TWISTER SLAMS HOUSES TOGETHER—A small but vicious tornado lifted a house at Montegut, La. from its foundation and slammed it into another leaving this wreckage. By a stroke of extreme good fortune only slight injuries were suffered by a mother of three children in one house and an 8-month-old girl in the other. Two other houses in the vicinity were heavily damaged.

U. S. To Aid British In Developing Army

TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda (AP)—President Eisenhower called in his top military and diplomatic advisers today to shape plans for assuring Prime Minister Macmillan that the United States will help Britain develop a streamlined army with atomic striking power.

The President and Macmillan turned to the problem of bolstering Britain's atomic military might after reaching what was called here a "gratifying measure of agreement" on the whole range of Middle East problems.

Rapidly jelling plans were said to call for the United States to supply Britain with dual-purpose guided missiles and other weapons which can use either conventional or atomic warheads. Britain would like to have U.S. atomic weapons but under American law they cannot now be released to any foreign country.

The President was reported basing a decision to give the British substantial help in getting out of the military dilemma caused by a financial and economic crisis, partly on the idea of keeping up the strength of America's strongest ally.

West European defense needs, and the security of American military bases in England also are factors in the decision.

In order to perfect plans before plunging into defense and security discussion with Macmillan this afternoon, Eisenhower called in four advisers from Washington. He invited thtem and secretary of State Dulles to a "working lunch."

The four are Deputy Defense Secretary Reuben Robertson Jr., Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss, Deputy undersecretary of State Robert Murphy, and Air Force Secretary Donald Quarles.

The last three flew from Washington this morning, Robertson came yesterday.

In a morning conference today Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd discussed European problems, which were reported to include German unification, North Atlantic Treaty military matters and European unification, embracing the Euratom and common market projects.

WEDS VANDERBILT—Miss Jean Harvey, 20, Chicago post-debutant, was married March 12 in Mexico City to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, sportsman and heir to one of America's great fortunes, her parents reported.

Cost Of Living Soars Again, House, Food Expenses Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living jumped another four-tenths of one per cent in February to its sixth straight record, the Labor Department reported today.

The consumer price index advanced to 118.7 per cent of the 1947-9 average, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

This culminated a 3.6 per cent advance over the past year. It meant that the typical city family was paying about $1.03½ for the goods and services that cost $1 in February, 1956.

The buying power of the factory worker's pay check declined.

Though spendable earnings increased by 17 cents a week, to a record $74.99, rising prices more than offset the gain.

However, about 135,000 workers paid under cost of living escalator contracts, mainly in the aviation industry, received pay increases averaging two cents an hour.

Advances in the cost of food and housing accounted for most of the increase, BLS Commissioner Ewan Clague said. All other major groups of goods and services showed increases except clothing.

Clague declined to predict whether the index for this month will rise or fall. Food normally drops from February to March, but this also is true of January-February, and the food index went wrong way last month.

Food prices rose seven - tenths of one per cent in February, the largest monthly increase since last July. Higher prices for pork and poultry were the major reasons. The food index now stands 4.4 per cent above a year ago.

Housing costs climbed six-tenths of one per cent, although rents were unchanged. The prices of new houses rose, as did maintenance and repair costs, household textiles, wool rugs, some appliances and furniture, and house furnishings.

New car prices declined because of dealer discounts, but the cost of operating a car went up. Gasoline and oil prices increased, auto insurance rates rose sharply in several states and the price of tires and repair services was higher. Increased railroad fares in the East and South boosted public transportation costs.

Higher prices for toilet goods and mens' haircuts sent the cost of personal services up four-tenths of one per cent. Medical care, reading and recreation showed smaller advances.

Maxie Rosenbloom Freed On Charges

CHICAGO (AP)—A judge freed Maxie Rosenbloom, 52, former light heavyweight boxing champion, yesterday of a morals charge based on a story told by a girl, 13.

Judge William Barth dismissed a charge that Rosenbloom, now a night club entertainer, had contributed to the delinquency of a minor.

Rosenbloom testified the girl had come to his hotel room Jan. 14 for an autographed picture. When she appeared without an older person, he said, he tried in vain to summon a bellboy to stay in the room during the five-minute interview.

The girl testified she had admired Rosenbloom since seeing him on TV last winter and had telephoned him daily until going to his room.

Civic Center Plan Is Discussed Here

Possibilities of a Scurry County civic center were dicsussed yesterday afternoon by a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce in its first meeting.

The committee, which was composed of representatives of chamber civic affairs, agriculture, recreation, tourist development, and merchants committees, discussed recent proposals which had come up here concerning the need for a public building for large events.

The need for such a building has been discussed in connection with county fairs, large agricultural gatherings, conventions, commercial and business meetings, sports tournaments and shows, banquets, automobile and implement shows, and varied other uses.

Mark McLaughlin, chairman of the chamber civic affairs committee, presided at the meeting.

The agriculture committee, in its meetings, had discussed the need for two purposes. One was a location under one roof of all agricultural offices here. Another was the need for facilities to hold a proposed county fair, which has been discussed to great extent recently.

The recreation committee had discussed the need for a coliseum-type structure for large sporting events.

The civic affairs committee had talked in its meeting of the need of a large public auditorium or facilities which could be used for large meetings, conventions, and banquets.

It was decided that possibly these three committees had been proposing something which could be combined into one county structure, built for general use rather than limited to only one or a few uses.

During the meeting yesterday, those attending commented on what they had heard among residents in connection with the need for such a building. Some said they knew of conventions which could have been held here had there been adequate facilities, others discussed large commercial meetings and banquets which would have been here. Work toward organizing a county fair has been hindered to some extent here because of shortage of facilities.

The committee, after discussion, instructed Grady Elder, chamber manager, to do research on similar-type structures which had been built at other places, along with costs, uses, and other information necessary to discussion of such a project.

The committee will meet again when Elder has information to give in a report.

Oil Outlook Called Good

SHREVEPORT (AP)—The outlook for the oil industry is extremely bright, D. L. Connelly of Houston told the American Petroleum Institute's division of production yesterday.

"This industry is not going to decline," the vice president of Warren Petroleum Corp. said. "Consumption of oil has grown at an extremely rapid pace and much larger quantities of oil will be used in the future."

Connally said increased demands will require greater crude oil production. The industry, he said, is faced with expansion by exploration, drilling and production operations to satisfy future needs.

But, he added, there must be a favorable economic climate.

"Provided the proper incentives and working conditions exist the oil industry will be able to supply the free world with the huge quanity of petroleum it will need," he said.

Marriage Planned

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Neva Patterson and playwright James Lee have agreed to marry but they haven't set the wedding date. Miss Patterson said she has accepted Lee's proposal, telephoned from New York City.

IN SNYDER JAYCEE BANQUET

To Name Top Young Man

Snyder's young man of 1956 will be honored tonight at the annual banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet, which will serve as an installation event for new officers, will be held at 7 p.m. at the West Elementary School cafeteria.

The annual outstanding young man award goes to a citizen under 35 years of age who has distinguished himself in various fields of work here. A special committee chooses the man from a group of nominees. The candidates are not necessarily Jaycees.

The outstanding young man award will be made by Max West, who was last year's outstanding young man. Also present at the banquet will be Dr. Robert Hargrove, outstanding young man of 1954; Clyde Godwin, outstanding young man of 1953; and Malven Stevenson, outstanding young man of 1952.

The program at the banquet will be presented by the high school stage band, under direction of Melvin Montgomery. The band, which recently won the Class 4-A competition at the state stage band contest, has won its division for four years in a row, three of those years in the contest's top class.

John Boren will serve as master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Buddy Gray of Ballinger, regional Jaycee vice-president, will install new officers. They are Charles Blakey, president; Charles Hooser vice-president; Ernest Sears, second vice-president; Jack Nesbitt, secretary; Howard Milburn, treasurer; and F. G. Hoefer, Arthur Blanchard, and Hargrove, new directors. Holdover directors are Bob Littlefield, James McClure, Blakey, and Mel Zane Gilbert.

Gilbert is outgoing president. Other outgoing officers are Hershel Hinshaw, vice-president; Lee Pitman, secretary; Billy Bob Hardee, treasurer; and Gene Thompson, Doug McGlaun, and Bob Dawson, directors.

Gilbert will make several award most of them for outstanding club service. One of them will be a plaque to the "Boss of the Year."

Cotton Use Up Slightly

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau reported today cotton consumption for February averaged 34,218 bales for each working day. This compared with an average of 38,001 bales a year ago, and 33,623 for January.

Consumption in February was 684,366 bales compared with 840,567 in January and 760,017 a year ago.

