Poker Pikers?

It's not penny ante when these two gents sit down for a few hands of poker. Harry T. Clifton, top, is the Englishman who claims he lost $150,000 in a single deal to Lew Brice, lower photo, brother of Comedienne Fanny Brice. Alleging that the money changed hands through "trick and device," Clifton obtained a court order stopping payment on his check to Brice while the Los Angeles district attorney's office investigated.

Citizens Urged to Send Letters by Air Mail May 15-21

The importance of Midland residents sending out letters by air mail during National Air Mail Week, May 15-22, was stressed by postmaster Allen Tolbert this morning. He pointed out that sending out a large amount of mail from here during the week would aid in the campaign being waged to secure a regularly scheduled mail plane stop here.

The air mail service is observing their twentieth anniversary during Air Mail Week this year and many of the advancements of the service were pointed out by Tolbert.

A cachet portraying Midland as the cattle, oil and agriculture center of the state is being prepared and will be ready for use in stamping air mail letters during the national week. The cachet was drawn by Ralph J. Hickman, Humble Oil and Refining company civil engineer. Tolbert said, that all Midland stamp collectors would probably send out letters stamped with the cachet, mailing them to postmasters in other towns to get them returned here.

A new air mail stamp, to be released May 14, will be used on all letters mailed during the week.

Tolbert said that a mail plane would stop here May 19 to pick up all air mail and particularly urged local citizens to send out letters on that date.

Forgeron Loses In State Amateur Golf Tournament

FORT WORTH, May 5, (AP). — O'Hara Watts, Dallas, defeated H. S. Forgeron, Midland, 2-1, in the Texas Golf Association's championship tournament here today.

O'Hara came through the first nine holes with a four hole lead but lost the next four holes and finally had to snare two birdies to eliminate the West Texan.

Two other Midland golfers, F. A. Stacy and J. L. Taylor, failed to make the championship flight when they took an 86 and 81, respectively. The highest qualifying score in the championship flight was a 77. Forgeron's qualifying score was a 76.

Colonies are Biggest Need, Hitler Says

Ambitions Told to Duce; War Might of Nation on Parade

NAPLES, May 5 (AP). — Thundering guns and churning propellors broke the calm of the Naples coast today as Italy's navy went into a magnificent demonstration of its prowess in honor of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler. Two hundred fighting ships and many seaplanes participated in the maneuvers.

The reichsfuehrer, Premier Mussolini and King Emmanuel watched the maneuvers from the battleship Cavour.

ROME, May 5, (AP). — Adolf Hitler left Rome last night to see a giant Italian naval display at Naples after telling Benito Mussolini of his vaulting colonial ambitions.

The visiting Reichsfuehrer departed on the royal train without his host who plans to accompany him by plane today for the demonstration of Italy's sea might.

An enormous crowd milled around the railway station for a glimpse of Hitler and the other Nazi chieftains whose visit called forth new protestations of firm friendship between the Fascist nations.

The problems of colonies, a sore point with the Germans ever since they were stripped of foreign possessions in the World War settlement, was the main subject discussed by the two dictators in their initial talks.

With Hitler the speaker most of the time and his host an interested and sympathetic listener, the leaders of Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy sandwiched their intimate conversations between tightly-rammed events on the state program marking Hitler's visit.

Beyond the admission that Hitler eloquently pleaded the Reich's claims of elbow room in the world and access to raw materials, nothing leaked out concerning the range of their discussions.

The crowded day included ceremonial visits to the Pantheon, the Unknown Soldier's Tomb and a mighty demonstration of the facility with which young Fascists can handle their war equipment.

Shortly after Mussolini's return from Berlin last fall he said, in a speech delivered in the presence of a German mission, that "it is necessary that a great people like the German people should regain the place which belongs to it and which it once had in the African sun."

Political sources said the conversations eventually would swing into other world political problems, including absorption of Austria by German and the Italo-British pact.

The conferences will be spread through a week of Fascist-Nazi festivities, during which Hitler will be treated to honors such as Rome never before paid the visiting head of any state.

But in everybody's mind, and completely overshadowing other political matters to be discussed, was the effect the deliberations may have on the fate of little Czechoslovagia, admittedly under the gun in Central Europe.

Roy Cogdill Is Speaker at Rotary

Evangelist Roy Cogdill of Dallas, in Midland holding a revival meeting at the Church of Christ, addressed the Rotary club today on the subject of "Successful Service." Humorously interspersing jokes and anecdotes, he urged his listeners to carry out their obligations to the community and their fellow men as well as to promote economic interests.

Successful service, he said, depends on three major points, optimistic vision, active interest and a spirit of unselfishness.

Mr. Cogdill was introduced by Tom Sealy, member of the program committee.

Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, was a guest at the club today. Having lived for sixty years in the west, he is now serving his thirtieth year as president of Hardin-Simmons and is the oldest college president in Texas in point of service. He has been elected for life to the position. Other visitors were Rotarians R. Randerson and O. D. Dillingham of Abilene, and Bill Collyns of Midland.

It was indicated in a show of hands that from twelve to fifteen Rotarians and Rotary Anns will go from Midland to the district conference at Breckenridge from Sunday through Tuesday. Clinton Lackey and W. I. Pratt are delegates from the club.

TO LEAVE FRIDAY.

Mrs. John W. Skinner will leave tonight for a visit in Dallas and Longview.

