Davidson Withdraws As State Candidate

HOUSTON MAN BRANDS THREE IN RACE UNFIT

"DRAFTED" CANDIDATE TAKES NAME OUT OF GROUP TODAY

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, June 19.—Lynch Davidson, Houston lumberman, today announced that he was withdrawing as a candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Mr. Davidson never formally announced his candidacy but friends "drafted" him, placing his name on the ticket.

At the Austin meeting of the state democratic executive committee he did not ask to be left off the slate and accordingly was certified as a candidate.

Mr. Davidson's statement announcing that he would not run called upon the people to vote for better government "and no more taxes."

Wish He Could Run
"I wish I deemed it wise," said the former lieutenant governor's statement, "to accept the 'draft' of my friends and others who paid their own $100 to place my name on the ticket."

"I did not withdraw my name from the ticket at the state executive committee meeting, believing it was better to view the situation further before making a definite decision. In my judgment, most of the many number who are now contesting for the governor's office are professional politicians, seeking the office solely for selfish reasons. The election of Love, Mayfield or Ferguson would be a great draw back to the interest and welfare of Texas. If my remaining on the ticket would assure their defeat, I should not hesitate to do so for a single moment. On the other hand, it is possible my remaining on the ticket might further excite the voters and serve to bring about their election. For the good of Texas and for that reason only I have decided to withdraw my name from the ticket, believing Texas may probably thus be best served."

NO SENTENCE GIVEN IN CASE

JUDGE WILSON DEFERS ALLBRIGHT SENTENCE FOR 3 YEARS

Imposition of any sentence in the case of Kirk F. Allbright, of Littlefield, who was charged with false entry in handling records of the First National Bank of Littlefield, was postponed for a period of three years by Judge James C. Wilson yesterday afternoon in the Lubbock division of Federal court.

Evidence offered in the case showed no evil intent and showed that Allbright was not guilty of misapplication of funds. The evidence showed further that entries were made to cover up mistakes, but that the bank lost no money thereby.

E. W. Herman, Lamb county farmer, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and assessed a $500 fine yesterday afternoon by Judge Wilson. Vernon Herman, his son, was assessed a fine of $500. The two defendants were arrested April 23 at their Lamb county farm home, and charged with violation of the prohibition laws.

LOCAL MAN BEING TRIED IN PLAINVIEW

E. A. McDonough, of Lubbock, is being tried today in district court at Plainview on a charge of violation of the prohibition laws.

McDonough was arrested two months ago in Plainview, where he is alleged to have had 30 gallons of whiskey in a car.

Chief of Police John Leonard, Sheriff Wade Hardy and Deputy O. B. Conley are in that city today as witnesses in the trial.

ARGUMENT OVER ELIGIBILITY OF TWO BATHING BEAUTIES CAUSES SQUABBLE

MIAMI, Fla., June 19.—An argument over eligibility of winners of a Miami beauty contest spread across two continents today.

G. A. But whether the power to select a substitute entrant for the South American pageant still lies with Miami officials and

T-BAR CLOSES ITS ROUND-UP

BRANDING IRON IS LAID ON 975 CALVES; MANY VISIT

(Special to the Journal)
TAHOCA, June 19.—The annual round-up and branding on the T-Bar ranch here has just been completed, the iron having been applied to 975 calves. All were vaccinated, also.

Since the T-Bar to one of the few large ranches left in West Texas that is actively engaged in cattle raising, the round-up is growing to be an interesting affair because of the variety and many people visited the occasion to get another smell of sizzling hair, son-of-a-gun, reminiscence of days when West Texas was nothing more than a cattle country.

FOURTEEN VENIREMEN ARE QUESTIONED; INSANITY AND SELF DEFENSE TO BE PLEA

ON TRIAL TODAY

Ira McKee, below, is on trial today in Lubbock for the murder of W. B. Billingsley, Spangenberg merchant, which went to trial this morning in 106th district court before Judge Gordon B. McGuire.

The two jurors selected at the morning session, after 14 of the special venire of 113 had been examined, were E. L. Sorrels, O'Donnell lumberman, and Karl Kelly, Dawson county farmer.

Lines of questioning by counsel indicated that the defense will be insanity and self defense.

Thomas L. Price, district attorney, announced at opening of the trial that "the state will demand the death penalty in this case."

Indicates Self Defense
H. J. Sheard, of Hobbs, N. M., former Fort Worth attorney and heading the defense staff, examined the veniremen on behalf of the accused. From his line of questioning he indicated that McKee would plead that he shot Billingsley in self defense, because the Spangenberg merchant had appeared at the moment of the alleged hold-up armed with a shot gun.