Consumption of lint for seven months ending March 2 totaled 5,277,763 bales and of linters 936,834 bales. This compared with 5,431,702 and 1,056,453 a year ago.

Cotton on hand March 2 included:

In consuming establishments, 1,701,103 bales of lint compared with 1,751,348 a year ago.

In public storage and at compresses, 14,051,133 bales of lint compared with 16,527,246 a year ago.

Former Television Executive Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Herman Liveright, former New Orleans television executive, today was sentenced to three months in jail and fined $500 for contempt of Congress.

Liveright declined, before sentence was pronounced by U.S. Dist. Judge Richmond B. Keech, to answer the questions he refused to answer before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee a year ago.

Hog Prices Rise Sharply

WASHINGTON (AP)— Wary livestock farmers appear to be taking a cautious view of hog prices, which are about 35 per cent higher than a year ago.

Normally such a boost would encourage producers to step up production.

But an Agriculture Department check of farmers' production plans in nine Corn Belt states showed that the 1957 spring pig crop may be about the same as last year's. These states produced 71 per cent of last year's hogs.

The department liked what it found. Officials have been concerned lest the increased prices start another cycle of overproduction with consequent depressed prices, lower farm incomes and producer demands for government action to support hog prices.

Two years ago, hog prices dropped to the lowest level for many years and many producers sustained heavy losses. The government stepped in to buy pork in an attempt to bolster prices.

IT'S A CRYING SHAME!

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A little boy who sat crying on a curb in front of a grode school the other day attracted the attention of policemen Hedrick Sheppard and William Savage.

Why the tears and why aren't you in school? They wanted to know.

The boy raised a wet and puffy face, and without a word at first, lifted his feet off the ground so the policemen could have a good look.

The youngster wore women's shoes, and it was plain that he was ashamed.

With a little patience, the policemen got the story. The boy's only pair of shoes was in a repair shop and his mother hadn't the money to get them out. But the mother wanted him to go to school anyway, in a pair of her own shoes.

Sheppard and Savage told the boy, "Stop crying and relax. Some of your troubles, at least, are over."

They took him to the shop and redeemed his shoes and had the others firmly wrapped so there should be no further humiliation. Then they squired him to school and explained it all to principal Gerald Amonitti.

Dunlap Is Named Rotary President

Roy Dunlap, city manager here, will assume duties in July as president of the Snyder Rotary Club.

Dunlap will suceed Hicks Allen, who last night announced the slate of officers and directors who will serve during the coming year. The announcement was made at the annual Rotary Ladies Night banquet, held at the Country Club.

Entertainment was a musical program presented by two Texas Tech music faculty members, Raymond Elliott and Ira Schantz.

Shantz opened the program by singing four songs, "I Wonder as I Wander," "The Poor Wayfaring Stranger," "Go 'Way From My Window," and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

Elliott presented a talk on "The Songs of the People," telling of the many characteristics of various types of folk music.

His program included both talk and singing as he told of the particular temperament in the folk music of different countries. Climate, politics, geography, and many things influence the type of music each locality has, Elliott said.

Early American songs, especially those of the pioneer days, were included in the types discussed by Elliott, who added humor to his talks throughout.

Officers for 1957 other than Dunlap will be Allen, who will be vice-president, succeeding Bob Clinton, and Art Nicholas, re-elected secretary. New directors are Dunlap, Lyle Alexander, and Lawrence King. Holdover directors are Bob Taylor, Clinton, and Dale Walton. Outgoing directors are Walker Dabbs, Jake Phillips, and Dr. DWayne Collins.

All new and old officers and directors and committee chairmen were introduced at the banquet by Allen. Nicholas introduced all Rotarians, wives, and guests.

County Bill Is Okayed

AUSTIN — House Bill No. 528, which would establish a county court at law in Scurry County has been passed on the uncontested calendar of House of Representatives.

The bill, which was introduced by Rep. Robert R. Patterson, would provide a judge for the court at law, separating the judicial and administrative duties of the county judge. The county judge would retain the administrative duties and would continue to preside over the commissioners court, while the judge of the court at law would preside in county court for all civil and criminal matters coming before such court.

The court at law also would have concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in probate matters.

The bill provides that the new court would come into existence Jan. 1, 1959.

Fatherhood Listed As Main Occupation

Garland, 28, and his wife have been married 10 years. He is a carpenter at Chance Vought, but insisted his principal occupation is fatherhood.

Plane With 67 On Board Is Missing

TOKYO (AP)—A huge U.S. military transport plane with 67 Americans aboard disappeared early today off Japan as it neared the end of its transpacific flight.

Low clouds and rain squalls and towering 30-foot swells reduced visibility almost to zero for searching ships of the U.S. Navy and Japanese coast guard.

Some Japanese aviation experts speculated the plane might have crashed on one of a chain of volcanic islands southeast of Tokyo.

The four-engine C97, military version of the Boeing Stratocruiser, left Wake Island yesterday afternoon for Tokyo on the last leg of a flight from Travis Air Force Base near San Francisco, Calif.

The Air Force said 57 passengers and a crew of 10 were aboard the plane, with the passengers including 27 Air Force personnel; 17 Army and 10 Navy men; 2 civilian government employes, both men; and a woman military dependent, presumably the wife of a service man stationed in Japan.

The crew, which included at least one woman, all were members of the Air Force. The plane was operated by the Military Air Transport Service (MATS).

The plane's last reported position was 200 miles southeast of the big MATS terminal in Tokyo, at 12:15 a.m. (10:15 a.m., EST, Thursday). The radio report gave no indication of any trouble and the plane was expected in Tokyo on schedule, two hours later.

The Air Force said the plane had enough fuel for only about 3½ hours flying past its scheduled arrival time.

As soon as the plane was overdue, a sea and air search was launched in the predawn darkness. Life rafts aboard the plane were equipped with flares and flashlights and most rafts aboard transpacific planes carry emergency radio transmitters for broadcasting SOS signals.

Throughout the day, however, monitors picked up no distress calls.

One expert said if the plane did ditch in 30-foot seas, it almost certainly cracked up and sank quickly, possibly before life rafts could be launched.

"Only God could ditch successfully in seas like that," he said.

The C97 was the eighth large plane to go down in the Far East since Feb. 22. In the seven previous crashes, 85 persons were listed as dead or missing, including President Ramon Magsaysay of the Philippines.

Wide Use Of School TV Seen

School systems will be using closed circuit television throughout within 10 years, Dr. A. J. Stoddard, longtime superintendent of the Los Angeles schools, predicted yesterday in a talk to the Snyder school board and a part of the school staff.

Stoddard now travels for the Fund for the Advancement of Education, which is sponsored by the Ford Foundation. He made his comments on closed circuit television in connection with a staff utilization project now being conducted in the high school science department with Ford Foundation aid and with use of closed circuit television.

Stoddard said work is now underway on beginning experiments on use of closed circuit television in schools of several large cities.

Predicting what would happen in the future in relation to closed circuit television, Stoddard expressed belief that experiments would be successful and that it would come into wide use. Closed circuit television will not be expensive, as many persons would think. He predicted that large companies will be formed just to make and supply educational television film to schools. Already, there is an entire high school physics course being put on television film, he said.

Television will not solve the teacher shortage, the speaker said, adding that probably the teacher shortage will never be solved. Such things as closed circuit television, which appears to be useful in teaching larger groups of students, will help to relieve the shortage.

Television is only one of the many changes coming about in American education today, Stoddard said.

The educator discussed at some length the many changes which are occuring in education because life is changing. Not only is the population of America growing rapidly so more students must be educated every year, but what people must know just to live adequately is growing rapidly, he said. In relation to population, Stoddard said America is gaining a net of one person every 12 seconds in population, and if that rate continues for the next 100 years there will be one billion persons in this country.

Education is not as it once was, when a person could learn what the schools had to offer and use only that through life, Stoddard said. It is now a life-long process, and the people rely on such things as books, motion pictures, magazines, newspapers, radio, and television for the advancement of their education. Use of these mediums has increased by great proportions in the past few years.

"But with all this help we do not know we can keep ahead of the needs," Stoddard said, adding that the complexity of what a person must know now has changed much in the past several years.

There is some doubt, he said, whether American education is now producing the kind of bodies which will be needed a few years from now, whether there is adequate mental health service, whether moral and spiritual problems are being met in the right way.

Education is undergoing tremendous changes, he said, one of which is the various methods being used to find how to teach more students with less teachers. This type work is being done not only in education but in industry — determining how to do the job with fewer people.

Up to now, he said, education has been using only the senses of sight and sound to teach students, and that of sound is comparatively new. Some of the changes might be uses of the other senses in teaching.

