Soil Tour To Visit 5 Farms Thursday

Engineer To Speak At Lunch

A conservation field tour is scheduled free Thursday, July 30, for farmers and ranchers of Mitchell County area.

Half dozen phases of modern conservation farming—on the site as techniques are in actual operation—will be on the tour schedule.

Another highlight will be a talk by O. F. Armstrong of Temple, field planning engineer of Texas Soil Conservation Board.

In addition, there will be a luncheon at noon in Colorado City's Civic House, free soft drinks during the tour and prizes given by 15 agricultural firms and gins.

Sponsoring the tour are board of supervisors of Mitchell County Soil Conservation District and Colorado City Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee.

Fifteen prizes, ranging from fertilizer and tractor fuel to free ginning of a baje of cotton, will be given away free to lucky persons on the tour.

Armstrong, considered one of the state's foremost disciples of practical application of soil conservation principles, will speak at the noon luncheon in Civic House.

The luncheon will be served at price of $1.25 per plate and reservations should be made with Chamber of Commerce office, RA 8-2211.

A. V. Sheppard, unit conservationist here with Soil Conservation Service, emphasized that the tour and luncheon is open to both farmer-rancher and business personnel.

Farmers and ranchers will be able to observe first hand how conservation practices are working out in practical application on Mitchell County acreage and business men will see the importance of conservation to the community's all-around community and how local farmers are turning dollars back into conservation gains.

The tour will begin with a motorcade leaving the Civic House at 9 a. m., continuing until 11:30 a. m., then returning to Civic House for the luncheon and talk by Armstrong.

Five farms will be visited in the morning field tour — N. O. Brown farm, south of Colorado City in Seven Wells community; Haskell Miles farm, a mile south of Looney church; E. S. Miles farm, southeast of Colorado City; Perry Bowles farm, 1.5 miles southwest of Loraine; and Noble Walker farm, east of Colorado City on U. S. 80.

Leading discussions at the field sites will be County Agent Jack Burkhalter, County FHA Supervisor John Russell, Alvin Jackson and Richard Reed, both of the local Soil Conservation Service staff; and Kelley Templeton, SCS

JUST SIX WEEKS AWAY

School Calendar Puts Studies Awful Close, Kids— Aug. 31

Make the most of it, kids, for vacation is running short.

If you don't think so, glance at the tenative school calendar just announced for Colorado City public schools for 1959-60.

You will be in your classrooms Aug. 31 — probably dreaming and wondering where those months of summer freedom vanished so speedily.

That's right. First day of actual classroom study for Colorado City public schools will be Monday, Aug. 31. Buses, cafeterias will be operating on regular schedule that day, too.

But the machinery will begin moving long before that day. Registration for Junior High and High School students are scheduled in August, at dates to be announced later, by principals.

August 26 through 28 will include orientation of school personnel, registration of elementary school students, safety meeting for school bus drivers.

Colorado High's first football game of the '59 season is scheduled the first Friday of school, Sept. 4, against Brownfield.

And the first holiday, Labor Day, will be Monday, Sept. 7.

Holidays from classes are scheduled again Nov. 26 and 27 (Thursday and Friday) for Thanksgiving; two weeks for Christmas, beginning after usual classes Dec. 18 (Friday) and continuing until Jan. 4 (Monday); one day either March 4 or 11 (Friday) for District meeting of Texas State Teachers Association; one or two days for Easter Holiday, maybe both April 15 (Friday) and April 18 (Monday) ore one of the two, depending upon whether any days are lost during the winter to bad weather.

Last day of classes will come long down the road of spring on Tuesday, May 24, followed by Colorado High commencement May 26 and Wallace High commencement May 27.

DECALS ORDERED

County to Mark Cars, Equipment

County vehicles and moving equipment soon will be labeled in black and white.

Commissioners Court this week placed an order for decals that will be placed on cars, pickups, trucks and other equipment.

The decals will list Mitchell County in black letters. Precinct designations will be white letters on black background.

Commissioners are ordering the decals, 12 inches by 16 inches, to conform with new state law passed in the recent regular session of the Texas Legislature.

The law requires every city or county owned motor vehicle and each piece of heavy equipment to be plainly designated by county ownership in letters at least two inches high.

Driving of public owned vehicles and equipment without the printing can result in minimum fine of $25.

