Nazis About Cleaned Out Of Schelde

By HOWARD COWAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 7—American and German troops were locked tonight in a swaying, bitter struggle for the center of the German town of Vossenack in Hurtgen forest, with powerful Nazi reinforcements battling fiercely to bar the road to Cologne and the rich Rhine valley only 300 miles away.

After five days of see-saw fighting, Lt. Gen. Courtney Hodges' First Army doughboys tonight held half of the mile-and-a-half-long town, and the Germans were solidly entrenched in the other half. Shock troops of both sides actually were fighting from opposite wings of the church in the heart of town.

Routed By Fierce Blows

Vossenack, 13 miles southeast of Aachen, was captured by Hodges' forces at the outset of their new offensive last Friday, but repeated counterattacks by German reserves rushed down from the Arnhem sector in Holland knocked the Americans back.

A front dispatch tonight said that fighting of "unexcelled bitterness" was raging continuously over all the Hurtgen forest region. The town of Schmidt, which the Germans recaptured in a counterattack two days ago, still was in enemy hands.

To the northwest in Holland, American and Polish troops of the British Second Army captured Willemstadt, ferry terminal on the Maas river, and smashed into the outskirts of Moerdijk on the same stream, virtually closing out the month-long battle to clear the Germans from south of the Maas.

Most Opposition Stilled

British and Canadian troops, using assault boats and amphibious vehicles to get at the enemy through flooded streets, virtually had stilled all Nazi opposition in Middelburg on Walcheren island. Veere, on the northeast side of the island, was captured. Only on the northern fringe of Walcheren were the Nazis still making a determined stand.

Tonight the Berlin radio said British and Canadian forces had landed on Schouwen island, north of Walcheren and Beveland islands, in their determined progress up the Dutch west coast. Schouwen is one of the largest of the Dutch islands.

Allied minesweepers were busy clearing the 50-mile Schelde estuary so Allied convoys could begin unloading supplies at Antwerp.

Pressure Maintained

American and French troops in France maintained their pressure against the enemy. A Berlin broadcast communique reported Allied forces hitting toward the Vosges mountain gap had reached the west bank of the Meurthe river between Baccaratv and St. Die.

Allied supreme headquarters announced the French had captured three villages in an arc east of Baccarat, where they are closing in on Schirmeck and Saales passes, and that Americans seized St. Remy, Nompatelize and La Salle at the approaches to Saales and Ste. Marie passes.

Japs Lose 249 More Planes

Five Ships Also Sunk, 24 Damaged In Carrier-Based Manila Bay Raid

By CHARLES H. McMURTRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Nov. 7—Third Fleet carrier planes returned to the Manila area Sunday, destroying 249 Japanese planes to raise their two day toll to 440 and running their shipping score to six sunk and 24 damaged.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announcing the continued neutralization of the Manila area in a communique today, reported additional "heavy damage" was inflicted on ground installations.

Three oil storage areas were set afire on the north strip at Clark Field and a tremendous explosion started another large fire in the northeast area of the same airdrome.

North of Malvar, a railway engine and five tank cars were destroyed.

Five Sunk Sunday

Five ships were sunk Sunday and five more, plus several cargo vessels, were damaged. One ship was sunk Saturday and five plus several cargo ships damaged.

Adm. Nimitz said the total of cargo ships damaged on both days was 14.

These ships were sunk Sunday: Three cargo vessels, one oil tanker, and one destroyer.

Damaged: two destroyers, two destroyer escorts and one trawler and several cargo ships, bringing to 14 the two-day toll of these vessels.

Heavy Jap Activity

Presence of many cargo ships in Manila harbor indicates the Japanese either have been able to slip one or more small convoys into the Philippines or were preparing to rush supplies to other Philippine islands.

The destroyers and destroyer-escorts probably were for escort duty. The two cruisers damaged Saturday might have been refugees from the second battle of the Phillippines, Oct. 23-25.

The two-day toll of 440 planes probably was the second highest of the war in the Pacific, exceeded only by the 500 odd record of June 18-19, when the Fifth Fleet destroyed 402 in one day and followed up with scores more the succeeding day.

Admiral Nimitz said that for the two days 113 Japanese planes were shot out of the air and the astounding total of 327 destroyed on the ground.

Many On Ground

"Many others were destroyed on the ground by strafing," he added, making no attempt to estimate the number.

Discovery of so many planes in the Manila area means not only that the enemy has been able to resupply the many airfields there but that he probably has repaired much of the damage done last month to airfields on Formosa and in the Ryukyu islands by the Halsey-Mitscher fleet.

Largest concentrations of enemy planes were found at Nichols, Clark; Nielson, Lipa, Phalac, Bamban and Mabaclat airfields.

American losses were not reported.

Running Air Battle

Reporting action by land-based planes, Admiral Nimitz told of a running battle in which three Army Liberators destroyed one and probably another of seven Japanese fighters which intercepted them over the Kuriles. Two of the Liberators were damaged. Onnekotan was their target.

Other land based attacks were made on Otomari, and Tori Shima in the Kuriles, Haha Jima and Jima in the Bonins, Rota in the Marianas and bases in the Marshalls.

Leyte Struggle Growing Bitter

By MURLIN SPENCER
Associated Press Staff Writer

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Wednesday, Nov. 8.—The U. S. 24th division is locked in a critical fight in Ormoc valley on Leyte with elements of four Japanese divisions, including three rushed in as reinforcements, headquarters reported today.

This was the crucial battle presaged by Japanese convoy landings at Ormoc while the 24th was capturing Pinamopoan on Carigara bay and swing south.

Today's communique said elements of the First, 30th and 102nd Nipponese divisions had augmented the badly shattered 16th—the torturers of Bataan—in opposing the 24th. Three strong enemy counterattacks were repulsed.

ISLANDS ARE BATTERED

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Wednesday, Nov. 8 (AP)—Liberator bombers dropped 500 tons of bombs on Japanese airfields in islands ringing the Visayan sea during the past 24 hours to keep them from interfering with American invasion operations at Leyte.

Announcing the action in a communique supplement, Gen. Douglas MacArthur said at least 5 parked planes were destroyed, three interceptors shot down and the runways cratered.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy in these counter-attacks, made at night just south of coastal Pinamopoan on northwest Leyte. The strength of them was great, constituting savage fighting equal to the heaviest encountered on the island.

After they failed, the Japanese infiltrated American positions and some withdrawals were necessary but the ground lost has been recovered by the Yanks.

The scene of the fighting is along the northern section of the narrow winding road from Pinamopoan to Ormoc as well as in adjoining ridge barriers dominating the valley.

Japs Well Dug In

A spokesman said the Japanese were well dug in. However, constant artillery shelling has forced the foe to restrict movements of reinforcements and supplies to the night hours.

Less than 10 miles north of Ormoc, Japan's port of last hope on western Leyte, American long range artillery laid down a devastating barrage on the enemy defenses at Valencia. The shelling wrecked warehouses and supply dumps. Large fires broke out, adding to the destruction, Leyte-based Yank fighters dive-bombed communications, bivouacs and supply dumps.

Robot Raids On U. S. "Possible"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (AP) — The War and Navy departments said today that robot bomb attacks by Germany on the United States are "entirely possible."

The departments said the question whether such attacks could be made had been raised in view of continuance of robot bomb use against Great Britain after destruction of launching platforms in France and the Low Countries.

In a joint statement, the departments asserted they "consider such attacks by Germany entirely possible."

Robot bombs, the departments said, "might be launched from submarines lying offshore or from one-way sacrifice flights of long-range bombers controlled across the Atlantic by submarines. It is also possible that attacks might be launched from catapult plane tenders."

Army Budgets 50,000 Words On Election

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (AP)—The Army budgeted 50,000 words of election news for its overseas troops tonight to assure GI Joe and his officers in foreign theaters results of the presidential election as quickly as they were received by civilians at home.

Half the budget was sent by radio and half by cable, and Army News service, which serves Army overseas newspapers, assigned approximately 30 men to work around the clock on the election story.

Yamashita To Take Over In Philippines

(By The Associated Press)

Indicating concern over American successes in the Philippines, the Japanese war lords have switched generals for that area.

Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, Japan's victorious general at Singapore and Corregidor, will fight it out with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, having been transferred from Malaya to serve as commander-in-chief of Japanese forces in the Philippines, Tokyo radio said last night.

Succeeds Kuroda

Yamashita, whose change of command was announced in a broadcast recorded in the United States by the Federal Communications commission, apparently succeeds Lt. Gen. Shigenori Kuroda in the Philippines.

The 59-year-old Yamashita presumably will be responsible, as was General Kuroda, to Field Marshal Count Juichi Terauchi, commander-in-chief of Japanese forces in the southern regions, including the Philippines.

It was Yamashita who replaced Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma when the latter's Bataan campaign dragged on as the result of heroic opposition by Americans and Filipinos. Yamashita was in charge of the Japanese when Corregidor fell in May, 1942. Before then, MacArthur had gone to Australia to head up the offensive now washing back toward Manila.

Took Over Singapore

Yamashita had received the surrender of Singapore the previous February. Back in 1940, he went to Germany and studied German war methods.

Domei news agency said the change was announced by the War department and included the appointment of Lt. Gen. Yasuji Tominagao as commander of the Japanese Army Air force in the Philippines sector.

Concern on another score, related to the Philippines, was reflected in an interview with Saburo Nagabuchi, Japanese Army chief civil administrator, gave to the Tokyo newspaper, Yomiuri Hochi.

He said frankly that Japanese-stolen regions below the Philippines, including the wealthy East Indies, may have to "get along independently, relying as little as possible on personnel and materiel sent from Japan."

Plant Is Closed By CIO Walkout

DETROIT, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — The Packard Motor Car Co. plant was closed today after several hundred metal polishers, members of the United Auto Workers union (CIO) refused to work in what the company termed a "difference or opinions" argument that started Friday.

Company officials said it was necessary to close the plant today, idling approximately 39,000 workers, when refusal of polishers to work created an unbalanced material condition and made it impossible to build engines.

Affected Monday

The walkout started Friday, but the company said production was not impaired at the time as the plant is on a 50-hour work week and no work was scheduled Saturday.

Monday night polishers again refused to work, the company said, resulting in material shortages today. Officials of the International UAW-CIO were reported trying to affect a settlement of the dispute, which they termed a "union matter." Packard builds Rolls-Royce aircraft engines and motors for PT boats.

Bad Weather Checks Mighty Air Blitz

LONDON, Nov. 7. (AP) — The greatest aerial blitz of all time was interrupted by weather today after American and British planes had flown 25,000 sorties in three days, pounding Germany with more than 26,000 tons of bombs.

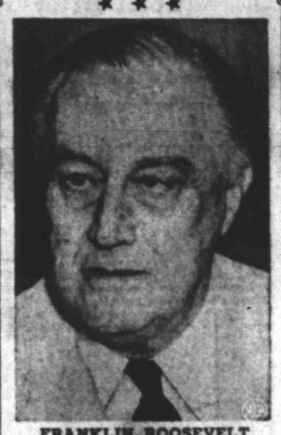

Aerial activity over the channel this afternoon led observers at Folkeston to believe the all-out attack was still continuing, but Eighth Airforce and RAF combat planes were grounded today because of weather over Germany.

FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT
Still The People's Choice

HARRY S. TRUMAN
New Vice President

FDR Lead Here 7,567 To 3,188

By R. C. HANKINS
Avalanche Staff Writer

Lubbock county Tuesday gave a substantial plurality to President Roosevelt in a general election marked by a smashing of all county voting records—for primary or general elections.

It gave the President 7,567 ballots, as compared with 1,167 for Governor Dewey.

There was less interest in two proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The vote:

1. For Municipal Pension plan, 3,063; and against, 1,377. For the State Pension plan, 2,922; against, 1,382.

2. For County Tax Reallocation, 2,709; against, 951.

All Democrats who had been nominated in the primaries for congressional, state, district, county and precinct offices were tobogganed into election without appreciable write-in oppostion.

Vote Record Set

The total vote was 10,755, as compared with the former record of 9,626 in the first Democratic primary of 1940. Overshadowed were the general election totals of 9,395 votes in 1940; 7,047 in 1936 and 5,965 in 1932.

Tuesday's balloting was well over the most optimistic estimates of a 10,000 vote turnout.

When Election Precinct No. 1 reported at 1:13 o'clock this morning, a quick tabulation of the 26 county voting boxes showed the following breakdown of votes slanted toward electors of the various parties on the ballot:

Democratic, 7,567; Republicans, 1,167; Texas Regulars, 2,021; Socialists, 7; Prohibitionists, 2; America First, 0.

And it showed that President Roosevelt obtained 70 per cent of the Lubbock county vote, Governor Dewey 10 per cent.

All Precincts "Straight"

Reflecting the conclusiveness of the "people's choice," no election precinct of the county failed to give a plurality to Democratic party electors.

From the moment when M. M. Styles brought in complete returns for Election Precinct 3, at 7:25 o'clock, and became the first box to report, there was a pronounced evidence that all Lubbock county voting records would be smashed. Invariably, precinct judges said the vote was heavier than expected, and several precincts, at Abernathy, at Slaton, at Wolfforth and at three boxes in Lubbock, made rush calls for more ballots.

