NEW WAGE-HOUR BILL IS ASKED

She'll Be A Pal To 'Mummy'

Shown below in the arms of her 15-year-old mother, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pittman of Seminole should never lack attention. She has two grandmothers, four great grandmothers, and one great-great grandmother. The infant was born this morning at Lubbock sanitarium, and a check of hospital records failed to reveal birth to younger mothers here.

Daughter Born To 15-Year-Old Seminole Mother Is Amply Supplied With Grandmothers

A 15-year-old mother, Mrs. Robert Pittman of Seminole, held her 7 pounds 4 1-2 ounces daughter in her arms this morning at Lubbock sanitarium with realization that she can turn to seven grandmothers of the infant if she should need advice in child rearing.

The baby, born at 4:55 o'clock this morning, is a member of the fifth generation of the Pittman family and has two grandmothers, four great grandmothers, and one great-great grandmother.

A check of hospitals this morning failed to reveal record of birth to any younger mother in Lubbock, one of the larger hospital centers of the state.

The baby's weight was slightly higher than the average for female infants.

Her mother, who reached her last year of high school at the age of 15, sewed baby clothes with the neat stitches she learned last year in home economics classes. The 20-year-old father is a Seminole service station employe.

Youthful motherhood is not unusual in the family. Mrs. Pittman's mother, Mrs. C. L. Wesley of Canyon, became a mother when 18 and a grandmother this morning at the age of 34. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Pittman of Sebinole, became a grandmother the third time this morning at the age of 44.

Parents more easily may be companions to their children if they still are young when the children grow up, said the youthful father.

The couple was married when

Check-Up On U.S. Defenses Planned

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Members of the house naval and military committees will make a thorough check-up this summer on the nation's defenses, from Maine to Hawaii and from the Panama canal to Alaska.

The objective will be to obtain information to be used as the basis for future legislation to strengthen weak spots.

To Be Thorough

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the naval committee and Chairman May (D-Ky) of the military group said today the survey would include every major navy yard, air base and emplacement of anti-aircraft and seacoast defense guns.

The tour may start in June and cover as much as 20,000 miles.

Vinson said a subcommittee would "make a special trip to Alaska with reference to military needs for locating air, destroyer, submarine and mine bases there."

Going To Honolulu

"They are going to be asked to go to Honolulu to look over the situation there, particularly the feasibility of establishing a graving dock. They also will look over the advisability of a supply depot at Oakland, Calif."

May said the Guld coast also would be inspected, and that military committeemen would study coast defenses primarily to determine the need for new coast artillery and anti-aircraft guns.

"To See For Ourselves"

"We are going to see for ourselves what dilapidated condition our coast defenses are in," he said. "We apparently have a bunch of obsolete stationary guns that are designed only to shoot at ships. What we need is mobility.

"Most of this nation's coast line is wide open to aerial bombardment.

"The best way to stop these aggressor nations is to show them we have the strength to back up our position."

May said it was noticeable that as soon as the United States served

Growers' Income In Past Crop Lower

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics estimated today that despite production of the largest cotton crop on record, the growers' income during the 1937 calendar year totalled only $863,970,000 or $41,109,000 less than in the previous year.

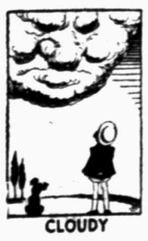

Of the 1937 income, cotton fiber brought growers $734,194,000 and cotton seed $129,776,000, the bureau estimated.

Cotton sold in 1937 brought an average price of 8.7 cents a pound, the bureau said, compared with 12.2 in 1936.

The bureau pointed out that cotton seed has improved as a source of income in recent years. In the past five years it produced an average of 13.5 per cent of the total income from the cotton crop, as compared with 10.3 in the 1910-14 period.

The bureau also estimated that 16,818,000 bales of cotton were sold or placed under government loans by growers last year. The 1937 crop has been placed at 18,476,000 bales.

Two Escape Death As Chair Fails To Work

Week's Stay Of Execution Is Granted

Generator Goes Haywire At Huntsville And Scheduled Executions Postponed

(By The Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, April 22—Two men scheduled for execution in state prison here today remained alive because the electric chair failed to work. They were given a week's reprieve.

One of them, John W. Vaughn, 34, his head shaven for contact with the fatal electrodes, stood within four feet of the chair, protesting his innocence, when the generator went out of order.

Scheduled For Midnight

Johnnie Banks, 26-year-old negro preacher, was in the death cell, a few feet away, awaiting his turn. The executions, set for midnight, had been postponed until 3 a. m., while electricians worked on the equipment.

When the three hours were up, Vaughn, smoking a cigar, strode into the death chamber. He surveyed the group of about 40 witnesses.

Says He's Innocent

"I have a speech I want to make you men," Vaughn said. "I am being executed to save another man from being executed. I am an innocent man. . . . I am a working man with a wife and child. I forgive you prison officials who are forced by law to put me to death. I said a prayer today and I asked God to stop this electrocution and he has brought warning to man to realize it was against his will—"

C. C. Springfield, newspaperman, said "the generator sort of grumbled and broke down again." Officials went behind the scene to inspect the generator.

Fell Heir To Crime

"Gentlemen, I'll continue my speech" Vaughn went on. I fell heir to another man's crime."

Warden W. W. Waid returned, announced "Well, we'll have to put it off." Waid started Vaughn back to death row.

"Thank you, warden" said Vaughn. "God has heard my prayer, all right, gentlemen, you see an honest man who God loves."

Arranged For Reprieve

Waid telephoned Gov. James V. Allred and arranged for a week's reprieve for Vaughn, who was sentenced in the slaying of a San Antonio motorcycle officer, A. A. (Bill) Edwards, and for Banks, who slew his 13-year-old sister-in-law in a scuffle for possession of a gun.

Texas Avenue Thrown Open

Texas avenue is open at last.

After having been delayed nearly a year by a controversies and technicalities, a dirt fill was completed at a Fort Worth and Denver railroad switch which brought to realization today an improvement characterized by city officials as one of the most badly needed in Lubbock.

The street still is rough and will be extremely muddy at unpaved portions in time of rain, but city officials predicted this morning that it will be paved before next autumn from Nineteenth street, the end of present paving, southward to its juncture with Avenue H near Thirtieth. The newly opened portion of the thoroughfare is from its former "dead-end" at Twenty-sixth southward.

Must Sign Contracts

A federal WPA allocation for the paving already has been made for the paving, but otherwise, officials explained, the improvement must start from the beginning. Property owners must sign contracts asking that the paving be done and then curb, gutter and caliche base work must be completed before the actual surfacing can be done.

The paving, however, probably will be placed ahead of some of the other projects in the city because of Texas avenue's new im-

City's Sales Outstanding In March

AUSTIN, April 22 (AP) — Texas continued in March to make a far better showing in retail sales than the nation as a whole, the University of Texas bureau of business research reported today.

It said sales of 106 representative establishments were 2.4 per cent below those of March last year but increased 21.6 over February.

The fact Easter came in March last year and April this year lent further optimism to the showing.

Lubbock, Dallas and Austin made outstanding gains.

Landon Scores New Program Of Spending

TOPEKA, Kas., April 22 — Alf M. Landon called upon "an articulate citizenry" today to make it clear to congress that "this huge appropriation" proposed in President Roosevelt's new recovery program must be met by adequate tax provisions.

The 1936 Republican presidential nominee, in an address prepared for delivery to the Optimist club, said the president's proposal has ended the "period of uncertainty as to the government's fiscal policy."

"An Inflationary Course"

"We are again upon an inflationary course," he said.

The speech was read by State Supreme Court Justice Hugo T. Wedell after Landon was called to Kansas City by the illness of his father, John M. Landon.

"If every time there is a recession in business the only way out that a government can find is a further huge expenditure program to be applied on top of expenditures already too great, then we shall go bankrupt.

"If the government spends money, it must collect revenues to match the expenditures. . . .

Not Yet Too Late

"It is not yet too late to pull up and save ourselves and pay our honest debts. We can pay the public debt of these United States if we are honest and economical. But we will have to economize — we will have to stop our spendthrift course."

The nation's hope, he said, "lies in congress, backed by an articulate citizenry, to continue to take action and assume leadership.

"Congress must decide if we are to take the hard road, or if we shall dash gaily and blindly into this in-

Mexico Prepares To Send New Reply On British Oil Protest

MEXICO CITY, April 22 (AP)—The Mexican government prepared today to draft a reply to a reiterated British protest against expropriation of British-owned oil companies.

The second British note was delivered to Foreign Minister Eduardo Hay by the British minister, Own T. Clair O'Malley, last night.

The protest again called Mexico's expropriation "unjustified" and expressed the view that restitution of the properties was "the only practical means of avoiding a serious injury to extensive British interests."

Men Who Edit Newspapers Of Nation Belie Film Conception

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 22. — Gaze for a day at the men who make the country's newspapers and you will see that Hollywood ought to lift the face and figure of the movie conception of an editor.

Not one of the delegates to the sixteenth annual convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors walked or talked or looked today like their prototype in pictures.

The group visited the White House last night for an "off-the-record" conference with President Roosevelt. They arranged a similar meeting with Secretary Hull today.

At the National Press club, where convention sessions are being held, none of the newspapermen followed the film traditions of:

Bellowing or beating on tables.
Calling a newspaper a "rag."
Speaking of women reporters as "sob sisters."

Instead they spoke quietly, called the home-town paper "our

Despite Machine Age, Man Still Greatest War Factor

(By The Associated Press)

Despite technological advances in war-making, the supply and demand of manpower assumed new and perhaps pivotal importance in reports from the world's two wars today.

In Spain, the republican government's almost two-to-one superiority in numbers apparently had halted an attempt to widen the gap which the insurgents, with superior equipment, had slashed in eastern Spain.

Japan, with a great advantage in weapons, was confronted by the task of countering the vast reservoir of manpower in China's 400,000,000 population.

The invaders were forced to sacrifice much of the territory they had gained in Hopeh province, North China, to throw more troops into the Central China front in making up for recent reverses.

In Critical Situation

The greatest concentration of Chinese forces since the war started last July 7, bolstered by guerilla raids, put the Japanese in a critical situation.

Within the past three weeks more than 200,000 fresh Chinese soldiers were said to have been added to the wall of men between Japanese and their goal, the Lunghai railway.

The Spanish insurgents seemed to have been blocked all the way from the Pyreness front south to the Mediterranean.

Solidification of the government line forbade flank attacks and left the defenders with a strong hand in numerical superiority and their most effective weapon, the automatic rifle and machine-gun.

The insurgents apparently had lost their striking power on the Madrid front, took. Weakened by transfers to the seaboard war zone, the insurgents were unable to follow up an assault on the former capital. Exploding mines called a halt.

Space For Office Is Reserved By Allred

AUSTIN, April 22 (AP)—Additional indication that Governor James V. Allred would practice law here after the end of his present term was given with reservation of space for him in an office building under construction. Allred will leave office in January.

There had been rumors Allred might receive an appointment to a federal judgeship or some other federal position.

It was not known who would be Allred's law partner or partners but some persons have speculated that Edward Clark, now secretary of state, may be associated with him.

Panay Case Closed Incident; Japanese Payment Made U. S.

TOKYO, April 22 (AP) — The Panay case — the bombing of the United States river gunboat Panay and three Standard Oil vessels during the siege of Nanking — was officially closed today when Japan paid $2,214,007.36 as full indemnity.

The aerial attack on Dec. 12 up the Yangtze river from the former Chinese capital, was one of the most surprising developments of the Chinese-Japanese war and seriously disturbed relations between the United States and Japan. The Panay and two Standard Oil vessels were sunk and the fourth American craft was set afire and beached.

The foreign office itemization of the payment showed the Standard Vacuum Oil company received more than half of the payment, $1,287,942.

Agreement With Texas Power And Light Is Made By REA

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP) — An agreement whereby the Texas Power and Light company would furnish power to five rural electrification cooperatives in Central and North Texas was announced by the REA.

The cooperatives, in Kaufman, Grayson, Fannin, McLennan and Navarro counties, will obtain power at a wholesale rate of 1.3 cents per kilowatt hour, REA officials said. They estimated the consumer rate at about $5 per month per 100 kilowatt hours.

New Highway Map Of Texas Is Replete With Skull And Cross Bones Marking Road Deaths

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 22.—A new highway map, replete with skull and cross bones and tombstone decoration among motorists, those with a heavy accelerator foot might profit by a study of it, highway patrolmen say.

Tell Story Of Speed

The hollow-eyed skulls and a neat little grave yard accoutrements tell a story of speed and its often disastrous results.

The skulls appear along stretches of cardinal routes where officers actually trailed 31,256 automobiles as part of a five-month research project. On the tombstones laconic figures tell the number of deaths along those highway sectors.

Taking all cars into consideration, 8,582 or 27.5 per cent were traveling between 56 and 60 miles an hour. Legal maximum speed for private vehicles is 45.

Total Of 624 Exceeding 71

A total of 624 drivers, including all sections studied, were exceeding 71. A meager 16.9 per cent of the 31,256 were driving at 45 or less.

Officers don't contend speed in excess of the legal maximum necessarily results in death but piecing together information from the surveys they found there were certain maximum safe speeds on certain

O'Donnell Is Holding Rodeo

(Special To The Journal)

O'DONNELL, April 22.—Good crowds marked the opening day of O'Donnell's annual rodeo and fiesta this morning as candidates for state, county and district offices held a speaking program. It was followed by a community singing led by Mayor C. M. Haymes.

