

CHICAGO, March 3. (AP)—Five machine gunners shot and killed one man and wounded another early today, but failed to explode a huge bomb which they tossed, with one of their victims, into the basement of a gambling establishment, contacted by James Hackett in suburban Blue Island.

The victim was William Mayer, 45, a caretaker at the Hackett place, and Hilarie Rodriguez. Mayer was shot to death as he ran out of the place when his attention was attracted to shots fired at Rodriguez. After Rodriguez escaped from the basement, Rodriguez was wounded and was taken to a hospital.

The police viewed the affair as an attempt by a Chicago gambling syndicate to "muscle into" Blue Island gambling territory.

Rodriguez was standing on a street corner, waiting for his wife when the five men arrived in an automobile. One of them demanded his money and when he pleaded he had none he was struck in the face with a pistol, which shattered his jaw bone. Another of the five lighted a fuse of the bomb, which contained 15 pounds of dynamite and which was made of a steel pipe, and tossed it into a coal chute of Hackett's place. Two others seized Rodriguez and threw him in after the bomb.

The bomb, however, failed to explode. Terror stricken, Rodriguez climbed out in time to see the five get into their car. They saw him and two of them fired. One bullet inflicted a slight wound. Then a fusillade of bullets felled Mayer and the machine gunners sped away in their car. Firemen filled the basement with water and retrieved the bomb which they said probably did not explode because moisture in the cellar extinguished the fuse. Had it done so it would have wrecked the building.

Hackett said he knew of no reason for the attack, but the police held the theory that it resulted from his refusal to join a powerful gambling syndicate.

Lewis O. Cox has returned after a ten-day visit to east Texas oil fields.

PAMPA, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 3, 1931

Kilgore Officials and Ranger Squad Arrest 300 Persons; Detain Many.

KILGORE, March 3. (AP)—Vice and crime were in precipitate retreat from this mudroom oil boom town today before a determined thrust of Texas rangers.

While hundreds of undesirables, women and men, who thronged the city after discovery of oil in the vicinity, fled over highways and railroads, more than 300, including two believed to be escaped convicts, were held in jail at Longview.

Sweeping into Kilgore yesterday afternoon, after gathering nearby from various stations over the state, 13 rangers and other officers, led by Capt. Tom Hickman of the rangers, raided dance parlors, cafes, drug stores and many other places of business, arresting approximately 300 persons.

A church was utilized as a jail, and to it a patrol wagon borrowed from nearby Longview residents brought load after load of prisoners to be examined by the officers. If the suspects could show they were working, or had prospects of work, they were released, but if they appeared to be of questionable character they were detained.

Texas Senate Has Adopted Resolution Denouncing G. O. P.

'PROSPERITY' OF HOOVER IS POINTED OUT

'Iniquitous Treatment' From Republican Sources Called To Attention of Members By Senator Hopkins.

UNITY STRESSED

Similar Action Is Taken By House Upon Introduction of Motion By Representative Keller.

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—The senate today unanimously adopted a resolution by Senator Hopkins of Gamble calling upon the democrats of Texas to rededicate themselves to the principles of the democratic party and to rally around the standards of the party for 1932 to throw off the "iniquitous treatment received from the hands of the republican party."

A copy will be sent to the National Democratic Executive committee which meets at Washington Thursday.

It is to the party of Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland and Wilson that our people are turning today for relief from the slough of despond into which we have been cast by the iniquitous treatment received from the hands of the republican party," the resolution said.

"This great commonwealth of Texas has during its long and glorious history been known as the rock-ribbed democratic state of the American union," the resolution asserted.

"Only by united and cooperative effort of all democrats presented in solid phalanx to our ancient and traditional republican opponents can victory return to us in 1932."

"It behooves every democrat of Texas to vigorously assert himself to the end that solidarity and unity may be restored to the party in Texas and the nation, looking to the success of the 1932 campaign."

A similar resolution was adopted unanimously by the house, as proposed by Representative Keller of Dallas, who said he was "so tired of Hoover prosperity" and so near broke on account of it that he could hardly afford to be a member of the legislature."

Pendleton Nurse Is Not Necessary Now, Doctor Says

So much had Ace Pendleton improved today that Dr. V. E. Von Brown, county physician, felt justified in dismissing the nurse that the sick prisoner had been attending him night and day for the last six weeks.

Ace is barely in a convalescent condition. The fever which has put many a gray hair in his head in the last month and a half has not subsided; it returns at intervals. However, Ace was up and walking around in the large, airy jury dormitory on the fourth floor of the courthouse today.

Ace himself suggested that the nurse be dismissed. "I am able to take care of myself, I think," he told Sheriff Lon L. Blumstein.

Pendleton is charged with robbing the First National Bank over three years ago. During the last six weeks, a nurse has attended him constantly. Two guards, paid by the county, take turn about staying on guard outside his door. As for the Ace, he is not able to walk up the steps from the third to the fourth floor.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

One of the few women members of the Cattle Raisers association, meeting in Amarillo this week, is Mrs. Hal Peck of this city. Mrs. Peck is the daughter of O. P. Jones, pioneer Panhandle cattlemen.

Mrs. Peck is a sister of the Panhandle and has operated a ranch and handled cattle successfully for several years. Mrs. Peck is still interested in fine cattle.

VOITURES TO JOIN IN MEETING SOON

PERRYTON, March 3. (Special)—Pierce Johnson American Legion post and the Auxiliary unit are making big preparations for the entertainment of the hundreds of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members who will be in Perryton on Saturday and Sunday, March 21-22, for the annual spring convention of the 18th district.

Fifty-three Panhandle counties comprise the district, it being the largest in the state in point of membership.

Among the notables in Legion work who will be present are State Commander Hal Brennan, Laredo; State Auxiliary President, Mrs. F. E. Carpenter, Sour Lake; State Adjutant, Robert O. Whiteaker, Austin; V. Earl Eap, Sweetwater, state membership chairman; Mrs. Tillman Jones, Post, Fifth division Auxiliary, president; and Mayor H. B. Gilstrap, regional manager of the Veterans Bureau of Oklahoma City.

Josh Lee, nationally known speaker and head of the Public Speaking department at the University of Oklahoma will address the convention on "Taking the Profits Out of War." Many other prominent Oklahoma Legionnaires will be present.

Ferryton, being farthest north, Post in Texas, will have many Oklahoma and Kansas Legionnaires and Auxiliary members present.

One of the high spots of the convention will be the Forty and Eight week on Saturday afternoon and evening. The Pampa and Perryton Voitures are uniting to make this the biggest week of the year in Texas. Open house for all visitors will be held on Saturday afternoon and evening with plenty of entertainment, dancing and the like.

The business sessions of the convention of the Legion will be under the direction of Dr. R. A. Webb, Pampa, 18th District Legion commander. Mrs. Van W. Stewart, Perryton, 18th District Auxiliary president, will preside at the Auxiliary business meeting. Mayor E. A. Simpson, prominent attorney of Amarillo, will respond to the address of welcome which will be delivered by W. B. Irvin, superintendent of the Perryton school system and a Legionnaire.

