AMA Gives Tips On Auto Buying

The making of safer automobiles has been much in the news of late.

Much has been written on whether it is the "nut behind the wheel" or the design of the auto themselves that is responsible for the steadily climbing toll of deaths and injuries from auto accidents.

Safer autos may be in the offing, but in the meantime TODAY'S HEALTH, the magazine of the American Medical Association, offers some tips to prospective buyers in selecting from models now available. Not all of these appointments are likely to be found on any one model, but they are at least a mental check list to keep in mind while shopping around. Some of them will be available only as "extras," at extra cost.

Padded head supports to avoid neck injury.

Padded dash and visors. Recessed dash instruments and control devices.

Impact-absorbing steering wheels and column displacement.

Safety door latches and hinges.

Four-way flasher signals that can be blinked all at once.

Safety glass all around.

TODAY'S HEALTH also points out that the paint job may be a safety factor in selecting your next auto. Light colors are more easily seen in the day or night, while dark colors blend into a surrounding background during daylight and make autos practically invisible at night.

County Agents Attend State Conference Aug. 29

Local County Extension Agents, Mrs. Alice Ballenger, and James S. Norman, will hear Texas Governor John Connally when he speaks at the Teas Agricultural Extension Service State Conference.

The State conference will be held the week of August 29 through September 2, according to Extension Director John Hutchison. He said the conference will be the largest Extension State Conference ever held at A&M.

Ovr 1,000 county agricultural agents, home demonstration agents and Extension specialists, Hutchison said, will attend the event. It's to be held on the Texas A&M University campus at College Station.

Other speakers at the conference are Dr. William A. Lufburrow, executive vice-president, Goodwill Industries, Houston; Earl Rudder, A&M president; H. C. Helfenfelds, president, A&M Board of Directors; Senator W. T. Moore, Bryan; Dr. R. E. Patterson, Dean of Agriculture at A&M; and John Hutchison, Extension Director.

More speakers are Dr. E. B. Evans, president of Prairie View A&M College; Dr. Brice Ratchford, vice president for Extension, University of Missouri; Dr. Carl S. Winters, of General Motors; and Sterling Evans, member A&M Board of Directors.

A highlight of the week-long conference will be presentation of the Knapp-Porter Awards. This award, according to Hutchison, is made only when an outstanding nominee is eligible to receive it.

The award is given to persons who have made outstanding contributions to Texas Agriculture and family living by supporting informal education programs for adults and youth.

The last to receive the Knapp - Porter award were Congressman Olin E. Teague and Congressman George H. Mahon in 1964.

Pretty brown-haired Laura Gass of Comfort is the new Miss Texas Rural Electrification for 1966-67. The 18-year-old beauty was chosen for the honor during the 26th annual membership meeting of Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc., in San Antonio, August 17-19. She will compete for the title of Miss Rural Electrification of America early next year in San Francisco. Laura is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gass and represented Central Texas Electric Cooperative, Fredericksburg, in the state contest.

Cotton Insect Report No. 11

Several Rolling Plains counties received rain during the past week. Bollworm populations have decreased over the area as a whole, while boll weevils continue to increase.

Bollworms—Bollworm damage to green squares and bolls was heavy (4 percent to over 6 percent) in one or more fields in Cottle, Wilbarger, Knox, Haskell, Stonewall, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Nolan, Mitchell, Runnels, Tom Green, Concho and Schleicher counties.

Damage of 2 percent to 4 percent was observed in one or more fields in Hardeman, Foard, Taylor and Schleicher counties.

Control measures for bollworms should begin when bollworm eggs and 4 to 5 young worms are found per 100 terminals, or 5 percent of the small squares and bolls have been injured by small bollworms. Control measures should be applied at 5 day intervals, or less depending on the infestation.

Fields should be checked closely 2 to 3 days following each application to insure effective control.

Boll Weevils—

Heaviest populations of boll weevils (1000 to 9225 boll weevils per acre) were observed in fields in Collingsworth, Childress, Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, Wichita, Knox, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Taylor and Nolan counties. Populations of 550 to 910 weevils per acre were observed in Donley, Hall, Cottle and Clay counties. Lighter populations (85 to 423) weevils per acre were observed in Baylor, Throckmorton, Mitchell and Runnels.

