Texas Low-Level Nuclear Waste Site

Deadline extended again

By LUIS RIOS

Two West Texas counties told the Texas Low-Level Nuclear Waste Authority where exactly to put its proposed low-level disposal site recommendation in the December 11 issue of the Dallas Morning News.

The article brought to light some answers to long-awaited questions. The protests prompted the agency to extend its deadline for finding a site until mid-February. It will take the agency an additional $100,000 for the project.

The two under review by the agency are Hudspeth and Dimmitt Counties in West Texas. However, Tom Blackburn, special projects director for the Low-Level Waste Authority, said the agency lacking the power to condemn land for their use, cannot simply pick the best spot in Texas, which is located in the Waco area of Central Texas.

Ironically, the authority is contacting real estate brokers and agents for possible purchases of tracts of land in West Texas, despite the fact the best land for the authority's plans is in Central Texas.

Citizens Against Radioactive Exposure chairperson Rita Latimer said the outlook for Mitchell County is very positive.

"A lot of people are thankful we are doing something about it," she said. "We have not heard anything from the agency since December, as a group. It may be perhaps a good indication. It may be that they are not quite as hot and heavy after us."

Rep. Larry Don Shaw (D-Big Spring) who represents the 3,000 people of Hudspeth County, helped write the law creating the authority.

"I think the best site ought to be chosen, and that happens to be Hudspeth County, so be it."

The portions of the counties still under consideration are Baylor, Haskell, Knox, Garza, Webb, Borden, Frio, Throckmorton, Maverick, Dimmitt, Zavala, and LaSalle counties.

Included in the county-makeup are Scurry County, Howard County

(Big Spring) and Mitchell County.

Dimmitt County may very well be out of the picture since former Texas Governor Dolph Briscoe owns 250,000 acres in Dimmitt. The proposed site is approximately two miles from the Briscoe property fence line.

Briscoe also hinted that the site should be put "on land the state already owns in the most remote area of the state possible," thus indicating Hudspeth County.

Ironically, Briscoe's wife, Janie, is on the Board of Regents for the University of Texas, which owns the land in Hudspeth County.

Another thing they have to realize is that the power plants will be in East Texas but the site will be in West Texas, Mrs. Latimer said. She dismally added, "It just doesn't seem right."

"We are not against nuclear power," she said. "But if we can't benefit from it, why handle their trash?"

"We are not condemning nuclear power."

J.R. Fuller elected Chairman of Board

J.R. (Raymond) Fuller

The City National Bank announced the selection of J. R. Fuller as Chairman of the Board, a position formerly held by the late C. C. Thompson. The selection was announced to bank employees and the press on Thursday morning.

Fuller and Mrs. Fuller are owners of Fuller Foods, a supermarket located at Second and Hickory Streets.

He has served on the bank board of directors since 1976 and has served on various committees including the Trust Committee, which he still serves as chairman.

He is a native of Mitchell County and attended schools in the Cuthbert Community area and Colorado City Public Schools and is a graduate of Texas A&M.

He was a Second Lieutenant in World War II and has two battle stars and two Purple Hearts.

He has served as president of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, and president of the Colorado City Country Club and is a board member of Affiliated Foods. He is a vice president and director of Tri-State Bakery of Amarillo.

He is an active "Aggie" and is currently president of the class of 1943, a class of about 1,100 members.

Mr. Fuller said: "It is both a privilege and great responsibility to serve as Board Chairman of The City National Bank, an institution with a history of 83 years' service to the financial needs of Mitchell County with a loyal and capable staff and board of directors. We look forward to a future of growth and continuation of the excellent service which has been identified with The City National Bank throughout its history."

He and his wife, Virginia, live at 1209 Vine Street and are parents of two daughters and have three grandsons.

WINTER FINALLY MADE IT TO Mitchell County and Colorado City Thursday night. The snow, which was barely enough to cover the trees and ground, blanketed a local residence across from the City National Bank.

County collects fines for DWI charges in excess of $2,000

Mitchell County collected $2,834 fines and costs of court for nine DWI and DUI charges that were pleaded before county Judge Bill Carter in pre-trial hearings. County attorney Pat Barber presented the cases to the court.

Fines and punishment will be much more severe beginning January 1, 1984 when the new DWI laws go into effect.

The cases presented by Barber included:

One driving under the influence of drugs (marijuana)—$500 fine, $77 cost of court; thirty days in jail suspended under two years of probation.

One DWI—$500 fine, $77 cost of court; one hundred and twenty days in jail suspended under two years of probation.

One DWI—$200 fine, $50 cost of court; thirty days in jail suspended under six months of probation.

One DWI—$200 fine, $60 cost of court; twenty days in jail suspended under probation for six months.

One theft—$50 fine, $50 cost of court; ten days in jail suspended under probation for six months.

One unlawfully carrying a handgun—$50 fine, waived cost of court; five days in jail suspended under probation for six months.

One DWI—$200 fine, $50 cost of court; thirty days in jail suspended

Four indictments returned by jury

A Mitchell County Grand Jury returned four indictments, one which included an aggravated robbery count, in the 32nd Judicial Court Wednesday.

