LISTEN TO LUKE

Now that football play is over so far as Sanderson is concerned, minds and thoughts may now turn to other matters. The Sanderson Eagles did well by themselves and the local fans are proud of their record. Of course, it was a disappointment that they failed in the regional play, but there were no nicks coming.

Hairbrain Harry of the Queer Deal finally decided to economize. He decided it would be cheaper for him to fly to Washington than for a dozen or more of the big crasses to fly to Miami from Washington. Then, too, there were other reasons — Democratic leaders decided it is time to deodorize and get rid of some of the BO before the campaign gets under way.

Such men as Sam Rayburn of Texas and the Trumanite Sid McMath, governor of Arkansas, are going a lot of talking about how the Truman administration is and how they think the President will likely throw off his civil-rights program to try to win the south over to his way of thinking. It seems rather late for such an attempt at reconciliation.

The outcome of the next general election can be determined by the non-voters — they hold the balance of power, since less than half the potential voters cast their ballots. Even in a general election, it is rather evident that a majority of the people don't give a tinker's dam who is elected nor for what office.

It is tragic that so few will take the responsibility of citizenship and go to the polls instead of sitting back and cuss the way the country is run. If we are to have a house-cleaning in Washington we will have to muster some of those pathetic voters to their duty.

Tourney Opens Cage Season In Valentine Fri.

Sanderson High School Eagles this week began working out for the basketball season which had begun before the boys had finished their football season. Three of the regular players, David Mitchell, Juan Olivares and Joe Nessmith, will be out of play for several weeks, according to Coach Norman Rath, because of injuries received in the regional football game Friday night of last week.

The Eagles will go to Valentine Friday for an invitational tournament which begins there Thursday. The first game of the Eagles is against Balmorhea. The Eagles will have had only four days of practice prior to their first game and their chances of coming out with any of the honors are very slim.

School Attendance Lagging This Term

Tabulations made by the school officials show that the average membership and average daily attendance of the Terrell County Schools are lagging behind the average membership and attendance of the 1950-51 term.

At the end of three months of school last year, the average membership was 582.53 and the average daily attendance was 563.06, while current figures show that the average membership is 557 and the average daily attendance is 540.26 for the same period of the current term.

Since the average daily attendance is 22.80 students less this year as compared with the same period last year, the system will be allowed one less teacher next year, unless the attendance will increase considerably for the balance of the school year. The law provides one teacher for every 25 children in average daily attendance. Unnecessary absences from school this year has been a large factor in bringing down the average daily attendance.

BURIAL RITES FOR W. C. WRIGHT, 36, IN ROSWELL, N. M.

Death came last Friday morning to William C. (Chris) Wright at his home here following a heart attack. He had been on duty that night and came home about one o'clock. Mrs. Wright admitted him to their home and he was a ricken shortly afterwards while sitting by the fire reading a paper. She summoned a physician when his heavy breathing disturbed her and Dr. J. W. Pate pronounced him dead upon examination after his arrival.

The Wrights came to Sanderson thirteen months ago from Marfa and he was in charge of the local immigration officers detail, replacing Garland Inmon, who transferred to Pecos.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Claude Bridges officiating. The body was taken overland in an O. T. Suduth, Inc., funeral coach to Roswell, N. M., and burial was made in that city Monday following military rites.

Mr. Wright was born in Las Vegas, N. M., March 12, 1915, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Wright, both deceased. He was married to Miss Muriel Tisdale in Portales, on October 3, 1937. After serving four years in the U. S. Navy, he joined the Border Patrol in 1939 and had served continuously in that work for the past twelve years with the exception of fourteen months naval duty during the late war. He had held assignments in Fort Stanton and Roswell, N. M., and in El Paso, Marfa, Pecos and Alpine before coming to Sanderson.

Besides his widow, survivors include two daughters, Toni Ann and Gloria Wright, a brother, Capt. Samuel P. Wright in Japan; two sisters, Mrs. H. B. Petry of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Mrs. Magdalene Combs of Hawthorne, California.