Punctured green squares ranging from 25 percent to over 50 percent were observed in fields in Collingsworth, Childress, Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, Clay, Knox, Haskell, Stonewall, Coke, unnels, Coleman and Tom Green counties. Punctured green squares ranged from 10 percent to 24 percent in one or more fields in Cottle, Baylor, Fisher, Jones, Nolan, Mitchell, Concho, McCulloch and Schleicher counties.

Boll weevils are capable of causing significant losses if left uncontrolled. Growers should inspect fields regularly and make insecticide applications if 15 percent to 25 percent or more punctured squares are found.

Other Insects—

Medium infestations of plant bugs (lygus, Stinkbugs and rapid plant bugs) were observed in several fields in Haskell, Runnels, and Tom Green counties.

Cotton square borers were observed in several fields in this area.

Spider mites were reported as light infestations in several counties.

Grasshoppers were observed damaging the margins of fields in Callahan and Shackelford counties.

Moisture and Insecticide Use Records—

The Area Entomologist wishes to remind producers whose fields are being checked by the Rolling Plains survey teams, that they should fill out their Moisture and Insecticide Use Records currently. This information will be very important in the final analysis of this program's survey work.

For control recommendations, please refer to L-508 (Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in the High Plains, Rolling Plains and Trans-Pecos Areas of Texas). Copies of this guide may be picked up at the office of your county agricultural agent.

The information used in this Cotton Insect Report was compiled from reports received from Rolling Plains Survey Teams, County Agricultural Agents and Extension Entomologists.

Research-Promotion Urged For Cotton

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 25 - (Special) — Without greatly expanding research and promotion, cotton is doomed to further disastrous losses to man-made fibers.

This warning came here today at a U.S. Department of Agriculture hearing to determine grower sentiment on an assessment of $1 per bale to promote cotton under the Cotton Research and Promotion Act. About 35 leading Texas and Oklahoma growers are scheduled to testify in favor of the program.

Most of today's session was occupied with testimony of the National Cotton Council, Cotton Producers Institute, and cotton grower organizations. The Council sponsored the bill in Congress where it also was endorsed by some 40 national and regional producer groups.

G. C. Cortright, Rolling Fork, Miss., Council Board Chairman and a CPI trustee said that man-made fibers are offering textile mills all kinds of goods and services and incentives and cold cash in advertising allowances.

In view of this, he asked how could cotton farmers ask these customers to put up money to reduce the farmer's production costs, improve the quality of cotton products, and promote them?

An assessment of ginners and other branches of the industry who service farmers would be reflected eventually in their charges, he said, and the farmer would end up paying anyway. He added that if farmers put all the money under the Act, they will have full control of it.

Members of the Cotton Council staff testified that Cotton is losing markets to higher priced man-made fibers such as nylon and Dacron, even though its price is competitive with rayon. Domestic consumption of these fibers jumped from 2.9 million bales in 1960 to 7 million in 1965.

These gains are due to vast expenditures by man-made fiber makers — six times as much as cotton for research, and 16 times as much for promotion.

Using specialization, blending, and cost as a basis, the six to eight largest man-made fiber manufacturers are coordinating attacks on markets they wish to take over.

Without a well-coordinated and adequately financed program, some 500,000 cotton farmers scattered across the Belt cannot hope to match their relatively centralized competition.

Cotton's biggest research needs are: (1) cutting cost and losses and improving production and processing efficiency, (2) improving, preserving, and delivering better quality raw cotton.

Man-made fibers are winning acceptance through: (1) magazine advertising influencing individual customers retailers, garment manufacturers, and textile mills; (2) newspaper advertising in direct cooperation with retailers; and (3) television. Without funds as provided in the Act, cotton faces virtual elimination from the fiber production field.

Growers are willing to put up their own funds to finance research and promotion as they have been doing under CPI. Collections of $1 per bale for CPI, however, are made by processors and handlers. Some collect while others do not, thus eroding the program.