Box 4, F. M. Maddox, presiding judge, reported five minutes after precinct 3, followed in 20 minutes by the first rural box, New Deal, W. O. Fortenberry, presiding judge. Cooper box telephoned in its report to The Avalanche-Journal at 7:45 o'clock, five minutes before the New Deal official report to the clerk. L. W. Wilke is Cooper's presiding judge.

At precisely 9 o'clock, two hours after the election places closed, half of Lubbock county's 26 vot-

Texas Heavily For Roosevelt

Regulars Trail In Three-Way Battle

(By The Associated Press)

The Democratic ticket of Roosevelt and Truman swept all opposition in early returns today (Wednesday) from the voting of traditionally Democratic Texas in the general election.

Battling for second place, with the Republicans gaining the edge, were the Dewey-Bricker elector-nominees and those of the Texas Regulars, (anti-Roosevelt Democrats).

The President and his running mate: Gov. Coke Stevenson on the State Democratic ticket, and 12 Democratic nominees for congressional posts contested by Republicans, grabbed early leads and held them as the tabulations increased.

Returns to the Texas Election bureau at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday from 224 of 254 counties, 25 complete, showed for elector nominees: Democrats 505,617; Republicans 107,240; Texas Regulars 77,971; Socialists 281; Prohibitionists 585; American Firsts 114.

Stevenson Runs Wild

Stevenson's re-election margin over B. J. Peasley of Tyler, his Republican opponent, was 447,742 to 43,377.

In the most actively contested of the congressional races, that in the Fifth district, Rep. Hatton W. Sumners, Democrat, in late returns led Charles D. Turner, Republican, 40,073 to 12,910.

The big counties swollen by war population: Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, Jefferson, Nueces, El Paso, Travis, Galveston, Hidalgo and McLennan, threw good leads to Roosevelt.

At Austin, Merritt Gibson, campaign manager of the Texas Regulars, said he would make no statement on the election until tomorrow. But at Houston, Judge E. E. Townes, state executive committee chairman of the Regulars, conceded a Roosevelt victory.

And at Dallas, Walter Rogers, state campaign manager for the Dewey-Bricker ticket, said "I'm not surprised that we are leading the Regulars quite a bit, but I expect that lead to grow.

"I am not surprised at the Texas Regulars' small vote. We knew in the beginning it would be that way."

Amendments Approved

All constitutional amendments on the ticket had substantial leads. On the Retirement Benefits amendment: the tabulation showed 121,945 for and 71,337 against (51E), the Municipal Pension plan, and 114,289 for to 74,102 against (51F), the State Pension plan. The vote was 108,371 for the County Tax Reallocation plan and 59,478 against it.

There were Republican candidates for nine state races in addition to the governorship.

Pensions To Be Set Up

The Retirement Benefits amendment was a double-barrelled proposition so worded that voters could chose either or both or reject either or both. It authorizes cities and towns to set up a retirement system for their employes and authorizes the legislature to set up such retirement systems.

The other amendment authorizes county commissioner courts, after a vote of the people, to reallocate county tax levies not to exceed 80 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

As the count mounted it showed the degree of success attained in their campaigns by Republicans and Regulars, who several times tried, but failed to make a

Perryton Mayor Has Combination Post

AMARILLO, Nov. 7 (AP)—The City of Perryton, Ochiltree county, found itself tonight with a combination mayor-sheriff.

He was W. H. "Bill" Lance. Lance defeated Sid Talley, who had been sheriff for 36 years, in the Democratic primary by 29 votes. Talley was a write-in candidate in the general election today, but tonight was trailing 92 votes to Lance's 812, with only about 200 votes remaining to be counted.

Lance said he would resign his job as mayor next month.

Heavy Ballot Over Nation Ends With Fourth Term Win; Count Incomplete

(By The Associated Press)

The vote-getting magic of Franklin Delano Roosevelt won him a fourth term in the White House today, and continued leadership in the vast unfinished business of war and peace.

Thomas Edmund Dewey, youthful New York governor who declared in vain that "it's time for a change," conceded defeat.

Governor Dewey told a press conference at 3:15 a. m. EWT., that "it's clear that Mr. Roosevelt has been re-elected for a fourth term."

In a brief address carried by all radio networks, the Republican presidential nominee said he was grateful for the support he had received and declared that the Republican party "emerges revitalized from this campaign."

"I am confident that all Americans will join me in the hope that Divine Providence will guide and protect the President of the United States."

Dewey smiled for a battery of cameramen as he pronounced his 1944 political swan-song.

Dewey Falters Early Today

The Republican nominee had fallen farther and farther behind in tabulations pouring in during the early morning hours after a see-saw struggle in early counting. The ballots of nearly 27,000,000 Americans showed, at the time he gave up:

For Roosevelt, 14,411,965.
For Dewey, 12,165,763.

State after state had slipped away from Dewey. Roosevelt took command of 34, with an electorial count of 395. Dewey had only 14 with 136 votes at the time he announced it was all over.

The Roosevelt tide was felt also in congressional and gubernatorial races. At the rate the President was going, it looked as if he would carry a Democratic House with him. There never was much doubt about the Senate.

Associated Press returns at 2:30 a. m., (CWT), Wednesday, with the vote far from complete, showed Roosevelt leading in states having a total of 395 electoral votes, as follows:

Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, and West Virginia.

Dewey was leading in states with an aggregate electoral vote of 136, as follows:

Colorado, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Associated Press returns at 3:50 a. m. from 77,359 of the country's 130,810 voting units showed the popular vote:

ROOSEVELT	15,771,866
DEWEY	13,594,740
TOTAL	29,366,606

Statement Is Read

With more than 300 newsmen, photographers and employes of the Republican National committee clustered about him in the main ballroom of the hotel, Dewey sat down smilingly before a battery of microphones, calmly placed a typewritten statement in front of him and began to read it.

Mrs. Dewey, who accompanied him to the ballroom, smiled as she came in striding alongside her husband. She took a place in the background as the New York governor went to the microphone.

There was applause from those who gathered around them, both when they appeared and after Dewey had completed reading of his statement. Some employes of the national committee walked away during the interim, wiping their eyes.

Roosevelt, Dempsey Lead In New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7. (AP)—Democratic candidates led by President Roosevelt and Gov. John J. Dempsey established early leads tonight on the basis of unofficial returns from New Mexico's general election.

The unofficial count in the 45 divisions gave Roosevelt 6,940, Thomas E. Dewey, 4,788; governor, 47 divisions, Dempsey (D) 7,066, Carroll G. Gunderson (R) 4,830. Congress, 2 seats, 45 divisions, Ben F. Meyer (R) 4,529, Manuel Lujan (R) 4,366, Clinton P. Anderson (D) 7,453 and A. M. Fernandez (D) 7,248.

Demos Pick Up 8 House Seats

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (Wednesday)—Eight of 13 seats needed by the Democrats to retain control of the treaty-ratifying Senate were assured early today, while eight Republican House places—among them that of Rep. Hamilton Fish—tumbled to administration forces.

Looking toward peace and creation of a world security organization, the importance of congressional control was stressed by both parties in the campaign. Senator Truman, President Roosevelt's running mate, called openly for the defeat of eight Republican senators he dubbed "isolationists." One he named, Gerald Nye of North Dakota, was trailing.

Rep. Fish, New York Republican who has berated administration policy in foreign affairs and whose record in turn was criticized by both Mr. Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, was eliminated after 24 years of service.

Clare Luce Ahead

Rep. Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn), who trailed in early returns, took a commanding lead later from her opponent, Margaret Connors, 29-year-old lawyer.

Among Democratic senators returned were Majority Leader Barkley of Kentucky and Millard Tydings of Maryland. The Solid South sent up six Democratic senators early in the count, and in equally short order rock-ribbed Vermont returned Republican Sen. George D. Aiken. Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina were solidly in the Democratic fold.

Democratic nominees were pressing Republican senatorial incumbents in Connecticut, North Dakota and Pennsylvania on the basis of incomplete returns, while Republicans grasped for seats now held by Democrats in Iowa, Missouri and New Jersey.

Brien McMahon (D) was ahead of Sen. John Danaher (R) in Connecticut.

Iowa's Republican Gov. Bourke B. Hicker Cooper led Sen. Guy M. Gillette, Democrat; Forest C. Donnell, Republican, was atop Roy McKittrick in the contest for the seat now held by

GOP GOVERNORS TRAIL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) Democratic candidates for governor moved into early leads today in three big states that now have Republican administration — Illinois, Ohio and Massachusetts.

With less than half of the Illinois returns in, Republican Gov. Dwight H. Green trailed Democratic State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney of Cook county. Courtney's lead was approximately 140,000 in 2,691 of 5,748 precincts.

Early Ohio returns put Frank J. Lausche, Cleveland's Democratic mayor, narrowly ahead of Republican James Garfield Stewart, mayor of Cincinnati. And in Massachusetts, where Republican Gov. Leverett Saltonstall left the governorship to run for the Senate, Democratic Mayor Maurice J. Tobin of Boston led Lt. Gov. Horace T. Cahill, Republican, in another close race.

Observers Believe Allied Hope For Swift Knockout Abandoned

By REUEL S. MOORE
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. — The supreme Allied command in western Europe has virtually abandoned hope of a swift knockout of Germany and is reconciled to the long and costly processes of attritional warfare, observers here believed today.

Stubborn German resistance all along the Siegfried line, emphasized by such violent reactions as those at Schmidt whenever Allied pressure is applied, indicates what the Allies are up against.

It is acknowledged that the Germans have made the most of their remaining potentialities after their disastrous defeat in Normandy and Brittany. To this extent, the situation represents a reversal in Allied fortunes compared with the promising midsummer outlook.

When the Allies landed in Normandy they expected a war of attrition. The basic strategy was to apply pressure on Germany from all sides—Russia, Italy and France—as well as from overhead with strategic aerial attacks, on the theory that sooner or later the Nazis would crack.

During the German flight across France, hopes were raised that the Germans could be caught off balance at the Siegfried line and that a quick knockout might result. Allied problems of distance and supply, plus remaining German ability to fight, prevented this. The last bid for such a break, the Arnhem air operations in Holland, fell short.

Now the basic stratetic conception is back where it was in June.

Gen. Sultan Says 'Our Mission' Is Unchanged

NEW DELHI, Nov. 7. (AP)—Lt. Gen. Daniel I. Sultan, in his first speech to American troops as their commander in the India-Burma war theater, said today that "recent developments" such as the recall of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, have changed "neither our mission nor our strategy."

"Our mission remains an important one," he declared. "It is one of making a positive contribution to the war in the Pacific."

Sultan commended the soldiers who had bombed Burma and fought their way along the Ledo road, saying:

"Through all the trials and tribulations of long service in a hot alien country you have griped and cursed, you have sworn to return to the United States and never leave, but through it all you have done your job. At times you have accomplished mircales considering the lack of resources at your disposal."

"Elmer's Tune" Is Good Music For Philippine Shack

WITH THE 24TH DIVISION, In Leyte Valley, Nov. 2. (Delayed) (AP)—The last thing we expected to hear as we walked down a road between a cluster of native shacks was "Elmer's Tune." But that's what we heard.

The trees around us still held snipers, and a machinegun was chattering a half mile away. But there from inside a grass hut came the hot rhythm of "Elmer's Tune" from a boogie-woogie piano.

"This may be some new kind of booby trap," said Lt. Lloyd Prince of Dallas, Tex.

Inside the shack was medical corpsman Arthur Mendenhall, jr., of McPherson, Kas., at a battered piano which some native had dragged into this primitive valley.

Mendenhall was giving out with all he had, his tin hat at a jaunty angle, cigaret at the corner of his mouth, his face grimy with sweat and dirt.

But for my money, "Elmer's Tune" was never played better.

Even After This Happens, American Women Can't Relax

Even after Killer Hitler himself throws in the sponge, American women must not relax on saving used fats in their kitchens. Because it's the Japs, not the Germans, who still have those territories in the Pacific that used to supply us with one billion pounds a year! Our fat salvage job isn't done until we blast the Nips out.

In the meantime, every drop of used fats is urgently needed to help make the tons of munitions, medicines, synthetic rubber and soaps that are needed for final victory.

So keep saving until V-J Day! Remember, the government gives you 2 free red points for every pound.

This message has been approved by WFA and OPA and paid for by Industry.

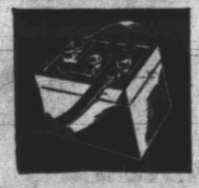

You probably don't expect to depend on a horse and surrey for future transportation. But consider this fact, which is brought out by government surveys—approximately 800,000 cars will wear out this winter.

To help keep your car from becoming one of these 800,000, ask your nearby Sinclair H-C Gasoline Dealer to Sinclair-ize your car for Winter now. This fall change-over service protects vital parts against wear and breakdowns as your car manufacturer recommends.

Jewish Extremists On Palestine Policy Blamed In Moyne Slaying

CAIRO, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — Jewish extremists critical of Britain's policy in Palestine were blamed today for the assasination of Lord Moyne, British resident minister to the Middle East.

(Prime Minister Churchill told Commons in London that the British government had "as yet received no official information which fixes authorship of the crime or gives a clue to its motive." He added that "very searching inquiries will be made into the origin and association of these strangers (the assassins) to Egypt.")

Died In Hospital

Moyne died at a British military hospital yesterday, several hours after two youths shot him in the neck, chest and abdomen as he stepped into his automobile in front of his home in Cairo.