New Low for Franc Is Set By Daladier

Solid Monetary Base Sought to Rearm Government

PARIS, May 5, (AP). — The Daladier government, seeking a solid monetary base for rearming France, today fixed a new bottom for the franc at 2.79 cents.

The stabilization represented devaluation of about nine per cent from average rates of the floating franc of the last ten months.

France was ordered tied definitely to the pound sterling under an accord for money equilibrium among the United States, Great Britain and France. The government acted simultaneously to prevent profiteering and price rises under devaluation.

Three factors in France's precarious financial situation, Daladier said, made a new rate desirable:

First, increasing unemployment in France; second, France's foreign trade balance, which was growing worse; third, the increasing danger of war.

5 El Paso Students Injured in Wreck Enroute to Meet

FORT STOCKTON, May 5, (AP). — Five members of a party en route to Austin to the State Interscholastic League meet were hurt, two of them seriously, Wednesday when the car in which they rode crashed into a concrete bridge abutment 20 miles west of here.

Raymond Sherman, El Paso real estate man, and driver of the automobile, suffered a broken leg and possible internal injuries; Mrs. Sherman received a back injury, cuts and bruises, and their son, Maurice, student at El Paso's Austin High School, had both legs broken and his ankle injured.

Miss Lillian Huggett, El Paso teacher and declamation coach, and Frances McKee of El Paso, were less seriously hurt. A small son of the Shermans was not injured.

Maurice Sherman was to represent Austin High School in extemporary speaking, and Miss McKee was to represent the school at the state high school journalists' conference.

The injured were at a local hospital.

Cuban Woman Gives Birth to 7 Babies; All are Born Dead

HAVANA, May 5 (AP).—Doctor Roberto Fonseca, director of the hospital at Bayamo, telephoned Havana today that a farm woman had given birth prematurely to seven children but that none of them survived.

He said he visited the woman but had not seen the children because a mid-wife had disposed of their bodies. The woman's name was given as Rafeala Canova, 30.

Tornado Kills One; Wheat Belt Soaked

By the Associated Press.

Tornadoes left one man dead and several persons injured last night as one of the heaviest rains in years soaked the southwestern wheat belt.

Centering in Kansas and Oklahoma, the storm extended into Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri, and Iowa and weather forecasters predicted it would reach Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky today.

A series of small tornadoes left a trail of minor property damage in Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

William J. Wilson, 66, was killed near Bluejacket, Okla., when he was penned beneath the wreckage of a barn. Mrs. Ed Grider and her daughter, Marian Eddie, 11, were injured when a twister destroyed their home near Altus. At Eudora, Kas., Al Powell, 27, was injured when struck by the wreckage of a farm building demolished by a small twister.

Other tornadoes causing minor property damage but resulting in no injuries were reported near Laharpe, Kas., and in Allen and Franklin counties, Kansas, and near Alva and Welch, Okla., and Warsaw, Mo. The heaviest rainfall reported was a 5.35 inch downpour at Marion in central Kansas.

Wet snow, melting as it fell except in the mountains, was reported in Colorado. The southwestern Colorado "dust bowl" experienced a dust storm near Baca fallowing a rain early yesterday.

Light rains were reported at Amarillo, Dalhart, and Shamrock in the Texas wheat country, with heavy rain in the southeastern portion of the Panhandle early Wednesday morning. A high north wind blowing in the Panhandle died about sunset. Dust over the area cut visibility to a mile at Amarillo.

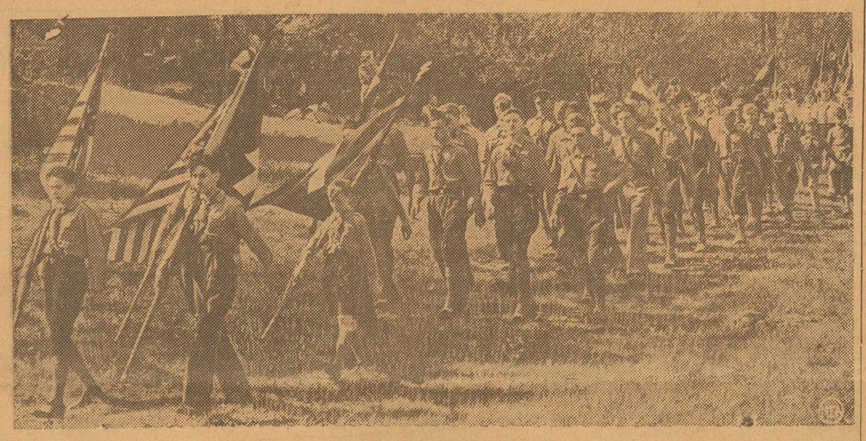

VISITS DAUGHTER.

E. L. Martin of Oklahoma City, president of the Sayre Oil Co., is here transacting business and to visit his daughter, Mrs. Charles A. McCann.

Nazi Youth On March In America, Too

Youth is known as "the backbone of Nazism" in Germany. These pictures, taken during the May Day celebration of the German-American Volksbund near Andover, N. J., show children of this country under the sway of the Nazi movement. While their uniformed storm-trooper elders goose-step at stiff-armed salute in the photo above, mere children are shown carrying swastikas and American flags on parade in the photo below. Fritz Kuhn, their Fuehrer, who is seen (at right) reviewing the marchers in the upper picture, declared U. S. Nazis are "through making excuses" for their acts.