SPEAKER for the annual Ladies Night banquet of the Rotary Club last night was Raymond Elliott of the Texas Tech music faculty, whose humorous program covered various types of folk music. Ira Schant, also of the Tech music faculty, sang for the group. (Lee Watson photograph)

IN BRITISH TRIAL

Nurse Changes Her Mind

LONDON (AP)—A nurse who saw the death of the old lady Dr. John Bodkin Adams is accused of murdering testified today she gave the ailing woman an injection on her own responsibility an hour before she died.

"If you are right and your memory is right," demanded Geoffrey Lawrence, the physician's attorney, "there was a serious breach of duty that night?"

"Yes," replied nurse Caroline Sylvia Randall.

Under intense questioning by the defense, nurse Randall described the final hours of Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell to a jury of 10 men and 2 women. Adams, 56-year-old bachelor society doctor who is charged with drugging the rich 81-year old widow to gain an inheritance under her will, cocked an ear to listen attentively. The nurse testified she received 300 pounds—$840—from Mrs. Morrell's will.

At the beginning of the cross-examination yesterday nurse Randall had testified there was no justification for her earlier accusation at a preliminary hearing that heroin prescribed by Dr. Adams affected Mrs. Morrell adversely.

The stern - faced justice, Sir Patrick Arthur Devlin, startled courtroom spectators by suddenly asking the prosecutor whether he maintained that drugs administered Mrs. Morrell the night of her death were given "with the intention" of killing her.

Seemingly caught by surprise, Atty. Gen. Sir Reginald Manningham-Buller rose and after a pause replied:

"I must say I do submit that they were given deliberately by Dr. Adams and they accelerated the death of the patient. But I won't elaborate. I adhere to that and my medical evidence will indicate why."

Services For Ramirez Held

Funeral services were held Thursday in the St. Mary's Catholic Church in San Angelo for Manuel Ramirez of Snyder.

Ramirez, an employe of Holder Construction Co. since 1953, was killed in an explosion of a "dope pot" near Colorado City last Monday. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Natividad Ramirez of Snyder, five brothers and several sisters.

Pallbearers were members of the crew in which Ramirez worked.

Ramirez, a veteran of World War II, was buried in the Fairmont Cemetery in San Angelo. Military rites were conducted by personnel from Goodfellow Air Force Base. The flag was presented to Mrs. Ramirez by the officer in charge.

All crews, along with management of the Holder Construction Co., and a large group of other friends and relatives attended the services.

Freight Rate Cuts Asked By Railroads

AUSTIN (AP)—A hearing on a request by railroads to cut freight rates generally throughout Texas on carload cotton to port cities has been set for April 9 by the Railroad Commission.

The previous level will be cut 20 per cent if the request is granted. Rates between Corpus Christi and Brownsville are currently being held to a maximum reduction of 15.87 cents per 100 pounds.

The railroads point out in their request that in 1955 reductions were made in carload cotton rates from the majority of Texas origins to most of the ports.

Borrowing By Union Leader Is Criticized

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank W. Brewster, West Coast Teamsters kingpin, said today he personally disapproved of the union's national president, Dave Beck, borrowing several hundred thousand dollars in union funds without interest or security.

Brewster gave this view on the witness stand of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

Beck has said that he borrowed $300,000 to $400,000 of union funds without paying interest or offering security, but has repaid the money.

Brewster came before the senators from U. S. District Court where he was arraigned on charges of contempt of Congress and entered a plea of innocent.

The charge grew out of his refusal to answer questions at an earlier Senate inquiry.

Brewster was asked about the Beck borrowings from the Teamsters during questioning about his own borrowing of some $80,000 to $90,000 from the Western Conference of Teamsters and Seattle Local No. 174.

Brewster is chairman of the Western Conference, a job to which he was appointed by Beck, and also is one of a number of Teamsters Union vice presidents under Beck.

Not Extending Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)— The administration says it does not seek to extend the federal program of aid for Salk polio vaccinations beyond its July 1 expiration date.

Texas Bank Put In Hands Of Receivers

FORT WORTH (AP)—The fraternal Bank & Trust Co., a private Negro financial institution here, was in the hands of a receiver today.

The bank, founded 4 years ago, closed yesterday after stockholders could not meet financial obligations. Named receiver was A. B. Culbertson, former trust officer of First National Bank of Fort Worth.

He was appointed to liquidate assets and pay off liabilities on order of Dist. Judge Harold Craik.

A receiver was requested by Dorsey Adams, Negro real estate man who is one of 1,800 depositors in the bank.

Adams through his attorney, Earnest May, told Carik he had about $10,000 on deposit when the bank closed.

May told Craik there was no hint of "crookedness" in the bank closing. He said the difficulties resulted from numerous large withdrawals during the last two weeks plus many outstanding loans on which collection is difficult.

The attorney said the bank had only $2,000 cash on hand Thursday. May estimated total assets of the bank at $900,000. The deposits amounted to $1,062,000 plus about $750,000 in loans.

He said the troubles resulted also from a $20,000 overdraft at Fort Worth National Bank coupled with a $130,000 loan from that bank.

TOKYO HAS TO GO WITHOUT ANY BATH

TOKYO (AP)—More than one million persons in this sprawling metropolis had to go without their regular baths today. Virtually all of the city's 2,400 public baths were locked up tight for a demonstration.

About 7,000 bathhouse owners and the boys who scrub the backs of both men and women bathers demand a five yen—1.4 cents—increase in government-fixed rates.

Bathhouse owners claim increasing costs of both coal and water make it impossible for them to stay in operation.

Fishing Burglar

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A thief cut a 3-by-4-inch section from the window glass in an auto supply store and, using a twig and bent pin, hooked $200 worth of minature boats, hobby tools and boat parts. He left his fishing tackle on the pavement.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parsons of Roscoe are the parents of a seven-pound, six-ounce daughter, born at 10:40 p.m. yesterday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Next Time, Maybe They'll Bring Cows

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—There was hardly room to milk a cow yesterday in the statehouse corridors.

Some 400 dairy farmers crowded into the capitol to buttonhole legislators and lobby for a milk industry control bill.

"It was a very orderly and determined group of farmers," said the leader of the delegation, Rolland Brengle, president of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn., which led a milk strike in Michigan a year ago.

"I hope we impressed somebody," he added. "Maybe next time we should bring some of our cows up there and let the legislators try to milk them."

State's Labor Leaders Helped Cast Lot With Ill-Fated ICT

By ZARKO FRANKS
Houston Chronicle Staff

HOUSTON (AP)—Labor's own leaders persuaded the Texas Federation of Labor to cast an ill-fated lot with BenJack Cage's ICT Insurance Co.

Leroy Williams, president of the Texas Federation of Labor, said so today.

"It's my firm opinion," said Williams, "that several man high in organized labor pushed the labor tie-in with ICT.

"There's no sense in my getting in a name-calling contest. It's all in the minutes of the 1951 convention in Galveston."

The minutes show the federation endorsed then a proposal to "buy controlling interest" in Cage's firm.

norance of the labor people on the board. I was one of them, and I'm just as much to blame as anyone."

Minutes of the 1951 convention show that Ball made a speech urging the union to enter ICT, or the Insurance Co. of Texas, as it was then known.

Ball said in his speech at that time:

"There is no guarantee that it is going to be safe, but of the many businesses that you are going into, the insurance business is about the safest you can get into because the rates of insurance companies are set on standard formulas.

"What sort of dividends we can expect on the money we invest we cannot tell you, but if we run an average we can expect 9 per cent better . . ."

Five years later, Williams, who became president of the federation in 1954 and an ICT director, approached BenJack Cage:

"People are asking me about dividends. When can they expect them?"

"Oh, yes, dividends," Williams quoted BenJack Cage as saying. "We've got to pay a dividend."

Records show stockholders never received a cent.

At the 1951 convention only one dissenting voice was heard from the floor before delegates blessed

The two men generally credited with pushing the proposal are Bill Harris, president of the federation at the time, and Nile Ball, an attorney for the federation.