Jack Benny Woodson was indicted for aggravated robbery of B&J's liquor store at 405 E. 2nd Street that occurred October 24. Woodson, who is reportedly from Banning, Calif., was arrested in the Loraine city limits.

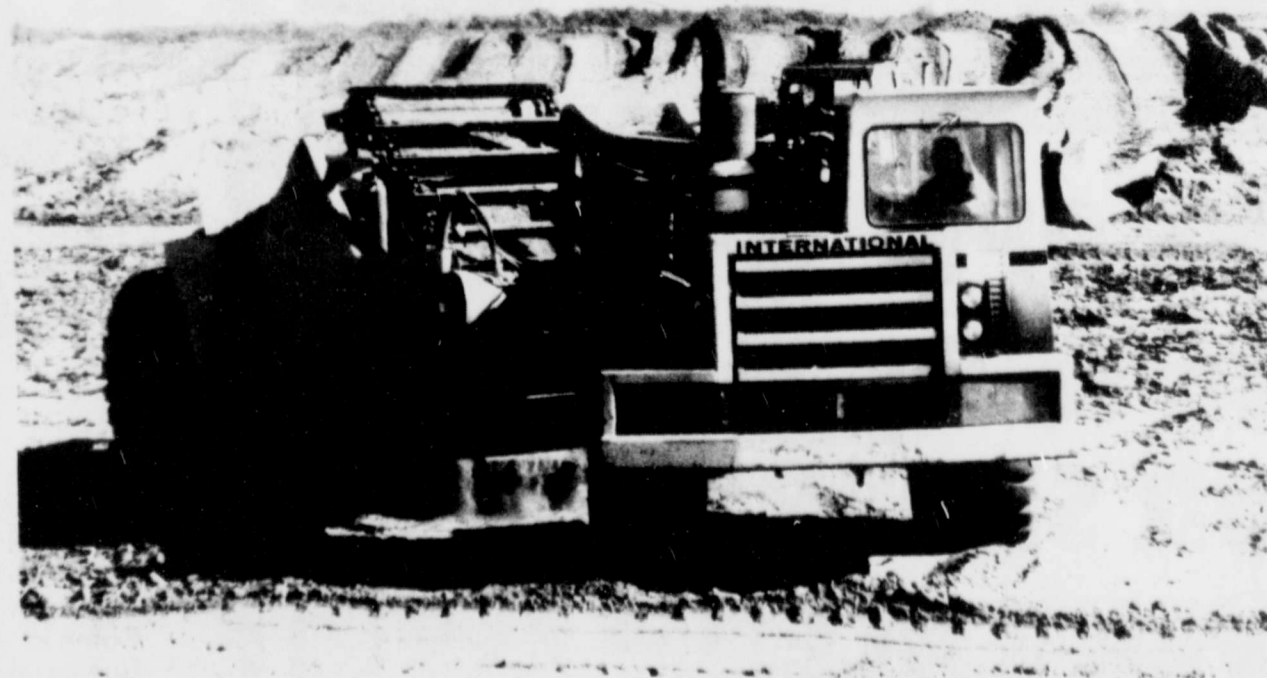

George Dye was re-indicted for a theft that occurred August 17. Dye was earlier indicted and convicted for aggravated assault causing serious bodily damage in an incident in Taylor County on August 22, 1977. He was earlier indicted and convicted for burglary of an automobile September 6, 1963 in Stephens County.

His earliest indictment and conviction came in Midland County for unlawful possession of narcotics drug paraphernalia. He was convicted. See FOUR, Page 2

EXCAVATION on the sewer system's holding pond on the Morris Hammond farm two miles south of Colorado City is about 20 percent complete, City Manager Rick Crowley said. "The lake's capacity will be 22 million gallons," he says, "or about two months discharge from the sewer plant." Crowley says that most of the effluent will be used in irrigation, but the city may at its option discharge fifty percent of the pond into the river, according to the permit issued by the state water board.

victed February 17, 1961. Beryl Alan Thompson was also indicted for driving while his license was suspended and also for resisting arrest. Dye reportedly kicked Mitchell County Sheriff's deputies Bobby Callo-way and Edward Tersero during the arrest on November 26. Dye's license was suspended on April 8, 1982. On the same date he was convicted for driving while intoxicated (mis-demeanor charge) in Hartley County. The in-cident occurred July 4, 1981.

Police investigating business burglary

The Colorado City Police Department is currently investigating the burglary of a local business where over $800 of shotguns and ammunition were taken, said Chief of Police Ed Wheat.

The burglary actually occurred December 10 at Burrus Grocery. The time of the burglary happened between 5 p.m. and 8 a.m. on December 9 and December 10, according to the police report.

Taken in the breakin was a Savage double-barreled 410 shotgun worth $230, a Remington pump 20 gauge Model 870 shotgun worth $298, a Savage pump 410 rib-barreled shotgun worth $198 and 11 boxes or cartons of 357 ammo, 22 caliber long rifle shells, 22 long shell Winchester shells, 2.22 shells, 300 Remington shells and nine bottles of Hoppe gun oil.

The items taken in the burglary were worth approximately $882.77.

The subject or subjects initially attempted to breakin through the front door but were unsuccessful, according to the police report.

