RAISING CAPITAL FOR RAILROAD PROGRESSING

Porter A. Whaley, manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, formerly manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has been loaned by the directors of the commercial organization to the directors of Gulf & West Texas Railroad Company to assist the territory in raising $800,000 capital for the proposed Northwest railroad.

Total of participating preferred stock to be raised to start the railroad is $1,400,000, of which San Antonio's quota is $600,000; San Angelo's $250,000; Corpus Christi's $150,000, and the territory between the north and south points, $400,000.

Decision to loan Whaley to the railroad project backers for a period of 90 days, or as much of it as it is necessary, was taken at an executive meeting Monday of chamber directors and those of the railroad.

Whaley, having worked directly with West Texas commercial bodies, knows their sentiments as regards railroad competition in handling their traffic, and will feel them out from San Angelo north through Sweetwater to Chillicothe regarding the absorption of the Orient by the Santa Fe, it was indicated by N. H. White, local president, after the meeting.

If the absorption should be allowed by the Interstate Commerce Commission and Orient traffic should be diverted from San Angelo east through Temple to Houston and Galveston, it may develop that a railroad from San Angelo to San Antonio would not pay. This phase was discussed at the meeting Monday behind closed doors, it was learned.

There are two possible routes of the proposed road from Fredericksburg, Junction to San Angelo, and three things will combine to determine the route, White said. These are capital that can be raised on each route, feasibility of construction and tonnage that can be furnished.

The two routes are from Fredericksburg through Mason to Brady and from Eden, west of Brady, to San Angelo, on the one hand, and from Kerrville through Junction, Sonora and Eldorado, Schleicher County, on the other.

The plan of raising the capital is one-fourth cash and one-fourth each three months for nine months. Capital could hardly be accepted from Mason until it is determined whether the road will go that way, or from Sonora.

Corpus Christi's interest in the project is the building up of its water port. With the possibility of Orient traffic being diverted from the proposed road, Corpus Christi's interest might be less.

Whaley was in Fort Worth Monday for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce annual convention, attended by thousands, and R. W. Morrison, president of the company sponsoring the Northwest railroad, suggested Whaley would start his work with the West Texas towns at the convention.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING POSTPONED

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce which was scheduled to be held last Tuesday noon was postponed for various reasons, until Tuesday, June 26th, at which time a banquet will be had at the noon hour, and it is urged that every member be present at that time.

Besides the banquet, there will be good music, and quite a large number of important matters will come up for discussion.

Mrs. Emil A. Loeffler and son, Reuben, spent the first of the week with Mrs. Loeffler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spicer, in Kerrville.

ANOTHER BIG BOOST FOR ALL WEST TEXAS

The West Texas Utilities Company have issued a 1928 Year Book entitled "On The Trail of the Buffalo." It gives a pictorial review of the development of the territory west of the Brazos River since the days of long ago as indicated by the title of this splendid book.

The trade territory of this great public utility organization extends throughout a great expanse of the country described, the present system serves one hundred and two cities and towns. In this book there is pictured hundreds of views taken of the schools, churches, municipal buildings, court houses and hotels that will explain at a glance the development of West Texas.

Mr. G. W. Fry, president of this organization, is a member of the Industrial Committee appointed by Governor Moody to interest Eastern Manufacturers in the development of West Texas.

Some four thousand copies of this pamphlet will be placed in industrial and financial centers of the east, where Mr. Fry is now at work in the discharge of his duty on the industrial committee.

This Year Book is written in good style, well printed and in our judgment will do a great service to all the people toward assisting in the development of this fast growing section of Texas.

There are several nice cuts of recently constructed buildings in Junction, together with scenes from our ranch life and with the medium of circulation being used by this company in distribution much good will result by reason of the publication of this Year Book and for which this paper bespeaks the appreciation of Kimble County.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. W. W. Buck entertained the Ladies' Afternoon Card Club and a number of friends in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Cherry, Monday afternoon, at the Hodges Hotel.

Bridge was the medium of entertainment and Mrs. Sam Woodward made high club score. Her reward was a pretty set of hander iced tea glasses, a similar trophy went to Mrs. Vann Martin for guest prize. Mrs. M. Wilkinson was consoled with a box of Three Flowers dusting powder.

Pine apple and pear salad potato chips, olives, white cake and iced tea were served at the close of the afternoon.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. DuBoise and Mrs. John Kountz of Houston, Mrs. Tom Butland of San Antonio and Mrs. Powell Paxton of Buena Vista, Virginia.

Mrs. Joe Fritz and Miss Clara Fritz complimented Mrs. Frank G. Evans and Mrs. Wm. H. Curry with a pretty party, at the Fritz Hotel, last Friday afternoon.

The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out by the use of Shasta daisies, which were placed in bowls and baskets in both the lobby and dining room, they were also used to decorate the tie-backs on the window curtains.

After several bridge games a pretty corsage was presented to Mrs. Earl Barr, who made high score. Similar gifts went to the honorees, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Curry.

Frozen fruit salad on lettuce leaf, potato chips, wafers, lemon cake and iced tea were served on plates laid with a dainty dolly over yellow paper. Shasta daisies were used for plate favors. The tables runners were of yellow crepe paper decorated with Shasta daisies.

Clifford Hamer was a Brady visitor Monday.