Eagles Lose To Melvin 40-13

The Sanderson Eagles lost their regional tilt last Friday night in Ozona to the Melvin Bulldogs by a score of 40-13. The Region II tilt was played off in Ozona by mutual agreement with the officials of the opposing teams.

Before one of the largest crowds ever to view the Eagles in grid competition, the local lads began the football game by kicking off to the Melvin team and holding them until they were forced to punt. With the first offensive series the Eagles went down the field to cross the goal line. The touchdown play was set up after a pass complete to David Mitchell from Juan Olivares, good for 32 yards. Olivares carried the ball over the goal line from the 2-yard line. The try for extra point by Bob Wilkinson was no good and the Eagles kicked off to Melvin.

Melvin was again held to a minimum of yards gained and that team was forced to punt again. The punt carried far down the field into the arms of Jack Talbot who fumbled the ball which was recovered by Melvin on about the 4-yard line. Melvin carried the ball over for their first score and their try for extra point failed. The Eagles were quick to retaliate after their bad break and marched down the field and went over the goal line on a pass play from Olivares to Joe Nessmith, good for the score and 4 yards. The extra point was made good by Wilkinson and the Eagles led at the end of the first quarter by 13-6.

A fumble by the Eagles gave Melvin possession of the ball in the third period and they took the best advantage of their break and made their second touchdown early in the second period. They also made the extra point to tie up the score. After their kickoff to the Eagles the Bulldogs intercepted an Eagle pass and went 60 yards for their third touchdown. Following this the Bulldogs carried the ball game all the way, making one more score in the third quarter and two in the fourth quarter.

The statistics stacked up far in favor of the Bulldogs during the game and were as follows: Sanderson Melvin 155 yards gained rushing 303
16 first downs 17
17 passes tried 16
7 passes complete 5
90 yards passing 88
0 passes intercepted by 4
15 penalized 30
3 yards lost 18
This is the first time in the history of the Sanderson High School that the Eagles have gone as far as Regional in football play and the team and coaches C. W. Snowden and Norman Rath are to be commended in their efforts on the gridiron for the 1951 football season. The Sanderson team has turned in a fine record of score and an enviable record of play during the season just past.

The Eagle fans can look forward to a good season for the local team next year since there are so few Eagles who will graduate and become ineligible after this year. The team will lose Bob Wilkinson, Jack Talbot, Jimmy Harrison, Willie Wolfe and Ruben Esqueda. They will have the services of the Eagle football players who will come up from the junior team. Eagles who made up the roster for the biggest part of the 1951 season, besides those named above, were Galor Cobos, Raul Flores, David Martinez, Leon Garza, Rosendo Silvas, Frank Vasquez, Roman Zepeda, Jack Savage, Jim Talbot, Pablo Torres, David Mitchell, Higinio Pena, Juan Olivares, Roberto Arredondo, Joe Nessmith, Nicky Hahn, Tommy Mansfield, Charles Stegall, Glynn Chandler, James Clark, Douglas Attaway, and James Caroline.

ROTARY CLUB TO HAVE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Sanderson Rotary Club will have its annual Christmas party next Wednesday evening at seven at the Band House. All members of the club and their Rotaryans are invited to be present.

Santa Claus' Annual Visit To Be Thursday, December 20

The annual visit of Santa Claus, sponsored by the Sanderson Lions Club, will be Thursday, December 20, according to news received last week end. Santa will not bring his reindeer to Sanderson owing to the drouth conditions that have prevailed in this area for the past several years, but promises to be on hand himself to visit with all the little folks of the area and give them all remembrances to tide them over until his visit on Christmas Eve.

The time set for the arrival of Santa Claus is 3:30 p. m.

The Christmas tree on the corner by the Turner Hotel will be set up and decorated and will be the site for Santa's stop in Sanderson.

There will be plenty of bags of candy, fruit and nuts for the small children of the county and Santa will expect to visit with each child individually who has some last-minute request to make of the Jolly Old Gent.