J. C. Billingsley, brother of the slain man, sat with members of the prosecutor's staff. They include A. W. Wilson, county attorney, and J. E. Garland.

Niece On His Lap
Seated between counsel for the defense, H. J. Sheard and J. C. Willis, was McKee. He kept his back turned toward the court and faced the audience. Seated on his lap for a good part of the morning was his little niece, daughter of his sister, Mrs. Neil Johnson, of Breckenridge.

Keen interest is expected to be shown in the stories to be told in court by Mrs. Kate Billingsley, widow of the dead man; Mrs. Emma Mayhall, alleged companion of the slayer, and Verna Bryce, the girl whose warning and help resulted in the death of Billingsley.

Another expected "high light" will be the story of Jack Bryce, eye witness to the shooting of his friend and fellow merchant. It was the station young Bryce was operating which was held up. Mrs. Billingsley and the Bryce girl will be State witnesses as will be Jack Bryce.

Mrs. Mayhall also is to be a State witness while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pace, of near Ranger, will testify.

One feature, not yet discussed, is whether or not the nine-year-old daughter of the Mayhall woman will be called to the stand to testify. If she does, it is believed she will contradict some statements of her mother in the case. Mrs. Mayhall has claimed throughout that McKee forced her by threats to travel with him.

MAD SLAYER IS BELIEVED RUNNING WILD

TWO VICTIMS CLAIMED IN WEEK; THIRD IS OBJECT OF HUNT

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 19.—Several hundred policemen searched the byways of the Boston Post road today for evidence of a third murder by the maniac blamed for two killings in Queens within a week.

Search for the mad slayer shifted today to the eastern Bronx, after an all night vigil in Queens, when a newspaper received a warning in the mails purporting to come from the slayer himself, boasting that he had committed another murder, naming his victim as "Harold Bridenbach" and telling where the body would be found.

Regarded As Holdup
When Joseph Moynski, Queens delicatessen proprietor, was slain a week ago last night in his actual car, parked beside a secluded road, his death was regarded as the work of a holdup man or a jealous enemy.

But when Noel Sowley, young radio salesman, was killed in a similar manner Monday night, and when the killer escorted the girl who was with him to a transportation line which would take her to her home—just as he had taken to a subway station the young woman in the car with Moynski—and when a note mentioning the Moynski murder was found in the car beside Sowley's body, police agreed that both killings were the work of the same man, apparently a maniac.

Announced Killing
This conclusion was supported by a letter to a New York newspaper, received on May 1. McKee was captured in Athens after a three weeks search for Billingsley slayer. (Story in next column.)

NEW YORK GIVES BYRD UPROARIOUS RECEPTION TODAY

EXPLORER AND PARTY BACK FROM TRIP TO SOUTH POLE

HOME AGAIN!

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 19.—Aerial conqueror of both ends of the earth, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd set foot again today at 10:40 a. m. (EST) on the turf of lower Manhattan, from which he sailed twenty months ago on a pilgrimage of exploration into the white wastes of Antarctica.

Surrounded in sea and sky and on land by a roaring welcome in which planes and harbor craft and cheering thousands joined, he departed from the city welcoming tug Macon to receive from the City of New York the third and by far the most boisterous greetings. It has tended to him for his achievements of exploration by air.

Streaming along behind the Macon were fifty or more harbor craft of all descriptions, as spectacular a marine demonstration as New York had seen since Colonel Lindbergh came back from Paris. As the parade passed Governor's Island, salute guns roared thirteen times.

Whistle and siren handles were let down on passing tugs, and big liners on both the Brooklyn and Manhattan shores added their deep throated salutes. Fire boats played streams of water into the air, their thin white spray, touched by the sun, making a backdrop of rainbows.

The Macon nosed into pier 4, the crowd on shore added its voice to that of the harbor craft.

Swing Down Broadway
A moment later he and his party were in automobiles and swung out of Battery Place, preceded by bands in a military police escort, into the canyon of lower Broadway.

As far up the street as the eye could see a solid wall of people closed in, leaving only a narrow passageway.

Admiral Byrd had boarded the Macon half an hour before from his barque, the City of New York, at quarantine. The first person he greeted was his mother, whom he held in a warm embrace for a moment, then turned to other relatives and friends.

"It's good to get back again," he said smiling, as he greeted the city.

CARAWAY SAYS REPORT WRONG

SENATE LOBBY PROBE CHAIRMAN TELLS OF CANNON CASE

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Denouncing as "lies" any who say Bishop James Cannon, Jr., was granted immunity by the senate lobby committee, Chairman Caraway reported to the senate today on the examination of the Southern Methodist churchman which was climaxed by his refusal to answer questions on his 1928 anti-Smith activities.