NEW WOOL & MOHAIR WAREHOUSE A SUCCESS

For many years our annual production of more than one million pounds of wool and eight hundred thousand pounds of mohair has been sent elsewhere for marketing. We do not blame the commission men who have been selling our raw products in getting this business, but there is no question about a local organization being worth more to a community than any sale could be outside the county limits. Due to a long precedent of selling through our neighbors there was some question about the advisability of building a local house plant, however the venture was attempted and the success to date is more than gratifying. Too late for the spring mohair, and in course of construction during the wool season our local warehouse has already received for sale more than three hundred thousand pounds of wool with shipments continuing to arrive. The sale has been announced for June 20th. The Junction Cattle and Loan Company is deserving of much credit for the establishment of this warehouse and we predict that before many seasons have passed, most of our wool and mohair will be sold through agencies in Junction.

RESIDENCE NEAR JUNCTION BURGLARIZED

On Wednesday night, June 13th, the residence of Carl M. Wolf, ranchman, who lives about one and one-half miles from Junction, was burglarized, and many household articles, some of them very valuable, such as wolf skin rugs, navajo blankets and fine linens, were taken from the house, but all of which were recovered.

Mr. Wolf found indications that pointed to the participants in the burglary and the sheriff's department was set to work on the case. Sunday morning at about eleven o'clock three persons were arrested and are being held in the county jail on the charges of burglary and receiving and concealing stolen goods. The parties names are Henry Schoolcraft, Star Wheat and Charley Litton.

STARNES PARTY HERE

The Starnes Evangelistic party, conducting the meeting this week at the Baptist church, held morning services at the Texan Theatre building Wednesday, with about 400 present. The services have been well attended from the beginning, and interest increasing daily.

Mr. Morris Day is leading the singing and is rendering some excellent music, with Mr. Lee Baum at the piano.

JUNCTION ATTORNEY OUT FOR REPRESENTATIVE

After urgent solicitation of many friends throughout the 86th Representative District, Judge Coke R. Stevenson of this place, has definitely decided to carry forward his race for representative. We have previously announced in these columns that he was being urged to make the race but did not know whether he could make the race as he is a busy man. In the meantime he has had representatives from every county in the district solicit him to make this race and he has been prevailed on to do so.

In view of the fact that Coke is well known in Kimble County, we feel that he needs no introduction to our readers but it goes without saying that he knows this district as perhaps no other man, due to his intimate touch with social and business life. He is a successful ranchman and banker and in addition thereto has a remarkable record as an attorney. His entire lifetime has been spent in the 86th district, where he has learned by observation and experience the needs of our people. He has accumulated sufficient resources to make this race and represent the district without help from any source. If elected, he will be able to stay in Austin and attend to business without financial aid, and consequently will be under no obligation to do other than his absolute duty in any matter, that will arise in the House of Representatives, the coming session. We can unhesitatingly solicit your support and influence in his behalf.

Our neighbor and friend, Judge W. C. Baker of Kerrville, is opposing Coke in this election and from the type and kind of men, who aspire to be our representative, the people of this district is assured a clean, fair race.

C. OF C. HAS A NOVEL DEVELOPMENT SCHEME

In line with their other work for the development of Junction and Kimble County, the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce will purchase an addition to the city of Junction and lay it off into city lots, with streets and alleyways, for the convenience of the residents, with the idea in mind of presenting a lot free of charge, to any bona fide travelling man, who will build a residence on the lot and actually reside here.

The idea has been enthusiastically received by travelling men approached and there seems little doubt but what at least twenty of them are going to construct residences that will be a credit to the city, on the basis above outlined.

Our Chamber of Commerce is giving its attention to getting new settlers interested in locating in this county. They have arranged through our fellow townsmen, E. O. Lowgren, to communicate with the editor of a Swedish newspaper and with his assistance advertise for Swedish stock farmers, in an effort to locate a colony in one of our fertile valleys. These people are substantial and industrious and their settlement here will lend impetus to this fast developing section.

Miss Ve Maddox left Friday for Mexico City where she goes to take a position with Mr. Will Austin as bookkeeper. Miss Ve's many friends regret to have her leave Junction, but extend to her their very best wishes for success in her new position.

Mrs. R. H. P. Wright left Thursday morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Sallivan, for the latter's home in Flatonia, Texas. Mrs. Wright and Carleton will visit in Flatonia and other south Texas towns during the summer, returning home the latter part of August.

TWO POLO GAMES TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY.

The Edwards County Plateau polo team will visit Junction Saturday, and take on the Junction team for a game, at the Skaggs field.

A number of the players have purchased the regulation saddles and will attempt to "hit the ball" while riding them, and as they have heretofore ridden the stock saddle, the game promises to be quite interesting.

The Edwards Plateau team is one of the crack teams of this section, and a fast game is expected, provided, however, the boys can remain seated on the polo saddles. They have some fast horses and good players, and the Junction team will have to "ride some" to hold its own with them.

It is expected to have some other teams here at this time, in which event there will be two games played on this date.

The Junction team asks that all who love the game be present and help swell the gate receipts in order to improve the field and otherwise defray necessary expenses of continuing this sport.

The above article was published last week and the date of June 23rd was omitted. These games are to be played this Saturday on the Skaggs field. Those who appreciate a good game of polo will not be disappointed with these games.

BIERSCHWALE BOY KICKED BY HORSE

One day last week while attempting to doctor a severe cut on the shoulder of an unbroken horse, Clarence Bierschwale, son of H. W. Bierschwale, was kicked in the stomach and was severely, though not seriously injured.

He was given immediate attention and is getting along nicely now.

PARTY

Saturday afternoon, at the Hodges Hotel Mesdames Sam Woodward, Pearl Chadwell and Miss Olive Chadwell entertained the Merry Wives, Laf-A-Lot and Ladies' Afternoon Card Clubs with Mrs. Powell Paxton of Buena Vista, Virginia, and Mrs. James Taylor of Austin as honorees.