Exempt from the new law are police and sheriff vehicles and any county with population of 350,000 or more.

Deadline for vehicles to be marked is Aug. 11, according to County Judge Elmer Martin.

ANNELLE HOLMAN'S

Personally Yours

Summer vacation doesn't seem like a vacation to some Colorado City mothers who have their children home for three months — but most mothers seem to get into the swing of their youngsters' activities and find them as much fun as their children do.

Mrs. William Helm, mother of eight children, looks forward to summertime. The Helm children are Gretchen, age 12; Austin, 11; Marshall, nine; Daniel, eight; David, seven; Jessica, six; Cornelia, four and Juliana, age three.

Mrs. Helm reports that the whole family thoroughly enjoys summertime. The older children attend camps and take part in various activities.

The Helms live in a two-story house on Route 3 and Mrs. Helm laughs and says, "I don't know who would keep this acre clean if the children didn't have vacations from school."

The W. A. Hillhouse family sleeps, eats, and lives baseball, according to Mrs. Hillhouse. They are so busy with the sport that they rarely have time for anything else.

The Hillhouse sons play on three different age teams —Steve, age 15, plays with the Teen-age team; Ronnie, age 12, and Mike, age 10, play with the Yankee Little League team; and Randy, age seven holds a berth on the Minor Cub team.

And Mrs. Hillhouse is busy constantly with ballgames, but it is fun — for all of them, she says.

Running a taxi? It sometimes seems that way for Mrs. Bob McGuire. The McGuire family lives 12 miles from town but with their son, Bill, in the Pony League and daughter, Judy, attending ballgames, working on homemaking projects and other activities, they are constantly on the road—to or from town.

But McGuire says summer is enjoyable for their family because they are together more.

Relatives visit, activities increase, homes become a turmoil, and the family car almost falls apart because it's on the run so much. Summer is vacation time. Just the opposite, really. But mom apparently likes it that way.

Return Home

Misses Irene Norman and Rosemary Thomas will return Friday from several days visit in Waco and Austin.

In Waco the pair visited with Miss Norman's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Lee.

When you or your loved ones are sick, it is unwise to attempt to be alone with your trouble and attempt self-treatment. There is a friend whose whole life is dedicated to the treatment and cure of the sick—Your Physician.

The beginning of any illness is the opportune time for treatment. Delay can be dangerous. Home remedies that may only temporarily relieve distress often give a simple ailment time to become serious.

Only a physician is competent to diagnose the true cause of sickness and prescribe the proper medication.

C-City Smashes Snyder In Area Pony Playoffs

By RONNY GURLEY
Record Sports Writer

C-City's Pony League All-Stars swept the first two games of the Area playoffs over Snyder, Monday and Tuesday to gain a birth in the District Tournament in Abilene next week.

This makes two years in a row for C-City to be represented in the tournament of champions.

Managers Toby Dearen and Dan Long's hustling crew took Monday's contest 13-6 and Tuesday's clincher 2-1, in a thriller. Both games were played in Snyder on the opponent's home field.

Monday's game was an error-filled contest, caused by the opening night jitters, with C-City giving away three unearned markers in the first inning. They bounced back in the third with four runs by virtue of Snyder miscues to take a brief lead.

C-City booted in two Snyder tallies in the bottom of the inning to leave the count 5-4 going into the fourth.

Big inning for C-City came in first of the fourth when they pushed across six big markers to give them a hefty cushion. Jerry Davis drove in one of the runs with a single. One came by virtue of bases loaded walk, and the rest due to Snyder miscues.

Snyder's Jimmie Everett drove in the loser's last run in the fifth with a single.

C-City gathered more insurance in the seventh due to more costly Snyder mistakes afield.

Strong-armed Charlie Houston allowed Snyder only five base hits and whiffed 12 Snyder stickers. Keith Moreland suffered the loss for Snyder.

In Tuesday's thriller the

STINSON HURLS 4-HITTER

Teens Slap Hermleigh All-Star Team, 10-5

Colorado City's Teen-agers blasted the Hermleigh All-stars, 10 to 5, here Thursday night behind the stout four-hit hurling of Truman Stinson.

The revamped Hermleigh crew picked up three of their five tallies the first inning when Stinson filled the bases on a pair of walks and a hit batter, then Jimmy Vernon doubled to unload the bases.