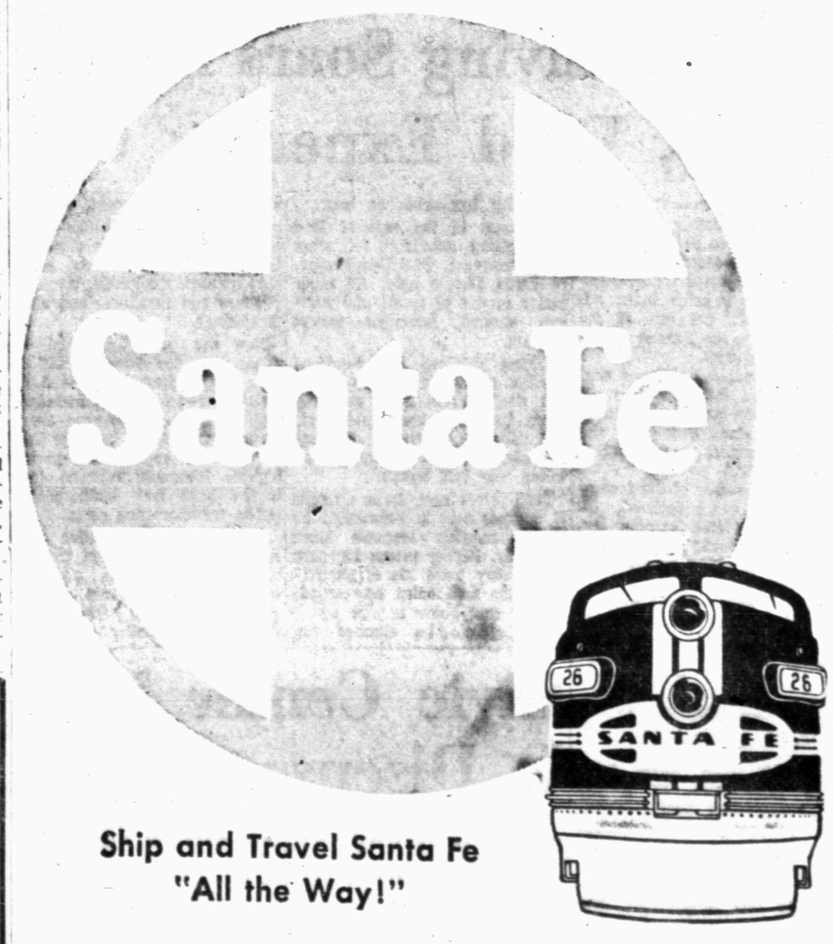

In Dallas, Harris said:

"One of the biggest troubles with the whole thing was the ig- the executive board proposal to enter ICT. It was the voice of a Dallas printer named John Conley.

Less than six years later the State of Texas charged that ICT Insurance Co. was "hopelessly insolvent." The firm was about $4,500,000 in the red, the state charged.

Labor unions and members, it was reported, had bought about 60 per cent of ICT's stock.

BenJack had packed ICT's board with Texas labor leaders.

Even Dog Has Diet Trouble

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Some people just can't stand to see a dog go hungry, even if the animal is too fat and on a reducing diet, says a Burbank, Calif., veterinarian.

In several cases where he prescribed a reducing diet, the dogs failed to lose weight, reported Dr. Howard C. Taylor in "The California Veterinarian," publication of the state's animal doctors.

Dr. Taylor investigated and found that in every case either a member of the family or a neighbor had been slipping the dogs an extra bite to eat.

One dog owner confessed he had been giving his pet a half dozen carrots daily in addition to the prescribed canned diet. He didn't think carrots contained calories.

Sometimes an owner reports that the dog refuses to eat the canned diet. Dr. Taylor told a woman client to heat the food. So she fried it in butter.

Now he tells owners to heat the food in a double boiler or in the oven, without adding anything to it.

Some cooks like to sprinkle a little sugar over pieces of chicken to be broiled.

Wesleyan Service Guild Opens Conference Here Saturday

About 200 out-of-town women are expected here tomorrow when the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church opens its annual Northwest Texas Conference meeting here.

The meeting, which will be held partly at the First Methodist Church and partly at the Trinity Methodist Church, will have women from the Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, Brownfield, Childress, Lubbock, Plainview, Pampa, and Stamford districts.

The Wesleyan Service Guild, a part of the Women's Society for Christian Service, is composed of gainfully employed women and holds its meetings at night.

The host groups are headed by Mrs. C. I. Hill at the First Methodist and Mrs. Roy J. McClosky at the Trinity Methodist.

Presiding at the meeting will be Miss Dorothy L. Peery of Amarillo, conference secretary for the organization.

Featured speaker will be Miss Mary Lou Santillan, a teacher at Holding Institute, Laredo.

The meeting will open with registration at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at the First Methodist fellowship hall, and registration and tea will last until 5:30, during which time home assignments will be made to delegates. Supper will be at Trinity from 6 to 7 p.m., followed by a business session and program at 7:15. From 8:30 to 9:30, there will be recreation for delegates and an executive meeting for officers.

At 7 a.m. Sunday, breakfast will be held for the group at the Martha Ann Woman's Club, with a business session at the First Methodist to start at 8:15 a.m. At 9:30, Miss Santillan will speak to the group, and at 10:55 a.m. the delegates will attend church at the First or Trinity Methodist. Lunch will be at the First Methodist at 12:30 p.m., and the last business session will be held from 1:30 to 2 p.m.

The program theme is "The Spirit of Christ For All of Life." Main emphasis will be on the first two of the organization's seven quadrenniel goals, "The Call to Every Woman To Commit Herself to the Spirit and Principles of Christ for the Whole World," and "The Call to Every Woman To Accept Responsibility in the Total Program of the Local Church."

Miss Perry has served in such conference-wide posts for the organization as conference recording secretary, conference chairman of spiritual life cultivation, conference secretary for youth and young adult work, and others. In business, she is secretary to the vice-president and operating manager of Southwestern Public Service Co., Amarillo.

Miss Santillan, born at Chandler of Mexican parents, is a graduate of Southern Methodist University and received her master degree in religious edcation from Scarritt College, Nashville, Tenn. She has worked at the Wesley Community Center in Dallas, caravanned for two years among Spanish-speaking churches in New Mexico, Texas, and Northwestern states did mission work in the rural areas in Central Mexico, and taught religious education for the Methodist Department of Religious Education at Mexico City. She is now at Holding Institute for the second time.

Cafeteria Group Holds Meeting

On-the-job training and human relations were discussed Wednesday on the program at the meeting of the Snyder School Cafeteria Association.

The program was a symposium conducted by Lila Dodson, Pearl Blanchard, Macie McNew, and Joyce Smith.

The group met at the East Elementary School, with Mrs. Ora Ussery and her staff as hostesses.

The president, Deane Pierce, appointed a nominating committee composed of Eva Hutchins, chairman, Jane Reynolds, Marjorie Griffith, Audrie Miller, Geraldine Davis, Carene Maddox, and Margaret Steele.

Coffee and hot chocolate were served to the 42 members attending.

(NO. 9) SOME FACTS ABOUT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST
(A summary)

THE CHURCH BELONGS TO CHRIST. He built it (Matt. 16:18); He is the head of the church and Saviour of it (Eph.1:22, 23; 5:23); and, He gave Himself up for the church (Eph.5:25; Acts 20:28).

THE CHURCH IS THE BODY OF CHRIST (EPH. 1:22,23). In addition to being His body, it is the temple of God (1Cor.3:16), the household of God (1Tim.3:15), and the kingdom of God (Rom. 14:17). Any term used in the New Testament to refer to the church is correct. It has no denominational name because it is not a denomination!

THE CHURCH BEGAN ON PENTECOST after the resurrection of Christ. The Lord said it would come with power (Mk.9:1); the power came when the Holy Spirit came (Acts 1:6-8); the Holy Spirit came on pentecost (Acts 2:1-4). From this passage onward, the scriptures speak of the church functioning. It has no earthly headquarters for Christ (the head) is at the right hand of God in heaven!

THERE IS NO DISTINCTION BETWEEN CHRISTIANS except in function. There is no clergy and laity. Deacons, evangelists, teachers and all others who serve in any capacity, do so under the supervision of the elders who are also bishops and pastors (Acts 20:17,28; 1Pet.5:1-4)

A PERSON MUST BE IN CHRIST TO BE SAVED (2TIM. 2:10). The church is the body of Christ (Col.1:18) and Christ is the saviour of the body (Eph.5:23). Christ has but one body—one church. There are many congregations of like faith and order (Rom.16:16). He has just as many bodies (churches) as their are Spirits, Lord's, Gods—just one! (Eph.4:4-6).

TO ENTER CHRIST, THE HOLY SPIRIT SAYS one must believe in Christ (Phil.3:9), repent of sins (Acts 2:36-38), confess faith in Christ (Acts 8:37), and be baptized into Christ (Gal.3:26, 27). All spiritual blessings are in Christ (Eph.1:3-14).