Tom Cranfill Is Again Head Of Oil Association

FORT WORTH, March 3. (AP)—Tom E. Cranfill of Dallas will head the Independent Petroleum association of Texas for another year. He was re-elected president at the annual convention yesterday.

Other officers named were Claude C. Wilde of Fort Worth, vice-president (re-elected); Mel Davis, Pampa; P. B. Flynn, Wichita Falls; B. F. Robbins, Big Spring; George Albert, Fort Worth; Harry Penington, San Antonio, and J. A. Deering, Houston, district vice-presidents.

A resolution supporting ratable purchase of natural gas was adopted. Other resolutions called for further experimentation to discover new uses for petroleum and asked the legislature to appropriate $25,000 for a laboratory at the University of Texas equipped to analyze petroleum and its products. A resolution pending in congress and proposing an investigation of the oil industry was endorsed.

Directed Verdict Refused Kirkland

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 3. (AP)—Judge Grant Crumpacker today overruled a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal and the defense began its case in the trial of Virgil Kirkland for the murder of Arlene Graves, his 19-year-old Gary, Ind., sweetheart.

Dr. E. R. Harger, professor of toxicology, Indiana university, the first defense witness, testified he examined the stomach contents of Miss Graves and found 2.5 grains of grain alcohol, 17 of wood alcohol and 22 of formaldehyde.

First Check Mailed to Vet

Five minutes after the senate had passed the new Veterans Loan bill over the Hoover veto, Colonel George E. Hays, director of the Veterans' bureau, was mailing the first check for a loan under the act. It went to a Baltimore veteran known to be in need. Left to right are shown Harold W. Breining, assistant director, finance division, Colonel Hays and J. V. Byrne, chief of the adjusted compensation division, all of the Veterans' Bureau.

News-Post Shows Popularity in All Departments

That the Pampa Morning Post is fast becoming the desirable advertising medium for Pampa merchants is shown by a compilation of figures on advertising lineage for February just completed. The Daily News was first, with the morning paper a close second; the two papers carrying more than two-thirds of all the advertising used in Pampa papers.

The popularity of the News and Post among advertisers is not unusual. The same preference, in a greater degree, is shown by readers. A recent house-to-house survey showed that the News and Post were delivered to THREE TIMES AS MANY HOMES IN PAMPA AS ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER DELIVERED IN PAMPA.

MANY LOANS BEING MADE

Fifty Thousand Per Day to Be Handled in Bureau in Short Time.

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Veterans Administrator Hines informed President Hoover today approximately 10,000 applications for loans on soldiers' compensation certificates were being handled each day and that the bureau expected to increase the daily total to 50,000 soon.

Hines said he expected favorable action today or tomorrow from the federal reserve board on his plan that they take care of applications for loans made at great distance from the veterans bureau regional offices.

The bureau has sent $20,000,000 to regional offices. Hines estimated $10,000,000 already has been loaned. In addition the Washington office has $20,000,000 available and is sending out around 1,500 checks a day.

MISS FRENCH TO MARRY

LONDON, March 3. (AP)—Miss Valerie French, pretty granddaughter of the late Field Marshal Sir John French, the first Earl of Ypres, was said in the Daily Express today to intend soon to marry Lord Brughman and Vaux. Both are 21.

CONGRESS IS TENSE AS IT ENDS SESSION

Senate Labors Until Three o'Clock This Morning Over Copyright Measure Affecting Minority.

WORK NOT DONE

Present Bill Not Passed For Spending Money in Peace-Time—Employment Relief Is Cause.

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Congress today ended its session in a tight snarl today as it sought to wind up the session in orderly fashion.

The senate, far the most upset of the two branches, found itself at work until 3 o'clock this morning, deadlocked in a filibuster over a copyright bill which really had vital interest for only a handful of members.

It recessed then, to meet again at 10 o'clock, expecting of the veto message of President Hoover on the Muscle Shoals operation resolution. It faced too the task of cleaning up work on the second deficiency appropriation, a hundred million dollar measure whose passage was imperative.

Urges Immigration Bill

This was subjected to the withering cross-fire of conflicting efforts on behalf of other legislation. Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, through the Jenkins immigration bill, restricting the aliens influx by 90 per cent. Senator Stewart, republican, Rhode Island, held on fast for passage of the vetoed copyright bill against which two democrats, Trammel of Florida and Dill of Washington, waged a determined talking campaign.

Supporters of oil embargo legislation apparently had lost their last hope during the long night session. It was virtually impossible to enact their proposal in the remaining time.

Fall to Adjourn

The sum total of accomplishment in the night session was one farm bill, a measure to slap a 10-cent a pound tax on yellow oleomargarine, thus shutting out its competition with butter, and confirmation of a number of minor nominations.

Repeated efforts for adjournment were made and failed. Quorum calls were resorted to for maintaining a majority in attendance but this narrowed at last to a bare 49, and the senate gave up.

The house, meanwhile, had adjourned at 10 o'clock last night and its members returned to work far fresher than the senators.

By CROLY B. DICKSON

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—One historical distinction belongs to the congress which today, still full of fire, was winding up its career with a flourish.

The seventy-first national assembly holds undisputed the record as the heaviest spending peace-time congress. In all it has appropriated $1,584,000,000.

Briggs and Reid At Road Meeting

A meeting of U. S. Highway No. 60 association at Amarillo today is being attended by George W. Briggs, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and F. P. Reid.

Representatives of all towns in Texas through which the highway passes are due to attend the session. Purpose of the meeting is to organize a Texas division of the association.

Delegates of every state along the road from Virginia to California are preparing to attend a meeting of the association at El Paso, next Monday. The highway comes into Pampa over No. 33.

Just Philadelphia's Mayor

Here's what a battered hat, a worn corduroy suit, a red bandana handkerchief and a fake mustache can do to the Chief Executive of America's third largest city. A modern Harlan Al-Rashid, Mayor Harry Mackey adopted this disguise to visit Philadelphia's "Rip House" in a first-hand investigation of the treatment accorded to the city's unemployed.

FUNDS ON VETERAN LOANS EXPECTED HERE IN WEEK

Seven Hundred Fifty Men To File Applications Thru Local Post of Legion.

First returns from applications for loans are expected this week by local World War veterans, John I. Bradley, service officer of the Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion, announced today.

Since last Friday approximately 600 veterans have applied for loans to ailing $200,000. The busiest day at the local Legion has ever had was last Saturday when approximately 300 applications for loans were made through the Kerley-Crossman post.

World War veterans from White Deer, Pampa, Kingsmill, Miami, LeFors, Laketon, stood in line Saturday at the Legion hut, awaiting their turn to fill out the application blanks. Other places in the city are also assisting the ex-service men. Mr. Bradley said the local loans would average about $500.

Commissioner Lewis O. Cox is entitled to receive $1,584, the largest application sent out from this post. Mr. Cox enlisted in the A. E. F. when he was 18 years old. He spent two years in France.

Mr. Bradley estimates that 1000 ex-service men in the Pampa trade territory are entitled to receive the loans. If the loans average $500 each and all veterans' applications are granted, the total amount of sums loaned in this territory would aggregate about $500,000. Mr. Bradley expects about 750 men to apply for loans. No charge is being made for assistance in filling out the blanks.

Most of the applications are being mailed to the veterans' bureau at Oklahoma City, although some are going to all parts of the United States.