The two assailants were mobbed, stripped naked and nearly lynched by enraged crowds at the scene. Rescued by police, they sullenly refused to answer questions put to them by high British and Egyptian officials.

Pair Flee On Bicycles

After firing on Moyne with revolvers, the two youths attempted to escape on bicycles. One was felled and wounded by an Egyptian constable, while the other was overtaken by street crowds.

Doctors removed two of the three bullets from Moyne's body at a hospital, gave him a blood transfusion and treated him with penicillin, but he failed to rally.

Moyne was one of the richest men in Britain.

The party is expected to be here five days as guests of the Mexican War department.

Jealous Husband Is Blamed In Slaying

DALLAS, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—Walton Blair, 36, a former resident of Houston, told police today that he beat to death Thomas J. Ford, 51, when he found the latter with his wife last night.

Blair said that he expected his wife home early in the evening and when she did not appear that he started to a streetcar line to meet her.

He said that when he saw Mrs. Blair and Ford together, he called to them and that Ford threatened him with a knife Then, he said, he struck Ford with a board over which he had stumbled.

Ford was dead when police arrived.

The Blairs, parents of a 15-year-old daughter, came here from Houston about six months ago.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

WE KNOW a man who said tobacco is a plant that is found in many southern states and sometimes in cigarettes. (When you can find the cigarettes, he might have added.)

NOT TOO BRIGHT!

SEVERAL hundred bombardiers at a Texas training camp were polled on their preferrences in females: A vast majority voted that the gal of their dreams should be as smart as they are—but no brighter!

• • •

Wonder why men are so afraid to face a group of ladies when most of the feminine set hanker to have been one lady in a group of men?

• • •

IRONING HINT

WITH clothes, as with crow's feet, once the lines are in it's hard to get them out. To avoid unnecessary wrinkles on washday, it's suggested clothes are folded as evenly as possible and given a guiding hand when being sent through the wringer. As a further wrinkle-preventive, garments are folded carefully when taken from the line, whether wet or bone dry.

• • •

ANOTHER REASON

THE SUGGESTION we made that you write your reasons for saying yes to the man you love brought a response but was not as popular as we had wished. It's not too late, if you would like to drop us a card.

Here's a note from an Anton woman who says, "My husband proposed to me on Friday, Oct. 13. I accepted because he has a small upper lip and a full, thick lower one. I had read a character sketch in a magazine which said that a person with a mouth of that type ws unselfish. Really he isn't the least bit selfish either!

We were married Oct. 13, 1939." Next!

LOST, FOUND

IMOGENE POWELL, whose telephone number is 2-2058, lost a brown kid glove for the left hand Sunday night. She thinks perhaps it was dropped on the running board of a car and fell off or maybe she dropped it in downtown Lubbock. Anyway, she certainly would like to get it back.

The afternoon mail Tuesday brought a cute little note from Leland Payne, jr., and his sister, Jeanie, telling of finding their little black puppy, Tarfu, who was reported in the column as missing a few days ago.

MARRIAGE SPAN

SPEAKING of marriage, the newlyweds today can look forward, on the average, to being married five years longer than those who made their vows 20 years ago. This is according to the statisticians of a national life insurance company who explain, however, that their calculations take no account of divorces and relate only to marriages terminated by the death of one of the mates, war risks excluded.

The increased length of married life is the natural result of the decline in mortality rates and the accompanying gains in expectation of life. As an example, the statisticians say that today a bridegroom 25 years old and a bride of the same age may expect to live together 37 years on the average, while the corresponding figure two decades ago was 32 years.

The average duration of married life, or the joint expectation of life of husband and wife, varies according to the ages of the two, who are not of the same age in most cases.

In most marriages, the prospect is that the wife will outlive the husband, the statisticians say. According to current mortality conditions, where the husband and wife are the same age, they explain, the chances are almost three in five that the wife will survive her husband; when the husband is five years older, the chances are two in three, while the wife's chances are three in four when her mate is her senior by ten years.

Fighting On Red Front Slackens As Torrential Rains Drench Area

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 7 — Fighting along the winding Eastern front slackened generally today—27th anniversary of the Russian revolution—with Moscow announcing only that "there were no essential changes on the front" and that yesterday 16 German tanks were knocked out in scattered local engagements.

Behind the major sectors, however, there was the promise of big operations to come.

Torrential Rains

The close siege of Budapest was impeded by a third day of torrential rains, but the Russians used the weather as cover for movement of thousands of infantrymen into the front lines beside their tanks, and Soviet artillery shelled the Hungarian capital's defenses methodically.

Berlin refused to be lulled into any sense of temporary security by the comparative Soviet quiet in the East. The German radio said that for several days past the Russians had been withdrawing mechanized formations from the East Beskids area of the Polish-Czechoslovak frontier. They said this was to reinforce assault divisions preparing for a new large-scale attack towards Tarnow from the Soviet bridgehead on the west side of the Vistula river.

Strong formations have been moved into that area west of Baranow particularly in the past 24 hours, and "the early beginning of a big battle is assumed," Berlin said.

More Bridgeheads

Berlin also acknowledged that Soviet troops in northeastern Hungary had pushed two more bridgeheads across the Tisza river 75 and 125 miles above Budapest.

The Germans claimed that in East Prussia they had cleared the western shore of Voldap lake of Russians but German pressure appeared to have decreased in the past day, with the Red Army still in possession of its hard-won footings on German soil.

In the southwest Latvian area where Marshal Stalin listed 30 German divisions as trapped and in the process of annihilation, the Germans said Soviet attacks had eased somewhat southeast of Liepaja but were still going strong in the Auce area and had made some small gains.

There were 12,404 cases of infantile paralysis reported in the United States last year.

Balance Of Council Endorse Regent Plan

AUSTIN, Nov. 7 (AP)—Six additional members of the executive council of the University of Texas Ex-Students association have endorsed a statement by the council calling for appointment of virtually a brand new board of regents.

Fourteen members of the 21-member council Saturday urged that all the regents who have had a hand in the controversy between the board and former President Homer P. Rainey of the university resign. They asked the governor to not reappoint any of the present board.

Gov. Coke R. Stevenson has said that he would continue to consult with a committee of ex-students and a faculty committee in rebuilding the board of regents.

The additional members of the ex-students council endorsing the statement were: Dr. Henry W. Harper of Fort Worth; J. C. Hutcheson, jr., of Houston; E. J. Kazen of Laredo; R. O. Kenley, jr., of Longview; W. H. Richardson, jr., of Austin; and R. W. Robinson of Raymondville.

ROOSEVELT FAN

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 7. (AP) — Palm Beach county's oldest voter, Mrs. Lucertia Hanong, 103, cast a ballot for President Roosevelt today, then remarked:

"I'll vote for him again four years from now if he runs."

Launching Is to Honor Sooner Agriculturist

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—The 10,500-ton Liberty ship Clarence Roberts, named for the late noted Oklahoma agriculturist and editor of Farmer Stockman, probably will be launched at Todd-Houston Shipyard here tomorrow.

Yard officials said the launching had been set for today, but that high tides prevented it.

The new Liberty ship carries down to the sea the name of Clarence Roberts as a tribute to his great work in the agriculture field. Roberts, whose name was submitted by the 4-H clubs of Oklahoma, was the author of a book entitled, "The Business of Farming," and had been editor of the Oklahoma City agriculture-livestock journal for 14 years.

His widow, Mrs. Clarence Roberts, will be sponsor at the launching.

FDR Finds Secluded Corner And Tabulates Results Flowing In

By HOWARD FLIEGER
Associated Press Staff Writer

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 7.—In a secluded corner of his Hyde Park home, President Roosevelt spread vote tabulating sheets before him tonight to keep a personal check on the nation's response to his bid for 16 years in the White House.

The family home was filled with guests, and his Hyde Park neighbors arranged a torch-light parade, win or lose.

But the President and some of his closest aides prepared in advance to follow their election night custom—watching the returns in a room apart.

Wire Connections

By telegraph, radio, telephone and news wires, the President was able to keep abreast of the voting trend. He also had direct communication with Democratic national headquarters in New York City.

Among his guests were Samuel I. Rosenman, the President's special counsel, and Robert Sherwood, the playwright who resigned an OWI job to join the fourth-term campaign.

It was a typical election night at the Roosevelt mansion — an early dinner and a late-evening supper for the President and his friends.

The chief executive—identifying himself to the registration clerk as a Dutchess county "tree grower"—cast ballot 251 today at the Hyde Park town hall where he made his first political speech in 1910.

Trouble With Machine

Like many another voter, he had a little trouble with the voting machine which recorded his fourth-term ballot. The handle wouldn't work at first and he had to stand in the booth while an election official reached over the green curtain to straighten out the machine.

The President — outspokenly confident of re-election—chatted awhile with the women who checked his voting qualifications. He went into the booth munching a piece of candy given him by Miss Mildred Todd, the registration clerk.

Mrs. Roosevelt cast the next ballot.

Villagers Gather About

Hyde Park villagers clustered about the 45-year-old town hall long before the Roosevelt car arrived. They applauded when the chief executive went in to vote, and again when he left the building. Mrs. Roosevelt and he were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Anna Boettiger, and the latter's five-year-old son, Johnny.

Two of Mr. Roosevelt's executive secretaries — Stephen Early and William D. Hassett — were with him in the town hall when he voted. A third, Maj. Gen. Edwin M. Watson, the President's military aide, was expected at the Roosevelt mansion tonight, along with Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, who accompanied Mr. Roosevelt on his traditional election eve tour of Hudson valley communities yesterday.

REQUISITION HONORED

AUSTIN, Nov. 7 (U.P.) — Gov. Coke Stevenson today honored a New York requisition for C. Max Baer who had been arrested at New Brausfels on a charge of kidnaping his own son who had been awarded to the mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Baer, of Buffalo, N. Y.

No rivers pass to the sea from Great Salt Lake, Utah.

Reporter Visits Supreme Court, Finds Quiet And Place To Wash

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — The place for me today is the Supreme court, where the experts in the long-tailed coats are arguing, all right, but not about politics. Peace, it's wonderful.

The nine judges in their oddly-assorted easy chairs are listening to the lawyers in the striped pants and the gates-ajar collars as if this were plain Nov. 7, instead of election day.

Page boys in blue serge knickerbockers are tiptoeing around with glasses of water on silver trays for the legal talent, I'm sitting comfortably on a soft red bench, nobody's even thinking about the election, and that isn't all.

Basin Must Be Filled

One of the big satisfactions of visiting the Supreme court is washing your hands. The washrooms are lined with white glass and when you turn on the faucet, you get a preview of the brave new world to come.

Gears click, valves turn, the hot water gushes out and there is no way under heaven to stop it. When the basin's full and you've decided to run before somebody jails you for flooding the place, the hot water turns itself off. Then you wash your hands.

Temptation For Billboard

That still isn't all. The back wall of the Supreme court comprises the largest unbroken expanse of pure white marble in the world. At least that's what I read in a book; what I know is that it's an awful temptation to press agents. They can't resist using it for a billboard.

Last time this happened the man from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer used the Supreme court's wall for an exhibition of magic lantern slides advertising a Hollywood epic. The police clapped him behind bars for defacing the Supreme court; he said all he did was shine some light on it. The police said, well, he didn't add to the dignity of the place. They let him out later.

Dignified Establishment

You get the idea. The Supreme court is a dignified establishment as well it should be. Even an Othman gets a feeling of pride in his country, just sitting in it. The bailiff wears a long black coat and a black-and-white striped necktie, like an ambassador. He is a mellifluous-voiced individual who says "oyez, oyez, oyez" in tones so silkly-smooth he probably turns down radio-announcing offers every week. He is known as the marshall, his coat fits beautifully, and I don't believe he packs a gun; at least I noticed no bumps under the broadcloth.

The justices wear black robes, as in their photographs, and sit in chairs which don't show in the newsreels. Chief Justice Stone has a big black chair with a special pad for his head. Justice Frankfurter, being a little man, has a little chair. The other justices have other chairs, especially tailored to fit their anatomy.

Half An Acre Or So

The courtroom is a handsome chamber with a roof of plaster flowers and walls of yellowish marble pillars. Behind the pillars is half an acre or so of red velvert drapery, installed as an afterthought to kill the echoes.

It doesn't help much. I couldn't hear a word uteered by Justice Murphy or Justice Jackson, either. Not that I'm complaining. I just wanted to escape the election hubbub and, in passing, to wash my hands.

GIRLS AMONG AGENTS

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP) — The Royal Air force disclosed today that French and Polish girl demolition experts were among secret agents who parachuted from British planes into southern France before the Mediterranean D-day.

Nazi Casualties Last Six Months 2,044,090

(By The Associated Press)

Germany has suffered at least 2,044,090 casualties in the last half year, official statements from the Eastern, Western and Southern fronts disclosed today. Actual enemy losses may be a great deal higher.

Official Allied sources listed these German casualties between May and November:

Russia; 790,000; Western front, 1,060,090; Italy, 194,000; Total, 2,044,090.

Vote Incomplete, But Statistics Early Indicated FDR Victory

velt my hearty congratulations and my earnest hope that his next term will bring a speedy peace and we will reestablish tranquility among our people.

"I am deeply grateful for the confidence expressed by so many millions of my fellow citizens and their labors."

Dewey re-read his valedictory slowly for the benefit of those who had waited up for his decision on the returns which by that time were beginning to engulf him.