THERE ARE FIVE EXPRESSIONS OF PUBLIC WORSHIP which are observed every first day of the week: (1) the Lord's supper (1Cor.11:23-26); (2) Singing hymns (Eph.5:18,19), (3) Meditation on the word of God (Acts 2:42; 2Tim.4:1-4), (4) The contribution (1Cor.16:2), and (5) Prayers (Lk.18:1; Acts 2:42).

THERE ARE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS which every Christian is to keep: (1) Love for God with all the heart, mind, soul, and strength (Mk.12:29,30); and (2) Love neighbor as self (Mk.12:31). These two commandments cover every relationship man has.

"THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST SALUTE YOU." (Rom.16:16). Hear "Five minutes With the Master" on KSNY at 8:25 a.m.

WOMEN

YOU AND YOUR TEEN-AGER

By BEVERLY BRANDOW

Did you ever spank one child because another threw a rock through the window? Of course not! That would be ridiculous.

Yet some parents do punish their children for mistakes made by other children in the family.

Consider the case of Cindy Sue. At sixteen and a half she has yet to have her first date. A high school senior, she has missed all the fun of the freshmen, sophomore, and junior coed festivities.

Is it any wonder she finds no conversational meeting ground with classmates who are filled with the wonder of Saturday night hayrides, formal parties, weiner roasts and fun-packed double dates? Is it any wonder she is considered peculiar and not ever really accepted by her peers?

What's wrong with Cindy Sue? Is she sickly? Is she un-trustworthy? No. Cindy Sue's malady is one older sister who was allowed to date much too early and as the result eloped at fifteen and was a mother when she was sweet sixteen.

Cindy Sue's parents made a mistake with their first child and it had serious repercussions. Now, with a second daughter flowering into woman hood, they are frightened. Instead of facing the problem again and trying to handle it more wisely, they are sticking their heads in the sand and trying to avoid it entirely.

They are not escaping it. They are creating new problems for their daughter and are apt to warp her social life and her attitude toward life. They are robbing her of her normal fun and wholesome friends because they are afraid to try again.

They are punishing her for something her sister did and even that was the result of failure on their part.

Is this fair? Whether one is to lenient or too strict, being an extremist is bad.

Let's give all the Cindy Sue's a chance at being normal teenagers. Don't hold life from them, but this time teach better how life is to be lived. This time be a better, wiser parent.

Two Honored At Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was held Friday by the TEL Sunday school class of the First Baptist Church for Mrs. G. B. Clark, Sr., and Mrs. Rose Coleman, both members of the class.

Both are 88 years old, Mrs. Coleman's birthday on March 19 and Mrs. Clark's on March 20.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Clark, 1700 Twenty-sixth Street.

Mrs. W. W. Gross read a paper on the history of the church, of which both Mrs. Calrk and Mrs. Coleman are charter members. The history dated back to 1885.

Refreshments were served to 14 members and four guests.

Demonstration Given At Ira 4-H Meeting

A clothing demonstration was given this week by Miss Ruby Butts, county home demonstration agent, in a meeting of the Ira 4-H club.

The group met at 3 p.m. Monday in the Ira school building. Next meeting has been set for April 8.

Installation Service Is Set By Lutheran Church

An installation service will be held at 4:30 p.m. Sunday at the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church for its pastor, the Rev. Walter L. Lentz, at the west Elementary School auditorium.

Dr. Royal E. Lesher, president of the Texas-Louisiana Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, will conduct the service. Rev. Lentz came here from Corpus Christi, where he developed and organized the St. Timothy Evangelical Lutheran Church and served as its first pastor. Previous pastorates were at Port Lavaca-Tivoli Lutheran Churches, which he pastored from the time they were on mission status to that of self-supporting churches. He began his ministry as assistant pastor in the oldest United Lutheran Church in Texas, Trinity Lutheran at Victoria. For the seven years prior to coming here, he presented a weekly religious news program on radio stations KNAL at Victoria and KATR at Corpus Christi. A potluck reception and social will be held after the service in the cafeteria at the school.

• • •

A Gospel meeting will open Sunday and continue through March 31 at the Church of Christ in Fluvanna. Speaker will be Frank Lilly, minister of the Sixth Street Church of Christ in Brownwood. Services will be held at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p.m. daily except next Saturday, when there will be no morning services.

• • •

At the First Presbyterian Church the Rev. Julian Hendren, pastor, will speak on "The Test of True Greatness!" at the Sunday 10:55 a.m. service, and the choir will sing the anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is."

• • •

"His Immortal Word" will be the subject of the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the First Methodist Church, at the Sunday 10:55 a.m. service, and the choir's anthem will be "Early in the Morning." The pastor will speak at the 7 p.m. service, and a film, "Retreat and Decision," will be shown.

• • •

The Rev. G. M. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak on "Carried to Jesus" at the Sunday 11 a.m. service and on "At God's Command" at the 7:30 p. m. service.

• • •

Subjects of the Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, for Sunday will be "The Rich Young Ruler" on the 8:30 a.m. Bible study hour, "What Is a Revival?" at the 11 a.m. service, and "The Opinions of the Same Man" at the 7:30 p.m. service.

• • •

At the Avenue D Baptist Church, the Rev. A. J. Martin, pastor, will speak on "God's Call to Repentence" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday and "Why Are Men Lost?" at the 7:30 p.m. service. On the 7:45 a.m. Good News broadcast on KSNY, his subject will be "What Think Ye of Christ?" The church Brotherhood organization will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, and speaker will be the Rev. Roy Womble, pastor of the Unoin Baptist Church.

Lung Cancer Report Given

ATLANTA (AP)—The Atlanta Constitution said today in a copyrighted story that a scientific study group has found that cigarette smoking "beyond a reasonable doubt is a causative factor in the rapidly increasing incidence" of lung cancer.

The newspaper said it had obtained exclusively a "highly confidential and not yet officially released" copy of the report which, it said, "establishes the most positive cause-effect link between cigarette smoking and lung cancer by a scientific group to date."

The scientific study group was set up by the American Cancer Society, the National Cancer Institute, the American Heart Assn. and the National Heart Institute, and was made up of seven scientists, including Dr. Rolla E. Dyer, director of research at Atlanta's Emory University.

The scientists found no convincing evidence that smoking is a cause of heart disease, the paper said.

Baby's Eyes Transplanted

NEW YORK (AP) — Two New Yorkers are seeing through the eyes of a baby who died last Friday.

The infant, Philip J. Horton Jr., died of an incurable spinal condition at Riverhead, N.Y. He was 34 days old.

The parents, who reside in Cutchogue, N. Y., were determined that their dead son should benefit the sightless. Corneal transplants must be used within 48 hours after death.

When no means were found to get their child's corneas to New York in a hurry, Mr. and Mrs. Horton drove the 75 miles by car to the Eye Bank for Sight Restoration in Manhattan.

The eye bank announced the successful corneal transplants yesterday, but did not disclose the names of those who received them.

Good Watermelon Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—This may be a bumper year for the watermelon. A government survey indicates farmers in Southern and Western states plan to increase acreage of this crop 11 per cent this year over last and 10 per cent above average. Most of the expected incrase will be in Oklahoma and Texas.

Death in the gas chamber is the penalty for murder in Arizona, California, Colorado, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon and Wyoming.

THAT FINE PRINT TO BE ENLARGED

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Ever wonder what inspires a law?

Assemblyman S. C. Masterson told his colleagues his eyes aren't as good as they used to be.

He said he recently found the type on a conditional sales contract too small and had to get his law partner to read it.

The Assembly then passed Masterson's bill to require type on such documents to be at least six point in size—about the size usually found in newspaper classified ads.

Chicago City Hall Burned

CHICAGO (AP) — A fast-moving, spectacular fire swept through sections of the block square City-County Building in the Loop last night, routing more than 100 persons, including the mayor.

More than a score of persons were led or carried to safety, many of them down ladders, from the 12-story structure. Included were several women trapped in upper floors.

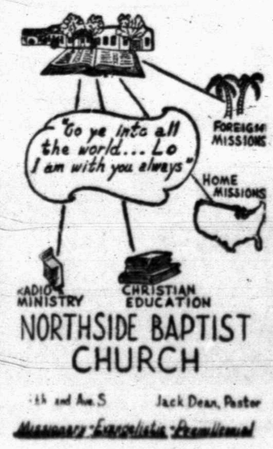

The fire was confined to the extreme northwest corner of the building on the second and third floors, the City Hall half of the structure.

Three firemen and a telephone repairman were injured, none seriously. The fire broke out shortly after 6 p.m. and was brought under control in less than two hours.

Damage was estimated at 250,000 by Mayor Richard J. Daley. The cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

African Has Big Ambition

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A young African who arrived here six years ago with 3 cents announced plans today to establish the first all-native hospital on the Dark Continent.

