms. Palmer to punish his 37-year-old wife, the store's manager.

About 3½ hours after the siege began, Stephens allowed police to enter the store and carry Ms. Palmer and Talley to waiting ambulances.

Ms. Palmer, with whom Mrs. Stephens had lived after leaving her husband and whom Stephens blamed for their divorce, was pronounced dead soon after. Talley suffered wounds to his leg, foot and arm, and is in fair condition.

Talley was not working at the time, but merely visiting the store.

Bobby Crowder, manager of a 7-Eleven near the shooting site, said employees often discussed Stephens' confrontations with his wife in the store, as well as his threatening phone calls.

"That's all they thought it was — threats," Crowder said.

Appointments made Monday

Felan; and Sam Berrera, who will replace Judith Barkowsky. Board members reappointed were Randy Davis, Barbara Burney, Margaret Stubblefield and Mrs. Weldon Wiggins.

In addition, Jackie Smith of Ira will replace Joe Falls on the county welfare board.

Reappointed for new terms to the airport board were Olin Bunch and Seabourne Eicke.

All members of the library board due expiring terms were reappointed also. These include Mrs. Charlie Landon, Mrs. Carl Williams, Louetta Turner and Mrs. J.W. O'Banion.

Veterans Land Board appointments were also made. Members reappointed were Buford Browning, J.B. Tate and Joe Jackson.

Commissioners also appointed new individuals to the Scurry County grievance committee. Named were David Lunsford, Gracie Degrate and John Richardson.

Commissioners are expected to appoint Historical Commission members next Monday.

In other action Monday, the court:

—Took no action concerning a request from Austin lawyer Bob Dabbs, who has expressed an interest regarding contracting with the county to collect delinquent tax monies.

—Again opted to pay all county officers and employees on salary basis, a decision required under law.

—Set county holidays for 1896.

—Approved authorizing the Texas Department of Human Resources to reimburse Scurry and Borden Counties for services performed by District Attorney Ernie Armstrong, primarily involving food stamp fraud.

As of 11:30 a.m. Monday, the court was still scheduled to hear proposals from County Auditor Bernhard Bartels regarding proposed amendments to the 1986 budget.

The scheduling of the show a month earlier than usual prompted the addition of the small hog class and it was the largest single division of the show with 14 entries.

Shane Bearden captured first place in the new division with a crossbred animal while show judge Dewayne Brown of Klondike picked a York exhibited by Steven Denson as second in the class.

All breeds of small hogs were shown together and the prospect champions were not eligible to compete for the grand and reserve championships of the show.

Minor wrecks with weekend

Two minor traffic mishaps were reported in Snyder over the weekend.

Involved in the first — at 11:25 a.m. Saturday — were a 1981 Oldsmobile, driven by Sharla Williamson of 2402 41st St. and a 1984 Ford driven by Bobby French of Odessa.

That accident occurred in the 2500 Block of College Ave.

The second accident was reported at 9:31 a.m. Sunday in the 1200 Block of 13th St.

Involved in it were a 1981 Chevrolet driven by Leon Reyes Terrazas of 1609 8th St. and a 1983 Ford driven Elsa Jean Sanchez of 412 31st St..

No injuries resulted from either mishap.

Missing cycle among reports

Police were called to investigate a variety of misdemeanor complaints during the weekend including a report of a missing motorcycle.

Dorothy Grimes of 811 16th St. filed this theft report at 5:10 a.m. Sunday. She told officers a 1984 50 c.c. Honda motorcycle had been stolen from outside her residence sometime during the night.

Value of the missing off-road bike was set at $500.

Odell Cox of Snyder filed a criminal mischief report at 10:46 a.m. Sunday.

He told police the headlights, tailight lenses, passenger side mirror and windshield on a 1979 Oldsmobile he owns had been broken sometime overnight Saturday.

The damage is thought to have been done while the vehicle was parked in the 700 Block of 19th St.

Investigation is continuing also of a bicycle theft reported Saturday afternoon.

Jesse Martinez of 706 15th St. filed that report at 5:15 p.m.

He told officers a 20-inch BMX type bicycle had been taken from outside his residence.

In other weekend action, police arrested a 43-year-old man for misdemeanor assault Saturday night and two juveniles for shoplifting Saturday afternoon.

The assault arrest occurred after officers were called to a domestic disturbance in the 2800 Block of Ave. H around 10:45 p.m. Saturday.

The juvenile shoplifting suspects — one 12 and the other 9 years of age — were taken into custody at TG&Y at 3:30 p.m. Saturday following a call from store employees.

Both were later released to the custody of their parents.

Five other misdemeanor arrests were logged over the weekend including three for driving while intoxicated, and one each for public intoxication and driving with a suspended license.

One of the DWI suspects was also charged with driving with a suspended license.

Laundromat fire reported

Units of the Snyder Fire Department were called to extinguish a fire in the attic of the Tub Club Laundry at the intersection of 26th St. and Ave. X at 8:47 a.m. Monday.

According to fire officials, a stuck thermostat on a gas water heater was the apparent cause of the blaze.

Excess heat from the heater vent pipe was credited with igniting the fire where the vent passed through the attic area.

Damage from the blaze was considered minor and confined to the southeast corner of the building.

In other recent action, firemen responded to a possible chimney fire at the John Gayle residence at 2912 32nd St. at 9:38 p.m. Saturday.

Chemical Pump Service serves many oil patch needs

Chemical Pump Service, owned locally by Tom Machen, serves the needs of the oil patch, by carrying a full line of Texsteam Electric Drive Injectors. The 4100 Series Texsteam Injectors are positive displacement, plunger-type pumps which are gear driven and utilize electric motors, V-belts or other rotating drives as the power source. The unit's gear drive is housed in a precision-bored, heavy cast iron case with anti-friction bearings on the high speed shaft. The output gear, made of high strength alloy iron, is supported in a special bearing arrangement assuring extremely long life with maximum rigidity.

The entire worm-gear drive mechanism runs in a lubricant bath for longer operating life, even under the most adverse operating conditions.

The Texsteam 4100 Series can be used for chemical injection and for handling corrosive fluids.

Because these units can be equipped with from one to eight heads, a wide range of additives may be accurately handled from one installation. This versatile pump has found wide acceptance for use in refineries, LACT units, salt water floods, tank batteries, process plants and in water treatment for boilers.

The Texsteam 4100 Series Injectors are easy to install. No expensive foundation or piping is required. These pumps will give you many years of economical and trouble-free service.

In addition to Texsteam Electric Drive Injectors, they also carry Western, Calgon and Percision Pumps and Bendix, Wico, Fairbanks Morse and American Bosch Magnetos.

Also ask about Magneto sells and repair as well as Poulan and Shindaiwa chain saws and all types of chain saw sharpening.