The parade was to begin shortly after 1 o'clock. "Uncle" Nobe Frost, 80, pioneer cowboy, was to lead it. Everett Bryant is in charge.

Rodeo events were to begin at 2 o'clock. Prizes will be awarded winners.

Tonight a dance will be held after the evening performance.

A similar program is arranged for Saturday. A large crowd is expected then when farmers from a wide territory are to be here.

Additional Victims Sought In Wreckage; 21 Negroes Killed

PHENIX CITY, Ala., April 22. (AP)—Rescue workers sought additional victims today in the wreckage of a two-story cafe building that collapsed yesterday, bringing death to at least 21 negroes and injuries to 84 other persons.

A portion of a roof of a building next door to the cafe collapsed Wednesday, slightly injuring 10 negroes. The remainder of the roof crashed yesterday, bringing down the east wall of the cafe building and wrecking the negro section of the eating place.

Missouri Town Is Fighting Removal Of Founder's Body

(By The Associated Press)

PTOSI, Mo., April 22 — Determined the body of this mining center's founder, Moses Austin, shall remain in a shrine here, city officials promised today a fight in the courts to prevent its removal to Austin, Tex., where his son is buried.

The son, Stephen F. Austin, was the founder of Texas' capital city.

Mayor W. L. Edmonds said an attempt by Thurlow B. Weed of Austin to exhume the body had been blocked by official action of the city council at an emergency session. The mayor and City Marshal C. J. Richardson discovered the attempted exhumation and ordered the grave restored to its original condition.

Weed, who said he represented the Texas Historical and Landmark commission, asserted he had authorizations from descendants of Stephen F. Austin to take charge of Moses Austin's body.

Moses Austin was one of the first settlers in Missouri's lead

Labor Unit In House Makes Plea Today

Legislation Is Requested To Prevent 'Vicious Spiral Of Deflation' Majority Says

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 22—The house labor committee recommended today enactment of its revised wage-hour bill to prevent a "vicious spiral of deflation" which, it said, "may threaten the foundations of government itself."

A majority of the committee said the need for the legislation was "urgent" because of the recent "alarmingly sharp decline in business activity."

Wage Cuts Cited

"With that decline have come the inevitable wage cuts which the great mass of American business men so deplore but are powerless to prevent," the committee said. "These business men know that wage-cutting sets in motion a vicious spiral of deflation which, if allowed to gather sufficient strength, will threaten the foundations of the government itself."

Officials of the securities commission and the Reconstruction Finance corporation reported that business men were responding in increasing numbers to administration lending proposals.

Putting Steam On"

A spokesman said the RFC was "putting the steam on" to take care of loan applications pouring into its 32 regional offices, chiefly from small business men wanting some of the agency's $1,500,000,000 of lendable funds.

From an SEC official came word that the commission has been "swamped" with inquiries about its simplified registration procedure. Undertaken at the request of President Roosevelt as part of his economic program, this simplification was designed to make it easier and faster for business interests to register small issues.

Discuss Rail Proposal

Congressional leaders meanwhile were discussing a proposal that a public works program for railroads be woven into the president's lending-spending campaign.

The carriers would supply materials for maintenance projects, and the government would pay for labor. Workers would be chosen from among those whom the railroads have furloughed.

Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) of the senate Interstate Commerce committee said he would talk over the plan with WPA administrator Harry Hopkins and other officials when they meet next week to draw up emergency railroad legislation.

Favors Additional Loans

The Montanan said he also favored additional federal loans for some "borderline" railroads which might be expected to stay out of bank-

Oliva Dionne Calls For Investigation

OTTAWA, April 22 (Canadian Press) — Olivia Dionne, the Callander farmer-father of the quintuplets, is trying to get a judicial investigation of the way their lives and finances are being managed by their guardians.

An Ottawa lawyer, Henri St. Jacques, announced last night he had been retained by Dionne and had sent the request for a judicial investigation to Attorney General Conant of Ontario.

This presented the possibility the amazing story of the quintuplets' birth, their fight for life, and their story-book accumulation of a fortune of $750,000 made in movies and advertising would be told for the first time in a law court.

St. Jacques said his purpose was to learn if the fortune were being dissipated. He was aware, he added, that the funds are subject to government audit.

Second Set Of Twins Is Born To Family On Same Birthday

Birth of twins always is news—but when two sets of twins celebrate their birthdays on the same date . . .

This morning a son and a daughter were born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Terrell of Canyon camp, on the Plainview highway. Six years ago today twins were born to the couple.

Today's twins were born 30 minutes apart, a 5 1-2 pound daughter at 9:15 o'clock. The son weighed 5½ pounds.

The Terrells have another child, born "in between the sets of twins." Terrell is a mechanic.

Engagement Of Miss Lyall Pickett Of Post Told

Mrs. A. C. Surman Is Hostess Thursday

POST, April 22. (Special)—Announcing the engagement of Miss Lyall Pickett of this city and Bob Davis of Austin, Mrs. Arnold C. Surman entertained at her home Thursday afternoon with a six-table bridge party which was followed immediately by a tea.

The marriage is to take place June 5 in Austin.

Guests were received by the hostess, the honoree, her sister, Mrs. Foster Davis of Crowell and Miss Pickett's cousin, Mrs. J. S. Penney of Lubbock.

High score in the games was made by Mrs. J. N. Power, jr.

In Pink And White

Tallies, scorecards and the refreshment plates were decorated in pink and white spring wedding theme. The tea table was covered with a white Italian cutwork cloth and centered with a bower of baby breath and fern beneath which stood miniature bride and bridegroom with guardian angel. On each side of the bower stood a three-pronged, antique silver candelabrum holding three tall white tapers. Antique silver coffee and tea services were used.

Mrs. Davis poured coffee and Mrs. Penney poured tea. Miss Lois Pickett, sister of the honoree, assisted Mrs. Surman in serving.

Guests for bridge were Mesdames George Lemon, Royce Durham, Bill Rackley, Ashley Lawson, William Watkins, John Herd, C. D. Morrel, Marshall Mason, D. C. Williams, Tillman L. Jones, Willard Kirkpatrick, J. A. Stallings, Jay Slaughter, O. L. Weakley, Edward Warren, Bob Warren, W. S. Duckworth, Giles W. Connell, K. Stoker, J. N. Pickett, J. N. Power, jr., S. B. San Jacinto Day Observed By Between-The-Pages Society

Between-the-Pages club members attended a San Jacinto Day program Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Witt, 2521 Twenty-sixth street.

Roll call was answered by naming Texas heroes. Mrs. J. E. Barker gave the history of Texas. Mrs. H. F. Godeke, guest speaker, conducted a parliamentary drill.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Marshall Lewis.

Others attending were Mesdames E. M. Barnett, Loule and Freeman Shell, Arch Harper, Jack Nelson, Bert Dean, Thelton Hamilton, Renford Taylor and Sam Parkinson.

Acuff Club Elects Officers In Semi-Monthly Meeting

Officers were elected at a meeting of the Acuff 4-8 club in the home of Mrs. Hughey Rush Wednesday afternoon. They were: President, Mrs. J. N. Harrelson; vice-president, Miss Margie Marie Pace; secretary, Mrs. M. T. Darden. Finance in the home was discussed.

Others present included: Mesdames C. A. Shipman, L. H. Baker, Douglas Pounds, O. D. Pace, T. Hunt, Joe McCallister, L. E. Park, E. B. Davis, Everett Griffin, B. C. Parchman, B. C. Pace, L. B. Germany, and Lucas Evett.

The club will meet May 5 with Mrs. W. H. Millican at Whiteface, for a covered dish luncheon.

TIP FOR BAKERS

Be careful not to fill baking dishes too full. Escalloped foods, rice puddings and fondues need about two inches of rising space. Foods made with baking powder, soda, cream of tartar or egg whites requires at least three inches.

Advocates Exercise

Evelyn Kaye believes that a daily work-out in a gymnasium is the ideal way to keep her figure lithe and slim. Her clearly chiseled features are a photographers delight, and she advocates sleep, rest and eight glasses of water a day for a lovely complexion and natural beauty. An accomplished violinist, Miss Kaye plays with the Phil Spitalny All Girls Orchestra. Whether massed with the 32 other girls on the concert stage or in a broadcasting station, her dark loveliness is never lost in the crowd.

Officers Installed By Dupre P-T Unit

Earl M. McClure, executive secretary of the South Plains Boy Scouts council, discussed hobbies at a meeting of the Dupre Parent-Methodist church Thursday afternoon. One hundred persons attended.

Mrs. W. W. Royalty presided for the installation of officers who were: President, Mrs. Marshall Harvey; vice-president, Mrs. Homer L. Pharr; treasurer, Mrs. D. R. Patterson; secretary, Mrs. J. I. Kilpatrick.

Mrs. E. L. Butler sang.

Be careful not to over-cook egg yolks, since they are apt to curdle. When adding yolks to a cooked mixture first beat them with a fork and then add a small amount of the cooked mixture. When the combination is well mixed add it to the rest of the food. Cook it for only a minute and then serve immediately.

Mrs. John McClain Is Party Honoree

Honoring Mrs. John McClain on her tenth wedding anniversary, Mrs. W. D. McClain of Seagraves, her mother-in-law, entertained Thursday afternoon at the McClain home, 328 Avenue H. Guests brought tin gifts.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Pete Bessent, W. O. McAteer, M. A. Ford, Paul Revers, F. A. White, E. S. Clay, D. M. Groce, Frank Zachary, Lee Ford, C. E. Gray, R. C. and W. B. Bethany, Cecil Strawn, L. G. Bell, C. E. Milliner, V. R. Brady, A. A. Cathey, Troy Vest, J. T. Hart, Jesse Jones, Chic Sanders, F. M. Pogue and Edith Mullins.

Gifts were sent by Mesdames Jack Chambers, J. D. Ham, Walter Nichols and H. L. Brooks.

Klever Kraft Klub Party Is Given By Mrs. H. F. Lloyd

Klever Kraft Klub was entertained by Mrs. H. F. Lloyd, 2347 Nineteenth street, Thursday afternoon. A Mrs. Young was a special guest.

Members attending were Mesdames James Sampson, J. C. Reynolds, W. E. Humphries, E. L. Price, C. N. Wood, A. N. Gamble, A. S. Meinecke and M. K. Foster.

Mrs. R. E. Gee Is Hostess For So And Such Needle Society

Mrs. R. E. Gee, 2124 Sixteenth street, entertained for the So and Such club Wednesday afternoon at her home. Guests were Mesdames Alton Abbott, W. G. Alderson, Otis J. Felty, Herman Fink, C. H. Hamilton, S. A. Hamilton, R. V. Mullenix, H. A. Padgett and Thomas E. Pirtle.

Mrs. George M. Garrett will be hostess at the next meeting, May 4 at 3 p. m.

Third Man Gets 30 Days

The first time the equipment failed, Banks, scheduled to go first, was standing at the door to the execution chamber. On the second attempt, Vaughn came first.

In death row also was Selanes Canedo, 23, convicted in the slaying of a San Antonio druggist. Gov. Allred granted him a 30-day reprieve yesterday.

highways.

This supposition, of course, includes perfect daylight driving conditions, a mechanically safe car and a competent driver.

For instance, it became evident accidents began to happen when cars were driven more than 60 miles an hour on U. S. highway 81 between San Antonio and San Marcos. Thirty-one persons died along that sector last year and the speed check just completed showed the average speed of all cars exceeding the maximum limit there was 64.2.

On state highway 35 in Polk county, a narrow and winding road, the mishaps became numerous when cars exceeded 42.

All Exceed Speed

The highest theoretically safe speed on U. S. 80 from Howard county to Pecos was found to be 54 yet all cars observed evceeding 45 in that sector averaged between 61 and 66.

On state highway 4 in Starr, Willacy, Cameron and Hidalgo counties, which claimed 64 lives last year, officers found the safe maximum was about 55. But when they trailed motorists along the narrow, overcrowded road they discovered those driving faster than 45 averaged between 55.3 and 57.6.

Copies of the map will be sent highway patrol captains as a possible guide in patroling their districts.

Who Are Two Handsomest?

Who are the handsomest men in the world? A thousand women and a thousand men—visitors to New York beauty salons—were asked to name their favorites. The contest narrowed down to the eight assorted Adonises shown above. Of these, two men were the first and second choices on both the masculine and feminine voting lists. Pick from these eight the two that YOU think most handsome, and then turn to Page 15 to compare your ideas of masculine beauty with those of the 2000 contest voters.

toxicate hilarity of inflation by meeting our current expenditures for the ninth successive year with I. O. U.'s."

All responsibility, Landon said, must not be placed upon congress, and the citizenry must not be "indifferent."

President Roosevelt "is gambling," he said, "that he can raise the national income by a policy of government spending.

"But this program is the opposite pledged by his secretary of treasury only five months ago. With several ways to check the depression, the president has chosen the one that the record of his administration shows will not work."

New Wage-Hour Bill

ruptcy if funds were provided to "tide them over."

Considerable interest centered here on the purpose of President Roosevelt's luncheon conference next Wednesday with Henry Ford, whose personal business policies frequently have run counter to the policies of the Roosevelt administration.

One Of A Series

The conference will be one of a series on business conditions which Mr. Roosevelt is holding with government officials and citizens.

Ford, who said yesterday that his solution to current problems is a greatly broadened "back-to-the-farm" movement had his latest fight with the government over the Wagner labor act, which guarantees workers the right to collective bargaining. In the early days of the administration he declined to sign the automobile code set up under the NRA.