The law which made the loans possible provides payment of 50 per cent. value of service certificates, which average about $1,000 each.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Campbell are on a business and pleasure trip to Wichita Falls.

ALBANY COPS CRACK HEADS AT CAPITOL

Troopers Swing Clubs and Put Demonstrators Out of Gallery—Bruises and Cuts Sustained.

IDLE MEN JEER

Trouble Starts When Man Tries to Speak "In Behalf of Children Who Are Hungry."

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3. (AP)—Communist agitators staged a 20-minute riot at the New York state capitol today. It was quelled by state troopers after a hand-to-hand conflict on the floor and in the galleries of the assembly chamber, and on the steps of the capitol.

The casualties were few. Several of the rioters nursed bruised heads and ribs, and Capt. J. F. Kelly of the constabulary on the floor and in the galleries of the assembly chamber was treated for a clubbed head.

The disturbances were confined to the assembly chamber and adjacent corridors and the capitol steps.

Clubs Are Used When troopers started to clear the galleries some of the communists shouted "fight." Troopers swung their clubs vigorously and at the end of ten minutes had evicted every one from the gallery over the speaker's rostrum and had forced the exit of those who were in the rear of the chamber.

One or two troopers were knocked down in the melee but soon regained their feet even before others had come to their aid. Members of the assembly and the speaker who had thrown the chamber aplooned vigorously when the demonstrators were ejected.

The disturbance started when the clerk began routine readings of legislative business. As he began, his voice was drowned out by a shout from a man in the rear of the assembly chamber who said he wanted to speak "in behalf of the children that are hungry."

The movement of troopers toward the individual was a signal for the beginning of shouts from the demonstrators.

While the demonstration was proceeding in the assembly chamber, another group of unemployed was holding a mass meeting on the steps of the capitol. They were joined by their fellows who had been ejected from the building.

The troopers then cleared the capitol steps. They encountered some opposition, and again the clubs were wielded freely. In a short time the steps were cleared and the agitators were scattered about Capitol park, jeering and booing at the constabulary.

Some of the group formed lines and paraded down State street while spectators lined the sidewalks.

Capt. J. F. Kelly of the troopers was cut about the head and face during the scrimmage. It is believed his assailant was wearing brass knuckles.

After the main body of the demonstrators had paraded away from the capitol grounds, small groups began filtering back toward the steps, but were kept at a distance by the troopers.

A squad of troopers was detailed to surround the executive mansion. William Bell, a page in the senate, was a casualty. During the fighting in the assembly gallery he went to the assistance of a trooper who had been knocked down and was himself struck over the head with a stick carried by one of the rioters.

by C.E. BUTTERFIELD

(Time Is Central Standard)

NEW YORK, March 3. (AP)—Graham McNamee and Doc Rockwell are to take a hand in the corn pone dunking controversy.

They're to try a debate on the subject before a radio audience tomorrow night. Graham, as a leading announcer, is to argue that crumbled corn pone is the correct way when it's served with polliwog Rockwell, the stage funny man, is to insist on dunking.

Thirty minutes have been allotted on the WEAF hookup to these two to fight it out. They are to start at 10:15 p. m. Judges will be a boxing referee, a football head line man, a baseball umpire and a six-day bicycle race starter.

Mrs. Emily Post, authority on etiquette, has been invited to serve as chief judge.

Try these on your radio tonight: Historical sketch, "Antiques," repeated on request at first presentation of this program's fourth year on the air, WEAF and WJZ network at 8:30.

Paul Whiteman's band, WJZ and others at 7.

Lillian Knowles, soprano, in the celebrities program, WJZ network at 8.

The Happy Bakers with Theodore Metz, 83-year-old composer, WEAF and chain at 8:30.

Howard Barlow symphony orchestra, program to include "Rhapsody in Blue," WABC and stations at 8:30.

Special pioneers program, to be restored by talking movies underground, in the air and in a submarine, WJZ and hookup at 9.

Jesse Crawford, organist, and others in the radio playhouse, WABC network at 9:30.

Rapid transit at 10 followed by Vincent Lopez's orchestra at 10:15, WEAF and others.

VETERANS STRICKEN

By Ginger Extract

LOS ANGELES, March 3. (AP)—Twenty-four ex-service men, victims of paralysis caused by drinking an adulterated ginger extract, were being treated today at the national soldiers home at Berkeley, a suburb, as county and federal officers investigated the source of supply.

Dr. Maurice Smith of the United States public health service, who came to Los Angeles to advise on the 108 cases previously reported in the county, said the extract in most instances was purchased in drug stores.

Investigators working under Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, head of the county health board, are obtaining samples of ginger extract at drug stores for laboratory tests. The extract contains 80 to 85 per cent alcohol.

Dr. Pomeroy said, adding it is a violation of the prohibition laws to sell it as a beverage and a violation of the state and federal drug laws to mislabel the product as Jamaica ginger. The extract which is causing the paralysis was found by the investigators to contain phenol, an adulterant which supplants the ginger.

Dr. Smith attributed the outbreak of paralysis here to activities of eastern extract bootleggers who are using the adulterant to make a cheaper product and shipping it here for sale.

The Pet Milk company has given a second lot of 1000 cases of milk for the Red Cross relief of drought sufferers.

To celebrate his sixty-first birthday, Chester Levere skipped a rope 18,500 times without stopping.

across. C. E. Meredith, as "Minos," the judge, passed judgment upon each, concluding the journey. Other mythological characters portrayed were "Cerberus," the threeheaded dog, played by Ben Strip-pling, and "Apollo," the teller of or-tunes, Florence Locke.

Refreshments of fruit salad, wa-

NEED OF STORM SEWERS IS APPARENT

The condition of the streets yesterday amply illustrated the reason why the city planning commission in its report recommended storm sewers.

Although the need has not been so apparent this winter, the snows of normal Panhandle winters would give several times the precipitation of this one. Rains in summer produce the same discomfort.

Business is paralyzed when water stands several inches deep along the curb lines. Women of the city cannot be about without gaiters, and no man likes to wade the slush. Business reacts to the condition of the streets and the roads. While this snow was worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to wheat farmers and indirectly to merchants, it also cost the merchants a large sum. Amusements particularly suffered from inability of people of this territory to reach the city.

It was admittedly an error to omit storm sewers when the paving in the business district was laid. The error was not very apparent at the time. Pampa had not a foot of paving early in 1927. Any paving at all appealed to the imagination and it was considered that the people would not vote an amount large enough to include storm sewers. Furthermore, when the bonds were voted the main trouble was not mud but bumps and ruts.

Discomforts are relative. Now that we have more than a hundred blocks of paving, we notice the mud and water around the curbs. It will be more costly to build storm sewers now than at the beginning, but all modern cities have them, the need for them here is apparent and sooner or later they will be constructed.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3. (NEA).—The call for a meeting of the Democrats national committee in non-campaign year is a most unusual thing in politics.

The committee gets such powers as it has from the quadrennial national convention, whose last action is generally a resolution empowering the committee to fill any vacancies that may occur on the party ticket and to call a meeting to choose the place of the next convention. Each state, territory and possession and the District of Columbia is represented by a committeeman and a committeewoman, chosen by party state conventions.