Vases filled with coriopsis and sun flowers were placed about the room. The tallies and score cards carried out the wild flower color scheme.

Mrs. Carl Wolf won the Ladies' Afternoon Card Club prize, a set of footed water tumblers, the Merry Wives Club prize went to Mrs. Vann Martin, a set of green iced tea glasses. The guest prize went to Mrs. Wm. H. Curry, an ice crusher set, Mrs. Earl Barr received the Laf-A-Lot prize, a Dresden china basket.

Pressed chicken, potato chips, sandwiches, olives, iced fruit punch and opera sticks brought the afternoon to a pleasant close.

Mrs. John Kountz and Mrs. DuBoise of Houston, Mrs. Powell Paxton of Virginia, Mrs. J. C. Cherry of Aransas Pass and Miss Helena Hall of England were the out-of-town guests.

ENTERTAINS BRIDE

The members of the Laf-A-Lot Club and a number of friends were entertained in honor of Mrs. Earl Barr, a recent bride, Tuesday evening at Mrs. Jim Moore's residence, with Mrs. Omer Wright, sister of the bride, as hostess.

After a series of bridge games the club prize, a pair of silk hose, was awarded to Miss Lela Taylor and Mrs. Pearl Chadwell won a pair of silk hose for high score. Mrs. Barr was presented with a silver cold meat fork in the Bird of Paradise pattern.

A delicious ice and small white cakes were served to about thirty guests. The tallies napkins and score cards were significant of the occasion, with decorations of cupids, wedding bells and brides.

WORK UNDER WAY ON 9-HOLE GOLF COURSE

Mr. J. R. O'Bryan of Houston returned to Junction one day last week and completed arrangements for the construction of the long-talked-of golf course for Junction, and put a force of men to work grubbing and otherwise preparing the ground for laying out the course. He states that when completed it will be one of the finest 9-hole courses in the South.

In conversation with the Eagle man, Mr. O'Bryan stated that within a week or ten days he would have the course in such condition that he would be glad to have the public visit and inspect the grounds, and that he would prepare a statement concerning his plan of action.

The course is situated on the east side of the river between it and Lover's Leap, and is said to be one of the most ideal locations for such a course to be found anywhere, and Junction is fortunate in securing the co-operation of Mr. O'Bryan and his associates in so laudable an enterprise.

With the completion of the course Junction may confidently expect many golfers to visit here, and as this is a class of the better kind, their visits here will go far towards the unbuilding of this section of the State.

A NEWS ITEM OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

One-half century sets a measure of time relative to some matters that would be considered the long ago, but when we come to consider the development of West Texas and especially Kimble County, we have made wonderful strides in development for that period of time. It is hard to realize that fifty years ago the few people who lived in the county were in actual danger of Indian attacks and in fact were suffering from their depredations.

The Galveston Daily News which has been established since 1842, in their issue of June 10, 1928, gives us an excerpt from their files of fifty years ago as follows:

"Indians are again depredating in the vicinity of Junction and on the Big and Little Saline Rivers. Rangers are in pursuit. Many of our old timers will recall this raid which resulted in the death of two of our early settlers and the theft and destruction of many head of horses. The Indians seem to especially fancy the meat of a young colt and on the raid above mentioned killed and barbecued a colt on Copperas Creek in Kimble County. As we view our country with its developments and think of the safety afforded us by the establishment of law and order we are again reminded of the debt of gratitude we owe the old timers for making possible our present opportunities."

THE METHODIST CHURCH

The evening service and mid-week service will be dismissed and the membership of the church urged to attend the series meeting now in progress at the Baptist church.

The Sunday School meets at 10 a. m. Classes for all.

Sunday morning service at 11 a. m., the pastor preaching.

The West Texas Utilities Company have a very novel window display in their office window. The display is two sets of miniature figures of men who are apparently in an animated conversation and the wagging of their heads will lead one to believe that by waiting a few minutes a conflict will take place. One old gentleman has under his arm a bottle, and his friend is seemingly trying to talk him out of a drink. The other two are in a more or less pleasant mood.

LONDON LOCALS

Mr. August Herbst and wife and his two sisters, Misses Hazel and Bertha, made a business trip to Eden last week.

Judge Stubbs spent Tuesday night and until Wednesday noon of last week in our town. Judge Stubbs has many warm friends here.

Miss Dulcie Ellis was visiting at Menard the 13th, returning the next day.

Messrs. R. B. and E. P. Furr are again buying cattle.

Our people attended the next barbecue in good numbers. The young folks attended the dance both nights. Among those who attended were Mr. Dan Nixon, Denman Ake, Bill Cummins, Bob Weaver, D. G. Adams and family—even French and Bob Furr tormented those good people with their presence. In fact everyone went that could go, leaving us who could not go as lonesome as a lost calf. All report a nice time.

Mr. Duck Wooten of the Reece community and G. M. Pearl, east of town, were shaking hands with friends on our streets Friday.

R. T. Amberson and wife and daughter have returned from an extended trip through West Texas, New Mexico and California. They report an enjoyable trip.

G. W. Pearl the chicken crank, was on our streets last Friday.

On account of flood water Mr. J. L. Bruce failed to make his trip last Thursday. Mr. Bruce is so regular it seems a little odd that even high water in the Llano should stop him.

We can't state positively that the majority of our people are making lots of money and mention as evidence the fact that they are riding in new up-to-date automobiles, but we can state positively that they are spending considerable money buying them.

Mr. Bob Weaver is now engaged in the scientific art of chopping cotton. When it gets real hot Bob is made to wonder why a fellow's school days can't last forever.