The Rotan Advance
Thurs. Sept. 1, 1966 No.30

While the proposed program would be under overall USDA cognizance, it would be grower financed, administered by a grower board, and projects would be initiated and carried out by a producer group.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIFTEEN ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.
SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 33 proposing an Amendment to Section 6, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, to authorize state participation in programs financed with funds from private or federal sources and conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities for assisting the blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 6, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 6. (a) No appropriation for private or individual purposes shall be made, unless authorized by this Constitution. A regular statement, under oath, and an account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published annually, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

(b) State agencies charged with the responsibility of providing services to those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped may accept money from private or federal sources, designated by the private or federal source as money to be used in establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped. Money accepted under this subsection is state money. State agencies may spend money accepted under this subsection, and no other money, for specific programs and projects to be conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care or treatment of the handicapped.

"The state agencies may deposit money accepted under this subsection either in the state treasury or in other secure depositories. The money may not be expended for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was given. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the state agencies may expend money accepted under this subsection without the necessity of an appropriation, unless the Legislature, by law, requires that the money be expended only on appropriation. The Legislature may prohibit state agencies from accepting money under this subsection or may regulate the amount of money accepted, the way the acceptance and expenditure of the money is administered, and the purposes for which the state agencies may expend the money. Money accepted under this subsection for a purpose prohibited by the Legislature shall be returned to the entity that gave the money.

"This subsection does not prohibit state agencies authorized to render services to the handicapped from contracting with privately-owned or local facilities for necessary and essential services, subject to such conditions, standards, and procedures as may be prescribed by law."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing assistance to the blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped, in the form of grants of public funds obtained from private or federal sources only, to local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities to assist the handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing assistance to the blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped, in the form of grants of public funds, obtained from private or federal sources only, to local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities to assist the handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped."

TMA Warns On Polio Danger

Have you kept up your immunity against polio?

The Texas Medical Association cautions: Don't take a chance on polio—take polio vaccine. Many have been lulled into a false sense of security in controlling this paralyzing disease because of the overwhelming successes of Salk and Sabin vaccine. These vaccines, however, have not eradicated the viruses which cause polio. Rather, like all vaccines, they trigger the body's defenses to build up antibodies which can combat the viruses if they should gain entry into the body.

Texas has reported 40 cases of paralytic polio thus far this year. None of the cases reported had been completely immunized. All are infants and pre-schoolers. All persons who have not been properly immunized against polio are still vulnerable to attack. This includes the majority of pre-school children, who have not received full protection.

Three viruses which cause polio have been identified. The newest vaccine is in an oral form and of the "trivalent" type. That is, it protects against all three types of polio. It is given in two doses, at least eight weeks apart, either as a liquid or absorbed on bread, cake or a cube of sugar.

The vaccine may be given to infants at an early age. All expectant mothers should be vaccinated, as they are particularly susceptible to polio. Although polio is primarily a childhood disease, it also can strike adults. Even persons who have had polio from one type of virus remain susceptible to additional attacks from the other two viruses.

Massive polio immunization programs conducted by county medical societies several years ago immunized the majority of Texas residents. Many persons, however, took only the first dose, and do not have full protection from the dread disease. It is especially important that pre-school children receive the oral polio vaccine.

County medical societies in affected areas, primarily in South Texas, are taking the lead in stepped up immunization programs. The vaccine may, of course, be administered on an individual basis in a physician's office.

Gov. Cites Sept. 18-24 Hiway Week

Austin — Governor John Connally today designated September 18-24 as Highway Week in Texas. He asked Texans to give serious thought to "the blessings and benefits derived from good highways and a Highway Department with vision."

The Governor called attention to the theme of Highway Week, "Better Highways Saves Lives — Time — Money." He said the purpose of the observations was to remind citizens of Texas of the value of highways today and the importance of even better highways in the future.

"One of our state's most impressive achievements is the 67,000-mile Texas highway system, a system second to none," Governor Connally said.

He said history has shown that highways pump business, industry, tourism, jobs — and hence prosperity — into a community and, indeed, the whole state.

"The need for good — and better — highways will increase in future decades of unprecedented growth and economic development," he said, adding that "if we are to have a system to match that promise, we must plan now."

Governor Connally said future demands on Texas' outstanding highway system will be enormous.

"The task ahead is clear-cut. Destiny won't wait. We must meet the challenge of the future," he said.