The report was a transcript of the questions and answers and refusals to answer. No stand was taken by the committee, which voted just before closing its hearing not to compel the churchman to reply.

Caraway said it has been intimated that Cannon had "misappropriated" $48,000 contributed to the 1928 anti-Smith campaign by E. C. Jameson, New York capitalist. Stipulating that he was not making that charge, the lobby committee had not made a practice of going outside its jurisdiction to report such things.

FOUR OF SIX CHILDREN IN CHICAGO FAMILY ARE VICTIMS OF MYSTERIOUS POISONING; CASE Baffles DOCTOR

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 19.—Four of the six children of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin McKittrick have died from a mysterious poisoning that so far has baffled physicians and scientists.

A fifth child rallied slightly today from a blood transfusion, undertaken as a last minute expedient.

While the father yesterday submitted to the transfusion of blood, the mother attended the funeral of three of the children, Raymond, 2, Evelyn, 5, and Paul, 10.

A few hours later, Donald, 3, died. Led by Health Commissioner Arnold H. Kegal, some of Chicago's best known physicians and scientists have tried to solve the poisoning. They were convinced it resulted from some bacterial organism but were unable to determine the source.

Today of food the children had eaten and to learn if they had played any muddy puddles or been swimming in contaminated water.

The infection is believed to be originated in the nose and then spreading through the body, destroying the red corpuscles in the blood.

Only the McKittrick's infant escaped the poisoning.

MOSER GIVING AREA DATA ON CO-OP BRANCH

OFFICIAL SPEAKS IN LAMESA TODAY; GOES TO LITTLEFIELD

C. O. Moser, of Dallas, vice president and secretary of the American Cotton Cooperative association, will discuss what is necessary for a loan to secure a branch office of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association before a joint meeting of Dawson county farmers and businessmen at Lamesa.

He will go to Littlefield Friday afternoon to address a mass meeting on the same subject, when all a large delegation from Leveland will be present.

To Start Work Soon
Interest in this section of the state evidences readiness far in excess of the drive for membership which will begin within the next few weeks. Snyder recently underwrote a branch office when the city's chamber of commerce guaranteed delivery of 15,000 bales cotton the coming year. Lamesa, Littlefield and Leveland are now proposing such offices.

At Littlefield Friday, Mr. Moser is to speak to representatives of that city's chamber of commerce in the morning, and to a meeting of Lamesa county farmers and business men in the afternoon.

N. H. Payne, field representative in this district for the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, will head the delegation from Hook and Lubbock counties Friday.

Farmers Anxious
J. W. Hammonk, of Sudan, is representative for his district. He announces that farmers and business men of Lamb county and Littlefield are anxious to underwrite guarantees of 15,000 bales delivery for securing a branch office a part of the visit of Mr. Moser.

Lamb county ginned over 51,000 bales cotton this past season, of which the Littlefield chamber of commerce pressed more than 52,000 bales, being sent only to Lubbock for a South Plains record for compressing and lead the section in the county production.

Paid Good Profit
During the past year the Plainview plant paid out $142,867 to 118 patrons and had total receipts of $168,819 with expenses aggregating $19,991. From March to December, 1929, the creamery made 428,452 pounds of butter with an average price being paid farmers of 41.7 cents per pound for butterfat of the highest class, with 39 1-3 cents a pound for second class stuff.

Plans for the cooperative creamery are taking great strides here with interest being shown in all parts of the county.

Pure Oil Leasing Much Land In Gains

SEAGRAVES, June 19 (Special).—The Pure Oil company is reported to have under lease in Gaines county approximately 110,000 acres of land, mostly in one block and in the Seagraves territory.

It had been planned to start a second test on this block but the company later sent its drilling equipment to Van. The first test was drilled but no oil showing of sufficient amount to insure a well was reported.

Local people are of the opinion that another test will be made by the Pure company within a short time.

One of the hardest political fights in the history of California is expected to take place in Republican ranks during the coming race for the gubernatorial nomination. The contestants are C. C. Vegetables Being Dumped Into River

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP).—An over-supplied market has forced commission merchants to dump hundreds of truck loads of perfectly good vegetables into the East River during the past three days, a newspaper survey today disclosed.

Bumper crops throughout the east and south have sent a flood of spinach, string beans, melons, tomatoes and lettuce into the New York market, which the merchants declare is causing them to lose heavily on each carload lot.

The dealers insist they are forced to dump their surplus supplies into garbage scoops to keep their storage space clear and deny it is a move to keep prices up.