C-City got two of the runs back in their half of the first. Lucky Merket, C-City third sacker, singled home lead-off man Steve Smith from second. Merket then scored on a fielder's choice and an overthrow at third to make the count, 3-2, Hermleigh.

C-City exploded for four runs in the third by virtue of two walks and three singles and a fielder's choice. This gave the Teens a 5-3 lead which they maintained the rest of the way.

C-City added two more runs in the fifth and three more in the sixth, one of which was a bases empty homer by Lucky Merket over the left field wall.

Hermleigh High Head Coach Bill McGuire went the distance for the losers with Truman Stinson going the route for C-City to gain his sixth victory of the season.

C-City winds up their season tonight at the local diamond against the strong Wallace All-Stars.

Lefty Steve Hillhouse will be on the rubber for the Teens and Ernie Biggers will be firing for Wallace.

Reaching Into The Past Has Appeal

Life magazine recently published a lavishly illustrated article on the boom in the antique business. Apparently the dealers have never seen anything like it before. The problem is to find enough supply to meet the surging demand. All manner of old wares are being eagerly bought, from knicknacks which go for a few dollars to great rarities valued far into the thousands.

Also, in late years, the book publishers have found an extraordinary large audience for works of history. Books dealing with some historical periods, notably the Civil War era, have appeared in torrents and have been enthusiastically received. Southwestern lore, from the earliest days of Texas settlers on through the brilliant periods of adventure which mark our state, has moved to the printing presses, too, in noteworthy books. Many of these historical writings have become best sellers.

During the same period the traveling, vacation public has increased in leaps and bounds — roaming the great stretches of our nation, year in and year out. And this sightseeing public stops more and more to soak up historical data and background of the areas it visits.

It is not hard to understand the reasons for this reaching back into the past. For one thing, we live in a disordered, threatening, unpredictable world. The past produces a measure of assurance.

And the past does much more than that. It is the source of a nation's strength and principle. In yesterday, we may find the guides to tomorrow. The character of those who live is in large measure molded by those long dead, by their deeds, their thoughts, their arts and crafts, their victories and defeats. The past is pride and it is hope for the future, too.

Just as we can see this interest for history, we can understand the widening interest for Colorado City Museum Association. This organization seeks to research, gather, preserve and display in dignity those items and data which relate this particular Southwestern community's proud history. And those who are leading in this embryonic museum project know this history is appealing to the public, too, just as antiques and books and long-established tourist attractions.

Testimonial

The crowd of business men gathered in Civic House the other night to applaud Ed Baker were sincere fellow citizens. They were appreciative for the accomplishment of the honored guest in his remodeling and expanding Baker Hotel into one of our city's finer assets.

Their thought and gesture, the testimonal words of Frank Kelley — all these were deserving in every right. For the modern hotel, restaurant and recreational facilities at the Baker fill a definite void in our community's business and economic front. At the same time, this project with its staff and payroll provides our city with a new and enterprising industry.

But the tribute to Ed Baker has more significance that just a business man's "thank you" for his individual project. It signifies to the areas beyond our own community, to the industries and business leaders throughout the country that Colorado City is conscience of business and industry, understanding of the aims and problems which business and industry face. And it speaks loud of the fact, to, that Colorado City is ready to assist and work with those business and industrial firms or individuals who look to new locations for either expansion or a new lease on economic life.

Good Hands

Austin isn't too far away for any of us to notice the happenings in our state capitol. Headlines for months have reported the troubles of our State Legislature as it has struggled from one session to another in quest of taxes and finances.

But the other day another group met in Austin within the shadow of our capitol buildings And they moved speedily and efficiently through their three days of business.

These were leaders and sponsors of Texas Association of Future Farmers of America, those youths who make their move toward planned, studious, scientific farming and ranching while still in high school.

Mitchell County was capably represented by approximately 10 students and teachers. And from our county's FFA ranks stepped Ronald Haley, to become state FFA vice president; Robert Holman and Marvin Wallingsford, to receive the Lone Star Farmer degree, and Clyde Feaster, who accepted a $200 college scholarship.

These outstanding marks of achievement are a signal credit to the vocational agriculture teachers, the public schools and the communities from which these Future Farmers come. Also, these are additional evidence that our future is in the hands of enterprising, industrious and service-minded young people.