Even before Dewey conceded the trend had been unmistakable. At Hyde Park, the President told his neighbors late in the evening that it looked like another victory.

All over the country, except in the Cornbelt, Roosevelt went out ahead when the election score sheets were halfway finished. The President got the Solid South and all five border states. He was far ahead in the Mountain and Western states, and he had a comfortable edge in the East and Northeast.

There was an outside chance that soldier votes would change some state decisions. But the Roosevelt victory was safe.

Some States May Change

In eight of the 11 states counting their service ballots belatedly the outcome could be changed. Seven of the eight, with 99 electoral votes, were on Roosevelt's side.

In battles for governorships and seats in Congress, returns were less complete than in the presidential struggle. But in general the candidates appeared to be following the tendencies of the national tickets.

The South, despite its substantial support for Roosevelt, nevertheless provided echoes of insurgencies against the New Deal. In Texas and South Carolina ballots for anti-Roosevelt Democratic slates cut into the chief executive's totals but not enough to threaten his chances.

Big Cities Swing In Line

The tabulations underscored the importance of big city votes on which Democrats leaned for picking up pluralities. Heavy turnouts of voters were reported from most metropolitan areas, where men and women passed through voting booths in some instances at a clip of one a minute.

In contrast, however, many a state—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, for example, had recorded heavy balloting not only in the cities but also in the rural districts.

Three Men Killed In Blackland Collision

WACO, Nov. 7 (AP)—An instructor and two aviation cadets from Blackland Army Air field here were killed this afternoon when two training planes were in collision aloft.

The acting commanding officer, Lt. Col. James M. Johnson, said a fourth man, Cadet Don L. Cass, Virogua, Wis., parachuted to safety.

Dewey Statement Is Cheered By Truman

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8. (AP)—"It was a grand statement by Governor Dewey and it shows American sportsmanship in this political campaign," Sen. Harry S. Truman said this morning after hearing that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican presidential candidate, had conceded that the Democrats had won.

"It is our duty now to uphold his good wishes and win the war and win the peace," said the Vice-President-elect in a written statement.

Truman was surrounded by friends who slapped him on the back and shook his hands, shouting, "Congratulations, Mr. Vice-President."

ALLOWABLE INCREASED

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—Total allowable oil production from the Eagle Hill oil field, Duval county, today was increased by the Texas Railroad commission from 487 to 628 barrels a day during November, to prevent waste.

Seedless tomatoes can be produced by using certain chemical compounds to replace fertilization.

Truman Tickles Ivories While Missouri Burns!

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7. (AP)—When the radio's election reports slackened momentarily tonight, Sen. Harry S. Truman, holding openhouse for friends in his Hotel Muehlback penthouse, paced the floor with his hands behind him and remarked smilingly "everybody around here is nervous but me."

At this point, a radio announcement blared out that unofficial and incomplete returns indicated Missouri might go Republican.

"Wow," exclaimed the Democratic vice-presidential nominee. "I think this calls for a concert."

With that remark he sat down to the grand piano in his suite and amazed the group of friends and reporters gathered there with a professional - like rendition of Paderewski's difficult "Minuet." The vistors sat spell bound as the senator played the entire piece without score.

As he finished, Truman turned and told the applauding audience, "Gentlemen, I wish I had stayed with music (pause) — along with politics." Truman listened to election returns with his wife, daughter, Miss Margaret Truman, and a host of business and political friends and good natured Missouri informality and friendliness characterized the gathering.

FDR And Wagner Win In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP) — President Roosevelt yesterday won New York's 47 electoral votes, forging safely ahead early today in tabulation of unofficial returns after trailing most of the night. With only 659 of the state's 9,121 districts missing, the vote: Dewey 2,770,565; Roosevelt 3,064,913.

On the basis of these figures, Roosevelt's final plurality was estimated at not less than 250,000, and probably more. He won the state in 1940 by 224,000.

Robert F. Wagner, veteran Democratic U. S. Senator, won reelection over Republican Secretary of State Thomas J. Curran.

In 8,222 election districts, Wagner polled 2,991,041 votes to 2,605,861 for Curran.

How Electoral Votes Are Stacking Up By States

Texas Heavily For Roosevelt

coalition against Roosevelt.

Once since the return of Texas to the Union after the Civil war had the state gone Republican. In 1928 Herbert Hoover beat Al Smith, Democrat, 367,036 votes to 341,032.

By the time the polls closed at 7 p. m. reports had piled up in unprecedented numbers.

Voting Record Expected

There were enough estimated qualified voters to break a record. The state comptroller placed the number at 1,567,143, greatest indicated voting strength in the state's history.

Here and there rain slowed balloting. In some sections it spurred voting. Generally the weather was favorable.

Secretary of State Sidney Latham had completed mailing to county clerks the short form federal war ballots he had received from Texas service men and women, a total of 17,856. Like the regular absentee ballots from those in the service and others who had paid poll taxes, the war ballots went into tonight's count.

There were reports that many voters ignored the amendments. The amendments, in fine type across the bottom of the ballot, apparently looked like instructions to some voters, who handed them in without marking them. Said one woman at a Dallas voting precinct: "I knew they were on the ticket, but I didn't know enough about them."

The winning presidential electors cast their votes for President and Vice President in the Electoral College, which meets for Texas in Austin, Dec. 18.

New Party Falters

Texas' big counties, where the Texas Regulars party controlled the votes in the May and September Democratic conventions, voted the new party down in every instance.

In two of the big vote counties, Bexar and Dallas, the Regulars even trailed the Republicans as they did throughout the state on the basis of incomplete returns. Bexar county Democrats polled 14,381 to 9,928 for the Republicans with the Regulars trailing with a scant 645 votes. In Dallas county, the Democrats had 49,662; Republicans 14,909 and the Regulars 5,654.

Harris county, where the Regulars party was said to have originated, polled 26,366 for the Democrats, 10,076 for the Regulars and 4,211 in incomplete returns.

In Tarrant county, the Regulars were in second place with 5,169 votes compared to 8,384 votes for the Democrats and 1,934 for the Republicans.

Galveston county Democrats polled 8,991 votes to 1,354 for the Regulars and 1,170 for Republicans.

Bell county, home of Roy Sanderford, one of the leaders of the Texas Regulars, polled 5,394 votes for the Democrats; 972 for the Regulars and 582 Republican.

Washington Goes Regular

Only in one county, Washington, did the Regulars gain a majority. In that county the Regulars led 2,102 votes to 1,487 for the Democrats and 534 for Republicans.

Seven Texas counties were definitely in the Republican column on the basis of incomplete returns with only one, Kennedy, reported complete. Republicans garnered 60 votes to 16 for the Democrats and 5 for the Texas Regulars.

Comal county with 1,060 Republican votes to 380 for the Democrats and 90 for the Regulars was also definitely Republican. Other counties where the Republicans were ahead were: Gillispie: Democrats 174; Republicans 1,420 and Regulars 125; Guadalupe: Democrats 493; Republicans 693 and Regulars 40; Johnson: Democrats 2,252; Republicans 3,600 and Regulars 367; Medina: Democrats 439; Republicans 687; Regulars 124; Bandera: Democrats 494; Republicans 599 and Regulars 90.

Duval county, in deep Southwest Texas, voted in its usual one-sided manner 3,200 for the Democrats; Republicans 85 and Regulars 25.

DEWEY NO. 256

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey cast ballot No. 256 in an East 48th street polling place shortly after noon today and thus closed his campaign for the presidency.

The governor, accompanied by attractive Mrs. Dewey, arrived in New York City from Albany shortly after noon and went immediately to the polling place where a crowd applauded their arrival.

Entering an automobile tourist bureau, a temporary polling place, the governor and Mrs. Dewey proceeded to take their place in line to await their turn for a ballot, but several persons who were standing there insisted that they vote immediately.

SUN GREETS BRICKERS

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7 (AP) Gov. John W. Bricker, the Republican vice presidential candidate, voted with Mrs. Bricker in a tightly-packed little booth at Precinct B, Ward 6, on the East Side today.

"Morning, governor," a man called out as the candidate came in. "Looks like a good Republican day." A warm sun was shining.

Bricker grinned. "This is a good day for anybody," he said.

TRUMAN VOTES EARLY

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Nov. 7 (AP)—Sen. Harry S. Truman, Democratic Vice Presidential nominee, cast his ballot—it was No. 102—at 9:35 a. m., CWT, in today's general election.

Accompanied by his wife, Truman arrived here from Kansas City and drove immediately to the memorial building, where he voted in the 7th precinct of Blue township.

Hannegan Sees "U.S. Unity"

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan at 11:49 p. m. (EWT) tonight claimed the reelection of President Roosevelt.

Hannegan's statement:

"The overwhelming victory of President Roosevelt means national unity on a program of international collaboration for permanent peace.

"The citizens of this country have shown that they are overwhelmingly of mind to get on with the war, win it, plan for the peace, win the peace and at the same time, to go forward with the program that will secure jobs for our people, including returning veterans.

"In this campaign, the President and his fellow candidates of the Democratic party, have kept faithfully to those three issues.

"We Democrats are gratified, of course, by the result. But from the beginning, we have looked on this election as a contest transcending party lines. The stakes were bigger than those of partisan politics. They were the fulfillment of America's hope and America's destiny in the years ahead of us."

Roosevelt Thanks Vanquished Rival

NEW YORK, Nov. 8—Having heard Governor Dewey's congratulations expressed to him by radio, President Roosevelt sent the following telegram to his vanquished opponent:

"'I thank you for your statement which I have heard over the air a few minutes ago.

"'(Signed) Franklin D. Roosevelt'."

Congress Returns

Democrat Bennett C. Clark in Missouri, and Republican Alexander Smith outdistanced Elmer H. Wene in New Jersey with returns incomplete.

Augustus W. Bennet (D) of Newburgh, defeated Hamilton Fish. Other turnoyers in favor of the Democrats retired Daniel Ellison (R-Md.); William J. Miller (R-Conn.), and Thomas B. Miller (R-Pa.)

The Democrats also picked up seats in the 1st, 2nd, 5th and 6th Pennsylvania districts.

At 2 a. m. (EWT) the Democrats had been assured of 101 seats in the House, where they now have 214 members to 212 Republicans. The Republicans had elected 13 members. Most of the seats assured the Democrats in the early returns were in the Solid South.

Eleven Jurors Named For Mauldin's Trial

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 7. (AP)—Eleven men had been selected today on the jury to try Hulon M. Mauldin, lumberyard bookkeeper under indictment in connection with the fatal shooting of his estranged wife here last Aug. 9.

South Upholds Its Tradition

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Nov. 7.—From Virginia to Texas the states of the traditionally Solid South came in tonight with early unofficial returns indicating hearty endorsement of a Fourth Term for President Roosevelt.

From Texas, where anti-Roosevelt opposition had been most vocal, the President easily whipped down the combined vote for the Republicans and the anti-Roosevelt "Texas Regulars."

In Mississippi, where another party split brought a last-minute special session of the legislature to assure voters of a "straight Roosevelt" ticket, the Democratic banner was far ahead of the Republican.

2-To-1 In South Carolina

The Roosevelt forces in South Carolina, another hot spot in the pre-election revolt picture, were also piling up a stout majority. The count gave the administration near two-to-one endorsement.

The Roosevelt vote was overwhelming in Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia. The Democrats held a slightly less than two-to-one lead in Florida and picked up additional ballots as Arkansas returns trickled in.

Along the Southern border, Tennessee piled up a big Roosevelt lead.

HAIR MINDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Japanese school girls, Tokyo radio said today, are cutting off their hair to be used in the manufacture of four-eingined bombers. The broadcast recorded by U. S. government monitors, did not say what specific part of the bomber required the hair.

By JEAN ENGLE
Avalanche Staff Writer

AWARDED SILVER STAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—The War department today announced the awarding of the Silver Star to Capt. James G. Barnett, infantry, Sweetwater, Tex. The citation said that on Dec. 7, 1943, in Italy he displayed great daring in the face of intense enemy fire and led his men against a machine gun nest which had trapped his comrades, and destroyed it.

PRACTICES UP

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7. (AP)—A girl walked into a Salt Lake City voting place.

"I don't want to vote here," she told the judges. "I just want to find out how to vote so I won't appear foolish in my own district."

President Jokes, Raps Foes In Congress

Bugles Blare As Hyde Park Neighbors Fete Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt told torch-bearing Hyde Park neighbors tonight that "It looks very much like I'll have to be coming up here on the train from Washington for another four years."

Smiling, the Chief Executive told a procession which had marched into his estate:

"The reports coming in are not so bad and I can't concede anything yet.

"It looks very much like I'll have to be coming up here on the train from Washington for another four years."

The President came out on the porch of his home, wearing the brown hat and navy cape that accompanied him through all of his Fourth Term campaign. He smiled broadly while his neighbors sang and a bugle corps played "hail, hail, the gangs all here."

In an obvious reference to Rep. Clare Boothe Luce (R.-Conn.), one of Mr. Roosevelt's sharpest congressional critics, the President said, "My friend (Margaret Connors, Mrs. Luce's opponent) seems to be winning."

He said he hoped the outcome of the race would follow his sentiments—the defeat of Mrs. Luce—and declared: "That would prove a mighty good thing for the country. That's a rough thing to say about a lady."