Baptist Pastor From Post to Be In Midland Sunday

Baptist church preaching services Sunday will be conducted by the Rev. A. C. Hardin, pastor of the First Baptist church at Post, it was announced today by members of the pulpit committee. Without a pastor for more than a month, the church has not missed a service of any nature and attendance has kept up steadily, officers reported.

The Rev. Hardin will speak both morning and evening. He is recommended as one of the outstanding gospel ministers and pastors of West Texas, it was announced. He lived in Mitchell county most of his life. Where he has lived he has been active in civic affairs, as well as religious.

The pulpit committee expressed satisfaction at being able to secure him as a guest speaker here Sunday.

Wage-Hour Bill May Be Forced to A Vote on Floor

WASHINGTON, May 5, (AP). — Members of an unofficial steering committee in charge of the wage-bill asserted last night they had "almost 200" pledges to sign a petition forcing the measure to the House floor.

Representative Healey (D-Mass.), chairman of the group, said they expected to have the petition signed shortly after it is placed in circulation Friday.

Signatures of 218 members would be required to take the measure from the House rules committee which refused last week by an 8 to 6 vote to send it to the floor.

Healey said in a number of states Democratic delegations were pledged "solidly" to sign the petition. Among them, he listed those from New England, Pennsylvania, New York, Michigan and the Chicago city delegation.

Healey said about 25 Republicans were in the 200 pledged and asserted the entire Progressive and Farm-Labor delegations had announced they would sign.

Organized labor threw its influence behind the campaign to get the necessary signatures.

John L. Lewis, CIO leader, sent every House member a telegram declaring enactment of the legislation at this session was "imperatively necessary." William Green, AFL president, previously had telegraphed each member.

VISIT SON.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stowe of Dodge City, Iowa, visited here overnight Wednesday with their son, Wilmer Stowe, Midland attorney. They are en route to the west coast.

Ray R. Rhodes Announces New Wildcat Location In Andrews

By FRANK GARDNER.

Ray R. Rhodes, Midland operator, announced location this morning for a new wildcat in southern Andrews county, about three miles north of the North Cowden pool of Ector. It will be designated R. R. Rhodes, J. D. Tompkins et al No. 1 Emma Cowden and has been staked 330 feet from the north, 2,310 feet from the west line of section 1, block 44, township 2 north, T. & P. survey. Walter J. Donnelly, of Midland, is contractor and will start moving in material next week. The test is slated to drill to 4,400 feet unless production or sulphur water is encountered in the lime at a lessor depth. Several majors have purchased protective acreage around the well. It is slightly over a mile northeast of Sinclair-Prairie No. 2 Emma Cowden, small producer in the two-well Emma pool.

In southwest Andrews, Atlantic No. 1 Texas Company-University was moving in rotary after setting 13-inch surface pipe on bottom at 200 feet, using 150 sacks of cement in the job. It reached that depth with spudder.

H. C. Wheeler No. 1 F. E. Gardner, prospective pool opener two miles and a half west of the Means field in north central Andrews, has pulled tubing which appeared to have clogged after fluid had been swabbed to within 200 feet of bottom after 20 hours of continuous swabbing. Tubing will be perforated near bottom before being rerun. Total depth of the well is 4,647, plugged back to 4,632. It has been acidized with 1,000, then 4,000 gallons. No gauges have been made.

West of the Fuhrman pool, Seaboard No. 1 Thornberry is fishing for bit at 4,628 in lime, while H. S. Forgeron No. 1 Lockhart & Brown cemented 7-inch casing, bottomed at 4,300 in lime, and is standing while cement sets.

McKee at 5,906.

Magnolia No. 1-A J. H. McKee this morning had drilled to 5,906 feet in green shale and lime. Operators anticipate another sand break in the Simpson section before going into the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, which is expected at around 6,020 feet. Simpson, middle Ordovician, was topped at 4,775. The test is in the Imperial area of northern Pecos, in section 24, block 9, H. & G. N. survey.

Magnolia No. 1 University, in eastern Crane, is fishing for bit at 3,672 in gray lime. It had a bailer of sulphur water hourly from 3,645-57.

A. E. Lynch No. 1 Cordz, in the Payton pool of Pecos, flowed 83.10 barrels per day after 120-quart nitro shot at 2,080 feet. It topped pay at 2,012.

Cardinal No. 1 White & Baker, strike in the White & Baker area of Pecos, flowed 2.76 barrels in one hour through 2-inch tubing to rate daily potential of 66.24 barrels. Pay between 1,618 and 1,639 was shot with 80 quarts.

M. B. K. Well Acidized.

M. B. K. Drilling Company No. 1 York & Harper, Inc.-A. L. Wasson, in the Wasson pool of northwest Gaines, flowed 23.8 barrels of oil hourly for seven hours after initial treatment with 1,000 gallons of acid. Last night, it was cleaning itself after re-treating with 3,000 gallons. Another treatment, with 5,000 gallons, is planned. The well flowed 430 barrels per day natural, bottomed at 4,976. Pay top was at 4,884. Over a mile to the northeast, Blackstock No. 1 York & Harper-Wasson is drilling lime at 4,640 feet. A. G. Carter No. 1 N. W. Willard is drilling at 4,206 feet in lime and anhydrite.

In central Gaines, J. L. Frick and Osage Drilling Company (formerly Frick & Cope) No. 1 Atlantic-Riley, is drilling at 3,120 feet in anhydrite and redbeds. Top of Yates is expected soon.