OLTON, June 19.—(Special)—Closing of the postoffice of Runningwater, in Hale county on the state highway between Plainview and Olton, is predicted with the report received here of the allowing of a petition to establish a postoffice at Edmonson, a new townsite on the Fort Worth and Denver City railroad about three miles north of the old postoffice.

W. W. Edmonson, who owns some land in the vicinity of the new town, has offered two lots for the site for a postoffice. It is reported the bids have been asked for the job and it is thought the place will be filled in a short time.

Is Settlement There
Already there is a settlement there, two stores, a filling station or two and a school.

Plans are under way for the consolidation of three districts in the vicinity of Edmonson into a large district.

Mrs. T. M. Purdenberry is the present postmistress at Runningwater. She has a store and filling station there. It is believed that in the event the new postoffice opens up the Runningwater office will either be closed or moved to the new town. Also a number of people living in the community may move to the new town.

The Runningwater office is said to be around 30 to 35 years old. It was established on the ranch of the late Col. C. C. Slaughter, who had extensive properties in this section at that time.

Tire prices are down!

—anyone can afford Goodyears this summer!

When rubber goes down, tire prices follow.

Rubber is 'way down now, and tire prices are the lowest they've ever been.

Wise buyers are taking advantage of this situation — reaping the utmost in value.

They're buying Goodyear Tires in greater volume than ever before.

The reasons why Goodyear Tires give utmost value are not hard to state.

In both the two main parts of a tire, Goodyears are definitely superior.

The Goodyear All-Weather Tread is superior in traction.

The Goodyear Supertwist Carcass is superior in vitality and long life.

If you think these are merely advertising claims demand to see the proof.

Any Goodyear Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the facts.

The facts certainly are: Goodyear Tires do give extra value.

That's why more new motor cars leave the factories on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

That's why more transcontinental, urban and interurban buses and coaches operate on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

That's why more truck tonnage is hauled on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

That's why, throughout the world, year after year, more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

No mistake about it, this season is the chance of a lifetime to take full advantage of low tire prices and high Goodyear value.

Therefore: now is the time to go yours!

"Now I am glad to say I am a well woman, feel much stronger, years younger and my weight is 170 pounds. I do not only feel better but I look better, so all my friends say.

"I shall never be without Kruschen Salts, will never cease taking my daily dose and more than glad to highly recommend it for the great good that it is in." Mrs. S. A. Solomon, New Bern, N. HALE CENTER WORKING FOR ITS FARMERS

BUSINESS MEN SEEK TO MAKE CITY MARKET FOR PRODUCTS

BY STAFF CORRESPONDENT
HALE CENTER, June 19.—Geographical center of Hale county, Hale Center, which once aspired to be county seat, now contents itself with pushing its influence as a business place for its agricultural area.

Its business men seek to cooperate with the farmers of the trade territory and to make the place so inviting that they will not be inclined to drive over the concrete ribbon to Plainview, 13 miles away, but will stick to the home town.

Improvements Made
To this end, an improvement program which includes half a dozen blocks of paving, is under way. Work will start within a few days on this job and it is hoped to be completed by the time the state highway paving is finished, late in July or early in August.

Hale Center has invited the entire county to attend a big old-fashioned shindig when the concrete paving through the county is finished and opened to traffic. The invitation is broad and anyone who claims any relationship by blood or law with the county, will be welcomed.

After they get that little job done, then Hale Center is going after the job of improving the city park. The chamber of commerce and the women's clubs are attending to this.

Sewer System Task
One more job is a sewer system and there has been some agitation for this improvement. The town already has a splendid water works system, natural gas, electricity and train and bus service.

Completion of the highway to Plainview has not hurt us, J. C. Hurst, secretary of the chamber of commerce says. "In fact, we think it has helped us, just a lot of our farmer friends up that way would rather trade here than in Plainview."

Then again, we have a moving picture theatre here that is better, we think, than any in Plainview. Don't publish this in Plainview, but about a dozen cars from that city come down here almost every night to see and hear our talkies.

Is Old Town
Hale Center is an old town. It was a contender along with Plainview back in the days when the county was organized for the right to be called the county seat. It lost in the battle of ballots.

As an incorporated town, however, it has not been in existence so very long. In fact ten years ago when Uncle Sam took count of his boys and girls in Hale county he couldn't find any town here so just counted the folks as a part of the justice precinct. There were about 250 peo-

CHOP-SUEY TO FINANCE FLIGHT

Hoping to become the first great Japanese air hero, Zensaku Azuma, 37, of Pasadena, Cal., is ready to start on an air voyage from the United States to Japan, by way of New York. He will ship his plane to London, then fly to Tokyo by way of Paris, Berlin, Moscow, Siberia, Northern China and Korea. His plane, "City of Tokyo," was brought by the profits from chop suey which paid for a three years' course in flying under prominent aviators. Note the Japanese characters on his plane in which he is seated, above. Azuma will start as soon as official regulations can be complied with and test flights in Los Angeles are satisfactory. He has a year to his credit as expert mechanic in the United States army.