Work on the president's program in congress was concentrated in the house appropriations committee, which yesterday heard Aubrey Williams, deputy Works Progress administrator and chief of the National Youth administration, outline the needs of the latter for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Texas Avenue Open

portance as a major artery into the business district from highways and from residential areas in the south and southwestern parts of the city, officials said.

Started Last Summer

Active effort to bring about the actual opening of the street was started by the city commission early last summer. The first step was the purchase of a right-of-way on that portion of the newly opened thoroughfare which curves from Texas at Twenty-eighth to the juncture with Avenue H. Texas and H are parallel streets one block apart.

Attempts then to open the street then were blocked by George E. Smith, head of Smith Implement company, owner of property which extended from a front on Avenue H across Texas. Opening of the street, he contended, cuts his property in two, leaves one small triangular section which is virtually without value to him and cuts off the main yard and buildings of the business from a railroad loading platform.

Lost In Proceedings

Smith was loser in condemnation proceedings brought by the city in county court. A jury there directed that he be paid $200 for the portion of his property used for the street. His suit against the city for approximately $27,000 damages subsequently was filed by his attorney, Benjamin Kucera, and is now pending in county court.

Further delay was caused by the time-taking technicality of securing a right-of-way from the Fort Worth and Denver over the switch crossing Texas a short distance south of Twenty-sixth.

Three Accomplishments Cited

Three major accomplishments the opening is expected by officials to bring about include:

Relief of congestion on Avenue H by providing the new through outlet into the business district.

Relief of congestion on Nineteenth street by enabling traffic bound for the south and southwest residential sections to reach their destinations by routings south of Nineteenth.

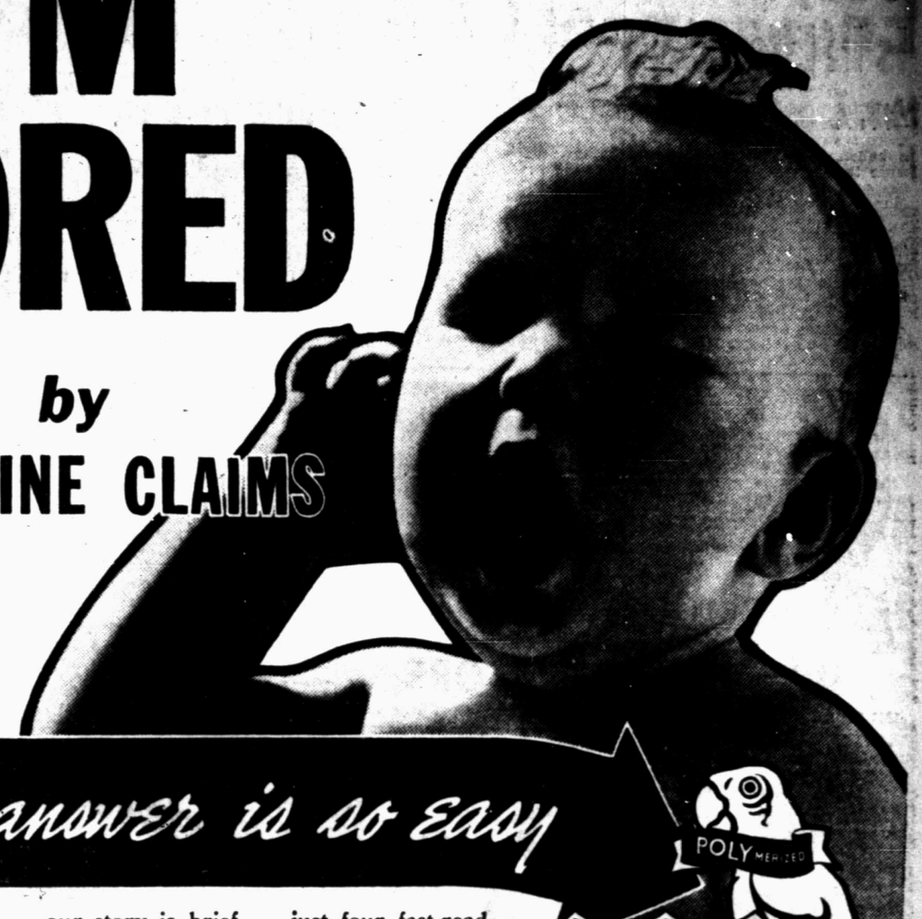

And the encouragement of improvements in large residential sections which, in the past, have been difficult of accessibility.

I'M BORED by GASOLINE CLAIMS

—the answer is so easy

Stifle that yawn . . . our story is brief . . . just four fast-reading facts to help you decide which gasoline gives greatest value:

1. The highest test gasoline without higher price is Phillips 66 Poly Gas.
2. Every gallon is packed with extra power units by the patented POLYmerization process.
3. No other gasoline is so accurately matched to your weather all year round.
4. Millions of drivers have proved for themselves that it piles up miles at rock bottom cost.

If these four facts persuade you to try a tankful of Phillips 66 Poly Gas, your own motor will tell you the rest of the story . . . in a difference you actually feel in performance . . . a difference in what you pay per mile. Look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

4-Day Week Is In Effect

(By The Associated Press)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 22.—W. R. Harrison, Santa Fe railway shops superintendent, announced in a bulletin to employes last night more than 850 workers in the local shops would be placed today on a four-day work week effective until further notice.

Harrison said the action was taken in preserence to further layoffs of employes. Locomotive, car and roundhouse workers will be affected.

Harrison pointed to a persistent drop in Santa Fe carloadings in recent weeks as a factor contributing to the move.

Commissions Presented To Junior High Patrol Group

Commissions were presented to 12 members of Junior High school patrol in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon at which Capt. W. W. Legge of the state highway patrol and Lewis Kittrell, police traffic sergeant, participated.

Those receiving commissions were: Wallace Wood, Francis Bearden, DeWitt Moore, Raleigh Workman, Robert Pardue, William McDonald, Amos Howard, Clark Bondurant, Major Taylor, Billy Wood, Talmadge Duvall, Weldon Wain and Billy Crawford. Carroll Thompson, principal of the Junior High school, is in charge of the patrol.

Membership is complimentary on voluntary service, although a standard is set by a merit system. "Such service is essential and much work can be done at homes also," Capt. Legge said.

Eleven boys will take part in track events: Clyde Catching, H. P. Ford, Walter Webster, Melvin Cooksey, Jarvis Wright, Kennedy Lyons, Robert Moxley, Othello Upton, James Sims, Jack Ware, and Joe Shearer.

Was A Rheumatic Cripple 5 Months; Gly-Cas Miraculous

Mr. Clemons Finds New Herbal Remedy To Be Just What He Had Needed For Years; Freed Of Awful Suffering

"Gly-Cas is one medicine that does not disappoint with the results it gives," said Mr. R. L. Clemons, Route No. 1, Burlington, Texas, (near Temple). "For twenty-five years I had suffered so badly with rheumatism and lumbago I often wished I was dead. Sciatic rheumatism developed in my left limb and from my knee down it was emaciated and I could only move my toes on my left foot the slightest. The dreadful lumbago would come and go but when the sciatic rheumatism hit me it actually got me clear down and I was an awful cripple. I was confined to bed for five months at one time, unable to do a day's work. My daughter learned of this new Gly-Cas and persuaded me to give it a trial. I too, found Gly-Cas to be just as miraculous in its action as everyone said it would be."

"Gly-Cas actually seemed to give results that were too good to be true," continued Mr. Clemons. "That dreadful rheumatism has been relieved even in the short time I have been taking it. I am again able to do my work, have my former strength and energy and can do as much as when I was twenty-five years younger. My appetite has been restored too, eat like a growboy, and I cannot say half enough for such a remarkable remedy as Gly-Cas."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

Scout Troops Are Preparing

Troops throughout the council are rehearsing for the Boy Scout circus to be staged in Texas Technological college stadium the night of May 6, event directors reported at a dinner at Hilton hotel Thursday night.

Chairman John Shewmake called another meeting for 6:30 p. m., Thursday, also at the Hilton, for final reports.

Schedule Drawn Up

A schedule of rehearsals for troop presentations was drawn up at the meeting Thursday night.

The schedule follows:

Monday, 8 p. m., at Slaton: for Slaton and Tahoka troops.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at Spur: for eastern district, including Lorenzo, Crosbyton, Ralls, Spur and McAdoo.

Wednesday, 4:30 p. m., at Sudan: for northwest district, including Anton, Littlefield, Amherst, Sudan, Muleshoe, Bula, and Circleback.

Wednesday, 8 p. m., at Levelland: for Levelland, Whiteface, Morton, and Pep.

Thursday, 4:30 p. m., at Lubbock Junior High school; whipcracking event of Lubbock troops.

Thursday, 5 p. m., at Lubbock Junior High school: clowns of Lubbock troops.

April 30, 2 p. m., "Noah's Ark," cubbing event; 2:40 p. m., Indian scenes; 3:30 p. m., disaster first aid event, all by Lubbock scouts.

A complete rehearsal by Lubbock scouts will be staged the night of May 3 at Texas Tech athletic field.

Little Jack Little's Orchestra To Play Here On May 10

Little Jack Little's orchestra will present a program May 10 in Lubbock and will be the first popular dance band to fill an engagement here under auspices of the Texas Technological college artist course.

R. A. Mills, artist course chairman, said arrangements were made Thursday by the artist course committee for the band to come here.

Famous Radio Singer

Little was one of the first famous radio baritone singers. He spent earlier days of his music career in Dallas and later acquired his own orchestra. He also plays the piano. He has filled many engagements in large cities.

The artist course committee has not been notified of program to be presented here. Little will present solo selections, in addition to music by the band.

General admission for persons who do not have artist course tickets will be $1.

The program will be the last on the artist course schedule for this year.

Operetta And Style Show Are Held At Roosevelt School

Two hundred fifty persons attended The Quest of the Pink Parasol, an operetta, and saw a style show Thursday night at Roosevelt Rural High school.

Mrs. U. A. Randolph, head of the department of home economics, directed.

The contestants to the Texas Club rally at San Antonio May 5, 6 and 7, also were announced after the style show in which home economics students displayed dresses they had made themselves. Selected to make the trip were: Misses Maurine Shipman, Nora Etta McArthur, Irene Holt, and Katherine Harmon. Miss Shipman is a first year economics representative; Miss McArthur, second year; Miss Holt, club representative; and Miss Harmon, area club delegate. Mrs. Randolph will accompany the girls to San Antonio.

All Testimony In Green Case Heard

MIAMI, Fla., April 22. (AP)—Special Master John S. Flannery of the United States Supreme court has announced all testimony and rebuttal witnesses had been heard in the fight by four states to collect a $5,000,000 inheritance tax from the estate of the late Col. E. H. R. Green.

He said he hoped to make his report to the Supreme court early in October.

Fight May Be Major Issue

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 22. — The attack by Governor Philip LaFollette of Wisconsin on President Roosevelt's economic program as "tinkering and patching" tended to widen the breach between the White House and Wisconsin Progressives who formerly were the president's allies in congress; but it left political observers puzzled as to its true meaning.

It was regarded as adding significance to the balance-of-power role played against the White House by a handful of Wisconsin Progressives in the house fight over the government reorganization bill. Their surprise vote for recommitment furnished the margin needed to administer a rebuff to Roosevelt leadership.

MUST BE PRODUCTIVE

MADISON, Wis., April 22 (AP)—Governor Philip F. LaFollette, who has split with President Roosevelt over methods to bring the nation out of the recession, told a radio audience last night able-bodied men and women must be put to work at productive enterprises to ensure the return of better times.

"To continue to pay great numbers of able-bodied men and women to do nothing productive over longer and longer periods of time violates every principle upon which the progress of the human race has been founded," said the Progressive leader, who called the Roosevelt administration's relief measures "tinkering and patching."

Might Foreshadow Ticket

Whether that action and Governor LaFollette's sharply worded criticism, promptly backed up by his senator brother, is merely a new Progressive effort to reshape the New Deal relief and public works program, or has a deeper political significance, remains to be disclosed. Some observers believe it might foreshadow an independent Progressive presidential ticket in 1940.

Senator LaFollette and the Wisconsin Progressives in the house, backed by a "liberal Democrat" bloc, sought in 1937 to double the billion-and-a-half dollar relief appropriation for this fiscal year. They then contended, as Governor LaFollette now recalls, that the Roosevelt administration was premature in assuming that the "war on the depression had been won and we were out of the woods" and that the time was ripe for paring down spending.

To Have More Effect

At that time there was talk of even a five-billion dollar, long range relief and public works program. It got nowhere against the mood of congress to start cutting down.

Observers are substantially agreed that the indicated new move by the LaFollettes and their Progressive following in the house will have little more effect now than did their 1937 drive. For that reason Governor LaFollette's attack was regarded in political circles as possibly intended to develop a major issue on which a Progressive campaign could be built for 1940.

The break indicated between the LaFollette camp and President Roosevelt may in the judgment of some observers, be an entering wedge for a counter liberal-Progressive-Democratic coalition which could confuse the 1940 presidential race. It might be the start of a drive to run one of the LaFollettes for the presidency.

Oklahoma Solon Proposes To Prohibit U. S. Drunkenness

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP) — Representative Smith (D-Okla) has proposed a constitutional amendment to prohibit drunkenness.

He said he acted at the request of a group of Baptist ministers. Prohibition of sale of liquor had failed, he said, and would fail again if tried.