Lou G. Stogner No. 1 P. G. Hendrick, Ector wildcat, is drilling at 2,704 feet in anhydrite, redrock and salt.

Gulf Dixon Abandoned.

Gulf No. 1 S. J. Dixon, Yoakum wildcat between the Bohago area and the Bennett pool, pumped 16 barrels of water and three-fourths of a barrel of oil in eight hours on final test and is preparing to plug and abandon. Its total depth is 5,491 feet in lime. The well was both shot and acidized but failed to show enough oil for commercial production.

In central Yoakum, Magnolia No. 1 J. D. Webb was coming out with core from 5,626-39. It showed sulphur water from 5,626-39.

Four miles west of the Denver pool, southern Yoakum, Shell No. 1 Mrs. Dora Roberts ran 2-inch tubing to 5,092, eight feet off bottom, and was swabbing 14 barrels of drilling water hourly while unloading. Fluid level stayed 2,500 feet from top. The well was showing a slight amount of gas. Schlumberger electrical survey run from 4,702 to 5,100 had revealed several good zones of porosity. Location is in section 793, block D, Gibson survey.

In the Denver pool, J. W. Murchison et al No. 1 Fairman was washing hole with oil, bottomed at 5,070.

Gulf States No. 1 Gulf-Graham, in northeast Yoakum, was coring at 5,088 in lime, showing nothing.

Shell No. 1 C. A. Dowden, half-mile west extension to Denver pool production, was killed with 185 barrels of oil pumped in under 1,100 pounds pressure on tubing. Tubing was pulled, then rerun with packer at 4,939 and six feet of perforation in anchor 52 feet off bottom. Oper-

Man Accused Of 4 Murders By Mother

Unsolved Crimes Explained After 10 Years in Prison

WALLA WALLA, Wash. May 5, (AP). — A 73-year-old mother has accused her son of four unsolved murders, prison officials said today, as they arranged to bring the pair together for the first time in ten years.

By a ruse, deputy prosecutor John Schermer said investigators extracted from Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith a tale of how her son, Decastro Earl Mayer, hammered to death James Eugene Bassett in Seattle ten years ago and hid the dismembered body in secluded spots.

Schermer said the woman wrote a patrolman who duped her by posing as a clergyman that Mayer previously had killed two other men and a woman in Montana and Idaho.

The mother and son are in prison here where they were sent for grand larceny after the state was unable to prosecute them for Bassett's murder when they were unable to find his body.

Police of two states used virtually all the scientific tricks available a decade ago in an unsuccessful attempt to extract a confession from the tight-lipped woman and her son.

Mrs. Smith and Mayer were caught in Oklahoma with Bassett's automobile, some of his personal property and a weird-looking "poison pistol"—one of the first such instruments designed to kill with lethal gas instead of bullets.

There was no corpus delicti—no proof that Bassett was killed. Mother and son held their tongues, and the best the authorities could do was to convict them of automobile theft.

Broken and in tears, McCauley said, the aged Mrs. Smith confessed on the eve of her release from prison "to make herself right with her maker."

"She said she stood by," McCauley added, "while Mayer killed Bassett by hitting him over the head. The motive was robbery."

Chinese Moving on Japanese-Held City Of Peiping in Drive

PIEPING, May 5, (AP). — Windows of this Japanese held North China rattled today to what military authorities called "bombing practice" as reliable foreign sources told of the approach of Chinese guerilla forces to within a few miles of Peiping.

The "bombing practice" started yesterday.

Chinese today reported continued "rapid progress" in their counter-offensive on the center of the 30-mile Shantung front where fate of 100,000 Japanese troops daily becomes more uncertain.

In addition to the 12-mile gain previously reported northeast of Taierchwang, the Chinese asserted they had repulsed a Japanese attack at Nikow, 10 miles to the northwest of that city.

They also said a flying column had moved around the Japanese left flank and cut communications between Tancheng and their base at Lini.

Chinese sources estimated 34,000 Japanese soldiers had been killed or wounded in recent days around Tancheng and Pihsien.

To foreign military observers, it is now a puzzling question whether the Japanese attacking power really is spent or whether the invaders are merely recuperating and organizing for a final thrust.

Obviously aware of the latter possibility, the Chinese high command cautiously declared the "really decisive battle" was still to come. They said they expected an epochal Japanese defeat similar to that which humbled the invaders at Taierchwang a month ago.

Management, Labor Urged to Be Friends

WASHINGTON, May 5, (AP). — Lewis Pierson, chairman of the board of the Irving Trust company, New York, today called on management and labor to work together on things "of common interest."

Pierson's plea came as informal approval was being given by many delegates attending the annual meeting of the United States chamber of commerce to the American Federation of Labor overtures for a business-labor peace pact.

Pierson is a former president of the chamber.

Directors Urged To Attend Meeting

Directors of the Midland chamber of commerce will meet in the chamber of commerce office tonight at 7:30 o'clock for their regular monthly meeting, the meeting having been moved up from Monday night due to district conventions of the Rotary and Lions clubs scheduled to be held in Breckenridge and Lubbock on Monday and Tuesday of next week, several of the directors planning on attending one of the two conventions. President Marion Flynt said today that several important matters are scheduled for discussion at tonight's session.