Mr. W. P. Riley and others from Junction attended the dance given by R. L. McKinney Monday night.

The new store building of R. L. McKinney is nearing completion. A few more days will find it occupied. The dance given in it Monday night was well attended.

We will order the material in the next few days to build 40 new seats for the community Hall and one day next week we will ask everyone who will to come and help us build these seats.

Mr. Coke R. and Junior Stevenson of Junction passed thru town Friday on their way to Hest. We are glad Coke has submitted his name as a candidate for Representative of our district. The office of representative is the most important State office in the gift of the people. It is, in fact, more important than that of governor, because all laws to govern the people are either originated in the House of Representatives or are referred to them for concurrence by the Senate before they can become a law of the land.

We need the very best, purest and most intelligent men we have to represent us in our Legislature, because it is they who pass the laws by which you and I are governed. Coke is well fitted for that place.

CARS WITHOUT A TAX

The new numbers of license plates of cars touring the great highways of the country show that there have been tremendous purchases of automobiles since the tax was lifted by Congress. Evidently lots of people who wanted automobiles held off until the Federal tax bill was passed. This patience netted each automobile buyer from $25 to $125.

WORLD'S WORST PAPER HANGER

The world's worst paper-hanger has turned up in Iowa. His latest activities are reported in a letter from an Iowa farm woman to the editor of Farm and Fireside, national farm magazine. She writes:

"I hired this fellow the other day to paper my farm parlor. He was an itinerant workman, but he assured me that he knew his business. I put him to work, and had to be away most of the day on various affairs.

"When I looked the job over in the evening, I noticed some peculiar bumps on the wall, and I asked the paper-hanger for the reason. He scratched his head and replied: 'I knew that I had forgotten something. They must be the dog-gone pictures.'

The Iowa woman sent the letter to George Martin, editor of Farm and Fireside with the following inquiry: "Will this make an item for the paper?"

Mr. Martin replied in his customary epigrammatic way: "Dear Madam: It will. It has."

A GREAT LIFE

One of the pleasant surprises about camping out with your car in a nice quiet woodland place, or alongside a stream or body of water, is found in the variety of bird music that breaks up slumber in the morning hours. Or the city dweller living in the vicinity of garages and noisy streets, can get bigger noises than ever disturbed his dream if he pitches his camp somewhere near a farm where there are roosters to crow, cows to moo, dogs to bark, and geese to cackle. It's a great life, this good old summertime!

Lane Hodges of Abilene spent Sunday with homefolks, and his wife and baby, Varda, accompanied him to Abilene Sunday afternoon for an indefinite time.

Miss Leadie Savage was at Evergreen Sunday.

Jim R. Hodges and Miss May

Belle Gibson surprised their friends Friday night when they went to Junction and called on Rev. Hill where he performed the ceremony which joined them in the holy bonds of matrimony. Their many friends wish for them a smooth voyage on life's sea, and many days of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

A. E. Smith and children and Walter Savage were guests at the F. M. Hodges home Sunday. Mr. Smith also had a piano in the school house for demonstration.

Mrs. A. Allsup and daughter, Miss Edith, were in Junction Saturday to consult with the doctor. Miss Edith has been on the sick list for quite a while.

Mrs. F. M. Hodges has been on the sick list for the past week.

A MAN AND THE UNBELIEVABLE

Woman than art a jewel of unbelievable whims! For any ordinary man there isn't the slightest possibility of predicting what you will do next. Of course, we are speaking of fashions.

It seems one can nowadays be almost queer, masculinely speaking, and still look down from the feminine heights of fashion.

The whole question appears to revolve about a cycle of being acute, astute, and just a little wayward. Intellectually speaking, of course. For there's no doubt nowadays that fashions are a form of intellectuality. Too many beings are pouring out their grey matter on the subject and too many profound, wise women converse in a jargon completely bounded by this subject. Besides that, man himself, is occasionally a prey to the seeds of fashion.

The confounding part is not that great designers can have cubistic salons; that smart shops can have diamond studded peacocks holding golden ash trays for lady shoppers. But that one's own much-married and settled-down wife can take hold of this fashion problem; be as eclectic as the rest of her sex; and come out looking queer but, by Jove, sir.

Take these down-in-the-back dinner-dresses. Ask a woman two years ago to wear one and she would laugh you back into the pre-flood era. Try to get her not to wear one this season and be called a provincial nobody. And, as if wearing the things with a graceful swagger and elegance were not enough what do they do but go and put on over them totally unadorned, severely plain things called wraps which in any intelligent man's conception are, of course, tuxedo coats, even though their wives smilingly assure them that they are the smartest of transparent velvet evening affairs. Sometimes they even keep these "tux" coats on at bridge tables. Amazing procedure, when only just the other day they were going sleeveless on the street. But here again they ring the bell and appear, at least, to be looking beautiful. And, most curiously of all, feminine.

Before long we men may have to stop wearing tuxedos and plus fours because of their femininity. What we'll do then, heaven knows, unless we turn to Mother Hubbards as the one thing the ladies don't wear. Ah, contrasts, whims, and femininity. What astonishment next?

CANDY FOR CANDIDATES
Is candy going to take a place in politics alongside the time honored campaign cigar? Will the candidate who circulates with a pocket full of "smokes" for his male constituents be obliged to fill another pocket with confectionery for the ladies?