The subject later went to the west side of the store and broke out a window and went into the store. The subject was thought to be wearing leather shoes or boots because of the prints left behind.

The police are looking for leads, Wheat said.

The C-City Police Department also recovered the stolen oilfield equipment that was reported stolen to the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department. The Police Department recovered the items Thursday morning.

The theft included some oilfield tubing elevators, elevator bells, and two packers. The battery charger taken in the robbery was not recovered.

The incidences were reported in the Cedar Bend area of Mitchell County by the Sheriff's Department. The total value of the items was $9,000.

Insurance Tips by Randy Phillips & Associates
ADDITIONAL LIVING EXPENSE
A "Hidden" Coverage In Homeowners Policy

Additional Living Expense includes Rental Value coverage. The Additional Living Expense feature applies to the necessary increase in living expense resulting when loss from a covered peril causes the premises to become untenable. "Un-tenable" is an important term. Following a partial loss, the insured might prefer to move into temporary quarters as a matter of convenience while the damage is being repaired and expect to be compensated for the additional living expense brought on by the move. In the absence of reasonable un-tenability, recovery under this feature might be a source of dispute.

There are many "hidden" coverages such as these in your Homeowners policy. Call us at Randy Phillips & Associates if you would like to ask any questions concerning any of your insurance needs.

Marian's Memos

By Marian Morris

With Christmas nearly here, you are faced with two very different food needs. One is a hearty meal that can be prepared quickly after a long shopping spree, the other an elegant dish for guests. One vegetable can fill both needs, the potato. Potatoes are rich in nutrients. A potato is chock-full of vitamin C, iron, phosphorus, potassium, starch and some B vitamins. Most of the nutrients are stored close to the skin, so if you are paring a potato, remove only the thin skin.

For a quick meal after shopping for Christmas gifts, try a scalloped potato and beef casserole. Combine 2 cups of thinly sliced potatoes and 1½ cups of milk in a saucepan. (Save time and nutrients by scrubbing the potatoes well and slicing with the skin on). Cook over low heat for 15 to 20 minutes, taking care not to let the milk scorch. Sauté ½ pound of hamburger and ¼ cup of diced onion in a skillet until brown. Drain well on a paper towel. Place a layer of potatoes in a greased baking dish, sprinkle with 1 teaspoon of flour and a little salt and pepper. On top of that, add one-third of the meat and onion mixture. Alternate layers of potatoes, flour and meat, ending with a layer of potatoes. Dot with 1 tablespoon of melted butter or margarine and cover. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes. Remove the cover and bake 10 minutes longer or until browned on top. You may desire to sprinkle grated cheese on top before baking the last 10 minutes. This casserole, teamed with a tossed salad will feed four hungry shoppers. It can be prepared several days in advance on slow days and stored in refrigerator or until needed.

For that special dinner party, let potatoes again lead the way. The baked potato souffle will bring ooh's and ah's from guests. Wash and dry six medium baking potatoes. Prick with a knife before baking in a 400 degree oven for one hour. Remove from oven, cut in half and scoop out the inside of the potato, leaving a "potato boat." Mash the potatoes with 1½ teaspoons of salt, a pinch each of black pepper and nutmeg, two tablespoons of butter and three tablespoons of hot milk. Separate one egg and add the yolk to the potato mixture. Beat the white until stiff and fold in. Refill the potato shells with the mixture, piling to lofty peaks. Sprinkle with grated cheddar cheese and fresh parsley, bake at 350 degrees until browned. Garnish with paprika or stuffed olives. Serve piping hot.

Christmas dinner enjoyed by Circle members

The Agape Circle of the First Methodist Church met Monday evening December 12 in the home of Peggy Ratliff for their Christmas dinner and program.

The home was beautifully decorated with the Christmas decor. The salad dinner was served with Christmas appointments at each table. Hostesses were Juanita Coker, Betsy Davis and Rochelle Smith.

The group was welcomed by the president Juanita Coker who introduced those who were to bring the program.

Mimi Johnson sang Christmas special numbers accompanied at the piano by Tracey Womack.

A love offering was taken to be given to a needy family.

Kathy Anderson was presented by President Juanita Coker who gave the Christmas story as follows:

The topic of the Christmas message, given by Kathy Anderson, was "What if Mary had said No?" Mary had the choice of accepting or rejecting God's plan for her to bear the Christ-child. Happily for mankind, she decided to obey the Lord by saying, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be to me according to your word."

Dialogue from "Two from Galilee" by Marjorie Holmes illustrated why Mary might have had second thoughts about obeying God if she had stopped to ponder her immediate future. Who would believe her story that an angel appeared to her and that the child she carried was the Messiah? Disgrace was in store for her, her family and Joseph as they viewed her situation with human understanding.

Mary said yes to God and He took care of the circumstances. God is still looking for handmaidens today, those who will say yes to Him.

In a season when we tend to think of Jesus as a baby, let's remember that He was Creator of the universe before time began; He is King of Kings now; and He will be the Prince of Glory forever.