Club Guest Day Has Large Attendance

Mrs. E. W. Anguish Reads Realistic Modern Drama at Country Club

Presenting Mrs. E. W. Anguish in a reading of Clifford Odets' "Golden Boy," Play Readers club held its annual guest day at the Country Club Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, with approximately 80 women in attendance.

In the receiving line for the afternoon were three of the club's officers: Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, president, Mrs. De Lo Douglas, and Mrs. Wade Heath. Mrs. W. L. Miller, another officer, was unable to be present because of illness, and Mrs. Anguish did not receive because of her duties as reader.

During the assembling of guests, Frank Nixon entertained with piano selections.

Calendulas and larkspur in tall floor baskets flanked the dais where the reader's chair was placed beside a floor lamp and were used in a smaller basket before the dais and on the piano, in indication of the blue and gold color scheme chosen for the day.

Mrs. Douglas introduced Mrs. Anguish who was gowned in white with blossom corsage.

Reading with pleasing restraint, Mrs. Anguish brought to life the curiously pathetic, hard-boiled characters of the drama of New York's less fortunate ones—a play which has won fame along Broadway. "Golden Boy" is highly modern in its handling and in its grim portrayal of the futility of life for a boy torn between his desire for the material gain which prize fighting can give him and the spiritual riches which only the pursuit of musc can bring. Heightening the tension of his tangled life is his love for a girl whose warped moral attitudes keep her wavering between the boy whom she loves and the lover whom she pities.

Particularly vivid was the character of the "Golden Boy's" father, wiser than the wise-cracking moderns about him, and realizing more clearly than the boy himself his real capacities.

The unhappy ending brought to climax the dramatic feeling of the play which had held the attention of the audience throughout.

A social hour followed Mrs. Anguish's feeling interpretation.

Billy Noble was at the piano during the refreshment service.

Mrs. Fred Wilcox and Mrs. Addilee Abell presided at the punch bowls placed at either end of the service table, which was appointed with silver and crystal, with white tapers and candelabra combining with calendulas and larkspur for the centerpiece.

Gay Vienna Changes Under Hitler Rule

Vienna has changed overnight from a gay center of culture to the regimented capital of Nazi Germany's first colonial conquest.

What Nazi rule will mean to Austria and the inevitable effect of Hitler's action upon the world in general is described in "Nazi Conquest—No. 1" of the March of Time at the Yucca Theatre now.

Mrs. Trickey Discusses Place of the Child in Phases of Community Life at Meeting of Junior High P. T. A Here

(Editor's Note: The following paper on "The Child in the Community from the Social and Health Viewpoint" was presented by Mrs. Trickey at the meeting of junior high PTA Tuesday. It is printed here for its interest to the general public.

* * *

By MRS. J. H. TRICKEY.

In the whole realm of knowledge, there is no subject more important than proper child guidance. Above all you want your child to have good health, to be ambitious, to have a fine noble character and a splendid personality. The kind that reaches out and lifts others up to a higher plane.

What the best and wisest parents want for their children, that must the community want for all its children—Good Health and High Standards.

It is the parents' responsibility to make sure the children are not in contact with influences that tend to make them socially mal-adjusted, mentally warped and spiritually dwarfed.

The child who has been started in the home and school in the right way is on the road to a good citizen.

Parent-Teacher Associations that live up to their purposes really unite the home and school for effective work to promote child welfare in home, school, church and community.

Our community has many constructive forces, yet we have many destructive forces. For instance some of our so-called amusement and recreational centers. Dine and dance places and night clubs where beer and stronger drinks may be had are not the place for the youth. Therefore the wise parents will open their homes to their child's friends. They will plan and chaperon entertainments and dances for the teen age.

Guidance should be given in selecting reading material for the child. So-called "trashy" magazines are to be had at all news counters, many for only a dime.

Literature will mold the home. Good books supply vision, suggest and illustrate ideals toward which the thoughtful youngster points his life. Good books are a wonderful aid to all that the home should accomplish. Subscribe for a good magazine for your boy or girl. They will love receiving a magazine addressed to them, and you will be surprised how a child will browse through or read the contents.

It is impossible to mention all the organizations that help set the standard of community life and guide children to useful and happy citizens. One must be named — The church. In simple words, its teachings are love of God and love of fellowman.

There can be no wiser, no more helpful contact than that with the church of God, in guiding the child that he may become a worthy citizen.

Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Camp Fire organizations instill "High Ideals."

The month of May is National P. T. A. Health month. Following this is the Summer round-up. Surely we owe our children the best health possible.

The healthy child is the ambitious child. Ambition is the mainspring in the makeup of the successful man or woman; without it real education is impossible and opportunity is in vain.

The health of the child begins at the date of pregnancy. The pregnant woman should engage a competent physician for a physical examination and medical supervision throughout pregnancy. Stress should be placed upon proper diet, exercise, rest, proper elimination, and mental hygiene.

For infants: Mother's milk is the best food for the difficult task of growing and it also increases resistance to the various sicknesses to which he may be exposed.

Satisfactory nursing greatly increases his chance for growing up.

The pre-school child is usually kept at home, more closely than school age children. In these early years from 1 to 6, we find the child a great imitator. The most essential period in his life for the formation of good health habits.

Health is like a bank account—runs low unless replenished. When resistance is low, disease creeps in. Begin in childhood to protect the health of the adult.

The body must be fed, exercised, rested and cared for to avoid predisposition to disease. Its environment must be made safe and healthful.

The environment includes the next door neighbor, who has smallpox, measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever, diphtheria, penumonia, and various other communicable diseases.