That body has to use its own judgment as to the extent of its powers and while it can discuss policies and make recommendations the party platform is not written before the convention, then by a special committee. Between campaigns its main job usually is to raise money.

During campaigns, after breaking temporarily into activity as a group, most of its members work in their own states, keeping in touch with national headquarters where a few usually stay and work, occasionally drifting in with plans, pleas for funds from the national campaign chest and rosy predictions of victory in states where the party never had a chance.

The chairman at all times is the "big shot" of the committee. He supervises all plans, raises the money, picks an executive committee from the national committee to function at headquarters during campaigns and consulting with all who come in from the country. Or, like John J. Raskob, he may call a year before the convention to discuss policies and finances.

Major John S. Cohen of the Atlanta Journal is the most conspicuous and popular of the southern committeemen, an able and active party man whose opinions carry weight. Colonel Robert Ewing of the New Orleans States, another publisher, is also active and influential.

The committee's grand old man—and the oldest in point of service—is an ex-newspaper publisher, Norman Maclean of Buffalo. He has always been an important party figure, as far back as the Bryan campaign of 1896. He went on the committee in 1900 and was national chairman in the 1908 campaign. Always one of the inner circle, he usually keeps on intimate terms with all factions. He has been on politics all his life and was one of the first and strongest Al Smith men.

Frank Hague of New Jersey is the mayor and Democratic boss of Jersey City. He is a vice chairman of the committee and usually co-operates with the New York group of politicians. Another first-rate politician with a large following is Michael Igou of Illinois, who succeeded George Brennan on the committee and whose position is more important since the Democratic senatorial victory in Illinois last fall.

Charles A. Grothouse of Indiana, committee secretary, succeeded Tom Taggart after the latter's death and has been one of the dominant working group. He has a large printing firm in Indianapolis. J. Bruce Kromer of Montana is always an important figure at a committee meeting, another of the old-timers who knows everyone and has a gift for working smoothly and amiably with them all.

Former Governor Arthur F. Mullen of Omaha is always in the picture, after long service, despite the fact that Nebraska doesn't mean much to Democrats in presidential years. Former Governor Harry Flood Byrd is the member from Virginia. He is a vice chairman of the committee and is politically allied with Senator Carter Glass.

as county and federal officers investigated the source of supply.

Dr. Maurice Smith of the United States public health service, who came to Los Angeles to advise on the 108 cases previously reported in the county, said the extract in most instances was purchased in drug stores.

Investigators working under Dr.

J. L. Pomeroy, head of the county health board, are obtaining samples of ginger extract at drug stores for laboratory tests. The extract contains 80 to 85 per cent alcohol.

Dr. Pomeroy said, adding it is a violation of the prohibition laws to sell it as a beverage and a violation of the state and federal drug laws to mislabel the product as Jamaica ginger. The extract which is causing the paralysis was found by the investigators to contain phenolster, an adulterant which supplants the ginger.

Dr. Smith attributed the outbreak of paralysis here to activities of eastern extract bootleggers who are using the adulterant to make a cheaper product and shipping it here for sale.

History of Texas Is Discussed By Mrs. J. L. Lester Pupils Also Have Part On Interesting Program Here

Sam Houston, a character always thought of in connection with Texas history, was honored by the local school, which bears his name when a program was given yesterday at 1:15 p. m. A number of patrons attended.

A talk on the history of Texas by Mrs. J. L. Lester, elementary supervisor, featured the program. "If you want to read romance," said Mrs. Lester, "read Texas history; if you want to read of war and bloodshed, read Texas history; if you want to know of hardships, struggles, and pioneer life, read Texas history."

"There are two natural divisions of Texas," East Texas, the timber belt, where there is more rainfall, and West Texas, with its plains and slight rainfall."

Mrs. Lester gave the history of Texas under seven flags. She then told of Sam Houston's home at Huntsville, where she herself attended college.

Other numbers on the program included the following: "Eyes of Texas" by the group "Eyes of Texas" and "Texas, Our Texas."

Music by the Sam Houston Junior orchestra.

Life of Sam Houston, Dorothy Davis.

Song, "Bluebonnets of Texas," fourth grade pupils under the direction of Miss Naomi Owen.

Harmonica solo, Eldred Culwell.

Many Events Will Be Held Soon For Abilene Students

Numerous gay events are rapidly filling the social calendars for students of Simmons university and Abilene Christian college, Abilene.

Details of the annual junior-senior banquet for the two institutions are being worked out by special committees, who are keeping all plans secret until the banquet evening. A. C. C. affair is to be held Friday evening in the crystal room at the Hilton, and that room also will be the setting for the Simmons party of March 9.

For Teachers Reservations have been made for 175 guests for the annual dinner of the Abilene Teachers association, slated for March 8 at Hotel Woolen.

Annual ladies' night program of the Abilene Rotary club is to take place March 13, and plans for the affair were outlined by club members in session Friday. The program will be given at the Hilton.

Regular college and junior recitals for the Conservatory of Music and Allied Arts, Simmons university, have been announced as follows:

Music and Allied Arts programs at which college students and advanced players will be presented will be given on each first Monday evening and third Sunday afternoon. A faculty guest performer will appear at each of these recitals.

Unique Party Given Winter term party of the Classical club of Simmons university was held Thursday evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Baker. Main diversion of the evening hours was a "trip through the lower world," as portrayed by the Roman poet, Vergil, Wesley Adams as "Mercury" conducted the group to the river "Styx" where Ward Allen as "Charon" the boatman, rowed them across. C. E. Meredith, as "Minos," the judge, passed judgment upon each, concluding the journey. Other mythological characters portrayed were "Cerberus," the three-headed dog, played by Ben Stripling, and "Apollo," the teller of fortunes, Florence Locke.

Refreshments of fruit salad, wafers, olives, cake and coffee were served to 25 students of the Latin and Greek departments of Simmons.

Mrs. Homer Kees underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital last night.

Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, of Kansas City, shown here, is on trial charged with the murder of her husband, John G. Bennett, whom she is accused of shooting to death.

Miss Sullivan Is Complimented At Birthday Affair

Honoring Miss Dora Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Saunders recently entertained with a birthday party. Many presents were received by Miss Sullivan.

Miss Ruby Wigham and Miss Nelda Eller entertained the group with musical selections.

Games also were enjoyed by the young people, and delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Ruby Wigham, Edith Ramey, Lucy Decker, Nelda Eller, and Johnnie Wigham; Messrs. H. T. Glass, Bill Johnson, Carl Medcalf, and Edward Medcalf, all from Panhandle; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Saunders and family.

Plays Are To Be Cast By Little Theater Tonight

Tryouts for the second performance of Pampa Little Theater are called for this evening, 8 o'clock, at Masters' banquet hall, opposite city auditorium. "The Open Gate" by Haddon and Chambers, and "Wearin' o' the Green," by Mary S. Watts, will be cast. The latter is a costume novelty, according to Director Thos. Elmore Lucy, and requires 15 speaking characters although most of the parts are short. He requests a full attendance of all members of the Pampa organization who are desirous of tryouts.