SENATOR REPORTS

Safeguard Needed Against Radiation

By RALPH YARBOROUGH
U.S. Senator

This nation has just started to learn about the hazards of radio-activity that accompany its vast new resources of nuclear power.

It is because of these hazards and the fact that even our scientists do not know too much yet about the dangers of radioactivity, that I have been against the proposed dumping of radioactive wastes in the shallow waters inshore in the Gulf of Mexico.

The problem should be carefully studied. A great deal more information is needed before we fill our waters with material which scientists tell us may prove harmful to our children and their children for 100 or 200 years.

Recent news articles have told how much some of our nation's streams have been dangerously polluted by radioactive waste. I don't feel we should make this mistake again, and pollute more water.

The fact that the dumping of these radioactive wastes in the Gulf was proposed without all the necessary information being gathered first shows the need for someone to look out for the public's interests.

Some of the agencies which work with radioactive materials are now held responsible for the public only from an overdose of radiation resulting from that agency's activities. There is not now any one agency which is responsible for the overall protection of the public.

To correct this dangerous situation I am supporting a proposal by Senator Lister Hill and Congressman Kenneth Roberts, both of Alabama, to make the United States Public Health Service responsible for safeguarding our people against the hazards of all types of radiation.

The measure calls for setting up standards of radiation protection. It would instruct the Surgeon General of the U. S. Public Health Service to confer with federal, State and local authorities and submit to Congress, not later than February 28, 1960, a program for the control of radiation hazards from all man-made sources.

In addition, research and training programs would be established to explore this vast and vital subject. A National Council on Radiation Hazard Control would be set up to work on this problem continuously. The 15-member council would include the Surgeon General, the Secretary of Defense, the Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Director of the National Science Foundation and others.

We are dealing with a power which, if not kept within bounds, could destroy or horribly change human life. We must be certain the public is protected.

IN QUEST FOR STATE FUNDS

Legislature into 4th Session After Tax Compromise Fizzles

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Texas' 56th Legislature fizzled to the end of its third session and 180th day with its main job — providing money to run state government — still undone.

Gov. Price Daniel called a fourth session to begin just hours after the last one ended.

House members repeatedly voted down tax bills presented by joint conference committees of senators and representatives. Senate voted favorably each time.

First House rejection was by a vote of 81-to-64. This was on a bill to tax tobacco, natural gas production, corporation franchises, utilities, motor vehicles, liquor, wine, boats, motors, airplanes, radios, TV's, phonographs, cameras and liquor by the drink in private clubs.

Speaker Waggoner Carr named a new House conference group composed of members who had voted against the bill. They met with the same Senate conferees that had worked twice before.

Only change in the new report was that the private club tax was cut out and the radio and TV tax slightly increased.

House rejected it again, this time 83-to-66.

More conferences and more votes followed in the final frantic hours. All futile! None made any apparent progress toward compromising the basic bone of contention, whether to tax gas pipelines. House favors this "severance beneficiary" tax by a narrow margin. Senate is flatly against.

Along with his new call, Governor Daniel issued a sober warning. Unless a tax bill is passed and effective (requiring a two-thirds favorable vote) by Aug. 15, there won't be time or money to get Sept. 1 checks to 225,000 old age pensioners.

* * *

CARB FOES — During the tense, short-tempered days in the wind-up of the last session. Speaker Waggoner Carr was, for a time, the target for pent-up frustrations and pressure.

Carr had worked to get the House to accept the Senate-passed tax bill. When the House turned the bill down, Carr said that "obstructionists" had defeated it.

This was a red flag to members already sensitive to public criticism of a "do-nothing" Legislature. For several days they simmered. They accused Carr of trying to thwart the will of a House majority, talked of voting him out of the speakership.

In a dramatic showdown, Carr stepped down from the rostrum and challenged his critics to remove him if they thought it would make things any better.

They didn't accept his dare. A few minutes later, on motion of Rep. Joe Burkett, the man Carr defeated for the speakership, Carr was escorted back to the speaker's chair. But the vote was close and less than a majority stood to receive the speaker on his return.

And the wearying legislature battle began again.

* * *

STUDENT FEE — A bill to require state college students to pay an activity fee passed both houses by very narrow margin.

Measure would allow the colleges to charge students up to $30 a semester to support health services, book rentals, cultural and athletic events, campus publications, parking, etc.

Any college may exempt from the fee up to 10 per cent of its enrollment in cases where the charge would cause "undue financial hardship."