Those present were:

Della Fox, Rochelle Smith, Kathy Anderson, Dera Winn, Ora Fisher, Billie Martin, Lonnie Pruitt, Ann Brown, Frances Godwin, Betsy Davis, Nelda Garrett, Elizabeth Elliott, Phyllis Glover, Ethel Hardegre and Peggy Ratliff. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Henry Salley, Lil Brown, Mimi Johnson and Tracey Womack.

The closing prayer was given by Rev. Salley.

Roach, Strain united in evening ceremony

Sawanna Lea Roach became the bride of Larry Strain at 7 p.m. on November 5 at Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Roach and Mr. and Mrs. Waddell Strain of Colorado City.

The registry table in the foyer was covered with ivory floor length cloth held arrangement of a nosegay and streamers of peach roses, sinuata static and treated maiden hair fern. Registering guests for the evening was Jackie Hackfield.

The altar was centered two-seven branch brass candlelabras and two rainbow candleabras. Matching pair of nine branch candelabras marked the bottom of the stairway. Six votive candle arrangements marked the family pews.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Randy Perkins. Prenuptial selections were played as guests were being seated.

Kay Hopper began with a solo, "Twelfth of Never" as the grandparents were being seated and "Endless Love" as the mothers were being seated. The minister, groom and attendants entered to "Bridal Chorus." Other selections were "There is Love," and "El Shaidi." The recessional was "The Wedding March."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer gown of Ivory tissue taffeta and re-embroidered alencon lace.

The bodice of soiled alencon lace, had pearls and opal sequins trim, and came below the waist. The sheer V-yoke of imported English net had a high neck of lace. The lace made the long Juliet sleeves.

The double circle skirt was of the tissue taffeta and featured a chapel length train.

The headpiece was a bondeau with alencon lace, flowers and pearls centered them. Her veil was a two-tiered finger tip of imported illusion.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of peach roses, sinuata static, treated maiden hair fern and brown dried button stems. Streamers of peot bridal satin completed the bouquet.

For something old the bride wore a diamond ring worn by her grandmother, her mother and at the present by her sister, Sharon Hanford. Something new was her dress. She borrowed Lee Ann Shields string of pearls and wore a blue garter. The bride also carried a handkerchief given to her by her sister-in-law, Marilyn Roach and presented her mother and future mother-in-law a monogrammed handkerchief. Pennies minted in the years of the couple's birthdates were placed in her shoe.

Sharon Roach Hanford of Phenix, AZ, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Roach of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride and Tamra Beasley of El Paso.

They wore identical formal gowns of Irrescent Copper-Brown Taffeta featuring off the shoulder puffed sleeves, with rosebuds accenting the neckline. The bridesmaids carried hurricane candle cascading bouquets of peach sinuata static and treated maiden hair fern and brown river fern with peach loops and streamers. Hair pieces of treated maiden hair fern, brown river fern and peach sinuata static were worn.

Starling Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Shields, was flower girl. She wore an apricot gown with a scoop neckline, puffed sleeves and a flowing sash down the back of the gown. She wore apricot flowers with baby breaths in her hair to accent her dress. She carried a white eyelet basket tied with apricot brown and beige ribbons with peach rosebuds.

Ryan Hanford, the bride's nephew was ring bearer. He carried an Ivory heart-shaped pillow that held the couple's rings.

The groom wore a full dress brown western suit with an ivory pleated shirt, brown bow tie and vest. His boutonniere was of treated maiden hair fern and sinuata static.

Robert Cox was best man. Groomsmen were Eddie Strain, brother of the groom and Kirk Morris, cousin of the groom, all of Colorado City.

Ushers were Dee Roach of Amarillo, brother of the bride and Jimmy Haggerton of Stanton, brother-in-law of the groom. Groomsmen, ushers, ring bearer and the bride's father wore identical western suits as the groom did and treated maiden hair and sinuata static boutonniere.

The bride's mother wore a chocolate brown dress and the groom's mother wore a navy blue and beige dress. Both wore corsages of peach roses, sinuata static and treated maiden hair fern.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a floor length Ivory Satin cloth, made by Lillian Williamson. Centered on the table was a silver candelabrum.

Serving at the table were Marla Sterling and Sherry Thompson. The wedding cake was topped with a fresh flower nosegay of peach carnations, starburst mums and sinuata static, with candles and fresh flowers accenting her colors.

The groom's table was covered with a floor length ivory cloth. It was centered with a candle of the family's brand, Seven-Bar. The horseshoe-shaped chocolate cake had the family brand, and a brass western hat, and pair of boots in each corner. Coffee was served by Kelly Roach and Lee Ann Shields.

Tables were set up for the guests with small arrangements of fresh apricot flowers, with beige and brown ribbons, accenting her fall colors.

Following a trip to Florida, the couple will reside in Stanton, where he is active in farming and ranching.

The bride is a graduate of Snyder High School and the groom is a graduate of Colorado High School.

The bride attended Western Texas College and Angelo State University and was formerly employed by Flag-Redfenu Oil Co. in Midland.

The bride was given a luncheon in the home of Sherry Thompson. Members of the house-party were Marla Sterling, Jackie Hackfield, Lee Ann Shields and Sherry Thompson. Mrs. Miller and Robinson were wedding consultants.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Snyder Country Club.