Reports show 10,000 deaths annually from measles—from measles. Often this statement is heard: The earlier a child has childhood diseases the better. This is not true. The older the child the more resistance.

Whooping cough causes more deaths than scarlet fever.

No child should have smallpox since vaccination is a sure, safe preventive.

No child need have diphtheria. Toxoid or toxin-anti-toxin will prevent the disease. In diphtheria the death rate is higher up to five years. When there is an epidemic of any contagious disease in the community, it is a good rule to keep your child out of crowds, movies, parties, dances and picnics.

Health authorities usually agree the child is safer in school than out of school if allowed to play in the streets or elsewhere. However, sometimes it is advisable for schools to close during an epidemic before it can be brought under control.

The hygienic interest of the individual, the home and community are the same. Quarantine and isolation should be observed and enforced.

Children should have periodical health examinations.

When children reach teen age, they are entering upon another period of rapid growth. Because of their increasing growth and body changes, boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 15 need more sleep than 11 and 12 year olds.

Wise parents will not jeopardize the child's health of mind in the pursuit of mental achievement. The nervous child requires still more rest.

For positive vigorous health, boys and girls must have good health habits.

Under-weight lowers resistance to disease. A few pounds over weight adds extra resistance until 30 years of age. A few pounds below normal weight relieves work on kidneys and heart after 30 years.

Over weight—unless caused by excessive eating is a disease often a deficiency of gland which can be corrected with proper medical attention.

Tuberculosis is found to be more prevalent from teen age up to 25 years. Often times the disease is rather inactive until the body resistance has been lowered from some caues such as influenza, pneumonia, or over work. During this age, individuals should avoid people with tuberculosis. They should not become over-tired. They should guard against exposure, keep in good physical condition, eat proper foods and get plenty of sleep and rest in a well ventilated room.

As parents and members of organizations which sponsor better health for all we should know the symptoms of tuberculosis that we may be able to help children from all walks of life to an early diagnosis of this dreadful disease.

Tuberculosis is curable unless neglected.

Syphilis is a youth's disease causing 15 per cent of all blindness, 10 per cent of all insanity.

Twenty-four per cent of the people are infected with this disease between the age of 15 and 20 years. This disease does not respect any age, sex, race, or social class.

Every man, woman, and every adolescent boy and girl should be acquainted with the syphilis menace also the manner in which spread, what the symptoms are, and how cured. The most common manner in which the disease is spread is by the most intimate of human relations.

Secondary to this is by kissing an infected person who has a syphilitic lesion on his lip (which may be only a tiny blister). Occasionally it may be acquired by contact with an object recently soiled with discharge which contains the living germ. Common drinking cup and towels: Infection from these sources are rare—yet some of reported.

A large proportion of these untreated infected persons are an unrestrained menace in the community.

Help your child to know more about the disease. He may be an innocent victim in the future.

Every individual is entitled to good health.

We owe it to ourselves and to our children to be interested and deeply concerned in better health for our community.

To actively support and co-operate with any organization or agency, whose purpose and aim is to help and improve the health conditions in our community. Our county maintains for us a public health nurse, whose duty and desire is to improve the health conditions of Midland county. Every case of any communicable or contagious disease, she may be able to detect and assist in detecting and with the aid of proper medical attention curing and confining its ravages to the one patient, is not only the concern of the patient and his or her loved one but it is also the greatest concern to you and me.

If our public health nurse or any other organization or agency can through their improving of living habits and conditions and through ther instruction on health, and prevention of many of our common diseases ,either eliminate some cases of disease or sickness or prevent the wholesale spreading of the disase; is not your home and my home and our community made a healthy and happier place to live?

In closing may I say again that during health month and Summer round-up and throughout the year, may we strive to help our child and the less fortunate child to have better health.

Give the child health and proper guidance and watch him pass the ten signposts to Success:

Health—Energy.
Ambition—Work.
Thrift—Honesty.
Self Control.
Courage—Right Habits.
Mental Brightness and Obedience to Law.

Then teach him to:

"Fancy the world a hill, Lad,
Look where the million stop
You'll find a crowd at the base, Lad,
But there is always room at the top.

Don't Keep on Having Constipation!
If constipation's got you down—so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.
If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.
If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran is not only rich in "bulk"—it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B1.
Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

First Night Game Ends With Lubbock Winning 19-11 Win; "Red" Dosdoorian Getting Decision in Rough & Tumble

There ought to be a law agin' it. Here we had out what was probably the biggest crowd that ever saw a baseball game here, it was the first night game in many years, the boys were all set to really "go to town." And what happened? — Well, the Lubbock Hubbers, the New York Yankees of this league, hit everything four Cardinals pitchers threw up to the plate, they hit second baseman Dosdoorian with everything but a pitcher, and they walked off with the game, 17-11.

The score indicates just exactly what kind of a game it was. It lasted 3 hours and 15 minutes and there was everything in it from circus catches to some playing that resembled the boys on the corner playing "one-eyed cat."

Bad feelings developed in the second inning when catcher Ballinger, making his first appearance here, spiked first baseman Mosel of the Hubbers as he was running out a ball hit to the second baseman. Mosel got a severe cut on the foot and, although it was unintentional, the Hubbers avowed they were ready for just such kind of play. The matter came to a peak in the fifth when Dosdoorian, in running out a play, bumped into first baseman Carr, who had moved to the bag from left field, and fell down. Before he could rise the Hubber had started swinging with both feet. He practically cut the red-head's shirt off his back before he could get to his feet but when he finally did he threw a perfect strike with his right fist and caught Carr squarely in the kisser. They clinched and both were on the ground slashing away with their spikes when umpires and players separated them.