Candy made its appearance at the Republican National Convention in the shape of pound boxes sent by the National Confectioners' Association to all of the women delegates and alternates. The Association, at its recent annual convention, voted to make this presentation to the women representatives at both Kansas City and Houston. "Candy," said William F. Heide of New York, president of the Association, "seldom gets the credit it deserves for promoting good will and harmony. Most of us men recognize its effectiveness in soothing domestic troubles. Why shouldn't this principle hold good in public life as well. If candy does not make the ladies at Kansas City and Houston easier to deal with it will be because they are unlike the great majority of their sex."

Unlike the usual campaign cigar, however, the confectionery presented to the women delegates was, according to the news from Chicago, the choicest and most expensive obtainable.

YOUR FLOWER GARDEN

(by Romaine B. Ware)
Keeping Cut Flowers

There is no great secret in the fact that some folks are able to keep cut flowers so much longer than others. It's simply in knowing how and any of you can do as well if you will just pay attention to a few little details.

In the first place most flowers seem to keep better if they are cut early in the morning before the dew is off their petals. They absorb moisture and vitality all night and when you cut them early they are full of it and will last much better. Then the sooner you get them into water the better they will be.

Another thing, plunge the stems deep in the water as they will absorb that much better. If you are cutting such hard-stemmed things as the Roses, Peonies, Chrysanthemums and similar things, split the stems with a knife an inch or so up from the cut end. This will allow the water to be absorbed that much easier. After cutting flowers and placing them in water set them in a cool and preferably darkened place for a few hours. This may not be possible but it will help if you will do it. In cutting always cut on an angle and cutting with a knife is considered better than with snips unless the snips are very sharp. Dull snips crush the stems and so prevents them from taking water freely.

Cut flowers should never stand in a draught. This will make them wilt much faster than where there is no draught. Neither should they stand in the sun.

Sometimes when you are giving some flowers and are not able to get them into water till they have become apparently hopelessly wilted if you will try this it may help. Fill the vessel you are going to put them into with hot water, about as hot as you can stand having your hand in, and put your bouquet in this water. It will, many times, revive when nothing else will bring it to. And don't forget to cut the stems every time when you bring flowers in from the garden.

CHILDREN SHOULD KNOW

When the Rainbow Appears

Curtains in early times were devised so that they could be hung around a bed, and drawn backwards and forwards, so as to admit or exclude the light, or to conceal or disclose objects.

But nowadays we have screens to keep out the mosquitoes, glass in the windows, and on the inside the new styles of shades and curtains which make the window a spot of beauty in the house.

A remarkable new waterproof, washable shade, which survives sudden showers and remains fresh and unharmed, has been invented and it has taken the place of the old shades which were ruined by a storm. This shade is called Fortine.

Curtains like windows were not known by primitive men and women. At first a window was an opening in the wall to let through the air for ventilation. Afterward it was covered over by mica, oiled linen, horn paper, and finally glass.

When the rainbow appears through the window you have another wonder because it exhibits all of the prismatic colors.

Rainbows are produced chiefly by the refraction and dispersion of the light in passing through the rain drops, partly also by its reflection from the back of the drops, without appearances would not reach the eye.

"BE FAIR" IS RIGHT

The publisher of the Devil's River News seems to have "gone up against it" with some of his people over at Sonora, as witness the following:

"BE FAIR—Some of these
'buy-at-home' policy men had better practice what they preach. There are some people we are sorry to say, that want all the 'cream' and leave the 'skimmed'." "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," is the golden rule. If we expect people to patronize us we must patronize them.
In plain words, you can't expect people to buy from you when you don't buy from them. Think that matter over seriously, and if we are not right, we will 'set 'em up'."

This same wail has gone up to the high heavens many times in the past few years from the newspapers until now it has about come to the point where such pleadings are unnecessary.
As for instance, Junction is almost entirely free from that class of citizens, especially among the merchants, for the policy of reciprocity has been brought home to them so forcefully at times that they have come to the conclusion that the home man is a pretty good fellow to do business with after all; in doing business with your fellow townsman, you have the satisfaction of seeing what you get at the time you get it, and if there is cause for complaint, you can face your man and ask that right be done, and nine times out of ten, you will have the difference settled in no time at all.

BOBWHITE

It seems to be rather commonly supposed that there were no birds west of Central Kansas before agriculture began. The Department of Agriculture at Washington notes the fact that the introduction of bobwhites into Western Kansas and Colorado has spread westward as farming operations have increased. The bobwhite, or quail, is being bred and turned loose to be hunted, in many States.
It is a fine game bird.

BODE-SIMONS

A beautiful and informal home wedding was solemnized at the ranch home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Simons, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, June 19, 1928, when Miss Ruth Simons became the bride of Mr. E. A. Bode.

The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Milton F. Hill, pastor of the Methodist church of Junction.

Preceding the ceremony Mr.
Lee Bode sang "You are the Dawn of a Perfect Day." Mrs.
D. L. Richardson played Mendelsohn's Wedding March.

The bride wore an ensemble suit of ashes of roses in georgette, with accessories to match and carried a large bouquet of white sweet peas.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out with decorations of wild flowers and pot plants.

After the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room where Mrs. Herbert Simons presided at the wedding cake and Mrs. H. H. Farmer served coffee.

The bride and groom left immediately afterwards for a trip through some of the western states and will be gone a month or six weeks, after which they will be at home to their friends on their ranch.

BOOSTER VERSES

The following is taken from a jingle published eight or ten years ago by the convention bureau of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce and given wide distribution. "It is of the much disliked (in New England)
'booster' type of copy, but although the author remains anonymous it seems well worth including in this column. Perhaps some of Junction's citizens after studying this rhyme and after absorbing this message, will sell their hammers and buy horns.

Stand By Your Town

If you think your town's the best Tell 'em so!
If you'd have her lead the rest
Help her grow.
When there's anything to do
Let the fellows count on you.
You'll feel bully when its thru
Don't you know?