Out of town guests were from Amarillo, El Paso, San Angelo, Midland, Lubbock, Abilene, Stanton, Colorado City and Phoenix, AZ.

Christmas Cantata set today at FBC

The adult choir of the First Baptist Church will present the "King of Love" Christmas Cantata today (Sunday) at 7 p.m.

The musical presentation is a traditional Christmas collection of carols and scripture that depict the birth of Christ.

The collection of music and scripture was compiled by Mr. Rodger Strader and the arrangements for the program were made by Mr. Bob Krogstad, the son-in-law of composer John W. Peterson.

Although the adult choir of First Baptist presented this musical shortly after its release in 1978; the powerful message and the strong musical arrangements made it a must that the Cantata be presented again this year.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Cantata in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church of Colorado City tonight at 7 p.m.

Arispe finds time to bake

Juanita Arispe

Juanita Arispe is your typical working wife. The type of wife that has one million and one half things to do and having only 45 minutes to do them.

But with job in the bookkeeping department at City National Bank, Mrs. Arispe still finds time to cook and bake for her husband, Ronnie and two children Nicole and Ronnie, Jr.

"I don't cook as often as I would like to," she said. "I just don't have the time. But I bake more than I cook."

"I like baking better. I'm not as good at cooking. I enjoy baking breads and cookies."

With the time factor Mrs. Arispe finds herself baking late at night for the next day. A lot of goodies she cooks she takes to work with her, she said. Mrs. Arispe has already started baking for the Christmas season. She was preparing different dishes for four Hutchinson School teachers and her son's kindergarten teacher.

Mrs. Arispe was employed with the Hutchinson School as an aide before working at City National Bank.

Although baking takes up most of her time in the kitchen, Mrs. Arispe still finds time to "cook." She said she liked to use a crockpot to fix meals.

"I like to use the crockpot because I can fix something at lunch-time and it will be ready by supper," she said.

One of her favorite recipes for a crockpot is chicken in mushroom gravy.

Her husband enjoys the late-hour baking binges Mrs. Arispe gets. Time and time again one can find him enjoying hot bread or cookies with coffee while watching the late news or late movie.

Here are three of Mrs. Arispe's recipes to share with RECORD readers.

CHICKEN IN MUSHROOM GRAVY
1-3 pound chicken cup up (or 3 whole chicken breasts halved)

Salt and pepper
1-10³/₄ oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup

1-4 oz. can sliced mushrooms, drained.

Place chicken pieces in crockpot. Season with salt and pepper. Mix broth and soup; pour over chicken. Add mushrooms. Cover and cook on low 7-9 hours. (High 3 to 4 hours).

Serve over rice.
FRESH APPLE CAKE
3 cups sifted flour

1 teaspoon baking soda

1/2 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon cinnamon

1 cup cooking oil

2 cups sugar

2 eggs

2 teaspoons vanilla

3 cups chopped fresh apples

Preheat oven 325 degrees. Grease and flour a 13x9x2 pan. Sift together flour, baking soda, salt and cinnamon. In large mixer bowl combine cooking oil and sugar, cream thoroughly; add eggs and vanilla and continue beating until light and fluffy. Add sifted dry ingredients and apples and beat on low speed just until thoroughly blended. Pour into pan and bake 1 hour and 15 minutes.

SAND TARTS

1 cup butter

5 tablespoons powdered sugar

2 cups flour

2 teaspoons vanilla

1 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Cream butter and sugar. Work flour, vanilla and nuts into creamed mixture. Form into small balls. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or until lightly browned. Roll tarts in additional powdered sugar while still warm. Yield: 6 dozen.

Robertson

Funeral services for William Ernest Robertson, 78, were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Oak Street Baptist Church.

Rev. Harold Davis, pastor, officiated.

Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home. Robertson died Tuesday morning following an illness in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Born November 25, 1905 in Limestone County, he was a long time resident of Mitchell County. He was a water well driller. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

He married the former Erin Hollman on August 18, 1927 in Midland. She died on December 17, 1955. He then married Della Harrison on January 31, 1976.

Survivors include his wife, Della; two daughters, Lillian Carruthers of Irving and Elsie R. Harvell of Big Spring; seven stepchildren, Elaine Peterman of Fort Worth, Mona Mathers of Silver, Chris Normand of Baton Rouge, La., Conrad Normand of Sh-allowater, Gene Normand of Hurst, Joe Normand of Springtown and Larry Harrison of Quinlan; a brother, Charles J. Robertson of Abilene; 17 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Casketbearers were Jim Carruthers, Edward Harvell, David Harvell, Conrad Normand, Joe Normand and Larry Harrison.

Birthday cake served to senior citizens

"T'was the night before Christmas" was the theme used on the monthly birthday cake made for the Senior Citizens at the Wallace Center and centerpieces being used are lantern globes, candles, and Christmas greenery. Take home cupcakes were given to all the December birthday honorees.

Helping with the project were Ann Ingram and Irma Ann Thoras, members of the WFW Ladies' Auxiliary.