The Cardinals got a lead in the first inning of the game but did just like they have done in almost every game played to date—they lost it and the game. After the Hubbers made two tallies in first, the Cards came back with three when Vincent, starting Hubber hurler, walked the first four men to face him, Kaliska replaced him and Morris greeted the new comer with a double that drove in two more runs. Lubbock went one ahead in the second with a couple of runs but the Cards came back in the third with two, one in the fourth and four in the fifth to take a 10-4 lead and apparently ice the game. But the Hubbers picked up three in the sixth on a home run by Gedzius with two mates aboard to cause the first worry for Manager Withers.

Froschauer gave the Hubbers two more runs in the seventh and was removed from the game for a pinch hitter. Tommy "Dizzy" Warren took up the hurling and he was any thing but the pitcher he was last Sunday. He gave up four runs on three hits and a walk, one of the hits being a terrific home run by Manager Miller. After the first two men faced him in the ninth singled, Neighbors replaced the Indian and he gave away to Beers after two more singles and two runs. Beers finally retired the side after giving up one hit that scored the final two runs.

Husky Jimmy Morris and Ballinger did their bit toward keeping the Cards in the game during the first five innings by crashing home runs but it was to no avail. After driving in two runs in the first Morris did the same in the fourth with a homer coming after Zemek had walked. Ballinger got a single to drive in one run in the fourth and blasted one over left center with two mates aboard in the fifth. Suytar also got a homer in this frame, starting the inning off with it.

"Texas Is Better," Pastor Says

According to a letter received today by friends here from Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Hinds now attending the general conference of the Methodist churches at Birmingham, Ala., the Midland pastor and his wife are enjoying the meeting, chief feature of which has been the struggle over whether or not the Methodist churches should be united.

"The conference is wonderful," he wrote. "Many are here from Texas."

However, the couple still prefer West Texas to Alabama. "Expect to be home for Sunday. Texas is better. We are not ready to move here," the letter said in part.

At one time it was a capital offense to kill a sacred ibis in Egypt.

College, a Greek pageant, a reception for guests given by members of the Tarleton faculty, and open house in all departments of the college.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in this article are those of Mr. Dutcher, NEA-Reporter-Telegram Washington correspondent, and are not to be construed as expressing the editorial policy of The Reporter-Telegram.

WASHINGTON.—Promise of co-operation from business in its so-called five-billion-dollar recovery program are exactly what the administration needs most. Many government officials, even though they believe in "spending," gravely doubt if the program by itself can make a dent in the depression.

Analysis of the spending-lending plan has shown its pump-priming value to be problematical and its reception has been a mixture of mild approval, apathy and opposition. What the program needs is a new business psychology which would result in turning loose a lot of private capital in anticipation of better times—and that is sadly lacking. So the administration has been trying like the dickens to get some big business men to beat the drums.

It's quite reminiscent of the 129-30 months when President Hoover was getting all the big business men down here to do exactly the same thing. Mr. Hoover had a far easier time getting the tycoons to express "confidence" than Mr. Roosevelt is having and, on the other hand, F. D. R. has a pump-priming scheme which Hoover didn't have. Other pronounced differences in the two situations are obvious and needn't be detailed, although it may be noted that some New Deal cynics believe hopeful expressions of co-operation and confidence by business leaders would be no more valuable than they were in 1930.

Three Facts.

INSOFAR as the present Roosevelt program is concerned it is now obvious that: 1—There will be no immediate rise in the flow of federal spending. 2—The degree of speed with which new spending and lending money can be put into the system is an uncertain factor. 3—Even the most optimistic advocates of the program aren't sure that the amount of money will be enough to lift the country above current depression level.

So you can see why there's a fervent Washington desire to have business men stop saying "Oh, yeah?" and start crying something like "Clap hands, here comes Charlie!"

Optimists hope the New Deal can get to pushing out $150,000,000 a month of new money by election time. But since WPA expenditures will represent no real increase and RFC loans always have been made conservatively, the big difference between the present government outlay and that of a few months hence must be found in about $1,500,000,000 of PWA grant and loan money which Secretary Ickes expects to have available.

Ickes hopes to start pushing this money out within three months and will make a terrific effort to fulfill those hopes and fool the skeptics.

Anxious for Co-operation.

IF the present level of business activity can be held through the summer, most of the more cagey administration economists will be satisfied. In that case, they assume business will receive some appreciable stimulus in the fall which will carry it above the recent level.

But the country is going into the summer with some huge industrial inventories, they point out, and there have been no increases in employment yet to promise an offset to the usual summer slump.

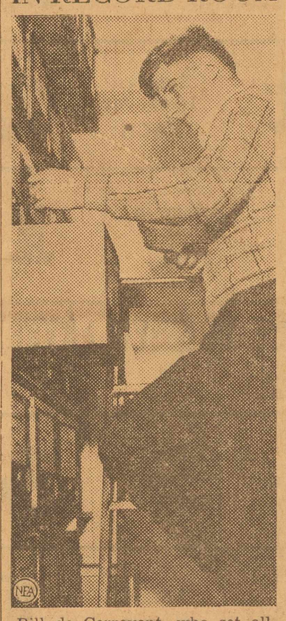

There are some critical wage situations where reductions threaten to reduce purchasing power further. So the economists also are anxious for a brand of business co-operation and confidence which will help stimulate business activity.