Mr. Roosevelt said reports were still too inconclusive to tell how Rep. Hamilton Fish (R.-N. Y.) is doing in his re-election bid, but said, "it looks good for his opponent. As I said yesterday, there's more than one way to get rid of a congressman."

By a recent redistricting, Fish no longer will represent Dutchess county after January 1.

Much Significance Attached To Stalin's Jap-Aggressor Charge

By M. S. HANDLER
United Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Nov. 7.—Diplomatic circles today attached considerable significance to the fact that Marshal Stalin for the first time since the start of the war has publicly classed Japan as an aggressor nation.

How the Soviet people and the Red Army have always felt about Japan is nobody's secret.

However, until his speech on the eve of the anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution Stalin had not discussed Japan in such frank terms.

Flatly Called Aggressor

He flatly characterized Japan as an aggressor state in last night's address, putting them in the same class with Germany and declaring that the Japanese successes at Pearl Harbor, Singapore and elsewhere in the Pacific were similar to Germany's successes in the first year of war in the Soviet Ukraine and other regions overrun in the first drive of the Nazi armies.

The Soviet press today carried little besides the Stalin speech and other anniversary news.

Contgratulatory messages to Stalin from leaders of the United Nations were displayed, including one from Prime Minister Churchill. The lack of congratulations from Churchill on the past two anniversaries had caused considerable comment.

Churchill's Message

This time he mesaged Stalin:

"It gives me great pleasure to send you my congratulations on the anniversary of the founding of the Soviet state. I wish your country and yourself all success in peace as in war and pray that the Anglo-Soviet alliance may be the cause of much benefit to our two countries, to the United Nations and to the world."

MAN BADLY BURNED

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—Hiram M. Reed, Austin oil operator, was severely burned today in an explosion at his home that demolished the interior of the rock structure.

Lamb County Oil Test Standing Full Of Oil

Humble Oil and Refining company No. 1 Jackson, southeast Lamb county wildcat, which is indicating discovery of a possible new producing area is reported to be standing full of oil from the section at 5,348-6,006 feet in the lower Permian lime.

That zone had been treated with 5,000 gallons of acid. The operator had good shows of oil and gas in swabbing down to 4,000 feet from the surface after the treatment and after reaching that level swabbed into pits at the rate of five to six barrels of oil per hour.

The well was shutin for five hours and the hole filled up and "sloshed" top of the casing. At last report further testing was being help up while rig repairs were being made.

This test drilled to a total depth of 7,191 feet in granite which was encountered at 7,185 feet. It has been tested most of the way up from the bottom to the present plugged-back total depth at 6,006 feet and lower sections yielded some slight amounts of oil and considerable water.

Informed operators express the idea that the project will probably be completed soon for a fair producer for a discovery well in area where the knowledge of the formations is as incomplete as they are in the district surrounding the Humble prospect.

Liberty Is First In Port And First To Shoot Down Jap Zero

By MURLIN SPENCER
Associated Press Staff Writer

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Oct. 28. (Delayed)—The S. S. David Dudley Field, a Liberty ship with four voyages to her credit, steamed into Leyte gulf unescorted one day after American troops had landed and claimed to be the first Liberty to arrive in the Philippines.

She began discharging her cargo and before she left on her return voyage had another first to her credit, the first Liberty ship to shoot down a zero in the Philippines.

It was the night of a plus 4—four days after the landing Oct. 20—when Japanese strafing planes winged in for a heavy attack on shipping in the bay. One plane picked out the Liberty and bored in barely 50 feet above the water.

Gun Crews Open Up

The Liberty's Navy gun crews opened up. The gunners hit the Zero and a wing caught fire. The pilot sought to crash his plane against the ship, and the gunner frantically attempted to beat it off.

It came on, its wing hit the port gun position and shattered on the starboard side. The Zero spread its wreckage over the bridge.

The David Dudley Field has left the Philippines now, slightly more battered than when she arrived. And after several hectic days of almost incessant raids she is a wiser ship.

Among the Navy gunners aboard who fought off Jap planes were John P. Hare, Silsbee, Tex.; Leo L. Lopez, jr., Corpus Christi and Thomas E. Lynd, Port Arthur.

Westerners Hold Rough Scrimmage

The Lubbock Westerners settled down to rough scrimmage again Tuesday afternoon as Coaches J. Mule Davis and Dixie White began to put on the pressure for Saturday's game at Pampa with the Harvesters.

Both teams have lost one game in the conference race, and one more defeat will eliminate ejther team from all chances of sharing in the conference flag at the end of the season.

Pampa's defeat came at the hands of the Amarillo Sandies last week, 13-0, while Lubbock's defeat was a 7-6 affair with Plainview.

Tickets On Sale

Athletic Director E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey announced Tuesday night that tickets for the Pampa game would go on sale today in the principal's office at Lubbock High school, and would remain on sale for the remainder of the week.

The Westerners will leave Friday evening right after the final workout, and spend that night in Amarillo and continue on to Pampa early Saturday morning. The tickets remaining will be returned to Pampa Friday night.

Long, Rough Drill

The Westerners have shown no indications of letting up on the rough work, and Tuesday afternoon held one of the longest and roughest sessions of head knocking staged this season.

It was rough, but brought forth no injuries to give hopes of the coaches that the team will enter the Pampa game in top shape and ready for the defending champions, the Harvesters.

After an unimpressive start this season, the Harvesters started to roll as the season wore along, and until the Amarillo game were clicking smoothly. The team looked great in the Amarillo game, and showed a great defense in stopping the vaunted steamroller of Amarillo.

The Harvesters loom as one of the toughest tests on the schedule for the Westerners, and a real battle is expected.

Bowl Officials Eye Wake Forest, Duke

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 7 (U.P.)—The winner of Saturday's football game between undefeated Wake Forest and powerful Duke university may be one of the teams to appear in the Orange Bowl, C. H. Baldwin, chairman of the Orange Bowl committee, said today.

Duke has lost four games this season but scored one of the year's biggest upsets in handing Georgia Tech its first loss Saturday and was thought to be a real contender for the bowl bid.

Other teams under consideration, according to Baldwin, were Mississippi State, Auburn, Texas, Oklahoma A. and M., Alabama, Tennessee, Holy Cross, Tulsa, Texas Christian and Rice.

DEADLINE IS NEAR

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—With 105 Conference AA teams already listed on the 1944-45 Interscholastic League basketball roster, R. J. Kidd, athletic director, today announced that the closing date for application is November 15.

Vic Finos, Navy's extra point specialist, was fullback on the 1942 Plebe team at Annapolis.

All-State Pickers To Face Tough Task

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Woe unto the all-state picker this season!

He can select a great high school team and still get into a peck of trouble.

What you going to do with fellows like Preston Smith of Bryan, George Graham of San Angelo, Byron Gillory of Marshall, Harmon Carswell of Lufkin, Doak Walker of Highland Park (Dallas), Towner Leeper of Sweetwater, Dewey Jacobs of North Side (Fort Worth), Billy Engle of Greenville, Sammy Pierce of Vernon, Ted Hunt of Goose Creek and Perry Samuels of Jefferson (San Antonio) when there are only four spots in the backfield?

Never before have there been so many outstanding backs.

And these are just mentioning a few. There are Bobby Adair of Breckenridge, Melvin Ramsey of McAllen (103 points), H. J. Shands of Lufkin—but to keep on calling them out would just confuse the all-state picker more.

And linemen! Listen, man, the job is almost as tough there as in the backfield.

Start with Red Marable, Waco tackle; consider Henry Dickerson, North Dallas end—and those other all-state end candidates from the Dallas area — Dan Foldberg of Sunset and Harold Clark of Highland Park; then there's Center Richard Rowan of Breckenridge; dwell upon San Angelo's Vernie Horner, George Hughes and Dennis Doyle, end, guard, and tackle respectively in the great Bobcat line; don't forget Guard Marion Grant of Abilene — and Port Arthur has one of the finest forward walls in the state, and Amarillo is tough as a boot, and . . .

But let it be said for protection that this is only a partial list; that anybody having an all-state candidate just consider him mentioned; that the above has been written merely to show how tough it's going to be to pick eleven men from such a vast field. Besides there's a matter of space on the sports pages these days.

Admiral King Helped Inspire Navy Stars

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7 (AP)—"Let's win this game," a high ranking Naval officer implored the Navy football team between halves of the Notre Dame football game Saturday at Baltimore.

The officer, Ray Swartz, Navy assistant line coach said today, was Adm. Ernest J. King, commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet and chief of naval operations.

The Middies won the game, 32 to 13.

"Buy A War Bond TODAY"

Army, Randolph Still Top Clubs

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (AP)—Army and Randolph Field, who ruled the collegiate and service divisions of the Associated Press football poll a week ago, retain their titles in the present compilation.

The Cadets, who garnered 58 of the 106 votes cast for first place, piled up 974 points, a margin of 162 over Ohio State's civilians in the listing of college teams only.

Randolph Field, fourth in the overall poll, led the service outfits with 675 tallies, including the 180 obtained by being rated the best in the country, with Bainbridge Naval a distant second with 349.

Navy, Notre Dame, Michigan, Illinois, Southern California, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech and Tennessee followed Army and the Buckeyes in the college division. The Volunteers, unbeaten but tied, were eighteenth in the major tabulation which included both college and service elevens.

Iowa Pre-Flight, Fourth Air Force, Great Lakes, Norman Navy, North Carolina Pre-Flight, El Toro Marines, Third Air Force and the Second Air Force made up the remainder of the service elite.

The Randolph Fliers, rated by many observers as the greatest non-professional squad ever assembled, have piled up 229 points in five consecutive conquests and only Texas university has been able to score. The Longhorns got a single touchdown but were unable to convert.

First Lt. Bill Dudley, an All-American player at Virginia and late the National Football League's ground gaining champ while with Pittsburgh, is at left half back and Second Lt. Dippy Evans, former point maker for Notre Dame, is at right. First Lt. Pete Layden, one-time great at Texas, is fullback. These officer-athletes get their signals from Pvt. Ken Holley, who had two years at Holy Cross and a year's pro experience.

The line is of equal calibre, anchored by Pvt. T. B. Robertson, 200-pound veteran of two years experience with the Brooklyn Tigers. Sergt. Jack Russell, 210, made the Associated Press Service All-America last year but his play at left end isn't much better than that of Harold Newman, former Alabaman who played in the Rose Bowl, who cavorts on the right flank.

Cowhands Gold Play At Levelland Friday

Riding the crest of a five game winning streak, Coach Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst will take his Lubbock Cowhands Gold team to Levelland Friday night to face one of the toughest tests the Lubbock youngsters have been called upon to play.

Coach Gano Tubbs' Levelland Lobos have played some good football this season, and lost some heart-breakers, but in the last three games the Lobo offense has started clicking, and they will be tough to handle from now on out.

The Lobos scored only nine points in the first four ball games, and won only one of the four. Tubbs' big, powerful club began to hit harder in the last three, and scored 58 points in the last three games, while allowing their opponents 26 points.

The Lobos were one of the few to offer much opposition to the pennant winning Littlefield Wildcats, and the only team able to muster enough punch to score twice on the Wildcats.

The Lobos have won their last two games, beating Morton 32-7 and Olton, 13-0.

Tubbs has only four returning veterans from last year's district champions, but has a big, powerful ball club.

Hayhurst's eleven opened the season by taking a 13-0 licking at Seagraves, then battled the powerful Class B Meadow club to a scoreless deadlock. Then the Cowhands began to click, and have won their last five games.

The winning streak started with a 20-12 victory over Petersburg, 25-0 over the Lamesa B team, 12-0 over Slaton, 28-0 over Ropes and last week defeated the District 6-A powerhouse, the O'Donnell Eagles, 21-6.

The Cowhands Black team will be idle this week, their scheduled bout with Plains having been canceled.

George Stirnweiss of the New York Yankees led the American League in hits, steals, runs scored and most times at bat during the 1944 season.

Morgan Seeks Defense For Christian's Potent Attack

Coach Dell Morgan was singing the blues again Tuesday afternoon as he stood on the sidelines and watched Bud Davis and Bobby Barron pass and run the third stringers through, around and over the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

The third stringers, running off formations of the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, Tech's opponents for next Saturday afternoon at Fort Worth, gained almost at will against the regulars of the Red Raiders as Coach Morgan sought a defense to stop the "Frogs."

Bud Davis of Hearne was pitching passes that were "threading the needle" and Red Raider defenders could not stop him. Bobby Barron of Big Spring was running off the tricky TCU offensive formations for many nice gains.

"If we can't stop our own boys, how can we hope to stop the 'real McCoy' next Saturday afternoon," moaned Morgan.

The Red Raiders will have two more days of tough work on the home field, and will leave early Friday morning for Fort Worth. In those two days, the team must map an offense, and find the means of stopping the TCU razzle-dazzle, which appears to be the problem of the day.

Besides the lengthy drill on defense against both TCU running and passing plays, Coach Morgan put in a lot of time on the punting and tackling of the Red Raiders.

Grid Fans Start To Pick Bowl Tilt Foes

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—College football took a back seat today to the Presidential election, but within the next few weeks the air probably will be filled with guesses on what teams will play in the various bowl games on New Year's day.

This is the way things shape up now according to information from unofficial sources:

Rose Bowl (Pasadena, Calif) — The Nov. 25 game between Southern California and University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) is expected to decide the Pacific Coast representative. The winner will invite an Eastern team with Tennessee reported as the likely choice. Last year USC trimmed Washington, 29 to 0, before 68,000.