In only 8 hours have smoother, clearer skin with corrective cream advised by nurses

Bedtime—close your eyes on a rough, scaly or blemished complexion. Next morning—open them wide on a softer, smoother, clearer complexion!

Over 8,000,000 women have had this thrilling experience. Now it is your turn. Get a small jar of that famous beauty cream which nurses so highly recommend—Noxzema Cream. Smooth it on at night. And 8 hours later, see what new loveliness just one application has brought your skin.

Noxzema beautifies in 3 different ways. Its bland oils soften rough, dry skin. Its gentle astringents reduce enlarged pores. Its mild medication heals blackheads, pimples—all other blemishes.

If your complexion is marred by any of these common faults—or if it simply needs general toning up—try Noxzema Cream. Use it at night as a corrective cream—during the day as a smooth, non-drying powder base. And watch your complexion grow younger—more appealing—every day!

Don't delay. And your complexion worries this quick, easy way. Get a small jar of Noxzema Cream today.

Large Crowd Is Delighted With Initial Showing

Upon special requests, the Pampa Little Theater will repeat "Nothing But the Truth" Friday evening in the city hall auditorium. The public is invited to attend the performance, and a small admission will be charged.

The three-act comedy delighted a crowd of near 700 Monday evening. The success of the performance could not be attributed to any one actor alone, but each person played his role well.

The cast included E. M. Ralston, Morris Johnson, Dick Donnelly, W. O. Workman, Robert Bennett, A. L. Patrick, Clarence Van Dusen, W. B. Weathered, Bishop Dorian, Walter Hardin, Gwendolyn Talston, Miss Catherine Vincent, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Helen Turner, Ethel Clark, Miss Louise Barton, Mabel Jackson, Miss Dary Medcalf, Sabal Jackson, Miss Susie Selie Hickman, Martha, Miss Florence Sue Dedson, technical director, Thos. Elmore Lucy.

Stage direction, electrical effects and scenic setting were under the care of Curtis Stark, Therman Harris, L. G. Roberts, and Oswald Ivey. A number of Pampa merchants contributed to the success of the production by lending stage furnishings, costumes, and other equipment.

Mrs. E. M. Conley, chairman of the membership committee, and the following other members of the Little theater were hosts and hostesses for the occasion: Mesdames E. B. Emerson, H. E. Hicks, W. B. Moore, W. P. Bill, R. L. Senter, Raymond Harrah, C. W. Stowell, F. C. Workman, and A. L. Patrick. Messrs. C. W. Stowell, Harry Kelly, Ramon C. Wilson, Paul Camp, Geo. Rainouard, and Frank Fore.

The story of the play, told briefly, is as follows: Mr. Ralston promises to double any sum that his daughter Gwendolyn is able to raise for charity. Gwendolyn collects $10,000 and entrusts it to Robert Bennett, her sweetheart and partner of her father, to invest. He uses the money successfully in a unique way—by taking up a wager that he cannot keep a secret for 24 hours. During the 24 hours, many humorous complications arise.

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone knows that sunshine melloWS—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN "IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret heating process. Harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos are expelled by "TOASTING." These irritants are sold to others. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply; take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

CHICAGO CUBS USING CAUTION TO PREVENT OLD JINX

NO FORECAST ON PROSPECT TO BE GIVEN

Better Pitching Probable As Right-Handers Appear to Big Staff Retained—Two Be Good Bets.

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer.
CHICAGO, March 3. (AP)—The spectre of AVALON, Santa Catalina Island, tongues of those who would like to see the ill-fated happenings which went a long way toward keeping the club from a National League pennant, has put caution on the prospect of a real year for the Chicago Cubs.

Rogers Hornsby, playing manager who figured prominently in these disastrous occurrences, steadfastly refuses to predict, although he willingly admits that the pitching prospects are much better than last season and the rest of the squad holds greater promise.

William Wrigley Jr., whose money has made this possible, vociferously states that it is the "best outfit he has ever seen assembled here," but he recalls the untimely death of Harold Carlson, veteran pitcher; Hornsby with a broken leg and Lester Bell and Riggs Stephenson with arm injuries and will not forecast his club's chances.

The pitching staff is so good, the manager is puzzled as to just how many names will be crossed off the roster. He contemplates keeping 12 of the 18 who reported here.

Besides such veterans as Charles Root, Guy Bush, Pat Malone, and Sheriff Blake, at least two of the rookies hold promise and three tried and proven hurlers from Boston, Cincinnati and Philadelphia are helping to make the spring training grind a cheerful one.

Of these, Bob Smith obtained from the Braves and Lester Seaver from the Phillies, stand out in particular, while Frank May, like Sweetland, a powerful left hander, is counted on to turn in his usual wins over the New York giants.

A pair of right-handers stand out over the group of five newcomers. Big Ed Bechtel, whose curve ball earned him 26 victories with Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast league last year and a chance with the Cubs, has taken to big league hurling well, while Hornsby has also been impressed with the work of a strapping Arkansas youth, Lon Worline, who came up from Reading, Pa., of the International League.

The coach will not overlook Art Teachout, youthful southpaw who finished last season strong, as well as Bob Osborn of last year's staff. Although Hornsby says without hesitation that he figures to use Hack Wilson, Riggs Stephenson and Hansen (Kiki) Cuyler as his regular outfield, he is pleased with the spring training work of Johnny Moore, up for the second time from Los Angeles, and Vincent Barton, a big Canadian from Baltimore. They both hit .342 last year.

There has been some talk of shifting Wilson to right field, where his fly chasing activities will be less, in an effort to improve his .342 batting average and the home run record for the senior circuit of 56 four-base hits. Stephenson's arm appears to be in good shape again.

Rogers intends to play right through at second base, regardless of his managerial handicap, and contemplates using the same infield as last year with Charlie Grimm at first, Elwood English at short and Lester Bell at third.

For these reasons, those who are so privileged would like to predict a great year—but hold their tongues, lest lightning strike twice in the same place.

Stanley Kunz Is Without Stables

CHICAGO, March 3. (AP)—Stanley Kunz of Chicago, former Congressman, whose race horses became famous on Chicago tracks and elsewhere because they usually finished last, today is without his stable after 46 years of connection with the turf.

Kunz disposed of his 42 thoroughbreds because he no longer could withstand the financial burden. The stable was sold to the estate of the late Charles Dean of Palestine, Ill., harness racing boss, and will be operated by his sons, Charles, Ben, and Harry.

The horses raced by Kunz, among them Decatur, Princess Fan, Jester, Bottoms Up and Cold Cream, were famous for their habit of finishing last and farther back than entrants from any other stables. However, on rare occasions when they came in, their mutual ticket prices resembled numbers on a box car.

Wind Prevents Batting By Sox

SAN ANTONIO, March 3. (AP)—All the Chicago White Sox except Alie Berg, Edward Jolley, and Carl Reynolds were present for today, but unless there was much less wind than yesterday, another session of throwing was on the program.

Berg and Reynolds are listed as holdovers, over salary figures, while Jolley has a ball on his left leg. The Sox have done little batting, due to wind, but were down for some today if the weather improves.

Big Bill Tilden, the tennis man, probably is quite amazed at the moment to discover that he has a way with him where crowds are concerned when he wants to please and entertain.