If you want to make a hit
Get a name.
If the other fellow's it
Who's to blame?
Spend your money in your town.
Thus keep your prices down.
Give the mail concerns a frown
That's the game.

If you're used to giving knocks,
Change your style;
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For a while;
Let the other fellow roast.
Shun him as you would a ghost.
Meet his matter with a boast
And a smile.

When a stranger from afar,
Comes along,
Tell him who and what you are;
Make it strong;
Needn't flatter, never bluff,
Tell the truth, for that's enuf;
Join the boosters, they're the stuff

You can't go wrong.

OZONA TO AWARD $4,000 IN PRIZES AT FAIR

Ozona, June 20.—Bigger and better in every way is the description given this year to the third annual Race Meet and Rodeo of the Crockett County Fair Association, which will be held in Ozona for three days, June 27, 28 and 29. Prize money aggregating $4,000 will attract the best blooded stock from Texas and other states, as well as the cream of horse racing material.

Amusement of every nature is in store for the Rodeo visitors, as a glance at the program will indicate. An airplane maintained by the Wilson Motor Company, Ozona Buick dealers, and piloted by E. H. Hunt of Ozona, will be at the fair grounds during the rodeo. The ship will take up passengers at all times at a reasonable charge.
Thirty minutes of aerobatic flying will be given for the entertainment of the visiting crowds each day at the noon hour. The plane has been in Dallas for the last two weeks, where it is being thoroughly overhauled and improved. The plane, a Travelair biplane, is equipped with the latest devices, among which are brakes, a powerful Curtis motor, and a large siren.

One of the largest road shows in Texas has contracted for the amusement feature at the Rodeo and Race Meet in the Polee & Schneek Shows. This company brings to Ozona a large ferris wheel, mix-up, hobby horse, whip, and a number of other amusement devices. The Polee & Schneek shows have the reputation of playing at the important fairs throughout the country.

Some of the best racing talent in the southwest will be seen on the new, improved race track here, according to advance information coming to association officials. The Cook string of horses, with stables at Sanderson, and a big favorite on the Jaurez track, will be seen in action here. This aggregation took off some of the choice prizes at the Ozona fair and race meet held last year against some strong opposition. The race track at the fair grounds here has been considerably improved since the race meet last year. The track has been raised on the north and lowered on the south, making it now practically level. The track has also been lengthened.

Many of the state breeders are coming to Ozona for the sheep show and sale. The Day Farms of Parawan, Utah, Chas. Kimble of California, the Marsden

"Miss Universe"

Miss Ella Van Huesen, who as "Miss Chicago" competed in the Galveston, Tex., Pageant of Pulch-ritude, and was selected from a dazzling array of national and international beauties as the "Beauty Queen of the Universe."

Ranch, and other Utah breeders, have already signed up for exhibition. On the last day an auction will be held.

The Herford show bids fair to eclipse its former proportions according to announcement from Joe Davidson, Ozona, in charge of this division. Already about 50 prize-winning animals are entered in this division, with the likelihood that last minute entries will greatly increase this number. Prizes in this show amount to $400.

The new Hotel Ozona will aid in taking care of the thousands of visitors expected to attend. Visitors will be taken care of, the association officials announce. Many bring their bedding and make an outing of
it. If this is the method desired, the association has a committee to assist visitors in a number of ways.

Each day at noon free barbecue, with side trimmings of bread, pickles, beans, coffee and tea is served on the city park.
This event is a tradition with the race meet and rodeo, an event looked forward to with keen anticipation by the rodeo visitors. Dancing each night will be enjoyed on the open air pavilion at the fair grounds.

INVITING THE FIRST CRIME

The ideal that prompts agitation for restriction of the sale of pistols and revolvers, is probably praiseworthy. But when anyone can in a few minutes convert a shot gun or rifle into a pistol, it seems certain that if ownership of pistols and revolvers were prohibited to law-abiding citizens, the thug would enjoy the privilege of owning a gun at the expense of the man who respected the law.

Committing a crime when armed for violence may well be punished so severely that no one can do it a second time. But passing a law to prohibit ownership of small arms invites the first crime.

Mrs. John Durst received the news this week that her granddaughter, Mrs. B. Coulter, of El Paso, died Friday of last week. The remains were taken to Brownsville for burial and Miss Austin Durst went down to attend the funeral. Following the receipt of this news Mrs. Durst also received word from Houston, that her brother-in-law, A. M. McGary, of that city had died on the same day as Mrs. Coulter.

Game Warden S. O. Durst informs the Eagle that the water holes on the rivers that have heretofore been posted will remain so, as these places have been restocked with young fish of the bass and blue gill brim varieties, consisting of some 3,200. The holes posted are known as the Dam Hole, the Scudder Hole and the Ran Davis Hole. Fishermen will avoid trouble by keeping this in mind.

W. G. Wells has a plan for management and government of this earth, with one board of directors running the whole thing.

Religions, says Wells, have run their course. Christianity, which began with "the complete conquest of the world," has become the complete capitalism.

"Take all thou hast and give to the poor" has been changed to "let all thou canst, and Devil take the hindmost."

Buddhism began in complete renunciation. Buddha let the hungry tigress eat his body. Now, almost superstition replaces Buddha's teachings—and so it goes.

Mr. Wells' plan is interesting, like those of Plato, in his "Republic," Moore in his "Utopia," and Karl Marx, in his book that became the foundation of modern socialism.

Each one would work as well as the other, that is to say, not at all. Yet each is useful, for it makes men think, and that is important.