Sugar Bowl (New Orleans) — Tulane, Georgia Tech, Mississippi State and Tennessee being considered as Southern representative. Committee would like a Western Conference eleven as opponent. Last year Georgia Tech nipped Tulsa, 20 to 18, in thriller before 69,000.

Orange Bowl (Miami, Fla.) — Tennessee, Alabama, Miss. State or Georgia Tech most likely choices to meet either Wake Forest, Duke, Holy Cross, Tulsa or perhaps second ranking team in Southwest Conference. Last year Louisiana State beat the Texas Aggies, 19 to 14, before 27,000.

Cotton Bowl (Dallas)—Oklahoma Aggies, Miss. State, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech most prominently mentioned as opponents for champions of Southwest Conference. Rice now tops conference, but Texas, Texas Christian and Arkansas still are in race. Last year Texas and Randolph Field tied, 7-7, before 15,000.

Sun Bowl (El Paso)—Sports writers are booming the Second Air Force, of Colorado Springs, Colo. and mighty Randolph Field as opponents. Last year Southwestern, of Texas, beat New Mexico, 7 to 0.

The East-West game will be played as usual at San Francisco, but nothing as yet has been heard from the Oil Bowl at Houston; Vulcan Bowl at Birmingham, Ala.; and the Flower Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

Then, too, there probably will be, as last year, an Arab Bowl game at Oran; a Potato Bowl at Belfast; a Lilly Bowl in Bermuda; and a Tea Bowl in London.

Williamson To Lead LAAF Against Navy

Jimmie Williamson, who started out the season as a substitute back and developed into one of the mainstays of the LAAF backfield, has been chosen as game captain for the important intersectional and inter service battle between The Norman Naval Zoomers and the LAAF Flyers on Armistice Day.

Williamson, a former Lubbock Hi back who played one year of frosh football at Tech before he entered the army has played a consistently stronger game both defensively and with the pigskin tucked under his arm as the season progressed, despite his lack of poundage.

Another featherweight in the LAAF backfield, who also played some football for Tech and who also has endeared himself to LAAF fans is Dexter Walthall, blocking back. He lets the ball carrier take the glory while he consistently blasts a way for them —always against heavier opponents.

As game time approaches for Saturday's game the LAAF invalid list fails to grow shorter. Still on the doubtful list are Bobby James, and George Shook, backs, Marshall Cauley end and Elvin Lyons, guard. Already on the short end of the odds the Flyers are hoping that some of these cripples will be in shape to play at least a part of the game.

In fact most of the hot stove quarterback league are ready to admit that it would take a miracle for the Flyers to outscore Eshmont, Sitko, Welch and Merriman but miracles have happened in football before and the Flyers are hoping to uphold the prestige of the army with a few tricks worked out this week in practice.

The Zoomers not only have a high scoring backfield but they also have a phenominal placekicking artist in Dick Miller, tackle, who in three year sof college competition kicked 25 out of 29 extra points, and two versatile ends in Richmond of Arizona U. and Toland of Southern California.

Tickets for Saturday afternoon's tussle in Tech Stadium will be on sale at the Hilton hotel at the usual prices for LAAF games—60 cents for general admission tickets, 90 cents for reserved seats and $1.20 for box seats. Men in uniform will be admitted free.

Bechtol, Black Star Linemen

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania's gigantic 252-pound freshman tackle — George Savitsky — today was named the outstanding lineman of the week in the Associated Press sixth weekly poll.

Ends Jack Dugger, of Ohio State, and Hubert Bechtol, former Lubbock Westerner and Red Raider, now of Texas, pressed Savitsky for top honors.

Coach D. X. Bible, of Texas, termed Bechtol the "outstanding player on the field (against Southern Methodist) because of his pass receiving, excellent coverage of kicks and fine blocking." On one occasion Bechtol, who scored two touchdowns, knocked out himself as well as the SMU ball carrier, in making a savage tackle.

Other outstanding linemen named in the poll this week included Clyde Black, Texas Tech tackle, who played a great game in the Red Raiders' upset of the Rice Owls. Black recovered a fumble that led to one touchdown, did some great blocking in opening holes on the offense, and was outstanding in the defense.

TO CLOSE SEASON

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — Bergstrom Air field's football team will end its 1944 schedule Saturday night against Blackland AAF's eleven at Waco. Bergstrom has won three and lost three games.

TEXAS FIGHT CARDED

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—Fritzie Zivic, former middleweight champion of the world, was signed today to meet Chuck Hirst, Texas middleweight champion, in a 10-round bout here next Tuesday night, Promoter Ralph Smith said.

McWILLIAMS SETS PACE

ATLANTA, Nov. 7. (AP)—Maintaining the record of having scored in each Mississippi State's games this season, Tom "Shorty" McWilliams, freshman tailback for the Maroons, continues to lead the Southeastern Conference scoring with 66 points in five games, all on touchdowns.

Yale's top football score resulted in a 136 to 0 victory over Wesleyan in 1886.

A Problem For The Colleges

OF interest to faculty, students and friends of Texas Technological college is an opinion resently expressed by one of the nation's better known educators who, like others of his profession, is attempting to plumb now the problems which will confront higher education in the postwar field.

Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase, chancellor of New York university, has expressed concern that the return of peace will be accompanied by inflationary enrollments in colleges and universities currently in distress because of the virtual elimination of male under-graduates. Dr. Chase points out that almost every institution of higher learning has suffered great losses of personnel, facilities, and departments as a consequence of the war.

He voices the fear that when demobilization begins, great pressure will be exerted to expand plant and faculty to care for the temporary load of returned veterans and war workers, along with the normal tide of high school graduates. He says every university will be confronted by the choice of "either greatly expanding, or increasing the selectivity of admisisons." Institutions which expand to meet the temporary conditions will naturally have to seek an increased and continuous supply of students after that era has passed.

Quite a number of Americans consider it heresy for one to assert that colleges and universities should not be too much interested in expanding their plants. Such persons consider the growth of the college more important than the training of the student. But the fact is that many college graduates are dissatisfied with the kind of education they received. They explain that they were not forced to work sufficiently hard when they were in college and that they do not feel that they obtained much of an education.

This is particularly true of those who were victims of the elective, or "rabbit system" of education, in which each student is permitted to choose his own courses, however unrelated they may be, and to nibble on each as his mental appetite and the passing mark dictate.

Colleges and universities which wish to be regarded with respect must retain rather lofty standards. If their own graduates are not somewhat impressed with their own training after studying for four years, the institutions must decline in public estimation. When the graduate puts away his diploma and goes out to face the world, it is not the size of the college he attended but his own mental development that counts. Institutions of higher learning should give this factor more attention than that accorded construction of new buildings.

A New Field For Radio

THE Santa Fe railroad, always among the more progressive of the nation's great transportation systems, recently operated a long train filled with perishable freight from one end of its line to the other by way of radio dispatches.

Down state, the Bowen bus lines have applied for federal permission to operate two-way radio communications between their busses and a control point.

The American Trucking association, an organization representing most of the large truck transportation systems of the country, today is experimenting with radio communication between drivers on the road and dispatchers in offices. Officials of that organization thus far have found the radio system entirely feasible; they anticipate its general use in the postwar years.

Even the citizen with no technical knowledge of radio can see where both rail and truck lines will be able to employ this relatively new system of communication with valuable results. Police departments long have found radio most useful, as Lubbock officers will attest and there is no reason why the railroads and truck companies will not share the benefits already enjoyed by law enforcement agencies.

Arno Dalby, of Lubbock, known throughout this and several nearby states as an efficient and progressive operator of truck lines, is of the opinion that the near future will find his concern—and others running in and out of here—using radio to portect their own interests and those of customers as well. He looks forward to the not far distant day when the experimental period will be over and commercial operation will be feasible.

Radio communication should be especially fitted for taxicab dispatching in large cities, too. Its use not only would speed up service for patrons, but also bring about savings in operations, making it unnecessary for a driver to go to any given point for instructions or information but, instead, permit him to pick messages en route.

Those who long have maintained that radio is in its infancy as a communication systems seem, as time passes, to have their views borne out. We may even see the day when some form of radio will supplant present telephone and telegraph facilities.

We don't understand why a feature news story should have been written about a Chicago boy who sees things upside down. That's the way things are these days.

Germany Will Try It Again

By Sigrid Schultz

(Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.)

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XXIV

ALTHOUGH the Nazi germ was cultured in Germany through changes in the national character during the past half century it has developed many possibilities for infecting the national health of other countries. Nazism is, in fact, an international disease. It it, further, all the more likely to attack in unexpected places, since under the impact of the war its carriers have gone underground.

Way back in Landsberg days the Nazi Party chieftains purposely picked out men with special foreign connections to work on susceptible groups abroad. As the Party grew in power, volunteers turned up or were ferreted out to be absorbed into skeleton organizations within the Party framework, each organization specializing in a specific country. The political emphases in each case differed with the varying national characteristics involved.

The original plan evolved at Landsberg called for the use of local anti-Semitic leaders as Nazi pioneers in foreign lands. In time a vast net of organizations sprang up to exploit the political possibilities of anti-Semitism, including the Alliance Cretiene Arienne, with its first headquarters in Paris, the Anti-Jewish World League, founded in Nuremberg, and the World Service, branching out from Erfurt, with millions of marks to spend on propaganda.

The age-old racket of anti-Semitic secret cabals may not be important in itself. But co-ordinated by wealthy organizers and big Nazi-controlled concerns, it menaces any decent tolerant community. Especially since it is often forgotten that tolerance must be firmly protected.

* * *

THE Balt German, Alfred Rosenberg, who ran the Foreign Political Office and the institute known as the Schooling House in Dahlem near Berlin, was not content with but one Nazi headquarters in neighboring countries. He visualized the advantages of maintaining two groups—an open organization, and a secret one that would work effectively under cover of the publicity inevitably aroused by its blatant brother.

The Netherlands, for instance, had an official Nazi Party under Dr. Anton Adian Mussert. Then the secret, more radical, party was launched and the Nazis were able to keep Mussert under their thumb by threatening him with his rival. I interviewed Mussert in Utrecht in 1936. He made a point of mentioning that he rejected some Nazi tenets; Holland was satisfied with her queen, for instance and could not therefore subscribe to Nazi condemnation of women as inferior in official posts.

Sir Harry Deterding, the Dutch oil king, in a class apart but still a Nazi sympathizer, has his own uses to the Party. Believing that Nazism stood as a bulwark against Communism, Deterding financed many Nazi economic-infiltration schemes in Southeastern Europe.

The Nazi set-up in the Netherlands can be taken as characteristic of developments in nearly every other foreign country, including the United States of America.

* * *

THE Nazis obviously prize conquest of the United States above other countries. They have, however, encountered so much opposition to their best tactics that they established, in addition to their direct centers of infiltration within the country, indirect affiliates outside it, against the day when the war would curtail too-active internal work. Instead of employing Germans, in this instance, they exploited the many agencies functioning in Spain and in South America. They counted on using our sister continent as a springboard against us.

Ever since World War I, German aristocrats and big businessmen, preceding official German propaganda agents, have cultivated aristocrats and businessmen in Spain, Portugal, and South America. General Wilhelm von Faupel, an associate of General Ludendorff in 1918, spent years in South America building up sympathy for the German cause and inaugurating activist centers. Whatever mistakes the United States made he and his aides promptly enlarged and distorted. They reached far into the artistocracy, the business groups, the soldiery, and the German enclaves. General von Faupel's selling point was the superiority of Spanish culture; his follow-up arguments appealed to the national pride.

Having cached tremendous sums of money in South America in the bank accounts of wealthy and aristocratic friends, many of the leading Nazis hope that if they have to flee Germany they may find refuge below the Panama Canal. From Central and South America hide-outs, they could then finance future pan-German exploits.

North and South Americans are dangerously apt to underestimate the virulence of the Nazi poison, the thoroughness of the German enemy's designs on their welfare. This undervaluing occurs partly because only a small number of their nationals actually saw the new Germany in action in the countries Germany conquered, exploited, and oppressed. It occurs also partly because only a fraction of those North or South Americans who were in Berlin during World War II had an opportunity to hear the Germans speak openly, proudly, about their plans and aspirations, and thus to realize to what lengths even the average German will go to achieve his pan-German aims.

New Destroyer Is To Honor Pacific Hero

ORANGE, Nov. 7 (U.P.)—The USS Henry W. Tucker, a new destroyer for America's already invincible fleet, will be launched here tomorrow bearing the name of a 24-year-old pharmacist's mate of Birmingham, Ala.

Henry W. Tucker, pharmacist's mate 3/c, was awarded the coveted Navy cross for gallant service to his shipmates following fatal Japanese air attacks on the USS Neosho on May 7, 1942. The Navy disclosed that Tucker swam through blazing, oil-covered waters to administer tannic acid to seamen badly burned. He was later reported missing.

His mother, Mrs. Henry Walton Tucker of York, Ala., will sponsor the destroyer.

ESCAPED CONVICT SOUGHT

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—A search is underway for Elmer Long, 23-year-old convict who escaped from the Harlem prison farm Sunday night, state prison officials disclosed today. The prisoner was serving 10 years for theft in Jefferson and Madison counties.

Looking At Life - - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

LAST week a friend of mine came back to the United States on his first leave in a year.