He here then, it is estimated. This time he found 1906, with a city government everything. The first count it was 995 but the chamber of commerce got busy and found eleven others that the census enumerator had missed.

Nelson Perdue, cashier of the First National bank, is mayor. Mr. Perdue devotes as much time as he can from his business affairs to looking after the interests of the city. He is popular among the young business men of the town.

Plan White Way
Besides paving and sewers, the city dads of Hale Center have in mind a white way along the paving on the state highway. They hope to be able to install six lights to a block, for a distance of four blocks along the paving in the main business section of the city.

Largely an agricultural community, the area around Hale Center took to it for a market for their surplus products. There are five cream and poultry buying stations and these places buy around $15,000 worth of eggs, butter, chickens and cream a month. In the summer and fall the amount is larger. Two elevators have served the town for several years but recent growth of the farming industry has caused the Farmers Cooperative aspast week saw still a large number on hand. Recently the business men and grocers agreed to pay three cents a dozen more for eggs than the current market quotations. Without much advance notice, farmers brought in a large number of fresh eggs and the merchants were able to send out a large shipment. Hale Center has one of the best small town hotels in the South Plains area. It is The Center and was erected about 18 months ago. The hotel is located in the second floor of a brick business block that houses the newspaper office, a cafe, a recreation parlor and two business places.

Don't make YOUR ENGINE

FIGHT

HARMFUL GUM

If you want a fast, clean, smooth engine—don't make it fight harmful gum.

Use Koolmotor Gasolene—a powerful, clean burning motor fuel from which harmful gum has been removed.

Inferior or carelessly refined gasolene deposit a sticky, gummy substance on your valves. When you step on the gas for more power, your valves have to fight to get free—your engine labors—valuable compression is lost.

Through extra refining and rigid supervision—known as the Cities Service mini-gum process—the gum content in Koolmotor gasolene has been reduced to a harmless minimum. Valves are kept clean—power kept at its maximum—your engine responds promptly to your desire when you use Koolmotor—the original high test, anti-knock green gas.

Don't pay the impending penalty of gum in gasolene. Keep your tank full of Koolmotor Gasolene. The nearest Cities Service station or dealer is waiting to serve you.

CHAIN BANKS, AND STORES ARE PRAISED

BANKING SESSION IS TOLD OF BENEFITS OF SYSTEMS

(By Associated Press)
DENVER, June 18.—Two developments of modern business—branch banking and chain stores—were described last night, at the convention of the American Institute of Banking as sound economic enterprises.

E. V. Krick, vice president of the American Trust Co., San Francisco, in institution with resources of 300 million dollars, said that 3,000 bank failures in the last ten years have demonstrated the unit banking system is not rendering the fullest possible service to the public.

Clark G. Mitchell, vice president of the Denver National Bank, told delegates, "the chain store is here to stay and its competition will be fair." Answering a criticism which he said was generally directed against the chain store to the effect that money left the community Mr. Mitchell said:

"Sixty-five per cent of the chain store dollar goes to the manufacturer.

turer, 12 per cent to payroll, nine per cent to rent and the balance up to nine per cent of net profit to incidental expenses such as light, heat, repairs, and is spent in the community or in nearby cities.

Mr. Krick said the chief disadvantage of the small unit bank is that it is not in a position to pay high salaries and buy the best banking brains. He added:

He did not hear the extension of branch banking would lead to a money monopoly, saying the country's interests were too diversified to make that possible.

CONVICTION GIVEN IN LIQUOR CASES

DALLAS, June 18 (AP)—The Western Products company, American Pharmaceutical company and six other defendants today were convicted by a jury in federal court here of illegal diversion of 30,000 gallons of industrial alcohol to beverage purposes.

Other defendants in the case were Laurens O'Hanlon, Sam Williams, Duval McCall, Paul M. Wagner, William E. Moore and Frank Reed. The case was the largest of its kind ever brought in Texas, government prosecutors said.

The defendants remained to be sentenced by Judge William Hawley Atwell.

Nebraska Farmers In Opposition To Bill

OMAHA, Neb., June 18 (AP)—Farm leaders of Nebraska united today in opposing the passage of the Stowart-Hawley tariff bill.