Bill was hard-fought. Opponents declared it would make "free public education" available only to the rich. Backers said the colleges had to have more money. It was estimated the bill could bring in as much as an extra $1,000,000 a year.

* * *

BEACH BILL — Both houses passed and sent to the governor a bill guaranteeing public access to state-owned beaches.

It took a conference committee to work out the differences between House and Senate ideas on the bill.

As finally passed, the bill says the public shall have the right to come and go from public beaches. No one, it says, shall erect a fence or barrier to prevent this.

Beaches that cannot be reached by public road or ferry are exempt.

* * *

WAIT, YOUNG LOVERS— Governor Daniel's expected signature on a newly passed bill will put a damper on the elopement plans of Texas teen-agers.

It will require boys under 21 and girls under 18 to wait three days after obtaining a license to get married. Also, to get the license, the youngsters must be accompanied by parents or guardians.

Some lawmakers said it would mean running across the state line to marry. However, Oklahoma recently passed a similar law.

MONEY FIRST — Amid the legislative tax deadlock, the Commission on Higher Education decided to stop studying new money-spending programs until there's money to spend.

Commission's job is to determine needs of the state's colleges and universities and make recommendations to the Legislature. Expanded programs and new degrees are being sought by many schools. But when the Commission met, there was no money in sight even to open the schools next fall, let alone expand them.

Commission resolved to "approve no programs which entail additional expenditures until such time as monies are provided for the programs and offerings already in existence."

WATCH THAT PAINT—If someone slips on a strip of wet city paint, is the city liable for personal injury damages? State Supreme Court has this issue under consideration in a case that could affect all Texas cities.

Summer Sales Now Erase Old Slump

By ROY V. FOX
Record Co-Publisher

Dog Days' slump no longer has a place in retailing.

This is the opinion of Gerald W. Frank, a leading retail executive of the Pacific Coast area.

Changes in the American way of living have opened up a new merchandising season in the summer.

"There's a whole new world of natural selling opportunities in the summer," according to Frank.

Today a merchant can bring in and sell new goods at regular prices because of specialized clothing and equipment needed for summer activities of the typical American.

"Now we can give our stores a 'business-as-usual' look instead of dimming the lights and heaping the counters with odds and ends, mismates and leftovers." Frank said.

Among the causes for increased retail activity in the summer are longer and more summer vacations; the vast surge of interest in all types of water sports; increased travel requiring new and suitable clothing; outdoor cooking and recreation.

The Dog Days' slump will not end automatically. Retailers simply have been given an opportunity to end the slump. Only those retailers who take advantage of advertising to stimulate the latent demand for new summer goods can expect a change.

Ironically though, the summer activities move people away from certain advertising outlets. But, according to Frank, this is not true of newspaper advertising.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Horses Eat Reds Out of New Plan

Editor's note: The Shinnery Flats Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek discusses the foreign situation this week, you might say.

* * *

Dear editor:

Not knowing much for sure about farming in this country, I couldn't be expected to know anything about farming in Poland, but I read an article last night about a situation over there that attracted my attention.

As I understand it, the Communists over there are trying to get the Polish farmers to get rid of their horses. There are 2,7000,000 horses in Poland, they graze over 5,000,000 acres of pasture, and eat over 3,000,000 tons of grain a year.

The Communists are saying, it takes too much grain to feed those horses. Last year they ate more grain than all the city-dwellers in Poland got, and the thing to do is get rid of them, switch to government-owned tractors.

The Polish farmers though are resisting. They don't have to be told that while a tractor doesn't eat grain, it does consume gasoline, and very few farms in Poland produce gasoline.

Them Poles ain' so dumb. When it comes to a choice of feeding grain to horses or to Communists, they favor the horses.

I never have sat down and figured it up. I don't mind sitting down, it's the figuring that gets me, but maybe you could tell me: how much production does a tractor consume?

In Poland they figure it takes 15 per cent of the land to support the horses. What per cent of a farm does it take to support the tractor it takes to work it? I know a man can work a lot more land with a tractor, but you can't raise a tractor, you have to buy it, and if somebody stopped and figured up how much production it takes to buy a tractor, maintain it, keep it in gasoline and oil, replace it when it wears out, he might come up with some interesting figures.