He is a lieutenant colonel in the Army Medical corps and he had had a pretty tough time of it both in England and in France.

It isn't very nice, you know, to see thousands of young fellows coming into the hospitals maimed and wounded and out of their minds. And it isn't very nice to have them die on you or cry their hearts out because they may never be able to see or to hear or to walk again.

Well, my friend didn't look so good. He had lost lots of weight and, where he had been a jolly sort of a rounder before, he now was very serious and very, very quiet.

We took him to see "Oklahoma" and "One Touch of Venus." We took him to the Morocco and the Copacabana.

We introduced him to some very pretty girls and he drank and danced and we all stayed up very late.

* * *

When we finally took him back to his hotel we said good-bye and we hoped he had a good time.

"Yes, I had a very good time" he said, "You all seem to be having a very good time."

And then he added, and he was very serious, as he said it:

"Do you know I've found out something tonight that I didn't know before."

"What did you find out?" I asked him.

"I found out" he said, "that we fellows over there and you people over here aren't fighting the same war at all."

I didn't quite know what he meant and I didn't like the way he said it.

* * *

THE next noon, though, when he and I had lunch together in a quiet, side-street restaurant. I found out.

"You people over here think that the war is some kind of a musical comedy" he said.

"I see the night clubs crowded and you can't get a seat in a good show and the hotels are turning people away.

"One of the girls last night was telling me how she was doing her share by being a Gray Lady in an Army hospital twice a week, and how she was bored the rest of the time because her husband was overseas and people would talk if she went out too much.

"Another one told me how she wished the war were over because her wardrobe was falling to pieces and she simply couldn't buy anything decent to wear.

"One of the fellows complained that you couldn't get any decent Scotch whiskey and you had smoke cigarettes you never heard of.

"Everybody had some kind of a gripe about some personal little inconvenience."

And then he told me about the thousands of boys he had treated over there and about the suffering and the misery and the agony and the filth and brutality of the whole business.

And he told me that not one of the kids complained—they knew it had to be done so they did it.

"Yes" said my friend, "You and I aren't fighting the same war at all. And do you know what? I like our kind of war better. It's more decent."

He never finished his leave, by the way. He's on the ocean right now—back to the real war.

The News Behind The News

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

ALONG the New York water front there is fear that the flare-up in Chungking may cause the disillusioned American public to rock the boat and permanently impair our valuable commercial relations with China.

Steamship line executives and leading exporters stress that we slowly build up a reservoir of good will in the Orient such as no other nation enjoys. This can be translated into customers for American-made goods.

We are counting on foreign trade to help maintain full employment in our factories. But unless we know tolerance in a situation fraught with dynamite internationally, we may throw away the friendship and the potential markets thus far gained.

Naturally, we feel that we have been let down. The Chiang Kai-Shek-Stilwell episode demonstrates the difficulty of dealing with inscrutable Orientals—even those who are our Allies.

The Chinese have a background, a culture, an economic system and attitude to life unlike our own. The underlying circumstances are what they have been for years. The current outburst merely drags the skeleton out of the closet.

* * *

CRISIS: A Standard Oil official, long a resident in Asia, recalls the hatred of foreigners—a hangover from Boxer days—that was growing fast before the war and is strong in many elements of the present Chungking regime.

On the other hand a Manhattan scientist, who also spent years in the East, affirms the enthusiasm for American democratic ideas among liberal leaders.

In recent weeks uncensored facts concerning inflation racketeers, palace squabbles, feuds with Communists, inefficiency and corruption in Chungking have been impartially exposed in this column—advance reports on the shocking events now so widely publicized. But no single glimpse—good or bad—gives the complete picture of the country's distress.

We can be certain that the Axis hopes the blow-off will handicap us in our war with Japan. Yet the explosion may clear the air for a fresh and more realistic approach in our dealings with Chiang.

His troops are still compelling Tokyo to waste soldiers and resources in Asia which otherwise might be used against our forces. It will be better for our boys in the Pacific if the United States tries to get along with China rather than have her sulk in her tent or—as Vichy did in the hour of crisis—go over to the enemy.

* * *

BUSINESS: An unbiased appraisal is that China is not a world power, never has been and may not be for a long, long time.

"It takes half a century to industrialize a nation," says a distinguished Wall Street banker. "No state can wage modern war unless there are heavy industries within her borders or her empire.

"One of the achievements of the current Philippines campaign is that we are wresting from Japanese clutches the Mindanao iron mines, perhaps the richest ore deposits in the world. Because China lacks developed resources and machines, she cannot stand on her feet today—or tomorrow—without our support. Yet a friendly, liberated China is vital to our pattern for postwar trade."

New York export authorities declare that when Nippon has been eliminated from the postbellum business field, there will be an economic vacuum in the Orient which India, the Dutch East Indies, Malaya and the Philippines cannot fill. Only China is a possible successor to Japan as a customer of Uncle Sam.

Tokyo bought 9,000,000 tons of goods out of the 12,000,000 that we sold to Asia in 1937 (last normal year) or 78 per cent of our total exports to the Far East. We were selling to and buying from China less in 1937 than we were in 1923.

It will not be easy for her to raise her 1937 record of 1,000,252 tons of materials purchased from the USA up to the point where she will top Japan's 1937 position in the American export field.

* * *

MARKETS: In peacetime we buy many times as much from Malaya and the Netherlands East Indies as we sell to them. There is the same uneven exchange with India, whose markets may continue to be hedged about by British Empire preference rulings. But we sold to both China and Japan much larger shipments then we received from them.

The Philippines were a good outlet for our products. In 1940 we sent to the islands cargoes valued at $105,000,000 and brought back loads worth $91,000,000.

After the Philippines have their independence, exporters warn, there will always be the possibility that commerce will be limited by reason of mutual customs, tariff regulations and taxation.

Therefore, New York business magnates argue that it is to our own self-interest to do everything within reason to prevent China from falling to pieces and turning from us to competing European nations like France, Belgium and Holland.

* * *

SMOKES: An old veteran of the Spanish and Philippine wars, now living in Florida, has furnished new and authentic information on an unknown factor which contributes to the present cigarette famine. Incidentally, Washington reports indicate that the shortage will become increasingly acute in the months ahead. Fags may be as scarce as turkeys by Christmas.

In discussing this problem in a recent column, the writer did mention "possible overbuying by the armed Services." But, according to my voluntary informant, who has close connections with men in uniform because of his fellow-feeling and hospitality toward them, we are shipping overseas far more nicotine than the doughboys, sailors and aviators need.

Uncle Sam has virtually bought up all the production of four popular brands. He has, quite probably, purchased more than were required, but no one cavils at that for the reason that the number of troops abroad varies from month to month. It was necessary to build up and preserve a surplus.

Unfortunately, friends and relatives, as well as soldiers' welfare agencies, have likewise sent millions of cigarettes to the overseas forces. Christmas packages, which had to be dispatched before October 15, were loaded down with smokes. In fact, the outward-bound shipments have reached such volume that the boys are beginning to write home, "For the love of Mike, don't send me any more cigarettes!"

But there seems to be no means of controlling the exports. Moreover, most people, so the salesmen say, will gladly go short to make sure that the G.I.s of every branch get enough.

ATTACKS: American airline executives have no love for one another. Whenever one gets a newspaper writer in a corner he flays his competitors in language that would choke a sailor's parrot.

Seventeen of our big firms want to retain their particular brands of free enterprise. Two standouts—Pan American and United—demand what they call a "chosen instrument" organization which their rivals characerize as downright monopoly.

Both of these companies maintain that only through one giant setup can Americans hope to cope with European lines backed by their respective national treasuries.

The trade thinks that United will include in such an arrangement other outfits which choose to participate. It is said that if Pan American cannot carry out its pet scheme, it will still crush its competitors by offering a parnership to the United States government.

Opponents charge that the threat of huge European combines is a bogey man conjured up to scare Congress into legalizing an airway trust. They admit that London has granted a mail subsidy to one official outfit but they contend that English steamship concerns plan to operate their own planes on a profitable basis.

Like projects proposed by American ship owners are attacked by certain powerful airline figures and by an extremely active lobby in Washington. New York steamship people explain that they are not asking for indiscriminate privileges, but merely to run routes parallel to their regular liner courses. Otherwise, they warn, a successful merchant marine is impossible.

Medical Classes To Move By Bus In Postwar Days

By GORDON SHEARER
United Press Correspondent

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — Medical classes in the University of Texas will shuttle back and forth between Galveston and Houston in college busses in post-war days, unless the Texas legislature at its next session reverses the decision of the Regents to keep the university's medical branch at Galveston.

A four-lane highway to be built upon a 300-foot right of way between the two cities, less than 50 miles apart, is an important feature of the State Highway department's plans already prepared for construction as quickly as peace returns.

University regents say that proposed highway was taken into consideration in deciding to keep the medical branch at Galveston. With such facilities for inter-communication, regents say, students will have the advantage of clinical material in both cities. Entire classes can be moved from one city to the other with little loss of time and small expense.

* * *

Functions Approved

Establishment of a cancer hospital at Houston has been speeded up by an arrangement made with Hermann hospital there. Under the agreement a 25-bed annex will be made immediately available for the cancer foundation, and it will be used until materials are released and the erection of the proposed cancer hospital can be started.

Dean Chauncey L. Leake of the medical branch says the medical school now is fully approved by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical association and the Association of American colleges.

The nursing school, is fully approved by the accrediting agency of the American Medical association.

John Sealy Hospital at Galveston is one of but seven in Texas having the approval of the American College of Surgeons and the Council on Medical Education of the American Medical association for interne and resident training, and whose nurse-training is approved by the State Board of Nurse Examiners.

* * *

THE curricula for medical laboratory technicians and physicotherapist is approved by the Council of Medical Education and Hospitals.

The staff consists of 174 teachers as compared with 158 in 1943, and 86 in 1939. There are now 66 clinical teachers, 33 of whom are fulltime instructors without being engaged in private practice.

The medical branch published more than 100 original scientific and clinical research contributions and three important medical books in 1943 and 1944. The school has participated in 100 post-graduate training sessions in this country and abroad in the same period.

Aids Charity Patients

On clinical material, a compilation shows there were for the year ended September 1, 1943, Galveston charity patients numbering 2,365 for 32,953 patient-days. There were 3,001 state-referred charity patients for 64,055 days, and 3,988 pay patients for 52,654 patient-days.

A total of 1,275 state-referred patients were admitted through diagnostic clinic on physician's request from 124 counties in the state.

There was a waiting list averaging 60 patients.

Out-patient visits totaled 101,432 for the year, or about 300 per operating day.

* * *

ON THE financial side, the medical branch of the Univeristy of Texas spent $1,791,300 in the fiscal year that ended August 31 1944. Of this $994,540 was received through legislative appropriations. The balance came from federal sources for Army and Navy medical trainees and Nurse cadets, and from local income.

A breakdown of the expenditure as compiled by Dean Leake is:

John Sealy Hospital, 41 per cent; School of Medicine (teaching and research) 38.8; Children's hospital, 6.6; Administration, 5.4 per cent; grounds and buildings, 5; College of Nursing, 2, and library, 1.2 per cent.

The land, buildings and equipment at Galveston are carried on the books at a valuation of $4,463,346, exclusive of the State Psycopathis hospital which has its valuations carried on books of the State Board of Control, and also exclusive of the recently donated Stewart Convalescent home.

To Move Pharmacy School

The post-war plan calls also for preceptorial centers for health education and research in Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Temple, Wichita Falls and Austin, and particularly with the university's dental school and the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research at Houston; with the Hogg Foundation and College of Pharmacy at Austin, and a child health program under auspices of the William Buchanan Foundation of Texarkana.

There is planned also a school of public health and an institute for the study of old age.

As approved by the regents when they disagreed with President Homer P. Rainey's proposals to move the medical branch to Austin, the College of Pharmacy eventually is to go to Galveston.

ROUND UP DAYS FOR THE TEXAS COW BOYS

The long horns are dissatisfied with good grass and ground feed they began pawing the earth, breaking the fences and walking the range bawling day and night—it is time to cut and brand and turn on short grass and tank water without salt, and the signs would be right next Tuesday 7th. Texas U. Students, Some Professors At Class Under Protest

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.) — While Texans generally were scurrying to the polls today under voting age University of Texas students were still attending classes under protest because of the dismissal of Dr. Homer Price Rainey as president.

In one physics class after a student said attendance was under protest, the professor rejoined that he, too, was there under protest.

A Spanish teacher said students were "acting childish," and a calculus professor defended regents' rights as students took up for Dr. Rainey during half the hour class.

Exercising their talents, music students sung their protect to the teacher.

Other professors praised the students.

Campus leaders were having difficulty booking radio time for speeches in support of Dr. Rainey over one radio network. Policy of the network prohibited discussion of controversial issues unless someone from the opposing side spoke.

Meanwhile, Dr. Rainey continued to occupy the university-owned residence which the president uses. Comptroller C. D. Simons said on approval of acting president T. S. Painter the two-story house has been rented temporarily to Dr. Rainey.

Tom Connally To Be Honored Today In WTCC Luncheon

ABILENE, Nov. 7—Tom Connally, after casting his vote at Marlin, his home town, "will be Abilene-bound," he telephoned the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at noon today. The senior U. S. Senator from Texas tomorrow will be the guest of and luncheon speaker before the WTCC's directors assembly. Reports received at the chambers headquarters indicate that both assembly and luncheon will be overflow affairs. Attending will be the officers and nearly all of the 180 directors from the 145 affiliated towns. Members of various committees and chamber of commerce executives from over the West Texas territory.