Wayland Magee, Burlington, Neb., recently appointed member of the board of directors of the federal reserve bank at Kansas City to represent farm and live stock interests, voiced the opinion the high tariff rates would unquestionably accentuate European antagonism toward the United States and strengthen what he termed already a strong sentiment to boycott American goods.

President Hugh A. Butler of the Omaha Grain Exchange predicted the tariff "would have a very harmful effect on our grain markets abroad."

BILL APPROVED
WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The Senate bill to authorize expenditure of $10,000,000 for construction of military posts throughout the country was approved today by the house military affairs committee.

MIX'S 'NAY' FAILS TO HALT RUTH

Tom Mix used to be pretty successful at catching bold bandits on the screen, and filling their plots, but he came a cropper when he attempted to stop the marriage of his daughter, Ruth Jane, 17, and Douglas Gilmore, screen actor, at Yuma, Ariz. The ceremony was performed despite parental objections.

State Officials To Face Contempt Count

DENVER, June 18 (AP)—District Judge Stanley A. Calvert has ruled six state officials must stand trial on charges of contempt of court growing out of a trip to Denver last month of two convicts confined in the state penitentiary.

The officials are—Charles J. Macintosh, Mrs. Helen Greenleaf, Denver, and Frank S. Hoag, Pueblo, all members of the board of corrections, controlling body for the penitentiary; and Colonel P. J. Staworki, special deputy warden, Wichita; Francis E. Crawford and Lewis N. Schref, head of the state police.

The district attorney alleged that the prisoners, W. D. Butt and George West, came to Denver to work at the state house with the permission of the board of corrections and lived for six days at their home without guard.

SUCCESSOR NAMED
NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—Dr. Henry Sumner, former president of the University of Washington, will succeed Dr. Henry S. Pritchett as president of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching on August 1, the executive committee announced today.

MISSISSIPPI WEEKLY IS PRONOUNCED GREATEST FOR SERVICE TO COMMUNITY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 18 (AP)—A Mississippi weekly newspaper, whose publisher entered journalism only six years ago, was awarded today the trophy for greatest community service, the highest honor bestowed by the National Editorial Association.

The McComb Enterprise, edited by J. O. Emmerich, a former farm demonstrator, was credited with having "not only the outstanding record for the last year, but probably would stand first among all weekly newspapers which have competed for this honor in former years."

Other first awards, announced at the annual convention were:

Best weekly newspaper—Greenwich, (Conn.) Press; newspaper production contest—Brookings, (S. D.) Register; best editorial page—Bloomfield, (Ill.) Independent Press; best front page—Stovon Lake, (Iowa) Pilot-Tribune; advertising promotion—Carpenters, (Pa.) Record.

The Tracer, (Iowa) Star-Clipper won the highest rank in the contest for the best weekly, but having won the award three years ago, was ineligible, and the Greenwich Press, was given first.

Honorable mentions in the production contest went to the Harper, (Texas) Herald; Delta County, (Colorado) Tribune, and St. John's (Mich.) Republican-News.

The Ada, (Okla.) Weekly News had the same point ranking as the Bloomfield Press in the editorial page competition, but by a narrow margin was reduced to second.

Honorable mention included Harper Herald; Dalton, (Ga.) News; El Reno, (Okla.) American and Lexington, (Ky.) Leader.

Russian Official Sees Another War

MOSCOW, June 18 (AP)—Clement Voroshilov, commissar of war, today delivered one of his periodic warnings of the outbreak of another great war.

He said that the United States, Japan, England and France this year would spend 5,700,000,000 gold rubles (about $2,850,000,000) on armaments compared to only 2,800,000,000 in 1935, and he interpreted that as indicating clearly that those countries were preparing intensively and rapidly for war.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says: That Girl on Broadway says there's an error in the title of that new statute review, 'The Rights of Pedestrians.' It should read 'Rites'.

We suppose quite a few seemingly useless things can be salvaged for a profit. Consider the saved-off ends of shotguns in Chicago.

In 1922, a Dago from Italy, was roaming through the streets of Spain. And sleeping in the alley.

The Plainsman is quite a connoisseur of alleys. Most newspapermen are because they use the alleys, instead of the streets, to dodge their creditors.

From time to time this column has taken occasion to fall out with the department of streets and alleys, principally on the custom of letting the unpaved streets go without sufficient care.

In New York

NEW YORK, June 19.—Around the big broadcasting studios—Rudy Vallee, who used to croon for a living, has learned some dance steps.

Smith Ballou, who also croons and orchestrates, comes from Palestine, Tex.—wherever that is—and learned to punch cattle on his uncle's ranch—Roxy, the big movie and broadcast gent, keeps a status of Dante over the entrance to his office, although the interior isn't really that bad.