Understand, I'm not planning on going back to horse farming, a tractor that won't start is ad but a mule that won't i- worse. Yet, I have a grea deal of sympathy with those Polish farmers. It's not how much grain you raise that counts, it's how much you have left over for yourself, to eat or sell, and if they come out better with horses, that's their business.

Personally, I never have seen the horse I wouldn't rather feed than a Communist.

Your faithfully,
J. A.

BIBLE COMMENT

Complacency Not Faith of Bible

The Bible, both in the Old Testament and the New, has a great deal to say about trials and temptations and also a great deal concerning enemies.

But in the religious outlook and literature of today, there is comparatively little concerning trials and temptations, and almost nothing concerning enemies.

A rather complacent attitude is taken toward life, and if there is much concern it is chiefly about such matters as inner peace and strength.

Why is there such a discrepancy between the comparative complacency of present-day religious life and the tense situations of trial, trouble and temptation so common in the Biblical records, or so strongly indicated in the reference to them?

We have been living in deeply troubled times. Not only have enemies in the mass been as almost never before, but almost numberless individuals have been subjected to persecution, torture and death on a scale and in a manner that would have been inconceivable in anticipations of the 20th century.

If this is so, why should there be such comparative religious complacency? Political writers have noted an utterly unaccustomed apathy on the part of the public. They attribute this apathy to a comparative ease and prosperity on the part of people who don't want to be disturbed.

The religious complacency is to be explained in much the same way, but is unrealistic and false to the actual situations and stresses of the world and of life.

The Bible is a book of crisis and of crises, of trials and temptations; of souls often in what might have been desperation, if it had not been for a commanding faith.

'WARLOCK'

Starring Widmark, Fonda, Malone

"Warlock," Twentieth Century Fox's production in CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color opens Sunday at the Palace Theater. Headed by Richard Widmark, the starring cast is filled out by Henry Fonda, Anthony Quinn, Dorothy Malone and Dolores Michaels, with Edward Dmytryk as producer-director.

"Warlock" tells the story of a rough frontier cattle town, of the lawless element ruling it, the professional gunfighter brought in to tame it, and the man who stood balanced precariously between the killer gang and the gunman.

In the key role, that of an outlaw turned lawman, Richard Widmark racks up another of his outstanding action performances, adding to a record begun with the memorable Tommy Udo in "Kiss of Death."

As the professional gunman, Henry Fonda brings back all the excitement and magic of his faultless early portrayals in such films as "My Darling Clementine" and "The Oxbow Incident."

Anthony Quinn, who has gained renoun as an international star, is the warped and strange sidekick of the professional gunman.

Dorothy Malone, Academy Award Winner, is the captivating woman of mystery who has a score to settle with Fonda but falls in love with Widmark, and Dolores Michaels is the woman in Fonda's life.

Filmed among the grandeur of Montana's mountainous Four Corner's section, "Warlock" neatly ties together this stellar cast with genuinely exciting outdoor photography serving to complement Robert Allen Authur's screenplay from the best selling novel, Oakley Hall.

PLAYOFF . . .

scoring began in the second inning when Louis Franco came home on a ground ball hit by Bill McGuire to send C-City into a 1-0 lead.

Snyder knotted the score in the third when their lead off batter Jimmie Taylor doubled, advanced to third on an overthrow, and streaked home on a passed ball for their only tally.

The game rocked along as a pitchers duel between Snyder's Tom Walters and C-City's Tommy Castillo.

Then in the final inning with the bases loaded, C-City's shortstop Mike Andrews sliced a fast ball that virtually died on the infield grass to allow Charlie Houston to slide under the 'do or die' throw at the plate and end the ball game.

Representatives from the local Pony League will go to Abilene Friday to draw for a position in the tournament to be held next week in Abilene.

All district entrants are not yet determined but there will be teams from a large section of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico represented.

DURING LAST SCHOOL YEAR

School Lunch Business Up: 10,932 More Plates Served

Appetites of Colorado City school children are increasing each year — as indicated by the number of lunches served under supervision of Mrs. J Ed Richardson and her co-workers in the lunchrooms at Primary, Hutchinson, Junior High-Senior High, and Wallace schools.

In the last school year, 10,932 more lunches were served than in 1957-58, and 27,352 more than in 1956-57.

A total of 190,606 lunches were served during 1958-59 with 182,122 served to children, and 8484 to aduits. In addition, 14,108 lunches were served free.