He hasn't got the money. But he has overcome one obstacle after another to go through Stanford University Medical School and to win the moral support of seceral prominent Americans, including Dr. Ralph Bunche, U.N. Bowles, former U.S. economic stabilizer.

This persistent young man is Mungai Njoroga, born 30 years ago near Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa. Mungai will get his M.D. degree in June and will intern for a year. Then he will be ready to begin work on his lifetime ambition.

Measure To Effect Ranchers Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas said yesterday he was introducing a bill to exempt ranchers from payment of federal capital gains taxes on livestock sold because of drought if replacement stock is purchased within five years.

A similar bill has been offered in the House by Rep. Ikard (D-Tex).

LEADERSHIP courses will be taught at the Green Hill Baptist Church Monday through Friday by Mrs. Irene Dixon Eunice N. M. The training union revival will include an elementary leadership class at 9:45 a.m. daily, junior and intermediate leadership at 1:45 p.m., and a special course for each age group at 7 p.m. daily. The courses were arranged by Glen Sehested, training union director.

Please God, Help Us!

In every man's life there is a moment when he is inadequate to the forces he faces. At such a time only his moral integrity will sustain him.

Those who have based their lives on their own strength inevitably will face the time and the place when that strength is insufficient to the necessity of the moment. They will crumble unless they know that they are never alone . . . that there is a power that can and will help them, no matter how terrible the times.

The man who has learned to rely on God can draw from this source of never-failing power and with resurgent strength face his future, unafraid.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE "SWEATING OUT" period is over for Fluvanna school officials and fans.

Since Jan. 18, the Fluvannans have been in more or less of a "turmoil" over what would become of the incident where one of the Fluvanna fans took a poke at a basketball ref following a game at Fluvanna.

Fluvannan's, of course, knew what could happen and what did hoppen to neighboring Haskell—a suspension. But the Fluvanna incident, apparently, wasn't as severe as the Haskell case as the TIL only put Fluvanna on probation.

Haskell was suspended becuase one of its fans slugged an official but there was more to the slugging that brought on the suspension. It was reported that several other fans used abusive language toward the game officials and with so many fans involved, the TIL figured a suspension was the only thing left to do.

Incident Unavoidable

Regardless of what sentencing is handed out, we still don't believe a school should be held responsible for what some fan or fans do. Under no circumstances could a Fluvanna school official stop what happened after the basketball game in question.

The story we got on the incident is that the official, Gene Williams of Snyder, was leaving the gym and from out of nowhere a fan came up and slugged Williams. It all happened so quickly that no one knew what was coming off.

Now, how could you hold a group of boys who represent the school in basketball, responsible for an incident such as this. Regardless of how good sprotsmanship the team displays, the TIL insists on charging the schools with incident such as is explained here.

Haskell got suspended for a full year over an incident that the players had nothing to do with.

Fan—Not Schools—Should Be Punished

We believe that the fan or fans guilty of such unsportsmanlike conduct should be punished — not the players or school.

Only in the cases where the host school does not have police protection would it seem fair to penalize the school.

Well, Fluvanna can continue its basketball program next winter as it has always done unless some unruly fan takes it on himself to "butcher up" an official because he didn't like the way the game was called.

In all probability, the fan who thought he knew more about the game than did Williams, wouldn't officiate a game for any amount.

7TH INNING RALLY—Tommy Prichard, Tiger shortstop, is shown scoring one of the two runs the Tigers came up with in the 7th inning yesterday to pull within one run of pulling abreast of the Odessa Broncs here. Prichard, incidentally, scored two of the three Tiger runs in the game. Odessa choked off the Tiger rally in the 7th and emerged 4-3 victors. The Odessa catcher is Dick Murphy and the plate umpire is Bill Valentine. (Lee Watson Photograph)

Tiger Rally Falls Short, Broncs Eke Out 4-3 Win

A 7th inning Tiger rally fell one run shy yesterday as the Odessa Broncs walked off with a 4-3 victory on the high school diamond here.

The Tigers went into the seventh inning trailing 2-1 and Odessa apparently iced the game away with two runs in the top of the seventh for a 4-1 lead.

As it turned out the two Odessa runs in the 7th averted defeat for the Broncs.

The Tigers battled back to score twice themselves in the final go around and the Bengals had the tieing run on third and winning run on first when the final out was made.

Dwayne Prince went the route for the Tigers as did Bobby Knight of the Broncs. Prince wiffed 10 to six for Knight. Knight had the better control, though, walking only one to five for Prince.

Prince gave up seven hits while Knight allowed the Tigers five safeties.

After the Broncs had apparently iced the decision away in the top of the seventh, the Tigers came roaring back and came within a "whisker" of tieing the score in the lower half of the seventh.

Tommy Prichard opened the Tiger seventh by drawing the only walk Knight issued during the afternoon. After Jimmy Allen whiffed, pinch-hitter Ronnie Baker's infield tap got past Knight and Baker beat it out for a hit. Prichard raced all the way to third when Knight's throw to catch Baker was wild.

Terry Lee then bounced out, pitcher to first, for the second out, Baker moving to second on the play and Prichard holding third. Then Kenneth Drake, making his first plate appearance of the season, pinch-hit for Prince and slammed a solid single to center to send both Prichard and Baker home.

Drake swiped second to put the tieing run in scoring position. Dick Hayes, the third pinch-hitter of the inning for the Tigers, singled into short right for what appeared to be enough to get Drake home with the tieing marker.

Second baseman Leroy Lewis, however, defelcted the ball just enough to keep Drake from breaking for home after rounding third.

The rally died when Knight induced Neil Boyd to hit one back to him on the mound and he threw Boyd out to end the game.

Odessa scored once each in the first and second innings with two leadoff triples paving the way. Lloyd Alcorn opened the game with a triple to left and then scored on Larry Billhartz' sacrifice fly.

Gerald Erwin led off the Odessa second with a triple and scored on Lewis' single.

The Tigers came back in the bottom of the second to score their first run when Prichard tripled to deep left center and then scored on a single to left by Allen.

The score stood at 2-1 then until the seventh inning when the two teams traded a pair of runs.

Odessa threatened seriously to score in the sixth when she loaded the bases with none away. But Prince pitched himself out of this predicament without a run scoring.

Fluvanna Cagers Put On Probation

The Texas Interscholastic League has placed a 2-year probation on the Fluvanna High School basketball team, as result of a "fan incident" during the past season.

The incident occurred the night of Jan. 18 when Fluvanna met Westbrook in a district game. A Fluvanna fan, following the game, struck one of the officials, Gene Williams, with his fist.

Williams, a teacher at East Elementary here, is a member of the Snyder Basketball Officials Association.

The case was brought before the executive board of the TIL Wednesday in Austin which time the probation sentence was handed down.

Williams and his partner that night, Bill Hartsfield, appeared before the TIL board as did two of the SBOA, Guy Sullivan, president of the association, and Moon Mullins, secretary.

All four testified at Wednesday's hearing.

L. M. Dawson, superintendent of Fluvanna schools, also attended the hearing.

Dawson, in reference to the incident, said:

"It was an unfortunate incident and we here at the Fluvanna schools are very sorry that it happened. The basketball team will continue to show good sportsmanship as it has done in the past.

"The team, of course, was not responsible for the incident.

'We'll do our best to prevent such an incident happening again in the future."

The probation does not mean that Fluvanna can not field a basketball team next winter. It only means that if anything else gets out of line during the next two years at Fluvanna, an automatic two-year suspension will result.

3 Local Lads Lose In TAAF

ODESSA, March 22 (Special) — Three Snyder Optimist Club boxers dropped opening night decisions in the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation tournament here Thursday night.

One of the losses came in the "Pee Wee Division" where Don Deere lost on a TKO in the first round to Doug Woodard of Sweetwater.

The other two Snyderites seeing action were in the 135-pound division in the high school class.

Kenneth Steele lost a split-decision to Mike Phillips of Crane while R. L. Bessire was decisioned by John Hinnett of Pecos.

Five other Snyder boys are entered and all are expected to see action tonight.

Queens Reach AAU Finals

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Wayland College of Texas will face Iowa Wesleyan tonight in the finals of the National AAU Women's Basketball Tournament.

Iowa Wesleyan provided the change from last year's cast by upsetting Nashville, Tenn., 44-39 last night. Nashville was runner-up to Wayland in the 1956 finals.

Wayland had to mind it's business last night to defeat Kansas City Midland, 48-44, and some observers predicted Iowa Wesleyan might break the Texans' three-year hold on the title.

Kansas City Midland and Nashville will play for third place.