The human race is an individual on a bigger scale, and it is in its infancy. It is useless to contemplate a baby two years old and plan to make a man of it in six months.

You must observe how and at what rate your race or individual can grow, then do what you can to direct and promote good growth.

The most important work now is to encourage thought and distribute knowledge. And the greatest agency is the public school.

"Give light, and the people will find their own way." Give good public schools and you give light.

Madame Reggini, opera singer, climbed the 1,358 steps of New York's Woodworth building in 13 minutes and 4 seconds, beating previous records.

Thirty-eight years old, weight 104 pounds, the lady earned $3,000 by the climb, and did a useful thing by impressing the health value of singing. Nothing develops the lungs as singing does. Sing at your work and avoid consumption. Teach your children to sing. Imitate the British, who always sing, whether they CAN sing or not.

Farmers in the little Karoo and other parts of Cape Province are disturbed by the worst drought in South Africa's recorded history. No rain has fallen in four years, fertile lands turn to deserts, farm houses are falling in ruins, the last green leaf has disappeared.

We all have cause for thankfulness. Lack of rainfall would make life impossible. A tilting of the earth, spilling the oceans, would sweep this continent with a tidal wave a mile high. A change in water from H₂O to H₂O₂ would change that water into peroxide of hydrogen. And if, like other substances, water contracted with the cold, instead of expanding, as it turns to ice, the ice would sink to the bottom of lakes and rivers, accumulate there and prevent navigation.

We have reason to be thankful.

Whom would you suggest for Vice-President on the Republican ticket? How would you go about selecting him?

New York's Business Men's League suggests Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. His father accepted the Vice-Presidency against his will, complaining "I am being side-tracked." It turned out to be quite a conspicuous "side track."

Governor Lowden is said to have declined the Vice-Presidency when Harding was elected. Had he accepted, he would be President now.

One blast, one underground explosion, one cavin kill miners in West Virginia, Kentucky and Nevada. And hope has been abandoned for more than one hundred miners in the Mather mine in Pennsylvania.

Those that, from comfortable offices, oppose increase in miners' wages above the line of bare necessity would not care to do the miner's work.

Ten seniors of Princeton University announce their intention to take up aviation as a life work. Ocean flights have stimulated that interest.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

(By Nancy Hart)

Soon the roads will be dotted with cars bearing friends and neighbors from north, south, east and west of you—eager to renew acquaintance after winter's stay-at-home days.

And how gladly you'll welcome them!—If you know your pantry shelf is ready for emergencies. One needs so little to be prepared for unexpected guests—yet this little is so often neglected!

For a hurried luncheon or tea, what could be nicer than salmon or tuna fish served with thick golden mayonnaise; potatoes fried slowly in butter or margarine, so they are crisp and brown; assorted pickles and preserves arranged attractively in a condiment dish—and hot biscuits? These are homely foods, and inexpensive. But fish and dressing, pickles and preserves must be on the shelf—if they are to come to your rescue, pronto!

Since half the charm of hospitality lies in its seeming to be no trouble at all, let's remember these tricks of preparedness that help so much when friends "just drop in."

Date and Nut Spread

For luncheon or tea, use this spread on slices of buttered white or graham bread. With these open sandwiches, serve others of pemmican cheese (this may be bought in jars). And cut your bread in fancy shapes, without crusts.

1 cup dates, chopped; 1/4 cup chopped nuts, 4 tablespoons sweetened condensed milk, 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Beat milk and lemon juice together with a fork until thick. Add dates and nuts and mix well.

Do Your Omelets Fall?

One way to be certain of success with omelets is to add a tiny bit of baking powder to the eggs when whipping them.

Measuring Flour for Cakes

In baking cakes, it makes a difference whether flour is measured before or after sifting. So always examine recipes carefully, noting directions in this respect. Never recipes invariably specify the use of prepared cake flour sifted once before measuring, then sifting as many additional times as the recipe directs. This makes lighter, fluffier cakes.

Tonic for Asparagus Beds

Salt strewn generously over asparagus beds will keep weeds and serve as a fertilizer.

Trench Mouth Healed

Your friends dare not say so but your sore gums and foul breath don't make folks like you any better. Let's Poochka Remedy heal worst cases if use as directed. It is not a mouth wash or paste, and it is really a most effective cure.

ABOUT YOUR HEARTH

(By John Joseph Gorman, M. D.)

Light and Heat

In these bright spring and summer days, few people stop to think what wonderful values are for us in the warmth and light of the sunrises. Science has it that, possibly Radium makes up a part of the Sun's luminous body. Were it not for this great solar dynamo, humanity would fade from the earth, like flowers cut from their stems. The value of heat and light is unquestioned.

Various "rays" have been isolated, resulting from an analysis of light in nature. The ultra-violet, an element of sunlight, is concentrated in apparatus used by the specialist. Perhaps the "infra-red" is the most valuable of the reproduced heat-rays, and it is within reach of the ordinary family. A red-hot iron liberates infrared rays—valuable in treating all deep, inflammatory conditions.

Light heat is more beneficial in most conditions, than dark heat, such as hot-packs, poultices, and hot-water bags. Light and heat together, set the microscopic particles of tissue into rapid vibration; this serves to "scatter" violently congested areas, which may be painful to the point of agony. The infrared ray is in my office, used almost daily—and with satisfactory results.

Then—there is a difference in dry heat, as in lamp treatments—and in moist heat, as in hot wet packs applied to the body. Light reaches deeper, and with more lasting effects. There is very little even temporary relief in hot wet packs. But, all these methods are worth study by the family. They afford a means of relief outside of the realm of drugs.