Judge William H. Atwell To Address Atwell High Class

DALLAS, April 22 (AP) — Federal Judge W. H. Atwell will deliver the commencement address to the last graduating class of a high school named for him.

He will address the class of the Atwell high School, near Cisco, May 20. The school will be combined next fall with a larger one nearby.

Try Spry! when you bake or fry

IT'S EASIER to bake with Spry—far easier! This purer ALL-vegetable shortening stays fresh right on the pantry shelf and is always the right consistency for quick, easy creaming. Spry won't smoke at frying temperature, either. Won't absorb food flavors or odors.

Use Spry for all baking and frying. Cakes and biscuits are lighter, more delicate—pastry flakier. Fried foods so crisp and tasty—and as digestible as if baked or boiled! Try Spry. Read our offer.

6-lb., 3-lb., and 1-lb. cans.

DARING OFFER

Buy a can of Spry from your grocer. Give Spry every test in pies, cakes, biscuits, fried foods. If you don't find Spry the best shortening you ever used, write to Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge, Mass., stating briefly your reasons for not preferring Spry. Send your name and address and the strip of tin that the key takes off when you open the can. You will promptly receive back twice what you paid for Spry. Offer limited to one can to a family. Expires May 6.

Delegates For Area Elected

(Special To The Journal)

TAHOKA, April 22. — Delegates to the annual conference in Memphis, Tenn., were chosen at a one day conference of Methodists of Lubbock district at First Methodist church here Thursday.

Dr. O. P. Clark, presiding elder, handled the meeting, starting at 9 o'clock, and closing shortly after 5 o'clock. Lunch was served by women of the church at noon to nearly 500 persons. The auditorium and balcony, seating about 450 persons, was filled during most of the day.

Delegates Are Selected

It took four ballots, however, to select 13 delegates. On the first ballot, taken in the morning, more than 200 persons were voted on for the places. Second ballot resulted in eleven being named, with no choice on the third, and two more and six alternates on the fourth.

Delegates named were: Joseph R. Griggs, Allan Hill, A. N. Gamble, Mrs. J. D. Peters and Dr. A. W. Evans, Lubbock; Tony Dyess, Anton; S. L. Forrest and Joe Peterson, Lamesa; Mrs. R. L. Bowman, Lorenzo; J. E. Parks, Post; Mrs. Jesse Young, Whiteface; Mrs. R. T. Breedlove, Brownfield and R. N. Wheeler, Robertson; alternates, R. A. Sims, Brownfield; Mrs. Z. B. Pirtle, Levelland; C. W. Collins, Brownfield circuit; C. H. Cain, Tahoka; L. E. Baker, Shallowater and C. A. Thomas, Tahoka.

Matthews Is Secretary

Rev. Cecil R. Matthews, assistant at Lubbock First church was named conference secretary and Mrs. Matthews his assistant. It was voted to handle business of the conference by committees and the presiding elder named a group. Only one pastor, Rev. R. T. Breedlove, Brownfield, was absent, due to an operation on a young daughter.

Reports of the 33 charges were given by pastors, showing a substantial growth in membership, interest and church activity, payment of pastors' salaries, church benevolences and interest in Aldersgate revivals.

Crosbyton, through Rev. A. W. Gordon, pastor, invited the conference to meet there next year and it was accepted unanimously.

Twenty-six preachers had their licenses renewed by the conference. A licensing committee composed of Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, Rev. W. E. Peterson, Rev. C. R. Matthews and Rev. A. O. Graydon was named.

Reports showed 333 persons received on profession of faith into membership of the churches and 478 by certificate, a total of 811. Last year for the conference year 389 were received by profession and 830 by certificate. Only ten Aldersgate revivals have been held and 56 more are to be held, pastors reported to the presiding elder.

Salaries Mostly Paid

Pastors' salaries were practically all paid in full up to date; benevolence collections including presiding elder's quotas, 47 per cent paid for the year.

Rev. Wayne W. Cook, Lorenzo pastor, preached the opening sermon, after Rev. Gordon led in prayer.

Rev. Tom W. Brabham, Abilene, president of McMurry college, the Northwest Texas conference school, briefly outlined the endowment campaign which opens in June. The school is asking $300,000; five Abilene men have pledged $100,000 and the district $50,000, if the rest of the conference raises the balance. They need $25,000 more to meet the quota.

Present endowment is $62,000. It takes about $65,000 to $70,000 in addition to student fees, to meet a year's expenses. Lubbock district is being asked to secure pledges from 425 persons.

Seleeman Is Heard

Dr. Charles C. Seleeman, Dallas, president of Southern Methodist university, preached the conference sermon on "The Importance of the Church." He cited "criticism of the church" as a "popular indoor and outdoor sport," adding that "most criticisms" are contradictory of each other.

A feature of the afternoon session was reports by pastors and laymen on work of the church. Rev. T. C. Willits, Lamesa, said the debt of that church had been reduced $9,992.20 this year and interest cut from 6 to 4.5 per cent. Rev. A. W. Gordon, Crosbyton, said the debt there was cut from $15,000 to $9,000 and the remainder refunded at 4 per cent.

Laymen's work committee recommended Griggs be renamed as lay leader; R. A. Sims, Brownfield and Dr. A. W. Evans, Lubbock, assistants. A pastor's equalization program was recommended and also the use of a layman's Sunday program. T. L. Greenfield, Post, read the report, which was adopted and Griggs was chairman of the committee.

Reverend Gordon read a report of the committee on missions, of which Dr. Lipscomb was chairman, showing $4,978 paid so far to benevolences.

Rev. M. R. Pike, O'Donnell, read the report on the spiritual state of the church, with the committee being headed by Rev. Willits.

Mrs. W. E. Parker read the report of the Christian education committee headed by Rev. W. E. Hamilton. All reports were adopted.

The conference voted unanimously to recommend to the Northwest Texas conference the giving of deacon's orders to Allen Salser, a local preacher of Lamesa.

Dr. Evans reported on the endowment fund campaign of McMurry college; Rev. Hamilton on the young people's assembly; Rev. J. Edmund Kirby, Ralls, on the adult retreat and Rev. Pike on the intermediate assembly.

About 2700 calories are furnished by a pound of first-grade peanuts; more than three times as many as furnished by a pound of beefsteak.

Nominations For Tech Student Leaders Set For Wednesday

Students of Texas Technological college will be dismissed from 10 to 11 o'clock Wednesday morning to attend a convocation in the gymnasium, according to announcement from the president's office. Student officials for next year will be nominated and a revised student constitution submitted to vote.

Committees working with Maxine Fry, student president, revised the document to clarify certain clauses and rule out possibility of misinterpretation, and added certain provisions. Under the proposed constitution, office of secretary-treasurer would be divided into offices of treasurer and business manager. A co-ed cheer leader would be elected, besides the head male leader.

Student officials will be elected a week after the convocation.

Tendency On Part Of FDR To Use Marine Corps As Jobless Relief Is Noted

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—The house heard the commission of James Roosevelt, jr., son of the president, as a colonel in the Marine corps described Thursday as an unemployment relief measure.

During a Republican attack on the president's new spending program, Representative Knutson (R-Minn) said:

"I've noticed a tendency on the part of the administration to use the Marine corps to relieve unemployment."

"That's true," replied Representative Taber (R-NY), "but just in a family way."

Kerosene Lamp Is Being Nudged Out Of Picture In Area

Add the kerosene lamp to the list of what is being nudged out of the picture by the march of progress on the South Plains.

Not only will a better lighting system replace the eye-straining lamps but electrical pumps will offer a more bountiful and sanitary water supply and modern domestic equipment will relieve the farmer and his wife of many laborious tasks. Adequate plumbing and wiring will not only save time but also further economy. Statistics show that farm women carry an average of 50 tons of water each year.

Conveniences Planned

Although only about five per cent of the farms in Lubbock county are electrically equipped, there will be approximately a 20 per cent increase soon after completion of the REA project of rural electrification. This will cost about $100,000, and approximately 430 farms in an area of 130 square miles will be wired.

A minority of farmers use acetylene gas for lighting and cooking; several are having butane gas systems installed.

Listed in the conveniences planned in the project are electric refrigerators, ranges, vacuum cleaners, water heaters, washers, irons and radios. Electric brooders, grain elevators, milkers, milk separators and coolers, feed grinders, sterilizers and food cutters are other time-savers. Floodlights will be located in farm yards both for convenience and protection.

FORMER STUDENT DIES

SHAW, Miss., April 22. (AP)—Earl D. Christian, 23-year-old former honor student at Southwestern college, Memphis, and the University of Texas, died at his home here Thursday.

Frank A. Runkles, Levelland, Gives Largest Collection

Frank A. Runkles of Levelland has donated the largest single collection ever presented to the West Texas museum on the campus of Texas Technological college.

The collection consists of six ancient muzzle loading guns, many pounds of Indian artifacts from North, Central and South America, old jewelry and other historical pieces.

Thirty per cent of all state senators holding offices in 1937-38 had never served in a legislature and about 50 per cent of all assemblymen had had no previous lawmaking experience.

Spring! Nature is awake . . . are you?

That logy feeling you call "spring fever" may be just constipation. If it is, try the remedy that comes from Nature's own laboratory—purely vegetable Black-Draught.

Black-Draught sets the lazy colon to work again and brings prompt, thorough relief. More, it tends to leave the colon working regularly.

Bumper Crop Of New Pitchers Indicated

Three Rookies Have Turned In Victories

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

At first blush, it looks like the big leagues have come up with a bumper crop of fine new pitchers. Four already have made their 1938 debut in the big-time, and their showing has been extraordinary, two of them pitching shutouts and a third permitting only three hits.

The latest to hit the main show with a bang is Forrest Pressnell, 31-year-old addition to the Brooklyn hill staff, who blanked the Phils yesterday, 9 to 0. He gave nine hits, but was invulnerable when it counted. He had had a previous trial with the Browns.

Wildness Is Forgotten

Atley Donald, star of the Newark staff last season, started his career as a New York Yankee by limiting the Boston Red Sox to three hits until his wildness caused his removal in the seventh. The eight free passes he distributed enabled the Sox to make it three out of four from the champions by a score of 3-2, but such absence of control was to be forgiven under the circumstances and detracted little from the youngster's great showing.

The pitching job that Jim Bagby, jr., of the Red Sox did in his inaugural against the Yankees on the opening day already has been thoroughly described, along with Dutch Leonard's feat of whitewashing the Athletics for the Washington Senators in his coming-out, two days ago. Bagby and Leonard complete a quarter of very hot-looking freshmen. The latter was with Atlanta last season.

Donald, the only one of the four to start with a loss, could charge it to the Yankees' continued failure to hit in the clutches. The Yanks touched Johnny Marcum for 13 hits all told, but were pitiful with runners on base. Joe DiMaggio, due to arrive in New York early tomorrow, won't be a minute too soon.

Tech Gridders To 'Show Off'

Members of the Downtown Coaching association who wish to make changes in the policies and strategies of Texas Tech's football department before the club continues its 1938 "season" with a game next Saturday night are invited to do so tonight from the sidelines when the Techs go through an introductory scrimmage.

Once in every spring training and usually once in the fall, before the schedule opens, the Tech athletic department holds open house, invites one and all of the fans to be its guests at a regulation workout and intra-squad scrimmage. Tonight is the night, 8 o'clock is the time.

Members of the Matador club, local Tech booster association, will occupy special "benches" on the sidelines.

Baylor, SMU And TCU Are To Meet In Triangular Event

DALLAS, April 22 (AP)—Baylor, Texas Christian and Southern Methodist university will meet here tomorrow in a Southwest conference triangular track meet.

The meet had been planned for Waco. Jimmy Stewart, athletic director at Southern Methodist university, said Baylor authorities requested the change because their track was not in condition.

That Opening Day Prize

By Collier Parris

SHORT, SHORT STORIES: Texas Tech's athletic department is throwing a free party for downtown coaches and other fans tonight . . . It's the annual spring preview at the gridiron . . . Eight o'clock is the time . . . The boys in red will scrimmage for about an hour, so you can get acquainted with them . . .

PUT DOWN SUNDAY, April 24, and Friday, April 29, as Days To Visit The Ball Park . . . Sunday's game, last of the exhibition contests, promises to be a real dilly, with one of the strongest semi-pro clubs of the state, the Borger Hubbers, playing the Lubbock Hubbers . . .

As for next Friday, Something Really Big should be done about that . . . It's opening day, in Lubbock, for the West Texas-New Mexico league campaign . . . Lubbock should bag the opening day attendance prize, which is a large, handsome trophy offered by Anderson Bros. of Big Spring, by a couple of laps . . . This being the largest city in the league, with the biggest hunger for professional ball, it would be nothing less than shameful to have less than the biggest attendance in the league all season, let alone opening day . . . How's about the town closing up for a couple of hours Friday?

Opening day tickets go on sale today . . . They're being peddled by members of the American Business club, so when they come around, grab off that bargain . . . The ticket is really three tickets . . . You pay a buck for the big pasteboard, and it lets you see the opening day and two other games here . . . That means a price of 33 1-3 cents per game, or a total saving of 20 cents for three games . . . Regulation single game tickets will be 40 cents throughout the season. . . The three-in-one ticket will not be good for Sunday games, but for any others . . . Look out for the A. B. C. boys . . .