The Lions Club has distributed jars in the various businesses of town to help defray the expense of the Christmas party for the kids of the area and the support of the people is sought and deeply appreciated by the sponsoring club as well as by the kids who benefit most from the visit of Saint Nick.

Poll and Property Tax Payments Lag

December is the last month to take advantage of any discount offered by the early payment of taxes in Terrell County. A discount of one per cent is allowed during December and then all taxes not paid during January will draw interest and penalty after February 1.

A large portion of 1951 taxes was paid during October, the month when a three per cent discount was allowed. To date, only $35,821.99 in taxes remain unpaid.

It now looks as if a last minute rush will again be made to pay poll taxes which must be secured before February 1. Only 254 taxes have been paid to date and that is about one-fourth the usual voting strength of the county. With 1952 as the year when many county, district, state and federal officers will be elected, it is expected that a larger number of persons than usual will purchase the necessary requisite for a ballot in Texas, a poll tax; or secure the necessary exemption certificates if entitled to one.

Aliens Must Submit Correct Address Jan. 1

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath this week reminded all aliens that they must submit current address reports through any U. S. Postoffice during the period January 1 to 11, inclusive.

Under the amended law, any alien residing in the United States on January 1, 1952, except one in an authorized temporary status, must notify the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., of his current address within ten days thereafter and during the same period each succeeding year.

The report is an annual requirement and is not to be confused with alien registration. An alien residing in the United States on January 1 must make the address report each and every year, regardless of whether or not he previously reported his address.

Failure to comply with the above would subject aliens, upon conviction, to fines or imprisonment or both.

COLORED LIGHTS INSTALLED ON LOCAL STREETS

Additional Yuletide spirit has been kindled in Sanderson during the past week since the stringing of the colored lights across Highway 90, the length of the entire business section of town.

Coming from the east particularly, travellers are impressed with the beauty of the twinkling lights and the little town, nestled in the valley, gives the immediate appearance of a large city.

The putting up of the lights is an annual project boosted by the Sanderson Lions Club with a crew from the Community Public Service Co. furnishing the labor and the merchants owning the lights paying for the electricity consumed.

Several more local display windows have also been decorated in the Christmas motif this week and the entire town is gradually taking on a "Christmas" appearance. Probably the prevailing mild weather has been a contributing factor to the slow realization of the fact that it is only eleven days until Christmas.

Picture of a man making a smart decision

HERE is a man who's been doing a lot of thinking.

Someday, he's told himself, I'm going to turn in my old car and get a new one.

And he said, still talking to himself, when I do that I'm going to size up the field—give 'em all a real going over.

You see him here at the wheel of a Buick. He hasn't bought it—yet. It's a demonstrator, and he's trying it out.

But the more he tries it, the more he knows he's been wasting a lot of time.

From the moment he looked inside, he said: Here's the room—and the comfort—and the style I've been looking for.

Then he nudged its Fireball Engine into action. It's a high-compression valve-in-head, as you probably know.

He eased out into traffic. Stopped and started for a couple of traffic lights, and said something to the effect that this Dynaflow Drive® is a honey. Why don't they all build 'em this way?

He saw a bump ahead. Place where the pavement had been torn up. Other cars were braking down to a creep to cross it. He held back—rolled right across at regular speed with barely a bobble.

It's hard to believe, he said, but what they say about Buick's ride is right.

Ten minutes later he was out on an open stretch of road. Tried an experimental push on the gas treadle. Boy—what a take-off! You couldn't want more power than that.

Ten minutes more—and he knew something else. You don't really steer a Buick. It just about steers itself. Stays right on the beam on the straightaway. Even straightens itself out after a curve.

To make a long story short—he's found out that nothing else he's tried out can hold a candle—not even a little Christmas candle—to this bonnie beauty.

Back at the Buick showroom, he's going to get one more surprise. The price of a Buick is a lot less than he'd guessed it would be.

Moral: Smart Buy's Buick—right now.

State Can Compel Motorists To Furnish Proof That He Can Meet New Liability Demands

Austin, Dec. 12—Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., emphasized in a statement today that the state's new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law does not give his department the slightest judicial authority to determine questions of fault before applying the law's full requirements to motorists who are involved in severe traffic accidents.