DR. FRANK CRANE SAYS:—The Greatest Business

The greatest business in the world anywhere and at any time is the business of educating and training the young.

Just as the household centers about its children in all its hopes and plans, just as for them the father works and the mother sacrifices, so in the case of a nation everything should turn about the improvement of its young people.

On them and on their fitness rests the future safety of the nation more than on any plans or schemes or institutions which their fathers may set in motion. Always the character of a people has more to do with the success of a nation than the institutions or customs it may have, or the defense which it may possess.

What we spend money for is the best sign of what we desire most.

A Britisher the other day gave five hundred thousand pounds to his government to be applied toward the English debt. This was an unparalleled act of patriotism. Men will give their lives for their country, while few are willing to give money.

So we orate and write and grow enthusiastic over our public schools. But the test of our appreciation of them comes best by spending money on them.

The school teacher should be better paid and he should rank higher in the community than he does.

The superintendent of public schools should be the best paid official in the city and the most carefully selected. And he needs to be a person of more outstanding ability than the mayor.

The school buildings should be the most remarkable pieces of architecture in a community.

Every city should have plenty of playgrounds for children.

To the credit of America it is that it has more juvenile publications and printed matter, especially for the reading of children, than has any other country.

Every man and woman ought to be in some way connected with assisting the younger generation to make good.

School teaching or the training of the young is far and away the most important business of the country.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Fine steel wool is good for scouring your aluminum saucepans.

Farmers' Bulletin 1513-F, "Convenient Kitchens," contains many suggestions for remodeling or rearranging a kitchen to reduce work.

The best cleaner for piano keys is wood alcohol. Next best is clean warm water and natural soap. If the water is too hot it will make the keys yellow.

Liver can be broiled in the gas oven. Cook it from 8 to 10 minutes, turning frequently. When done, sprinkle with salt and pepper, pour melted butter over it and serve piping hot.

By using pectin you can make strawberries into a delicious whole fruit jelly, or you can make a clear strawberry jelly, although the juice of these berries by itself does not "jell." The United States Department of Agriculture will tell you how to make the necessary pectin and what proportions to use in the jellied strawberries or the strawberry jelly.

Tissue gingham in attractive checked patterns and dainty colors, should not be overlooked among the sheer cotton fabrics, suggests the Bureau of Home Economics. The distinguished characteristic of any gingham is that the yarns are dyed before the fabric is woven. Tissue gingham has slightly heavier threads at intervals, but are otherwise almost transparent. They wash and wear well, and are suitable for either morning or afternoon frocks, often being combined with organza insertions or bandings.

THINGS WORTH KNOWINGModern Decoration

Modern art and its sources and its influences in all phases of modern life from portraits to bathroom fixtures are found in the progress of the present age of industry, according to R. E. T. Haff, who finds in this movement "the expression of life as it is lived today." Mr. Haff relates that Lord and Taylor have completed five rooms in their great New York store, which has been designed by their own decorating staff in the modern spirit. These are a bed room, a dining room, a smoking room and two living rooms. Some of the furniture was imported but in three of the rooms, the furniture was designed by the firm, and made in New York. Rayon stands out in this practical display. In the dining room, for instance, a beautiful room with lemon-colored walls and black and silver furniture, the chairs are covered with orange fabric of which the gleaming threads leave no doubt of its origin.

In several of the rooms, the glass curtains are of what is known as rayon and cotton Rodier Fabrics. They are hung like this in conjunction with a complete ensemble, walls, rugs, furniture and accessories, and they serve to emphasize sharply a distinct place in the new school of the art of home decoration.

And now comes the question, "What's to be done about it?" Here, merchant princes of the world, have made a most successful effort to show America a comprehensive outline of this really serious movement, and they brought together a magnificent collection of beautiful objects. France is by no means the only nation producing this art, but France to quote Miss Dorothy Shaver, who selected the exhibits, has put "a unity of effort behind this movement. To emphasize the work of French artists is sufficiently logical when one realizes the vigor and power behind the work that is being executed in France."

The New York merchants believe this will serve to show the American manufacturers that American people are genuinely interested in beauty and that there is a market for fine work only made possible by co-operation between artist and maker.

This Red "O.K." Tag Protects You

Attached to the radiator of the best reconditioned used cars we offer for sale is a red "O.K." tag—placed there to protect the purchaser's investment.

This tag is definite assurance that the car to which it is attached has been gone over thoroughly by expert mechanics—that worn units have been replaced by new parts—and that the price quoted represents the car's actual value. We believe that no better system has ever been devised for putting used car buying on a sound basis.

Come in and look over our selection of used cars "with an OK tag counts". All represent definite, known value—and all may be purchased on the easy terms of the General Motors Acceptance Corporation.

Junction Trade Notes

Sale of wools scheduled to be held in Junction the 20th, inst. was interfered with by the sudden death of Mr. Stokes at Kerrville Wednesday about midnight. Stokes was the son of C. D. Stokes of Lampasas, prominent in the wool trade of the State. He had just finished negotiating purchase of the Schreiner long wools late Tuesday and died during the night. The sale at Del Rio was also postponed in order that friends could attend the funeral of Mr. Stokes at Lampasas. The Junction sale will likely be held Tuesday, the 26th.

The Effect of ICE Upon Food Is Something More Than Refrigeration

THERE are certain things which cannot well be improved upon, and ICE, produced from pure water, is one of them. Nothing excels this time-tried refrigerant.

Ice does not discolor meats, nor does it take moisture from foods or rob them of their priceless flavor. It keeps all foods at their best.

Ice is cheap and abundant. Keep your refrigerator well-stocked—always—and save food, flavor and money.