Jackson, Miss., won the consolation championship last night, whipping St. Joseph Platt 60-29.

Mustangettes Dim Tigerette Flag Hopes

Sweetwater dealt a severe blow to the Tigerette flag hopes last night by downing the injury-riddled SHSians, 23-12, at Tiger Gym.

The loss was the second against two wins for the Tigerettes. With the win, Sweetwater remained in a tie for the district lead with Lamesa, each with 3-1 records.

The Tigerettes will make their final bid to stay in the running for the championship next Monday or Tuesday night at Lamesa. The game is scheduled for Monday but it may be shifted to Tuesday, Tigerette coach Bertie Machel said today.

Sweetwater jumped out front, 7-0, last night before the Tigerettes could find their scoring punch. The Tigerettes fought back to make it 9-5 at halftime.

But the Mustangettes caught fire again in the early stages of the second half to move ahead 15-5 and the ultimate outcome wasn't in doubt the remaining distance.

Two Tigerette regulars, Oma Ivison and Ann Emerson, didn't see action. Miss Ivison is suffering from a sprained ankle while Miss Emerson is ill.

Anna Lou Joines and Blenda Stone led the Tigerette servers last night with four each. Jo Hawthorne had two and Viola Hinojos and Janelle Moore one each to round out the Tigerette scoring.

Sweetwater also won the "B" game, 25-23. Heleven Ivison, with eight serves, led the Tigerette B teamers. Betty Morgan had six, Xan Dunn four, Patricia Page three and Annette Hok two for the other Tigerette markers.

20 SHS Athletes To Odessa Meet

About 20 Snyder High School athletes left today for Odessa where they'll take part in the track, golf and tennis activities at the West Texas Relays today and tomorrow.

44 Schools Entered In HS Division

ODESSA (AP)—The West Texas Relays open today with a big high school field first to see action but major interest spotlights the university and college classes where Abilene Christian and East Texas State appear supreme.

The collegians, featuring Abilene Christian's Olympic great, Bobby Morrow, lash at a gaudy list of records tomorrow.

Forty-four high schools have athletes in preliminaries this afternoon and half a dozen records, most of them in the field events, are in danger.

Potential record-crackers are Bayles Bennett of Amarillo in the pole vault, Bud Morgan of Snyder and W. A. Kennedy of Odessa in the hurdles, Raeford McIlhaney of McCamey in the shot put, Mike Ellington of San Angelo in the broad jump and Carlos Gonzales of El Paso in the mile.

Gonzales appears the most certain. State champion in the mile, the sturdy El Paso High youngster has already bettered the West Texas Relays mark of 4:34.1 by an easy margin. Gonzales did 4:27.8 at the Southwestern Recreation Meet in Fort Worth. He holds the record here himself.

Morrow will be after the university division record of 9.5 and also will anchor 440-yard and 880-yard relay teams that are likely to hang up new marks.

East Texas State's balanced team that triumphed in both the Border Olympics and the Southwestern Recreation Meet will be competing against Texas Western, Hardin-Simmons, McMurry, Howard Payne and Sul Ross.

Coach Jim Stehley took 10 trackmen, while coaches J. P. Ward of tennis and Hal Battle of golf took four and five boys respectively.

Powell Berry, ace high hurdler on the Tiger track team, didn't make the trip because of an ankle injury he suffered in workouts last week.

The track squad consisted of:

Bud Morgan — low and high hurdles, mile relay.

Rex Wilson — low and high hurdles, mile relay, high jump.

Bobby Pollard — 100-yard dash, mile relay.

John Ward — sprint medley, mile relay, 880 relay.

Johnny Drake — sprint medley, 880 relay.

Robert McCarter — sprint medley, 880 relay.

Israel Hinojos — sprint medley, 880 relay.

Dickie Martin — Pole vault.

Billy Dubose — High jump.

Tennis players making the trip were Ronnie Smith, Rockney Pletcher, Danny Tankersley and Pat Murphy. The Tiger net match with Hamlin yesterday was called off as Hamlin failed to show.

Golfers to the Odessa affair included Eddie Dyer, Jimmy Cloud, Gene Bruton, Ted Lamb and Don Breyer.

NO PUNITIVE ACTION

Broadway Star Likes His Role

By INEZ ROBB

Ever since "Visit to a Small Planet" opened on Broadway six weeks ago, I have been waiting for it to be closed as subversive by the combined indignation of the Pentagon, the amalgamated laundry industry of the U.S.A. and flying saucer addicts.

All three groups are militantly sensitive to the slightest criticism, and in this Broadway hit, Eddie Mayehoff, star of stage, screen, radio and teevee, makes mincemeat of the trio. In turn, I expected them to make hash of him.

But when I saw Mayehoff the other day, he was in fine fettle. The adhesive tape on his right hand only indicated a decision lost to a balky window.

In the play, Mayehoff is a general in charge of the Army's wet wash who comes in accidental contact with a flying saucer and its key occupant, Kreton (Cyril Ritchard). In the encounter, Mayehoff, as General Powers, is heroically, monumentally incompetent.

"So far, there has been no count action by vigilantes," said Mayehoff, who rolls the audience in the aisles as General Powers. "I still get starch in my no-starch shirts. But this is nothing new, so I don't think it's punitive action.

"Every now and then, I see a real Army general out front, and he is usually laughing harder than anyone else. I never figured the part made fun of generals, anyway. Powers is just another poor slob behind the eight-ball who happens to be a general. I've been playing the part of a poor, frustrated slob for so long that I gambled on people identifying the part with me, and not the Army, per se.

"I like this part because the general is my kind of character. He's frustrated and baffled at every turn, and that's for me as a comic. You see, I'm not an actor; I'm a comedian. An actor is a man of versatility and range, a man of many parts. My kind of a comedian, if he's smart, just plays himself.

"Jack Benny has been a successful cheapskate for years. The late Bill Fields was always a quack. And the French actor, Raimu, always played a sentimental, provincial Frenchman or a Gallic slob. Raimu has always been my ideal. My aim is to do the same thing on this side of the Atlantic, to play the sentimental, small-town, provincial American or slob."

"Small-town people like you and I should stick together," said this proud product of Norwalk, Conn., the Clam City. "Our homeliness should be preserved like other natural resources, such as top soil, forests and water resources.

"In fact, that is known as the Mayehoff doctrine, like the Monroe or Eisenhower doctrine. It is also known as the Clam City outlook. Too many of us small-town people come to the big city and lose the human touch. We lose our sense of responsibility for each other, and we begin to treat people like transients instead of neighbors.

Pretty soon we begin to feel we have to be a bigger rat then the rat next door, and that's no good. Anyway, that's the kind of sentimental, provincial slob I am.

"That's the kind of man the general is, too--baffled and frustrated, but not licked. There are millions of us in America, and the Mayehoff doctrine aims to keep it that way."

Boost In Principal Crops Being Planned

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas farmers plan to put about two per cent more of their acreage in principal crops this year, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

The USDA said the only exception in the trend noted through March was cotton, which was not included in the prospective planting survey. Substantial increases were indicated for sorghums, Irish potatoes, peanuts and oats, with the acreage of barley and hay expected to be moderately higher.

The department noted sharply reduced plantings of wheat, flaxseed and sweet potatoes, with more moderate reductions indicated for corn, rice and rye.

Steinbeck Is Invited To Sooner Exposition

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Author John Steinbeck will be invited to assist in the formal opening program of the Oklahoma Semicentennial Exposition, June 14-July 7.

It was Steinbeck's story of Oklahoma families migrating to California during the depression years that formed the background of his famous novel, "The Grapes of Wrath."

Exposition Director James C. Burge said officials wanted Steinbeck to visit here so he could get a look at the "new Oklahoma."

Battle Of The Bats

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The house has unanimously passed a bill allowing persons with bats in the belfry to kill them. It has been illegal in Texas since 1917. Rep. J. B. Wulling of Wichita Falls said the bats constitute a health hazard.

Cotton Plan Is Opposed By Official

DALLAS (AP) — Joseph Henican Jr., president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, said yesterday the government's agriculture program is leading to socialism.

"The government's agricultural program is taking us more and more into socialism through the Commodity Credit Corp.'s replacement of private market facilities," said Henican.

He said the government's above-world-prices have resulted in the cotton farmer having only one buyer for his products.

Malcolm Rogers, president of the New York Cotton Exchange, also spoke out against the government program.

"The farmer puts his cotton in the CCC," said Rogers. "He leaves it there if there's a profit to him. He takes it out if there's a loss to the government—and the taxpayers."

Both men said the result has been to eliminate private marketing facilities. They were in Dallas at the annual meeting of the Texas Cotton Assn.