"The saddest mistake a motorist can make," Director Garrison said, "is to think the state cannot compel him to give proof of his ability to meet damage claims and suspend all of his motoring privileges if he fails to do so, because he is quite sure he was not to blame. Those who imagine they can postpone meeting the new law's requirements until a court decides the issue of fault will find they are wrong."

This does not mean that any motorist will be required to pay for damages he did not cause, or that he does not have full recourse to the courts if he feels that any order issued under the new law violates his rights. It does mean, however, that pending a final court decision on a question of liability, the involved owner or operator must satisfy the Texas Department of Public Safety that he is prepared to meet damage claims for which he is apparently responsible.

"Here are the circumstances that will prevail when the new law becomes effective on January 1:

"If you are involved in an accident resulting in death or injury to a person, or property damage exceeding $100 to any one person including yourself, you must file a complete report with the Department not later than 10 days after the accident. If the report shows that you were properly insured at the time of the accident, you are not subject to the safety responsibility law because it recognizes insurance as proof of ability to meet damage claims up to $15,000.

"If you were not insured, the department will determine the extent of the damages for which you may be held responsible, ranging from a minimum of $101 to a maximum of $5,000. You must then furnish the department with satisfactory proof that you will be able to respond in the fixed amount, either by depositing collateral or posting a bond. You will not be required to furnish any security, however, if you have all other persons involved in the accident release you from liability, obtain a final court decree of non-liability, or execute a legal agreement providing for installment payment of claims. Neither will security be required if you show that your car was legally parked or being operated without your permission, or that all injuries and damages were confined solely to yourself.

"The law allows you a maximum of 70 days in which to satisfy it in any one of these manners—10 days to file your safety responsibility report and 60 days to satisfy the security requirements. If within the stated period you have not satisfied the law, regardless of how innocent you think you may be, the Texas Department of Public Safety has no alternative but to suspend your operating license and the registration plates for all cars owned by you.

"Should you later meet one of the security requirements, obtain a final court decree of non-liability, or if a year elapses without court action for damages being filed, the suspension will be lifted immediately; or if security was deposited, it will be returned. In the meantime, however, others involved in the accident have their rights protected, too. Thus, our new law is fair to everyone."

Health Officer Gives Precaution Against Taking Common Cold

Austin, Texas, Dec. 12 — "At this time of the year health officers and practicing physicians always expect an increase in the common cold," Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, reminds residents of Texas. "Although good personal hygiene—adequate sleep, suitable clothing, moderate exercise and good nutrition—may help the individual to develop resistance to infections, colds frequently develop in spite of all normal precautions. The seasonal rise in colds and other respiratory diseases during the fall and winter months certainly suggests that the shift to cooler weather is partly responsible for their prevalence."

"The unhappy victim of a cold should make every effort to prevent spreading the infection to others. He can help by covering coughs and sneezes with a disposable handkerchief, by staying out of crowds and avoiding close contact with others—especially invalids, young children and old people. Evidence indicates that colds are readily transmitted from person to person."

"For his own sake the patient should rest as much as possible in order to help his body fight the cold. If there is any fever it is advisable to go to bed and stay there."

There is some question as to the effectiveness of the large quantities of water and fruit juices generally recommended in the past, but they can do no harm and may help to some extent.

"If a cold persists for several days the patient should by all means consult his family physician especially if there is an accompanying fever. Although, as is generally known, there is no specific

White is the most common color for flowers. A gentleman removes his hat when entering a booth in a cafe and will seat his lady regardless of what "custom" dictates. It has gotten to be a common sight in West Texas in recent years to see men forget to remove their hats.

The Methodist Home Choir of Waco, Texas, will be a feature of the radio series, "There Are Your Children" heard each Sunday morning at 8:15. The program will continue through December 16, over 15 radio stations in Texas and New Mexico, featuring stories of life at the Methodist Home for Children, according to Hubert Johnson, Superintendent of the Home.