What is more, that new found ability, coupled with the natural showmanship and color that has always saturated the tall one, seems certain to bring considerable dollars to William the Twice, Karel Kozeluh, Frank Hunter, J. Emmet Pare and lastly Mons. Jacques Curley, the promoter of this highly interesting show called professional tennis.

Tilden never played better tennis than in smothering Kozeluh in straight sets in his big time professional debut in Madison Square Garden a few nights ago. Conditions of play accentuated Bill's superlative game and made him all but unbeatable yet the tennis itself wasn't the high point of the evening.

The truly remarkable thing was Tilden's thorough-going attempt to make himself attractive to the big crowd, to do the things they wanted, give them a show. The Tilden of the amateur days, haughty, temperamental, playing his game before a throng he looked upon as an unwelcome necessity to be tolerated but scarcely condoned, disappeared in the general good humor, the oh's and ah's of the evening.

In the place of the better known Tilden there appeared a thoroughly entertaining professional performer, anxious to please the crowd, say and colorful, taking them into his confidence with a shrug and gesture that was almost a request for forgiveness when he missed a point, jangling in delight as they cheered some spectacular shot that Kozeluh had waved at helpfully.

It was quite a sight and that Tilden will pack them in any time he comes back to the Garden, whether he plays Kozeluh again, Richards, Hunter or one of the bail boys.

Incidentally, Bill had no trouble at all with the youngsters who chag the high flies of the courts, although they often spurred him to fits of peevishness in his amateur days. To Tilden, at least, they always seemed to be getting in the way and doing the wrong thing at just the right time.

Bill took no chances with them in his major debut. He had them up in his hotel room for a couple of hours the night before the matches. They talked things over. And no one got in the way.

The cement floor on which the green canvas court was stretched did not give to Tilden's game. His cannonball service rose from the rocky surface like a ricocheting bullet. Kozeluh stared helplessly at it. When Bill killed a soft shot the ball usually flew up among the gallery customers. Kozeluh's milder game left him helpless.

Of the 14,000 customers in the big arena, probably half were keeling their first tennis match. There was a constant buzz of admiration for Tilden's game and information as to shots and styles of play, the rules and regulations, was traded generously from patron to patron.

The result was the noisy kind of an assemblage that Tilden hates. But this time he loved it. There was $37,000 in the box office.

Wiley Moore Is Very Busy Man

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 3. (AP) Wiley Moore, the former Yankee game-saver, comes pretty close to being the hardest working man in the Red Sox camp.

Cy thought he was done for when his arm went back on him while with the Yankees, but a year with the St. Paul club of the American association has given him a new start. He weighs 205 pounds, stands six feet tall, and is 33 years old and has to work mighty hard during the training season to get in trim. His age and size won't let him chase flies but he does plenty of stooping, bending, hopping and chasing going after bunts.

Quinn Ready To Hurl 5 Innings

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 3. (AP) John Pious Quinn, at forty-something years of age, has amazed Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Robins with the way he has cut loose with his ancient pitching arm. Robby, who thought one of Quinn's venerable years would need lots of time to get in shape, asked him about it.

"Oh, I was heating them around for a few days at Hot Springs," Quinn answered. "I'm ready now to go five innings. Just call on me any time."

Florida Weather Is Not So Hot

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 3. (AP)—Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, has 23 players in camp. All he wants now to do is happy in a few days of the Florida sunshine he's heard so much about. The Yanks have been in camp only seven days but already they're used more to the weather than in any one training season in the last 40 years.

JIM THORPE WORKS HARD YET SMILES

Former Greatest Athlete Is Determined to Beat Back To Better Days.

By JEAN BOSQUET
LOS ANGELES, March 3. (AP)—Jim Thorpe, acclaimed the greatest football player of all time and once holder of the title of world's best all-round athlete, is working here as a laborer with pick and shovel for $4 per day, but he can still grin. The once mighty Indian of Carlisle, who in 1912 almost single handedly cornered Olympic honors for his native country, only to relinquish his trophies later under charges of professionalism, is not ashamed of his job.

Big Jim is determined to beat back. "I'm not through," he said today. Jim is a nonentity in a motley crew of diggers excavating for the new Los Angeles county hospital. He answers to "J. Thorpe" at the paymaster's wicket.

No one pays any attention to the clouds he's digging up now. After work Jim goes home to a very small cottage where Mrs. Thorpe, who also can smile still, and Phillip, 4, and Billy, 2, wait for him. Sometimes at night Jim opens a big book and the little Thorpes look properly awed, as though understanding it all. The book contains many clippings and some photographs.

The photographs include snapshots of Jim being handed something by the King of Sweden, and there are pictures of what the king gave him. There's a picture of a bronze Viking ship, which Jim got for winning the decathlon, and a picture of a bronze bust of Sweden's king, which went to Jim for winning the pentathlon.

It's hard to find a reason for the present state of affairs of the smiling former athletic kingpin. "Guess it's an old story," he grins. "I liked to be a good fellow with the boys. But I'll come out of this. And I'll do some saving when I do."

Thorpe attended Carlisle Indian school from 1907 to 1912. He starred in football, baseball, and track. S. M. U.'s Offensive Strong—But T. C. U. Defense Rated Above Rival Five.

FORT WORTH, March 3. (AP)—Southern Methodist Mustangs and T. C. U. Frogs, stacking almost equal offensively and defensively, take the painted court here tonight to settle the who is who question in the Southwest Conference cage race.

They are in a deadlock for leadership with eight wins and three defeats each. The Mustangs, in 11 played games, have scored 433 points against their opponents 342 points. T. C. U., in the same number of games, registered 412 points against opponents 330. Thus the Mustangs, on season's play, are 31 points in front of T. C. U. offensively, but 12 points behind the Frogs defensively. There isn't enough difference here to establish either quintet as a pre-game favorite.

TEXAS HURLER IS Expected To Help Senator Standing

BILOXI, Miss., March 3. (AP)—Walter Johnson is counting on Lloyd Brown, agile little left hander from Corpus Christi, Texas, to get the Washington Nationals off to a flying start this season as he did last year. Brown, who believes in the early bird adage, has been here about a month, golfing, fishing, and hiking to get in shape. "Brownie was a life saver for us at the start of last season," Johnson observed. "If my pitchers were all like Brownie we would get so far out in front in the first two months we never would be caught."

CRIPPLES TO REPORT
PADO ROBLES, Calif., March 3. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates expect two of their star outfielders, Paul Waner, and Adam Comorosky, to report in camp next week. Waner has been a patient in a St. Louis hospital and Comorosky is under medical attention in Pittsburgh. The regular infield, which thrilled players and townfolk yesterday with a flashy drill, will get another speedy workout today.

THE CRIME IN THE DUTCH GARDEN

SYNOPSIS: The search for motives in the murder of Annabelle Querdling taxes the ability of Jimmie Haswell, assisting police superintendent Richmond. They are told that Marjorie Blake and Dr. Netherton had heard the old woman, her aunt, threaten to disinherit her should she wed. Shortly after, Marjorie returns to the Dutch garden and finds her aunt killed by a stone image, pushed over on her. This is confirmed by Marjorie's sister, Evelyn, who says she and her fiancé, Lynet Duckworth, were singing in the house at the time. Among others, Joe Allen, discharged gardener, and Major Gresham, who explains that he was near the house about to call on the spinster. Netherton's story of his interview with Miss Querdling is evasive, and, though he denies love for the girl, his secret phone call to her arouses suspicions. Allen's disappearance convinces the villagers of his guilt.