Henican said since Jan. 1, 1956, 7,500,000 of the 12,100,000 bales of cotton handled, have been sold out of the CCC and 4,600,000 have been taken into the loan program.

"The government has bypassed the entire distribution system and now is both the only buyer and the only seller," said Rogers.

Parent Law Is Opposed

DETROIT (AP) — Dr. Ralph D. Rabinovitch says legislation making parents responsible for the delinquent acts of their children is "primitive and destructive."

"Such treatment puts parents on the defensive," the noted psychiatrist told a meeting of the Child Welfare League of America.

"It is a mockery of the work we are trying to do to help parents," he said. "We should be holding out the hand of sympathy."

"There are distinct cases when legal action against parents is necessary, but these are separate things," he said.

Dr. Rabinovitch is director of the Hawthorne Center for Disturbed Children at Northville, Mich.

Wine, Women And Car Leads To His Downfall

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—One traffic light pole, one electric light pole, one mailbox, a set of stone steps, a store front (on three occasions), two parked cars — all were knocked down or otherwise displaced by 18-year-old Lovey Berger.

He gave police this formula: a spat with his girl, remorse, a bottle of wine, a half-gallon of beer, a pint of whisky and a 1947 automobile.

Police made another reckoning: drunken driving, hit and run, assault and battery, reckless driving, and driving without a license.

Former Rifleman Is Just Not Convinced

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Assemblyman Thomas M. Reese, a combat rifleman in Europe in World War II, objected when a bill came before the Assembly Ways and Means Committee to increase the salary of Maj. Gen. Earle M. Jones, state adjutant general.

Former Pfc. Rees said the proposal to increase Jones' National Guard pay from $15,544 to $17,244 a year "is out of line with the duties he has."

The committee refused to approve the bill.

Hutcheson, Dies Continue Verbal Duel

By The Associated Press

Democrat Martin Dies and Republican Thad Hutcheson Friday continued their verbal duel over the issue of congressional experience in the U.S. Senate race.

Other candidates pushed their campaigns in scattered areas of the state with only 11 days left before the April 2 election. Twenty-two candidates, 20 Democrats and 2 Republicans, were certified by Secretary of State Zollie Steakley.

One, J. Cal Courtney of Dallas, announced his withdrawal Thursday in favor of Dies, but Steakley said it was technically impossible for a candidate to withdraw since absentee balloting already has started and ballots have been printed.

Dies, currently Texas congressman-at-large, re-emphsized his platform plank that experience is a necessary factor to properly perform the duties of a U.S. senator.

At Dalhart Thursday, Dies said: "The senator that Texas elects April 2 will have to assume his duties immediately and there are many grave and important issues pending right now that he will have to act on."

In Amarillo, Hutcheson said he was picking up the challenge of what he called "My Adlai Stevenson conservative opponent, Martin Dies, who has been emphasizing that his legislative experience is an important factor in the race."

Hutcheson said his answer is that he (Hutcheson) has the kind of experience that counts, "namely battling with certain senators and congressmen who opposed the sectional views of the South at the Republican convention and coming away with something worthwhile to show for it."

Hutcheson said he had been chairman of the Southern caucus of the platform committee at the 1956 Republican convention.

He said he was proud to be credited with providing progressive leadership that produced planks which he said solidly represented the Texas point of view.

Those planks, he said, include one in favor of the oil depletion allowance, a natural gas act to remove federal price control and a moderate approach to desegregation problems.

In his speech at Dalhart, Dies also said it is "imperative that we restore a sound fiscal policy in the United States by lowering our national debt."

Courtney, 41, said in a formal statement he was swinging his support to Dies.

"I must admit to myself and my friends that the Hon. Martin Dies is the only conservative candidate who can defeat the liberal-labor bloc that will support Ralph Yarborough," Courtney said.

Senate Probers Hear About Cage

AUSTIN (AP) — Senate investigators have been told that BenJack Cage, who built a temporary insurance empire, passed out checks to state officials or their relatives in Texas, New Mexico, Alabama and Georgia.

E. A. McSpadden, former secretary-treasurer of the ICT Insurance Co., also testified that Garland Smith, when he was chairman of the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners, tipped the firm it would be examined.

The Senate committee, checking the rise and fall of the Dallas company, also questioned yesterday Meyer Rachofsky, a vice president of the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas. He said $200,000 loaned to Cage to start ICT never was removed from the bank.

The Senate committee continued its questioning today and a similar investigating committee in the House was to go back to work at 2:30 p.m. with John McCully, Austin publicity man, who heads Action Agency, testifying.

Action Agency had a $25,000 a year "public relations" contract with ICT with the money to be spent under the supervision of the Texas Federatin of Labor, whose members made up most of the policy holders of the company.

McSpadden identified checks written by Cage or Jack Cage and Co., Inc., management firm of ICT, to R. F. Apodaca, New Mexico insurance commissioner; Col. H. A. Longshore, former Alabama insurance commissioner; Zack Cravey Jr., son of the Georgia commissioner; Byron Saunders, former Texas commission chairman; and Max Rychlik, Smith's son-in-law.

Also identified was a check written by Cage for $2,409 "to entertain" at the December, 1954, national convention in New York of the state insurance commissioners.

Another name mentioned by McSpadden was a "McPherson, deputy commissioner of Alabama." He could not give a first name but said he had seen him in the ICT's Dallas office. The witness said he got "some checks."

He said the notation on the $400 check to Cravey said it was made "to get ICT organized in Georgia." The check was dated Aug. 6, 1953.

Ex-Geologist Pleads Guilty

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Wayne R. Abbott of Denton, Tex., former geologist convicted last year in the theft of geophysical maps from Magholia Petroleum Co., pleaded guilty to one count of income tax evasion yesterday.

A second tax charge in the U.S. District Court was to be dismissed.

Sentencing of the former Oklahoma City man was deferred pending a recommendation from probation officers, Judge W. R. Wallace said.

Abbott was convicted at Dallas last year in the theft of maps valued at $50,000 from Magnolia. He was sentenced to one year in prison and fined $1,000, but the U.S. District Court of Appeals suspended the prison sentence.

Abbott admitted he evaded nearly $11,000 in income tax in 1950. He was charged with filing a return showing an income of $1,973. The government said he actually earned $40,278.

Night Watchman Loses Battle Of Temptation

SELLERSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Quakertown state police say night watchman Clarence T. Bergey told them he fought temptation for 15 minutes in front of an open safe but lost the battle.

Police have charged Bergey with stealing $3,000 from Forrest Lodge of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was night watchman there for eight years.

Bergey told police he remembered on his night off that he had left $10 at the lodge. When he drove to the club to get his money, he said he noticed the safe was unlocked. He said he stood in front of it for 15 minutes before giving in.

He's Not Quite Sure Of The Relationship

WESTON, W.Va. (AP)—A prospective juror at a sanity hearing was asked if he was related to the defendant, Eugene H. Linger, or the man Linger is accused of killing.

"My wife's father's first cousin's wife," replied George J. Garton, "is an aunt of the defendant."

"What relationship do you think that is?" asked Circuit Judge J. Dowell Jennings.

Garton didn't know. He was excused.

New Jersey Pilot Killed In Crash

SHERMAN (AP)—An F86D crash shortly after takeoff yesterday killed 1st. Lt. Edgar L. Saunders Jr., 23, of Westmant, N.J.

Perrin Air Force Base said he took off on a radar training mission and crashed about 12 miles northwest of the base. The Air Force said his last radio contact had given no indication of trouble.

Insanity Plea May Be Made By AF Hero

FORT WORTH (AP) — An Air Force hero of the world's first atomic bomb missions says he wants to plead insanity today to charges of breaking into post offices.

The former Air Force major, Claude R. Eatherly, 38, of Van Alstyne, piloted a B29 reconnaissance plane in the atom bomb attacks on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan in World War II. He won the Distinguished Flying Cross, among other honors.

Eatherly, a former patient at the Waco Veterans Administration, and another former patient, Alvia D. Crews, 38, are charged with breaking into post offices at View and Avoca in West Texas.

At a preliminary hearing yesterday, Eatherly appeared somewhat confused, and told U.S. Commissioner Pete Van Orden he did not want to contest the case. But after learning this meant pleading guilty, he said he wanted a lawyer so he could plead insanity.

Bond of $500 was set by Van Orden and a final hearing was to be held today.

Eatherly said he has spent much of the past seven years in and out of hospitals. Members of his family say he suffers from a mental disorder.

U.S. Atty. Heard Flore said he is prepared to submit evidence at Eatherly's trial in Abilene next month that the former pilot is legally sane.