The hat is off to Col. Jake Ruppert and his Yankee advisors for "holding out" on Holdout Joe DiMaggio . . . Had they bargained and compromised with the stubborn lad, baseball would have suffered another blow to its reputation of being the most "honest" sport extant . . . The policy of honesty should be carried all the way, even to contact bargaining . . . Once a club owner makes public his intention not to raise the ante for a holdout, he should stick to his promise . . . Col. Jake did it, for about the first time . . . His action should discourage holdouts in the future, especially if he punishes DiMaggio by holding up his pay for a spell . . . And we've an idea the readers are growing a trifle bored with holdout news from January to May . . .

A BIG HOORAY and huzzah for Lubbock Country club and its expansion program . . . The boys'll have "em a place that's really something when they carry out the recently laid plans to improve and enlarge the clubhouse, build a pro shop, new locker and lounging quarters and continue the fine work already started on the golf course and clubhouse grounds . . . There'll be no embarrassment now when the golfers come to complete in the West Texas tournament early in June . . . Nice work, fellows . . .

Texas Tech and University of Detroit will resume operations in 1939 . . . Cawthon of Tech and Dorais of Detroit, board of strategy mates at the Purdue football clinic recently, talked it over and got it settled . . . The Detroits will play here . . . The clubs were unable to get together this year because Tech needed a home game and the Detroits also had their traveling engagements taken up . . .

"Dorais was mighty nice to me at Purdue," Cawthon comments . . . "didn't rub it in about beating us so badly last fall . . . said we played a good game, as statistics went, but were unlucky when it came to scoring . . . That we probably could have beat him the next week, or even the next day . . . but that was our unlucky day."

Except for the extreme cold weather, which allowed but one day of field work, Cawthon enjoyed his Purdue jaunt very much . . . Formed good contacts "that should prove valuable to us in the near future." . . . Frank Thomas, Alabama mentor, was another instructor on the staff . . . Thomas had more praise for Tech's football team, as it played against Loyola at New Orleans last fall . . . Big Frank saw the game, and remembers . . . Tech has not definitely scheduled games with either Purdue or Alabama, but . . .

The retort by Johnny Evers, who, we seem to recall, once played some very nice double play ball with a man named Tinker and another named Chance, had a snappy retort for a recent magazine article by Waite Hoyt . . . In his article, the pitcher turned literary was criticizing the National League for its "old style" baseball, and trying to explain why the American League was so far ahead . . . Evers' reply, as reported by AP Sports Ed Alan Gould: "An undertaker from Brooklyn tells us why and how the American League is so superior . . . Well he wouldn't be popping off so much if he had played in my day . . . It's a shock to me, at this late date, to find I never was in a big league . . . not even drafted." . . . Less sarcastic but nonetheless emphatic, Evers' former keystone mate on the famous 1914 Bostons, Rabbit Maranville, observed: "There's no question the Yankees have an edge over any team in baseball now, but there's nothing much to choose otherwise, between the two leagues . . . Anyway, after what the Cubs paid for Dizzy Dean, nobody can say the Americans are spending all the money . . ."

The Yankees, in today's standings, are in seven place . . .

Byram, Kilgore Hurler, Gets Revenge In Win Over Oilers

(By The Associated Press)

Rebel Byram, Kilgore pitcher, gained vengeance and an 8-7 victory over the Henderson Oilers in the East Texas league last night.

Defeated by the Oilers Wednesday, Byram went in as relief pitcher and stemmed the Kilgore attack as his mates came from behind with a barrage of hitting worth three runs in the last two inninsg.

At Palestine the Pals squared their series with the Jacksonville Jax, 6-3, by timely hitting in the pinches.

The Tyler-Longview game and the Texarkana-Marshall game were postponed on account of rain.

Longhorns And Bears To Open Two-Game Series At Waco

(By The Associated Press)

The University of Texas Longhorns and the Baylor university Bears opened a two-game baseball series at Waco today with Tommy Fine as Baylor's hurler. Duecy is expected to pitch tomorrow.

The Longhorns, consistent Southwest conference champions, had three hurlers available, John Garnett, southpaw, Ned McDonald and John Langerhans.

The Rice-TCU game at Fort Worth yesterday was postponed because of rain.

Regional Meets To Be Held Saturday

(By The Associated Press)

Eight regional track and field meets tomorrow will determine the selection of approximately 400 athletes who will go to Austin the first week in May to contest for state laurels.

Meets will be held at Canyon, Abilene, Denton, Longview, Huntsville, San Marcos, Kingsville and Alpine.

Winners of the first four places in each event will become eligible for the state meet.

Woodrow Wilson of Dallas, defending state champion, ruled favorite in the region 3 meet at Denton but faced an uphill struggle to repeat with the team title at Austin.

District team winners at the regional meets are: region 1—Claude, Pampa, Lubbock, Childress; region 2 — Loraine, Baird, San Angelo, Brady; region 3 — Harrold, Fort Worth Poly, Woodrow Wilson, McGregor; region 4 — Campbell, Texarkana, Grand Saline, Lufkin; region 5 — Bryan, Conroe, John Reagan (Houston), Port Arthur; region 6—Carrizo Springs, Jefferson (San Antonio), Austin, Schulenburg; region 7—Victoria, Corpus Christi, Freer, Harlingen; region 8 — Austin (El Paso), Fort Stockton, Wink, Marfa.

WOMEN ARE BOWLING

CINCINNATI, April 22 (AP)—Regulars from St. Louis, Detroit, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, San Antonio and Cincinnati swing into action tonight in the 21st annual women's international bowling congress. The congress officially opened last night with local booster teams filling the 12 alleys.

Dallas Steers Close Behind Exporters

(By The Associated Press)

The Dallas Steers held second place today in the Texas baseball league, only a game and a half behind the league-leading Beaumont Exporters.

Sal Gliatto, going the route for the Steers, held the Oklahoma City Redskins to seven hits in a 15-3 victory last night. Jim Moore, Indian hurler, was blasted out of the box in the third. Lester Lowery, southpaw, went the rest of the way and displayed good form until the seventh when the Steers went on their third stampede of the evening and brought in six scores after two men were out.

Keeps Hits Scattered

At Beaumont, Berardino, San Antonio Mission second baseman, homered in the ninth, but the Missions came out on the short end of a 3-1 score. Joe Rogalski kept eight Mission hits well scattered.

Irv Stein gave the Tulsa Oilers a 5-2 victory over the Cats at Fort Worth, allowing eight hits while Jackie Reid, Cat hurler, gave up nine in seven innings.

The hapless Shreveport Sports, playing at Houston, dropped their ninth straight game, 2-1.

All The Thrills Of Fishing Are Wrapped Into One In International Tarpon Rodeo Near Brownsville; Starts On April 28

BY DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

PORT ISABEL, April 22.—Selection of dates for the third annual International Tarpon rodeo at the mouth of the Rio Grande near here again will focus the attention of Anglers everywhere on one of the few places in the world where you can stand on dry land and catch silver kings.

Usually it is necessary to hire yourself an expensive boat, pay an expensive guide, and otherwise alarmingly lighten your purse if you are inclined to fish for tarpon. But not so at Boca Chica, where all you have to do is make a quick run along a concrete road south from Brownsville, turn right on the beach, and drive three miles to the mouth of the river that forms the boundary between the United States and Mexico.

Cast Is Slight

All it costs you is the gas and whatever your investment has been in tackle. The river beach, and miles of Gulf beach, are free and the fishing is as good as it is anywhere. Tarpon run up into the river and are taken by the score from this prolific stretch of water.

This International Tarpon rodeo, won in 1937 by Fred Maly, a San Antonio sports writer who is slightly nuts on the subject of fishing, produced a real fishing freak last year. It might have become an international incident, but all entanglements were unsnarled when a line broke. Norman Richardson was fishing on the Mexican side of the river and Ray Fondren on the American side. They simultaneously hooked a large tarpon and were in the midst of a three-cornered battle when Richardson's line parted. Fondren whipped the tarpon down.

Tarpon fishing at the mouth of the Rio Grande usually starts in March, but it has been slow thus far this year. Local angles are hoping a rise in the river will help. They say the water has been too low and clear for tarpon. Julio Galvan of Matamoros, Mexico, has been selected as captain of the Mexican team, and R. W. Sutherland will head the American team in the rodeo which starts April 28. Maly will head a team from San Antonio, and another team entry has been received from Houston. There are scores of other individual entries.

Fishermen take positions along the river bank, angling in squads of 30 on each side of the boundary stream. It is easy to cast more than half way across the river, and when tarpon begin to hit, there is plenty of excitement.

Hubbers Scheduled To Meet Littlefield Team Here Today

Thwarted yesterday by cold weather, the Lubbock Hubbers and the Wink club, both of the West Texas-New Mexico league, had to forego their intended exhibition game at the local park.

Starting at 3:30 this afternoon, the Hubbers are booked to clash with the tough Littlefield semi-pro team. With fair weather, a large crowd was in prospect.

Skipper Joe Tate's Wink club, defending champions in the forthcoming West Texas-New Mexico league race, came over yesterday to fill a scheduled engagement, but the wind blew cold gusts over the diamond and both teams agreed to call it off after a very unsatisfactory batting practice.

Return On May 8

Fans, therefore, must wait until May 8 to see the league champions in action. They pay a visit here then to play a three-game series. Intra-league competition, so far as the Hubbers are concerned, must wait until the season openers next week. The Hubbers have games scheduled every day, with the exception of Tuesday, before the season begins Wednesday.

Littlefield's club, skippered by Puss Ballard, has been working out only a short time, but it is due to be tough competition for the Hubbers today. It was rumored over town last night that Ballard would reinforce his club with several players from Amherst and from the Hubbers semi-pro team of last year. Ballard could not be reached to verify this, but fans may count on fair competition from the Littlefield uniformed boys.

Game time is 3:30 o'clock—if it doesn't rain, turn too cold or too windy.

Kaliski To Pitch

Since yesterday's game was spoiled, Managers Harry Faulkner and Hack Miller probably will carry over Casamir Kaliski's pitching date to this afternoon. The big righthander has not appeared in public so far, although in an intra-squad scrimmage early this week held the Rookies to no runs. J. C. Vincent, who pitched part of the winning game at Sweetwater Wednesday, may break into the lineup.

Faulkner said Lefty Blanchard probably would start against the powerful Hubers of Borger here Sunday in a game expected to break all attendance records so far. The experienced Borger bunch rates favoritism, and it'll be the strongest test of Hubber strength yet made.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Carl Hubbell, Giants — Opened 1938 campaign with eight hit 3-2 victory over Bees and struck out seven.

Forest Pressnell, Dodgers — Made major league debut with nine-hit shutout against Phillies, 9-0.

Al Todd, Pirates — His two hits, one a double, helped Pirates shade Cardinals 6-5.

Paul Derringer, Reds — Limited Cubs to four hits as Cincinnati won first game of season, 6-2.

Johnny Marcum and Joe Vosmik, Red Sox—Marcum allowed 13 hits but was tight in pinches and Vosmik's triple drove in winning run as Sox downed Yanks, 3-2.

Hank Greenberg, Tigers — Hit 500-foot homer which helped Tigers down White Sox 9-3 for first win of campaign.

Lyn Lary, Indians—Doubled with bases loaded in eighth to give Tribe 4-3 win over Browns.

Special Mile Event With U. S. Track's Big Three Running Feature Of Kansas Relays

(By The Associated Press)

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 22 — Kansas Relay officials set out to make the 1938 event tomorrow the best in its 16-year history, and they have won by a mile.

It is a very special mile, matching Glenn Cunningham, Archie San Romani, Gene Venzke and Don Lash in their first outdoor race of the season. Fans hopefully scanned weather reports and track conditions to calculate chances of a new world record.

63 Schools Represented

Meanwhile the trail blazers of an army of young athletes representing 21 universities, 30 colleges and 12 junior colleges began to seep into Lawrence to look over the oval where they will seek to better records that already, in most instances, approach the ultimate.

Possibility of new relay marks is dim. A fast field last year was able to break only one record. Indiana, which won four relay events, set up a new time of 4:23.2 in the mile team race.

Special Events Featured

However, special event records appeared in peril with several entrants capable of making the grade if conditions are right.

For instance, Fred Wolcott of Rice scissored over the high hurdles in 13.9 seconds at the Texas Relays recently. His teammate, Patterson, has been timed in 14.4 and Gatewood of Texas and Lamb of Iowa have made 14.5, which is the meet record.

Gilbert Cruter of Colorado has cleared 6 feet 7 1-4 inches in the high jump, and Cox of Texas is credited with a 6-foot 6-inch leap. The meet record is 6 feet 6 3-8 inches.

Jacobs Expecting $250,000 Gate On Ross-Armstrong

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Mike Jacobs, czar of boxing, expects the Barney Ross-Henry Armstrong match on May 26 to "do" $250,000 business, one of the biggest purses two little fellows have ever drawn.

The tubs already are beginning to thump for the battle. According to word from Jacobs' office, $30,000 in reservations have been received. Under the scale of prices which Jacobs has fixed, $16.50 for a ringside seat to $2.20 for a spot in the great out-of-doors, the match could draw $400,000 through the gates of Madison Square Garden's bowl.

The outdoor record is held by the Benny Leonard - Lew Tendler bout, which bettered $400,000. Mike is casting no sheeps-eyes at this figure.

Ross has his last tune up for the bout in Des Moines against Bobby Venner Monday night. He arrives in New York Thursday and will train at Perndale, N. Y., in the Catskills.