Lorraine B&PW enjoys party

The Lorraine Business and Professional Women's Club met in the traditional decorated home of Mrs. Louise Holland Monday night for their annual Christmas dinner. Each brought the favorite Christmas salad, so this meal was of great variety. Each club member chose a senior citizen of the Lorraine Nursing Home to remember at their Christmas party on December 16. Marsha Rickard, Administrator of the Home found sizes, wishes and needs for members to go by in buying the gifts.

Billie Ruth Tartt directed the gift exchange which was really a game. Each one was given a number and selected the gift from the tree of their choice. The next drew another gift, and if she chose to do so, she could take the first member's gift, this went on all the evening, and the last person to draw could choose any gift that had been drawn, this proved to be very exciting and provided a lot of fun.

Members present were Ann Preston, Pam Butler, Doris Henderson, Billie Ruth Tartt, Marsha Rickard, Sally Compton, Bertha F. Snyder, Fields Blair Wanza Graham, Margaret Brame, Billie Schroeder, Louise Taylor Darlene Hamrick and Hallmark and Fay Lee

"Christmas blues" spur from various reasons

Christmas holidays bring thoughts of Santa, snow, gifts, bountiful food, parties and good cheer; but for some people, it brings feelings of sadness known as the "Christmas Blues."

According to Randall Ratliff, Ph.D., assistant professor of psychology at Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, people who feel unhappy during the holiday season are not alone.

"Some people have great difficulty getting into the holiday mood and in fact become quite unhappy at the holiday season. They are among a substantial group of people who are experiencing a 'Christmas reaction,' he said. 'Many physicians and mental health professionals can relate cases where holidays seem to trigger reactive episodes.'

Some of the symptoms associated with the 'Blues' include alteration of appetite and food intake, impaired sleep, decreased energy, irritability and a loss of a sense of well being. Sometimes there may even be thoughts of suicide.

Dr. Ratliff described various factors that can trigger this reaction at Christmas. These include financial burden of giftgiving, intensification of unhappy relationships, isolation and loneliness, separation of family due to distance or death and unrealistic expectations.

The psychologist stresses the need for increased interaction with other people. "Withdrawal is not the answer," he said, and added, "It is important to remember that 'Christmas Blues,' like other depressions, are time limited. It will pass, usually by early January."

Wildcats avenge loss with striking play

By TONY FRANCO
Last Tuesday, the Westbrook Wildcats avenged a loss with a 52-47 victory over McCauley. Last weekend the Badgers defeated Westbrook in the finals of their own McCauley Invitational basketball tournament.

In that second place finish, Donald Burnett and Dewayne Hayes scored 24 and 23 points respectively. In Tuesday night's game, Burnett and Hayes had 23 points each to lead the Wildcats.

Coach Jim Hill said, "In the first and fourth quarters, we played well but the second and third nearly killed us. It's just mistakes."

After jumping out to a 17-14 first quarter lead, the Wildcats scored 10 and nine points in the following two quarters.

At the end of the first half the Wildcats trailed 32-27 and then trailed 38-36 at the end of the third quarter.

In the last quarter, Burnett scored 10 points to lead Westbrook's recapture of the lead.

Leading rebounder for the Wildcats was Hayes with 18 with Burnett adding 11.

"Mistakes prevented us from winning by a big margin," said Hill.

Also scoring for Westbrook were Don Ginker, Don Zant and Kelvin Poe each with two points.

In a game that coach Keith Bundas was less than pleased with, the Westbrook girls defeated McCauley 43-35.

"We missed shots like layups, didn't rebound at all and didn't play every part of our game," said Bundas.

Bundas did cite that his team shot 39 percent from the floor and considered it an improvement.

Despite the rough play, the Wildcats led throughout the game and only allowed one member of McCauley's team to score successfully.

Angela Lentz, who also had a good night rebounding, tied with Elena Lopez for high point honors at 10 points. Gracie Fuentes was right behind with nine points.

Gayla Cook, with whose play Bundas was pleased, scored six points along with Evon Bradshaw. Kellye Smith also scored two points.

Westbrook girls give up close game with Trent

By TONY FRANCO
Turnovers and missed shots cost the Westbrook varsity girls a 35-34 loss to Trent last Tuesday night.

The Wildcats played good team ball throughout the game on defense, and led by Elena Lopez's scoring and Angela Lentz's rebounding, actually led through the first three quarters of play before Trent pulled ahead in the closing minutes.

Leading 26-23 after the third quarter, Westbrook accounted for only two fourth period goals while they turned the ball over to give Trent numerous scoring opportunities.

In the first quarter, Lopez and Lentz teamed up for all of the Wildcats points for a 10-9 lead.

Lopez worked from the outside with hot shooting while Lentz collected both defensive and offensive rebounds for her four points, but a thieving defense and blocked shots by Elizabeth Burnett were mostly responsible for holding Trent down.

Early in the second period, scores by Lopez, Lentz and Stephanie Pierce opened up a 17-10 lead before Trent's shooters warmed up to close the halftime score at 17-16 in Westbrook's favor.

At the start of the second half, the Wildcats defense came out with more pressure, but mental errors and poor shooting enabled Trent to stick with the Wildcats.

Trent seemed poised to take the lead in the closing minutes of the third quarter before rebounding by Lentz and Kellye Smith and buckets by Lopez and Pierce enabled Westbrook to finish the third quarter strongly for a 26-23 lead.