Chapter 11
A ONE-ARMED MYSTERY
Jimmie Haswell, with Donald and Nancy, arrived early for the regular services next morning in the crowded little village church. Looking around him, he was not surprised at the absence of Evelyn and Marjorie, usually present on Sunday, but today shrinking from the gaze of the curious. The household was represented by Ben Acres and his wife and Major Gresham was one of the ushers.

Mrs. Netherton was there alone, and Jimmie caught a glimpse of Audrey coming in with her mother. Lady Grace Winford. All listened closely to the evidently sincere tribute paid to the deceased by the Reverend James Horne who did not refer to the suspicions against his ex-choir boy, Joe Allen.

After the brief services, Mrs. Netherton greeted Nancy, Donald and Jimmie and suggested that afternoon, as her son could not fill his engagement. Audrey agreed that they would meet again at 2:30 and play partners against the Wades.

Audrey proved to be a wonderful golfer. Nancy kept the ball out of trouble and Donald was at top form, yet, even with the game's interest, it was impossible to get the topic of the hour. During a wait on a tee Nancy turned suddenly to Jimmie and said, "Do you believe Joe Allen did it?"

"Fifty-fifty," he replied. "Joe Allen is simple and the teasing of his friends might have made him reckless. Then he might have planned to hide himself. But the suggested wait in the garden makes me doubtful. He would have had time to cool down. If he is a very low type, he might have done it."

"But he isn't," Audrey put in. "There's not much wrong in him. For a few minutes the subject was dropped as play proceeded. But Jimmie seemed curious.

"I suppose Bill Netherton is an old friend of yours?" he asked. "Yes, he is."

Bill had a way, meant to specialise in said, but his father had died, leaving debts to pay off, and Bill had to get through quickly and come home. A good deal that Audrey did not say was implied Bill's disappointment, for instance.

Is Bill Netherton particularly friendly with Marjorie Blake?" "With Marjorie?" There was obvious surprise in her tone. "I do not think so. Why do you ask?"

"I only wondered," he evaded. The subject was dropped as they watched a one-armed golfer take an iron and with his left hand send the ball down the fairway.

Audrey answered Jimmie's question. "He's Captain Stirling. Lost his hand in the war—bombing. He's coming over here to speak to us."

"Captain Stirling," Jimmie repeated. "You rarely see a one-armed golfer. Can he drive a car?"

"Stirling, a big, dark fellow with a close-clipped black mustache and square, high shoulders, went over to Nancy, telling her that Evelyn Blake had asked her, Donald and Jimmie to come over for a quiet time that evening. It was agreed that the three would go over.

Jimmie and Audrey should have won the game, which ended all square. She played well, but Jimmie's interest in meeting Captain Stirling had put him off his game. Had the one-armed man played any part in the tragedy? Obviously he was friendly to the sisters. Was it his or that the chauffeur had seen against the fence? The fact that Dr. Netherton had seen him driving that direction supported the possibility. That a powerful one-armed man could have pushed over the satyr was obvious, but to conclude that from the mere presence of his car appeared worse than accusing Joe Allen because of his disappearance.

Jimmie and the Wades reached the Querdling place after dinner. Duckworth and Evelyn seemed content together, Marjorie had a book in her hand but was not reading.

Music and concert halls, strange subjects to which Jimmie turns the conversation in tomorrow's chapter. Joe Allen's flight is traced.

Three Negroes Under Charges
GROESBECK, March 3. (AP)—Murder charges, as well as heavy sentences for burglaries and an attempt to wreck a train, today confronted three negroes, Sonny Miller, Cal English, and Tom Henry Armstrong.

There were indicted for murder here yesterday in connection with the death recently of Charles Hunter of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., who was thrown from a freight train near Kosse.

Previously, at Corsicana, they were given seven years each on pleas of guilty to an attempt to wreck a Southern Pacific passenger train near Corsicana.

Miller also pleaded guilty to charges of burglary and theft and was given sentences totalling 148 years, which District Judge Hawkins Scarborough said would be cumulative and not concurrent.

Armstrong was given 12 years on each of four burglary cases to which he pleaded guilty. These sentences, with sentences in 15 other cases and the train wrecking penalty, brought his total assessment to 85 years.

GRAVES LEEPER DIES
SHERMAN, March 3. (AP)—After a long illness, Col. Graves Leeper, 76, died at the home of a sister, Mrs. J. B. Wilson, here yesterday.

On Jan. 1 he retired as secretary of state in Oklahoma. Diabetes was the immediate cause of death. Burial will be in Sherman. The time of burial was not set until word could be received from relatives. Among the survivors was a brother, J. D. Leeper of Gainesville.

AGED MINISTER DIES
DALLAS, March 3. (AP)—Believed to have been the oldest Methodist minister in the state, the Rev. J. P. Sherwood was dead today at the age of 89 years. He died here yesterday. Funeral services were set for Thursday at Terrell with the Rev. W. L. Tittle of Denton officiating.

GUNS FOR NICKING BARBER

Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma doesn't like to have nicked taken out of his chin when he's being shaved. When C. H. Riggs (lower picture), the official capitol barber, was shaving the governor, the latter leaped from the chair and rushed from the shop. "Alfalfa Bill" then went out after Riggs' scalp, and started a row in the state legislature with his attempt to discharge Riggs. In the picture above Gov. Murray is shown as he mingled with jobless men at a free soup kitchen and begged the soup to see if it was all right.

Petroleum Rates Ordered Reduced

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Rates on petroleum and petroleum products from midcontinent refineries to a number of Nebraska cities have been ordered reduced by the interstate commerce commission effective June 18.

The amount of reduction on refined products from Oklahoma refineries range from one cent to eight cents per hundred pounds under present schedules and the charges for crude petroleum prescribed will hereafter be 80 per cent of the rates charged on gasoline and other refined petroleum substances.

Illustrating the effects of its order the commission said that the present rates to Grand Island on refined petroleum products of 39.3 cents per hundred would become 36 cents; while the present rate to Norfolk of 43.5 cents would become 39 cents; the present rate to Ainsworth of 44.5 cents would become 40 cents and the present rate of 55.3 to North Platte would become 45. The examples will be followed in making rates to a number of other points in Nebraska from Oklahoma producing centers.

Stewart Bolen Is Promising Player

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 3. (AP)—Stewart Bolen, left-handed pitcher drafted from Baltimore by the Phillies, is one of the new Quaker boxmen who look good to Manager Shotton. "He's a fine prospect," Shotton said, "and should make the grade."

Bolen is up with the majors for the fourth time, having previously been with the St. Louis Browns twice and the Athletics once. With the Orioles last year he won 19 and lost 9, despite a sore arm.

Pythian Official Coming on Friday

The nights of Pythias lodge will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall at 7:45 o'clock, Friday evening, for the purpose of conferring the rank of page upon a number of strangers.