Armstrong is more in need of tuning down than anything else. He was a tired fighter when he knocked out Lew Feldman in his last New York appearance and at present is taking things easy at Hot Springs, Ark., where he hopes to put on some weight. He said he would give away eight pounds to Ross, but both he and his brother Harry, who trains him, will be satisfied with ten.

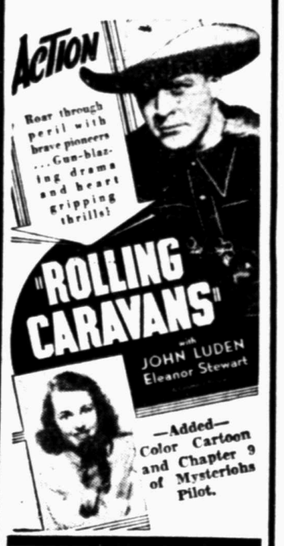

All the main railways in Rumania are owned and operated by the state.

Idle Dollars Put To Work

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 22 — Commercial banks put many more millions of dollars to work in Wall Street today through large-scale bond purchases in a rush to use surplus funds created in the recovery drive Washington launched last week.

Bank buying of United States government and other bonds, dealers said, was expedited during the day by anticipation of treasury action to feed quickly into the credit structure some of the $1,400,000,000 in gold "de-sterilized" as part of the credit-expansion aspects of the recovery program.

Banks On The Alert

Banks, it was said, were on the alert for the move—announced by the treasury last night — to repay at the rate of $50,000,000 a week maturing short-term loans with proceeds of a shift of the impounded gold from the treasury's "inactive" fund to Federal Reserve banks in form of gold certificates.

The paying out of the gold to the money market, by redemption of maturing loans, was expected to supplement further a huge reservoir of idle bank funds.

Surplus Funds Increased

The weekly condition statement of the reserve system showed surplus funds the base for expansion in loans and investments — had increased $760,000,000 to nearly $2,500,000,000, chiefly as result of a $680,000,000 reduction in reserve requirements under the recovery proposals President Roosevelt outlined to congress last week.

When the released gold all is fed out, the surplus is expected to attain a record peak of nearly $4,000,000,000.

Co-Op Session Is Held At Tahoka

(Special To The Journal)

TAHOKA, April 22 — Reports of a successful season were heard at the annual meeting of Farmers Cooperative association No. 1 of Tahoka here Thursday. Barbecue was served at noon.

B. J. Emanuel, president, presided over the two business sessions, attended by more than 500 persons.

Speakers Are Heard

In the morning a speaking program was held. F. G. Campbell, manager of the cooperative oil mill at Lubbock; C. E. Bowles, College Station, extension service specialist, and F. T. Kelley, Lubbock, cotton salesman, spoke. They discussed the handling of cotton, gin methods and other subjects.

Campbell told of the work of the Lubbock mill in its first year of operation. It is sponsored by cooperative gins of the area, some 26 of them disposing of seed through the mill.

Checks Are Distributed

Manager Claude Donaldson announced distribution of dividend checks to members. Each member received approximately $1.50 per bale for each bale of cotton he ginned, a total of over $12,000 being distributed in cash. In addition a stock dividend of approximately $10,000 was paid.

Directors ordered the payment of dividends. The gin handled 8,107 bales last season.

At the afternoon session several items of business were to be transacted, including selection of two directors.

Tahoka Rotarians were guests of the association at noon for the barbecue. It was estimated about 700 were served.

Sen. Nelson Is Amused At Challenge

Professing amusement over the incident, state Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock declined late Thursday to accept the challenge of John Lee Smith, a rival candidate for lieutenant governor, to joint debate over Nelson's advocacy of a one-house legislature.

Senator Nelson is resting at his home here after suffering an attack of food poisoning earlier in the week. He will remain here until Monday, when he will resume his campaign.

"I note in the press," he said, "that Smith claims I am 'afraid of my horse' in connection with the one-house legislature plank in my platform. Not only have I discussed the plan in many parts of Texas to date, but I shall continue to discuss it throughout the campaign. It's my baby — and I'm going to rock it."

Referring to the debate "challenge", Senator Nelson said "if I were going to debate that or any other issue, I would choose my most formidable opponent. John Lee Smith is not yet a candidate for the office of lieutenant-governor. He has not filed with the Democratic state executive committee and I doubt if he ever does."

Nelson said he is amused at the fight which has been centered on his one-house legislature plan "since I have started my fight against return of legalized gambling, open saloons, in behalf of the independent merchant and for control of lobbying." He charged the debate "challenge" was an effort to cloud the other issues in the campaign and that "I do not intend to sacrifice the other issues to engage in debate with an obscure or only probable opponent on any one of them."

Design For New Jefferson Nickel Has Been Picked

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP) — Mint judges have selected a design by Felix Schlag of Chicago for the new Jefferson nickel.

Schlag's design, showing the head of Thomas Jefferson on one side and the Democratic party founder's Monticello home on the other was selected from 390 entries by a committee headed by Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the mint.

Native 46-Year-Oid German Is Winner Of $1,000 Prize

CHICAGO, April 22. (AP)—A 46-year-old native German sculptor, Felix Schlag of Chicago, won a $1,000 prize for submitting the best design for the nation's new coin, the Jefferson nickel.

An American citizen now, Schlag chuckled with delight over winning from 390 competitors in a contest arranged by Director Nellie Taylor Ross of the United States mint.

"The prize, it's most acceptable," he said in a rich German accent. He came to America in 1929 because "there are more opportunities here."

DON'T let anyone tell you that the thriving, inviting little New Mexico city of Carlsbad has outgrown the oldfashioned Western Hospitality.

No, sir!

The folks over there are so hospitable that husbands are being loaned to members of the Southeastern New Mexico Teachers association for a dance honoring that organization in the Caverns City Saturday night.

* * *

It seems that hospitable Carlsbad arranged for an orchestra and a hall for a big dance to close the teachers' convention there and then realized, after invitations had been accepted, that there would be more "she" school teachers than there would be "he" pedagogues.

After a bit of head-scratching, the good wives of Carlsbad were approached to help out.

According to the Carlsbad Current-Argus, husbands have been rounded up, scrubbed behind the ears and otherwise prepared for the big party and that wives are gladly "farming 'em out" for the evening.

That's hospitality of the first water!

Only one thing puzzles The Plainsman in connection with the affair:

Either the wives of Carlsbad are belittling the charms of the visiting school marms, or they're too darn sure of their own prestige!

In either case, they're courting danger!

HERE are today's "brain twisters"—another set of true and false questions. Which of the following statements are true—and which aren't?

1. "The Manassa Mauler" was the name given to the first mechanical rock-crusher.

2. An Ionic capital is a seat of government in a time of national distress.

3. Hans Christian Andersen was a Danish writer.

4. "The Tenderloin" refers to a city's area either devoted to amusements or notorious for its vice.

5. William Frederick Cody was an Indian fighter and scout.

6. Only one college in the history of the U. S. has had an enrollment of more than 1,000 students for its opening term.

* * *

We see by the papers that President Roosevelt will confer with Henry Ford concerning the state of U. S. business. Maybe a little Model-T horse sense will improve the administration's streamline policies.

BUSINESS men in Littlefield are casting about for better mail connections to the East.

As a matter of fact, a move is on to get the Postoffice department to rearrange a Star route which, it is claimed, will give Littlefield business interests an 18-hour quicker delivery in Chicago and New York, as compared to the present setup.

If the facts are as The Plainsman is advised, it should be an easy matter for the Postoffice department to follow the Littlefield suggestion and certainly it should be followed if at all possible.

Here's the dope, from the Littlefield angle:

At present a morning Star route out of Lubbock goes to Muleshoe and stops there, at 11 a. m., the deliveryman staying in Muleshoe until 4 p. m., when he starts out again.

If the route were extended to Farwell, a distance of approximately 21 miles, mail out of Littlefield would make connections with Santa Fe mainline trains and a great time saving would result.

At present, Littlefield airmail to the North and East goes to Ft. Worth before it gets on a plane. Under the new setup it could reach planes at Amarillo, Albuquerque or El Paso much quicker.

This is a new and growing country and the government should make every effort to accelerate the expansion of our territory. Doubtless there are other chances—not only in mail service but along other lines—which should be made so that all this section can march forward with the least possible resistance.

MISS MARY L. COX, of Plainview, was in Lubbock the other day in the interests of her book, a history of Hale county.

Her presence here reminds us that someone in every South Plains county—some person capable and with the necessary energy and foresight—should write a similar history of his or her county.

In the last decade and a half, this whole country has gone through great changes and before long all living links with the early days will be gone.

The time to compile histories is now.

Do not think that the compilation of a history—even over a half-century and covering but one county—is a cinch.

Miss Cox spent 11 years spare-time research in the compilation of her facts and figures and it must be said to her credit that her book mirrors the fact.

Not only does it contain ordinary historical facts, but it also presents in charts and graphs crop production figures, rainfall data and many other valuable pieces of information not usually found in historical works.

* * *

FOR the most part, histories such as Miss Cox's represent the labor of love.

There isn't much money to be made in the work.

Yet for those who seek to leave a lasting mark upon the life of their home-land. The Plainsman can't think of any work which could be called more worthwhile.

It's too bad every county in this section can't have a similar volume.

Love Laughs at the Doctor

CAST OF CHARACTERS

CONSTANCE MAIDWELL—heroine; the stand-in.

DEREK MANTHON—an artist who loved money first.

HILDEGARDE THORVALD—Derek painted her portrait.

DR. ROGERS—he met his most difficult case.

Yesterday: The Rogers date brings a reprimand for Constance and the same day she reads that a romance is rumored between Derek and Hilda. Connie did not read any further.

CHAPTER XII

Constance did not read beyond that first sentence. It seemed to her hours before she was able to look up and say in a voice that sounded reasonably like her own, "I didn't know there was any one naive enough to buy this comic sheet. The last I heard they were drumming up publicity by paying people to sue them for libel."

But she knew they had seen her face in that first moment.

Elsa O'Dare went to New York that week for an important showing of spring models. And immediately things began to go wrong in the store.

It was when Elsa was away that every one realized how unpredictable and how spineless Papa Anton was. Intra-departmental differences which, under Elsa's regime, would have been ironed out swiftly and silently were paraded in public. Pauline was insolent to every one but Papa Anton, whom she shamelessly wheedled and flattered. . . . There had been rumors, Constance was given to understand, about Pauline and Papa Anton. . . . A huge ink spot appeared mysteriously on one of the costumes Constance had been showing, and Miss Letts openly blamed Constance for it. One of the customers for whom Pauline had often modeled appeared one day asking for Constance—and the fat was in the fire. Pauline was closeted for an hour with Papa Anton, and emerged looking—as Gertrude said—"like the cat that swallowed the caviar."

That was the day Lucille reported for work. As Constance was leaving that evening, she was told to report to Papa Anton the first thing next morning. That could mean any one of a number of things, but did mean, Constance was sure, just one.

When she slipped out of the store that night, a man stepped from a parked car, hastily threw away a cigaret, and stood in her path. Under the entrance light, his uncovered head shone with copper lights.

"Are you weeping on any one's shoulder tonight?" he asked.

"Go away," said Constance. "The last time I talked to you I got my hands slapped. We do not associate with the male relatives of our customers."

"There aren't any customers in my family any more," Dr. Mark Rogers said with a brief smile. "We spent all our money the other day—thanks to you."

He held the car door open.

"Please get in," he suggested. "I'd like to talk to you."

* * *

Well, well; Constance thought. Just like that! . . . But, after all, why not? I'm as good as fired anyhow. And he probably only wants to take my temperature or make sure I'm getting plenty of sleep.

As she hesitated, she was vastly amused to see him take out his watch and glance at it hastily.

"Don't let me keep you," she said with malice, "if someone is choking to death or something. But I thought you were on a vacation now."

"It's no vacation now." He was definitely not the philandering type of male. He looked worried and a little embarrassed. "I—but we'll talk about that later. I'm counting on a good meal to put you into a receptive frame of mind—at Daimler's, shall we say?" With a flicker of a smile he finished dryly, "I want to park you somewhere where you'll feel that you have the protection of sane human beings when you decide that I've gone crazy."

After a brief hesitation Constance laughed in spite of herself. He looked so desperately in earnest, and at the same time so uncomfortably aware that he must look ridiculous.

"All right," she said. "I shouldn't be human if I weren't curious."

When they were settled at a table, and Dr. Rogers had ordered—sidecars, blue points, planked steak with mushrooms and fresh asparagus, a salad, an ice, and coffee—he said, with a crooked little smile, "Thank God the orchestra's at the other end of the room. I couldn't do this to music without making it sound as melodramatic as it unquestionably is. . . . Did anyone ever tell you," he demanded abruptly, "that you look like Camilla Wynne?"

"Why, yes," Constance admitted after a bewildered pause. "But I never felt inordinately set up about it."

"Ever seen her—on the screen, I mean?"

"And heard her."

On a mischievous impulse Constance leaned an elbow languorously on the table, rested her chin on her palm, and looking up at him under fluttering lids, said in a throaty, breathless voice, "I understand, Doctor. You want me to tell him a bedtime story. . . . But is it really kind? Sometime, you know, he's bound to wake up—and that hurts. . . . I know. That's"—she smiled bravely, brushed away an unshed tear, and finished on a tremulous note—"that's one of the things you have taught me."

Words, gesture, and intonation were lifted bodily from one of Camilla Wynne's most popular impersonations—the role of the nurse in "A Doctor's Best Friend."

The man across the table gave such a whole-hearted shout of delight that Constance could not help warming toward him.