Mr. Johnson said that a few of the many interesting and inspiring subjects to be brought into the home via radio on Sunday mornings will include religious training and counsel a child receives; how he is taught to work and to assume responsibility; his general education and study helps; vocational training plan and how he is sheltered, clothed and fed.

The Methodist Home is owned by Methodist Churches in Texas and New Mexico and houses more than 400 children. The Home is non-sectarian. CORRECTION

It was erroneously stated in The Times last week that Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clymer had leased the Clymer Courts. Mrs. Clymer is operating the courts for L. E. Muller, owner, and with Mr. Clymer, is residing at the courts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Savage, Jr., of Austin attended the Sanderson-Melvin game in Ozona Friday and accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Savage, to Sanderson to visit over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lindley and son, Bobby, of Del Rio have moved to Sanderson. He is a T&NO fireman.

from a trip to Portland, Oregon, where he attended a meeting of the national group. He said that a move is on foot to get more sheep raising stations and be able to supply the demands of the consumers if the industry is to prosper. It was suggested, he said, that farmers in the agricultural business section be urged to run a small flock of sheep to supplement the shortage that is universal at this time. The sheepmen depend more on the sale of lambs rather than on the wool sales, he said.

Christmas time draws near and we can't find anyone who is ready for it. When we try to realize that there are so many things to be done by Christmas, and the time is so short, it will just have to wait until next Christmas. Most of us would gladly give the shirt off our backs to some needy person this Christmas but we have already lost our shirt to this Queer Deal.

Our representative to the United Nations have added to the dangers of losing the American Freedom for which we have long been proud. We feel that the UN could serve well in maintaining international peace and security in accordance with the terms of its charter. However, no patriotic nation will be able to support the UN if it continues to threaten the national sovereignty by claiming jurisdiction over fundamental human rights. Those who encourage the UN's treaty-making ambitions are the UN's worst enemies.

Many United Nations treaties threaten to rob the American people of their cherished freedoms. One of the most dangerous of these treaties is the Covenant on Human Rights. This draft has been approved by Secretary Acheson and Attorney General McGrath and by our representatives at the UN. Instead of calling it the Covenant on Human Rights, it should be known as the Covenant on Human Slavery. It would give the President of the United States or Congress power to nullify any part of the Constitution or Bill of Rights during any national emergency — real or imaginary. Fortunately, there are some in our Congress who will fight to maintain the full content of our Constitution and let the bewildered UN delegates fight for those freedoms that Americans have cherished all these years.

ished all these years.

We can't overlook this opportunity. Our friends who publish the Fort Stockton Pioneer, and who recently stuck their necks out on a prediction of a football game between the Sanderson Eagles and the Fort Stockton Panthers, have made another prediction — and this one tops the other! They have predicted the number of babies to be born in Pecos County during 1951! We wonder?

Rev. Olaf Hoggard Speaker for P.-T. A. Meeting Thursday

Te December meeting of the Sanderson Parent-Teacher Association was last Thursday afternoon in the high school auditorium. After the invocation given by Rev.
Olaf Hoggard, Miss Patricia Allen's second grade pupils presented a number, "Christmas Lessons", and sang "Santa Claus is Coming To Town."
Mrs. W. A. Kay of Fort Stockton gave the highlights of the state convention in Dallas, stating that the program was entirely spiritual and it was stressed that the "Back To God Movement" is what will save our country rather than the A-bomb. She also urged local members to attend the district conference at McCamey in March.
"Preserving our Spiritual Heritage" was discussed by Rev. Olaf Hoggard. "There are three specific jobs of parents today," stated Rev. Hoggard. "We can determine the character of our children by the selection of literature in our homes, by wholesome reading, the Bible being one of the best pieces of literature to read to them, and by truthfully answering their questions about the facts of life."
"We should be careful about our conversations around children," he continued. "They hear more than we think. We should also see that our children have the proper entertainment. We should know the kind of movies they see and the activities they have. We are responsible to the coming generation," he concluded. "They are looking to us and we should look to God for spiritual guidance in leading them."
Mrs. A. A. Shelton's third grade won the attendance prize.
Announcement was made that the January meeting will be Thursday, January 10.
After the close of the meeting,
the president, Mrs. L. E. Arledge, invited the members to the library where refreshments of cookies, coffee and salted nuts were served. Mrs. Arledge and Mrs. J. T.