Clifford B. Jones of Lubbock, a past president of the WTCC, will be luncheon toastmaster. Connally, during the assembly session, will be presented with a testimonial in the name of the WTCC and the people of West Texas, commending him "for leadership, effectiveness and accomplishments."

At the luncheon he will be given a portfolio showing, in detail, how the West Texas towns have voted in this fall's referendum season on all federal questions contained in the nine-point ballot of policies and activities. The letter of presentation, signed by WTCC President M. C. Ulmer and Manager D. A. Bandeen, will say:

"Here, we think, is a very interesting and unusual manifestation of our unexcelled democracy at work. Even though this referendum was held during the heat of a political election, it nevertheless is wholly non-partisan and is an expression of measures and policies rather than on men and politics. For this reason we know you will give these deliberations your utmost consideration in exercising your potent influence in the United States Congress."

Wily Japanese Trick Patrol Into Ambush

WITH THE 7TH U. S. INFANTRY DIVISION, Leyte, Philippines, (AP) — The Japanese have a bag full of lethal tricks, and Sgt. Ralph Rock and his 20-man patrol met up with one of them in Leyte valley.

Rock and his men, enroute for more ammounition for their for ward battalion, were following a communication wire toward the rear.

Suddenly they spied two enemy heavy machineguns emplaced 50 yards ahead of them. The Japanese had cut the wire and pulled the end of it into their position, to trick the patrol into an ambush.

The Nipponese opened fire, killing two Americans. The patrol replied, knocking off 10 or 12 Japanese. But the Yanks had only small arms, so they infiltrated past the machineguns.

In the series of individual fights, Pvt. Henry Smith of Phillips, Tex., picked off a Japanese who was charging Pfc. Nile Reed, Nuttalburg, W. Va., from the rear with a bayonet. The Nipponese was only 10 feet from Reed when Smith dropped him.

Track Built Around Train Wreck Scene

McALLEN, Tex., Nov. 7. (AP) — Southern Pacific trains arrived in the Rio Grande valley today over a "shoo fly" track built around the scene of a wreck 41 miles north of Edinburg where two trains collided yesterday.

Two persons who suffered minor injuries in the crash, fireman W. G. Rosser, jr., and engineer R. R. Hatch, were reported recovering. They were aboard a Southern Pacific passenger train which crashed into the back of a McAllen-bound freight train in a heavy fog. Rosser was moved to a Houston hospital from a hospital at Alice.

A wrecker was still trying to upright the overturned passenger locomotive.

U. S. Bond, LAAF Grad, Proves That Bonds Do Pay Off

Publicity came easily to U. S. Bond, and Air corps pilot whom Lubbock remembers as one of the outstanding members of Class 42-E, the second LAAF training class. With a name that caught the attention of the entire nation, he had plenty to live up to and the glittering results prove that he did.

Today he's Capt. U. S. Bond, holder of three theater ribbons, four campaign stars, the Air Medal and one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Distinguished Flying Cross, a unit citation ,and a record for having completed 1400 total overseas flying hours. That, as the Axis might say, ain't hay! It places Capt. Bond right on top of the LAAF "Hangar of Fame," an inspiration to fledgling pilots now in training and to his flying compatriots.

"Discovered" in basic training at Randolph Field, Urban Selar Bond, of Wentworth, South Dakota, was adopted by the U. S. Treasury department as a bond salesman during drives in San Antonio and Tulsa. He was "Believe It Or Not" material for Ripley's famous column. His buddies nicknamed him "Defense" but once he got into action probably changed it to "Offense."

Promoted from first lieutenant to captain in November, 1943, Bond was stationed in England, North Africa, Sicily, Italy and India. The American Theater Ribbon was awarded for freight hauling along the North Atlantic air route to England from the U. S.; the European ribbon and stars for his part in the Algerian-Morocco, Tunisian, Sicilian and Italian campaigns; the South east Asiatic ribbon for work in the CBI area. He dropped paratroopers on Sicily at the beginning of that battle, received the Air Medal for his efforts. The DFC became his for completing 200 combat hours in cargo aircraft in the CBI theater.

He's now stationed at Stout Field, Indianapolis, a convincing example of the fact that U. S. Bonds pay off . . . in dividends!

Church Urged To Take Leadership In Negro Aspirations Move

ATLANTA, Nov. 7. (AP)—A recommendation that the church assume leadership in "hastening the fulfillment of the legitimate aspirations of the negro people," was made by a recent conference of church and civic leaders in a report issued by the Southern Regional council.

The conference, called to discuss problems of demobilization, declared that "the basic cause of tension between our white and negro races is the opinion of many white Americans that the negro must permanently occupy an inferior role in American life."

In view of the Democratic, scientific and christian teachings of the "fundamental equality of all mankind, the negro is impelled to strive for full status in American life," the report said, and "we recommend that the church assume its rightful place of leadership."

Small Countries Air Post-War Problems

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—Fear of airborne invasions rather than bombing assaults affects the thinking of European nations in considering postwar aviation, Lord Swinton, British civil air minister, said at a press conference today.

Discussing the security phase of the international civil aviation conference, at which he heads the United Kingdom delegation, Swinton explained that the little countries of Europe were not concerned with the possibility that transport aircraft could be converted to bombers nearly so much as with the demonstrated practice of using commercial types to carry invasion armies.

"Whatever may be the future of civil aviation, in which I am a firm believer," Swinton said, "nobody can doubt that the armies of the future will be very largely carried by air—very much like the civil air transport. That is the basis of their (the small countries of Europe) anxiety about security.

Wool Freight Rate Investigation Asked

DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP)—The War Food administration reported here that WFA Administrator Marvin Jones and Secretary of Agriculture Wickard have petitioned the Interstate Commerce commission to investigate rates on wool "in the grease" bags.

The WFA said the investigation was proposed with a view toward lowering the rates on this commodity and said Jones and Wickard had termed the rates "grossly inequitable."

Twenty-five state public utility commissions and state departments of agriculture joined in endorsing the petition and 41 woolgrowing and marketing groups endorsed the action taken by the department of agriculture and the WFA, the latter agency said. The present petition is a request for reinstatement of an earlier action that was postponed due to variety of war conditions.

In support of its contention that wool freight rates should be lowered, the department of agriculture and the War Food administration will present exhibits on rates and traffic that have been in preparation for more than two years.

Chiang Makes Public Report

(By The Associated Press)

Prospects are "now excellent" for close and effective Chinese-American military, political and economic cooperation, Generalissmo Chiang Kai-Shek said in a message to the Associated Press in response to a request for his views on the situation spotlighted by Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's recall to Washington.

First Public Statement

Making his first statement for publication on the Stilwell incident, Chiang said he believed President Roosevelt's explanation of that matter to be "adequate" and that he had nothing further to add.

He referred to the President's statement, made at a White House news conference on Oct. 31, that Stilwell's recall was due to a clash of personalities between the general and the generalissimo and that it had no connection with matters of strategy or policy in China.

Chiang's message from Chungking was addressed to Kent Cooper, executive director of the Associated Press ,and was received at the New York office of the A. P. yesterday. Its text follows:

"Kent Cooper, 50 Rockefeller Plaza, New York.

"Telegram dated Nov. 1 received Nov. 3. Thank you for expression of interest in this situation. According to press reports received here President Roosevelt already has given adequate explanation General Stilwell's transfer to which I have nothing to add. Prospects effective and close Chinese-American military, political and economic cooperation now excellent."

Mr. Cooper had asked Chiang for his views on the Stilwell case and other elements of the China situation following public discussion of the American general's withdrawal and the publication of stories detailing the background of Chinese-American relations.

Agreements Reached On Harris Co. Well

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—Property and royalty owners in the Bamel gas field, Harris county, have reached agreements to settle disputes that grew out of a well which went wild nearly two years ago, Asst. Atty. Gen. Fagan Dickson said he had been advised today.

He said attorneys for F. M. Corzelius informed him Corzelius planned to deed his lease on which the wild well is located to H. M. Harrell, owner of other property in the field.

In turn, Dickson said he was informed Harrell has agreed to waive damages against Corzelius.

Under the agreement, attorneys plan to ask the Texas Railroad commission Thursday to rescind its order which resulted in the attorney general obtaining a receivership for Corzelius' properties. A receivership asked for Harrell's directional well which was drilled to stop the wild gasser is still pending in district court here.

Dickson said action of the attorney general's department would be determined largely by the commission's decision. He said he understood the well was practically under control now.

Japs Say Superforts Range Over Tokyo

(By The United Press)

Tokyo reported two B-29 Superfortresses over its main homeland island of Honshu, presumably on a reconnaissance flight, today while new destruction was reported from an American carrier plane strike in Manila and liberation of Leyte neared its final phase.

The Japanese radio said the Superfortresses flew over the Kanto area—eastern Honshu, including Tokyo—about 1 p. m. Tokyo time and "fled" south an hour later.

It was the third time Tokyo has reported the big bombers over the Kanto area in the last week and the Japanese home broadcasts have been warning that the reconnaissance flights portend a heavy air offensive against Tokyo and industrial areas of the island.

A Japanese communique claimed Japanese aircraft had attacked American air bases in the Marianas, from which they said the B-29's had flown, and set fire and destroyed more than 20 planes.

Stalin Statement Not Conducive To Soothing Frayed Jap Nerves

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Japanese officials' nerves, already frayed by naval disasters in Philippine waters, can hardly have been soothed by Marshal Stalin's blunt "aggressive" nation reference to Nippon in his Russian revolution anniversary speech.

SIMPSON

Whatever else it might mean, it clearly reasserted Russian approval of Anglo-American proposals for total elimination of Japan as a threat to peace in the Pacific. Tokyo could read into it implications of ultimate Russian participation in that task.

It came, too, at the moment when Tokyo could have small doubt that the war aganst her was about to be stepped up by the British in the Bay of Bengal area. That was the obvious conclusion to be drawn from the American superfortress raid on Singapore, and the fact that the dry Monsoon now is blowing in Indian waters to invite active Allied air and amphibious operations.

May Be Navy Hunt

The Superfortress raid on Britain's former naval base at Singapore may have been directed in part at finding and finishing off Japanese naval ships crippled in the furious air-sea battles precipitated by American invasion of Leyte. Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet carrier planes have been effectively continuing the hunt for those seeking refuge in Philippine harbors including Manila. The moment must be close at hand when General MacArthur's land based ships, taking off from American improved fields on Leyte, will take a hand in that business as well as in blotting out Japanese air power throughout the Philippines.

Aside from the specific objectives of the mission, however, the appearance of the bombers over Singapore, and previously over Rangoon, represents a change in the previous use of this master air weapon. It must be linked with the reported massing of British sea power in the Bay of Bengal and the crushing American blow to the Japanese fleet off the Philippines.

General Says Japs Are Brave But Dumb

WITH THE 24TH DIVISION IN LEYTE VALLEY, Nov. 3. (Delayed). (AP) — If the Japanese soldier were as smart as he is brave, the Leyte valley campaign would not have been completed in 13 days and the Pacific outlook would be a great deal darker than it is, Maj. Gen. Fred Irving of Staunton, Mass., division commander, said today.

The 24th captured strategic Leyte valley, which cut the Japanese forces in two and split their main defense into small groups, giving them the alternative of dying or fleeing into the mountains.

"Individually the Japanese has been a brave fighter in this valley," said General Irving.

"He fights to the death, but here as elsewhere he has proved himself a slow thinker, a poor adapter and a bad planner."

Survey On Teaching Conditions Given To Board Of Education

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (U.P.)—Result of a survey by the Texas State Teachers association on teaching conditions was before the state board of education today for study.

At the board meeting late yesterday, Mrs. Virginia Link, El Paso, and Charles Tennyson, Austin, president and director of the association, said that 6,176 teachers are sub-standard in qualifications required during normal times.

Tennyson said the survey covered 37,000 teaching positions and shows 1,000 teaching vacancies compared with 700 last February.

Teachers are leaving the profession because of low pay, Tennyson said, while others are in the armed service.

Mrs. Link said the association will ask the next legislature for higher salaries for teachers and for an increase in the $25 per capita school aid to local districts per scholastic.

In its capacity as a state vocational board, the meeting named W. R. Cate head of the trade and industrial and distributive education division and Robert A. Manire as the board's executive officer.

Nazis Use Many Air War Gadgets

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP)—The Germans are using jet and rocket propelled planes and various other "newfangled" gadgets against Allied night fighters, Lt. Col. Oris B. Johnson, Natchitoches, La., commander of a P-61 Black Widow group, said today.

"In recent nights we've counted 15 to 20 jet planes," Johnson said. "They sometimes fly in formations of four, but more often they fly alone."

Johnson described a new kind of flak which he said might be a phosphorous bomb.

Large Ball Drips Fire

"It explodes in a large ball of fire at 10,000 feet and I could see drops of fire dripping away from it," he said. "The same ball of fire exploded several times, each time at a lower alttiude. The dripping process followed each explosion," he added.

The Germans also have a trick weapon which sends a dummy airplane into the path of daylight bombers purely for a "psychological" effect.

"It looks like the tail or other part of a plane on fire, but it does no damage," Johnson said. "They merely intend it to get you excited."