From there Trent capitalized on breaks while Westbrook couldn't get anything going. Their shooting led them past the Wildcats and they held on for the final margin.

Scoring for the Wildcats were Lopez with 13 points, Lentz 11, Pierce six, Burnett three and Gracie Fuentes one.

Freshman action

By TONY FRANCO
Against Wylie last Thursday night, the Colorado City freshmen boys and girls split their two games.

Terry Jackson scored 15 points to lead the boys team to a 46-39 victory over the Bulldogs.

The final margin wasn't that large but the Wolves had built a 35-19 lead after three quarters.

Also scoring for the Wolves, who are now 4-0, were Mike Swann with eight points, David Birmingham seven, Clifford Miles and Scott Dennis six and Larry Mayes four points.

Behind Kelly Beights' 14 points, the freshmen girls reached their twenty point goal in a losing effort of 34-24. Despite losing, coach Linda Mathis indicated that the players felt good about starting to put points on the board.

DeAnne Salley and LeAnne Parker both scored three points and Carmen Reyes and Robin Edwards each scored two for the Wolves' cause.

SENIOR WOLF LAURA BAUM defends a Seminole Maiden during the varsity's 71-69 overtime victory last Tuesday night. Baum finished the night with 25 points.

Wildcats place second in McCaulley tourney

By TONY FRANCO

The Westbrook Wildcats, behind the play of All-Tournament selection Donald Burnett and Dwayne Hayes, captured second place in the McCaulley Invitational basketball tournament held last weekend.

In the championship game against host McCaulley, the Wildcats "played a bad first half" and allowed McCaulley to break the press, according to coach Jim Hill.

Burnett accounted for 24 points and 14 rebounds in the final with Hayes closely behind at 23 points and 14 rebounds in the loss.

You'll be glad

The difference in the 60-52 decision was in the first half as McCaulley turned steals into easy layups.

After being down 40-20 at the half, the Wildcats didn't allow McCaulley a single point in the third period to pull within four at 40-36.

For the final period though, McCaulley responded with 20 points to seal the victory.

"We played hard the second half. They're starting to come around, but it will take a little more time," said Hill.

Also scoring in the final were Kelvin Poe with three points and Clay Browne with two.

To reach the final, Westbrook beat the Roby junior varsity, 44-28 and Paint Creek 33-32.

Against Roby, the Westbrook scoring filtered down to eight players with Burnett again leading with 14 points.

Also scoring were Hayes with 11, C. Browne and Poe with four, Don Ginkinger three and Don Zant, Hollis Browne and Robby Petty with two each.

Though the Wildcats were down throughout the game, they pulled ahead in the final quarter to beat Paint Creek in the second round.

Against Paint Creek, Burnett scored 23 points with Hayes adding eight to go with his team high 11 rebounds.

Also scoring against Paint Creek was Kelvin Poe, who finished with two points.

C-City girls win in overtime

By TONY FRANCO

In a game that saw the lead see-saw back and forth, the Colorado City girls pulled out of their hats a thrilling 71-69 overtime victory over the Seminole Maidens.

The overtime period was a short capsule of how the whole game went. Throughout the game one team would score on a big spurt of offense, then the other team would return the favor.

At the end of regulation play, the score stood at 65-65. After Seminole opened the overtime with a score from right under the basket, senior Wolf Laura Baum answered with a free throw.

The Maidens then worked inside again to pull ahead 69-66. Lynn Scott pulled the Wolves within a point with an outside shot.

With time running out and Seminole in possession of the ball and the lead at 69-68, Scott then stole the ball and drove the basket for the winning margin.

The Maidens had three chances to score following Scott's last score.

Following her score, Scott was called for a foul to send Seminole to the line. The Maidens missed and Baum controlled the rebound for Colorado City. She was then fouled and sank a free throw for the final score.

Colorado City was again whistled for a foul on Seminole's next possession.

The Maidens missed the free throw, then missed on a last second shot after controlling the rebound.

Early in the game, good unselfish team play and scoring by Denise Jackson, Julie Waid and Scott, provided for a 16-13 Colorado City first quarter lead.

The ninth grade boys and girls split their two games against Post last Monday night as the boys won 40-34 and the girls fell 49-17.

For the boys Wolf Terry Jackson scored 14 points as the Pack led from start to finish.

The Wolves outscored the Antelopes in every period but one with Larry Mayes and Clifford supporting Jackson with eight points each.

Also scoring for the Wolves were Scott Dennis and Mike Swann with four points and David Birmingham two.

Holly Tarter scored seven points in the girls low scoring loss.

Also scoring were Kelly Beights with four points and DeAnne Sallye, Andra McKinney and Robin Edwards each with two.

Seminole stretched the lead to 55-43 early in the fourth quarter before Colorado City reeled off 12 unanswered points to tie the game.

From there, defensive pressure from Sheri Morris and Scott enabled Baum, Scott, Waid and Sonja Mercer to stick with the Maidens' offense for the remainder of the quarter.

After Mercer dropped in two clutch free throws to tie the game at 65-65, Seminole worked for a last shot with about 30 seconds left.