The "spenders," pleased because Roosevelt finally came to agree with them that something must be done, but pessimistic because the really new undiluted spending in his program amounted to little more than $500,000,000 of PWA grant money, insist that any further decline in business can only be met by an intensification of the spending-lending program.

They are rather vague as to how to "intensify", but some of their ideas may soon hatch.

RECORD RUNNER IN RECORD ROOM

Bill de Correvont, who set all sorts of scoring records for Austin High School of Chicago last autumn to become a national figure in football, is doing more than marking time before his enrollment at Northwestern University in the fall. The spectacular young touchdown maker is shown at work in the record warehouse of an insurance company in Chicago. He attends classes at the Y. M. C. A. and works out twice a week in a gymnasium.

Resolutions Honor Buddy Scarborough

Staff and cadet corps of Allen Academy at Bryan, passed resolutions this week in memory of C. B. (Buddy) Scarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Scarborough and grandson of W. F. Scarborough of Midland, whose death occurred recently while attending school there.

A copy of the resolutions, sent to parents of the youth, follows:

In Memory of C. B. Scarborough

WHEREAS:

God in His infinite wisdom has chosen to take from us our friend and companion, C. B. Scarborough; and believing as we do that not a sparrow falls unknown to Him, we take to our hearts the consoling thought that a wisdom higher than ours has lovingly called him to a place more beautiful than ours; and

WHEREAS:

We, his friends who are left unconsoled, have no longer the pleasure and the privilege of sharing with him the problems, the joys, and the youthful sorrows that made of his companionship a rare and lovely thing; we nevertheless hold close to our hearts the memory of one who in his life among us made youth a splendid thing, and in his passing brought only closer to us the keen awareness of a place forever warm, but yet forever quiet;

THEREFORE:

Be it resolved that we, his schoolmates, his teachers, and all who knew him while he was with us in school do offer our heartfelt sympathy, our deepest condolence, to his bereaved ones. To them it is a hurt that will not heal; to us, who lived with him, worked with him, played with him, and loved him, it is a break that will not mend.

THE CADET CORPS OF ALLEN ACADEMY

Flying fish have no wings, but they may fly a distance varying from a few rods to more than an eighth of a mile, skimming the water at an altitude of from 3 to 4 feet, using their large fins as sails.

The Town Quack

Vacation time is slipping up on us rapidly and already many Midland families are preparing to take off for cooler spots and distant points this summer. The population is going to be thinned out a little, and this fact is going to be noticed. Make up your mind now that even if a few less people are seen on the streets, in the hotel lobbies and at customary places, you won't take up the pessimistic attitude that business is shot to pieces and the town done for. This happens every summer. There is just enough general pessimism around the country now that it wouldn't take much to start people to talking. This kind of talk spreads rapidly and does no good. In fact it can do a lot of harm. So guard against being a pessimist and by fall you will wonder where all of these people are coming from.

* * *

Tom Sloan, after three years of hotel luxury, has occupied a home up in the northwest part of town. He was seen immediately carrying a rake and hoe around the yard with him, probably just for the effect on the neighbors. Tom said the worst of it is that he lives in the same block with Bob Preston, and he expects Bob to set such a fast pace with lawn mowers, rakes and shovels that there won't be any rest for the neighbors who want to keep up with him.

* * *

Spring branding is being finished on most of the ranches. Plenty of early calves, cows in good shape and the weather still too dry to start worms, all this makes it pretty soft for the rainchmen.

* * *

One chuck wagon fed 56 people at one meal during a recent roundup. About fifteen of these were cowboys and the others, according to Hub Castleberry, the cusinero, included everybody from negro chauffeurs to oil magnates. The visitors always eat more than the cowboys who are doing the work, as any chuck wagon cook will tell you.

The English thrust can sing for 16 hours without a rest.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys—How To Get Happy Relief

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Letters to Editor

To the Editor:

We cannot refrain from sending, in some small way, a word of greeting to our new found friends, the Band Boys and Girls of your city, who visited us during the recent convention held in San Angelo.

We really feel that we would have missed a lot had we not been the center of activity in the down town district during their stay here.

We wish to congratulate each member personally and thank them for the courteous manner in which they conducted themselves while in our store.

We have never witnessed a group of young people who were so mannerly and well behaved. We think the city of Midland should be very proud of them and we know you are. We were really overwhelmed with the array of pleasing personalities found in your band and we want you to know we enjoyed them thoroughly.

Sincerely yours,
Geo. Allen Music House,

U.S. Born, She's Buddhist Priest

Clad in the customary nome-spun robes of a Buddhist priest, "Dhammadinna," a woman who claims to have been born in St. Louis, is pictured above as she arrived in San Francisco and announced she would establish a retreat in southern California for followers of Buddha. Japanese officers of the ship on which she arrived said "Dhammadinna" (giver of the doctrine) was the first woman ordained in the Buddhist order.

Mule's Dying Kick Powerful.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal. (U.P.) — Joe Rodriquez is convalescing after having added a new chapter to the archives on the obstinacy of mules. The train struck the animal but before dying it succeeded in giving Rodriquez a final kick that sent him to the hospital.