In Texas, Highway Week is sponsored by the Texas Good Roads Association, a citizen movement dictated to better highway transportation for all Texans.

The observance will be marked with luncheons, dinner meetings, and ribbon cutting ceremonies to focus public attention on present and future highway needs.

Austin Massacre Hero in New York

The following story was published last week in regard to Patrolman Ramiro Martinez, in practically the entire United States. Martinez is a native of Rotan, graduated from Rotan High and has many relatives here who are very proud of him, as is the entire citizenship:

New York — "Patrolman Ramiro Martinez, killer of Austin sniper Charles J. Whitman, was honored Friday night as a hero. He told newsmen he has lost both weight and sleep since the Aug. 1 massacre."

The 29-year-old Austin patrolman was presented with two plaques for "bravery beyond the call of duty." The city police department's Hispanic Society will present him with a third plaque tomorrow.

Martinez, who ended Whitman's rampage that left 17 dead and 30 wounded, told newsmen of the effect the incident had on him:

"Tension has built up and stayed with me for several days. I've had a hard time sleeping and have lost some weight."

Martinez, a native of Rotan, northwest of Abilene, climbed to the observation deck of the University of Texas tower, where the 25-year-old Whitman was training rifle fire on innocents below, and emptied his revolver at the university engineering student.

The Mexican-American patrolman was honored with plaques presented by Local 32-E of the Building Services Employees International Union and by the Spanish-language newspaper El Tiempo.

Henry Chartier, president of the local, in making the presentation in behalf of the entire union movement, said of Martinez:

"He has raised the image of Spanish-speaking people throughout the world." The local has a large Spanish-speaking membership.

Stanley Ross, editor of El Tiempo, echoed that sentiment.

Others paying tribute to Martinez at the Park Sheraton Hotel reception included Asst. Chief Inspector Lloyd Sealy, who said Martinez was "an outstanding example of the dedication police officers have to their duty."

Queens Dist. Atty. Nat Nentel said the effect of the incident on Martinez "should set in people's minds the possibilities of terror that policemen must live with."

Martinez came to New York as the guest of an Hispanic committee. Angel F. Rivera, the committee chairman, said it was felt "the Hispanic community could take a little time out to show that Spanish-speaking persons are making contributions to society."

Martinez said he felt "I was only doing my job."

He said he gave Whitman no warning when he fired because the sniper was pointing his gun at another man, Allen Crum, who was approaching him from another corner of the tower.

"After seeing all the blood and all those persons, when I fired I felt it had to be me or him," Martinez said. "I had to shoot to kill."

'Red Means You Are Wrong'

Austin — "Red means WRONG" and, if you drive the wrong way on a Texas freeway you will soon see lots of red, thanks to the Texas Highway Department's latest move to prevent accidents caused by wrong-way freeway traffic.

The Department announced today it will begin installing red traffic buttons and reflective pavement markers on Interstate and other controlled access highway in Texas.

"The thing for drivers to remember," a Department spokesman said, "is that red means WRONG."

"If you see a red arrow pointing at you from the pavement as you start to enter a freeway ramp, you are entering the wrongway," he said.

"If you see a straight, red line pointing against you on the lane lines of a freeway, you are going in the wrong direction. Get off the freeway or get turned around fast."

Installation of the markers is the Highway Department's second major innovation this year to minimize wrong-way movements on freeways.

Earlier the Department began supplementing its "Do Not Enter" signs along freeways with "Do Not Enter Ramp" signs and "One Way" signs in the freeway median.

In an effort to cut wrong-way accidents even more, the Department then began experimenting with the reflective, red ramp arrows and freeway lane lines.

Both the arrows and the lane lines are made up of plastic markers which are highly reflective. They show white to traffic going the right way and bright red to traffic going the wrong way.

Heavy Accident Toll Expted For Labor Day Weekend

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that DPS estimates indicate that 41 persons will die in traffic accidents during the three-day Labor Day weekend.

"The current traffic trend indicates that Texas is headed for its third straight record high in terms of fatal accidents," Garrison said. "At present time we are approximately 15 per cent ahead of the same time in 1965 — and we are still faced with the four months of the year which generally produce the most deaths."