"I say," he demanded, "how long could you keep that up?"

"Until you screamed for help," Constance said. "Since my friends discovered the fatal resemblance, it's been my one and only parlor trick. . . . Why?"

"Because Camilla Wynne got herself knocked out in an automobile crash this morning. "That's what this is all about."

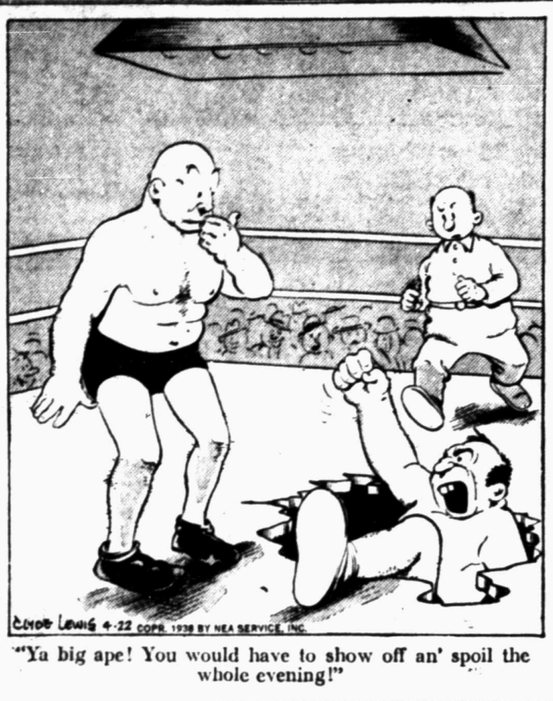

He had sobered so abruptly that Constance said after a moment of incredulous silence, "You're not by any chance suggesting that I double for the femme fatale, are you? I thought you were a physician, not a . . . ."

"If you want to check up on me, go to the telephone and call the Fort Wayne Hospital," he told her with deadly earnestness. "I don't belong in this part of the country, but they know me there. . . . On second thought, perhaps I'd better

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND HENRY FORD

Conservative business opinion of the nation doubtless will be that President Roosevelt might search much longer and do far worse in his quest of advice in this period of economic "recession" than his approaching conference with Henry Ford.

Many persons, thinking of Mr. Ford as the idealest, are likely to forget his repeated demonstrations that he also is one of the world's greatest business men. The immensity of his many enterprises and the revolutionary wage and labor practices he inaugurated are sufficient evidences of that fact. Furthermore, there would be few to question his sincerity of purpose.

Any business man in the United States—whether big or little—would jump at the chance to discuss with Henry Ford the various economic problems now facing the nation and their application to his own affairs.

Mr. Ford's ideas would be interesting, and quite probably, highly valuable to any American merchant or industrialist and anyone failing to take the opportunity of the motor magnate's observations would be a queer one, indeed.

The Journal is glad to see the President of the United States making arrangements to confer with Mr. Ford.

Whether he accepts the automobile man's advice, or not, is not the point. The important thing is that Mr. Roosevelt is availing himself of an opportunity which, if he did not embrace, would hold him up to logical criticism.

A Thought . . .

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 22.—It is an astonishing fact, but a fact nevertheless, that the men who make motion pictures cannot go into a projection room and look at a new picture and know whether it is any good, or what should be done to improve it.

This condition is more surprising in the flicker industry than on the stage, because on Broadway there are relatively few people involved in producing a play, and they work on it and see it in rehearsals until they lose all their critical perspective. But in Hollywood each studio has a lot of executives who have not been much concerned with the actual filming and who should be able to judge a film with fairly open minds.

Unregistered Clowning

Sometimes, of course, bad guesses are justified by unusual circumstances, and an example is "Fools for Scandal," the current Carole Lombard-Fernand Gravet picture.

Everybody had a lot of fun making this comedy, and when anyone visited the set he almost always found the company in hysterics over some remark by Miss Lombard or some prank engineered by Director Mervyn LeRoy.

It is my guess that all of them were so amused during production that they didn't realize until too late that the funniest incidents had not occurred in front of the camera, but behind it. The events recorded on celluloid seemed sour and dull—to me, at least, and apparently to the preview audience.

By that time, there were no remedial steps to be taken, because Mr. Gravet had returned to Paris. This was only his second American film, and his box-office popularity probably will suffer for it. Which is too bad, because Gravet is a good actor and an ingratiating personality—given half a chance.

Miss Lombard is well enough established to weather a small setback. Indeed, her home studio, Paramount, is secretly chuckling over her experience. It seems that the star had been grumbling over some of the stories for her Paramount pictures, and had made some cracks about how happy she was going to be on loan to Warner Brothers.

"Sneak" Previews

Generally, before a picture is released, it is submitted to several audiences of amateur critics. These showings are previews. There are two kinds of previews—the formal, final ones to which newspaper and trade critics are invited, and the "sneak previews" which are sandwiched into the bills of suburban theaters without previous announcement.

The former are the current equivalent of premieres, because they are advertised in the newspapers and are made conspicuous by batteries of flood lights and throngs of police and autograph hunters.

Sneak previews are more important to the studios. They are arranged in absolute secrecy and are attended by typical audiences and squads of trained observers of audience reactions.

Laughs are timed with stopwatches, and eavesdroppers mingle with outgoing customers to hear their comments. Postage-paid cards are distributed to the audience, which is invited to submit its opinions and suggestions.

Almost everybody welcomes this chance to display his talents as a critic. The returned comments are studied closely. From them, producers get the answer to the question, "What's wrong with this picture?"

Change That

Drastic changes often are made as a result of these reactions. "Having Wonderful Time" was rolled out for a Pomona preview audience, which compared it to a rug, it being that flat. They also protested that Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., didn't meet soon enough in the picture. The production now has been practically remade.

When "Romance in the Dark" was sneak-previewed, many of the customers protested Gladys Swarthout being plastered in the eye with a tomato. They considered the sequence in bad taste, and it was cut from the picture.

Columbia spent a lot of money rounding up specialty acts for "Start Cheering," only to have Inglewood preview critics complain that the vaudeville obscured the story. So seven of the original twelve variety acts were eliminated.

Glendale fans said they didn't like Fred MacMurray's mustache in "True Confession." Of course the picture wasn't scrapped in deference to their opinion, but MacMurray always will be seen sans brush hereafter.

Those are just a few examples. But next time a picture displeases you, blame the amateur critics of suburban Los Angeles.

Jack And Jill In Another Attempt

Threatened Split In CIO Is Denied But Still Threatens; The President Waited Too Long

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Although David Dubinsky denies that the International Ladies Garment Workers—the union of which he is president—contemplates leaving the C. I. O., the threat of such a major desertion still remains.

Fully recognizing that threat, the heads of 38 other C. I. O. international unions have voted to call a convention next fall which will form a permanent organization. Meanwhile Dubinsky's union—third largest in the C. I. O. and claiming 235,000 members—will decided whether it wants to go along or secede.

No Disaster

Loss of the I. L. G. W. would be a sad blow to C. I. O., but probably not disastrous, regardless of how much it might please the A. F. of L. There always has been a split on this union's executive board over the question of C. I. O. affiliation and it's a question right now whether a majority of the membership prefers to enter a new labor alliance dedicated to industrial union principles or would rather stay outside.

Rodney Dutcher

Dubinsky, who persistently has been more conciliatory to A. F. of L. peace conditions than other C. I. O. leaders, maintains his position by catering to divergent factions in his own unions. Whereas John L. Lewis dominates the United Mine Workers by sheer force of personality and Sidney Hillman his Amalgamated Clothing Workers by force of intellect, Dubinsky must walk tightropes and straddle fences.

C. I. O. leaders discount effect of possible desertion by all or part of the I. L. G. W. by pointing out, first, that 85 per cent of that union's membership is concentrated in New York City and that it consequently is not an important factor nationally, and, second, that total new membership of C. I. O. unions in New York City—mostly among transport workers, maritime workers and clerks—now exceeds the I. L. G. W. membership.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona: "I therefore declare to the Senate, as I said last summer in my addresses to various civic organizations, 'You are wise in getting money from Uncle Sam's Treasury while the getting is good, for under the law of reactions, this prodigal era in due time will be followed by a regime that will make Calvin Coolidge look like a spendthrift'."

(Dubinsky's union is the one which produced the successful, satirical musical comedy "Pins and Needles.")

New Light

It's possible to shed some light on the reason why, after the Senate had mowed down the vestige left by the House of the New Deal's undistributed profits tax and the tax bill had gone to conference, Mr. Roosevelt came to bat with a vigorous message urging retention of the House plan's 4 per cent tax penalty on corporations which pay no dividends.

All through last fall and the winter the President raised not a finger to defend the unpopular tax. Privately he admitted he would rather have the House bill's modification than outright repeal.

But the Senate Finance committee under Chairman Pat Harrison wiped out the surplus tax. If administration forces had put up a fight in the senate, as they were expected to do, the House plan would have had a good chance in conference. But Roosevelt was worrying about the reorganization bill in the House and recalled that Harrison had supported him on that issue. So again the presidential finger remained unlifted and the Harrison bill passed the Senate by a mere voice vote which apparently killed the House modification.

At that point Roosevelt was informed that Ways and Means Committee Chairman Bob Doughton and other House conferees were not going to fight further for what they considered an administration principle unless they received some public support; that he had better speak out in meeting or forget about it. So F. D. R. finally spoke—probably too late.

Constance said weakly, "You're the most incredible man I ever met. But I admit, I'm still curious."

"I'm a little hazy, about some of the details, myself. I got them over long distance from California. You see, the driver of the car in which Camilla Wynne was riding was the son of a patient of mine. Miss Wynne is not badly hurt, I understand. But the boy—well, aside from other desperate injuries, he is on the verge of a complete nervous collapse. You see, he's in love with Miss Wynne, and he's convinced that he killed her. Only the sight of her—or someone he can be persuaded to take for her—will pull him through the immediate nervous crisis, and give him a chance for his life. . . . And Miss Wynne is flat on her back for several days, at least. That's where you come in."

"Oh, do I?" Constance wondered if she was dreaming.

"It was so clearly indicated that I had my hotel order reservations for both of us on the 8:30 plane for Los Angeles."

"You're suggesting that I set out with you—an almost complete stranger—in an hour and a half, to fly to California?"

"Exactly that. . . . All right—now shout for the police."

While she was still searching for words, a party of four men passed their table. One of them checked his steps, turned, and called pleasantly, "Good evening, Dr. Rogers. Run in and see me again before you leave town, won't you? I have a patient I'd like to—why, good evening, Miss Maidwell—or I should say—" at something he must have seen in Constance's face, he broke off, and finishing a little awkwardly, "Well, glad to have seen you," hurried after his companions.

"Know him?" Mark Rogers asked.

"I ought to. He's Dr. Ardmore, my physician." Constance said. . . . She thought, "He started to call me Mrs. Manthon."

"May we consider that I am properly identified, or shall I call him back?" the man opposite her asked. "The time, I'll have to remind you, is getting short."

MAKE THE 5 O'CLOCK TEST . . .

To you who have worked against the hammering clatter of noisy typewriters, late afternoon peak load has always been a torture—a time bristling with error. Naturally. Minds worn ragged by typewriter noise shun thinking, rebel against work that needs doing. That's the time people say "Let's get together on that first thing in the morning."

To know what a quiet office can do to help you work a full day—make the 5 o'clock test in your office. Without obligation, try a Remington Noiseless for one week. Everyone in your office will then be able to finish the day "in high" with vitality to spare for an evening of pleasure.

Quits HOLC

Horace Russell (below), general counsel of the Home Owners Loan Corp., resigned shortly after Representative Church (R-Ill) demanded in the house that Russell be dismissed. Church charged Russell had written a "scandalous and disgraceful" letter. Russell denied "improper intent" in the letter, which, Church charged, solicited business for a former HOLC attorney.

Brief Bits Of News

Farmers To Cochran — Several farmers whose sons are in 4-H club work and are interested in calf feeding went to the Snyder ranch in Cochran county this morning to look over some calves. C. T. Potts, Elmer Rush, Ben Askew and T. A. Johnson were in the party. Snyder was to have roundup today of 300 calves.

Thompson To Roosevelt — Homer E. Thompson, assistant county agent, was to hold a 4-H club meeting in Roosevelt school today at noon to talk with boys about a cotton contest and a state club judging contest.

Dupree To Crosbyton—G. W. Dupree, attorney, will speak tonight at a dinner meeting of the Crosbyton Chamber of Commerce, recently organized. A Lubbock delegation, headed by Charles A. Whitacre, chairman of the chamber of commerce good will committee, will attend the meeting.

No Rain Evidence — Despite a condition of complete overcast early today and other evidences of moisture, changes late in the morning had dissipated hopes for immediate rainfall on the South Plains. The forecast was for partly cloudy, warmer except in the extreme southeast portion tonight; Saturday cloudy, warmer in the southeast portion. Temperature just before noon was 55 degrees. Minimum Thursday night was 43.9 degrees, said Municipal airport.

Hurry Advocated — Dispatch in rendering of homesteads before the April 30 deadline, so as to take advantages of exemptions provided by law, was advocated this morning by H. B. Bryan, county tax assessor-collector.

Arrest A Favor? — Police this morning looked into the effects of a 42-year-old negro of Wadsworth, Kas., and agreed they might have done him a favor by arresting him. He had in a box playing cards shaved so closely they could have been detected by the rankest amateur gambler, sandpaper to make his fingers more sensitive to "surgery on the cards" and a mirror designed to fit a small space and to reveal the hands of opposing players. "He'd a been worse sliced than those cards if he had got into a game with them," said a patrolman. Aubrie Cummings made the arrest.