Evangeline Adams, whose stellar broadcasts have caught on "plenty," collects amulets, jade, crystal and other "mystical" knickknacks.

Most of the tenors heard upon the air are graduates of small town church choirs. Many of them still appear in church choirs on Sunday and double at the broadcasting stations during week nights.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D. Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

REVERSE REDUCING RATE. ADD CALORIES TO DIET IF YOU ARE TOO THIN

"DEAR DOCTOR: You always write about fat folks who are reducing, but you never seem to think there are skinnies in the world like me who would give anything just to gain a few pounds. I am 4 ft. 10 in. tall, weigh 83 pounds, age 31. Help."

"MISS D: You are not fat. If you were you would know that I do write frequently on gaining and losing weight. When I write for the fat folks, I advise it as applicable to the skinnies. I don't think you realize that 30 pounds more than you do, if you would increase your diet so that you could have a few calories left to be deposited as fat. I always advise those who want to reduce to eat 1000 C. daily from the maintenance diet. If they want to lose 2 pounds a week. Those of you who want to gain should do the reverse—add 1000 C. daily. You mustn't try to do it all at once, but every day for three or four days, eat 400 or 500 more for the next few days until you gradually get up to 1000 C. more than you need. Instead of shrinking your stomach, you must stretch it so it will be able to hold more food without distress. Can be done!"

The thing to remember, one hears is that during the summer and fall no Hoover veto can be overridden, no Hoover appointees rejected, no unpleasant legislation passed, no nasty wisecracks about the administration made from the floor, no embarrassing Senate investigations begun—nothing, in fact, of the type calculated to make life miserable for sensitive presidents.

During the hot summer months Mr. Hoover has every intention, it is said, of devoting his active attention to such major problems as business conditions, prohibition enforcement, tariff and agriculture.

The presidential plan for action is not being divulged. But he is said to have been formulating them all along as he waited for Congress to get the heck out of here.

For instance, it is pointed out, the final form of the tariff bill fits his purposes perfectly. It carries a flexibility provision under which he can rewrite the whole thing if he wants to—and dare. Before the tariff wrecks Mr. Hoover—in case it threatens to do that—Mr. Hoover will be able to wreck the tariff. He will be able to repeal the tariff commission as well as the rate structure. In fact, Mr. Hoover's friends say that he faces the issue created by the new tariff act with the most unbounded confidence.

Then there's the farm problem. Well, Mr. Hoover got his farm legislation passed by the special session, didn't he? It's his Federal Farm Board, isn't it? And if the Farm Board isn't carrying on satisfactorily Mr. Hoover can dictate to it and change its policies so that everything will be lovely, can't he? Once Congress is out of the way there will be no one to hinder him when he sets out to solve the farm problem with the board as his weapon.

He'll Fix Prohibition, Too. Congress has given the president desired legislation to improve prohibition enforcement. Enforcement has been turned over to the Department of Justice at last, new prisons will be provided and reforms in court procedure are assured.

Business? Well, things can't go on like this forever, say the Hoover partisans. By the time Congress meets again, the White House boys seem confident, the present depression will be over and the country will be more than ever sold on the Hoover administration.

THE TINNIES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"Hey! Hey! Please stop this swing or me. I'm getting dizzy as can be," cried Clowzy. "I have had my turn and I have had enough." All right, said Sooty, "Please don't drop." And then he made the big swing stop. Poor Clowzy surely looked as if the going had been rough.

The others wished to swing a bit and Clowzy sighed, "I'll gladly sit down in the nice soft grass and wait until you all are through." "This suits me fine," wee Copy cried. "This swinging makes a dandy ride. We may as well have fun while there is nothing else to do."

The "Travel" Man looked on a while. The fun they all had made him smile. And then he got a sudden hunch and shouted, "Let me take my turn upon that dandy swing. I'm sure that I will like the thing. I only hope my vertebrae will not cause it to break."

One little Russian boy replied, "It's safe for you to take a ride. And so the Travel Man hopped in. "Now push me hard," he said. And so they pushed him up and then the swing came swinging down again. A tree branch near made him afraid that he would bump his head.

It wasn't long till everyone had had his ride and had his fun. And then they thanked the Russian boy and went upon their way. "Let's hike out in the country air," said Copy. "We can soon get there." "I think that we have seen enough of city life today."

So very promptly they all hied far out along the countryside. Soon came a farmer's wagon. "What a very funny kind. 'Hey! Can we join you?" Clowzy cried. "We all would much enjoy a ride." "Sure thing," returned the farmer. "You can all jump on behind."