Williams presided at the coffee service. A centerpiece of fruit, nuts and autumn leaves was arranged on the lace-covered refreshment table.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Sign of a Nice Guy

Got so around these parts that everywhere a hunter went this fall, he came up against signs saying "PRIVATE PROPERTY. NO HUNTING. KEEP OFF." But not out at Happy Preston's place!

Happy's signs say "PRIVATE PROPERTY, GOOD HUNTING, BUT BE CAREFUL."

"Don't hunt myself," Happy says, "but there's plenty of game on my property. I tell the hunters where the best spots are—away from where I'm working and where nobody else is hunting. It works out pretty well all-around."

From where I sit, Happy has once again shown why he gets along with everyone and why everyone respects him. Happy's likes and dislikes might not be the same as his neighbors', but that doesn't stop him from understanding. When it comes to opinions on hunting, fishing, politics, ways of farming, or whether your favorite beverage is beer or cider, try to be like Happy and the chances are you'll be really happy!

A Digest of GOOD IDEAS for Planning, Building, Decorating and Maintaining Your Home

Brought to you each week by Sally and Johnny O'Mala

26 Ideas for a Practical Christmas

1. Put the PLANS for a new home on your Christmas tree. See the complete selection of newest plans available at your local lumber dealer's. Select your plan and make this first step toward a new home a joyous gift to all the family.

plan and make this first step toward a new home a joyous gift to all the family.

2. If you need more SPACE in your home for growing children, in-laws, hobbies, and so on, why not make an EXTRA room your Christmas gift? You probably already have this space walled in and roofed over ... all you need is the finishing job to convert an attic, porch, breezeway or attached garage into a needed room.

3. Maybe the best gift of all for your home is the added year 'round comfort that insulation can provide. Get the facts and figures from your lumber dealer and have him write a Christmas letter to the family telling when he will start the job.

4. If the exterior of your home needs paint, that would be a really worthwhile gift. Your local dealer will gladly give you small cans of the colors you plan to use. Gift wrap these and put them on the Christmas tree.

5. If the family's heart is set on a new outdoor terrace and barbecue for next summer, give it to them NOW. A set of barbecue tools with a card attached saying that these are for use on the new terrace next summer, would thrill everybody, and make your gift come to life.

6. If you're wondering which new kitchen helper she'd rather have, here are five that surveys show most women want and don't have: (1) A steam iron; (2) a baby vacuum cleaner; (3) an automatic coffee maker; (4) an electric food blender; (5) an electric French fryer.

Give your home a Christmas gift

You'll be in the good company of thousands of other home-makers if you decide to center your Christmas plans on your home. Some have agreed to pool their funds and buy one gift for the home; others have a plan to give each other gifts for the home; and still others are concentrating on making possible the beginnings of a new home. Whatever you do, you can't miss the spirit of Christmas if your home reflects the joyousness of the season, and radiates the hospitality and good cheer that is in every home-lover's heart. Home-makers' Forum wishes you a Merry Christmas and joy in your home for the coming year.

Of course, everybody knows that the major home appliances are, perhaps, America's most popular Christmas gifts ... but have you thought about REPLACING some of yours this Christmas? Take a good look at your refrigerator, your range, your washer and other major appliances. It may be that NOW is the best time to replace them. Right now, you can have your choice of ANY appliance, but this may not be true for long. So, if some of your appliances are old or unsatisfactory, why not REPLACE them this Christmas? Think of the extra comfort and convenience the new features of MODERN appliances will add to your life. It's a sure way to make SURE of having it when you need it.

21. Why not replace your old washer with a new AUTOMATIC washer that saves so much work and time?

22. Why not add a new clothes dryer that dries clothes soft and nifty?