Suspects Transferred — Two men who when arrested Thursday afternoon in Lubbock by Jas. P. Posey and Grady Harrist, deputies sheriff, had in their possession approximately 25 chickens, later were transferred to Hale county authorities to face possible chicken theft charges. Authorities said the men probably had been representing themselves as salesmen of powder to kill insects on poultry.

Story Investigated — Don Reeder, chief of police, said police this morning were investigating the story of a man who said he had been hijacked after church Thursday night at Eighteenth street and Avenue O. He lost $17, police were informed.

Man Not Arrested — A man who had not been reported arrested was being sought by Lubbock county authorities this morning to answer a charge of theft of shoes valued at $1.95. The complaint, sworn to by Aubrey Fawver, police patrolman, for the complainant Charley A. Lasrey, was filed in the court of Walter Davies, justice of peace.

Man Sought — Theft of $6.75 in money and of plasterer's tools and personal effects valued at $36.50 was charged in county court to a man who at noon had not been reported arrested. Warren Bynum was complainant.

Leave For Meeting — Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Reeds, 2420 Twenty-second street, left Thursday for San Antonio to attend the convention of the Texas Osteopaths association and the annual flower festival there. They plan to return Monday.

Go After Negroes — Two negroes, Prince and Cecil Henry, are in jail in Corsicana, where they are held on theft complaints filed in the court of Walter Davies, justice of peace, in Lubbock. The charges set out a trailer worth $60 and belonging to A. F. Williamson was taken. Grady Harrist, deputy sheriff, and John Keller, member of the highway patrol, left this morning to return them to Lubbock.

Dr. Kent Speaks — Meadow chapter of Future Farmers of America is to conduct a father-son banquet tonight. Dr. Harry L. Kent, director of administrative research at Texas Technological college, will speak and will be accompanied to the banquet by Ray L. Chappelle, head professor of agricultural education, and Bill Hawkins, senior agricultural-student from Hereford.

Degrees Conferred — James B. O'Connell, Harry W. O'Harren and Eugene A. Blair received Royal Arch degrees in a Masonic lodge ceremony Thursday night. Representatives from Slaton and Brownfield attended. Two entered apprentice degrees will be conferred in a ceremony at the lodge hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Players At A. B. C.—Twenty Lubbock Hubbers were guests of the American business club at noon today in the Hilton hotel. Harry Faulkner was also a guest. Mrs. Leo Waite gave two readings and a negro quartet sang. Gradie Bownds was chairman of the day.

Condition Critical—Frank White, jr., of 1508 Avenue W, was reported resting better late this morning after a third blood transfusion at Lubbock sanitarium. His condition remained critical, however. He is being treated for blood stream infection.

To Organize Sunday School — Organization of a Sunday school in Carlisle community is scheduled at the church there at 11 a. m. Sunday, according to announcement this morning by Rev. Clarence Stephens, pastor of Lubbock Mission. He also will preach at the service, he said.

Permits Near 1937 Total — Building permit total for the month trailed that for April, 1937, by a margin of $6 after authorization to T. A. Brown, owner, and M. G. Dysart, contractor, of construction of a frame residence to cost $1,600 at 2405 Eighth street. Total for the month to date was increased to $122,088, comparing with $122,094 for the entire month of April, 1937. Total for the year to date was increased to $666,054. Thursday was the second week-day of the year during which no permits were issued.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP) — With rails on the up-grade, for a change, stock market leaders today negotiated a quiet rally running to 2 or more points at the best.

The list tilted forward at the start and was at top levels around noon.

Brokers attributed the improvement partly to a better feeling about Washington affairs, growing belief business now stands a chance of doing much better, and the fact the market, after losing a large portion of last week's run-up, was due to rebound at least moderately.

Strength of bonds, including U. S. government securities, was a cheering influence.

Conspicuous stocks on the upside included Santa Fe, Union Pacific, N. Y. Central, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber Common and Preferred, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, Caterpillar Tractor, American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, Anaconda, Kennecott, Cerro de Pasco, Westinghouse, Union Carbide and N. Y. Dock Preferred.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 22 (AP) — Cotton futures opened unchanged to 2 points net higher today on scattered local buying and in the absence of selling pressure.

The weather map showed light to heavy rains in all sections of the growing region and foreign markets were about as expected to slightly lower.

May contracts opened at 9.04, July 9.07, Oct. 9.17, Dec. 9.19, Jan. at 9.20 and March 9.26.

The continued unfavorable weather and a desire to await Washington developments checked investment activity on both sides. Business was small throughout the first half of the session. Near midsession May contracts sold at 9.08, July 9.13, Oct. 9.20 and Dec. 9.22, four to six points above the previous close.

The turnover yesterday was 18,700 bales and open commitments 367,800 bales, a decrease of 2,450 bales from the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP) — Cotton futures opened, unchanged to 1 lower on disappointing Liverpool cables and May liquidation. May 8.87; July 8.96; Oct. 9.03; Dec. 9.05; Jan. 9.08; March 9.14.

July sold up from 8.96 to 9.00 and shortly after the first half hour was at 8.98, with the list 2 to 6 points net higher.

July at midday was selling at 9.00 and the list was 4 to 7 points net higher.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 22 (AP) — Wheat values averaged a little higher in Chicago early today, making but a poor response to material upturns at Liverpool.

Opening unchanged to ½ cent up, May 84¼-⅜, July 82¼-⅜, Chicago wheat futures then reacted somewhat. Corn started unchanged to ¼ higher, May 59¾-⅞, July 61¼-¼.

15-Year-Old Mother

she was 14 and he 19, on April 4, 1937, at Andrews. The mother had made "straight A" grades in school, said one of the grandmothers. She had been promoted from the fourth to the fifth grade after only three weeks in the fourth grade, and she had planned to complete her work in Seminole High school this year by enrolling for both junior and senior classes.

Great-grandmothers of the infant are Mrs. R. M. Pittman of Lafayette, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Miller of Chloride, Ariz., paternal and Mrs. Dora Polk of Seminole and Mrs. A. J. Clifton of Tatum, N. M., maternal.

The great-great grandmothers is Mrs. W. J. Miller of El Paso, grandmother of Mrs. R. M. Pittman.

Organization For Scout Participation In Drive Perfected

Organization for participation of Boy Scouts in the city-wide cleanup-paintup campaign here May 4-17 was perfected at a meeting in scout headquarters in the Myrick building this morning, according to announcement by W. B. Irvin, general chairman of the campaign.

Hugh Anderson, assistant county attorney, was named chairman of the nail pickup May 14, climaxing event of scout participation in the campaign.

As was the case last year, the city will be divided into four districts, each of which will be assigned to designated scout troops working under the supervision of a district chairman. Named as such chairmen were W. Rex Blackburn, Carl Turner, C. M. Guess and Wyatt L. Hester.

The district chairmen are to meet again at 7:30 a. m. Monday at scout offices, at which time territorial assignments will be made by Joe S. McIlhaney, chairman of Scout participation.

Responsibilities of district chairmen, it was announced, will be to supervise two inspections by scouts. The first, on May 9, will be to ascertain and recommend improvements of back yards and allies which should be made by individual property owners. The second, on May 16, will be to ascertain whether recommendations have been followed.

Prizes will be awarded, the chairman said, to each troop which measures to a designated standard of excellence in cleanup work. Other prizes will be given to troops making the best records in both inspections and the nail pickup.

Program Arranged For Dallas Party

Program to be followed when a Dallas good will delegation visits Lubbock Wednesday was partially completed this morning, according to announcement by Chas. A. Whitacre, chairman of the good neighbor committee of the chamber of commerce.

F. Z. Williams, chairman of the visiting delegation, advised that their special train will arrive here at 4:20 p. m. and will depart at midnight. They will parade from their special through the business district to Broadway and Avenue K, where a portion of the street will be roped off. In the line of march will be the official band of the trippers and one representing Lubbock.

A platform will be erected at the roped off section of the street from which a program will be presented by the visitors. Numbers will be given by radio performers who are members of the party. Alex Kees, program director of radio station WFAA of Dallas will be master of ceremonies.

The program during the remainder of their stay is yet to be completed. One plan contemplated, however, was disclosed as being a night program by the visitors, probably at Senior High school auditorium.

Handsomest

Well, here they are! Men's men and women's men, too, are Anthony Eden (left), Great Britain's retired Foreign Secretary, and Gary Cooper (right), film star. For Eden was No. 1 favorite and Cooper was No. 2 favorite both of the 1000 women and of the 1000 men who voted, in New York, to choose the handsomest men in the world. Are they your choice, or can 2000 judges be wrong?

Flower Show Here Is Postponed Week

Third annual wild flower show for Lubbock district of the state highway department has been postponed from April 30 and May 1 to May 7-8, according to announcement this morning.

The event will be held at district headquarters at 105 East Broadway, with Wilson B. Holden, jr., district planning foreman of the landscape division of the department, in charge of preparations. George M. Garrett is district engineer.

Delay was decided upon, Holden said, because of the belief that more flowers will be available for display than on the earlier dates. Last year, he recalled, approximately 100 different varieties of wild flowers native to various of the 19 counties of the district were exhibited.

Chairmen, he said, have been named for each of the counties to supervise the collection and preparation of exhibits. Mrs. Jewell is general chairman for the district.

Check Of Defenses

notice on Japan that it intended to build more battleships, "the Japanese government withdrew fishing fleets from our Alaskan waters."

A proposal to hasten senate action on the expansion bill by a limitation of debate came today from its sponsors.

The measure drew repeated attacks yesterday from Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich), Lundeen (FL-Minn), Bone (D-Wash and Nye.

Bone said that increasing bids submitted by private shipbuilding yards might make the program cost $2,000,000,000 instead of the estimated $1,156,000,000. He urged that the measure be amended to require construction in government yards.

Vandenberg suggested a new international arms conference as a way out of the "naval race."

He said that "any realist will recognize" that the old 5-5-3 ratio for the United States, Great Britain and Japan is no longer a feasible basis for agreement.

Legislators who have been considering an itinerary said the summer investigation probably would include a study of coast defense conditions near Galveston, Tex.

Lubbock Man To Be Sentenced For Carlsbad, N. M., Robbery

CARLSBAD, N. M., April 22, (Special)—Formal sentence will be pronounced on John R. Morris of Lubbock, convicted here Wednesday of robbery with firearms of Bryan's Drive-In grocery store Sept. 24.

Morris sought to prove he had not been in Carlsbad at the time of the robbery, but admitted being here later in the night.

Walter Bryan identified Morris as the unmasked bandit who entered the store and robbed the cash register while confused customers looked on, believing a joke was being perpetrated.

Twenty dollars in pennies subsequently had been found on Morris by Oklahoma City police, but Morris said a Lubbock brother who owns peanut machines had given the money to him.

Baptists End Annual Meet

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, April 22 — The state Baptist Sunday School convention, which registered 5,666 persons and drew leading figures among Baptists of Texas and the Southland closed here Thursday with a firm resolve to end the sale of liquor in Texas and continue war on all forms of gambling.

Waco won the 1939 convention—April 11, 12 and 13 — over Harlingen, a Rio Grande valley city.

President Robert Jolly, head of Memorial hospital, Houston, was re-elected, as were the recording secretaries Mrs. Julia Mae Slaughter and Manon Seawall of Dallas.

Closing speaker was Dr. R. C. Campbell of Dallas, state mission secretary, who exhorted messengers of the faith to "push on to win the lost for Christ," urging prayer, sacrifice and zeal on the part of teachers and preachers.

The Rev. Robert H. Coleman of Dallas, associate to Dr. George Truett and a past convention president, urged Bible training leaders "to tell, toil and learn," that they might "wear out rather than rust out as explorers and servants in the work of the Lord."

Midland Man Heads Bankers

PLAINVIEW, April 22. (Special) —Midland was chosen as the 1939 meeting place and M. C. Ulmer of that city was elected president at the annual gathering of South Plains bankers here Thursday.

W. L. Pier, vice president of Fort Worth National bank, was principal speaker.

"I doubt if we have a local, state or national problem that can not be solved by hard work, honesty, integrity, faith and courage," he said. He warned the bankers against speculative feeding ventures, and expressed gratification at expansion of dairying and livestock growing.

South Plains bankers have for years held their annual meeting on San Jacinto day.

Other officers chosen were Paul Hardwick of Lubbock, vice-president; and Dick McDuffie of Brownfield, secretary-treasurer.

One of the largest representations came from Lubbock, where there are three counting houses, the Lubbock, Citizens and First National banks. Hardwick was retiring secretary-treasurer of the South Plains group.

Posey 4-H Club Members Talk Cotton Contest On Thursday

Cotton contest sponsored by Lubbock Lions club was discussed by members of Posey 4-H club at the school Thursday afternoon, according to Homer Thompson, assistant county farm agent, who attended.

Several of the members are participating in the club's cotton project.

The selection of meat identification and livestock judging teams of 4-H club boys to the Texas A. and M. short course at College Station in July also was discussed. The teams to represent Lubbock county will be selected after elimination judging contests in the county before opening of the course, it was explained.

Training of the boys for judging is scheduled to begin in "two or three weeks". The meat identifications team from the county will be made up of two boys and the livestock judging team of three boys.

Thompson, in addressing the group, stressed the need of keeping records in feeding calves for contests.