With four seconds left, the Maidens were called for travelling to turn the ball over to the Wolves, who couldn't get a shot off in time.

Other scoring totals for Colorado City were Scott with 18 points, Waid and Mercer eight and Traci Blackwell two.

In the junior varsity game, Wolf turnovers and the Seminole fast break led to a 64-26 loss.

Scoring for Colorado City were Priscilla Dawkins with eight points, Cheryl Bentley six, Melanie Rees five, Yolanda Lee four, Diane Gregory two and Shana Biggs one.

Conard, Vanderslice wed in First Baptist Church

Anne Elizabeth Conard of Colorado City and Donald Wayne Vanderslice of Colorado City were united in marriage November 12 at 6 p.m. in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conard of Colorado City. The groom's mother is Donna Dowty of Colorado City.

The double ring vows were said before an arch decorated with greenery and two seven-branched candleabras. The arch was decorated with bows and votive candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white wedding gown made of organza chiffon with motifs of re-embroidered lace. The neckline was a Queen Anne with the empire waistline and full bishop sleeves. The skirt was A-lined with the chapel length train all trimmed with the re-embroidered lace. The veil was of the same lace, chapel length with a bundon. The bride's headpiece was trimmed with pearls.

The bride's flowers included white roses with light blue and white streamers, Stephanotis, Baby's breath and English ivy.

The bride wore a lapel watch from her great grandmothers for something old, a wedding dress for something new, a penny in her shoe for something borrowed and a blue garter made by Betty Shawn for something blue.

The wedding music was played by Cecile Hubbard and the soloist was Martha Anderson.

The matron of honor, Brenda Feaster of Colorado City and sister of the bride, wore a cation blue sheer polyester knit-lined in darken cation blue in polyester; white nylon lace trim, slightly raised waistline with attached satin ribbon belt; flounce trimmed, elastic cuff. The flower she carried was a white carnation.

The bridesmaids were Teresa Stansell of Snyder and Bridgett Turner Law of Colorado City. The flowergirl, Alison Conard, niece of the bride, lives in Sweetwater.

The candlelighters were Marlene Tucker, sister of the groom, and Steve Williamson, nephew of the groom.

The best man was Erick Conard, brother of the bride, who lives in Austin. The groomsmen were Frank Conard II of Sweetwater, Dennis Williamson of Colorado City, J. R. Maxwell of Colorado City and Julian Reyes of Colorado City.

The bride's table was decorated with a white floor-length nylon organza cloth with draped effect accented with nosegays in bride's colors of blue and white.

The three-tiered wedding cake was separated by grechian columns accented with filigree, confection roses on the cake were the bride's chosen colors. The top ornament was the traditional bride and groom under the bell. The table also included a silver punch bowl, silver nut and mint dish, silver candleabrum for the centerpiece with baby blue candles.

The groom's table was decorated with a silver coffee service, chocolate cake, nuts, and a replica of an oil well.

The songs played included the bride's traditional march, "Chime of the Hour" and then "The Wedding Song." Other songs included "One Hand, One Heart," "Endless Love," and "Author of Love."

"Ice Castles" was played when the parents and grandparents were seated and when the candlelighters entered. "Nadia's Theme" was played.

"Joyful, Joyful" was played when the wedding party came in.

Bruce presents program to C-City B&PW

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club Inc., met for the regular monthly dinner and business meeting, Tuesday evening December 13 at 7 p.m. in the Civic Center. The Personal Development Committee hosted the meeting with Deanna Myers, as chairman. She was assisted by Velma Mosley.

Lona Pritchett of the Good Cheer Committee also helped.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag was given, led by Deanna Myers. Erdine Morgan voiced the Invocation.

Molly Bruce presented the program using the theme, "The Real Meaning of Christmas." Introducing the subject, she recited the story, "Trouble at the Inn," and concluding with the scripture reading in Luke, Chapter 2 verses 1 through 20, the story of the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Lona Pritchett recited the club collect. A love offering was taken for the girls who work in the kitchen.

It was reported that Minna Berman had been injured in an automobile accident in Dallas recently, but is now at home.

It was reported that Wilford Oyler had pruned the tree in the park, at the corner of 2nd and Walnut Street for the club. A card of appreciation was to be mailed to him. Happy Birthday song was sung to members who have birthdays in December.

An exchange of gifts from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree was enjoyed by all who were present.

Guests introduced were: Frances Brooks, Lucille Stone, Pinkie Bautista, Marie Feaster, Dianna Staats and Tracy Webb.

Members present included: Eddie Barclay, Mildred Boyd, Margaret Ann Conaway, Molly Bruce, Christine Cooley, Virginia Dearen, Shirley DeLaney, Annie Dixon, Mildred Free, Nelda Garrett, Jean Holbert, Juanita Schafer, Sallie Rogers, Mary Womack, Ethel Hardegree, Ida Kirschbaum, Erdine Morgan, Velma Moseley, Deanna Myers, Margaret Oyler, La Rue Powell, Lona Pritchett, Rochelle Smith, Faye Spivey, Anna Staats, Ernestine Stubblefield, Thelma Tidwell, Wilma Womack, Helen Webb and Barbara Gray.