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Exclusive power for regulating intoxicating liquors would be vested in congress under a resolution introduced by Representative Michaelson, republican, Illinois, to direct the judiciary committee to submit to the house a proposal to amend the Eighteenth Amendment.
The resolution would lay the ground work for nationwide or state-referendums on the Eighteenth Amendment and its substitution to give congress exclusive power to "tax, license, regulate or suppress the manufacture, sale, transportation, exportation and importation of intoxicating liquor."

WASHINGTON, June 19. (AP)—Comment on Dwight W. Morrow, as possible spokesman for the anti-prohibition bloc in the senate and speculation on his immediate appointment to succeed Senator Baird was heard today in the wake of the New Jersey republican senatorial primary.
As soon as word of the Morrow landslide in New Jersey reached the White House, a statement was issued promising "every possible support" to the republican nominee.
"The president and the administration have every confidence that Mr. Dwight W. Morrow will be the next senator from New Jersey," the statement read.

THREE ON TRIAL FOR MAILS FRAUD

DALLAS, June 19 (AP)—Charged with using the mails to defraud persons into purchasing town site lots in the town of El Oro, claimed to be situated on the Mexican border, Alva M. Walker, Clarence E. Tucker and Grace M. Tucker, are on trial in United States district court.

The indictment set forth that lot purchasers were asked to pay $5 for each lot for membership in a "Greater El Oro Building and Boosting organization," and that the defendants had also claimed to have closed negotiations for a hotel, electric light and power plants, water works and other public utilities.
But, the indictment charged, while the promoters claimed El Oro was situated on the Mexican border and to be the same town found on time tables and maps of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway system, in reality El Oro was two miles from the border and was not the same town shown on the railway maps and time tables.

EXPERT TALKS

BY STAFF CORRESPONDENT
LAMESA, June 19.—Dr. J. H. McLain, assistant chief of the bureau of dairy industry of the U. S. department of Agriculture at Washington, was the principal speaker at a dinner Wednesday given by the Lamesa Lions club in honor of the coming opening of the West Texas Dairy Products company's plant in Lamesa. The meeting was the first of a series to be given by Lamesa business men for the opening of the plant.
O. B. Norman, president of the company, presided as toastmaster. A number of farmers and out of town men were guests of the club.
H. L. Ganz, field editor of Farm and Ranch, Dallas, who accompanied Dr. McLain on his trip, spoke before Dr. McLain.

Wonderful Changes Made
"In the past ten years there have been wonderful changes in the dairy industry in Texas," Mr. Ganz declared. "Ten years ago the dairy manufacturing business in Texas was represented by four creameries and half a dozen ice cream factories. Today there are 66 creameries, eight cheese factories and fifty seven milk plants like the one here in Lamesa."

Texas, he added, has nearly a million head of dairy cattle.
The feed production problem, he added, was the principal problem before the farmers of the state and especially of the South Plains.

Dr. McLain has made eleven visits in counties on the South Plains inspecting dairy demonstration herds. He averaged an inspection of two herds to a county and has addressed several luncheon clubs besides giving his regular farm inspection talks.

Cows Underwrite Company
"The dairy industry is like an underwriting company," he explained. "The farmer is the president and the underwriter. The cows form the board of directors that underwrite the company."

The farmer must feed his herd in order to get the best results. "Where you find a successful dairy industry you will find a successful community," he added.

Patrons Are Payroll
The "payroll" of the milk plant, he explained, would not be the men employed there, for their contribution to the support of Lamesa, or any other community, would be relatively small. "The 1,200 patrons of the Lamesa plant will be its payroll as far as Lamesa merchants are concerned," he added.
Dr. McLain said he knew of "one town that has $100,000 a month payroll from its creamery and milk condensary."

The big problem for the dairy farmer is to "produce feed, his raw material, cheaper than its selling price."
The three "V's" of the dairy farmer, the speaker said, are: Volume of feed; Volume per cow; Volume of brains.

Must Grow Feed
The dairy expert, speaking to the business men, advised them not to try and sell the farmer much feed. "The men who would succeed in the dairy business must grow his own feed."
"If there is nothing that succeeds like success, there is nothing that fails like failure," he declared.

The speaker said that it seemed to him sometimes that "good roads were made primarily for the business man to take his wife riding on Sunday afternoons and that their secondary purpose was to get the farmer into town."
K. M. Renner, head of the dairy manufacturing department of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, also spoke.

There were a number of visiting newspaper men at the luncheon, including O. D. Carter, editor of the O'Donnell Index; E. W. Smith, editor of the Lamesa Reporter; Charles Hurs, editor of the Dawson County Journal; O. S. Dowell, O'Donnell, newspaper correspondent for a group of newspapers and press associations and J. Sam Lewis, of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.