"More people are killed in Texas each year in traffic than are killed in all the United States by murder and homicide," Garrison continued, "and the deaths are just as senseless, as needless and as tragic, but not nearly as well publicized."

"Psychologists say that one reason the general public fails to take positive action in matters safety is due to a lack of personal identification with the problem. It might behoove each driver in our state to stop and consider that he has less than a 50-50 chance to go through his driving career without being involved in a traffic mishap, or without incurring injury to himself or one of his family. The 41 persons expected to die in traffic during the Labor Day holiday have no idea that they will be involved in an accident, either."

In an attempt to offset dangers caused by the increased traffic on the highways during the holiday period, the Department of Public Safety will conduct "Operation Motorcade." Approximately 150 uniformed officers from other DPS services will be on the road to supplement the Highway Patrol enforcement action. Also, to call public attention to highway dangers, each traffic death will be tabulated and the totals will be announced three times daily from DPS headquarters in Austin.

Several other state agencies and organizations interested in traffic safety are co-operating with the DPS in calling attention to safe driving practices during the Labor Day weekend.

The Texas Highway Department is advising the public on proper driving habits and the need for caution in and around construction areas.

The Texas Safety Association is carrying on a program stressing the need for courtesy and caution on the highway and is coordinating the efforts of the Texas Jaycees in sponsoring rest stops with free coffee for fatigued drivers.

And the Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and the Texas Motor Transportation Association is sponsoring a "Holiday Road Patrol" to assist stranded motorists, thereby relieving highway patrolmen for enforcement work.

"This fine attitude of co-operation among these people indicates that Texans do realize the need for adequate safety on our highways," Garrison stated. "If it could carry over into the thinking and action of every driver, the death toll would drop considerably under that expected for the weekend."

"In the final analysis, traffic safety must rest on the shoulders of every person who gets behind the steering wheel of a car. With the proper attitude of alertness and with the acceptance of responsibility we can see positive results in our attempts to halt the increases in the number of traffic mishaps."

"Section 49-d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the state, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. The proceeds from the sale of the additional bonds authorized hereunder deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund and the proceeds of bonds previously authorized by Article III, Section 49-c of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General

Law, including the requirement of a permit for storage or beneficial use, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities, and any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and transportation of water from storage to points of treatment, filtration and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods; provided, however, the Texas Water Development Fund or any other state fund provided for water development, transmission, transfer or filtration shall not be used to finance any project which contemplates or results in the removal from the basin of origin of any surface water necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable future water requirements for the next ensuing fifty-year period within the river basin of origin, except on a temporary, interim basis.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law the Texas Water Development Fund may be used for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes by construction or reconstruction or enlargement of reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, together with any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and/or transportation of water, by any one or more of the following governmental agencies: by the United States of America or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the state; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations. The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions under which the Texas Water Development Board may sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any reservoir and associated system or works which the Texas Water Development Board has financed in whole or in part.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, the Texas Water Development Board may also execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas in the same manner and with the same effect as state bonds issued under the authority of the preceding Section 49-c of this Constitution, and the provisions in said Section 49-c with respect to payment of principal and interest on state bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to payment of principal and interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the state's investment.

"The aggregate of the bonds authorized hereunder shall not exceed $200,000,000 and shall be in addition to the aggregate of the bonds previously authorized by said Section 49-c of Article III of this Constitution. The Legislature upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue all or any portion of such $200,000,000 in additional bonds herein authorized.

"The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities together with any associated system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment or transportation of water at a price not less than the direct cost of the Board in acquiring same; and the Legislature may provide terms and conditions for the Board to sell any unappropriated public waters of the state that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage or water, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Texas Water Commission or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities or associated system or works shall be used to pay principal and interest on state bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are sufficient to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities or associated system or works may be used for the acquisition of additional storage facilities or associated system or works or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49-c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby service, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

in honor of labor
God glorified work and promised rest for the Laboring Man. A man's work is born with him but God said rest every seventh day. God is for the laboring man but He is against the indolent, shiftless, slothful, non-producers. The first Monday in September is important in America. It is nationalized in honor of labor. We should celebrate by enjoying all the good fortunes of the American working man. This is Labor Day weekend, your day, Mr. Working Man.