The workers of the lunchrooms serve well balanced meals to an average of 1039 students each day.

Milk is served with lunches, as well as being used in a special milk program. During the school year 249,458 half pints of milk were purchased, with 137,373 half-pints being served with lunches. The remaining 62,085 were used in the special milk program.

The milk consumption also increased over previous years, 33,412 more than 1957-58, and 64,833 more than 1956-57.

The lunchroom operates on income from lunches served at 25, 30, and 35 cents to children and adults, and on reimbursements of 4 cents per half-pint of milk served on the special milk program and 5 cents per lunch on the school lunch program from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Payment for lunches amounted to $48,569.20 and reimbursements were $12,754.10, making a total of $61,323.30 — $6,323.30 more than 1957-58.

Commodities in the amount of $11,639.29 were received from the government to supplement food that had to be bought. Included in these commodities were staple, diary products, meats, and canned goods of high quality such as: canned apples, apple sauce, green beans, blackberries grapefruit, sliced peaches, corn, peas, tomatoes; tomato paste, butter, frozen ground pork, processed cheese, dry milk, dried whole eggs, frozen turkeys, peanut butter, flour, corn meal, rice, and pinto beans.

Expenditures climbs according to the increase in participation because more milk and food must be purchased, salaries paid, new equipment bought, and replacements made in supplies. During this year, $60,905.20 was expended from the lunchroom. Milk and food costs amounted to $37,769.23, salaries $17,343.78, and other miscellaneous, $5,792.19.

A new dishwasher, costing $2,050, was installed. A bake oven was purchased for $840. Repairs made on equipment amounted to $238, and the cost on all small equipment and utensils such as disnes, trays, cooking utensils, cutlery, glasses, brooms, mops, and laundry, amounted to $972.78.

Each year one or more lunchroom workers go to a workshop during the summer months for which the lunchroom defrays expenses.

Burn Cancelled Bonds

Sale of the Burkburnett municipal power plant and system to Texas Electric Service Company enabled city officials to purchase and burn bonds that had represented a debt of $676,000 on the municipal light and water systems. Sale of the plant was approved by a vote of almost 2 to 1 in a special election in April. The city now plans a program to provide city-wide sewer service and a modern sewage disposal plant. The company will remove unnecessary duplicating lines and poles and install modern street lights.

VFW Official Urges Community Service

Emphasis will be on community service in the Veterans of Foreign Wars during the coming year, according to Fred C. Stevenson of Sweetwater, who commands the state's largest VFW district.

The recently-installed commander of Texas District 8, which includes Colorado City's Post 9178, added that community service was being emphasized on a national and state level in the Veterans of Foreign Wars 1959-60 program, and he will make every effort to stress it on the district and post plane.

"We must justify our existence in the community," he said. "If we make a place for ourselves in the community, our membership will increase as our service to others increases."

Stevenson is currently visiting the posts of his district and is conferring with district and local officers of the organization in order to complete plans for the year's program. Several appointments will be announced shortly.

A continuous member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars since 1946, Stevenson is immediate past commander of Sweetwater's Post 2479. He also served as deputy chief of staff of the district during the 1958-59 year.

He was born in Sweetwater and is a graduate of Abilene High School. He was graduated from Texas A&M in 1939 with a BA degree.

Entering the service in 1942, Stevenson served in North Africa and Europe with the 938 Field Artillery Batallion attached to the 6th Corps. He was wounded at Anzio Beachhead in 1944. He was discharged in 1945.

Stevenson is treasurer and office manager of Hillsdale Gravel Company, Sweetwater.

With over 4,000 members, Texas District 8 is composed of Veterans of Foreign Wars posts in Abilene, Sweetwater, Brownwood, Cisco, Eastland, Rotan, Merkel, Ranger, Hamlin, Breckenridge, Snyder, Cross Plains, Albany, Anson, Colorado City and Stamford.

ONE OF THE 7 BIG BESTS CHEVROLET GIVES YOU OVER ANY CAR IN ITS FIELD

Take it, not from us, but from official results of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run: Chevy's pennypinching 6 delivers the most miles per gallon in its field. For a pair of these Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class, getting the best mpg figure—a whopping 22.38—of any full-size car. And here are more expert, impartial opinions and on-the-record facts backing us up on Chevy's other six bests:

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.* Guide Book. Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST STYLE

It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "Chevrolet establishes a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR†, Chevrolet out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars—and why not: Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings, to help lengthen brake life by as much as 66%.