Wilbur R. Cadman, special deputy grand chancellor for Texas, will be present, and will confer the ritualistic lesson in friendship in the work.

Other important matters are due come before the meeting, and every Pythian is urged to arrive on time.

Slays Girl And Then Kills Self

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., March 3. (AP)—The bodies of K. R. Tracey, 28, and "Bionde" Miller, 22, were found by Mrs. Katherine Tracey when she returned home yesterday to ascertain whether her husband had kept a promise to quit drinking.

Police said evidence indicated the man had slain the girl and then committed suicide.

Mrs. Tracey told officers her husband had promised that if she would take her two-year-old son and year-old daughter and stay with friends four days he would "straighten up."

An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think about their children's restlessness, sleeplessness, lack of appetite, itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by a simple or skin condition. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that safe and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 35c per bottle from Father's Drug Co.

Confession Taken From Ranchman

OAKLAND, Calif., March 3. (AP)—Sheriff's officers announced today they had obtained a confession from J. B. Palmer, Hayward, Calif., rancher that he took $44,300 from the Oakland branch of the Bank of America yesterday by forcing J. W. Cardozo, Hayward banker, to approve the cashing of a check for that amount.

Officers said they recovered the money from beneath a board sidewalk on Palmer's ranch. The asserted confession came after an all-night grilling.

Cardozo, manager of the Hayward branch of the Bank of America, said Palmer called him to his ranch yesterday on the pretext that he wanted advice on a real estate deal. The rancher then confronted Cardozo with a gun and forced the banker to go to Oakland and assist in the cashing of the check, officers said. Employees of the bank became suspicious and called police. Officers arrested Palmer on his ranch. The rancher first asserted Cardozo had threatened him with a gun and had forced him to make out the check and cash it, but altered the story during the all-night questioning.

Blackmail Plot Is Murder Angle

NEW YORK, March 3. (AP)—The theory that Vivian Gordon, vice graft tipster, was slain because she was operating a blackmail ring was held by Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney today.

Miss Gordon, he said, was an "expert racketeer" who supplied pretty women for gay parties with instructions to determine the social position and financial rating of their escorts for future extortion. The names of about 40 men were listed in her diaries, he said.

Notations made public by District Attorney Charles B. McLaughlin and read before the Bronx grand jury accused John A. Radeoff, her lawyer, and Samuel Cohen, an ex-convict, of designs on her life as early as two years ago. They are held in $50,000 bail each as material witnesses and are seeking freedom on habeas corpus proceedings.

Miss Gordon wrote in her diary in January, 1929:

"It's best to put down things as they happen concerning John A. Radeoff. He is not to be trusted—he would stoop to anything."

Ensuing entries indicated the author and the lawyer were involved in an affair and were given to quarrels and reconciliations.

An undated entry read: "Sam Cohen, a client of J. A. R. in a case has bought the thugs (2) to J. A. R.'s office—so J. A. R. told me—and he refused to let them do the trick—?"

Mayor's Race At Chicago Is Muddled

CHICAGO, March 3. (AP)—The question whether the Chicago mayoral campaign is to be a (hustling) cornered race or a fight between Mayor William Hale Thompson and Anton J. Cermak, chairman of the Cook county board, puzzled politicians today.

The answer rested with Orson Belmont, K. Rudenberg, whose projected candidacy as an independent candidate and as a former member of the city council has been keeping politics in the limelight since the nomination Feb. 24 of Thompson by the Republicans and Cermak by the Democrats. The latest development was the announcement of a citizens' committee that Rudenberg would make the race, after the primary, was followed by a repudiation by the coroner of the nominating petition.

Coroner Rudenberg, however, said last night that he had not yet made up his mind and promised a statement later which would clarify the situation. He has until next Saturday to decide. After that it will be too late. An independent has never been elected mayor of Chicago.

The announcement of the citizens' committee was the second made concerning Rudenberg's entry. The first, made by the peoples' nonpartisan ticket, almost immediately after the primary, was followed by a repudiation by the coroner of the nominating petition.

Leland Withdraws From University

FT. WORTH, March 3. (AP)—Cy Leland has withdrawn from Texas Christian university and will leave for the Pacific Coast Wednesday.

The "Flying Fox," one of the nation's outstanding college sprinters for the last two years, resigned Monday. No immediate cause was given. He has been considering the course for a long time.

Leland has an ambition to accomplish big things in the 1932 Olympics, which will be held in California, and he has felt for some time that it will be greatly to his advantage to prepare himself in that state.

Cy is leaving Texas without any definite plans or connections. He simply hopes to make satisfactory arrangements after he reaches California.

Gandhi Likely To Abandon Campaign

NEW DELHI, March 3. (AP)—Mahatma Gandhi and Sir George Schuster, Indian finance minister, conferring today at the vice-regal palace, reached an agreement on the salt question, one of the outstanding problems in the way of abandonment of the civil disobedience campaign.

Almost exactly a year ago the Indian nationalist, led by Gandhi, initiated a campaign of violation of the salt laws, which provide for a British monopoly. Throughout current negotiations for calling off the civil campaign Gandhi has contended that the Indian people be empowered to make their own salt.

The agreement between Gandhi and Sir George was reached after a two-hour conference. After taking an hour's rest Gandhi proceeded to the viceroy's quarters to resume his talks with Lord Irwin which, it was expected, would lead today to a formal agreement permitting abandonment of the civil disobedience campaign.

KILGORE—

from Dallas worked with the rangers, questioning those arrested and checking their records. When they claimed they were working men, they were ordered to show proof of recent labor.

A squad of rangers from the Mexican border, headed by Capt. Albert Mace, and directed by Ranger Sergeant M. T. Gonzales, who had been on the grounds several days, raided Newton, a neighborhood of shacks west of Kilgore. They returned to Kilgore on their ponies, driving a dozen prisoners, on foot before them.

The raiders were assisted by the weather, which was wet and cold and drove many floaters indoors where they were easily accessible. It brought loud complaints from the prisoners in the church, however, and natural gas was hastily piped into the building and stoves installed.

Contrary to history of similar raids in other oil boom towns in the state, no gambling paraphernalia or liquor was seized, and only one man was found to have on his person a small quantity of a narcotic. (The prisoners were carefully searched, nevertheless, and a quantity of vicious knives found.)

CONGRESS—

ated about 10 billions of dollars for government uses, part the special term and the first regular session, more than half at the final term now closing.

The total covers expenditures for both the current fiscal year and the next.

The latter strike the high peace-time mark for any single session of a congress.

Besides the nine regular annual supply bills, vast sums have been provided for the short session for emergency construction to increase employment, and for drought and farm relief. In addition, the permanent appropriations, made automatically, exceed $1,200,000,000 to pay off the national debt, pay interest on outstanding obligations, and provide funds for the veterans service certificates sinking fund.

War-Time Record
The sixty-fifth war-time congress holds the high expenditures record of all-time, with an outlay of $27,000,000,000 during its second session. However, about $10,000,000,000 went for the military and naval establishments and $3,000,000,000 for loans to foreign governments.

Until the World war, the annual expenses of the government seldom reached the 2,000,000,000 figure.

However, the exception of the second deficiency bill carrying $105,000,000,000, all of the big money measures today had been enacted into law.