BEST ROOM

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.‡ make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

BEST ENGINE

Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST RIDE

MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. And your Chevrolet dealer can tell you about a long list of other advantages besides these 7 big ones!

Record Sales, Profits for Safeway

Reporting the highest mid-year sales and net profit in its 33-year history, Safeway Stores confirmed that for the first 24 weeks of 1959 its profit after taxes was more than 2 per cent ahead of last year and sales were nearly 6 per cent.

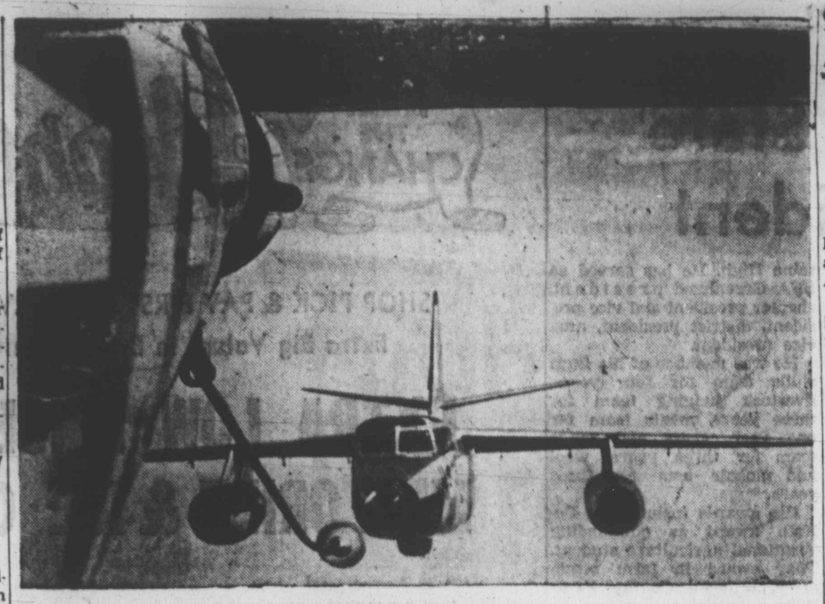

For the first time, Safeway's sales exceeded one billion dollars during the first half-year, reaching $1,047,943,389, President Robert A. Magowan reported.

Net profit for the same 24-week period, ended June 13, established a new high of $15,304,138. These results compared with consolidated sales of $989,331,976 and net profit of $14,966,435 for the first 24 weeks of 1958 when the Food Company established its previous mid-year records.

Safeway's 1959 net profit at mid-year, after provisions for payment of preferred dividends and taxes on income, amounted to $1.20 per share of common stock, based on the average number of shares outstanding during the period.

Even though this average number of shares continued to increase from 12,183,482 during the first half of 1958 to 12,313,022 this year, Safeway's net earnings per share nevertheless exceeded 1958 when they amounted to $1.18 at mid year.

Thus far, in 1959, Safeway has opened 69 modern retail stores and two large warehouse distribution centers. Four more distribution centers will be completed or in the midst of construction by year-end by which time the number of new retail stores opened this year will have reached about 200.

FOR CONSERVATION

Stamp to Honor District Group

Cooperators of Mitchell County Soil Conservation District are among those honored by the world's first conservation stamp.

The stamp will be issued Aug. 26 in Rapid City, S. D., as a tribute to the nation's conservation farmers and ranchmen, including district cooperators of the local soil district which has been in operation since 1941.

Local application of the stamp's tribute was emphasized Thursday by Roy Carey, member of the district's board of supervisors.

"The 4-cent stamp is in recognition of the farmers and ranchers who are demonstrating good soil stewardship," Carey said. "It is a salute to their soil conservation districts, and to the professional workers of state and federal government who help them.

The stamp will go on sale Aug. 26 in Rapid City, S. D., at the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America, a professional organization, Carey said.

On the following day, the stamp will go on sale at other post offices throughout the country, including those at Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook.

Carey said local observance of the issuance of the soil conservation stamp is being planned. Local stamp collectors are urged to make plans to secure first day coverage and to purchase their stamps Aug. 27, 1959.

Local businesses are urged to purchase and use the new stamp, he added.
